

DISCUS WHOLESALER'S TAX TO PAY SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL IS LATEST MOVEMENT

Would Be General Manufacturers and Wholesalers' Tax Same Time BEAR THE BURDEN

IN PAYING THE BILLIONS IT WILL TAKE TO PUT OVER THE BONUS BILL.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The financing of the soldiers' bonus by means of a manufacturers' or wholesalers' tax was discussed in what was described as a "general sort of way" at two sessions today of the republican members of the house ways and means committee dealing with this subject. It was announced that there would be no further sessions until Friday and members indicated that there was no disposition to hurry a decision.

Representative Longworth of Ohio, ranking member of the special committee, said it was his judgment that a general manufacturers' and wholesalers' tax similar to that in force in Canada would be recommended. He thought the rates would be lower than those in Canada as treasury experts had estimated that the Canadian rates if put in force in this country would yield $580,000,000 a year, or more than $200,000,000 in excess of the sum which it has been estimated would be needed to finance the cash payments to the former service men.

Mr. Longworth said he did not think the bonus bill would be ready for the house this week or next. He said that there was some disposition on the part of many house members to postpone action on the measure for a time to await the opening of the refunding negotiations between the United States and the debtor nations. Calling attention that the refunding commission had been appointed by President Harding, the Ohio member said there was reason to believe that before July the United States would have some of the refunded bonds in hand.

The president, Mr. Longworth went on to say, undoubtedly would not be opposed to the sale of some of the foreign bonds in this country to obtain money for the bonus. He added that before this could be done congress would have to enact a law giving authority to the secretary of the treasury to so dispose of the securities as the present law provides that he must use them in retiring a part of the public debt.

The Ohio member said the president was opposed to the enactment of bonus legislation without any provision for raising the funds. If the proposed sales tax, provision was beaten in the house, he added, the bill then simply would be a charge against the treasury. It was his opinion that if a sales tax were reported the house would be given an opportunity to vote separately on that tax.

A separate vote has been demanded by opponents of a sales tax, who continued to day to tighten their lines for the fight which is regarded on all sides as almost certain. Opponents said that, if necessary, there would be a fight all along the line from the ways and means committee to the party conference, then to the rules committee, and finally to the house. They did not think the fight would last long, but continued to circulate petitions among house members.

ALL OFFICERS MUST GO INTO THE PRIMARY

STATE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SO DECIDES TODAY AT MEETING IN JAX

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 23.—All appointive as well as elective officers who have been nominated in Democratic primaries last few years will be nominated again this year if the terms expire before December 31st, 1923, the State Democratic Committee decided here today. Usual one per cent of first year's salary to defray primary expenses reduced to one-half of one per cent after Chairman Roney explained a surplus in the treasury left from the last primary. Heated debate on resolution defining Democratic electors. Resolution provided electors must be white, believe in Democratic party principles and vote for party nominees. George Lassett, of St. Augustine, led the attack to eliminate provision stipulating belief in Democratic principles on the ground that the party had no platform. Colonel Robert W. Davis led supporters of provision and resolution was adopted as first submitted. Spectators attending the meeting included Governor Hardee, William J. Bryan and Frank E. Jennings, the speaker of the House of Representatives.

LOOKS LIKE FORD'S CONTRACT WILL BE GOOD

FERTILIZER PRODUCTION IS GUARANTEED UNDER MODIFIED FORM.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Three alterations in the proposal made by Henry Ford for lease and purchase of the government's nitrate and power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., have been agreed to by the Detroit manufacturer. They are:

1. To write into the proposed contracts a definite guarantee to produce fertilizers in their finished form at a given annual minimum tonnage.
2. To capitalize the operating company which is to be created for the purpose of supervising the Muscle Shoals operations.
3. To revise the language of the so-called farmers' clause in order the delivery of fertilizers from the producing plant to the consumers at a profit not exceeding eight per cent, based on the cost of manufacture.

Mr. Ford's approval of these modifications was announced today by W. B. Mayo, chief engineer for the Ford company upon his return from Detroit where he went last week to confer with the Detroit manufacturer. Formal announcement to the house military committee members who are investigating the offer in congress will be made by Mr. Mayo as soon as arrangements for him to testify are completed, probably tomorrow.

