According to Steve Olson, public information officer of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office, aggressive driving can be defined by tailgating, improper lane changes (cutting off another driver), multiple lane changes or high rates of speed. In order to be considered aggressive, a driver must exhibit two or more of these driving patterns. The operations will con-tinue in September, and during the coming months. A.D.D. C.A.R.E. is intended to educate the public of the dangers of aggressive driving and to promote voluntary compliance towards safer driving.

Gaming facility has no city license

Dan Ping

SANFORD - An adult gaming facility planned for downtown is not licensed to operate in the city and won't be for at least 90 days following city commissioners approval of a moratorium on such licenses.

The moratorium, enacted during a special meeting late Friday afternoon, will give the city time to review ordinances regarding indoor amusement facilities and make possible changes. In addition, City Manager Al Grieshaber promised to revamp the

Commissioners freeze issuance of all 'arcade' licenses for 90 days city's licensing applications to provide more information about the nature of all businesses that operate in the city.

"The city of Sanford doesn't have adequate safeguards in place to determine the appropriateness" of businesses that want to operate within the city limits, Grieshaber said, especially those that plan to operate under game room/arcade/dance hall/indoor room/arcade/dance amusement category.

Grieshaber's call for a moratorium followed a published report in the Seminole Herald that a gaming operation planned to open at 207 Magnolia Ave., next door to the Helen Stairs Theatre. Rosemarle Hall, one of four partners in the business, said patrons of Joker's Palace would put money into one of 50 video gaming machines in hopes of winning tickets which could be redeemed for trips, merchandise and gift cards at stores like Wal-Mart and Albertson's.

According to Hall, the businesses are legal under what she referred to as the "S&H Green Stamp Redemption" law, and cited Florida Statute 849-161 as the governing rule. There are about 30 such businesses in Florida, including five in Volusia County.

On Tuesday, Hall vowed Joker's Palace would open for business Friday morning, providing free food and drinks, including beer, to patrons. However, there is no application for Seminole Fire Department Chief asks county to consider $3 million industrial complex for a new training facility

Proposed location could serve all city fire departments

By Christopher Patton Managing Editor

At a price tag of about $3 million, the Seminole County Fire Department is asking county commissioners to give them something that Just about every other Central Florida public safety department has: a place to train.

"It's been a long standing goal of the fire department to have an emergency training center for Seminole County," said Pire Chief Terry Schenk Tuesday to commissioners.

Beginning its 30th year of service, the county fire department is the second largest in Central Florida after recently taking over the Altamonte Springs department, but it often travels to Daytona Beach, Lake County or Tamps to train. Occasionally, fire officials are able to procure an agreement with an owner of a defunct building such as a year ago when fire fighters used the old building next to Sanford building next to Sanford City Hall.

Located centrally in the county at 201 Valentine Way - near the county's environmental center on State Road 419 — the pro-posed training complex is an existing 19-acre industri-

"One of the greatest things about this facility would be the multiple uses," said Lt. Mike Hammond, in charge of training county fire

According to Hammond, a variety of disciplines could be taught at the site, including search and rescue, fire fighting, vehicle extraction and emergency medical training.

With recent events such as the Sanford city worker being trapped in a hole, a 300-foot rescue at a Florida Power smokestack in Volusia County and a tee-tering vehicle on the Interstate 4 bridge above State Road 46, "we have recognized there is a need to be prepared for any and all kinds of emergencies," said

Lake Mary sees upside to revitalizing downtown

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter Staff Writer

In a 4-1 vote, city comm-Issioners passed a proposal Aug. 21 that will revita-lize Lake Mary's downtown district. For more than a decade, city officials have discussed the possibility of developing the area that surrounds Lake

Mary's city hall.

The goal of the current project is to encourage growth in the town's center, maintain and enhance prop-erty values and unify the old and new section of the city with a geographic center. The stair-step shaped core district is approximately 40 acres and includes retail, commercial and residential zoning.

Along with retail and residential areas, that include dential areas that include upscale townhouses and condominiums, city planners have proposed various amenities for the district such as a band shell near the city's community building, numerous parks and green areas, and a large interactive fountain for children.

The goal is to bring pedestrian traffic to the area. In order to increase the chances of this, commissioners directed city staff to require 8-foot sidewalks and, whenever possible increase the width

'The smaller we make sidewalks the more we are discouraging pedestrian traf-fic," said Commissioner Michael J. McLean.

However, before reaching this decision, commissioners waffled on the sidewalk issue, as well as the front vard setback, both of which are directly related to the city's rights-of-way and location of buildings. Commissioner Gary L. Brender was concerned that the setback would be wasted space that could be more wisely used.

Staff held fast that the space would be useful in making the area more pleas-ing to view and could be used by the merchant as an outdoor café or area to rest.

"The setback would create an open pedestrian area with greenery," said John Omana, community develop-ment director. "It would promote a more open, airy type corridor."

In order to prepare for the revitalization project, city officials passed an ordinance

FSA announces County Committee elections

The Farm Service Agency (FSA) is announcing the upcoming County Committee elections. The locally elected County Committee assists PSA in administering federal farm programs in Volusia and Seminole counties. The committee consists of three members, each representing a region within the Volusia-Seminole area. This year, the seat representing Seminole County agriculture is up for election.

The FSA would like to encourage farmers and ranchers, especially minorities and females, to consider becoming a nominee on the ballot. Nominations will be accepted until Sept. 5. The ballots will be mailed to eligible voters on Nov. 18, and the deadline for returning completed ballots to FSA is Dec. 1.

Eligibility for nominees is as follows: Must be of legal voting age and have an interest in a farm or ranch as either an owner, operator, tenant or sharecropper; or a partner of a general partnership or member of a joint venture that has an interest in a farm as owner, tenant or sharecrop-

The County Committee neets about once per month. Members are compensated for their time and travel. Elected members of the County Committee are an integral part of administering programs such as direct and counter cycle payments, dis-aster relief, non-insurable essistance program and loan programs. This committee represents the local agriculture community, and their knowledge of local crops and farming practices is invaluable in implementing the federal programs in Volusia and Seminole counties.

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Back to school: I said a couple of weeks ago that I wasn't going to give Sanford's new city manager Al Grieshaber any tips. Everybody in town has an opinion on what the Colonel should do first, and I figured I'd keep my mouth shut for a while.

It didn't last long. Blame it on the casino that almost opened in downtown.

Joker's Palace is yet another example of how Sanford does business. Here is a business proposing to give Around the Clock

by Dan Ping

away free beer to patrons who want to gamble from until 1 a.m. Not that that's a bad business if you're into that kind of thing, but some of the city's boards have tried to run people out of town for less (like putting up vinyl fences). True, the owners of Joker's Palace hadn't formally applied for a business license, but City Hall officials knew something was in the works. For instance, they knew the owners wanted to operate an arcade and stay open until 1 a.m. They had even nixed the 1 a.m. closing, saying the business could not operate after 11 p.m. With that limited information, a whole host of questions should have been raised. They weren't.

