TICK ERADICATION PASSED SENATE BY ONE VOTE AFTER GREAT BATTLE

VOTE CAME AFTER FIVE O'CLOCK YESTERDAY AFTERNOON IN SENATE

MEASURE REMAINS

In Form That Came from House and Not One Part Changed—Seminole Not Affected

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, June 1.—Eradication of the cattle tick in Florida was provided for by its legislature yesterday, when the Senate by a vote of 16 to 15 effected final passage of a measure to that end after one of the greatest battles it has known in recent years.

The vote came shortly after 5 o'clock, the roll call showing but one man to break away from the ranks as they had held through two day's filibustering and real debate. The senators, who passed up their lunch-facings them today at noon, and 120 house measures on the calendar in addition to those originating within the Senate, it was resolved to remain in session continuously through the afternoon and until 11 o'clock last night.

As passed, the measure was not changed one iota from the form in which it came from the house. Its supporters, realizing that to make a change would mean that it would have to go back to that body, and there subjected to a possible defeat or death on the calendar of unfinished business, fought off all amendments, some of them proposed sincerely and a great number as mere obstructions. The majority had held the victory in its grasp for the mere asking, since 1 o'clock when by parliamentary maneuver it broke the filibuster and placed the bill on its third reading, where it was no longer subject to amendments. A roll call could then be had for the asking, but when there was a storm of protest against "gas" rule from the minority it was decided to let them talk on, each man allotted under the rules fifteen minutes. Senators Johnson and Wells took turns in calling time on them, but they ranty while they had the floor.

Senator Knight declared that passage of the bill meant civil war in this state. The eradicator by rules and regulations invested in their making could employ cannon if necessary, he asserted, and declared they would find such armament necessary. The next legislature will have to appropriate several hundred thousand dollars to cover the conditions caused under this bill, he exclaimed. He attacked the systematic method of eradication under which, he pointed out, the entire state will be leveled for a half mill tax, yet his section would not enjoy any benefits for several years to come.

Senator Russell declared the measure was sought only by the Consolidated Land Company and women who know nothing about cattle but who have been told that its passage would mean a lot for the state, and again, women who are not land owners.

pointed out, to increase the exemption for eradication of cattle belonging to widows from $25 to $100. He pleaded that the senate "listen to the call of the widows as much as it did to the corporations."

Senator Hodge declared that tick eradication had been an issue in his campaign and that he had opposed it. There came to him during the campaign, he said, a man purporting to be a representative of the livestock sanitary board, although he doubted the affiliation, who told him that if he would favor eradication it would be seen that he had no opposition, but if he opposed it, he would have an opponent in the field. He described the activities of persons who have been here in support of the bill as a "jobby of the rich against the interests of the poor."

That the supporters of the bill knew that the people as a whole would not favor it, he said, was borne out by a section that provides that no county shall have the right of a referendum on the subject. That provision was clearly a well thought out proposal of the "powers behind the bill," he asserted.

Senator MacWilliams explained

BULKHEAD BILL SIGNED BY GOVERNOR HARDEE TODAY

A wire from Representative Forest Lake today at noon said that Governor Hardee today signed the Sanford bulkhead bill. This makes it legal for the land owners bordering on Lake Monroe in Seminole county to apply to the county commissioners for permission to bulkhead the lake front at any time they wish to make this their great improvement. This will be good news to the people who want a Greater Sanford and a Greater Seminole County.

President Higgins National Councillor U. S. Chamber Com.

Important Position That is Filled by Local Heads

Edward Higgins has been named the new National Councillor to represent the Sanford Chamber of Commerce in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The National Council of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States consists of one representative each from the more than fourteen hundred commercial and industrial organizations making up the National Chamber's membership. It serves as an advisory body to the National Chamber's Board of Directors. The Council holds a special meeting preceding the annual convention of the National Chamber to pass on the program and to select a nominating committee. The councillor also act as chairman of the delegations representing their organizations.

A councillor occupies a position of liaison officer between the National Chamber and his own organization on important questions.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States is the strongest commercial organization in the world. Its object is to encourage trade and commerce; increase the efficiency of American business organizations; to obtain uniformly and equity in business usages and laws and to get proper consideration and concentration of opinion on questions affecting the financial, commercial, civic and industrial interests of the country at large.

A system of referenda operated by the Chamber has met with unusual success in obtaining the viewpoint of business men on national questions. These opinions, when they point to the need of legislation or other governmental action, are transmitted to the government's executive officers and to congress by the National Chamber's headquarters at Washington.

