Other cities have good cemeteries, Why not Sanford?

Taking the lead in many ways Sanford is far behind the times in its cemetery facilities. While other Florida cities have looked after this important matter, Sanford has neglected it until today the problem confronts the city and must be solved.

For $300 the city commissioners have purchased ten acres as a site for the proposed cemetery. Now it needs $10,000 for the purpose of developing it, for constructing driveways, for installing a waterworks system, a pavilion and other requisites found in well-kept cemeteries of modern cities.

Money will be returned to the city.

It is the plan of the city to sell cemetery lots to individuals. Soon the city will be fully reimbursed for this expenditure and the cemetery will be self-sustaining. All that is needed now is the money to develop the property as it should be developed and to make it possible for Sanford to have a modern cemetery.

This is a matter which has been agitated by citizens for a long time and now the opportunity is offered to solve it. The necessary money is included in the bond issue which is to be voted upon Monday.

Sanford must continue growing.

To do so it must take every advanced step possible. It's citizens must stick together and work shoulder to shoulder to make this city all it should be. If Sanford is to continue to grow the voters must see that the various bond issues are carried. No backward step should be permitted.

Only a few days remain before the important bond issue of $325,000 will be voted upon. It must be carried if Sanford is to keep its rapid march to prosperity.

The four provisions in the bond issue are all important. Good health first. Modern jail next. Money for paving and then a city cemetery.

Will you help your city grow?

On Monday an Important Bond Issue will be Decided Upon Will you be among the majority voting for better conditions?

BROOKLYN, Sept. 19.—Brooklyn won both games of a double header with St. Louis here Thursday, 7 to 5 and 4 to 2, and advanced to within half a game of the lead when the Giants split with the Cincinnati Reds. The first game went 21 innings, "Dizzy" Vance, Brooklyn's star pitcher, had been knocked out and Grimes had suffered an injury to his right arm when he was hit by a pitched ball. Zach Wheat won the game for the Dodgers with a home run in the 12th, his 14th of the season, with Mitchell on base. Bill Dooder outpitched Dickerman and Dyer in the second game, the Dodgerman being taken out after the Dodgers had gained a two run lead.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The New York Giants divided a double header with Cincinnati Thursday and retained their lead in the National League pennant battle by a half game. The champion dropped the first game to the Reds 5 to 3, but rallied to capture the second, 7 to 5, part of which was witnessed by the Prince of Wales.

It was the Prince's first glimpse of America's national game and he seemed to enjoy it. He stayed less than three innings, however, arriving unexpectedly while the Reds were at bat in the third inning and leaving in the fifth.

A four-run rally in the seventh inning clinched the game for the Reds and drove Howard Hobson, rookie twirler from the mound after he had pitched brilliantly for six innings. Eddie Roach cleared the bases with a triple and scored the fourth run himself on his first single. Adolfo Luque held the Giants to five hits, three of which were made in the first inning.

Jack Bentley and Eppa Rixey left-handed stars, both were hit hard in the second game, the latter being hit by the Giants for 15 safe hits in the seven innings he worked.

Chapman Pitches Air Tight Ball, Holding In Pinches and Fanning Eleven Batters Beasley Scores Orlando Counter

Second Inning Rally Proves To Be Defeat of the Visitors

As the Orlando baseball fans have admitted, the Sanford people were in a "triumphant mood" Thursday afternoon when the local team walloped the team from the City Beautiful by a score of 4 to 1. Orlando won the first game, played on Sept. 17, and yesterday's win for Sanford tied up the series. Clyde Chapman was at his best pitching form and was always "there with the goods" in the pinches. He allowed the visitors only four safeties and during the game fanned 11 of them. In the first and ninth innings, Orlando showed signs of stoniness, a rally but each time the local pitcher was on the job and men were left on bases.

The second was a stonier frame for Orlando when the Sanford team pushed four counters across the plate. To start the session Alford pushed one into right field back of first base and trotted to third when R. Tucker "slam banged" Blunk's head to the key. Tucker sent an Ammons' punt, the latter reaching first safely. Rixey slid one to Cox and Alford was afraid to risk the Orlando center fielder's arm, being onto the hot corner until Dieter could pole a long double into left center after McCall had been walked. The Sanford left fielder's blow scored two of the local runs and the other two fell in when "Choppy" Chapman smacked one through second into right field.

From the second inning on, it was a real evolution of ball ball as it was being declared by nearly everyone who witnessed the game. The contest was played in an hour and 28 minutes, showing that the game was fast and that there was no let up in the play.

The Orlando team made it an ideal threat in the first inning. After Tucker had fanned, Cox batted one into left field, advanced to second when Blunk was walked and made third on Rixey's slow work. But Chapman tightened up the old ball and threw them by. Alford, the managing Orlando pitcher, managed to keep the game from getting out of hand by a simple down to the line. The first out of the fourth Black got a triple off Alford and the fifth, Rixey, advanced to second on scoring the first. Beasley batted one counter, but that was all there was to it as Jim Black's valiant attempt to score in the ninth. In that frame Jim doubled to center to start the affair, dying there when the punch was available.

