ORLANDO, April 9. — Vacuum Foods Corporation is the new name for Florida Foods, Inc., Boston, Mass., and Orlando, formed last year with paid-in capital of $2,500,000 to engage in large-scale commercial dehydration of citrus juices, it was announced here today following a special meeting of the company's stockholders.

At the same time announcement was made of the appointment of John M. Fox as Vacuum Foods president, he has resigned as vice-president of National Research Corporation, Boston, to assume the new post. A graduate of Colgate University, Mr. Fox was for ten years branch sales manager of International Business Machines, Worcester, Mass., before joining National Research.

Vacuum Foods, a licensee under National Research patents, is now completing a new $1,000,000 plant in Plymouth, to produce initially a dehydrated orange juice powder and a frozen orange juice concentrate. Both products retain the full flavor and vitamin content of fresh oranges. The new plant will be capable of handling 20,000 gallons of fresh orange juice daily, with a capacity that can be expanded to 40,000 gallons. The Plymouth installation will use an entirely new low-temperature process developed by National Research Corporation.

Discussing the outlook for the immediate future, Mr. Fox said that the plant will be in production on the frozen orange juice concentrate within a few days, under the supervision of H. R. Cloud, vice-president and plant manager. The concentrate will be distributed through retail outlets by Snow Crop Marketers, Inc., under the trade name "Snow Crop." An institutional package will be distributed by Vacuum Foods, under the trade name "Minute Maid."

Production of the orange juice powder will get under way next month, Mr. Fox said. He added that the project will mark the first commercial attempt to dehydrate pure orange juice. A pilot plant has been in operation for some time, directed by National Research Corporation with the cooperation of the Plymouth Citrus Growers Association, whose cannery adjoins the new Vacuum Foods plant.

R. T. Carleton, secretary manager of the Plymouth growers' group, declared: "The development of orange juice powder will open new outlets in markets in Florida citrus products, due to transportation difficulties and shipping costs."

"Such additional consumption will be necessary to maintain a favorable market condition in the light of future citrus production."

Leonard Casselberry Now In Fern Industry

Leonard Casselberry, who spent nearly three years in the United States Navy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Casselberry, is now connected with his father in the fern industry.

He entered the Navy in January, 1943 and received his basic and advanced training at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station in the Aviation Technician School. He was stationed here at the Sanford Naval Air Station for approximately five months and served as a gunnery instructor. He later served at Beaufort, S. C. and continued to instruct air gunners and pilots in dive bombing, strafing and rocket runs.

In June 1945, Casselberry was transferred to Shosemaker, Calif. to await an overseas assignment which was cancelled due to VJ day. He was discharged in December.

Corrosive Sublimate Will Destroy Mildew

GAINESVILLE, (Special) — Mildew on painted surfaces not only makes them unsightly but also keeps the paint from protecting as long as it otherwise would, says Erdman West, mycologist with the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

Mildew or mold can be killed on painted surfaces, either indoors or out, by swabbing the surface with a 1 to 300 solution of corrosive sublimate (bichloride of mercury), he adds. Dissolving three tablets in a pint of water gives a satisfactory solution.

Since corrosive sublimate is very poisonous, Mr. West cautions that this disinfectant should be applied with a brush or swab and must be kept away from children and pets. He cautions also that in the case of casing or resin paints, corrosive sublimate may cause undesirable discolorations, necessitating small or trial tests before large areas are treated.

After the swabbed surface has become thoroughly dry it may be repainted. The mycologist suggests that the paint contain a disinfectant to prevent recurrence of the mold. Some paints sold in the South have the material incorporated at the factory. Mold-preventive materials which can be mixed in ordinary paint are sold by all large paint manufacturers as "mold stop" or "fungus killers."

Poland Asks U.N. For Action Against Franco Government

Washington, London Apparently Reject Big-Four Discussion Of Spanish Regime

TEHRAN, Apr. 10. (AP)—The Iranian government has not given Ambassador Hussein Ali any further instructions on its case before the United Nations Security Council. This was disclosed by Prime Firooz, the Iranian minister of propaganda.

NEW YORK, Apr. 10. (AP)—Poland has filed with the United Nations Security Council a request for action against the Franco regime in Spain. The letter declares that the Franco government has already threatened world peace and is a haven for Nazi, Nazi assets and German scientists. The Polish note says these scientists are devising new means of warfare.

The appeal was filed by Polish Ambassador Oscar Lang with Secretary General Trygve Lie. Just how soon it will be taken up, however, remains uncertain.

At a secret meeting today, the United Nations Security Council decided to take up on Monday afternoon Russia's demand that the Franco case be dropped from the agenda. The Monday session, a public one, will be held in the Hunter College interim headquarters.

Most of the time today was spent in an informal exchange of views over the choice of a new location for the headquarters site. No decision was reached, and another closed meeting will be called prior to the public session on Monday.

New Government Is Elected By 25,000,000 Japs

Women Voters Turn Out By Millions During Election

TOKYO, April 10. (AP)—Japanese voters, 25,000,000 strong, have elected a postwar government in their first free election in generations. The big surprise of the election was the way the women voters turned out. In Tokyo, for instance, it had been predicted that not more than 10 per cent or so would vote. Instead, more than 50 per cent of those eligible went to the polls.

