City officials hope and citizens will pitch in and cleanup their homesites and businesses while everyone is invited to participate in sprucing up city property. City commissioners plan to spend the entire day March 30 doing cleanup tasks.

Schools, Union Suspend Talks

Talks between the Seminole County School Board and the Seminole Education Association have ended in disagreement over how many paid holidays teachers should get.

Bargaining teams from the school board and the teachers' union walked away from Lake Mary High School Tuesday with no agreement but are scheduled to come back to the bargaining table April 9. The two groups are negotiating how 16 days of the 1985-86 school year are to be divided into paid holidays, teacher workdays and staff development days. State law requires schools to hold classes 180 days a year with teachers working 196 days.

Yearly negotiations on the 16 extra days are a requirement of the contract hammered out between the board and the union last year. The contract expires June 30, 1987.

The main disagreement is over the number of paid holidays, according to SEA Executive Director Marshall Ogletree and the school board's chief negotiator, Ernest Cowley.

Ogletree opened Tuesday's session by proposing that teachers have six paid holidays — Sept. 2, Nov. 28-29, Jan. 1, March 24 and May 26. Cowley countered the proposal with four days — Sept. 2, Nov. 28, Jan. 1 and May 26. State law says that teachers may get up to six paid holidays but teachers in Seminole County have gotten four the past few years.

Cowley said the three-year contract struck with the union last year already set the number of paid holidays at four.

Ogletree said the union considers the two disputed days partial compensation for the spring and summer breaks teachers take along with students but don't get paid.

Dependent Insurance Stalled

County Staff To Get $750,000 In Pay Hike

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday to grant some $750,000 in pay raises to county employees, but stalled on a request it pay 25 percent of hospitalization insurance costs for employees' dependents.

The pay raises were recommended by consultant Long & Associates of Fort Lauderdale in a job classification and pay plan and by a county staff committee that reviewed the plan.

Carolyn Long, president of the consulting firm, said the pay raises were necessary to keep the county competitive in the wage market so that valued and trained employees would not leave to find jobs in private enterprise.

Increases in salaries are coming about through a reclassification of jobs and from new salary ranges set for most county positions.

Half of the raises necessary to move employees into new salary ranges is to be paid immediately, retroactive to Jan. 1. The balance of the raises are to be given by April 1.

Almost all county employees will receive a minimum 1 percent increase in salary and some department heads will receive more than that. As an example, Computer Services Director Monty Beamer is paid $33,076 annually. Since the entry level in the new job classification and pay plan for her job is $34,153, she will get a pay raise of $1,077 annually, slightly more than 3 percent.

Hooper said that 165 county employees are being paid less than the minimum called for in the new salary ranges.

The plea from the staff committee, comprised of County Administrator Ken Hooper, Deputy County Attorney Bob McMillan, Planning Director Woody Price and Public Services Director Gary Kaiser to the commission to pay at least 25 percent of the cost of hospitalization insurance for employees' dependents fell on deaf ears temporarily.

But the commissioners agreed to allow staff to report on options for dependent coverage by May 1.

The commissioners made the decision on implementing the job classification and pay plan after a half dozen public hearings on zoning Tuesday night.

McMillan told the commissioners in a Tuesday afternoon workshop that the cost of dependent hospitalization coverage for county employees "is out of the ball park for those employees earning less than $15,000 to $20,000 annually."

McMillan said dependent hospitalization coverage is costing employees $30 per week, $1,500 per year.

He said of the 267 county employees earning less than $10,000 per year, only one is carrying dependent hospitalization coverage and of the 600 employees earning less than $15,000 to $20,000 a year, only 43 are carrying dependent coverage.

With ever increasing hospitalization costs, lower level workers on the salary scale often see pay raises eaten up by hospitalization insurance for their families, McMillan said.

And Commissioner Bob Sturm said despite this lack of lower level salaried employees carrying dependent coverage, it is this level of employees who use hospitalization insurance the most.

The committee also recommended and the commission agreed to raise the hours and salary of the county employees working in what the Long report called "pink collar jobs," such as clerks and typists.

The Long report said although these workers are on a 37½ hour work week, most actually work 40 hours per week while being paid for 37½ hours. Hooper said to raise the salaries of employees at this level will cost the county $54,000 for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Hooper said some of the cost will come from overtime pay given to some of these employees.

The committee made no recommendations concerning the study's proposal to contract out fleet maintenance or to eliminate the performance incentive program whereby employees of that department can receive as much as $350 extra compensation per month based on how much work they do.

Staff is to report on the feasibility of outside contracting for fleet operations by June 1.

Meanwhile, with concurrence of the commission, Hooper named Kaiser acting fleet management director until a replacement is found for Frank Kilgore, who has resigned effective this Thursday.

The staff committee also recommended that the county continue paying employees on a weekly basis rather than bi-weekly as the Long report suggested.

Finishing Touches

Downtown Sanford's beautification project was completed Monday with the paving of First Street from Sanford Avenue to Oak Avenue. The paving cost $16,629.38. The entire beautification effort cost about $300,000 and features flower planters, old fashioned street lights, wider sidewalks with red brick accents, and a mall area where shoppers and workers can relax.

Hearing Set On Development Plans

A proposal to build 576 dwelling units and to develop 15.5 acres into a shopping center on a 56.75 acre tract, adjacent to Lake Hodge Estates, south of state Road 434 in Casselberry, will be considered by the Seminole County Planning and Zoning Commission at a 7 p.m. public hearing today.

The hearing will be held at the county services building, First Street at Mellonville Avenue in Sanford.

A hearing Tuesday night before the county commission on the requested rezoning of the parcel from agriculture to planned unit development was rescheduled for April 9 when a recommendation is expected from the planners and zoners.

At a Feb. 6 meeting of planning and zoning, a recommendation on the zoning request was delayed until today to give the members of the advisory group an opportunity to consider studies presented by developer, American Residential Properties, on the economic feasibility of the project and its traffic impact.

Owners of the property are Circuit Judge Kenneth Leffler, Harold Jackson, Nancy Freeman, Mary Leffler, Lila Walling and Elizabeth Bush.

Meanwhile, the county staff has recommended that the request be denied unless the economic justification study shows the necessity for the commercial development and a traffic study indicates area roads can handle increased traffic.

The traffic study indicates the development would generate 13,238 car trips per day from the development.

10 Sex Charges: Man Wants To Bargain

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

In an apparent attempt to steer clear of a life sentence, a Longwood man found guilty of a lewd and lascivious assault on a girl is trying to get the judge in the case to give him a combined sentence if he pleads in three other cases involving nine sex charges.

The state attorney on the case is not sure he'll go along with the deal if it can be arranged with the judge.

John Sessums Worling, 51, of 318 Heather Drive, through his attorney Warren Turner of Orlando, asked Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr. at a hearing Tuesday to consider the consolidation.

Worling was found guilty in early February of the assault on a 10-year-old girl. The case was tried before semi-retired Circuit Judge Volle Williams who conducted the trial for Davis. Williams is scheduled to sentence Worling in April. Worling faces up to 3 years in prison on the charge, according to comments made at the hearing by Assistant State Attorney Steven Brady.

In three other cases, however, he faces a total of eight counts of lewd and lascivious assault and a charge of sexual battery to a child under the age of 11, the latter is a capital felony in Florida which, if guilt is determined, guarantees a life sentence with no possibility of parole for 25 years.

Turner indicated to Davis that his client may be willing to plead to all the charges if Davis would guarantee to consolidate the cases and sentence Worling to between 17 and 22 years.

Davis told Turner, however, that while the case was originally scheduled in his court, Williams was the presiding judge and suggested Turner approach Williams with the negotiations. Turner complained, however, that Williams, who tries cases throughout Florida, is difficult to locate. But he said he would try to reach the judge.

If Williams agrees to the consolidation, he would also have to increase Worling's expected 3-year sentence for the one case to a 17 to 22 year range, according to comments made by Brady and Turner at the hearing.

Brady said at the hearing that if he were to agree with the consolidation and if it could be arranged he would probably asked that Worling be sentenced to 22 years.

Surgical Mix-Up Leaves Man Brain-Dead

MIAMI (UPI) — A surgeon said a tragic series of operating room mistakes allowed an anesthesiologist to inject news photographer Bob East with a formaldehyde-like chemical that rendered him brain-dead within seconds.

Brain scans Monday and Tuesday on the 64-year-old photographer for the Miami Herald showed no brain activity. He was being kept alive by life-support equipment.

"I know nobody did this on purpose," said East's wife, Tina, whose family now must decide whether to remove the life-support equipment. "It just fills me with such terrible rage. I think that people who take other people's lives into their hands should be more careful."

Doctors said it was the first time a living human had been injected with glutaraldehyde, a toxic substance used to sterilize instruments to preserve tissue removed during surgery.

The injection, given Friday during surgery for facial cancer at Jackson Memorial Hospital Medical Center, capped what doctors called a "bizarre, tragic" series of operating room mistakes.

"It was not due to the human error of one man," said Dr. James Ryan Chandler, the lead surgeon. "It was due to the errors of many doctors, myself included, who somehow bypassed all the safeguards to prevent such an occurrence. I accept full responsibility."

East learned in January that a malignant cancer had eaten away his cheekbone and attacked the back of his right eye. Chandler told East he risked death unless he had surgery to remove the eye and surrounding bone.

Before beginning surgery, Chandler asked an anesthesiologist to remove 50 cubic centimeters of cerebrospinal fluid — "CSF" — from East's spine. Chandler said the fluid was left in a capped syringe to be re-injected after the operation — a routine procedure.

After the first incision was made, Dr. Allan Slomovic of the Bascom Palmer Eye Institute arrived to receive the eye, which East agreed to donate for research.

They Can't Leave Home With It

SALEM, Ore. (UPI) — The state of Oregon has a new method to keep convicted drunk drivers at home.

Instead of tossing the reprobates into jail, the state will fit offenders with electronic bracelets that will signal if they've left home.

The bracelets' electronic transmissions are picked up by a monitor attached to the person's phone. Those signals in turn are sent to a computer at the corrections division. If the signal stops, lawmen are alerted that the offender has fled.

The pilot program was approved Tuesday by the Oregon Traffic Safety Commission, which allocated $34,000 for a one-year try-out in Linn County.

Those convicted of drunk driving offenses in Linn County will be given the choice of going to jail or wearing the bracelet on their wrist or ankle, said John Tuthill, branch supervisor of the state's parole and probation office. Tuthill said he anticipates the bracelets would be assigned to be worn from 24 hours to 30 days, depending on the circumstances of the offense.

Officials said the program will be evaluated for possible use statewide.

IN BRIEF

Government Looks Again To Control Pornography

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department is setting up the first major pornography commission in 15 years, aimed at finding ways government can control production and distribution of pornography.

A 1970 study found little potential damage from pornography, but President Reagan asked the Justice Department to take a fresh look. A Justice Department official said Tuesday the 11-member commission will be named soon, possibly by around March 20.

The move was criticized immediately by the American Civil Liberties Union which said the action would threaten the free speech guarantees of the First Amendment.

High on the commission's list of concerns are the use of children in pornography and possible intrusion of organized crime into pornography production.

The commissioners start with a 1970 report that found little concern about pornography. Since then, women's groups have become increasingly outspoken in opposing pornography on grounds that it dehumanizes women and leads to rape by selling explicit sexual fantasies.

Car Sales Up 2.6%

DETROIT (UPI) — The nation's six domestic automakers reported a 2.6 percent gain in sales last month for the best February sales performance since 1979.

Analysts attributed the continued momentum that began in July 1982 to a public that was eager to buy models just below luxury levels despite price increases and incentives on various slow-selling small-car lines.

General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., Honda Motor Corp., American Motors Corp. and Volkswagen of America Tuesday reported combined sales of 645,317 cars in the United States last month.

This compares with 655,016 cars sold in the year ago period.

Independent researcher Arvid Jouppl said President Reagan's decision last week to let the import quotas expire March 31 after four years of restraints would not have any effect on sales until May.

"It takes about 50 days for Japanese cars to reach U.S. dealers, and I doubt anybody jumped the gun," he said, speaking of the voluntary restraint agreements.

Sniper Guns Down 2

MADRAS, Ore. (UPI) — A gunman who "just started shooting" from a house trailer wounded a woman passing out religious tracts and a man sitting in a nearby pickup truck before he was stopped by a tear-gas barrage, police said.

Robert Clarence Van Orsow, 38, of Madras, surrendered Tuesday after exchanging gunfire with police who surrounded the trailer and then lobbed tear gas canisters inside, authorities said.

Jefferson County District Attorney Michael Sullivan refused to comment on any possible motive for the shootings, but said the man had been spotted standing outside the trailer with a rifle in his hand.

Van Orsow was charged with two counts of attempted murder and held in the Jefferson County jail on $40,000 bond, Sullivan said.

Boy's Murderer Executed; Another Killer Gets Stay

STARKE (UPI) — Drifter John Paul Witt was executed today for the abduction-murder of an 11-year-old Tampa boy, killed 12 years ago when he went to a store to buy candy for his younger brother.

Witt, 41, died at 7:10 a.m. from a single 90-second jolt of 2,000 volts of electricity in Florida's "Old Sparky" electric chair.

Witt had refused to talk to prison officials for the past several days and refused to make a final statement. He also declined to have a minister present during his final hours and turned down his final meal.

He was the 12th inmate to be executed in Florida and the 39th in the nation since the Supreme Court restored the death penalty in 1976.

Witt was convicted of murdering Jonathan Kushner, the son of a University of South Florida dean, who was abducted outside a convenience store in the affluent Carrollwood section of Tampa.

A federal judge in Miami granted an indefinite stay of execution Tuesday for another Florida death row inmate, William Middleton Jr., who also had been scheduled to die today.

Budget Freezers Starting Trend?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Backers of a federal budget freeze, having won a crucial victory on defense spending in the Senate Budget Committee, are looking to push their idea across the board — including the sensitive area of Social Security.

In a bold rebuke to President Reagan's plan to increase the defense budget by 6 percent above inflation, the Republican-led committee Tuesday passed 18-4 a Democratic proposal to freeze military spending, except for an inflation adjustment.

The vote was the first budget item addressed by the 22-member panel, which today planned to take up a variety of other programs, starting with foreign aid. It is expected to take several days for the committee to work through the entire spending plan.

The defense freeze, sponsored by Sen.

Ernest Hollings, D-S.C., would allow no growth above inflation in fiscal year 1986, with 3 percent hikes in the two following years. The fiscal 1986 budget authority total would be $303.7 billion.

The approval short-circuited efforts by Budget Committee Chairman Pete Domenici, R-N.M., to push a defense budget that would allow a 3 percent increase. It also came the same day Reagan sent a clear message, through spokesman Larry Speakes, that he "stands squarely behind the budget just as he sent it to Capitol Hill."

Immediately after the committee vote, Hollings declared that the development had "set the pattern" for similar action on most other budget items.

"In my mind, we will follow through and freeze the budget," Hollings said, predicting the panel would "definitely" vote to freeze

Social Security cost-of-living increases — an area Reagan has vowed not to touch.

"I think we will be freezing Social Security and entitlements," he said, adding that if the plan survived on Capitol Hill, Reagan would be forced to agree. "He won't be vetoing this, I assure you," Hollings said.

Domenici, however, was not as pleased, noting that even if Congress agreed to the freeze, it would not solve the more than $200 billion federal deficit.

"A freeze is not enough," said the chairman, who has proposed a plan designed to cut the deficit by $62 billion by using a wide range of cuts in domestic programs.

Domenici cautioned that the freeze plan, even if approved completely, still required $150 billion in tax hikes over three years in order to balance the budget.

Water Sharing

Seminole County Commission Chairman Bob Sturm, left, and Lake Mary Mayor Dick Fess go over details of a contract calling for the county to supply a portion of Lake Mary with water and to provide sewer treatment service to the Forest Mobile Home Park in the city. The contract also calls for Lake Mary and the county to "back up" the other in the event of a water emergency.

Buckle Up, It May Become The Law

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A sponsor of a bill to require motorists to buckle up says he is confident of victory now that an opponent of the measure said he wants to switch sides.

The defector, Rep. Ron Silver, D-North Miami Beach, will give the bill's proponents at least a 3-2 edge on the House transportation subcommittee on highway safety, according to subcommittee chairman Bo Johnson, D-Milton.

