This award, considered one of the highest in the organization, was made by the International Supreme Council of the Order of DeMolay. The citation reads, "for being faithful in the work of the Order, for upholding loyalty its ideals, and for developing other outstanding qualities of body, mind and spirit which mark an all-round young man."

Aiken has been a member of Seminole Chapter since it was reorganized in November of 1959. He is presently serving the local chapter as Senior Counselor. He will leave Sunday for Jacksonville where he will serve as a delegate to the State Conclave and will also serve on the State Conduct Committee.

Things Look Different On Television Screen

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—TV detective Efron Zimballat Jr. and his wife, Stephanie, apparently a happily married couple on "Person to Person" last Friday night, said Tuesday they definitely will be divorced.

The "Person to Person" segment was filmed several months ago and delayed once when the couple separated temporarily.

"There definitely will be a divorce," the actor said. The Zimballats were married Feb. 7, 1956.

Massive Drainage Work Set

The County will start work early next week on an extensive drainage project which will control flooding for the entire portion of South Sanford, County Engineer Carlton Bliss said today.

Bliss said the work will start digging canals along Osora Rd. to Lake Jessup in the first phase of the program with two other phases expected as soon as engineering work is completed on the overall three mile projects.

Civil Defense funds will help pay a cost of the program, the engineer added.

The project will include adequate drainage for south Sanford, Seminole High School, Lake Jennie, Lake Ada and the entire Pinecrest area.

All the rights of way for the work have been donated, Bliss added.

One of the most outstanding results of the new Friday Night Shopping hours, begun three weeks ago by the Downtown Merchants of Sanford, has been the opening of opportunity for the whole family to come downtown and shop together.

Dad, Son, Grandfather and Husband have all been quick to take advantage of the after-work hours when they have a chance to take a leisurely stroll downtown and try on shoes and clothes, look over garden tools, electrical appliances, shop tools, autos, boats and accessories. His eye is also caught by gift items in many stores which he might like to give his wife and family for Christmas.

Mother can bring the kiddies down and shop for their back-to-school needs, while Dad holds the baby and minds the others.

Grandmother can come down with Granddad to shop together and make their purchases and visit and chat with their friends. Seeing friends and neighbors has been one of the most interesting sidelights of the Friday Night Shopping, enjoyed by all.

School-age children, teen-agers and college bound students, many of whom hold daytime jobs, also are taking advantage of the opportunity to see and buy new school clothes and school supplies for themselves, which the downtown merchants are featuring these preschool weeks with lavish window displays.

All the latest styles and colors in clothing, shoes, materials and other articles are on display with special accents on good buys, bargain prices and large selections. At the same time, many stores are still giving extra-special low prices on summer's end merchandise that the thrift-conscious shopper cannot afford to bypass.

Two beautiful Bulova watches, one for a lady and one for a man will be the give-away prizes this Friday night, to be a gift to some lucky winners. The drawing will be shortly after 9 p. m. from the sound truck on the corner of First St. and Magnolia Ave.

A HELMETED East-Berlin policeman stands guard at a barbed-wire barrier along the closed border of West Berlin to thwart further escape by residents of the Red-held sector. The U. S. has charged the border-closing is a violation of Soviet agreements with the West.

'Poor Man's' Space Vehicle Launched

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The Air Force today launched a "poor man's space vehicle" that may become a key to discovering whether other nations are secretly testing nuclear bombs at high altitude.

A four-stage Blue Scout Jr. rocket soared off its launching pad at 9:29 a. m. in the deepest planned space probe to date that used a solid fuel projectile.

Its mission was to study proton and neutron radiation above the Van Allen radiation belts. The 27-pound package of instruments was plotted for a 140,000-mile voyage.

The Blue Scout took off with bullet speed and was quickly lost in clouds that covered the cape area today. As it disappeared from sight, it trailed a long plume of smoke.

Although it was not an orbital shot, it was to achieve somewhat the effect of orbiting. The earth was to revolve four times before the capsule completed its 11-hour journey and returned to the earth's atmosphere where it would burn to a crisp.

Sailor Facing Two Traffic Counts

A Sanford sailor was charged with careless driving and destroying property in a one car accident along W. First St. Wednesday night.

The Navy man, Arthur Payne, is attached to VA-13 at the Navy Base. Two other sailors were in the car at the time of the accident. One of them, Jack Bryan, received minor cuts and bruises. The other was identified as James Earmhart.

Police said that Payne was traveling too fast along the street, now under construction when the accident occurred. He apparently lost control of his vehicle and slammed into four drainage piers, police added.

Nursing Home Hunt On

The County Zoning Director has been asked to look for a suitable piece of property to be used for a new nursing home facility for Seminole County.

County Commission Vice Chairman James P. Avery, in a letter to Robert Brown, zoning director, asking that a place be found, suggested that the site be in "suitable surroundings" and that there "is reason to believe that during the latter part of the 1961-62 fiscal year sufficient funds will be available for purchase of a site."

"To clarify the need for a site other than the location of the existing facility, it is generally conceded that the less expensive land would be in the best interests of the county," Avery said.

Avery pointed out that the site should not be exposed to excessive noise, dirt odors, smoke or traffic disturbances.

Avery also stressed the need for adequate sewage, water and possible gas facilities.

"Possible future expansion should be one of the factors in determining the size of the site and it should be large enough to provide an ample parking area for visitors."

The County School Board today voted to pledge $50,000 out of next year's budget for educational television purposes for the Central Florida Area.

The board adopted a resolution asking the Federal Communication Commission to reserve TV Channel 11 in Orlando for educational purposes and agreed to pledge $3.81 for every student in the county schools to carry on the program.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee told the board that it would gain economically in the long run from classroom in the future. "It wouldn't have to utilize as many classrooms in the future," he added. "It would add 30 percent more capacity to our school facilities," he added.

Milwee added that seven other counties in the central Florida area already have gone on record as supporting the program.

In other business, the board rejected all bids for milk for the coming year and agreed to ask the dairymen to resubmit bids that meet with state requirements concerning cartons and butter fat.

Officials pointed that the schools are losing a great deal of money each year because of milk carton leakage.

Convicts Seize Guards, Workers

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A group of convicts at the state prison here seized a number of guards and workers today and held them hostage in the prison commissary.

The prisoners claimed they were armed with pistols, zip guns and knives.

Frank Sanders, one of the group, said they seized the hostages to protest what they called a lack of recreation facilities.

Sanders said one of the prisoners was Raymond Farra, who was involved in a previous insurrection at the prison, on the edge of Nashville.

Warden Lynn Bomar said, "We're trying to get all the prisoners back in their cells and then we'll see what we have." The prisoners threatened to "execute somebody" if officials tried to rush them or use tear gas.

$50,000 Pledged For TV Schooling

Commission Okays Furniture Bids

The County Commission met in special session Wednesday and awarded the low bid for furniture for the new County Jail to the Bishop Office Supply Co. of Orlando for $10,887.

The other bidder was Swaney's of Sanford who bid $8,314 but the bid did not include a file cabinet.

On July 25, local dealers protested the furniture specifications calling them "discriminative and restrictive."

However, the board agreed to let the specifications stand and readvertise the bids.

Hijacked Plane Back Home

MIAAMI (UPI) — A hijacked Eastern Air Lines prop-jet Electra was brought back to the United States Wednesday by the same crew which took it to Havana at gunpoint July 21.

The pilot, Capt. William E. Buchanan, said on his return here the Cuban government appeared to be "quite concerned" over recent attempts to steal American passenger planes by hijackers.

Britain, France Boost Forces

BERLIN (UPI) — Britain and France followed the American lead today in bolstering their military forces in Berlin and Germany.

At the same time, the East Germans disclosed that two million members of the Communist youth organization would be mobilized "voluntarily."

The twin military moves on either side of the sealed East-West Berlin border came as the Allies delivered stinging protest notes to the Soviet Union over the Communists' illegal actions in this crisis-ridden city. The notes warned that such actions could have grave consequences.

Earlier, the West Berlin police reported the defection of 10 uniformed members of the Communist East Germany people's police and two members of the Red workers' militia during the past two nights.

Mobilization of the Communist youths will reinforce the ranks of the 400,000-man "people's army," the "people's police" and the workers' militia already involved on the Red side in the cold war contest for Berlin.

Uneasy West Berliners who have been critical of the West for the relative softness and slowness of its reply to the Communist action of sealing off the city's borders early Sunday took heart from today's moves.

