Varicose Veins Cause Problems

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
 DEAR DR. LAMB — I need your advice concerning my varicose veins. I went to a surgeon this past week who specializes in varicose veins. I asked his advice on a bump that I had on a vein in my leg. He told me I should be operated on for my veins.

I would like to get someone else's opinion before going ahead and getting the operation. I never had a vein in my leg until I had my first child — now 20 years old. My doctor who delivered my children always told me not to worry about the varicose veins because they were from pregnancy. Now after the last child (8 years old) my veins are worse.

Dr. Lamb, my baby doctor was one of the best in the field. Now I realize that he should have told me to take better care of my varicose veins or he should have told me to see a specialist in that field. Now I can't seem to have faith in what the doctor says.

I am concerned that this new doctor is only interested in operating because he is a surgeon. Do you think I should get another doctor's opinion or should I go ahead and have my veins operated on? Is it a serious operation? I know my legs would probably look a lot better.

DEAR READER — There seems to be an inherited weakness to develop varicose veins. Commonly they first appear during pregnancy. The veins in the legs drain into larger veins in the abdomen. During pregnancy the baby presses against these large veins and prevents the normal flow of blood back to the heart. The pressure builds up in the veins and causes them to become overdistended. The tiny valves in the leg veins cease to work and you have varicose veins. They usually get worse with each succeeding pregnancy.

For Wednesday, November 10, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Someone of whom you think very highly could be a severe disappointment today. The blow will be considerably lessened if you allow for this person's frailties.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You tend to be a bit flirtatious today. You could unwittingly give some "come hither" signs to the wrong person. Watch where you cast your roving eye.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't feel you have to spend money today in order to impress others. The big shot role isn't worth it.

CANCER (June 21-July 21) You have a tendency to procrastinate too much for your own good today. Tasks will be swept under the rug.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 22) Don't give yourself or your possessions today if your generosity has strings attached. The response you hope for won't be there.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It's marvelous to be able to say nice things about our friends, but don't flatter the undeserving today. Insincere applause will have a hollow ring.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY
 he would have to lose two hearts, two diamonds and a club. Now came the crushing defensive play. West led back a low diamond. This gave South his choice of several ways to lose his contract. If he went up with dummy's ace of diamonds, he would run into those same five losers. So he let the diamond ride around to his side spot.

Then if he tried to get to dummy with a diamond East would ruff in. If he played out his ace of spades, East would score his king so South led a club. East took his ace, put his partner in with the king of hearts and ruffed a diamond to set South that same one trick.

South's one-spade overall was about as weak as you will ever see in good competition, but it almost got him a good result. North raised him to three spades and he would have made this contract if he hadn't run into brilliant defense.

West opened the device of hearts. East started the good defense by winning with the queen so that he could be sure where the king of hearts was. Then he led back his 10 of diamonds.

South covered with the jack and ducked in dummy after West played his queen. Note that if South took that trick, it would have helped much, short of getting pregnant. You might have gotten some help from wearing support hose or elastic stockings that increase the pressure outside the leg by helping to prevent the overdistention of the veins.

Some years ago such preventive measures were not taken. They are still not used extensively. However, considering the basic nature of varicose veins — stretched veins — I think they are a good idea for anyone who has a family history of this problem. They may also be useful for any woman during pregnancy or those who must stand still for long periods of time.

After reading The Health Letter if you still wonder about having an operation get another doctor to examine you. If your legs are not bothering you I presume you can get along without it. But if you are concerned about the appearance or are having swelling or other problems surgery is a good approach. It is not a serious operation.

"I know medical science can't solve all our problems but her bridge club is working on it!"

County Studying Job $$

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County government is in a holding pattern today on an allocation of more than $77,000 in federal funds to employment officials, Seminole Community College (SCC) and the county school board.

The funds were withdrawn earlier this year when it was learned Title 6 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) was being reduced by more than $1-million dollars.

County officials had planned to use the money to keep certain workers employed, even though federal funds to pay their salaries had been cut out.

Then, county officials found the $377,000 and at the same time learned Title 6 money will probably be restored at a December meeting in Atlanta. At stake are about 138 Seminole County jobs that were slated to end by Jan. 31.

Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway threw a monkey wrench into the reallocation project.

"I think you're being hasty," Hattaway told Neiswander. "Take a look at the overall CETA program."

Neiswander's response was that the action would restore agency requests to the operable level of a year ago. But commissioners decided to let newly elected commissioners — when they are seated next Tuesday — make the decision.

According to working papers submitted by Neiswander, the amount of Title 6 funding expected in December is "not known, but it is calculated at about one million dollars."

CETA Director Jim Besdole will meet federal officials in Atlanta next month. At that meeting, county officials will be informed of their share of the $4-billion public works bill signed into law in October.

CETA is a government jobs program designed to offset unemployment by pumping federal dollars into the local economy.

Improvements to the facilities are also being considered, with the Airport Authority anticipating a cost of $70-75,000 and with Jerry's planning to spend another $50,000 for work, he told an Authority meeting this morning. "The Airport has been asked to make all permanent improvements, including lowering the ceiling, improved lighting, expanded plumbing, and some of the kitchen requirements," Jerry's would do final decorating and other non-permanent improvements. Clevland said he had "hoped to have a letter of commitment in hand this morning, but the vice president of Jerry's with whom I've been negotiating has been out of town and I haven't been able to reach him." He indicated he also would be receiving a copy of plans indicating precisely what improvements would be required.

Loren M. Friedle, president, C. E. Avionics, asked the Authority to lower his square-footage rental in building 216, citing extensive improvements he had made at his own expense. The authority agreed.

Authority members praised the business Friedle's company had brought into the airport. Friedle responded by calling the Sanford Airport "the best in central Florida."

Eatery, Improvements Studied For Airport

By MARYLIN TIPTON

J. S. (Red) Clevland, director of aviation, Sanford Airport Authority, announced today that negotiations are ongoing between the airport and Jerry Pendergast of Jerry's Inc. regarding a possible cafeteria-style restaurant to be put in the old Airport Inn facilities.

Improvements to the facilities are also being considered, with the Airport Authority anticipating a cost of $70-75,000 and with Jerry's planning to spend another $50,000 for work, he told an Authority meeting this morning. SEA Votes 'Yes' On Package

Mediator Suggests $300 Teacher Hike

By KRIS NASH
Herald Staff Writer

A state mediator has recommended that Seminole County teachers be awarded a 1976-77 contract which includes provisions for a $300 base salary increase, substantially higher wage supplements for coaches and extracurricular sponsors — particularly in the area of girls' athletics — and freedom for members of the teachers' association or its agents to represent other bargaining units in negotiations or grievance activities.

F. E. (Gene) Grooms, executive director of the Seminole Education Association (SEA), reported today that some 100 teachers voted overwhelmingly to accept the special master's findings at a general membership meeting held late Tuesday afternoon.

"The teachers don't think all of this is good," Grooms said of the 29-page report issued by Tallahassee attorney Douglas Stowell. "But we feel that binding arbitration should be the end of the negotiating process. So we're saying that we're willing to live with the good and the bad. And we hope, of course, that the school board will do the same."

County School Supt. William P. (Bud) Lyster said this morning he would have no comment on the special master's findings until they are discussed at a negotiating session next week. "We'll wait until we get to the table before making any comment," Lyster said.