"I think it's rather significant," said Rep. Fred Lippman, D-Hollywood, of Silver's switch. "As we are educating the members of the subcommittee, we are also educating the members of the House."

Silver said Tuesday that he overcame his philosophical objections to forcing Floridians to buckle up after proponents convinced him the proposal would save lives and dollars.

But Silver said he had promised other opponents he would support efforts to kill the bill and wanted to confer with them before formally switching his vote.

The subcommittee agreed to schedule more hearings on the proposal to allow Silver time to do that and to allow other opponents to testify.

A Senate committee recently stalled on that chamber's version of the proposal, which would impose fines on drivers and front seat passengers who fail to buckle up. New York and New Jersey have already passed mandatory seatbelt laws and other states are considering similar legislation.

Transportation Secretary Elizabeth Dole has ordered all 1990 model year cars be equipped with air bags or other passive restraint devices unless states representing two-thirds the nation's population pass mandatory seatbelt laws that comply with federal guidelines.

The bill would not comply with the federal guidelines because the subcommittee, at the urging of Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter, reduced the proposed fine from $25 — the federal standard — to $20.

Gunter and other supporters of the bill do not want to meet the federal guidelines because they also want to force auto makers to install air bags.

Sewer Contract OK'd; City Attorney Hired

By Jane Casselberry
 Herald Staff Writer

The Longwood City Commission has hired a new city attorney and approved a contract with an engineering firm to solve the emergency problems at the city's two sewer plants.

Longwood attorney Gerald Korman was named the new city attorney at a special meeting Monday night on a 3-2 vote. Korman was chosen from 11 hopefuls which applied to fill the position left vacant by the resignation of former city attorney Frank Kruppenbacher.

City Commissioners June Lormann and Perry Faulkner voted against the motion by Commissioner Ed Myers to hire Korman because they objected to the selection process.

The commissioners were each asked to list their three top choices on the basis of their resumes without having a chance to interview any of the applicants in person.

Korman, who sat in as acting city attorney at the Feb. 20 special meeting on the contract with Dyer, Riddle, Mills & Pre-court, Inc., said he practices alone and has not decided who his back-up would be should he be unable to attend a meeting.

The engineering contract was unanimously approved with changes written in by Korman after Kruppenbacher sent a memorandum to commissioners recommending that it not be approved because it did not comply with state law. The commission was attempting in the contract to extend the scope of the engineering firm's work beyond the sewer emergency work without going out for bid as required. Kruppenbacher said.

To avoid this problem the city is hiring the firm on an hourly job-by-job basis on things such as reviewing site plans and inspecting the Range Line Road paving.

The city is permitted to expend a maximum of $100,000 for a total contract cost without advertising and $5,000 on an individual job assignment without advertising.

Acting City Administrator Greg Manning said the contract calls for the engineering firm to be paid by the hour for work on the sewer plants on a scale depending on the level of the person doing the particular job at the time plus their overhead and cost of the operation.

The state Department of Environmental Regulation is not allowing the city to make any more sewer connections until DER requirements are met at the overtaxed Skylark and Columbus Harbour sewage treatment plants.

A 30-day sewer emergency declared by the commission on Jan. 21 temporarily stymied development in the city and led to hiring a consultant engineer to help solve the problem.

Work on new percolation ponds and other improvements is underway in an effort to alleviate the crisis situation, Manning said.

A public hearing will be held on Monday on an ordinance authorizing the city to borrow $400,000 for the completion of improvements at water well 2 and $100,000 for repairs and improvements to sewer treatment plants.

City Manager Candidate Interviewed

'Keep Rain On Growth'

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

A priority of William R. Cook of Kingsport, Tenn., should be appointed city manager of Sanford, would be to keep "a tight rein on growth," he told the Sanford City Commission Monday.

It was the city commission's second interview of a candidate seeking to replace 32-year veteran City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles upon Knowles' retirement April 30.

The interview was held at the Sanford City Hall and the commissioners took Cook to dinner afterwards.

Speaking of the rapid growth Sanford expects with 4,500 dwelling units on the drawing boards, in the city's approval process or under construction, Cook said there "is no magic in bigness." He added that he prefers to plan for and manage growth "to get ahead of it."

"You've got a real good thing going here," he said of the city's tranquility and good financial condition.

Noting he worked with the chamber of commerce in Kingsport and with other civic organizations promoting his community, he said the answer to continued tranquility is good communications between the city manager and the city commission, the city's department heads and the public.

Cook said he resigned in September, effective last December, as manager of Kingsport after a newly elected council wanted a new city manager, he said.

Cook told the commissioners if he were Sanford's city manager he would keep the commission informed and wouldn't want commissioners to delay or let simmer resentments against him. "Two-way communication is a necessity," he said.

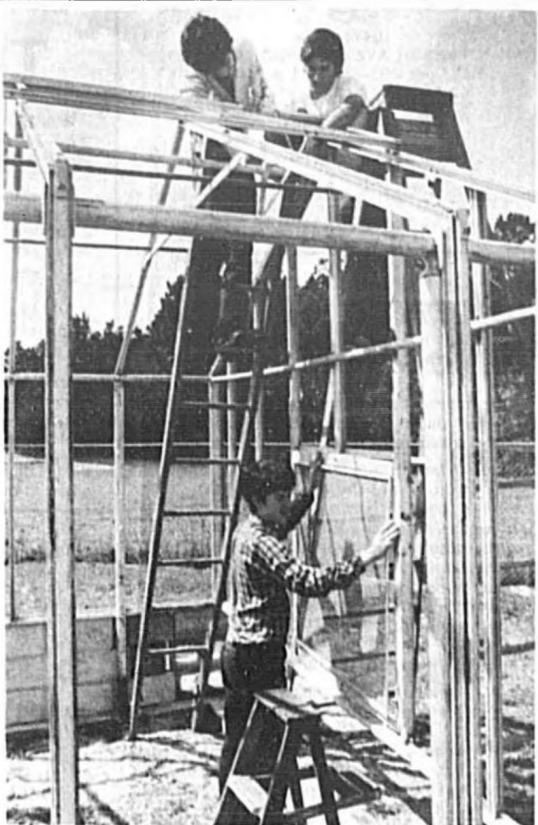

Of his management style, Cook said he believes in delegating authority to department heads.

Mayor Betty Smith told Cook that probably the biggest challenge he would face almost immediately if he were appointed would be succeeding Knowles because people in the community and city employees have become accustomed to having him at the helm. Cook said he saw no problem with that.

Lake Mary Couple Sued By Boy, Parents Over Dog Bite

A 9-year-old boy has filed a civil suit against a Lake Mary couple, claiming their dog bit him.

Timothy Welsh, and his parents, Patrick and Susan Welsh, all of Virginia, filed suit individually and jointly Monday against Stephen and Beverly Collins of 175 Tracy Road.

The Welshes, individually and jointly, are asking for unspecified damages in excess of $5,000.

According to the youth's attorney, James Provencier, of Orlando, the boy was visiting his grandmother in Sanford when the incident reportedly occurred.

The suit states that on July 29 a dog owned and living at the Collins' residence attacked and bit the boy. Circumstances about the incident or the extent of the boy's injuries were not mentioned in the suit.

The suit states the Collins had a duty to prevent the dog from attacking and biting other people.

The boy states he has suffered pain, disfigurement, disability, mental anguish, loss of the capacity for the enjoyment of life (past and future) and injuries. The boy's parents state in the suit they were forced to incur medical bills because of the alleged attack.

They ask for a trial by jury. The case has been assigned to Seminole Circuit Judge Dominick J. Sulli. No trial date has been set.

Patience Is Needed

The process of grinding away on the budget is taking place in the Congress and the country. It will be going on for a long time.

It would be foolish for anyone to expect a speedy resolution of the budget situation. The American people have been living beyond their means since the end of the Eisenhower administration. Many citizens are convinced that they cannot do without federal programs that have been in effect for almost a quarter of a century. Indeed going without certain programs will work a great hardship. When a family has to tighten its belt, there is resistance and emotional upset.

Ours is not an ideological nation, with sharp divisions between left and right. America is a land of interests, and there's nothing wrong with that. There are hundreds of legitimate special interests. Our political system is designed to accommodate and harmonize those interests for the general welfare. Congress is the primary instrument for accommodation and harmonization, though the President is responsible for pointing the way towards solutions.

The difficulty in harmonization lies in determining what federal activities are essential and what can be disposed of without imposing unacceptable harm on any element in our pluralistic society. The President believes, and a host of citizens undoubtedly agree with him, that the first duty of the federal government is to provide for the common defense.

The basic fact of life in the late 20th century is that we live in a world of immense danger. At age 74, President Reagan remembers the perilous state of the nation's defenses in his youth and young manhood when the U.S. Army was reduced to a token force of 125,000 men. That unilateral American disarmament brought on the Japanese attack on the United States in 1941. Today, the peril is infinitely greater, and the need for the strongest possible defense is fundamental.

If defense costs can't be slashed, where should the cuts be made? The President has submitted a list. The Republican-led Senate will make its recommendations. The Democratic House will be compelled to address the subject. Meanwhile, at home in the congressional districts, there will be howls of outrage. In time — after a lot of time and a period of governmental stalemate, an accommodation will be made.

The American people should be patient with the process and the agony of their representatives, who will have to face the voters in 1986 and 1988. It isn't easy in a democracy to do the things that must be done. It takes a long time to develop a consensus on unpleasant but necessary actions.

Some of the ideologues in the country imagine that remedies to old ills can be imposed overnight. That's unrealistic in the extreme. When federal support is withdrawn from various activities, states, localities and individuals have to learn to make painful adjustments. These adjustments can and will be made in the next few years.

To be sure, the American people will have to be assured of the fairness of the adjustments. They have to know and believe that every group in society shares in the belt-tightening experience. Fortunately, the representatives in Congress are broadly representative of American society, and, in the long run, they can be trusted to seek fair approaches to the retrenchment that is necessary.

BERRY'S WORLD

DICK WEST

The Moss-Covered Water Cooler

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Grow old along with me," romantic poetry counsels, but that may not be such good advice with regard to the jokes you tell.

"Few things evoke a more distasteful reaction than a punch line everybody knows," says the magazine Dynamic Years, which should know a hoary joke when it hears one.

Although its delineation was primarily about corporate cut-ups, it clearly applies to other would-be comedians as well.

The magazine asserts that "any time you try to be funny, it's guaranteed that 50 percent of the people you're addressing won't think it's funny."

I would say Dynamic Years errs on the side of understatement. Any time an office wag has half of his colleagues in his corner, he is really cooking on the front burner.

The magazine is quick to concede that "all office humor isn't offensive or unwelcome." It avers that "humor can help defuse stressful situations, make people comfortable and cut through the thickest tension."

But while acknowledging that "a little levity can do wonders," the periodical stresses that a joke is successful only if "you know when and how to use it." In this connection, it mentions three situations in which tomfoolery is rarely appreciated.

One is in financial institutions to which "people have entrusted their money;" one is a talk show on which business executives are answering questions "about why their company's polluting the area with chemicals" and one is "when dealing with irate airline customers."

I disagree. Although stale jokes about the stock market, acid rain and airline hijacking or misdirected baggage may be verboten, any corporate humorist who declares these areas out of bounds probably is unduly limiting himself.

I can easily imagine inherently funny situations arising in all three categories. Anyone whose rambles aren't activated by the thought of an airliner circling an airport for about an hour has no sense of humor whatsoever.

As for jocular financial institutions, if bank officers are engaging in monkeyshines when I go in, that bit of horseplay bolsters my confidence in their financial acumen.

I particularly enjoy jests about embezzlement and prospective holdups during which a few customers are wounded.

And for turning away the wrath of anti-pollution callers on talk shows, I can think of nothing more effective than a bit of frivolity on the part of chemical executives.

Laughter is said to be good for what ails us, and I assume that applies to callers losing their health because of pollution.

Some timely quips may be just what the doctor ordered, and a good deal cheaper than consulting a physician.

Women Surprise Military

By Gino Del Guercio
UPI Science Writer

WARREN, Vt. (UPI) — In 1976, the year the U.S. military academies went co-ed, their staffs faced a problem.

All cadets were required to meet physical fitness standards, yet there were no standards by which to judge the women.

The academies decided to arbitrarily set standards less rigorous than those for the men, taking into consideration physical differences between the two sexes, with the option of revising the requirements once some experience was gained.

What they found surprised them. "The women were doing so well they had to lower the time for the obstacle course and raise the standards for sit-ups," said Dr. Jay S. Cox, former director of sports medicine at the U.S. Naval Academy. "They were performing better than anyone had anticipated."

In 1980 the military revised its requirements, adding three inches to the long-jump minimum, five repetitions to the sit-up requirement, five seconds to the flexed-arm hang and cutting 20 seconds off the obstacle course maximum.

Cox published his findings in the American Journal of Sports Medicine and presented the paper at a sports medicine conference sponsored by the University of Vermont.

He said his experience at the Naval Academy may have some interesting applications to society in general.

"In endurance-type events women can lower the standards and make them much closer to the men's performance," he said. "They'll probably be within 8 to 10 percent in marathon-type events."

"Whereas the springing and the jumping-type activities probably will never come very close. Twenty, 30 and 40 percent is as close as they'll get because of physiological differences," said Cox.

"The sociological aspects were interesting to us just to see the type of women we were getting. As time has gone on, women are getting more health and fitness in high schools," said Cox.

"They tend to be in better shape."

OAS Frills Charged To Taxpayers

WASHINGTON — Extravagance in the furnishing of Washington's diplomatic residences is of no concern to American taxpayers — except when the diplomat involved is the secretary-general of the Organization of American States. The U.S. government pays 67 cents of every dollar in the OAS budget, which is currently running at $93 million a year.

At a time when an OAS spokesman admitted that "we are facing serious problems with the budget," the organization has spent nearly $150,000 to spruce up the secretary-general's residence in a high-rent district of the capital.

The casual OAS attitude toward money surfaced last year when it was revealed that the former secretary-general, Argentine millionaire Alejandro Orfila, was still drawing his salary from the OAS months after he went to work for a public-relations firm. The official residence was refurbished for his successor, Jose Baena Soares of Brazil.

There is no doubt that the mansion, valued at $1.8 million, required some serious repair work. Floors were rotting, windows and doors had to be replaced, plaster was crumbling and a new retaining wall was needed.

But some of the other expenditures seem to be for things a diplomat might be expected to provide for himself — instead of charging to the taxpayers. OAS documents obtained by my associate Donald Goldberg list some of the little luxuries bought for the Baena Soares home:

— Two king-size, one queen-size, one full-size and two twin mattresses-and-box spring sets, at a total cost of $2,780.49.

— A series of mirrored glass doors and wall pieces: $1,931.95.

— A 19-inch color TV: $527.77.

— $3,100 worth of linens, blankets, towels, napkins, tablecloths, quilts, comforters, placemats and pillows.

— Fabric and upholstering expenses of $9,286.

The OAS spokesman said the refurbishing project had been approved before Baena Soares' election as secretary-general last March. If so, the elegant touching up continued after Baena Soares moved in. One detailed document "for refurbishing at residence of Ambassador and Mrs. Baena Soares" was dated Oct. 5, 1984. It gives a room-by-room rundown on drapes and upholstering:

— Pongee-textured, floor-length draperies in the hallway: $800.

ROBERT WALTERS

Return Of The Fat Cat

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Federal law specifies that an individual may not contribute more than $20,000 annually to a national political party — but last year three wealthy executives gave $100,000 apiece to the Democratic National Committee.

Federal law prohibits corporations from making any donations whatever to national political parties — but last year dozens of corporations gave $10,000 or more to the Republican National Committee.

What's going on here? It's the return of old-fashioned campaign financing, replete with secret political accounts, "fat cat" donors of five- and six-figure contributions and assorted other disreputable techniques supposedly outlawed by a series of "good government" reforms during the 1970s.

By far the most important of those reforms was the Federal Election Campaign Act, which vastly enhanced the integrity of campaign financing practices.

But FECA governs only the collection and disbursement of money "for the purpose of influencing any election for federal office."

Both political parties initially carved out FECA exemptions for themselves to finance the construction of imposing headquarters buildings. The parties' interpretation of the law held that such activity was wholly unrelated to federal elections.