So here's my tip, Colonel: Send everyone in city hall that deals with approving permits - zoning, building, business, etc. — to a basic journalism class. You know, who, what, where, when, why and how. Your idea about updating the applications to require more information is a good one, but ultimately your people have to dig a little deeper than reading a piece of paper. It doesn't take that much digging, honest. I asked about a half dozen questions on a totally chance encounter, and I had more information than you could shake a stick at.

Of course, now that I've given the Colonel a tip about how he should do his job, I suspect he'll want to return the favor. No problem there. I get that kind of advice all the time, and occasionally some of it sinks in through my thick skull. Besides, a wise old editor once told me, there are three things everybody is an expert at: how to run the local paper, how to coach the football team and how long Sunday morning's sermon should be. No doubt the Colonel would add city manager to that list.

Pub crawl: February saw two new watering holes open up downtown: Red Room Lounge and Rhythm & Brews. Both are chugging along drawing new people into downtown after dark.

Word Around The Clock is a new establishment, perhaps called The Local, will open up in October just south of the Red Room. Not a lot of details yet, but word is The Local will offer a wide selection of brews, including some high-end drafts beers, and the usual pub games of darts and billiards.

I'll have more details as the come available.

Best of Seminole: Speaking of local, the Herald's first ever Readers' Choice Awards honoring the Best in Seminole for 2003 is included in today's paper. Find out which businesses won in 90 different categories.

Book bag: The Herald has almost sold out of "Sanford: Our First 125 Years" pictorial book. If you pre-ordered a book, don't forget to pick it up. We have just a handful of folks who haven't. If you didn't pre-order and still want a book, you better buy one now before they're gone.

Workers' holiday is time for thanks time again...

According to the general belief, on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, members of the Carpenters and Joiners Union, led by their secretary, Peter J. McGuire, paraded down a street in downtown New York City to call attention to unionized workers. Eventually, as the parades continued year after year, other unions joined in parading in New York and other cities. By 1893, more than half of the states were observing "Labor Day" on one day or another.

Finally, a bill establishing the first Monday in September as Labor Day was introduced to Congress, and President Grover Cieveland signed the measure into law on June 28, 1894. As a legal holiday, it became a day off work for all government employees. Canada soon joined in, also observing Labor Day as the first Monday in September.

Other countries, (I have no idea which ones) observe Labor Day on May I for some Pfelfouf

The first week in September is also Full Employment Week, launched by a few folks who apparently wanted full-time rather than part-time jobs. I don't know anything about that one. On Sept. 9, they've declared it National Night Shift Workers Day to call attention to folks who work at night.

Primarily though, Labor Day is a time when the average citizen is supposed to at least give a few moments thought to the working people of our nation. Yes, they are working to earn a living. They are working to support their families. If they weren't working, services and industry would break down and poverty would be rampant.

It started as a day to honor union workers. Now, while there are still many unions, we here in Florida have the Right to Work law, and unions are not as prevalent.

Nonetheless, let's give our appreciation today to folks who are at work. Most of them don't have Monday off, even though it is a legal holiday. Let's face it - it's the workers of America who keep the wheels of progress rolling ahead smoothly.

Oh yes, on another subject, September is "Be Kind to Editors and Writer's Month." So remember, be kind to an editor or writer — they are only human.

the respect of millions of Americans who remembered the dignity and quiet courage with which she had reared ner children alone.

Back then, she was still revered as a keeper of the flame. She had not yet relinquished that role to become a mere merchant of the dream.

So, when she took the university to court (her challenge was ultimately unsuccessful), many civil rights leaders supported her. Not that it mattered much, but so did I. While the university had legal title to the papers, which her husband Martin Luther King Jr. had donated to the school in 1964, Mrs. King had the greater moral claim. She said her husband had always wanted his papers housed at a Southern educational or civil rights institution.

But that was then. These days, it's increasingly difficult to remember that the King family was once held in such high esteem. They are mostly known now for their relentless profiteering - put-ting a price tag on King's words, suing writers and film producers who dare quote him without paying, and blocking public efforts to commemorate King if they don't add cash to the family's

A few years ago, the family made multimillion-dollar deals with Alcatel, a French telecommunications company, and Cingular, an American telecom group, selling them permission to use portions of the "I Have a Dream" speech in commercials. They turned

Dr. King into cell phone flack. The heirs have succeeded in converted King's legacy into a profit center — I Have a Dream Inc. So it comes as no surprise that - even as the nation observes the 40th anniversary of the triumphant ing wealth. ... I believe as sincerely as anything that the struggle for freedom is not one that should reward any participant with individual wealth. Martin i K. I., Flayboy magnification is the late 1980s, Coetta Scott King sued Boston when a typewritten among them a typewritten.

- among them a typewritten early draft of the T Have a Dream" speech, notepaper on which he scribbled his Nobel Prize acceptance speech, and a diary he kept while in jail in

The family came close to a deal to sell the same collection (a separate cache of documents than those at Boston University) to the Library of Congress four years ago. While the $20 million cost was controversial, Congress was on the verge of appropriating the money, according to U.S. Rep. John Lewis, D.Ga. But the deal fell apart because the family insisted on retaining copyrights, he said. Lewis, who believes the papers belong in the public domain, said he will again try to persuade his colleagues to purchase the collection for the Library of Congress. That will be difficult, however, in an era of multibillion-dollar deficits.

In years past, the King heirs have attempted to justify their greed by claiming that money they received from their father's legacy would be use to further his work. Would that it were so.

While Mrs. King spent years raising funds to build the private, non-profit King Center for Non-Violent Social Change near downtown Atlanta, the complex has fallen into disrepair. Run by her second son, Dexter, the center keeps a skeletal staff; it offers few ongoing programs; it houses only a handful of artifacts. By contrast, the King National Historic Site, King Visitor's Center, run by the National Park Service across the street from the King Center, offers frequent exhibits and programs.

In selling the papers, "I'm trying to live up to my father's wishes," Dexter King said on Wednesday.

But it is difficult to see how commercializing his memory figures into his father's dream.

Iraqi Diary an assignment in civics class

To the editor:

I have the Herald sent to me during the six months I spend in North Carolina in order to keep up with local events, deaths and so on. But this year - what an extra bonus!

The first thing I read is the Iraqi Diary, and I wait anxiously for the paper. (Delivery of which, by the way, is extreme erratic. I haven't gotten quite a few issues and they're often very late; i just got the one with the July Fourth info last week. Luly they tend to come in clumps some days I'll get three or four, two weeks' worth. I understand you can't do anything about this, but you might like to know for the pext time you're arguing with the post office.)

Government in a community college here in the fall and at Seminole Community College, Oviedo Campus, in the spring. One of my most difficult tasks is to persuade students that political involvement is worthwhile

This Year, Chartie (Carison) Ill's diary will help me make the point. I require my students to keep a journal, sum-marizing and reacting to (primarily) newspaper clippings. I hand out one and they come up with one on their own each week. Wednesday's episode (Aug. 20) of Iraql Diary is going to be the next journal handout.

What could possibly prove the necessity for critical think-ing about political issues better than Charlie's phrase, "I'm firmly convinced that you can start a war without good reason if you have a good promotion campaign."