Under present Florida law, a special master's recommendations are non-binding. Stowell said the report that his findings were made "with the objective of achieving a prompt, peaceful and just settlement of the disputes at issue."

The report concluded that the starting salary for Seminole teachers should be $8,400 per year, based on "justification of the need of (SEA) members and the ability of the board to pay." This roughly split the difference between the $8,600 beginning figure that had been sought by the SEA and the $8,300 offered by the school board.

Under terms of the collective bargaining agreement recommended by Stowell, this pay scale would remain in effect for two years and could not be renegotiated until the 1978-79 contract was brought to the table.

The terms of agreement provisions included in the report also called for "allowing continuation of the terms of the prior contract, so long as good-faith negotiations are in progress or — if an impasse has been reached — until 15 days after receipt of the special master's report or until" the report is accepted or rejected, whichever came first.

In recommending hikes in wage supplements for instructors handling extracurricular interest groups and their activities, the special master noted that the major differences between the school board's figures and those of the SEA "were related to the sports involved in the women's athletic program."

"There was no testimony on the part of the board that justified the substantial differences in supplements being paid to coaches undertaking predominantly female sports activities as opposed to those dealing primarily with the male students," Stowell wrote. In fact, the report continued, "testimony before the special master indicated that those supplemental activities for female sports required substantially the same amount of time and effort

Two Jobs Well Done

Over at the courthouse in Sanford and at the county jail, two faces are missing. The faces belonged to public servants, not just any old public servants, but two who served Seminole taxpayers and served them faithfully and well.

Though former Captain J. Q. "Slim" Galloway and Martha Vihlen's faces are missing, the spirit of the services these two dedicated individuals provided lives on.

Both were outstanding examples of good people who faithfully served the public as county employees. "Slim" Galloway is a gentleman who was respected and admired by judges, lawyers, police officers and prisoners alike.

He combined the firmness necessary to be Chief Deputy Sheriff with the compassion which allowed for fair treatment of prisoners — troubled men, Slim's sense of humor revealed a love of life and a love for his fellow man.

It could be said of Slim that he is of the "Old School." In short, a gentleman. Martha Vihlen patiently and efficiently monitored the filings of all court documents and pleadings. With a cheerful smile and a helpful clerk, she greeted thousands of visitors to the clerk's office. She treated angry citizens with courtesy, bewildered visitors with assistance and fellow workers with high spirit.

Mrs. Vihlen served 21 years — Galloway 16. Public servants like these are difficult to replace. A courthouse can be a cold building without people like Martha and Slim.

But as long as the spirit of Slim's and Martha's service remains, their performances will be an inspiration to all those who aspire to public service positions.

We salute you, Martha. We salute you, Slim. Good luck in your retirements.

A Time For Testing

A majority of Americans wanted a change. It was close in the electoral vote but Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale won by two million in the popular vote, a larger margin than John Kennedy had in 1960 or Richard Nixon had in 1968.

Gerald Ford ran a good race. But he started too far behind to catch up. The burdens of Watergate and the economy were too heavy for him. Americans will regard him with affection — a decent man who did his best in a difficult period and served his nation well.

But attention will now focus on the man who will become the 39th president of the United States.

Carter's victory was a regional one in that he carried every state of the old Confederacy except Virginia to become the first Southerner to win the presidency on his own in a century. The long isolation of the South in American politics has now ended.

Congress will be a change of leadership but also strongly independent. The coalition of Republicans and conservative southern Democrats in Congress remains intact and will influence the president's proposals in many areas.

There will be a change of leadership but probably little change of policy in foreign affairs. It is clear there was no mandate for a major reduction in defense spending.

As president, Carter will push for reform of the bureaucracy, in the income tax system and the welfare system. In all these areas, he will undoubtedly encounter stubborn resistance from senior Democrats entrenched in positions of power in the Congress.

The next four years will be a time of testing for Jimmy Carter and the nation. The challenges will be staggering. It will be a time for national unity in support of our new leadership and renewed dedication to the ideals that make this nation great.

BERRY'S WORLD

WASHINGTON — Virginia's powerful Byrd clan, headed by Sen. Henry Byrd Jr., have quietly helped to obstruct a plan to recruit more unemployed Americans this year to pick their apple crop. Instead, they brought in work crews from Jamaica.

Around

The Clock

By NORM OSHRIN

RAY CROMLEY Why Would Anyone Run For Office?

WASHINGTON — Some years back I spent a good deal of my spare time trying to persuade outstanding men and women in my community to run for office. I rarely succeeded and only after months of effort.

Once talked into running, good men and women are not difficult to get elected, even though my party was a stark minority in the area in which I lived. For members of the other major party found it equally difficult to get inspiring candidates.

The difficulties in these candidate searches lay not just with local positions — city councilman or county board of supervisors — but were equally vexing when it came to selling outstanding people on running for the state legislature and Congress.

Those we approached, of course, were successful in their work, whether in business, writing, teaching, science, farming or government. Those who were young did not want to interrupt their careers. Those who had retired saw little satisfaction in taking the abuse levied on all politicians, the good and bad alike.

Numbers were convinced too, that if elected there was little that could be accomplished. They believed they had little chance of bucking the majority, composed as it was of so few who pursued the public interest. They saw too many lawmakers and administrative officials feathering their nests, being so dependent on special interest groups or so biased with the day-to-day trivia of their jobs that they had no time to give serious study to the important laws on which they voted or to the serious tasks for which they were responsible.

They feared getting caught in the treadmill wherein an official is forced to keep re-election so forcibly in mind that his day-to-day actions become warped. The official becomes engrossed not in what should be done for the best interests of his constituents, but in what must be done to be certain of getting 51 per cent of the votes the next go-round.

Each man we approached knew he must be prepared to have all his family skeletons rattled, including those over which he had no control and which, by no stretch of the imagination, would have any influence on the manner in which he carried on his work in office.

He knew he must be prepared to have his name blackened by any foul rumor or the opposition or any crackpot should choose to dredge up. If the office were high, he knew his family would have no privacy and the real or imagined faults of wife and children would be spelled out in the gossip columns. We would know who in the family, be it wife, brother, child or sister-in-law, allegedly drank too much, now or in the past, and who made any kind of slip.

Yet when you go to the polls we expect the man or woman we vote for to be a great speaker, a superb debater, personable in looks — that he have a certain mystique, not to mention instant solutions for all our problems.

Has it sunk in yet? It happened one week ago today in the wee hours of the morning. A success story. If we didn't see and hear it with our own eyes and ears, it would be shrugged off as a story-book event. Except this time it was real. It really happened. And it's still hard to believe. We all have dreams. Some are trivial. Some are grandiose. Some are reachable. Some are fantasies. Stop to think about it. Here was this guy from Georgia — farmer, one-time state executive, one-time naval officer, one-time engineer. He got up one morning and made a decision: He wanted to be and was going to be President of the United States of America. And today he is, President-elect. Living proof of that cliché with which most of us grew up: Anyone can be President.

JOHN CUNIFF Discrepancy In Figures

NEW YORK (AP) — There are two sets of government figures on the weekly earnings of a "typical" household based on three dependents. Earlier this year the figure in one was $245, in the other $174. The difference was 41 per cent.

Both are official figures. Both are from the Bureau of Labor Statistics. While the discrepancy has remained unresolved for years, it isn't overlooked; economists dutifully call attention to it.

