

Short Forms Make Social Security Law For Domestic Easy To Grasp

ORLANDO, Dec. 3.—(Special)—Now the housewife who hires a maid can breathe more easily. Rumors of elaborate account keeping, report filling, and other time-consuming obligations under social security, are set at rest. Today the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Social Security Administration unwrapped their plan for reporting regular household workers who come under social security on January first. It was a small package.

Paul K. Weaver, manager of the social security office here, displayed a small envelope. In form and in size, it resembled those in use by private insurance companies, magazine circulation departments, and other commercial firms. It is a one-piece, pre-addressed return envelope. There is space on the inner flap for the essential but brief items on the employer's wage, and a pocket for transmitting the social security tax. That's all.

Mr. Weaver estimates that more than 3,000 housewives in Central Florida will need this envelope form. They will be used for making the first reports on regular household employees in April. Under the new Social Security law, household workers who are paid as much as $50 by one employer in the three-month period, January through March (a calendar quarter), and who have worked for that one employer on 24 days or more in that quarter, or the preceding quarter, will have their wages count toward old-age and survivors insurance. The tax to be remitted in the envelope form will be 3 per cent of the worker's cash wages for the three-month period. The housewife may deduct one-half of this (1½ per cent) from her employer's wages. One and one-half percent is her share of the tax.

To illustrate how the envelope report system will work, Mr. Weaver took the case of a housewife who employs one maid on two days a week during the first three months of the coming year. At any time during April, the housewife, he explained, should fill out the envelope which will be already imprinted with the employer's name and address. On one line she will enter the worker's name and social security number, together with the total amount of cash wages paid during the three months. If the wages were $10 per week, and since there are 13 weeks in the three-month period, the total would be $130. The 3 per cent social security tax would amount to $3.90. One-half of this ($1.95) is the worker's share. The employer will match this amount. The total tax of $3.90 is entered on the last line of the form. A check or money order in that amount is put in the pocket of the envelope. With the envelope sealed, stamped, and dropped in the mailbox, the housewife's social security report work is completed until July. No other records will be required. "We are confident that as the household employer and her worker come to realize the mutual advantages of a more secure future for the employee, they will cooperate to make this simple procedure work," declared Mr. Weaver. He feels that it will promote a more stable and lasting employer-employee relationship and believes that this provision of the new social security for the protection of the housemaid, the cook, the hired man, and the landlady is an important step in encouraging domestic employment.

Before Jan. 1, every regularly employed household worker should have a social security account-number card. The social security office is the place to get it. Right away, every housewife should read the booklet, "Do you have a maid?" The back page of this informative booklet is a postage-free post card addressed to the collector of internal revenue. When mailed, it will place her on the list for a March mailing of the envelope report form. "Do You Have a Maid?" may be secured free of charge from the Orlando social security office, the Collector of Internal Revenue, or from any Post Office.

Frost Damage

(Continued from Page One) The previous week, cucumber fields in this area were hurt badly. Produce on the Palmetto Market will be available in fair volume this week with tomatoes and peppers leading. Other commodities moving will be squash, pole beans, eggplant, blackeye peas and cucumbers. Citrus will be the leading commodity on the Sanford Market this week where the packing houses are working full time to supply the demand. Regular supply of celery commenced last week and will continue to increase. Strawberries started moving over the Plant City market in light volume during the past week, however the cold will slow this movement up considerably as considerable damage was suffered to blooms, though reports of damage to fruit of little berries was not available. Florida City Market reported tomato and bean damage very light, though heavy squash da-

Jessup, State Department Ambassador-at-Large; Dean Rusk, Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs; and George Perkins, Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs, and General Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The White House understood Mr. Attlee will be accompanied by Sir Oliver Franks, the British Ambassador; Field Marshal Sir William Slim, Chief of the Imperial General Staff; Sir Roger Makins and Robert H. Scott of the British Foreign Office and Denis H. F. Rickitt, private secretary to Mr. Attlee.

Attlee's big four-engine British airliner "Cathay" rolled up on the National Airport apron where President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson, Defense Secretary Marshall and other officials were waiting at about 9:45.

After the greetings, Attlee made a statement for the newsmen there. He said his aim in the talks with Mr. Truman—"is to align our policies in the new and troubled situation in the world and to find the means of upholding what we both know to be right."

He accused the Communist bloc of trying to "drive a wedge between our two peoples."

A harsh, cold wind, driving low wet clouds swept over the port as the British and American leaders talked for a minute or so before the President returned to his waiting automobile.

In the meantime the British leader had greeted all the American officials he knew, such as Acheson, Marshall and W. Averell Harriman, the President's foreign affairs adviser, and also Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks and other diplomats from the British Commonwealth countries.

Attlee looked jaunty, carrying his black homburg in his left hand and with a spray of white hair in the buttonhole of his black overcoat, when he stepped briskly down the stairs from the plane with hand outstretched to Mr. Truman.

From the airport, President Truman returned to his office where he had an engagement to see Senate Democratic leader Larran of Illinois and other party leaders.

Mr. Truman's schedule for the day also included an early afternoon conference with secretary Acheson. They customarily meet on Mondays to review weekend developments.

This market expects to move into production about the middle of January.

Bonifay State Market sold 3,200 pounds of peppers at its post week's Tuesday sale for a gross return of $9,195. It was the highest price of 32 1/2¢ followed by 29 1/2¢ for Seedlings.

Korean War

(Continued from Page One) that the Eighth Army's retreat eventually might wind up along a defense line around the republic capital of Seoul and its port of Incheon. He said it did not appear possible to set up a line across the peninsula, linking with the scattered 10th corps.

Erickson said Walker apparently was directing a skillful escape from the familiar Chinese envelopment tactics.

Allied fighters and bombers pounded incessantly at the Chinese and remnant Korean Red forces throughout North Korea. So massive were the oncoming Chinese forces, however, that it appeared likely they could power through into South Korea if such a decision was made by the Red high command.

Far behind Allied forces on the East coast, a Chinese force was wheeling from the middle of the peninsula toward the supply port of Wonsan. This thrust threatened to cut off the 10th Corps with its back to the Sea of Japan.

The appearance of more and more Chinese Communists at the front deepened the threat to the entire U. N. position on the peninsula. General MacArthur estimated 400,000 Chinese are in North Korea and along the Yalu River boundary of Red Manchuria. He said another 200,000 Chinese are moving to the area from central China.

Thus, China appeared to have committed one-fourth of her arm strength of some 4,000,000 men to her undeclared war in Korea. MacArthur said preparations for this showing into the U. N. campaign against invading Korean Reds "were made long ago."

In the actual combat areas a Chinese Communist force was estimated at 268,000—with 194,000 in the northwest above Pyongyang and 74,000 in the northeast. President Syngman Rhee in Seoul warned against any compromise with the Chinese Reds. "In the end, we would be in a worse position than ever," the Korean president said.