It's not very often that students have an opportunity to learn from contemporary primary sources - that is, to learn from the direct observation of an important event by someone who is actually there.

Most of our information about what's going on in the world is necessarily filtered — first, through the reporter's cyes and then through the editor's judgment.

Teachers try to use primary sources as often as possible — for example, the Federalist Papers or documents from the various presidential libraries — because they give the "flavor" of events so much better than a re-telling in a text. And the Iraqi Diary series not only does this, but students can identify with Charlie III, who can only be a few years older than themselves.

My primary reason for teaching is the hope that I'm producing active citizens who will be critical thinkers and who will become involved. Motivation is the first and principle challenge, and the Herald will help me produce that, 600 miles away. Thank you.

MLK's dream. is the answer to Iraqi 'evil'

To the editors

As I reflect on the 40th anniversary of the 1963 March n Washington for jobs and freedom, I'm drawn to the "I Have a Dream" speech of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. I was there that day, and in 1983 helped organize a delegation from Philadelphia to Washington for the 20th anniversary celebration.

But, my Interest in Dr. King and these events extend far beyond the "Dream," as inspiring as that was. From a new, young minister in Montgomery, Ala., in 1955, to his assassination in 1968, Dr. King grew in spirit and in practice to be the leader of a movement dedicated to a method for achieving the dream: the way of nonviolence.

Under influences such as those of Dr. Howard Thurman, Boston University theology professor (from Daytona Beach) and Bayard Rustin, of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, Dr. King saw the necessity to examine the means to a good end. The teachings of Jesus Christ and Mahatma Gandhi offered "the other way" of love.

Dr. King was executed, just as those predecessors were, when he applied the way of nonviolence to the great killer of the dream of that day — the Vietnam War.

When the many who give lip service to Dr. King and his dream begin to apply all of his insights to issues of our day, such as the violent "solution" to the evil in Iraq, perhaps we will have more than a dream. L. Millard Hunt

Help United Way's efforts by donating

To the editors

In my six years as a Central Florida resident, I have been blessed and amazed to see how the efforts of individuals in our community baye made such a difference in the lives of our friends, neighbors and coworkers. From donating merchandise and money, to volunteering at the thousands of non-profit agencies throughout Central Florida; contributions of time, talent and money from people just like you and me have helped shape this community. And since its humble beginnings in 1939 as the first annual fund drive to help local charities, Heart of Florida United Way has been instrumental in shaping Central Florida's health and human services community. As this year's volunteer chair-man of United Way's fundralsing efforts, my primary role is to encourage monetary donations to Heart of Florida United Way. But, I would be remiss if I didn't use this opportunity to explain the full scope of this comprehensive organization.

Today's United Way, though still the leader in promotion funds to local health.

viding funds to local health and human service programs, is actively involved in Central Florida. Over the past six decades, it has launched programs and initiatives of its own; partnered with individ-uals, businesses, civic organizations, other non-profit groups and educational facilities; and worked diligently to raise awareness of and to address social service prob-lems in Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties.

The goal of today's United Way is to help develop longlasting solutions to our com-munity's human services problems, solutions that actually build our community, Volunteer Central Florida, Gifts In Kind Central Florida and the new 211 Community Resources information and referral telephone line are just a few examples of the solutions made possible because of efforts put forth by Heart of Florida United Way. Raising funds to support these programs and more than 170 others. ers, is another example.

Combining resources and stretching the dollar (an art perfected by Heart of Florida United Way) enables contributions to have more impact than they would individually. For example, Success By 6 is a United Way initiative that polls funds and Experise from numerous sources to support early childhood support early childhood development programs. These programs focus on preventing child abuse and neglect, providing affordable healthcare for children of familles that can't otherwise afford it, and ensuring that, to enter school by the time they turn six.

The money raised by and the work performed by Heart of Florida United Way benefit all of us living in Central Florida. So, I urge you, if you haven't donated to your company's United Way campaign in the past, do it now. If you have donated in the past, increase that donation this year. If you own or work for a company that doesn't run a campaign, call me at 407-835-0922 and let's talk about how you can get one started or how you can contribute individually.

Heart of Florida United Way is developing solutions that build community — one heart at a time. Become part of the solution now, by con-tributing to Heart of Florida United Way.

Grieshaber said the moratorium and subsequent review of the licensing process is not aimed at Joker's Palace.

"A lot of times we take no action until there is a catalyst," Grieshaber said. "You don't go to the doctor until Grieshaber admitted that Hall and her partners may perceive their business to be a larget rather than catalyst, but he said the primary issue is to establish criteria and stanat one business or focusing on one area of the city," Grieshaber said: "We need some criteria, some standards about how these businesses operate within the city of Sanford."

Such standards could include distance requirements from certain facilities like bars, churches or schools, as well as restrictions on certain activities that occur on site.

Grieshaber also intends to establish standards and criteria for how the city reviews applications for business licenses, primarily by revamping the current application.

The application is devoid of any compliance acknowledgment that all state requirements have been met," Grieshaber said.

As an example, he noted that gaming machines must be registered with the state's department of revenue. The city's license application requires no proof a business is abiding by state laws that regulate its activity.

"It's incumbent on the city to get a statement of compliance," Grieshaber said.

The city manager also wants the application to indicate that any false or misleading information provided by businesses during the licens-ing process would result in revocation of the license.

tax rolls was a contention for several county commissioners, but the money it could save the county could be well worth it.

Grants of $200,000 for hazardous materials equipment and $600,000 for urban search and rescue apparatus not to mention countless other fighting equipment take up valuable storage space throughout the county.

"A new grant we have received will provide us with about $250,000 worth of mass casualty medical response equipment," Schenk said.

By moving all this equipment to one location will free up more than 6,600 square feet of storage space. Saving the county about $38,000 worth of space a year that could be available to other departments, Schenk added.

The new training facility would also eliminate the chance of an emergency happening when units are away training in a distant county. In addition, the Seminole-based facility would eliminate unnecessary wear and tear put on emergency vehicles traveling to out-of-county training sites.

Operational costs of the building per year is about $150,000 with an estimated $100,000 coming from cities and $50,000 from county.

"We anticipate to operate the way other counties operate theirs that is a user fee for other agencies that come in.," Schenk said. "We've talked to the cities, and of course the fire chiefs are excited about this because they too have long needed a centralized training facility."

"I like the concept there, but I don't sec a whole lot of concrete details. A lot of its possible grants and possible city donations," sald Commissioner Grant Maloy.

With union contract negotiations ongoing, commis-sioners were hesitant to approve the county manager to authorize a contract to purchase the property. They, unanimously approved that a purchase contract be drafted, but said they wanted more answers on liability and financial issues before they would sign the dotted line.

The county commission is expected to consider the contract for purchase of the training facility at its next meeting, Sept. 9.

