Ford Agrees To Accept Defense Cuts

PRESIDENT GERALD FORD

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford has signaled his readiness to accept congressional cuts in the defense budget while his administration seeks to prune spending by other agencies in the effort to curb inflation.

Ford gave wage earners and bureaucrats the same advice for dealing with the double-digit inflation: tighten your belts, "watch every penny."

Administration aides said that as part of that belt-tightening process, the President would not resist defense spending cuts, which originally had drawn White House criticism.

At his first presidential news conference, Ford re-emphasized the drive to economize as his major inflation-fighting weapon, and underscored his opposition to wage and price controls.

... Wage and price controls are out, period," the President said.

The nationally broadcast and televised news conference Wednesday was dominated by questions about inflation and about the possible prosecution of Richard M. Nixon in the Watergate case.

Ford said he subscribes to what he described as the general American view that Nixon should not face further action. But he said it would be unwise and untimely for him to make any commitment now on what he will do if the former president is indicted.

He also said he will make the final decision, and does not rule out the possibility of an eventual presidential pardon should Nixon be prosecuted. "It is an option and a proper option for any president," he said.

The President said that to deal with inflation, the administration already has announced plans for a $5.5-billion budget cut during the year that ends next June 30.

Ford said that will use the strain on the money markets, and in addition "I think it will convince people who might have some doubts that we mean business."

In addition, the administration is collecting ideas from labor, management, agriculture and other areas to prepare for his economic summit conference Sept. 27 and 28, he said.

The approach he spurred was virtually every part of the budget for fall, economic coordinator Kenneth Hush said in an interview.

The administration is probing virtually every part of the budget for fall, economic coordinator Kenneth Hush said in an interview.

Some Democrats have complained that Ford's budget cutting plans would bear down on domestic social programs. But Ford said he wouldn't spare the Pentagon.

Nixon used to stand before a blue velvet drape hung from iron pipes. So far as a TV viewer could see, he might have been standing anywhere.

Ford stood before an open door that gave TV watchers a glimpse down the carpeted marble hallway leading from the East Room to the state dining room.

His press secretary, Jerald F. Terhorst, says he expects Ford to hold news conferences about twice a month, but not necessarily before live cameras and microphones.

The contrast between Ford's news conference debut and similar appearances by Nixon was pronounced, especially considering the shared setting of the White House East Room.

Big News: No News

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford smiles easily, speaks softly and talks with his hands.

Mostly, that's what Americans learned from watching Ford's television-radio news conference Wednesday.

The big news was that Ford had no big news to announce. For the first time in more than half-a-dozen years, Americans apparently have a President who is willing to hold news conferences for the simple sake of opening himself up for questions on topics of current interest.

That was the original purpose of presidential news conferences — but one never accepted as valid by Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon's press secretary, Ronald L. Ziegler, often said his boss viewed question and answer meetings with newsmen as opportunities to communicate what he had on his mind. Ziegler repeatedly rejected suggestions that his boss should be available for questioning regularly, even when he had nothing special to say.

Ford's press secretary, Jerald F. Terhorst, says he expects Ford to hold news conferences about twice a month, but not necessarily before live cameras and microphones.

Lake Mary Officials In Budget Time Bind

Lake Mary officials rushed today to advertise a public hearing on a budget they haven't finalized after City Atty. Tom Freeman told councilmen Wednesday night, according to the city charter, the legal advertisement must give 14 day public notice of the Sept. 15 public hearing.

Freeman said the ad must include "a general summary of the proposed budget" but the figures can be corrected later "any time you want."

Mayor Margie Hess said revenues for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1 are estimated at $170,000 but expenditure proposals aren't complete because not all city departments have submitted budget requests.

Mrs. Hess set council work sessions to complete the budget for 7:30 p.m. Sept. 5 and 10:30 a.m. Sept. 7. And said she'll seek a 10 per cent contingency fund in the new budget and asked city departments to pare expense proposals.

Council tabled appointment of a replacement for resigned councilman John Norden until the Sept. 9 regular meeting after councilmen Delores Lash and Harry Terry said they hadn't received some or any of the letters submitted by three men interested in the post which will be filled in the December city election.

Seminole Junior College music director Bert Perinichief, Board of Adjustments member William Darrener and ball bondsman Lee Wheeler have indicated interest in receiving the appointment.

A motion by councilmen Lou Blankenship and Terry was approved calling for consideration of all three men and action on the appointment Sept. 9.

Council voted to grant a temporary "rough grading" permit to Scott Electronics Inc. so site preparation can begin for a $2.5 million, 150,000 square foot plant on a 45-acre tract at the Interstate Four-Lake Mary Boulevard interchange.

Site plans for the new industry, to employ 1,600 persons and reach $11 million in annual payroll by the end of 1976, were referred to the city engineer for review.

The city building official was instructed to get a list of contingencies required by the county when the site was zoned industrial before it became part of the new city.

Mayor Hess said the city has no written commitments from developers that the contingencies will be met.

Schools Promote Harris

By MARK WEINZ
Herald Staff Writer

After an eight month controversy the Seminole County School Board promoted Roger Harris to the assistant superintendent of the county school system.

Harris, the former director of purchasing, was first recommended for the position in February by School Supt. William P. Lauer. The board rejected him.

But board members said "there is more to the rejection than meets the eye." Sources told the Herald the Harris promotion was stonewalled because of a covert battle between Lauer and the board over the chain of command inside the district school office.

The victim's wife, Peggy Sue, 44, was arrested at the couple's 2201 S. Park Ave. home and charged with first degree murder in the stabbing death of her 34-year-old husband.

Russ, a well known ham radio operator and local radio repairman, was pronounced dead at the scene of the modest rental home by Seminole County Medical Examiner G.V. Garay. An autopsy was scheduled for today.

Investigators were first informed of the incident by a ham radio operator who called police headquarters and said he overheard a conversation on his multi-band radio that there was a stabbing at the Russ home.

A citizens band radio was found switched on in the living room of the couple's cement block house, Sanford detective Capt. Charles Fagan said.

Russ was a citizens band enthusiast who went by the call name of "Two Legs"—he had a wooden leg—and was well known on local air-waves according to other amateur radio operators.

There were signs of a struggle in the blood-spattered living room and James Jr., the Russ' three-year-old son was in the house when police arrived, according to Fagan.

The youngster was taken to a friend's home shortly after police arrived and investigators said they had not determined if the young boy had actually witnessed the death of his father.

