Over 60 Injured As Tornadoes Slash Across State Yesterday

FORT PIERCE (UP)—A series of vicious tornadoes slashed across the Florida Peninsula Tuesday, wrecking about 75 homes and injuring more than 60 persons. Damage was expected to be over a million dollars.

No deaths had been attributed directly to the severe storms, although an Air Force B47 Stratofortress bomber which crashed near the mouth of Tampa Bay may have run into trouble flying low to avoid the storm front.

Over 60 persons had received hospital treatment for injuries suffered in the series of twisters. Most were not seriously injured, but 30 had been hospitalized, all of them here, and four were reported in critical condition.

Some 75 homes and buildings were destroyed or badly damaged in the slash of the storms across the state—54 of them here—and damage was expected to be over a million dollars. Officials were unwilling to make any estimates until surveys had been completed. The Weather Bureau in Miami, meanwhile, forecast clearing weather today and an end to the rains which accompanied the storms.

Worst at Fort Pierce was the hardest hit by the tornadoes. Wind gusts of hurricane strength were reported as the twister, moving in from the ocean, cut a two mile wide swath of destruction across the town to the Everglades on the west.

The Red Cross dispatched case workers to Fort Pierce Tuesday night from Fort Lauderdale and Atlanta, and supplied extra beds for the injured and homeless at the Fort Pierce Memorial Hospital.

The downtown area was completely blocked off to prevent looting and injury to sightseers and armed National Guardsmen patrolled the streets. All traffic was re-routed.

WIS at St. Augustine

Another severe storm struck the outskirts of St. Augustine, injuring 10 persons and damaging eight to 10 houses.

Seven houses were destroyed or damaged and 12 persons slightly injured in the Bereah commun-nity in south Polk County where still another tornado struck.

A fourth storm hit the ground causing only minor damage, near Ruskin in the rural Tampa Bay area.

But at least two more tornadoes which apparently never touched the ground were reported elsewhere in the Tampa Bay area and northwest of Palm Beach. A waterpump was spotted near Fort Meyers on the west coast and violent thunder storms slammed into other Florida towns.

There was some damage along

U. S. 90 south of Tampa and at Mullet Key at the mouth of Tampa Bay.

The storm front rolled over Florida from the Gulf of Mexico Tuesday morning, striking first the west coast then whirling over the state to smash the east coast some four hours later.

Over in 16 Minutes

At Fort Pierce, photographer Ed Finley said the tornado struck without warning and was all over in about 10 minutes, leaving residents aghast and "not really realizing what had happened to them."

A display window was blown out of a jewelry store and diamonds scattered over the sidewalk in the wind. The tower of radio station WIRA, which has stood up under four hurricanes since 1946, was toppled into the Indian River. All power was knocked out in the city.

Trees were uprooted and concrete block buildings torn down by the terrific force of the winds. The wal of a bottling company building toppled onto three empty cars.

"I watched a fantastic parade of signs, tree limbs—a whole tree once—parts of houses and roofs tumbling up the street from the direction of the ocean," Finley said.

St. Lucie County Commissioner Doug Silver said the blow caused more damage than the 1949 hurricane which hit the city with winds up to 115 miles an hour.

The critically injured were listed as Esther Minhorn, 63, Lois Minhorn, 23, Ella Cleer, 75, and John Terry Jr., 9.

Weather
Generally fair through Thursday. Windy and cooler today; low tonight 65 to 67.

Gaillard's Government Resigns Early Today

PARIS (UP)—The government of Premier Felix Gaillard resigned early today in the wake of an adverse 23-223 vote in the National Assembly.

Gaillard had put his Tunisian policy up for an "unofficial" vote of confidence.

President Rene Coty immediately named the 38-year-old former finance minister as caretaker premier—a post with no power, no voice in crucial NATO meetings now being held, and no authority to answer an expected onslaught on French policies in the United Nations.

