The Background For Worship
J. Raymond Chadwick
"I recently had my attention called to a novel by a Danish author, the story of an old peasant who on his deathbed made of his son this strange request: that every day he would go into the best room of the house and sit for a half hour alone. The son, having promised his father this unusual thing, did it, and it became for him a cherished and transforming habit. The growing man looked forward to this half hour of quiet each day; he thrived on it. He found that it did things down within him, and from it came wisdom and strength. The art of quietude will do the same for one today, even in this noisy world. The promise in the prophecy of Isaiah is eternally true: 'In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength.'
Hald Faraday, the famous scientist: 'The important thing is to know how to take all things quietly.'"

Footsteps leading to perfection and eternal life are clearly indicated in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death" which will be read in every Church of Christ, Scientist, next Sunday.
The Golden Text is from John (8:12): "The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live."
Among the Bible passages is the following from John (8:11): "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing ye might have life through his name."
Correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes: "Our Master fully and finally demonstrated divine Science in his victory over death and the grave. Jesus' deed was for the enlightenment of men and for the salvation of the whole world from sin, sickness, and death."
"Like our Master, we must depart from material being, into the spiritual world of being." (p. 48; 8-10; p. 41; 6).

Double Surprise for a lot of folks

EVERY time we publish the price of a Buick, it seems to surprise a lot of people, because they come in and tell us so.

They just can't believe that so little money buys such a lot of car—but it's a fact, as the prices published here will prove.

And that brings us to the second surprise—which is how much power and performance—how much comfort and room—what a long list of standout engineering features you get for the price.

Takes power. You'll find that no other car at the price of the Buick SPECIAL pictured here delivers the horsepower you get from its high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine.

Take comfort. The best thing to do is try the depth of its seats—their width—and the headroom you get in this Buick SPECIAL, and judge for yourself.

Take the ride. This Buick has big soft coil springs on every wheel, plus the solid firmness of a torque-tube keel—and the way this combination smoothes the bumps is something that's hard to match in cars costing a thousand dollars more.

 TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

When a bad man becomes a good man that is a miracle, but it has happened again and again. Forget had heredity and race about. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? —Jo. 13:27

A Pittsburgh banker, arrested for embezzlement, explains that it cost him $30,000 to put his daughter through college. We can understand his zeal in behalf of his daughter's education, but does it cost $30,000 to put a girl through college?

Max Fleischmann, whose father made a fortune in Fleischmann's Yeast, died the other day and left $50,000,000 to charity. More important than how you make your money, though making yeast has been a boon to mankind, in what you do with it after you get it. If there had been tax laws 50 years ago such as we have today, the government would have spent Mr. Fleischmann's money before he got it, and charity would have been the loser.

Greatest event in the world's history since the surrender of the Japanese at Tokyo, was the election victory of Winston Churchill in Britain last week. More important than the overthrow of the Socialists, or the slight margin of voting strength in the House of Commons which the Conservatives gained, is the return to power of the greatest man in the Twentieth Century. At a time when there is a paucity of competent leadership that almost staggers the imagination, it was nothing less than a crime against humanity when the greatest man of our time was put out to pasture just when he was needed most to consolidate the gains of World War II. The collapse of the British Empire alone can be attributed to that one fact alone. Whether he will be able to pick up the pieces and put them back together again remains to be seen. But if any man can do it, Churchill can.

About three thousand Sanford people have registered out of a possible four or five thousand to participate in the coming election for City Commissioners. From an advertisement in the Mooreville, N. C. Tribune regarding a hospital election, we learn that Thomas Jefferson once rode 52 miles on horseback in order to cast his vote in an election not nearly as important as this hospital election. But that was when the right to vote was new, when the blood and struggle spent in earning the right to vote was fresh in everyone's mind. Now that we have learned to take it for granted, we do not appreciate it. Many of us do not even go down and register so that we can vote, and when we do often we do not vote even when all we have to do is to stop by the polls as we drive by in our car on our way down to work.

One young man was quite surprised to learn the other day that we could not publish his check in full when he brought it down to the Herald office. Then he'll run it as an ad, he said. How much will it cost. We quoted it and it came to $25. Twenty-five dollars, he almost gasped. Why, I didn't think it would be more than 25 cents. How are the mysteries of the newspaper game. Why it should cost $25 to hire a professional spotter to get up a check is a mystery. How many of you know how to spot a check? If you don't know, you need to get a professional spotter. He'll save you a lot of money. He'll save you a lot of money. He'll save you a lot of money.

Problems And Children

Psychiatrists have pointed out that the most modern techniques of child training can fail if parents do not provide their children with a sense of security. They say that some parents who consider themselves enlightened are unable to give their children this needed sense of security because many of their own emotional problems remain unresolved.

It seems sometimes that a child can sense unhappiness in his parents and that his perception of it is reflected in his attitude and behavior. No family is without problems and it is sometimes difficult for parents to maintain emotional stability in the face of them. But parental calmness and common sense in meeting troubles will not only help a child to retain a secure feeling but may do much toward solving the problems.

Keeping a child in the dark as to matters which trouble his parents is not the perfect answer. This may give the child the impression that life is all triumphs and the road is always smooth. A child who is thus sheltered from trouble is in danger of rude disillusionment as he grows older.