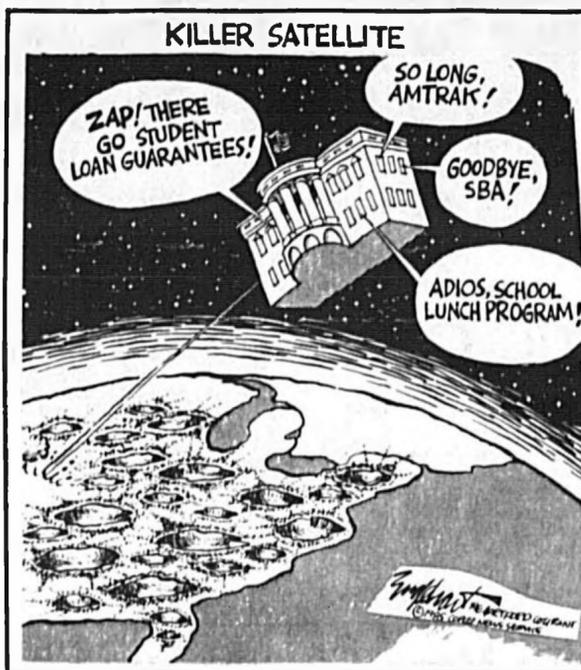

During last year's campaigns, both parties operated ambitious programs to solicit those fat cat gifts and deposit them in accounts ostensibly devoted exclusively to state and local political operations.

Under that arrangement, the parties could ignore FECA's contribution limits and prohibition against corporate and union donations. They also could disregard what may be the law's most important provision — the requirement that a full accounting of all receipts and expenditures be made available for public inspection.

Especially disturbing are the indications that a substantial portion of both parties' supposedly non-federal funds end up being used in federal campaigns after the money is distributed to state and local party organizations.

Common Cause has asked the Federal Election Commission to investigate the practice, arguing that inaction "will be implicitly sanctioning potentially widespread violations of the current federal campaign finance laws."

But the commission long has been notoriously unenthusiastic about aggressively enforcing FECA. The prospect for the future is wholesale evasion of the law that was supposed to restrain the corrupting influence of money in politics.

JEFFREY HART

Hidden Agenda

Until recently, the argument over abortion had seemed fairly straightforward. The "Right-to-Life" people believe that the fetus is a human being and that abortion, the "taking of innocent life," is therefore wrong. Of course there are variations. Some argue that the genetic formation of the fetus is incomplete until about 15 days have passed. Many make exceptions in the case of rape or incest and so forth, but the broad outlines of the position are clear.

The other side, "Pro-Choice," maintains that, whether or not the fetus is a human being, a woman has the right to control her own reproductive process.

So far, so good. Things seem clear enough. But there are increasingly frequent signs that many in the "Right-to-Life" movement have a secret agenda, which is nothing less than to counter-revolutionize contemporary sexual behavior. Many "Right-to-Lifers" are against both abortion and birth control.

Thus, in a recent interview, Joseph Schneider, who is head of the Pro-Life Action League in Chicago, laid his cards on the table. "I think contraception is disgusting," he said, "people using each other for pleasure." His view of things goes far beyond the pain suffered by the fetus or the principled protection of innocent life. "Most people in the pro-life movement," he says, "have a certain morality and believe sex is not for fun and games. So we wouldn't condone contraception."

The trouble with that view is that it has never been held by any substantial number of people, and is certainly not held by any significant number of people in the Western world today. All of literature and art testifies to the fact that sex has meant many things and has scarcely been confined to procreation.

For those of us who have been taking the Right-to-Life movement at face value, there is an obvious contradiction in its opposition to contraception. If you oppose the taking of innocent life and if you are deeply concerned about fetal suffering, well, logically, you ought to be for birth control.

But for some Right-to-Lifers there seems to be a quite different agenda. Their target is nothing less than widespread contemporary sexual practice. It would be easy to say that they have in mind a counter-revolution against the "sexual revolution" of the 1960s, but I have always thought the Sixties sexual revolution was over-rated. Sex got into the media, porno magazines sold widely, people were generally franker about sex and homosexuals became more open. But I doubt that actual sexual behavior changed much from that studied in the 1948 Kinsey Report. Or that studied by Peter Gay in his recent work on Victorian sexual morality. Or that depicted by Chaucer and Shakespeare.

From that perspective, what at least some Right-to-Lifers have in mind is anything but conservative. It is nothing less than a revolution against actual human behavior, and as such it cannot be damaging to their overt agenda, the campaign against abortion.

Via Swiss Bank Accounts

Thousands Said To Be Avoiding Taxes

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — A government tax investigation has uncovered a list of thousands of Americans who allegedly deposited assets in Swiss bank accounts, possibly to avoid paying income taxes, an Internal Revenue Service memo shows.

However, the joint U.S.-Canadian investigation may have been jeopardized because of allegations the former IRS special agent who initiated it tampered with the mail of a key suspect.

The former agent, David Ballard, charges the mail-tampering allegations are part of an attempt to quash the investigation and prevent prosecutors from pursuing financial transactions of those named on the list.

Clifford Browne and his wife, Helen, the targets of Ballard's investigation, contend they are victims of IRS harassment and criminal invasion of privacy.

As the result of the manner in which some of their mail came into Ballard's possession, their convictions connected with their own Swiss accounts were overturned.

Ballard, who denies impropriety, says he will testify at his own request before a federal grand jury in Syracuse this week about his conduct in investigating Browne.

Browne allegedly advised people on how to funnel money into secret Swiss bank accounts.

The case also has prompted inquiries from at least two congressional panels and several House and Senate members, officials said.

The Brownes, of Binghamton, N.Y., were indicted in June 1983, and later convicted of conspiracy and failure to report the transfer of their own funds into Swiss and Canadian bank accounts.

Browne, who was a financial counselor for Economic Research Counselors of West Vancouver, British Columbia, said that he gave others advice on how to transfer money to Switzerland.

Ballard said he attempted to widen his investigation of Browne in 1981 after Canadian tax authorities raided ERC's Vancouver office and seized computer tapes. They used the tapes to produce a list of about 100,000 Americans who were investors and-or subscribers to the ERC newsletter, an Internal IRS memo showed.

"This list resulted in identifying over 4,000 U.S. citizens who are alleged to be trading in precious metals, diamonds and other commodities and circumventing IRS scrutiny by clandestine means," according to a Jan. 28, 1982, memo by Billy Whaley, acting chief of the IRS' Office of International Operations Criminal Investigation Division.

"Over 400 items were identified as having good criminal-civil potential for districts throughout the country," the memo said.

Before their trial, the Brownes alleged Ballard had tampered with their mail. After investigating the charge, Postal Inspectors concluded that Ballard's informant, Clare Corkey, who lived next door to the Brownes, actually had done the tampering. Both were cleared by a federal grand jury.

But following the Brownes' conviction, they renewed allegations about mail-tampering and others joined them. Browne also alleged in an interview that Ballard had bugged his home and committed perjury in court.

The allegations triggered a flurry of congressional inquiries, an internal IRS investigation, and an FBI investigation. On Jan. 30, U.S. District Judge Lloyd MacMahon overturned the convictions and ordered a new trial for the Brownes.

14 Vie For Seminole County Deputy Administrator Posts

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

Three county employees — Eleanor Anderson, Woody Price and John Percy — are among the 14 men and women selected for interviews for deputy county administrator jobs.

Two deputy administration jobs will be filled: one for administration and one for development.

County Administrator Ken Hooper said Tuesday interviews with the eight chosen by a special advisory committee as the top candidates for deputy county administrator for administration will be held on March 15; those for development March 19.

The county received 110 applications for the two jobs.

Members of the screening committee were Hooper, Health and Human Services Director Dr. Jorge Deju, Public Safety Director Gary Kaiser, Bill K. Nolan of Cardinal Industries, and James Easton, former assistant county administrator, who left the county's employ a year ago to work in the private sector.

Salary range for the posts is $20,730 to $42,017.

Mrs. Anderson, 44, the county's management and budget director for the past four years, is one of the eight candidates for the post of deputy county administrator for administration. She has also been acting assistant county administrator for the past six months and has been employed by the county for the past 23 years in a variety of jobs. Enrolled at Rollins College, she will receive her bachelor's degree in management from Rollins College after 19 more hours of course work.

Other candidates for the job are:
• Ann Neiswender, 41, director of personnel services for the Seminole County School Board. Employed by the school board for the past eight years, she has a bachelor's degree in mathematics and physical science from the University of Tennessee and a master's in mathematics from Austin Peay State University Clarksville, Tenn.

• Paul J. Wiener, 41, assistant director of budget and management in Cleveland, Ohio. He has a bachelor's degree in urban management and a masters in urban studies from Cleveland State University.

• Dennis R. Sparks, 43, of Bristol, Va.,

county administrator of Washington, County, Va. He has a bachelor's degree in business and a master's degree in business administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.

• Peter Witschen, 34, of Merritt Island, is assistant city manager of Melbourne and was previously city manager of Cape Canaveral. He has a bachelor's degree in management and a master's in public administration, both from Fairleigh-Dickinson University, Rutherford, N.J.

• Carroll P. Huffman of Lancaster, S. Carolina, is the administrator of Lancaster County, S.C. He has a bachelor's degree in management and a master's in urban administration from the University of S. Carolina.

• Thomas Brant of Orlando, management director of Tabor Inc., a management consulting service. Brant has a bachelor's degree in political science from Lorain College, Dubuque, Iowa, and a master's in public administration from the State University of Iowa.

• Richard C. George, Deland is special project coordinator for the Volusia County manager's office. He has a bachelor's degree in political science from Stetson University and is in the master's program there studying political science.

Percy and Price are among the top six vying for the post of deputy county administrator for development.

Percy, 37, is the county's director of public services and development and has been employed by the county for the past 12 years, rising from assistant county planner to the director's position. He has a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from General Motors Institute and a master's degree in city planning from the Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

Price, 35, is the county's director of planning. He has been employed by the county for the past eight years. He has a bachelor's degree in social welfare and political science from Florida State University. He has done post graduate work at the University of Central Florida in statistics, calculus, economics and computer science.

The other candidates are:

• James M. Bray, 44, of Portsmouth, Va., director of the city planning and zoning in Portsmouth. He has a bachelor's degree in metropolitan studies and political science from Indiana University and a master's in city and regional planning from the Catholic University of America.

• William F. Slough, 40, of Taylors, S.C., project manager for the Greenville County Redevelopment Authority in Greenville, S.C. He has a bachelor's degree in political science from E. Tennessee State University and a master's in city management and political science from the University of Nashville, Tenn.

• Aaron Dowling, 38, of Altamonte Springs, assistant executive director and director of administrative services of the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council, where he has been employed for the past 13 years. He has both bachelor's and master's degrees in geography from Florida State University.

• Jack Stephen Wolfe Jr., 37, of Orlando, employed with Canin Associates, urban and environmental planners and landscape architects and formerly employed by Post, Buckley, Schuh & Jernigan Inc. consulting engineers and planners. He has a bachelor's degree in social science from the University of Oregon and a master's in urban planning from Texas A & M University.

Florida Tornado Warning System Tested

MIAMI (UPI) — Florida has more tornadoes than anywhere in the country except Texas and to drill that fact into residents' heads, state officials held an alert.

At 10 a.m. Tuesday, sirens blared, school children ran for cover and the media broadcast the alert to all 67 counties of the Sunshine state.

The purpose of the one-hour exercise was to let people know Florida does have its share of tornadoes — albeit small ones — and to test the state's tornado warning and watch system.

Since 1959, tornadoes in Florida have been blamed for 58 deaths.

Paul Hebert of the National Weather Service said it would take weeks before it was known how well the test went.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Body Of U.S. Narcotics Agent May Have Been Found

MORELIA, Mexico (UPI) — Police today discovered two bodies — possibly those of a kidnapped U.S. narcotics agent and his Mexican friend — at a ranch that was the scene of a weekend shootout between authorities and drug traffickers.

U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration agent Enrique Camarena Salazar, a Mexico-born U.S. citizen, and his friend, Alfredo Savala Avelar, a pilot for the Mexican government, were kidnapped within hours of each other Feb. 7 in Guadalajara.

A spokesman for the U.S. Consulate in Guadalajara said American officials still had no independent information about the bodies.

A federal police spokesman in the central city of Morelia said two bodies were found in plastic bags early today and were sent to Guadalajara, 300 miles northwest of Mexico City, for identification.

Camarena, a 10-year DEA veteran, was kidnapped only yards from the U.S. Consulate by suspected drug traffickers and has not been heard from since. The kidnapping resulted in a clampdown at border checkpoints and the U.S. claimed Mexican authorities were not thoroughly investigating the case.

U.S. Gives More Food Aid

KHARTOUM, Sudan (UPI) — Vice President George Bush announced $21 million in additional U.S. food aid relief to Sudan following his first close up look at a camp housing tens of thousands of hungry refugees.

Bush, on an African tour of three drought-stricken countries, was scheduled to visit the El Obeld famine camp in western Sudan today and hold another round of talks with President Jaafar Numeiry.

During his meeting with Numeiry Tuesday, Bush discussed the plight of the country's famine victims and the suspension of $194 million in U.S. development aid to Sudan.

The United States has suspended the development aid to Sudan until Khartoum agrees to certain International Monetary Fund and World Bank reforms to restore its crippled economy.

Later Tuesday, Bush announced $21 million in U.S. food relief aid for Sudan, or 83,000 tons, on top of 750,000 tons of food aid already pledged by the United States to Africa's largest nation.

An estimated 5.6 million people face starvation in Sudan — at least 1.1 million of them refugees from Ethiopia, Chad and Uganda who have flocked across the borders in the past six months.

Controversial Prisoner Freed

By United Press International

Nicaragua has released a citizen whose arrest at the Costa Rican Embassy triggered a three-nation protest and brought the Central American peace process to a halt.

Upon arrival in Colombia, the freed prisoner, Jose Manuel Urbina Lara, said Sandinista police in Nicaragua forcibly took him Dec. 24 from the Costa Rican Embassy in Managua where he had sought political asylum.

The Nicaraguan government said Urbina Lara had surrendered.

Nicaragua's refusal to release Urbina Lara, 24, arrested on charges of refusing to serve in the army, prompted Costa Rica, El Salvador and Honduras to boycott a Central American peace summit called by the Contadora group in February.

Urbina Lara will choose one of the Contadora countries for permanent residence — Mexico, Colombia, Venezuela or Panama.

Syria Wooing Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Syria made a bid to bolster its political influence in Lebanon amid the second stage of Israel's withdrawal of its troops and equipment from front lines in the embattled south of the nation.

Syrian Vice President Abdel Halim Khaddam met Tuesday with President Amin Gemayel for talks aimed at ending feuding between Christian and Moslem ministers of the Damascus-backed Lebanese Cabinet.

Khaddam and Gemayel also discussed Israel's three-stage military pullout from the south.

Israel has an estimated 10,000 troops in southern Lebanon while Syria has about 40,000 soldiers based in the north and east. Syrian troops entered Lebanon at the request of the Arab League in a bid to end a 1975 civil war.

Syrian President Hafez Assad, who backed a Moslem revolt against Gemayel's Christian-led government last year, became a mediator after Gemayel bowed to Syrian pressure and canceled a May 17, 1983, security agreement with Israel.

George Hill, a Jackson administrator investigating the incident, said Slomovic left a small, unmarked vial of glutaraldehyde on a tray in the operating room.

"It was not labeled and it should not have been accepted," Chandler said.

During the operation, nurse Norma Anderson saw the unmarked bottle and asked, "What's in this bottle?"

"CSF," one of the doctors replied.

"What do you want me to do with it?" Anderson asked.

"Give it to the anesthesiologist," a doctor responded.

Hill said Anderson, who could not identify the doctors responding to her questions, gave the glutaraldehyde to nurse anesthetist Maria Harwood, who marked the bottle "CSF."

Near the end of the lengthy surgery, Anesthesiologist Anthony Gyamfi emptied the syringe labeled CSF into East's spine, then picked up the vial of glutaraldehyde — also labeled CSF — and injected it, Hill said.

Dr. Frank Kronberg, a resident who assisted in the surgery, said no one realized the mistake until Slomovic returned to pick up the eye and asked, "Where's my glutaraldehyde?"

"We froze," Kronberg said. "I was petrified."