With the crisis worsening, General J. Lawton Collins—U. S. Chief of Staff—conferred in Tokyo with MacArthur Monday and flew to Korea a few hours later to inspect the withdrawals of U. S. Eighth Army.

The Eighth Army, embracing the U. S. First and Ninth Corps and remnants of the South Korean Second Corps, was moving southward through P'yongyang to new defensive positions. Roads were choked, flames and smoke billowed from military installations destroyed by the U. N. forces to keep them out of Red hands.

Except for rearguards covering the retreat from the former Chongchon river line 10 miles to the north, no ground action in the northwest sector was reported up to midday Monday.

If your drink a glass of orange or grapefruit juice every day you will be sure to get vitamin C you need for good health. Use the canned citrus juice if you like, because oranges and grapefruit are naturally high in Vitamin C and retain most of their vitamin content during the canning process.

Floods Are

On the West Coast, flood waters poured into north central California and western Nevada for the second time in two weeks. The storms and floods caused $25,000,000 in this area two weeks ago.

In southwestern Illinois, the towns of Greenville and Mt. Olive added up a total of more than $750,000 property damage from Saturday tornadoes which killed three persons and injured about 20 others.

The winter hit the area late Saturday afternoon and lasted between 90 and 100 hours. Two women, Mrs. Estel McFarland, 53, and Mrs. Mary Wood, 63, were killed at Greenville, about 50 miles east of St. Louis. Twelve persons were hurt seriously.

At Mt. Olive, Phillip Horn, 69, of Bellwood, Ill., was killed when the tornado flipped his automobile 600 feet off a highway.

The flooding streams in California and Nevada sent about 5,000 persons fleeing from their homes last night. The Yuba, American, Kings, Russian and Ash Rivers all were out of their banks or threatening to break through levees that had not been fully restored since the areas suffered about $25,000,000 damage from the floods only two weeks ago.

The streams began rising during two days of rain in the region, still saturated from the earlier flooding.

Hardest hit was the Linda-Hammon area of California where 3,000 persons were forced to leave their homes. Another 1,000 fled their homes in the northern suburbs of Sacramento, and near Fresno, another 1,600 either

The Truckee River, which flooded the downtown section of Reno two weeks ago again was within five feet of flood stage and rising. National Guardsmen and volunteers worked to sandbag the stream through the city.

A cold wave moving eastward from the Great Lakes region was expected to end the melting of the huge accumulation of snow in Northeastern Ohio for the next 48 hours, at least.

The Federal Weather Bureau in Chicago, said the cold wave would give the near-flooding streams time to recede before any more melting occurred.

Reached near flood stage at many points yesterday after a day of temperatures well above normal for the date.

TUESDAY, DEC. 5, 1950
TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

It was a great man who said he would rather be right than be president. Memory is immortal, and a nasty deed clings to memory like a dead corpse. What is a man profited if he gains the whole world, and lose his own soul?—Matt. 16: 26.

We see where Senator Pepper urges dropping bombs on Red China. But not on old Joe, huh, Claude?

Did you know that out of 37 cities in the United States over 250,000 in population, every single one of them was operating in the red last year?

Berlin Socialists voted two to one against Russian Communists in Monday's election. The Socialists will vote against them, but will they fight against them when the real test comes?

British medical experts estimate that the first atom bomb dropped on London will kill at least 30,000 people, and more if panic ensues. But there is no need to worry about germ warfare, says one of them. "It is extremely doubtful," he says "whether biological agents can, in fact, be distributed so as to produce the required results."

In Groton, Mass. Mrs. Lillian Clapp, age 80, who has been driving a school bus for 52 years, resigned the job today, not because she was getting old. Heavens! No she simply wants to devote more time to her dressmaking shop which has been expanding recently by leaps and bounds. Now, we do not ordinarily recommend the employment of 80 year old bus drivers, but it is refreshing to find someone not ready to retire by the time he is 40.

Herald subscribers may have noticed the conflicting headlines which appeared in last Friday's Herald. On one side of the front page it was said, "Meeting of Big Three Looms as Crisis in Korea Worsens"; on the other another declared "Korean Situation is Far from Desperate". But this conflict in the news which is duplicated these days in dozens of instances merely reflects the confusion which exists everywhere throughout the world in high places as well as low. When the President of the United States cannot hold a press conference on so important a subject as the atom bomb and its probable use, without having his "aid" in the State Department "correct" everything he has said two hours later, it is little wonder smaller fry are sometimes uncertain as to the true course of events in a world gone mad.

British Socialists learn slowly, if they learn at all. Having tried every manner of buffer state against Hitler only to find that they are an open invitation to aggression, having resorted to appeasement again only to discover that it leads to new demands, they now want the United States to appease Communist China, to set up some kind of buffer state in Korea, to accept the aggressors in the United Nations which was designed to prevent aggression, to accord formal recognition to a government which has slaughtered American men and now threatens to drive us out of Korea. But there is an alternative to the appeasement program of Clement Attlee which will not call for further bloody sacrifices from America alone. We can pull out of Korea, withdraw from Japan and Formosa, save our men, but at the same time not give the Chinese Reds anything they would not take anyway. We do not have to recognize them, we can keep them out of the United Nations. We can cut them off from overseas trade with the rest of the world. And they cannot attack us even in Japan or Formosa because they have neither the navy or the air force. And thus we can gain time to get ready for the big war which will come sooner or later anyway.

Finding Common Purpose

The formation of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States is notable as a move toward more effective pooling of the resources of the churches. It may have little visible effect on the individual churches of the 29 denominations involved. But it will be a strong instrument for the operations of these churches in the fields of missions, education and social enterprises. In that way it will be, as frequently stated at the constituting convention, a step toward religious unity in America.

Much depends on what is meant by religious unity. If it means the eventual merging of all churches into one there is little likelihood that it will ever happen. Unless human nature undergoes an abrupt change, probably there will always be many denominations or sects, following different shades of belief on points of doctrine, ritual, organization and methods. Within each denomination and each individual church there are and probably will be many shades of opinion. Some of these differences are trifling, some are fundamental.

But certain purposes are held in common by all Christian churches, and even among Christian, Jewish and other religions. These purposes aim toward the lifting of man in dignity and brotherhood toward the betterment of life and the world. If the churches can join hands to work for their highest aims, differences in the wording of their creeds need not hamper their common labors.

Coal To Newcastle

Great Britain stands third among the nations of the world in its resources and normal production of coal. But Socialist Britain this winter must import coal. This is the third time in 24 years it has been necessary to do so.