Nobody asked me but...
What would have happened to the light-fisted county budget if the commissioners had gotten the approval of our legislators for a pay raise they discussed earlier in the year?

One thing the County Commission and I are in complete agreement about — that I'm a lousy playwright.

The City Commission isn't waiting until the next fiscal year to purchase emergency generators in case of an outage. City Manager W. F. Knowles has been authorized to purchase six generators NOW.

Watch for the Back to School edition in Friday's Herald. There'll be plenty of real good buys.

What ever happened to the Humane Society???

Wouldn't it be a good idea for the city to make a complete study on utilizing the Civic Center to its full advantage?

Big Three Warns Reds

LONDON (UPI) — The Big Three Western powers protested to the Soviet Union today against recent illegal Communist measures in Berlin and warned the Russians of the grave dangers that can result from such actions.

The United States, Britain and France made their protests in identical diplomatic notes handed to the Kremlin in Moscow.

The notes charged that sealing off the East-West Berlin border by the East Germans "illegal" and a "flagrant and particularly serious violation of the quadri-partite status of Berlin."

They termed the measures of the East Germans "illegal" and said the West is holding the Soviet Union responsible for them.

The notes also urged the Soviet government "to put an end to these illegal measures."

"This unilateral infringement of the quadri-partite status of Berlin can only increase existing tensions and dangers," the notes said.

The protest in Moscow today was the second Allied move since the Communist East Germans clamped down their restrictions in Berlin early Sunday. It followed a protest by the Western commandants to the Soviet commandant in Berlin Tuesday.

The strongly-worded Allied diplomatic notes, urging "the most serious attention of the government of the U. S. S. R.," made these other points:

The latest restrictions in Berlin "have the effect of limiting, to a degree, approaching complete prohibition, of passage from the Soviet sector to the Western sectors of the city."

Freedom of movement with respect to Berlin was reaffirmed by the four-power agreement in New York of May 4, 1949, and by the decision in Paris on June 20, 1949, by a council of ministers of the four powers.

The Western powers have never accepted that limitation can be imposed on freedom of movement within Berlin; the boundary between the Soviet and the Western sectors is not a state frontier.

The measures taken by the East German authorities are illegal.

The Allies do "not accept the pretension that the Soviet sector of Berlin forms a part of the so-called 'German Democratic republic' and that Berlin is situated on its territory."

Sanford Reserves Not Alerted

The commander of the Sanford Army reserve unit said today in the wake of military alerts that the local unit is as well trained as you will find anywhere.

William Harold Smith, commander of Sanford's Co. B, second battalion of the 126th Infantry unit, said that the unit was already close to required strength, although it has not been alerted "at the present time."

There are 100 men in the local unit.

Nearly 470 Florida National Guardsmen and Army Reservists were alerted Wednesday for possible callup to active duty.

The two National Guard units notified were the 30th Signal Detachment of Jacksonville and the 370th Signal Detachment from Camp Blanning.

The four reserve units alerted were the 866th Ordnance Detachment, explosive disposal, from Gainesville; 674th Transportation medium truck, Orlando; 231st medium truck, Orlando; 231st Transportation Company, float craft, Sarasota; and the 488th Transportation Company, term service, Pensacola.

Capt. R. W. Lisenby, training officer for the Florida Sector Command of the 4th Army Corps in Jacksonville, said none of the Florida units alerted were combat outfits.

Lisenby said it did not take him by surprise. "Everybody has been expecting it," he said. "My personal feeling is that they are ready to go."

"They will be brought up to full strength and issued all the required equipment," said Maj. Gen. George T. Dunca.

At the same time, the East Germans disclosed that two million members of the Communist youth organization would be mobilized "voluntarily."

Berlin Crisis Becomes Personal One For Reservists Alerted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The crisis in Berlin because a personal one for nearly 17,000 men today — businessmen, lawyers, laborers — ordinary men in hundreds of the nation's cities and towns.

All they have in common is that they know how to fight. They are the Army and Air Force reservists ordered Wednesday to get their affairs in order and be ready for active duty.

Many of them, however, may spend months anxiously scanning the news from tense Berlin and wondering whether Uncle Sam will drop the other shoe—whether they will actually be ordered to active duty.

Recall seems a certainty for some, perhaps many, Air Force and Navy men.

As the tempo of preparedness increased, it seems likely that thousands of naval reservists—destroyers and anti-submarine plane crews — will also be alerted. The Navy is getting ready to expand its active fleets by 40 to 50 ships as part of the buildup.

But for Army reservists, there is less certainty.

Announcing a sweeping program for building a million-man Army, Secretary Elvis J. Stahr Jr. said Wednesday of the reserve units put on alert: "We hope that the international situation will be such that we don't have to call these reserve units... in spite of the hope, we still feel we should alert them."

While uncertainty faced the 71 Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve and 113 Army National Guard and Army Reserve units now alerted, there was no doubt about continued big draft calls.

Revealing plans for stretching out active duty tours and taking other interim measures for a quick Army buildup, Stahr said the draft call for October will be "at least" 20,000. It already has been fixed at 13,000 for this month and 25,000 for September.

These calls are of late Korean War size.

Manpower expansion plans announced to date put total U. S.

military strength on the way toward the 2,745,277 goal fixed by President Kennedy and Congress.

The Air Force has alerted 37,000 reservists for possible recall and disclosed plans to raise active strength by 25,000 through recruiting, voluntary tour extensions and involuntary extensions if necessary. The Navy has said it will freeze 26,800 in service for an extra six to 12 months.

In the most far reaching program yet, the Army told Wednesday how it will build up to 984, 374 by next June 30. If it also recalls the 25,626 reservists it alerted, manpower will go to 1,008,000.

Stahr said the Army had decided against mobilizing units of division size. He did not explain why, but the length of time it would take to get them combat-ready presumably was a key factor. The best National Guard divisions have 70 to 80 per cent of combat strength and training and equipping could run into several months. The present goal is a fast Army buildup, with selected, specialized, smaller reserve units on alert if needed.

Stahr said the terms of 84,000 enlisted men in the regular Army — everyone whose term would expire between Oct. 1 and next June 30 — will be extended as much as four months. That will cover the training time for new replacements.

About 4,800 ROTC graduates who had expected six months active duty now will get two years. Another 1,700 ROTC men now on six months duty will be extended as much as a year.

Reserve officers completing 10-year active tours will be encouraged to extend voluntarily. If necessary, as many as 4,000 will be kept on involuntarily.

The Army also may recall individually 700 reserve officers and 2,000 enlisted men to meet needs for special skills. This depends on volunteers.

Tours of duty in Japan and Germany will be extended six months and in Korea three months.

Lake Monroe Jottings

By MRS. H. L. JOHNSON
A HHS' tributary to you.

Well is everyone back from his vacation and ready to go back to work? All we have now is memories of those days and already we are thinking and planning for them next year. Why not, as long as it does not cost us anything to plan, we can certainly dream about it.

Don and Virginia Brown have had her brothers, Stan Huddle of Norfolk, Va., and Bill Huddle of Roanoke, Va., visiting with them.

Linda Stapler has had as her houseguest this past week, Sue Callahan of Melbourne. Sue is the granddaughter of John and Louise Callahan of Sanford. The girls have had a grand time indulging in various sports and making different articles of crafts.

Virginia and Eddie Orter

and sons of the Old Monroe Rd. are in North Carolina visiting Eddie relatives.

William and Mable Carroll and Mable's uncle left early Tuesday morning for Binghamton, N. Y., where they will visit for about three weeks. Mable hasn't been feeling very good so this trip will do her good.

Virginia Touchstone and young son of Fort Myers have returned home after spending a short time here with her parents, Everett and Nettie Hawkins and grandmother, Annie Hawkins.

The Carroll boys, Robert Dorn, Richard Hittell, Sidney Hawkins and Sid's dad, Claude, are having a wonderful time camping at the camp of Katon Allen. It's so wonderful to see these young boys so interested in outdoor sports.

Monroe is really stirred up over these robberies. We know the law officers are doing everything in their power to solve them but so far no success and they are still going on. I remember years ago here in Sanford a curfew was put on the young people and it looks like it will have to be done out here in order to have the home safe so the parents can get their shutgins out to sit at the windows and watch for intruders. All Monroe is willing to help in anyway possible or have this crime wave stopped. One irate person told me yesterday that he is so wrought up over this world situation and now to have this other worry to come up. He was thinking of the teenagers and what it will be doing to them.

