Homestead Renewals Flood Tax Assessor

By MARION BETHA

Seminole Countians have deluged the office of Tax Assessor D. Guy Allen with return of applications for homestead exemption renewals. Approximately 16,000 renewal applications were mailed on Jan. 1 to homeowners who filed for exemption in 1969 and who had not sold their recorded homestead or moved. On this number, almost half, or 7,500, have thus far been returned.

Allen reminds all eligible homeowners to mail in their homestead exemption applications early to save the county the expense of mailing second notices.

Initial applications must be made at the assessors office, either at the courthouse in Sanford or at the branch office in Seminole Plaza. Applicants must bring a recorded deed or agreement of deed and have a current Florida driver's license and auto tag.

Receipts for renewal applications will be mailed after processing and should be returned to the applicant approximately two weeks after filing.

The assessor's office in the court house is open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The south Seminole branch is open from 9 a.m. until 12 p.m. and from 1:30 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Thompson Trial In Second Day

5th Juror Tentatively Seated

ON TRIAL FOR LIFE
 FRANCES THOMPSON, accompanied by an attorney, Roger Berry, is pictured walking toward the courthouse this morning, the second day of her trial in the first degree murder of her husband, Bobby Joe Thompson.

By BILL SCOTT

The trial of Mabel Frances Thompson, young Sanford mother of four, accused of killing her fireman-husband and killing his body in a hall closet, entered its second day Tuesday with the jury selection starting where it ended late Monday afternoon. A fifth man, Carl L. Johns, of Casselberry, a Martin-Marietta employee, was tentatively accepted today and joined four other men chosen yesterday to hear the state's first degree murder charge.

The lack of interviewing each prospective juror commenced at 9:30 a. m. in a sparsely filled antiquated circuit courtroom.

Selected late Monday afternoon on a "tentative basis" were David R. Raitch, of Altamonte Springs, a refrigeration mechanic; George D. Bayer, English Estates, a screw firm service representative; John Inley, telephone company cable splicer from Sanford, and Edward J. Adamkiewicz, of Longwood, an electrical engineer with Martin-Marietta.

At least 14 jurors including two alternates are needed before the testimony can begin. Two men were rejected yesterday as jurors Daniel W. Turner, of Sanford, an employee of W. L. Justice Produce Company, was dismissed from serving by Judge E. Thom Run-berger, when Turner said he was opposed to capital punishment. Donald M. Davis of Seminole, a self-employed welder, was pre-empted by State Attorney Abbot Herring.

Mrs. Thompson, clad in a light blue suit, appeared in a quiet mood as she stared at notes taken by Roger Berry, assistant defense counsel, as the juror selection continued.

Rev. Billy Griffin, pastor of Elder Springs Baptist Church, sat directly behind the accused and occasionally took notes.

Later, Rev. Griffin told The Herald, he was a friend of the defendant and had offered her spiritual counsel, when she was jailed last January.

McNulty Resigns SIC; 3 Seats Open

C. Howard McNulty has offered his resignation from the Sanford Industrial Commission to Mayor Lee P. Moore.

In a letter dated Jan. 19, McNulty said, "I regret that I must resign but I find it impossible to devote the necessary time to this worthwhile endeavor."

The Florida State Bank president, in announcing his intention to leave the city's industry seeking board, made four recommendations to Moore concerning the operation of the SIC and the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce in re-structuring industry.

"I think a separate autonomous commission or authority should be set up to operate the Sanford Airport. I do not think the airport should be a division or arm of the city," he said.

A final recommendation by the bank would be to reduce the SIC's annual budget by $10,000, which would be contributed to the chamber to offset the $10,000 loss of funds caused when the Seminole County Commission voted to chop that much from the chamber's annual appropriation.

"This would give the chamber an annual $20,000 contribution from the City of Sanford, which would be used to operate the Sanford Airport. I do not think the airport should be a division or arm of the city," he said.

McNulty said, "Most cities large enough have separate groups specializing in attracting industry and this appears to be the ideal situation. The obvious success of the SIC over the past two years substantiates this," he added.

The banker's third recommendation was a request that City Commission would appoint John Krider, Chamber of Commerce manager, to the SIC.

Lake Orienta Meeting Set On Flood Control

City hall at Altamonte should be jammed with interested citizens tonight when a meeting will be held to discuss flood control of Lake Orienta. The controversy has engendered political implications in recent weeks.

The inclement weather has altered the water level of Lake Orienta, causing flooding of homes necessitating sandbagging in some instances.

Mayor W. Lawrence Swafford, stated at a recent city council meeting that he had attempted a solution to the problem in 1959, but was disregarded. He asserted that the council followed the opinion of E. L. Caponi, chairman of the Planning and Zoning Board that only a few homes were involved. Swafford also accused the Board of Seminole County Commissioners of "not intending to do anything about the situation."

The political specter arises from complaints of adjacent residents that the district commissioner, Greg Drummond had not sought an answer to the problem. The council suggested a new commissioner might be in order, and Swafford agreed. It has been rumored that Swafford will seek a seat on the county commission in this year's elections, so the issue may well prove his "spring board."

The meeting, which will commence at 7:30 p. m. will feature a joint effort between invited county commissioners and the city council to ascertain an answer to the difficulties.

