

Brooklyn's Gene Hermanski Will Like Playing Ball For Dodgers

By FRANK ECK
Gene Hermanski, who is currently working out at the baseball training school in Sanford, Fla., will like playing the outfield for the Brooklyn Dodgers for several reasons. The foremost are: 1—The hours, 2—the pay. It will be much easier than getting up at 6:30 o'clock in the morning daily as he did while playing for the U. S. Coast Guard.

Hermanski isn't a prewar ball-player. He was just coming up the ladder in those days, finishing two seasons of Class D ball in 1941. But he's the prewar type, being able to do anything on the field—and do it instinctively. "He can't miss," is the way Roscoe McIlwain of the New York Times who will arrive in Sanford Monday morning, sums him up, and Mac has been "covering the Dodgers" for 24 years.

A few other press "box veterans" feel the same way. They remember how well Hermanski performed in 1943 when he batted .300 in 18 games for the "Brooklyn Bums" while getting ready for the Coast Guard after being "washed out" of the Navy.

Marking 'Em Up

With JULIAN STENSTROM
Herald Sports Editor

Although the Celery Fed basketball team hasn't displayed a great deal of power this season, it doesn't at all mean that they haven't any good ball players. The cagers have been handicapped by height this year more than anything else. In every tilt, the Feds have lost they have been much smaller than their towering opponents. Yet, every team the Feds have beaten this season have averaged about the same height as the Feds and it's certainly been easy to see the Feds' tin rings around them.

A great deal of what little success the Feds have enjoyed this year must be attributed to Verne Clark, one of the nicest athletes in both basketball and football. He's seen since our return from overseas, he has been a main strength in the Fed line during the gridiron season.

It's also true that Clark has been mostly runner-up to Donald Dyess in scoring honors in about every tilt. However, in addition to his scoring, Clark, thus far, has been responsible for getting the ball off the backboard and putting it into motion. He, as does Dyess, shoots very well from any angle. Dyess has been handicapped in this ball retrieving department because of his height. He has, however, seen a main spring in putting the ball into play in enemy territory and his exhibitions this season cannot be overlooked at all.

Clark, we believe, would be a natural in college athletics. We understand that he was going to college and now that a new deal is in motion at Florida, we can't see how they could overlook such potential talent. Of blond, probably has played more baseball during the past two seasons than any major league prospect back from the service. Last year this broad-shouldered power hitter took part in 125 games, the breakdown being 30 with the Brooklyn Coast Guard team, 84 with the semi-pro Brooklyn Bushwicks and 12 with East Orange, N. J.

Performing at night and on Sundays as Gene Walsh, this five-foot-eleven 185-pounder led the Bushwicks in seven departments. He played every game, accounted for 119 runs, scored 71, drove in 58, hit 10 homers, stole 27 bases and batted .338.

Hermanski, a resident of Newark, N. J., but claiming Pittsfield, Mass., as his birthplace, first played organized ball in 1940 with Federalburg, Md., in the Eastern Shore League. In mid-season he was traded to Pocomoke City, Md., in the same league. He batted .292 collectively—ninth in the league—and hit 11 homers. The Pocomokes disbanded that winter and Hermanski became a free agent.

In 1941 he received a trial with leading in the Class B Interstate League but Manager Fresno Thompson, who is also at Sanford, thought another season in D ball would help him. So he was shipped to Brooklyn-owned Olean, N. Y., in the Pony League where his .341 batting mark was third-best in the circuit. He also hit eight homers.

Then Hermanski started the first of three adventures in the service. After 15 months in the Coast Guard, he passed his exams for Navy flying. But after six months in the Navy, they told him he'd be safer out of the air.

He went back in the Coast Guard and when discharged he was an aviation motor mechanic second class.

Between the two branches of services, Hermanski played 10 games in 1943 with Durham in the Class B Piedmont League. Branch Rickey, Sr., put out a call for a left handed hitter and they immediately brought up Hermanski when they learned he was hitting .410.

Hermanski will have to out-hustle such Brooklyn favorites as Pete Reiser, Augie Galan, Louis Olmo, Dixie Walker, Goody Rosen and Frenchy Bordagaray in posing piker line—but Gene will have youth on his side. He won't be 25 until May 11.

He looks pretty good so far during the workouts in Sanford. He's getting into first class shape and the week should help him continue in this department.

course, they haven't overlooked him at all, as yet. We have often thought that Jack McDowell at Rollins should talk to Clark and we hope that such a "get-together" can be arranged. Jack will be back in the football wars next Fall and you can be sure he'll have a scrapping goal even as he always does.

