Jack McDowell Once Was Member Of All Southern Grid Team

WINTER PARK, Fla., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Jack McDowell—head coach of the Rollins College football team for nine years—did some reminiscence, up in his swimming manner today and passed them out to friends.

McDowell once was all-southern member of the North Carolina State grid outfit.

"After 15 years," he said, "it is a little difficult to remember some things but as I recall it was a hot September day when I was first introduced to this game called football. It was on the athletic field at the high school in Gainesville in 1927.

"I was better than most of the college athletes at the time and would have made All-American but he never got out of the seventh grade.

"I got mine at North Carolina State a little later. I played on two of the worst football teams ever heard of in 1927 and 1928. The line men had a habit of turning around and watching the backs run with the ball, oftentimes applauding gingerly upon particularly good playing by the backs.

"I can't forget our left tackle. In one of our games he made regular trips to the sidelines to ask the score of the world series games.

"But after those years Carolina had a good cotton year and State brought in some good men including Don Childress, who played on Red Grange's barnstorming professionals, and Bob Warren, who was a graduate Oakesmith and served as trainer and coach on the field.

"To remember the pleasant things is easy; like the time Nick Nicholson, captain of North Carolina State in 1927, went down the field on a punt and another Blaine Hackley, the Wake Forest Barret, then loaned over and planted a juicy kiss firmly upon Hackley's brow.

"Or like the time State was playing Florida in Tampa and we won 12-6 and my thoughts once I got behind Florida's safety man with the ball in my hand and about 40 yards to . . . and how fine it felt to be standing behind the goal waiting on one of those terrible officials to come get the flag.

"One time Bill Middlekauff went over the line for the touchdown for the South against the All-West at Los Angeles, and called for a drink of gin. Then there was the time State played Florida, again at Tampa, and we filled foot Dower's mouth and eyes full of sand (known as turf in Tampa).

Industries Are Dependant On Free Flow Of Capital

By FRANK MACMILLEN
NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(AP)—The fate of American business in business in 1937 was bound up with the willingness of the American people to lend, and to hire, money.

A twelve-month that started out with business surging ahead, with willing lenders and eager borrowers, drew to a close with the industrial pace faltering and the President telling Congress at a special session:

" . . . An immediate task is to increase the use of private capital to create employment."
Flow Of Money Lessens
The first three months of this year saw roughly $1,000,000,000 of corporate security issues sold, more than $300,000,000 a month. In late November and early December the monthly rate was about $75,000,000. This year's total may barely top $2,000,000,000, even with the good early months. Last year it was more than $3,500,000,000.

Industries dependent on the free flow of the people's savings—insurance money, bank money and on free spending from great corporation treasuries, were hard hit. Steel, the construction trades, the heavy machinery business

EYE OPENERS—by Bob Crosby

Contrary to general belief, army bombers do not aim for the superstructure when trying to sink a battleship. By dropping the bomb alongside, the explosion occurs beneath the water, and the resulting concussion is more effective than a hit above decks.

"A Bee Line for Home" originated from the bee's direct path to his hive at the very first sign of rain.

A thousand years before Christ, the Apollo Oracle at Delphi was worshipped by ardent pilgrims who took counsel from this "supernatural" gas spring. Today, in millions of American homes, gas is the quick, clean, and economical servant for cooking, water heating, house heating, and refrigeration.

County Commissioners Meet In First Session Of 1938

County Commissioner W. B. Williams of Ojeda was unanimously re-elected chairman of the Board of County Commissioners at their regular monthly meeting in the Court House yesterday.

After the installation of the chairman, Fred H. Wilson, city attorney, appeared before the Board and requested the cancellation of the County taxes on the Bell Air property which has been foreclosed by the city for non-payment of taxes.

The Commissioners agreed to the cancellation of the delinquent taxes as is permitted by an act of the State Legislature.

A resolution was also adopted requesting the Comptroller to grant permission to transfer $255.00 now in the Health fund to the Mother's Pension fund which is reported as depleted at the present time.

Following some agitation on the part of residents of Forest City and Bear Lake vicinities, which heretofore has been on record, the Commissioners yesterday approved the creation of precinct No. 16 at Bear Lake.

W. H. Bach and Mr. Burton, appeared before the Board and requested that the Smith Canal west of Sanford be cleaned out.

Justice Department To Aid Wilcox Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Representative Wilcox of Florida said yesterday the justice department would intervene in a hearing in federal district court at Miami Jan. 15 on constitutionality of the new municipal bankruptcy act.

The proceedings were brought by creditors of the cities of Fort Lauderdale and Hollywood, Fla., which filed petitions in bankruptcy under the act. The existing bankruptcy law was passed last year as a substitute for an act invalidated by the supreme court in 1936.