Gaillard's defeat at the hands of right-wing forces led by Gaullist Jacques Soustelle and the large Communist bloc was a serious blow to U. S.—British efforts to mediate France's dispute with Tunisia.

Fear Loss of Algeria
Rightists feared Gaillard's "soft" policy towards Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba would eventually cost France Algeria as well. They look upon Algeria as an integral part of metropolitan France, like Alsace-Lorraine.

Leftists maintain France should settle her costly embroilment in North Africa by granting independence to Algeria.

Eight weeks of tireless efforts by British and U. S. diplomats to mediate the dispute arising from the French bombing of the Tunisian village of Sabet Bidi Youssef evaporated Tuesday night in an outburst of ill feeling against the United States and President Eisenhower.

A letter last week from Eisenhower to Gaillard urging him to seek a peaceful settlement with rightwing extremists denouncing American policy and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

While 2,000 riot police gathered outside to head off possible demonstration, Gaillard assured the Assembly that "if the government has acted in a certain way toward Tunisia, it is not because of this Eisenhower message but because it felt it was wise to do so."

2 Small Children Narrowly Escape Death in Wreck

Two small children, one of them two years old and the other only eight months old, narrowly escaped being crushed to death yesterday afternoon when they were thrown from an automobile out of control.

John Lloyd Griffin, 31-year-old Navy man, attached to the Heavy Attack Training Unit at the Sanford Naval Air Station, was traveling south on Sanford Ave. when apparently the brakes on his Plymouth station wagon locked, throwing the car into a ditch on the east side of the highway.

Constable J. Q. "Slim" Gallows was checking traffic only a short distance from the accident and saw the station wagon leave the highway, crash into the ditch, and then into a culvert.

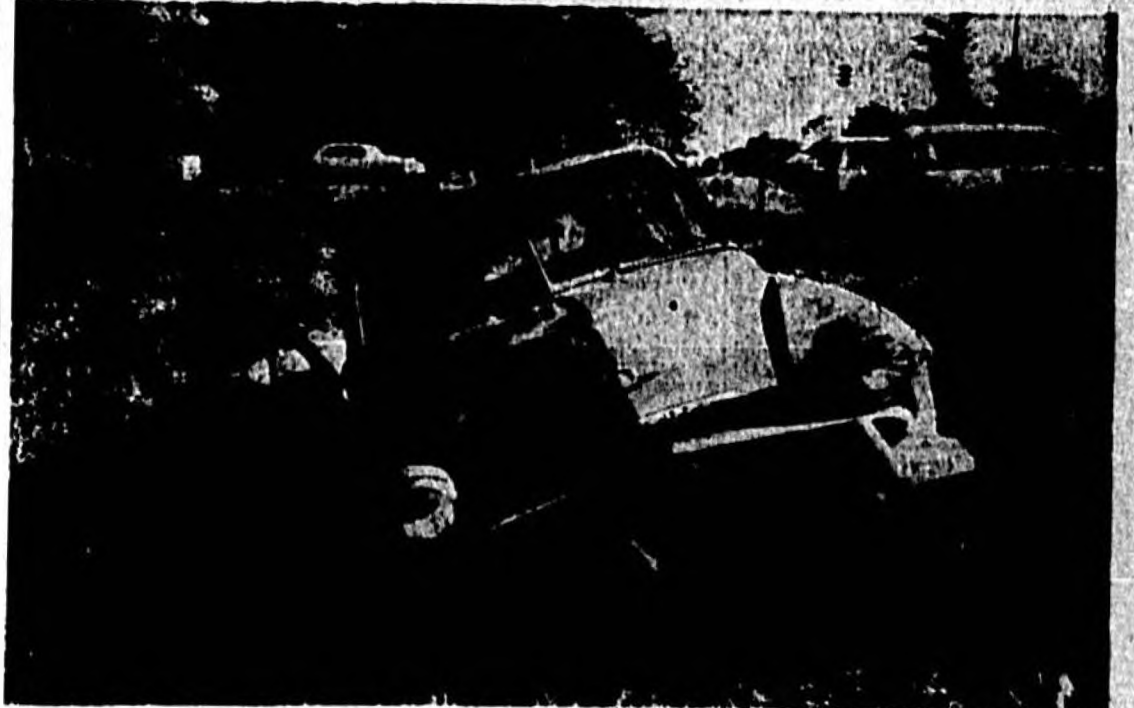

The children were riding on the front seat with their father and were miraculously thrown out onto the ground and received no injuries. The Navy man received abrasions on his face.