Myrtle Pickett and daughter, Loretta, of Jacksonville, were in Monroe last weekend visiting sister Rena and Claude Hawkins. Myrtle is a school bus driver in Orange Park.

The Upsala Community Presbyterian Church is sponsoring a Bar-b-que chicken supper Saturday afternoon starting at 5 o'clock. All the trimmings that go with the chicken will also be served. So "you all come."

Kil and Ola Cain, son Steve, daughters Dotty and Rebecca Pelham, have enjoyed a visit to Hendersonville, N. C. They were joined later by Dan Pelham. While there Ola's sister, Thelma and J. C. Sikes dropped in for a short visit. Thelma is a teacher at the Wilson School at Paola.

The farmers have started plowing the fields. Those fall crops will be planted very shortly now. Then you will see the goldenrod blooming, the leaves falling from the trees and then BRRR, winter. The way time flies those cold breezes will be blowing real quick like.

So glad to have our Home Demonstration Agent home after her enjoyable trip to her sister's in Alabama. We are going to show these county commissioners just what and why Seminole County needs a H.D. Agent here through our program being planned for the coming year.

THE SKY'S the limit for water ski champions Judy Roach, left, and Barbara Cooper when they compete today through Sunday in the National Water Ski Tournament at Austin, Texas. The two Cypress Gardens bombshells recently broke the world record for women's jumping. Both will be trying for 100 feet in Texas.

Glue Fumes Leave Youngsters Woozy

United Press International — Authorities warned today of permanent brain damage or death from "glue sniffing" — deliberate intoxication from model airplane cement fumes.

An outbreak of "glueing parties" among St. Louis County, Missouri, teenagers was disclosed recently.

A United Press International survey showed the practice is not isolated.

A week ago, a frenzied 18-year-old Dallas youth herded five members of his family out of their home and shot himself in the leg. Police said the boy was "high" on airplane cement fumes and went berserk when his family confiscated the glue.

Los Angeles reported two deaths last year from pneumonia blamed directly on lung deterioration from glue sniffing. Police also coped with light-headed youths being treated in hospital. First-time cases are reported through youngsters' parents. Repeaters are prosecuted under the city's benzedrine ordinance, since chloral benzate produces the "kicks." Conviction carries a minimum penalty of $300 fine and 90 days in jail.

Oklahoma City authorities reported "quite a few" cases but said there was no known connection between glue sniffing and crime. Several supermarkets removed airplane glue from their shelves.

Los Angeles health officials cited the biggest obstacle to halting the fad: Airplane cement is as available as the nearest drug or novelty store. Banning its sale is impracticable and authorities can only warn merchants to be discreet.

Despite warnings, supplies of the glue were depleted in several St. Louis County communities.

"It's not a narcotic and is not habit-forming," County Detective Capt. H. C. Birmes said. Other authorities said legislation against the glue would have to be extended to paint, gasoline, car ignition spray and lighter fluid — clearly out of the question.

Denver police reported glue sniffing cases "right along, with three or four just Wednesday."

FAA Holding Closed Door Session On Hijacking

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Aviation Agency is holding closed-door discussions with airline officials to determine whether stronger cockpit doors would help preventing airplane hijacking.

Most cockpit doors are paper-thin, intentionally lightweight and might be broken down by a strong person even when locked. The FAA and the airlines are trying to decide:

1. Whether heavier doors are feasible.
2. If so, should their installation be made mandatory.
3. Whether their drawbacks outweigh their advantages.

An FAA spokesman emphasized that the most serious objection to heavier cockpit doors involves undesirable weight. A door capable of withstanding the battering-ram charge of a 250-pound man theoretically could force elimination of two or more passenger seats.

A heavy door also might present crew evacuation problems in the event of a crash landing, or could prevent pilots from entering the cabin to aid passengers in such emergencies.

FAA officials concerned with the hijacking problem thus far are convinced that stiffer penalties are the most practical preventive measure.

"Let's face it," one pointed out. "You could put five padlocks on a cockpit door weighing 500 pounds and some character could threaten a stewardess or passenger with a gun and get the flight deck crew to open up."

The Price Of Liberty

Across the space of 18 years, a general and an admiral spoke largely to the same point—that Americans must face up to the heavy burdens of peace if they would avoid the horrors of war.

On Memorial Day, 1948, Gen. Omar Bradley, then Army Chief of Staff, rose on a village green at Longwood, Mass., to pay homage to a soldier, a Medal of Honor winner, killed near the close of the war in Europe. The general's words deserve full flow:

"We have suffered enough in two world wars to know that non-involvement in peace means certain involvement in war . . .

"Secure in distant and peaceful towns like these, clinging to comforts, refusing risks, seeking safety in refuge and refuge in words, we recanted power and conscience . . .

"If we (now) eringe from the necessity of meeting issues boldly with principle, resolution and strength, then we shall simply hurdle along from crisis to crisis, improvising with expedients, seeking inoffensive solutions, drugging the nation with an illusion of security . . .

"The American people must put their faith in stable long-range policies—political, economic and military—programs that will not be heated and cooled with the brightening and waning of tension.

"The United States has matured to world leadership; it is time we steered by the stars, not by the lights of each passing ship."

In midsommer of 1961, with the dilemma of Berlin hanging over this country and the world, Adm. Arleigh Burke, newly freed of his long responsibility as Chief of Naval Operations, spoke in like vein.

Delivering his maiden civilian speech in Washington, a long address covering many aspects of the world struggle, the admiral found a place for these words of challenge to the people:

"The pleasures of an easy summer and the comforts of a thriving economy can well obscure the seriousness of our times . . .

"We live in a free world, but we are confronted by a world of coercion, a world where men are disciplined by force, by terror and intimidation.

"There is only one effective response to this challenge. We must provide our own form of discipline, the discipline that springs from within: self-discipline. This is the only discipline possible in a democracy . . .

"We must recognize that the very heart of any nation is its principles. Our principles must be the driving force behind our actions and the standard against which those actions are measured."

No realistic leader predicts anything for us but continuing challenge in the decades ahead. Let us hope that in those years there will be other Burkes and Bradleys to call us sharply to the test.

To The Editor

City of Sanford
Sanford, Florida
Gentlemen:

We want to take this opportunity to congratulate City officials, Sanford's Director of Recreation, and all others who helped stage the State Little Major League Tournament on August 1th, 8th and 9th.

This was one of the most outstanding events ever held here, and our city was fortunate to be chosen for the play-off. It was certainly a rewarding experience to watch these young boys display the high type of competitive sportsmanship which was evident in all the games. Their managers and coaches deserve a great deal of credit, for this training will eliminate many of our juvenile problems.

We would like particularly to compliment Mr. James R. Jernigan, Director of Recreation for the City of Sanford, for an excellent job, and hope that Sanford will be privileged to be the host city for more events of this kind.

Sincerely,
John Krider

INBAD THE SAILOR, (OR A SWEETHEART IN EVERY PORT)

From Rome

Henry McLemore

LONDON—There is an anti-American feeling in this country, and at times it runs pretty strong.

Right now is one of those times, what with America willing to be stand-up tough over Berlin, and England looking toward more talks over a table, with a concession thrown in here and there.

The rupture with which Kennedy's election was greeted has cooled. At first, England hailed him as the young man who was going to do things, big things; a young man whose very strength and liveliness would be a shot in the arm of the Free World.

Now, England sees him as too young, too virile, too progressive, too tough, too eager, too active. One senses that England longs for the quiet, dignified, unruffled approach of Eisenhower.

England wanted action from Washington. England got it—and now she doesn't like it.

The editorial pages express the wish that the President would tread more softly toward a meeting with Khrushchev. It would be wiser, it is felt, if he made more gentle speeches, extended more feelers for talks and meetings.

The political cartoonists—and no country can hold a candle to England when it comes to political cartooning—picture the President, bangs over eyes, eager for a head-on collision with Khrushchev. He is portrayed as a man just as much to blame for the Berlin crisis as Mr. K., who thought it up, and brought it about.

Those Englishmen who detect the idea of England's joining the Common Market, and there are millions of them, believe that England is being shoved into joining by the United States. They think our pressure, and our pressure alone, is to blame.

Where do the English get the picture of America that they have? I would say chiefly through the American correspondents of the London papers. Is the impression a good one or a bad one? It's bad.

I have been reading London papers for a quarter of a century, and I have yet to read a report from America that sounded as if it were written by a man sympathetic to our country.

Some of the correspondents have lived in America for a decade or more, and some have taken out citizenship, yet they send only the unkindest stories to their papers.

