SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Helicopter-hopping U.S. troops pounced on a fleeing Communist force today and reported killing 117 more of the enemy in mountains near South Viet Nam's central coast.

The added dead raised to 227 the two-day toll taken by the 1st Air Cavalry, Alamo, 1st Division which fought a furious battle Sunday with the Communists and reported 110 killed.

The Sanford Herald Page 14 — Oct. 3, 1966

Reports from the battle area show 30 miles north of the coastal city of Qui Nhon said the number of Communist dead was still climbing.

The Communist unit was a mixed force of North Vietnamese troops and Viet Cong.

Official U.S. sources said casualties among the chopper-hopping Communist were light.

The battle began after the enemy shot down three U.S. helicopters, prompting the cavalrymen to charge the force of more than 300 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops. The helicopters were recovered.

The new fighting along the central coast shifted attention away from the prolonged fight by the U.S. Marines just south of the demilitarized zone separating North and South Viet Nam.

U.S. B-52 bombers struck a little below the buffer zone today for the fourth straight day of raids inside or close to the zone.

The bombers rained explosives on North Vietnamese troop concentrations and infiltration routes 20 miles west of the Marines' forward headquarters at Dong Ha.

In the two months of fighting against the rebuilt 324th North Vietnamese division below the demilitarized zone, the Marines have reported killing 855 North Vietnamese and capturing four and seizing 17 weapons. But some Leatherneck units have been hard hit.

U.S. planes flew 113 bombing missions against North Viet Nam Sunday, and pilots claimed damage or destruction of 46 buildings, 13 trucks, and 10 bridges, and numerous hits on oil depots.

During the weekend strikes, Red groundfire against an Air Force F105 Thunderchief and a pilot was missing. It was the 301st U. S. plane reported lost over the north.

Air Force jets struck at a North Vietnamese military storage complex 26 miles south of the coastal city of Vinh, and pilots said they lit it burning with smoke towering 3,000 feet.

The U.S. military command announced that a new search and destroy operation, Little Rock, began Sunday about 18 miles northeast of Saigon. The objective is to destroy Viet Cong forces and base camps in an old rubber plantation area. Several battalions of the 1st Brigade of the 1st Infantry Division are engaged in the new operation.

U.S. pilots flew 415 sorties over South Viet Nam Sunday, and claimed destroying or damaging more than 246 Viet Cong huts, trenches and other structures.

South Vietnamese pilots flew 54 combat sorties Sunday.

Volusia Pledges New Osteen Span

Volusia County will do everything and anything possible to get a new Osteen bridge, James L. Dixon, chairman of the Volusia County Commission, pledged today in a telephone interview with The Sanford Herald.

"A new bridge over the St. Johns River at Osteen has been needed for 20 years," Dixon said, adding, "you can count on us in every way to support any move to replace the 40-year-old span."

Dixon pointed out that a new high-level bridge on SR 415 over the St. Johns has been given "top priority" by the Volusia County Commission "for the last 45 years." He asked that Seminole County continue with its "moral support" for a new bridge. Money would come from Volusia County's primary road fund administered by the state.

John Alexander, chairman of the Seminole County Commission, previously stated this county will construct a new approach for the proposed high-level span, extending from a point near the present intersection of SR 46 and Cameron Avenue to the bridge.

Willard Peebles, of Wildwood, district member of the State Road Board, has said the proposed $1 million high-level bridge was to have been included in the State Road Department's 1967-68 budget, commencing July 1 next.

Robert King High and Claude Kirk, Democratic and Republican gubernatorial nominees, respectively, pledged in telephone interviews with The Herald Monday to give "top priority" to the Oosten span if they are elected as governor next month.

Peebles was scheduled to attend a meeting to discuss the Oosten bridge problem early this afternoon at Jim Spencer's restaurant.

Also attending were Harrison Saxon, Volusia County commissioner in whose district the Oosten bridge is located; Seminole County commissioners; New Smyrna Beach and Sanford city officials and officials of Chambers of Commerce of both cities.

FOR THE STATISTICAL MINDED— Circuit Court judge gets $18,000 from the state and $2,000 supplement from the county. County Judge, Clerk of Circuit Court, Tax Collector and Tax Assessor get $11,500 and Superintendent of Schools gets $12,500.

AND SOME MORE—Legislators get $100 per month, county prosecutor gets $5 per case and can't make more than $7,500 per year although he gets more money for office expenses. JPs and constables can't make more than $7,500.

Starting salary for Sanford policemen is about $91.67 per month. Firemen get $81.19.

Out of the 28 policemen, 50 per cent of them have to hold other jobs to help support their families. Police Chief makes $8,300 and Fire Chief, $7,125.

Deputies make about $225 per month.

Teamsters officials tried to organize City workers the other day. A meeting was held. Here are the results . . . 10 said yes . . . 67 said no.

Tried to get attorney general's ruling on whether you can serve on the school and hospital boards at the same time . . . We got the ruling and it was expected . . . They want it in writing . . . By the time you read this it will be at the post office.

Democratic and Republican nominees for school board posts will discuss their views at the Sanford Women's Club Wednesday at 1 p.m. Should be very interesting.

Nobody asked me but, just think if the hospital didn't have all those expensive rugs, we probably could have an ambulance there.

I don't usually get shook up but, the widow of Terry Cordell came in this morning to say hello . . . Capt. Cordell was Sanford's first casualty of the Viet Nam War about four years ago. She said she just wanted to meet me . . . Okay, if you want to run me out of town go ahead now . . . I won't forget Terry's blonde, blue-eyed young child smiling at me.

Inez Attacks Fla.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Inez, in the 11th day of a wild rampage across tropical seas, attacked southern Florida's glittering Gold Coast today with howling gales, torrential rain and wild surfs.

Power lines snapped in great showers of sparks, traffic lights danced crazily and fell, and angry waves tore at the white sand beaches as the hurricane raked the coast from Fort Lauderdale to the Florida Keys.