The Tokyo vote was between 56 and 70 per cent of those eligible. This was a little higher than the restricted 1937 election, but quite a bit less than the per cent turn out forced by Premier Tojo's coercion in 1942.

Limited communications, an absence of election procedure, prevented accurate reports from such key cities as Osaka, where balloting started slowly with only ten per cent cast by 9:30 a. m. The polls closed at 7:00 a. m. and closed at 6:00 p. m. This was a national holiday to encourage voting.

Harvesting Of Celery Ends In Some Sections

523 Cars Are Moved From State During 1st Week In April

Harvesting of celery in the Sanford and land section is now virtually over, with but a few scattered acres remaining. Of the 523 cars shipped from here Tuesday, 18 were from Orinda and 12 from Zellwood.

Oviedo muck and celery coming in during the week to local packing houses is reported to be of excellent quality.

Florida celery shipments during the first week in April amounted to 523 cars of which 260 were from Seminole County, 175 from the lower East coast, and 79 from the Southwest section.

Analysts have been reporting moderate demand moderate and the market for celery slightly stronger of late with the smaller sizes to tens in gold, selling at $2.50 per ton. Larger sizes brought $2.00 to $2.25. The local concern, Stano and Growers, Inc. shipped some unusually large sizes last week.

Of interest in the Florida celery trade is the fact that Arizona shipped 110 cars during the first week in April, while California, which has shipped 5,000 cars during the season as compared to Florida's 8,211, sent out only 51 cars between April 1 and 6.

Good local supplies of cabbage are coming in and are being sold at $1.25 per 100 pound sack. One grower, Henry Schumaker, who has a farm near Lake Jessup, reported a single cutting last week of nearly 27 tons of cabbage from one acre. This is believed to be a record cutting for this section.

String beans and red bliss potatoes have been getting under way in limited quantities here during the past week. Planting has been an event about the 2,500 acres, according to estimates. About one third of this has been reported as unfavorably affected by adverse conditions but the remainder is believed to be of excellent quality.

Valencia orange packing is expected to be about finished during the next week in the Seminole section.

Training Bill Is Debated Before Local Kiwanians

Civic Club Members Guests Of Seminole High School Today

Kiwanians today were dinner guests of Seminole High School and Principal Herman C. Morris, and enjoyed a debate by the school's prize winning debating team which has defeated teams from Ruston, Seabrook, Daytona Beach and Orlando high schools.

The debate, on the subject of compulsory military training for all men up to the age of 24, was presided over by the principal and represented by Walter Schobel, who was also adjudged the best debater, and by George C. Donohy, Van Herbilis and Joe Wathen. Presented the positive case in favor of the military training, Malcolm McNeill and Marc Aron Dingfelder were the student chairman in charge of the program. Frank Shames presented the negative case in the absence of the Rev. J. T. Root.

George Cox, prior to the debate, told of the action of the student class of the high school in sponsoring a drive to raise $2,000 in Seminole County as part of a national movement to combat cancer. The Florida total in the drive, he said, was $1,729.

Walter Schobel, fourth speaker in the debate, pointed out that compulsory military training proposals had been defeated four times by Congress, was a negative case of the policy and quoted Francis General DeGaulle as stating that such training alone was not protection against aggression. If adopted, he said, it would cause prohibition taxes in addition to those caused by retiring the national debt of $250,000,000. He pointed out that 500,000 men had enlisted in the Army and could secure U. S. citizenship.

George Cox said that the national wartime problem had all ways been that of securing war time supplies in time rather than men, and urged that the USO organization be given a chance to succeed in combating aggression.

For the positive Joe Wathen maintained that America needs trained manpower to man the 120 national outposts scattered about the world, that unless this country's military preparedness might be overwhelmed by sudden attack by reason of not having enough technically trained men.

Miss Van Herbilis cited the dangers that would confront the United States if the UN failed to function pointed out that in the first World War this country had 1,000,000 men and in the second, 11,000,000, and declared that compulsory military training was not designed to fight a war but to win the peace, and that the United States would be less liable to be attacked if it had a reservoir of capable, trained men. Kiwanis judges were Pres. J. W. Hill, Bralley Odham and A. Reid Hunt, D. E. Foster of Lakeland, Charles McClung, son in law of Fred R. Wilson, and recently of the Navy, Edward Shindler and Joseph and Albert Galloway of Winter Park.

Labor Official Says Other Strike Must End To Get Farmers Needed Equipment

WASHINGTON, April 10. (AP)—A spokesman for the United Mine Workers Union has revealed why John L. Lewis left the negotiations this morning. K. C. Adams, editor of the union's journal said the U. M. W. found it "senseless and hopeless" to continue the conference so long as the operators refused to discuss the union's demand for improved safety conditions and a welfare fund.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 10. (AP)—Thirty thousand employees of the International Harvester company, today ended a strike that lasted 80 days, and John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers union, walked out of the wage negotiations with soft coal operators.

Lewis took the members of his negotiating committee with him and promised new men he'd have a statement later, outlining his reasons for leaving the conference.