State Roundup
Northeast Florida conference coaches are on record favoring a change in State high school athletic rules. The coaches favor permitting youths to participate in all sports the rest of the year if they become 19 years old after Sept. 15. The coaches recommend altering the controversial 19-year age rule of the Florida High School Athletic Association.

Also at the conference's winter meeting at Tallahassee, Tom Brown of Leon High was named president of the group.

The University of Miami has announced its full 1946 football schedule, with numerous changes from last year's card. There'll be seven home games in Miami, and three games on the road.

This year's Orange Bowl victors will meet the following teams in this order—William and Mary, North Carolina, Texas Christian, Marquette, Chattanooga, Villanova, Miami of Ohio, Florida, LSU, and Pennsylvania State.

Ramblin' Round
Purdue's football coach, Cecil Isbell, says he won't be surprised if the champions of the Western Conference and Pacific Coast Conference meet in the Rose Bowl in what he termed the not too distant future. Isbell says he would welcome such an arrangement. However, the chairman of the Rose Bowl Committee, Willis Hunter, declared: "The next move is up to the Big Ten."

Owner Sam Breadon of the St. Louis Cardinals announces that he has no intention of raising the prices for the Cardinal home games this year. Prices at Sportsman's Park range from 65 cents for bleacher seats to $200 for box seats.

Ten players were among the 17 persons in the New York Yankee baseball group which left New York today for Miami. By the time Miami is reached, the party will be increased to 45, and then will proceed to Panama, where Spring training will begin. First baseman Nick Etten, signed his contract in time to join the group which left New York this morning.

Eddie Joost says he will not report to the Rochester club of the International League. The Boston Braves sent Joost to Rochester as part of the deal by which the Braves acquired outfielder Johnny Hopp from the St. Louis Cardinals. Joost says he believes himself capable of playing major league ball. But he has to go back to the minors, he wants to play in the Pacific Coast League.

A number of players have returned their signed contracts to big league clubs. These include outfielder Chester Wiczkow of the Braves, pitcher Frank Chance and Bill Brandt of the Pirates, and catcher Al Lakeman and second baseman Jack Cassini of the Reds.

Today's Sport Oddity
They call it the Rose Bowl—that vast stadium at Pasadena, where football rules each New Year's Day. But Hal Reynolds of the Rose Bowl Committee blushing admits there are only two or three dinky little roses entwining around the stadium walls.

Today's Sport Laugh
Coach Bill Bush of the Thermopolis, Wyo., grade school basketball team tried to use his entire squad when his team swamped a neighboring school. He used 73 players. But missed the 25th member of his squad. That player was a frightened fifth grader who never had played in regular competition. He hid under the bench until the game was over.

Ten Persons Hurt In Fight With Strikers

Philadelphia Transit Walkout Causes Biggest Traffic Snarl In City's History

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11. (AP)—Ten persons have been injured today in fighting between police and pickets in the transit strike at Lancaster, Pa., while the Philadelphia transit strike has produced the biggest traffic jam in the city's history.

The Philadelphia strike of nearly 10,000 workers, caused the downtown streets to be jammed with cars as thousands of stranded commuters attempted to drive to work in the suburbs and outlying districts, people who normally would have traveled to work by subway, bus or trolley. Pickets at Lancaster station blocked the railroad stations. Residents of outlying areas said it took an hour and a half to complete what normally would have been a trip in 20 minutes.

Police at Lancaster had trouble getting through the picket lines at the cars of the strike-bound Conestoga Transportation Company. Of the ten persons injured, six were policemen. Following the brief scuffle 10 of the company's buses and trolleys got through to the street and were put in operation.

Trial Reveals How Nazis Planned To Destroy Yugoslavia

Nuernberg, Feb. 11. (AP)—

New details on the Nazi plans for the destruction of Yugoslavia have been presented to the international war crimes tribunal. Data offered by the Russian prosecution indicates that Hitler ordered the country virtually eliminated as a state "ruthlessly and with lightning speed."

The Nazi fustler is charged with leading an order that specified that Belgrade was to be annihilated by continuous day and night air bombardment. He is charged with telling his foreign minister—Joachim von Ribbentrop—that no diplomatic inquiries were to be made, and no ultimatum was to be presented.

Declaring that he is interested in bringing several clubs over to the Dodgers in one training camp, he said, "I want to return somewhere hereabouts next year. And I am trying to arouse the interest of you Rotarians in inviting us to come back."

Mr. Rickey was introduced by Bob Finch, general manager of the Dodgers, who in turn was introduced by George Touhy, who had charge of the program. A number of baseball players and Continued on Page Four

Attitude Of Washington Officials Toward Farmers Flayed By Wilson

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 11. (Special)—

"I am sick and tired of the attitude displayed toward our farmers by some of the folks in Washington who are in the Government employ," said William L. Wilson, director of Florida State Farmers' Markets today, in discussing problems affecting the State's products.