Within seconds of the injection, the glutaraldehyde traveled through the spinal fluid that bathes the brain and spine, destroying tissue and causing irreversible brain damage.

Contacted today, Turner said he and Brady are under a judge's orders not to discuss the case. The order, Turner said, was issued by Circuit Judge Robert McGregor who is scheduled to try one of the cases that may be consolidated.

Worling was arrested Sept. 23 on a charge of lewd assault on a child, rearrested Nov. 11 on a second lewd assault charge. He was arrested Dec. 3 on seven counts of lewd and lascivious assault and rearrested Jan. 4 on a charge of sexual battery to child under 11.

Staff is also to report to the commissioners by June 1 on proposed changes in merit and longevity pay raises. The Long report recommended a maximum pay raise for merit of 7.5 percent, rather than the present 10 percent, and that the merit increases be given in lump sum payments.

Mrs. Long also recommended at the afternoon workshop that salary ranges be increased annually, based on the rise in the consumer price index, computed by the U.S. Labor Department.

Inmate Attacks Guards With Broom Handle

A Seminole County jail inmate being held on charges of escape and burglary reportedly attacked three jail guards with a broom and mop handle, sending one guard to the hospital with an injured arm.

Seminole County sheriff's deputies reported Jed Allen Chyle, 20, refused to move to another cell around 5:20 p.m. Tuesday and vowed to attack anyone who tried to force him to move.

Corrections officers converged on Chyle and he reportedly assaulted three of them with the wooden handles of a broom and mop. Guard Thomas Nichols was treated for an arm injury at Central Florida Regional Hospital, Sanford, and released. Chyle was treated at the jail for an injured knee, a sheriff's report said.

He has been charged with three counts of aggravated assault on a corrections officer and bond was set at $8,000.

Chyle and his brother Michael, 22, both of Tampa, were being held on burglary charges when they escaped from the Seminole County jail by climbing over a wall in an outdoor recreation area on Aug. 23, 1984.

They were recaptured in Roane County, Tennessee on Oct. 26, and have been back in

BAR BURGLAR
Seminole County sheriff's deputies who surrounded the Five Points Bar following a report of a burglary in progress nabbed a suspect inside the building at about 10:40 p.m. Monday.

Six deputies responded to the scene after owner Ruth Clayton, 79, of 5000 U.S. Highway 17-92, Lake Mary (the address of the bar), called to report that a burglar might be in the building, a sheriff's report said.

Sgt. Steven Walther found the front door of the bar open, entered and spotted a suspect kneeling beside a rear door. Walther ordered the man to freeze and get against the wall, the report said.

When the man was searched, deputies found a four-inch knife that might have been used to pry open a rear window of the bar, the report said.

William Paul Grice, 20, of Deltona, has been charged with armed burglary. He was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

ARMED WITH STOLEN GUN
A 44-year-old Osteen man has been charged with grand larceny, armed trespassing and carrying a concealed firearm after being detained by Sanford police and held for a sheriff's deputy.

Deputy J.E. Negri reported he was called to Ohio Street at Silver Lake Drive, Sanford, at about 9 p.m. Monday concerning a man who reportedly trespassed on posted property.

Negri reported spotting a shotgun and a rifle on the front passenger side of the man's vehicle. The owner of the posted property, Henry Schumacher, who was called to the scene, reportedly identified the rifle as his, a sheriff's report said.

The rifle was returned to Schumacher and the shotgun that was loaded with buckshot was confiscated, the report said.

James Jackson Harvey, 44, of Osteen, has been charged in the case. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

DUI ARREST
The following person has been arrested in Seminole County on a charge of driving under the influence:

—Robert Gary Griffiths, 38, of 105 Parkview Drive, Sanford, was arrested at 1:37 a.m. Tuesday by Sanford police after he drove over the curb and onto the sidewalk to bypass barricades blocking First Street in downtown Sanford.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS
Thomas L. Miller, 33, of 102 Lake Minnie Drive, Lake Mary, reported to deputies his 1980 Yamaha motorcycle worth $1,000 was stolen from beside his house between March 1 and Monday.

A thief took an $800 refrigerator from a home being built on lot 92, 4000 W. Maryland Court, Casselberry, between March 1 and Monday, according to a report Joan Harvey of Orlando filed with deputies for owner The Village, 960 S. Lake Blvd., Casselberry.

A $600 microwave oven belonging to Interstate United, an Orlando vending company, was stolen from an egg plant at 3601 S. Sanford Ave., Sanford, between March 2 and Monday, a sheriff's report said.

Fishing gear worth about $600 was stolen from Steven Eugene Meadors, 29, of 452 Palm Drive, Sanford, while he was at Mullet Lake Park, Geneva, between March 2 and Monday, a sheriff's report said.

Coke Defendant Ordered To Complete Education

A Sanford woman, originally a shoplifting suspect at a Sanford motel but subsequently arrested for possession of cocaine, has been sentenced to 3 years probation.

Susan Tonya Czapiga, 26, of 2517 Yale Ave., also was fined $500 and ordered by Seminole Circuit Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr. to complete 120 hours of community service, and pay the Public Defender's Office $300. Mize stipulated that one condition of Ms. Czapiga's probation is that she finish her education and get the equivalent of a high school degree.

On July 5, according to court records, the management of the Holiday Inn, Sanford, sent lawmen to a room at the motel to look for a shoplifting suspect.

While investigating the shoplifting report, officers reported seeing one of the room's two occupants cleaning white powder off a dresser and flushing it down a toilet, records showed.

The powder, according to later tests, was cocaine. The officers also reported finding a mirror, a syringe, a pipe used for smoking drugs, and cotton balls in the room.

In other court action: —Kenneth Leon Fields, 20, of 154 Bethune Lane, Sanford, was sentenced by Mize to 2 years probation for grand theft. Fields was arrested July 5 for theft of a car. A Florida Highway Patrol trooper stopped the car because it had a burned out tail light and then ran a computer check on the vehicle. It was reported stolen. Fields was also ordered to pay $117 in restitution.

—Robin Wayne Conaster, 18, of 320 Dorian Road, west Seminole County, was sentenced to 2 years probation for burglary and grand theft in connection with a commando-like raid on cars at the Altamonte Mall Aug. 12. Mize also ordered Conaster to pay $616 in restitution and complete 120 hours of community service. According to court records, Conaster was one of four adults and four juveniles who dressed in camouflage clothing, "invaded" the parking lot of the mall, and jumped on roofs and hoods of several cars. The other adults received similar sentences.

Frank Barnett was steppin' out Monday. He high-stepped his way to first place in the 120-yard hurdles.

Tribe Thoroughbreds Stampede Oak Ridge

Other teams might have the numbers to fill the stable, but they don't have the thoroughbreds of Sanford's Fighting Seminoles.

Tuesday night, coach Ken Brauman's team went head to head with Orlando Oak Ridge, a squad in the past considered by many to be the class of Central Florida, and totally dominated the Pioneers. Seminole came away with 114½ points compared to 58½ for Oak Ridge and 23 for Orlando Edgewater in a tri-meet at Seminole High.

"They're (Oak Ridge) not used to getting beat that badly. We kind of used this meet as more of a hard workout," Brauman said. "We'll work hard again Thursday and back off over the weekend. We ran most of them up to their limit and as hard as they could go."

Among the highlights of Tuesday's meet included a season's best in the shot put by Anthony "Big Ant" Hall, a season's best in the mile relay, three firsts for senior hurdler-sprinter Frank Barnett and two each for senior sprinter Cliff Campbell, junior distance man Billy Pentek and junior leaper Leo Peterson. Junior triple jumper Alvin Jones broke his personal best in the triple jump by two feet.

The Seminoles will take this weekend off to rest before getting back into action a week from Saturday in the Lyman Invitational. The following week, Seminole will journey to Jacksonville for the Bob Hayes Invitational.

Hall, a senior, let loose with a heave of 50-7½ to easily win the shot put and miss his personal best by a half inch. The next closest competitor was Oak Ridge's Tom Johnson at 48-6.

"Anthony (Hall) has been coming on strong," Brauman said. "He really let one go today."

Barnett blazed to first places in the 120 high hurdles, the 330 intermediate hurdles and the 100 yard dash. In the first event of the afternoon, Barnett left the rest of the field in the dust as he won the 120 hurdles by 10 yards over the second-place finisher.

Gators Can't Miss With Golf Blue Chip

The University of Florida may have missed out on a blue chipper when Apopka tailback Sammie Smith decided to take his explosive 200 pounds to Tallahassee, but the Gators did acquire a blue chipper in another sport.

Winter Springs' Cheryl Morley, a senior at Oviedo High, said Tuesday that she has accepted a four-year, full ride to play golf for the Lady Gators. Cheryl, 18, was weened on the Big Cypress Golf Course in Winter Springs. Living just off the fourth hole provided a pretty good playground.

The daughter of John and Carolyn Morley said her choice came down to Florida and Oklahoma State. "I liked both schools but I thought Florida was just a step better in everything than Oklahoma State."

Cheryl also indicated a preference to stay close to home since she is very close to her parents and wants them to be able to see her play.

The attractive senior was a guest of the Optimist Club of Sanford along with Seminole High honor student Kenny Eckstein, Sanford Middle School ballerina Shanon Stewart and Seminole High Peter Schaal Award winner Mike DeLuxe.

The Optimists, Sanford's biggest friend of the youth, touched each one of these students' lives during the past few years. Sanford Mayor Bettye Smith, an optimistic lady in her own right, was on hand to salute the youngsters and give an interesting talk on her trip to China.

"These youngsters have been a part of the Optimist Club for a long time," said Optimist President Ernie Butler. "We're extremely proud of their accomplishments."

DeBose, a linebacker who was Evening Herald Player of the Year, said he hopes to continue his football career at Valdosta State or Lenoir Rhyne in North Carolina. The rugged senior led the county in tackles.

Eckstein, a sophomore at Seminole, is a five-time winner of the Optimist's oratorical contest. The 12-year-old Stewart is also a former oratorical winner and a very poised young lady.

Lyman's Chad Dubin, a talented 109-pounder, was also a fifth place winner at the state tournament this past weekend at Tampa's Leto High School. Dubin, a junior, was a conference and district champ, too.

Dubin earned the Red Lobster Athlete of the Month award last month.

Santa Fe Rips Raiders, 15-5

GAINESVILLE — Seminole Community College's Mid-Florida Conference baseball season got off to a rocky start Tuesday as the Raiders were walloped by Santa Fe, 15-5, in a game called due to the 10-run rule with two out in the eighth inning at Santa Fe Community College.

Seminole jumped ahead 2-0 in the first when Daryl Badger singled and Jack Smith doubled him to third. Mike Cloutier followed with a sacrifice fly to right field for one run and Mike Sawyer singled off winning.

Lake Mary Doubles Up Lyman

'Flash' Sets Records

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

If the javelin was suddenly made a regular event in girls track meets, it wouldn't bother Lake Mary's Lady Rams. It would just give senior standout Fran "Flash" Gordon another event to, excuse the pun, take a stab at.

Running in events she hasn't competed in yet this season, Gordon broke one school record and set senior records in two more events as Lake Mary rolled to a 94-29 dual meet victory over Lyman's Lady Greyhounds Tuesday night at Lyman High.

"Lyman won two events, we won the rest," Lake Mary coach Mike Gibson said. "I'd call that domination. I'm very pleased with the team effort. But the real test comes next week with Seminole (dual meet Tuesday at Seminole)."

Gordon, who has confined her talents mostly to the 440 yard dash and 880 run this season, started off the afternoon by setting a senior record in the 100 yard dash with a first place time of 11.7. Lake Mary took second as Tonya Lawson finished at 12.2 and Lyman's Sheila Mandy was third at 12.3.

Gordon came back to sharpen her skills in the 330 hurdles for future use in the heptathlon and surprised Gibson by running a school record 48.4 for first place. "I don't know what I'd do with her if she went 44.0 in the 330 hurdles," Gibson said. "And she could probably run that fast, too."

Finishing second to Gordon in the 330 hurdles was Jodie McCurdy who set a junior record and broke her personal best time by three seconds with a 51.4 clocking.

Gordon completed her days work by winning the 220 yard dash in 26.5, also a senior record. Lake Mary's Oneyke Berry was second in the 220 at 28.5.

McCurdy continued her improvement in the hurdles by winning the 110 highs with a career best time of 18.7. The Lady Rams swept the high hurdles as Tabitha Gano was second at 20.5 and Lisa Shelby was third at 21.2.

Another performer who Gibson was impressed with was Annette Whack in the shot put and discus. Whack, who injured an ankle during basketball, competed in her first meet Tuesday but still is not at 100 percent.

Still, Whack won both the shot (30-10½) and the discus (100-2½). "She (Whack) threw 100 in the discus with a standing throw," Gibson said. "She can't spin on her leg yet."

Lake Mary took the first three places in the discus with Lawson second at 73-10 and Nitosha Coleman third at 69-9.

Senior sprinter Sonya Walker took a pair of first places as she won the 440 dash at 65.7 and cleared 4-6 to win the high jump. Shelby was second in the high jump at 4-2 and Lyman's

Fran 'Flash' Gordon, left, and Julie Greenberg both picked up first places Tuesday at Lyman. Gordon won the 100 and 220 dashes along with the 330 hurdles. Greenberg took the mile.

Track/Field

'Lyman won two events, we won the rest. I'd call that domination.'

— Mike Gibson

Tracy Fisher was third at 4-2.

Two of Lyman's three first places came in the distance events. Julie Greenberg, a junior, won the mile with a time of 5:38, just edging out Lake Mary's Heather Heikkila (5:39.5) and Jill Buddenhagen (5:39.6). Both Heikkila and Buddenhagen ran personal bests.

The Lady Greyhounds also won the 880 run as Jennifer Hitzges turned in a time of 2:33 compared to 2:34 for Heikkila and 2:56.2 for Shelby.

Buddenhagen came back strong in the two mile and won going away with a personal best time of 12:14.5. Fisher was second at 12:30 and Greenberg third at 13:41.

Lake Mary also took the top two places in the long jump as Berry won with a leap of 15-8½ and Lawson was second at 15-4. Lawson, who just came off the unbeaten junior varsity basketball team, turned in a tremendous all around performance in her first meet for the Lady Rams.

Lake Mary won two of the three relays Tuesday. The 440 relay team of Gano, Berry, Walker and Lawson ran the second best time ever for a Lake Mary team with a 53.3 compared to 54.5 for Lyman.

The mile medley relay team of Gano, Tonya Gordon, Lawson and Niki Hays won with a time of 5:13.6. Lyman came back to win the mile relay at 4:33.

Beth Watkins delivers for the Lady Rams.

Averill Slugs Homer As Lady Rams Coast

Softball

DAYTONA BEACH — Kim Averill slugged a homer and two singles to back the seven-hit hurling of Beth Watkins as the Lake Mary Lady Rams trimmed the Mainland Lady Bucs, 5-1, in prep softball at Mainland High.

Coach Cindy Henry's defending conference champion Lady Rams improved to 2-1 for the season with their first conference win. "Kim made two diving grabs and Valerie Smith looked real good at first base," said Henry.

Lake Mary, which hosts Oviedo Thursday, picked up the only runs needed in the second inning. Averill, playing her first game since basketball ended, singled up middle. Lisa Simkins followed with a double to left center and Averill scored when the outfielder threw to the wrong base as Simkins went to third.

Freshman Smith then hit a ground ball to the shortstop, who tried to hold Simkins at third. By the time she threw to first, it was too late to get Smith and Simkins also zipped home for a 2-0 lead.

Lake Mary put the game away in sixth with three runs. Junior Karen DeShetler singled up the middle but was forced at second by Watkins. Averill followed with a drive down the right field line for a 4-0 lead.

Lea's Shoulder Pains Montreal

By United Press International

The Montreal Expos appear to have encountered a major problem with their pitching staff before the first pitch has been thrown in the spring training exhibition season.

The club's ace right-hander, Charlie Lea, Tuesday was ordered to refrain from throwing for at least five days after experiencing discomfort in his shoulder while pitching on the sidelines at the team's West Palm Beach training camp.

Lea, who was 15-12 in leading the Expos to victories last year, is hampered by tendinitis. He has missed three batting practice turns since spring training began. The setback jeopardizes Lea's chances of being Montreal's Opening Day pitcher.

"I'm not concerned about my career," Lea said. "I am concerned about when I will be able to pitch."