The House of Commons was told that the difficulty was not in the amount of coal available in the pits, but in getting the coal above ground. Adverse weather conditions have interfered with mining. Some 22,000 miners have left the coal pits this year for other kinds of work, leaving the mines unable to operate at full capacity even in favorable weather.

Coal is one of those industries nationalized in Great Britain. Presumably nationalization, a fundamental labor program, is supposed to lead toward diversion of more of the profits of industry to the workers. The nationalized coal industry, apparently, is unable to offer sufficient inducements to hold its labor.

Who Writes Those Letters?

Who writes letters to the editor? A new monthly magazine, Speak Up, devoted largely to reprinting letters appearing in newspapers, reports that more than 8,000,000 Americans write letters to editors each year.

Surveying 10,000 letters, Speak Up found that 46 per cent were written by men, 37 per cent by women. The others were anonymous and couldn't be classified.

Clergymen accounted for 23 per cent of the letters from men. Lawyers, civic leaders and minor local officials wrote 21 per cent, active politicians, 18, secretaries of various organizations, 16, disgruntled public servants, 12, and publicity seekers 11 per cent.

Of the women's letters, 42 per cent came from spokesmen for various women's organizations, 28 per cent from teachers, 16 per cent from working women, 14 per cent from housewives.

Some persons seem to think that only cranks write letters to the editor. Long handling of the mail leads us to a different conclusion. Sure, cranks are numbered among the correspondents. But much more frequent are ordinary individuals in all walks of life who are so moved by some event that they take the trouble to put their thoughts on paper.—The Minneapolis Star.

with Communist China.
The thought back of that is this: The Western powers should not be drawn into making a major military effort in the Far East, leaving a weak Europe at the mercy of Russia's Western armies. The developments forming the grim background for the further Truman-Attlee talks today included:

1. Continued rapid advances by the Chinese Communist in Korea. They were reported entering abandoned Pyongyang, the North Korean Red Capital which United Nations forces captured Oct. 29. A defense department spokesman said the U. N. withdrawal was orderly and with "relatively light" casualties in that area—northwestern Korea.

2. Six countries—including the United States, Britain, France—called upon the United Nations Assembly at Lake Success, N. Y., to act immediately to stop Communist China's intervention in Korea.

3. The Chinese Communists were reported to have demanded a "full voice" in any Korean settlement in informal discussions with India's delegate to the United Nations, Sir Bessant Rau.

4. The 12 Atlantic Pact Nations, opening meetings in London, tomorrow, were reported to have reached a compromise on proposals for getting German troops into Western Europe's defense, but the Germans called it "unacceptable."

5. In Congress, there were complaints from some Republicans that the Administration was not consulting them about the crisis.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) called on President Truman to give the country "more information" about the grim international situation.
Mr. Truman made a gesture to the Republicans in invitations to a 1:00 P. M. luncheon resumption of his meetings with Attlee.

Those invited include the top Republicans on the Senate and House foreign committees—Senator Wiley of Wisconsin and Rep. Eaton of New Jersey.
Also invited were such Democrats as Speaker Rayburn of the House, Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee; Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee, and acting chairman Richards (D-DC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The principal advisers to the two heads-of-governments also were invited to the luncheon—home the presidential yacht Williamsburg.

Aside from strictly military questions, the President and Prime Minister were posed with many international political issues by the deterioration of the U. N. position in Korea.

Apparently their principal problem is to prevent the feverish in Korea (A) from causing extreme damage to western power prestige in Asia and (B) from dangerously weakening confidence of the European countries in their ability to build their own defenses.

It was this two-sided problem which pointed them toward a decision that the way to offset the defeat in Korea is to greatly expand and speed up the rearmament of Western Europe.

Sanford Forum

Editor, Sanford Herald
I would like to bring the public attention to the facts in the case "of mistreatment to in-mates at the county home," which I was asked to present to the commissioners Nov. 9.

These charges—each and every one have been thoroughly checked and re-checked; I produced the witnesses and will produce three more on Tues. Dec. 5.

Regardless of all other facts—THE issue still remains the same that these in-mates WERE ACCEPTED AND PLACED IN THE HOME BY THE WELFARE AND COMMISSIONERS and there fore under NO CONDITION should any of them be ABUSED in any way, MENTALLY OR PHYSICALLY—WHICH HAS POSITIVELY BEEN THE CASE.

For the public information—that the aged and infirmed may be helped in time of misfortune and need—BUT NOT MISTREATED.

The county should be proud of a well maintained home for its aged and not allow it to become only a pause between a prison and the grave. This is the second great tragedy to befall the needy in less than a year.

For the public information—there is no age limit or discrimination as to who goes to the home. It is maintained BY THE TAXPAYERS MONEY for the benefit of the community of SEMINOLE COUNTY and not by the commissioners or the welfare.

The Supt. of the home received $185.00 per mo. plus an apt. and all living expenses—His wife, the matron, received $65.00 per mo. making an income of $250.00 above all expenses. This income— all told, with food and apt. plus a $100.00 raise—brings an income to well over $350.00 per mo. THINK OF THIS ?

I consider it a handsome salary, for people—NOT TRAINED and of little schooling, (and its no wonder they are now fighting to retain it) yet as a reward for their first mistreatment—the Supt. was raised $50.00 in June—(he having struck an aged male in-mate); a week later the matron demanded a raise of $50.00 and received it. The commissioners knew of this first incident (at the time of the raise: THEN WHY ? ? ?) should these people have gotten this raise ? ? ? (they have been given three raises in the short time they have been there). With this salary the Supt. and the matron were allotted $60.00 for a maid, $50.00 for a cook, $50.00 for a gardener, to say nothing of the grocery bill to run this small home—also pay for 16 feeble little inmates and there are dozens more waiting cases walking the streets and begging for help.

Does it take great intellect to understand where all the money is going and the needy so neglected?

The county cemetery when comes under the home was so overgrown you could not find the graves—most of them unmarked and forgotten and in, which is indeed disgraceful.
THE FOOD—the aged could not assimilate, because it was a semi-soft diet, adjustable to the infirmities of old age, for instance—one night the in-mates received a can of sardines and two slices of dry bread—ARE you surprised why they are dying off so fast ? ?

I have inspected the home on numerous occasions in the past year. I have taken matters brought to me at different intervals of time to one of the commissioners—under whose care the home was placed.

These complaints were from the in-mates themselves and a few outsiders, they consisted mostly of the food—Ration— and the cemetery and several of the colored in-mates, being shaken, threatened and chastized by the matron (some of them leaving immediately) this commissioner, met me WITH FULL CO-OPERATION AND HAD THESE SMALL MATTERS ADJUSTED IMMEDIATELY. BUT these last two cases—I felt were of too great a magnitude to be dealt with by one person so I placed it before the entire commission, as matters could NOT GO ON ANY LONGER LIKE THIS. Never did I bring up the issue of how the home was kept—from all outward appearances, it seemed clean and I found the infirmary in nice order and I told Rachel so—but THE FOOD DEFINITELY WAS NOT THE TYPE (especially the night meals) for aged people, and the in-mates complained they "DID NOT GET ENOUGH FOOD TO EAT."