While the three alterations were regarded by some committee members as greatly improving the form of the proposal, and adding to its value as they view it from the government's standpoint, other members said it would have been made more acceptable if Mr. Ford had also agreed to a reduction in the lease term from 100 to 50 years as suggested by Secretary Weeks when he testified before the committee. On this point, however, Mr. Mayo explained that Mr. Ford still felt the 50 year period was too short a time necessary under the proposed contract for development of the Muscle Shoals water power nitrate plants in the section of the country where they are situated.

CAPITAL IN MOURNING OVER ROMA DISASTER, RECEPTIONS CALLED OFF

Flags at Half Mast and Arrangements Being Made for Funerals

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(By the Associated Press).—Due to the Roma disaster President Harding today announced the postponement until April 19th of the army and navy reception, state affair of official social season which was to have been held at the White House tonight. Four thousand invitations had been issued. Flags are at half mast in the city as work of preparing for funeral progresses. Florists were swamped with orders and shops sent emergency calls to other cities. City and every civic organization on Virginia Peninsula have expressed sympathy in resolutions and police making traffic regulations to care for thousands at the funeral tomorrow. Services for two will be held this afternoon at Hampton.

NEWPORT NEWS, Feb. 23.—Many relatives of Roma victims are here today to claim bodies and attend public funeral services to be conducted by army authorities tomorrow.

MODIFIED RESOLUTIONS FOUR TREATY

LAI D BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE TODAY BY LODGE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Modified blanket resolutions to four-power Pacific treaty laid before the senate foreign relations committee today by Chairman Lodge after conference with President Harding with immediate opposition from several Republicans as well as Democratic committee members Borah, and Johnson, Republicans, both pronounced modified draft unsatisfactory. New resolution provides nothing in treaty shall be construed as committing United States to exercise of armed force without consent of congress.

CAPTAIN OF SHIP COMMITS SUICIDE VESSEL WAS ADRIET

(By The Associated Press) KEY WEST, Feb. 23.—J. N. Schute, captain of the four-masted British schooner "Lewis Brothers," on the voyage from Mobile to Spain, shot himself to death Thursday morning while the vessel was off the south-east coast of Florida. No member of the crew was able to navigate the ship and the schooner drifted aimlessly until spoken by the tanker Fabine Sun. The steamship put one of its officers aboard the schooner and he brought the vessel into Key West today.

ROCKEFELLER REFUSES CONSENT FOR MARRIAGE HIS GRAND-DAUGHTER

DAYTONA, Feb. 23.—John D. Harold F. McCormick was recently divorced by Rockefeller's daughter, and Miss McCormick will visit Rockefeller at Ormond in the near future to discuss her proposed marriage, it is said.

J. J. Dickinson Will Make Race For Circuit Judge

For some time it has been rumored that Hon. J. J. Dickinson, of this city, and one of Seminole's prominent attorneys, would make the race for the position of Judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit. A representative of the Herald asked Mr. Dickinson today about the rumor and he said it was true and that he had an important for some time by the bar of the three counties in the circuit to stand for nomination. The circuit comprises Seminole, Volusia and Brevard counties and is one of the most compact circuits in the state. Judge Perkins is the present judge of the circuit and has given general satisfaction and at present it is not known whether he will again become a candidate or not as his large interests in farming and fruit growing are among the largest in Volusia county. Mr. Dickinson will make an announcement of his candidacy later.

Brokerage Firm Goes Broke Today, Big Liabilities

John Burke, Former U. S. Treasurer, Lost Everything.

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The liabilities of the brokerage firm of Kardos & Burke, which last night went into the hands of a receiver, was variously estimated here today at from $700,000 to $1,500,000. John Burke, former treasurer of the United States, who resigned a little more than a year ago, is a member of the firm, and he declared today that he had lost everything in the collapse of the business. Bankers who were associated with him in the past are quoted as saying that they believed Burke the innocent dupe in the development of the amazing situation revealed by the failure. The assets of the firm are valued at $150,000.

WATER TRAFFIC LEAGUE WILL BE ATTENDED BY REPRESENTATIVE CROWD

REPUBLICANS WANT PEACE IN TARIFF ROW

AFTER TWO DAYS WRANGLING OVER PREPLEXING QUESTIONS.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—After a two days' row over American valuation, republican tariff framers of the house and senate got down today to the business of a possible compromise. Two plans were said to have been proposed with the understanding that when the senators had decided on them house members would be called in again.