He will not pitch in at least the first week of Grapefruit League action.

Two other pitchers were given the green light to go ahead and work Monday after examinations.

Baseball

Reliever Bert Roberge had a twinge in his elbow, but X-rays were negative. Left-hander Dan Schatzeder has had a problem with his right knee since reporting to camp, but he pitched in an intersquad game Tuesday after X-rays also revealed nothing unusual.

Utility infielder Mike Ramsey tripled home the winning run as Coach Ron Hansen's team beat Coach Russ Nixon's team 3-1 in a six-inning intra-squad contest. U.L. Washington had two hits and drove home the losing side's only run.

In other camp developments, At Miami Gary Roenicke hit a solo homer and drove in another run to help a team coached by Cal Ripken Sr. defeat a team coached by Jimmy Williams, 5-0, in a Baltimore Orioles' intra-squad game.

At Tucson, Ariz., the Cleveland Indians signed pitcher Tom Waddell to a $90,000 contract for the 1985 season. Waddell, a 26-year-old native of Scotland, was 7-4 in 1984 with a 3.06 ERA and six saves. Three players — outfielder Carmen Castillo and pitchers Steve Farr and Don Schulze — remain unsigned and general manager Phil Seghi said if the players were unsigned by Sunday he would automatically renew their contracts at their 1984 salaries.

At St. Petersburg, Joaquin

Andujar, the only pitcher in the National League to win 20 games last year, reported to the St. Louis Cardinals' camp four days late. Andujar threw 10 minutes of batting practice. He said his control was off, but he remarked, "Don't worry, I'll be fine."

At Kissimmee, the Astros signed reliever Dave Smith to a 3-year contract that will keep the right hander with the club through the 1987 season. Smith, the Astros' eighth round pick in the June 1976 draft, was 5-4 with a 2.21 ERA and five saves last season. All but one of Smith's 243 outings since 1980 have been in relief.

At Vero Beach, Ken Landreaux and Mike Marshall collected two hits each to lead their team to a 5-2 victory in the Los Angeles Dodgers' first intra-squad game

Slaughter Tops Hall Hopefuls

TAMPA (UPI) — Enos Slaughter, the Pete Rose of the 1930s, and Arky Vaughan, a batting stylist of the 1930s, are among the most likely new additions to baseball's Hall of Fame Wednesday by the shrine's Committee on Veterans.

The 18 members of the committee are scheduled to make the announcement of two new Hall of Famers at about noon EST. They are empowered to make two selections — one player and either a second player or an executive, umpire or a star of the old Negro Leagues.

Ed Stack, president of the shrine, says the voting by the committee has become unpredictable. It surprised the baseball world the last two years with the elections of A.B. "Happy" Chandler and Travis Jackson in 1983 and Pee Wee Reese and Rick Ferrell in 1984.

But Slaughter and Vaughan are believed to be the strongest candidates on a "working list" of 15 sure to receive careful consideration from the 18-member committee.

Hornets Hang Third Orange Belt Defeat On Oviedo, 8-0

ORLANDO — Both Oviedo's Lions and Bishop Moore's Hornets were held to four hits Tuesday, but the host Hornets made the most of them while Oviedo didn't and the result was an 8-0 victory for Bishop Moore in Orange Belt Conference baseball action.

The loss dropped the Lions to 3-9 overall and 0-3 in the conference. Bishop Moore improved its overall record to 6-4 and remains unbeaten in the Orange Belt at 3-0.

After a scoreless first inning, Bishop Moore got to Oviedo starter Robert Bradley for three runs in the bottom of the second. The Hornets tacked on another run in the fourth and four more in the sixth when Bradley gave way to Kevin Kewley.

Bill Pasilla went the distance on the mound for Bishop Moore giving up three singles to different hitters and a double to Glenn Reiche. John Schud and Tony Meerb drove in two runs each for the Hornets.

Oviedo will look for its first conference win Friday when it hosts Ocala Kissimmee at 4 p.m.

Mainland, Seabreeze Eliminated

The Five Star Conference took a beating Tuesday night as regular season champion Daytona Beach Seabreeze and 4A-9 District champion Daytona Beach Mainland both lost in regional play.

In the 4A-5 Region playoff at Mainland High, unheralded Maurice Cowens scored 13 straight points for Orlando Evans in the second half to lead the Trojans to a 68-56 victory over Mainland's Blues.

Cowens' 13-point outburst enabled Evans, the 4A-5 region champion last year, to build a 55-44 lead after Mainland had pulled within one, 45-44.

Cowens wound up with a game-high 22 points, 18 coming in the second half. Jimmy Kuhl tossed in 18 for the Trojans who advance to the 4A-3 Section playoff Saturday against West Palm Beach Twin Lakes, a 71-70 winner over Vero Beach Tuesday night.

Mike Pollie, a 6-7 sophomore center, led Mainland with 20 points. George McCloud, a 6-6 senior guard forward, was held to 12 points and fouled out in the late going.

At Jacksonville, top-ranked Seabreeze was eliminated from the playoff picture when the Sand Crabs dropped a 67-62 overtime decision to underdog Jacksonville Lee in the 3A-2 Region championship.

The cold shooting Crabs managed to stay close behind the inside play of John Parks. Pat Johnson kept Seabreeze alive by throwing in a 30-footer at the buzzer to tie the score at 57-57, sending the game into overtime.

But Seabreeze couldn't survive its cold shooting spell in the overtime period as Lee advanced to the 3A-1 Section playoff Saturday against Crestview.

USFL Will Stay With Replays

NEW YORK (UPI) — The United States Football League will use televised instant replays to appeal officials' calls in all its games broadcast on ABC or ESPN, USFL Commissioner Harry Usher said Tuesday.

"We have been pleased with the use of instant replay in our first two ABC games and are now prepared to extend its usage," Usher said of the league's experiment with replays to judge disputed calls by officials on the field.

In the two games, three appeals were made — one by the Generals in the Feb. 24 New Jersey Birmingham contest and one each by the Gamblers and Bandits in the March 3 Houston-Tampa Bay game. The officials were upheld in each case.

"Actually this is what we expected," Usher said. "Our officials are going to be correct more than 90 percent of the time. The use of instant replay comes into the picture on those rare occasions when an official is screened or may simply miss a call. A call will only be reversed in a very clear-cut situation."

County Golf Championships Set

The Seminole County Golf Championships will be Friday, March 29 at the Casselberry Golf Club, Lake Mary golf coach Bill Eisele said Tuesday.

There will be a boys and girls division for the six county teams. Tee off times will be between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. There is a $5 entry fee.

Eisele also said the Lake Mary Boosters Golf Tournament will be Saturday, May 11 at the Casselberry Golf Club. It will have an 8 a.m. shotgun start.

Sooners Cruise, Jayhawks Escape

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — Oklahoma was operating on a full tank Tuesday night while Kansas found itself running on empty.

The two Big Eight powers opened their post-season tournament and while No. 5 Oklahoma breezed to a 116-91 opening round victory over Oklahoma State, the eighth-ranked Jayhawks had a little tougher time with Nebraska.

Kansas was without its two top reserves, point guard Mark Turgeon and center Mark Pellock, because of the flu. That did not bode well for the Jayhawks starting lineup, which received a combined seven minutes rest in the game.

But All-Big Eight forward Ron Kellogg came through with 6 points in the final three minutes to propel Kansas to a 74-69 triumph over the Cornhuskers.

"We looked dead," said Coach Larry Brown, whose Jayhawks improved their overall record to 25-6. "Every time I thought we came close to putting it away, we missed a shot or made a turnover. Thank God it's over. I'm telling you I didn't want to play Nebraska."

Basketball

Kellogg and fellow forward Danny Manning both played the entire 40 minutes as did point guard Cedric Hunter. Kellogg scored 20 points, Manning grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds and Hunter chipped in 9 points and 8 assists.

Kansas guard Calvin Thompson, who missed two games himself with the flu last week, scored 13 points in 37 minutes and 7-foot-1 center Greg Dreiling overcame some quarantines to score 14 points in 36 minutes as the Jayhawks finished the home season with a 16-0 record.

Kansas advances to the Big Eight semifinals Friday night against the winner of Wednesday night's Iowa State-Colorado game.

At Norman, Okla., All-America forward Wayman Tisdale scored 30 points and grabbed 19 rebounds to lead Oklahoma 26-5, which set two tournament and one school record in the process.

The Sooners' 116-point total was the most points ever scored in a Big Eight tournament game and the 46 field goals Oklahoma sank also established a new tournament record. The 99 field goals attempted by the Sooners set a school record for most shots taken in a game.

The victory, Oklahoma's 33rd straight at home, tied a Big Eight Conference home-court win streak record.

The 6-9 Tisdale hit the 30-point scoring mark for the 3rd time in his 3-year career.

The triumph advances Oklahoma to the tournament semifinals Friday night against the winner of Wednesday night's Missouri-Kansas State contest.

"We're delighted with the victory and delighted we're going to Kansas City," said Oklahoma coach Billy Tubbs. "I think the Georgia Tech game [an 87-80 triumph Sunday] helped our rebounding."

"We will have to be a good rebounding team down the stretch if we want to be successful in the tournaments."

Tulsa Survives West Texas St. Upset Bid

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — Missouri Valley Conference regular season champion Tulsa should have easily dispatched West Texas State in a first round league tournament game. However, Golden Hurricane coach Nolan Richardson will null over his game plan after things did not go as planned.

Tulsa was able to survive 74-69 Tuesday night after eight crucial free throws by Herbert Johnson. The 13th ranked Golden Hurricane, 22-6 and 13-4 in the MVC, will host Bradley in a second round game Thursday night. Wichita State, the tournament's third seed, will host Indiana State in the other semifinal game.

In other first round games, Wichita State edged Southern Illinois 69-66. Bradley defeated Creighton 66-59 and Indiana State beat Illinois State 66-61.

Xavier McDaniel scored 25 points and pulled down 21 rebounds to keep Wichita State alive in the race for an NCAA Tournament bid and boost the Shockers' record to 16-12.

Boise Winters scored 20 points to pace Bradley's victory at Peoria and end Creighton's season with a 20-12 mark.

Ralph Winters paced Indiana State's upset with 14 points and Rick Fields added 13 in handing the Redbirds their first ever opening round MVC loss.

NE LOUISIANA WINS
JONESBORO, Ark. (UPI) — Northeast Louisiana withstood the late charge of Arkansas State Tuesday night to surge into the Southland Conference tournament's semifinal Friday against No. 6 Louisiana Tech.

Elgin James scored 19 points for Northeast Louisiana, which led by 14 points at halftime but then had to hold on for a 70-62 first round victory over Arkansas State at Jonesboro, Ark.

Elsewhere in the tournament Tuesday, McNeese State defeated North Texas 89-78 and Lamar downed Texas Arlington 98-80.

Northeast Louisiana shot 65 percent from the field to jump to a 37-23 halftime lead. Jones scored 12 points before intermission.

Basketball

Tim Norman scored 18 second half points to help Arkansas State move within 49-47 with 6:55 left on two free throws by Reggie Gordon.

At Lake Charles, La., Joe Dumars scored 10 points to pace McNeese.

McNeese coach Glen Duhon said Dumars' No. 4 jersey will be retired this season. With 2,587 points after Tuesday's game, Dumars' career total ties him with the 10th spot on the all-time NCAA scoring list.

At Beaumont, Texas, Lamar took its third 20-point victory of the season over Texas Arlington.

"Every time we play in Beaumont," said Texas Arlington coach Bob LeGrand, "we seem to fall apart. Not to take anything from the Cardinals — they're an excellent team."

BOSTON U SURVIVES
Patience and Paul Hendricks paid dividends for Boston University.

Hendricks scored 13 of his 18 points in the second half to spark the Terriers from a 10-point halftime deficit Tuesday, hitting them to a 69-68 victory over Niagara in the opening round of the ECAC North Atlantic Conference tournament.

In other first round play Tuesday, Siena downed Vermont 65-56. Canisius trounced New Hampshire 80-56 and Northeastern ripped Maine 103-81.

Niagara led 38-28 at the half. But the Terriers fought back and a jumper by Hendricks with 5:44 left gave Boston University its first lead, 55-54.

Tom Ivey's 3-point play with 1:24 remaining gave the Terriers the lead for good, 63-60.

Canisius, which is the top seed in the tournament after tying for first place with Northeastern in the regular season, led 35-20 at intermission.

The Answer My Friend, Is Blowin' In The Wind

The answer my friend, is blowin' in the wind. I've got some good news and some bad news. The good news is that spring is here bringing with it some warmer weather. The bad news is that spring weather brings with it lots and lots of wind.

Now wind is great for kite flyers and wind surfers but most of the tennis players I have ever met hate to play in it. I even know some players who won't play in it. If they consider it too windy they just don't play.

It has been said that the wind is a great equalizer in tennis and that it makes hazzards out of all players. Most experts disagree with that statement though, and say that learning to play in the wind is one of the keys in being a successful player.

Let's face it, if you live in Florida you have simply got to play in the wind if you are going to play much tennis. It blows and swirls almost every day and very often does make playing tennis quite an adventure.

I have played on days, or had teams play on days, when the wind was blowing so hard that from one side of the court you had to hit the ball as hard as you could just to get it over the net and from the other side just a touch would send the ball far over the baseline.

If it is a bad cross wind, a ball that you have hit down the middle might just blow out of bounds over the sideline.

Anyway, we know the wind is going to blow and we know that we still want to play tennis. So what can you do? How do we adjust to the particular situation? The following is a stroke-by-stroke look of some things that might help you in the wind.

First of all the most important thing

Larry Castle
Herald Tennis
Writer

is to get your mind right. When you know you are going to have to play in the wind, don't let the wind blow your mind (Sorry!)

In other words, don't get all upset and psyched out by it. No one likes to play in it but it blows the same for your opponent as it does for you. The player who will not let it get to him will have the best chance of winning.

As far as the strokes go, when the wind is blowing cross court, one should not go for the lines. Gauge the wind, and aim outside or inside the lines (depending on the side you're shooting at) and the wind will carry the ball in for you.

When serving, you should keep your ball toss as low as possible to avoid having the ball move around. If you are a serve and volley player, watch out that you are not too careful on those volleys, rather try to keep your volleys good and crisp instead of pushing or guiding the ball and having it float out.

Do not go for too much on the overheads. Be firm but remember that the ball is really moving around a lot up there. Give yourself some margin for error and go for control instead of power.

Get that racket back quickly behind the head and take a more compact swing instead of an all-out, go-for-broke swing.

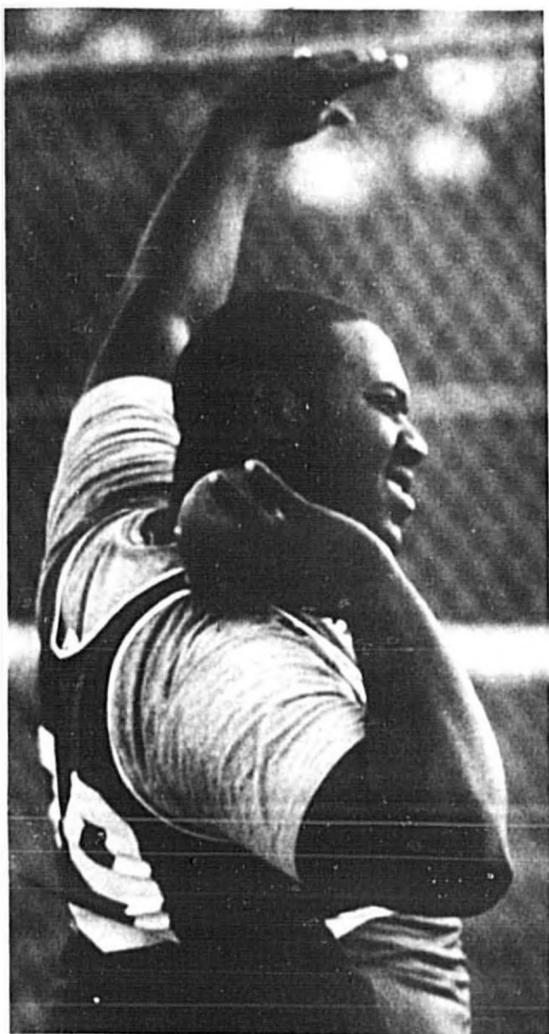

On your ground strokes and service returns, remember if the wind is in your face you are going to have to take the ball far out in front of your body and really hug through the ball.

