LEGISLATURE GOES TO WORK ON THIRD WEEK OF SESSION. CALENDAR IN GOOD SHAPE

ACCOMPLISHMENTS SO FAR HAVE BEEN MOSTLY SMALL THINGS

WORKING SMOOTH

With No Thought of Anyone
Throwing a Monkey Wrench
in the Machinery

(By The Associated Press)
TALLAHASSEE, April 16.—Another picture of ill bodied convicts, their flesh scarred, inhumanly worked, and beaten came to Speaker Edge of the house today in the form of a Lee county grand presentment dealing with prisoners in that county under lease to a private firm in Charlotte county. After describing alleged brutalities to which the convicts were subjected, said to include forty to one hundred and five lashes at one time the presentment calls upon Representative John Henderson, Jr., of Lee county to support legislation to eradicate the lease system.

TALLAHASSEE, April 16.—Open committee hearing will be given W. H. Dowling, who was suspended as sheriff of Duval county by Governor Hardee more than a year ago, Senator Igoe, chairman of the senate committee announced. Senator Johnson, chairman of committee which will hear charges against former Sheriff Turner of Broward county, announced last week his committee would also get in open. The actions mark radical departure from customary procedure in such cases in the past week. Such cases in the past have been dealt with in legislative session.

TALLAHASSEE, April 16.—The legislature went to work this afternoon on the third week of its session, with the calendar in good condition but with its major problems yet to be disposed of.

Accomplishments so far have dealt with the less important things. There has been no disposition to throw a wrench in the machinery by injection at the outset of the big matters.

Only one general measure had passed both houses when they adjourned over the week-end Friday. This was a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Phillips for the relief of W. B. Brinkley, a Confederate veteran of Columbia county. The amount involved was only slightly more than $400 but it met with bitter opposition in the senate on the ground that it would lay down the bars for numerous other claims. Brinkley, it seems was cut off from his pension for a glon time because he had been erroneously recorded as a deserter.

The senate on its side had passed a bill by Senator Stokes providing for an additional member of the supreme court. The upper body split about even on the subject though, the vote being 18 to 14. It makes it hard to tell what will happen when it gets in the less dignified body, although a committee has reported favorably a companion measure.

The senate also took the initiative towards abolition of hanging and setting up of an electric chair for infliction of the death penalty in this state, and the week-end rolled over with it on second reading in the house. It also passed a measure by Senator Wicker providing that "Health and Temperance Day" be observed in the public schools.

The house, for its part, has passed measure removing the disabilities of married women under age by Representative Williams, one by Representative Miller making it unlawful to display the flag or the colors as an advertisement or to raise them in anyway, and one by Mr. Milam providing that the constitution and American ideals be taught in the high schools, universities and colleges of the state. The house has also voted to give Hillsborough county an extra circuit judge and another one to the judicial circuit embracing Duval county.

This week, it is believed, will start work on some of the big things. It seems about time something came out of committee on the various gasoline tax measures and others relating to the road department; one indeed,

The opinion is by Judge Ellis, Judges Whitfield and West dissent. Attorneys, John B. Singletary of Bradentown for appellant; Dewey A. Dye, of Bradentown, for appellee. In this case, for the first time in Florida, the court determines what constitutes an election upon the widow's part to take a child's interest in lieu of dower. The court says in part: "The exercise of the right should be made by such means as will definitely and finally conclude her action. It may be by a written declaration made of record in the probate office, perhaps by a deed of conveyance reciting her election, but it should not be

PRESS SAID BONAR LAW
WAS ABOUT TO RESIGN
THE MINISTRY

FOR ILL HEALTH

Lending Conservative Says
Nothing in Law's Health to Compel Resignation

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, April 16.—Staunch supporters of Prime Minister Bonar Law among the morning newspapers, are indignant at what they call "conspiracy to weaken the Ministry," launched in the Sunday press which reported that he was about to resign because of ill health. The Morning Post, a leading conservative paper asserts with greatest emphasis that there is nothing in the condition of Law's health to compel his retirement. The Post and other papers, which share its views attribute "conspiracy" to Lord Birkenhead and other conservatives who refused to participate in the government.

LONDON, April 16.—"The prime minister has no intention whatever of resigning," said a statement issued tonight from No. 10 Downing street, the official residence of Andrew Bonar Law.

This constituted the government's reply to statement in several of the Sunday newspapers. This official denial, however, it is generally agreed in political circles, does not affect the situation as indicated in these dispatches last week, that Mr. Bonar Law's retention of office depends on his health.