If approved, the training facility would be a partnerwith ship Community College.
According to Dr. Dave Harrison, vice president of the college, SCC's fire and emergency medical training classes have doubled in enrollment since Sept. 11,

"This will provide us, with the county and other agencies, an opportunity to meet the demands," he said. The college is set to fund $900,000 for a burn building that wouldn't actually burn or set smoke into the air. But, it would be equipped with propane burners to emulate the high heat in a fire and would produce fake smoke that dissipates quickly.

Warren is currently being charged with 12 counts of vehicle burglary, but according to Cohen, this number could increase as the investigation continues. According to police records, Warren had outstanding war-rants for failure to appear in court for felony theft and driving with a suspended or evac me because combat related casualties have priority. Then I got nauseated and threw up a couple of times.

I still had my IV in but the bag was empty, so I took my IV out which was a bloody mess because I couldn't put the gauze on in time. I telt you I was in a world of hurt. I then went back to this hot greasy cigarette factory, and crawled onto my cot but the pain was unbearable every time I moved. I felt faint and the 110 degree heat was unbearable. I got nauscated, but I had to try to move, hoping to lessen the pain. Using my rifle to steady myself, I went outside and just sat on the ground in the dirt doubled over almost delirious. I was so nauseated, never been so sick in my life. If we had been attacked, I think I would have just laid there and said shoot me I stayed out there all night. There was a hot breeze blowing dust around. Then about 0400 in the morning, I was 90 percent better but still a little weak from my ordeal. Now, I'm 100 percent better. Doc said it was from drinking too many canned sodas and not enough water, I guess like dehydration or something. I wish I had more water but we just don't have it and sweat most of it out. Canned drinks are all we have to supplement our water needs. Don't worry everything is back in working order and my plumbing is good.

I was thirsty and pulled a can of soda gut of the cooler. I could see Doc shaking his head. He is making me regulate my fluid intake. Everyone saw me in pain yesterday, and then they see me up at 0530 taking over duties as SOG and 100 percent better. Plus, I've been out in the sun and heat with my two towers.

McDavid had to take over Sergeant of the Guard for me yesterday because of my illness, and if you may what all I did before 1300 (time of my illness), you'd be

For more information, call 877-787-1922. There is a late fee for registration after Sept. 15. The SHS Class of 1953 will hold its 50-year reunion Oct. 17-18. On Friday night at 6 p.m. they will meet at the Elks/Shrine facility on East Second Street for a barbecue and there are several activities scheduled for Saturday. During the day they will visit the Sanford Museum, the former Ritz Theater and the former Southside School with lunch in between at the Colonial Room.

The Saturday night ban-quet will be held at the Orlando Marriott in Lake Mary. Festivities will begin at 6:30 p.m. and dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m.

The class is inviting members of the Seminole High classes 1950-56 to attend the Friday night and/or Saturday night events. Reservations must be received by Sept. 15. Call Mary Ann Buker Bruce at 407-322-3484 for costs and reservations.

There are several "lost" persons in this class. Again, contact Mary Ann if you can provide informa-tion on the following: John Anders, Mary Jane Boyle, Gordon Clark, Peggy Clark, Joe Flipse, Beverly Gray Brissey, Louise McAlexander Spire, Joan Ricketts, Charles Rodebaugh, Jack Sewell, Violet Spivey Cook, Deloris White and Beverly Rogers. The SHS Class of 1954 — my class! -- will hold its 50-year rounion June 25-26, 2004. We have only had three committee meetings so we're continuing to research places as well as locating classmates. As soon as plans are finalized I will give you details, plus there will probably be "lost" classmates for you to help us with.

amazed. Before I fell sick, I posted all of my people on the towers. Then with the 1st Sgt and an interpreter I went outside the wall of the 2nd Cavalry compound to the neighborhood so we could talk to the parents of the kids that have been throwing rocks at the tower guards. They cracked the windshield on one of our Humvees

We talked to an old bearded guy, he was the elder of the neighborhood. Some teenagers started crowding us in. All this old man did was turn around and give them a dirty look and they left in haste. This guy gets tremendous respect from several generations younger than him. A kid here does not disrespect his elders. It's not like in the U.S.

vehicles. They will kill you in a flash around here. There was another soldier killed today.

Today, I took my two teams out and did patrols in which we apprehended one guy for threats and another guy for threatening his neighbor with an AK-47, which we confiscated along with a pistol.

On the way to this guy's location we saw a man outside holding a rifle. We quickly took cover around him, but the rifle turned out to be just a BB gun. This is a dangerous place for a civilian to be standing outside with a BB gun because we don't know what he's got and we could blow him away. I saw two mongooses today, a little one and an older one.

Shutouts give Bears lead in SAC Slowpitch

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

Winter Springs was the big winner Wednesday night as it was the only team to win both of its games on the opening night of action in the Seminole Athletic Conference Girls Slowpitch Softball League.

Playing at Lake Howell, the Bears not only won both games, they did it in style, posting a pair of shutouts, 10-0 over Lake Mary and 7-0 over the host Silver Hawks.

In the other games at Lake Howell, the host Silver Hawks and Oviedo claimed the wins, Lake Howell blanking the Lions, 2-0, and a solo home run.

Oviedo rolling over the Rams, 12-2. At Seminole High School, Lake Brantley got a win and a tie to move into second place, just a half-game behind Winter Springs. In the opening game, Serrano went 4-for-4 for Lyman, while Jessie Sadlowsky, who starred for the Altamonte Patriots team that recently won the 16-and-Under Babe Ruth Fastpitch World Series, went 2-for-4 with a double as Lake Brantley and the Greyhounds battled to a 4-4 tie.

The Patriots and host Fighting Seminoles then hooked up in a true slowpitch game with Lake Brantley outscoring the Tribe, 17-12.

Sadlowsky again led the Patriots, launching a grand slam, while Nikki Hall, another member of the Altamonte Patriots, blasted a threerun home run. Uvino capped off the slugging for Lake Brantley with

Perkins had a perfect night at the plate for Seminole, equaling Serrano's effort with a 4-for-4 out-

The Tribe then moved into a tie for third place by easing past Lyman, 5-1.

Oviedo and Winter Springs will host the games this Wednesday.

At Oviedo, the Lions take on Lake Mary at 4:30 p.m. and the Rams stick around to challenge Lake Brantley at 5:30 p.m.

The Patriots then remain on the field to tackle Lake Howell at 6:30 p.m. before the Silver Hawks and Lions conclude the night's action at

The tripleheader will be at Winter Springs with the Bears hosting Seminole at 5 p.m., the Tribe taking on Lyman at 6 p.m. and Winter Springs returning to close out the evening's games against the Greyhounds.

Seminole has seven picked to All-State

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

Seminole County picked up a little added recognition for another successful baseball season when 11 local athletes were tabbed for All-State honors in voting by the Florida Sports Writers Association.

Leading the way were Oviedo's Brian Brooks and Trinity Prep's J.J. Brace, both of whom made First Team Alland Brace in Class 2A.

Brooks, a lefthander, made the team as a pitcher after going 10-2 for a Lions team that made it to the 6A-Region 1 Quarterfinals and went 27-3 and had an 18-game winning streak during the sea-

Brace made the 2A First Team as an infielder. The hard-hitting sec-ond baseman led the Saints to a 22-10 record and the 2A-Region 3 Championship Game before falling, 5-4, to defending State Champion Clearwater Central Catholic.