For critics who have become increasingly disturbed about the nation's reliance on economic statistics of questionable verity, the situation is a prime exhibit, an illustration of the dangers in decisions based on numbers.

"I have observed that few people outside BLS are even aware that anything is seriously misleading about the numbers," writes Geoffrey H. Moore, director of business cycle research at the National Bureau of Economic Research.

The smaller figure, an estimate issued each month, tends to be used more than the larger figure, obtained by survey and released once a year. The smaller number is incorrect, a gross understating, says Moore. "It just is not so."

Moore knows. He was the commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics until 1973, which in itself is a commentary on the permissiveness of numbers known to be misleading, and therefore dangerous to the decision-making process.

"I should have done more about it at that time," said Moore in an interview. But series of numbers, once begun, have a tendency to persist even when wrong, he explained.

The story of James Earl Carter Jr. must go down as the story of the century — if not of all history for all time. That is, when it finally sinks in. As the Herald reviewed in words and pictures last week, it was this same James Earl Carter Jr. who came traipsing into this office unnoticed, unheralded, unexpected, even unwanted a year ago last summer.

DON OAKLEY GM, Chrysler Announce High Profits

Both General Motors and Chrysler Corp. have announced record high profits for the third quarter of this year. The only reason Ford Motor Co. did not join the happy group is that it was the target of a 28-day strike by the United Auto Workers.

What it means for the first two companies, to use the words of their spokesmen, is that there is "no reason" for a strike against them. Their record profits indicate they should be able to meet the same workers' demands as Ford did. Plain common sense would seem to dictate that there was no reason for a strike against Ford in the first place. Its profits were also good, up to the strike. But that's water over the dam, and no doubt Ford will begin recouping its lost sales.

All this is fine and dandy for the auto companies and their workers. But the car-buying public will foot the bill for this new boost in the incomes of both.

Even though the public is already paying an average of $28 more for a 1977 model, Chrysler chairman John A. Riccardo, whose company has been selected by the UAW as its next target, does not rule out another price increase later in the model year.

One can't help wondering, though, what would have happened if the UAW and the companies had gotten together and announced a view of the industry's healthy profit picture, the union had decided to renew the old contract and the companies in turn were voting a dividend to the public in the form of lower prices. Or almost as welcome, the same prices.

This would have immediately lowered everybody's cost of living, have spared sales even more and eventually may have generated enough new profits to enable the companies to reward their workers with a bonus later on.

Back in the world of reality, of course, we know that workers and management, in the auto industry or any other, do not consider themselves to be members of the same team. They are antagonists. Nor are they exactly overwhelmed by any sense of responsibility toward the larger public.

So it is that, in this line, so long as the public is willing and able to pay ever higher prices for the product produced. One can't help wondering, however, whether the automobile industry, and those who are employed by it, are not setting themselves up for a fall someday even worse than the one they experienced during the oil embargo and energy crisis.

The Social Security tax goes up again Jan. 1. That is, the taxable wage base will be increased from the present $15,500 to $16,500.

NATION IN BRIEF Carter, Congress May Clash Over Proposal For Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Jimmy Carter's first policy disagreement with key congressional Democrats is emerging over the possibility of a new tax cut. Carter said last week that if the economy does not begin improving by January, there is a "strong possibility" that he would ask for a tax cut to stimulate it.

Ulmer Leads In Overall Competition

Hayes Grabs Gold Medal In Golf Tourney

Henry Hayes of Apopka and Rev. Leo King of Sanford proved more than a match for Tuesday's chilly weather as they carved out 71s in the golf portion of the Second Annual Golden Age Olympics over Sanford's Mayfair Country Club course.

Since the Callaway Handicap System was used to determine net scores, Hayes and King deadlocked for first place, but a match of the cards declared Hayes the gold medalist with King taking the silver.

Louis Lee of Sanford fired a 72 to grab the bronze medal.

In the women's golf competition, Margaret Kinney, 65, Sanford, fired a 73 to grab the gold medal while Kathy Mathers of Orange City and Betty Murren of Lake Helen each shot 74. However, in the card match, Mathers was declared the silver medalist and Murren won the bronze.

While the golfers were trying to get things warmed up on the links, Lake Mary's John Ulmer, 68, moved to the forefront in total point standings as he captured the pinocle tournament, finishing in front of runnerup Helen Westgate and Lucia Weaver.

Ulmer now has a total of seven points toward the overall championship. Points are awarded on the basis of five for a gold medal, three for a silver and two for a bronze. Ulmer garnered two points for a third place finish in the checkers competition and five more for his win in pinocle.

Going into today's competition, no less than seven participants were deadlocked for runnerup honors with five points apiece, including Thomas Hopkins, Robert Steele, A.C. Madden, Herb Smith, John Harrington and Henry Hayes.

Harrington, 67, Sanford got his five points by finishing in first place in cribbage on Tuesday, with 66-year-old Marcel Thibodeau second and R. D'Arcy McGee third.

Despite Tuesday's chilly temperatures that saw record lows recorded throughout the state for that date, eight singles tennis matches were played by the men at Emma Spencer's Courts and the ladies played three singles matches.

One of the favorites in the men's competition is Emil Johnson, 69-year-old resident of Edgewater. The retired U.S. Army major has competed in many U.S. Lawn Tennis Association senior tournaments and in 1968 was the national 60-plus singles champion.

He grabbed off first place medals in the mile run and the ping-pong competition in the Golden Age Olympics last year and took runnerup honors in the discus throw and 220-yard dash. This year, he's entered in six events, including ping-pong, tennis, bicyclic racing, the mile run, the 40-yard dash and the discus toss.

Hopkins got his five points by capturing the gold medal in eight-ball billiards competition while Steele got the silver in checkers and the bronze in billiards.

Madden's five points came as a result of his win in the checkers tournament while Smith won in dominoes. Hayes' points all came on the strength of his gold medal performance on the links.

Today's events included another heat in the cross-country bicyclic races, rotation billiards, bowling bridge and canasta, ceramics and crafts, horticulture, ping-pong, tennis and a dance contest.

Merle Parker, 58, Sanford, took the first heat of the bicycle cross-country race by tooting around the five-mile course in the good time of 17:27.5. He was trailed by Johnson, Charlie Sanford of Deland and Steele.

The competition runs through Saturday with the track and field events the biggest of the big matchups planned for the final day. It will be held at Seminole High's stadium and includes the mile run, 220-yard dash, 400-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 50-yard dash, shot put, discus throw, softball throw, football throw, running broadjump and standing broadjump.

All events are free of charge to the public.

An awards ceremony and dance on Saturday night will cap the week-long activities for those persons 50-years of age and older.

Cabbage Patch Party: Spooning By Light Of Moon

By the light of the silver moon, did they ever spoon of hot chili, that is, in Henry Schumacher's cabbage patch. Bonnie and Henry Schumacher and Bill and Walter Glew were co-hosts at perhaps the party of the year Sunday night at the wide open spaces of the Schumacher property off South Sanford Avenue.

About 600 guests relinquished their usual party gowns, furs and tuxedos to don country attire and have the time of their life. Special lighting effects were provided by the full moon, bonfires and tiki torches.

Two huge tables held chuck wagon edibles and beverages and several took turns stirring and dishes up piping hot chili from a huge black wrought iron wash pot.