Undoubtedly, the premier has no intention of relinquishing hold of this office if his health will stand up under the continuous heavy strain of office. When he assumed the premiership, Mr. Bonar Law frankly said his retention of the post would depend entirely on his health. Official denial such as that issued today, it is believed, will not influence public opinion which has been almost universal since last week's happenings in parliament that if the government is to survive it must be greatly strengthened, and that unless the premier's physical condition rapidly improves he cannot yield the necessary driving power to carry on the administration in the face of capable and alert opposition.

19 ALIENS SMUGGLED FROM CUBA CAPTURED AT FORT LAUDERDALE

FORT LAUDERDALE, April 16.—Nineteen aliens being smuggled into the United States from Europe by way of Cuba were captured near Deerfield after dark tonight by Sheriff Paul C. Bryan and deputy Sheriff W. A. Hicks of Broward county. The men were landed from a small boat near Deerfield, close to the Palm Beach county line, and left to shift for themselves.

They scattered promptly but the sheriff and his deputy as promptly rounded them all up. Several were taken in a hotel in Deerfield, others along the highway to Fort Lauderdale and Pompano and the others in small shacks along the road. Joseph Lombard, one of the men, told Deputy Sheriff W. A. Hicks the story of their journey. He declared that in Cuba there is a company which agrees to smuggle the foreigners into America for $200. The men paid that sum in Italy and were taken to Cuba, said Lombard, and from there they were taken in the small boat to Deerfield.

A search of the men showed several of them with resignation cards showing that they had been in the United States during the World War. This led the sheriff's officers to believe that the men had been deported from the United States and also that several may be radicals. The men include six Italians, eight Ukrainians, two Austrians and three Czechoslovakians.

They will be held by the Broward county sheriff until federal authorities have an opportunity to act.

The Adair Realty Company will build an eight-story hotel at St. Petersburg.

LOCALS

Charley Britt spent the day yesterday at Haines City, Lakeland and other points in South Florida on business.

Mrs. George Shipp, who has been ill with a severe attack of intestinal fever for the past two weeks, is convalescing at her home on Sanford Heights.

George Shipp will spend the week end with his family on the Heights. He has been employed at Tavares for the past two weeks, overhauling the locomotives on the Tavares & Gulf Railroad. The work there will last about two weeks longer. A local firm, the Sanford Machine Company, has the contract.

Mrs. Edgar Thompson, of Jacksonville, came in this afternoon for a visit with Mr. Thompson, who is one of the expert Linotype operators in this office. As soon as a suitable home can be secured they, with their two boys who are now attending college in Georgia, will become residents of Sanford.

Why Willite is the Answer to All of the Paving Problems

Willite road 5 inches thick 3 inch base and 2 inch wearing surface has withstood the terrific heat and traffic in the Yuma desert for over three years and is as perfect now as the day it was first completed, by using Willite on this road the engineer was able to save 720 cars of shipped material aggregates and says that by using Willite he saved the taxpayers 25 cents a yard on the water charge alone. This road runs through a rockless arid desert and all water used on the work had to be hauled to the job in tank wagons, which proves very costly. The only water used in Willite was that used by the boiler on the hot plant for heating the asphalt.

The sand used on this job was obtained alongside the right of way, hauled to the plant in scrapers and was termed by the Popular Mechanic's magazine representative who inspected the work as hour glass sand, said to be impossible to use in a paving mixture, 48% of this sand passed a screen having 100 meshes to the square inch and 12% passed a 200 mesh sieve. This road has carried the tourist traffic and trucks thru the desert under this extreme heat and has given perfect satisfaction. It has not softened, nor has it waved or rutted.

Over a million yards of Willite were laid in California last year and contracts now under way represent that much more for this year. It is used throughout the United States and once Willite is laid the taxpayers demand more of it.

A great deal is being laid in Atlanta this year and that which has been down on Whitehall street, Linder St. and 15th street for 3 years has required no maintenance. Atlanta recently asked for bids on several streets Willite being the only bids requested.

What fashion favored at Biarritz, she certainly repeats at Palm Beach, hence this lovely satin crepe in beige color trimmed with a delicate tracery of gold and rich brown braid. A shawl collar finishes the V-shaped neck, while the flowing sleeves add to the charm of the model. Of course there is a panel—but only on one side. At the other side are the fringed ends of a satin grille.