Summing things up, you have First the commissioners cared, Second where they could not make a move—and it had to be done—alright—one mistake—but why then wait 4 1/2 months before taking any action, allowing the second beating to occur and still make no effort to secure a new Supt. Is this sensible? WHAT IS THE PUBLIC TO THINK OF SUCH ? ? ? The taxpayers are indeed fed-up on such and will not be subjected much longer to such administration to the needy—

Once an in-mate is accepted—their past and all hardships should be forgotten to them—and not looked at every turn with mistreatment—the attitude—that they are subjects of charity and should be grateful to lick a bone and keep quiet—and then beaten because they cut their hair or their religion does not coincide with the matrons. Such incidents as these CAN NOT BE OCCURRING SO FREQUENTLY with out great damage to the city and county.

THE NEEDY ARE—OUR CHARGE—DON'T FAIL THEM. I would suggest to all the "DOUBTING THOMASES" to come to the meeting Tues. Dec. 5 and hear for your selves. I am sure that every one will agree (who were really interested enough to attend them on the 4 and heard the witness and the testimony) that the ENTIRE commission (excepting one which was to be expected) were solidly behind me on this issue.

So let's not waste "persons" and mistreat them—and co-operate for a better Haven for our aged loved ones—REMEMBERING—THEY too each have a soul.

Guess you'll have heard that Ed McKinley is really a scoundrel—Walter Routh's Inner Man! That's the name of the Junior Play that will be performed Friday night, Dec. 8. "Inner Willy" is a three act play, crammed full of laughs. Don't miss this wonderful Junior Play! Only 35 cents for students and 40 cents for adults. Low rates, plenty of jokes that will keep you laughing to the finish! At the S. H. S. auditorium this coming weekend. Invite your parents and relatives, neighbors and boy-friends, just be sure and make it a date! Time will be at 8:15. Don't be late!

I'm awfully sorry about some mistaken information concerning the Celery Cate that was in the paper Friday evening. The students do not and never have played poker Saturday evenings. So please, if you read it otherwise, don't misinterpret the facts. Under the supervision of Mrs. Holtzclaw and Ann Whitaker, who is president, our recreation center has become an enjoyable and respectable weekend get-together. With Christmas will come another edition of the Celery Cate. The Vacuum Cleaner by Rachel Ewert better than before! You'll love those jokes and don't forget Johnson and Linda Leonard crammed full of juicy gossip! Give 15 cents and get a real treat!

To start the holiday parties off with a bang will be the Key Club Ball, held at the Armory, a week from this coming Friday night!

Sites

Fred Wilson, member of the Board of Finance board of trustees, stated this morning that the federal government has withdrawn its grant of 40 percent of the construction cost of new hospitals.

Mr. McKibbin declared today that the City Commission hopes that a sufficiently sizeable site may be secured for a hospital to allow for future expansion and provide for roomy, landscaped grounds.

The Commission authorized financing of alterations at the Tourist Center for placing of the office of Manager Ed Whitney in larger quarters in the present building.

This should be a really wonderful dance! The dress is optional; most of the girls are thinking about going semi-formal. I'll begin at 7:30. Be sure to get there on time! You won't want to miss any of it! The price is only 75 cents, stag or drag. Make it ding and have more people, more fun! Remember this all important date, Dec. 15!

In a line or two related to that familiar subject gossip is the fact that Edson Meyers has been paying close attention to a certain Summerville with the initials B. R. while she doesn't seem to interest in a graduate that we thought was awfully cute!

Looking up on your memo pad will be Dec. 12 and the first basketball game, out of town! We'll play Euclid that night and we have our boys' some encouragement. Let them know we're cheering for 'em! In case you don't know all of the fellows on the team here they are: Jerrald Covington, Jimmy Smith, Garret White, Wise Harden, Clarence Clause, Dennis Stafford, and Lloyd Reynolds. These boys are the ones that so far, will be leading it out against Euclid. There will be a second team, too. Their names will be in later. Coach F. Gannas has begun and will finish, we are sure, with a really fine team!

That's all for tonight. I'll be seen around Friday with some more chat about S. H. S.

1000,000 would go for "communal-type" shelters with the federal government and the states sharing the cost equally. The remainder would be earmarked for administrative expenses, heavy equipment, stockpiles of critically-needed materials, and communications.

Of the shelter figure Wadsworth said that "to do less might well result in no shelters or in shelters completely inadequate to cope with the atom bomb."

Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), the committee chairman, called the $3,100,000,000 "realistic," but Chamber of Commerce meeting room. The present Chamber of Commerce offices will be turned over to the Florida Wildlife Federation for their state headquarters.

Cecil R. Gray was given an extension of 90 days in which to start work on a new home on the lakefront between Scott and Virginia Avenues.

Some 600 mayors and city officials prepared, meanwhile, to urge Congress to act this year on basic civil defense legislation. Delegates to the annual meeting of the American municipal association appeared to be nearly unanimous in support of a resolution calling for speed.

The daily diet of cap-tant mothers should include a quart of milk, citrus fruit, vegetables, whole grain cereal and bread, an egg, meat or fish, and a source of vitamin D.

W. O. Bridges was awarded a contract to build two shuffleboard courts adjoining the 10 present courts, on which refinishing work has been completed by the Burke Sanding Co., Orlando. The area around the courts has been paved, said Mr. McKibbin.

A public hearing was set for Jan. 8 for discussion of the rezoning for commercial use on the south side of Twenty-fifth Street between Sanford Avenue and Park Avenue to a depth of 100 feet.

Pittsburg May Keep Billy Meyer As Pirate Manager During 1950

By JOE REICHLER
ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 5—(AP)—The last undetermined managerial post in the major leagues is expected to be settled Thursday when Pittsburgh general manager Branch Rickey and the incumbent pilot Billy Meyer meet here.

Indications are that the 57-year-old Meyer is to be retained for the 1951 season at least, after which his three-year contract calling for $40,000 per annum is at an end.

With a minimum of action taking place at the 40th minor league convention aside from the player draft—the Pittsburgh managerial guessing game was the chief topic of conversation among the 2,000 baseball men meeting here.

There are three solid reasons to back up the probability that Meyer will be back for his fourth year at Pittsburgh despite a last place finish in 1950 and a sweeping change in the front office from ownership down.

1. Meyer has been told to leave his Knoxville, Tenn., home to meet with Rickey at St. Petersburg Thursday. Rickey is en route here from New York. It was felt that you don't call a man hundreds of miles from home to tell him he is fired.