Under one of the plans, as explained by Chairman Fordney, of the house ways and means committee, ad valorem duties on imported merchandise comparable with American made goods would be assessed on the basis of the value of the domestic produced articles. Imported goods not comparable with American products would pay a duty on the basis of the wholesale selling price of those goods in American markets. The other plan, Mr. Fordney said, was to assess all ad valorem duties on the basis of the wholesale selling price of the imported articles in the markets of the United States. This is the plan proposed by members of the tariff commission and the court of customs appeals.

BOWLING LEAGUE NOTES

By a Man Who Knows More About "Notes" than "Bowling"

Fresh from prayer meeting the Congregational boys swamped down on the Men's Club last night and trimmed them to suit their own individual tastes. Probably they were celebrating Washington's birthday, anyway they were right.

Holding, the Congregational star, bowled his usual high average, but the surprise of the evening was Jake Bolly. His one game of 224 tied Doc Flower for high score this season.

As a result of this victory the Congregational Club goes in first place. Below are the details of the slaughter.

Many Prominent Growers and Shippers Here Tomorrow Night

MUCH ENTHUSIASM

IS SHOWN ALL OVER ST. JOHN'S BASIN ON THE SUBJECT OF SHIP BY WATER.

Advice has been received from W. M. Tarpley, secretary of the Central Florida Water Traffic league, that a large number of members of the league are arranging to attend the meeting to be held here Friday evening, the 24th, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Tarpley further advised that a great deal of enthusiasm has been evidenced on the part of the members in adjacent sections, and that the league is now functioning along the lines for which it was organized. The objects of the Central Florida Water Traffic league are to promote the development of the facilities and business of the St. Johns river, to secure equitable freight rates into, out of and through Central Florida and generally to assist in improving the service for and solving the traffic problems of the shippers of freight into and out of Central Florida, and its trades territory.

To date the league has educated a great many of the shippers in cities adjacent to Sanford to the value of the river as a means of reducing their rates. The continual effort being made in this direction will in a short while build up a volume of business to this port that will prove most profitable. In addition, volume of business will entice capital to erect warehouses in Sanford and the movement of this merchandise by truck to adjacent cities will necessitate the construction of wider roads to accommodate this traffic. The ship by truck movement has been a prime factor in bringing cheaper rates to be great many sections of the country. It is a solution of the problem to those communities in this section of Florida which are not so fortunate as Sanford in having both rail and water facilities. It is the intention of the league to build up the water business so that truck lines will regularly serve these communities and secure for them the benefit of cheaper rates. The Sanford Chamber of Commerce strongly urges local business men to affiliate with the league and assist in materializing those objects for which it is organized. It is a wonderful opportunity now that all sections adjacent to Sanford are interested in the benefits accruing from the ship by water movement. The daily service which Sanford is now receiving something that should be continued throughout the year, and the local chamber has been assured by the transportation company that this service will be continued only so long as there is sufficient business to make the daily operation of boats profitable.

Through the efforts of the Central Florida Water Traffic league, volume of river tonnage should show an increase, not only insuring the retention of the daily service, but augmenting it as well. It is the duty of every business man in Sanford to be present at the meeting in the Valdez Hotel this Friday evening. The future success of Sanford's efforts to become the wholesale distributing center is dependant in no small measure upon the success obtained by the Central Florida Water Traffic league in interesting shippers, and the success of the league in turn is determined by the supports of its members, amongst whom the most active should be the business men of Sanford.

Below are the details of the slaughter.

DIVIDAL OFFERS BEFORE MILITARY COMMITTEE FOR MUSCLE SHOALS

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The rival offers of Henry Ford and the Alabama Power company for Muscle Shoals are officially before the house military committee today. That body received the power company's proposal from the house for investigation and report, while it prepared to complete the study of Ford's bid this week.

WASHINGTON TEA

One of the delightful social affairs of this week, was the Washington Tea, given Monday evening by the members of the Pipe Organ Club at the Temple Club on Park avenue.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with quantities of lovely snap dragons, nasturtiums, large flags and above the mantle was a large portrait of George Washington.

Mrs. Charles Ryan, club president, and Mrs. Sarah Bray, wearing quaint colonial costumes met the guests at the door while George and Martha Washington (Jane Sharon and Stewart Gatchell) welcomed the guests and held the silver baskets for the silver.