What looked like acres of people appeared to enjoy the unique gathering. Although the air was a bit nippy, hospitality was as warm as toast. Those musically inclined serenaded the full moon while harrying among the cabbage fields. Only the most favorable of comments were recorded from the throngs of moon worshippers attending the lively fete.

Activity was bustin' out all over in Sanford over the weekend. The Annual Sanford Policeman's Ball was as hopping as the preceding years.

Two couples appearing to be having a ball at the ball following attending the Sylvia Williams-Morris Metts Jr. wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Harry (Mary) Boone and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond L. (Lavern) Bass.

The General Federation of Women's Club Southern Conference over the weekend at Howard Johnson's Convention Motel, Orlando, attracted clubbers from Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Puerto Rico and The Grand Bahamas.

Attending from Sanford Women's Club were Vi Clark, president, and Carolyn Cornelius. Lake Mary Woman's Club was represented by the president Elizabeth Lewis.

Mrs. William A. (Minnie) Kratzert Sr. is still on cloud nine after her grandson, Bill Kratzert III, and Woody Blackburn won the Walt Disney World Golf Classic-National Team Championship, ending Sunday.

The 23-year-old champ, who is a scholarship graduate from University of Georgia, is probably a natural at golf. His father, William A. Kratzert Jr., has been pro at Fort Wayne (Indiana) Country Club for years.

A frequent visitor at his grandmother's Sanford home, Bill headed for Sanford Monday, bearing his trophy and gold Mickey Mouse watch, to have lunch with Grandmother Minnie and his aunts Rose Weekley and Evie Parks, among others.

Minnie said, "I'm so geared up over it and my phone hasn't stopped ringing. Bill is so excited over winning, not so much for the money ($20,000), but how he won't have to qualify for next year's tour."

Congratulations are in order to Candi and A. A. (Mac) McClanahan who celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Nov. 7. It must have been love at first sight. According to Mac, the courtship was only ten days long.

Family Plays 'Guinea Pig' To New Recipes

By ELDA NICHOLS Herald Correspondent

When Joyce Cable, Longwood, announces, "Well, we're having a new recipe tonight!" a chorus of, "Oh, no, often greets her statement. Laughing, she said, "My family is used to me trying out new dishes on them. Some they like and some they don't."

The entire Cable family, including three sons and her husband, Rod, all have a sweet tooth. "We all like desserts, so I am always interested in recipes for sweets," she said. Newspapers, magazines and friends are all sources for her recipes. She doesn't just collect them either, she really tries them out.

Fish is a great favorite with her family, according to Joyce. "My husband and sons like to fish. They clean what they catch and generally cook it. We also like Italian food."

Joyce is pleased that boys are now offered courses in home economics in school. "My boys are learning to cook. They bring home the recipes they use and often try them here," she explained.

Besides being a nurse at Seminole Memorial Hospital, Joyce is active in her church, the Messiah Lutheran Church of Casselberry. She assists her husband at political functions, the is chairman of the Democratic Party in Seminole County, works with Sertoma Wives; is interested in the Zoological Society and helps her husband in his work in the society.

Joyce's mother in Connecticut, gets credit for the deliciously different tomato soup cake and soft frosting that follow:

Birth Control Issue Stirs Anger

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: CHICAGO CHICKEN said he was afraid he'd feel less of a man if he had a vasectomy, and you said, "If you're afraid you'll feel that way, the chances are you WILL." You then suggested that he place the burden of birth control on his wife!

Abby, you blew it on a number of counts.

1. Since when is being a father the ultimate sign of manhood? What does that make males who desert their children?

2. Since when should women bear the full responsibility for birth control so the male can feel like a "man"?

3. Using your logic and bias, does his wife become less of a woman after she loses her ability to bear children?

Abby, how could you?

DEAR D. K.: It was easy. Old attitudes die hard. Having been taught by a loving mother that "Papa comes first," my response was automatic—and admittedly sexist—and thoughtless. My apologies to women everywhere who are striving for equality with men. I'll take 29 lashes with a copy of the Equal Rights Amendment.

DEAR ABBY: You printed a letter recently from a well-intentioned woman who occasionally takes occupants in nursing homes for an "outing" instead of visiting them amid the same four walls they stare at day after day.

My own mother went into a nursing home at age 91, and remained there until she died at 96.

Every Sunday when I took her for a long ride, I'd fill up the car with other residents. Then one day, a nurse asked me if I realized that I would be vulnerable to a lawsuit were to have an accident with one of the old folks in my car, or if one fell getting in or out of it.

After that, even though my heart went out to the old people, I stopped taking them for rides, but I did visit with them as often as possible.

There is just no good answer to the problem of loneliness there. Mama used to sit outside the door in a rocker, and once when I drove up, I said, "Mother, what are you doing out here?"

"It's cold!"

She answered, "I'm just waiting for you." I kissed her and asked, "How did you know it was Sunday?" She answered, "I didn't. I wait for you every day."

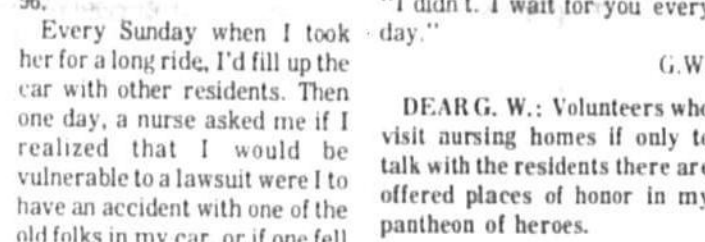

G.W.

DEAR G. W.: Volunteers who visit nursing homes if only to talk with the residents there are offered places of honor in my pantheon of heroes.

I can't receive mail at my place because nothing around here is private, but I need an answer fast.

BURLINGAME:

DEAR BURLINGAME: It's NOT all right. Besides, regardless of what you may think, it HAS TO interfere with his home life.

Dear Abby

Thanksgiving Enhanced With Island Flavor

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Thanksgiving is an American phenomenon. But, perhaps we've got in a rut as far as the menu is concerned.

How many years has your family had the same menu — item for item — since you were a child? Not that we all don't enjoy the special meaning that goes with Thanksgiving but perhaps it is time to vary things a bit.

'Cooking Chinese': A Welcome Fashion

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

'Cooking Chinese' has been a welcome fashion in this country for a good many years. Now, judging by the supermarkets and specialty shops carrying ingredients used in Chinese cooking and by the current sales of woks, interest in this cuisine is on the increase.

Stir-frying, one of the Chinese cooking techniques, takes little time once the ingredients for a stir-fry dish are chopped, sliced, diced or minced. Nevertheless we've often wished, along with many other cooks, that some of these stir-fry dishes could be prepared ahead and served cold. Recently we tried a recipe, developed by an American cook, that fulfills this wish.

You can serve this dish, Lettuce Chicken, as a first course with a before-dinner drink, offered this way at our house it was a great success. However, you can also serve it along with one or more hot dishes as part of a main course at a Chinese-style supper.

