Cooked Food Sale
The Ladies Union of the Congregational Church will hold a cooked food sale at Irwin and Giles Saturday (to-morrow) afternoon and evening for the benefit of the Christina fund. These ladies are famous for their toothsome cooking. Cakes, pies, salads and other good things to tempt the appetite, will be on sale. A liberal patronage will be appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hickson, of Sanford, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Williams, at Oxford, in Sumpter county, were in Orlando yesterday en route to their home in the Celery City. —Orlando Sentinel.

Over The Rainbow
Everything is in readiness for the charming little operetta, "Over the Rainbow" which will be presented Tuesday night at the Imperial under the auspices of the Junior Civic League of the Woman's Club. The public are earnestly requested to give a liberal patronage to the little folks and young people. The operetta is its-self pretty and bright and the rehearsals give promise of a charming production. The plot centers about four earth children who fall asleep in their nursery on a rainy day, their last thought being a wish to see the wonders over the rainbow.

The queen of Rainbowland overhears the children and decides to gratify the wish so on the wings of magic the children, Bertha, Clara, Anita and dear little Dorothy are spirited to Rainbowland and shown the wonders of that beautiful country. The songs are very sweet, the children and girls are lovely and the vaudeville features especially pretty and original.

Married at Miami
A quiet wedding was solemnized last evening when Miss Fora Louisa Vaughn of Sanford, became the bride of Merilon Bledsoe, formerly of Sanford, but now of Miami. The young couple were married at 9 o'clock, at the home of the Reverend J. A. Wray, on avenue C, the ceremony being witnessed by a number of intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Holmes for the past fortnight and is an attractive young woman, who has won a number of friends during her visit, who will learn with pleasure that she will make her future home here. Since coming to Miami several months ago, Mr. Bledsoe has been connected with the engineering work on the Deering place.

Among the many parties at Daytona Beach spending the Fourth and Fifth were Margaret Wight, Anna McLaughlin, George McLaughlin, Ralph Wight, Billy Hill and Joe Chittendon chaperoned by Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin and Misses Lillian Higgins, Ann Higgins and Adelaide Higgins chaperoned by Mrs. Margaret Barnes. The Sanford party was the most popular on the beach and not only had the prettiest girls, the best dancers and the most suave gentlemen but the fastest drivers in automobiles in Osborn Herndon. In fact Sanford was very much in evidence as usual.

Mayor Thrasher and Mrs. Thrasher left yesterday in their car for Clearwater and other points on the west coast and expect to be absent for the next week visiting relatives and enjoying the fishing and bathing of the Clearwater region.

Ruth Waldron returned to her home in Tampa yesterday after spending several weeks among her many friends here. She was the house guest of Margaret Strong and Edna Chittendon while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Deane Turner and little Deane left yesterday for Daytona Beach. Mr. Turner will return tomorrow but Mrs. Turner and little Deane will remain a few days longer.

Miss Gladys Reed of New Smyrna is the attractive guest of Mrs. W. E. Hawkins for the week end. Ere returning home she will also visit friends at Ocoee and other points.

Answered.
"Young man," said the irate old gentleman at the lunch counter to the hard-looking youth who was inhaling his soup with a gurgling sound and splashing it about the white, "what are you? A Colorado geyser?" "Naw," responded the soup juggler. "I'm a New Haven guy, sir!"

Daily Thought.
Happiness seems made to be shared. —Cornelle.

Cemetery Funds Growing

The cemetery fund is growing and J. C. Parker feels greatly encouraged over the many contributions that have been made toward the pavilion and other improvements at the cemetery. The pavilion is now complete and the lots are showing the effects of the water and attention bestowed upon them. Mr. Parker states that the sextons salary will soon be due again and contributions for this purpose will be gladly received. Game Warden for Orange

Under the game law recently enacted the county commissioners have to select a county game warden and Mr. E. C. McDowell was yesterday chosen by the county commissioners to fill that position.

The game warden will work under the Gorpto law instead of the act which was in force last year, and the requirements are virtually the same. It seems the greatest change being that the new law does away with the state game warden.

Mr. McDowell made a good record as warden last year, and it was found we had probably fewer infractions of the law than any other county. He knows every nook and cranny of the county, and is well qualified to serve in this capacity.—Reporter Star.

Took Long to Develop Pens.

In the United States the first attempt to manufacture a gold pen in 1835 by a watchmaker of Detroit. In 1860 an attempt was made in the United States to manufacture a fountain pen, but it was not until 1879 that they were constructed successfully.

U. S. FACING A CRITICAL PERIOD IN RELATIONS

THE LAST GERMAN NOTE DOES NOT SATISFY DEMANDS MADE BY THE UNITED STATES

Washington, July 13.—Germany's latest note has been received here and the general trend of feeling is that the note is no more satisfactory than those that preceded it.

"Several days will be required to measure fully the consequences and responsibilities the American Government will incur in framing a policy to meet the situation.

Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, intends to call on Secretary Lansing during the week to learn informally whether he can be of any service in the situation.

Today the official text of the German reply arrived and was made public. It differed only in unimportant words from the Associated Press copy which came from Berlin Friday night.

What the action of the American Government will be is doubtful largely in the sense that the means of expressing the ideas and purposes of the United States have not been decided.

There is no intention from indications from official quarters to force a situation but in whatever policy is followed the American datum will put responsibility on Germany for any breach of relations.

Fortunate Florida Editor

We are proud that there is one Florida editor with money enough safely tucked away in the pockets of his Palm Beach trousers to cross the continent in the "good old summer time," despite the fact that the war is still raging in Europe.

Editor Hetherington of the Lakeland Telegram is the gentleman who is so fortunate. He will catch a glimpse of the big canal, the big canyons, the big trees, all the yawning chasms of the Yosemite valley, the spouting geysers in the Yellowstone Park, and of course will see all the sights at the Panama exposition now in full blast at San Francisco.

Mrs. E. B. Brown of Tampa is expected to arrive in the city today for a visit with her sister, Mrs. R. J. Holly. The many friends of Mrs. Brown will be delighted to have her in the city again.

Commercial Club to Meet

The Sanford Commercial Club will hold a business and general get together meeting next Friday in the City Hall. The club will make it a smoker and the members and those who are not members but ought to be members are requested to be present.

Plenty of Restaurants

Restaurants and hotels in this city recall the old adage of either a feast or a famine and from a few restaurants in Sanford we now have more than the average city. But in this respect we are blessed with the finest of cafes and the new ones recently started give promise of being a valuable addition to the city.

In fact we could soon give to the visitors of the city with the feeling that they can get the best there is in the line of something to eat. This city now has some of the best restaurants in the state and if they will keep them up to the same high standard during the winter season the city will gain a new reputation of being the multitude.

Woodland Park Notes

Owing to rain until nearly two o'clock, the attendance on Thursday was light. The morning visitors were Mr. Duke and family from East Sanford. Then came the usual contingent of visitors from the surrounding country.

Among the parties who came in that line were the entire G. W. Spencer family, Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney and children, Mrs. Hurr, Misses Connelly, Higgins, and Beck and a number of others. Sunday afternoon it is anticipated many more will be present.

Former Tampa Editor Dead

James L. D. ... deputy collector of customs at this port and one of the best known and best loved men of Tampa died today morning at Plant Park in Tampa to which he was taken after a sudden collapse. Death was the result of arterial-sclerosis, a disease from which he had suffered for several years past.

WOODSMAN

Mrs. A. C. Woodbridge is visiting friends and relatives in the city this week. Mrs. Woodbridge is now residing in Atlanta and states that the war has hit the people of Georgia hard and many are out of employment.

LAKE FRONT BULKHEADING IS RAPIDLY PROCEEDING

GREAT WORK OF BEAUTIFYING SANFORD WILL BE COMPLETE IN THE NEAR FUTURE

The bulkheading is beginning to assume the proportions that demonstrates the great things of the future. Under the skillful manipulation of Martin Nickerson of Jacksonville the dredge is throwing dirt at a rapid rate and the many visitors to the lake front on Sunday were greatly surprised at the extent of the work during the past week.

The dredge is out quite a distance from the shore line now and is bringing up the black mud from the bottom of the lake and this being very soft is spreading over the entire front making a very noticeable fill.

This lake front when finished will be composed of the richest land in this vicinity and trees and grass and shrubbery will grow on the new lake front at a prodigious rate. In fact the efforts of the city and the property owners to beautify the lake front will meet with instant response from nature and the lake front when set out to the many beautiful palms and shrubbery to Florida will be a thing of beauty and joy forever.

With the new hotel, the Elks Club and several other proposed buildings at the foot of Park Avenue and the completion of the bulkheading work at the foot of the lake front, the city will present a very fine appearance almost before the bulkheading is completed. There is no doubt about the wonderful development on the lake front that the bulkheading will bring forth and now that the work is showing results the inhabitants of Sanford can foresee the possibility of a beautiful city.

The bulkheading work is proceeding so rapidly that it is now or never and they will proceed with the erection of the new home as rapidly as possible. The building will cost about $20,000 and the money will be wanted on a very short notice.

Over the Rainbow

The members of the Elks Club will be built on the lots owned by the Elks on Park Avenue next to the Walker property.

Good Python Lodge

The members of the Python Lodge will be built on the lots owned by the Elks on Park Avenue next to the Walker property.

Next Friday Night

Don't make any dates for next Friday night if you are a Sanford booster for the Commercial Club will meet on that date and have a smoker and general get together meeting. A large crowd is expected to meet on that night.

Lightning Struck High School

Lightning recently struck the High School building and tore a hole in the roof damaging the corner of the building considerably. Luckily it did not reach the inside and now the carpenters are busy repairing the damages wrought.

Notice

The City Council will meet at the Council chamber in the City Hall on the first Monday in August to hear complaints, if any, of the assessment as revised by them, for the year 1915.

SANFORD ELKS WILL BUILD A FINE NEW CLUB HOUSE SOON

THE EUROPEAN WAR AND HARD TIMES DOES NOT DETER THE ELKS

At a meeting of the officers of the Elks Lodge last night it was decided to advertise for bids on the new building the same to be opened on October first. The new building while not quite as elaborate as the one first contemplated will be one of the best in this part of the state and will embody a basement and a first and second story giving the members plenty of room and plenty of amusements.

The lodge room proper will occupy the greater part of the second floor and will be equipped in magnificent style. The floor of the lodge room will also be finished in such a manner that the dancers can enjoy dancing on the nights when the lodge is in session. There will be sun parlors and cool porches and an organ, piano and grill room will furnish excellent meals for the lodge members.

While the members of Sanford Lodge are not yet ready to believe that the specter of the beautiful structure at this time will not only stimulate the growth of the lodge but will assist Sanford in many ways an unbounded optimism is shown. The low price of building materials and the fact that the cost of the same will be a great deal less than the price of the same in other parts of the state.