During the evening a splendid program was rendered as follows:

- Piano solo—Miss Dorothy Ray
- Reading—Miss Dorothy Stokes
- Vocal Solo—Mrs. Glenn
- Reading—Margaret Cowan
- Piano Solo—Miss Simmons
- Reading—Theresa Koons
- Vocal Solo—Mrs. A. M. Phillips

Refreshments were served in the spacious dining room. The dining table being centered with a silver candelabra, holding lighter tapers. Mrs. Etridge poured coffee and Mrs. Leslie Bryan poured tea. Both of these ladies wore lovely colonial costumes. Cake topped with cherries, red, white and blue mints, tea and coffee were served. The favors were little George Washington hatchets. The girls serving were Virgie Hyman, Margaret Miller, Naomi Seagins, Mary Stanley, Dorothy Ray and Sarah Wheelis looked quaint in old fashioned costumes.

At the various booths members of the Club wearing Colonial costumes sold candy, flowers and other things. The tea was a great success and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

VISITOR HONORED

Mrs. Carl Hertegen, of New Jersey, who is the charming guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Knight, was honored yesterday afternoon with a lovely bridge party given by her hostess, at her home on Magnolia avenue. There being five tables of players.

The decorations were suggestive of Washington's Birthday and quantities of roses, lilies and nasturtiums combined with ferns were artistically used in the various rooms. The dainty tally cards were done in Washington design.

Quite true, old chap. But in either case they could get a frost.

A statue of George Washington was unveiled in Trafalgar Square in London yesterday. If the "jingoos" want any further proof of the friendship of England for America they will have to go to a place of which we have but uncertain knowledge. The statue was the gift of the state of Virginia and the historical value of this event is worthy of a place in the text books of our country.

JUDGE DICKINSON

It pleases the Herald to be able to announce the possible candidacy of Hon. J. J. Dickson for the exalted position of Judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit. Ever since Mr. Dickson has lived in Sanford he has been our friend and while we have differed on some subjects it has never changed our friendship and we have admired his many sterling qualities the greatest of which is his steadfast advocacy for the right at all times. He is a man who when he believes he is right will take this stand against all the world and he is adamant in his convictions although subject to reason and debate and gives the other fellow the right to his own opinions. What he has gained in fame and fortune were hewed from the solid rock of experience starting from the cotton fields of West Florida, teaching country school, high school, making his own money to take a law course and then digging down to hard work of study that fitted him for the practice of law in which he has been successful. The editor of the Herald and the judge were opponents for the legislature one time and we traveled together to the various meetings over the county and it was during the campaign that we learned of the many traits of character, the high standards to which he ever held and the honest endeavors maintained to be fair and square with his fellow man at all times.

That he will, if elected, make the Seventh Circuit a splendid arbiter of justice is assured and his friends in Seminole and the other counties can be counted upon to rally to his standard for they know who is this manner of man that is asking them for their support.

ROTARY'S ANNIVERSARY.

Today Rotary is seventeen years old and is around the world having clubs in practically every part of the civilized world where its motto of "service above self" is working for co-operation among the business men and the leaders of the world's business. The members of the Sanford Rotary Club are contributing a page advertisement in today's Herald setting forth the creed and aims of Rotary. The following from the Rotarian is timely:

Around the world in seventeen years. Little did Paul Harris and his few friends of the first club dream that Rotary was to encircle the world in seventeen years' time. Literally it has done that. Club No. 1 organized at Chicago on February 23, 1905, thence to Canada, to Great Britain and Ireland, to India, to Australia, to South Africa, and back again almost to Chicago—Club No. 1001 at Gary, Ind. And all without one failure being recorded among clubs—no charter ever forfeited—no dead clubs—and no clubs that do not pay dues or are not represented at the annual conventions. Is it any wonder that such an idea was to meet with either instant failure or tremendous success?

The principles of Rotary have been the possession of the civilized world for two thousand years and more. Only the application of these principles to a man's business life—as well as his social life—are new. Great teachers of the past have enunciated these principles which have been set down as a matter of history. They can best be summed up in the words of Him who first said, "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them."

Fortunate, indeed, has Rotary been in the men that she has chosen to carry the banner to countries outside those which first took up her standard. The seed has been well planted. In Australia, in India, in South Africa, Rotary is flourishing and the members there are finding the same common bonds of fellowship and joy in service that their brothers in other parts of the world are finding. Think what a tremendous power for world friendliness and understanding! Let us look forward to the time when in each of the principal cities of the world there will be a band of followers under the banner of "Service Above Self," each actuated by the same principles of friendship and fellowship and acquaintance and understanding without regard to religious faith or political creed—encompassing all, barring none. All such clubs, whether set down in Calcutta or in Amsterdam, or in Pekin, with their radiating lines of influence, with their inter-club communication, with their zealous guardian-ship and direction of the power of that something which is Rotary—are all threads woven into the great tapestry of the brotherhood of man.