TWO PERSONS were injured at 7:45 a.m. this morning when this auto, driven by Bettylou L. Keigans, of Longwood, collided with a car driven by Berry J. Lenz, of Maitland, on U.S. 17-92 and Seminole Boulevard (Dug Track Road). Joan Keigans was treated and released at the Naval Training Station Hospital at Orlando while 16-year-old Jeanne Keigans was admitted, suffering from lacerations and abrasions. FHP Trooper W. E. Glass investigated the accident.

B52s Hammer Red Lines In Concentrated Strike

By WALTER WHITEHEAD
SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. B52 Superfortresses pounded guerrilla infiltration lines around Superstition Mountain during the night and into today in their most concentrated strikes yet.

The mountain on the Cambodian border 195 miles southwest of Saigon earned its nickname, Hilltop Dollar Knob, for the money spent for bombs used to try to dislodge the dug-in Viet Cong.

U.S. Spokesmen said six waves of B52s came in Monday night and this morning to drop at least 540 tons of bombs on what were described as base camps and staging areas around the peak.

"Several times during the war the allies have stormed up the mountain and proclaimed it captured, only to have the Viet Cong return and use its caves as supply warehouses."

Military intelligence sources have reported a new Communist building recently on the mountain, with the guerrillas using it as a jumping-off point for slipping supplies into Vietnam from Cambodia. Twenty miles northwest of the mountain, Viet Cong guerrillas were thrown back in an attempt to overrun government militia outpost at Ke Sach, military spokesman said.

The defenders of the outpost called in artillery strikes and helicopter gunships, killing five of the attackers and sinking 25 of their sampans. No South Vietnamese losses were reported.

Other Combat Action
Combat elsewhere was reported light, with headquarters listing a total of 10 Communist soldiers slain in battles that cost six Americans dead and 36 wounded. Five of the GIs died in one battle in the central Highlands Monday.

One other American was killed and three were wounded.

Education Hike

The pressures of an election year and the popularity of an education aid feature the White House opposes combined to split the GOP vote as this afternoon's spending showdown approached.

Artificial Devices May Replace Diseased Hips

By C. G. McDANIEL
AP Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Replacement of diseased hips with artificial devices has proved successful in Europe, but it's going to be a while before this becomes a routine operation in the United States.

The reason is that the cement to hold the devices in place has not yet been approved for this use by the Food and Drug Administration.

Restrictions are not so severe in Great Britain, where most of the work on artificial hips was done, and continental European countries. Thousands of these operations have been performed there over the past decade.

Two dozen U.S. research institutions have been granted permission to use the artificial hip requiring a special cement and several hundred hip replacements have been done in this country.

Americans Paid More For Everything In '69

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Americans in 1969 paid more for everything from houses to hamburger in the worst inflation in 20 years, the government said in reporting a 6.1 per cent rise in living costs for last year.

For 1969 as a whole, increases in consumer prices eroded all of the gain in earnings, the Labor Department said in reporting that average pay of $11.25 a week last month was up $4.67 over the year but worth $7.15 less in the market place.

A big December grocery price rise of 1.4 per cent, accounting for half the month's rise in living costs, wound up 1969 food price hikes at a total of 7.2 per cent.

Hamburger at 64.2 cents a pound was up 22.3 cents or 24 per cent over the year, eggs at 73.9 cents a dozen were up 11.3 cents or 14 per cent, lettuce was 8.8 cents or 21 per cent higher at 40.8 cents and milk was 2 cents or 2.6 percent higher per half-gallon over the year, said the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Ment and bread also were higher, said the bureau.