You must be firm and forceful on your shots. If you let the ball get too far behind you, you are in trouble. If the wind is at your back you must use more spin. Especially under-spin to keep the ball lower and to keep it from blowing out.

Concentrate on steadiness and just keeping everything in the court. Above all, don't let a few early mistakes ruin your entire match. Stay calm, concentrate and use the wind to your advantage.

Let your opponent fuss and hime about it, and don't you enter into conversation about how bad a day it is for tennis just say, "Oh, I like to play in the wind. It helps my game."

It'll blow his mind (Sorry!)

Anthony 'Big Ant' Hall, left, limbers up mentally and physically for his next throw during Tuesday's triangular meet at Seminole High. The burly 250 pound Fighting Seminole has been straining to hit the 50 foot mark early in the season and then go on to bigger and better things. Above, with a grunt and a groan the big senior realizes his wish with a 50 7/8 inch throw, just one half inch off his career best. Hall's heave accounted for six points and helped the Seminoles slaughter Oak Ridge and Edgewater. The Tribe finished with 114 1/2 points while Oak Ridge had 58 1/2 and Edgewater had 23. "They don't usually get beat that bad," said Seminole coach Ken Brauman about the twin killing over the two Metro schools.

Barnett finished with a time of 13.6 compared to 14.6 for Oak Ridge's Tyrone Reese.

After winning the high hurdles going away, Barnett came tight back in the next event for another first place. The fleet-footed senior sailed to a 9.8 in winning the 100 yard dash while Oak Ridge's Ricky Demps finished in 9.9. Demps was followed by Seminole's Pat Davis at 10.1 and the Tribe's Dexter Jones at 10.2.

Barnett made it 3 for 3 by winning the 300 intermediate hurdles with a time of 40.1. Oak Ridge's Brian Duvall came on strong at the finish to make it close but Barnett had the race sewed up early and just cruised in the end. Duvall finished at 40.2.

Campbell picked up his first victory of the day by winning the 440 yard dash with an excellent time of 48.9. Sophomore teammate Eric Martin was second at 49.8 and Seminole also took fourth place as Louis Brown came in at 51.3.

Campbell and Martin also finished 1-2 in the 220 dash with Campbell clocking in at 22.5 and Martin at 22.7.

Campbell came back in the mile relay to run an impressive anchor leg that led to the Tribe's top time of the season.

Campbell's 49.7 gave Seminole its season best time of 4:20.9. Brown ran the first leg for the Tribe followed by Martin, then Thompson and then Campbell.

Penick led from start to finish Tuesday as he easily won both the mile and two mile with no one really pushing him. Penick recorded a time of 4:30 in the mile compared to 4:42 for Oak Ridge's Bill McEarsney. Penick came back to run a 10:01.4 two mile. Seminole swept the two mile as Penick was followed by Kelly Abney (11:02.6), Kelly Lant (11:11.1) and Ted Richardson (11:22.0).

Peterson hit a 24 1/4 to win the long jump while teammate Alvin Jones was second at 24 3/8 and senior Ken Temple came in fourth at 19 1/4. Peterson cleared 5 10 to take first in the high jump while Arthur Hersey was third at 5 4. Peterson only made one attempt in the triple jump and it was good for second place at 46 3/4.

Alvin Jones soared to a career best 17.7 to win the triple jump followed by Peterson and Dexter Jones at 14.2.

Alvin (Jones) has just been out since Thursday after basketball. Brauman said "I'm not surprised that he jumped that far this early. He thinks he can go much farther, so do I."

Also taking first for the Tribe was Kelly Kelly who cleared 8 0 to win the pole vault.

pitcher Raoul Elzmore to score Smith.

In the fourth, Tim Johnson singled and stole second. Kenny Brown sacrificed him to third and was safe at first when the pitcher bobbled the ball. When Elzmore belatedly threw to first,

Johnson came around to score for a 1-1 lead. Steve Lopez then singled Brown to third and Badger plated four with a grounder to third.

The last run for coach Jack Pantelas' crew came in the eighth when Leonard Thigpen reached on an error and Johnson singled. Lyndon Montague followed with a two-out single to base home Thigpen.

Evans' Jumper Nips Houston

DENVER (UPI) — The message Alex English wanted to give the Houston Rockets Tuesday night was simple. The delivery, however, took longer than expected.

"We had to win to let them (the Rockets) know we intend to win our division," said English after Denver defeated Houston 133-131 in double overtime. "We had to let them know."

The victory came when Mike Evans hit an 18-foot jumper with 44 seconds left in the second overtime as the Nuggets won their 15th straight home game and 11th in 12 overall.

The triumph moved first-place Denver 4 1/2 games ahead of the Rockets in the Midwest Division race.

Denver appeared to have won in regulation, but Rodney McCray tipped in an errant shot as time expired to send the game to overtime.

English, who led Denver with 39 points, missed a shot at the end of the first overtime but his two baskets gave Denver a 131-124 lead with 2:43 left in the second overtime.

7 Teams Join NBA's Lottery

NEW YORK (UPI) — Seven non-playoff teams will participate in an NBA lottery May 12 to determine the order of selection for picks one through seven at the June 18 college draft.

The remaining NBA teams will pick in reverse order of their regular season finish on Draft Day.

According to a statement from the NBA: "Cards bearing the official logos of the seven teams involved will be inserted into identical envelopes."

Commissioner David J. Stern will draw the envelopes, marking them 1 through 7. These envelopes will then be opened, beginning with the seventh one selected and proceeding to the one marked No. 1 which will indicate the team receiving the first pick in the draft.

UPI: Tose Is Close To Sale Of Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — With time running out for Leonard Tose, the nearly 2-year-old soap opera of the financially troubled Philadelphia Eagles may finally be coming to an end.

Source said Tuesday night that Tose and Miami businessman Norman Braman, 52, a Philadelphia native who runs a chain of successful automobile dealerships, are close to an agreement on the sale of the Eagles and that a deal may be worked out by the end of the week.

Tose, his daughter, Eagles vice president Susan Fletcher, Braman and a battery of attorneys were meeting around the clock to try to complete the deal as quickly as possible, a source told UPI.

The source said a deal could be reached as early as today and "definitely" by Friday. He said Braman would keep the club in Philadelphia.

Eagles spokesman Ed Winneki said he could not confirm or deny that negotiations between Tose and Braman were taking place.

The exact share sought by Braman is not known but estimates range at anywhere from 80 to 100 percent. Tose last week saw a near-completed deal for 80 percent of the team fall apart when he insisted on keeping some control.

"It's definitely a majority interest," a source said. "Anybody buying a minority interest is out of his mind."

Tose's asking price for the entire Eagles franchise is believed to be between $65 and $70 million but he has rebuffed all prior bids for 100 percent of the club.

Tose, reported to be more than $40 million in debt, is under pressure to sell the Eagles before his fellow NFL owners convene next Monday in Phoenix, Ariz.,

Football

for their annual meeting.

He also is working against a March 31 deadline to settle a $12 million loan with Crocker Bank of California. Tose also has an $18 million loan outstanding with Crocker, due in March 1986.

The NFL owners are concerned the bank will foreclose on the Eagles if Tose fails to pay his debt on time. They also fear that unless he sells a sizable chunk of the franchise to come up with some working capital, he will be unable to run a competitive franchise.

Should Tose fail to come up with a buyer by Monday, the owners are expected to determine ways of helping him refinance the club through replacement loans, or finding new investors.

'The Best Part's The Fun' For 73-Year-Old Girl Scouts

The popular image of a typical Girl Scout of just a generation ago would bear only a slight resemblance to the Girl Scout of 1985. Today's Girl Scouts are mastering computer technology, learning about the environment and the ecological balance, exploring the universe by telescope and getting on-the-job training through Girl Scouting's career education projects.

It's a full, rich life for Girl Scouts in the 1980s who are celebrating the 73rd birthday.

The theme for Girl Scout Week this year — March 10-6 — is "The Best Part's The Fun." Doris Bacon-Elsa says, "It reminds us that, in Girl Scouting, 'fun' is still number one! It's the lure that continues to bring millions of girls into Girl Scouting's worlds of new discoveries, expanded personal horizons, community service and happy friendships."

Girl Scouting's value-centered program is still helping girls grow up to be happy, strong, contributing citizens. That makes this special week a time for all citizens, in communities across the U.S.A., to salute the Girl Scouts for the enrichment they add to girls' lives — and for never forgetting that "The Best Part's The Fun." Mrs. Elsa adds.

Cook Of The Week

Tooth Fairy Needs No Magic In Getting Out Of The Sugar Rut

By Dorothy Greene
Herald Correspondent

Someone once said that a smile is worth a thousand words, and the secret to a sparkling smile is good dental care.

Our Cook of the Week, Gail Stewart, is also our resident "Tooth Fairy." Gail, whose husband Roger is a dentist in Sanford, says she has "come a long way for a Southern gal who was raised on sugar."

A cookbook which Gail uses called, "Out of the Sugar Rut," contains healthy and delicious main dishes and desserts made without sugar, white flour, additives or preservatives, and she feels that her children are well ahead of the game, healthwise, by the elimination of those ingredients in their diet.

The Stewarts, their three children, Shanan, Shayne and Shawn, and a little white puff of a poodle named Idgit, live in the Idyllwilde section of Sanford where Gail combines homemaking with a business of her own and numerous community services.

Originally from South Carolina, Gail moved to DeLand with her family in 1958. After high school, she attended college in Kentucky and met Roger at the Kentucky Derby. They were married during Roger's second year at dental school while Gail worked as a dental assistant. After graduation, Roger joined the Navy and was stationed at Camp LeJeune, N.C. for a year before being transferred to Orlando. Impressed with the area and its projected growth potential, Dr. Stewart opened his dental practice in Sanford in 1975.

At this time, Gail became active in the Orange County Dental Wives Auxiliary and that's when the Tooth Fairy was born.

The Auxiliary features a program aimed at school age children teaching them the benefits of good oral hygiene.

Gail was the only member from the Sanford area and when she left the Auxiliary, she continued the program on her own and now works through the auspices of the Seminole County Dividends. Visiting the schools in her bright pinafore with the slogan, "The Tooth Fairy Won't Pay For A Tooth With Decay" embroidered across the bottom, Gail demonstrates the proper way to care for young teeth. Gail says that after nine years, it is a very exciting and rewarding project and she enjoys working with first and second grade youngsters.

In addition to the proper brushing and flossing techniques that Gail teaches the children, she also stresses good nutrition which goes hand in hand with dental care. Sugarless foods are just as tasty as the real thing and are better for children in their formative years.

Gail substitutes NutraSweet (Equal) in her recipes and beverages whenever sugar is called for. Her husband and many other dentists approve of this sugar substitute.

Although February is Dental Health Month, the Tooth Fairy is on call all year round and Gail is pleased with the way the school system works hard to provide nutritional school lunches and to educate our youngsters in proper dental hygiene. Three cheers for the "Tooth Fairy!"

Gail, who likes to keep busy,

Gail Stewart has a lot to smile about.

has a number of community service activities to her credit. She is a member and past president of the Junior Woman's Club of Sanford Inc., is a member of the Board of Directors of Ballet Guild of Sanford-Seminole and is president-elect of the Central Florida Regional Hospital Auxiliary which she says she is extremely enthusiastic about. A very dedicated group of men and women, the Auxiliary provides many volunteer services to the hospital such as tending the front desk, the gift shop, etc.

Gail is also chairman of the teen-age volunteers, better known as "Candy Strippers." Girls in the 14 to 18 year age bracket donate many volunteer hours to the hospital. Gail's daughter Shanan is excited about joining the Strippers next year when she turns 14. Gail is also "team mother" to a soccer team which Roger coaches, and is a new member of the Woman's Club of Sanford Inc.

Somehow, Gail has found time to start her own business in downtown Sanford called Wee Kids Fashions which she loves and is very proud of and says it is doing very well.

"My first love is my family," says Gail. "I'm not going to get mushy about it, but we have fun together." Gail recalls that when her father died, her mother took over his construction business in DeLand and Gail speaks admiringly of her. "Mother was a businesswoman and was also a great cook and still is, but a close family friend with whom I spent a lot of time, taught me how to cook. She cooked in the old Southern tradition with whole butter, whole milk, fried corn bread, fried chicken, so it was hard for me to change to a health-conscious diet."

Even though they get lax now and then, Gail still tries to maintain a healthful menu by using whole wheat flour, skim milk and NutraSweet. "I'm not unrealistic, but I've come a long way. My mother has even become more health conscious when baking for the children because she knows how we feel about sugars in our diet."

Gail says her children "are very healthy. They have never had an ounce of excess fat on them. We always made their baby foods for them and at 10 months they were taken off formula and put on skim milk and this will show in years to come."

The recipes Gail uses are quick to prepare, low in calories and use no sugar. Listed below are some favorite main dishes, desserts, frostings and sauces:

CHICKEN LOAF

1 3/4 lb. chicken
1 1/2 cups chicken broth
1 cup cooked brown rice
1 1/2 cups whole wheat bread crumbs
1 1/2 cups cream
2 pintos
4 eggs, well beaten

Boil the chicken until tender in enough lightly salted water to make 1 1/2 cups broth. Bone the chicken and cut the meat into bite size pieces. Save the broth to use later. Mix all ingredients well in the order given. Put in 9x13 inch casserole dish. Bake at 350° for 45 minutes. Cool before turning out. Use any sauce for topping. (See Barbecue sauce) Serves 6.

VEGETABLE MEAT LOAF

1/2 cup butter
3 large onions, sliced
1 large green pepper, seeded and cut in strips
1/2 tsp. salt
2 lbs. ground beef

4 slices whole wheat bread crumbs
2 eggs
2 tps. salt
Pepper to taste

Finders Just May Be Keepers In Illinois

DEAR ABBY: This concerns the letter from "Upset," whose sister found a diamond ring on the floor of a bathroom in a Chicago hotel, which she promptly turned over to the hotel management. The ring has not been claimed by its true owner. Now the hotel refuses to give the sister the ring and says it will, after a year, turn it over to the police. "Upset" suggests that "finders-keepers" should be the law.

You advised "Upset" to ask the American Bar Association what Illinois laws had to say about finding and returning valuables.

Of course, we cannot answer individual legal questions for a number of reasons. The answer to "Upset" depends on additional facts that we do not have, and on an interpretation of the law that we cannot make. We can, however, suggest that sister see her lawyer. Her chances look good, and I will tell you why.

The law of lost, mislaid or abandoned personal property comes to us from the common law. Whether, under the facts in each case, the property was "lost," "mislaid" or "abandoned" controls the result and has, therefore, occupied courts and juries for centuries.

Illinois, however, has enacted an "estray statute" setting special rules for this state. That statute imposes a duty upon a finder to notify the Circuit Court of any find worth $100 or more, advertise for three weeks in the newspaper, wait a year, then get an order of ownership from the court.

In 1978 the Appellate Court of Illinois had a case surprisingly similar to this one involving the sister's claimed ring in Paket vs. Bank. Paket found $6,325 cash on a chair pushed partially under a table in an examination booth in the safety deposit vault area of a suburban Chicago bank. She promptly turned the cash over to the bank. No one claimed ownership. One year later Paket asked the bank for the money. The bank said the money was "mislaid," not "lost," and it should keep it until the owner claimed it. Paket sued the bank.

The Illinois court said the estray statute was intended to encourage and facilitate the return of property to the true owner and then to reward the finder for his or her honesty if the property remains unclaimed. In a six-page opinion (62 Ill. App. 3rd 534), the court ordered the bank to give the cash to Paket.

Under all the circumstances, the best advice you (or we) could give "Upset's" sister would be to see a lawyer quickly.

H. EUGENE HEINE,
GENERAL COUNSEL,
AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION, CHICAGO

DEAR MR. HEINE: Thank you for the valuable information. Perhaps I should mention that laws differ from state to state, so anyone wanting to know the law in his state concerning the finding and returning of valuables should consult a local lawyer.

Dear Abby

And now, a word from one of your colleagues:

DEAR ABBY: On behalf of the legal profession, thank you for not trying to practice law.

FRANCIS M. CORBY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
CHICAGO

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for five months and have a wonderful marriage, except for one small problem. My husband never answers me when I talk to him.