Improvements at the High School

The grounds at the Sanford High School building are being placed in first class condition as the local school board believes in making the outside beautiful as well as the inside of the buildings. All the trees and shrubs planted this year will be in full bloom by the time the school opens.

Good Python Lodge

The members of the Python Lodge will be built on the lots owned by the Elks on Park Avenue next to the Walker property.

Big Sale Tomorrow

The Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co. will put on their mammoth sale beginning tomorrow morning and lasting ten days. Everything in the store in clothing, furnishing and ladies and men's shoes, hats and hosiery will be closed out at a figure that will appeal to the thrifty these war times.

Our State Institutions

Among the visitors in the city last week might be mentioned Mr. J. Ernest Yonge, special representative of the University of Florida at Gainesville and the Woman's College at Tallahassee.

Before leaving Sanford Mr. Yonge in a talk with a representative of this paper, spoke enthusiastically of the interest which has been manifested by the young people of this section of the state in the two state institutions. Many of this year's high school graduating class have thus far ahead expressed their intention of attending either the Woman's College or the State University.

The people of this state, said Mr. Yonge, are at last beginning to realize that it is no longer necessary to send their children out of Florida to give them a first class college education. Going to College, is no longer as it was a few years ago, synonymous to many with going north.

The State University at Gainesville now embraces the college of Arts and Sciences, the College of Agriculture, including the four year course in Agriculture, and many short courses for the practical farmer, the College of Engineering, affording the very best technological training in civil, electrical and mechanical engineering, the College of Law, the best in the country for the future practitioners of Florida, the Teachers' College issuing the degrees of B.S. and B.A. in education, and the school of Graduate courses, offering courses leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Master of Science. Thus it will be seen that our State University is on a par with any of the country and can offer to a citizen of this state with no cost of tuition whatever, a college training equal to that offered by any in the country.

MORE DYNAMITE PUT ON SHIPS CARRYING MUNITIONS

ANOTHER "PEACE ADVOCATE" IS READY TO STOP THE WAR BY USING BOMBS

New Orleans, La., July 13.—Federal officers here this morning had heard nothing from the British steamers Howth Head and Baron Napier, which cleared from here July 8 and sailed from port Eads the following day and which are supposed to have bombs aboard. The Baron Napier was believed to be well off the Florida coast today bound for Avonmouth, England, with a cargo consisting of 967 mules. The Howth Head cleared for Dublin and Belfast with a general cargo and was to put in at Norfolk for bunker coal.

The first indication that the two steamers were supposed to have bombs aboard was contained in a letter received late yesterday afternoon by a local paper. The letter was signed "Pearce". He said he had come to New Orleans for the purpose of stopping as far as possible the shipping of mules and war munitions to the allies and neither of the vessels would probably be heard from again. He stated he had enough dynamite to wreck the city.

Hans Halle arrested here December 22 last, having in his possession at the time, a bomb containing forty pounds which, according to police he confessed he had prepared with the intention of consigning it to a French Line steamship at New York, was re-arrested late last night and will be held as a suspicious character until the Baron Napier is heard from.

Halle at the time of his previous arrest, was held by the state authorities which endeavored to try him on a charge of having had in his possession an excessive quantity of high explosives. Attorneys for the state finally dropped the case when the state law was found to be violated.

It is believed that Pearce had been arrested together with the trees and shrubs planted this year will be in full bloom by the time the school opens.

The members of the Python Lodge will be built on the lots owned by the Elks on Park Avenue next to the Walker property.

Thus it will be seen that our State University is on a par with any of the country and can offer to a citizen of this state with no cost of tuition whatever, a college training equal to that offered by any in the country.

Improvements at the High School

The grounds at the Sanford High School building are being placed in first class condition as the local school board believes in making the outside beautiful as well as the inside of the buildings. All the trees and shrubs planted this year will be in full bloom by the time the school opens.

Good Python Lodge

The members of the Python Lodge will be built on the lots owned by the Elks on Park Avenue next to the Walker property.

Next Friday Night

Don't make any dates for next Friday night if you are a Sanford booster for the Commercial Club will meet on that date and have a smoker and general get together meeting. A large crowd is expected to meet on that night.

Lightning Struck High School

Lightning recently struck the High School building and tore a hole in the roof damaging the corner of the building considerably. Luckily it did not reach the inside and now the carpenters are busy repairing the damages wrought.

Notice

The City Council will meet at the Council chamber in the City Hall on the first Monday in August to hear complaints, if any, of the assessment as revised by them, for the year 1915.

Big Sale Tomorrow

The Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co. will put on their mammoth sale beginning tomorrow morning and lasting ten days. Everything in the store in clothing, furnishing and ladies and men's shoes, hats and hosiery will be closed out at a figure that will appeal to the thrifty these war times.

Our State Institutions

Among the visitors in the city last week might be mentioned Mr. J. Ernest Yonge, special representative of the University of Florida at Gainesville and the Woman's College at Tallahassee.

Before leaving Sanford Mr. Yonge in a talk with a representative of this paper, spoke enthusiastically of the interest which has been manifested by the young people of this section of the state in the two state institutions. Many of this year's high school graduating class have thus far ahead expressed their intention of attending either the Woman's College or the State University.

The people of this state, said Mr. Yonge, are at last beginning to realize that it is no longer necessary to send their children out of Florida to give them a first class college education. Going to College, is no longer as it was a few years ago, synonymous to many with going north.

The State University at Gainesville now embraces the college of Arts and Sciences, the College of Agriculture, including the four year course in Agriculture, and many short courses for the practical farmer, the College of Engineering, affording the very best technological training in civil, electrical and mechanical engineering, the College of Law, the best in the country for the future practitioners of Florida, the Teachers' College issuing the degrees of B.S. and B.A. in education, and the school of Graduate courses, offering courses leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Master of Science. Thus it will be seen that our State University is on a par with any of the country and can offer to a citizen of this state with no cost of tuition whatever, a college training equal to that offered by any in the country.

Tampa expects to have a South Florida fair and Jacksonville expects to have a Florida State fair and Seminole county should have a good exhibit at both cities.

Bob Carver of the Jacksonville Metropolis goes back to Kentucky having resigned his position with the Metropolis. He is the "plant a hen" man and we hope the chickens will be as fine in Kentucky as they seemed to be at Miami during the press association.

Edward Earle Naugle of the Kissimmee Gazette is doing a great work in that city and has fallen in with those big hearted people down there with his customary grace and friendly manner and become one of them in the art of entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Naugle have quit the big cities for the country weekly and find more real contentment and more real friends in making the change.

Two of our most brilliant and most prominent editors have recently engaged in battle and both of them came out with honors. It is not good to engage the editor in controversy during the heated term for the game laws do not protect the ordinary individual any more than it does the editor and the most of the Florida editors can fight when the occasion requires.

Most of the state papers have tried and convicted the officials of the life insurance company and the fire insurance company that went bad in Jacksonville and most of the papers have taken a firing at Jacksonville because of the recent failures. The Herald is disposed to await the decision of the state officials and to let them work out the salvation of the stock holders. Poor old Jacksonville is not to blame for the actions of the insurance company officials and the guilty ones will be brought to the bar of justice all right without advertising the state in any such manner.

THAT SETTLES IT
Several of the Florida newspapers are engaged in telling where the first ice manufactory in Florida was erected. The Times wishes to remind these gentlemen that the first artificial ice was manufactured in Appalachicola by Dr. John Gorrie whose statue now graces statutory hall in Washington, D. C. —Appalachicola Times.

OUR NEW HOTEL
Bob Holly beat us to it getting a hotel for Sanford, but then Sanford is about twice as large as Fort Pierce and Bob issues a paper twice a week, so he had a double advantage over The News. The old Sanford House was built over thirty years ago and it is high time the Celery City has a good hotel. We are next in line and we're going to have a first class hotel or two very soon. —Pierce News.

SOME PROPHECY
Editor Holly of the Sanford Herald, known as one of the most successful newspaper men in Florida, announces that the war in Europe is in its infancy, so to speak. Now, if his prognostications turn out well it goes without saying that Mr. Holly's fame as a military expert will be so pronounced that it will put into shadow his lesser fame as publisher of one of the best newspapers in the State. We note that Florida's distinguished ex-governor the Hon. Albert Gilchrist, coincides with the views of Mr. Holly. This in itself is evidence of the military training achieved by the Sanford editor. And shortly we expect to hear all down the line that Bob Holly, as his friends call him, has spoken with much wisdom. —Appalachicola Times.

FARMERS NEED CHEAP MONEY
The Herald has several times contended that our people here and especially the farmers should get cheaper money for loans when they needed the same for the fall planting of seed beds, etc. The farmer is all right if he happens to strike the market right with his winter vegetables but should he strike the declining market he is all wrong and all that he has placed in the crops in the fertilizer, labor and seed is swept away. Many of the farmers have no means of retrenchment and are unable to start the crops going again. If they are able to borrow money at the banks the high rate of interest exacted by Florida banks is prohibitive and in many instances the banks are unable to carry the many loans that are asked on farm mortgages. Farm property is safe enough but the banks only have a limited amount and should the farmer be lucky enough to negotiate a loan he is in the hole at the present rate of interest unless the next crop affords sufficient revenue to clean up the mortgage.

Other points in Florida are in the same position and other parts of Florida are beginning to wonder why the banks or the government is not coming to the assistance of the Florida farmers as well as the farmers of other states. We want to know about the Rural Credits that are talked of so glibly by the politicians before election time and that have not been seen since. Our good friends in Manatee county who raise the same crops that we raise here in Seminole county are asking for aid as the following from the Tampa Tribune would indicate: Farmers of Manatee County have asked the Palmetto Board of Trade to use its influence in obtaining cheaper money for the handling of their crops and for other purposes. The Board has complied with the request and will present the case of the farmers to the government.

Failures in obtaining living prices for recent crops created a sudden stringency which made it necessary for growers to borrow money to carry on their operations. The growers claim that they are required to pay ten per cent for such money and that they can obtain it in only very limited amounts. Some of them were unable to borrow sufficient money to pay their taxes.

The Government has planned to give farmers cheaper money, perfecting an elaborate scheme of legislation for this purpose—but despite this legislation, the farmers do not seem to be able to get it.

The situation is rather serious throughout this section, and, unless the growers can obtain money at reasonable rates of interest with which to finance their operations, to carry them over from one crop to another, it will mean a severe setback to South Florida.

Other Boards of Trade should cooperate with the Palmetto Board in its efforts to better conditions along this line. In a section so productive as South Florida, the men responsible for this great production ought not to be made to suffer for the want of a little ready money at living rates of interest.

And the Pensacola News comes into the subject with the following able article:

"It is a truism that the development of farm lands in a new territory is impossible unless farmer get the proper financial assistance. A great deal of trouble has been encountered in the newly developed sections of the South in this regard.

