American Association Club Owners Gather In Chicago For 7-Day Meet

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Little time remained for hot stove deliberations as American Association club owners gathered today for a week's sessions.

Managers to succeed all the deposed stars have already been announced, although the future plans of some of the former field generals have not been disclosed. Commissioner K. M. Landis apparently has only to count the vote to learn his plurality for another term as baseball boss.

The player trading activities of some of the seven new major league managers promise to be the principal activity of the week. The recent major league gathering at Asheville resulted in very little trading, so apparently the managers will have to fall back on swapping players among themselves.

The promised announcement of Eddie Collins, former manager of the White Sox, that he would name the American League club he will play with next summer, is one of the few definite events on the program. That he will rejoin Connie Mack, his old manager, is considered likely.

Row Over Ranking West Gets Major Of Richards Seems Golf Tournament Likely In Net Body For Next Season

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Dispute over the ranking of Vincent Richards, professional star, seems likely to be carried to the floor of the annual U. S. Lawn Tennis Association meeting here in February.

The Metropolitan ranking committee, placed Richards in number one position after the former Davis cup star had joined the professional forces at the close of the amateur season.

The executive committee of the U. S. L. T. A. meeting here Saturday, recommended that the coming season of the national body consider "none but the amateur players in any ranking of the national association or its subsidiary associations."

Tennis critics believe that in the event of verbal warfare over the choice of a special body will be chosen to work with the ranking committee.

The executive committee also adopted a resolution barring Miss Mary K. Blythe, Harvey Snodgrass and Howard Kinsey, professional associates of Miss Loydell from "any further competition in competition in amateur matches or tournaments held under the auspices of the U. S. L. T. A. The resolution will be sent to the International Lawn Tennis Federation.

Harry Cooper Wins Monterey Open Meet With $2,300 As Prize

DEL MONTE, Calif., Dec. 13.—(AP)—A little man with a mighty leg of clubs carried the title of the Monterey Peninsula Open golf champion and an additional $2,300 in his pockets today.

He is Harry Cooper, of Los Angeles, who came out of Texas a year ago to capture the $10,000 Los Angeles Open tournament. Yesterday he added to his honors by clubbing a title from the green fairways of Pebble Beach against one of the greatest fields ever assembled outside the national open championships. A total of $5,000 was given in prizes; Cooper's score for the 72 holes was 293, two strokes better than his nearest rival, Larry Nabholz, of Cleveland, who finished the four rounds in 295.

True to his past form, Wirt Bill Meinhart, who led the first two rounds, lagged his annual blow-up. He gave up the lead on the 54th hole and in the course of two hours dropped to sixth place, only to make a partial comeback.

Club Owners To Name Landis For Another Seven Years, Is Belief

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—(AP)—K. M. Landis, high commissioner of base ball, will be re-elected for a seven-year term at the joint meeting of the National and American Leagues in Chicago, Thursday, in the opinion of National League club owners in New York for their own league pow wow tomorrow and Wednesday. The circuit is expected to vote for Landis as a unit.

But the magnates of both leagues are chafing under the "benevolent despotism" of Commissioner Landis, the New York World said today. Dissatisfaction is felt over the belief that the high commissioner has ignored the existence of the advisory council for no meeting has been called in the past two years, the paper says.

The magnates are represented, as considering the suggestion of a "steering committee" to advise with the commissioner during the off-season for joint meetings.

"An effort to bring about amendments to the Landis working agreement seems likely at the joint meeting, the magnates indicate.

The club owners express no interest in the $150,000 salary already paid the commissioner, granted at the Chicago pow wow.

Officers from 14 foreign countries will train at U. S. army schools or with American troops during 1920-27.

The NUT CRACKER by Joe Williams

News dispatches from Pasadena, Calif., tell how belligerent bumble bees are stinging quiet, home-loving gold fish to death in privacy of spicatorial boudoirs.

Society for prevention of cruelty to gold fish has taken robust steps to the end these homicidal outbursts at all costs, and the cheaper the better.

Police have issued orders to bring in all suspicious looking bees who are unable to show union cards, marriage certificates and correct meaning of phrases, "The bees' knees."

Federal authorization to invade private homes of bees of various social standing has been demanded on very silly ground that you never can tell.

The suspicion that a long-war is in progress between the Oologs, represented by the bees on the one side, and the Build-Your-Own Bungalows, as represented by the gold fish, on the other is something you can take or leave in order named.

Mr. O'Goofy in refusing to head an indignation Council of Public-Spirited Citizens, commented somewhat acidly that affair was nothing to get steamed up about.

"Somebody's just got the bees," he insists.