He doesn't even ask me to repeat what I've said. He just sits there as though I haven't even opened my mouth.

I know this isn't an uncommon problem because my mother says my father has been doing the same thing to her for years. By the way, my father isn't hard of hearing, and neither is my husband. Any suggestions?

TALKING TO THE WALL

DEAR TALKING: It's difficult to see ourselves as others see us, but take a good look at your mother. Does she rattle on and on until your father has been conditioned to tune her out? Is her conversation interesting, or is it boring?

If she's a chatterbox who has been tuned out, maybe you're like your mother, and your husband is like your father.

Check it out. And remember, the less you talk, the more you're listened to.

DEAR ABBY: About four years ago, a reader commented on how disgusting it was to see baseball players habitually chewing tobacco, but no one ever explained why baseball players chewed tobacco, nor did anyone suggest an alternative, so here goes:

Baseball is a dry, hot and dusty game, and the players' mouths get dry. If they drink a lot of water, it slows them down, and their game is "off." (The same is true if a player eats too much before a game.) Gum is too sweet and increases thirst.

About 20 years ago, when I played on a softball team, I used to buy something called spruce gum. It came in little round balls and was sold in boxes. It kept the mouth moist.

If you can find out if spruce gum is still available, I'll be your friend for life and I'll also buy all I can get.

A.B. HURLEY
IN PORTLAND, ORE.

DEAR MR. HURLEY: I'll put the word out, but I warn you, you could be stuck with more than you can chew.

Strudel Not Just Dessert

Mention strudel and we usually think of a very rich fruit-filled pastry.

Here is a strudel to fit into today's changing eating habits. The pastry is filled with a combination of cottage cheese, spinach, onion and mushrooms bound with eggs. It is still rich but now the strudel is an entree or side dish rather than a sweet.

FRESH VEGETABLE STRUDEL

- 1 cup cottage cheese
- 1/2 cup packaged seasoned bread crumbs
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon dried leaf oregano, crushed
- 1/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided
- 1/2 pound fresh spinach
- 1 cup chopped onion (1 large)
- 1 cup chopped fresh mushrooms
- 1 sheet frozen puff pastry dough, 10 inches square

In small bowl, combine cottage cheese, bread crumbs, eggs, Parmesan cheese, oregano and hot pepper sauce; mix well.

In large skillet melt 2 tablespoons butter. Stir-fry spinach until wilted, chop and set aside.

In same skillet, melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter; saute onion and mushrooms until tender.

Allow pastry sheet to thaw at room temperature; cut in half. Roll one half to a rectangle 6 inches by 10 inches; place on ungreased cookie sheet. Roll second sheet to a rectangle 7 inches by 11 inches; set aside.

Spoon cheese mixture over smaller sheet; leave 1/2-inch border all around. Cover cheese with spinach; spoon onion-mushroom mixture over all. Place remaining pastry sheet over vegetables; fold edges over and seal. Bake in a 350-degree oven 35 minutes or until pastry is golden.

This kitchen tested recipe makes 4 servings.

Turn frozen macaroni and cheese into a Mexican feast.

Old Standby Takes On International Flavors

Macaroni and cheese has long been a standby for warm meatless Lenten meals. It's always been a family-pleaser, simple to fix and very economical.

Now, with the help of frozen macaroni and cheese in a family-size package, it is even easier to prepare and much more versatile. With the addition of a few chopped vegetables in one version, or a crunchy seasoned topping in another, "old standby" macaroni and cheese becomes a meal everyone will relish time and time again throughout the Lenten season. It is new and different every time. Next trip to the grocery store, look for the large, 32 ounce package of prepared macaroni and cheese in the freezer case. By itself, it is plenty for four generous helpings and with an added ingredient or two, easily serves five.

As quickly as you can open a can, chop an onion and sprinkle on a little seasoning, everyday macaroni and cheese becomes a Mexican feast, an Italian pasta specialty or a crunchy tuna casserole with an Oriental flair. For Macho Macaroni and Cheese, add spiciness with canned green chilies, chopped tomato, sliced ripe olives and a dash of hot pepper sauce. A sprinkling of crushed tortilla chips on top gives it that distinctive nacho flavor. While it bakes for 30 minutes, fix a salad of fresh fruit and greens, then serve with warm tortillas or crunchy bread sticks.

NACHO MACARONI & CHEESE

1 package (32 oz.) frozen prepared macaroni and cheese main dish, thawed

1 can (4 oz.) chopped green chilies, drained

1 large tomato, chopped (about 1 cup)

1/2 cup sliced ripe olives

Dash hot pepper sauce

1/2 cup crushed tortilla chips

In 2-quart baking dish, combine macaroni and cheese, green chilies, tomato, olives and hot pepper sauce. Sprinkle tortilla chips on top. Heat in 375°F oven 30 minutes or until hot. Makes 5 servings.

MACARONI ITALIANO

1 package (32 oz.) frozen prepared macaroni and cheese main dish, thawed

1 medium zucchini, sliced, cooked and drained (about 2 cups)

1 medium onion, chopped (about 1/2 cup)

1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste

1 teaspoon Italian seasoning

1/4 teaspoon garlic powder

2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

In 2-quart baking dish, combine macaroni and cheese, zucchini, onion, tomato paste, Italian seasoning and garlic powder. Sprinkle cheese on top. Heat in 375°F oven 30 minutes or until hot. Makes 5 servings.

CRUNCHY TUNA MACARONI & CHEESE

1 package (32 oz.) frozen prepared macaroni and cheese main dish, thawed

2 cans (6 3/4 oz. ea.) tuna, drained and flaked

1 can (8 oz.) sliced waterchestnuts, drained

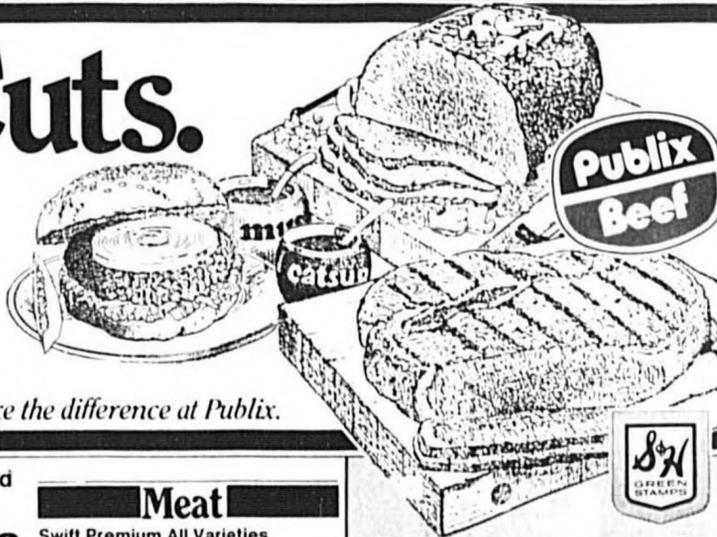

2 tablespoons chopped pimento

1/2 cup seasoned croutons

In 2-quart baking dish, combine macaroni and cheese, tuna, waterchestnuts and pimento. Heat in 375°F oven 20 minutes. Sprinkle croutons on top. Heat an additional 10 minutes or until hot. Makes 5 servings.

Color Pasta Green

You've no doubt heard of green noodles, but noodles with greens? It's Pasta Verde...egg noodles plus spinach, California ripe olives, cheese and sour cream... and it adds up to perfection. The greens lend a refreshing lightness to the pasta. The ripe olives contribute texture and color contrast, and mellow taste. The cheese blends together the other ingredients. And the subtle flavors of sour cream and herbs enhance all to make a luscious dish hearty enough for an entree but equally beautiful as a side dish or first course.

PASTA VERDE

6 ounces medium egg noodles (about 2 cups)

1 1/2 quarts boiling water

1 tablespoon vegetable oil

1 medium onion, chopped (1/2 cup)

1 pound fresh spinach or Romaine lettuce, washed, trimmed and chopped

1 cup dairy sour cream

1 large clove garlic, minced or pressed

1 1/2 teaspoons basil, crumbled

1 1/2 teaspoons oregano, crumbled

1 1/2 cups pitted California ripe olives, cut into wedges

1 cup grated Monterey Jack cheese

1 cup grated Parmesan cheese (optional)

Drop noodles into boiling water. Return to boil. Reduce heat and simmer 7 minutes; drain. While noodles cook, heat oil in skillet. Add onion and spinach and cook over medium-high heat for 4 to 5 minutes or until onion is cooked and spinach is wilted. Stir in sour cream, garlic, basil, oregano and all but 1/4 cup olives. Drain noodles. Return to kettle. Add Jack cheese and 1/2 the Parmesan cheese. Heat, stirring until melted. Stir in spinach combination. Heat gently but do not boil. Turn into serving dish. Sprinkle with remaining olives and Parmesan cheese. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Throw A Soup Party

Entertaining In Impromptu Atmosphere Puts Guests At Ease

Leave the linen tablecloth and heirloom china tucked away and pull out the casseroles, crocks and pottery dishes. A soup party, with its impromptu atmosphere, puts guests at ease and lets you join in all the fun. It's also an easy-on-the-budget way to entertain lots of friends.

Keep the set-up simple to showcase the food. Crocks, pots and baking dishes can be arranged buffet style on counters for easy serving. Practical and colorful dish towels double as napkins. Baskets, platter, even large bowls can hold breads and rolls.

Serve soups that go from pot to bowl in less than 30 minutes. The key to streamlining preparation is the use of convenient canned broth, vegetable juice or milk in place of traditional stocks. Frozen and canned vegetables supplement long-cooking fresh varieties while keeping chopping and slicing to a minimum.

Whole kernel corn and milk, zipped up with mustard and cheddar cheese, form the base for delicious satisfying Corn Chowder. Ground oat flour thickens this creamy soup subtly flavored with bits of smoky bacon and crisp celery.

Vegetable lovers will warm up to Italian Minestrone. This do-ahead meatless main dish soup features protein rich kidney beans, tomatoes, frozen mixed vegetables and macaroni in an herb-seasoned stock made extra-easy with canned beef broth.

For variety, pair one or more soups with a chill-chasing stew

Chicken Barley Stew is glamorous enough for guests, but takes less than an hour from start to finish. Wholesome barley, with its chewy texture and appealing flavor, complements inexpensive fresh winter produce and chunks of chicken. For added convenience, prepare ahead and reheat just before serving.

Home-baked breads make natural companions for stews and soups. This Quick-Risin' Oat Bread recipe yields two golden brown loaves with light and tender texture. Pancake syrup adds just a hint of sweetness.

Convenient pancake mix makes Easy Herb Biscuits super simple to prepare. All you need to add are water, oil and dried herbs to give these drop biscuits a savory flavor.

Complete the menu with Homespun Apple Dumplings. Here, tart, crisp apples are filled with cinnamon, sugar and nuts. Then, they're wrapped in squares of corn meal pastry and baked until golden brown. Serve them warm with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream for a party dessert from which memories are made.

3. Sift together the 1 1/4 cups flour, the baking powder and salt into medium size bowl. Stir in bran. Add to butter mixture. Stir briskly with fork just until dry ingredients are moistened; do not over-stir. Batter will not be smooth.

4. Toss berries with 1 tablespoon flour in small bowl. Fold into batter.

5. Fill each prepared muffin pan cup two-thirds full with batter, using large spoon and rubber spatula.

6. Bake in preheated hot (425°) oven for 23 minutes or until golden brown. Remove pan to wire rack. Loosen muffins with spatula and remove from pan at once to prevent steaming. Serve piping hot.

1 tablespoon parsley flakes
2 teaspoons basil, crushed
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 cups cooked chicken or turkey, cut into 1-inch pieces
2 tablespoons all purpose flour

In 4 qt. saucepan or Dutch oven, combine tomatoes, celery, carrots, chicken broth, 1 cup water and onion, barley, parsley, basil, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Cover, bring to a boil over medium high heat. Reduce heat, simmer 30 minutes. Add chicken to mixture. Combine flour and remaining 1/2 cup water, stir into stew. Continue simmering about 15 minutes or until mixture is thickened and barley is tender, stirring occasionally.

HOMESPUN APPLE DUMPLINGS

2 cups all purpose flour
1/2 cup enriched corn meal
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons margarine
1/2 cup vegetable shortening
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
6 medium baking apples, peeled, cored
3 tablespoons coarsely chopped nuts
1 egg, beaten

Combine flour, corn meal, sugar and salt. Cut in 1/2 cup margarine and shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add water, 1 tablespoon at a time, stirring lightly until mixture forms a ball. Divide into 3 equal portions, combine 2 portions to form 1 ball. On lightly floured surface, roll out larger ball to form 14-inch square, cut into 4 squares. Roll remaining dough into 14x7-inch rectangle, cut into 2 squares.

Heat oven to 400°F. Combine brown sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg. Roll apples in sugar mixture to coat, reserving remaining sugar mixture. Place 1 apple on center of each pastry square. Add nuts to remaining sugar mixture, spoon about 1 tablespoon into each center of each apple. Dot each apple with 1 teaspoon margarine. Moisten corners of pastry. Bring corners of pastry to top of apple, pinch to seal, leaving corner folds open.

If desired, roll out any remaining scraps of dough, cut to form leaves for decoration. Place dumplings in 13x9-inch baking pan, brush with beaten egg. Bake 30 to 35 minutes or until crust is golden and apples are tender. Serve warm with sweetened whipped cream or ice cream, if desired. 6 servings. Approximate cost per serving: 40¢

The Grapevine

What It All Boils Down To Is Only 4 Basic Types Of Wine

For too many Americans, the door to the wine shop is the door to confusion. Faced with a kaleidoscope of labels, names, bottle shapes and colors, the wine neophyte frequently picks up a bottle at random and hopes for the best.

While opening bottles and tasting is the most practical — and pleasant — method of learning about wine, one of the prerequisites ought to be an understanding of the four basic types of wine.

All wines fall into one of the following categories: table wines, sparkling wines, dessert wines and aperitif wines.

Table wines are by far the largest and most popular type. Table wines are, logically enough, the wines normally drunk with a meal. Available in almost infinite variety, table wines are naturally fermented from fresh ripe grapes and can be red, white or rose, dry, sweet or somewhere in between. Most countries produce table wines of their own. U.S. table wines are produced in all but a few of the 50 states, although most come from California. Table wines are usually still, or without effervescence, and range in alcohol content from as little as 8 or 9 percent to 13 or 14 percent.

Sparkling wines may be white, red or rose. When the wine is bottled, yeast is added, causing fermentation to begin again. More alcohol is produced, together with carbon dioxide gas bubbles — the same bubbles you find in soda water or carbonated soft drinks. The bubbles are retained by conducting this secondary fermentation in either a closed vat or bottle. The latter is known as "methode champagne" and is a time-consuming and expensive process that produces the finest sparkling wines. Beauvieu Vineyard's Champagne de Chardonnay is an example of American sparkling wine produced by the methode champagne.

Dessert wines are usually sweet and can either be fortified or unfortified. Fortified means that modest amounts of brandy or other distilled spirits have been added to increase strength and stability for aging. Fortified dessert wines, such as a sherry or port, contain 16 to 20 percent alcohol. Unfortified dessert wines are made in basically the same way as table wines, but are usually made from grapes that have been picked after they have naturally developed a high level of sugar. The famed Tokaji Aszu from Hungary is an example of unfortified dessert wine.

Although dessert wines are often served as an accompaniment to or in place of the dessert course, some of them also make good pre-meal cocktails. Harveys Bristol Cream Sherry on the rocks with a wedge of lime, for instance, is frequently served prior to meals.

The final major wine type is aperitifs. Aperitifs — or aromatized wines — are wines to which certain flavorings are added to change their tastes and usages. The best-known is vermouth, a combination of wines fortified by adding alcohol and various herbs, roots, barks, seeds and other aromatic ingredients. The classic aperitifs are usually dry and possess a certain bitterness.

Finally, there are no hard and fast rules for when any of the four basic wines should be served. They are frequently and appropriately served interchanged. A glass of dry sherry goes well with a soup course, for example, and a good quality California red table wine, such as Inglenook Charbono, is a fine accompaniment for some fruit and cheese at the end of the main course.