Without going deeply into the causes of the trouble, a close study of which will show the farmer and banker equally responsible it is certain that farmers in this county will soon be in a position to borrow money advantageously, at reasonable rates of interest, and for periods of time that will mean genuine help. A short-time loan, so helpful, in the business world generally, is of no value to the farmer.

There are many agencies at work in Escambia county looking toward the day when a farmer can borrow money from any of the banks, and when he can expect and demand the same consideration any other business man would get. —it is not quite certain which one of these will offer the solution, but these two facts are quite clear. First that men of brains are at work on the problem, and second, that the banks are willing to meet every such effort half way, for they need the good loans. It may be that a farm mortgage bank will be the solution, or that the Crop Improvement Association can devise the needed scheme. It is no less probable that the bankers here, all of whom are taking great interest in the development of farm lands, will be the persons to suggest the solution. It is coming from one, soon."

The Witham System
When the United States Government established the big federal reserve banks it adopted principles which have been in practice in the WITHAM SYSTEM of banks for 25 years. The stockholders of the big federal reserve banks are national banks, and they are all tied together for mutual protection and assistance under a central board at Washington. The interests of the WITHAM

BANKS are merged in the Banker's Trust Company, of Atlanta, Ga., a concern with capital and surplus of over seven hundred thousand dollars, under a central board of control made up of experienced bankers. The establishment of the federal reserve system of banks was an answer to every criticism against THE WITHAM SYSTEM.

The Witham Banks go one step further than the Federal reserve banks and insure their depositors against any loss whatsoever.

The People's Bank of Sanford, is a member of the WITHAM SYSTEM of banks. Its depositors are insured; its interests are carefully safeguarded, and it is an unbreakable bank.

Geneva Notes

Work is being done on the bridge of the slough on the "Sanford Indian River highway". Mr. McLain has a force of men at work on the piling and caps and the public will lay the floor.

There are three new Fords in Geneva making a total of sixteen buzz wagons for Geneva. Going some.

Lake Harney Beach is becoming quite a summer resort now as there are a large number of people camping there now.

Mr. Ed Kilbee, Aubrey Moran, Trover Leslie, Earol Culpepper, and Edwin Raulerson attended the W. O. W. unveiling at Orlando on the fourth of this month. Sov. Abernethy was master of ceremonies and Sov. Deane of Lakeland and Sov. Park Trammell made the addresses.

Jr. L. A. Sheldon made a business trip to Okeechobee City Monday and says it is some town.

Edwin Raulerson secured the contract for the school work.

Mr. Ed Kilbee and family took in the celebration at Kissimmee on the 5th.

Mrs. I. D. Hart Sr., has gone to Alabama to visit relatives.

Mr. E. H. Greer and family are visiting Mrs. Greer's father Mr. T. D. Hart.

Miss Lillie Raulerson of Ft. Pierce is visiting relatives in Geneva.

The W. O. W. Committee has announced the following program for Thursday July 15th:

Woodmen Circle meeting 8:30 P. M.

Woodmen of the World meeting 7:30 P. M.

Social 8:30

The members of both camps are requested to be present.

Master Culver Etheridge entertained his friends at his birthday party on Friday the 9th.

Mr. Dewhurst has gone to Illinois on a business trip.

We hope that we will have a brick road soon.

We see that by going across Lake Jessup the distance between Oviedo and Sanford can be made shorter, and the same thing applied to the north end of the lake and the road straightened will do the same for Geneva.

VALUE OF BERRIES.

Berries are "good medicine" to tone up the system and every farm should have berries enough of all kinds to supply the family throughout the year. Fresh fruit in season, and canned fruit all the balance of the year, until fresh fruit is harvested again. Many town dwellers and suburbanites can grow berries on small plots of ground, if they will. On a lot only 50 by 125 feet, with much of the plot devoted to lawn in front of the house, a suburbanite raises an assortment of flowers, roses, gladiolus, dahlias, many annuals and perennials, and besides strawberries and raspberries in abundance. Decide now to plant strawberries and raspberries this autumn, so a crop of the former will be ready next season and the latter the season following.

CORN CULTIVATION.

The Condition and Character of the Soil the Determining Factors.

The amount and kind of cultivation for best results with corn depend upon the character and condition of the soil.

If the seed bed is firm below, mellow at the surface, and free from weeds, shallow early cultivation is all that is necessary, says A. C. Army of the Minnesota experiment station. This kills weeds as they start and prevents the formation of a crust, thus keeping the moisture in the soil. Shallow, early cultivation may be given with a narrow shovelled cultivator or a light harrow, the teeth of which slant backward. If there are small loose sods or other material that may cover some of the hills, preventing the young corn plants from reaching the surface, the cultivator should be used instead of the harrow.

If the seed bed has not been thoroughly prepared, or if heavy rainfall has packed the well prepared seed bed after the corn has been planted, early cultivation is needed to loosen up the seed bed, giving the young plants a chance to grow, and to kill the weeds. Medium depth cultivation, either before the corn is up, following the planter marks, or as soon as the corn can be seen, followed by deep and close cultivation each way at the time the corn is from four to six inches high. It is also good practice under such conditions. Later cultivation for the purpose of retaining moisture and killing weeds should be shallow. If the soil has been properly worked before planting time or deep cultivation has been given while the corn is small, later cultivation need not be more than two or three inches deep. After corn is from eight to twelve inches high, deep or close cultivation becomes increasingly harmful, cutting the roots near the surface and reducing the amount of water supplied to the plants. Sufficient cultivation should be given to keep the surface of the soil mellow and free from weeds. Cultivation beyond this is unnecessary and only increases the cost of production.

Hoop Weeder For Vegetables.
The cut illustrates better than words perhaps a weeder very superior to many hand weeders now offered on the market. This is easily and quickly made from thin, soft steel, such as found in barrel or pall hoops, although we prefer the steels from used corsets, as these are narrower, thin and very tough and springy. Cut pieces, a, 12 to 15 inches long, and punch or drill a hole near each end large enough for an inch screw. Make a handle, b, and fasten the steel to it at c. A file soon brings a sharp edge on this weeder blade and each side or edge may be sharpened and a weeder with a double cutting edge be secured.—Farm and Home.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Begin to think about bulbs for planting next fall.

Endive and Chinese cabbage may be sown for fall use.

Cut back Achillea as soon as it is through flowering and it will flower again in the autumn.

Stake dahlias and do not leave more than one or two canes to grow. Too many shoots mean small flowers.

One of the earliest shrubs to flower is the Juneberry (Amelanchier). There are several varieties, but the one most commonly grown is Amelanchier Canadensis. It is sometimes called shadbush. The fruit turns from green to red or purplish and is enjoyed by both birds and man.

Watch for currant worms. They may be killed by spraying with arsenate of lead. Paris green and lime may also be dusted over plants on which worms are working with good effect.

Dig out the tulip bulbs if the bed is wanted for other flowers and lay them under a bush or tree, covering them with a box or board. They may be replanted in autumn and will give good flowers the next spring.

Reason Rules.

Human reason is too presumptuous. The moment you have a delightful impulse to do something deliciously silly—and therefore deliciously pleasant—along comes old Human Reason and tells you not to! Reason thinks it knows it all.

Gigantic Hot Springs.
Some of the hot springs of New Zealand are actually small lakes large enough to float a battleship.

Mary Pickford as Cinderella a Real Film Classic

Mary Pickford, America's Sweetheart and the world's foremost film actress, gladdens the heart and thrills the soul in her latest characterization, in the famous Player's Films Company's novel production of Cinderella, the Paramount Feature at THE STAR FRIDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT

Mary Pickford as Cinderella is charming grace and tenderness personified and immortalized in a screen production of rare art and appeal. In the film version there is more than the impersonal value of the character of the original and world-famous story. Cinderella walks and breathes upon the screen as though it were a bewitching, dazzling being incarnated by memory and idealized by the tender recollections of childhood.

It may be said that Miss Pickford's two foremost previous triumphs on the screen have been "Tess of the Storm Country," and such a Little Queen." In "Tess" she portrayed the role of the ragged squatter girl, and in the latter production she presented an interesting contrast by appearing in royal garb and amid regal environment. But in the film version of "Cinderella" we see her in both, as the poor and wretched cinder-gal, and later as the triumphant and happy princess. Thus she combines her two greatest former impersonations in the present production. Particular pains have been taken in the production of this feature, and its many impressive settings and beautiful costumes greatly enhance the artistic and dramatic value of the subject.

Miss Pickford is aided by a superbly chosen cast in making her characterization one that will substantially add to the popularity of the famous little star. As we follow her through the story, and see her change from the pathetic little girl to the sovereign of all the domains, including the figuratively larger domain of Prince Charming's heart, we cannot help admitting that she is without a doubt "the world's greatest motion picture actress."

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Brossier Dickson

The many Sanford friends of the contracting parties will be interested in the following from the Reporter-Star.

In a homelike setting distinguished by harmony of detail and according with the spirit of simplicity which characterized the event Miss Ethel May Dickson and Mr. Robert Bazile Brossier were married this morning at the home of the bride on South Orange avenue. Rev. Father Joseph, O. S. B., performed the ceremony.

The drawing room in which the ceremony took place was decorated in white and green. The colonial entrance was banked with potted ferns and clusters of white carnations, and pots of ferns and vases holding white roses and carnations were arranged about the room on tables and stands. At one side of the room the mantel was a mass of delicate drapery of asparagus falling to meet a bank of potted palms and ferns, while from out the mass of green peeped clusters of white carnations. The broad low window seat at the end of the room was converted into an altar before which the ceremony was performed, a delicate tracery of asparagus vine outlined the arch of the window, while the seat was banked with ferns and white carnations and Shasta daisies. On either side of the altar, large shepherds baskets on tall stands held masses of the daisies. The decorations in the dining room were pink and green. Potted palms and ferns mingling with pink carnations and asters banked the mantel. A mound of asters and asparagus formed the center piece of the dining table, and vases filled with the blossoms were placed on the buffet and serving table.

Six minutes before the appointed time, eight-thirty, Mr. W. S. Branch, Jr., played the Triumphal March from "Aida" to announce the approach of the bridal party. Mr. Brossier entered first, accompanied by his brother, Mr. J. Clement Brossier, and when they had taken their places before the altar, Miss Dickson entered escorted by her father Mr. H. H. Dickson. She wore a modish and becoming frock of Alice blue taffeta and a hat of old rose chiffon. A corsage bouquet of bride's rosebuds and lilies of the valley completed the dainty costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Brossier will return

Tampa expects to have a South Florida fair and Jacksonville expects to have a Florida State fair and Seminole county should have a good exhibit at both cities.

Bob Carver of the Jacksonville Metropolis goes back to Kentucky having resigned his position with the Metropolis. He is the "plant a hen" man and we hope the chickens will be as fine in Kentucky as they seemed to be at Miami during the press association.

Edward Earle Naugle of the Kissimmee Gazette is doing a great work in that city and has fallen in with those big hearted people down there with his customary grace and friendly manner and become one of them in the art of entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Naugle have quit the big cities for the country weekly and find more real contentment and more real friends in making the change.