2. A New York Yankee official confided that Meyer was Kansas City's first choice to succeed Joe

Sister's Advice Proves Helpful To Mrs. Macaure

Mrs. J. P. Macaure, 408 Madison St., New Orleans, La., can't imagine a person not taking HADACOL who is sick and run-down due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. She says she continually sings the praises of HADACOL to all her friends. Mrs. Macaure was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Macaure's own statement: "I have taken at least 5 bottles of HADACOL. Before I took HADACOL, I was very nervous. My family was affected, too, because I was so irritable. Then my sister suggested I take HADACOL and I started taking it immediately. After the second bottle I felt like I had taken all the troubles of the world off my shoulders. My nerves are now as steady as ever. My family thinks HADACOL is wonderful because my disposition is 100% better and I am not the least bit irritable. That's because I always have a bottle of HADACOL on the kitchen shelf. HADACOL is the most wonderful product on the market."

Annual Open Field Trials Open With Cast Of Foxhounds

FLORENCE, Ala., Dec. 5—(AP)—Approximately 80 fine foxhounds were put down at daybreak today in the first cast of the annual United States Open Field Trials.

The entire pack will run grueling five-hour heats each day through Friday with 15 judges following on horseback to keep a close check on the leaders. The trials are run at nearby Roger'sville.

Three hounds held major interest at the opening of the four-day event.

They were Dr. Luke, winner of second place in the all-age in the recent National Field Trials at Dawson, Ky.; Fine Ridge White Lady, litter mate of last year's winner here; and Buck Bramham, Jr., son of a former champion.

South Is Assured Of Rugged Line For Blue-Gray Battle

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 5—(AP)—The Southern line for the 13th annual Blue-Gray football game got a heavy anchor today as four Tulane Greenvies, all weighing more than 200 pounds, joined the Gray squad.

Blue-Gray officials also announced that Tom Banks, star Auburn guard who was named to the All-SEC third team, would play for the Rebels.

Three of the Tulane linemen are tackles and the other a guard. The group includes another all-sectional player, tackle Paul Lea, 225, who was chosen to the all-SEC team.

Besides Lea, Tulane is sending Don Joyce, 220, and Dan Rogas, 216, the other two tackles, and 207-pound guard Dennis Doyle.

Ohio State Court Team Loses First Contest Of Season

NEW YORK, Dec. 5—(AP)—Ohio State's basketball Buckeyes, riddle by graduation losses, today faced a stiff battle to retain their Big Ten crown.

Last season the Bucks ranked No. 2 in the final Associated Press poll, behind Bradley University, but gone from Ohio State's championship squad are All-America Dick Schmitzer and a host of other fine players. Only two lettermen are back.

The Buckeyes' difficulties came to light last night in Columbus, where they dropped their opening game to Kansas State, 69 to 57.

After gaining a 35-32 halftime edge, Kansas State coupled a fast break with its height advantage to pull away in the final 20 minutes. Ed Head, with 16 points, paced the winners' attack.

At Lawrence, Kas., Phog Allen unveiled his power-laden Kansas team—and it did everything that was expected. The Big Seven favorites played under wraps all the way in defeating Creighton University, 51 to 35.

Champion Ezzard Charles Battles Ex-Marine Nick Barone For Title

CINCINNATI, Dec. 5—(AP)—Heavyweight Champion Ezzard Charles lays his title on the line for the fifth time tonight, in a 15-rounder with Nick Barone, sturdy slugger from Syracuse.

The guessers have a hunch the 29-year-old Cincinnati Negro isn't taking too much of a risk with the precious bauble, and have installed him as a solid 5-1 favorite.

The wizards of odds declare the challenger has never met anyone looting the all-around class of the current king. But the New Yorker, a 24-year-old ex-Marine with plenty of hot action in the Pacific, is no novice.

In 62 fights he has never been off his feet. He has knocked out 21 opponents, and has lost but five bouts—four by decision and one on a TKO when the referee stopped it after Barone suffered a cut near his eye.

This is Charles' first appearance since outpointing former champ Joe Louis in September. The Mahanoba of the heavier is getting 42 1/2 per cent of the gate, with no guarantee, and he doesn't expect too hefty a payday since the gross is expected to be around $50,000. Barone gets 12 1/2 per cent.

The rival camps have handled a bit of conversation back and forth since a snow storm forced postponement of the bout a week ago, and now it's up to the gladiators to stop it after Barone suffered a cut near his eye.

CHICAGO HOODLUMS MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 5—(AP)—A task force of Chicago hoodlums who said they were on their first raid South were arrested in a roadhouse near here early today and charged with a daring holdup of a gambling house near Bhalia, Miss.

The six were arrested shortly after midnight by Tennessee Highway Patrolmen as their car pulled up to the Colony Club just over the county line from Memphis.

Four hours earlier, Patrol Captain W. E. Crawford said they had taken over the Kennel Club near Bhalia and held it more than four hours, robbing customers as they came in.

Mississippi Highway Patrol reports on the holdup at first said the men escaped with between $40,000 and $50,000. A count of "loot" recovered, however, placed the total nearer $10,000.

The money, found in the men's car, was in four money bags and a pillow case.

Christmas Parade

Christmas parade... Little Miss Muffet will ride right behind the huge spider that sat down "beside". Other kiddies will ride in yellow petal covered airplanes, in silver and white sail boats, blue and white motor boats, and some will appear in chariots drawn by white horses, by eagles and unicorns.

Last winter there were two bands in the parade, but this year there will be four including the green clad Stetson University Band, the Winter Park High School Band, the Seminole High School Band and the Orlando High School Band which will be near Santa Claus. He will serenade him with Christmas hymns.

Climaxing the parade will be the big reception to be held by Santa Claus afterward in Fort Mellon Park. He will be at the Tourist Center. There he will distribute 3,000 bags of candy as gifts to the children, and to prevent confusion the candy will be distributed from five tables, everyone taking place in one of five or more lines.

Much fun in the parade will be provided by a real merry-go-round and a ferris wheel in which kiddies will be riding. After the parade the merry-go-round rides in front of Yowell's.

Volusia county is entering the fun, and floats from Plantation Estates and Miller Acres will be entered in the parade, and many kiddies are due to be here from Enterprise, Osteen and Deltona.

House Committee

House committee... price controls may become necessary.

"I think the American people hold the answer," he said, adding it will depend pretty much on the self-discipline exercised by industry, labor and agriculture.

Di Salle, who plans to resign as mayor of Sanford, said he had not yet had time to familiarize himself with the price situation.

Asked by newsmen whether he intended to move slowly in reaching decisions about price control, Di Salle said that on the contrary "I am going to have to move swiftly."