CONDITION OF COTTON CROP ANNOUNCED BY DEPARTMENT IN FIRST SEASON REPORT

Florida Condition is Eighty-Seven Per Cent Says the Report

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 1.—The condition of the cotton crop May 25th last year and sixty-six per cent in 1921 and seventy-three point six as average may 25th condition for last ten years department of agriculture announced today in first cotton report of season. Florida condition 87 per cent.

First estimate of acreage planted which is usually made in connection with the May 25th canvass is announced July 2nd. Change made because considerable abandonment of acreage after May 25th was found frequently to occur.

LAST DAYS OF LEGISLATURE SAW SOME EXCITING TIMES AS DIFFERENT BILLS PASSED

Reapportionment Made Possible But Three Big Questions Unsettled

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, June 1.—The biennial session of the legislature was scheduled to come to an end at noon today and the house for its part was ready to quit. Indications pointed to senate's manipulating the clock in order that its heavily weighted calendar might be cleared to some extent. The house thus would have to stay in session to wait on the senate. The passage late yesterday of the tick eradication measure added to the achievements of the session. The vote came at 20 minutes past five and was 16 to 15. The measure does not provide for eradication on very extensive scale at outset but embodies into law idea of state-wide eradication and essays to put that idea into effect. What is described as supplement to present occupational taxes was in good way to die on senate's calendar of unfinished business.

The way was paved for reapportionment by the next session, and it carried the appearance of an earnest desire to effect the long-sought change. When the legislators have gone it will be probably observed although there were more bills introduced than at any previous session, the aggregate number of new laws enacted will be much less than the number enacted at previous sessions.

Of the big problems which the governor called to the attention of the legislators, at the beginning of their deliberations, three had fallen last night to get to a satisfactory solution. These were, taxation reforms, reforestation, and game conservation. A bill seeking to broaden the authority of the central tax authorities was still pending in modified form on the house calendar last night. It was likely to remain there. Reforestation got a cold reception in the house, when it was called up late in the session, while a measure looking to the establishment of a game warden law failed in the house. It passed a new law on the double primary elections, which was one of the 120 bills on the Senate calendar for action last night or today.

Unfortunately neither house passed the same measure on tax reform and the subject last night was that the senate had the house resolution before it, while the senate idea had failed.

BILLION DOLLAR OFFER FOR SHIPS WAS A DREAM

CHAIRMAN LASKER SAYS OFFER BY SLACK IS NOT BONA FIDE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 1.—A thorough investigation has convinced the Shipping Board, Chairman Lasker, announced that there was no prospect of a bid of more than a billion dollars made by John W. Slack, of Silver Creek, N. Y., for board's merchant fleet would ever be executed if it were accepted. Inquiry conducted by the board in conjunction with other government departments with which Slack has had business transactions with result Lasker said that offer had been definitely classed as a "summer dream."

This conclusion will be communicated to the special committee of the shipping board now sitting in New York and before which Slack was invited to appear. Slack will be free Lasker said to appear and give any further details of his proposal and backing that he may desire.

BRADY IS REPORTED AS BADLY WOUNDED

E. E. Brady, a prominent live stock dealer of Sanford, Fla., was slashed with a knife and probably fatally wounded, at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, by W. D. Clark, well known traveling salesman from Abbeville, Ala., in front of W. I. Stegall's Sales Stables, on the three hundred block of Lee street.

Brady was rushed to Hubbard's infirmary for medical treatment, where it was stated that he was in a critical condition, the knife wound having extended from the left arm across the left chest, almost penetrating the heart.

Mr. Clark immediately gave himself up to police authorities and stated that after he arrived in town, he had met Brady and that Brady had threatened him. To avoid any trouble he stated that he drove his machine to near the intersection of Lawrence street and Dexter avenue, walking back to Lee street to attend to business, where Brady again waylaid him and the cutting followed.

Investigating officers stated that Brady had spent the day in town and had threatened several people in a bullish manner. It is thought that he was en route to his home in Florida from St. Louis. It is understood that Mr. Clark formerly knew Mr. Brady in Florida, but Mr. Clark stated that he had never had any previous trouble with him.

Mr. Clark was charged with assault to murder and released on a $300 bond. Preliminary trial will take place June 8. Officers Buice and Ruder investigated the affair.—Montgomery, Ala., Advertiser.

It might help some if the nation would fight until the money is deposited in the Sanford banks.

BOTH HOUSES ADOPTED RESOLUTIONS ON TABERT CASE REPLY TO DAKOTA

RESOLUTIONS RECITED INQUIRY MADE AND CORRECTIVE MEASURES

FLORIDA ACTED

And Showed the World that the Putnam Company Was Owned in Wis., Operated in Fla.