Dressing Enhances Ethnic Cooking

CHICAGO — America's interest in ethnic cooking and eating is a well-documented trend. Once, Italian, Mexican and Chinese foods were almost exclusively confined to restaurant menus, now, ethnic prepared foods and ingredients line the shelves of supermarkets in virtually every neighborhood.

Italian foods always have been popular in this country. But in recent years, Americans have sought authenticity and learned to appreciate real Italian flavor. Now, that great flavor is available in a pourable salad dressing from Kraft.

Microwave Magic

Prepare Fish Fillets To Peak Of Perfection

Fish is an excellent source of low fat protein. It can be microwaved without added fat, just until the flesh flakes easily with a fork and it loses translucency. If it is over cooked it will be tough. The microwave rule is: 3-7 minutes per pound of fish, 100% power. Vegetables, browned crumbs, paprika, parsley and lemon or lime used as garnishes are necessary for eye appeal.

All the recipes in today's article require one pound of fresh or frozen fish fillets. I think you'll be pleased how quickly and how well the microwave oven cooks fish. The fillets will be juicy and sweet, little of the moisture and flavor is lost due to long cooking times.

Poaching is a process of cooking in a liquid that is usually well seasoned. It is a good way to prepare fish.

POACHED FISH WITH CUCUMBER SAUCE

- 1/4 cup water
- 3 slices lemon
- 3 slices onions
- 3 whole peppercorns
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 pound frozen fish fillets, defrosted

Sauce:

- 1 tablespoon finely chopped

- onion
- 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
- 1/2 cup diced seeded cucumber
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
- Dash of pepper

In a 12x8-inch baking dish, combine water, lemon slices, onion slices, peppercorns, bay leaf and salt. Cover with plastic wrap. Microwave at 100% power 4 minutes. Stir. Arrange fillets in baking dish with thickest portion to the outside. Recover. Microwave at 100% power 4-7 minutes, or until fish flakes easily with fork. Place fillets on serving platter. Cover and set aside. Sauce: Place 1 tablespoon onion in small bowl, cover

Microwave at 100% power 30-60 seconds, or until tender. Stir in remaining sauce ingredients. Reduce power to 50%. Microwave 1 1/2-3 minutes, or until heated, stirring every 30 seconds. Serve over fish fillets.

The most recent cooking craze is Creole Cuisine. Try this cross between French and Indian cooking style with fish fillets.

CREOLE FISH FILLETS

- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped green onions
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 can (16 ounce) whole tomatoes, cut up
- 1 can (8 ounce) tomato sauce
- 1 can (6 ounce) tomato paste
- 1/2 cup white wine or water
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon dried parsley flakes
- 1/2 teaspoon sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon basil leaves
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 bay leaf
- Cayenne pepper (optional)
- 1 pound frozen fish fillets, defrosted

In 3 quart casserole combine green pepper, celery, green onion, garlic and olive oil. Microwave on 100% power 4-7 minutes, or until tender. Stir in remaining ingredients except fish fillets. Cover. Microwave on 100% power 5 minutes. Stir. Reduce power to 50%, microwave, uncovered, 15-18 minutes, or until flavors blend. Stir several times. Cool. Divide into 2 containers. (Can be frozen at this point.) Arrange fillets in a 12x8-inch baking dish. Cover with wax paper. Microwave on 100% power 3 minutes. Spoon sauce over fillets. Cover with wax paper. Microwave on 100% power 4-8 minutes, or until fish flakes easily with fork. Sprinkle with cayenne pepper (lightly) if desired.

Red Snapper is a Florida favorite. Herbs enhance the flavor and adds no calories.

MICROWAVE REDSNAPPER

- 1/4 teaspoon tarragon leaves
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/2 teaspoon onion powder
 - 1 pound red snapper
 - Lime slices
- Combine tarragon, pepper and onion powder. Arrange fish in a 8x8-inch baking dish. Sprinkle with seasoning mixture. Cover with wax paper. Microwave on 100% power 3 minutes, rearrange pieces and top each with a slice of lime. Microwave on 100% power 3-4 minutes, or until fish flakes easily.

Colorful vegetables can make a good tasting fish look even better.

FISH WITH ZUCCHINI AND RED PEPPER

- 1/2 cup minced celery
- 1/2 cup onion
- 1/2 cup shredded zucchini
- 1 tablespoon parsley flakes
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 pound fish fillets
- 1 small sweet red pepper, cut in thin strips

In small bowl, combine celery, onion, zucchini, parsley flakes, lemon juice and black pepper. Set aside. Place fish fillets in a 12x8-inch baking dish. Top with vegetable mixture. Cover with wax paper. Microwave on 50% power* 10-15 minutes, or until fish flakes easily with fork, rearrange the fillets once during cooking. Let stand, covered, 2-3 minutes. *The vegetables added to the fish is the reason for the reduced power setting and additional cooking time.

Ratatouille

Eggplant has been a popular vegetable since about 1800. However, it was also enjoyed in northern India 2000 years ago and later at Roman banquets.

RATATOUILLE

- 1 onion, thinly sliced and separated into rings
 - 1 clove garlic, minced
 - 1 green pepper, cut into thin strips
 - 3 tablespoons vegetable oil
 - 1 medium zucchini, thinly sliced
 - 1 medium eggplant, peeled and cubed
 - 2 tomatoes, cut into wedges
 - 1/4 cup raisins
 - 1 teaspoon basil
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt (optional)
 - 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- Peel and cut the eggplant into 1/2 inch slices. Sprinkle with salt and let sit on paper toweling for 20 minutes to pull out any bitter juices. Rinse, pat dry, and cut into cubes.

In deep dish, cook oil, onion, garlic, and green pepper, covered, at high for 3 minutes. Add zucchini and eggplant; toss gently. Cook, covered, at high for 5 minutes, stirring once half way through. Stir in tomatoes, bay leaf, basil, raisins, salt, and pepper. Cook, covered, at high for 3-4 minutes, or until vegetables are crispy tender, stirring once. Serve hot or cold. Makes 8 servings.

Ordinary Soap Won't Wash Bacteria Off Skin

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am 45 and in good health. I have always perspired freely. When I first started wearing synthetics, I found that I produced a peculiar body odor. This was fairly easy to control by changing after a few hours.

For the past few years we have lived in a very humid area, and I stain my polyester garments under the arms. They look yellow after three or four wearings even though I shower daily.

DEAR READER — Synthetics often don't "breathe," and this tends to trap body moisture. That is a perfect breeding ground for bacteria, which cause perspiration to develop an odor. In addition, bacterial action on perspiration can cause perspiration to stain clothing.

You can't expect to eliminate the bacteria that cause the problem by using ordinary soap. Instead, use a product that penetrates the skin and can't be washed off with ordinary soap.

You can try pillosolox, but will need a doctor's prescription for it. Use it under your arms regularly for awhile and see if it helps.

If this fails to work, you must rely on antiperspirants. Natural fabrics will cause fewer problems, but won't eliminate all of them.

I have discussed this type of problem in more detail in The Health Letter 18-2, Sweating, Antiperspirants and Deodorants.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Recently I had shingles. I had been in close contact with my grandchildren, who had chicken pox. I never had chicken pox. During my painful experience, well-meaning friends told me that this was very contagious, although I know of no one who contracted them. The doctor never told me they were contagious. Please tell me if this is contagious or not.

DEAR READER — To start with, you undoubtedly had chicken pox at some time in your life, whether you remember it or not. Patients who develop shingles do so because the chicken pox virus has remained dormant in their nerve fibers. When the virus in a nerve root is activated, the area supplied by that particular nerve fiber develops the painful rash called shingles or herpes zoster.

You did not get shingles from your grandchildren. Episodes of shingles after exposure to chicken pox are considered a coincidence.

However, people who have not had chicken pox can get chicken pox from a person who has active shingles. The blisters that form do contain the chicken pox virus. Once the blisters are gone, the infection is no longer contagious. The scabs that form are not contagious. And another person cannot get shingles from a person who has shingles, only chicken pox. If he has not had chicken pox before.

Send your questions to Dr. Lamb, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y., 10019.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

The cue-bid of three hearts by North was a way of forcing to game while suggesting a suit contract rather than no-trump. Four hearts was a partnership misunderstanding.

North simply meant it as asking South to pick a suit for game — five of a minor if South's spades were weak. South thought that North was suggesting a slam, holding either a singleton or a void in hearts. Feeling that he had no wasted values, South jumped to six diamonds. It was a fine bid, though lucky, but declarer became careless in the play.

West led the heart king and continued the suit. Dummy trumped small as East contributed the ace. Declarer now played a diamond to the king and then played the king of clubs. Oblivious to the 10 from West, South continued with the club queen. West gratefully trumped to set the contract.

No doubt declarer had some idea of avoiding the worry about whether the spade jack would fall by setting up the club suit, but his thinking was fuzzy. There was a possibility, even a likelihood, that East originally held four diamonds to the jack, in which case declarer could not afford to establish the clubs by ruffing. Furthermore, if East had long clubs and fewer than four diamonds, the spade suit would most likely behave.

Declarer's aggressive bid was on the money, but his card play failed to measure up to his bidding judgment.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring... YOUR BIRTHDAY MARCH 7, 1985

This coming year there will be a number of important changes in your life. You're not likely to initiate any of them, but they will all work out for your ultimate benefit.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Be extra mindful of your small but valuable possessions today. Don't leave your rings on the sink or your wallet in the phone booth. Looking for romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker set can show you who you are best suited to romantically. To get yours mail $2 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Avoid associations today that waste time. If you want to be productive, you can't be enticed to linger too long over a coffee break.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Keep everything out in the open and above board today. This will frustrate gossips who enjoy having negative things to say about others.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) At a social gathering today, you may encounter someone who is flying false colors. Don't be overly impressed by outward appearances.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Allies you can usually depend on might not be as supportive as you would like them to be today. Don't put yourself in a position where you have to bank upon others.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your thinking might not be up to par today and your vision could be limited. Be careful or you may design a future plan with square wheels.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) When shopping today, be wary of making bad buys. This could happen if you are more concerned with attractive wrapping than the contents of the package.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Indecision could be your greatest weakness today, especially in matters pertaining to your family. If you're wishy-washy, it'll confuse them.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Don't turn your back on anyone who needs your help today. You'll regret it later if you had an opportunity to lend a hand and did nothing about it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Investment tips from insiders should be checked out thoroughly before you act. Their information could contain flaws.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) To gain stature in the eyes of your contemporaries today, you might be tempted to promise to deliver something you can't.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Today you could be a bit too gullible for your own good. If a teller of tall tales brags about catching a big fish, ask to see the photograph.

Ex-Monkee Returns With Video Show; Blake Plays Tough Priest With Soft Heart

By Joan Hanauer
UPI TV Reporter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Michael Nesmith, a former member of "The Monkees" has taken the techniques of music videos and incorporated them into a funny, relaxed half-hour of laughs and music.

"Michael Nesmith in Television Parts" is the rather odd name for the pilot that could turn into a new half-hour series on NBC. It airs Thursday, 9:30-10 p.m.

Nesmith, who has grown up into a slight, neatly bearded man who talks with a down home twang, hosts the fast-paced but never frantic half hour with good-natured ease.

He also stars in one of the better music video spots — "Eldorado To the Moon" — in which he and a young girl performer take off in a bright pink Cadillac that flies into space while the music hits a Calypso beat and dancers perform on its hood. That sounds peculiar, but it was fun.

Comedy honors were shared by Garry Shandling and Martin Mull.

Shandling did a routine about a guy with girl problems — he just dumped his girlfriend — after she moved in with another man. He has a date with "Miss Maryland," who wears her crown and sash throughout the evening. He's the kind of fellow who has been turned down by women for all kinds of reasons — one even said, "Not with this Faulkland Island thing..."

Mull's routine on "Domestic Safety" could have been better written, but the former host of "Fernwood Tonight" still can draw a giggle when he talks about your house, smiles with awful insincerity and says, "You have a potential death trap."

"Father of Hell Town" features a nun who wears leather, a church with pigeons and a goat, and Robert Blake as a beer-drinking, pool-shooting priest who has long talks with what he insists on referring to as "the man upstairs."

Blake's muscular priest is God's enforcer who thinks nothing of beating up a drug seller, breaking down the door of a suspected child-abuser's apartment and whatever else occurs to him while ruling a slum called "Hell Town."

Other characters include Mother Maggie, Sister Indigo, Sister Angel Cakes, a wise old pool shark named "One Ball" because he is always one ball better than anyone he plays against, and Stump, a brawny young man whose brain has been wiped out by drugs.

The main plot involves the priest, Father Noah "Hardstep" Rivers, and his attempt to find out what is happening to a little girl who he believes is being mistreated by her father.

He succeeds in helping the child, of course, and along the way we see his devotion to the orphans of St. Dominic's, one of whom sleeps with a goat, and his hard-muscled, soft-hearted way of handling the threat of gang war. About the only thing this movie priest doesn't do is play baseball — but he does shoot pool.

The show, which airs on NBC tonight at 9, is an archly cute little drama of good vs. evil, but it is fast-paced and never boring. Its sweetness may make you queasy, but it won't put you to sleep.

Nothing like a little sisterly help. Robert Blake stars as Father Noah 'Hardstep' Rivers, an ex-convict turned ghetto priest in "Father of Hell Town" airing tonight on channel 2. Fran Ryan co-stars as Mother Maggie.

Song To Raise Millions For Famine Victims

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — "We Are the World," the African famine relief song recorded by a group of American pop stars who hope to raise up to $200 million for drought-stricken Ethiopia, will be released this week.

Columbia Records will release the "We Are the World" single to radio stations Friday, with a 12-inch record available Monday, the same day the cable music channel, MTV, premieres the 7-minute, 15-second video of the song.

An album featuring the single and unreleased tracks by such artists as Linda Ronstadt, Pat Benatar and Prince will be available April 1.

Performing on the single, written by Michael Jackson and Lionel Richie, are such stars as Bruce Springsteen, Bob Dylan, Stevie Wonder, Harry Belafonte, Smokey Robinson, Cyndi Lauper, Kenny Rogers and three dozen other artists.

The USA for Africa project was patterned after

Band Aid — a British group whose single "Do They Know It's Christmas?" was released by Columbia last December and has raised more than $10 million worldwide.

"I'm delighted that Columbia Records will be handling 'We Are the World,'" project producer Ken Kragen said. "Their experience with 'Do They Know It's Christmas?' made them a natural for the project."

Columbia President Walter Yetnikoff said the recordings "will make it possible for everyone who listens to music to be a part of this cause, and we hope the example set by these artists will galvanize the support of millions around the world."

In addition to the African aid, 10 percent of the money raised through the USA for Africa project will be distributed to the hungry and homeless in the United States.

Fla. Lottery Over One Hurdle; Many More In Its Path

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A constitutional amendment to set up a state-run lottery, with proceeds pledged to education funding, has cleared one committee hurdle but is still a long way from the 1986 ballot.

Before Sen. Jack Gordon's proposal can come to a statewide vote next year, it has to get through the Senate Finance and Taxation Committee and Senate Rules Committee, then muster a two-thirds vote on the floor. A similarly hazardous path awaits it in the House, where Speaker James Harold Thompson of Gretna is opposed to the lottery idea.

If it gets two-thirds in both chambers, the amendment would be put to a public vote in November, 1986.

The Senate Commerce Committee voted 7-3 for Gordon's amendment Tuesday, after inserting a provision that all revenue produced by the numbers game would go to education. It was estimated that a lottery would produce about $240 million in new revenue for the state.

Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington, who is conducting his own public petition campaign for a constitutional amendment, told the committee a lottery is the only way to raise new money for public schools. Turlington said the Legislature has consistently refused to close sales tax loopholes or pass new taxes to pay for classroom improvements.

Turlington and Gordon, a Miami Beach Democrat who has sponsored the lottery amendment for three years, called lotteries "a form of voluntary taxation" since no one would be forced to pay or play.

Attorney General Jim Smith argued unsuccessfully against the proposal, saying it would hit hardest in the pocketbooks of the poor. He said poor people are, statistically, the most likely to buy lottery tickets — since they cannot afford a night at the track or jai-alai fronton — and that a dollar or two out of their income is felt much more than a bigger loss by tourists or middle class Floridians.

He also warned that, although the money is intended for education, there is no guarantee that new revenue from a lottery will go to the schools. Smith said future legislators could simply appropriate less general revenue to the Department of Education — substituting the lottery money instead.