Nevertheless, a city ordinance has been proposed demanding that:

- (1) All bees shall be muzzled.
- (2) All bees parking without lights shall be turned in.
- (3) All bees buzzing around in tenor tones shall be shot at sunrise.
- (4) All bees shall be kept away from gold fish, except on Fridays.
- (5) All bees wearing spats and carrying canes shall be murdered on sight.

An official expression from the White House deprecates vandalism of California bees and suspects it is just another move by Hiram Johnson to embarrass current administration.

Mr. Ted Rickard views the situation with acute alarm. "Every possible power should be brought to bear to stop these attacks. There are hardly enough fish to go around as it is."

A gold fish that has been stung by a mad bee is practically useless. In fact, it is almost as useless as a gold fish that has not been stung by a mad bee.

"Don't you come around honeying me," barked a gold fish that had been wounded in the jurisdiction by an antagonistic hive dweller.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Professional football soured by rain in the East on five Sundays early in the season ended the local campaign, shuffling about in snow.

Owing to delayed stock shipments we were unable to hold our opening as had been planned. For the same reason we could not give our announcements to the press. At noon, Saturday, our doors were opened and we made our initial bow as confectionery to the people of Sanford. Despite the informal nature of the opening, the demand for our products was even greater than had been our fondest anticipations—hundreds came, made purchases, expressed their appreciation of the stock, fixtures, interior decorating and general appearance of the store, and went away satisfied that they had visited, as one expressed it, "one of the prettiest places I have seen anywhere."
Naturally, this state of affairs, this tangible appreciation of our efforts is exceptionally pleasing to the management. And so it is that we thank you—yes, you—for your interest, your words of approval. We thank you for your patronage, and will honestly and conscientiously try to deserve and cherish that which we have adopted as our slogan, namely—

Florida Should Be Exporting Eggs

Florida's people send to other states for their butter and eggs. Florida's people send to other states for countless things besides butter and eggs that they should be getting from their own state.

Instead of having insufficient poultry yards for the production of enough eggs to supply its home market, Florida should be having a surplus of eggs going to other states and foreign countries.

During the first six months of this year, American hens laid 16,416,395 dozen eggs for the export trade. But no Florida hens shared in this work.

The Herald does not know how this situation is to be changed except by the strangely slow increase in the number of poultry plants that is now in progress.

Florida people should somehow be induced to take greater interest in this state's opportunities for money-making that comes from the utilization of the natural conditions in which this state is so favored.

Speaking Of Truth In Advertising

"The plumber protects the health of the nation," says a beautifully-executed advertisement in the Literary Digest. The advertisement, as would be inferred, is telling the merits of some up-to-date plumbing fixtures for the kitchen.

What we want to know is why the Literary Digest in the interest of truth in advertising did not censure that copy to the extent of making the assertion, "Some plumbers protect the health of the nation."

A plumber who is not an honest, conscientious worker has a chance to do more unknown damage than has almost any other craftsman—if that's the word.

Honest service, conscientious determination to give an employer an honest, efficient job, this in the work of the plumber easily earns him the right to that same slogan.

When you run into a rich personality, you are in contact with a mind that is far and wide in its influence.

Enforcing Law. Surprise for Trotsky. Let Them Combine. Why Tie Our Hands? BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright, 1926, Star Co.)

Irvington, New Jersey, decided to enforce the blue laws, that forbid "worldly occupations on the Sabbath. Yesterday at 8 p. m. 110 persons had been arrested, including 10 reporters, locked up for taking notes, motormen and others.

Golf theaters, movies, any sport or business activity is against the law. To enforce it occasionally and learn how people feel is wise.

That will be news to Trotsky, the only conspicuous Jew in the Russian government, from whom his powers have recently been taken one by one.

Mr. Ford also prints: "The international Jew is in direct control of all financial centers of government, including the United States federal reserve system."

Secretary Mellon and Mr. Strong, of the reserve bank, will learn something there.

The four richest men in the world are Rockefeller, Ford himself, Mr. Mellon and George F. Baker—according to those that should know.

BLUNDERING THROUGH DEARBORN INDEPENDENT

The British coal strike is over; but it is not settled. It has been one of the most costly experiments at economic adjustment ever attempted and it has accomplished exactly nothing.

The sole concrete result which stands out sharply against the dark background of failure is the staggering cost—$1,250,000,000, according to the conservative estimates of the Board of Trade.

The mining industry in Britain, like that in this country, is not on a basis of service. The minds of the mine owners seem centered on present profits rather than future development.

And so the war torn nation has been put to the unneeded expense of a $1,250,000,000 strike; the mines are in poorer condition than ever, the price of coal is higher, and hundreds of thousands of miners are forced to accept lower wages and a correspondingly lower standard of living.

THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS! PALM BEACH POST

The old story that is never old! The story of Santa Claus! Back in 1897, a little New York girl, Virginia O'Hanlon, wrote to the New York Sun.