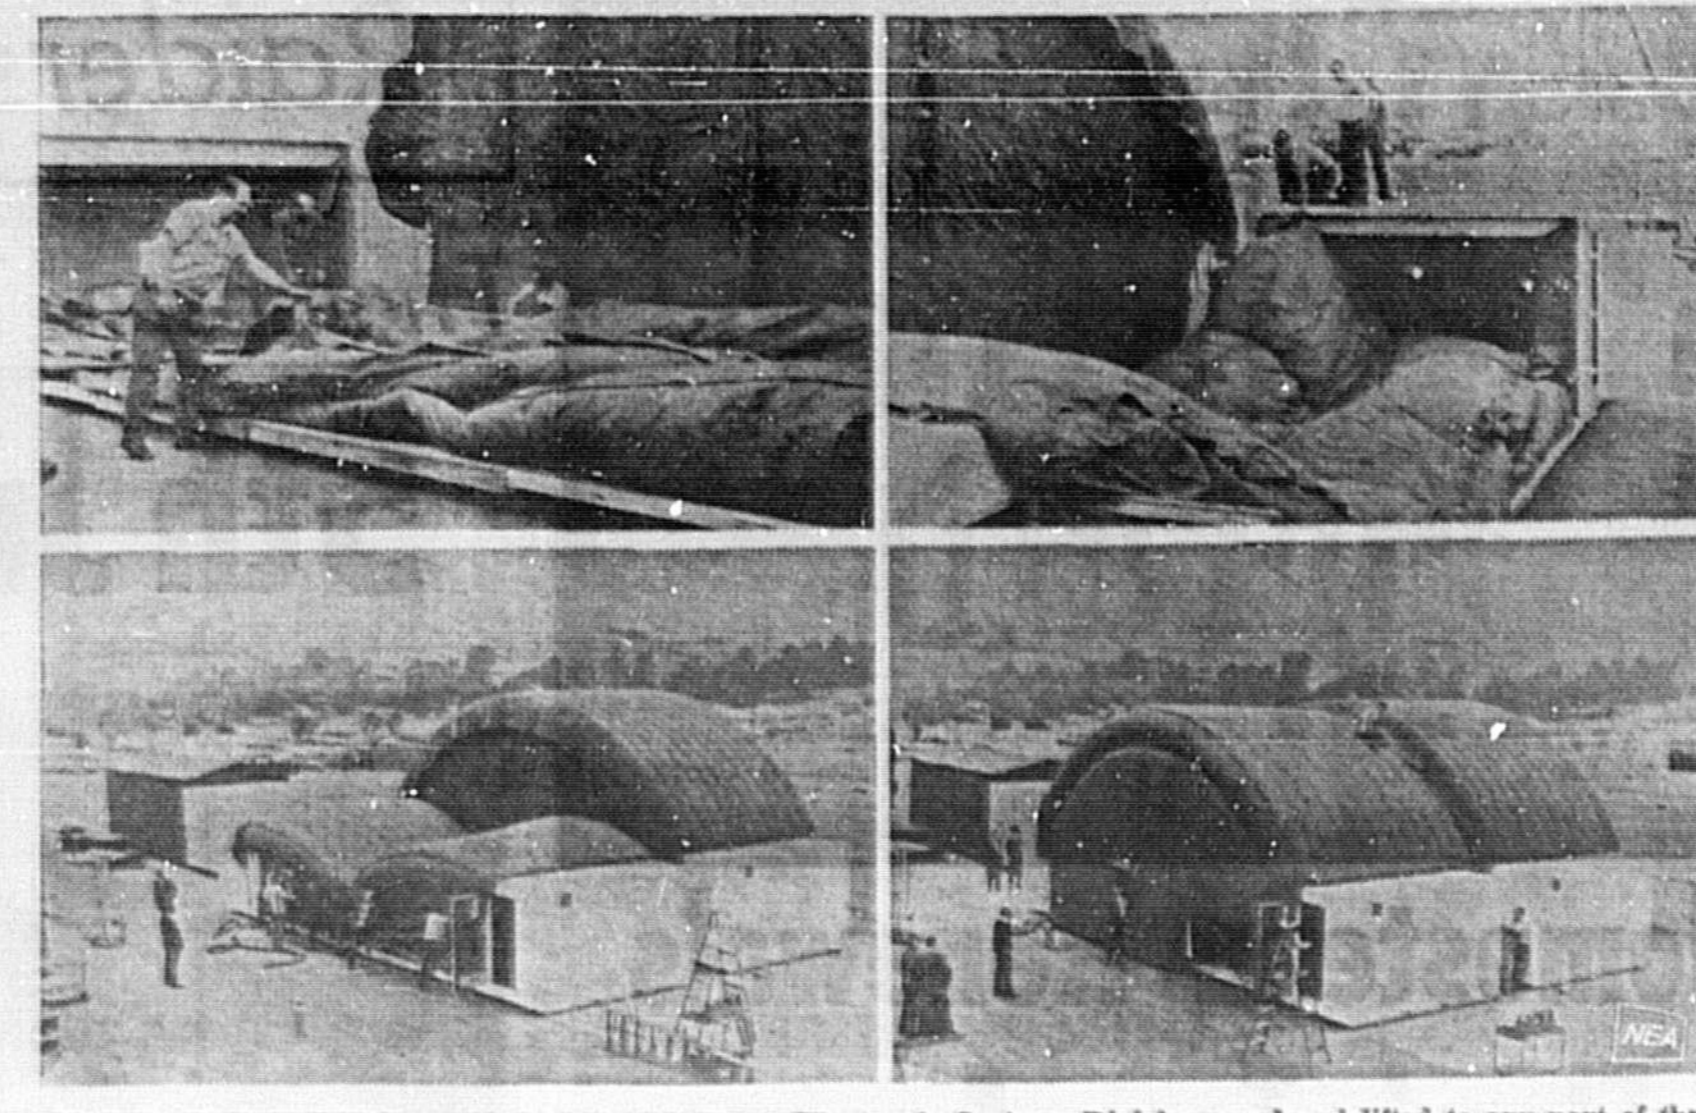

"The cost of services associated with home ownership continued their upward trend," the Labor Department said, but what he called it has been chaste forgotten by his historians.

Floridian Named To High Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—G. Harold Carswell is an unassuming, down-to-earth sort of man, but his political career has raised him to the highest office in the state.

Just turned 59, he has been a judge of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals since last May. Monday President Nixon telephoned him to tell him he had been appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Except for his time in the service, Carswell always has lived in the South. He received his B.A. degree in June 1941 from Duke University, then went to law school at the University of Georgia Law School.

He left there in 1942 to join the Navy, serving aboard the transport ship USS. He returned to the U.S. in 1946 and joined the firm of Ansel, Collins and Trout. One partner was former Democratic Gov. Leroy Collins. Carswell organized the law

Demos Slap At Governor

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Gov. Claude Kirk cares more about presidential politics than he does about Florida's school children, says State Education Commissioner Floyd Christian.

The Democratic official's accusation was echoed by Florida Democrats in a prepared statement sent before the U.S. Supreme Court brought the grombles, especially from aroused state education officials.