Lettuce Chicken
Sauce Mixture, see below
2 whole (each about 1 pound) chicken breasts
3 tablespoons soy sauce
2 tablespoons peanut oil
9-ounce can water chestnuts, finely chopped
1 cup finely chopped celery
1 cup finely chopped mushrooms
1/2 cup finely chopped scallions
1 head iceberg lettuce (cored, rinsed, drained and chilled)
Roasted diced or sliced almonds, if desired

Have Sauce Mixture ready at hand. Skin, bone and dice about 1/2-inch the raw chicken breasts; mix with the soy sauce and let stand for 15 minutes. In a 10-inch skillet heat the oil; add chicken mixture; stir-fry fast, using moderate to high heat, until opaque and cooked through — a few minutes. Add water chestnuts, celery, mushrooms and scallions; stir-fry fast for a few minutes. Add Sauce Mixture; stirring constantly, cook fast until thickened and any excess liquid is reduced; chicken and vegetables should have only a light coating of the thick sauce to bind them together. Chill. Makes 4 to 6 cups.

pieces. Meanwhile, soak 2 cups of the coconut in milk for 15 minutes. Sprinkle remaining 1 cup coconut in a shallow baking pan. Place in a preheated 400-degree oven until golden, 4 to 5 minutes; set aside. Rehydrate chopped onion and minced garlic in one-half cup water for 10 minutes. In a large skillet melt butter. Add onion and garlic; saute for 5 minutes. Stir in curry powder; cook and stir for 1 minute. Add coconut mixture and one cup of the reserved broth. Simmer, covered (do not boil), for 30 minutes. Strain through cheesecloth, squeezing out as much liquid as possible. Measure liquid adding more broth to measure 2 cups. Return liquid to skillet. Add ginger. Mix flour with 3 tablespoons cold water. Stir into skillet. Cook and stir until mixture thickens, about 3 to 4 minutes. Add reserved chicken. Heat. Sprinkle with reserved toasted

HAWAIIAN CURRIED CHICKEN
5 pounds chicken parts
Water
1 lb. salt
3 cups (2 cans, 4 ounces each) shredded coconut, divided
2 cups milk
1/2 cup instant chopped onion
1 tsp instant minced garlic
1/2 cup butter or margarine
4 tsp ground ginger
2 lbs. flour

In a large saucetop place chicken. Add water just to cover. Bring to boiling point. With a slotted spoon skim off foam. Add salt. Simmer, covered, until tender, about 45 minutes. Remove chicken from broth, reserving broth. Cool chicken slightly. Remove meat from bones, cut into 1-inch used, turn the almonds into a small bowl. Arrange the three containers on a tray. Eaters remove the lettuce leaves, spoon portions of the chicken mixture into the centers of them and fold over or roll up in pick-up fashion. If the almonds are served, eaters sprinkle them over the chicken mixture before rolling it in the lettuce leaves. Instead of serving the head of lettuce whole you may, if you prefer, separate the leaves and arrange them around the edge of a shallow bowl, putting the container of chicken mixture in the center.

Sauce Mixture: In a small bowl thoroughly stir together 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 teaspoon chicken bouillon granules, 1/2 teaspoon cornstarch and 2 teaspoons chili powder. Stir in 1/2 cup hot water, keeping smooth. Add 1/2 teaspoon minced ginger root and 1/2 teaspoon minced garlic.

One of the entertainers in a cook's life is creating a good dish by chance. Here's a recent such happening at our house.

Last Christmas a friend sent us a bottle of Vanilla Cordial she had made. Somehow or other it was shown far back in a corner cupboard and forgotten. Six months later we found the cupboard and I cleaned the bottle. Remembering we had a package of black mission figs at hand, we chanced anointing them with the Cordial. The result was delicious. You may want to consider making a batch for serving or giving at holiday time.

VANILLA FIGS
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1/2 cups water
1 vanilla bean, split lengthwise
1 1/2 cups light rum
1 pound black mission figs
In a medium saucepan over low heat stir together the sugars, water and vanilla bean until sugars dissolve; bring to a boil; simmer for 5 minutes. Cool. Stir in the rum. Turn figs into a crock or jar (at least 1 1/2 quarts). Add rum mixture, including the vanilla bean. Cover and let stand at room temperature for at least 2 weeks before serving as an accompaniment to meat or poultry.

coconut. Serve with rice, if desired. Makes 6 portions.

JAMAICAN SHRIMP STEW
1-3rd cup salad oil
1/2 cup instant onion flakes
1/2 teaspoon instant

minced garlic
1/2 cup water
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
2 pounds shrimp.

peeled and deveined
1 can (1 pound) tomatoes, broken up
2 tablespoons parsley flakes
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon thyme leaves
1/2 teaspoon ground red pepper
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Mix onion flakes and minced garlic in water. Let stand 10 minutes to rehydrate. In a large skillet melt butter. Add curry powder and rehydrated seasonings and saute 5 minutes stirring often. Add shrimp, tomatoes, parsley flakes, salt, thyme, red pepper and lemon juice. Cover and cook over moderate heat until shrimp turn pink, about 8 minutes, stirring occasionally. Serve immediately over steamed rice. Makes 6 to 8 portions.

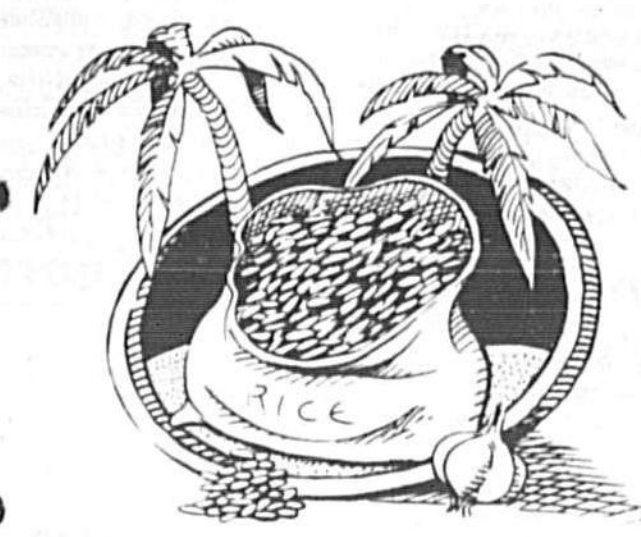

CHO-CHO
(Sweet and sour meat Patties)
1 pound ground lean beef
1/2 pound bulk pork sausage meat, crumbled
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1-1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/2 cup instant chopped onion
1/2 cup water, divided
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/2 cup cider vinegar
2 tablespoons instant soy sauce
1 tablespoon cornstarch

In a large mixing bowl combine beef, sausage meat, salt, ginger, garlic powder and black pepper; mix well, but do not overmix. Shape into patties.

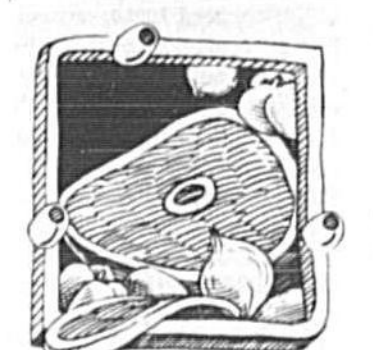

Heat a large skillet. Add patties; brown on both sides. Remove patties; keep warm. Rehydrate chopped onion in one-fourth cup of the water for 10 minutes. Add onion to skillet; saute for 3 minutes. Combine remaining one-half cup water with brown sugar, vinegar, soy sauce and cornstarch; blend well. Pour into skillet. Cook and stir until thickened. Return meat patties to sauce. Simmer for 5 minutes. Makes 6 portions.