"Some of these people—blind you, not all, but some of them—who have access to the facts and should know what they're talking about, take the same attitude as the thoughtless citizen who pays high prices for products and then accuses that the poor devil farmer is getting rich hand over fist."

Arabs Protest New York City As UNO Site

Charges That War Is Being Waged In Java To Be Debated Today By Council

LONDON, Feb. 11. (AP)—A strong protest was filed with the United Nations today against the selection of New York as the organization's headquarters. The objection was made by two Arab states, whose delegates said they disapproved of "some political influences" in New York City. The Arabs said they would fight to the finish against the proposal.

Officials of the United Nations Organization had predicted, however, that the committee working on the selection of the site for the headquarters would arrive at a decision soon, with the Greenwich-Stamford-Westchester area of New York and Connecticut as a probable choice.

The two Arab states which filed the protest are Iraq and Saudi Arabia. They declared their opposition just as the United Nations General Assembly neared the point of voting on New York as a temporary headquarters and the Greenwich-Stamford area as a permanent site.

The Russians have followed up their charge with a demand that the UNO name a five-nation commission to investigate the situation in Indonesia. However, the Soviet motion has been opposed vigorously by Britain, which accuses Russia of interfering in internal affairs of the Indonesians.

Terms Of Red War On Japan Are Revealed

Soviet Agreement At Yalta To Wage War On Japanese Hinged On Three Conditions

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11. (AP)—A three-power announcement has just been released disclosing the terms on which Russia agreed to go to war against Japan. Details of the agreement are contained in the announcement released simultaneously in Washington, London and Moscow.

The Soviet agreement to wage war against Japan was hinged on three conditions including outright Soviet possession of the Kuriles. The agreement was made a year ago at the Yalta Conference of the late President Roosevelt, Soviet Premier Stalin and former British Prime Minister Churchill.

Today's disclosure shows that Roosevelt and Churchill agreed to these two other conditions in addition to the Kuriles arrangement.

GM Tells NLRB Why Answer To Union Delayed

Says It Had Never Been More Difficult For Company To Foresee Future

DETROIT, Feb. 11. (AP)—General Motors President Charles E. Wilson offered a national labor relations board panel today an explanation of why his company took so long in replying to union wage demands. The auto workers' request for a 30 percent wage increase first was laid before the company on Aug. 18, 1945. General Motors refused to meet with the union until after the war.

Wilson told the board that it had never been more difficult for the company to foresee the future than at that time. He said: "We were wading through a period of losses. Our prices were all out of gear. We were in a bad position to move intelligently in any direction."

Sanford is getting a lot of good publicity in northern newspapers
as a result of Branch Rieker's baseball school here. Many pictures as well as feature stories have appeared recently in the metropolitan dailies concerning the boys who are now in training
here and many northern people have read about Sanford who might never have heard of it otherwise.

The Miami grand jury, shocked profit a man in Miami, for instance, if he saves his soul in loses the business thereby?

All the vile epithets which For-war does not follow on the heels of some war within six months of some year or ten years. It will take Russia, as well as Briready for the next war, and by that time some common enemy like France, Spain or Italy will have made war on both of them and they will be too busy to

The Anti-Racketeering Bill

Although the Hobbs anti-racketeering bill has been branded by the CIO News as "something worse" for the unions than the Case bill for the prevention of strikes, it is difficult for the average layman to see what any working man has to gain from a system which if not actually racketeering is closely bordering upon it.

The Hobbs bill, the Manufacturer's Record explains "is directed at bringing unions within the scope of laws barring robbery, extortion, force and violence, actual or threatened, and is claimed by its sponsors to be aimed at stopping large city unions from exacting tolls from incoming truck drivers before they may enter the cities. Such tolls are nearly always collected through threat of violence and if attempted by other than union members would constitute highway robbery in the eyes of any American court.

"If the Senate concurs in the House action and the President approves the bill, unions will be deprived of this so-called privilege. At first glance it would seem that unionism would lose little thereby. Advantages under the lax-enacting procedure are limited to small financial gains by a few big-city AFL, Teamster locals. But here is the CIO with no apparent interest in the primary functions of the bill, raving to high heaven.

"That Truman has done 'em wrong by having, in the words of the CIO News, 'unboldened Hobbs and his gang to put the bill to a vote and to get it passed.' Why is this bill worse in the eyes of labor bosses than anti-strike legislation?

"The only plausible answer seems to lie in the probable realization by labor moguls that many other union activities fall within the category of robbery and extortion, force and violence, actual and threatened. When initiation fees and dues are exacted as the price of a job from a worker who wants none of unionism—is that extortion? Or is it just plain robbery? When orderly American citizens, desiring only to go about their own business, are halted
by picket lines—are they restrained by force or violence, actual or threatened?