Sanford Wife Held In Husband's Death

A Sanford couple's family fight was broadcast over a ham radio set early this morning. When police arrived, they found the operator, James A. Russ Sr., slumped dead in a living room chair.

Joiner Joins Prison Pals

If curiosity kills the cat, how about the escaped prisoner who sneaks a visit to jail to see if folks are still looking for him?

Lyndon Joiner is alive and kicking today, but he now knows the answer to his question—folks were still looking for him.

Joiner, 22, threw Sanford and the Auto Train into a tizzy last year when he disappeared from custody at the county health clinic while waiting for a dentist in an unguarded waiting room.

The prisoner, who was in jail on a pre-sentence investigation after pleading guilty to two reduced charges of attempted rape, prompted a 24-hour manhunt in and around the train terminal.

Exactly one day less than a year after his break for freedom, Joiner strolled into the county jail and asked a clerk if any warrants were still out for his arrest.

"Wait a minute," replied passing Deputy Fred Johnson, who then put the collar on Joiner.

Late Wednesday, after prosecutor Bill Heffernan got Joiner to confess he didn't get on the train at all, but simply hitch hiked down U.S. 17-92 to Orange County, a circuit court jury took exactly 15 minutes to find him guilty.

Mexican Guerrillas Holding Father-In-Law Of President

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (AP)—Police and troops searched through Guadalajara and Jalisco state today for the 83-year-old father-in-law of Mexico's president and the guerrillas who kidnaped him. Officials would not comment on a report that the kidnapers demanded $1.6 million and the release of "political prisoners" in exchange for white-haired Jose Guadalupe Zuno Hernandez.

The kidnaping on a busy street in the middle of the nation's second largest city was the most daring exploit in a long string of guerrilla activities in Mexico in the past two years.

It put President Luis Echeverria in a tough spot since he has repeatedly said in the past year that the government would not negotiate with kidnapers. The guerrillas have killed several persons when their ransom demands were not met.

The police and the army set up roadblocks at major junctions and on the highways leading out of Guadalajara after Zuno was seized at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at one of the city's busiest intersections, a few blocks from the Jalisco state government headquarters.

Witnesses said four men armed with pistols and sub-machine guns pulled the old man and his chauffeur from their car, beat the chauffeur to the ground, bundled Zuno into another car and sped away, spraying the area with tear gas.

One report said notes left in various parts of the city identified the kidnapers as members of the People's Armed Revolutionary Front, which kidnaped U.S. Consul-General Terrance G. Leahy last year. The state government denied this, but the denial was suspect since state officials issued a false denial of a similar report when Leahy was kidnaped.

MOVING DAY FOR SCHOOL Sabal Point Elementary School faculty moved Wednesday from Forest City School to new facility on Wekiwa Springs Road, which they will share with teachers and pupils of Woodlands School until it is completed. From left, Jane Yeackle, Nancy Campbell, Nancy Gunnitt, Karen Fox and Sandra Luce.

NATION IN BRIEF

Lincoln Portrait Replaced

WASHINGTON (AP) — A brooding portrait of Abraham Lincoln has been returned to its setting over the mantle in the State Dining Room at the White House on orders from President Ford.

The portrait by George P.A. Healy, which shows Lincoln resting his chin on his hand, was removed to a less prominent location in the East Room during the Nixon administration.

Aiken Donates Papers

RURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken has turned over more than 60 file cabinets of his personal papers to the University of Vermont.

The Vermont Republican, who will retire later this year, said the papers date back to when he first became a senator in 1940. He said some items were deleted because they dealt with personal difficulties of his constituents and have no historical value.

The university plans to create a $250,000 fellowship in the name of the Senate's senior member. Aiken plans to spend January and February at the school making tape recordings of his experiences and meeting with students. Aiken, 82, began his public career in 1920.

Amnesty For Calley?

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — J. Houston Gordon, an attorney fighting former Army Lt. William L. Calley's conviction in the My Lai massacre, says amnesty should be granted to Calley if it is given to draft evaders.

Rocky In White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller, who has been seeking to be elected president for about 15 years, slept in the White House on Wednesday night.

The former New York governor and his wife were invited to stay overnight by President and Mrs. Ford following a party for Cabinet members.

Offered a choice, the Rockefellers picked the Lincoln bedroom. Mrs. Rockefeller said she hoped to see the ghost of Abraham Lincoln, which is said to appear occasionally.

Voter Blame

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has suggested that the voters will blame the Democratic Congress along with the Republican administration for the nation's economic woes. Ford said at a news conference that economic problems are a joint responsibility. But Democratic National Chairman Robert Strauss said the party will stress the economy as an issue in the fall congressional election campaign.

Jaworski Mum On Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski has drawn even tighter the curtain of silence surrounding his deliberations on the case of Richard M. Nixon. After President Ford said he will render the final judgment in any prosecution of his predecessor, Jaworski and his staff not only declined comment but even refused to entertain questions.

Nine Plywood Mills Close

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Nine plywood mills have closed or will close at least temporarily and another 25 have curtailed production in a cost-price squeeze that appears to be sweeping the industry. Some 2,500 plywood mill employees have been thrown out of work within the past week, and another 1,500 are on less than a full work week, says Bronson Lewis, executive vice president of the American Plywood Association.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Cosmonauts' Visit Set

HOUSTON (AP) — Russian cosmonauts Alexei Leonov and Valeri Kubasov, prime crewmen for the joint U.S.-Russian space mission July 15, will make their third visit to the Johnson Space Center Sept. 9 for three weeks of training.

Six Russian backup crewmen will also make the journey, their second visit here, a National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said Wednesday. Plans call for the Russian and American spacecraft to launch separately, attempt to dock in earth orbit, then return to earth separately.

Soviets Fire N-Bomb

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — A powerful nuclear explosion was blasted underground today in the Soviet Novaya Zemlya area. Prof. Marcus Bladh, head of the Uppsala Seismological Institution, reported.

The explosion was measured at 6.6 on the Richter scale. Bladh said: "An earthquake with a 7 reading would be a major one."

The explosion was probably the first multimegaton blast since the Soviets and the United States agreed in July to a ban prohibiting underground explosions above a 150-kiloton level.

Indians Holding Station

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Indians who captured Milwaukee's old U.S. Coast Guard station three years ago still stubbornly hold their enclave in a fashionable neighborhood on the Lake Michigan shoreline. But they have missed emotions about the takeover. "It's been a moral victory; that doesn't mean anything as far as what it is doing for the community," said Reynold Denny, new a youth program director for the city's Indian Urban Affairs Council. "It was never our idea to keep it." Denny said the $200,000 facility between county parklands and the exclusive Milwaukee Yacht Club. "We wanted to highlight the lack of facilities in our area."

