

Inez Aims Her Fury At Abaco Islands

By LARRY VESHEL

Oh, my aching feet. I gotta remember I'm not 18... or even 28.

Played football on the hot pavement on Woodland Drive Saturday and besides a stunning pass completion record of one out of 11 ended up with some raw blisters on my feet. We won 120 thanks to some sparkling pass receiving by Mack Canole.

School board members make $123 per month... City Commissioners get $150 and $50 expenses and county commission gets $416.66... Wonder what they do with the 66 cents?

JPs and constables average from $120 to $300 per month and out of that comes office and car expenses.

Lunchroom supervisor in the schools gets $8,500 per year... most of the working staff average 97 cents an hour.

We had many requests from county, school, city and hospital officials to publish our salary... What do you want it gross or net? Well, it's $1,600... Something must be wrong with this typewriter.

Memo to the city... Please do something about that sink hole on Persimmon Avenue near the ACL tracks off Eighth Street. Some kids were swimming there and it's about eight feet deep.

FOR THE STATISTICAL MINDED—Ever wonder what the average guy in Seminole County makes? Well, according to a report from the comptroller's office on county finances it's about $30 per year.

A person in Volusia pays $46; Sarasota $69; Lake, $30; Brevard, $68; Marion, $39; Monroe, $35; Orange, $38... Let this sink in.

Memo to Vershel — If you doubt the success of the Mayfair Open golf tourney, suggest you check with Mike Whelchel... It brought 250 people to Sanford.

Why can't the city crack down on all those vacant lots throughout the city... The grass is so high you can hardly see all the garbage and cigarette butts.

The young Junior High football player who broke his leg at a game last week was doing nicely at the hospital until his leg had to be reset because his traction loosened.

Somebody just made our day... They said they enjoyed our column better than TV. Wonder if that's daytime or night-time video?

Things picked up at the registrar's office this past Saturday. Mrs. Camilla Bruce said 21 Democrats registered and 11 Republicans.

The proposed new budget for Seminole Community Action has been set at $44,573. A meeting is set for Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center. The group is now recruiting applications for positions to the Head Start program... We received a canned release today which said positions are open for a program director (no salary listed), secretary, social worker, nurse and nutritionist... Also need teachers, teacher aides and cooks.

If you live on Oak Avenue and 24th Place and your street is a mess, don't be alarmed, friend... City putting in a new street.

Our "Spy" at Sanford Junior High School tells us that some civic classes are discussing this column... They did not elaborate.

That's all for today... Got to go soak my feet... No, no, my head!

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The howling killer of the tropics, Hurricane Inez, roared up an alley between the resort cities of Miami and Nassau today and aimed her growing new fury at the Abaco Islands.

Lashing out to east and west, Inez jabbed at the south Florida coast with gusty winds and squalls and sent a tornado spiraling into Nassau that killed a 16-month-old child.

Directly ahead of the mighty storm which killed perhaps hundreds in the Caribbean Sea, was Great Abaco Island, second largest of the Bahamas and the home of 6,500 persons.

Although Great Abaco is largely populated by natives of African descent, it contains several white communities—settled by loyalist refugees of the American Revolutionary War—where customs have changed little since 1786.

Gale warnings came down along the southeast Florida coast, home of 2.5 million people, after an uneasy Sunday during which Inez hurled squalls into the area, whipping the palm fronds.

In Nassau, capital of the Bahamas, flood waters ran two feet deep down some streets in the city of 50,000. The water lashed a group of shacks occupied by field hands. Three persons are missing.

Weakened and knocked out of shape by her collision with the Sierra mountains of Cuba, Inez wound up tightly again over the Atlantic.

Her top winds were raging at 60 miles an hour around the eye and were expected to reach 100 by the time she roars through the dense pine forests of Abaco late today or early tonight.

Rain bands spread through most of the Bahamas as Inez thrashed very slowly to a point 110 miles east-southeast of Miami and 90 miles west of Nassau.

At 6 in the hurricane's path was Grand Bahama Island, site of a pish gambling casino and a vigorous industrial development directed by Walter Croxson, an American known as the king of Grand Bahama.

At least 14,000 union employees of the General Electric Corp. walked off their jobs at three plants today. But a nationwide strike against the huge defense supplier appeared to have been averted by a presidential plea.

Beginning work on bulkheading of the landfill area signals start of the second phase of construction. Being barged in to the harbor will be 51,000 square feet of concrete sheet piling which will be driven down to form the 2,700 foot bulkhead wall.

In addition, there will be 2,700 linear feet of bulkhead capping and 2,300 feet of "deadman" anchors for the wall which will enclose the 13 acre land fill area.

Indications are that as soon as the bulkheading reaches a certain point, city crews will begin laying utility lines—water and sewer to serve the marina buildings. At the same time, Florida Power and Light and Southern Bell Telephone will install underground electric and telephone lines to the building sites.

This year's United Fund campaign progress will be tallied on two giant football fields, being put up this week by UF officials, Richard Keogh, chairman, has announced.

Two huge billboards, marked to resemble gridirons will be erected, one on the side of the Carraway-McKibbin insurance office building on North Park Avenue and one near Seminole Plaza in Casselberry.