Florida Highway Patrolman J. L. Sikes said the automobile was a total loss.

The accident occurred just yards north of the Ocoee Road entrance to the Sanford Naval Air Station.

A Navy ambulance took the children and the Navy man to the NAS Dispensary for checkups.

No charges were filed against the driver, said Patrolman Sikes.

DECLARED A TOTAL LOSS, this car yesterday crashed first into the ditch and then into a culvert back of the station wagon. Two small children, two years and one eight months old, were miraculously thrown out on the ground uninjured. (Staff Photo)

American Influence Boomed

Soustelle, who was governor-general of Algeria two years ago, rasped back: "Where is French policy made? In Washington?"

Five months in office had left Gaillard looking haggard. After the vote, he walked through the Assembly lobbies, a cigarette as usual drooping from the corner of his mouth, and made his way to Coty's residence to hand in his resignation. Delegates sat in stony silence.

This was like the other 23 cabinet crises since the war—but worse. None could think of a suitable coalition that could give France a new government. There was talk that the postwar Fourth Republic might end and that only a Gaullist dictatorship could save France.

Perhaps the biggest winners were the Communists, who have long sought a "popular front" government. There was a strong possibility also the developments would drive many Frenchmen toward the extremist right.

Accident Victim Dies From Injuries

Another fatal accident was chalked up against Seminole County's traffic accident record when it was reported this morning that a passenger in one of the two automobiles which met head-on Easter Sunday night in Ocoee died yesterday in an Orlando hospital.

Freddie Boston, 23-year-old Negro of Ocoee, was critically injured when he was riding in a 1953 Mercury driven by Robert Bonner, 37-year-old Ocoee Negro.

Reports this morning said that Boston, the son of Joe and Ora Boston of Ocoee, died from injuries received in the accident sometime shortly after noon yesterday.

Five Negroes were injured in the accident which occurred shortly after 8 o'clock Easter Sunday night on State Road 436. Both automobiles were demolished when one of them, attempting to pass, ran head-on into the car traveling in the opposite direction.

Nathaniel House, 22, a passenger in a 1951 Pontiac driven by Alfred Bowers, 20, is reported to be in critical condition in the Orlando Air Force Base Hospital. It was said that House has not regained consciousness since his injuries in the accident.

Investigating officers in the Easter Sunday night crash are Florida Highway Patrolman Olin Garrett and Constable George Kelsey of Ocoee.

Fire in Museum Of Art Causes $300,000 Damage

NEW YORK (UP)—Fire in the Museum of Modern Art Tuesday night caused an estimated $300,000 damage to six paintings, one of them totally destroyed, museum officials said today. Firemen, the museum staff and volunteers, including Nelson A. Rockefeller, chairman of the museum board, saved about 11,000 other art objects, valued at four million dollars.

One workman was killed and three women visitors and 24 firemen were treated for smoke poisoning.

The most valuable painting in the building, the one-million-dollar "Un Dimanche a Grande Jatte" known in English as "Sunday Afternoon on the Island of Grande Jatte" by Georges Seurat, survived the fire under a heavy cover of tarpaulins spread by members of the fire patrol.

Art experts feared today that the fire—almost an unheard-of occurrence in a major museum—might seriously curtail further loan exhibitions.

The painting judged to be a total loss was an 18 1/2 foot canvas of "Water Lilies" by Claude Monet. The museum was believed to have paid about $40,000 for the work.