"Dear Editor: I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is not a Santa Claus, Papa says 'if you see it in the 'Sun' it's so.' Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?"

"VIRGINIA O'HANLON, '115 W. 96th street." Here is the reply: "Virginia your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age."

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy."

"No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia may, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of child."

Mrs. Robinson And George Creel Clash On Wilson's Ideals

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(AP)—A sister of Theodore Roosevelt and the head of Woodrow Wilson's wartime committee on public information have clashed publicly over the war President's ideals and vision.

In the midst of Wilson admirers, Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson questioned George Creel yesterday after his speech.

Mr. Creel said that Wilson's vision foresaw "a tragedy of disappointment coming" even before the peace conference, due to the lapse in idealism that followed the armistice.

Questions were invited. Mrs. Robinson arose and in a voice that carried to every corner of the hall asked:

"If Mr. Wilson had so much vision as you say he had, why did he not enter the war sooner and save thousands of lives?"

"He did not enter the war sooner," Creel answered, "because, for one thing, New York and the Atlantic seaboard are not America. It would have been impossible to commit the American people to war earlier."

Mrs. Robinson was unsatisfied. "You are evading, not answering the question," she said. "The President has the power of leadership. It is said that he kept us out of war. I want to know why he did not lead us in sooner?"

The presiding chairman waved his hand soothingly and announced that the question had been answered. Mrs. Robinson vetoed the hall.

Charles Stewart, driver, and an unidentified companion, died at a hospital shortly afterward while W. J. Hardcastle, another occupant of the machine was in a critical condition. All were carpenters in middle age, on their way to work at a greyhound track under construction in the southwest section.

1926 Edition Of Who's Who Contains The Names Of 170 Persons Who Live In State

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 13.—(AP)—The 1926 edition of Who's Who in America, recently published, contains the names of 170 persons who are permanent residents of Florida, and 52 others with homes in Florida, and also in some other state, or country.

This was found by Dr. R. M. Harper, well-known statistician and geographer, in an examination of the publication that lists most of the prominent persons of American life. Dr. Harper, formerly connected with the state geologist's office here, is now at the University of Alabama.

Of those having homes in Florida, and in other states, or countries, the Who's Who does not include in that category a large number of notables, like Dewey and Rockefeller, who spend a few weeks, or months, in Florida every winter, but do not have homes in the state, and even some who own homes in the state, like Edison and Ford, and who are not listed as residents in the book.

Assuming, says Dr. Harper, that the part-time residents spend half the year in Florida, one would have the equivalent of 196 noted persons living in the state, as compared with 121 in the 1924 edition of the book, and 101 in 1920. Evidently, he assumes, the number of notables in Florida has increased faster than the total population in recent years, and especially during the activities of 1925. They now constitute about one in 1,000 of the total population, or one in 2,500 of the adult white population.

Apparently all the Floridians in the current Who's Who volume are white, although a few Florida negroes have been listed in previous editions. About one-tenth of the total number are women, which is not different from the average rate for the whole work.

Of the 170 permanent residents, 35 may be classed as retired, although, of course, a sharp line cannot be drawn between active and retired persons, and some, says the statistician, who thought their life work was finished when they came to Florida, have been stimulated to renewed activity here.

The Florida homes of those who spend their summers elsewhere are as follows:

Daytona, including Daytona Beach, St. Petersburg, Palm Beach, and Miami, four each; Winter Park and Brooksville, three each; Jacksonville, Orlando, Eustis, West Palm Beach, Miami Beach and Coconut Grove, two each, and fifteen other places, one each.

Of the retired persons who live in Florida, all or nearly all the time, six are in St. Petersburg; three in Miami; two each in Tampa; Palm Beach, Miami Beach and Coconut Grove, and one each in 18 other places.

Those who make their living in Florida have a different distribution, as follows:

Jacksonville, including Ortega and South Jacksonville, 19; Tallahassee, 16; Miami, 12; Gainesville and Tampa, 11 each; Winter Park and Lakeland, 6 each; West Palm Beach, 5; Pensacola, 4; St. Augustine, DeLand, Orlando, Miami Beach, Coral Gables and Coconut Grove, 3 each; St. Petersburg, Eagle Lake and Arcadia, 2 each; and 22 other places, one each.

DIES OF BURNS
BRADENTON, Fla., Dec. 14. (AP)-Kenneth H. Mulkins, about 25 years of age, lineman of the local power company, died last night in a hospital here from a severe shock and burns about the body sustained yesterday morning when he came in contact with a live wire carrying 2,500 volts. He was a native of Pauling, N. Y.

The picturesque gondola of Ven- ice is rapidly giving way to the more prosaic and speedier motor boat.