"It's told the county schools; you stand in the school house door," said a spokesman for the State Department of Education, referring to an executive order Kirk says he'll issue.

Christian, in a prepared statement, was more specific, saying "The governor's executive order would place county school board members and superintendents in a position of conflict, having to integrate orders by federal courts and the state court."

He referred to part of Kirk's statement put before the high court Monday, in which he asked for a rehearing of the court order demanding total school desegregation in Florida and four other southern states by Feb. 1.

Kirk said his order would direct all Florida counties affected "not to alter or change the school calendar during mid-year or take any action which would cause the schools to close in order to transfer personnel and pupils, and not to incur any expenses for which current county and state funds are not available."

Artists Attend Workshop

The Deltona Art Club demonstration-workshop held in January at the Community Center was attended by a large and enthusiastic group of more than 50 artists in spite of the inclement weather.

Mrs. Ann Lattin of West Volusia Artists demonstrated the technique of painting in oils with a palette knife. Members sat at long tables, each with his own palette and canvas. She suggested procedures, the members carried them out according to their own ideas.

"A technical problem was involved and the appeal of it was questionable," said Perre. "Who wants to pay $100 to sit at a dinner and watch a television show?"

The television show was to feature entertainers classed as the party faithful—among them singer, Frank Sinatra, recently subpoenaed to testify in an investigation of alleged New Jersey corruption.

Sen. Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts, former Vice President Hubert Humphrey, Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine, and Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota—probable fore-runners for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination—are slated to attend the dinner.

The Democratic National Committee conceived the black tie affair to raise money to pay a 1966 campaign debt of $7.3 million, but Perre said the main emphasis at the gathering will be on party unity.

Perre, who said the national committee asked him to take charge of the affair, was a half ago, said the committee finally decided that a more practical way to raise the money would be to schedule separate events rather than turning the banquet together via television hookup.

Fund-Raising Idea Limited

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—A Democratic party fund-raising gala aimed at scooping up dollars in at least 15 different regions with a closed circuit television spectacular Feb. 5 has been limited to Miami Beach, says a Miami city commissioner in charge of the event.

Commissioner Maurrie Perre said the $100-a-plate and up dinner will not be channelled to other cities.

"A technical problem was involved and the appeal of it was questionable," said Perre. "Who wants to pay $100 to sit at a dinner and watch a television show?"

Senator Beth Johnson of Cocoa Beach, who represents the 20th Florida District, will be the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the DeBary Republican Club in the Community Center at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, January 26th.

Sen. Johnson has the distinction of being the first Republican lady in the Florida Senate and the second lady ever elected. That was in 1962, from the 27th District. She was reelected both in 1967 and 1968 from the 29th District and in 1968 was delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention.

In the '69-'70 legislature she served on Education and Health, Welfare and Institutions, the subcommittee on Mental Health and Retardation.

Public Supports Special Assistant

WASHINGTON (AP)—As far as consumer champions outside the government are concerned, Virginia Krauer is in enemy hands.

Krauer, President Nixon's special assistant for consumer affairs, lost her usually persistent smile several times Thursday at the Consumer Assembly when speakers alternately attacked her boss and praised her.

"Let us look forward to the liberation of Virginia Krauer," said Ross Myerson Grant, New York City's commissioner for consumer affairs.

The audience responded with applause, just as it had earlier when consumer advocate Ralph Nader said "Let us consider that the consumer movement has received far less attention from the President than the Texas football team or any host of golfers, comedians and actors who have had many hours of his valuable time."

And at another point in the assembly, sponsored by the 143 organizations making up the Con-

Aid Is Discussed

By CHARNE LEOENE

What is foreign aid? Should military aid be included in foreign aid? What direction should foreign aid take in the 70's? These questions were approached in a League of Women Voters Seminar recently held at the new Astorory City Hall.

Faculty members from Hollins College and Seminole Junior College (SJC) led off the discussion of the issue of foreign aid given now has gone down (although in dollar amount it has increased).

"We must let other countries know that we are genuinely interested in their problems to make foreign aid effective," the speaker said. "But how can we do that when we can't solve these problems in our own nation? He noted such problems as poverty and birth control.

"It must appear to them that we have an ulterior motive," Zilles concluded.

Is there an ulterior motive? The panelists agreed that, in practicality, there was an ulterior motive—in some way to further the interests of the U.S. It might take the form of maintaining a status quo in a less developed country, said Summers.

"Or," said Stafford, "the humanitarian aspect might be a spin off from national interest concerns. These viewpoints are not necessarily incompatible," he pointed out.

Mrs. Couler recalled the time she lived in Mexico, Japan and Korea, she stated that she was against military aid. "Who are these countries going to use this aid on?" he queried. "Their neighbors?"

But, pointed out Stafford, "Military aid is a function of foreign aid. It provides a degree of stability so that the foreign aid can operate to its best advantage."

Political Spring At Full Bloom in Seminole

In this connection it should be noted that another political voice will be raised this week when the South Seminole Jaycees hold their awards banquet...

Why did the Department of Justice refuse to act? Why did the Department of Labor turn its back? Why did George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations, refuse to be bothered?