"Maybe Mr. Murray's News (or does it belong to Mr.
Hillman?) has good cause for its alarm. Maybe the Hobbs bill is 'worse' for unionism than the H-Bill bill or President Truman's fact-finding proposal or any of the other strike-curbing plans being considered by Congress. But on two scores the News can be assured. The American people are against racketeering, by whomsoever committed.
And no person who conducts himself in legitimate fashion need fear unjust treatment at the hands of an American court."

Light From Matches

How little appreciated matches were to an American until the war made them scarce, and how pleasant it is to have them plentiful again! One of the reasons they were scarce for civilians is now told.

The Psychological Warfare Branch of the armed services dropped millions of books of matches from the air over enemy-held lands, all containing messages of hope and promise in the native language. Match starved people seized upon the books both for the practical and spiritual light they contained. Over the Philippines four and a half million packages were dropped bearing the legend: "I shall return—MacArthur."

The average American strikes 14 matches a day, so statisticians say. With matches once more available, Americans have become characteristically prodigal with them,
taking this convenience for granted as usual.

Squirrel Cage Life

The story of a Watertown, N.Y., woman dying at 80
in the room where she was born is rare for these restless United States with their constant neighborhood changes and population shiftings. No househunting for her, no purging of the attic to get ready for the movers, no stretching of old carpets and curtains to fit new needs.

Life may have offered her soul many vicissitudes and inner cataclysms, many joys of the spirit and a mental reach around the world and out into the universe, but what a lot of fuss and bother she saved herself by staying put! Yet it may have been a little boring, too, to have had 80 years of security against any housing shortage.
She had none of the fun of the new life that seems to begin along with a new abiding place.

CHURCHILL POSTPONES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11. (AP)— Winston Churchill has postponed his return to sunny Florida until tomorrow. He has settled down in the snow-clad British Embassy

his old friend and retiring British Ambassador to the United States.
The Embassy says that the former Prime Minister has no definite plans for his day in Washington and no conferences

Pain In the Appendix Region

By W. V. Blitting
Toughen Drug Co.

Pain in the appendix region should always be regarded as serious and the doctor should be consulted at once.

Because medical science has been able to educate most people to the fact, mortality from appendicitis has been reduced and continues to decline steady-
ly. Further education is necessary, especially to stress the danger of self-medication,
which may aggravate the condition.

Your doctor will be able to determine if an operation is necessary, or if relief can be had through treatment or medication.

When medicine is advised,
refer your prescription to a skilled, trusted pharmacist.

BETWEEN THE HAMMER AND THE ANVIL

New Light Thrown
On Future Homes
By AP Reporter

By ADELAIDE KERN

The home of tomorrow generally will be smaller units than those today with large main rooms and small sleeping rooms,
designed for the most comfortable living we ever have had. Their decoration will feature more rich glowing color an architectural uses of light.

That comes from Miss Bertha Schafer, New York interior decorator, specialist in the decorative use of glowing color, painting and light.

"The servant problem is partially responsible for a trend toward less expansive living,"
said Miss Schafer recently in her New York studio-gallery.
"This does not indicate that all city dwellers will be squeezed into two- and three-room apartments, but it does indicate there will be fewer eight- and twelve-room units and more of four or five rooms. Furniture will be decidedly functional, such as a dining table that is also a library table or desk or that has a game table top."

"In decoration we shall make more and unusual use of light, often using it architecturally. For instance, when you wish that a wall were not, you can eliminate it by making it glow. It can be hung with pale colored curtains, lit from above with concealed fluorescent light so that it becomes a wall of light. Powerful light in lamps will be filtered through metal fins, which deflect

it to certain objects.
"Instead of monotone room
—all gray, all blue, etc.—we shall make much greater use of rich glowing color. And instead of considering only the color scheme of a room, we shall consider the color scheme of a house.

"For instance, in a Massachusetts house which I decorated recently, the walls of the large entrance hall were seafoam green with touches of white and strong green. On one side this led to a room with seafoam green paint and tangerine accents; on the other side to a living room whose soft green background was offset by brilliant chintzes in red, yellow and blue. These rooms, varied as they were, were tied together by the repetition of green."

Miss Schafer, a decorator of years standing and a member of the American Institute of Decorators, combines her 57th Street studio for interior design with an art gallery featuring the work of modern painters and pottery designers.

"I do this because I want my clients to stumble over paintings

Georgia Shows Tow
To Balance Budget

ATLANTA, (AP)—It's the first time and it may be the last,
points out State Auditor B. F.
Thrasher, Jr., but Georgia is completely out of debt.