The righthander also had a good season on the mound, going 7-5.

Seminole County also had a pair of players Second Team All-State honors in Lake Mary's D.J. Ackley and Trinity's See Baseball, Page 14

Oviedo pitcher Brian Brooks (above) and Trinity Prep Infielder J.J. Brace (right) were both named to the First Team when the FSWA (Florida Sports Association) All-State Baseball Teams were released recently. Brooks went 10-2 to be named to the Class 6A Team for the Lions, while Brace hit well over .400 and played an excellent second base for the Class 2A Saints Brooks and Brace were two of 11 Seminole County baseball players named to the Ali-State leams, including two each on First, Second and Third teams.

Are you ready for snook season?

From Staff Reports

Have you re-spooled your reels and tied new knots? Snook season opens Sunday at midnight.

Sebastian Inlet will be loaded with snook and snook fisherman. Snook are awesome fish to catch, fight and eat. They are one of the best fighting fish in

Remember that you may only keep snook which are between 24 and 36 inches. Please be careful how you handle the fish you don't keep.

There are many places other than Sebastian Inlet to catch snook. I personally like to fish Port Canaveral at night. Just remember if you fish the port you must keep your distance from the docks. Security is very tight and probably will be tighter with the opening of the snook season.

Snook love to hang around places where water flows. They also like structures such as docks, pilings and mangroves. A few years back you were able to fish the locks at Port Canaveral and it was catching all night. Since September 11 they have limited the area which you can fish. The port is still an awesome place to

There are many locations to find snook such as Ponce Inlet, Spruce Creek, Stuart, Jupiter Tomoka, the Indian River and a few places in Mosquito Lagoon. There are also many West Coast destinations such as Englewood, Marco Island and Chokoloskee to name a few.

When rigging for snook you should move up to 12-15 pound test and a 40 pound leader. Snook have very sharp gill plates and can cut lighter lines.

Talk about a fish that will destroy a top water plug, snook will crush them. They love soft jerk baits such as Rip Tide's 5 inch Flats Chub or the 6 inch Jerk worm. Another great bait for snook is the Rip Tide LT Minnow rigged on an 1/8 or 1/4 ounce jig

When fishing at night it is always good to use a larger bait because it has a bigger silhouette. The Rip Ride 4 Inch or 5 inch Mullet on a jig head will produce. Try to match the size of your balt with the balt in the waters you are fishing.

Last, but not least, when you catch that legal snook and filet him, enjoy one of the best tasting fish in the water. Here is a little secret recipe for snook. Pre-heat your oven to 400 degrees and melt butter in a black skillet on medi-See Outdoors, Page 14

UCF set to open against V-Tech

Special to the Herald

With just two days before its season opener at No. 9 Virginia Tech, UCF hit the field in shoulder pads and helmets at Thursday's prac-tice in Orlando. The Golden Knights practiced for 90 minutes.

One thing is certain for UCF entering Sunday's game with the Hokics will be a physical game. UCF played Tech in 2000 and 2001 and the Golden Knights know how physical the Hokics play the Hokies play.

"We should be pretty solid up front," commented UCF defensive line coach Costantini. "Virginia Tech is blg, tough, physical team so we have to prepare for a four-quarter fight. They are going to come off the line and knock you in the mouth on every snap and we aren't used to facing teams like that. I am proud though of our guys progress and I think they will play well in Sunday's game."

Both the offense and defense continued to prepare for the game by facing each scout team as the reserves ran certain coverages and plays similar to Virginia Tech. Senior quarterback Ryan Schneider looked extremely efficient throwing the ball.

UCF begins its 25th season of football in front of a national audience this coming Sunday (August 31) at 3 p.m. as the Golden Knights venture to Blacksburg, Va., to face No. 9/10 Virginia Tech. The ESPN telecast will mark the first of three games for UCF vs. BIG EAST competition in 2003.

STETSON NAMES JEREMY TYSON ASSISTANT BASEBALL COACH

Two-time NCAA national champion and former Southeast Missouri State assistant Jeremy Tyson has been named Assistant Baseball Coach at Stetson University, Head Coach Pete Dunn announced Monday.

Tyson will serve as the Hatters pitching coach and recruiting coordinator.

Tyson joins the Stetson coaching staff after four successful years at Southeast Missouri State, where he also worked as the team's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. In all four seasons during Tyson's tenure, the Indians boasted See College, Page 13

GAME OF THE WEEK Southern Cal at Auburn

Tigers hope to win big

ight now, Aubum has everything going for it, but if this was no-limit Texas Hold 'Em-poker, Tommy Tuberville and his talentladen club would be all in. In Hold 'Em, a player bets all his chips on one hand, and that's exactly what Tuberville is doing this week, with an early litmus test against a Southern California team riding an eight-game winning streak that includes victories over UCLA, Notre Dame and then Iowa in the Orange Bowl.

But if you're going to win, win big. And that's exactly what the Tigers plan to do in this game and throughout the season by utilizing the nation's deepest backfield (Carnell Williams, Ronnle Brown, Tre Smith, Brandon Jacobs) and best linebacker tandem (Karlos Dansby, Dontarrious Thomas) to take the will right out of the opposition. The Tigers will get to test their horses right out of the gate against a solid Trojan defense with the speed and power to make this game the tastiest treat on the slate in Week 1.

Southern Cal at Auburn

■ Records: USC (0-0,0-0); Aubum (0-0,0-0). m Series: Tied 1-1. m Coaches: USC's Pete Carroll (17-8); Auburn's Tommy Tuberville (55-39). ■ TV: CBS.

Key for USC: Find someone to get the ball to stud wideouts Mike Williams and Keary Colhert. Sophomore Matt Leinart will start behind center, but don't be surprised if Matt

Cassel, Brandon Hance or Billy Hart play.

Kay for Auburn: Keep the Trojans' athletic defenders off quarterback Jason Campbell. A few quick draws to Camell "Cadillae" Williams should make USC sit back on its heels, and give the junior time to find his receivers.

The Rest of the Matchups

South Florida at Alabama

■ Records: South Florida (0-0, 0-0); Alabama

(0-0, 0-0). Series: First meeting. Coaches:

Alabama Mike Shula (0-0), South Florida Coaches:

Alabama Mike Shula (0-0), South Florida Coaches:

Key for South Florida: Can junior quarterback Ronnie

Banks, who sat behind Marquel Blackwell for three years, step up and avoid Alabama's rush? Even though the entire O-line returns intact, Banks will have to get rid of the ball in a hurry or his limited mobility will be exposed. or his limited mobility will be exposed.

Key for Alabama: Show that the offense has adapted and is committed to its third different scheme in the last two years.

San Jose State at Florida

■ Records: San Jose State (1-0,0-0); Florida (0-0,0-0). m Series: Gators lead 1-0. m Coaches: Sun Jose State's Pitz. Hill (10-16); Florida's Ron Zook (8-5). m TV; Pay-per-view. Key for San Jose State: The Spartans can stay in this game if they force turnovers early — especially if safety Gerald Jones (8 interceptions in 2002) can confuse the Gators inexperienced signal-callers into bad decisions.