Perhaps letting a youngster know that his mother and father are often beset with difficulties, which they somehow manage to solve, will help the child to handle problems of his own which he meets in the school and on the playground. Such a realization may stay with the youngster as he grows into an adult, and be always valuable to him.

Tax Office Scandal

Moved by the scandals breaking in the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin would have all local collectors put under the merit system. At present they are appointed on a political basis, and the jobs are coveted bits of patronage.

Civil service is not, as was once thought, a cure-all for political ills. It does, however, eliminate a good many such. The requirement that the appointee must pass an examination relating to his future work rules out a good many political hacks, and encourages applications from qualified persons who lack pull. The chief defect of the civil service system is the difficulty in dismissing an office-holder, once he gets in. That could be changed to the advantage of the public, without doing away with the merit system.

Opposition to reform of patronage systems usually comes not from the White House but from Congress. Since the merit system was instituted in 1883, all presidents but two, McKinley and Harding, have supported it and extended its operation as far as they were permitted. Further reductions in the offices chosen for political reasons must come from Congress, where there has been stubborn resistance to the idea.

Christmas Tree Prices

One of the first news stories about the approach of the Christmas season was a prediction that Christmas trees may be somewhat more expensive this year. The Office of Price Stabilization has announced that it will not try to control the prices of Christmas trees or Christmas greens.

Raising Christmas trees and marketing them is a business with the special risks of brief and unpredictable seasons. Climate over a period of years, the weather just before Christmas, cost of transportation, handling and public demand, are all factors which help to determine how much the Christmas trees will cost. The trees vary greatly in size and shape and those features affect the amount people will be willing to pay for them; it is easy to see why the O.P.S. would be happy to overlook the question of setting a ceiling on tree prices.

We can only hope that the steadily increasing prices will not affect Santa's spirit, as it must his purse. It's too much to hope that he had the foresight to order the things he might need before prices started rising higher and faster than his reindeer on Christmas eve.

Millions Of Ulcers

The life of a journalistic wage slave is dominated by the ugly word "deadline." The very term has a sinister sound to the ear of a writer. It is the word that means "a line drawn around a military prison beyond which a prisoner might be shot down." Editors do not commonly shoot down their assistants these days when they are late producing a piece of copy. There is a real hangman's look in their eyes, however, when the fumes of the deadline rolls around.

Authors of books think themselves great martyrs when publishers give them a deadline six months or a year away. Their faces begin to go stiff with strain when they talk about the necessity of finishing their masterpiece before next June, with only a Fall, Winter and Spring between. The worker on a monthly magazine counts along in comparative bliss for several weeks, only to bump up against a deadline that looks all the more hideous for its delayed appearance. The radio singer warbles her song, the comedian desperately juggles his television material with one eye on a clock whose hands might as well spell out the word "deadline."

The worst sufferer of all, however, is the editorial writer. Each of his days is allied into bleeding halves by one of those guttural moments. While working frantically against its approach, he must not only keep pounding his typewriter, He must actually try to think of something sensible to say. The strain, dear readers, is hellish. We would wrap your hearts with full horror of it, but for one dread reason. The deadline for the page is here.

THE WORLD TODAY

By JOHN SCALI (For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29—(AP)—The Western plan to set up a Middle-Eastern defense command is fizzling like a wet firecracker. Egypt has scornfully rejected the offer. Other Arab countries have informally told the State Department they don't want any part of it, either.

The Egyptians, who are busy denouncing Britain, haven't bothered to give any reason for turning down the plan. But Iraq, Syria, and Lebanon have notified American diplomats:

1. Not enough advance consultation with the Arab states went into the proposal.

2. Former defense agreements and more promises of American arms must be included.

Despite this opposition, the U. S., Britain, France, and Turkey have announced they are going right ahead with the proposal.

These four sponsoring powers plan to meet shortly with Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa to create the proposed defense command.

These seven countries may well succeed in forming a defense command. But it's stretching the English language pretty far to call it a "Middle East defense command."

Only Turkey is a genuine, independent, Middle Eastern country of the type whose membership against its approach, he must not only keep pounding his typewriter, He must actually try to think of something sensible to say. The strain, dear readers, is hellish. We would wrap your hearts with full horror of it, but for one dread reason. The deadline for the page is here.

day tour of Korea and Japan. She said she has a long list of soldiers' recommendations to improve conditions.

Collins said the U. S. Eighth Army has "marvelous fighting quality" despite rotation.

He asserted rotation is "going very well" and "we are doing everything we can to get combat veterans of the last winter campaign out of Korea before another winter sets in." Mrs. Rosenberg gave frontline troops the same assurance earlier.

Collins said winter clothing and equipment has been distributed to men of the Eighth Army, adding:

"If we do have to fight another winter campaign we will be in much better condition than the Chinese and North Koreans."

The Chief of Staff said he noted great improvement in the fighting ability of the South Korean army over what he saw on his last visit in January.

"It is most gratifying to see the ROK (Republic of Korea) army learning how to fight on its own," he said. "We are beginning to recognize their able young leaders who gained their spurs in action."