Our faults are played up and exaggerated—our weaknesses harped upon.

Our virtues, our strength, our fine things, are played down. This is particularly true of the popular press, which reaches millions and millions of people. The correspondents' stories feature crime, divorce, a vulgar show of wealth, and overlook the day by day life of millions of solid, ordinary, hard-working Americans.

If there is a story about Mr. Nixon, it points up that he has bought a home on Sunset Boulevard, and then goes on to tell of the movie doings of Sunset Boulevard, leaving the picture that Mr. Nixon is now a member of the wild, Hollywood set. That's typical.

If England cares for America's friendship—and if I were in England's place I would—then it might be wise for the editors to ask their American correspondents to try to find—once a week, anyway—something nice to say about America.

That shouldn't be too hard an assignment.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE J-410: Joan F., aged 27, is the charming teacher who scheduled a "Fear Party" for her fourth graders last term.

"Dr. Crane," she added, "wouldn't it be helpful to all age groups if they could participate in a similar professional of their fears and worries?"

Yes, and that would reduce neurotic ailments tremendously. Each week an estimated 20,000,000 patients call upon us doctors.

Of this number, 50 percent or 10,000,000 patients have no diagnosable physical ailments whatsoever! They are "worry warts."

Yet they keep running from one physician to another, largely to get a willing ear who will listen to their parade of troubles.

One of the most wholesome things you could schedule in your church would thus be a group confessional where people could admit of their inner tensions.

The old-fashioned prayer meetings served this purpose fairly well in past generations, but it has largely gone out of style.

So medical care now falling heir to these 10,000,000 neurotics who could usually avoid a medical office if each church would run a public "Talk Clinic" for fearful folks.

Many of our supposed ailments result from negative thinking. People get scared about their past deeds and then think God will punish them with dramatic ailments such as insanity and apoplexy.

Or they mistake simple aches and pains, as they quickly jump to wrong medical conclusions.

In my Sunday school teaching I thus mix a lot of medicine and psychology.

Several times I have conducted medical "Talk Clinics" for churches wherein we let people parade their symptoms and then show them why their aches and pains don't mean cancer, etc.

Much of the reduced pain of childbirth is now traced to the fact that modern physicians conduct similar "Talk Clinics" for their pregnant patients.

The doctors explain the mechanics of childbirth and the women are free to ask questions. Surrounded by 25 to 30 other expectant mothers, these women thus feel much less fearful, even before they hear a word of counsel from their doctor.

And they also reassure each other by the fact they confess the same symptoms and thus realize that they are not unique or freakish.

Many wives who have been somewhat pampered and who may likewise have enjoyed most of the family spotlight as "only" children, suddenly feel a bit resentful after their first baby arrives.

For the husband and the woman's parents now shift their focus of interest to the new infant.

Peter Edson's Political Notebook

WASHINGTON —(NEA)— Departments of Interior's Bureau of Reclamation and Army Corps of Engineers are water fighting again.

Hearings of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Public Works, recently made public, show that in 23 different river developments in the West, the two agencies are in conflict over water conservation surveys and project planning.

While this competition may give Congress a choice between two plans for river development, duplication of effort and expense result, and there is no central authority.

This is one of the oldest unsettled bureaucratic feuds in Washington. It has been the subject of 20 investigation reports in the last 50 years.

Water policy has been "settled" many times by agreements on division of responsibility between the two agencies. There is broad co-operation in that Department of Interior markets the power generated at Army-built dams. In general, Bureau of Reclamation does upstream development, Corps of Engineers does downstream work.

Army Engineers got into this through the old War Department authority over all navigable streams. This was later broadened to include harbor development and flood control.

Bureau of Reclamation was not created until 1902 and its activities are limited to 17 western states and Alaska.

But after the great floods of 1927 and 1928, Congress authorized Corps of Engineers to make comprehensive basin surveys of all streams in the nation. That lets them operate in the 17 western reclamation states and Alaska as well.

Latest resumption of the water feud's, fustis' and fight's' is over Alaskan surveys. Both agencies were authorized by Congress to make studies in 1949, and both immediately began investigations of the entire territory.

The bureau has completed construction of one hydroelectric plant and has recommended two others. Army engineers have completed a report on one completely different project and is investigating two others.

One of the basic reasons for the continuing rivalry is that the two agencies get their authority from different congressional committees.

Corps of Engineers is responsible to Public Works Committees of Senate and House, Bureau of Reclamation is responsible to Interior Committee of Senate and House. The only place their differences can be reconciled is in Appropriations Committees when they come up for money.

Where a clear division of responsibility is laid down there is relative peace. The entire Colorado River development, for instance, is Bureau of Reclamation's job.

On the Missouri River, by the compromise Pick-Sloan plan of 1916, Corps of Engineers builds all main stream works, including power and water storage for irrigation. Bureau of Reclamation markets the power and distributes the water.

But Corps of Engineers has now requested money for a power survey project above Fort Peck Dam in Montana. Bureau of Reclamation considers this its territory, upstream.

In California all Central Valley projects have to be correlated with Reclamation's Shasta and Friant dams as the primary projects. But this has brought conflict with Corps of Engineers over operation of 11 tributary stream flood control dams authorized by Congress, eight of which are completed.

On the Snake River, a tributary of the Columbia in the northwest where Bureau of Reclamation has had major responsibility since 1906, Corps of Engineers is making surveys in Teton Basin in Idaho and Umpuqua River in Oregon at a cost of $200,000 while Bureau of Reclamation is engaged in an $824,000 survey, of which $240,000 has been spent.

There are similar conflicts of interest in the Red River Valley, the Rio Grande and Gulf river basin of Texas.

The Eisenhower Administration wrestled with this problem for five years, then in 1959 came up with what was reported to be an agreement on division of responsibilities.

But last year, Budget Bureau had to act as middleman in trying to resolve resumed bureaucratic rivalry. This year, the Kennedy administration's Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall and Army Secretary Elvis J. Stahr Jr. are at it again.

But Corps of Engineers has now requested money for a power

It said East German workers are "thankful to the government for defending their peaceful labor from encroachment."

Destructive Jail Riot Brought Under Control

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UPI) — A destructive riot at Hampden County jail, triggered by testimony given at an inquest into the "hot box" death of an inmate, was brought under control today.

Sixteen state troopers marched into the 70-year-old jail building after four hours of noisy demonstrations by 200 prisoners and yanked the alleged ringleaders from their cells. They were immediately put in solitary confinement.

One of those collared by the troopers was believed to be an inmate who testified at an inquest into the death of Robert A. Jette, 21. The inquest was scheduled to resume today.

Jette died of hyperthermia, excessive body temperature, on July 2 after two days in a solitary cell.

been 100 degrees.

Guards, however, denied any inmates were near Jette immediately before his death, and this testimony apparently angered the inmates.

Chanting in unison they shouted during the riot: "You killed Jette, you killed Jette" and "They're perjurying themselves on the stand."

The disturbance broke out Wednesday night when all the prisoners were locked in their cells. They banged on bars, shattered windows, ripped out toilet facilities, smashed furniture and littered the floors of the four-story brick building with torn magazines.

Lt. Col. Carl Larson, head of the state police, said damage was "quite heavy." No one was injured.

Casselberry Boy Scout Troop Court Of Honor Held Monday

Casselberry Boy Scout Troop 341 held a Court of Honor at the Community Methodist Church Monday under direction of Scoutmaster W. T. Daniel Jr. and Troop Committee Chairman Leonard Casselberry.

Scouts receiving rank advancement and merit badge awards as reported by Mrs. Leonard Casselberry, included Bill Skislak, merit badges in hiking, nature, electricity, public health, citizenship in the nation and geology and advancement to Life Scout.

Young Skislak, after receiving his Life Pin from Scoutmaster Daniel, presented his mother with a miniature replica of the award.

THERE'S A NEW YOUNG MAN IN TOWN — and his name is Martin Cresswell Roberts.

He is the chubby and adorable two-months-old adopted baby son of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Roberts and a proud addition to the little family that includes the doctor, his wife and an older adopted brother, little David O'Connell Roberts, 22 months old.

Blue-eyed, dark-haired Martin was baptized recently at All Souls Catholic Church with Father Richard J. Lyons officiating and godparents, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Epps Jr. standing by.

Martin, who is named for Dr. Roberts' father, was baptized in a white lace gown and took the whole thing very calmly. The gown was a gift to brother David from Mrs. John Morgan.

FOUR LOCAL LADIES journeyed to Starke Monday to see an old friend, Mrs. Sally Williams.