Key for Florida: Pile it on, as the Gators usually do in an opener against lesser competition. Florida has scored 40 or more points in each of the last five openers.

Georgia at Clemson

■ Records: Georgia (0-0.0-0); Clemson (0-0.0-0). ■ Series: Georgia leads 40-17-4 ■ Coaches: Georgia's Mark Richt (21-5); Clemson's Tommy Bowden (47-24). ■ TV: ABC.

Key for Georgia: Find a way to put up points, and try not to look like a team that has had to replace its top rusher, receiver and entire offensive line. In other words placekicker Billy Bennett will be the Bulldogs' top option.

Key for Clamson: Let roverback Gerald McCloud do what he does best: break up plays and take passes back the other way. McCloud had two interceptions and recovered a fumble in the team's final scrimmage.

Louisiana-Monroe at LSU

■ Records: Louisiana-Monroe (0-0, 0-0); LSU (0-0, 0-0). ■ Series: First meeting. ■ Coaches: Louisiana-Monroe's Charlie Weatherbie (45-64); LSU's Nick Saban (69-38-1).

Key for Louisiana-Honroe: Wind up sophomore quarterback Steven Jyles and watch him run and pass.

Key for LSU: Decide who will tote the rock to complement the pass attack spearheaded by quarterback Matt Mauck and wide receiver Michael Clayton.

Ole Miss at Vanderbilt

■ Records: Ole Miss (0-0,0-0); Vanderbilt (0-0,0-0).
■ Series: Ole Miss leads 42-32-2. ■ Coaches: Ole Miss' David Cutcliffe (30-19); Vanderbilt's Bobby Johnson (62-46). TV: Jefferson Pilot, Key for Die Hissi/Durn things around in the backfield. A lot of that rests on the repaired right knee of Jamal Pittman. 2014 and Key for Vanderbilt: Remind naysayers that Vandy had the fifth-best rushing attack last season in the conference (173.5

ypg) with SEC Preshman of the Year Kwane Doster. Oregon at Mississippi St.

Series: Oregon leads 1-0. Coaches: Oregon's Mike Bellotti (90-54-2); Mississippi State's Jackie Sherill (178-110-

Key for Oregon: LSU transfer Chris Vincent needs to fill terrio Smith, so that Jason Fife can do his thing (24 TDs last season) without interruption.

Key for Mississippl State: Try to stretch a thin offensive line, and hope quarterback Kevin Fant gets the time to find pass-catcher Ray Ray Bivines at least six times.

Louisiana-Lafayette at South Carolina

■ Records: Louisiana-Lafayette (0-0, 0-0); South Carolina (0-0), # Series: First meeting. # Coaches: Louisiana-Lafayette's Rickey Bustle (3-9); South Carolina's Lou Holtz (238-120-7).

Key for Louislana-Lafayette: Ragin' Cajun widcout Fred Stamps is a playmaker. The question is, who will step up and take advantage of single coverage opposite Stamps?

Key for South Carolina: QB Dondrial Pinkins needs to distribute the ball, utilizing swing passes to tailback Kenny Irons, and occasionally with wide receiver Troy Williamson.

Fresno State at Tennessee

M Records: Fresno State (0-0, 0-0); Tennessee (0-0, 0-0). ■ Series: First meeting. ■ Coaches: Fresno State's Pat Hill (46-30); Tennessee's Phillip Fulmer (103-25). ■ TV: ESPN2.

Key for Fresno State: Run the Davis offense. Brothers Marque (WR) and Rodney Davis (RB) accounted for 37 percent (16 of 44) of the Bulldogs' touchdowns last season.

Key for Tennessee: Win the battle of field position. Use super-punter Dustin Colquitt (43.6) to pin the Bulldogs' potent offense deep in hostile territory.

Louisville at Kentucky (Sunday)

E Records: Louisville (0-0, 0-0) at Kentucky (0-0, 0-0). Series: Kentucky leads series, 10-5. E Coaches: Louisville's Bob Petrino (0-0); Kentucky's Rich Brooks (91-109-4). ■ TV:

Key for Louisville: Get close enough to allow senior placekicker Nate Smith to do damage.

Key for Kentucky: Derek Abney is the most dangerous return man in college football, and he'll hurt the Cardinals whenever they punt or kick off after a score.

ALABAMA Crimson Tide redshirt freshman tailback Nic Luke rejoined the team after considering a transfer to Division II Tuskegee, but Alabama refused to release the him from his scholarship. Luke said he "prayed a lot about this decision and God told me to come back."

IRRKANSAS Razorbacks tackle Shawn Andrews should be cleared in time to play in the opener against Tuisa. Andrews was one of 24 players who took part in the Playboy All-American awards and photo shoot in Phoenix in May, and accepted some unapproved gifts, which is a secondary infraction, according to the NCAA.

MUBURN Injuries have forced Tommy Tuberville to reshuffle the deck, moving defensive end Dexter Murphy to guard, and tight end Steven Ross to tackle.

FLORIDA After they were involved in off-field fights, the Gators suspended freshmen linebackers Channing Crowder and Taurean Charles for the opener. Chartie Strong is making his debut as defensive coordinator against a San Jose State offensive unit that put up 29 points on Grambling State last week.

BEORGIA Returning only 10 starters, the Bulldogs could illafford to get the news last week that defensive end Will Thompson and receiver Cedric Haywood were lost with season-ending injuries. Thompson is already the third starter bitten by the injury bug in practice, joining safety Kentrell Curry (fractured right leg) and tackle Ken Veal (ankle).

MENTUCKY Watch for how Kentucky looks on offense with Jared Lorenzen running a new scheme under a new coaching staff. First-year head coach Rich Brooks' stamp will be evident from the get-go. This is a game that is going to mark the era of two new coaching staffs. We're at home at Commonwealth Stadium, which I think is an advantage," Brooks said.

A bruised kidney will sideline Tigers offensive lineman Terrell McGill after he was injured in the team's final scimmage before the opener. The sophomore from Miami will miss this week's game, but might return for the road-trip to Arizona the following week.

Officials now also extends to non conference foes, so any ringing in the Oregon game will result in a penalty. Last season, the Bulldogs were penalized for excessive cowbell noise against Kentucky.

MESISSIPPI A couple of couple of kickers could decide the outcome of this opener. Luckily Ole Miss has both of them in junior place kicker Jonathan Nichola and junior punter Cody Ridgeway. Nichols should within shouting distance of the end zone and Ridgeway will keep the Commodores pinned deep in their own end after coming off a 42.4-yard average last season.

BOGARULINA Gamecocks coach Lou Holts will start the season with Kenny Irons and Daccus Turman as his starting running backs, even though both freshmen (Bemetris Summers, Cory Boyd) will also see snaps coming off strong preseasons. The guy who is playing the best football of his career right now is Gonzie Gray (at tailback). Those five backs will all play," Holtz said.