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, June 1.—Both house of the legislature adopted the resolution replying to the Assembly of North Dakota in its request for investigation of death of Martin Tabert of that state. The resolution recited inquiry made by the legislature, corrective measures that have been taken to prevent repetition of conditions that led to his death in the camp of the Putnam Lumber Company of Clara, but "owned in Wisconsin" and the fact that the man held responsible for death is now awaiting trial in courts.

TALLAHASSEE, June 1.—Clocks of both houses were brought to a standstill shortly before 11 o'clock. The house continued to have good time coming to order now and then to consider some action of the senate. The final enactment effect of measure to tax non-resident automobile dealers $75 annually, one-third to go to the county and the remainder to the state. In closing hours both houses agreed to joint resolution by Senator Stokes which submits to referendum proposed constitutional amendment looking to taxing intangibles. The measure provides property may be classified. It was the first tax reform to come out of the session.

Seminole Securities Co. Phenomenal Growth Since Inception Here

Company Has Been Forced to Increase its Capital Stock

One of the youngest, most promising, and perhaps less generally known of Sanford's financial institutions, is the Seminole Securities Company, organized in November, 1921, with a paid in capital stock of $20,000 to handle resale paper on Ford cars, trucks and tractors.

The subsequent growth of the business developed to such proportions that the Company was forced to increase its capitalization to $150,000 in 1923. Of this amount $80,000 has been paid in to date, having been subscribed by a few local business men who readily recognized what an opportunity for lucrative investment a proposition of this nature afforded.

The Seminole Securities Company

has now on its books an amount in excess of $130,000 of bills receivable which are in the form of secured contracts on Ford cars on which substantial payments have already been made. Since the organization of the company it has been offered more business than it has been able to take care of. Its recent increase in capitalization has enabled it to take on a large share of business from different parts of the state.

The officers of the Seminole Securities Company are as follows: President, F. P. Forster, who is also president of the First National Bank of Sanford and a director in the Florida National Bank, the second largest in the state; Vice-Presidents, Alfred Foster, also vice-president of the Realty Trust Company of Sanford, and Edward Higgins, the local Ford dealer; treasurer, B. F. Whitner, member of and a director in the First National Bank of Sanford; Secretary and General Manager, R. O. Maxwell. The rest of the stockholders are prominent business men in Sanford and other sections of the state.

President Forster, when discussing the phenomenal growth of the Seminole Securities Company during the short period it has been in existence, made the statement that its future possibilities were unlimited, and if the rate of profits which had previously been made is continued, the company will eventually develop into the strongest financial institution of its kind in Florida. The fact that $100,000 cash had been paid in since the increase in capitalization with practically no solicitation, was, according to Mr. Forster, most gratifying and extraordinary. It was also intimated by Mr. Forster, that when the company has reached a certain financial state it would be in a position to give support to local propositions in a way heretofore unknown. The fact that the investments of the Company are scattered over a large area provides some possibilities of adverse local conditions seriously affecting its earnings.

The local Ford dealer is also rendering valuable assistance from the company which has made a very attractive rate of interest to those carrying in the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan and to which local people are responding most liberally.

The success of the Seminole Securities Company, of which to date there has been known, proves conclusively that local investors need not go to Sanford for remunerative and attractive propositions.

The rooms were adorned with baskets filled with cut flowers, and the table was also centered with a bowl of flowers carrying out the color motif. The place cards were unusual, being cartoons and clever questions and answers, which applied to the guests. At the honoree's place was the question: "What a groom shall not fail to take on his bridal trip?" (a bride).

Covers were laid for Edmund Meisch, Ned Chittenden, John Meisch, Calvin Teague, Walter and Hawkins Connolly.

Of exceptional interest was the game of bridge played during the afternoon when scores were counted, the prize for high score among the club members was won by Mrs. George W. Knight. Mrs. Moor, holding high score among the guests was presented the guests prize, both prizes being luncheon sets.

At the conclusion of the card game, the hostess assisted by Mrs. A. B. Wallace, served a tempting salad course and punch.

HONORING MISS TILLIS

One of the prettiest of the many parties with which Miss Coralie Tillis, a bride-elect of June, is being honored, was that of yesterday afternoon when Misses Pattye Lyles and Anna Mason entertained at the home of the former. The rooms were opened en suite and artistically decorated with baskets of cut flowers and ferns carrying out the wedding colors of white and light green.

As the guests arrived they were asked to register. Miss Rosamond Radford, presiding at the bride's book. Several contests were enjoyed, the prize for these was won by Miss Esther Miller, it being a box of correspondence cards. Miss Tillis was presented with an iridescent candy jar, as memento of the occasion.

During the afternoon Miss Rosamond Radford delighted the guests by a reading, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine" using as an encore, "Foolish Questions."