Two of our most brilliant and most prominent editors have recently engaged in battle and both of them came out with honors. It is not good to engage the editor in controversy during the heated term for the game laws do not protect the ordinary individual any more than it does the editor and the most of the Florida editors can fight when the occasion requires.

Most of the state papers have tried and convicted the officials of the life insurance company and the fire insurance company that went bad in Jacksonville and most of the papers have taken a fling at Jacksonville because of the recent failures. The Herald is disposed to await the decision of the state officials and to let them work out the salvation of the stock holders. Poor old Jacksonville is not to blame for the actions of the insurance company officials and the guilty ones will be brought to the bar of justice all right without advertising the state in any such manner.

THAT SETTLES IT
Several of the Florida newspapers are engaged in telling where the first ice manufactory in Florida was located. The Times wishes to remind these gentlemen that the first artificial ice was manufactured in Appalachicola by Dr. John Gorrie whose statue now graces statutory hall in Washington, D. C.
Appalachicola Times.

OUR NEW HOTEL
Bob Holly beat us to it getting a hotel for Sanford, but then Sanford is about twice as large as Fort Pierce and Bob issues a paper twice a week, so he had a double advantage over The News. The old Sanford House was built over thirty years ago and it is high time the Celery City has a good hotel. We are next in line and we're going to have a first class hotel or two very soon.
The Pierce News.

We saw George Mason first, Charley, but as soon as he builds one here he expects to go to Ft. Pierce and do likewise. Let George do it.

SOME PROPHECY
Editor Holly of the Sanford Herald, known as one of the most successful newspaper men in Florida, announces that the war in Europe is in its infancy, so to speak. Now, if his prognostications turn out well it goes without saying that Mr. Holly's fame as a military expert will be so pronounced that it will put into shadow his lesser fame as publisher of one of the best newspapers in the State. We note that Florida's distinguished ex-governor the Hon. Albert Gleicher, coincides with the views of Mr. Holly. This in itself is evidence of the military training achieved by the Sanford editor. And shortly we expect to hear all down the line that Bob Holly, as his friends call him, has spoken with much wisdom.
Appalachicola Times.

FARMERS NEED CHEAP MONEY
The Herald has several times contended that our people here and especially the farmers should get cheaper money for loans when they needed the same for the fall planting of seed beds, etc. The farmer is all right if he happens to strike the market right with his winter vegetables but should he strike the declining market he is all wrong and all that he has placed in the crops in the fertilizer, labor and seed is swept away. Many of the farmers have no means of retrenchment and are unable to start the crops going again. If they are able to borrow money at the banks the high rate of interest exacted by Florida banks is prohibitive and in many instances the banks are unable to carry the many loans that are asked on farm mortgages. Farm property is safe enough but the banks only have a limited amount and should the farmer be lucky enough to negotiate a loan he is in the hole at the present rate of interest unless the next crop affords sufficient revenue to clean up the mortgage.

Other points in Florida are in the same position and other parts of Florida are beginning to wonder why the banks or the government is not coming to the assistance of the Florida farmers as well as the farmers of other states. We want to know about the Rural Credits that are talked of so glibly by the politicians before election time and that have not been seen since. Our good friends in Manatee county who raise the same crops that we raise here in Seminole county are asking for aid as the following from the Tampa Tribune would indicate:

Farmers of Manatee County have asked the Palmetto Board of Trade to use its influence in obtaining cheaper money for the handling of their crops and for other purposes. The Board has complied with the request and will present the case of the farmers to the government.

Failures in obtaining living prices for recent crops created a sudden stringency which made it necessary for growers to borrow money to carry on their operations. The growers claim that they are required to pay ten per cent for such money and that they can obtain it in only very limited amounts. Some of them were unable to borrow sufficient money to pay their taxes.

The Government has planned to give farmers cheaper money, perfecting an elaborate scheme of legislation for this purpose—but despite this legislation, the farmers do not seem to be able to get it.

The situation is rather serious throughout this section, and, unless the growers can obtain money at reasonable rates of interest with which to finance their operations, to carry them over from one crop to another, it will mean a severe backset to South Florida.

Other Boards of Trade should cooperate with the Palmetto Board in its efforts to better conditions along this line. In a section so productive as South Florida, the men responsible for this great production ought not to be made to suffer for the want of a little ready money at living rates of interest.

And the Pensacola News comes into the subject with the following able article:

It is a truism that the development of farm lands in a new territory is impossible unless farmer get the proper financial assistance. A great deal of trouble has been encountered in the newly developed sections of the South in this regard.

Without going deeply into the causes of the trouble, a close study of which will show the farmer and banker equally responsible it is certain that farmers in this county will soon be in a position to borrow money advantageously, at reasonable rates of interest, and for periods of time that will mean genuine help. A short-time loan, so helpful, in the business world generally, is of no value to the farmer.

There are many agencies at work in Escambia county looking toward the day when a farmer can borrow money from any of the banks, and when he can expect and demand the same consideration any other business man would get. It is not quite certain which one of these will offer the solution, but these two facts are quite clear. First that men of brains are at work on the problem, and second, that the banks are willing to meet every such effort half way, for they need the good loans.

It may be that a farm mortgage bank will be the solution, or that the Crop Improvement Association can devise the needed scheme. It is no less probable that the bankers here, all of whom are taking great interest in the development of farm lands, will be the persons to suggest the solution. It is coming from one, soon.

BANKS are merged in the Banker's Trust Company, of Atlanta, Ga., a concern with capital and surplus of over seven hundred thousand dollars, under a central board of control made up of experienced bankers. The establishment of the federal reserve system of banks was an answer to every criticism against THE WITHAM SYSTEM.

The Witham Banks go one step further than the Federal reserve banks and insure their depositors against any loss whatsoever.

The People's Bank of Sanford, a member of the WITHAM SYSTEM of banks. Its depositors are insured; its interests are carefully safeguarded, and it is an unbreakable bank.

Geneva Notes

Work is being done on the bridge of the slough on the "Sanford Indian River highway". Mr. McLain has a force of men at work on the piling and caps and the public will lay the floor.

There are three new Fords in Geneva making a total of sixteen buzz wagons for Geneva. Going some.

Lake Harney Beach is becoming quite a summer resort now as there are a large number of people camping there now.

Mr. Ed Kilbee, Aubrey Moran, Trover Leslie, Earol Culpepper, and Edwin Raulerson attended the W. O. W. unvelling at Orlando on the fourth of this month. Sov. Abernethy was master of ceremonies and Sov. Deane of Lakeland and Sov. Park Trammell made the addresses.

Jr. L. A. Sheldon made a business trip to Okeechobee City Monday and says it is some town.

Edwin Raulerson secured the contract for the school work.

Mr. Ed Kilbee and family took in the celebration at Kissimmee on the 6th.

Mrs. I. D. Hart Sr., has gone to Alabama to visit relatives.

Mr. E. H. Greer and family are visiting Mrs. Greer's father Mr. T. D. Hart.

Miss Lillie Raulerson of Ft. Pierce is visiting relatives in Geneva.

The W. O. W. Committee has announced the following program for Thursday July 15th:

Woodmen Circle meeting 6
Woodmen of the World meeting 7:30 P. M.
Social 8:30

The members of both camps are requested to be present.

Master Culver Etheridge entertained his friends at his birthday party on Friday the 9th.

Mr. Dewhirst has gone to Illinois on a business trip.

We hope that we will have a brick road soon.

We see that by going across Lake Jessup the distance between Oviedo and Sanford can be made shorter, and the same thing applied to the north end of the lake and the road straightened will do the same for Geneva.

VALUE OF BERRIES.

Berries are "good medicine" to tone up the system and every farm should have berries enough of all kinds to supply the family throughout the year. Fresh fruit in season, and canned fruit all the balance of the year, until fresh fruit is harvested again. Many town dwellers and suburbanites can grow berries on small plots of ground, if they will. On a lot only 50 by 125 feet, with much of the plot devoted to lawn in front of the house, a suburbanite raises an assortment of flowers, roses, gladiolus, dahlias, many annuals and perennials, and besides strawberries and raspberries in abundance. Decide now to plant strawberries and raspberries this autumn, so a crop of the former will be ready next season and the latter the season following.

CORN CULTIVATION.

The Condition and Character of the Soil the Determining Factors.

The amount and kind of cultivation for best results with corn depend upon the character and condition of the soil.

If the seed bed is firm below, mellow at the surface, and free from weeds, shallow early cultivation is all that is necessary, says A. C. Arny of the Minnesota experiment station. This kills weeds as they start and prevents the formation of a crust, thus keeping the moisture in the soil. Shallow, early cultivation may be given with a narrow shoveled cultivator or a light harrow, the teeth of which slant backward. If there are small loose sods or other material that may cover some of the hills, preventing the young corn plants from reaching the surface, the cultivator should be used instead of the harrow.

If the seed bed has not been thoroughly prepared, or if heavy rainfall has packed the well prepared seed bed after the corn has been planted, early cultivation is needed to loosen up the seed bed, giving the young plants a chance to grow, and to kill the weeds. Medium depth cultivation, either before the corn is up, following the planter marks, or as soon as the corn can be seen, followed by deep and close cultivation each way at the time the corn is from four to six inches high, is also good practice under such conditions.

Later cultivation for the purpose of retaining moisture and killing weeds should be shallow. If the soil has been properly worked before planting time or deep cultivation has been given while the corn is small, later cultivation need not be more than two or three inches deep.

After corn is from eight to twelve inches high, deep or close cultivation becomes increasingly harmful, cutting the roots near the surface and reducing the amount of water supplied to the plants.

Sufficient cultivation should be given to keep the surface of the soil mellow and free from weeds. Cultivation beyond this is unnecessary and only increases the cost of production.

Hoop Weeder For Vegetables.

The cut illustrates better than words perhaps, a weeder very superior to many hand weeders now offered on the market. This is easily and quickly made from thin, soft steel, such as found in barrel or pulley hoops, although we prefer the steels from used corsets, as these are narrow, thin and very

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Begin to think about bulbs for planting next fall.

Endive and Chinese cabbage may be sown for fall use.

Cut back Achillea as soon as it is through flowering and it will flower again in the autumn.

Stake dahlias and do not leave more than one or two canes to grow. Too many shoots mean small flowers.

One of the earliest shrubs to flower is the Juneberry (Amelanchier). There are several varieties, but the one most commonly grown is Amelanchier Canadensis. It is sometimes called shadbush. The fruit turns from green to red or purplish and is enjoyed by both birds and man.

Watch for currant worms. They may be killed by spraying with arsenate of lead. Paris green and lime may also be dusted over plants on which worms are working with good effect.

Dig out the tulip bulbs if the bed is wanted for other flowers and lay them under a bush or tree, covering them with a box or board. They may be replanted in autumn and will give good flowers the next spring.