TENNESSEE Volunteers defensive tackle and junior college transfer Zarnell Pitch won't play this season after being ruled academically ineligible. He apparently failed to get his associate's degree from Navarro (Texas) College because he took the same class twice. Fitch will likely go back to Texas for this final course.

CANDERBILT Even though running back Kwane Doster is clearly the big man on campus after being named SEC Freshman of the Year last year, don't forget about junior Norval McKenzie in that backfield. Last year, McKenzie averaged nearly 8 yards per carry and also ripped off a 101-yard effort in a high-scoring loss to Ole Miss. Prediction: McKenzie will finish with more than 500 yards, while Doster becomes the first rusher since 1995 to break 1,000 yards for the Commodores.

Pro Challenge, Mod Lites at New Smyrna Speedway

From Staff Reports

All FASCAR divisions will be in racing script (Saturday) at New Smyrna Speedway along with the ever popular Mod Lites and Pro Challenge Cars.

The Super Late Models and the Late Models were off when the Goodyear Challenge Late Model Series ran a 100 lap event at New Smyrna two weeks ago. But it is David Rossers coming into Saturday is David Rogers coming into Saturday night's action with the points lead for the Super Lates. B.J. McLeod moved into second with 360 points over third place Wayne Parker with 352 putting these two drivers in a close points battle for second.

Guy Thomas comes in fourth with 220 points over fifth place David Frohlich with 176. Joe Fitos, Brent Hobbs, Mark 176. Joe Fitos, Brent Hobbs, Mark Vandevender, Chris Fontaine and Mike Finn round out the Top 10.

Brian Bellaw in his Jolly Roger's/Blackies Saloon No. 77 leads the points for the Late Model division and is doing his best for his second points championship. Tim Clark comes in second with 268 points followed by Mark Smith with 236, Bobby Orr with 180 and Timmy Todd with 172 who is also tied with Larry Osteen at 172. Don Hess comes in seventh with 156 followed by Chris seventh with 156 followed by Chris Lawrence with 132 and David Rogers rounds out the Top 10 with 108. Leading the Open Wheel Modifieds points action is Bobby Blake with 420 points followed by Mark Vandevender, Brad May, Matt Wheeler, and David Castello. Justin Henderson, Jim "Hoot" Flynn, Paul Duncan, John Zidek, and Skip Honaker round out the Top 10. Billy Spade leads the Sportsman division with 436 points followed by Ron Lufcy with 396 points. Bill Love comes in third with 276 points with Dale Clouser in fourth and only four points behind Love with 272 points. Chris Peludat comes in fifth with 244 points but since he has sold his Sportsman this could change this Saturday night.

Jim Snyder, John Nusbaum, Dusty

plete the Top 10.

Ted "Mr Mini Stock" Vulpius holds a 12 point lead over second place Tim "Missileman" McPhail in the Mini Stock division. This will be a tight points battle until the very end of the season. Rex Christensen comes in third with 448 points followed by David Castello and Ben Hutto in the top five. Wayne Clark, Bob Delmastro, Troy Kruse, Chris Jones and Robbie Storer complete the Top 10.

With his win two weeks ago, Charlie Collins took over the points in the Super Stock division by four over second place Ron Whaley. Collins stands at 496 points to Whaley's 492 points but the battle is far from over for these two. The Championship could go either way. Jeff Colburn comes in third with 364 points followed by Josh Wronkowski with 328 and Mike Amato with 276 points. Butch Pierce, Bob Trombley, Todd Driscoll, Rob Watford and Nick Vogler information call 407-568-5522.

Oth Conference's lowest team ERA. And in each of the last three seasons, Tyson coached the OVC's Pitcher of the Year. In 2003, that honor went to All-American Tim Alvarez, who set a school record and ranked third in the NCAA with 14 victories.

"Jeremy will bring immediate experience as a pitching coach and recruiting coordinator from Southeast Missouri State, which traditionally is one of the top teams in the OVC," Dunn said. "Also, his experience as a player in three College World Series and on two national championship teams will bring another dimension to our program as well."

Prior to his stint at SEMO, Tyson spent one year as an assistant coach at the University of Texas-San Antonio and one year as an assistant coach at Alamo Heights High School in San Antonio. Despite being drafted out of high school by the Atlanta Braves, Tyson decided to begin his colleglate career in 1993 at the University of Houston. As a freshman with the Cougars he went 4-4 with three saves. Tyson transferred to Louisiana State University, where he posted a 9-3 record in 1994. That season he earned an NCAA Regional victory over Fresno State and made an appearance in the College World Series vs. Cal State Fullerton.

The rest of Tyson's colleglate career was shortened due to rotator cuff surgery, but he was a member of the 1996 and 1997 national champion LSU squad.

Tyson graduated from LSU in 1996 with a Bachelor's Degree in Kinesiology. He replaces former Stetson assistant Terry Rooney, who ANCE The UCF Athletics Department hired Jessica Reo as director of compliance, announced Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance Dr. Robert Mathner on Wednesday.

"UCF is extremely fortunate to have someone with Jessica's experience and knowledge of Division I-A college athletics join our university and athletic department," said Dr. Mathner. "Our efforts to develop and maintain a comprehensive compliance program are critical to the long term success of this university and athletic department and hiring a person of Jessica's caliber is indicative of the commitment this university is making to its growing athletic program.

Reo comes to UCF after seven years at the University of Miami. Since December 2000, she served as the Hurricanes' compliance coordinator for athletic services, organizing the day-to-day operations. She originally joined Miami in October of 1996 as the compliance coordinator for rules education and documenta-

Prior to her experience in athletic compliance, Reo worked in sports information serving as the assistant sports information director at Clemson University for two years and completing an internship in media rela-tions at the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Tournament. UCF received 118 overall votes after winning the 2002 A-Sun Tournament and being named regular season co-champions with Georgia State. The Golden Knights finished last season 22-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in school history. UCF returns nine members from last year's team that went 10-1 in Atlantic Sun Conference action.

A-Sun Regular Season Cochampion from last season, Georgia State is picked to finish second to UCF, as the Lady Panthers received 106 overall votes in the preseason poll. State finished last season with an impressive 25-14 record before losing in the conference tournament championship game, 3-2. Florida Atlantic, which picked up three tirst-place votes, is slated to finish third (102 points) after finishing third in the conference last season. The Lady Owls finished the 2002 season with an 8-3 conference mark.

Stetson was picked to finish sixth. Third-year head coach Becky Thyhsen will look to guide the Hatters to their first conference tournament appearance since 1995. Stetson returns seven veterans from last year's team while adding six newcomers. The 2002 squad won 11 of its final 16 matches and finished the season with a 15-14 overall record, 6-5 (7th Place) in the A-Sun.