Making the trip were Mrs. Blake Swyers, Mrs. Jim Pigott, Mrs. Hal Whitern and Mrs. Ashby Jones.

"Sally and Eugene have a beautiful new home in Starke and we had lunch with them and had a wonderful time," said Mrs. Swyers.

"They have the Sanford Herald sent to them and keep up with all the activities in Sanford, but say it makes them so homesick," she added.

The Williamses formerly lived in Sanford for about ten years before Eugene's work made it necessary for them to transfer to Starke. They were members of the First Methodist Church here.

ELIZABETH (MRS. JOE) Mathieux of Sanford wants everyone to know that it is not she who has been ill in Seminole Memorial Hospital.

"I didn't know that I had so many friends," said Mrs. Mathieux, "but I have been showered with cards and calls and get well wishes and I'm not even sick."

The Elizabeth Mathieux listed in the Hospital Notes is Mrs. Oliver Mathieux of Osteen. She has now been dismissed from the hospital and is at home.

"I have been pleased and amazed to discover how many people were concerned about me," says Elizabeth, "but it has gotten to be more confusing than amusing!"

SUMMER COMES AND GOES fast in Maine, according to Mrs. Marjorie Cowan, who just returned from a visit there with her daughter and son-in-law, L. L. and Mrs. Glenn D. Johnson, at Presque Isle.

Rev. and Mrs. Louis L. Day and daughter, Brenda and a friend, Claudia Hill of Largo, drove up to Ovidio last week to visit Mrs. J. B. Jones, who is convalescing at her home. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Beasley, Mrs. Mae King and Mrs. George Means. The Rev. Day is the former pastor of the Ovidio Baptist Church.

MARTIN AND MOTHER

But they had a wonderful time during her visit there. They went over into Canada, to dine at a famous restaurant there. The waiter read the menu off to them, rather than handing it to them to read.

Of course, they ate lots of the delicious Maine lobsters and other good sea food at restaurants there and in Bar Harbour.

A trip down to Bangor resulted in a miniature Dachshund puppy for Edna, to keep her company when her flying husband is on an alert. He is at Loring AFB, with the Security Air Command.

In Bangor, they went up on a point called Cadillac Mountain, from which they could look out over the picturesque harbor and down on the town.

Daughter Edna, whose wedding was an event of last October, sends greetings to her friends here in Sanford.

Mrs. Cowan flew up to Maine and back, and friends here kidded her, saying that she would probably never get to Maine, but would wind up in Cuba.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My TV set started to act up, and I couldn't get the channel I had the most use for, so I called a TV repair man who lives near me. I thought he was a good family man.

He looked at the set and I told him, before he started to fix anything, I had to know how much it was going to cost me. He said that all depended on how nice I was to him. I thought he was kidding, so I let him take the set to his shop.

I called him five times in two weeks and asked him when he was bringing my set back. He said, "When you tell me your husband isn't home." I told him it was strictly business, but he hasn't returned my set yet. Should I call his wife or tell my husband? What does a respectable woman do in a case like that?

NO CHANNELS

DEAR NO: Call the Better Business Bureau and report this chisler. His mind is running in channels for which you have no use.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a son who goes away to the Army and leaves his automobile for his GIRL FRIEND to drive, while his own father takes the bus to work?

Not only that, but this young man sends his Army pay check to this girl to save for him. He writes to her every day, and the only way his parents know he is living is when she rings us up and gives us his regards.

ONLY HIS PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: Your son fell pretty hard, but there is no excuse for ignoring his parents. Pray that he will soon realize that a big man has love enough for his girl and his parents.

DEAR ABBY: This year we are having our first taste of barbecue dinners. I ask you, is there a host or hostess who KNOWS how to barbecue?

We're sick and tired of eating raw, charred meat and chicken. I enjoy eating outdoors, but who can eat food that is burned on the outside and raw on the inside? And that terrible sauce they paint everything with is murder!

I'll stick to my old reliable controlled-heat oven, thank you. PEGGY

DEAR PEGGY: When you accept a dinner invitation for food prepared indoors, you get no guarantee that the food will be properly cooked and seasoned. If you like the company, go and take your chances, indoors or out.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, in care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3366, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Highlights

Thursday's top shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff of experts who attend screenings, watch rehearsals and analyze scripts in New York and Hollywood:

Summer Sports Spectacular. (Repeat)—Another chance to see the whacky Harlem Globetrotters make basketball look easy. They play the Washington Generals an exhibition game that includes all their gags. Before the game they demonstrate some fancy ball handling to the tune of "Sweet Georgia Brown," led by the famous clown Meadowlark Leonard. At halftime there's a table tennis game between champs Richard Bergman and Norikazu Fujii. 7:30 p. m. CBS.

Bat Masterson—"A Lesson in Violence." (Repeat) OK episode despite its title. The hero's family whose ranch is in jeopardy because of the greed of their neighbor. Manages to sustain interest and has a fair share of action. 8:30 p. m. NBC.

Real McCoy's—"Teen-age Wedding." (Repeat) Funny show. Little Hansie gets engaged and Gramps, who thinks 16 is old enough for marriage, gives his blessing. But Kate, Luke and Edward Everett Horton as the boy's wealthy grandfather, line up against Gramps. Plenty of typical, corny and amusing McCoy-type gags. We particularly appreciated Gramps' excuse for milking a cow in the middle of the day. 8:30 ABC.

Great Ghost Tales—"Mr. Arcuraria." A good version of Sanford Allen's offbeat series. About a man's voyage aboard a strange freighter that is carrying an odd assortment of passengers and a mysterious coffin. Many of your suspicions about the story's ending will probably be correct but the finale still manages to pack a wallop. (Color). 9:30 p. m. NBC.

CBS Reports—"Censorship and the Movies." (Repeat) An informative documentary. There are two particularly fascinating sequences showing segments of the public deliberating movie censorship. One in Atlanta, Ga., offers a candid appraisal of the reactions of the board of censors to films like "Never on Sunday" and "Room at the Top." The other involves a public meeting on establishing a new ordinance for the creation of film censorship in Abilene, Tex. Also heard from

Giant War Games Enter Second Week

CHERAW, S. C. (UPI)—War games between two crack units of the Strategic Army Corps, the nation's chief extinguisher for brushfire wars, went into its second week today in the August heat of South Carolina.

Units of the 82nd Airborne Division began crossing the broad Pee Dee River here for a drive into the heart of the aggressor positions, manned by men of the 101st Airborne Division, which are deployed across a wide area of the Piedmont sections of North and South Carolina.

The operations are part of Exercise Swift Strike, a training exercise to test the tactics and maneuverability of STRAC and supporting troops.

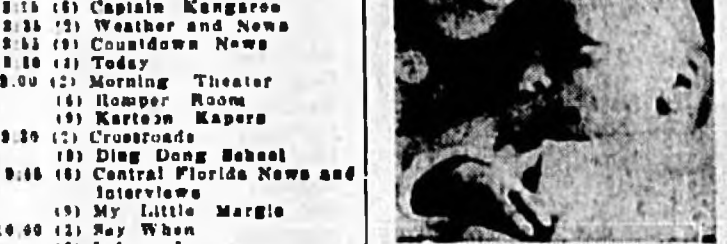

Engineers of the 82nd were ordered to begin constructing assault bridges across the Pee Dee early today. One wave of troops crossed the river in Assault boats to establish a bridgehead against the dug-in aggressor forces.

MILAN, Italy (UPI)—The Junior world welterweight title fight between champion Dullio Loi of Italy and Eddie Perkins of Chicago has been postponed because Loi has a sprained elbow. The bout, scheduled for Sept. 7 at San Siro Stadium here, has been moved back by 15 or 20 days.

Missile Group Set To Halt 'Waste'
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy's missile labor commission, already credited with sharply reducing strikes at Atlas ICBM bases, prepared Tuesday to tackle the more delicate task of halting "wasteful" job practices.

The 11-man commission headed by Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg is scheduled to hand down decisions Wednesday on two cases involving wages negotiated for craftsmen at missile sites.

It accepted jurisdiction over the cases in an effort to carry out instructions from Kennedy to stop "inefficiency" in construction of the bases.

Beanball Made Difference For Cincinnati

United Press International
One beanball! That's all it took to push the Cincinnati Reds a little too far and make them keep their view that they'd mop up the Dodgers and relish first place.