The settlement of the long dispute between the company and CIO Farm Implement Workers came early this morning.

Government officials are hailing the agreement, and they're optimistic that it will break a logjam in raising equipment badly needed by U. S. farmers, who are being counted on to head off the effects of a famine abroad.

The settlement was one of the 11 plants of International Harvester came after ten days and nights of almost continuous negotiation, Department.

Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson announced the settlement. At the same time, Gibson said he hopes it will lead to agreements in strikes at the four J. I. Case Company plants and at the Allis Chalmers plant in Laporte, Ind. The assistant labor secretary declares that a windup of these strikes is needed to insure that farmers get needed equipment for harvesting wheat and other crops.

Full terms of the International Harvester settlement have not been made public, pending ratification by the union. Ratification is expected to come as soon as delegates to the union's Harvester Company council can be called into session in Chicago.

PARIS, April 10. (AP)—Both the United States and Britain apparently have rejected France's request that the Franco Spanish regime be discussed at the Big Four meeting of foreign ministers in Paris. Officials say that Washington and London told France that any steps against Franco should be discussed in normal diplomatic channels. There has been no statement yet from Russia.

Apartment House Fire Causes Death Of Eight Persons

ALLENSTON, Pa., Apr. 10. (AP)—One fireman has been killed and several others injured in a general alarm fire which is threatening an entire business block in downtown Allenston.

BOSTON, Apr. 10. (AP)—Firemen expressed belief today a fire might be at large in the back bay area of Boston where an apartment house blaze early this morning claimed the lives of eight persons, including an entire family of five.

Five other persons were injured and hospital attaches said two of them were dying while the remaining three were said to be in serious condition.

Twenty persons managed to escape from the fire-ravaged four story brick apartment house.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wassall and their three children—all five years of age or less—practically all were burned when swept through whole sections of the apartment house.

Three other persons also died in the fire. Their identities were not established immediately.

One of those said to be lying in the hospital was identified by associates as Boston Policeman Robert Maher. The other person close to death was identified as 16-year-old Susan Mahoney.

Firemen advanced the firebug theory because of the fact that alarms for three other fires sounded almost immediately from locations within ten blocks of the fatal blaze.

COURT SETS DOCKET

Army, Navy Salary Hike Recommended

WASHINGTON, Apr. 10. (AP)—A House Military subcommittee has recommended legislation to give all members of the armed forces a 4 per cent pay increase of $400. The increase would be given to officers and enlisted men alike. It's the same amount which the House approved last week for Federal employees.

A $400 increase is proposed as a substitute for Army and Navy recommendations of a 3.5 per cent increase in pay and allowances of service personnel.

Bell Shipping Celery Plants To California

Shipment Weighing Six Tons Going To West Coast By Air

John W. Bell, pioneer farmer of Lake Monroe, who for the past several years has had an extensive business in raising vegetable plants for replanting not only in Florida, but in most states of the eastern seaboard as far north as Virginia and some northern states, has now extended his operations by shipping by airplane from Sanford, 900,000 celery plants to San Jose, Calif., a distance of more than 3,000 miles.

The weight of these plants, packed in sacks, is approximately six tons according to Mr. Bell, who said that he expects to continue shipment of celery plants to California for the next two or three weeks.

In a recent conversation with Edward Higgins, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Bell pointed out that an entire new field could be entered into by the communities in Florida which are located in plant growing areas. With air transportation plants can be moved to any part of the country rapidly and without injury, he declared.

The State of Florida, having the sunshine, the water and everything necessary to produce hearty plants, has an immense field open along that line," he asserted and added that in his belief it could develop into the hot house for continental United States and Canada.

"Stone Walls Do Not A Prison Make," Particularly At Jail In Washington

WASHINGTON, Apr. 10. (AP)—If he had known what was going on in the District of Columbia jail, the poet who wrote "Stone Walls Do Not A Prison Make" would have had the surprise of his life. He didn't know how right he was. Stone walls certainly didn't make much of a prison of the big house that houses more than two hundred prisoners in the District of Columbia jail. The iron bars didn't make much of a cage. They made pretty convenient private offices, though.

Congressmen are beginning to find out that "The Prisoner's Song" has new words and a syncopated beat. It's a far cry from the old blues. They're learning that the District of Columbia jail is headquarters for a lot of flourishing business enterprises—managed by the inmates. Not only do the men do business from their cells, they have a pretty gay time of it. They've imported liquor by the cases for gambling parties. At times they've even had guests.

The prisoners didn't have any trouble carrying on their business correspondence. They used government stationery. The address was simple—200 Ninth Street, Southeast, Washington, D. C. It sounds good. Doesn't sound like the address of a jail—but that's exactly what it is.

Sometimes, too, if they had some important business to do in town, a lawyer tip to a jail official turned the trick. The prisoner went off to the city to keep his appointment, stayed in the best hotels, and came back to his iron bars in his own sweet time.

The jail story came to light several days ago, when two men escaped from death row. You

Spessard Holland Opens Campaign On East Coast

WEST PALM BEACH, Apr. 10. (Special)—Spessard L. Holland, former governor of Florida, was today speaking tour of the lower Florida coast on his campaign for the West Palm Beach Flagler Park with an address that brought rounds of applause from the crowd of several hundreds who heard him speak.