Late in the afternoon, the hostesses assisted by Mrs. J. R. Lyles, Mrs. H. A. Mason and Mrs. MacMoye, served a delicious salad course followed by an ice course. The favors were cunning green and white parasols filled with rice, with which they showered the honoree.

Miss Tillis wore a most becoming frock of brown, with picture hat to match.

The guest list included: Misses Coralie Tillis, Mrs. W. A. ## COMMITTEE TO IRON OUT TAX LAW DIFFICULTIES

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 31.—The house finance and taxation committee, headed by Mr. MacKenzie, which labored long before it finally brought out the tax measure that was killed, Tuesday met again Tuesday night in the hope of eliminating from the bill its objectionable features. Upon their quick and successful action depends the chance of any immediate tax reform.

It would have provided for three appraisers in each county. The tax equalization board by checking the reports of these appraisers against those of the regular county assessors could by virtue of the governors' removal power, add considerably to the revenues of the state, its supporters contended. It was described as the very last word in the way of broadening the powers of the central tax authorities under present constitutional limitations.

The expense involved in maintaining the three appraisers, $900 annually, aroused the ire of Representatives Lake, Weeks and Taylor of Highlands, while Representatives McKenzie of Putnam, Hendry and Mayo, declared the measure would go a long way towards straightening out the state's tax problem.

The house has before it a measure passed by the senate that would submit a constitutional amendment on the subject of classifying property with a view to taxing intangibles. The house committee, however, thinks it has a better measure on this subject and plans to substitute it for the senate measure. Herein lies the possibility that even no constitutional amendment looking to relief in the future will be passed.

TALLAHASSEE, May 31.—The committee Tuesday night agreed upon a substitute provision in the administration tax bill which would make the number of appraisers and their salaries a matter of discretion for the county commissioners, the number not to exceed three. It was planned to bring the bill up again yesterday.

Mr. Logan is chief engineer of the Grass Fiber Pulp and Paper Corporation, and is considered authority on the manufacture of all grades of news print and machinery for that purpose.

The Tribune has received its first shipment of newsprint from the Leesburg enterprise and used some of it last Saturday. The product is equal to the best on the market and it promises to revolutionize the industrial activities of South Florida just as soon as some minor details are ironed out, which means that the colossal mill will be forced to run day and night in order to keep up with the demand for its product.—Tampa Tribune.

Growing More Early Celery in N. Y. State

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 31.—There will be a marked swing toward increasing the acreage of early celery in Western New York this season, according to A. J. Warren, of A. J. Warren & Son, successors to Warren & Smallridge Co., of this city.

"There has been a marked increase in demand for celery here in the last five years," said Mr. Warren. "People used to look on celery as something of a luxury and as such bought it sparingly. Now it is a staple as much as potatoes."

"Naturally under such conditions there is a demand for a lengthened season. This of course is to be accomplished in two ways. There is the possibility of bringing part of the crop at least, in earlier, so that the celery season opens away ahead of what it did in former years, and there is the chance of growing celery that will keep later.

"Growers here have been trying out a new strain of French seed that is very early. Some apparently have made the mistake of attempting to keep it too late and have been disappointed, but for what it is intended, that is a celery that will open the season in advance of anything that we have raised here previously, it appears to be quite successful.

"It may not have quite the quality. Like any extremely early product it may not measure up to the standard of the later crop, but for all that, it looks like a real find for celery growers here. As I have intimated, it is not as suitable for holding late as some of the other staple varieties that have been grown here for years."

The acreage of celery as told several weeks ago by The Packer, has been on the increase here for several years.—New York Packer.

Good will is something we can not buy in the open market. It is earned; and nothing will acquire it quite so rapidly as courtesy, cheerfulness and respect.

Five Factors in Complex Problem Vital to Entire Greek Population, American Red Cross is Active

Here are five living factors in the problem that three capable gentlemen are trying to solve. The children do not know that they are factors or problems. They probably think of themselves as just plain kids. The gentlemen, Col. William N. Haskell, American Red Cross Commissioner to Europe, Dr. A. Doxiades, the Greek Minister of Public Assistance and Major Edmund L. Daley, Colonel Haskell's deputy, realize that there are some 999,999 factors and that the problem presented is as serious as the faces of the children themselves.

The children are typical of the million refugees who were transplanted to Greece with little warning as an outcome of the Greco-Turkish war. Colonel Haskell and Major Daley represent the organization which since the emergency arose has been caring for, feeding, bathing, vaccinating, clothing and delousing the neediest of the refugees, as an emergency measure to alleviate the suffering which such a mass movement of population is bound to entail and to check the threatened epidemics which menaced all Greece.