Senator Long (D-La.) commented at the hearing that the time to do something about rising prices would seem to be right now, rather than "waiting until the house is on fire."

Di Salle, who plans to resign challenge of the situation. He said he wanted to assure the committee "we'll do everything possible to get the program moving as quickly as possible."

Di Salle added that in his opinion people generally are expecting some sort of controls, "but like on taxes, they want them on somebody else."

Missouri Man Advises Folks Who Feel Bad

Carl Schaffrin, 217 Perry St., St. Charles, Mo., says there are some folks in this old world who feel good and other folks who feel bad. He says he feels good because he has HADACOL.

Here is what Mr. Schaffrin has to say about HADACOL since it overcame the effects of such deficiencies in his system: "I have been a shoe cutter for over 32 years—I now work for the Boyd Welsh Shoe Co. in St. Louis. For quite some time now I haven't had any appetite at all—seemed like I didn't have enough energy to do my work. I was tired all the time—and really didn't enjoy doing anything. It affected my work too. Then I heard my other folks who took HADACOL had increased their appetite and seemed to have a limitless amount of energy. I tried HADACOL and it is amazing what a change it has made. Now I feel like eating everything on the table, my disposition is 100% better and my work—in fact, everything I do I now enjoy. For an entirely new outlook on life I recommend HADACOL."

Try HADACOL today. Trial size bottle costs only $1.25. Large bottle $3.50. Buy at your local drug store or hospital store. $1.50. Refuse substitutes. There's only one true and genuine HADACOL. If you're a druggist, order direct from The Lelliane Corp., Lafayette, La. 70503. The Lelliane Corporation, Adv.

The Advertising Committee of the Chamber of Commerce makes arrangements for the visit here of 30 New York writers and photographers. Studying the program of activities are, seated around the table, Holland Dean, chairman; Frank Shames, President of Florida Fashion; Max Vogel, of the New York advertising agency Charles Martin; Mayfair manager; and H. James East, president of the Chamber of Commerce; standing, Ed Whitney, George Touhy, Clifford McKibbin, and Frank Melane, Jr.

County Home

County home... Board, thanked Dr. Brooks and the committee for their work, and asked them to serve in the interests of the County Home for a year. The members agreed, including Mrs. R. S. Bradford, Altamonte Springs; Mrs. B. B. Crumley and Ben Jones, Oviedo; Dr. Frank Gullman, another member was absent.

In a statement pending the final vote, Mr. Pope declared, "I do not feel that the Grand Jury or State Attorney would be able to develop any more information than that already developed by the Board or Advisory Committee."

"I do not feel that the case against Mr. and Mrs. Ballew has been proven," he added. However, I do not feel that it is to the best interest of the County to continue them as superintendent and treasurer of the County Home. I recommend that their recognition be requested as of Dec. 31."

The report of the committee revealed that members found the home in good condition, the building and rooms clean and fairly comfortable, and no complaints regarding their physical condition. Food at a noon-time meal was found good and plentiful.

Pointing out that no one has a right to impose his or her religious ideas on any inmates, it was recommended that religious life of the inmates be provided for, however, and be placed under direction of three pastors of three different denominations with appointment annually.

L. F. Boyle, attorney for the Board, pointed out that matters resulting from Grand Jury action are of a criminal nature, or if they think the County Commission is guilty of malfeasance, there is no use of a Grand Jury investigation, he added.

Mrs. Eleanor Ravenel, who had originally introduced charges against the Ballews in the case of a resident of the Home, Mrs. J. D. Larson, said that she had been advised by attorneys that there was a basis for prosecution in the case, which was dropped however, for lack of funds to carry on.

The report of the citizens' committee in full was as follows: "To the Board of County Commissioners, Seminole County, Fla.

"We, the committee appointed to study the conditions at the County Home, herewith submit our report: "We have made a first hand study of the conditions at the home in as thorough a manner possible to this committee. And we have followed only facts—rather than rumor or hearsay.

"We found the physical property of the home in good condition. The building and rooms were clean at the time and fairly comfortable. We questioned the inmates and no one made any complaints whatsoever as to their physical comfort.

"We checked the food at the noon-day meal—at that time we found the food good and plentiful. The country has been cleaned off and we trust will be kept in a good condition.

"The home is not a religious institution—but a county institution. No one has any right whatsoever to try to impose his or her religious ideas upon any of the inmates. However, the religious life and activities of the inmates should be provided for—to that end we recommend that this phase of the life of the home be placed under the direction of a committee of three pastors of the County, pastors of different denominations, selected on a county-wide basis and appointed annually. That these pastors seek the cooperation of any and all the various churches of the County.

"As to the face-slapping incident and other alleged mistreatment—we investigated from two sources: first—inside the home and second—outside the home.

"1) Inside the home. We investigated there from three sources: (a) We questioned Mr. and Mrs. Ballew, the manager and his wife, who emphatically denied all of the charges made against them. (b) We questioned privately the inmates of the home and no one of them saw any such incident—according to their testimony. (c) We questioned Mrs. Joe Larsen, the one who brought the accusation of mistreatment. She was in her room in bed. The committee went to her room, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ballew. The chairman of the committee asked the question, 'Mrs. Larsen are you the one who has some trouble here in the home, I believe.' Mrs. Larsen covered her face and refused to answer. A little later the two ladies of the committee—Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Crumley, returned to Mrs. Larsen's room and had a brief visit with her—she was still being present. In reply to a direct question from these ladies, 'Did Mrs. Ballew slap you?' Mrs. Larsen replied, 'I do not want to talk about it' and 'I can't remember.' The above represent the facts in the investigation at the home.

"2) We investigated the alleged mistreatment from sources outside the home. Here we ran into rumor and counter-rumor, accusation and counter-accusation. The people of the County however are very much concerned about the whole matter. Now—our comments:

"(1) That the Board of County Commissioners ask the State's Attorney to make a full and thorough investigation of the home; that he subpoena witnesses and take sworn testimony not only from those in the home but also from any and all others outside of the home who appear to know anything that would contribute to the solution of this affair.

"And that he investigate the entire operation of the home as this is a public institution, supported by the tax-payers of the County. We feel that this investigation is a necessity for the sake of all concerned, for the sake of the reputation of the home, and for the sake of the reputation of the County itself.

"We feel that since this affair has received so much publicity and that since other reports of other alleged mistreatments have been rumored since this affair has been publicized; that since the home has had trouble of some kind during the past several years, the time has come for some healthily constituted authority to step in and with the due processes of law try to find the facts. And we feel that no innocent person has any thing to fear from such an investigation. We recommend therefore that the Board of County Commissioners ask the State's Attorney to make such an investigation and turn his findings over to the Board of County Commissioners and also over to the Grand Jury of the County for such action as may be deemed necessary.