The crowd gave Holland warm applause when he said he would stand firm against attempts to centralize government in Washington, believing the best government is that which is kept closest to the people. The crowd also demonstrated its approval of his stand for aid to all veterans and their dependents and the smoothing out of irregularities in the nation's program for their readjustment and rehabilitation.

Members of the audience asked him two questions at the conclusion of his address—whether he favored a three per cent sales tax and his stand on the so-called Florida "open shop" constitutional amendment.

"I have fought a sales tax on the floor of the Senate and I opposed such a tax as governor," he replied in answer to the first question, "and I shall always be against it."

"I had nothing to do with the labor amendment," he said in answer to the second. Furthermore, he replied in answer to the third question, "and I shall always be against it with me to the Senate."

Organization Of Southern States Planned By C.I.O.

NEW YORK, April 10. (AP)—A national officer of the CIO said yesterday that leaders of the union would meet Thursday in Washington to discuss plans to "organize the South," which he termed "the most dangerous area in this country."

The spokesman was Allan S. Haywood, CIO national vice president and director of organization. He addressed the second constitutional convention of the Harbers and Beauty Cultivators Union of America (CIO).

"The South must be organized," Haywood said. "It is the most dangerous area in this country. It is reactionary."

Haywood predicted the union's organization drive would encounter strong opposition. He said attempts would be made to reorganize the Ku Klux Klan in a fight against the CIO.

"We are going to answer this 'damnable bigotry,'" Haywood said. "Fear won't win. We've got to answer it with boldness."

The CIO official said that through the union's political action committees "we are going to defeat reactionaries and elect progressives."

"The South as would be a thing of the past in a unionized South," Haywood said, adding that the best way "to get workers to live in equality" was the labor union.

Probably taking the hint from

Another instance of the OPA's holding the line against inflation

The price of such things as higher than a kite for all the OPA cares, while other things, for the looks of it, will be held down until they too are driven off the market.

The Tampa Tribune objects to changing the abbreviation of the United Nations organization to
"UN" from what had already become fairly popular, "U.N.O."
The two-letter abbreviation has a negative ring. Who wants to go around saying "U.N.I.T." It sounds as if an Indian answering a question," says the Tribune.
Maybe so, but the negative sound of "UN" is hardly more so than the negative sound of "U.N.O."
and it may be that a negative sound is exactly what the "UN"
or the "U.N.O." really needs.

We see where the school people are advocating a modification of the Homestead Exemption Amendment for the purpose of raising money for the schools. That would require another constitutional amendment and three or four years to get. Why not require a fair appraisal of homesteads for tax purposes? Only the first $1,000 of assessed value is exempt from taxation. But very few houses in Florida are assessed at over $5,000, whereas many of them are worth more than that.

Friend of Farmers

The American farmer steps on the world stage this spring in the role of the savior of mankind. Literally millions of people in European and Asiatic lands look to him for food that will save their lives.

As he plans and plants his fields, he has behind him an earnest new friend, Dillard P. Lasseter, Farm Security Administrator. An easy-going Georgian, one time U. S. Consul in China, he joined the British Army in World War I, was wounded, and from this experience has keen interest in present veterans.

Lasseter believes American farms need veterans, and the veterans need the farms. Consequently he has made almost $2,000,000 worth of loans for farm buying to the ex-GIs, and $9,000,000 more of loans to former service men for purchase of farm machinery and stock.

Here is a man whose name may not appear often in print but who, as much as any other single American citizen, will be responsible for getting food to the world's hungry hordes, and economic security for a good many thousands of agriculture-minded war veterans.

Submarining

A canyon, 2,400 feet deep and three miles wide from rim to rim, and over 20 miles in extent, is only 50 miles from New York, but no one has ever seen it. The reason is that it lies at the bottom of the ocean and is known only by soundings.

It marks the further course of the Hudson River after this issues into the sea, says the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which has been reporting on the results of its never-ending task of mapping the nation's coastal waters. Another submarine valley has been found north of Monterey Bay on the Pacific coast, about three miles long and a mile wide, with a depth of 1,200 feet.

Submarine travel is so congested in the present vessels as to be exceedingly uncomfortable. It does not take much imagination, however, to foresee that more comfortable days are ahead. The tours in glass-bottomed boats now available in Florida and California waters suggest that the tourists of, say, A. D. 2,050 may look forward to unlimited wonders on his pleasure trips.

Natural Gripping

Most Americans still in the service naturally grow impatient. The war is won, they say, and the crisis is past, and they should be allowed to go home and take care of their jobs and families.

It is natural and pardonable to gripe about such situations, but in a great number of cases it is still necessary to keep men in arms and ready for action, lest the old dangers be renewed and new troubles arise. Too many people fail to understand the dangers that come from new and more powerful weapons.

There are national groups, too, impelled by ambition that might yet set the world on fire again, regardless of material and human cost. Thus in some situations it might be years before the dangers die down and men can move everywhere in a free but well-policed world.

Congress should not fail to extend the draft, under these circumstances, especially since General Eisenhower has set forth the mild terms under which he thinks it should be administered.