Never before has the state had reserves to apply in full payment of bonds and other obligations maturing at a future date.

"The state's peak debt was on
Dec. 31, 1940, Thrasher said—
$23,170,146. By last December 31, the debt had been completely eliminated."

Now the state has a current cash surplus of $39,230, which,
together with sinking fund reserves of more than $21,000,000,

will completely liquidate obligations now outstanding.

continually," she explained. "I like to build the color scheme of a room around paintings."

Hunter Shoots At
Hawk But Bags Quail

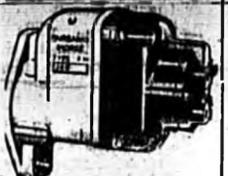

VINITA, Okla., (AP)—Judge
Royce Savage vouches for this.

While he was hunting with friends, says the judge, a bird
was downed in a thicket.

It was a quail.
Hags and men alike searched in vain. As they gave up and started away, a hawk took to the air. The judge took a shot at it. Something fell from the hawk's claws.
It was the quail!

TERRACE TALK

Is for flowers, fresh to take and the fascinating new ways you can wear them. Small single posies, murmuring about a narrow ribbon belt. A tiny cluster pinned to the pocket of your frock. . . for a chance . . . or pulled through the loop of a bracelet. Fat blossoms worn like fluffy earmuffs, or as lapel ornaments. . . sport and staidness. Do you wear "cheaters" . . . or glasses as it were? We gals who wear glasses have hit the glamour jacket at last. This year's crop of eyes are to eye and legging that even perfect 20-20 yearlings to own them. Latest colors: cinnamon, emerald and amethyst.

Newest model: an almond-eyed shape with a wonderful, chunky look. Beauty hint: try a touch of mascara and always slip the bows under your hairdo.

Mrs. Endor Curlett Hostess To Circle

Mrs. Endor Curlett was hostess to the Rose Circle of the Sanford Garden Club at her home on Geneva Avenue Friday. Mrs. Curlett talked to the club members concerning the planting and care of carnations and azaleas and also took the guests on a tour of her beautiful garden.

She called attention to the fact that now is the time to do some planting. She recommended the planting of marigolds. Mrs. W. A. Morrison gave an excellent report on the recent Memorial Azalea tree planting at Southside School. She and the children as well as teachers were very much interested in this program because the late Mrs. Stella E. Arrington and Mrs. Mamie Jacob were so fond of the tree planting as their own means a great deal to them. W. Lawson also gave a brief talk at this time.

Mrs. L. F. Frazer made a report on the progress being made on the forthcoming annual luncheon at which the following chairman Mrs. Otville Parks was voted as a new member and Mrs. Jack Russell was re-elected.

At the conclusion of the meeting the following members were presented a certificate of membership: Mrs. L. J. Lane, Mrs. L. J. Lane, Mrs. D. H. Cumber, Mrs. H. H. McCaslin, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. C. P. Henderson, Mrs. M. E. Egan, Mrs. E. Cole, Mrs. G. W. Bailey, Mrs. W. A. Morrison, Mrs. B. H. Beck, Mrs. L. F. Frazer, Mrs. C. P. Herndon, Mrs. A. W. Egan, Mrs. C. L. Park, Mrs. Flora Tooke, Mrs. Charles W. M. W. A. Watson, Mrs. H. H. Cole and Mrs. Jack Russell.

Games and contests were enjoyed with particular interest in a bridge and Vernon game, but large winners Jimmie Poxell, Betty Goff and Lois Ann Dabney were the mystery number winners. Betty Ann Goff and Lois Ann Dabney were awarded the "hardy partner" prize. Mrs. Marshall's room was awarded the attendance prize.

The musical program consisted of Donald Fullert, clarinet and Norma Jean Dany at the piano. David Hunter sang a vocal solo accompanied by Jane Ford.

Among the patrons attending were: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Tade, Mrs. Jack Hering, Mrs. E. S. Spillane, Mr. Harry Hamd, Mrs. T. T. Harris and Edward Marshall.

Seminole Sextet Trounces Eustis Girls 28 To 18 In Fast Contest

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Miss Jesse Durden's Seminole High School Celery Fed sextet, in our opinion, practically put themselves in one of the favorite brackets of the East Central Florida Conference for the loop crown Friday night when they defeated the Eustis Pantherettes by a score of 28 to 18 in one of the best played and hardest fought tilts they've participated in during the entire season.

Helen Bowen, the high scoring Fed forward, continued to display her shooting ability during the tilt when she accounted for 18 of the locals' 28 markers. Her sister, Johnnie Mae Bowen, took second honors as far as the Celery Feds were concerned by recording a pair of field goals and a couple of free shots—a total of six points. Helen's 18 points were the result of nine successful field goal attempts.