A brilliant turning catch by Epps of Anderson's line drive in right after it had been caught by the outfielder in the seventh inning, which probably robbed the Orlando player of a possible double, was easily the star fielding event of the afternoon, aside from Chapman's hurling.

Orlando was saved from being blanked when Beasley was successful in stealing home in the ninth inning. The catcher reached first base in that frame when the Sanford first baseman dropped a throw from McCall. He stole second and came very near scoring third, a feat he sent him back to the first base line.

He went on to third when Tucker was thrown out at first and stole home for the Orlando only run. It was a left handed batter was at the plate. The day would have been close, it must be admitted, if Chaper River could have held the ball, which was wildly heaved and properly struck at by Batter Staggard. Had Beasley, the truck, but exposable, as it saved Orlando from suffering a whitewash. Beasley caught a good game for the Sanford team, who allowed but six hits and fanned six men during the fracas.

Center Fielder: Cox starred for the Orlando team with three catches to his credit. A fast double play, McCall, to Tucker. The visitors to an even split in a double header Thursday. After dropping the first game, 6 to 5, the Pirates came back in the second and by a ninth inning rally, won 6 to 3.

Chicago 002 100 012-6 11 4

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The New York Yankees maintained their tie with Washington for the pennant race by defeating the St. Louis Browns Thursday, 2 to 1, in a game that went to ten innings. The Yankees that made a clean sweep of the series here.

The game was scoreless then until the ninth when Bush, pinch hitting for Witt, hit over the left field fence for a home run. Mr. Nally brought up the winning run when he singled. Hoffman, who had doubled, advanced to third and scored on Smith. He, to Johnson, Wagnor allowing two out, batted out and Shawkey pitched.

WASHINGTON NEW YORK REMAIN IN TIE FOR HONORS

Precarious Balance Maintained; Detroit Sees Pennant Hopes Blasted; Pittsburgh Losing in National

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Washington and New York maintained their precarious balance in the peak of the American League Thursday by sweeping victories over Western battlers. As a result the lock-step formation in the National League continued with the Dodgers treading upon the sliding heels of the Giants.

The American League leader left Detroit further in the ruck Thursday when they crushed their Western foes, Washington winning the third straight from Cleveland, 9 to 5, while the Yankees were forced to ten innings to subdue the fighting Browns, 2 to 1. The Tigers virtually saw their pennant hopes blasted by Philadelphia, the Athletics swinging the third straight from the struggling Bengals, 5 to 3.

Brooklyn improved its pennant chances by winning two games from the St. Louis Cardinals, 5 to 4 and 4 to 2, while the Giants split even with the Cincinnati Reds, losing the first game, 5 to 3 but coming back to win the second 7 to 5. The Dodgers now trail the Giants by one half game.

Pittsburgh, fighting frantically to keep in the race, lost ground when forced to split with the Phillies, the Quakers winning the second by a rally in the ninth to 2 to 1. The teams stood Thursday as follows:

history of the canal since it was first advocated some 35 years ago. First on the program was Robert J. Holly, who in addition to speaking upon the merits of the canal, extended thanks and appreciation of the delegation to the city of Jacksonville for its entertainment and for its guarantee of cooperation. He pointed out that there had always been the best of feeling between Sanford and Jacksonville and characterized the relation between the two as "big sister" and "little sister" feeling.

Senator M. O. Overstreet, of Orlando, was the next speaker. He declared that the delegation was seeking the support of the canal because it would open up the rich territory in the state. He declared that now is the time to get action on the project, which has been hanging in the balance for many years. He assured the gathering of Orlando's interest and cooperation although it will not be directly affected by the canal.

A. P. Connelly, vice president of the Central Florida Traffic League, traced different steps which have been taken in behalf of the canal for the past few years. He declared that he believed that the matter had been handled in the wrong way all the way through but that this time it will be carried through according to the demands of the government. He pointed out that a canal of eight feet would answer the needs of the traffic for some time to come and disclaimed any attempt whatsoever to have the project put over by deserting the proposed east coast canal. Both projects, he said, deserve consideration and both should be carried out.

The final speaker was George Parkhill, of Jacksonville, who was introduced as the man more familiar with rivers and harbors work in Florida than any other in the state. He offered as a solution to the problem of securing the canal, that the engineers' survey of the project should be final. He pointed out that this completion of data should be carried on with the hearty support of the citizens and declared that all the lobbying and senatorial work in behalf of the project wouldn't help near as much as cold figures and the endorsement of the engineer.

Mr. Parkhill pointed out that both canal projects were worthy of consideration and explained that Jacksonville had always assumed

Barnes, Nebholtz, Hagan and Kerr In Golf Semi-Finals

FRENCH LICK, Ind., Sept. 19.—Walter Hagan of New York, British open champion, will play Ray Derr of Philadelphia and Jim Barnes of New York, formerly national open champion, will meet Larry Nabholz of Lima, Ohio, in the semi-final round for the national professional golf championship as the result of Thursday's 36 hole matches.

Hagan had considerable difficulty in eliminating John Farrell, of New York, while Derr owes his victory to some of the most startling putting that has been displayed in a long time.

Barnes easily won his way into the semi-finals by defeating Emmett French, Youngstown, Ohio, six and four.

Nabholz kept up his same steady game and eliminated Henry Cule, of New York two and one.