As the campaign advances the football will advance until it reaches the 100 percent goal line and a "touchdown" for the $40,700 campaign, Keogh explained.

On the first day of the campaign, which was "off and running" today four local firms have already reached their 100 per cent participation goal.

They include First Federal Savings and Loan, Florida State Bank, Southern Bell Telephone Company and the faculty of Rosenwald School.

Final determination by the county commission sitting as a board of appeal on the request of John Gentry, former employee of the county road department, for reinstatement in his position will take place at the meeting of the board at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Charles L. Weller, D-Ga., announced today his withdrawal as a Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress rather than support segregationist Lester Maddox as his party's nominee for Georgia governor.

"I cannot compromise with hate," Weller said in a statement issued by his office here. "I cannot vote for Lester Maddox."

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — State school chief Floyd Christian "with regret" today started looking around for a new man to head up Florida's Junior College Advisory Board.

Fred H. Kent, chairman of the board, quit in a bluff Saturday charging that Christian was making recommendations in an area where he had no jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler today urged swift congressional approval of President Johnson's program to cut tax incentives to business to help cool off the economy.

But in an appearance before the Senate Finance Committee, Fowler refused to disclose any other anti-inflation plans, such as a much-rumored across-the-board tax increase.

JAKARTA (UPI) — Indonesian troops used bayonets to break up three attempts by anti-Communist students to march on President Sukarno's palace in Jakarta. Sukarno was not there.

Witnesses said several students, including coeds, were kicked or beaten with rifle butts and at least four were bayoneted by troops from East Java enforcing a government ban on demonstrations.

MANILA (UPI) — Philippine Foreign Minister Narciso Ramos said today the seven-nation summit conference on Viet Nam would be postponed to a date later than Oct. 18 at the request of several of the invited governments.

He did not give newsmen a specific date for the conference but said it would be held in October in Manila.

Ramos said a foreign ministers' meeting would precede the summit talks but refused to disclose any details.

High And Kirk On Osteen Bridge

It's A 'Top Priority'

WILLARD PEEBLES
United Front For New Osteen Bridge Set

Gubernatorial candidates Robert King High and Claude Kirk today labeled the new Osteen bridge as a top priority for next year, a survey by The Herald disclosed today.

High, Democratic nominee, in an exclusive interview with The Herald today, pledged construction of a new Osteen Bridge will be given "top priority" in his administration's road program.

"In continuation of our plan to build roads and bridges where the most need is evidenced, possibility of a new Osteen Bridge has been investigated and after due consideration has been found to meet the criteria for inclusion with top priority in our road program," High declared.

High did remark, however, that his position concerning replacing Osteen Bridge had been determined following conferences with Seminole County's legislative delegation several months ago and that his statement merely "confirms my position."

"Decision on other projects for Seminole County has not been reached as yet," he added. A new Osteen bridge over the St. Johns River on SR 415 will be given "top priority when I become governor of Florida next January," Kirk, Republican gubernatorial candidate, told The Sanford Herald by telephone shortly before noon today.

An all-out search is on today for two armed men who held up the Standard Oil Station on SR 434 and Interstate 4 early this morning, beat up the night watchman and stole $60, Sheriff J. L. Hobby said.

Hobby said the two apparently parked their pick-up truck behind the station, ordered Randall Laycock to hand over his money and, then beat him up in a wooded area.

Laycock was treated for cuts and bruises at Winter Park Hospital and released.

Willard Peebles, present district member of the State Road Board, has said a new high-level span over the river will cost in excess of $1 million.

Kirk added that he will be in Seminole County "about Oct. 15" and will "elaborate at that time on my intentions for the Osteen Bridge."

Dream Project Nears Reality

Half-way point of construction of the "dream project" waterfront marina, which began this week, comes nearly three years after initial work and study for building the marina began in 1963.

Beginning work on bulkheading of the landfill area signals start of the second phase of construction. Being barged in to the harbor will be 51,000 square feet of concrete sheet piling which will be driven down to form the 2,700 foot bulkhead wall.

'Domestic Affairs Top War In Election - HHH

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey puts "so-called inflation" and "the quality of extent of the administration's program" ahead of the Viet Nam war as top issues in the November congressional elections.

Former Sen. Barry M. Goldwater agrees that Viet Nam will not be the issue. He says the increased cost of living and "morality — crime on the street" both will be more important.

But Rep. Melvin R. Laird said today President Johnson's conduct of the war is a major issue in the elections.

Laird, Wisconsin Republican who heads the House GOP Conference, said if the American people find Johnson's leadership of the war lacking "they will register this finding at the polls."

His remarks prepared for delivery in the House, Laird said that through extensive travels around the country he had identified four "great issues of 1966."

Besides Viet Nam, he said, the people are concerned about inflation, maintenance of the two-party system and what he called the steady growth of the federal system at the expense of state government.

In another statement, a former Air Force chief of staff, retired Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, said America's present strategy in Viet Nam is the "ultimate in military blindness."

He said in an article in the "U. S. News & World Report."

He said in an article in the we can, but cautious and timid military tactics keep the war from escalating into a larger conflict is the ultimate in military blindness. The only way to win a war is to escalate it one way or another above what the enemy can take. If we feel we can't win without unacceptable risk, we have no business fighting in the first place."