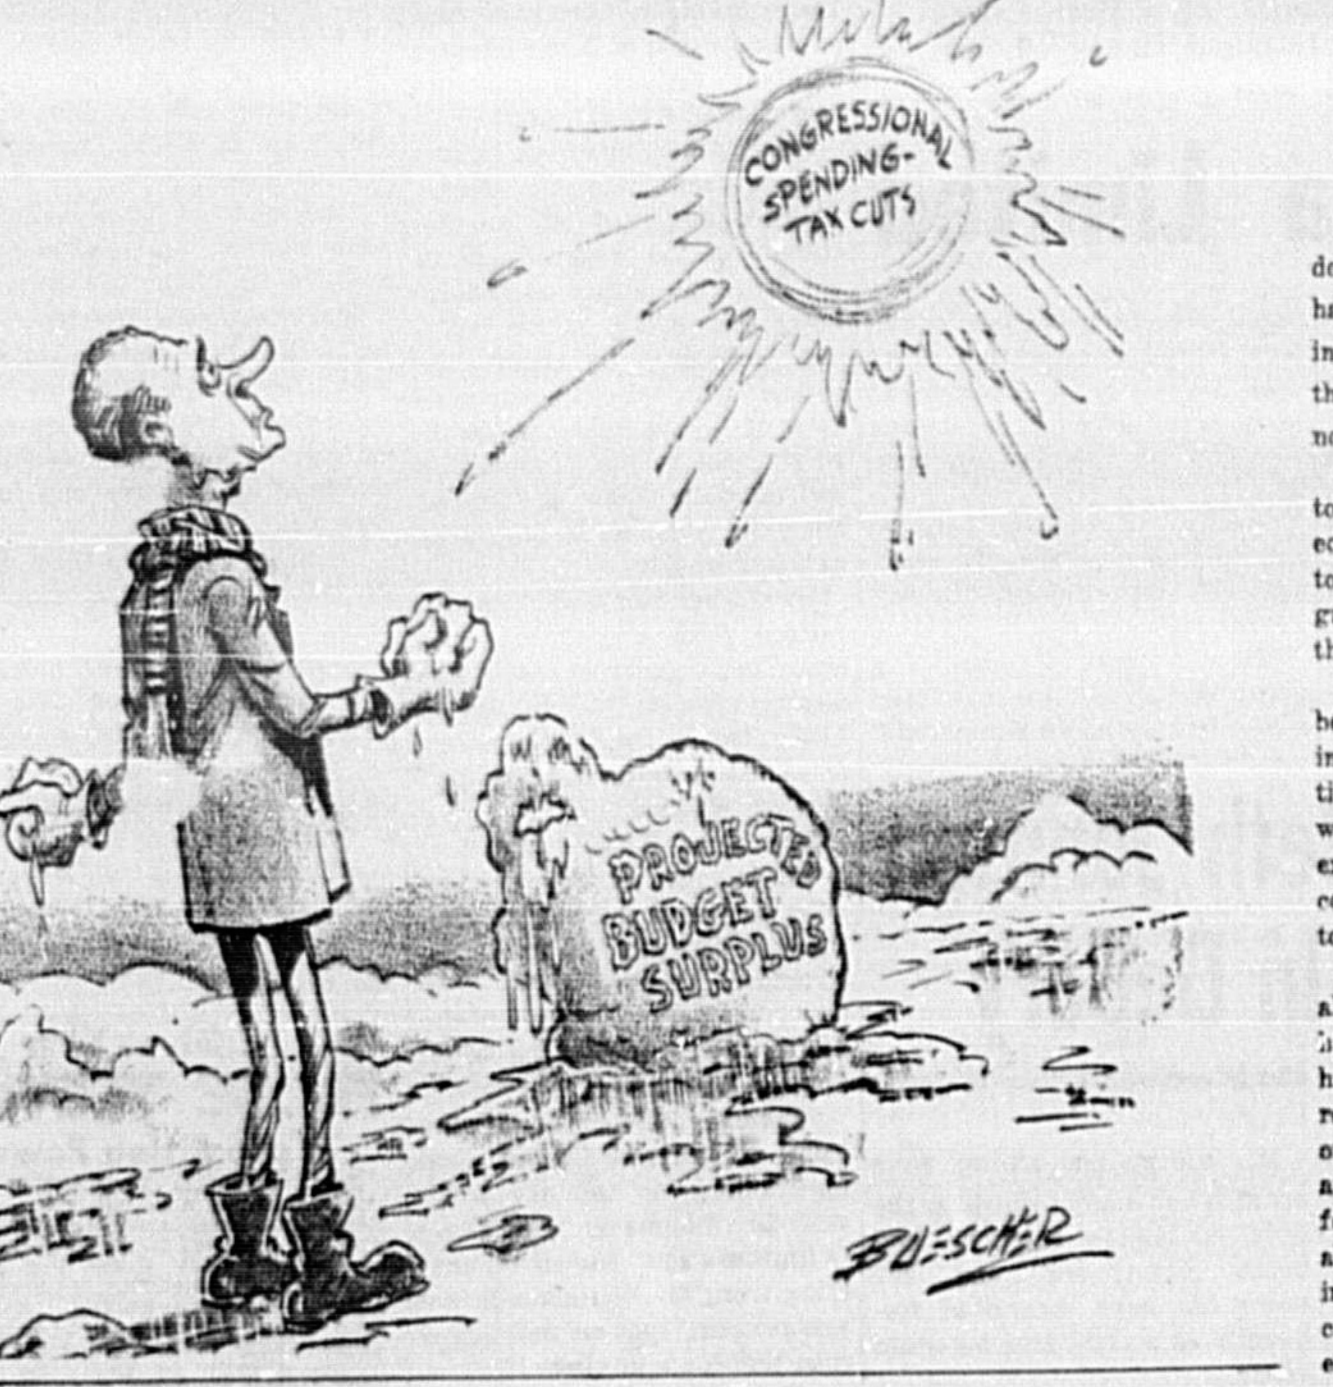

These are very black marks, indeed, against Attorney General John N. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz, and Mr. Meany.