Eustis Panthers Cop 24 To 17 Cage Victory Over Celery Feds

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Finding themselves unable to penetrate a well organized zone defense, the Seminole High School Celery Feds fought a hard battle Friday night at the school auditorium by a score of 24 to 17. The Fed points were all scored by Donald Dyess and Verne Clark. The lanky Clark accounted for four field goals and a couple of free throws for nine points while Dyess recorded eight points on three field goals and a pair of free tosses.

The first period ended with the Panthers commanding the Feds by a score of 5 to 1. Bacon sank a pair of field goals and Anderson recorded one free shot while Sanford's long tally was made by Clark. Gatch netted a field goal and a free shot while Bacon basketed a field goal for Eustis' five points in the second stanza. During the identical quarter, Seminole recorded four points on a couple of field goals by Clark.

Eustis Seeded In 'B' Cage Tournament

LEESBURG, Feb. 11, (Special)—Basketball tournament for class "B" high schools in Group Four will be held in Leesburg March 1 and 2. Dist. Dir. Ray M. Hayes announced Saturday.

Eustis is seeded first and Sanford second. In the opening game of the tournament, Eustis will play Cocoa Friday at 3 P. M. Winter Garden meets Kissimmee in the second game; Sanford play Cocoa Friday at 3 P. M.

Marking 'Em Up

With JULIAN STENSTROM Herald Sports Editor

Durocher Here
Manager Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers was in Sanford Saturday afternoon to look over the talent at the school and discuss business with Brooklyn officials who are here. He remained in Sanford about four hours before going to Daytona Beach where the major league club will open their Spring training activities Mar. 1.

May Manage Newport News
Jack Knight, who managed the Zanesville, O. club of the Ohio State League last season, may pilot the Newport News, Va. nine of the Piedmont League this season, according to Branch Rickey, Jr. Rickey said, however, that no manager has been appointed to date and in addition to Knight, Stan Bordagaray and Herman Franks are also being considered for the position. Last season at Zanesville, the club finished the season in second place, but went on to cop the playoffs.

First Division Clubs
During the Saturday morning exhibition game, Branch Rickey, Jr. said that eight of the ten Dodge farm clubs finished in the first division in leagues around the country. He wouldn't talk about the two that didn't finish in the higher bracket and suggested that it be forgotten. We fear that Rickey won't have to worry about any second division clubs this season. We've seen Southern Association baseball that couldn't come near the brand of baseball exhibited at the park Saturday.

Local Fans
Quite a few local fans were on hand Saturday to see the exhibition game at the park. There were also quite a few fans who have turned out for the workouts during the first week. Dentzel Stafford, for one, has been a frequent visitor at the park and according to what he says, he's enjoyed it lots. Stafford continued by saying that the park is in wonderful condition and we certainly agree with him on that. We've never seen it look better and even though the City has spent somewhere in the neighborhood of $5,000, the investment was really worth the money. The publicity alone that Sanford has been given on the sports pages of the nation's newspapers could not be purchased for 90 times the amount spent renovating the field.

Roundup
The Pensacola Club of the Southeastern League has withdrawn from the St. Louis Brown's farm system. Four rookies of Bob Feller's baseball school have been signed by the Tampa Smokers of the Florida-International League. Third baseman Ted Cieslak of the Boston Braves is reported to be a holdout. Veteran George McQuinn has changed his mind about playing with the Athletics this season and he's going to enjoy being with Connie Mack. The Detroit Tigers have placed Hank Greenberg's contract in the mails. General Bob Neyland of Tennessee says that all college sports are in for a boom. Crighton University of Omaha will not resume intercollegiate football in the immediate future.

Today's Sports Oddity
One of the very few permanent holdouts in baseball history is a fellow named Roy Corhan of San Francisco. Some 25 years ago, Corhan demanded a $1,000 salary boost from the old Vernon club in the Pacific Coast League. He didn't get the raise and refused to report.

team. Every Spring Mayer enclosed a letter telling Corhan to either sign the contract—or else.

Today's Sports Laugh
When Lefty Gomez first joined the New York Yankees, he was a slender, weak-looking lad. At the end of the 1934 season, some of his teammates induced Lefty to try to fatten up. One of them said: "A few more pounds will give you more pitching power, Lefty. Why put on 15 pounds and you'll make them forget the great Chebro, huh? Look—I nearly made them forget Gomez!"

MIAMI, Feb. 11, (Special)—There will be field betting in practically every race for the remainder of the meeting at Hialeah Race Course. Because of overflowing entry lists the size of fields has been increased from 12 to 14 horses by Racing Secretary Charles J. McLennan.