"We must wage this war in such a way as to win it as quickly as possible," he said.

The general said this means attacking every valuable target, using naval and air power, to "destroy his (the enemy's) economy and his will to wage war."

Humphrey and Goldwater appeared in separate interviews Saturday on the first of a six-part series, "Elections '66," of the ABC network.

Goldwater, saying he was pleased by the increase in bombing in Viet Nam, explained: "I'm pleased as an American that the President finally came to the realization that the advice he was getting, not just from Goldwater, but more importantly from his military staff people, was adequate and right."

Humphrey, discussing the Democratic presidential victory in 1964, said "the American people were afraid of what the consequences would be of a Goldwater victory."

He said, "I don't believe they really felt that they could trust the security and fate of this nation in hands that might be impetuous."

Burns and Sen. Spessard Holland were the only absentees among the state's top Democrats at the dinner in a civic auditorium which attracted more than 1,500 persons.

Burns, who has consistently refused to endorse High for the governorship, pointedly ignored the candidate in a message to the dinner extending his "highest regards to the former governor and the other elected Democratic officials."

Holland said the press of Washington business kept him away but he sent a message urging support for High.

High called GOP gubernatorial candidate Claude Kirk "utterly unqualified" to be governor and said he was a "political bucket" who claims to be capable of creating an instant utopia without raising taxes.

The Miami mayor also noted that Kirk raised the same series of "ultra-liberal" when he tried unsuccessfully to oust Sen. Spessard Holland in 1964.

"Are there any Floridians in any latitude of the state, whether Democrat or Republican who believe that Spessard Holland is an ultra-liberal who coddles criminals?" he asked. High pledged to push for re-

'Deltona U' Party For Registration Set Thursday

Residents of Deltona are invited to attend a "Deltona U" registration party at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 6, in the Community Center. Unlike most school registrations, "Deltona U" provides refreshments, door prizes, and a social hour.

Last year approximately 500 Deltona residents attended adult education classes in the Little Red School House and Community Center and plans are being made now for an even larger registration this year. The Mackle Bros. Division of the Deltona Corp., recognizing the need for additional classroom facilities, expects to have a new building completed within several weeks. This large structure is designed to house the ceramics and wood-working classes.

Sponsored jointly by the adult division, Daytona Beach Junior College and the Deltona Corp., "Deltona U" again will offer many varied courses. Classes sponsored directly by the Deltona Corp. include bridge, ceramics and fishing.

Secret To Success - Know Your Wants

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Features Writer

Young people who can't make up their minds about a career get the sympathy of a man-made monster, Fred Gywne, whose most recent role was as a monster on television and radio. A kindly monster, otherwise he wouldn't have taken it. One can have so many interests that it becomes difficult to stick to one thing. That's the way it is with Fred who believes in trying everything until something simmers into a vocation. He has written and illustrated children's books—"The Battle of Frogs and Mice" and "Best in Show."

He has worked as a copy writer with one of the largest advertising agencies.

He has done a bronze (a balloon in armor riding a hoop) an anti-war piece.

He has sculpted in wood (a deer).

He has been a star on the TV series, "Car 54."

He has been in the movie version of the role he created on TV, "The Munsters." He has been on the Broadway stage—"Mrs. McThing."

But what he really wants to do for the rest of his life is paint. Frustrating, when you can't afford it, he says. He wants to paint a silhouette of silk crepe. The Chantilly bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and pointed Gothic sleeves. Her removable Chantilly lace mantel-shaped train was delicately bordered in crepe and her three-tiered French illusion veil was secured by a scalloped Chantilly lace headpiece and Dior bow adorned with sequins and pearls. She carried a formal cascade of French white carnations with a removable white Chantilly orchid and miniature ivy foliage.

Toastmistresses Test Wits In Unexpected Challenges

"To Overcome The Unexpected" was the Sky Anchor's Club of TTC re-creating of the naval jargon May Day. The local Toastmistresses members were poked out of any rainy day doldrums they may have had, Sept. 28 when they entered the Caucus Room of the First Federal Building.

The Talent Day originally scheduled was changed at Win-Program committee's prerogative to the May Day. Members are challenged on this type of program to overcome the unexpected assignments it was gratifying for the participants to find the unexpected was no longer so unusual as they handled the various segments of the program.

During the brief welcome by Mrs. Mary Durand welcomed as guests, Betty McKee and Betty Lewis. Sue Monroe was introduced as a new member. Helena Hagerty submitted her application for membership.

Toastmistress Jean Bryant proved how quickly she could adapt to the surprise assignment as she introduced Mickey Money as Toastmistress.

Including the guests as well, Mickey divided the members into two groups. Group one consisted of Jean Bryant, Joan Davidson, Betty McKee and Marianne Swann, with Jane Davidson as the speaker on "Should the Toastmistress Engage in Outside Speaking Activities?"

With the members and guests divided into the two groups, the Toastmistress gave the five-minute discussion.

With the "5777" envelope in hand and a stamp paper before her, Jean Bryant read the name of the mystery speaker, Betty Kelly, who titled her five-minute extemporaneous talk, "Where's the Speech?"