An investigation into the slaying is now in progress. But this is not enough. Here, too, an investigation into why those whom Mr. Yablonsky reportedly warned of conditions did nothing about them.

SHEBA was founded in 1962, following the operation. "But I slept for that time," said Mrs. Harris.

The success rate is 60 to 70 percent on the first attempt. In some instances, the operation does one patient receive sight in more than one eye.

The eyes must be used within 24 to 48 hours of the eye bank. In Sanford, the local clubs have been organized to educate the public on behalf of the eye bank.

Dr. Edwin Epstein is the chairman of the Board for SHEBA. He is a well-known ophthalmologist in the Sanford area.

MRS. JOE E. MATHIEUX Mrs. E. W. Estes makes no bones about the lovely time she had visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Winger (Lulu Estes) for a week recently. "Miss Ruby" says that they just drove Ken's big station wagon right on to the fields and picked a few (she put up 22 quarts) of lovely strawberries. It seems as if there were more than 100 acres to pick from and if I knew my friend, I bet she had two barrels of fun.

The Garden Gate

By CAROL JOHNSON There is no month in Central Florida when gardening chores stop. Even January, despite our recent freeze, is important. This is the time to move or to plant dormant trees and shrubs.

In many ways we are lucky to have a spell of cold weather. It makes it possible for us to grow deciduous shrubs and trees that otherwise would not survive. Deciduous plants are those which lose their leaves in winter and stop all top growth.

DEAR ABBY: I am a respectable 20-year-old woman who lives alone and supports myself.

I recently met a very attractive man (21) who showed a very serious interest in me from the start. He spoke of our future together and I honestly believed that I had finally found my man. He asked me to sign a note, he'd borrow from a bank.

Then he asked to borrow $800. He is a salesman and said he was doing "fabulous" well, so this didn't add up. I asked him if he'd sign a note, and he said if he wanted to sign a note, he'd borrow from a bank.

Now I don't know what to think. Half of me tells me to trust him and half of me tells me I love him.

DEAR ABBY: I have been baffled. I have been asked to go to the bank with my boyfriend to get a loan. I have been asked to go to the bank with my boyfriend to get a loan. I have been asked to go to the bank with my boyfriend to get a loan.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I recently moved into a new three-story building in an apartment complex. Our problem has to do with the couple living directly beneath us.

Everything they do is on a par with the level of a partridge. We don't complain about ordinary noises, as both my husband and I have and are gone during the daytime, but the evening noise is of a very intimate nature and it gets to be very annoying.

I imagine they are newlyweds because we have been disturbed by the sounds of their lovemaking at all hours of the night and early morning. Weeds are unpredictable. It is impossible for us to have guests over since these sounds can be easily heard in our living room.

The apartments are well built, believe me. These people are LOUD! We have never heard any other neighbor so loud. But until you are able to leave his bed and board and make your own way, he's the boss. And unless you're a stubborn, bull-headed tyrant, if you believe your anger, he may reconsider and reverse his decision.

DEAR ABBY: That girl signed "BUNNY" should have signed herself "DIME DINKY." She wanted to you about all the nice single gals who want to go out with you. Today it's possible to bring your special abilities to the attention of those who can help you. Get your home looking more attractive, too.

Jacoby and Son

This time it doesn't matter where South wins this trick but on general principles he should win in his own hand so as to leave the last high club in the hand that can only gain a trick in that suit.

South is disappointed when West shows out on that second club, but he is still going to make his contract. All he has to do is cash all the hearts and spades. He will discard a club on dummy's third spade and East may just as well throw in the towel.

He will have to discard either a club or a diamond. A diamond discard will give South an extra diamond trick. A club discard will give North an extra club trick and the slam will make on a simple sequence.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY: I hope someone can tell me how to choose printer's ink. When I lengthened a new Dacron knit dress and pressed the hem with a newspaper over it, the print transferred to the hem. Luckily, this was underneath where it would not be able to do so.

DEAR POLLY: I want to tell Mrs. C. L. that my grand-protuber used calcium chloride as a dehumidifier for years and now we have found it very useful in our new home even though we have central air conditioning. We fill plastic dishes about half full of calcium chloride crystals (bought in bulk at chemical supply houses) and the crystals absorb the moisture in the area. After a few weeks the pans will be full of water. Empty them and refill with fresh crystals.

We use three pans in the crawl space and one on the lower level of the house. This is very effective and economical and eliminates the mildew problem for us—MRS. J. De F.

DEAR POLLY: I keep a nut pick on my sewing machine to use to guide materials under the foot of the machine. This is helpful in turning seams and makes a good instrument to help in tipping seams.