A smaller "Water Lilies" by Monet was hanging on the staff landing between the second and third floors and also appeared to lay observers to be a total loss.

All the damaged paintings, and the destroyed Monet, are part of the museum's permanent collection.

Cuban Troops Stop Rebel Threat To U.S. Navy Base

HAVANA (UP)—The Cuban government reported today it had eliminated a potential rebel threat to the huge American naval base at Guantanamo.

An Army communique said government troops had driven off a number of rebel bands operating in the Guantanamo area, near the eastern tip of Cuba.

Rebel troops, awariming out of the Sierra Maestra Mountains, had engaged the army in sporadic clashes in this section for the past 48 hours, but the government said the rebels were retreating and the fighting here was "nearing an end."

The communique also claimed two other government victories, at Palmarito and at El Dorado, near Bayamo, in Oriente Province, chief center of rebel activities against the government of President Fulgencio Batista.

Will Leave Office

The president, who twice seized power in coups d'etat, pledged he would leave office when his term expires next February. He said, "I won't violate the Constitution by staying one day after the expiration of my term."

"I will stand on my record," he said. "I trust in the understanding of the Cuban people and in their good judgment when they judge my work."

Heavy Casualties

It said heavy casualties were inflicted on the rebels in the Palmarito fighting and that much arms and equipment were captured in the El Dorado skirmish. The communique said the capture of nine more rebels brought to 50 the number surrendering this week.

Batista said there was no possibility of an all-out civil war against his regime because the rebels did not represent public opinion. He said their methods were "communist" and that the

Space-Age Weapon Could Paralyze Enemy

WASHINGTON (UP)—An Air Force general today drew an imaginary picture of a space-age capsule that could paralyze an enemy without killing him. It's not impossible, he said, although some will doubt it.

Lt. Gen. D. L. Pitt, deputy chief of staff for development, said it is "entirely possible" that this fantastic weapon will be developed for use by U. S. space ships of the future.

Pitt conceded that this was "a highly imaginary possibility now" and some may call it impossible. He recalled that in 1941, there were those who didn't believe there could be an atom bomb.

Pitt, who announced his retirement, testified before the House Space Committee.

Man In Space

Dr. Werner Von Braun, Army missile expert, told the committee

Tuesday the Army has proposed to send a man 150 miles above the earth's surface in a capsule borne by a Redstone rocket. He would drop into the ocean and be fished out alive, after a 10-minute flight.

Von Braun said the service had not yet received official permission for the project. But he said there were volunteers ready to make the trip.

If said it would take about a year to prepare for the attempt if permission were granted immediately.

Von Braun said he was convinced the Redstone space flight could be made before the X15 rocket plane is scheduled to carry a man into space near the top of the earth's atmosphere.

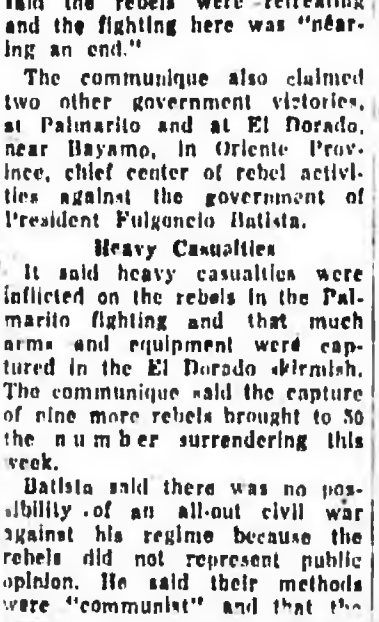

Cheap Experiment

Von Braun, director of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency, told the committee the passenger would be manner is much closer than you think—a certainty within an extremely short time," Pitt said. "I believe we should push this project with all possible vigor and at the highest national priority."

Pitt endorsed the administration proposal, pending before the committee, to create a civilian-controlled National Aeronautics and Space Agency to direct space exploration.