Mary Durand as general evaluator remarked that the program was indeed an appropriate conclusion to the series on Speech, the preparation and delivery of a speech.

What a Delightful Reception

What a delightful reception! Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Spencer, right, as they were served sparkling punch by Mrs. Jack Morrison, who assisted Dr. Morrison as co-chairman of the beverage committee.

Mrs. H. E. Long, president, conducted the business session with reports given by Mrs. Curtis Lavender, secretary; Mrs. Richard Holtzclaw, treasurer; and Mrs. Thomas, sunshine chairman.

The members voted to donate $100 to the furnishing fund for the new building.

Mrs. Robert A. Cohen closed the meeting with prayer.

Miss Mary Jo Thornton, W. J. Roberts Exchange Vows In Candlelight Rites

Miss Mary Jo Thornton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Guy Thornton, of Sanford, and William James Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin L. Roberts, of Deland, were united in Holy Matrimony, Saturday, Oct. 1, 1966, at 6:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Sanford.

Rev. Fred Chance was the officiating clergyman at the intimate candlelight and double ring ceremony in a back-ground setting of potted palms and standing Cathedral candelabra. Flanking the altar were two pedestals bearing white glads and yellow daisy pom-poms. A wrought iron prie-dieu was centered before the altar and family pewes were identified with daisy pom-poms and clusters of greenery.

Mrs. Marvin Miami, organist, presented a pre-wedding recital of musical selections and accompanied Miss Jerr Whastland, soloist, who sang, "Because," "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a formal gown designed with simple elegance in a flattering Empire Josephine silhouette of silk crepe. The Chantilly bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and pointed Gothic sleeves. Her removable Chantilly lace mantel-shaped train was delicately bordered in crepe and her three-tiered French illusion veil was secured by a scalloped Chantilly lace headpiece and Dior bow adorned with sequins and pearls. She carried a formal cascade of French white carnations with a removable white Chantilly orchid and miniature ivy foliage.

Mrs. Richard Melms of St. Petersburg, attended the bride as matron of honor. Attended as bridesmaid was a floor-length gown of daffodil yellow styled along Empire lines with a full-length train. A Dior bow held her short circular nose veil and she carried a hand bouquet of white daisy pom-poms with natural foliage. Bridesmaids were Miss Faye Thornton, sister of the bride, Mrs. E. G. Higginbotham, sister-in-law of the bride, from Eberston, Ga., and Miss Josephine Phillips of Lakeland. Their gowns were fern green in identical design to the matron of honor.

Secretary of State Tom Adams, of Tallahassee, served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Judge Sam Speer, Tallahassee; Richard H. McInnis, St. Petersburg; and Richard E. Toole, Groveland.

Petite Lisa Higginbotham, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Bradley Dense was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thornton chose a beige lace two-piece ensemble complemented with matching accessories and a purple-throated orchid corsage.

Mrs. Roberts, mother of the groom, was attired in a two-piece blue lace dress enhanced with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The Church Social Hall was the reception site immediately following the wedding. Mrs. Lois Faye Taylor and Mrs. Betty Scott kept the bride's bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to the Carolina mountains, the newlyweds will reside at 408 Centerville Road, Tallahassee, where the bridegroom is General Consul in the office of the Secretary of State.

"Candid Chatter"

By DORIS WILLIAMS
OVERHEARD AT THE Mutual Concert Reception Thursday night at the home of DR. AND MRS. ORVILLE BARKS.

"This home is so beautiful and the garden is magnificent."

Oh, she is SARA JANE SMITH.

The green Grecian inspired gown is positively gorgeous... who is she?"

The attractive girl is CATHY MANTLE from Venezuela."

Well, that is CHRIS LOVE-LAINE.

... and the petite brunette in the white cocktail suit?"

... and the cute teen-age looking blonde in the persimmon dress?"

... and the sophisticated blonde chatting with Irene Brown?"

"Both girls are from Florida State Rank—she's RAY GALLAGHER."

These are but a few of the comments circulating around at my post. Believe me all the girls represented the ultimate in fashion a la mode.

ALSO OVERHEARD — ANN SPENCER admitting that her chic black crepe dress from eight years old (reminds me of me) and titan-haired PAT MURPHY confessing that her husband had selected the rich black velvet cocktail suit she was wearing.

EXCLUSIVELY to another Doris at Rountillat and Anderson—I delivered your message and he really beamed!

Thanks, RUTH SWANSON, for the lovely letter. It was exactly what I needed as a subject to write about!

Support Is A Must

It was a dark weekend for Seminole High, who lost; Lyman won, Croombs and Ovid. Regardless of how many games are won or lost this year by our area schools, the important factor is that the young men giving their all should receive adequate support.

Few of the players or coaches are seeking banner headlines or multitudes of flowery praise. Most expect only a good turnout at home games and those played in nearby cities.

Although an athletic program should not be emphasized to a point where it overshadows academic standards, football, baseball and basketball are truly an important part of a well-rounded education.

Besides the players, band members, cheerleaders and pep clubs... the remaining student body, faculty and school administrators are all part of a stimulating athletic program. Subtract the support of a single one of these groups and a good program cannot be carried out.

In addition, there is an important role to be played by interested team supporters, parents and elected officials. A keen interest in the youth of today will help deter problems of tomorrow.