Seawalls crumbled and crashing surf dashed across lowlying streets and highways. Rickety signs blew down and bounced across roads, a peril to the few motorists who had to be on the streets.

County To Realign Sand Lake Road

The County Commission today voted unanimously to realign Sand Lake Road on the east side of the county pit facilities to the center of the right-of-way and denied the appeal of John Gentry for reinstatement in his position with the county road department.

After more than an hour's discussion, with property owners on both sides of Sand Lake Road making their positions known, Commission Chairman John Alexander declared, "Sufficient and proper time has been given for consideration of the question of the proper alignment of the road over the last six months. The book of questions has been exhausted," he said.

Alexander reported that the road will be at least twenty feet from the nearest house.

The question was originally brought to the attention of the board when a property owner on the north side of the road received determination to instruct the road superintendent and engineer to align Sand Lake Road in the center of the right-of-way and program the work on it as soon as possible. The engineer was also ordered to notify all property owners affected of the board's decision.

In the matter of reinstatement of Gentry, Commissioner W. Lawrence Swofford who has recommended postponement of decision until road employes could be questioned, stated he "could find no reason to reverse the decision of Supl. J. C. Lavender" in dismissing the employe and moved that the appeal be denied.

Oviedo Adopts $46,255 Budget; 3 Mills Set

Budget of $46,255 with the rate of taxation set at three mills was unanimously adopted by the Oviedo town council following a public hearing Monday evening.

Three largest items in the budget of expenditures are police and maintenance salaries and council fees $15,500; capital improvements $10,000 and operation expense $11,000.

Council Chairman William Martin explained the budget for the new fiscal year had actually been reduced more than $4,000 but that the extra mill of taxation is needed to replace the cigarette tax for the last half of next year which will be pledged along with water revenue to "back up the bonds" on the new water facilities.

Martin reported that each mill of taxation brings in revenue of $4,990 and that total of assessable property in the town is $4,058,002.

Eight persons were present for the public hearing. C. D. Thompson, one of those present, while making it clear that he was not complaining or opposing the raise in taxes asked, "How many property owners are paying no taxes at all after the adoption of an amendment to the state constitution would be necessary before the town could take such action."

Town Attorney G. Algernon Speer gave his opinion that adoption of an amendment to the state constitution would be necessary before the town could take such action.

Girls To Snitch Boys Clothing This Season

MEN WILL WEAR CLOTHES THIS YEAR — and girls will snitch them. Trends that style makers are pushing now—the Army-Navy look — western and outdoor — and, of course, mod. Men, prepare for shirts, caps—on jackets and lofts, too.

Get set for wild, bright, swinging shirts — those sport dots, Paisley, stripes, patterns with outdoor patch-type pockets and high-roll, long-point collars.

The newest sweater is — with bright horizontal stripes, each striped, so you look real hairy. On the less wild side are the military jackets — work gear, on-putr bush jacket, and that favorite, the sailor pea coat, double-breasted and brass-buttoned.

If you prefer more subdued clothes, don't worry, there'll be plenty of conventionally styled clothes in stores, too.

Teach young boys to shake hands when introduced to friends.

Young drivers, meanwhile, appear to be ignoring the signs that driving records put them in an ever-increasing danger of death and, at the same time, of having their driving privileges restricted.

Instead, they complain that insurance rates are too high and unfair.

They say, "Cops pick on us." "They're right," said a Dayton, Ohio, safety patrolman. "If we didn't, there'd be a lot more dead boy friends and girl friends around."

Authorities say that the young really aren't bad drivers. They should, in fact, be the best drivers because they are better equipped physically.

But those in the 18-25 age group have the worst driving record because 1) they drive too fast, 2) they take far too many chances, and 3) they are ignorant of both the laws and their equipment.

Too, the cars young people drive often are second-hand, which means double care is necessary to insure maximum safety.

To head off any crackdown on their driving privileges, the best long-run solution for the young driver seems to be driver training. Those who have had the training figure in some impressive statistics.

"Every statistic compiled on this subject shows that students who have been convicted before as drivers—or anybody else, for that matter.

The Safety Council was talking about what other safety-minded people in the nation are asking—that heavy restrictions be put on young drivers.

For example, in states where a driver's license can be acquired at age 16, there are strong movements to raise the minimum age to 18.

Some areas want to make it illegal for the young to drive after 10 p.m. without a hard-to-get, special permit, or take away licenses for six months whenever a driver under 25 gets even one ticket for a moving violation.

Instead, they complain that insurance rates are too high and unfair.

They say, "Cops pick on us." "They're right," said a Dayton, Ohio, safety patrolman. "If we didn't, there'd be a lot more dead boy friends and girl friends around."

Authorities say that the young really aren't bad drivers. They should, in fact, be the best drivers because they are better equipped physically.

But those in the 18-25 age group have the worst driving record because 1) they drive too fast, 2) they take far too many chances, and 3) they are ignorant of both the laws and their equipment.

Too, the cars young people drive often are second-hand, which means double care is necessary to insure maximum safety.

To head off any crackdown on their driving privileges, the best long-run solution for the young driver seems to be driver training. Those who have had the training figure in some impressive statistics.

What's Doing in the World of Teens!

Young Drivers Challenge

By ROB COCHINAR and DAVE BURGIN

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. NEW YORK — (NEA) — The incredibly poor driving record of America's youth has brought the country to its knees.

But how long the nation will stay there is another matter. "They've got us begging them to be safety-conscious now," said a National Safety Council official, "but if young people don't start driving better soon, they may be the ones begging."

Overall, the driving of teenagers and young adults is so poor, accidents statistics show, that government, police, safety clubs, manufacturers and insurance companies are virtually begging for some sort of relief.

The answer obviously isn't to appeal. All the safety promotion campaigns of the past 10 years have not cut the death, injury and accident rate among young drivers—or anybody else, for that matter.