Every city and every county in the State of Florida is being revived and bond issues for improvements of all kinds are the order of the day. Cities and counties are like private concerns, it is either a case of going forward or going backward—no city, no county, no state and no private business ever stands still to wait and see what is going to happen. You have to make needed improvements and whether you have the ready money or not they must be made by borrowing the money. Seminole county and Sanford cannot stand still. We must go forward and in going forward bond issues are essential. Our section—the greatest in the world, will go forward.

25th Anniversary of Rotary's Birth

Origin of Rotary

Twenty-five years ago, Paul P. Harris, an attorney in the City of Chicago, was tormented with an unmitigated obsession to do something of benefit to humanity. The lonesomeness of the large city, the dull routine of business, and the keen desire to enlarge his circle of acquaintances spurred him into decision. He invited three friends to his office—a coal dealer, a mining engineer, and a merchant tailor—to deliberately elucidate his idea of forming a club, a unique club, that should be wholly different from any existing organization; a club that should promulgate the spirit of service, give business men better business, and develop a wide acquaintanceship, and afford its members an opportunity to serve society.

The first meeting occurred on February 23, 1905, and was the actual arrival of Rotary into a world that received it with open arms. Members consisted of one man from each business or profession, who met in rotation at their place of business to discuss various matters that might arise from time to time and to offer suggestions concerning the welfare of the community. In order to strengthen fellowship, it was unanimously agreed that each member should call the other by his first name or his nickname.

Membership in the Chicago Rotary Club increased very rapidly and just two years after its inception, the second Rotary Club was organized in San Francisco. The worthy movement spread along the Pacific Coast, crossed the continent, and crept north and south on the Atlantic Coast. At the end of the year 1910, sixteen clubs had been organized in the United States. The first International Convention of Rotary was held in Chicago in 1910. The "International Association" was formed at that convention. But, two years later, at the Duluth Convention in 1912, Rotary evolved from a national organization to an international organization. Rotary has grown more rapidly since that time during the first seven years. There are now more than one thousand Rotary Clubs in the world with approximately eighty thousand members. Although the greater number are in the United States, the land of its birth, there are now Rotary Clubs in Canada, Greenland, Mexico, Great Britain, France, Ireland, Cuba, South Africa, South Africa, the Republic of China, Japan, China, India, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippine Islands and many other countries. Inquiries have been received from Holland, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, the Falkland Islands and British East Africa, which clearly manifest the far-reaching fame of Rotary.

"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

Rotary Achievements

WHATEVER achievement marks the history of the past seventeen years of Rotary activity is due entirely to, and its ultimate worth is marked by, the manner in which each individual club has lived up to the creed that "HE PROFITS MOST WHO SERVES BEST."

The real achievement of Rotary lies in the way this spirit of service is reflected in the community in which a club has been established. Its activities are varied and numerous and are usually confined to those things which no other organization is formed to accomplish although some of its greatest achievements, and necessarily its least Literally millions of dollars have been expended in boys work activities initiated or pushed to a successful issue by Rotary Clubs in association with other organizations. For instance, in Buffalo, New York, the sum of $500,000 was raised for a high school stadium; in Minneapolis a transportation line for crippled children was established so these children could go to school and the Minnesota legislature acknowledged Rotary as the author and vigorous proponent of its legislation providing for adequate schools for such children. These are but two specific instances of thousands of actual undertakings. Even an approximation of the amount of money involved would be a wild guess, but the monetary value pales to insignificance in comparison with the community service rendered in the development of these activities.

But Boys Work, as stated before, is only one of the many achievements. Second to none in Rotary activities comes community service. Rotary Clubs in many cities have been instrumental in arousing a civic pride and consciousness that has resulted in the preparation and adoption of city-beautiful plans; erection of club houses for soldiers and community settlement houses; the providing of night schools for aliens, and their instruction in the fundamentals of Americanism. Better public highways, "get-together" meetings of farmers and business men, community singing, employment of visiting nurses, safety-first campaigns; in fact, a complete list of the various activities of Rotary Clubs would include nearly every phase of man's endeavor toward making his city, his state, and his country a better place in which to live.