Dorfman Blasts Charter Group

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer

ALTIMONTE SPRINGS — Councilman Dan Dorfman today denied any plan to name ex-mayor Lawrence Swafford city manager and blasted the charter study advisory committee for "attempting to play God" by thrusting its will on the people of this city.

"Who died and left them God?" Dorfman asked. "They did their job. Why are they afraid to let the people decide what type of government they want?"

City council's refusal earlier this week to place the advisory committee's proposed new charter on the November general election for ratification by the people, stirred speculation that Dorfman planned to move Swafford into the city manager job permitted by the current charter.

The proposed new charter does not permit council to hire a city manager. It calls instead for a strong mayor-type government. Council by a vote of 3-2 decided to place on the ballot instead a choice of types of government — strong mayor or city manager — with a referendum on the November election.

"The people last December rejected strong mayor and political boss type government," Dorfman said.

Chattanooga Hit By Big Explosion

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Half a downtown block was left in flaming rubble today after an explosion ripped through a ghetto area — leveling two night spots and a church — and injuring at least 13 persons.

"I'm sure that it was not a bomb, but I don't know just exactly what caused it," Fire Chief Jerry Hett said of the blast.

Police Chief Jerry Pitts said, "There were no deaths." The early morning blast was heard four miles away.

A customer at a nearby restaurant said the two night spots leveled.

Culpepper Calls Seminole Discipline Best In State

Stuart Culpepper, Republican candidate for reelection to the Seminole County School Board, says that the issues he advocated prior to his 1970 election have all been or are being attained.

Culpepper praised the discipline policies in the local schools, calling it the best in the state and perhaps the nation. He added that an increased educational effort in the primary grades, especially regarding pupil-teacher ratios, has been undertaken and that an increased effort has also been made towards vocational education.

He said he has encouraged and given the citizens an opportunity to support a better educational program, pointing with pride to the successful millage election which made possible increased state support for the best building

DAN DORFMAN

Sorry 'Bout That, 'Guv'

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Ben Hill Griffin, candidate for the Democratic nomination as lieutenant governor, today accused Gov. Reubin Askew of being "soft on crime."

"There was fire everywhere," said Patricia Ann Weller, one of the first at the scene. "The buildings were just leveled."

"There were three or four people scattered in the street, blown out on the street, blown out or carried out," said Police Lt. Herbert Parker.

The fire was contained to four buildings but the flames kept emergency workers away from the rubble for several hours.

"Dorfman said, referring to the defeat of 20-year veteran politician Swafford at the polls by former policeman Norman Floyd. "The administration of Altamonte Springs should be taken out of the political arena and a city administrator appointed," Dorfman said.

Dorfman said he will not try to influence the people on any ratification, are meeting tonight at 7:30 at the Mel Schwartz home, 205 Spring Oaks Boulevard with supporters.

Some committee members have challenged Dorfman's remarks, noting that the people of the city could decide their destiny by either voting for or

Altamonte Denying Homes Sewer Ties

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — City officials, despite threats from the state Department of Pollution Control (DPC), are still denying connection to the city sewer plant by the Orange County Plantation Estates development.

Mayor Norman Floyd said he told DPC officers in a Wednesday meeting that the city will not serve the out-of-county area when service is being denied to the northern section of Altamonte Springs.

"They said I would be in violation of DPC orders," Floyd said, "and I answered that our decision is firm."

"DPC is now working on a compromise," Floyd said. Floyd earlier this week threatened to "shut off the valve" connecting Eatonville to the city's sewer plant after state officials granted Southern Gulf Utilities' request to pipe sewage through Eatonville lines to Altamonte.

"The government is going to have to take up the slack caused by federal agencies' wasting time and fooling around with this project," he said. "Protecting the environment is a costly process. The federal government has said the Little Wekiva River must be protected, but as long as they keep delaying the sewer plant construction, they are not giving much protection," he said.

Culpepper said the school board has effected better and more objective planning with definitive long range plans based on sound objective data and the public, especially teach-parent organizations, has been encouraged to become more active in school affairs.

He noted better communication has been achieved with the county commission. "My objective during the next four years will be to continue these programs and try to engender happy, competent and effective teams at each school."

Weed Harvester Debated

By HEATHER HENRY Herald Staff Writer

An estimated 200 Central Florida residents sweated it out in Seminole High School's auditorium Wednesday night as a public hearing on the haycinn problem in Lake Monroe turned into a debate on pesticides between Federal and state officials.

However, meeting organizer Delbert Euga termed the meeting a success because "it got to the heart of the problem."

Euga complained that the national situation to find the sound meter with the best record of standing a court test, Drummond said.

As passed, the ordinance prohibits any and all vehicle exhaust modification systems, and generally bans amplified horns in residential areas between 10 p.m. and 1:30 a.m.

Drummond said he didn't like the necessity of the law any more than anyone else. "I think it would be much better to avoid the necessity of these ordinances by having the cities avoid high density planning and zoning."

DR. L. E. LAMB Excess Water Is Eliminated

DEAR DR. LAMB — Do the things we eat or drink affect our urine? Sometimes it is so clear, sometimes very cloudy. Why?

DEAR READER — Yes. Just think of urine as the filtered out products that your body doesn't need. This does not mean it is toxic or harmful or dirty. If you drink more water than you need the excess is filtered out of your blood "into the urine. The water in the urine is no different than the rest of the water in your blood. Excess minerals are also eliminated. A good example here is phosphates. An increased amount of phosphates in the urine increases the cloudiness.

Phosphates are essential to the body. Compounds of phosphates are the main way your energy system works. Excess water soluble vitamins, such as vitamin C, are simply eliminated through the kidney.

Urea is a compound made by hooking together two ammonia molecules. You produce more of it when you eat lots of meat or in general more protein than your body needs.

Your urine is dark or clear mostly on the basis of phosphates and how much water you

Rainfall In Midwest 'Too Little, Too Late'

By LOUISE COOK Associated Press Writer Too little, too late. That's the consensus about the recent rains that fell in the Midwest.

The experts say the moisture may help the soybean crop, but it's too late to do much about corn. Soybean and corn are two of the main crops in the Midwest. The crop is due to be harvested in the next few weeks. The price of feed goes up, so does the price of milk, poultry and meat.

No one is really sure exactly how much supermarket prices will rise, or when the boost will hit. The government already has upped its estimate of 1974 price increases, saying that at the end of this year, food will cost about 15 per cent more than it did in 1973. Earlier, the officials estimated a 12 per cent jump this year.