The angry Reds kept their word, moving a full game in front in the National League Wednesday night by sweeping a two-night doubleheader, 6-3 and 5-0, before a rather dejected crowd of 7,140 at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

It was the first time the Dodgers had been shut out in both ends of a double header since July 20, 1955, and the first time they had been blanked in consecutive games since 1940.

Although Bob Purkey fired a four-hitter at the Dodgers in the opener and Jim O'Toole came right back with a two-hitter in the nightcap, the two Cincinnati triumphs pivoted around an incident that occurred during the seventh inning of the opener.

Even before this latest series began, there had been bad blood between the two teams over the fact the Reds felt Dodger pitchers had thrown at Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson earlier in the year.

Then in the seventh inning of the first game Wednesday night, with the Reds ahead by six runs, Stan Williams hit Pinson on the back of the head with a pitch. Pinson didn't move for several minutes but finally was able to walk off the field.

In their clubhouse between games, the Reds did some talking about making things right.

They made good their promise here, too. Gene Freese was the chief contributor, driving in four runs with a pair of homers off southpaw Johnny Podres. The homers were Freese's 21st and 22nd. Catcher Darrell Johnson, who joined the Reds only 24 hours before, also homered to help O'Toole gain his 12th victory.

The two victories by the Reds made it three in a row over the Dodgers and extended a Cincinnati winning streak to four games.

Purkey, given a six-run lead in the first three innings of the opener, struck out seven and didn't walk a man as he won his 14th against seven losses. Robinson, who had been hit on the hand by one of loser Larry Sherry's pitches in the first inning, hit his 34th homer with one on in the third.

Warren Spahn surpassed Lefty Grove's 300-win total by winning his 301st while pitching Milwaukee to a 2-1 victory over Pittsburgh, the long game Philadelphia Phillies tied a NL record by losing their 18th straight in a 9-5 setback at the hands of the Chicago Cubs, and San Francisco downed

St. Louis, 4-3, in other NL games. In the American League, where Babe Ruth's record is over shadowing the pennant race, Roger Maris socked Nos. 47 and 48 and moved 16 games ahead of Ruth's record pace in a 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox that stretched the New York Yankees' lead to three games.

The Baltimore Orioles turned back the Detroit Tigers, 8-2. Cleveland beat Boston, 8-4. Kansas City crushed Minnesota, 12-7, and the Washington Senators defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 3-2.

Spahn, now 12-12 for the season, yielded 10 hits to the Pirates and actually was out-ticked by loser Bob Friend (12-11), who allowed only four hits during the six innings he worked. Frank Thomas homered with the bases empty in the third and Eddie Mathews doubled in the third to score Mack Jones with what proved to be the winning run.

The Cubs showed no mercy for the Phillies. They hopped on loser Chris Short for four runs in the second inning and then on Dallas Green for three more in the sixth, making it easy for Don Cardwell to win his 10th even though he gave up 13 hits.

The last NL club to lose 16 in a row was the Reds in 1914. Should the Phils drop their 20th straight tonight at Milwaukee, they'll tie the major league mark.

Two-run homers by Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou carried the Giants to their victory over the Cardinals. Cepeda was his 32nd and Alou's his 13th, both blows coming off Ray Sadecki. Jack Sanford pitched a seven-hitter for his ninth victory. Stan Musial hit a 700-run homer for the Cardinals. The Yankees won their game with the White Sox in the ninth when pinch-hitter Bob Cerv was hit by a pitch with the bases full. Hacker hit Cerv but the loser was Turk Lown, who loaded 'em up.

Maris hit his first homer of the game in the first inning and his second in the third. Both blows, off Billy Pierce, came with one on. Jim Landis also hit a pair for the White Sox. Referee Ralph Terry blanked Chicago on two hits over the last four innings to make his record 8-1.

Milt Pappas' two-hit pitching along with homers by Jackie Brandt, Brooks Robinson and Jim Gentile were more than enough to give the Orioles their win over the Tigers. Jim Bunning, the loser, yielded Baltimore's first five runs.

Jerry Lumpe and Deron Johnson drove in seven runs between them as the A's trampled the Twins. Lumpe accounted for four runs with a double, and Johnson with a homer, double and single. Winner Norm Bass helped himself with a home run. Harmon Killebrew hit his 26th and Bob Allison his 26th but it wasn't enough to keep Pedro Ramos from absorbing his 16th loss.

Maris Is Murdering Left-Handed Pitching

NEW YORK (UPI)—Roger Maris suddenly is murdering left handed pitching — like Wednesday when he walloped homers 47 and 48 off Chicago's Billy Pierce — but he insists he isn't a bit surprised.

"I have always hit lefties good throughout my career, except for last year," he said today.

The record books show that Maris, who now needs only 13 homers in the last 44 games to break Babe Ruth's record of 60 in one season, bagged only one of his 27 1/2 home runs last year off southpaws — but that he has nicked pitchers for nine of his next 26.

"He's hittin' 'em better because he's seeing them more often," explained Yankee manager Ralph Houk. "Nowadays every club we face uses a left-hander against us, either as a starter or in relief."

Maris agreed with this explanation of his recent rampage against lefties but sees it as a return to normal for him.

The Yankee slugger also is not surprised by the way his homers seem to come in bunches, like bananas. Wednesday's two blasts in the Yankees' 6-4 victory over Chicago gave him seven in the last six games to equal a major league record and kept him 16 games ahead of Ruth's pace in 1927.

"All home run hitters are the same way," he said. "Mickey

Record Set At LA Stadium

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A crowd of 72,140 fans watched the Los Angeles-Cincinnati two-night doubleheader in the Coliseum Wednesday, setting a night attendance record for the National League.

The previous record was set July 7 of this season in the Coliseum at another Los Angeles-Cincinnati twin bill. That night the two rivals attracted 68,742.

In nine dates at the big stadium this year, the Reds and Dodgers have drawn a total of 321,835, and the Dodgers' home attendance for 61 dates is 1,539,869.

World's Luckiest, Brave Hurler Says

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Left-hander Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves, now the major league's greatest living pitcher, said today "I'm also the world's luckiest."

The 40-year-old, balding Spahn reached the new pinnacle in his triumph-studded career Wednesday when he defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1 for the 301st victory in the majors. The win allowed him to surpass Lefty Grove, who quit baseball 30 years ago after winning his 300th game.

Spahn and Grove are the only pitchers still alive of the 12 who won 300 or more games in the majors.

"God gave me a good arm," said the hawk-nosed hurler. "I'm very lucky about that. If the arm weren't so good, I couldn't do this now."

"My legs are going bad. It's the arm that's lucky."

Spahn won his 300th game last Friday night under a great deal of tension "because of all the belly-ache about it." Wednesday, as he stepped higher up in the ranks of baseball immortals, he was "more relaxed. There was no pressure on this time."

Spahn now has five baseballs on display in the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., where one day a bust of him will stand. Two are for his pair of no-hitters this year and last, one is for his 200th victory, another is for his recent 300th victory and the last is for his 301st win which allowed him to better Grove's record.

Box Office Business Booming In NFL

United Press International
Box office business is booming in the National Football League like never before. Pre-season ticket sales, are at an all-time high. In Baltimore and Green Bay, there just aren't any season tickets to be bought. In four other cities — Detroit, Chicago, New York and San Francisco—all the good sideline seats are expected to be sold by the start of the season, according to a United Press International survey.

The new Minnesota Vikings have sold approximately 28,000 season tickets, assuring the club of financial success for its first season in the league.

Six clubs report that the advance sale of season subscriptions is running ahead of last year. None of the other eight teams report any decline in business, although the Dallas Cowboys' sales are lagging behind the rest of the league.

From all indications, the league should top its 3,140,409 paid attendance record set in 1959. Attendance "dropped" last season to 3,128,296, although NFL officials say the dollar income for the league hit an all-time high because of increased ticket prices in certain cities.

In Baltimore, the Colts closed their sales at 45,044, leaving the remaining seats to be sold later on a game-to-game basis. In Green Bay, where the stadium has been enlarged by about 8,300 seats, the 38,000-odd available seats have been sold for the season.

Tickets are almost as tough to come by in Chicago, Detroit, New York and San Francisco. Good sideline seats are not expected to be available by the start of the campaign.

The Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns are enjoying the biggest advance sale booms in the league. Philadelphia, earlier, stimulated by a championship season, are up a $2,000 for a total of 25,000. At Cleveland, the increase also is expected to hit 8,000 for a total of 20,000.