Collins was accompanied on his two-day tour by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Supreme Allied commander, and Gen. James A. Van Fleet, Eighth Army commander. Collins and Ridgway flew back to Tokyo Monday night.

 Here's where I stand

- Let's get this terminal built, because*
- 1) It will reduce freight charges for shippers throughout the whole Central Florida area.
 - 2) It will reduce freight costs on building supplies and other materials and commodities brought into Central Florida and thus help to reduce prices.
 - 3) It will provide payrolls for dock workers, warehousemen, truckers, and produce handlers.
 - 4) It will encourage the construction here of other warehouses and cold storage facilities.
 - 5) It will bring in new industries looking for cheap transportation and a convenient distribution center.
 - 6) It will make Sanford grow and prosper.
- But let's get this straight--*
- I would not favor the construction of the terminal at this time on the site of a single bond for its construction, until the contractor presents positive evidence that it can be built on the ground level of the bond issue and he has an irrevocable contract for all necessary materials to complete its construction.

Silver Tea Given For Catholic Group

The Catholic Woman's Club of All Souls Church opened their winter season with a Silver Tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert B. Pope at Indian Mound Village.

The chairman of the seven circles in the club and their groups participated in the affair. The chairmen include Mrs. C. H. Schirani, Mrs. Dorothy Corradi, Mrs. G. C. The spacious and beautiful rooms of the Pope home, which overlooks the St. Johns River, were artistically decorated with autumn foliage and rare hibiscus blossoms.

The tea table was overlaid with a lace cloth and featured a central arrangement of pastel hibiscus. A five branch crystal candelabra holding white tapered cast a soft glow over the crystal and silver appointments. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. William Leffler, Jr., Mrs. J. L. Hurt and Mrs. Lou Puleston.

A register placed on the lower gallery was presided over by Mrs. Francis Roumillat. An interesting display of Mrs. Pope's paintings was viewed in the studio of the upper gallery.

Michigan State Keeps Coming From Behind To Whip Opponents

By ROBERT E. VOSES
 EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Michigan State has followed the same script for four successive football Saturdays—a success story with the Spartans coming from behind to club down their opponents.

Monday, it's the lethal one-two punch of Coach Bigger Munn's two-plate offensive backfield that has kept rattling the old plot over.

Munn originated the stunt in the game with Ohio State when Michigan State was trailing 20-10 at the half.

"I got a good look at the Ohio State team," Munn recalled today. "I could see they were tiring. So I thought it was a good spot to gamble on a 'pony' backfield."

The gamble paid off with two touchdowns and a 24-20 win for the Spartans.

This gambit, with variations, was followed against Marquette and Penn State.

Again last Saturday Michigan State was behind 20-10 at the half and it looked as if the spectacular passing by Herb Bestwick might make it the upset of the week for Pittsburgh.

But Michigan State pushed across three touchdowns in the third quarter and two more in the fourth to make the final score a fall 35-20 for the Spartans.

Quarterback Gets His Training By Playing At Full

By KEN DAVIN
 COLUMBIUS, O., Oct. 29.—(AP)—"I will, Woolly Hayes, lowering his happy bulk into a chair, 'know I know how to coach' quarterbacks."

He looked at a statistics sheet that showed Ohio State's Hucks had snarled Iowa, 47-21 Saturday, and grinned. "All you gotta do, he said, "is play 'em at fullback all weeks."

He meant quarterback Tony Curcullo, the kid with the hurr halcut and atomic arm.

Curcullo had just thrown 10 successful passes in 14 attempts for 292 yards and six touchdowns. The gimnick? Curcullo was a substitute, having lost his regular quarterback spot on the basis of poor passing.

That's right, a week ago, after Indiana drubbed Ohio State soundly, Hayes announced he was shifting Curcullo from quarterback to fullback and putting second-string quarterback Bill Wilks in the signal-calling spot.

"I don't think there is any doubt that Wilks is the better passer," opined Coach Hayes.

So, Wilks started the Iowa game at quarter. Curcullo took up fullbacking after working at the position all week. The Ohio State offense sputtered and staggered. Wilks got banged up in the first quarter and Curcullo went in as quarterback. That's when he started hitting pass receivers like he was shooting fish in a barrel. It should have been 11 complete

DRER FIGHT

PICKFORD, Mich., Oct. 29.—(AP)—A grim study of battle and death has come from the north woods.

Two big buck deer, each with 10-point antlers, fought it out in a long and hard battle with knife-sharp hoofs. Both died.

Warring in the mating season is characteristic of bucks. Sometimes one may be killed, but most never, sometimes say, do their fights end in death for both.

One was waiting, bagged, and a deer neck, the other was succumbed to exhaustion and antlers of the adversary he had mortally wounded.

One in 14 attempts. Left half-back Bernie Skvortak dropped a nice soft pass right in his arms with no one near him.

"Of course," said Hayes in a tone that said he hoped he was wrong. "Tony can't expect to get the kind of catching he was getting, either. And, he probably can't duplicate his pitching. Boy, wasn't they just about perfect!"

But, I didn't have enough work at it. These big Iowa ends were giving me plenty of trouble.