1937 Saw Britain Preparing For War

LONDON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—With warfare in Spain and the Far East threatening to engulf her in another world conflict, Great Britain's foreign policy in 1937 was guided by determination to show emboldened abroad while she reeled ahead with a vast $7,500,000,000 rearmament program to make the British Empire more powerful than ever in history.

Blatantly, Great Britain sought to alien herself more closely with the United States and France than at any time since the World War, to form an unshakable and effective united front of the western democracies.

Higgins Again Named Mayor By Commission

Walter S. Coleman Installed As Commissioner In Place Of W. A. Leffler

Edward Higgins was unanimously re-elected Mayor of Sanford and chairman of the City Commission at the organization meeting held in the City Hall last night.

"I appreciate the honor you have again bestowed upon me," Mayor Higgins told the commissioners after he had been elected to head the City's affairs for another year, "and I will put forth every effort to perform my job well."

Prior to the re-election of Mayor Higgins, Commissioner W. A. Leffler, who has served one term as mayor and has been on the City Commission continuously since 1930, but who did not seek re-election last fall, turned over his chair to Walter S. Coleman, formerly elected for a three year term.

Mayor Higgins in bidding farewell to the retiring Commissioner stated, "This Board greatly appreciates the valuable services you have rendered during your term of office and I know that the people of Sanford, too, appreciate your untiring efforts in handling the affairs of the City." Mayor Higgins also announced the appointment of Mr. Leffler as a bond trustee.

Before the Commissioners adjourned business for the past year, the Board decided to pay the remainder of the purchase price of the Dismal T. dump truck which the City has been renting for use on WPA projects from W. W. Williams of the Sanford Truck Company.

The City has paid rent on the used truck in the amount of $255 which Mr. Williams agreed to apply on the purchase price of $450. The Commissioners unanimously agreed to pay the remaining $195 on the truck and held in abeyance another offer of Mr. Williams to apply the $205 in rentals of another truck on a similar purchase price of $450 for an international truck with a dump body.

The Commissioners agreed that these trucks will be needed when work begins on the recently approved WPA project for renewing a portion of the City's sewer system and construction of a Municipal Park on the lake shore.

After the election of the Mayor the meeting adjourned until the regular session next Monday night.

Black Castigates Supreme Court In Dissenting Opinion

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A scathing dissenting opinion, in which Justice Hugo L. Black for the first time castigated the Supreme Court as a whole, attracted wide attention here yesterday.

Justice Black, President Roosevelt's only appointee on the court and a leader in the unsuccessful Senate fight to enlarge the Supreme Court, bitterly condemned the court's decision Monday in the Indianapolis water case.

The majority opinion, which he assailed, was by the court as a whole. Justice Cardozo, who is ill, was the only justice not recorded in the case.

The court upheld the Seventh Federal District Court in Indiana to take further steps before finally deciding whether rates for the Indianapolis Water Company, fixed by the State Public Service Commission, were confiscatory.

The court ruled that the rise in prices which followed imposition of a rate cut on Jan. 1, 1937, accelerated further consideration of the value of the company's property. The commission had fixed the value at $22,500,000.

"I believe this affirmative adds additional uncertainty to the existing state of rates and formulas created by judicial pronouncement in the field of rate litigation," said Justice Black.

He declared that the fight for lower water rates in Indianapolis began six years ago and that, under the high court's ruling, it may be another six years before it is ended.

TO BE A SAILOR, HE SAW A TAILOR

To be a sailor, he saw a tailor and had this jacket fashioned, making possible "aerodynamic skiing." The sail-like coat, designed by a Viennese inventor, is of special design, reaching from shoulders to feet. Going before the wind, it acts as a sail, driving the skier over the snow at high speed. When used in downhill skiing, the expansive cloth balloons backward, acting as a brake as the sportsman demonstrates when he rounds a curve.

Employers Told To Pay Job Taxes By January 25th

Florida Agent Warns Of Extreme Penalty On All Delinquents

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Wendell C. Heaton, Chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, today warned the employers of the State that unless their contributions to the State unemployment compensation fund are paid in full for the year 1937 on or before January 25, the State will collect 1.8 percent and the Federal Government 2 percent, making a total of 3.8 percent they must pay on their payrolls for 1937.

"The unemployment compensation law passed by the 1937 Legislature levied a tax of 1.8 percent on the total payrolls of employers of 8 or more workers for the year 1937," Heaton said, "and the Social Security Act imposed a tax of 2 percent on the 1937 payrolls of employers with 8 or more workers."