Noisy City

New Yorkers, who wouldn't think of living anywhere else but are always eager to combat the anti-noise annoyances of a big city, are persistent about their anti-noise campaign.

The New York City League for Less Noise is no flash in the pan. It keeps to its cause doggedly, day after day, with the help of municipal departments. Last year, reports League President Ernest H. Peabody, the police issued 185,000 warnings and 37,000 summonses to persons making unnecessary noises. But the educational process is slow, says Mr. Peabody.

The attempt is admirable, but beyond the few concrete causes of racket, such as screeching brakes, raucous horns and leaky mufflers, the League has a large job cut out for itself, if it expects to cope effectively with the din of the city. For individuals there still remains the simpler solution of moving to the country.

Deland Sun News

Delegates to the UNO Security Council meeting in New York had their knowledge of American folkways increased when, on opening day, they were introduced to our quaint custom of feather-bedding.

This practice, in case anyone doesn't recall it, is not to be confused with bundling. It consists of paying a union member for standing around and doing nothing while a member of another union (or of no union) gets paid for doing the job that the idle union member is paid for not doing.

Sometimes the practice is varied by having the union member paid for not doing a job that nobody else is doing, as when theater orchestra musicians draw pay for not performing at a play which doesn't use any music before or after, or during the intermission. Fortunately, the UNO delegates escaped this variation. That is just as well, for they must have been sufficiently confused by their own simple problem.

This problem involved a jurisdictional dispute among several AFL unions, including the electrical workers and the movie, radio, and television operators, over who should run the television broadcasts. This was the 50th jurisdictional dispute at the temporary UNO headquarters during the two weeks it took to transform the Hunter College gym into an arena of international discussion. All the others were settled before the delegates were seated.

It looked for a time as if the 50th dispute might keep the bounds of television and tie up other more usual communications. For there was some talk of the electricals' taking out all electrical equipment unless their boys got to operate the television, or at least got paid for it. This would have made radio broadcasts of the sessions impossible.

So the feather-bedding was agreed on. The television operators did the job, and an equal number of union electricians drew an equal amount of pay. Word got around that some of the more thrifty UNO officials didn't like the idea. They seemed to take the attitude that some of the 51 nations footing the bill for this meeting and other UNO activities might object to picking up the tab on this double-or-nothing basis.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

By RUSSELL KAY

If reports that come filtering out of Jacksonville, Orlando, Miami and other centers are trust-worthy, it appears that a determined campaign is being waged by CIO-PAC folks to dominate the Florida political picture.

Apparently they are working like beavers and they are leaving no stone unturned that might possibly have a vote lying under it. "White supremacy," the sacred cow of the old line, hard shell Southern Democrat, is just as much hogwash and banana oil to CIO-PAC. Their objective is VOTES and in their little book a black vote or a red one is just as important and counts just as much as a white one.

The CIO-PAC is out to get its folks to the polls and the colored folks are being encouraged to register and vote DEMOCRATIC. And they are registering, plenty of them, for they are being organized by the smartest kind of political leaders and indications are, they must be reckoned with in the coming primaries.

While no one can say at the time just how many votes the CIO-PAC crowd will be able to muster, it is generally conceded by seasoned observers, that it will be a lot.

But votes, to mean anything, must be cast in favor of some candidate and everyone is asking everyone else, "Who will benefit by this lush crop of ballot fodder that is being built up by the CIO-PAC?"

We must choose a United States Senator and a flock of congressmen and it is beginning to look as though the candidates who are looked on with favor by the CIO-PAC folks will prove to be the "chosen" ones when the votes are all in and counted. Primarily due to the fact that the average citizen, as usual, is disinterested and apathetic. The so-called "average voter" is unorganized. No one is kicking him in the pants, insisting that he register by doing everything in its power to get out the farm vote. It will take a lot of doing for farmers are independent thinkers even when organized and their organization is a different type from the tight, hard hitting organization they would oppose.

Down Miami way come reports of the reorganization of the Ku Klux Klan but this won't help the situation any. All it will do is make it that much easier for the CIO-PAC to draw a larger number of followers than would otherwise be possible. The Klan's old ritual of scaring negroes, brow-beating Jews and threatening candidates smells too much like Nazi Germany to set well with the public. Most folks would rather see a CIO-PAC dominate the State than a Ku Klux Klan.

They are worried, too, for they all know what happened in Georgia when a lone woman candidate running for congress against a flock of seasoned politicians, drew the lucky number and got a nice trip to Washington with all expenses paid. In Florida we find a woman running for the Senate and a woman running for Congress, and folks who are in the habit of flicking their political fingers and holding them up to see which way the winds blow are saying "Look out for Polly Rose Balfie and Camille Gueanu." But these political agents print with pride to their "white wings," pretend that they don't know what you are talking about if you mention CIO-PAC activities.

Holland supporters point accusing fingers at Lex Green, while Green supporters hold their little pink noses and point to Holland. The man on the street quickly laughs off the suggestion that Holland would ever see favor with CIO-PAC support. Most folks take it for granted that Holland will win in the primary and refuse to be alarmed.