County football teams may not bring home a state championship this year, but they can be recognized as teams coming from communities that have the right spirit.

At home, or on the road, your team can be a winner in trouncing defeat, if they have adequate support.

Jaycees-City-Well Done

It won't be long before Sanford will be rid of one of its worst eyesores and we have the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees to thank for it.

We're talking about the triangle property at the intersection of French Ave. and Seminole Boulevard.

Since that old dilapidated building was torn down, the only things to be found there are cigarette butts, trash and empty beer cans.

That's some sight for us to see as we head through the city on French Ave. But it won't be long and things will be different.

A full-scale beautification project is in the works thanks to the Jaycees and the beautification committee who proposed the idea and the City Commission for expanding it.

The site will be beautified with city funds and as the city was thinking about it last week they decided to set

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Harry became a runaway to escape the mounting psychological pressures on him. But 25,000 husbands also disappear every year for smaller reasons and millions use other escape routes to get away from their marriages.

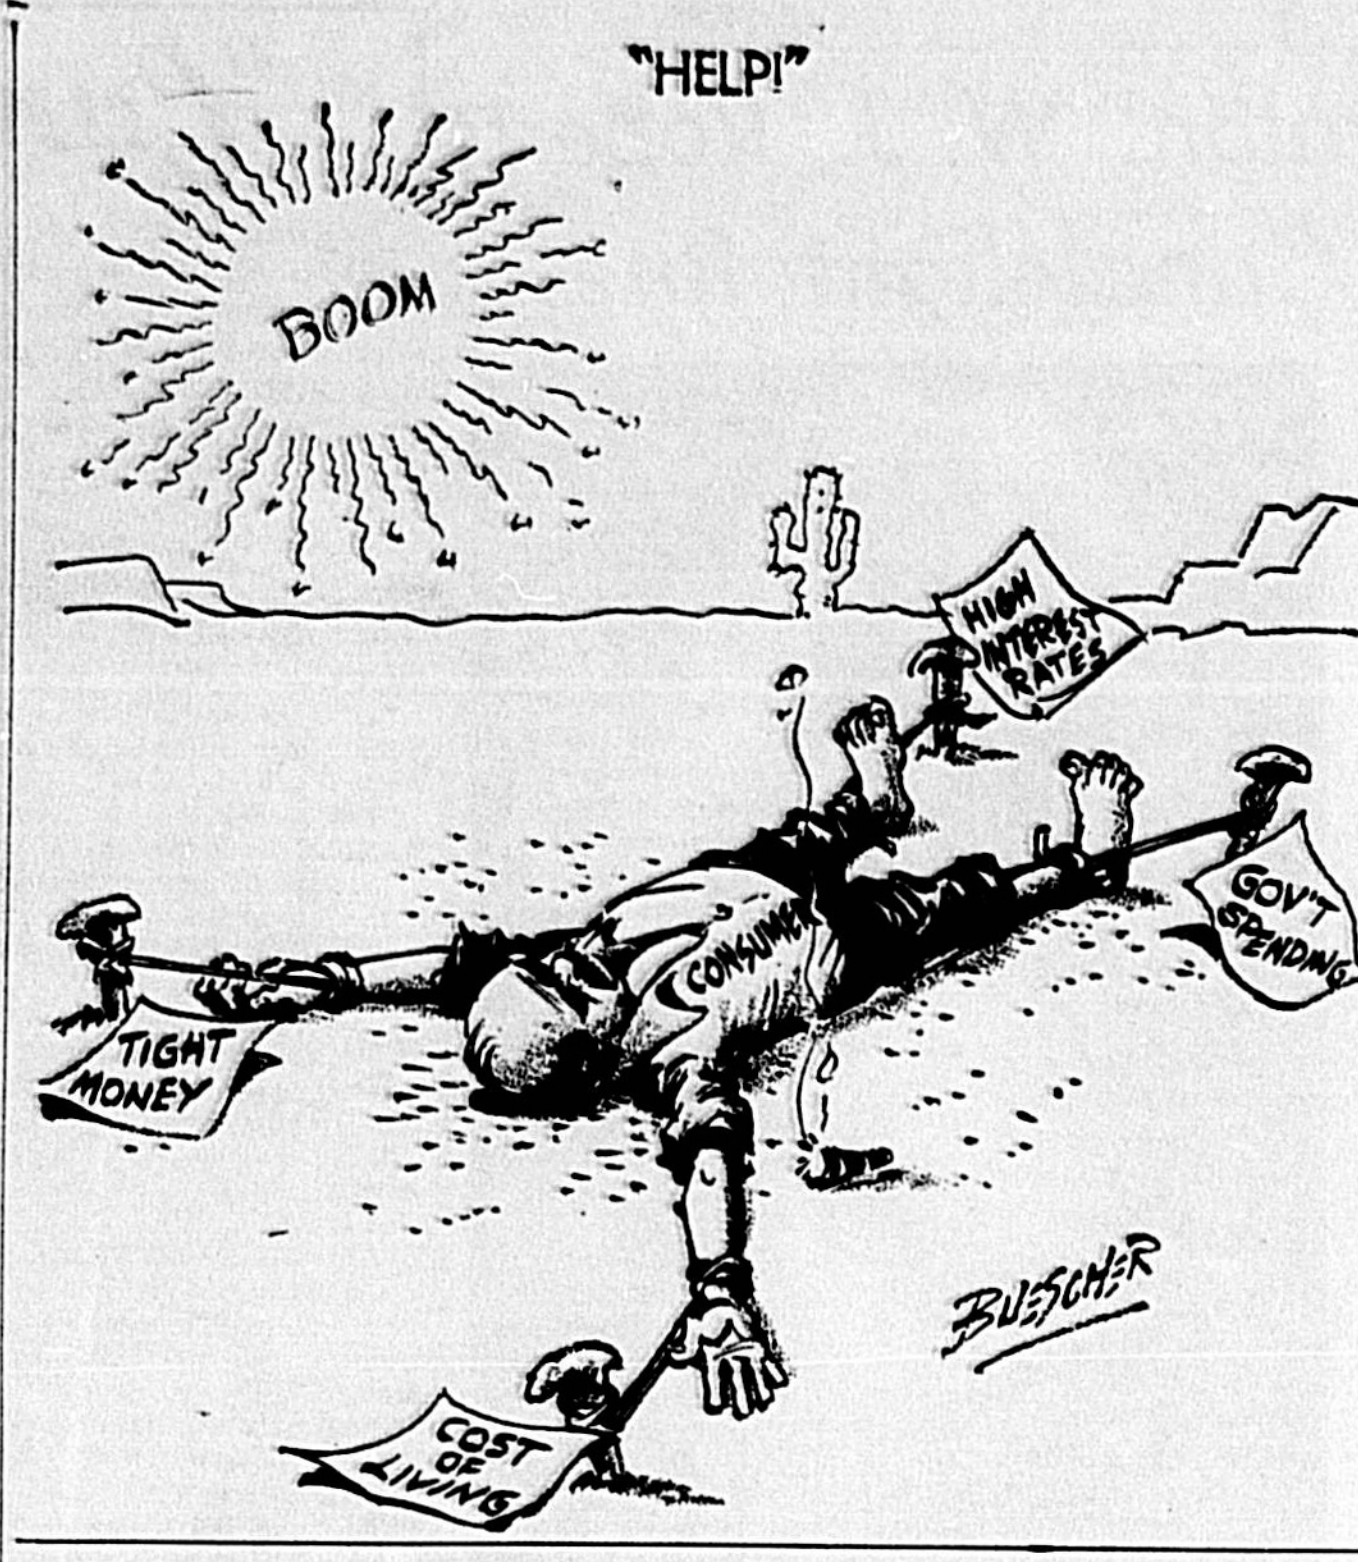

Then Harry came home. He had been in the hospital, had a complete physical check-up, and his doctor said he was in perfect health.

"Dr. Crane," his worried parents began, "Harry has disappeared!"

"He was in college and apparently doing good work."

"Then all of a sudden, he failed to show up for classes. His roommate thought he had decided to run home to visit us, so he didn't get alarmed for a couple of days."

Hal Boyle Says King Of Swing

Recently as he stood in the plush Rainbow Grill pouring out the eloquent clarinet notes that won him fame as "The King of Swing," a customer danced up and said:

"Another comeback? Boy, you must be tired!"

Recounting the incident, the 57-year-old musician gave a wry chuckle.

"When do you have it made?" he said. "The answer is — never."

The fact remains, however, that among real aficionados of jazz Benny Goodman has had time for nearly four decades. In 1936, including even Paul Whiteman, he led his mammoth jazz orchestra.

But Goodman remains the unchallenged master of the clarinet.