VAH-5 Still Leading In Bombing Race

Heavy Attack Squadron Five (VAH-5) crews gained in their race for honors as the top Navy Heavy Attack Squadron in El Centro, Calif., competition last night.

The local bombardiers picked up another 1,543 points to 1,523 points for the west coast bombardiers. This brings the VAH-5 total to 6,460; VAH-8, their west coast rival, trails with a score of 3,508. The lead is now extended to 2,952 points.

E. A. Baron, AO1, spearheaded the Five drive in pinpoint competition last night by scoring the lowest mark in the contest. He dropped a simulated atomic bomb on a target somewhere in the Pacific. Baron is bombardier/navigator in the competition crew of Cdr. J. M. Tully Jr., the Commanding Officer of VAH-5; the third crewman is E. A. Zak, AQ1.

Two more days of competition remain before the presentation of trophies. The Savage Sons are due to return to Sanford sometime this Friday, and with "a bundle of trophies."

Matinee Theatre

Doomed To Go Off Air In June

By VERNON SCOTT
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD—Television's hot-shot color daytime show, "Matinee Theater," is doomed to go off the air in June unless home viewers come to the rescue with an avalanche of mail.

The program's supper success, John Conte, pleaded for "Matinee's" 10 million viewers, almost all of whom are housewives, to write letters of protest to his bosses.

"Send your letters to Robert Sarnoff, president, NBC Television New York City," Conte requests.

A Personal Tragedy: "It would be a deep personal tragedy to me if the show falls. Our program is a part of the daily lives of millions of persons. Unless we're fortunate enough to have an overwhelming and immediate response the show is finished."

"Once we go off the air daytime programming will be taken over by soap operas."

Somewhat sudy itself, Matinee has presented 600 dramas during its 2 1/2 years on the air. It employed about 3,500 actors a year, and its demise would be a blow indeed to many actors.

"Matinee" had the distinction of being the only five-days-a-week color show on the air.

"That adds another complication," Conte said. "Color set owners have relied on our program when RCA repairmen arrive to adjust their sets."

Man Sponsor Trouble
 "The repairmen don't work at night, and without a daylight color program there will be no opportunity to assure the right kind of service. Color TV salesmen will have their problems, too. They won't be able to demonstrate color sets during the day unless some other color shows are put on the air."

Conte points out that his plea to viewers is not without precedent. Four years ago Gary Moore received word that his daily show was going to be axed. Moore appealed to his viewers for help. His feminine fans flooded the network with missives and Moore was back in business.

"Matinee" is in hot water for the usual TV reason. Sponsor trouble.

If the show does perish, and indications are it will, two soap operas are scheduled to replace it.

Pope Wants Certain Secrets Of Mind Can't Be Unveiled

VATICAN CITY—Pope Pius XII warned psychologists today that "certain secrets" of the human mind "absolutely cannot be unveiled even to the most discreet and wise experts."

The Pontiff made the statement in a 5,000-word treatise on applied psychology and psychiatry read to 600 experts at a special audience.

The scientists, from 30 countries, are holding an international conference in Rome on applied psychology.

The Pope went into detail in defining the position of the Roman Catholic Church on probing the mind of man.

He said psychological tests and new methods of investigation "have contributed enormously to the knowledge of human personality." But, he added, certain techniques "are illicit" and there is a moral limit to how deep into the mind scientists can go.

"Certain secrets can absolutely not be unveiled, even to one prudent person," the Pope said. He said this holds even if the sub-

Conning The News

A threat of a tornado yesterday, and where were most of our worriers? With our children, naturally. (If we had them). There were probably few of us who did not picture winds of seven hundred miles an hour whipping through school buildings, scattering books, papers and limp bodies.

It would not take as much as a tornado to create such havoc in our schools. Many of them would be rubble with a hurricane wind. It seems ironic to me to put up down fire stations, civic centers and other modern conveniences when our children are attending schools that have admittedly been condemned as unsuitable. It will do no good for the kids to have a place to dance, sing or play if they are lying beneath a collapsed roof, or

Follies Voted Down For Next Year By Hospital Group

No High Fever Follies for 1936 was the vote of members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Seminole Memorial Hospital, at a general meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Jewish Community Center.