When I take a bouquet of fresh flowers to the church or any other place I put ice cubes and only about a cup water in the container after I have arranged the flowers. They arrive fresh-looking and without any water spilling on the way—GRACE

Highlights

TUESDAY, JAN. 20, 1970 8:30-9 p.m. NBC. Julia. "The Jolly Green Midget." (Color) Lory Cary takes center stage in this one. After driving his beautiful mom nearly nuts with his imaginary friends, polar bears, ghosts, and men from outer space, the tyke comes up with a little green man whom he swears is real. Julia posh-pops the creature, until Doc Chadley and office nuisance Eddie Edson (Eddie Collins) report they've seen a little green man with antennae, too. 8:30-1 p.m. ABC. NBA All-Star Game. (Color) The stars of the Eastern Division went off their best to bring the number of times they've triumphed to 13 out of the 19 years of the championship game has been held. Jack Twyman and Chris Schenkel report. 9:11 p.m. NBC. Tuesday Night at the Movies. "My Sweet Charlie." (World Premiere) (Color) Starring Patty Duke and Al Freeman Jr. The reaction of test audience to this made-for-TVer was so good, Universal seriously considered releasing it to theaters. Based on David Westheimer's moving stage play, the story recounts the relationship of a pregnant, unwed Southern white girl and a black man. Both on the run, the two meet in a vacant house in a boarded-up Gulf Coast town. The rest of the movie concerns simply the development of their relationship from that of mutual fear to mutual understanding. But don't be misled by the slight plot; it is powerful, dramatic and poignant character study. 10:11 p.m. CBS. Sixty Minutes. (Color) Mike Wallace reports on the frightening rise in crime in the nation's capital, which now has the highest per capita rate of violent crime in the United States. Harry Anderson reports on the grave-stone business, commenting on what it reveals about the American way of death.

Mental Test Urged For Morals Witness

Circuit Judge E. Thom Rumbergen was scheduled to hear a motion this afternoon requesting a psychiatric examination for a 12-year-old girl reportedly a witness in a morals case against two Central Florida men. Rumbergen postponed further hearing in the Mable Frances Thompson murder trial pending the morals hearing.

Edward J. Hanlon Jr., attorney for Harlan Blackburn, accused of committing a few and lascivious assault upon a female in the presence of a child under 14, Tuesday filed a motion asking for an examination of the girl. She is said to be the state's complaining witness in the charges brought a week ago by Seminole County authorities.

Edward Kirkland, Orlando criminal attorney, is also accused of the same act but an additional charge of crime against nature has also been placed against him.

Blackburn, reputed bolus kingpin, and Kirkland are free on bonds posted Friday after the men appeared before County Judge Wallace Hall to request a preliminary hearing.

BULLETIN

Shortly before press time, Judge Rumbergen assigned Dr. Michael Gutman and Thomas Phillips to direct psychiatric tests on the girl at the Florida State Hospital.

Blackburn was arraigned today on the charge while Kirkland must appear on Jan. 27 at 12 noon for arraignment.

Hall squashed some charges against the pair to allow Abbott Herring, State Attorney, to file direct information against the men in order to get the case to a higher court.

Old bonds arranged upon arrest were cancelled and the two were required to post new bonds of $1,500 for Blackburn and $2,500 for Kirkland.

Arraignment in Circuit Court before Rumbergen was set for this afternoon, but the motion by Hanlon will be heard before the arraignment.

The motion alleges the girl is a habitual drug user and is presently on probation from another state on drug charges.

The motion stated the girl showed signs of mental illness and asked for two court-appointed psychiatrists and a clinical psychologist to make the examination.

This is all the space that magazine writer Ernie Deserves... (That's less than nothing.) Here again is a perfect example of how the TV industry can "make somebody" overnight... just the same way that racist Stokely Carmichael was created into a national figure.

And I'm still waiting for the day when he utters something constructive.

About those 23 Florida residents believed to have been exposed to typhoid fever and left the ship with their home addresses unknown... the safest precaution you can take is to constantly wash your hands.

Interesting to read this from the Attorney General's Office... Although Florida has a clear right to impose Sunday closing, it abdicated this power in 1969 and passed home rule acts which authorize the municipalities and counties to make their own decisions on Sunday closing, consistent always with constitutional requirements of equal protection and due process.

I'm sorry to report that I really don't know too much about the Florida Attractions Association. But that doesn't really matter cause they don't know too much about Seminole County's geographical attributes, either.

They insist on listing, under an Orlando address, such attractions as Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, Florida Technological University, and Sandlotto Springs. (Somebody move 'em while we were sleeping last night and Thursday.)

County Commissioner Levels Blast Swofford's Recall Is Urged

Mayor W. Lawrence Swofford.

Temper ran rampant at Altamonte last night at a joint meeting of City Council and the Seminole County Board of County Commissioners to attempt a solution to drainage problems arising from flooding of landlocked Lake Orianta. It was standing-room-only during the three-hour session, as area residents filled the Lilliputian council chamber, called into the adjoining clerk's office and stood outside, listening through open doors.

District commissioner Greg Drummond read a statement concerning his participation in the answer to the dilemma, and charged that Altamonte Mayor, W. Lawrence Swofford had made no sincere attempt to alleviate the conditions and the Swofford was responsible for "irresponsible zoning." Drummond concluded that it was the city's fault that homes were built in the low areas surrounding the lake. Drummond concluded his statement calling for "immediate recall of the mayor."