It's A Melting Pot Of A Menu For Holidays

GINGER BROWN RICE
3 cups chicken broth
1 cup raw natural brown rice
1 teaspoon ground ginger
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
one-sixteenth ground white pepper
In a medium saucepan, bring broth to boiling. Stir in rice, ginger, salt, garlic powder and white pepper. Reduce heat. Cover and simmer 45 minutes or until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed. Makes 4 portions.

CARNEMECHADA
(Stuffed eye round)
4 pound eye round roast, larded
one-third cup sweet pepper flakes
1/2 cup instant minced onion
1/2 teaspoon instant minced garlic
1 and one-third cups water, divided
1/2 cup finely diced ham
1/2 cup finely diced salt pork
1/2 teaspoon finely chopped pitted green olives
1 teaspoon capers
1 teaspoon oregano leaves
3 tablespoons olive or salad oil, divided
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
2 teaspoons salt
With a sharp knife, make a deep crosswise cut from both ends of roast; extending to the center. Rehydrate sweet pepper flakes, minced onion and garlic in one-third cup of the water for 10 minutes. Combine rehydrated vegetables with ham, salt pork, olives, capers and oregano. Stir in 1 tablespoon of the oil and the vinegar. Stuff as much of the mixture as possible into the cavity of the roast. In a heavy saucetop heat remaining 2 tablespoons oil. Add meat and brown well on all sides. Discard excess fat. Add remaining 1 cup water, salt and any remaining stuffing mixture. Cover and cook in a preheated 325-degree oven two and one-half hours or until meat is tender. Remove meat to serving platter. Strain and thicken gravy, if desired. Makes 8 to 10 portions.

PINEAPPLE CAKE ROLL
2 cups (1 pound 4 ounce each) crushed pineapple
1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar one-third cup shredded coconut
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts
1 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract, divided
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
one-eighth teaspoon ground cloves
4 eggs, separated
two-thirds cup sugar.

of the vanilla extract and the spices; mix well. Spread over bottom of an ungreased 15x10x1-inch jelly roll pan; set aside. In a medium bowl combine remaining pineapple, brown sugar, coconut, nuts, 1 teaspoon of the vanilla extract and the spices; mix well. Spread over bottom of an ungreased 15x10x1-inch jelly roll pan; set aside. In a medium mixing bowl beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually add one-third cup of the sugar. Beat until stiff but not dry; set aside. In a large mixing bowl beat egg yolks until thick and pale yellow. Gradually beat in remaining one-third cup sugar and one-half teaspoon vanilla extract. Gently fold egg whites into egg yolk mixture. Stir flour with baking powder and salt. Gently fold flour mixture into egg mixture. Spread cake batter evenly over pineapple mixture in pan. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Loosen cake around edge. Invert cake on kitchen towel sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Let stand 3 to 4 minutes. Roll, jellyroll fashion. Cool. Garnish with Pineapple Topping.

PINEAPPLE TOPPING
In a small saucepan combine reserved three-fourth cup pineapple juice with 2 tablespoons sugar and 1 tablespoon cornstarch; mix well. Cook and stir over medium heat until clear and thick. Stir in reserved one-half cup crushed pineapple. Cool. Use to garnish top of Cake Roll. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon shredded coconut. Makes 1 cake roll.

BUDIN DE CALABAZA
(Pumpkin Pudding)
2 cups cooked, mashed pumpkin
4 eggs, beaten
two-thirds cup milk
two-thirds cup sugar
one-third cup flour
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon salt
one-eighth teaspoon ground cloves
Combine all ingredients; mix well. Turn into a buttered 8x8x2-inch baking dish. Place in a pan with 1 inch hot water. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven 50 to 60 minutes or until a knife inserted into center comes out clean. Makes 6 portions.

Low Cholesterol Treats Brighten Holiday Season

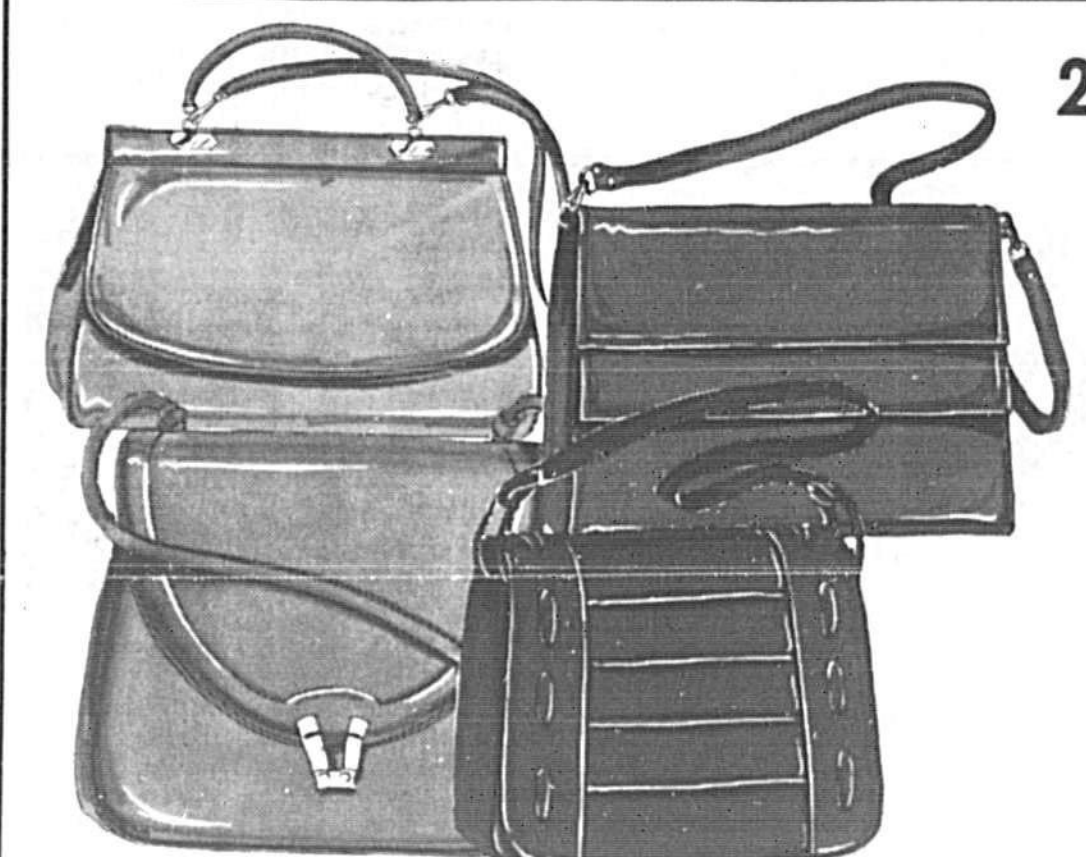

Plan a party all guests can enjoy with plenty of appetizers low in cholesterol: Tuna Pate Loaf, top; Cheese Ball Mimosa

TUNA PATE LOAF
 1/2 cup refrigerated cholesterol-free egg substitute
 1/2 cup skim milk
 2 cups soft bread crumbs (6 slices bread)
 1 small onion, quartered two-thirds cup parsley leaves
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/2 cup dried dill weed
 4 teaspoons lemon juice
 2 cans (8 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna, drained
 In container of electric blender, combine egg substitute, skim milk and bread crumbs. Let stand 15 minutes. Add onion, parsley, salt, dry mustard, pepper, dill weed and lemon juice. Cover and process at high speed until smooth. Remove cover and gradually add tuna, continuing to process until smooth. Pour into oiled 7 1/2 x 3 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in 375 degrees F. oven 45 minutes. Remove from pan and chill. Cut into slices and serve with thinly sliced French bread.