"I liked it, a fullback. I played it in high school. But I feel comfortable at quarterback."

Hayes was just on of those days. The guys gave me no protection and the receivers were one man almost every time.

Coach Lou Bellinger, manager of Iowa was, I'm sure, "With all that work on Curcullo, he said, "we'd be better off as my young daughter, he wouldn't have had such a good day."

"You said Hayes, "All you gotta do is play 'em all week at fullback, coach?" asked a reporter.

"You were coaching the team, weren't you?" countered Hayes. "You led who threw for 292 yards. What would be all Tony ever needed was a little confidence. He got it."

Anthony Curcullo definitely will play quarterback all week before next Saturday's Northwestern game. Practicing at fullback worked, once he had Hayes decided after he cooled down. It might not work two weeks in a row.

Sanford Jayvees Seek To Revenge Loss To Maitland

The Sanford Jayvees, Seminole High's razzle dazzle boys, take on the B squad from Maitland on the B squad from Maitland in Sanford at 7:15 tomorrow night.

The Jayvees will be seeking revenge for their only loss of the season when they meet the Maitland team on their own territory. Maitland handed the Seminole High boys a 14-0 loss in their first game of the season. Since then the Jayvees have been unbeatable.

Thursday Coach Gordon's Junior High eleven takes on an Ocoee Junior High team on the Seminole High field.

The Jayvees are going up a week of football Friday when they journey to Hollywood to play South Broward.

Last Friday night the variety show was held when they made their debut in St. Augustine. They were the only team to score in the East Florida Conference championship by whipping Sanford 14-7 at St. Augustine's Francis Field, to pun their conference string to three wins without a loss.

The Sanford eleven twice moved the ball inside the Ketterlinus 10 yard strip without being able to score, as the local fans would up on the losing end of a game that could easily have gone the other way.

The Underdog Seminole High boys were ahead when they made their only score of the game as Ed Gordon went over from the E. B. Augustine scored late in the first quarter on an intercepted pass and again in the closing minutes of the game.

The Sanford team was plagued by injuries for the first time this season. Frankie Stenstrom, the Coley Field's ground gaining tailback and Varsity End Harry Byrd went out of the game in the first half. Tackle Walter Routh, built out of the Sanford line was put out of commission early in the third quarter.

Case Of Bright's Broken Jaw Given A. & M. Officials

By SKIPPER PATRICK
 KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The next step in the case of Johnny Bright's broken jaw is up to Oklahoma A. and M. officials.

A special four-man fact finding committee of the Missouri Valley Conference left it that way after an eight and a half hour meeting here yesterday.

The committee, which also included Coach J. B. Whitworth and faculty representative Dean C. H. McKelroy, are to study the report to the committee before making a reply.

The fact finders plan to meet again to hear the A. and M. report, then turn over their findings to the conference faculty committee.

Oklahoma officials had absolutely "no comment" yesterday. Jack McClelland, Drake athletic director, Head Coach Warren Gier and Prof. Frank Gardner, faculty representative, were armed with motion and still pictures of the game, however, and talked freely.

The charge Smith was guilty of four assaults on Bright, national record breaking ground runner, before he was finally helped from the field. Gier, serving as narrator, pointed out the blast in dispute at the pictures were run in slow motion.

Gier said he wasn't sure which play resulted in the actual breaking of the bone, but he said he did know that Bright was in the date of Drake's first offensive play.

Crooms Academy Ranks Up 3rd Win

By ELDRA L. DIXON
 Crooms Academy Panthers racked up their third victory of an undefeated season by knocking out the Cocoa Cats 16-13 at the local football field last Friday.

The Cocoa squad led the Panthers 6-0 at the half after driving to the TD area on a series of pass plays.

The Panthers roared back in the third quarter as halfback O. Williams took the Cat's kick-off on his own 35 yard behind excellent interference all the way to the Cocoa 47 yard line (George Williams carried the lead to the Cat's). A pass from Quarterback Ernest Throne to right half Major Williams scored on the Cocoa goal line.

In the fourth quarter the Sanford boys took advantage of a Cocoa error and a safety and went out in front 9-0.

The Panthers hit pay-off territory again as Oscar Williams made the pigskin on the first play of the half and scampered the way from his own end. Williams made the extra point on a lateral from Quarterback Richard Evans.

The Cats came back in the final seconds to make their last score but it wasn't enough as time ran out with the local ahead 16-13.

W. A. Cummings, who pitched for Brooklyn Stars in post-Civil War days, was elected coach of the team. Cummings, 62, was a pitcher in 1890 and more than a season for 14 consecutive years.

St. Johns River Canal To Be Topic At Wildlife Meet

Porter H. Lansing, President of the Florida Wildlife Federation, announced today that the proposed canal from Lake Monroe in the Indian River will be one of the main topics to be discussed at the 1951 convention of the Federation in Daytona Beach on Nov. 3 and 4.

Tentative plans for the upper St. Johns River area, conservation of water resources and the effect of fish and wildlife, citrus, cattle, navigation, ground water supplies will be among other major topics to be discussed at the meetings which will be held in the Whitehall Hotel.