Benny, son of an immigrant tailor, borrowed his first clarinet from a Chicago symphony conductor at the age of 10.

Since then he and his "clarinet stick" — a slang term he rarely uses — have shared concert stages and symphony concert halls, in films and night clubs over radio and television networks, on numerous European and Far East tours.

But just as he did as a boy, Benny still rises early each morning for a rigorous, solitary session with his clarinet.

"It isn't like the piano or the violin — you use your wind — so it takes about two hours or more," he remarked half-defensively.

Lyle C. Wilson Says: Electoral College Question

The Supreme Court will be petitioned next month to hear an appeal to protect the civil and political rights of citizens who live outside such great population centers as New York, Chicago and Los Angeles.

The petition seeks to protect the rights of rural citizens in states with great urban concentrations. But it is designed more directly to protect the political rights of small states against the discrimination which enables populous states to dominate presidential elections.

What is sought is this: That the court find the present general ticket system of choosing members of the Electoral College to be in violation of the Constitution. This finding is sought in a petition filed by Atty. Gen. David P. Buckson acting for the state of Delaware.

Delaware complained that voters in the more populous states have an advantage over Delaware voters in the choice of presidential electors. This big state advantage penalizes millions of citizens.

The penalty is assessed under the system whereby each state is allocated in the Electoral College as if it were a country folk it will have to eat or otherwise dispose of Chief Justice Earl Warren's words in ruling that Congress is not state legislators must be appointed on the basis of one-man-one-vote. In that opinion, Warren wrote:

"Simply stated, an individual's right to vote for state legislators is unconstitutionally impaired when its weight is in substantial fashion diluted as compared with the votes of citizens living in other parts of the state."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have arranged many blind dates—some of which have resulted in successful marriages. A few months ago I introduced two people I thought would hit it off well. She is a 27-year-old school teacher, and he is a 28-year-old professional man. I met thru a relative. I was told the gentleman was a fine, eligible young man.