The Safety Council was talking about what other safety-minded people in the nation are asking—that heavy restrictions be put on young drivers.

For example, in states where a driver's license can be acquired at age 16, there are strong movements to raise the minimum age to 18.

Some areas want to make it illegal for the young to drive after 10 p.m. without a hard-to-get, special permit, or take away licenses for six months whenever a driver under 25 gets even one ticket for a moving violation.

Young drivers, meanwhile, appear to be ignoring the signs that driving records put them in an ever-increasing danger of death and, at the same time, of having their driving privileges restricted.

Instead, they complain that insurance rates are too high and unfair.

They say, "Cops pick on us." "They're right," said a Dayton, Ohio, safety patrolman. "If we didn't, there'd be a lot more dead boy friends and girl friends around."

'Dear Teena'

DEAR TEENA: Hurrah for you! The letter from WHEEL-LESS was probably written by some young man who is pleased with the sound of his fall term recently. The 27 students who are attending the school make this year's enrollment the largest ever for the school.

DEAR PARENT: It is obvious that young girls smoke to attract attention and be big and a part of the gang. They can't always have a better idea. Nice touch. Got a question (or a tip) on cars, bikes, racing? Send it to Wheeling II, care of this newspaper.

DEAR TEENA: I am a student at Sanford Junior High and in the eighth grade. For Study Hall and Gym I have Coach Croyle.

In Study Hall, there are guys all around me talking. One day a kid in back of me was talking and I wasn't but I looked over at him and the Coach was him talking and thought he was talking to me. We both got in trouble. What should I do?

DEAR NON-TALKER: I believe you. You would not have taken the risk of writing a letter had you been glib. Many teachers and adults everywhere are like the paratrooper whose chute didn't open—He jumped to the CONCLUSION. People who continue jumping at CONCLUSIONS jump to their own CONCLUSION, sooner or later. So now the coach knows he punished at least one innocent guy.

DEAR TEENA: I am a High School junior and the so-called "click" at school makes me sick. If you don't wear certain labels in your clothes, you are a person. What do girls like me do when they want to be a part of school life but the "click" won't accept us? PEEN.

DEAR PEEN: According to statistics there are more of you who are not a part of it. The click organizes your own group and forget the bunch of snobs. It's unfortunate, but they're here to stay. The really smart girl is the one who stays independent, dresses and wears them well with different mixing and matching.

Many of the members of the "click-set" have nothing on the ball to crow about except the labels in their clothes.

KNEE DEEP in OUTDOORS

By BILL VINCENT JR.
The rains have come and they still go to come again, and the "fishin is pickin" up fairly well around these parts. The bass are beginning to show up and it might just be the weather and the full moon we are having. Heard some good "anglin" talk last night, a certain fellow caught a 26 inch bass 8 pounds, that's a "wooper" while fly fishin with a large poppin bug. The familiar magazine's slogan of "now you see it, now you don't" can be equally effective feeding fish in a similar, though less subtle, way.

Anglers who fall to mix their "tricks" usually end up with an unreciprocated under-water audience, note the fishing expert at Mercury outdoors. This is particularly true at this season when fish are unpredictable in their location and appetites.... at any hour of any day.

To prosper successfully these days, it's necessary to use the whole bag of tricks in order to discover the right combination that clicks at that particular minute.

Anyone who continues to cast the same lure hour after hour seldom gets much more than exercise, unless it's that rare occasion when anything works. Full tactics are usually best when based on a methodical approach which consists of changing lures, baits and fishing holes when any given attack proves unproductive.

Each man should mentally prepare a systematic attack before starting off for a day of fishing during autumn. He should condition himself to the wisdom of mixing his tricks; to the fact that fish are fluctuating in response to strutting temperatures and are foot conscious in an unexplainable, yet unpredictable way.

He should be ready to give each type of lure a try in each location — topwater, medium-running and bottom-scratching. He should change actions and styles in each category, as well as colors and patterns, and be willing to prospect the points as well as the favored coves. And, when all else fails, fall back on that old reliable, trucking... with, perhaps, a heavier hand on the throttle.

Give 'em everything in the tackle box, urge the Mercury lads. You won't bore your audience, and you're certain to strike the right chord.

"Old Blue" has had an easy summer, his muscles are soft, his feet tender, and he probably carries five to eight pounds dictated by the National League pennant race which didn't end until the final day of the season Sunday.

Both Drysdale and Koufax worked against the Phillies in a doubleheader wind-up to the tight NL pennant struggle, but Drysdale left early in the game while Koufax had to pitch a full nine innings to nail the Dodgers' second game, with Osteen, 17-14, the third. Alton can juggle Koufax into three starts if the Series goes the full seven games by working him with two days rest in the final game just as he did in Boston; Minnesota last year.

Following McNally, 18-5, to the mound for the Orioles will be Jim Palmer, the Orioles' big winner at 18-10, and Wally Bunker, 16-6.

But while the Dodgers have the pitchers — and the No. 1 man of the year in that department — in Frank Robinson, Robinson, who hit against Koufax, Drysdale and Co. last year as a member of the Cincinnati Reds, won the triple crown of batting this season in the American League with a .316 batting average, 40 homers and 112 runs batted in.

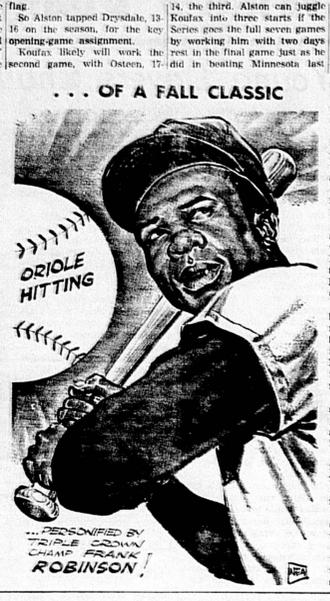

First baseman Boog Powell also drove in more than 100 runs while third baseman Brooks Robinson knocked in 96. In addition, Powell hit 34 homers and Brooks Robinson and outfielder Curt Blewett 23 each.