The work accomplished was effective. Half a million of the dependent refugees were fed daily by the American Red Cross. Before the end of March more than $2,600,000 of American Red Cross funds had been expended to provide the food and medicines, the doctors and the nurses and to meet the other expenses of the operation. Judge Jean Barton Payne, Chairman of the American Red Cross says "American charity has prevented the refugees and the population which received them from experiencing disaster in the fullest sense of the word."

"If the refugees are to remain in Greece," Judge Payne continues "the time nears when the Greeks themselves should take over what must resolve itself into a lasting obligation. If return of the refugees to their homes or other solution of their problem through redistribution is to be effected, the operation is outside the scope of Red Cross funds or our proper responsibility."

Consequently Colonel Haskell has been told to notify Dr. Doxiades and the other representatives of the Greek government, that the American Red Cross intends to arrange transfer to local authorities and charities of the work now conducted and financed by it in Greece.

Cotton Growers Should Use Control For Boll Weevil

COUNTY AGENT CAN GIVE YOU FULL PARTICULARS ABOUT WEEVIL CONTROL.

GAINESVILLE, Fla., June 1.—The following last-minute warning to cotton growers, prepared by Geo. D. Smith, associate entomologist, was issued here today from the office of Plant Commissioner Wilmon Newell.

"The cotton growers of Florida today are face to face with the crisis in weevil control. The hatching of the first crop of eggs or the first generation means almost total destruction of the cotton crop. The present season has been very unusual in so far as the emergence of the boll weevils from hibernation is concerned. Ordinarily in Florida the bulk of the weevils emerge from April 15 to May 15, and since the over-wintered weevils live only four or five weeks with green cotton to feed upon, about 80 per cent or more of them die before squares appear on the plants. However, from April 15 to May 15 this season the temperatures were below normal, with practically no rainfall.

"This condition kept most of the weevils in winter quarters until the rainy season started about May 15. The result is that the weevils have simply been pouring into the fields during the last 10 to 12 days and most of them will have a chance to lay eggs in the young squares. If the cotton growers of Florida permit this large egg crop of the first generation to hatch there will be practically no chance for a profitable crop of cotton this year.

"The 'Florida Method' of boll weevil control destroys the first egg crop

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

And still it rains. Rev. J. S. Clark will be with us for service as usual on the first Sunday in the month and again in the third. Barnwell Beck has been real ill for a week with tonsillitis. Dr. Puleston has been quite worried about him. Mr. and Mrs. Cramer and children, Mrs. West and daughter, Lila and the two other children were Sunday callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Collar. Mrs. Volle Williams and children and Mrs. August Swanson spent Thursday afternoon at New Smyrna last week. C. Williams is camping out there. Mrs. Anna DeForrest was in Orlando the last of the week and when near Winter Park the car ran into what was almost a cloudburst. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mealer and two children came home last week from near Miami where the husband has had work for a few months. While there the little son fell and broke his arm twice. Mr. and Mrs. Swayne and children are leaving Thursday of this week for Boston by the Savannah line. They did not get off as soon as they at first intended. Mr. and Mrs. Noah Fry and Mrs. Bongston, of Isleworth Grove, spent Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Tyner. It was the latter's daughter, Elinor instead of Taylor, who stood so well in her studies. Miss Carrie Lillian Cramer came on the early morning train on Tuesday from Washington, D. C. to make her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Collier. She is spending a few days at present with her brother, Charles and wife in Grapeville. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lundquist brought over Mr. and Mrs. Wesser and sister from Lake Mary and they added much to the service at the Lutheran church Sunday morning. They were all guests for the day at the home of Hilmer and Garder Lundquist. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Swanson and their little three-year-old son arrived at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Swanson in their car on Monday evening from Topeka, Kans. They had the hardest times in Arkansas and in Northern Florida. They have shipped their things and will make their home here if the climate benefits the wife's health. Albian has been given four weeks vacation. We noticed a number of ladies from this section at the eighth grade graduation, among whom were: Mrs. Ericson, Mrs. Borell, Mrs. Hirschi, Mrs. Nora Swanson, Mrs. Volle Williams, Mrs. T. O. Tyner, Mrs. Westerdick, Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. West and Mrs. Signa Robbins. It was sure fine. Miss Florence Tyner and Gilbert Ericson were among those who graduated. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lundquist have taken rooms for the summer at Corrado Beach and have been there for a week in hopes it may improve the health of their little son, Lawrence. Emil Magnusson has also gone over with them for a rest, taking a room there. There was a large number out last Saturday evening at the birthday party for Garder Lundquist which was held at his mother's home, tho' it was very threatening weather. Garder has been away a good many years and all hope that the coming ones may be many and happy. There was plenty of delicious cakes and good coffee. The shopmen attended a meeting first in Sanford, coming out later. Miss Eva Malm was a guest of Mrs. Neese this week for a few days and her sister, Mrs. Elsie Henson spent Monday with her.