The motion was put to a vote after much discussion pro and con by the small group attending. General consensus was that a rest for one year would perhaps stimulate interest in the variety show from members of the Auxiliary and the people of Sanford.

The meeting, one of four held annually, was conducted by Mrs. W. R. Dyson, in the absence of Mrs. Robert Blackwelder, president.

Delegates were elected for the Southern Conference of Florida Auxiliaries, which will be held in Miami May 14, 16 and 18. Chosen to represent the local auxiliary were Mrs. Frieda Butler and Mrs. A. H. Verber. Alternates are Mrs. Bert Peterson and Mrs. John Schneider.

Mrs. Dyson urged all members to attend the conference, which is both inspiring and educational. A letter was read from the Winter Garden Auxiliary thanking the local group for the use of the scenery in their production of the High Fever Follies.

Mrs. Joseph Tully, projects chairman, revealed that an open house will be held at the Seminole Memorial Hospital during National Hospital Week, which begins May 11. Mrs. J. M. Truick is chairman of the week.

Mrs. F. E. Roumillat Jr. was awarded a past president's pin by hospital administrator Harry Weir. Mrs. Roumillat has been serving on the Board of Directors since her resignation.

Material for "The Pink PM", a monthly hospital newsletter, is badly needed, according to a plea from editor Mrs. James Howell. News, poems, or other material should be placed in the box by the elevator in the first floor lobby.

214 Register For Men's Golf Tourney Here

A near-record field qualified by noon yesterday for the Florida State Golf Association's 41st Men's State Amateur Golf tournament which gets underway today. Tournament Director Col. S. G. Harriman said yesterday that 214 amateur golfers from every section of Florida had registered by noon.

Many of the golfers braved heavy rains during the afternoon yesterday and with protection from gay colored umbrellas during the intermittent rains played practice rounds before the qualifying rounds today.

Col. Harriman said today that the Mayfair Country Club Course will be closed to all play but tournament activities. Frank Strafe, last year's tournament winner and Florida State Golf Association's champion, will not defend his title in this year's match.

First golfer to tee off in this morning's qualifying round will be Dr. Ben Robinson of Coral Gables. Andrew Carraway and Earl Higginbotham will also play in the first foursome to leave the No. 1 tee.

The Florida State Golf Association's state amateur championship tournament is open to all bona fide male residents of the state of Florida with handicaps of 18 or less and who belong to member clubs in good standing.

Playing in yesterday's practice rounds were Carl Hubbell, director of the San Francisco Glens Farm System, and Jim Spencer.

The championship fight for the match play which gets underway Thursday will be composed of the low 64. Losers in the first round of championship flights become first flight. There will be six additional flights of 16 players in order of their qualifying.

First round of match play will be 18 holes on Thursday with the second round of 18 holes on Friday. Third round of match play will be 36 holes on Saturday and the final round will be 36 holes on Sunday.

Prizes will be awarded immediately following the finish of the championship round. Jack Russell, president of the Florida State Golf Association will make the presentations.

The annual meeting and election of officers will be held at a Thursday morning breakfast at the Mayfair Country Club beginning at 9 a. m.

Tennis Team Has 7 Wins

TALLAHASSEE (Special)—With four matches to be played, Florida State's tennis team has captured seven victories, surpassing last year's total of only five wins.

The Seminoles boast victories over Georgia, Michigan State, Howard, Jacksonville State, Indiana, Mississippi State and Mercer.

Both State and its opponents have totaled 53 points in the 12 matches played to date.

According to Coach Keith Pitchford, the Seminoles stand a good chance of posting their best record since 1925 when the netters finished with a 10-6 mark.

The closeness of competition this year is further shown in the record of State's No. 1 man, Lex Hester, of Neptune Beach. Hester has won six and lost six.