The Dodgers, on the other hand, had only one player with more than 20 homers, second baseman Jim Lefebvre. Lefebvre hit 24 and topped the Dodgers in RBI with 34. Outfielder Lou Johnson drove in 73 runs.

The first two games of the series will be played in Los Angeles, starting at 4 p.m. EDT, and will be televised nationally by NBC.

There will be an open date for travel and the teams will resume in Baltimore Saturday and Sunday, then Monday if necessary.

If the issue hasn't been decided by then, the teams then will take another day off for a second game, the teams then to travel and return to Los Angeles to decide it in either the sixth or seventh games.

Shakeup Hits Sanford Braves

The Sanford Junior High Braves will try to break into the win column Thursday against a favored Ocoee Junior Varsity on the road. The Braves, coached by Dan Pelham, after suffering a 2-6 loss to South Seminole plus the services of quarterback Glenn Burns, have switched to a single wing offense.

This isn't the Sanford team's first crack at running a single wing type offense. The Braves' head coach has employed it successfully previously.

"With the loss of my only experienced quarterback, our boys are better suited for the single wing type of attack," stated Pelham. As to using the air lines, the Braves' mentor added, "It's actually easier and we'll use it if only to keep their defenses honest."

Pelham reported the loss of starting halfback Mike Kreeck, with the advent of the "wing" offense. The top four prospects for the Ocoee contest are wingback Brian Smith, blockingback and signal caller Andy Adcock, fullback Ricky Gilmore, and tailback Duane Rodgers.

Tommy Banks has been working at both the tailback and blockingback slots with Willie Moeckley at wingback and David Lee slated to see action at fullback.

On the line, the ends are Tommy Whigham, Larry Kearse and Jim Babum; tackles are Mike Walraven and Jethro Warren; guards Dana Yelkoff and Kip Brown; Scott Harris will be at center.

The Braves will go with essentially the same boys for defensive action. Dan Hogan will see action at middle linebacker and Freddy Padgett, along with his brother, Eddy, have been working in the defensive secondary.

Cassius Can't Fight — It Says Here

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Former fight manager Jack Hurley said Monday that heavy-weight champion Cassius Clay "can't fight at all and the public will have proof of this."

"Eventually, Clay must fight Ernie Terrell and the people will realize this guy (Clay) can't fight a lick," Hurley told the Page Sound sports writers and sportscasters.

"Clay is scared to death. If he ever gets out that will be the end of it. He'll look in the mirror to see if that pretty face is marred, then he'll hang it up."

New Tribe Manager — He's Tough

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Baseball's newest manager, big Joe Adcock, already has given notice to the Cleveland Indians: He plans to be tough.

"I'll be emphasizing discipline next season. I don't expect to win by popularity contest. I'm going to demand the respect of the players. With me, baseball is a 24-hour-a-day proposition."

Adcock was signed Monday as Indians' manager at an undisclosed salary. His two-year contract allows him to select his own coaches.

"Last Sunday Adcock, 38, finished his 17th season playing in the majors. He has spent most of the last three years as a first baseman for the California Angels.

Adcock has been with the Indians since 1962 — when he was a pinch hitter. He spent three years with Cincinnati and 10 years with the old Milwaukee Braves.

Spurrier Second

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Highly touted quarterback Steve Spurrier of the University of Florida had to settle for second place in three categories of statistics of Florida's college gridder this week.

In statistics compiled by Edin White, sports editor of the Florida Development Commission, Spurrier finished second to Jesse Kays of the University of Tampa both in total offense and in passing yardage.

Another Tampa player, Bobby Fernandez, took first place in the receiving department with 21 catches for 290 yards and five touchdowns. Jim Cox of Miami holds second, hauling in 15 passes for 242 yards and one score. Last week's leader, Ron Sellen of F.S.U. dropped to fifth as the Seminoles were idle.

Fernandez leads the state's gridder in scoring with five touchdowns for 30 points. Miami's Jerry Danner is in second with 24. Five Gators are tied with 12 catches.

Mayo Smith — New Tiger Mgr.

DETROIT (AP) — Two more coaches and a possible trade or two were Mayo Smith's prime targets today as he prepared to watch the World Series in his new role as manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Smith, who signed a two-year contract Monday, immediately named Tony Cuccinello his third-base coach.

The 31-year-old Smith, who managed at Philadelphia and Cincinnati in the late 1950s, said he felt the Tigers had "to get the pitching coordinated" and said he would do everything possible to make the pitching better.

Robin Roberts Released

CHICAGO (UPI) — Robin Roberts is at liberty and will travel if necessary.

The 40-year-old major league superstar of the 1950s was given his unconditional release by the Chicago Cubs Monday. Roberts came to the Cubs as a free agent last summer after the Houston Astros let him go.

Manager Leo Durocher's decision to release Roberts left the pitching veteran 15 victories short of the 200-circle and ended his trial as a pitching coach with the Cubs. He was used only infrequently on the mound.

The Orlando Panthers offensive powers will be in Sanford on Monday evening at 6 in the reservation hall of All Souls' Catholic Church at which time both Tom Jones and Tom Blain, star quarterback and end, respectively will show moves of the recent Panther games.

The public is invited to attend and meet these football giants and listen to their descriptive narration of the Panther action on film.

Yogi Back Out Archer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Yogi Berra will be back in the first base coaching box for the New York Mets in 1967.

Berra, who was rumored to be in line for several managerial jobs in the majors, signed for another year as coach for the Mets Monday. President George A. Weiss announced.

Weiss said the other three Met coaches, Sheriff Robinson, Harvey Haddix and Whitely Herzog, also will be back.