It is expected, said Mr. Lansing, that considerable controversy will revolve around the problem of fluctuating water levels and the proposed tidal run-off of the water which are expected as a result of tentative plans being considered by the U. S. Engineers.

Officials of the State and Federal Governments maintain that the role that fluctuating water levels have been overlooked in similar projects in the past, he declared, and the proposed tidal run-off and fluctuating water levels, valuable hunting and fishing areas.

He pointed out that among the areas which will be affected by the proposed canal are the Purgis Lake and Indian River duck shooting grounds, as well as fishing spots.

The main discussion on the water control program will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. Mr. Lansing today urged that local sportsmen, cattlemen, citrus growers and others who are interested in water conservation to attend the Federation meeting.

Col. R. W. Platon of the Corps of Engineers, Jacksonville, has stated that he will send a representative to the meeting.

A number of national and southeastern authorities have accepted invitations to participate in the discussions. These include Dr. F. H. Clark of the University of Florida; Gordon Frading, regional supervisor of the River Basin Unit of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service; Col. A. G. Matthews, chief engineer of the State Division of Water Survey and Research.

Other speakers will be Eric Bronson, president of the Florida Cattlemen's Association; John F. Reynolds, chief of the Fish Management Division, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission; Dr. A. F. Camp, of the Citrus Experiment Station; Carl Shoemaker, conservation director of the National Wildlife Federation; and George O. Earle Frye, chief of the game management division, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Other events will include a business session and election of officers. Talks will be made by Ben L. McLaughlin, director of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission; George Platon, supervisor of the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission; and Rex Coulter, chief forester of the Florida Forest Service. Carl D. Shoemaker, conservation director of the National Wildlife Federation will be the main speaker at the Saturday night banquet.

Local Fans To See Movies Of Tampa, Stetson Meeting

Stetson Alumni and football fans of Sanford will have an opportunity to see movies of the Stetson-Tampa game at 7:30 tomorrow night in the Commissioners room at City Hall, J. B. Taylor, Stetson Publicity Director, announced today.

Following the movies plans will be made to make available more tickets for the remaining Stetson home games for Sanford residents.

Interest in the Stetson-Tampa game, played in Deland Oct. 20, was spread over the state following a protest by Stetson Coach Gus McMillin who claims that officials denied him the right to make five substitutions on the final play of the game. The game ended in a 14-14 tie.

Stetson home game is with the University of Richmond, a Southern Conference team on Nov. 10. Livingston State will play in Deland on Nov. 24 and Eastern Kentucky will play in Sanford. Homecoming opponent on Nov. 25 is F. A. Palmer, chairman of the football committee, announced that McMillin or one of his coaches should be at the meeting to which all Stetson rooters in the area are invited.

Princeton Coach In All Wet After Win Over Cornell

By WILL GRIMSLEY
 NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Raining Monday's football wash out to dry, and don't forget to leave room on the line for Charley Caldwell's old gray tweed.

Two weeks ago Caldwell would not let his Princeton boys throw him in Lake Carnegie if he beat Cornell . . . less than an hour after Princeton's 33-18 victory was posted, the coach, clothes and hair was tossed splash-into the drink . . . "My suit's not dry yet," Caldwell said . . . by the way, what ever became of the "formation" . . . The two most successful elements in present day football, Princeton and Tennessee, are exponents of the old-fashioned sign-waving . . . Princeton has won 18 in a row and top-ranked Tennessee, 15-0. After absorbing the 33-15 massacre, Cornell's Coach Lefty Jansen said "Princeton, as it played against us, could have beaten any team in the country, and I don't exclude Tennessee, Illinois or Michigan State" . . . but down in Philadelphia, Navy Coach Eddie Erdelatz said: "Our boys thought Rice was better. We thought Rice was the best team we've played." Navy lost to Princeton, 24-20, and to Rice, 21-14, on successive Saturdays . . . wonder if Eddie and Lefty are talking about the same team.

Navy and Pennsylvania couldn't hold the ball for dropping it at Philadelphia Saturday and between them provided 11 fumbles, eight of them recovered by the other side . . . Of those Penn was guilty of eight fumbles, five snatched up by Navy . . . Hard-tackling jarred the boys loose from the spread . . . The stuff may have been catching, because Florida fumbled twice in the game against Kentucky, once eight yards from the enemy goal, before Kentucky won 14-0. Montana State College completed its season Saturday and it didn't end too soon for the Rocky Mountain boys . . . They lost to Colorado Western State, 24 to 0, making seven losses in seven games.

Here's the latest report of streaks . . . Alabama broke its longest losing streak since 1910—four games—by beating Mississippi State, 7-0 . . . Pittsburgh (kicker) 1 of the nation's top stand-up teams finally had its goal line crossed by St. Benedict's although Pittsburgh won, 21-0 . . . And Williams won again, beating Tufts, 45-0 . . . Nothing about the Williams men, according to their trainer, got struck by a dial of beef blood and parsley . . . Pass another cup of beef blood, please.

Kull (Dutch) Leonard, now pitching for the Chicago Cubs, began his pro career with the Dodgers in 1933. He was sent back to the minors in 1945 and pitched up with the Washington Senators in 1948.