New York City Being Run By Control Board

Police Head States City Is Operating Today Practically Under Martial Law

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12, AP—Hope has arisen for settling the city-wide transit strike in Philadelphia. A conference of all disputing parties has been called this afternoon by Mayor Bernard Samuel. The strike has cut off transportation facilities for 3,000,000 persons and has caused the greatest automobile traffic jam in Philadelphia's history.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12, AP—The Pittsburgh railway company operators of the city's main transportation system has announced that all street car service has been suspended. The company says there will be no resumption of service until the strike is settled because the transit lines are dependent upon the power company for electric service.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12, (AP)—The Office of Defense Transportation has called upon all striking tugboat workers in New York Harbor to return to work individually for the government. The request has been sent out by the Federal manager of the strike-bound harbor and transportation companies, Lawrence Turner.

DETROIT, Feb. 12, (AP)—General Motors Corporation has announced an additional 5 per cent increase for its 70,000 salaried employees. The raise brings the total postwar increase of salaries to 25 per cent.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12, (AP)—The nation's largest city—the world metropolis of New York—is operating today under what its police commissioner says amounts practically to martial law.

All normal business, industrial and amusement activities are at a complete standstill as a result of an edict issued by Mayor William O'Dwyer's office under the authority of Health Commissioner Ernest Stebbins.

The edict has been issued to cope with the serious fuel shortage resulting from the nine-day-old strike against the AP of tugboatmen in New York harbor. Police Commissioner Arthur Wallender says New York City now is being run by a disaster control board of 23 city department heads. Wallender says the situation is much as if military circumstances existed and New York was being governed by martial law.

Wallender says the duration of the shutdown order is indefinite. The police commissioner declares that New York City—except certain specified essential activities—will remain closed down until the order is revoked either by O'Dwyer or Stebbins on recommendation of the 22-man board.

Meanwhile, the city's entire force has been mobilized to enforce the order. The order will be non-essential business and industrial establishments are closed down and that the lid is clamped completely on amusements. New York generally is regarded as the amusement capital of the world.

But it also is the world's business capital and the effects of the shutdown order will be felt markedly. Banks and stock markets normally would be closed today—Lincoln's birthday anniversary. But under the order is rescinded before tomorrow, the vast commercial establishments will remain closed.

Hospitals, restaurants, newspapers, press services, radio stations, milk plants and other similar establishments will be permitted to operate, along with food stores. Restaurants having food will not be permitted to dispense liquor. The sale of all alcoholic beverages has been banned completely.

Police also have been instructed to enforce that part of the order which allows persons engaged in essential activities to stay off plan ordering all persons not engaged in essential activities to stay off plan. All bus, trolley, subway and elevated service is to be curtailed sharply in another few commercial measures.

City Okeys Chamber Of Commerce Request For Use Of USO Building

Tennis Court Situation Is Referred To Recreation Committee To Determine Location For Facilities

City Commissioners last evening granted a Chamber of Commerce request to take over the USO building at Sanford Avenue and First Street at such time as the building may be turned over to the city by the Federal government. H. W. Bayer, city manager, reported.

The request was made by Edward Higgins, manager, and H. H. Coleman, president of the Seminoles Chamber of Commerce. It includes a plan for using the building for Chamber of Commerce offices, as a tourist and community center, and making it available for use of civic organizations such as the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Following the reading of a letter from Margaret Wright in which it was asked what action had been taken toward building the tennis court, the Commissioners discussed the possibility of erecting such court on a lot on French Avenue between Ninth and Tenth Streets. It was reported by Frank Lubinski, park superintendent, and Sidney Richard, that trees and shrubs would have to be removed from the lot before such a court could be built.

The Commission then referred the matter to the Recreation Committee of which J. L. Hugley is chairman to designate definitely.

Lawton Reports Only One Farmer Has Qualified As Veteran Training Agency

Only one farmer in Seminole County has made application to qualify as a training agency under the veteran's job training program under the G. I. Bill of Rights, Supt. T. W. Lawton, who has charge of the local applications for qualification, reported today.

"Personally I feel that the farming industry is an excellent type of training for the veteran," he declared.

"Very few merchants have filed applications for approval," he stated, and added that there are almost no openings for training of negro veterans, as no one has applied for such 'on the job' training.

Only about 35 businesses in the county have been approved for the veteran's training program, and about two dozen other applications are pending, awaiting approval by the state. With but a few exceptions, those will be approved, he predicted.

"While I do not have the complete record, it is estimated that about 20 white and colored veterans have entered colleges and vocational schools in the County under provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights," said Mr. Lawton.