At Dallas, where the Cowboys will operate for the second season, advance season ticket subscriptions are running ahead of 1960, although the total is only approaching 5,000. Dallas officials

Sanders Closing In On Money Boys

MONTREAL, Md. (UPI)—Doug Sanders, closing in on Gary Player and Arnold Palmer as golf's leading money winners for 1961, leads the field of 112 pros and 10 amateurs, teeing off in the $35,000 Carling Open today.

The Cedarhurst, Ga., pro with the wide-open stance and clipped backswing, has earned $50,508 on the PGA money tour to date. A victory in the Carlingworth $5,200 would vault him into second place over Palmer. Neither Palmer nor Player are competing.

Sanders has been hot of late, winning the Eastern Open at Baltimore for a $5,200 pot and finishing in a tie for fourth at Hartford last Sunday, picking up another $1,533.

Except for Player and Palmer, virtually all the top pros are in this 72-hole test over the demanding 7,000-yard, par 70 Indian Spring Country Club layout.

Legion Paces Bowling Play

The American Legion team is out ahead in the Jet Lanes Keglers league with Oviedo, Riggs and Ables American in second, third and fourth places, respectively.

Team No. One had the team high singles with a 2368 score and Art Day's Turkeys tied with dwelling animal alive today.

Kegler Officers Set

An election of officers held at Jet Lanes recently saw Bobby Borsdorf elected president for the coming fall season in the Men's City Bowling League.

Other officers elected were Ed Simon, vice president and Paul (Kingfish) Pesold, secretary-treasurer.

The motion was made and carried that the city league would again bowl on Wednesday night at 9 p. m. during the fall season rather than it is presently operating at 7 p. m. on Monday nights.

It was further decided that the league would hold a Familiarization Night on Sept. 8 with the league officially starting on the following Wednesday, Sept. 13.

All persons interested in joining this league may sign an application at the lanes or see the secretary, Paul Pesold.

Complete five-man teams are also invited to join this Men's Handicap League.

It is anticipated that there will be at least twelve teams entered in the fall league.

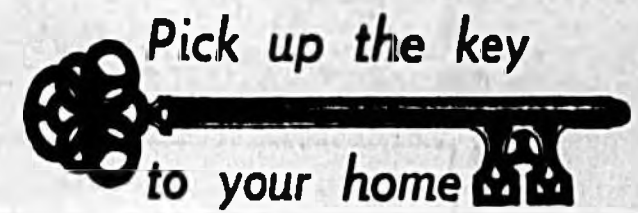

Pinson Escapes Serious Mishap

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Doctors at Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital said Wednesday night that Vada Pinson, star outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds, escaped injury when struck in the back of the head by a Stan Williams pitch.

The incident occurred during the seventh inning in the first game of the Cincinnati-Los Angeles doubleheader.

Pinson fell and didn't move for several minutes, but was able to walk off the field and was taken to the hospital as a precautionary measure.

He was released shortly afterward, returned for the second game and drove in a run with a single in the ninth.

Altamonte Tables Zoning

By MONA GRINSTEAD
Altamonte Springs Council action on the proposed zoning plan for the town calling for 12 separate and distinct districts was tabled at Monday's business session until council members, at a private and closed meeting tonight, give the recommendations further recommendation.

A public hearing on the proposal, drawn by the Town Planning and Zoning Commission, was held in the community at a meeting on July 31.

The council's legal representative, S. J. Davis of the Sanford firm, Stenstrom, Davis and McIntosh, explained steps taken by the Planning and Zoning Board before Monday's council meeting, saying, "I feel that the town will be, and has been, more informed on these zoning recommendations than it ever has been in the past on its zoning regulations."

Before the action was tabled until tonight's meeting, Councilman John Wolf had made the recommendation that, in the R1AA single family dwelling, one block on each side of SR 438, all the way through the municipal limits, be included in the C1 commercial classification. The same proposal was discussed for the R3 one and two family dwelling areas with Mayor Wilbur Hawkins saying that he thought an R3 district should be included along the route but that he would bring it up for further discussion at the council's private meeting.

Promising Artist Seen At Mansion

MRS. ADAM MULLER
An outstanding student of Elliot McMurrough, resident artist at the DeBary Mansion House, FFA, was C. Raymond Marshall, son of Mrs. Claire Marshall of Orange City.

An art supervisor at Lock Haven, Pa., he has studied at Yale, the University of Pennsylvania and at Indiana State Teachers College.

While at the DeBary headquarters, he did a portrait in watercolor and a study of wood in oils which indicated that he is on his way to the top among today's artists.

Oviedo Family Appreciates Town

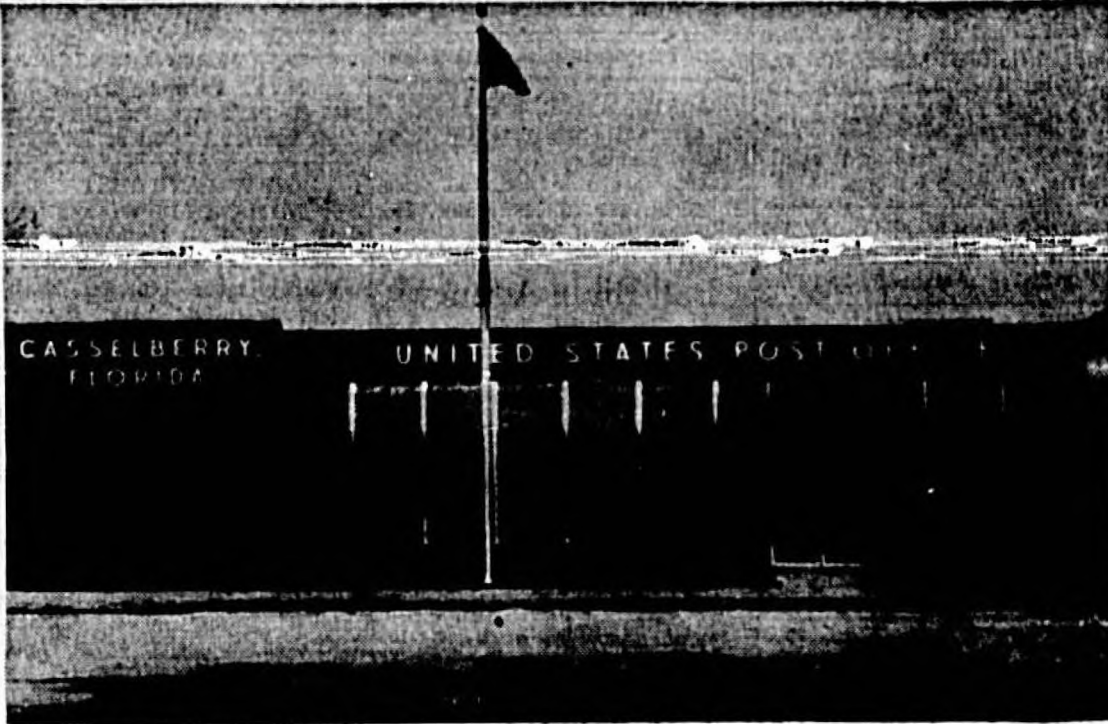

Mrs. Marian R. Jones, wife of Oviedo Postmaster J. B. Jones who also serves as the Herald news correspondent for the area, said today that she and all members of her family have been overwhelmed at the generosity and kindness of Oviedo citizens during the past few weeks.

Mrs. Jones is recuperating from recent surgery and said that she was particularly gratified at the town's response to an announcement last Sunday that blood was needed to replace that required during her hospitalization.

Personals

By BETTIE SMITH
Miss Betty Ann Balmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Balmer, has enrolled at Jones Business College in Orlando and upon graduation will pursue her planned career in the business world.
While attending Lyman High School she won a typing award, was selected to be Homecoming Queen during her senior year and was captain of the cheerleaders.
Word has been received from Mrs. Ruth Hamilton, who is spending the summer in Bar Harbor, Me., that the weather there has been "delightfully cool." However, she says that she misses her home here and plans to return shortly after Labor Day.

CASSELBERRY'S NEW POST OFFICE has at least 500 personal patron boxes conveniently located in the spacious new facility which opened Monday, Postmaster C. C. Kerce reported today. Terrazzo flooring, featured in the service and box lockers and in the postmaster's office is supplemented with commercial vinyl tile in the workroom and storage area. Fiberglass insulation, placed above a suspended acoustical ceiling, lends to operational efficiency and all departments are air conditioned and humidity controlled. (Herald Photo)

Council Urged To Control Animals

By MONA GRINSTEAD
Requests from the townspeople at the August meeting of the Altamonte Springs Council Monday covered street markers, lighting, areas legally covered by the local Volunteer Fire Dept. and authoritative measures to bring the "animal kingdom" under town control.