 Yield: 12 appetizer servings.
MUSHROOM TUNA PATE
 Cook 1/2 pound mushrooms, sliced, in 1 tablespoon polyunsaturated margarine for 5 minutes. Add to blender along with onion and parsley.
CHEESE BALL MIMOSA
 1 tablespoon polyunsaturated margarine
 1 cup refrigerated cholesterol-free egg substitute
 1 cup grated Jarlsberg or partially skimmed milk Swiss cheese

 1/2 cup pot cheese
 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento (optional)
 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 In large skillet melt margarine; add egg substitute and cook over medium-low heat until set. Do not stir. Turn out of pan; cool. Push through strainer onto sheet of waxed paper; set aside. In medium bowl mix remaining ingredients; form into ball and roll in sieved egg substitute until completely covered. Garnish with additional pimiento. Serve with Melba toast or vegetable slices.
 Yield: About 2 cups.

Bake A Batch Of Special Brownies For Bicentennial

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
 Associated Press Food Editor
 John Adams, second President of the United States, wrote: "General Washington always asserted and proved that Virginians loved molasses as well as New Englanders did." To help celebrate our Bicentennial in culinary fashion, here's a version of Brownies—America's favorite cookie bar—using that early American ingredient. Although these Brownies have rich chocolate flavor, molasses gives them a deliciously different taste.
BICENTENNIAL BROWNIES
 1/2 cup flour, stir to aerate before measuring
 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 2 1/2 squares (2 1/2 ounces) unwetted chocolate
 1-2nd cup butter or margarine
 2 large eggs
 1 cup sugar
 1-2nd cup light or dark molasses
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts
 Line the bottom of an 8 by 8 inch cake pan with wax paper; grease paper. On another sheet

No Floridians In Running For Cabinet Under Carter

By JOHN VAN GIESEN
 Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Florida was an important state in Jimmy Carter's march to the presidency, but it appears unlikely that it will reward Floridians by appointing any of them to major offices in his administration.
 For one thing, candidates for Cabinet offices such as secretary of state and secretary of defense generally come from Washington, New York and Ivy League universities.
 For another, most of the state's ablest Democratic politicians have other plans. Gov. Reubin Askew, for instance, has said repeatedly that he has no intention of going to Washington.
 House Speaker Donald Tucker, D-Tallahassee, and Atty. Gen. Robert Sherwin, who were strong Carter supporters, are preparing to run for governor in 1978 and cannot afford to leave the state now.
 Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner, a valuable Carter supporter in Florida, might be a long-shot possibility for secretary of agriculture, but it has been reported that Carter is seeking a Midwesterner for that position.
 If so, Conner could still play a key role in helping Carter select a secretary who is acceptable to Florida (and Southern) agricultural interests.
 More likely than top appointments is the possibility that a number of Floridians will gain middle-management positions in the next administration.
 Former state Democratic Chairman Jon Moyle has urged Carter to consider former House Speaker Richard Pettigrew of Miami in putting together a team to reorganize the mammoth federal bureaucracy.
 Pettigrew was the architect of Florida's 1969 reorganization law, which undoubtedly had some impact on Carter as he restructured Georgia state government after he was elected governor in 1970.
 What could well happen is that Carter will tap some Floridians who are not in the public eye but are skilled in fields such as education, health, finance or public administration.
 Jacksonville banker Fred Schultz, another former House speaker, is a possibility. Claud Anderson, who took leave from his position as Gov. Reubin Askew's higher education aide to serve as deputy director of the Carter campaign in Florida, is another possibility.

 Mike Abrams, the young Dade County Democratic executive committee director who ran Carter's campaign in that part of the state, is mentioned as a possible beneficiary of Carter's administration.
 Two press aides who held press relations positions in Carter's campaign may be on their way to Washington. They are Jim Purks, who works for Secretary of State Bruce Scahners, and Walter Wurfel, who works for Sen. Richard Stone, D-Fla.
 Meanwhile, speculation can only mount. James Aphorop, Askew's senior aide, scoffed at society column rumors that he may be Potomac-bound.
 "I haven't had any contacts with them," he said. "They haven't expressed any interest, and I haven't either."
 Thanksgiving came early this year for Odus Kendrick, deputy assistant secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.
 Kendrick opened his office door one day last week to discover that co-workers had given him the bird. There was a giant turkey perched in a crate on his desk.
 Accompanying the creature was a sign reading, "Congratulations. You have been appointed keeper of the great turkey for 1977."
 Kendrick said that after a little probing he discovered the prank was hatched by colleagues who had been working with him to prepare next year's $115 budget.
 He took the prank in good humor. In fact, the turkey was expected to be the guest of honor at Kendrick's Thanksgiving celebration.
 A press release describing Tallahassee author Gloria Jaboda's new book, "Florida: A Bicentennial History," has taken some artistic liberties with the truth.
 The release makes this observation: "Now Cuban-born legislators are addressed as 'Senor' (sic) in Tallahassee while more recent Cuban immigrants contemplate overthrowing Castro."
 As a matter of fact, there are no Cuban-born legislators. Call them "senor" or "senior," but there were four legislative candidates who were born in Havana running in last week's election, and all four lost.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL. For Thursday, November 11, 1976. ARIES (March 21-April 19) Keep domestic problems within the confines of the family today. Outsiders will only complicate matters. TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You'll lose momentum today if you team up with someone whose aims are not in harmony with yours. Select coworkers carefully. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your chances for gains today will come from the sweat of your brow. Don't look for it elsewhere. CANCER (June 21-July 22) You're likely to treat casual acquaintances far more friendly than you will persons you're intimately involved with. Show consideration to all. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) It will be difficult today to keep to yourself something odd in confidence. You may talk to the wrong person. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) In activities today where friends are involved, try to do things that won't cost money. Pleasures with a price tag will be less fun. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your chances for success today look good if something material is at stake. Commercial conditions awaken your clever instincts. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your first ideas are apt to be your best ones today. The longer you deliberate, the less you're likely to appreciate your brainchild. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Someone who offered you something is likely to rescind the proposal if you bring others into the act. Keep it just between yourselves. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You will have to be extremely diplomatic today with business associates, or someone is going to feel they got the short end. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Use your imagination today where your work is concerned. Experiment with new methods. Alternatives could work. PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) Being involved with someone you've recently met, try to learn more about this person. She may not be all she seems.

spades South took his ace and, after a brief period of study and silent prayer, led a trump to dummy's king. He then finessed for East's queen on the way back, picked it up and claimed his grand slam, since he could check his last spade on the king of diamonds. "What a silly bid and silly play," said West. "Who ever heard of bidding a grand slam when you need a finesse?" Actually, seven hearts was the right bid South would make seven if he picked up the queen of trumps. He would only make five if he didn't. Furthermore, West's jump overcall had indicated great length in spades and shortness somewhere else so South was correct in playing for a trump finesse rather than trying for a drop.