Mrs. Lily H. Jones and Miss Hoskins Jones left here Sunday in their car for Cleveland, Tenn., for a month's visit. They expect to be a wreck on the road and will visit in Adairville and other points in Georgia on route. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Corley went to Jacksonville last week to meet their son Joe, on his return from the Bingham Military School, at Asheville, N. C. They arrived at home Friday. Mrs. Nick Zernonean was hostess to the Celery Avenue Circle No. 4, of the Methodist ladies last Friday. There were thirteen circle ladies and two guests. Mrs. Zernonean served very nice refreshments of chicken sandwiches, potato salad, Christmas cookies, kisses and cocoa, which were enjoyed after an hour of sewing and chatting. The next month's meeting will be with Mrs. B. E. Squire at her lovely home on Lake Quaro.

LONGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reid and little daughter of Orlando and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Reid motored to Daytona Beach last Sunday for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Entzinger and Miss Olive Waits of Dunedin were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Entzinger a few days last week. George LeVigne was transacting business in Orlando Monday. Those serving on the jury last week were Messrs. J. S. Dinkel, Overstreet, Newell and Spinks. E. W. Dickson came up from Winter Haven last Sunday for the day. Mr. D. H. Hooker and Mrs. Allen were quietly married in Sanford last Tuesday. The Longwood school closed Friday with a picnic at Palm Springs. Every one had a good time in spite of the rain. Mr. Scharren left for his home in Pennsylvania Saturday. The Seminole Crute Mill closed down last Friday for the summer. Miss Virginia Allen left Monday for her home in Oklahoma, after spending some time with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Pope Washington. ## Baking Powder—that's the big thing in successful baking

It determines failure or success in baking, more than any other ingredient. If you do not always have satisfactory bakings, change to Calumet for just one trial. It is pure; containing only such ingredients as have been officially approved by U. S. Food Authorities. Within the Calumet factories—the largest and most sanitary on earth—hundreds of skilled workers clad in white are busily engaged in producing the baking powder that is used by millions. Human hands never touch it. Its sale is 2 1/2 times as much as that of any other brand. Pure in the making—pure in the baking. A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

MAKING RAILROAD CROSSING A PLACE OF SAFETY.

Some amusing and impossible legislation is being suggested at Tallahassee for the safety of that portion of the motoring public that insists on racing trains to railroad crossings or blindly rushing onward over these crossings without regard to the possibility of trains coming along about that same time.

Ask any railroad engineer about his daily experience! He will tell you that he does not go out on a run without having from one to half a dozen close calls from hitting auto traffic.

One suggestion has been to adopt the Virginia law which compels all motor vehicles to come to a dead stop before attempting to cross over railroad tracks.

A still better plan that should govern all highway construction in Florida in the future, is to eliminate as far as possible every grade crossing.

There is only one way to avoid dangerous crossings and that is to have the county roads go over or under the railroad crossing and this is very expensive in a flat county like Florida.

Some of these days the smaller counties of various states will discover that the city government of the largest city and the county government can be combined under one head and one set of officials all around can be cut off the list and this big saving to the taxpayers will be the finest job the people ever pulled over.

Talk of the Town: My little nephew visited Sunday school. The teacher told the children that sunshine made nice rosy cheeks.

The mysterious mystery abroad the killing in Tampa in mystery and makes reading the Tampa papers more mysterious than ever.

There seems to be a strange fatality hanging over Washington these days. Either the heat is rushing to the heads of some of the big men or they have joined a Suicide's Club.

From the many jokers in the different bills at Tallahassee one would imagine that all the jokers in Florida were members of the legislature.

It seems strange that big business should be afraid of Henry Ford's candidacy. Already their special writers are giving reasons why Henry should not be elected president.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Representative Claude Kitchin of North Carolina. He was a regular fellow and one of the brightest minds in Congress.

From what we have seen of some of John McWhorter's work the special edition of Seminole county will be a good one in every respect.

The new municipal electric light plant in Orlando is now ready for business and the power was turned on yesterday.

The East Coast is going right after the mosquitoes and they say that they are not a big difference over there already.

St. Pierce is now the "Sunrise City." We suppose they get that way since City Manager Ryan took on the job and makes them all arise at an earlier hour than usual.

The Orlando Sentinel calls attention to the fact that while the city may be clean and sanitary that in the suburbs there are cases of disgusting and unsanitary conditions.

Tonight the growers meet in the court house to perfect their organization or to give up the idea entirely.

The work of the Herald in boosting the city of Sanford and the county of Seminole has always been unselfish.

DeLand citizens in an article in the DeLand News state that they want the toll bridges made free.