Duke To Try Upsetting Unbeaten Tech With Fancy Split T Attack

By STERLING SLAPPEY
 Associated Press Sports Writer

In August of 1949 Bobby Dodd made the acquaintance of the football split "T" formation while serving as a coach of the college All-Stars under split "T" prophet Bud Wilkinson.

Bobby returned to his home station at Georgia Tech swearing he'd divide his line and go in heavy for pichtouts and handoffs the first chance he got. Since then Dodd has lacked the proper fullback and quarterback and Tech still knows little about the formation which is noted for gaining yardage in small doses.

This week the split "T" finally arrives at Georgia Tech but it will be aimed at running the ball down Tech's throat, not against the opposition as Dodd planned.

Duke brings the fancy "T" to Tech and the Yellow Jackets' unbeaten record isn't safe by any means. The game, 19th in the Duke-Tech series, is challenging all this Tennessee game against North Carolina in Chapel Hill as the best the Southeastern Conference has to offer.

Neither game rates quite as high as it might have if affairs were made here yesterday at a meeting of the Associated Press poll, accomplished practically nothing by defeating little Tennessee Tech 55-0.

Georgia Tech's 8-7 victory over Vanderbilt barely managed to keep Tech's unbeaten streak going. Dodd's Yellow Jackets have won six this season and game against North Carolina in Chapel Hill as the best the Southeastern Conference has to offer.

Local Fans To See Movies Of Tampa, Stetson Meeting

Stetson Alumni and football fans of Sanford will have an opportunity to see movies of the Stetson-Tampa game at 7:30 tomorrow night in the Commissioners room at City Hall, J. B. Taylor, Stetson Publicity Director, announced today.

Following the movies plans will be made to make available more tickets for the remaining Stetson home games for Sanford residents.

Interest in the Stetson-Tampa game, played in Deland Oct. 20, was spread over the state following a protest by Stetson Coach Gus McMillin who claims that officials denied him the right to make five substitutions on the final play of the game. The game ended in a 14-14 tie.

Stetson home game is with the University of Richmond, a Southern Conference team on Nov. 10. Livingston State will play in Deland on Nov. 24 and Eastern Kentucky will play in Sanford. Homecoming opponent on Nov. 25 is F. A. Palmer, chairman of the football committee, announced that McMillin or one of his coaches should be at the meeting to which all Stetson rooters in the area are invited.

Case Of Bright's Broken Jaw Given A. & M. Officials

By SKIPPER PATRICK
 KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The next step in the case of Johnny Bright's broken jaw is up to Oklahoma A. and M. officials.

A special four-man fact finding committee of the Missouri Valley Conference left it that way after an eight and a half hour meeting here yesterday.

The committee, which also included Coach J. B. Whitworth and faculty representative Dean C. H. McKelroy, are to study the report to the committee before making a reply.

The fact finders plan to meet again to hear the A. and M. report, then turn over their findings to the conference faculty committee.

Oklahoma officials had absolutely "no comment" yesterday. Jack McClelland, Drake athletic director, Head Coach Warren Gier and Prof. Frank Gardner, faculty representative, were armed with motion and still pictures of the game, however, and talked freely.

The charge Smith was guilty of four assaults on Bright, national record breaking ground runner, before he was finally helped from the field. Gier, serving as narrator, pointed out the blast in dispute at the pictures were run in slow motion.

Gier said he wasn't sure which play resulted in the actual breaking of the bone, but he said he did know that Bright was in the date of Drake's first offensive play.

NO SCHOLARSHIPS
 CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The presidents of Harvard, Yale and Princeton say their schools do not give athletic scholarships or special subsidies of any sort for athletes.

They said last night they were speaking out in order to prevent misunderstanding and misrepresentation.

Patsy Donovan managed five different major league clubs—Pittsburgh, Brooklyn and St. Louis in the National League; Boston and Washington in the American League.

Federal Grant For Hospital Is Approved

Government Agrees To Put Up $270,000 On $767,000 Fish Memorial Hospital

The United States Public Health Service today approved a federal grant of $270,000 as the government's share of the cost of the proposed Fish Memorial Hospital at First Street and Meltonville Avenue.

The total cost of the hospital which will have 50 beds has been estimated at $767,000 of which $497,000 will be expended by the Bert Fish Estate trustees in accordance with the will of the late Judge Bert Fish of Deland, who left funds for the building of hospitals in Deland, Sanford and New Smyrna.

Announcement of the $270,000 grant was made this morning by Senators Holland and Smithers and Congressman Herlong.

Fred R. Wilson, a trustee of the Fish Estate, said this morning that detailed specifications and blueprints of the project cannot be completed by the architect, Melton Fish, until the latter's preliminary plans are approved by the government. It will take some time to get the detailed specifications and plans completed, he added.

The Fish Estate, he declared, recently received title to 18 additional lots on the west side of the block on which the hospital will be located, and this gives the Fish Estate title to the whole block.

Fourteen crewmen were missing and feared dead. Seven were taken as crewmen on the barge Morania and the tug Dauntless, and three from the Penobscot crew. Four others, not identified, were believed to have been aboard the freighter.

Gator Hunting To Be Permitted By Game Commission

Spotted Deer In Volusia County Put On Protected List

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Alligator hunting banned in Florida since 1944, is to be permitted again.

