Texans Celebrate Day For Old Maids

The resulting publicity has been followeds. Other old muid cele-

AND I THOUGHT

Sports Selections

By PETE OSBORNE If this story about the team out front come July 4 winning the pennant is true, the Chicago White Box has just about had it. Such a rapid demise, too. A week ago the Chicag ever in close contention. Today even the Yankees have overtaken them and the American League entry from the Windy City rests snuggly in third position—seven games behind the Indiana trum Gerveland.

trom Cieveland Over the weekend the Cleveland ciub played havor with the Son, aweeping a four-game series. It's been 35 years since Chicago has been able to claim the Junior League championship and if the Indians have their way about it it'll probably he that long before they do it again. It is worthwhile to mention, though, that Cleveland was the fast winner before Casey Stengel unleashed the barrage of pennant wins which have kept the flag in Yankee Stadium for the Lou, Boudreau guided the Indians to the 1948 World Series where the Clevelanders annexed the championship title in six panns against Brooklyn. In fact, Lou got Limself chosen the most valuable player in the league as a shortstop Hut this Chicago situation is disappointing for several reasons.

First off, anybody who didn't pick the Yankees to repeat their per-nant control another year was looked at in a funny light before the season opened. And if you went far enough out on a limb to those Chicago, the funny light cast upon you was almost bilinding or maybe binding, like a strait jacket. But this hunt-and-peck typist put the finger on Chicago.

And though the season isn't hearly over, that seven-game-lead isn't anything to sneeze at. Particularly when back in March you alloted a couple of bucks to a gentlemen who said they didn't have a counce the Yankees would win ngain. So you say, "Okny, the team that is ahead the Fourth of July—Chicago or New York—wins the smacks." And the jovial guy that he is, he say "Okny, you're on."

Or was it off?

So shout this time a week ago.

So, about this time a week ago-let's call it last Tuesday-- you get out your baseometer and see get out your baseometer and see the Sox a game and a half behind Cleveland, while New York trags you the same distance. "Ito, ho," you say, "You've got it boxed. The Yanka can't possibly overtake your beloved White Sox by Sunday," and you start counting the two packs of amokes you can buy with the green you win from the gentleman, And you think no more about it until you hear the crash when the Sox run headlong into when the Son run headlong into the war-painted Indiana from

But it's a long, long time from July through September, and though the recent catastrophe bant helped their chances a hit, don't cell the Chicago boys short. After all, 36 years is a long time.