All of FSU's won and loss percentages fall between .465 and .667. The summary:

Rotary Baseball Opening Success

The "grand opening" of the Sanford Rotary Club's baseball league on Monday was well attended, said Sonny Powell, chairman of the local civic club baseball committee.

There was a big turnout of both youngsters and grownups to see the Rotary League's season get underway," he said.

The Pirates defeated the Cubs 5-3 behind the pitching of Mike Davis who also spearheaded the game along by hitting a triple to drive in two runs.

The losing pitcher in the initial game of the season between the two well-matched teams was Perides.

Bill Barks, catcher for the Cubs, was responsible for his team's score when he smacked a homerun driving in one run.

In the other game of the day which sparked the grand opening of the Sanford Rotary Club's baseball the brand new team of Braves defeated the Giants in a close 3-2 game.

Winning pitcher was Alec McKibbin, the losing pitcher; Jimmy Girace.

Each pitcher gave up two hits in a game that was won on "breaks alone."

Nine boys reported at the Rotary Club's baseball diamonds past the deadline for registering, which was on April 7.

Following a meeting of all team managers, it was announced that no new players would be added immediately to the roster of each team. However, the nine boys will be used as substitutes if any uniforms are turned in.

Powell, who is directing the activities of the league for the Sanford Rotary Club said yesterday that "The Rotary Club wants to thank all boys and their parents for the interest they have shown in the league and wish that there could be more teams."

"Unfortunately, we cannot organize more teams this season and we have to have rules to govern the league," he said.

Campbell used to be a small farmer but his love of animals and hatred of fox hunting—"It's wicked to hunt down your fellow beasts"—drove him, he claims, away from farming.

"People around here wouldn't do business with me," he said. Now he works as a road repair man.

D. Davis Upstaged On Award Show

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD—Two-time Oscar winner Bette Davis was upstaged on last week's Academy Award show when her part in the TV program was cut out in favor of—now get this—Donald Duck!

Vexed at being tumbled for an animated squab, Bette cleared up the mystery today.

Immediately after the awards bash went off the air the temperamental star appeared on stage to perform her bit. She was seen only by the theater audience. Televisioners, who had read about her act, were mystified when she failed to appear.

Six Minutes Long
 Nostrils flaring, her famed eyes wide with plique, Miss Davis said, "The show was running too long, and they had to cut something. Rather than make a lot of little cuts, they decided to throw out one entire segment."

She arose from the couch in the den of her Beverly Hills home to light a cigarette. She waved it through the air a la Davis.

"My segment was six minutes in length. Unfortunately that was also the length of Mr. Duck's bit of film," she stormed, "and they chose Donald Duck."

For the first time in her long and distinguished career Miss Davis, once considered the first lady of the screen, had been upstaged—and by a duck yet!

Emcee Bob Hope who was given the unhappy chore of snipping the show during its final stages on the air, further confused the issue by stating Miss Davis was unable to appear. But Bette's wrath seemed more directed at Mickey Mouse's pal Donald than at the ski-moed comedian.

Settle For Less
 "You always have to settle for less on TV," she said.

"Even on filmed shows there isn't time or sufficient budget for painstaking perfection. Despite all that I hope to make seven or eight TV shows a year, and perhaps one movie."

"I must say, I do enjoy making TV films. They wrap up a show in two or three days. It doesn't really give you an opportunity to begin dinking your fellow actors or the director?"

Bette's next TV appearance is April 15 on the "General Electric Theater."