"The Federal Act permits an employer to deduct from his annual Federal return whatever contribution he is required to make to a State fund, not to exceed 90 percent of the Federal tax. Total payments to the State fund must be made on or before January 25, 1938, in order to receive this credit from the Federal Government," Heaton explained.

"If the payments are not made on or before January 25, 1938, the employer will lose the benefit of this deduction and must pay 1.8 percent to the State fund and the entire 2 percent to the Federal Government."

Mr. Schmidt, just prior to his operation, sold his interests in the Montezuma Hotel and was planning for a vacation of several weeks at the home of his sister in Augusta, Ga., when he was taken ill.

Rebels Push On To Take Teruel Within 3 Days

HENDAYE, France, Spanish frontier, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The high command announced its heavy reinforced army smashed forward more than a mile today through heavy snowdrifts in a new drive designed to capture the strategic Teruel "within three days."

Insurgents also reported gains farther south. A government communiqué spoke of the insurgent attacks but claimed they had been repulsed.

Weak from starvation, combatants and non-combatants alike were removed on stretchers from the governor's place at Teruel, current center of fighting in Spain's 17-month-old civil war.

Government dispatches from the city said many children were among survivors who had spent three weeks huddled together in an underground refuge at the palace. Their last seven days were without food and water.

Soldiers who explored the subterranean haven said they found bodies of many children who had starved to death. Those brought out alive were in a deplorable condition, repeatedly pleading for food.

They were carried to a nearby first aid station for their first meal. When the non-combatants are able to travel they will be carried in coastal evacuation camps where other civilian masses from Teruel are housed.

Combatants taken prisoner were loaded into trucks to be conveyed to Mora de Rubielos, where tribunals were established to judge their cases.

Moonshine Costs Negro Woman $50 In Police Court

Seventeen Cases Appear On Docket In Yesterday's Session

Possession of "moonshine" cost Mattie Singleton, negro, $50. Mattie was arrested last week after City law-enforcing officers found liquor in her possession and she was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve 90 days in jail by Judge Frank L. Miller in a session of the Municipal Court at the local Police Station Monday afternoon.

The most ludicrous trial on the docket containing 17 names was that of J. N. Snow, local barber, and J. D. Hopgood. Mr. Snow, according to his own testimony, punched Mr. Hopgood in the nose when he referred to the Sanford barber as "Old Man Snow," which Mr. Snow stated he always considered a personal insult. After he was struck, Mr. Hopgood admitted apologizing to the barber in words which this paper can't publish. After they agreed to renew their longstanding friendship, the judge dismissed them both.

In a kindly mood, Judge Miller dismissed W. R. Wigglesworth, of charges of carrying a concealed weapon, and discharging firearms within the City limits, and remitted a fine of $5 for drunkenness.

John Thomas, charged with being drunk and disorderly and carrying firearms in the City limits, which witnesses testified amounted to running his family from his home and shooting an innocent cat which stood by watching the fracas, Judge Miller fined Mr. Thomas $15 or 30 days with the promise of a stiffer sentence if he ever appeared in the Court again on charges of drunkenness.

President Predicts New All Time High In U.S. Public Debt

Senator Andrews Talks To Kiwanis On Farm Problem

Also Urges Construction Of Canal As A Control Measure

Pointing to the difficulties faced by Florida's delegation in Washington and the Secretary of Agriculture in securing legislation to benefit farmers in every section of the nation where problems vary greatly, Senator Charles C. Andrews of Orlando told Kiwanians at their weekly luncheon today that he was hoping someone would sponsor the St. Johns-Indian River Canal as a flood control and mosquito control measure.

"Orlando has outgrown Sanford in the last few years," Senator Andrews asserted, "they did it by pulling together." "Out here," he said, pointing to the St. John's River, "you have a natural asset that Orlando would gladly bond themselves $20,000,000 to get if it were possible and right now I am waiting for someone to sponsor a project as a flood control measure which will drain approximately 500 square miles of land making available thousands of acres of the best grazing land in the State, and make Sanford headquarters for hundreds of yachts."

"The Government is not willing to finance the canal for just one reason but by combining flood control, mosquito control, and its value to yachting, I believe you will have a chance," the Senator asserted, declaring that he wanted to drive through here five years after the canal is completed and note the changes in the City.

Senator Andrews, who was asked to speak at the luncheon by County Agent C. R. Dawson on Agricultural legislation, declared that the Secretary of Agriculture and Congress were striving to reach a solution whereby living will be made easier for the farmers and a better standard of living attained.

"Florida Senators couldn't approve of some of the Federal measures passed to aid the certain farmers which have hit Florida below the belt," Senator Andrews asserted and pointed to the act which set Florida's sugar production quota at 41,000 tons per year.