The Herald is glad to note that there is a big increase on trade in Sanford over last year.

why it should happen that a member from a progressive section of the state as he was, should be against a "progressive" bill.

These experts deal in theories, he continued, while the cattle owners knew where of they spoke from actual experience, and he, from what he had learned in studying the question in this manner, was convinced that tick could not be eradicated from the range cattle of this state.

Senator Wicker was the only one who defended the bill. It was for the supporters of the measure to let the opposition talk itself out.

He wondered why certain members who a few weeks ago wanted to "put Florida with other states in the matter of convict reforms, did not want to put her with these states in tick eradication."

Passage of the bill, and there exists no doubt but that it will be signed by the governor, marks a victory for eradication that has fought an up-under consideration was nothing more than a local option measure which had already proved a failure.

Senator Stokes, who with Senator Calkins, had led in the filibuster, gave his parting shot as to the merits of the bill.

"We had a mother's club," he said, "with an old maid for its president."

Senator Jago described the measure as a "one man bill," and recalled the "Flagler divorce law" of several years ago.

Speaker's Home Run Wins Game Yesterday

CHICAGO, June 1.—Tris Speaker's home run with a man in base in the 6th gave Cleveland the winning margin of a 5 to 4 score against Chicago yesterday. DeMolay Takes Exciting Game from Oviedo

The DeMolay team of the Peper League took an exciting game from the Oviedo team yesterday on the Ninth Street diamond by the score of 10 to 7. The DeMolay started with Bill Moyer pitching but Bill was a little wild and wooly so Captain McLaulin tried his luck in the third and fourth innings. Harry Woodruff, star south-paw for the DeMolay went in in the fifth and from then on Oviedo had a goose egg for her score. Slavick did the hurling for the Oviedo team and was nicked for thirteen hits. Kelsey catching for Oviedo played a pretty good game but had the tough luck of making four errors. The DeMolay line-up was shaken up considerably during the game. Bill Moyer pitched two innings, caught one inning, played first one inning and spent the rest of the game on second. McLaulin played first except in the third and fourth when he gave the fans a bit of "spectacular" pitching. King played third the first two innings, first the third inning, back to third for two innings and then left field the rest of the game. Shipp caught all except the third inning. Carter and Williams changed positions making the only changes in the Oviedo lineup. The box score: DeMolay AB R H PO A E H. --but Bill was in too much of a hurry to make that home run and failed to touch second base. However, Conner and King scored on the hit. In the third inning with the score 6 to 2 in Oviedo's favor the DeMolay shook up their line a little. Moyer went to catching, Shipp went to third base, King to first base and McLaulin to the pitcher's mound. In the fifth Woodruff started in the game. He played from the fifth until the finish of the game at third, Shipp having gone back to catching in the fourth. H. Woodruff started in this inning on mound duty and things tightened up. Vic McLaulin had people laughing some when he started pitching. Vic has a fierce windup and a fellow his size makes a funny figure when he wants to winding up. Kelsey was the star of the Oviedo team. His catching was excellent and his perfect pegs to second caught many fast DeMolay players trying to steal. Sanford's Independent team was practicing yesterday afternoon and it looks like Sanford will put out a formidable team against Orlando here next Thursday.

And you ought to see that third baseman of the Sanford Independents pick up those fast grounders. It don't seem as if anything is too hot for him. CELERY SEED It was a fine game! And exciting as a game could be. DeMolay used three pitchers but finally won the game. Slavick held the mound the whole game for the Oviedo team. Harry Woodruff, who went in pitching for the DeMolay in the fifth was the star of the game. He had the Oviedo sluggers all baffled with that little south paw of his. The heart rending part of the game was in the seventh when Bill Moyer

THE VOGUE OF TIERS AND YOKES

All of the important couturiers of Paris are sponsoring both tiers and yokes this season in the smartest of their creations. The model to the left attractively pictures the new fashion, being developed in caramel brown shirtings, being concentrated at the front. The dress takes the form of a slip-on blouse and a slip with attached, gathered flounces. Medium size requires 4 1/4 yards 36-inch crepe.

The second model, also in crepe, may be in beige, gray, brown or one of the new sunset colors. The closing is on the shoulders, the front of the dress being slashed in from the shoulder edges and the lower slashed edges gathered. The result is the yoke effect with youthful neckline that so many women are sure to affect. Medium size requires 4 1/4 yards 36-inch material. First Model: Pictorial Review Dress No. 1464. Sizes, 36 to 44 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

Second Model: Dress No. 1477. Sizes, 34 to 46 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

American Red Cross Forces Direct Successful Fight Against Disease Among Many Refugees in Greece

This is to introduce Mrs. Charlotte Heilman of Bound Brook, New Jersey, nursing director of the American Red Cross in Greece. She is the woman upon whom devolved much of the responsibility for the care of a million refugees who last fall and early last winter were unceremoniously swept into Greece from Anatolia and other Turkish-occupied territory. Moreover, it is to Mrs. Charlotte Heilman that much of the success of the American Red Cross campaign against dirt and disease in the ranks of the refugees must be attributed. The metropolitan of Athens is also shown here preaching sanitary discipline to refugees as part of the American Red Cross program.