Americans may get a helping hand from Europe. Petrus Lardinois, agriculture commissioner of the European Commission Market, announced on Wednesday that the market will reduce purchases of U.S. corn 10 per cent in the coming year, leaving a greater supply for Americans.

"We think that when you have to cut back in your own consumption, especially of corn, that it is normal that we try also to do in our agricultural policy about the same," said Lardinois, who was in Washington, D.C., at the invitation of Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz.

The next corn harvest report is due until Sept. 11. The last report, issued on Aug. 12, said that the corn crop would be about 4.97 billion bushels, 12 per cent below last year's harvest. The U.S. Department of Agriculture said Monday that a special mid-month review of the situation showed that rain during the first half of August "did not promote significant gains in corn production although soybeans could benefit from the moisture."

State and regional officials contacted in an Associated Press survey agreed, adding that the rain might help prepare the soil for fall wheat planting.

A spokesman for the Missouri Department of Agriculture said farmers in 20 counties have applied for low-cost federal loans because of damage to crops.

Neal Gunkele, assistant to the Illinois agriculture director, said rains have helped the soybeans — which are planted and harvested later than corn. But he predicted that the yield would be 15 per cent less than last year.

Reports from Iowa, the nation's top corn producer, showed earlier that more than half the crop was destroyed in some areas and officials said the rain came too late to help farmers recover.

Muse Inspires Blazer Defeat (With Apologies To E.A. Poe)

Once upon a Wednesday dreary, fans were wondering drunk and chery.
Over many a hope and promise of a Southern loss — wined they mused, very softly, suddenly there came a tapping.
As of someone gently rapping, rapping at their touchdown door.
"T is some rookie!" they muttered, tapping at our touchdown door —
Only this and nothing more."
Ah, distinctly, I recall, the Southmen took the fourth down ball.
And Jennings twice, they saw, thrashed his form through Blazer men.
Eagerly they called the defense — vainly they had cheered the defense.
From their seats, both ladies and gents — Gents for ticket's recompense.
For the one-time home victors, whom the fans call "Human Fence"
Ricca, Ross, McElath and more.
Presently, South rush grew stronger, hesitating then no longer.
Huarie to Harvey up the middle, put the Southmen on the board.
And so quickly they came tapping, tapping at the touchdown door.
The fans were stunned, defense opened wide the door — Seven points and 10-36 more.
Deep into that darkness peering, long they stood there hardly hearing.
Doubting, dreaming dreams no fan ever dared to dream before;
But Blazer defense was broken, and then the action point was but a token.
And then a field goal made three more.
This the scoreboard recorded, Blazers seven, Memphis three more. Only this and nothing more.

Back onto the field scurrying, all the fans quickly learning.
Of another Southern tapping, some folks quickly discerning.
Surely said they, surely not at our number one defense.
Let us see, then what the threat is, and this Memphis team explore.
Let our fears be still a moment and this mystery explore —
T is Huarie to Marshall through the door.
Eighteen points and room for more.
Then the defense flung the stoppers, with many a groan and shutter.
But past them marched Willie Spencer through that swinging touchdown door.
Not the least obeisance made he; not a minute stopped or stayed he;
But, with skill though yet a rookie — through the Southmen's TD door —
Stammered the ball just beyond that door. Eight more points the scoreboard hoarded.
And the Blazers, never hushing, still are passing, still are rushing.
Over the strong Memphis line, just before their TD door.
And the fans have shouts of demons, a "Touchdown!" call is merely dreaming.
And the Southmen swarm over Davis, looking to have his football soar.
And from out of the secondary came Memphis and intercepted that soar.
26-18 final score. Only this and nothing more.

Southmen Rip Blazers

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Until Wednesday night, no team in the World Football League ever had run for more than 115 yards against the Florida Blazers.
But John Harvey of the Memphis Southmen did it single-handed, romping for 137 yards and one touchdown in leading his team to a 26-18 win over the Eastern Division-leading Blazers.
"This is by far the best game Harvey has had," Memphis Coach John McVay said of his young running back from the Canadian Football League. "Willie Spencer is hurt so we decided to start Harvey and he really came through."
Harvey scored the first time he touched the ball in the opening quarter, going 49 yards straight through the middle of the Blazer defense, which entered the game leading the WFL in limiting opponents to a little more than 114 rushing yards per game.

"Actually, I was proud of the whole team," McVay said. "We told them they'd have to be ready because Florida is a prestige football team. Everybody was fired up and played with enthusiasm."
Harvey accounted for more than 100 of his yards in the first half while James Jennings added another 37 behind a powerful offensive line that handled the Blazer defense with ease.
Spencer, who did not play college football, saw limited action but did manage a 1-yard touchdown plunge late in the fourth quarter.
Other Memphis scores came on a 25-yard pass from John Huarie to wide receiver Edward Marshall in the second quarter and a 47-yard field goal by Bob Etter in the opening period.

Florida, which never led during the game, scored on a 22-yard pass from Bob Davis to tight end Greg Latta in the first quarter and on a 18-yard pass from Davis to 10-year veteran Gary Collins in the fourth period. Les Perry also added a 32-yard second quarter field goal for the Blazers.
Two Florida drives were stopped by miscues. The Blazers marched 54 yards in the first quarter only to have running back Jim Strong fumble at the Memphis 26. In the waning minutes of the game, Davis was intercepted at the 39-yard line and a 47-yard field goal by Bob Etter in the opening period.

Blazer Coach Jack Pardee's strategy for the game called for Davis to attack the Memphis secondary, which trails the league in pass defense. Davis succeeded, completing 24 of 36 passes for 328 yards, but it wasn't good enough.
The loss dropped the Blazers to 6-2 on the season. But the Florida team maintained a 1-game edge over New York, which lost to Houston, in the Eastern Division. The win gave Memphis an identical 6-2 record and kept the Southmen in the running in the tough Central Division.
The Blazers announced a total attendance of 17,128 with 15,746 paid.

Catfish Wins Number 20

Elsewhere in the American League, Cleveland beat Kansas City 7-1, New York blanked Minnesota 5-0, Detroit edged California 2-1, Texas tripped Baltimore 4-3 and Chicago shut Oakland 6-1.
Hunter joined Boston's Luis Tiant as the only 20-game winners in the majors on the strength of a pair of home runs by Reggie Jackson.
Jackson's first homer of the night, a 420-foot shot into the right-center field bullpen leading off the seventh inning against Jim Colborn, 8-11, gave Hunter a 2-1 lead. Jackson then led off the ninth with his 26th of the year, a booming 450-foot blast to right.
Hunter, 20-10, got ninth-inning relief help from Paul Lindblad and Rolfe Fingers, 16-13, posting his sixth victory in his last seven decisions.
The victory boosted the A's lead in the American League West to 5½ games over the second-place Kansas City Royals, 4-16, untied it.