Last week the Florida Farm Bureau took cognizance of the situation and made plans to conduct an active campaign in an effort to arouse its members and as many others as possible of the danger that threatens and proposes to fight the war in region. The man on the street quickly laughs off the suggestion that Holland would ever see favor with CIO-PAC support. Most folks take it for granted that Holland will win in the primary and refuse to be alarmed.

Shoppers around the town Tuesday included RAY BOGUE, of Geneva, ROY REEL, Mrs. GEORGE MATHIAS of Geneva, CHANDLER SHARON, A. W. KING, E. E. BEASLEY, Mrs. ALICE WELLS, Mrs. V. G. HASTY, Mrs. J. A. LLOYD, Mrs. J. T. KASTNER, Mrs. W. PRICE, Mrs. M. A. R. F. T. ROBERTS, Mrs. A. W. WIDBOLT, Mrs. E. DONALDSON, Mrs. E. H. VERNAY, Mrs. H. E. BASS, Mrs. PETER THURSTON, Mrs. H. E. WEELEY.

Mrs. JOHN STANLEY was smart in black and white. Mrs. JOHN MEISCH, Jr. black. Mrs. HENRY WATSON in an attractive rainbow striped gown. Mrs. HARRY TOOKER'S gown was a beautifully cut, giving floral printed crepe with crepe contrast for flowers.

Mrs. MIKE WIMACK chose a perfect blue flowered gown. Mrs. DORIS HALL, was attractive in a maroon and white chiffon number. Estelle was well represented in her gown and Sanford was out in full bloom. DOROTHY STEVENS formerly of Portland, Ore., former Festival of States Queen at a recent gala in Petersburg celebration.

She is the beautiful daughter of Mrs. Ralph E. Stevens and the late Dr. Stevens and the niece of MISS REBECCA STEVENS of Sanford. Sign in a Miami Beach restaurant. "If you were an eighty year old man, I would like to be your mother."

The cocktail party given by MR. & MRS. GEORGE HADEN at the Country Club Monday between the hours of 6:00 and 8:00 P. M. was a wonderful success. The club has never looked better, the women of Sanford have never looked smarter and there were smiles galore which made for a perfect atmosphere. I leaned over a couple of shoulders (men) and listened to the conversation. Some spoke of their favorite horses, or a newly purchased coat.

Longwood Mrs. J. H. Menden

Many Longwood citizens were enjoying the great celebration in Sanford on Wednesday. The Civic League held their monthly homecoming Friday night with a large attendance when Jacky Menden, former Longwood resident, gave a paper by the name of "The Future of the South." Mrs. Menden is a member of the League to provide a better education for local teenagers.

Elmer Helms, Aviation Mechanic 2nd Class, on the new Hornet in the Pacific for two years and seven months has been discharged and is now in business with his father, A. L. Helms.

Robert Blankenship, radio man with the Navy, has been discharged and is home with his parents, M. B. Blankenship, A. C. L. agent and Mrs. Blankenship.

Thomas Finch, member of the town council and veteran of World War I, has been all the week at his home on Wilma Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tracy have returned from the marriage of their daughter, Elaine Tice.

Mr. Ralph H. Bond presided at the annual report given by all members.

This week Friday night Rev. Mark Carpenter will give his last Lenten address for the season at Christ Church. These talks have been most inspiring.

MY EXPERIENCE With Automobile Insurance "Sometime ago I backed my car into another car damaging the rear of my car. The cost of repairing my car was $67.00. Before the garage found out the work I damaged a fender, the cost of repairs $10.00. Next I ran into the rear of another car damaging my bumper $5.00 worth. A person in a red Packard backed into my car denting and scraping the paint off a fender, cost of straightening and repainting $15.00. I had these repairs made at one time, and it only cost me $19.40, the insurance company paying the difference. Had I been carrying $50.00 deductive collision, it would have cost me $80.00, the insurance company paying only $17.60. I certainly recommend your 80 per cent collision insurance. ## Worlds Fair Site To Be UN Headquarters

New York City Puts Up $1,000,000 For Improvements To Flushing Meadow

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—A dark horse came through today in the selection of a site for the headquarters of the United Nations. Mayor William O'Dwyer announced that Secretary General of the U. N., Trygve Lie, had decided to locate the U. N. headquarters in Flushing Meadow, L. I., at the site of the World's Fair. The place is about five miles from Manhattan. The Sperry Gyroscope plant at Lake Success, L. I., had been considered as a leading contender for the interim headquarters.

Eventually the United Nations will move to their permanent home, which has been designated in the border area between Connecticut and New York State. The Sperry Gyroscope Plant will be used as the interim office headquarters of the U. N. Mayor O'Dwyer says the city has agreed to put up more than a $1,000,000 for improving the Flushing Meadow park and the interior of the Municipal Building at the World's Fair site.

The municipal building presumably will be used for meetings of the General Assembly of the United Nations, which is scheduled to convene in New York on Sept. 8. The U. N. Security Council has been holding its current meetings at Hunter College in the Bronx.

The U. N. Security Council meets again next Monday. A top issue on the agenda is Poland's demand for action against the Franco regime in Spain. Russia is expected to support Poland's demand for an indictment of Franco. An observer today predicted that the United States and Britain will vote for a full meeting of the council — although both nations have taken the stand that Franco is a domestic problem for Spain to work out. Specifically, Poland accuses Spain of harboring fugitive German scientists working on atomic weapons.