Greece Escapes Worst Evils of Refugee Invasion By Efficient Work of American Red Cross

While reports reaching America from Constantinople of late have stressed the unsanitary conditions prevailing among the Greek refugees encamped in the former Turkish capital, where hundreds of the 25,000 who sought asylum there are said to be dying daily, conditions in Greece itself, where the refugees are numbered not by the tens of thousands but by hundreds of thousands, are in striking contrast. In Greece and its adjoining islands the American Red Cross has been and still is feeding some 500,000 of the refugees and throughout the winter such a high standard of sanitation has been maintained that in no camp did any disease reach epidemic proportions. The picture above shows a distribution of American clothing to the Red Cross refugee children.

The promptness with which the American Red Cross met the emergency arising when, as an incident of the Greco-Turkish war, a million helpless and homeless wanderers were suddenly dropped upon the port towns of Greece, forestalled any conditions as have been reported from centers of refugee concentration further east. There was little suffering from hunger and starvation because rations were promptly issued; there were comparatively few deaths from exposure, because ample and early shipment of clothing and blankets were rapidly distributed among those in need of them, and, most important of all, the sanitary regulations established and enforced by the American Red Cross with the cooperation of the Greek Government, the vigorous clean-up campaigns, the protection of water supplies, the disinfection and the inoculation of the refugees, the emergency hospitalization provided, combined to check any disastrous spread of smallpox, typhus, cholera or other diseases common to such indiscriminate massings of humanity.

The American Red Cross met the emergency in Greece with emergency measures effectively carried out. It cannot and will not undertake to assume the burden of permanently caring for the hundreds of thousands of refugees with which Greece finds herself burdened.

Really Useful Umbrella. It was a French inventor, with a tender heart for bicyclists, chauffeurs, fishermen and wintering artists, who contrived a form of umbrella for protection against sun or rain, which can be easily and solidly attached to the shoulders so as to leave the arms and hands absolutely free. When in use it folds up in a convenient, portable form.

Unhooking the Hookworm. Pathologists in the United States army service in Manila say that almost nine out of ten persons in the Philippines have hookworm infection. The cases are not serious, but they lower the efficiency of the Filipino worker and likewise reduce the powers of resistance against malaria, tuberculosis and other ailments. The army scientists are using carbon tetrachloride as a specific against the parasite. This is powerful against the parasite, but is chemically pure, so as to be safe. The doctors tried it out by giving four times the usual dose to prisoners under the death penalty. They got so spry and bolstered that the only way to get rid of them was to hang them. It is a big job to unhook the hookworm, but science is going to do it. Give it time and practice.—Los Angeles Times.

FOR THE COSTUME DANCE

The dance costume is included among the gaieties of the fashionable resorts at all seasons, and this model is as easy to make as it is attractive. For its development, satin, percaline, tulle, etc., may be used, two shades of one color affording the most effective combination. The V-shaped neck may be cut high or low. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material. Pictorial Review Fancy Costume No. 1316. Sizes, 34 to 44 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

Dog's Bark Proved Expensive. The barking of a dog so frightened a flock of 2,000 sheep returning in the thick from the mountain pastures at Freney d'Alais, near Grenoble, France, that they rushed over a ravine. The shepherd, in attempting to stop them, was dragged over with them, but was rescued, though his condition was grave. Numbers of the sheep were killed. The Herald delivered six times a week for 15c.

REPLICAS OF PARIS FROCKS

Figured Georgette crepe is used with fascinating effect in the development of the first frock. The long-waisted blouse and panel-trimmed skirt are joined under a 'girde' of soft satin, while gros grain ribbon outlines the V-shaped neck, short sleeves, drapery and lower edge of the skirt. Plain Georgette is used for the cascade panels at the side of the skirt. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 40-inch Georgette and 1 yard of satin or other plain materials for the trimming.

Kasha cloth in a soft tone of rust, is combined with Burgundy satin in the next model. The embroidery on the overblouse is done in self-color silk and silver. The collar, underblouse and side panels of the skirt are of satin. Medium size requires 2 1/2 yards 54-inch kasha cloth and 2 1/2 yards 40-inch satin.

The second design features a blouse of fine silk-figured voile and skirt of sports satin.