Naturally, I took eligible to mean marriageable. Well, a romance blossomed like you wouldn't believe, and this fine, eligible young man turned out to be only SEPARATED from his wife—not divorced as I had been led to believe. The girl is Catholic, which complicates matters.

My husband said, "I hope you have learned your lesson and have played Cupid for the last time." Abby, I don't see where any of this is my fault. I only arranged the date with the information that had been given in good faith. Am I responsible for this mess?

DEAR ABBY: I am 36 and my husband is 58. We have been married for 16 years and have five children. My husband doesn't allow us to go to movies, parties, or anywhere that has entertainment value. He has a TV, and the children can't go to any school activities if there is dance music.

My husband doesn't believe women should drive cars and I am so tired being

South had lots of problems with today's hand. To start, he did not know whether to open with a conservative one heart or a liberal two bid.

He settled for the conservative course but once his partner raised him to two hearts, South was through with conservatism. His two-spade bid was a start toward a possible grand slam. After all, North might hold the right kings for hearts. North's three-diamond bid showed strength but not the strength South was looking for and South settled for six.

West opened the jack of diamonds and South saw that even considerable thought plus some amount of luck.

There appeared to be alternate lines of play. One would be to try the heart finesse. If that

Chopper Hopping GIs Pounce On Fleeing Reds

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Helicopter-hopping U.S. troops pounced on a fleeing Communist force today and reported killing 117 more of the enemy in mountains near South Viet Nam's central coast.

The added dead raised to 227 the two-day toll taken by the 1st Air Cavalry, Alamo, Division which fought a furious battle Sunday with the Communists and reported 110 killed.

The Sanford Herald Page 14 — Oct. 3, 1966

Reports from the battle area show 30 miles north of the coastal city of Qui Nhon said the number of Communist dead was still climbing.

The Communist unit was a mixed force of North Vietnamese and regulars and Viet Cong.

Official U.S. sources said casualties among the chopper-lifted cavaliers were light.

The battle began after the enemy shot down three U.S. helicopters, prompting the cavaliers to charge the force of more than 300 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops. The helicopters' forward movement was delayed by the damaged aircraft.

The new fighting along the central coast shifted attention away from the prolonged fight by the U.S. Marines just south of the demilitarized zone separating North and South Viet Nam.

U.S. B-52 bombers struck a little below the buffer zone today for the fourth straight day of raids inside or close to the zone.

The bombers rained explosives on North Vietnamese troop concentrations and infiltration routes 20 miles west of the Marines' forward headquarters at Dong Ha.

In the two months of fighting against the rebuilt 324th North Vietnamese division below the demilitarized zone, the Marines have reported killing 855 North Vietnamese and capturing four and seizing 17 weapons. But some Leatherneck units have been hard hit.

U.S. planes flew 113 bombing missions against North Viet Nam Sunday, and pilots claimed damage or destruction of 46 buildings, 13 trucks, and oil depots, and numerous hits on all depots.

During the weekend an Air Force F105 Thunderchief and its pilot was missing. It was the 301st U. S. plane reported lost over the north.

Air Force jets struck at a North Vietnamese military storage complex 26 miles south of the coastal city of Vinh, and pilots said they hit burning with smoke towering 3,000 feet.

The U.S. military command announced that a new search and destroy operation, Little Rock, began Sunday about 18 miles northeast of Saigon. The objective is to destroy Viet Cong forces and base camps in an old rubber plantation area. Several battalions of the 1st Brigade of the 1st Infantry Division are engaged in the new operation.

U.S. pilots flew 415 sorties over South Viet Nam Sunday and claimed destroying or damaging more than 246 Viet Cong huts, trenches and other structures. South Vietnamese pilots flew 154 combat sorties Sunday.

Port And River Commission started

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky has activated a Port and River Development Commission to help develop industry, agriculture, commerce and recreation along the state's waterways.

Volusia County will do everything and anything possible to get a new Osteen bridge, James L. Dixon, chairman of the Volusia County Commission, pledged today in a telephone interview with The Sanford Herald.

"A new bridge over the St. Johns River at Osteen has been needed for 20 years," Dixon said, adding, "you can count on us in every way to support any move to replace the 40-year-old span."

Dixon pointed out that a new high-level bridge on SR 415 over the St. Johns has been given "top priority" by the Volusia County Commission "for the last 45 years." He asked that Seminole County continue with its "moral support" for a new bridge. Money would come from Volusia County's primary road fund administered by the state.

John Alexander, chairman of the Seminole County Commission, previously stated this county will construct a new approach for the proposed high-level span, extending from a point near the present intersection of SR 46 and Cameron Avenue to the bridge.

Willard Peebles, of Wildwood, district member of the State Road Board, has said the proposed $1 million high-level bridge was to have been included in the State Road Department's 1967-68 budget, commencing July 1 next.