Salvation Army's Home Service Fund Drive Is Underway

Major Allan S. Whorton of the Salvation Army announced today that the Home Service appeal for the organization's annual fund for the year 1946 began today. The appeal for $3,500 was approved during a recent meeting of the advisory board. Letters to all subscribers have been placed in the mails and Major Whorton said that the board would greatly appreciate a liberal response from the public, particularly by mail. He remarked that workers are hard to obtain.

Major Whorton revealed that in the past year 119 men were given to treatment, 70 people were provided lodgings, transportation was made available to 18 persons, 58 families were given 1,472 new and old garments and 57 families were provided groceries. ## Chinese Admit UNRRA Flour In Illegal Hands

Officials Deny Any Cargoes Of Rice On Black Market

SHANGHAI, April 11. (AP)—Officials of the Chinese National Relief and Rehabilitation Administration today admitted that large quantities of U. N. R. R. A. flour have entered illegal channels. The officials, however, have denied that any U. N. R. R. A. shipments of rice have reached Shanghai's black market. The Chinese agency asserts that so far only 3,700 long tons of U. N. R. R. A. rice have reached Shanghai. U. N. R. R. A. officials in Washington were quoted Tuesday as being gravely concerned over information that shipments of rice were reaching the black market in Shanghai.

Meanwhile, the Chinese relief officials have admitted their inability to prevent U. N. R. R. A. flour from reaching the black market. Says one official: "Shanghai has the shrewdest merchants in the world and they have a way of reaching their hands into everything."

A 49-pound bag of U. N. R. R. A. flour is obtainable at the black market price of $6.50 or six times the prewar price.

Measures To Give FVC Members Even Marketing Break Will Be Discussed

LAKELAND, April 11 (Special)—What measures may be taken by the Florida Vegetable Committee through its Foreign Trade sub-committee to assure its members of an even marketing break with the producing areas of Cuba and Mexico will be discussed Tuesday at Miami. Luther L. Chandler of Goulds, chairman of the FVC's foreign trade unit, will head up the conference during which a comprehensive report on his recent inspection tours of the industry in the two neighboring nations will be given by LeMonte Girou, FVC manager. A group of interested growers will attend.

The problem, increasingly important to Florida and other domestic growers, comes not only from the rapidly enlarging imports of commercial tomatoes from these two countries but also from the present reciprocal treaties which make it possible for Cuban and Mexican exporters, under production conditions as they exist in those countries, to market their products in the United States at a figure which is lower than actual production cost in the domestic industry. Several years ago, when the imports first constituted a threat to the domestic grower, the government put a tariff on the foreign tomato which placed it in parity with the one raised in the United States. Later, when the commercial administration began "strangling" the good neighbor policy, this tariff was cut in half. More recent legislation has placed it within the power of the present administration to further reduce the tariff.

Kaltenbrunner Goes On Stand At Nuernberg

SS Chief Says He Is Hated Since Hitler Cannot Answer For Gestapo Deeds

NUERNBERG, Apr. 11. (AP)—A hulking, saber-scarred German got up before the Nuernberg War Crimes Tribunal today to protest that the whole world hates him because Hitler is dead and can no longer answer for the deeds of the German Gestapo.

He was Ernst Kaltenbrunner, former head of the German Security Police. Kaltenbrunner told the court he was ready to assume responsibility for the deeds of the Security Police insofar as they occurred under his actual control and knowledge. The defendant then denied, almost immediately any knowledge of the murders at the Mauthausen concentration camp on Jan. 24, 1945, where an Allied group, including Associated Press correspondent Joseph Morton, Jr. was killed.

The prosecution reminded Kaltenbrunner that a statement from the camp commandant already had been presented to the tribunal. This statement said it telephoned order for the slayings bore Kaltenbrunner's signature.

Kaltenbrunner's answer to this was one which has become very familiar during the course of the Nuernberg trial. Said he: "Such authority was held only by Hitler and Himmler. It's quite impossible that this incident could ever have been brought to my knowledge."

Kaltenbrunner then added quickly that possibly his fault was that he did not take steps to insure that other persons were not sending orders over the Kaltenbrunner signature. Said he:

"Not once did I sign or even see a single protective custody arrest order. But this was the true state of affairs."

G. L. Newspaper "Roundup" Halts After Four Years

NEW DELHI, India, April 11. (AP)—The G. L. newspaper, "Roundup" which was published for four years in the China-Burma-India Theater of Operations closed up shop today.

For perhaps the first time in the very successful history of the soldier newspaper, "top brass" has rejected the idea.

"Roundup's" famous pin-up girls were in the last issue but page one was devoted to messages from the generals, from Chief of Staff Eisenhower down.

The former commander of the C. B. I. Theater, General "Uncle Joe" Stilwell, radioed congratulations to the staff of Roundup. It was Stilwell who once told the newspaper staff to print all the news they were able to prove.

Stilwell said that Roundup accomplished its mission and can fold up with the satisfaction of knowing that it never missed a chance to crack down on injustice or to touch off stuffed shirts.