Cotton Usage For '57-58 May Be 13,600,000 Bales
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says that consumption of U. S. cotton during the 1957-58 marketing year may total about 13,600,000 bales, 2,000,000 bales less than in the preceding season.
The department said domestic consumption will be about eight million bales, some 6,000 below last year.
Exports are expected to total 5,600,000 bales, about two million below last season but higher than in any other postwar year.
The prospective consumption exceeds the 1957 crop by 2,700,000 bales. This excess of consumption over production will reduce the surplus to such an extent that made available fibers increased to 10.2 pounds about 2 pound above 1956 but one pound or 9 percent below the record set in cotton stocks has declined after

War Is Said Only Squeeze Of Trigger Away On Korean Front

By ERNEST ROBERG
United Press Staff Correspondent
ON THE KOREAN FRONT
(UP)—War is only the squeeze of a trigger away here.

On the one side of the 2 1/2 mile no-man's land are the United Nations troops. On the other are the Communists.

American boys and their Korean allies dug in on the scarred hills are ready for action. They know why they are here. They feel the pressure and the suspense. Here, you can look across and see the enemy. You can hear enemy artillery practicing in the hills just across the way.

The small death has blown away in the past five years. The determined men who stand firm on these barren slopes scarcely would recognize the line today.

But a thing that has not changed is the determination never again to be caught by a surprise attack such as that launched by the Communists in June 1950. These are trained troops ready with the newest weapons for instant use.

"If the Communists come," U. N. Commander-in-Chief Gen. G. H. Decker told me, "I feel confident we could adequately defend Korea."

He added, however, that after the initial blow help would be needed from the outside. At present, the general said, there is no exchange of fire between the opposing armies. There are very few incidents.

"Both are in defensive attitudes," he explained. Decker estimated the Communist forces number about 700,000 men. The figure includes troops the Chinese claim to be pulling out. The experts believe that if the Chinese do pull out they won't go far—probably no farther than just across the Yalu River in Manchuria, ready to return quickly.

Decker said the Communists have approximately 700 planes in North Korea, including 300 jets brought there in violation of the armistice agreement. Besides two American divisions and the Republic of Korea forces, U. N. units also include the Turkish brigade, a Thai company and other U. N. Liaison detachments.

Governor Says 1959 Legislature's Duty To Reapportion State

TALLAHASSEE (UP)—Gov. LeRoy Collins said today he will keep the 1959 Legislature in session until it reapportions the state whether the people accept the new constitution or not.

"I'm going to regard it as the duty of the next Legislature to reapportion whether the constitution is adopted or not," said Collins who in 1955 kept the Legislature in session 63 extra days in an abortive attempt to force a new apportionment.

Today Is Home Ownership-Public Information Day

Because of the thorough and fair manner in which the newspapers and radio stations of the Sanford-Seminole County area cover real estate news and stimulate home ownership, all of the media are being honored today by the Seminole County Real Estate Board.

Collins told his weekly press conference, however, that he considers reapportionment a legislative responsibility. He said there is not one word in the present constitution about the governor "stimulating" the Legislature to reapportion, except a provision giving him the power to hold it in session until the state is reapportioned.

Interest In All DeBary Day Picnic Apr. 22 Growing

VAH-5, VAH-8 In Neck To Neck Race Tonight

Heavy Attack Squadron competition in the Naval Air Weapons Meet lightened last night as VAH-5 of the west coast got "red hot" and rallied strongly in RBS bombing.

T. R. Walton, ATC and H. A. Baron, AOI, are still pacing the VAH-5 competition crews with their consistent performance. They are still holding down the number one and three spots thus far in the competition. Walton scored the best drop of the meet last night on the difficult target of Los Angeles to help save off the west coast threat.

Former Boy Friend Shoots Young Girl In Crowded Subway

NEW YORK (UP)—A former boy friend shot and critically wounded an 18-year-old girl at a crowded subway entrance during the morning rush hour today, police reported.

The victim, Diane Mercandetti of Manhattan, was rushed to St. Clara's Hospital.

William Combe, 23, of Roselle Park, N. J., was arrested after he called police from a bar near the scene of the shooting.

"I tried to forget her but I couldn't," Combe told police. Officers said Combe admitted he purchased a rifle and went to a subway entrance at 44th Street and Eighth Avenue that he knew Miss Mercandetti used to go to work.