Swofford countered with his continued attention to Orange County receiving federal assistance and having county-wide drainage, and his allegation that he (Swofford) cannot get the "board to do anything." Swofford charged that Swofford "with talk like yours, we'll never get anything done."

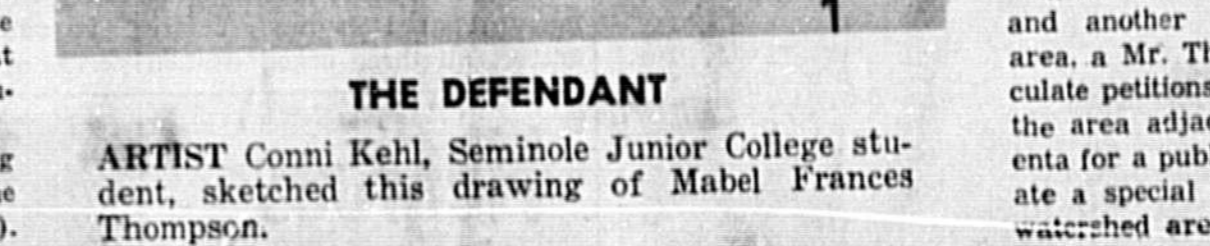

Swofford's solution to the problem is to create a special tax district watershed area. Drummond asserted that the County Commission is not empowered to place people in a tax district without the approval of the majority, that the decision was up to the majority and the county was "not a dictatorship yet."

Commissioner Proffers Lake Orianta Solution

A temporary solution to the drainage problem at Lake Orianta in Altamonte Springs was proposed last night by County Commissioner John Alexander. He proposed a drainage well be placed in the lakes. Drummond had proposed a percolation type well, capped off with filter properties and imbedded in limestone. Drummond suggested a special meeting of the county commission this Friday to discuss the problem.

In the interim, Donald Mason and another resident of the area, a Mr. Thompson, will circulate petitions to freeholders in the area adjacent of Lake Orianta for a public hearing on a special tax district for a watershed area. Sixty per cent of freeholders are needed, and those attending the meeting expressed pessimism over the success of the petition.

Although county engineer William Bush stated that the lake level would be at its present state due to recent rains and because of development of the area, residents didn't buy this. One member of the capacity audience maintained that the lake level would be at its present state due to recent rains and because of development of the area, residents didn't buy this. First Woman Gets Nod For Jury Duty

James L. Henry, of English Estates, a photo lab technician, was tentatively selected Tuesday but four others were excused.

John Inley, a Sanford telephone cable splicer, selected during Monday's interrogation, was dismissed Tuesday from serving by the state.

Calbert A. Sorrentino, of Altamonte Springs, a minister's wife, was the first woman to be interviewed. She was excused after divulging her 16-year-old daughter was at home alone as her husband was out-of-town on an evangelistic mission.

Lester E. Bush, a Sanford construction worker was excused after stating he knew the defendant and her late husband four years ago, when his wife was confined in the same Seminole hospital room as Mrs. Thompson.

Today it was evident that Mrs. Thompson's outward calm was not as pronounced as the woman moved often in her chair.

Bank Kicks Off Drive For New Nursing Home

A $1,000 contribution by Florida State Bank got the fund drive for the Good Samaritan Home off to a running start at Tuesday's kickoff luncheon at the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Building. Mrs. T. E. Tucker, a member of the solicitation committee for financial institutions, made the announcement.

This brings the fund to rebuild the condemned home to $13,350. Approximately $20,000 will be needed to rebuild the nursing facility which houses 27 elderly, indigent patients.

"People have been calling, volunteering to help on the drive," said Robert Dacin, coordinator for the drive. "I've never seen this before!"

Dacin emphasized that Good Samaritan Home donations are tax exempt.

Wayne Albert Wins Promotion By Bank

John Y. Mercer, President of the United State Bank of Seminole, announced today the promotion of Wayne E. Albert to the office of Vice President and Cashier of the bank.

Mr. Albert has been with the bank since June 1, 1965, when he assumed the duties of Cashier. Prior to that time, he had worked as Commercial Loan Officer with Florida State Bank from Jan. 7, 1963, to May 31, 1965. Prior to that time, he was a student at Mankato State College, Mankato, Minnesota, a graduate of 1961.

Wayne Albert is active in civic affairs, being a past president of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, a 6-year member of the Board of Directors, and is presently Treasurer of the club. He is also a Jaycee International Senator, a life member of Jaycees, member of the Kiwanis Club, Treasurer of Seminole County Association for Retarded Children, Director of the United Fund. Swofford Battles County 5

The allegations and implications by Altamonte Mayor W. Lawrence Swofford that the County Commission in Seminole is doing nothing to alleviate drainage problems in Lake Orianta, found a target last night when the chairman of the Board of Seminole County Commissioners, John Alexander, attempted to explain to hostile citizens of the area the position of the county.

Alexander stated that the commission does not control lakes or private property and that he would be opposed to arbitrarily creating a tax control district as (Continued on Page 2A, Col. 2)

W-H-A-T?

Call it, government in the moonlight!

The newly appointed Seminole County Publicity-Promotion Committee was scheduled to meet last night at the court house at 7:30.

The six members present couldn't get into the locked building and met out in the cold 42 degree weather for approximately 20 minutes under nearby street lights.

The group did resolve... "to either get another meeting place, or promote a referendum calendar for those persons responsible for opening the building for night conferences."