The state Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission agreed last night to permit sportsmen to kill the thick-skinned, ferocious, sword denters of jungle waters.

The commission acted on the recommendation of Ross Allen, a veteran hunter and former alligator hunter, who said it is time to "keep the alligator in his place."

The killing of alligators was prohibited in 1944 by Executive Order 10488, a Florida trademark, openly were becoming extinct. Allen said alligators now are abundant in the state and are becoming a nuisance.

"Since hunters have not been able to kill them, alligators have become unafraid of men and even are apt to attack them," Allen said. "By permitting them to be hunted, alligators again will become afraid of man."

Allies Beat Off Chinese Attack

Then Drive Ahead

U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Allied infantrymen in eastern Korea beat back an attack near Heartbreak Ridge by 1,000 Chinese in the early morning today, then drove ahead 1,000 yards in daylight.

On the western front United Nations forces gained more than half a mile northwest of Yonchon with little trouble.

Reinforced Chinese who had hurled day-long attacks at the Allies southeast of Kumson in the center of the line Monday made only two small probing attacks Tuesday. Both were turned back.

DIES IN TRUNK

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—(AP)—A woman whose nude body was found in a locked trunk may have been stuffed into it alive, says the county autopsy surgeon.

Dr. Victor Corfias said after a two-hour examination of the body yesterday that she was not bludgeoned, strangled or shot, but may have died a "nightmare" death by suffocation in the nearly air-tight compartment.

Hallowe'en Will Be Celebrated Here For Two Nights

Hallowe'en will be celebrated by Sanford youth with big school parties and carnivals, one at the West Side Primary School tonight, and another at the South Side School tomorrow night.

Police Chief Roy Williams said this morning that he wanted Sanford youngsters to have a good time, but not to tear anything up or destroy any property. Extra men will be on the lookout tonight to see that no vandalism occurs, he added.

Since shopping of downtown windows is looked upon as inevitable, merchants today appealed to children to use soft types of soap and not use hard or scratchy soap such as Lava or any soap containing hard or gritty material as his scratches and permanently damages expensive plate glass windows.

Supper will be served tonight at 6:00 o'clock at the West Side School carnival. The "tea room" will be especially decorated with corn stalks, bundles of hay and pumpkins. The program will include a picture show, hay rides and other events, and fire games and other events will be enjoyed.

The South Side events tomorrow night will include a supper at 5:30 o'clock, a dance review in the auditorium by the Duxbury School pupils, and a carnival that will include games, pony rides, a country store and other novelties.

The South Side PTA will have charge of the program and admission.

The PTA Club is sponsoring a Hallowe'en party for Navy and service men tonight at 8:00 o'clock at the Navy Center. Refreshments will be served. Games and contests will be enjoyed.

Pirates May Take Spring Training Camp To Florida

MIAMI, Oct. 30.—(AP)—There is a "very strong possibility" that the Pittsburgh Pirates will transfer their spring training camp from San Bernardino, Calif., to the Leon Springs, Fla., the Miami Daily News said today.

Sports Columnist Morris McLemore reported that Branch Rickey, Sr., general manager of the Pirates, was in Florida over the weekend studying the situation and that the deal for the Pirates to jump to Florida "appears ready for closing."

The New York Yankees will train at St. Petersburg, the Detroit Tigers at Lakeland, the Cincinnati Reds at Tampa, the Houston Red Sox at Sarasota, the Boston Braves at Bradenton, the Washington Senators at Orlando, the Philadelphia Athletics at West Palm Beach, the Philadelphia Phillies at Clearwater, the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Petersburg and the Brooklyn Dodgers in Miami.

Pittsburgh's move to Florida would assure the Pirates a full exhibition schedule "without the long hauls between Arizona, New Mexico and California," McLemore wrote.

"This dispersion of major league teams in Florida makes it simple for any team to find opposition within a comparatively short distance of its main base, a factor to be considered because of high operating costs and limited travel time."

WOMAN IS TRAINED BY DEAD HUSBAND'S SIDE FOR 20 HOURS

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 30.—(AP)—A mother trained on her own how to use a saw, a hand plane and a hand sander, and she was able to do so in 20 hours, she said today.

The mother, Mrs. Mary Mortonson, 37, and her husband, Karl, 36, were killed in a house fire last night. Karl was killed by a falling beam and Mrs. Mortonson was injured by a falling beam.

Her husband, Richard G. Mortonson, 35, was killed outright in the fire, which broke out in the house at 10:30 p.m. last night. Mrs. Mortonson said she had been in the house for 20 hours, and she had been trained by her husband's side for 20 hours.

The Seattle fire chief said Sunday night on a woman who had been here while returning in their private plane from a visit toelling him 80 miles to the north. They were not located until yesterday afternoon.

"I knew Dick was dead," said Mrs. Mortonson from a hospital bed. "But I lived for a long time as we lay there. I believe he died just a little while before the rescue came. Perhaps if they had come sooner he would have lived."

Mrs. Mortonson said visibility was good just before the accident. "We were just going along and suddenly I heard a big bang," she said. "That's the last thing I remember before we hit."