Moses Signs With Utah

WASHINGTON (AP) — Moses Malone has finally signed a contract to play for the Utah Stars of the American Basketball Association, so sources say, ending a three-year search that began in Petersburg, Va., this spring, about the time the superstar was about to graduate from high school.
Malone, 19, who lingered on the threshold of indecision for several days before signing a grant-in-aid to attend the University of Maryland, again kept reporters by the hundreds guessing while he considered whether to become the first youth ever to bypass college, going straight from schoolboy basketball to the pros.
Malone, according to an official of the University of Maryland who preferred to remain anonymous, late Wednesday affixed his signature to a lucrative contract offered by the ABA club.

CASSELLBERRY — A five-man team has been appointed by the city council to negotiate the knotty problems involved in the proposed annexation of Lake Kathryn mobile home rental park, east of U.S. 17-82 and north of Seminola Boulevard.
 Council Wednesday night named Mayor Bill Grier, City Mgr. Harry Hug, City Engineer B.C. Conklin, City Atty. Kenneth McIntosh and Utility Director John Lane to negotiate the issue with Jack Cooper, a development principal.
 Areas of negotiation are Cooper's proposal that the city waive $40,000 due the utility system under a five-year contract for sewer and water connection fees for 250 mobile home sites and utility lines within the development to meet city standards.
 The city is asking in return that the property be annexed, that the developer build a $55,000 to $60,000 dam at the northeast end of Lake Kathryn to city specifications and deed a new fire station site to the city.
 Under the old contract with the former owners of the water and sewer utility, the deadline for Cooper's firm to update the lines and connect the 250 sites at the favorable $160 per unit rate is Sept. 26. After that date, if negotiations are not successful, Cooper's company must pay $750 connection fee per unit or a total of $187,500.
 By annexing to the city Cooper's park will escape the 1.5 mill county tax levy for fire and sewer utility, the deadline for the city to better serve the Seminola Sites and the Colmanades subdivisions.
 In other business, council: — Approved the purchase of 7,000 feet of 10-inch sewer line to connect the relocated Wilson lift station to the sewer treatment plant. Cost was estimated at $18,000.
 — Instructed Conklin to determine a temporary solution to flooding problems from Sunset Drive onto Oakwood Drive. A permanent drainage solution is to be included in the paving of the street in 1975.
 Council continued its effort in a work session to cut the proposed $1.78 million budget deficit was $80,000 for a city hall addition. The council opted instead to rent space for the utility department.

Miami
 Police said officer Lenora Hudson, 27, a traffic accident investigator, was flagged down Wednesday by the man, Ruben Laska Cortez, 20, who told her in broken English that he wanted to go back to Puerto Rico.
 Officer Hudson said she started off to take the man to the police station to turn him over to social workers when he pulled a gun and ordered her to drive north. Police said their initial reports that Miss Hudson was bringing Cortez in as a prisoner were incorrect.
 Miss Hudson said the man took her gun away, emptied it, and then took away her portable police radio.
 She said he forced her to drive to Pompano Beach, 35 miles north of Miami, where Cortez' gun accidentally discharged when he tried to place it underneath the seat of the car.
 Police said that the man returned Miss Hudson's gun to her and tossed his own .38 caliber revolver out the window.
 Miss Hudson said she then flagged down a passing patrol car and Cortez was taken into custody.
 Police said Cortez, of San Sebastian, P.R., was charged with false imprisonment, carrying a concealed firearm, aggravated assault and with being in possession of a firearm in commission of a felony.
 Police said neither Miss Hudson nor Cortez, who gave no reason for his actions, were injured in the incident.

Muntzing: Is Gerald Lewis Running For State Comptroller Or Clown?
 TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Republican candidate William Muntzing says he wonders whether a Democratic opponent is "running for the dignified office of comptroller or for circus clown."
 Muntzing made the comment Wednesday in response to former state Sen. Gerald Lewis' plan to spend the night in front of Comptroller Fred Dickinson's office.
 Lewis said he would spend 24 hours in front of the office waiting for Dickinson to respond to his offer to withdraw if Dickinson "clears his name" by testifying before a federal grand jury in Tampa.
 "Trying to hang out overnight in front of the comptroller's office is more than undignified — it's childish," Muntzing said.
 In a news conference, Lewis attacked Dickinson for reportedly taking the 5th Amendment when appearing before the grand jury in May.
 He said Dickinson should withdraw from the race or resign his office if he is not willing to waive his rights.
 The panel has indicted Dickinson's former law partner, Frederick Prior, and Dickinson's personal secretary, Mamie Mitchell, on charges of lying about the comptroller's financial interests.
 "If Dickinson accepts Lewis' offer, it is unlikely that he could schedule a grand jury appearance and have the panel complete its investigations by the Sept. 10 primary.
 Muntzing said if Lewis "can't campaign on a positive basis, he ought to get out of the race."
 "Like a broken record, I'll have to say it again: Get off Bud's back."

Road To Miss America Starts In Orlando

Every young girl dreams of becoming Miss America, and the girl who is selected Miss Orlando Pageant queen could be the next Miss America, says Noreen Renier, the vivacious chairman of public for the forthcoming Miss Orlando Scholarship Pageant.

Now is the time to enter the pageant and make those dreams of winning fame, career opportunities and scholarship money a reality, urges Ms. Renier.

The first contestant to enter the pageant is a real "Darling," — 18-year-old Miss Darling Desiree Ghivizzani, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ghivizzani of Orlando. A 1971 graduate of Colonial High School, Darling is attending Valencia Junior College, studying drama. She is also a character on the Bozo show, Cousin Em.