Reason Rules.

Human reason is too presumptuous. The moment you have a delightful impulse to do something deliriously silly—and therefore deliciously pleasant—along comes old Human Reason and tells you not to! Reason thinks it knows it all.

Gigantic Hot Springs.

Some of the hot springs of New Zealand are actually small lakes large enough to float a battleship.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brossier were in Sanford several hours on Saturday enroute to DeLand where they took the boat yesterday for Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Brossier were on their honeymoon trip having been married in Orlando Saturday morning. Mrs. Brossier was Miss Ethel Dickson of Orlando and Mr. Brossier is the manager of the Orlando Reporter-Star.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Elder and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Coney and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly and family, all of Sanford were among the thousands who attended the barbecue here on Monday. Mr. Holly is the far famed "Bob" Holly, editor of the Sanford Herald, and a good friend of Kissimmee. Mr. Holly did more than any other man outside of Kissimmee to advertise the big event here and the size of the crowd brought by the special train from Sanford was a measure of his ability to arouse interest. Kissimmee Gazette.

Don't use Poisonous Paste to rid your home of insects, for Roaches crawl through it and scatter it over the dishes and outables, and the least speck will kill a person. Take no chances! One application of Ase's Roachpepper will clean any home of Roaches, Mrs. Silver Bays, Monroe, La. Bay and this contains no poison. Poultry and other animals will not be injured by eating insects killed with Ase's Roachpepper. It will be much easier to exterminate them now than a few days later. Don't delay! Get a box to day, before they scatter disease germs through your homes. Sold by all druggists. 89-8tc

Wade Morton who was here with the Marks Amusement Co. and helped in putting on the Seminole county fair is now in New York where he is business manager of the Moving Picture Weekly. His many friends here are glad to learn that he is doing a good business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. George Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lyman, H. C. Mrs. Pickford as "Cinderella" a Real Film Classic

Mrs. Pickford, America's Sweetheart and the world's foremost film actress, gladdens the heart and thrills the soul in her latest characterization, in the famous Player's Film Company's novel production of "Cinderella," the Paramount Feature at THE STAR, FRIDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT

Mrs. Pickford as "Cinderella" is charming, girlish and tenderhearted person, and immortalized in a screen production of rare art and appeal. In the film version there is more than the impersonal value of the character of the original and world-famous story. "Cinderella" walks and breathes upon the screen as though it were a bewitching, dazzling being, incarnated by memory and idealized by the tender recollections of childhood.

It may be said that Miss Pickford's two foremost previous triumphs on the screen have been "Tess of the Storm Country," and such a Little Queen." In "Tess" she portrayed the role of the rugged squatter girl, and in the latter production she presented an interesting contrast by appearing in royal garb and amid regal environment. But in the film version of "Cinderella" we see her in both, as the poor and wretched cinder-gil, and later as the triumphant and happy princess. Thus she combines her two greatest former impersonations in the present production. Particular pains have been taken in the production of this feature, and its many impressive settings and beautiful costumes greatly enhance the artistic and dramatic value of the subject.

Miss Pickford is aided by a superbly chosen cast in making her characterization one that will substantially add to the popularity of the famous little star. As we follow her through the story, and see her change from the pathetic little girl to the sovereign of all the domains, including the figuratively larger domain of Prince Charming's heart, we cannot help admitting that she is without a doubt "the world's greatest motion picture actress."

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Brossier Dickson

The many Sanford friends of the contracting parties will be interested in the following from the Reporter-Star:

In a bowlike setting distinguished by harmony of detail and according with the spirit of simplicity which characterized the event Miss Ethel May Dickson and Mr. Robert Bazile Brossier were married this morning at the home of the bride on South Orange avenue. Rev. Father Joseph, O. S. B., performed the ceremony.

The drawing room in which the ceremony took place was decorated in white and green. The colonial entrance was banked with potted ferns and clusters of white carnations, and pots of ferns and vases holding white roses and carnations were arranged about the room on tables and stands. At one side of the room the mantel was of delicate drapery of asparagus falling to meet a bank of potted palms and ferns, while from out the mass of green peeped clusters of white carnations. The broad low window seat at the end of the room was converted into an altar before which the ceremony was performed, a delicate tracery of asparagus vine outlined the arch of the window, while the seat was banked with ferns and white carnations and Shasta daisies. On either side of the altar, large shepherdess baskets on tall stands held masses of the daisies. The decorations in the dining room were pink and green. Potted palms and ferns mingling with pink carnations and asters banked the mantel. A mound of asters and asparagus formed the center piece of the dining table, and vases filled with the blossoms were placed on the buffet and serving table.

Six minutes before the appointed time, eight-thirty, Mr. W. S. Branch, Jr., played the Triumphal March from "Aida" to announce the approach of the bridal party. Mr. Brossier entered first, accompanied by his brother, Mr. J. Clement Brossier, and when they had taken their places before the altar, Miss Dickson entered escorted by her father Mr. H. H. Dickson. She wore a modish and becoming frock of Alice blue tulle and a hat of old rose chiffon. A corsage bouquet of bride's rosebuds and lilies of the valley completed the dainty costume. Mr. and Mrs. Brossier will return to Orlando after a brief wedding trip which will include Atlantic Beach and other points. They left for Sanford.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dickson, and a member of one of Orlando's oldest and most highly esteemed families. She possesses rare personal charm which endears her to all, and which has won for her hosts of warm friends and admirers.

Mr. Brossier, whose former home was in Miami, became identified with the business life of Orlando last year when he became business manager of the Reporter-Star.

Those from out of town who attended the wedding were the groom's parents, Col. and Mrs. F. C. Brossier, and other relatives from Miami, including Mrs. Gary Niles, Miss Mathilde Niles, Mr. Lotus Niles and Mr. Victor Moffat.

Tonight, at the Imperial, "Over the Rainbow." Doors open at 7:30 and performance at 8:15 P. M. for the operetta tonight.

Don't miss seeing the operetta tonight. Between the acts Specialties unusually good.

The one price of 35 cents will prevail all over the house tonight. Come early and get a good seat.

Curtain rises at 8:15 tonight. Be prompt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Peck and family are now comfortably located in one of the new McCuller houses on Ninth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Telford have arrived in the city after an absence of several months and will again occupy their home on Magnolia Ave. Their hosts of friends here are giving them a warm welcome.

Increase in P. M.'s Salary In the annual readjustment of the salaries of postmasters, announced Tuesday by Postmaster General Bureson, twenty-six Florida postmasters were given an increase in salary, and eighteen were given decreases. For the past year the salary of the Sanford postmaster has been $2,500 which has been increased to $2,600. Since the salaries of the postmasters are scheduled by the business handled by the offices themselves, the increase in Postmaster Haskin's salary is highly complimentary of the volume of business handled through the local office, and the manner in which the affairs of the office are conducted.

Some Fine Tomatoes Alfred King who resides on the west side is a good grower of winter vegetables but in the spring crop line he makes a specialty of tomatoes and probably grows the best tomatoes that Sanford can boast. He has a few new wrinkles in growing tomatoes and one of them is to bring on the late ones under shade making them fine and firm and they are allowed to ripen on the vines before they are brought to the local market. He brought some to the Herald office this week that were absolutely the finest we have ever seen in this state.

Twelfth Circuit is Void Tallahassee, July 12. By a decision of the Supreme Court on the validity of the act creating the Twelfth Judicial Circuit out of the counties of Duval and Nassau and creating a new fourth circuit out of St. Johns, Clay and Putnam, the latter being taken from the Eighth Circuit, there is small hope of bringing about relief in this circuit. The Supreme Court yesterday afternoon handed down an adverse opinion, and this means that both of the judges appointed by Governor Trammell under the act are ousted. Judge J. T. Butler, who was appointed as the additional judge in the new Twelfth Circuit, and Judge S. J. Hilburn of Palatka, who was to preside over the proposed new Fourth Circuit.

The bill as originally passed by the Legislature was vetoed by Governor Trammell, but its advocates led the members of the Duval delegation in both houses of the assembly, succeeded in having it carried over the Governor's veto, and shortly before the Legislature adjourned Governor Trammell announced the appointment of the additional judge for the Twelfth Circuit and the judge and State's attorney for the new Fourth Circuit. E. Noble Calhoun, of St. Augustine, was appointed State's attorney for the latter circuit. He is also ousted by the decision of the court.

There will also, therefore, be no change in the makeup of the old Fourth and Eighth Circuits.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Another Telegram From Rainbowland To the generous people of Sanford. I will arrive at the Imperial Theatre tonight at 8:15 with my maids of honor and company of fireflies, frost sprites, moon-beams, sun-beams, flower-artists and all the colors of the rainbow. Please be kind enough to give us the welcome of a crowded house. Our operetta is particularly pretty and I feel sure will please you all. In the course of the evening we will take the children Claire, Anita, Bertha and Dorothy back to Rainbowland with us, to see the wonders of that famous country. Once again I urge the good people of Sanford to give us the encouragement of a large audience.

GREAT SUFFRAGE LEADER

As president of the International Woman's Suffrage alliance, and as leader in numerous suffrage organizations Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt has earned a unique distinction among members of her sex for her indefatigable labor for the cause. She has been the head of the alliance ever since its foundation twelve years ago and during that period has been identified with winning rights for women's full or partial suffrage in Tasmania, Queensland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Victoria, England, Belgium and Iceland, as well as full suffrage in seven of the United States.

Mrs. Catt is known particularly for her qualities of constructive statesmanship.

Select Your Master You cannot serve two masters; you must serve one or the other. If your work is the first with you and your fee second, work is your master and the Lord of work, who is God. But if your fee is first with you and your work second, fee is your master and the Lord of fee, who is the devil—Ruskin.

The Meanest Man Once More I have at last discovered the very meanest man. He is the fellow who somehow manages to get you to tell everything about yourself, and then shuts up like a clam and manages to make you feel you have been a garrulous fool—Judge.

GULLIBLE PEOPLE ARE MANY

All Sorts of Fake Schemes Successfully Floated Prove Credulity of Humanity.

Human credulity passes all limitations. Before me lies a newspaper story from Chicago: A man was on his way to a savings bank to deposit $145. Two smiling strangers met him, fooled him with the story that they had "a magic handkerchief" which would double the stranger's money if he would fold his bank bills within it. After the operation, the strangers told him to watch the handkerchief and see his money grow. They disappeared. They had his money and the handkerchief contained waste paper. Does this sound impossible?

Here is another story, even more improbable, but true. In New York a company, appropriating the name of a well-known corporation, advertised to sell its shares at a bargain, and fixed a price that was just twice the stock market price. A circular was sent to the Italian quarter intimating that a great opportunity was presented for workmen to secure an interest in a wonderfully prosperous railway, that only a few shares could be had, and that they must be bought at once. A rush was made for the stock, although every daily paper printed the quotation of the same security at half the price at which the swindlers were offering it. The police put an end to the game. If people are so credulous, is it surprising that the post office authorities report that $150,000,000 a year is taken from the gullible by dealers in fake securities? If Wall Street did this kind of wretched business, it would deserve reprobation.