From the Keys to the panhandle 37 Florida cities are represented on the Florida State roster.

Virus Knocks Out Archer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dallas linebacker Chuck Bowley, whose 79-yard run with a recovered fumble at Atlanta Sunday rates as the longest individual scoring effort of the 1966 National Football League season, was named winner Monday of the Mennen Postback of the Week award.

Garden boxing director Harry Atkinson said he hoped the bout would be rescheduled for Nov. 10 but no definite date was set. Archer said he did not feel well when he woke up Monday in his Catskill training camp.

KNEE DEEP in OUTDOORS

By BILL VINCENT JR.
The rains have come and they still go on to come again, and the "fishin' pickin'" will fairly well around these parts. The bass are beginning to show up and it might just be the weather and the full moon we are having. Heard some good "anglers" talk last night, a certain fellow caught a 25 inch bass 8 pounds that's a "whooper" while fly fishing with a large popper bug. The familiar angler's sign of "now you see it, now you don't" can be quite effective fooling fish in a similar, though less subtle way.

Anglers who fall to mix their "tricks" usually end up with an unresponsive underwater audience, note the fishing experts at Mercury outdoors. This is particularly true at this season when fish are unpredictable in their location and appetites... at any hour of any day.

To prospect successfully these days, it's necessary to use the whole bag of tricks in order to discover the right combination that clicks at that particular minute.

Anyone who continues to cast the same lure hour after hour seldom gets much more than exercise, unless it's that rare occasion when anything works. Fall tactics are usually best when based on a methodical approach which consists of changing lures, baits and fishing holes when any given attack proves unproductive.

Each man should mentally prepare a systematic attack before starting off for a day of fishing during autumn. He should condition himself to the wisdom of mixing his tricks to the fact that fish are striking about in response to fluctuating temperatures and are food conscious to an unusual, yet unpredictable way.

He should be ready to give each type of lure a try in each location — topwater, medium, running and bottom-creeping. He should change actions and styles in each category, as well as colors and patterns, and be willing to prospect the points as well as the favored coves. And, when all else fails, fall back on that old reliable, trolling... with, perhaps, a heavier hand on the throttle.

Give 'em everything in the tackle box, urge the Mercury lads. You won't lose your audience, and you're certain to strike the right chord.

"Old Blue" has had an easy summer, his muscles are soft, his feet tender, and he probably carries five to eight pounds

Following McNally, 13-6, to the mound for the Orioles will be Jim Palmer, the Orioles' big winner — at 13-10, and Wally Bunker, 10-6.

But while the Dodgers have the pitchers, the Orioles have the batters — and the No. 1 man of the year in that department in Frank Robinson.

Robinson, who hit against Koufax, Drysdale and Co. last year as a member of the Cincinnati Reds, won the triple crown of batting this season in the American League with a .316 batting average, 49 homers and 112 runs batted in.

First baseman Boog Powell also drove in more than 100 runs while third baseman Brooks Robinson suffered 96. In addition, Powell hit 34 homers and Brooks Robinson and outfielder Curt Blewett each.

The Dodgers, on the other hand, had only one player with more than 20 homers, second baseman Jim Lefebvre. Lefebvre hit 24 and topped the Dodgers in RBI with 14. Outfielder Lou Johnson drove in 73 runs.

The first two games of the series will be played in Los Angeles starting at 4 p.m., EDT, and will be televised nationally by NBC.

Friday will be an open date for travel and the teams will resume in Baltimore Saturday and Sunday, then Monday if necessary.

If the issue hasn't been decided by then, the teams then will take another day off decided by them, the teams then travel and return to Los Angeles to decide it in either the sixth or seventh games.

of excess weight. "Old Blue" is in no condition to open the deer hunting season. To help hunters prepare their hounds, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission has again established a special deer hound training season.

According to W. B. Copeland, Commission Chairman, hunters may train unleashed deer hounds starting October 15, except in the Third Conservation District where the training period will open one week later on October 22. The training season will run for 35 days, closing October 30 in the First, Second, Fourth and Fifth Conservation Districts and closing November 5 in the Third District.

Hunters may train their hounds during daylight hours only and the possession of any firearm is strictly prohibited during this time. This regulation does not allow the training of dogs on wildlife management areas, National Forest lands, or areas closed as wildlife refuges.

McNally will have to match pitches with Drysdale, armed with a much less effective weapon — a telegram of good wishes being sent by 7,000 of his hometown friends and admirers in Billings, Mont.

But, oddly enough, McNally led off with an unqualified nod from Manager Hank Bauer for the important opening game assignment while there's little doubt that Walt Alton, the Dodger manager, would have preferred to go with his '76-gamewinner, Sandy Koufax.

"Davey has the soundest arm on the staff right now," said Bauer. "If it goes seven games, we can give him three starts."

While Bauer could choose from a well-stocked roster, he clinched the AL pennant on Sept. 2, Alton's choice was

Notre Dame Gains Ground In College Football Poll

By Associated Press
Powerful Notre Dame continued to gain ground on the leaders in this week's Associated Press college football poll while Arkansas, Tennessee and Florida also made rapid advances on the strength of impressive victories.

Michigan State leads for the third straight week. The Spartans, who won their third national title by defeating Illinois 26-10 last Saturday, collected 871 points in the balloting by a national panel of 41 sports writers and broadcasters.

UCLA held second place with 545 points while Notre Dame was a close third with 522. The Irish moved up one notch while Alabama dropped one place to fourth.

Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc. Michigan State drew 20 first-place votes followed by Notre Dame with eight and UCLA seven.

Arkansas, Southern California, Nebraska, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Florida round out the Top Ten in that order.

Michigan, eighth a week ago, dropped out of the rankings after losing to North Carolina, 21-7.

The "Whisper" place among the first 10 teams was taken by Florida which boosted its record to 9-0 by beating Vanderbilt and advancing to this all-star game.