The Senator asserted that the sugar industry is Florida's largest coming industry and that this state is not even allowed to produce the 120,000 tons of sugar it consumes annually.

Another thing which the Senator denounced was the fact that there is no tariff imposed on truck crops shipped in from neighboring countries which he asserted destroyed the market for Florida grown products.

In discussing other difficulties faced in farm legislation, the Senator asserted that "the American people have become so ingenuous and up to date that they have developed machinery for the farmers which has thrown many men out of work."

He also pointed out that farmers east of the Mississippi can not compete with the staples produced in the fertile plains of the west where machines have cut the cost of production considerably making it impossible for the eastern farmer who still depends upon the mule to make a livelihood.

At the meeting today, J. L. Marentate, was appointed head of the committee for care of underprivileged children and Rev. J. B. Root was admitted as a new member of the organization.

The visitors present included: Ralph Bagwell, B. J. Borling of Orlando, E. W. Troutman of Columbus, Ohio; J. S. Harold of Orlando and Richard Hill.

Budget Message Forecasts Billion Dollar Deficits For Next Two Years

Federal Revenues Are Cut By Slump

More Relief Money May Be Needed If Recession Lasts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today sent Congress a budget message which projected new billion dollar Treasury deficits and a new public debt peak despite estimates of lesser spending.

His forecast for the 1938 fiscal year contemplated a $539,000,000 cut in government outlays but conditioned the reduction on an upturn in business and national defense requirements.

The President's big volume of deficit of $1,088,129,800 for the current fiscal year and $660,000,000 for 12 months following.

The public debt, he said, would reach a $38,829,500,000 high on June 30, 1939.

In addition, President Roosevelt left the Treasury's doors ajar to the possibility of more spending for human relief and for armaments "due to world conditions over which this nation has no control."

The continued deficit was attributed to a sharp drop in expected revenue because of the business "recession." The President acknowledged that for the first time since he became Chief Executive he faced less rather than more governmental income.

To obtain next year's estimated spending slash of $539,000,000, the President cut the estimates for relief and recovery to $1,194,000,000—down $841,500,000 from this year's figures.

He added, however, that the "economic situation may not improve and if it does not, I expect the approval of Congress and the public for additional appropriations if they become necessary to save thousands of American families from dire need."

Nevertheless, for the first time in three years, the President presented a complete budget, including relief estimates which previously had been left until later.

He said, apparently, on the basis of a Treasury forecast that business would improve.

Roosevelt asked for an increase of $24,000,000 to bring the national defense spending up to a record peacetime level of $99,000,000 in 1939.

The President made no effort to conceal his disappointment over the slump in tax receipts. He told Congress the outlook had been changed by the "recent recession in business." The message was read to the Senate and the House by clerks.

Atlanta Dailies Up Subscription Rates

ATLANTA, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Atlanta's three daily newspapers have announced an increase in subscription prices due to mounting production costs.

Subscriptions for daily and Sunday editions went from 30 to 35 cents a week, and from 90 cents to $1.10 a month.

The Atlanta Journal and the Atlanta Georgian, evening newspapers, increased their daily sale price from 3 to 5 cents. The Atlanta Constitution, a morning paper, remains at 5 cents for daily editions. The 10-cent a copy price for all Sunday papers remains in effect. The changes are effective January 1.

The yearly rates for all three Atlanta papers, including daily and Sunday editions, were reduced from $9.50 to $12.00.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

And they that understand among the people shall instruct many.—Daniel 11:32.

OLD JACK

Old Jack and I trudge on plow, Gone are our friends of yesterday.

But I shall always be content, As long as I can keep him near.

He cannot hear as once he could, My eyes aren't what they used to be.

He only has to lick my hand, To let me know he's guarding me.

The summer of our life is past, We would not wish to travel back.

I'll gladly face the setting sun, As long as I have dear old Jack.—Constance Jones

Mark Wilcox is trying to get a better tariff deal with Canada for Florida citrus fruits.

The Hudson Motor Company promises to come out with a new low priced car which will again get within the reach of almost everyone something to drive in.

Finley Moore who recently announced his candidacy for the United States Senate in opposition to Claude Pepper and Mark Wilcox, seems to have borrowed a plank from the Wilcox platform when he says, "I will vote with the President when I think he is right; against him when I think he is wrong" which leads me to believe that he is running more to take Florida votes away from Wilcox than to get elected himself.

Insider Labin, a Labor Department official, says that many American companies are not trying to spread work now as they did in 1929 in order to combat unemployment. Most American companies today are having all they can do to meet the payroll for their own employees without worrying about the unemployed.