ASK THE JACOBY'S. A Florida reader wants to know how to score an unfinished rubber. The answer is that a side with a game is credited with 300 points; a side with a part score on an unfinished game is credited with 50 points. This procedure is the same as in party bridge. "Do you have a question for the experts? Write 'Ask the Jacobys' care of this newspaper. The Jacobys will answer individual questions if stamped, self-addressed envelopes are enclosed. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN."

SEMINOLE HIGH PRINCIPAL DONALD REYNOLDS ADDRESSES VETERANS

Firehouse Site Issue Pressed By Parents

Under pressure from protesting parents, the Seminole County Board voted Wednesday night to deny approval of a request it had never received. Panel members decided to refuse in advance to allow the project in order to "include input from the residents." Kaiser told school board members on Oct. 27 that he rejected a site proposal for a firehouse as a day care center and fire rescue vehicles ruing the scene of a disaster would awaken tots taking their daily naps. McDiyre said and added: "You can't tell us that this isn't going to disturb our kids." The PTA president went on to say that building a fire station at the tentatively approved site would interfere with a heavily used children's recreation area. "If they don't have a place to play, they'll do other things," McDiyre said. "I'm not saying they'll turn into drug pushers or something like that, but if our kids don't have a recreation area, I just don't know what they're going to do." At one point, board member E. C. Harper Jr. chided McDiyre by demanding: "Do you know what the word 'tentative' means? It means it hasn't been done yet." "This was a courtesy granted to Mr. Kaiser to allow a grant to be submitted," Supt. William P. (Bud) Lauer said of the school board's tentative approval. "I don't think there was any intent to give final approval." Fire stations and rescue units, to me, have more life-giving qualities than life-taking qualities," Lauer added, particularly in contrast to several commercial ventures which have created what McDiyre described as unusually heavy traffic conditions on the street bordering the English Estates school. "I was happy as a lark with

Vets Recall The Good And Bad On Their Day

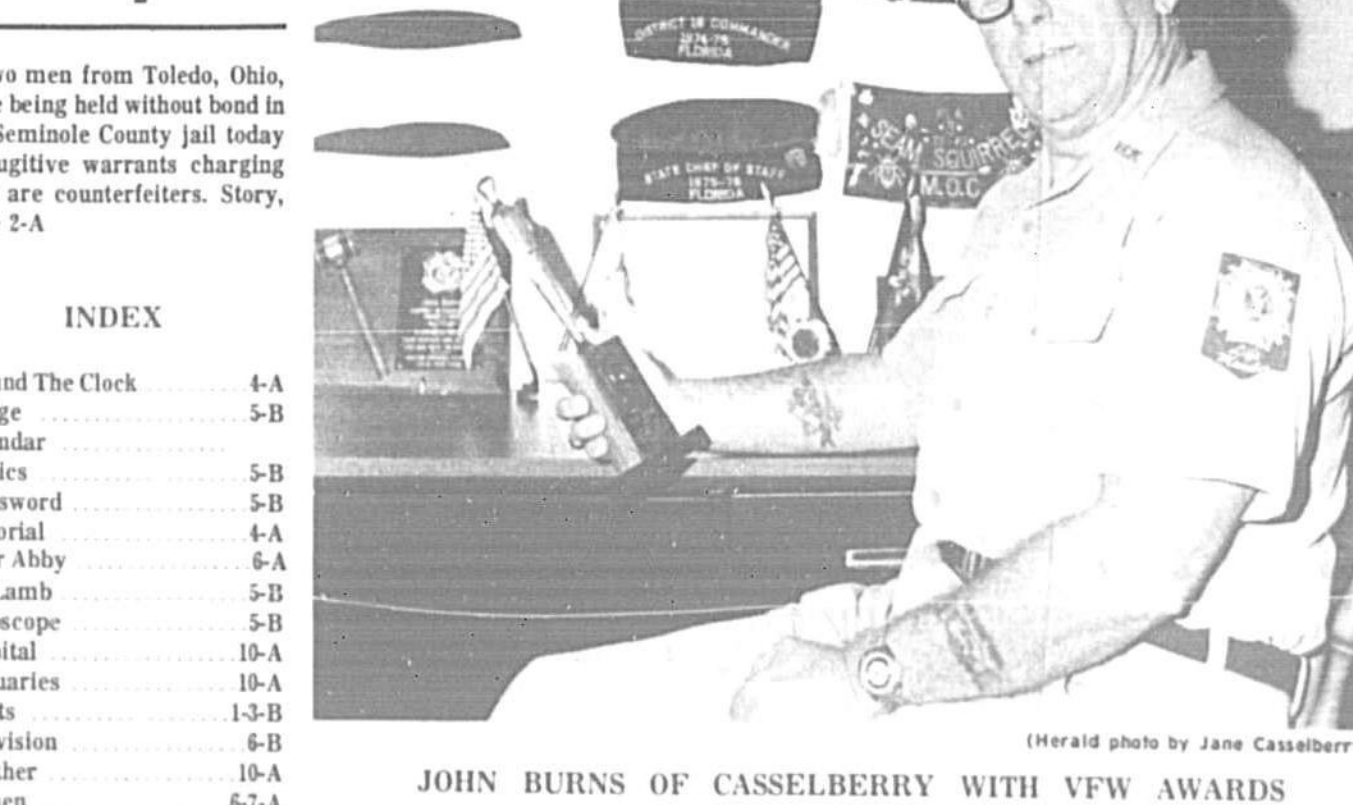

By KRIS NASH. Sanford and Seminole County survivors of Vietnam, Korea and both world wars held their traditional Veterans Day celebration on the shores of Lake Monroe today, despite the fact that the official holiday was nearly three weeks ago. Hanks of veterans - old and young, disabled and non-disabled - marched through Memorial Park, doggedly resisting the pressure of modern society which has switched the holiday to the fourth Monday in October so it will fit more conveniently into the working calendar. The spirit of the celebration epitomizes the situation many older, retired veterans feel they face each day as a busy, complex world threatens to pass them by, grinding away many of their benefits and privileges between the mighty millions of its bureaucracy. "The veterans have a lot of good benefits, no doubt about that," says a retired Navy master chief petty officer. "But they're being eroded - gradually. And erosion plus inflation, well, that's double." Florida has the largest retired veteran population in the country, disabled and non-disabled, including 75,000-100,000 in the Orange - Seminole - Brevard - Osceola -

JOHN BURNS OF CASSELBERRY WITH VFW AWARDS

In Casselberry Case Election Trial Date Set

By DONNA ESTES. Herald Staff Writer. It will be 9 a.m. Nov. 28th before citizens of Casselberry will know whether the names of seven or 13 candidates will be on the ballot Dec. 7. Three seats on the city council will be filled by the election. The suit names as party defendants the City of Casselberry, Seminole Elections Supervisor Camilla Bruce, and prospective candidates Star, Claude L. Mason, Gerald Haskel, Barbara Christensen - wife of Mayor Gerald Christensen - and former City Councilman Charles Glascock, who resigned last month - and incumbent Councilman Sal Orlando. The plaintiffs are seeking a declaratory decree, which, Judge Leffer explained, permits a matter to be brought before the court before damage has occurred. The suit says that if the six new persons are permitted to have their names placed on the ballot Wilson will be injured by forcing