The Top Ten with first-place votes and total points:

2. UCLA, 7	345
3. Notre Dame, 8	322

6. So. California, 1	194

10. Florida, 1	69

Shakeup Hits Sanford Braves

The Sanford Junior High Braves will try to break into the win column Thursday against a favored Ocoee Junior Varsity on the road. The Braves, coached by Dan Pelham, after suffering a 2-7 loss to South Seminole plus the services of quarterback Glenn Burns, have switched to a single wing type offense.

The Braves' head coach, employed it successfully previously.

"With the loss of our only experienced quarterback, a 17 boys are better suited for the single wing type of attack," stated Pelham. "As to using the air lanes, the Braves' mentor added, 'It's actually easier and we'll use it, if only to keep their defense honest.'"

Pelham reported the loss of starting halfback Mike Kreeck for the rest of the season with a broken collarbone. Jim Provencher, one of the Braves' more outstanding linemen, is reported to be out of action for two or three days with a knee injury. Dana Yelnek will fill Provencher's slot.

A major shake-up has occurred in the Braves' backfield with the advent of the "wing" offense. The top four prospects for the Ocoee contest are wingback Brian Smith, blockingback and signal caller Andy Adeock, fullback Mickey Gilmore, and tailback Duane Rodgers.

Tommy Barks has been working at both the tailback and blockingback slots with Willie Mobley at wingback and David Lee slated to see action at fullback.

On the line, the ends are Tommy White and Larry Keare and Jim Rabun; tackles are Mike Wallace and Jackie Warren; guards Dana Yelnek and Kip Braden; Scott Harris will be at center.

The Braves will go with essentially the same boys for defensive action. Dana Hogan will see action at middle linebacker and Freddy Padgett, along with his brother, Eddy, have been working in the defensive secondary.

New Tribe Manager — He's Tough

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Baseball's newest manager, big Joe Adcock, already has given notice to the Cleveland Indians: his plans to be tough.

"I'll be emphasizing discipline next season. I don't expect to win by popularity contest. I'm going to demand the respect of the players. With me, baseball is a 24-hour-a-day proposition," Adcock said.

Adcock was signed Monday as Indians' manager at an undisclosed salary. His two-year contract allows him to select his own coaches; we had a few good individual performances, but I was very disappointed in the overall team play," he complained.

Graves' concern is boosted by the fact that his team goes against quarterbacked Florida State this weekend in Ft. Lauderdale. The Gators plan to work on defensive strategy against FSU play patterns this week.

Spurrier Second

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Highly touted quarterback Steve Spurrier of the University of Florida is second in a series of statistics of Florida's college gridder this week.

In statistics compiled by Elgin White, sports editor of the Florida Development Commission, Spurrier finished second to Joe Kays of the University of Tampa both in total offense and in passing yards.

Spurrier finished second to Kays in total offense and in passing yards. He spent three years at Cincinnati and 10 years with the old Milwaukee Braves.

The National League set an attendance record for the fourth straight year in 1965. A total of 12,581,136 fans paid their way into baseball parks.

Robinson Released

CHICAGO (UPI) — Robin Roberts is at liberty and will travel if necessary.

The 40-year-old major league superstar of the 1950s was given his unconditional release by the Chicago Cubs Monday. Roberts came to the Cubs as a free agent last summer after the Houston Astros let him go.

Manager Leo Durocher's decision to release Roberts led the pitching veteran to 35 victories short of the 300-circle and ended his trial as a pitching coach with the Cubs. He was used only infrequently on the mound.

Double Role

DETROIT (UPI) — Atlanta rookie Ron Reed, who pitched the Braves to a 4-2 victory over Cincinnati Sunday, has decided to continue his double sports career and has signed a contract with the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Willie Shoemaker was named the nation's leading jockey Monday following a nationwide poll of 274 racing experts and the Atlantic City Racing Association.

The world's leading money winner amassed 1,073 points to 944 for runner-up Braulio Baeza.

Cassius Can't Fight — It Says Here

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Veteran fight manager Jack Hurley said Monday that heavy weight champion Cassius Clay "can't fight at all and the public will have proof of this."

"Eventually, Clay must fight Ernie Terrell and the people will realize this guy 'Clay' can't fight a lick," Hurley told the Puget Sound sports writers and sportscasters.

"Clay is scared to death. If he ever gets out that will be the end of it. He'll look in the mirror to see if that pretty face is marred, then he'll hang it up."

Mayo Smith — New Tiger Mgr.

DETROIT (AP) — Two more coaches and a possible trade target today as he prepared to watch the World Series in his new role as manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Smith, who signed a two-year contract Monday, immediately named Tony Cuccinello his third-base coach.

The 51-year-old Smith, who managed at Philadelphia and Cincinnati in the late 1950s, said he felt the Tigers had "to get the pitching coordinated" and said he would do everything possible to make the pitching better.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 29 and am married to a pretty little 22-year-old girl from West Virginia. A few weeks after our marriage, I was transferred to Buffalo, N. Y. My wife lived with me for 29 days, and then she packed up and went to West Virginia because she was homesick for her mother. She has been down there since May 15th, and I have been sending her support money. I love her a lot and want her with me but she doesn't say when she's coming home. I don't want to give up this job and go to West Virginia after her. What should I do?

DEAR ABBY: My problem is one of my best girlfriends. She is a wonderful kid in many ways, but she gets along with her mother-in-law as long as the mother-in-law doesn't interfere with her. She counts 11 easy tricks and can try for the twelfth in either clubs or diamonds. She also likes to play East-Oak and the bidding and that East needs both the king of diamonds and the ace of clubs for her opening bid. In that case, there is no way to make a trick with the king of clubs and the diamond finesse is going to lose. This brings everyone down to three cards.