NOREEN RENIER

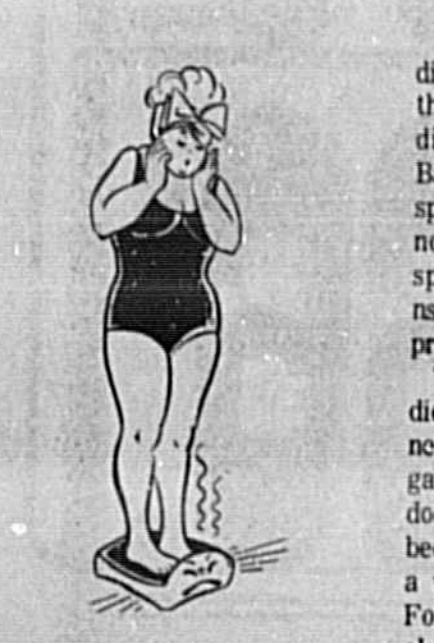

To qualify for the Miss Orlando Scholarship Pageant, young women in the Orlando area, including Seminole County, must be between the ages of 18 and 26 on the Labor Day holiday. High school graduates by Labor Day, and must never have been married.

Application forms may be obtained at Camelot Studios, 1350 North Orange Ave., Wintergate Square Bldg., Suite 10, Winter Park. The finals will be held Nov. 16, at the Sheraton Twin Towers convention center, Florida Center. Deadline for applications is Oct. 15.

Poise, beauty and talent are the three major requirements. Each contestant will be judged in evening gown, in swimsuit and in the presentation of her talent.

Individual young women may submit their names as entries in the pageant, or civic and social organizations in the area may sponsor a candidate. The Miss Orlando Scholarship Pageant is an official preliminary of the Miss America Pageant which places its greatest stress on education and is the number one source of scholarship funds for women in the country.

Diets Sabotaged By Loved Ones

Willing spirits tend to blame diet failures on weak flesh, but the trouble may lie within the dieter's family instead. Bartiatric physicians (those who specialize in weight control) now say that "sabotaging spouses"—and parents—constitute one of the most serious problems in weight control.

Typical cases show that the dieter is able to lose the necessary weight, but rapidly gains it back. On investigation, doctors learn that patients have been liberally piled with food by a wife or husband or parent. For one reason or other, not always easily apparent, they can't live with their newly slender partners and make very effort to fatten them up again.

An article appearing in the September issue of the Reader's Digest reports that in a survey of 238 obesity specialists in the U.S., 213 declared that their patients encountered anti-diet action from friends or relatives. Considering that obesity often appears in conjunction with high blood pressure, heart disease and diabetes, it is not exactly a loving act.

While motives vary, the prevalent—and usually subconscious—one is jealousy. A husband may resent attention paid to his wife's svelte figure, or he fears he may have to diet too. Wives sometimes feel that reputations as good cooks are at stake. An overweight child is frequently isolated from his peers, if only to avoid teasing. When he joins his crowd after successful dieting, an anxious mother may fear she's "losing" him—so his portions get larger and sweeter.

Such sabotage makes the difficult job of dieting even harder, but there are ways to combat it, the article suggests. As soon as he realizes what's going on, the dieter should try to talk it over with his friendly saboteur. Frequently the spouse or parent will do his best to cooperate. But if the problem is too difficult to handle alone, guidance from a family doctor, psychiatrist or marriage counselor may be the answer. Since any overweight wife, husband or child may be living on borrowed time, diet sabotage should not be ignored for the sake of family harmony.

Back Home Blues Bugging You? Forget Your Vacations: Start Anew

Post-vacation blues is a condition that is no respecter of age. It strikes young and old alike—usually within 12 hours after arriving home from wherever you've been.

Here are a few suggestions on how to avoid the post-vacation blues.

Mothers should be cautioned not to try separating dirty clothes from clean clothes while packing for him in order to make doing the laundry simpler.

At the end of a vacation there is no such thing as clean clothes, and when the poor woman discovers this she may go into a slump even before she gets home.

If possible, have dad pack the dirty clothes in the trunk of the car while mother isn't looking. If he can't get the trunk shut over the mound, have him tie it down with the larriat little Bobby bought as a souvenir of the Last Old Town in the west. This will keep little Bobby from tying his sister to the bed in an effort to prolong the vacation past check-out time at the Last Old Motel in the west.

DEAR ABBY

Bride's Broken Beak Breaks Bank

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We drove 500 miles to attend the wedding of a relative. Our son was to be in the bridal party. The wedding was to take place at 4 P.M. on Saturday. On the Friday night before the wedding, the bride and groom got into a fight and the groom broke the bride's nose so the wedding was cancelled.

What do we do with the wedding gift we were going to take to the church? Who pays for the tuxedo our son rented for the occasion and never got to wear? And how about the motel bill? I think the bride's parents who invited us here for nothing should help us out. Should we ask them to?

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 21-year-old male college student. I am being married in the near future. Both of us would like to have a big wedding and invite our many friends, but the cost would empty her parents' pocketbook.

Medicine 'Habit' After 70 Years

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky. (AP) — Age hasn't forced Dr. Jesse Smith Bean into retirement, even after 70 years of practicing medicine.

DR. BEAN
Dr. Jesse Smith Bean, 70, is in the office all the time. He has practiced in the office at his home for 30 years and until a hospital was built 10 years ago "I was in the office all the time," Bean said. He recalls making only house calls when he began practicing because doctors didn't have offices then. A patient's kitchen was the operating room. There were no hospitals, no telephones. Horses were often the mode of transportation.

By CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Deceptive influences are likely to be in effect today. You may be deceived by another person's words, so make sure you doublecheck whatever is important. Difficulties could result by lack of watchfulness.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): You want to make changes on the spur of the moment, but it is better to first make a study of the circumstances. Be alert.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20): Make sure you discuss matters with one you are dealing so that all is right. Show that you are an outstanding citizen.

Leo (Jul. 23 to Aug. 22): Handle monetary problems before you proceed with other ventures. Think in a positive manner about one who opposes you. Be wise.

Virgo (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Don't engage in any arguments at home. Listen to what others have to say instead of doing so much talking yourself. Be poised.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Show others how creative you are at whatever is your special talent. Running off on tangents could prove costly at this time.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): An altercation with a family tie should be avoided today. Sidelsteer those who are incapable but try to remain cheerful.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Listen to what others have to say instead of being so overly concerned with own views. Show loyalty to friends.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Use new methods now in order to build up your security and get right results. Plan the future more intelligently.

Aquarius (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Keep rooted to your own line of endeavor and don't venture into anything untested. Listen to what a good friend has to say.

Pisces (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Try to be diplomatic in conversations with an associate and a higher-up for best results. An expert can give advice you need.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY......he or she will want to learn as much as possible about life. The desire to be social should be encouraged so that fine friendships can be made. Give the finest education you can afford and success is assured. Teach ethical training early in life. Much respectability in this career.