In a three-and-one-half hour session, which Mayor Wilbur Hawkins cut short by abbreviating the regular order of business, council members heard a request that the street marker on Lake Dr. either be replaced or repainted since lettering on the present sign is illegible. Hawkins advised that the matter would be remedied.

A report that the Volunteer Fire Dept. had answered a Sunday evening call to Lake Harriet Estates, taking both pieces of equipment, which proved to be a false alarm, brought forth the question of the department's obligations in covering such areas.

The Mutual Aid Agreement, in which Altamonte with other volunteer departments of the county take part, was explained by the mayor and Council Attorney Joe Davis. However, Hawkins added that it was up to the officer on duty to decide where the fire trucks should go saying that he thought some residents wanted the benefits of the town's services without having to aid in their support through taxation.

"We've had other trucks from neighboring departments come out to fight our fires and we think it only right that we should help out in similar emergencies," he said.
Councilman John Wolf was requested to advise the Fire Dept. that in the future one truck should remain in the town at any time a call is answered away from the municipality.

The question of street lighting, brought to the board's attention by Councilman Homer Sewell, was answered when the mayor explained that lighting will be increased on streets where there are no sidewalks and that 35 mercury vapor type fixtures, with greater street hangover, will be installed on Matland Ave. It also was advised that the light at the corner of Lake Dr. will be replaced.

Engineering proposals of Florida Power Corp. on the town lighting were approved by the board. A note of caution was expressed during the meeting when Hawkins reminded the councilmen to "watch the budget and cut where you can."

Coming under fire again was the "Cat Hotel" when the mayor read a letter from Douglas J. Scott which stated that the business is a nuisance to the neighborhood and that the operator has not done anything to control the general disturbance created by barking dogs housed there or a pet monkey.

Scott advised that this monkey, upon occasion, had been released from its cage during the early morning and had come over on his property where it destroyed fruit and plants.
Other residents of the area in attendance at the meeting added to the complaint which resulted in a board decision to send another warning to the owner by Police Chief Tracy Sullivan stating that the next time the monkey is allowed to run loose, her business license will be revoked.
The board also instructed Davis to draw an ordinance pertaining to the control of "pet" animals which will require all dog owners to have their animals receive the required rabies shots and an annual license.
Other items discussed included a resident's request for street black-topping, acceptance of a two-year municipal maintenance bond which was tabled for a future meeting and the disputed property ownership between James Robertson, general contractor, and the town which must be settled within 90 days if court action is to be avoided. The board tabled the matter until the next meeting.

Set For Road Use

North Orlando Mayor Frank Fasula said today that the $1,225 returned by the County through the Road and Bridge Fund breakdown, would be used strictly for maintaining the Village roads.

Members of the DeBary Volunteer Firemen's Auxiliary have received copies of their yearly meeting calendar from Mrs. Mae Phillips, ways and means chairman.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Add A Prayer...

Lytle E. Swope, chairman of the Casseberry Board of Aldermen, reminding of the increasing seriousness in the Communist threat to the nation faces today, opened the August board meeting Monday by leading the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag.

The brief statement of declaration in itself is not unusual and the words are repeated hundreds of times each day throughout the land. However, we thought it particularly noteworthy upon this occasion since all too often at such meetings of our local governing bodies it is omitted.

We wholeheartedly agree with one resident in attendance at the town's monthly business session who said that by repeating the pledge a welcome opportunity is given for personal redemption to the ideals and principles for which America was founded.

And we suggest that our citizens add to the words of individual servitude to a national symbol through which we express great pride in our country, a devout prayer of thankfulness that we are fortunate enough to live where such meetings can be, and fare, held in continual example of "Freedom of the people, by the people and for the people..."

Lake Mary Firemen End Annual Picnic With 'Everybody Wet'

An estimated 100 persons attended the second annual picnic of Lake Mary's Volunteer Firemen Aug. 1 at the Harold Keen home on Crystal Lake.

Firemen, members of their families and their friends enjoyed a dinner of fish, hush puppies, swamp cabbage and chicken pilau with a variety of salad dishes contributed to the menu from each group attending.

Swimming, skiing, boating and games of horseshoes were enjoyed by those who felt like stirring after the sumptuous meal and a watermelon eating contest was held for all boys and girls who thought they could eat a slice without using their hands.

Nancy and Eddie Schweickert were winners in this event with Patsy Schweickert and Phillip Norwood coming in second. All were awarded prizes.

Only two persons at the picnic were courageous enough to come out in costume for the "Funny Bathing Suit Contest," which was scheduled as a highlight of the day.

Mrs. Kay Sasman of the Auxiliary modeled a 40-year old number using as her accessories black boots, black stockings, red bathing hat and a gaily colored beach ball. Adorning the suit was a gigantic purple bow.

Her prize for this stunning outfit was a sofa pillow.

From the firemen, "Zip" Schweickert turned to Mrs. Sasman exclaiming "You aren't wet, yet!" whereupon he scooped her up and proceeded to the water.

This bit of hilarity brought upon the "initiation" to the lake for everyone present, regardless of dress, with all joining in the fun and humor to bring the day to a happy conclusion.

Village Builders 'Ready To Go'

By MONA GRINSTEAD
William Deutch, North Orlando developer and vice president of Landmark, Inc., said Tuesday that by the first of September he and his company will be ready to begin work on the first phase of their 1000-home building program.

Also announced for the same date was the beginning construction on a 7-eleven open front grocery which will be the first building to go up in the proposed shopping center.

Another item of interest on growth in the area was the announcement from Charlie Wilson of the Coronado Homes section advising that additions there are "ready to go" as soon as FHA approval is received.

Employees Jubilant About 'Coolness'

Oviedo Post Office employees today are joking with Postmaster J. B. Jones about the new air conditioning which got its first test Tuesday.

Mrs. Herley Mae Wainwright, within 45 minutes after the units began operating, with humorous pleasure said, "I knew I'd have to get my fur out of storage once we got air conditioning" and other workers laughingly joked, "I'm going to bring my electric blanket tomorrow."

Work Slated To Start Soon

The County Commission Tuesday afternoon agreed to pave a stretch of Orange Ave. in Longwood from the city limits to Hwy. 17-92 with work expected to start in September.

County Engineer Carlton Bias reported today that work on clearing the stretch would start soon with actual construction set to get underway next month.

Cost of materials for the project has been estimated at $2,500. A delegation of property owners in the area appeared before the board earlier in the day and urged county work on the 900 foot stretch of road.

At that time the board agreed to take the matter under advisement.

Residents had complained about the deplorable condition of the road and said that the lives of school children were in jeopardy. The battle to have that portion of the road paved has been going on since the Longwood Elementary School was constructed.

Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann had appeared before the board some six times this year alone asking for commission assistance but, each time, action to pave the road was tabled.

Retired Folks Club To Sponsor Rally

The Chuluota Retired Folks Club will sponsor a rally for residents of South Seminole County today at 7:30 p.m. in the Chuluota Community Hall, on the subject of the menace and meaning of Communism.

Mr. Joe E. Andrews of the Sanford Naval Air Base will give introductory remarks and answer questions relating to a film which shows the subversive measures used to speed the Communist doctrine in its infiltration of every country in the free world.

Proceeding the rally, members of the Retired Folks Club will meet at 6 p.m. for their usual post-lunch supper. Serving on the food committee this month are Mr. and Mrs. Verna H. Black and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Boulden.

Chuluota Legion Planning Barbecue

Chuluota Legionnaires of George M. Jacobs Memorial Post 225, meeting in special session last Saturday at the Lake Catherine Inn, planned another chicken barbecue.

The event was scheduled for Labor Day at the Community House picnic grounds with serving to be from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Ray Pentz was appointed general chairman and Gene Runyon as ticket chairman of the holiday dinner. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased at a minimum price from any member of the Legion Post.

Mrs. C. E. Hunter, secretary of the local auxiliary, reports that an instructive program has been arranged by Sixth District President Mrs. Marjorie Williams of Orlando and urges all auxiliary members to be present for the meeting.

Bear Lake Club To Plan Holiday

Bear Lake Civic Community Club members will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the Florida Power Corp. Clubhouse to make further plans for their forthcoming Labor Day celebration.

Mrs. John Neel of Sunset Dr. is chairman of the holiday event.