Today's hand represents a club slam for any good defender as long as the defenders aren't expert players also. Expert South plays the heart lead and looks the hand over. He counts 11 easy tricks and can try for the twelfth in either clubs or diamonds. He also notes that East opened the bidding and that East needs both the king of diamonds and the ace of clubs for his opening bid. In that case, there is no way to make a trick with the king of clubs and the diamond finesse is going to lose. This brings everyone down to three cards.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY - Shoes all over the closet floor can be most annoying. To do with this, my husband made a wooden drawer which holds our shoes. It has little wheels on the bottom and rolls under the bed out of sight. All we have to do is pull the handle and it comes out very easily. When I bought a new set of television trays I hated to discard the old ones so my husband cut down the old legs so the tables are just about as high as the new ones. He recapped the bottoms and they make wonderful trays for the young ones when they are sick.

Beauty after Forty

For relaxation (and she believes this is very important), she likes reading, the theatre, socializing and travel. This last interest is particularly important because our blonde lady will be doing much traveling in her new job as Vice President of Marketing of Carven Distributors. The company she formerly worked for purchased the French perfume manufacturer's name to New York City. As a clever executive, Maxine is studying French and she told me, "I'm getting better; sometimes I understand my fashion copy which the women of Texas loved. You see, I spoke only one word of French when I was a child." And she continued, "This plan of hers, etc. A very fine connection with the government is best here. Good politician, too. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life largely up to you! Carroll Righter's Individual Forecast for your sign for October is now ready. Stock Players Have Financial Headache

NEW YORK (AP) — The day of reckoning is here for a speculative binge in stocks that went sour this year, and ironically, many losers are seeking in the tax laws an aspirin for their financial headaches.

The federal income tax laws permit you to deduct as much as $1,000 in stock losses from your reportable income. Furthermore, additional losses may be carried over and subtracted next year.

Paper losses don't count. The stock must be sold before the end of 1966 if it is to be reported in the forms you file on or before next April 15.

Buffeted by a tumult of opinions throughout the year, some small investors finally have arrived at a simple, clear decision to sell.

Such a decision sometimes is unfortunate, since it is based on a feeling of necessity rather than on an analysis of market factors. Tax-loss selling is, nevertheless, a recognized practice on Wall Street.

The selling this year will be pronounced. Stock prices generally have dropped more than 20 per cent. And in some instances prices have been halved.

Much of this year's price activity was unsoundly based. Small investors were in the market, some of them buying even as insiders were selling. Their desire often was fed by rumors, hopes and considerable cash, much of it obviously from savings accounts.

You may be sure the Securities and Exchange Commission is studying some of the unusual activity in this year's market, in which the slightest rumor often produced wild swings. Both the American and New York Stock exchanges were about speculation. And they raised the downpayment on stocks.

The small trader, called the odd-lotter because he buys less than 100 shares of a stock at one time, has not always done wisely. There is a theory, in fact, that he is usually wrong. Here is his recent record:

—1962: Bought stock during the first half of the year when prices were highest. The market dropped in midyear; prices were low, but the odd-lotter was selling — not buying.

—1963: Prices improved through the year but the odd-lotter still was selling. He might have made some profits on this market. But he didn't foresee the tremendous gains to come.

—1964: The big bull market continued. Prices rose. The odd-lotter had a mixed record. In terms of dollars his purchases were greater than sales. But he continued to sell on balance.

—1965: The market finished at close to a record high level. The odd-lotter sold. If he had purchased the stocks early in the climb he made a profit. But how many odd-lotters bought their stock in 1965 — not 1962?

—1966: Once again, with prices at a peak early in the year, the odd-lotter was buying. The market plunge commenced and in all probability the odd-lotter was caught.

Theoretically, tax loss selling depresses prices even further, but there is evidence that many other traders will do the same to pick up good low-cost buys. It has always been that way.

Today's Children Bigger, Healthier

By DOYLE CONNER
Commissioner of Agriculture

TALLAHASSEE — (Special to The Herald) Research bears out what many of us have been thinking for some time: The children of today are healthier and are larger for their age than ever before.

Many reasons are advanced for this circumstance: Better living conditions, improved physical education programs, increased participation in outdoor activities and more nourishing meals.

A good time for such an inspection is during National School Lunch Week which will be observed throughout the United States, October 9-15.

Here in Florida the lunchrooms will be going one step further.

Friday, October 16, has been set aside as "Florida Products Day." On that day, the lunchrooms in this state will serve only those foods prepared from products produced in Florida.

The planned menu includes lima or bonita, sweet corn, fresh salad bowl, Sunshine ambrosia, hush puppies or corn bread, butter and milk. What the appealing fare for the visiting parents!

During the 1965-66 school year, 678,000 pupils in Florida's public schools were served "Type A" lunches daily. These meals included one-half pint of milk.

The number of pupils served last year exceeded the 1964-65 figure by 56,000. School officials have predicted a sizable increase for this year's session.

From an agrusiness viewpoint, the public school system network is a vital consumer source for Florida-grown products. With virtually every section of the state experiencing a school population explosion, the future potential is astounding.

For example, there are about 180 days in each school year. This year, there will be about 700,000 pupils taking their meals daily in the lunchrooms.

A tremendous amount of groceries are required to feed that many people each day. In fact, Florida farmers play a big role in providing foodstuffs to meet those needs. It has been estimated that about 80 percent of the supplies are produced in this state.

Because this state is blessed with four or more growing seasons, the Florida farmer is in an advantageous position. He can market fresh fruits and vegetables from either agricultural areas of the nation or out of production.

It is hoped, therefore, that more and more Florida-grown products are served in our public school lunchrooms. Our children will have nourishing meals and our farmers will have an enriched market.

Christian sat beside the governor and Kent stood in the back of the governor's office with State Treasurer Howard Williams as Burns announced the results of the conference.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators in the General Electric Corp. labor dispute get white hot bargaining today after bearing a special White House panel ward that a strike would seriously hurt the Viet Nam war effort.