Except for "Stars and Stripes," Roundup was the only service publication mentioned in the annual report of former Chief of Staff General George Marshall.

Freights Crash 200 Yards South Of ACL Station

Calhoun And Dudley Injured As They Jump From Engine

J. A. Calhoun, locomotive engineer, and F. L. Dudley, brakeman, both of Sanford, received ankle sprains and bruises shortly after 9:00 o'clock last evening when they leaped from the cab of locomotive No. 1628, which, while proceeding north with an empty freight train on the south bound curved track, collided with engine No. 456 which had been standing with its freight train in front of the Atlantic Coast Line Depot awaiting the passage of the other train on the north track.

The incoming train, which somehow had gotten up to the wrong track, was believed to have been proceeding at about 10 miles an hour and ran into the standing locomotive on the curve about 200 yards south of the ACL depot. The impact demolished an empty box car immediately behind the tender. The upper part of the box was broken up and thrust upward and into a steel gondola car behind it, where the wheels, which had jammed the gondola wheels backward.

Headlights of both locomotives were smashed, boilers dented and cowcatchers bent. The standing locomotive, No. 456, had a one foot hole punched below the boiler. The northbound engine had two front wheels dented, and workmen this morning were busy, under direction of M. Carroll, shop foreman, jacking it up and getting it on the track.

The two injured men were taken in an Erickson ambulance to Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital and attended by Dr. J. N. Tolar, who said that x-rays were being made today to determine injuries. It was first believed that Mr. Calhoun had broken ankles, and that Mr. Dudley had a broken left ankle, but x-rays this morning revealed no broken bones. The latter had a bruised left elbow and chest bruises.

The crew of the standing locomotive of which R. E. Futrell of Sanford is engineer were able to get off their locomotive in time to avoid injury. N. Siblin, negro fireman, who jumped from the approaching locomotive, was not injured.

Responsibility for the accident has not been determined, said L. W. Shuman, trainmaster. Charles A. Black, division superintendent, could not be reached for comment today.

Treman Refused Kimmel Request To Inspect FDR's Secret Files

President Declared In Letter To Former Pacific Chief That Only Committee Had Right To Inspect Documents

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—A witness at the Pearl Harbor investigation said today that President Truman had refused to permit Admiral Husband E. Kimmel to inspect what Senator Homer Ferguson called a "super-secret" file of the late President Roosevelt's messages.

Ensign John Phelan, speaking for the former Pacific fleet commander, said that Mr. Truman had written a letter stating that only the committee had the right to look at such files. This was substantiated by a commander John Becker who said that the committee had been given full access to the file. Becker said that the file was not open but that it contained two messages, both previously given to the Pearl Harbor committee. These messages were addressed to the high commissioner of the Philippines and had little bearing on the Japanese attack at Pearl Harbor.

New Pay Scale Recommended For Army, Navy

Extension Of Draft For A Year Urged Today By Senate Military Committee

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11. (AP)—The House Military Committee will act late today on a new plan for increasing the pay of army men, as one means of attracting more men into the service. The plan, drafted by a sub-committee, calls for a 33 per cent increase in pay, instead of the flat boost of 2400 a year that was suggested at first.

Under the sub-committee's plan, buck privates would get a 50 per cent increase, going from $50 to $75 a month. Corporals would go from $60 to $90, and first and master sergeants from $138 to $165 a month.

In the commissioned ranks, second lieutenants would be raised from $1,800 to $2,000 a year, first lieutenants from $2,000 to $2,400, and so on up the line as far as the rank of colonel. Naval petty officers would get an increase from $126 to $150 a month.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11. (AP)—The Senate Military committee has recommended that the draft be extended for a full year.

Dissatisfied War Bride Finds Home Of U. S. Relatives

BLISS, N. Y., Apr. 11. (AP)—A 16-year old English war bride who left her husband's home a few days ago has found happiness in the home of relatives in this country whom she has never seen before.

The relatives of Mrs. Evelyn Poston live on a farm near here. The girl arrived from New York City, a bus trip from New York after a stay in New York after the home of her ex-husband, W. J. Poston, in Salisbury, N. C.

New York detectives quoted the girl as saying that she had married her husband as she was under the impression that he was wealthy. She told detectives, however, that she had found him living in a one-room cabin with few conveniences when she came to this country from England to join him.

Mrs. Poston said she liked what she had seen of western New York "much better" than the section of North Carolina where her husband lived. She said she will try to get a divorce as soon as she is settled. Her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheple, have acted as child-rearers of whom she likes the home. The English bride says she thinks all of the family are wonderful.

The people of Florida are mobilizing to fight this most dreaded of all diseases. The April fund raising campaign seeks $132,720 — $2,000 of it will be raised in Seminole County," Glenn Lingle, Jr., chairman of the drive here in Seminole County, today declared.

"other funds will be used to carry on cancer research which ultimately will discover the cause and cure for cancer."

"The Florida Division of the American Cancer Society needs your support in its fight against the disease that has been called our Number One Enemy. Cancer costs lives; cancer control costs money. Which would you rather give?" Contributions may be mailed to Dorothy Crumley, treasurer, or A. B. Peterson, general chairman for Seminole County.