Hostage Turks Fear Greek Cypriot Rule

PAPHOS, Cyprus (AP) — In the Turkish-occupied quarter of this coastal town, the men in the coffee shop talk of fleeing north to the Turkish forces, 50 miles away.

"If we were permitted to go, we would not hesitate to go immediately to be in safety under the Turkish forces," said the high school teacher. "I didn't want to give his name for fear of being taken off to prison like the 29 Turkish policemen from this quarter."

The English teacher said they banded in their guns to United Nations troops after surrendering. They keep asking when the Greeks will kill us. Why are they waiting?

"Now, we are hostages," said a baby-faced municipal clerk with no office to go to. "Every one is frightened of what will happen. They keep asking when the Greeks will kill us. Why are they waiting?"

39 miles from Paphos, 59 miles from Nicosia on the dry southwest side of Cyprus, has 10,000 Greeks and 3,000 Turks living apart in mutual suspicion. Since the Turkish invasion of 1974, Cyprus, the city has been shelled by a Greek gunboat, bombed by Turkish planes and hit by mortar and artillery fire. Since the fighting ended almost two weeks ago, most of the people living in the narrow streets of the Turkish quarter have moved away from the Green Line separating the two communities and clustered protectively around their mosque, where a Greek soldier sits outside.

The mosque is closed. The men in the coffee shop say the Greeks stole the carpets and looted all the religious objects and the priest has not been allowed to return from his village.

Unlike many villages, there is electricity and water and the four wholesale grocers are permitted to bring food to the market. Food is plentiful at the moment, but money is getting scarce because there is no work.

The Greeks let shepherds tend their flocks, but others are not allowed to visit their lush flower and fruit gardens on the outskirts of town.

Altamonte Meets Friday On Two Jobs And Budget

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — A city council workshop has been set for 1 p.m. Friday on the new budget and applications for the city comptroller and personnel director posts.

Ex-councilman Don Myers is one of the applicants for the comptroller job and Zoning Board chairman Bill Taylor wants the personnel director spot.

Council asked Mayor Norman Floyd two weeks ago to compile a priority list on budget requests for the 1975 fiscal year. Departments have asked for a total of $2.5 million while only $1.5 million is expected in city revenues. Police and fire department requests totaled more than $1 million.

Council, earlier this week: — Agreed to consider a proposal that the city share a computer data center with the City of Casselberry. An International Business Machines (IBM) representative said Casselberry City Manager Harry Hug and Utility Director John Lane are interested in combining that city's computer work with Altamonte Springs. It was also suggested that Floyd discuss O'Malley: Bob, What's A Flack?

By JOHN VAN GIESON
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. —

O'Malley thought he had uncovered a conspiracy against his re-election campaign when an aide spotted a Capitol press corps bulletin board announcement of a press conference by Jack Shreve, a Democratic primary rival.

What triggered O'Malley's suspicions was the notation that the message had been posted by "per flack."

O'Malley dashed off a letter to Atty. Gen. Robert Shreve, who had just fined Allstate Insurance Co. $100,000. "I know you're in good hands," O'Malley wrote to Shreve.

"That's okay," Askew told the insurance commissioner, who had just fined Allstate Insurance Co. $100,000. "I know you're in good hands."

Speaking of slogans, Askew's motto at luncheon on a campaign trip might be "I deserve a break today." But his running mate, Sen. Jim Williams, probably would be inclined to say "have it my way."

O'Malley apparently didn't know that reporters commonly use the term "flack" in reference to public relations people. Associated Press spokesman John H. Mueller, who posted the news conference notice, was merely letting his colleagues know who had arranged it.

Shreve advised O'Malley that "Flack" is in no way involved in Mr. Shreve's political campaign or in any other campaign.

"Flack means publicist or public relations agent as you find in the Webster's Dictionary and therefore it was properly used in the press release notice," O'Malley wrote to Shreve.

Gov. Reubin Askew said the Cabinet was "just eliminating a little bureaucracy" during recent approval of an action re-election campaign when an aide spotted a Capitol press corps bulletin board announcement of a press conference by Jack Shreve, a Democratic primary rival.

What triggered O'Malley's suspicions was the notation that the message had been posted by "per flack."

Are Floating Notes Here To Stay?

NEW YORK (AP) — The performance last week of the corporate bond market's newest investment vehicle—notes with floating interest rates—left Wall Street debating whether they are really here to stay.

Floating notes brought to market last week by The New York Bank for Savings, Mellon National Corp. of Pittsburgh and Crocker National Corp. each nearly sold out.

But in all three cases, the size of the offerings had to be reduced from originally planned levels. The issuers blamed "market conditions," but a spokesman for a leading bond underwriting house suggested that the small size of the target of the floating rate notes—may be signaling he is not as willing as many believed to withdraw all his savings and lend them to corporate floating bond issuers.

The notes are sold in $1,000 denominations to give investors access to high-yield, short-term issues.

"I think there is a point where the bond market can be saturated with these floating notes," the underwriter's spokesman said. "The source for almost all the money is industrial and commercial savings banks, where will the money be staying when people stop raiding their savings banks, where will the money for these bonds come from?"

More optimistic was a spokesman for Philadelphia National Corp., a bank holding company which plans to offer a $50 million floating rate note around mid-September.

"Last week's offerings were more than the market could support. But that doesn't mean the floating rate vehicle itself is wrong."

He said the idea of tying, or indexing, the interest rates of a bond to other inflation-sensitive money rates—in particular, short-term Treasury bills—is here to stay until inflation is genuinely under control.

Meanwhile, in addition to reductions in the offerings, issuers also were pushed into raising the initial interest rates on their notes.

Crocker National Corp. had already increased their rate to 10 per cent last Aug. 5 and Mellon National Corp. and Continental Illinois Corp. last week increased their interest to 10 per cent from the previously planned 9.75 per cent. After two years, the interest floats, one percentage point above the yield on three month treasury bills.

Market conditions again were cited for the moves. One bond analyst added the increased interest rates on last week's floating notes were a direct response to the sudden rise to 9.00 per cent in short-term Treasury notes at their latest auction last Monday.

But a spokesman for one of Wall Street's biggest bond underwriters expressed doubts that floating rate notes would be used extensively as a capital raising vehicle by industrial borrowers. The spokesman said underwriters are, and will continue to be leery of backing floating issues offered by any companies except those generally in the business of borrowing and lending money in large sums.

Confident Askew After 2nd Term

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew is seeking re-election as a confident, popular politician, but his reputation may be tarnished by the campaign tactics of an erstwhile ally.