President Roosevelt also believes that the taxes which the little business man has to pay are too high. In his speech to Congress the other day he said, "We should rightfully change certain provisions where they are proven to work definite hardship, especially on the small business man of the nation." If some relief from taxation is not given the little business man, he will soon pass out of the picture, and the business will be left.

Tough Going

The year of 1937 was a sad one for newspapers, and if we may make so bold, for the newspaper reading public. For during this brief twelve months' period no less than 221 newspapers passed out of existence.

N. W. Ayer & Son's new Directory of Newspapers and Periodicals, lists only 2,084 English language daily newspapers now published in the United States.

Much of the decrease in the number of dailies has been due to consolidations. Where more newspapers have existed than the field would support, publishers have tended to get together, iron out their difficulties, and publish one good newspaper where two poor ones were published before.

It is interesting to note that of the 2,084 dailies, 1,605, or over three-quarters of them, are published in the afternoon, and that of the aggregate net paid circulation of 41,400,000 in the entire United States, 25,800,000 subscribers are readers of the evening newspapers, showing that the preference by a wide margin is for evening newspapers.

No doubt the present tendency of a large number of newspapers to increase their circulation rates has been brought about by the same forces which have forced others out of existence, resulting in thousands of newspapermen and printers in losing their jobs.

"Recession" Causes

To the forty-seven different reasons which have been advanced as major causes for the "recession," Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board has added the payment of the soldiers' bonus in the summer of 1936, which he says touched off a "inflationary psychology" which produced the slump in 1937.

Dorothy Thompson, well known woman columnist, who knows as much as anyone about it, lists no less than twelve reasons which she believes together are responsible for the current slump.

- (1) Credit deflation since the beginning of the year, induced by the Administration's "hot money," and its own self-engendered fears of inflation, which it sought hastily to offset by radical deflationary moves. (2) The inflationary agricultural price program and remaining drought effects, raising living costs and affecting spendable margins. (3) A wage-lifting policy which suddenly and radically pushed wage rates in many lines beyond pre-depression levels, while other prices were still heavily depressed. (4) The condoning of sit-down strikes, inability of labor leadership to control its own membership, unjudicial Labor Board administration and, as a result, jams in production, thus stimulating inventory orders in the short run, and dislocating price, profit and production mechanisms in the long run.

- (5) An over-optimism in building up inventories to the raised production and sales levels, and occasionally to anticipated trends—this against inadequate supplies and related to bottlenecks in capacity and labor, which led in turn to unbalanced price increases and relationships. (6) The reflex of exceptional demands on certain metals, due to rearmament throughout the world, combined with recovery in certain fields, which resulted in a price spurt which quickly corrected itself. (7) The combined effects of the Surplus Profits Tax (once, I recall, denounced by Mr. Jackson) and the Capital Gains Tax, which hindered business expansion and discouraged productive investment. (8) The poor functioning of the government's regulatory machinery of the Exchanges, resulting in illiquid markets and inflexible margins. (9) Failure to release and secure adequate new capital for financing industrial capacity for the production of permanent goods at lower costs and prices. (10) Failure to solve the utility problem. (11) Failure to solve the railroad problem and restore that industry to a credit position. (12) Complicated stagnation and lagging improvement in residential building due to excessive labor and material costs, and the backward organization of that industry, which, incidentally, is certainly not "monopolistic." And about it we shall have some more words to say.

FUTURE FARMERS' DAY AT FLORIDA FAIR

The main objective of the Advancement of Florida's Agricultural Welfare, the Florida Fair, Tampa, each year plays host to future farmers of the State.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—Figures supplied by the Department of Agriculture show that under some present circumstances it would have been cheaper to buy up surplus food crops for the poor than to control the supply by AAA methods.

It was this proposal as a future farm program which Senator Borah made in his speech in the senate attacking the supervisory methods for crop control embodied in the farm bill.

To have bought up the surplus of wheat during 1933, 1934, and 1935 at "parity prices" would have cost $1,154,000. The AAA wheat benefit program cost $37,573,000—$36,419,000 more than it would have cost to buy up the surplus.

Corn control, of which reflects directly upon the supply of hogs and cattle, cost $222,997,000 under the AAA program, while the computed 1933-35 surplus could have been picked up for $85,131,000, a saving of $137,866,000.

Some Other Figures Borah pointed mainly to a program of buying up surplus food crops to distribute to the underfed. If he had proposed buying up the surplus of cotton to be converted into overalls and rompers for the underclothed, he would have had different figures to contend with.

Buying up the surplus of cotton in the three years mentioned might upset market. AAA officials, however, argue that farmers, once assured of a market for everything grown, probably would produce an even larger surplus than in recent years.

Another factor to consider is what might happen to the market for the saleable part of the crop if the surplus were given away to the needy. Some of the needy might buy less from the general market and thus help to wreck the demand for the farmers' ordinary output.