Officials said they believed the "bang" was when a wingtip hit a tree. The plane continued on a few hundred yards, cut a swath through trees and landed upside down in dense woods.

The wingtip was found by a farmer yesterday and the plane was located some time later. Rescuers virtually had to tear the plane apart to reach the victims. Two hours were required to free them.

"I was conscious as we lay in the plane all jammed together and unable to move," said Mrs. Mortonson. "I was aware of the fact that I was lying there and I kept trying to get out but I could hardly move at all. My foot was numb and I kept trying to wiggle my toes to keep it warm."

Mrs. Mortonson suffered a left arm fracture and a severe scalp wound. Kathy had a broken right ankle and a cut tendon in her right hand. Both she and her mother were extensively bruised. They also suffered from shock and from exposure to cold. Their temperatures below 40 degrees.

Hospital attendants said their condition was not critical but was "worse than fair."

Commissioner Is Assassinated In Indochina

French Official Is Stabbed To Death; Killer Is Sought In Giant Manhunt

SAIGON, Indochina, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The French commissioner for the Indochinese state of Cambodia was stabbed to death by a servant yesterday as he lay sleeping in the bedroom of his heavily guarded palace in Phnom Penh.

French police announced that Jean Leon Francois Marie De Raymond, who had been commissioner since 1949, was slain by Phnom Penh. A 21-year-old Cambodian servant who fled after the crime. An accomplice also a servant of the palace staff was arrested last night and confessed details of the crime, police said.

Thousands of police, French and Cambodian troops engaged in a huge manhunt for the assassin.

There was speculation that the assassin might be a member of the Communist (terrorist) group responsible for the killing of Brig. Gen. Charles Marie Chanou, French commissioner for South Viet Nam, and Thai Lap Thanh, governor of South Viet Nam, last July 31.

Their slaying was a 25-year-old member of a Vietminh suicide battalion. He killed the two officials and himself with a grenade at Sadek, a village 60 miles south of Saigon.

De Raymond's body was found by his assistants on a bed in the high-collared bedroom of the palace rambling over granite palace grounds. French officials started to search the palace when De Raymond did not appear at his office at the usual hour.

Police said they had not yet established whether De Raymond was murdered as an act of vengeance or for political reasons.

Yugoslavia Would Like To Borrow A Few Atomic Bombs

Brilliant Flash Marks 3rd Blast In Atomic Tests

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 30.—(AP)—A top-ranking Yugoslav general said today Yugoslavia would like to have some American atomic bombs and possibly other atomic weapons to bolster her defenses against the Soviet Union.

Gen. Petko Depcevic, deputy chief of staff, threw out this suggestion today while paying an interview to members of a group of 14 American newspapermen who are making a tour of Europe.

Depcevic estimated that the Soviet Union today might have about 100 atom bombs. He said he thought the United States might have about 500 A-bombs.

"We would like to have some of them," he said. "We could use them well if we are in a good position to use them."

The general said the next step would be to see the use of certain atomic weapons. Russia, he added, was ready to offer to attack Yugoslavia in 1949 when the Soviets cut off the Yugoslav Communists from the Cominform, but did not do so for fear of the U.S. atomic bomb. Now, he declared, Yugoslavia is ready to defend itself against any aggression with weapons now available. But, he added, this country wants as much modern equipment as possible from the United States.

He repeated Premier Marshal Tito's stand that Yugoslavia would not fight an aggressive war. But he added that the next war "probably will be everywhere." He said Yugoslavia does not want to join the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, a move he described as "unnecessary" and not to the advantage of either the Atlantic alliance or the Yugoslavs.

Depcevic studied military tactics at Moscow from 1936 to 1938. As deputy commander of Yugoslav forces, he is one of Tito's most trusted lieutenants.

Lid Is Reported On Keys Gambling For Warren Visit

MIAMI, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The Miami Herald said today that a lid was "rumored" to be on a gambling "game" in Key West during Governor Warren's visit last night.

"The chatter of dice, shuffle of cards and the whir of roulette and '10' wheels all faded sounds of other night along the aged city's 'Backlot' howl," responsibility and uniformly stated in reference to Gov. Walter Warren's visit last night.

"Even the hotels showing which miles-crawled of hotel corridors hold other Miami nights were called off. This is a spot on Truman Avenue.

"It made for a quiet night in a city where authorities were usually at the quarters. A city a while ago that a deputy sheriff works as chip man at a downtown dice table, and a city commission candidate is a leading numbers salesman.

"The Governor returned to his car. He never mentioned the ugly word 'gambling' in his 1 hour, 40 minute talk Monday night at Bayview Park, although in talks in other cities he has made much of claims his administration has cleaned up on gambling."

Plans Are Readied For Camp Blanding

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Architects and engineers have been appointed to design new structures at Camp Blanding and construction may start during the winter.

Col. Richard W. Pearson, district U. S. engineer, said new building designs are due in December and bids may be received as early as February. Design of utilities is expected to be completed during February.

Camp Blanding is to be redeveloped for use by Third Army in an emergency. The camp, located here while returning in their private plane from a visit toelling him 80 miles to the north. They were not located until yesterday afternoon.