The governor would like to run on his record, ignoring the charges raised by his 1970 running mate, Lt. Gov. Tom Adams.

under Askew's administration, but he has sparred repeat of 14 times at a savings so far of $200 million.

Askew has been forced to answer Adams' charges that Askew allowed retardation and liquor control programs to deteriorate and rewarded pals by favoritism in issuing liquor licenses and highway contracts.

Economist Urges Quick Tax Boost

By CLIFF SMITH
The Herald Staff

President Ford should institute a move toward sweeping tax reform and support an immediate tax increase as a hedge against accelerating inflation, economist Kenneth E. Boulding believes.

"I would suggest that if Mr. Ford" called a major committee or conference of the two houses (of Congress) or tax reform, Dr. Boulding said. "Actually, the reexamination should go beyond Congress because you have to look at the state and local governments as much more important than the federal government."

"As an emergency measure, I think it would advocate some kind of an across-the-board tax increase at the moment. I would think that something like a 5 per cent increase across the board would not be unreasonable."

"The thing he (Mr. Ford) has to do now is persuade people that inflation is not going to go on at this rate. The psychological effect may be more important than the detailed economic effects."

The major desirable effect of a tax increase, Boulding said, would be to retard private spending. Unfortunately, he noted, "there are circumstances where this could lead to rising unemployment" which Americans are unlikely to tolerate.

Boulding, 64, the author of over 40 books who stylized U.S. free enterprise as "the cowboys

Economy Rebounds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's measure of future trends in the economy rebounded in July on the strength of an improved job picture and labor costs, the Commerce Department reported today.

The department said its index of leading indicators pushed up by 1.6 per cent over June, when the index recorded its only drop so far this year, a six-tenths of 1 per cent decline.

The Commerce Department said the strongest upward pressure came from the cost of labor involved in production. The price-labor cost ratio improved by 3 per cent in July, meaning $10 worth of labor produced $11.70 worth of goods, compared to $11.35 in June.

New claims for unemployment benefits shrunk to 262,000 in July, the lowest level since November.

"We are too sophisticated now," Boulding countered. "The gold standard was all right for Peoria in 1875. The thing is, once you wise up you can't wise down. The operation of the gold standard depended on a certain charming unsophistication which has been lost."

Boulding is best known to the masses, perhaps, as the advocate of reforming the "open, cowboy economy" that tends to equalize success with consumption and total throughput to a "closed, spaceship economy" regarding minimum throughput and consumption as high virtues.

FLORIDA

IN BRIEF

Crime Fighting Funds

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Federal funds totaling $426,968 are going to three Florida agencies to help fight white-collar crime.

The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration announced Wednesday that $201,326 will go to the Department of Criminal Law Enforcement to set up an 11-man special unit on white-collar crime.

The Banking Department will receive $99,000 to deal with organized crime's involvement in fraudulent and stolen securities and the Legal Affairs Department will receive $126,642 to fight slugging in public projects.

Prior Case Ruling Due

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A federal judge says he is concerned that Frederick C. Prior may not have been properly warned of his right to silence before giving grand jury testimony that resulted in his indictment.

Prior, a West Palm Beach banker, was indicted in June on charges of lying to the grand jury that is probing the financial affairs of Comproller Fred Dickinson.

U.S. District Judge W. Terrell Hodges said during a pretrial hearing Wednesday that he was disturbed at a former failure by the government to inform Prior, a former Dickinson law partner, of his right to remain silent before the grand jury.

Hodges said he hoped to rule on Friday on a defense motion to suppress Prior's grand jury testimony.

Prior has been charged with making false statements when he testified that a check for $5,751.62 he once sent to Dickinson did not involve bank stock.

Dickinson made a surprise appearance Wednesday at a one-hour closed door hearing. Judge Hodges held with Prior and three federal prosecutors.

Dickinson said he could not comment on his reason for appearing at the hearing because Hodges had ordered all participants to silence.

Hodges also refused to tell reporters the reason for the hearing.

If convicted on the perjury charges, Prior faces a maximum possible sentence of 35 years in prison and fines totaling $70,000.

Dems Combat Apathy

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Florida Democrats will call more than 100,000 registered voters in an effort to combat the apathy that some observers fear will hit the Sept. 10 primary.

"We have to combat this voter apathy and once again get people involved in the system," state Democratic Chairman Jim Mylre said Wednesday.

"We believe that one of the most effective ways to do this is on a personal level. And that's what this 'callahan' is all about."

Mylre said 1,000 graduates of the party's political-campaign schools have been asked to spearhead the callahan.

Hurricane Becky

In Open Atlantic

MIAMI (AP)—A tropical wave threatening the Leeward Islands has intensified into a tropical depression, while forecasters said Hurricane Becky swirled her 100-mile-per-hour winds further into the open Atlantic today, posing no threat to land.

The wave's name was given to the tropical depression, but weathermen at the National Hurricane Center said further intensification of its gale-force winds was possible as it moved toward the Leeward Islands.

Showers and squalls were expected to reach into the Virgin Islands by late today and Puerto Rico tonight, forecasters said.

At 6 a.m., Becky was centered near north latitude 36.2

Tom Wonders About Reubin's Conscience

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Lt. Gov. Tom Adams says he wonders if Gov. Reubin Askew's conscience is bothering him for approving a $100,000 pay raise for the governorship this year when he opposed legislative pay raises in 1969.

"When elected governor, I shall ask the legislature to repeal the $100,000 pay raise and put me on the same pay as they are increasing on all other legislators," Adams said.

"With such a position as background, did your conscience bother you at all when you signed into law this year the act which gave you a $100,000 pay raise?" Adams, opposed Askew in the governor's race, asked Wednesday.

Askew was given the pay raise — in 1974 appropriations act. He said the voters would have a chance to decide who gets the money since it goes into effect Jan. 1.

The bill raised the governor's pay from $40,000 to $50,000.

"Such a raise is even more to be wondered at when the same

'Pot' Boat Explodes

MIAMI (AP)—U.S. Coast Guard officials say three Miami men are in custody and charged with conspiracy to import marijuana after a boat carrying 8.4 million worth of drugs exploded and sank, sending 450 miles south of Miami, the Coast Guard said.

Authorities said the three were directed to protect waters off Haiti after high seas threatened to swamp the boat. The craft then exploded and sank, sending 450 miles south of Miami, the Coast Guard said.

After the three were rescued, 10 babies were recovered and the rest sunk by machine gun fire, Coast Guard officials said.

A Coast Guard cutter carrying the babies is expected to arrive Friday in Miami, the officials said.

The cause of the explosion was not reported.