1938 Amateur-Pro Golf Series Begins At MountPlymouth

An improved and interesting course will greet the Central Florida Golf Association as it swings into action next Sunday afternoon Jan. 9, for the opening tournament of the regular Amateur-Pro series of 1938.

At a recent meeting of the Association, committee members and delegates selected the famous St. Andrews course of the Mount Plymouth hotel for this year's initial weekly contest.

The Mount Plymouth course, due to its central location, has always been a favorite point of play among all the member clubs from the surrounding districts and a large field of entries is again expected.

1938 Promises Much Politics For Off Year

Senate Race And Selection Of Supreme Court Judges Lead

FALLASSEE, Fla., Jan. 5.—The first of 1938 unofficially open heavier-than-usual year campaigning in Florida. During the year, Florida voters will select a United States senator, three supreme court justices and other officials. The Democratic and Republican primaries this year will be a month earlier than heretofore—May 2 instead of the first week of June. This change, made by a 1937 law, will intensify preliminary activities in the contest for state-wide races as being made for the seat in the United States Senate now occupied by Claude Pepper of Tallahassee, who seeks a full six-year term for places on the state national commission now held by chairman Jerry W. Carter and Eugene S. Matthews; and for the seat in the Supreme Court now held by Chief Justice W. H. Hills and Justices Rivers and Roy W. Channing. Matthews and Carter would retire after the primary. Pepper will complete the term of the late Sen. Charles C. McNary, to which he was elected by the voters in 1934. The Democratic primary for the seat in the United States Senate will be held on May 2, and the Republican primary on May 9. The Democratic primary for the seat in the Supreme Court will be held on May 2, and the Republican primary on May 9. The Democratic primary for the seat in the Supreme Court will be held on May 2, and the Republican primary on May 9.

WOULD YOU BUY IT AGAIN?
All merchants—nearly everybody—who makes a living by selling something—can be divided into two distinct groups:
GROUP ONE: The merchant whose goods give so little value that he, like the old-time vendor of gold-bricks, cannot expect "repeat" orders. He must make all his profit from the first (and only) sale. Then he must seek buyers not yet familiar with his goods or reputation.
GROUP TWO: The merchant whose goods are sold in the hope of winning the purchaser's continued patronage. He can expect only a moderate profit. Thus, one sale per person is not enough. Each article must be good enough to make the buyer want to buy again.
The merchants who advertise in this paper belong in Group Two. They could not stay in business unless they earned "repeat" orders—unless they gave you honest value for every dollar you spend with them.
That is why each article they sell you must be so thoroughly satisfactory that you would later answer "yes" to this, the most important question a merchant can ask a customer: "Would you buy it again?"

FLOWER OF FLORIDA'S RARE CANNON-BALL TREE & FT. MYERS

YICZAYA, known as the Deering Estate, with its elaborate series of formal and tropical gardens, fountains and waterways, recalls the splendor of the great Roman and Venetian residences of bygone days. The romantically picturesque mansion, which was opened in 1916, is unrivaled among American properties. From its broad terraces, a glimpse of the open ocean may be seen. Against a matless background of tropical vegetation and azure skies, rises the white stucco and stone structure strongly suggesting of its private inner court, arcades and galleries, an Italian fortress-palace of the 16th century. A visit through the sumptuous interior with its splendid furnishings and accumulated treasures of the past, reveals an atmosphere of amazing luxury and richness difficult to describe. An army of 1,000 trained artisans, stone cutters, plasterers, cabinet makers and landscape gardeners required 5 years to build the magnificent estate which cost, it is said, 8 millions of dollars.

Slash Is Proposed By House Group In New Appropriation

Economy Drive Begun Which Reduces Estimates Of Budget Bureau Next Year

TVA Is One To Feel The Knife

Large Cuts Also Are Made In CCC, Veterans, RR Retirement

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—House Judiciary committee suggested by President Roosevelt that it choose Representative Sumners, a Texas Democrat, chairman of the committee, to succeed Associate Justice George Sutherland who decided to retire on Jan. 15. Members of the committee, meeting without Sumners, sent a letter to the President urging the appointment of its chairman.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The House Appropriations Committee began an economy drive today by recommending the appropriation of $1,414,618,515 to finance more than 80 independent governmental agencies for the coming fiscal year—a saving of $118,536,800 compared with the current year.

The measure, the first of the regular annual supply bills, slashed $2,723,000 off the Budget Bureau's estimate, most of the cut being made by the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Repealing the Authority's request for $2,500,000 to start the construction of a $11,000,000 flood control dam at Gilbertville, Ky., the committee also (Continued on Page 10)

See City Clerk For Home Exemption

City Clerk Frank S. Lamson today reminded Sanford homeowners that in addition to applying for exemption of State and County taxes, applications must also be filed with the City Assessor before Apr. 1 if exemption of City taxes on homesites up to $5,000 are to be allowed.