"We, of the committee, are of the opinion that Mrs. Joe Larsen should be placed in another type of institution—a hospital or nursing home—where she might receive some special treatment that might help her to regain her health.

"We further recommend that the Board of County Commissioners appoint on an annual basis an Advisory Board for the home. That this Advisory Board be composed of at least five persons from different parts of the County; that at least two of these be ladies and that this Advisory Board be composed of new people each year. This Advisory Board is to make visits to the home from time to time and report back to the Board of County Commissioners.

"We realize that although the Commissioners designate one of their number to look after the operation of the home, yet it would have a very good reaction on the home if the entire group of Commissioners will visit the home from time to time.

"We further recommend that a study be made of the methods, plans, procedure, finances, etc. of the other counties of the State and also of other states in their care of the needy, old, and helpless. To see if the efficiency of this home here can be increased and the good it does enlarged. In other words to see if we are getting our money's worth.

"We further recommend a few incidents: "More furniture for the living room. "Some shelves for books and magazines to be placed in the living room. That a deep freeze outfit be provided for the home to help give a more varied diet and for economy in handling food.

Respectfully submitted, "W. P. Brooks, Jr., Chairman." Dec. 4, 1950

Committee: W. P. Brooks, Jr., Mrs. H. B. Crumley, Dr. F. L. Gullman, Mr. Ben Jones, Mrs. Grace L. Bradford.

Israel's Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett said today he had only a brief conversation with Wu and considered the meeting "only a clearing of the way in the situation. It did not result itself in going one step farther toward a solution," he said.

Israel does not have diplomatic representatives in Peking despite representation of the Peiping regime and there is no chance for the Israeli to conduct negotiations directly for peace with the Chinese, as the Indian minister has been doing, that there is no plan now to ask for a diplomatic exchange. "That depends on whether there will be peace," he said. He made little of the role that Israel could play now for peace in the Far East.

Red Chinese Tuesday afternoon at Kokyan, 50 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

AP correspondent O. H. P. King reported from Seoul that a stand might be made thereabouts. He quoted a veteran military observer:

"Even in the face of a million Chinese Communists the Seoul-Inchon area can be held. Such heavy losses could be inflicted on the enemy by artillery and air that his hopes of sweeping the peninsula would be completely smashed."

But correspondent King also quoted a contrary opinion that said: "Let's face it. Someone outside Korea must come to our rescue if we are to stay."

The Chinese Reds swept across Pyongyang airfield before entering the city.

Only 13 days ago the Allied Eighth Army now in flight was driving northward within 50 miles of the Manchurian border.

In the northeast, Marines and doughboys fought to break out of a deep Red Chinese trap south of Changjin Reservoir. Chinese masses mounted twin drives to cut off the entire 10th Corps of three American and two South Korean divisions.

The most threatening of these was aimed at Hamhung. Chinese struck at highfall Tuesday against U. S. Third Division troops near Sinpung, 15 air miles west of the big industrial city.

Thousands of Korean civilians were streaming south from the area north of Hamhung.

On the northwest front, there was no major contact reported with the Chinese. The Eighth Army's retreat on wheels was too fast for the foot-slogging Chinese.

One small engagement was reported on the Eighth Army's left flank, south of Pyongyang.

There was no indication as to where or when the Eighth Army would make a stand. AP Correspondent Lief Erickson, at Eighth Army Headquarters, suggested it might go all the way to the Seoul-Inchon area in South Korea, 165 road miles south of Pyongyang.

The Eighth Army faced the mounting threat of a flanking move by Chinese swarming down the rugged and lightly defended center of the Korean peninsula.

Allied planes reported hammering a 2,000-man concentration of Red Chinese Tuesday afternoon at Kokyan, 50 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

Eighth Army headquarters said this force posed a potential enveloping threat to Allied troops in the area. The Chinese force was only 35 miles from the retreat route of the Eighth Army.

Guerrillas mounted harassing attacks for another 50 miles south of Hukuan.

General MacArthur's headquarters said guerrillas had stepped up attacks so sharply that it was impossible to fix the forward line of the Chinese advance.

But the Chinese were rolling southward all across the Korean peninsula.

Air observers reported a rising tempo in both rail and road movements of Red troops from the Manchurian border.

On a 30-mile-long convoy was sighted moving toward Changjin Reservoir in north central Korea. A spokesman estimated this Chinese Division—up to 20,000 troops—toward the area where First Division Marines and Seventh Division doughboys are trapped.

Night-flying B-26 light bombers hammered at the long enemy convoy which wound steadily south with lights blazing.

The Fifth Air Force said its planes were making a dead trap of the Taedong River north of Pyongyang.

Maj. General Earle E. Partridge, Fifth Air Force commander, said F-80 Shooting Star jets caught masses of Chinese trying to ford the river Tuesday and killed 2,000. The Fifth flew 302 sorties—more than two-thirds made in close support of the retreating Eighth Army.

Its planes hit the devastated rail yards at Pyongyang, rocketing and fire-bombing supplies the Eighth Army had left behind, and struck a Red ammunition train near there. B-2 superforts bombed the Kanggye area, an avenue for Chinese forces swarming into Korea and reported center of the Red Korean high command.

As U. N. troops left Pyongyang, terrified Korean civilians also abandoned the city.

One small engagement was reported on the Eighth Army's left flank, south of Pyongyang.

There was no indication as to where or when the Eighth Army would make a stand. AP Correspondent Lief Erickson, at Eighth Army Headquarters, suggested it might go all the way to the Seoul-Inchon area in South Korea, 165 road miles south of Pyongyang.

The Eighth Army faced the mounting threat of a flanking move by Chinese swarming down the rugged and lightly defended

Eighth Army Digs In North Of Seoul; Losses Are Heavy

Marines Fight Toward Port City As Reds Attempt To Close Last Escape Route

TOKYO, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Allied Eighth Army forces halted their mass retreat south from Pyongyang today and dug in for a new western Korean stand against the onrushing armies of Red China.

General MacArthur's headquarters kept secret the locations of the new line. The Americans, South Koreans, British and Turks of the Eighth Army with their better transport had outlived the Chinese and every hour was vital in bulwarking their new positions.

A spokesman said only that the line ran from a point south of Pyongyang in positions south and east.

There were indications the new line might be somewhere near Parallel 38, the old border between Red North and Republican South Korea. South Korean forces swept into hill country to clean out guerrillas near Silyon, a hamlet 70 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

General J. Lawton Collins, U.S. Army chief of staff on a flying visit in Korea for close range study of the military situation, said: "I think the Eighth Army is capable of taking care of itself."

At a news conference in Seoul, he told war correspondents morale was high among troops he had seen. He flew to the area just south of Pyongyang.