None of the cheap mining, oil, plantation, real estate and similar schemes could get a foothold in the stock exchange because, before a stock can be listed, it must submit a detailed report and show that it represents a legitimate enterprise. This does not mean that occasionally a stock is listed that should not have been, but it means that, as a rule, listed securities have merit. Nor does listing mean that they will advance in price. Securities only represent business institutions subject to the laws of trade, but chances of profit in the purchase of listed securities, or those that are sold by representative bankers and brokers, rather than by irresponsible peddlers, should be the choice of every one who has money to spare—Lealle's Weekly.

Keeping Men Out of Mischievous To keep its men out of mischief a big coal company inaugurated the garden habit among its miners. Result? Pay day sees far fewer fights, much less money spent for liquor and a larger sum carried home to the wife and children. I learn from the manager that besides these immediate effects many of the miners are now able to raise a considerable part of all the vegetables their families eat.

Some of the large iron and steel companies divert their men with music. C. M. Schwab is patron saint of a great band at Bethlehem.

There are four bands or drum corps at the Cornwall Ore banks, and the Frick company goes the limit in mixing music with coke, having 14 bands at its various works.

Give men something pleasant to do, and they will spend less money and time for things that are unpleasant—Philadelphia Ledger.

Soothes Tooth, Fires Bed.

John Wolf, a rural mail carrier of Ebensburg, Pa., has demonstrated that an electric light bulb will cure a toothache and then some. Wolf was walking the floor with a toothache of the jumping kind when the bright idea struck him. Wrapping a towel around an electric light bulb attached to a long cord, he got into bed, pressing the bulb against the aching molar as a warming pad. The device worked magically. The suffering stopped and wolf fell asleep.

Shortly after midnight, the mail carrier dreamed there was a fire and that he was fighting his way through smoke and flames. He awoke to find the bed burning. He sprang to safety and gave the alarm, but before firemen arrived the house was almost gutted.

Prayed He Might Fight Again.

Here is an extract from a letter from abroad—never mind the nationality. "Louis is still here on sick leave. He was awfully battered up and is so nervous he can't hold his hands quiet for a moment. It was the concussion of a bursting shell that flung him against a stone wall, you know. He was in the hospital a month. He is getting a little better now, and every morning and evening I hear him praying. 'What in the world are you praying for?' I asked him. He had hard work steadying his voice. 'I'm praying,' he stammered, 'that the war won't be over before I can get back.' What are you going to do with a spirit like that?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

New Woman is a Marrying Woman.

The alarmist assertions that the spread of "feminist" doctrine is going to destroy the home are disproved by statistics. More women marry today than did in 1900. There has been a gain of nearly 2 per cent in the number of marriages of women over fifteen in the last 20 years. Among the 20,000,000 married women whom the last census takers report, only 185,065 had been divorced. Ida Tarbell calls this a "small per cent of disaster" and says that there is no other human relation that can show anything like so large a statistical proof of success.

Where The South Begins
Down where the welcome is never stronger
Than where the glad hand-clasp, is Given the stranger;
Down where the smile dwells a little longer—
That's where the south begins.
Down where the roses bloom all winter
And the water sparkles a little bit brighter,
And the bonds of home are a wee bit tighter
That's where the South begins.
Down where the skies are a trifle bluer
Down where friendship's a trifle truer,
And hope and faith and love xxx endure—
That's where the south begins.
Down where a velvet breeze is blowing
And there is music in every wave flowing—
That's where the south begins.
Down where the South is awaking
And fortunes are in the making,
And there's more of giving and less of taking—
That is where the south begins.
Where there is more of laughing and less of sighing,
And more of giving and less of buying,
And "you all" make friends without half trying There's where the South begins.
---Chas. R. Boostrom, St. Paul.

*With the light of fuller knowledge on the subject the northern attitude toward the southern negro has marvelously changed in recent years. The death of the "grandfather clause" to restrict negro suffrage in the South has brought out considerable comment from the northern press, but it doesn't read like the stuff they used to give us years ago when they took their view of the negro from "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and like other sources. Here is something from "Yankee Doodle," a paper published at Michigan City, Indiana, which represents a large and growing sentiment at the North.

"Don't try to solve the southern negro problem, you men of the North. It is already solved, and the negro is in better shape, morally, physically and financially down below the Mason and Dixon line than he is in the North. We took the salvation of the negro upon us only to find we don't know him. It isn't a matter of prejudice on the part of the northern people. It is just plain ignorance of what is required in a task that was entirely self-imposed. As a rule, the poorest of all American negroes are found in the North. They are generally exiles from the sunny land of kindness and understanding. They have generally come North because they were intolerable in the South. The South does much to give the negro a show. The Southern people are kind to the negroes, for they understand them. The negro keeps his place. He is never offensive and he is loyal, kindly, affectionate individual, who is always respectful. Within a decade there will be race riots in most of the cities of the North. For a great truth is coming to the unthinking."

§An article entitled "An Editor's Prayer," supposed to have been written by Henry G. Rowe, of the Medina, Ohio Gazette, and published in the "Correspondent's Bulletin" is worth reprinting. It runs:

"In the quiet of the great north woods, by the banks of a white foaming trout stream, an editor, using his fish reel for a pillow and, the pine carpeted earth for a couch, looked up through the canopy of evergreen boughs above him, to the great blue dome of heaven beyond and prayed:
"Great Spirit of the Printing Press—I am soon to leave these silent, beautiful places that I love so dearly and go back to your realm of paper and ink and whirling wheels. I am grateful that your largeness has permitted me here where God seems nearer than elsewhere, where trouble isn't and where the great physician comes to mend broken nerves and recharge life's galvanic batteries with energy and hope. And now that I am going back to you, grant me more than ever two special blessings that your newspaper children need more than all else—the one—grace; the other—courage.
"Grace to be fair to the other fellow—not to regard my own views, my politics, my own party as altogether right and perfect and the other fellow's altogether wrong; grace to smile and to omit the unkind printed word when some injected a bit of salt and pepper under my skin (that perhaps I deserve); grace to remember that there are two sides to almost every question (especially excepting the saloon question); grace to remember that a soft answer turneth away wrath and at the same time is more effective.

"And courage—courage to tell the truth that ought to be told whether I like it or not, whether it hits me or my friends, whether it costs me one subscriber or one thousand subscribers; courage to look without blinking at political facts and to put honest interpretation on such facts whether my political friends like it or not; courage to be fair and to speak my honest belief about candidates for office of all political parties, no matter how I want only candidates of my own party elected; courage to tell my friends NO when they want to get something into my columns that is fair, and courage to say YES who are not my friends when they want to get something into my columns that is fair though distasteful and courage, finally to walk alone and friendless, if need be, that I may not print something that I do not believe and may not advocate something that I do not favor with head and heart

"And now, Great Spirit, lest my humble prayer detain you longer from visiting just retribution on those lying editors back in civilization occupied this very hour in getting out those mendacious war extras. I will close my humble prayer, hoping that its petition may be vouchsafed me, and go on whipping this stream for a few more trout before sundown. A men!"

*I have noted with extreme pleasure the great work being done by the several churches in Sanford along the line of Barack, Christian Endeavor and Brotherhood classes and it bespeaks a greater realization of their duties to the church among the young men and ladies of the churches. Sanford can boast of some of the largest classes in the churches here that exists in the south and other cities in Florida are also devoting much of their time in this work and along this line as the following from the Gainesville Sun indicates:

The cry among Sunday school workers all the time is, "How can we maintain the attendance?" This is really a burning question. The primary department is usually crowded, the intermediate shading off in attendance in proportion to age, and the adult department is usually a minus quantity. But fortunately, the condition does not obtain in all the churches of the land.

While sitting on his porch and chatting pleasantly with Prof. W. H. Cassels, in Ocala last Wednesday, the conversation drifted upon Sunday school work in that city. By the way, it will be of interest to the friends of Prof. Cassels here in Gainesville to learn that his year's work in Ocala schools has been specially successful. A number of citizens referred to it in highest term of praise.

Referring to the Baptist church in Ocala, Prof. Cassels stated that there were two large classes of men and also two of women. The attendance being uniformly punctual. There were some twenty-five or thirty in each of these classes. In addition to this there is a very large Barack class, and also a senior and junior Philanthropian class. The attendance in each of these classes is upwards of twenty-five.

Over at the Methodist church he said they set out to have a men's class of seventy-five, and they succeeded in doing it. A temporary structure was erected outside the church in which to hold this mammoth class of men. And other activities just as gratifying are being worked out in the other departments of that church.

It was decided by the Sunday school workers in Ocala that on a certain Sunday they would make a big pull altogether in all the churches and see if it were possible to secure an attendance of 1,000 at Sunday school. They succeeded in getting more than 1,100. Then they set the stake at 1,200, and the attendance ran up to more than 1,300. There is no difference between a Sunday school and a picture show when it comes to the matter of attending. People will go where they find that which interests them, and if the Sunday School promoters desire a larger attendance they must increase the interest. They will then be able to keep the "teen" age youngsters and the adults as well in regular attendance.

SOME LIVELY MIX-UP

UNHAPPINESS IN THE HOME OF ELDER BERRY.

According to His Story He "Ondured" Much Before He Got His Mind Made Up to "Git On-married."

"Your wife alleges that you were cruel to her," charged the Judge; "that you first insulted her, then knocked her down and trod upon her. How about it?"

"Dis about it," responded Elder Berry, "dis much, an' den some."

"Me an' dat woman been trabbellin' double 'bout 'leven days. I done tuk her to be de wife o' mah buzzum, an' she done stung me in dat buzzum, an' fudehmo!"

"Day befo' yistiday evenin' I come moseyin' 'long homowards 'bout sump time. I has a quarte's worth o' po'k chops under mah arm, an' peace an' satisfaction in mah soul. I stepped into de house, an' she riz up offen her cheer, picked up dat cheer an' hung it roun' mah neck same's a crate roun' a tuhkey gobbler."

"Den, youah honah, not satisfied wif so much, she slammed me smack in de stumck wif a chunk o' stove wood an' knocked me slittin' flat in de corner. Den she flung de dishes at me an' dat cheer. Den she come bustin' me fust on one side, den on 't'other, wif dat stove wood again."

"De cheer, an' me dodged de bea' wuz axible, but we bofe got sawt o' in one anuddah's road, an' ebbery now an' again de chunk hit de cheer an' de cheer hit me. An' all de while dat female kep' usin' de mos' inaultin' langwidje herself."

"Po'k chops—smack!—niggeh—smack!—got po'k chops, ain' you?—smack!—Wha's dat two bits I sent you to collect 'fum Miss Annabelle fo' dat white washin' I done labohed over?" Po'k chops—smack!—Dat two bits I wuz gwine to spend fo' de deco'ratin' fo' de new hat I wuz gwine to wear to de States o' John de Baptist's sociable. Po'k chops—smack!—dat a wha it ain'!"