Denies Truman Said He Would Not Run Again

Chairman Hannegan Says President Too Busy To Consider Re-Election

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, (AP)—There has been a quick denial of a new rumor that President Truman has said he will not seek another term in the White House. Democratic Chairman Robert Hannegan said the rumor was a "total fabrication."

In an announcement from Democratic National Committee headquarters, Postmaster General Hannegan said: "There is no truth in the report that President Truman told a group of White House advisers that he would not be a candidate for the presidency in 1948."

The statement added: "The President has been so busy with foreign and domestic problems of overwhelming importance that he has had no time to consider the 1948 election."

Hannegan added that he did not know the origin of published accounts that a meeting of this kind occurred. "To my knowledge," he said, "no such meeting was ever held."

Other Democratic Party benchmen have expressed confidence that Mr. Truman will be a candidate for a new presidential term in 1948. They feel that way despite the fact that Mr. Truman previously told his old friends that he would have preferred to remain in the White House.

Party chairmen feel pretty sure that Mr. Truman could be convinced that he probably was the only Democratic candidate who had a chance to win the next presidential election.

Some of these Democratic party leaders are said to be telling Mr. Truman, that, in effect, he is a "poisoner of his party."

Investigators Turn To Fleet Disposition

Ingersoll Declares Fleet Better Off In Pearl Harbor

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, (AP)—The Pearl Harbor investigating committee switched its line of questioning from the disputed Japanese radio message to the question of the disposition of the United States fleet today. It questioned Admiral Royal E. Ingersoll about the fact that the fleet was kept at Pearl Harbor instead of being sent back to the west coast during the tense months prior to the Japanese attack.

Ingersoll testified that from the point of view of safety, the fleet was better off in Pearl Harbor than it would have been anywhere else. Provided he had the question of the disposition of the fleet was kept at Pearl Harbor instead of being sent back to the west coast during the tense months prior to the Japanese attack.

Admiral Ingersoll was Assistant Chief of Naval Operations when the war started. He told the committee that early in 1942 he had secret conversations about the possibility of becoming involved in war with Japan.

He said that during a mission to London, he talked with British officers about the possibility of cooperation with Japan and returned with a signed record of conversations which later was suppressed by a tentative Anglo-Dutch-American defense plan.

Compensation Paid To Single Citizen

Payments of unemployment compensation amounting to $16.00 were made to Seminole County during the week ending February 11 to one person, Carl B. Smith, Chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, reported.

He suggested that employers needing employees contact the office of the U. S. Employment Service for assignment of qualified workers, thus benefiting the individual employee since compensation never equals normal earnings, preventing the depletion of the funds held for compensation payments, and benefiting the general public because the maintenance of payrolls and stimulation of production supports the economy of the community and State.

Egypt Suggests British Troops Leave Batavia

UNO Security Council Adjourns To Give Members Chance To Study Proposal

LONDON, Feb. 12, (AP)—Egypt suggested today that the United Nations Security Council go on record as favoring the withdrawal of British troops from the Dutch East Indies at the earliest possible date. The Egyptian plan also called for a statement to the Council on current Dutch and Indonesian negotiations.

The Security Council has adjourned until tomorrow, to give time to study the Egyptian proposal on the Indonesian problem.

It is a disturbing thought, but it is a fact that the Allies are finding it more difficult to get along with each other in peace than they did during the war. Undoubtedly it is because many of us, on all sides, have already lost the sense of urgency which compelled cooperation during war.

This situation is showing itself more plainly every day, with an inclination by all parties to adopt a more laissez-faire attitude.

The latest examples are provided by the election in Generalissimo Stalin's pre-election speech in Moscow, and the terms of the secret Yalta agreement which gave the Kurils Islands to Russia. Stalin's address has provoked complaints to certain quarters in America that he engaged in an unjustified attack on the United States. The particular objection is to Stalin's remarks that the capitalist system has been responsible for the last two World Wars.

Concerning the Yalta agreement, the Kurils Islands, it was remarked that the Russians were the utmost from the Americans and British as a condition to joining the fight against the Japanese.

As though in answer to this, the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia commented today that publication of the Yalta agreement should concern the world on a par with what scruples and necessary the Soviet fulfill her treaties and agreements.

The Russian point of view is that Stalin promised that the Red Army would attack the Japanese within three months after the defeat of Germany, and that this pledge was carried out to the day. The Russians having kept their bargain, Izvestia implies that the Allies should not do anything to cast doubt on the rights of the Soviet Union in the Kurils.

All this only underscores an even more dangerous current of mutual fear and distrust. It is a feeling that has been stirring on the future of the atom bomb. There are two schools of thought on this subject. One favors production for peaceful ends. The other favors production for war.