Robert King High and Claude Kirk, Democratic and Republican gubernatorial nominees, respectively, pledged in telephone interviews with The Herald Monday to give "top priority" to the Osteen span if they are elected as governor next month.

Peebles was scheduled to attend a meeting to discuss the Osteen bridge problem early this afternoon at Jim Spencer's restaurant. Also attending were Harrison Sisson, Volusia County commissioner in whose district the Osteen bridge is located; Seminole County commissioner William S. Smyrna Beach and Sanford city officials and officials of Chambers of Commerce of both counties.

The Ritz Theater will close Oct. 17 and 18 people will be out of work—Just like that! Manager Bill Lovelace told us that he got the word last week. No other data available and no one from the chain outfit will talk to us.

Once in a while we win a small victory.

Looks like a steady ambulance will be at the game here Friday night . . . School officials handling with Gramkow Funeral Home on details. Will be the best $10 Seminole High School ever spent.

Now if we can only get an ambulance at Junior High and JV games.

A FEW OTHER SMALL VICTORIES WE WOULD LIKE TO WIN BEFORE THEY RUN US OUT OF TOWN.

A new junior high—Adequate school bus transportation—More money for law enforcement officers—Keep politics out of the schools—Lake Monroe Causeway—New Osteen Bridge—A resident physician at the hospital—A medical examiner for Seminole County—Equal wages for all county employees—Every state road on First Street—

FOR THE STATISTICAL MIND—

Circuit Court judge gets $18,000 from the state and $2,000 supplement from the county.

County Judge, Clerk of Circuit Court, Tax Collector and Tax Assessor get $11,500 and Superintendent of Schools gets $12,500.

AND SOME MORE—Legislators get $100 per month, county prosecutor gets $5 per case and can't make more than $7,500 per year although he gets more money for office expenses. JP's and constables can't make more than $7,500.

Starting salary for Sanford policemen is about $93.67 per month.

Firemen get $81.19.

Out of the 28 policemen, 59 per cent of them have to hold other jobs to help support their families. Police Chief makes $8,389 and Fire Chief, $7,139.

Deputies make about $225 per month.

Teamsters officials tried to organize City workers the other day. A meeting was held . . . Here are the results . . . 10 said yes . . . 67 said no.

Trjed to get attorney general's ruling on whether you can serve on the school and hospital boards at the same time . . . We got the runaround and it is expected . . . They want it in writing . . . By the time you read this it will be at the post office.

Democratic and Republican nominees for school board posts will discuss their views at the Sanford Women's Club Wednesday at 1 p.m. Should be very interesting.

Nobody asked me but, just think if the hospital didn't have all those expensive rugs we probably could have an ambulance there.

I don't usually get shook up but, the widow of Terry Cordell came in this morning to say hello . . . Capt. Cordell was Sanford's first casualty of the Viet Nam War about four years ago. She said she just wanted to meet me . . . Okay, if you want to run me out of town go ahead now . . . I won't forget Terry's blonde, blue-eyed young child smiling at me.

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 9,000 union employees began returning to their jobs at two General Electric Corp. plants today as the government pressed its effort to end a contract dispute that could affect the U.S. war effort in Viet Nam.

Okay Bid For Oviedo Water Plan

Preliminary work for the new water system for the town of Oviedo was ordered by the town council with the acceptance of the bid of W. H. Simmons of Deland for $6,500 for surveying of easements for the planned new facility.

Contract for the work to be prepared by G. Algernon Spear, town attorney, will include provision that the work be completed within 40 working days. Completion is expected by Dec. 1.

Simmons reported to the board that work will commence today.

Nobody asked me but, just think if the hospital didn't have all those expensive rugs we probably could have an ambulance there.

County To Realign Sand Lake Road

The County Commission today voted unanimously to realign Sand Lake Road on the center of its right-of-way and denied the appeal of John Gentry for reinstatement in his position with the county road department.

After more than an hour's discussion, with property owners on both sides of Sand Lake Road making their positions known, Commission Chairman John Alexander declared, "Sufficient and proper time has been given for consideration of the question of the proper alignment of the road over the last six months. The book of questions has been exhausted," he said.

Alexander reported that the road will be at least twenty feet from the nearest house. The question was originally brought to the attention of the board when a property owner on the north side of the road received determination following a survey that the road had deviated as much as 15 feet onto his property.

Motion was made and adopted to instruct the road superintendent and engineer to align Sand Lake Road in the center of the right-of-way and program same work on it as soon as possible. The engineer was also ordered to notify all property owners affected of the board's decision.

In the matter of reinstatement of Gentry, Commissioner W. Lawrence Swofford who has recommended postponement of decision until road employees could be questioned, stated he "could find no reason to reverse the decision of Supl. J. C. Lavender" in dismissing the employee and moved that the appeal be denied.

In other business, the board passed a resolution accepting with a reverter clause 700 feet of the present right-of-way for an approach road to Lyman High School from Hilliard Casselberry. Commissioner John Fitzpatrick reported that the property would be returned to the school.

While the budget is approximately 35 per cent higher than last year, millage will not have to be raised as the tax rolls showed an increase in assessments (mostly through new construction) of more than $2 million.

Water department budget will be recommended by Swofford will total $24,200.