Resumption of the talks — halted since Sunday, when President Johnson was a delay of a threatened nationwide union walkout — was announced by chief federal mediator William E. Simkin. At odds are the giant electrical company and the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson today was assured of authority to spend $1.75 billion on the war on poverty but there is going to be a good deal of House-Senate bargaining on just how he can spend it.

The price tag on the anti-poverty authorization bill is just what the President requested. The Senate trimmed its $2.5 billion authorization back to his original request of $1.75 billion approving the measure on a 49-20 vote.

Bulletin

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals today reversed the conviction of Jack Ruby on charges of murdering presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

The court ordered a new trial. The unanimous opinion by the three-judge court said that Dallas Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown should have granted Ruby's motion for a change of venue.

In granting Ruby a new trial in the Nov. 24, 1963 killing, the court ordered that the second trial "be changed to some county other than Dallas."

The starting salary for registered nurses at Seminole Memorial Hospital is $330 a month. Nurses who work on the 3 to 11 shift get $30 extra and those who work on the 11 to 7 shift get $20 additional.

Average salary among clerks in the Tax Collector's office is $4,200 per year among the top regulars. Tax collector refused to show us the salary schedule saying it was not public funds until the moneys are turned into the County Commission. However he did say not one of his clerks gets more than $125 per week.

Salaries in the Clerk's office average $4,218. Clerk declined to show us the schedule for the same reason as tax collector. We asked him if anyone makes more than $125 and he declined to say.

Next came Tax Assessor's office and Mary Earle Walker was out of town at an assessor's meeting. Won't be back. (Oops . . . I mean until next week.) Deputy clerks refused to give us any information.

Took a quick tour of Kirk and such headquarters in downtown Sanford the other day. . . . In the high camp there was a charming elderly, (oops better make it middle age) (oops better forget it!) reading "The Florida Democrat."

At Kirk headquarters a woman and two men were sitting at a table laughing. . . . They stopped when I walked in. I wonder why?

With four more days to register to vote in the November election there are now 17,277 registered Democrats in the county and 5,644 registered Republicans. . . . Stumped in the registrar's office during the last two days, 195 people registered since Monday.

Still laughing over that county grader incident at Pinewood court out by Forest City. You mean you haven't heard about it?

Robert King High returns again to Seminole County this Friday. He'll speak at Forest Lake Academy at 10:15 a.m. Bob must like us.

It will probably be denied but Doug Stenstrom has his eyes on Syd Herlong's seat when the Leesburg congressman retires.

John Fitzpatrick (he's a county commissioner in case you forget) will speak to the Civic class at Oviedo high school Thursday. John said he'll talk about county government. Will tell the kids where their tax dollar goes and why they won't be getting more lollipops during the next fiscal year.

Both Pincrest and Sanford Shopping Plazas are bidding for a movie house. An official of the Florida State movie chain (owns the soon-to-be-defunct Ritz Theater) said they were pulling out as a "policy" move and had it on good authority a movie will be located at one of the plazas.

South Seminole Jaycees are doing something for the teens in the county. They are opening a teen-age night club in Casselberry Shopping Center this Friday night with a top name band.

Sanford lost close to 10,000 gallons of water during a break on Hwy. 17-92 across from Ails of Miami plant. One woman's house was completely flooded and city crews cleaned out the mess.

There's a mention on that fire district ballot that the County Commission has the authority to levy millage. . . . People should know this.

Hey, the first bulkhead out of the lake front was laid in today.

Nobody asked us but we feel no young football player should be allowed to sign on a jersey unless he is insured.

Osteen Span 'Off The Ground'

A two-prong drive to speed up planning and ultimate construction of a new Osteen bridge on SR-415 over the St. Johns River was launched at an informal luncheon meeting Tuesday at the home of Jim Spencer's restaurant.

Volusia and Seminole Counties joined forces and obtained from Commerce.

While it was not mentioned in fact it was obvious Stenstrom's strategy was that it is not necessary to await the termination of Gov. Haydon Burns' administration and the start of a new administration next January.

Attending the luncheon meeting were members of the Volusia and Seminole County commissioners, Mayors A. L. Wilcox, of Sanford, and R. C. Patillo, of New Smyrna Beach, representatives of the Seminole County and New Smyrna Beach Chambers of Commerce and other dignitaries.

Stenstrom recalled that the Gov. Farris Bryant administration in 1960 budgeted $600,000 for a new Osteen bridge with no draw or as desired by the Corps of Engineers, a 45-foot high-level bridge such as presently on Interstate 4 over the St. Johns.

John Alexander, Seminole County commission chairman, pointed out that this county has endorsed as "top priority" a new bridge and has budgeted for a new alignment to connect with SR-40 near the Cameron Avenue intersection.

Harris Saxon, Volusia County commissioner, termed the bridge a joint Seminole-Volusia project, adding his county would have little difficulty obtaining necessary right-of-way. He said, however, that Volusia County long has discarded the practice of placing "top priority" on projects, leaving that decision to the State Road Department. He did say that Volusia will co-operate to the full extent in obtaining a new bridge.

William Benedict, SRD district engineer at Deland, said precedent had been established for a high-level bridge with no draw in 1-4 over the St. Johns. He pointed out a low-level bridge would require a draw, with a decision to the State Road Department. He said they would place the Osteen bridge on top priority.

At this point, Stenstrom pointed out that the Sanford Herald in Monday's edition quoted tele-grams "fell through" because of differences as to the type of span to be constructed, whether a 25-foot high bridge with no draw or as desired by the Corps of Engineers, a 45-foot high-level bridge such as presently on Interstate 4 over the St. Johns.

Stenstrom, Benedict said the road alignment from SR-46 north across the river, plus preliminary plans for a 25-foot level.

In response to a query by Shisholter, High and Kirk representatives, respectively, in Seminole County, said they would support the project, if their candidate is elected.