The top six regular season finishers will advance to the 2003 Atlantic Sun Volleyball Championship which will be held on November 22-23

ALLIGATOR HUNTING SEASON STARTS MONDAY

Things will be a little different this year when alligator hunters take to the waters on Monday for the start of the state's annual alligator harvest. They won't be restricted to the specific public waters and lands that have been traditionally established as Alligator Harvest Units (AMUs). This year, the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) has a new and different program in addition to the traditional one. It has established most Florida counties as AMUs as well as the traditional AMUs. This means that individuals who have been permitted to take alligators in the new county-wide harvest units will be allowed to take two alligators from any lands that they can legally access in the spec-ified county. This includes public and private lands and waters, but excludes specific water bodies that are already established AMUs, private wetlands permitted for alligator management, and other protected pub-lic properties (exclusions are detailed online http://wildflorida.org/gators/Default.htm)

Some hunters are permitted to hunt for alligators county-wide, others for specific tradi-tional AMUs - but not both. They indicated their preferences when they applied for permits beginning last May.

Selected trappers were required to pur-chase a $270 permit to hunt the state's most reptile. The cost for out-of-state residents was $1,020. This year 2317 permits were available and as of early August there were still a couple of hundred left," said Joy M. Hill, public information coordinator for the FWC. (Note: For a list of permitted trappers or how many permits are still available contact Steve Stiegler in the FWC's Alligator Management Section at (850) 488-3831.)

The FWC will conduct the hunts throughout the state during the five-week season which ends Oct. 8. This is the 16th consecutive season that alligator hunts have been conducted in Florida. Originally, the alligator harvest program was seen primarily as a limited commercial operation. However, because it's so popular among recreational hunters, its focus has changed to allow more hunters to participate, sald Hill.

The harvest of alligators is strictly regulated by the FWC to insure that adult alligators are not over harvested. Hunters are allowed to take two alligators each and they may keep the alligators they harvest, or sell them to authorized buyers. Live alligators may not

Hunting hours are at night from one-half before sunset to one-half hour after sunrise. Licensed hunters may have one or more people assist them during the hunt but assistants are required to purchase a $50, non-transferable agent's license. Licensed agents may not hunt independently of their licensed hunter. Trappers may use snatch hooks, snares, gigs or harpoons to take alligators, and bows-and-arrows or crossbows may be used if the projectile is attached to a restraining line. Firearms are prohibited.

For legal descriptions and specifics about the AMUs visit the FWC's website at http://wildflorida.org/gators/Default.htm.

Alligators play a vital role in the function of many of Florida's delicate ecosystems and hunting seasons are possible only when animal populations remain abundant and stable. As little as 40 years ago, alligators were deemed to be in short supply as a result of widespread poaching. Since then, intensive management and aggressive protection have allowed alligators to stage one of the most prolific comebacks in the history of wildlife conservation. Alligators now occur in almost every body of water in the state including many urban retention ponds and drainage

With the abundance of alligators and no natural predators to control them, Florida's gator population has reached the point where the available habitat cannot support more alligators. In fact, gators are so plentiful that the FWC now licenses commercial alligator operations that depend on wild stocks as a basis for replenishment. The information gathered from these well-regulated hunts and from licensed commercial alligator farms, provides critical data in helping manage the state's alligator popu-

The preservation of wetland habitats is also a benefit derived from the commercialization of Florida's alligator population. Before the commercialization of alligators, wetlands were often filled in by farmers to become income producing pastures or crop fields. Since commercialization has occurred, wetlands are less likely to be filled because they have economic value, providing income from the sale of alligators and their eggs.

For more information on Florida's alligator management programs, visit the FWC's Web site at www.floridaconservation.org or call the North Florida Alligator Field Office at (352) 742-6383

THE WEEKEND'S BIG KICKOFF: LET THE FISHING BEGIN!

Across the state, fans are gearing up for this weekend's kickoff of The Big Fish Open!

Fishing fans, that is, many of whom also won't want to miss out on the beginning of football season. Likely they'll do both as they pull out their favorite fishing poles, tie on their lucky lures and practice their most reliable casting techniques and secret fishing tricks in hope of hooking onto the big cash available in Kissimmee-St. Cloud's 4th Annual Big Fish Open Beginning Monday and running through October 26, the Kissimmee-St. Cloud Convention and Visitors Bureau will pay a $1000 cash prize to the adult angler lucky enough to reel in the biggest bass of the week

during the Big Fish Open.

Out of state anglers get an even sweeter deal with an additional $500 weekly non-resident bonus prize. Anglers 17 years and under compete for a weekly $100 savings bond. At the end of the Big Fish Open the angler who reels in the largest bass during the entire competition will walk away with a grand prize of $10,000! The junior angler with the largest catch over all will receive a $1,000 savings bond.

And that's not all. During the Big Fish Open, any angler lucky enough to break the current State of Florida bass record of 17.27 pounds will earn a whopping $100,000!

The Big Fish Open is tournament fishing made easy. Participating anglers can fish at their leisure anywhere, with any bait, anytime on the Kissimmee Chain of Lakes during the eight-week period. And to better their chances, anglers can even hire a local guide to take them to their secret honey holes. It couldn't be any easier.

To participate in the Big Fish Open, anglers must first register by completing a registration form on line at www.anglerschallenge.org. Registration forms are also available at participating area fish camps and bait shops throughout Kissimmee-St. Cloud. Big Fish Open adult passes for the entire eight weeks are only $50. A seven-day fishing pass is also available for just $15. Eight-week passes for junior anglers are $15 or $5 for a seven-day pass.

The Big Fish Open is a catch and release event and is just one more part of Kissimmee-St. Cloud's annual Anglers Challenge. This unique series of events combines the fun of fishing and outdoor recreation with messages of conservation and environmental stewardship.

As the Big Fish Open concludes, the Anglers Challenge continues with the Lake Toho Pro-am, which pairs some of the world's top professionals with aspiring amateurs for a three-day fishing tournament, October 30-November 1. Other Anglers Challenge events include the Angling Against Cancer Benefit Dinner and Tournament and AquaMania, an exciting and event-filled community celebration November 1-2 at the Kissimmee Lakefront.

To learn more about the Big Fish Open and the Anglers Challenge call the Kissimmee-St. Cloud Convention and Visitors Dureau free 1-800-333-KISS or log onto www.anglerschallenge.org. # BEAT THE Publisher AND WIN!!!!

Here's how the game works...

1. Contest starts running on Sunday, August 31, and runs through Sunday, November 2. Your 2 column by 3 inch ad appears each Sunday for this 10 week period on the Football Frenzy page.

2. An upcoming game to be played on the following weekend will be hidden in your ad each week. This means your ad gets guaranteed readership because our readers have to find the games to be able to enter the contest. Our readers will enter their winning picks each week for their chance to win part of a $50 weekly cash giveaway.

3. BEAT PUBLISHER DAN PING AND YOU

On Wednesdays during the contest your photo will appear along with our other prognosticators where you'll try to pick the winners of the same games our readers will be picking. If you beat the publisher's record at the end of the 10 week season, you'll win a one half page ad!!!

So don't delay...come on and play... You'll get a lot of great publicity for you and your business each week in both editions, and your chance to beat the publisher and win.

Your weekly investment is only $40.00 (2 cols. x 3 inch ad) Deadline for ad copy and to have your first picks in: Monday, August 25