The Chief of Staff said he could see no worthwhile tactical use for the atom bomb in Korea. Collins planned a flight Wednesday to the northeast front, where 100,000 Chinese were making a vast enveloping move around five scattered Allied divisions of the U.S. 10th Corps.

One Chinese spearhead already had cut the main highway to Seoul.

Many business firms and individuals are donating merchandise and food products for the auction and the list is growing rapidly, said Mr. Sharrock.

Among those making donations are Florida Parsons with dresses, the San Juan Hotel, Orlando, with furniture, Barney Beck is presenting a dressed hog, citrus fruits and vegetables are being given by Sanford Fruit Co., Kattner and Roberts, Southward Fruit Co., Chase and Co., and W. A. Patrick.

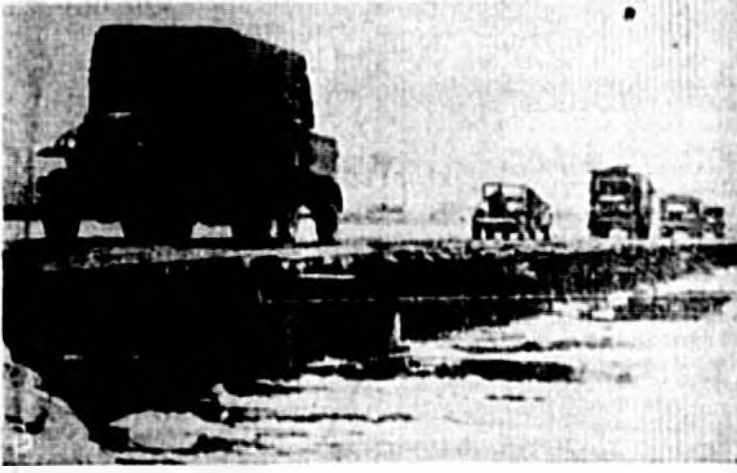

Small craft warnings were issued around the Florida peninsula and northward to Wilmington, N. C., at 9:30 A.M. today for winds up to 35 miles per hour.

The Weather Bureau issued three small craft warnings for the coastal area.

Truman And Attlee Agree On Big Increase In Production; Vishinsky Raps Peace Appeal

Russian Says China Wants Peace But UN Forces Must Get Out Of Korea

LAKE SUCCESS, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Russia's Andrei Vishinsky today denied a direct appeal by U. S. and Middle East countries to Peking to halt its forces at the 38th Parallel in Korea.

He spoke before the UN Assembly, which soon afterward voted 31 to 5 (Soviet bloc) to place on its emergency program a resolution designed to halt Communist Chinese intervention.

Vishinsky said Red China and its people want peace, but that it must come after the withdrawal of UN forces from Korea.

The six-power resolution, very much the same as the one voted by the Security Council last Thursday, calls for withdrawal of Chinese Communist troops from Korea. It was circulated to UN members shortly after the emergency assembly session.

The resolution reaffirms that UN forces will not remain in Korea any longer than to set it up as a unified independent nation.

It calls on all states to refrain from assisting North Korean forces. It promises to keep the Korean-Chinese border inviolate.

Continued intervention of Chinese forces in Korea, the resolution states, endangers legitimate Chinese and Korean interests in the frontier zone as well as international peace and security.

As the resolution was made public, Abdel Rahman Azam Daba, secretary-general of the Arab League, said he had asked Secretary General Trygve Lie to call for a 30-day truce in Korea as a step to peace.

The six-power resolution, one UN source said, proves the solidarity of the Big Five. The powers in the situation. They are holding together, he said, at a time when President Truman and Britain's Prime Minister Attlee are reaching agreement in Washington.

The visitors were presented with oranges and strung a nice surprise by handing out Virginia apples. At the State Market they got an earful of protest against the Virginia highway department's $10,000 pound ceiling on produce trucks which has allegedly put a crimp in truck produce shipments from Florida to northern markets, said Mr. Whitney.

Americans Refuse To Surrender Though Outnumbered By Chinese

By TOM STONE
NORTHEAST FRONT, Korea, Dec. 6.—(AP)—A square-jawed Marine military policeman held the lens board of a press camera in the palm of his hand.

"This is Frank Noel," he said. "Hold on to it for him."

The Marine, Pfc. William F. Spain, 22, of Georgetown, Tex., was with Associated Press photo-grapher Noel when they were captured Nov. 30 by the Chinese Reds who ambushed an American convoy moving north between Kotsa and Hagaru.

"He was in a jeep with me and two other MPs," Spain said. "We were about in the middle of the column. When the Chinese attacked, we pulled off the road. Those in front of the column got on through. Those behind us broke and ran. They got back okay. But we were caught. Just as we wheeled one jeep

Pope Appeals To God For Peace In Holy Year Prayer

By JAMES M. LONG
VATICAN CITY, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Pope Pius XII called upon the world's Roman Catholic millions today to join in pre-Christmas prayers for "a just and sure peace."

The Pontiff, declared in a Holy Year encyclical to Catholic bishops that use of mankind's newly discovered weapons of war would bring ruin.

He appealed for "public prayers to obtain from God the peace and concord of peoples, so that under the auspices of religion a sacred crusade be promoted to oppose the unrelenting struggle from which come so many calamities to mankind."

The Pope urged that the prayers for peace be made during the Novena the church's customary nine prayer days before Christmas. The Pontiff, himself, will lead the appeal for divine intercession in a radio broadcast at midnight tomorrow night, celebrating the Eucharistic sacrifice preceding the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

He referred to the latter struggle even now underway in Korea—and to the greater ruin which a wider spread war would bring. "We see with trembling souls the peoples troubled under fearful threats of conflicts, and already flourishing living lives now by the fury of hostile massacres in some regions," he said.

Attlee Pledges No Appeasement In Korean War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee of Britain declared today there will be "no appeasement" of Communist China in an effort to halt the Korean fighting.

"We all know from our own bitter experience that appeasement does not pay," he told a National Press Club luncheon.

Attlee departed from a prepared text to make this statement and to deny flatly reports that his government intends to "appease" the Chinese Communists.

"I have been told there are some people that believe that is what I came here for. That is not true."

Speaking slowly to a building room only audience, Attlee told off in a big burst of applause when he said Britain intends to stand by the United States in Korea.

He pledged that as long as the Stars and Stripes fly in Korea the British flag will fly beside them.

As to his talks here with President Truman, Attlee said they are bringing a greater understanding of the different approaches which the two governments take to their common problems.

He also defended Britain's recognition of Communist China as a simple matter of fact, and said that the United States should do the same.

After a morning meeting of the two government heads, the White House issued this statement.

"The situation centered on the economic problems facing the United States and Britain with particular reference to raw material requirements."

"It was agreed that the problem of raw materials shortages was a common one and that significant effort should be made to increase production and to secure the most effective use of the limited supplies available."