The applications must be filed annually. Mr. Lamson asserted today that the home-owner waived his right to exemption if the applications were not filed before Apr. 1.

Because of this exemption, homes in Sanford are not entirely exempted of taxes, the City Clerk advised, adding that the first service billage is levied on all Sanford property.

County Tax Assessor Sanford Doudney reported that approximately 40 persons have approved the initial call to file their applications for exemption from State and County taxes.

Also, the re-sale of private possessions is the best stimulant for new sales to merchants, who cannot dispose of their products as fast in the market as they would have if they were sold to good buyers.

Over $13,000 Is Seminole School Collected Here Children Invited On Auto Licenses To Orlando Fair

971 Seminole Citizens Purchased Tags Since December 1

Up to the close of business Wednesday evening 971 auto license tags of various kinds had been issued and an amount of $13,477.35 had been collected and forwarded to the Motor Vehicle Commissioner in Tallahassee, Seminole County Tax Collector Jno. D. Jenkins reported today.

The sum which has been collected, Mr. Jenkins stated, represents this County's contribution to the State School fund for the month of December and five days in January.

The Tax Collector also urged auto owners of the County to purchase their tags as early as possible to avoid the last minute rush which, he said, "is bound to occur as the deadline of Jan. 15 draws near."

All applicants for auto licenses should bring the last registration card and title certificate, if available, but in cases where they are not available, furnish the number on the old license tag if the vehicle was licensed in Seminole County in 1937, Mr. Jenkins stated.

The Tax Collector also reminded truck owners, that under the instructions from the Motor Vehicle Department, new weight certificates are required for all trucks and trailers, that owners of such vehicles are requested to have them re-weighed on the platform scales at the Sanford State Market and present the weight certificates when applying for the tags.

Celery Feds Defeat Leesburg Quintette

A long field goal in the last few seconds of an extra period by Jim Riser gave the Celery Feds a 23 to 22 edge over the Leesburg Yellow Jackets in their initial game of the season on the Leesburg Court Tuesday night.

The local boys lead the Leesburg delegation during most of the game but in a last minute spurt the Celery quintette tied the score 27 to 27.

During the early minutes of play in the extra session, Golden of Leesburg, made a free throw giving the Jackets a one point lead. However, with only 30 seconds remaining in the game, Jim Riser made a long shot at the basket to give the Feds the winning lead.

Duval Plans New Bridge Over River

Contract Is Signed For $1,460,000 Span Over St. Johns River At Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Duval county and the State Road Department signed a contract today calling for the construction of a second bridge across the St. Johns River here and the lifting of toll charges on the present bridge as soon as the new span is opened to traffic.

The new bridge will cost about $1,460,000. Duval county will pay half of the cost and the state Road Department will pay the rest with federal highway funds.

The State Road Department will supervise the construction and maintain both bridges. The new bridge will extend from the foot of Main Street here to a point on the south side of the river, the route now used by the ferry.

The court recently ordered the county to pay the ferry company $50,000 for the route and franchise. The county will discontinue the ferry service so the revenue on the present toll bridge will be greater until the tolls are lifted.

U. S. Labor Board Lauds Newspapers For Fair Reporting

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The labor relations board commended the newspapers yesterday for their recent handling of labor news.

In its annual report to Congress, the board said "inadequate reporting of labor disputes" had been "chronic for decades" before 1935.

Before that year, the board said, "the great mass of the public drew its opinion on strikes from scare headlines and blow-by-blow descriptions of strike violence."

Since 1935, the board added, "labor news is no longer an unwanted orphan in the city room."