There are innumerable instances where Rotary Clubs have been called upon for service in times of great stress. Probably the most striking example was at the time of the influenza epidemic in the United States and Canada, when many clubs were suddenly called upon to make surveys of hospital facilities, organize available local resources for fighting the epidemic, and securing nurses from less-afflicted communities.

Governing Body of Rotary

The International Association of Rotary Clubs, embracing more than one thousand individual Rotary Clubs, functions through a Board of Directors which is elected each year at the annual Convention. The Directors of the Association are a president, three vice-presidents, and a fifth member who is the outgoing president and who remains as one of the Directors for a year after the expiration of his term as president.

The headquarters or central office of the International Association is located in Chicago, and departments are organized here for rendering efficient and individual service to all Rotary Clubs. Constant contact is maintained with district governors and committees as well as with each individual Rotary Club through its officials.

"The Rotarian," a large magazine devoted to Rotary, is published every month. Verbatim proceedings of the International Convention are printed each year in book form. The fact that more than one million copies of reports, bulletins and publications are printed annually will suggest a fair idea of the enormous amount of work handled at the central office of the Association.

Objects of Rotary

To encourage and foster:

High ethical standards in business and professions.

The ideal of SERVICE as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

The active interest of every Rotarian in the civic, commercial, social and moral welfare of his community.

The development of a broad acquaintanceship as an opportunity for service as well as an aid to success.

The interchange of ideas and of business methods as a means of increasing the efficiency and usefulness of Rotarians.

The recognition of the worthiness of all legitimate occupations and the dignifying of the occupation of each Rotarian as affording him an opportunity to serve society.

Rotary activities, have been in promoting work for and with other organizations along the lines which these other organizations are in public recognition of accomplishment. Thus during the great Rotarianism, nominated by International Headquarters of the club, at the request of government departments or war work organizations like the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., etc., formed the nucleus of groups about which were built many most active and efficient local organizations.

Taking the achievements of all Rotary Clubs in the eastern and western hemispheres, they touch every phase of community life.

Twenty-five thousand boys and girls who had quit school were encouraged to return last September through the activity of 114 Rotary Clubs in the "back-to-school" movement which began with the Oklahoma, Oklahoma, Rotary Club three years ago. That is just one of the phases of what is termed Boys Work—one of the several social agencies through which practically every club in the international organization has been active.

The principal branches of Boys Work, in addition to the Boy Scout Movement, are: Providing or organizing the community to provide boys' camps, playgrounds and swimming pools; providing surgical treatment for crippled children; giving boys vocational counseling; big brothering under-privileged and delinquent boys; establishing dental clinics, etc.

SCIENTISTS WILL STUDY RAT Good Results Expected to Follow Observations to Be Carried Out at Philadelphia.

The superrat, unlike the superman of Nietzsche, is not of the warrior's type, but is a gentleman, an aristocrat at heart, although democratic in his ways.

He is gentle and sociable, a good fellow, healthy and active, and has an esthetic side, being fond of good music.

These are some of the conclusions drawn from years of experiments with the rodent by Dr. Milton H. Greenman, director of the Wistar Institute, at Philadelphia. To make observations on a more extensive scale and under more favorable conditions than heretofore, particularly in food research, the institute is building a $30,000 home for rats. The building will be a one-story wing to the present structure, and will be provided with every kind of convenience conducive to rat comfort and well being. The results, it is believed, will be of far-reaching benefit to mankind.

Outside of an office and laboratory there will be a well-equipped gymnasium for the rats. Ladders for climbing, modified trapezes, running space, treadmill cages, and knowing apparatus will be provided to give the eugenically raised rat the proper exercise.

SILVER PRODUCTION FELL OFF Year 1921 Saw Less of It Mined and Consumed Than in the Preceding Twelve Months.

An estimate of the world's production and consumption of silver in 1921 gives the world's total product last year as 101,000,000 ounces, against 174,000,000 in 1920. Of this total the United States is estimated to have produced 50,000,000 ounces in 1921, against 55,400,000 in 1920; Mexico, 22,000,000, against 20,700,000; Canada, 10,000,000, against 12,800,000, and other countries 39,000,000, against 30,300,000.