"An' ebbery time she say 'smack!'—lalk dat—she lamm me annudee one wif dat chunk."

"Judge, youah honah, dat jes seemed to be mo' dan I could ondure specially fum a strange niggeh I ain' knowed fum'n two weeks at de mores. Me an' dat cheer got up in de corner an' I sez, 'Is you all gwine to continue dis bizniz?' An' she wuz 'Smack!'—po'k chops, niggeh—smack!"

"An' den all I sez wuz: 'Stand outen mah way, woman, stand outen mah way. I'ae gwine to git unmarried right now!'"

"An' de done got sawt o' spilled about some as I wuz passin', dat ain' no fault o' mine."

Colonies of Two Nations.

The loss of Brazil brought the Portuguese dominion down from the proud position it held at the beginning of the nineteenth century. But at the beginning of the twentieth century she remained the mistress of a colonial empire surpassed only by Great Britain, France and Germany. The climate of the Portuguese colonies is, however, unsuitable for European colonization, and the colonies have no commercial value commensurate with their great extent. The Portuguese colonies are: In Africa, Cape Verde Islands, St. Thomas, Madeira and Prince's Islands; Portuguese Guinea, Angola, Portuguese East Africa or Mozambique; In India, Goa, Damaun, Plui; In China, Macao; In the Malay archipelago, part of Timor. The total area is 893,000 square miles, of which 794,000 square miles are in Africa.

The Dutch colonies in the Malay archipelago number 600,000 square miles. The West Indian dependencies of Holland are Dutch Guiana or Surinam, the Dutch Antilles or Curacao and its dependencies, comprising, altogether, a total area of 60,000 square miles.

External Use.

English men-of-war have no ice-making machines on board, as do our ships, and everybody knows how the English fall to understand us on the subject of the use of ice, especially in our drinks.

An English officer was aboard one of our ships of the Asiatic fleet and, on being served with an iced drink, commented on the delights of having cool water aboard. The American officer responded with an offer of a small cake of ice, which was sent the following morning. Meeting the Englishman ashore a week later, the American asked him if he had enjoyed the ice.

"Enjoy it, old top. Why, do you know, that was the first cold bath I've had since I left England!"—Everybody's Magazine.

The Joy of Obliviousness.

"How did you like my turning off the gas at ten while you and that young fool were in the parlor last night?" asked her father.
"Did you?" she responded innocently; and father knew the true meaning of the word "failure."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Notice of Intention to Apply for Letters Patent
Notice is hereby given that we, the undersigned, have this day organized and associated ourselves into a corporation under the name of "L. A. Brumley, T. I. Hawkins, J. N. Whitner and S. Puleston," for the purpose set forth and under the terms of the charter and articles of incorporation hereto annexed, the original copies of which are on file in the office of the Secretary of State of Florida and that we will apply to the Governor of the State of Florida at his office in the city of Tallahassee, Florida, on the 10th day of July, A. D. 1915, for letters patent upon the said charter and articles of incorporation.

L. A. Brumley,
T. I. Hawkins,
J. N. Whitner,
S. Puleston.

Articles of Incorporation
We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of incorporating and forming a body corporate under the laws of the State of Florida, and under the provisions of the statutes of the State of Florida, providing for the formation of corporations for profit.

Article I.
The name of this corporation shall be "L. A. Brumley, T. I. Hawkins, J. N. Whitner and S. Puleston Realty Trust Company," the principal office of which shall be in the city of Sanford, Florida, in the County of Seminole, State of Florida, with branch offices at such other points in the State of Florida and in the United States, or foreign countries as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

Article II
The general nature of the business or businesses to be carried on by this corporation shall be as follows: To acquire by deed, gift, will, lease or otherwise, lands, tenements, hereditaments and estates of every kind whatsoever, other work in the business of the State of Florida, and to hold the same for the purpose of leasing, conveying, or for such other purpose as may to this corporation seem proper to acquire, maintain, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of saw mills, saw mill sites, turpentine stills, and other fixtures, and the manufacture or disposition of the lumber, lumber products, logs and timber of all and every description of lands controlled by this corporation, to build, construct and control streets or roads through or over said lands, to cut drainage ditches or canals through the said lands, and to lease the entire control, management and ownership of the said lands, and to have the right to own, control and operate boats and vessels of any description on the said waters, to build, own, purchase, lease, manage or sell railroad lines or other methods of transportation, but not in any manner as a common carrier of freight or passengers for hire, to fence the lands controlled by it, and to have exclusive right to and control over the wild game on its enclosed lands and the fish within the streams flowing through the enclosed lands, and to have the right of hunting and fishing privileges on said lands and in said streams at such prices and on such terms as it may deem proper, to purchase, own, lease, sell, mortgage, pledge and generally to deal in cattle, swine, sheep, poultry and all kinds and species of live stock, to cultivate, and to grow all kinds of fruits and all other products of the farm, and all articles, goods, and merchandise, produced, prepared or manufactured from any of said products, to acquire, own, lease or otherwise, lease, use, sell, build and equip apparatus and machinery and operate same for the handling, reception, storage or as a warehouse of any agricultural or other product and merchandise of all kinds and species of live stock, to conduct a general or cold storage business, with power to issue warehouse receipts and certificates, factories, stockyards, grain elevators, wharves, dock and appliances incidental to the operation of any of the same, and to operate all means and methods of transportation, by vehicles or by vessels; to acquire, purchase, hold, manage or sell bonds, bills and claims of any kind and evidence of indebtedness, its own stock and the stock of other incorporated companies, and to vote the same as a natural person; to exercise the privileges, powers and copyrights, interests, as well as any other estate or interest in or to real or personal property of every kind and description, to purchase, own, lease, sell, mortgage, pledge, convey, encumber by mortgage, deed of trust or otherwise, and otherwise to dispose of the same, and to execute every part thereof, and to give interest therein in the State of Florida or elsewhere; to borrow or to loan money and to execute its notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, and to give to do any and all conduct of its business, and to have, exercise and enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to corporations for profit organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida.

Article III.
The amount of the stated stock of this corporation shall be $100,000, divided into 10,000 shares of the par value of $100 each, which stock shall be issued only when the corporation shall have received in the United States, or it may be issued in return for property, labor or services, the value of such property, labor or services, to be determined by the board of directors, and which value shall be entered of record in the minutes of the said meeting.

Article IV.
The said corporation shall exist for a term of ninety-nine (99) years from the date of issuance of letters patent.

Article V.
The officers of this corporation shall be a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer, the latter two of which officers, to-wit: a secretary and treasurer may be held by one and the same person, and a board of directors of not more than seven (7) nor less than three (3) members; the number of said board to be fixed from time to time by the by-laws; the board of directors shall be elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting of the said stockholders which shall be held on the first Tuesday in June of each and every year, beginning with the year 1916, and the other officers shall be elected by the board of directors annually on the same date as the annual meeting of the stockholders as above and immediately after the said meeting of stockholders. The board of directors may at any time appoint such assistant secretaries or assistant treasurers as it may see fit. The incorporators of this company shall meet at the office of the company in the city of Sanford, Florida, on the 2nd day of August, 1915, to complete the organization of the company, to adopt by-laws, and to elect the officers to conduct the business of the corporation until its first annual meeting in 1916. Until the said meeting of the incorporators and until their successors are elected and duly qualified, the business of this corporation shall be conducted by the following officers, to-wit: W. S. Hand, president; T. I. Hawkins, vice president; J. N. Whitner, secretary and treasurer; W. S. Hand, C. M. Hand, T. I. Hawkins, J. N. Whitner, L. A. Brumley and S. Puleston as a board of directors.

Article VI.
This corporation shall, at the meeting of the incorporators above provided for, adopt an appropriate corporate seal and by-laws not inconsistent with these articles of incorporation and the laws of the State of Florida, which by-laws may be amended or repealed, may be provided in such by-laws.

Article VII.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation may at any time subject itself shall be twice the amount of its authorized stock.

The names and residences of the incorporators and subscribers of stock, with the numbers of shares subscribed by each are as follows:
L. A. Brumley, Sanford, Florida, 50 shares.
T. I. Hawkins, Sanford, Florida, 50 shares.
C. M. Hand, Sanford, Florida, 25 shares.
W. S. Hand, Sanford, Florida, 25 shares.
J. N. Whitner, Sanford, Florida, 40 shares.
S. Puleston, Sanford, Florida, 10 shares.
In Witness Whereof, the said incorporators have hereunto set their hands, this 5th day of June, A. D. 1915.

STATE OF FLORIDA

County of Seminole
This day personally appeared before me a notary public, L. A. Brumley, T. I. Hawkins, C. M. Hand, W. S. Hand, J. N. Whitner and S. NOTHING FURTHER IN WILSON REPLY; AWAIT RETURN

PRESIDENT TO ACT WITH CABINET WHEN HE RETURNS

Washington, D. C. July 16.—Pending the return of President Wilson, from Cornish, N. H., it was believed here today that there would be no further developments in the situation between Germany and the United States over submarine warfare.

Just when the president would return to take up with his cabinet the latest German note was not definitely known, but the president, in a note to Secretary Tumulty said he would be here soon. The supposition is that he will be in Washington the last of the week and that the subject will be considered at Tuesday's cabinet meeting. The president's telegram was given out as a white-house statement and ended rumors concerning his attitude toward the German reply. It indicated that the president had reached no decision as to the policy of the government and it is believed to have been called forth by statements that he had already made up his mind and that he did not view the situation as seriously as some of his advisors.

The statement said the president was giving the German note his closest attention, keeping closely in touch with Secretary of State Lansing and both would take up the situation when the president returned.

Secretary Lansing and some other government officials continued today to regard the situation as grave, but gave no opinion as to how the situation should be met.

Experts For the Navy

New York, July 16. Orville Wright who is among those suggested to Secretary Daniels for membership in the proposed civilian advisory board of inventors and technical experts, was quoted here today as saying he would accept membership in the board if invited.

"I have had talks with Thomas A. Edison and with army and navy officers, who realize the necessity of preparing an adequate air as well as sea fleet," said Mr. Wright. Army and navy officers believe that we should have from a thousand to thirteen hundred aeroplanes for immediate duty.

"The board will undoubtedly be a good thing if the members will stick to its advisory function and not try to overstep. The officers of the army and navy are very efficient and of them are wonderful engineers. The work of the proposed board should be confined to suggestions."

Hudson Maxim, whose name was also suggested to Mr. Daniels, said he would be glad to serve on the new board.

Washington, July 16.—Gossip continued here today as to the makeup of the proposed civilian advisory board of inventors and technical experts, as proposed by Secretary Daniels, to assist in working out naval problems. The only selection so far announced is Thomas A. Edison, who will head the board.