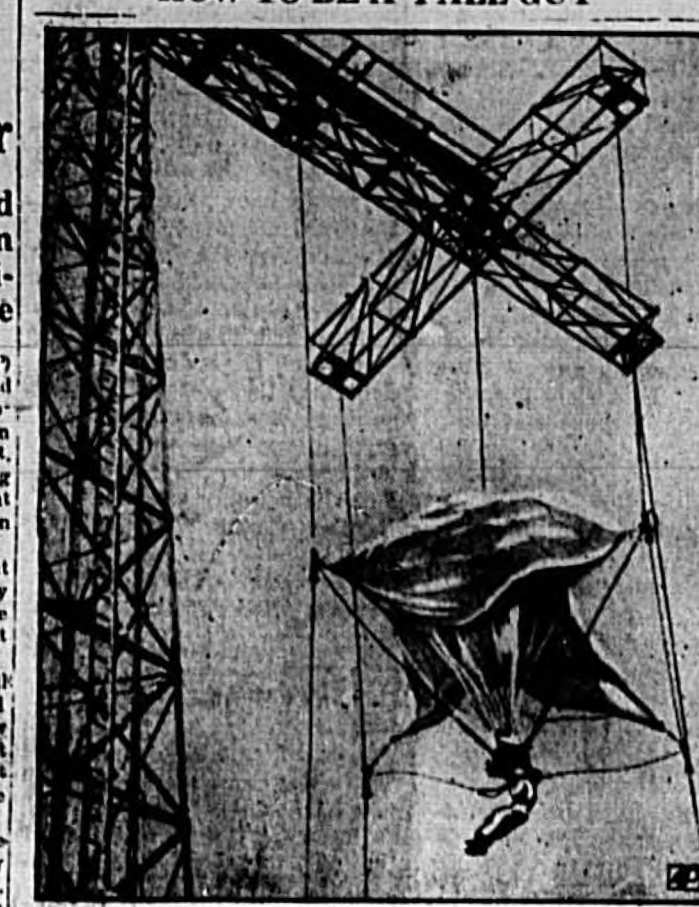

"Instead of assigning strike stories to any reporter free at the moment for duty, the coverage is given to trained men," the board said.

"Many of these have been led to probe beneath the exterior dramatics of strikes the complex and delicate nature of the complicated social dilemma involved in every labor dispute, however small."

"The press, more than any other agency, can banish the misunderstandings which still disturb the relations between American employers and American workmen."

The board reported that the number of cases it had to handle had increased 1000 percent since the supreme court upheld the Wagner labor dispute act, and that the struggle between the American Federation of Labor and the CIO had added to its troubles.

China Mobilizes Entire Man Power To Battle Japan

HANKOW, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The man power of this nation of 400,000,000 persons is being recruited on a national mobilization basis for unrelenting war against Japan. All cities and towns outside the Japanese-occupied areas swarmed with troops.

In some cities recruits outnumbered the civilians. By Spring China expects to have 80 full divisions in the field. Guiding the mobilization of men, munitions, and munitions is Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Meanwhile Chinese commandos declared heavy fighting is in progress near Hangchow, the capital of Chekiang province. The Japanese countered with assertions that all was quiet there. The Japanese said their troops were continuing to "mop up" an area of the province.

A Shanghai dispatch said the naval yard Isabell arrived to receive the new headquarters for Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, commander of the United States Asiatic Fleet, and that his flagship, the Augusta, would sail Thursday for Manila.

The Chinese government dispatched memorandums to the United States, Great Britain and France protesting against the proclamation issued January 1 by the Shanghai municipal council, the body governing the Shanghai International Settlement, in which the council said any person committing an offense against armed foreign forces in the Settlement would be handed over to the forces concerned.

Knudsen Says Confidence Is What Is Needed

General Motors Head Insists Doubt About Future Brings Drop In Consumer Buying

Fails To Approve Planned Economy

Says Average Man Believes "Work Is Going To Be Slack"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—President William S. Knudsen of General Motors, appearing before the Senate's special unemployment committee, said his "one hope" for the immediate stabilization of work was that the "people generally will feel a little more confident of future."

"We need more assurance all the way down line about this year and year after," said the President of the corporation which laid off 30,000 men on Jan. 1 because of a sales decline during November and December.

Knudsen declared the decline was the severest in the company's history. He blamed it not on car prices but on the view held by the "average man" that "work is going to be slack."

"Even if he has means the average man won't perk himself a rap under such circumstances," the motor magnate said.

While he was testifying the White House announced that Knudsen and John D. Biggers, director of the recently made unemployment census, would lunch with President Roosevelt.

On the stand Knudsen declined to approve, as far as its effect (Continued on Page Five)

Trouble In World Is Attributed To Decline Of Faith

Wars, vice and crime, strife between capital and labor, riots and bloodshed all were attributed to the lack of man's faith in God by Rev. John W. Spraul, Chicago soldier evangelist in his sermon in the Sanford Gospel Tabernacle, where he is holding a healing campaign.

"Much of the teaching of religion to soften down the stern warnings of God's Word, comes through the desire of modernists to please every one and offend none," Rev. Spraul said.

"What the human race needs today, more than anything else, is a revival of the right sort of preaching, preaching that will give God's messages rather than man's guesses to the people. The source of all the disorder of today, the wars, the vice and crime, the strife between capital and labor, the riots and the bloodshed, all these things have come about because men have lost faith in God and His truth."

In his services tomorrow night, Rev. Spraul will tell of his own divine healing after he was gassed while in service with the Army during the World War.