It is estimated that consumption for governmental purchases and exports to the East absorbed 36,500,000 ounces more of silver than the year's production. The total distribution on these accounts is estimated at 107,500,000 ounces, of which 18,000,000 ounces were assigned to this country's consumption in the arts, 2,500,000 to similar English consumption, 50,000,000 to purchases under the Pittman act by the United States mint, 5,000,000 to Mexican government purchases, 30,000,000 to shipments from England to India, 5,300,000 to shipments from the United States to India, 38,500,000 to shipments by England and the United States to China and the Far East and 22,200,000 to purchases in the United States for subsidiary coinage and other purposes.

Defends Puritan Architecture. Wallace Nuttings' book on "Furniture of the Pilgrim Century" is an argument to disprove the fallacy that the Puritans were insensible to beauty and art.

Of the rugged substantial relics of their building, Mr. Nutting says "There is solidity in them, durability, freedom from caprice, and an expression of that sober rationality everywhere characteristic of the Puritan genius. "For adaptation to climate, wise use of accessible materials, inner convenience obtained at low cost and freedom from discordant lines, Puritan domestic architecture deserves high praise."

This is no less true of their furniture accessories. It is wrong to assume that their austerity and simplicity were forced upon them by mere hardship. Rather were they the outward expression of an inner nobility and spiritual exaltation.

Amusing, but What About Musicians? An unrehearsed scene was enacted during the production of the revue "Splash Me" at the Tivoli Music hall at Hull, England. A spectacular feature is a great glass tank, said to hold 20,000 gallons of water, in which "bathing belles" disport themselves. As the tank was being prepared for the performance the rear side burst and water flooded the stage. The revue artists scurried off, but many of the musicians were drenched. The water found its way to the basement beneath the stage, and stood at such a level that the orchestra, on an elevated platform, had to play with their feet in several inches of water when they returned to their places. The consternation of the audience gave way to amusement when the orchestra was overwhelmed. The bathing scene, of course, had to be abandoned.

"1 Franc Or." Numismatists have been gladdened by the news that a single gold franc has been struck as the monetary unit which is the basis of all financial transactions of the League of Nations. It is a piece of gold about one-third the size of an English farthing, with the inscription on one side, "1. des N. (Societe des Nations), 1921;" and on the other "1 franc or." In American currency it is equal to 0.1025 dollar. Apart from there being only one gold franc, the remarkable thing about it is the shape, which is octagonal, and maybe it will act as a protest against the continued use of round coins, which does not enable one, say, to tell the difference by feeling between a six-pence and a half-sovereign.—Christian Science Monitor.

MYSELF. I want to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know. I want to be able, as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye, I don't want to stand, with the setting sun, And hate myself for the things I've done.

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf A lot of secrets about myself, And fool myself, as I come and go, Into thinking that nobody else will know The kind of man I really am. I don't want to dress myself up in sham.

I never can hide myself from me; I see what others may never see; I know what others may never know, I have to live with myself, and so Whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting, and conscience-free. —Edgar A. Guest.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

Rain today for a change and weather reports say that snow and ice and blizzards will follow, meaning, of course, in the northern states. Florida may have a cold spell but no snow or ice. We are in that favored climate that knows nothing—but sunshine and showers, golden fruit and early vegetables and everything necessary to make life worth living. We hate cloudy days and have few of them.

THE WEATHER

For Florida: Local rains tonight and Friday cooler Friday and in northwest portion tonight.

BOY SCOUT BAND

The Boy Scouts will have a band of their own many of the former players taking up the idea of having a band of 34 pieces for the scouts. Dr. Geo. Hyman has always been greatly interested in a boys' band, organized the first one here several years ago and is assisting in the organization of the Boy Scout Band. Mr. Ball will teach the boys and expects to have several future members of the municipal band among the beginners in the Boy Scout Band. They will be enabled to buy their instruments on the easy payment plan and by having many of the older members of the former boys band to help organize it should be easy sailing.

Peace is a wonderful thing. Since Mexico agreed to be reasonable, not a single oil well has gone dry.

MADE TIRES CHEAPER

In the advertisement of the Bryan-Wheeler Motor Co., yesterday there was a mistake in the prices of tires and it has kept the Bryan-Wheeler force busy today explaining the mistake. It was several dollars cheaper than it should have been and while the prices are very low now the Herald was trying to make them lower. Of course, when it comes to selling them cheap the Bryan-Wheeler Co. is there but they do not want the Herald to lose them money on the tires, hence we make this explanation in justice to this firm. However, they are selling them today so fast that they feel justified in taking a half-