The names of a score or more of possible new members of the advisory council, many of them recognized experts in special lines of inventive and research work, are under consideration, but Secretary Daniels said he would not announce the selections until after they had been accepted.

The Secretary said he was certain that when the board had been finally selected it would be composed of ten men of such prominence as to make the country feel that what it is possible for the human mind to desire will be advised for our navy."

Indians Will play Here

The strong Nebraska Indian base ball team will play the Sanford team at Sanford on August 6th.

They are fast on their feet, as Indians ever are and sure fielders. At bat they are vicious and with wonderful accuracy of eye they are able to flout the best pitchers. These great genuine Indian experts have appeared with great success throughout the United States and Canada and have an enviable record to their credit, and are without doubt the greatest Indian Ball Team in the World.

Pullman Must Pay
Tallahassee, July 16.—The State of Florida has received payment for back taxes on gross receipts of the Pullman Company, after one of the longest fought legal contests in the recent history of the legal department of the State. The Pullman Company resisted the tax which was imposed by legislative act upon express and insurance companies, as well as the Pullman Company, carrying same to the Supreme Court of the State and on to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The case was won by the State in every court before which it was carried, and the payment of the tax closes one of the hardest cases which the Attorney General has had to face during his term of office. The three businesses pay into the State coffers about $150,000 yearly as a result of this tax.

In the litigation growing out of the passage of the tax measure, the State was represented by Attorney General West and by Hon. John E. Hartridge, of Jacksonville. The interests of the Pullman Company were looked after by Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul, and Gustavus S. Fernald, of Chicago.

ORDER OF ELKS IN A FLOURISHING CONDITION

Los Angeles, July 15. The Best of Luck Lodge, No. 1234, of Los Angeles, California, is in a flourishing condition, according to reports received by the grand lodge of the order, Fred C. Robinson, grand Secretary, Charles A. White, grand treasurer, the board of grand trustees and the auditing committee made their report.

During the year ended April 1, 1915, there were 10,000 new members, 10,000 members dropped from the rolls, 2,000 expelled, 7,000 demitted and 1,700 deaths, leaving the net increase in membership, 14,000. Ten new lodges were added, bringing the total to 1,326.

There was reported a surplus of $694,547 in the grand lodge treasury while subordinate lodges have net assets of $26,515,739.

Civil Service Examination

The postoffice here wishes to announce that an examination will be held in this city on August 14th for a Clerk Carrier for the postoffice. All those who wish to take the examination can obtain particulars from the postmaster or any of his assistants in the office.

BALTIMORE FOR ELKS CONVENTION NEXT YEAR

Los Angeles, July 13.—By a vote of 714 to 259 Baltimore won the 1916 Elks convention over Atlanta, which was the only other contesting city.

At the first business session of the grand lodge today officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Good Joke, Yes.

We all love a good joke. Recently there was a prize offered of $50 in gold, to the person attending Jacksonville public schools who would write the best essay on why the people of Jacksonville should ask for and always buy goods made in Jacksonville. There were 218 essays—and yet when the school officials had in charge the purchase of the commencement invitations they sent to Ohio for them.—Jacksonville Metropolitan.

BRICK ROADS IS A LIVE TOPIC IN SEMINOLE COUNTY

COMMITTEE HAS MADE REPORT TO THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ON THE SUBJECT

Seminole County will soon have a chance to vote on the matter of bonds for more brick roads throughout our county, if the present plans carry.

The good roads committee reported to the County Commissioners at their meeting yesterday and recommended that a bond election be held to hard surface the following roads:

Sanford-Orlando road from the present brick road in Seminole to the Orange County line; From the Sanford Orlando road to Chuluota via Oviedo; From the end of the present brick road on Geneva Ave. to Geneva from the end of the present brick road on the west side near Paola to the Wekiva bridge, Park Ave. from Tenth St. to Hughey and Hughey to Sanford-Orlando road and Union Ave. to Mellonville and Mellonville to Celery Ave.

Fred T. Williams was instructed to prepare preliminary estimates on these roads using brick on some of the more important roads and some other good but cheaper materials on the other roads. This report will be ready at the next regular meeting of the Commissioners in August.

BASE BALL SEASON WILL BE OPENED HERE NEXT WEEK

ORLANDO COMES UP TUESDAY TO WIPE UP THE CELERYTES

Baseball will get an added impetus here next Thursday when the Orlando team comes up to play their first game of the season. Visitors who know anything about baseball know that it is useless for either Orlando or Sanford to try to have a ball team and get the proper support and enthusiasm without the return of some of the two cities. A game here with any team except Orlando hardly draws a responsible crowd. Last week the Orlando team played here and the crowd was ready to cheer up and pay for the game. They do not know they will be some playing.

While there is nothing but good news from the two cities, the part that prevails in ball circles is that the Orlando team will have a hard time of it.

The Orlando team will play here next Thursday and it is hoped a large crowd will greet the Orlando boys here next Thursday.

On August 6th, the Nebraska Indians will play the Sanford team and this will draw a large crowd also. The Indians are real red men and play the ball game with vim and vigor. Manager Wallace has played against them several times and states that the Indians are the best ever and while Sanford does not expect to defeat them they will do their best.

Meantime get ready for the first game of the season next Thursday.

Taking Seminole's Census

H. E. Tolar has been appointed census taker for Seminole county and began his work last week. He is now engaged in the Oviedo section and is also assisting B. G. Smith operate the Oviedo bank while the cashier is away on his vacation. Mr. Tolar expects to finish the county census in about two months and when completed we will know exactly how many people are now living within the confines of the new county.

Governor M. H. Thatcher

has returned from a trip to points in south Florida and will be here for several months looking after the large property interests of the Thatcher Realty Co.

Mayor Thrasher and family are expected home today from a weeks trip to Tampa, Clearwater and other points on the west coast.

SUDDEN DEATH AT WOODLAND PARK OF J. W. HANLON

STRICKEN WITH CONGESTION OF THE HEART WHILE BATHING

The many pleasures of Woodland Park were brought to an abrupt close on Friday afternoon when J. W. Hanlon, one of the veterans, was found to have expired in his dressing room. The young man who was the private secretary to Superintendent Brand of the Third Division of the A. T. & P. Railway, had been one of the party composed of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Hurt and Miss Adelaide Higgins who went out early in the afternoon to enjoy the bathing and the park and while he had complained of feeling badly nothing was thought of this condition and he departed in the water and seemingly was all right. After the party had come out of the water and were awaiting the arrival of Mr. Hanlon from his dressing room his body was found floating in the water. He was immediately taken to the hospital and he was immediately rushed to the city in the vain hope of restoring the spark of life but upon arrival in the city it was found that life had fled.

The body was immediately taken to the Miller's undertaking parlors where it was prepared for shipment to Tampa.

The following is from The Tampa Tribune regarding the deceased:

J. W. Hanlon, secretary to Superintendent Brand of the Atlantic Coast Line, who died suddenly in Sanford Thursday was well known in Tampa, and news of his demise caused great regret when it became known here last night. Mr. Hanlon was twenty-four years old and the son of the late Capt. John Hanlon of the Steamship Muscotte of the Peninsular & Oriental Steamship Company, formerly the Plant Line.

Young Hanlon was in Tampa as a member of the degree team of the Knights of Columbus, of which he was a member of the Jacksonville Council. At that time he appeared to be in good health.

The remains will arrive here at 6:45 o'clock this morning, accompanied by Atlantic Coast Line Officials, and will be turned over to Undertaker J. L. Reed. The body will then be placed in the Sacred Heart where mass will be said at 8 o'clock, and will remain there until definite funeral arrangements have been which probably will be done when the mother and two sisters arrive at noon today from Key West on the Oliveette. It is thought probable that funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, with interment in St. Louis Cemetery, pallbearers to be chosen from the Knights of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Garner left yesterday for Atlanta where they will spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives.

BOLD BURGLAR ENTERS HOUSES WITH IMPUNITY

TALKS SAUCY WHEN DISCOVERED; USES GUN OCCASIONALLY

There is a bold bad burglar in the city or several of them and they are coming to grief if they keep up their depredations for their very boldness makes it imperative upon the officers and the public generally to cut them down. The first instance of the presence of the burglars was at the Hardman residence on Park Ave. beyond Tenth. Hearing a noise in the next room and rousing up and seeing a light Mr. Hardman called to know who was there. The intruder impudently replied "Come and see" which was an invitation that one of Mr. Hardman's temperment could not resist and he started after his gun. Before he could get to it the burglar fired at him. As soon as Mr. Hardman could unlumber his heavy artillery he made a bee line for the outside and tried his best to puncture the hide of the man but he had made good his escape leaving a pair of shoes on the porch where he had placed them preparatory to making his entrance.

The next instance was at the Parish residence on French Ave. Mr. Parish and his son Harvey had retired and Harvey being a light sleeper heard a noise coming from the kitchen and soon saw the form of a man looting in the doorway. Thinking it was his father trying to take him to school he called "Daddy, you can't scare me" but it was a negro burglar and he darted to the side of the bed and pulling an automatic pushed it into the little fellow's face with the remark to keep still.

Harvey of course very sensibly obeyed orders and the negro lost no haste in getting out of the room and into the yard. Harvey yelled for his father and he made a search of the premises without result. He then called up police headquarters and another search was made but no burglar was found. About thirty minutes afterward as one of Mr. Barlow's daughters was sitting on the porch where she had gone from the room she heard a noise. She

THE PEOPLE OF MEXICO ARE AGAIN STARVING

It is reported that conditions in Mexico call for the active sympathy of all who love humanity.

Multitudes are starving. "They are dying in Mexico City at the rate of one a day," we are told. The situation is appalling. It is heart-rending to see the children of the poor and the old people who are dying in the streets. There are many places where a little corn may be purchased.

"Shall we neglect them? Even a small amount will go a long way to relax the cruel grip of hunger. Shall we not help and help quickly?" "As you would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

A small contribution has already come from Sanford, and any others can be sent to J. D. Hamilton, Treas. Board of Missions, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

Can't we give the price of a cigar, or a dish of ice cream, or a movie picture show, or do some slight act of self-denial?

Inasmuch as we have not done it unto the least of these, ye have not done it unto me."

Mr. and Mrs. George DeCottes gave a house dance to their many friends on Tuesday night at their beautiful home on Magnolia Ave. The affair was informal and every one was made to feel at home even the gentlemen being allowed to take off their coats. The spacious home was given over to the dancers and the entire lower floors were converted into a ball room the dancers circling the rooms. Those who did not care to dance played chess or sat on the spacious porches and enjoyed the evening. Buffet luncheon was served at all times during the evening the guests making themselves perfectly at ease which is one of the delights of the DeCottes affairs.

There were about twenty-five couples present and they came early and stayed late and from the bursts of merriment that floated from the house at various times during the evening it is almost certain that everyone present enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent.