FOR CONSTIPATION

Black-Draught Recommended by an Arkansas Farmer Who Has Used It, When Needed, for 25 Years.

Hatfield, Ark.—Mr. G. W. Parsons, a well-known farmer on Route 1, this place, says: "I keep Black-Draught in my home all the time. It is the best all-around medicine I have ever found for the liver and for constipation. We began using it 25 or more years ago and have used it whenever needed since. I have never found any other medicine as good for constipation, and that was what I suffered with till I began using Black-Draught. Black-Draught corrected this condition, and now we use it for the liver and for indigestion—a tight and sluggish feeling after meals, for bad taste in the mouth and sour stomach.

"My wife uses it for headache and biliousness. It sets on our shelf and we don't let it get out. It has been a great help to us. I believe a great deal of sickness is caused by hurried eating and constipation, and Black-Draught, if taken right, will correct this condition."

Do we hear anything about the starting of the boat basin and the pier and all that work on the lake front.

The bride of the Duke of York will carry Tampa orange blossoms says the Tampa Times. And we believe that Florida orange blossoms will give the royal couple good luck.

Harding blames the newspapers for the statement about his candidacy. He should not blame the newspapers. He knows that newspapers are always looking for news and Attorney General Daugherty gave them some.

Now that Seminole county has built the steel drawbridge at Osteen ferry it is about time that New Smyrna district built that new road they promised to give us to Coronado Beach.

Every day the newspapers record an accident at the railroad crossings and it should wake up the Florida legislature in regard to the idea of making all road crossings safe by having the county roads go over or under the railway tracks. It is worth trying out at this session.

Money for investment purposes is coming to Sanford at last. There is no better investment in the south today than Sanford real estate and there should never be any trouble in getting all the money needed for real estate investments in Sanford. And if the people here can get all they want there will be at least two hundred homes built here this summer.

Every hamlet, town and city is growing but one can't help but notice the big difference in the city of Sanford and many other places in the state. Sanford just seems to have the growing and building spirit and it is in the air. Let nothing stop our big building program this summer and let every banker, capitalist and business man in Sanford get behind a movement to get new money here for investment purposes. It is the safest and best investment in the world and means much to this city. Cut out the foreign investments that hold up such big returns and confine your attention to an investment in real estate in Sanford that cannot fail to bring you a good return.

The people of Seminole county want to see the bill prohibiting seining in this county put in the legislative hopper at once in order that it will be passed before the legislature adjourns. There is no question about the majority of the people being desirous of this bill passing and our representative agreed to pass any bill that the Fish and Game Protective Association wanted. The bill has been prepared and has nothing to do with any state measure that might come up. Every county that borders Seminole has such a law and it can be passed in a few minutes after it comes before the legislature since it is a local bill and one that has the sanction and endorsement of the association and ninety-five per cent of the people. Let it be passed this week and get it off our minds.

GOOD PACK MEANS EVERYTHING.

Now while we are all upon this subject of better handling of vegetables and the co-operation of the growers, it is well to remember that few of the growers in this section ever lose money when they put up a good pack and when they have the reputation of only putting up good stuff. The Herald has preached this doctrine for fifteen years in this city and yet it seems that when the growers get to the place where they think they must ship or lose money they ship everything they have regardless of the quality of the stuff or of the manner in which it is packed and this attitude does more to break the markets and keep them broken than any other agency in the world. Right now there is a cry in this section that should never be shipped and yet today you will find growers shipping stuff that they know and everyone knows will not bring the freight charges. They want to get it out of the field and try to get something for it and they hope against hope that it might slip into some market somewhere and bring something back. However, nine times out of ten it will not bring freight charges and here the grower who shipped it loses but not only he loses on this particular shipment but he makes all his neighbors lose for he lowers the markets by flooding them with the poor stuff and he loses and the whole section loses and the markets are afraid of Sanford stuff for a long time to come. This part of the growing business here needs regulating as much as any part of the game of growing and shipping of vegetables. In fact unless a good quality of stuff and a good pack can be guaranteed there is hardly any use of the people here trying to get together on any part of the growing and shipping of winter vegetables. This would really be the biggest part of the co-operative idea if the Iron clad rules could be enforced in regard to growing and shipping of only prime stuff. Whenever the growers get this in their heads and put their business on a business basis it will be time to talk about better shipping arrangements. If we had the finest marketing conditions here in the world they could not prevail against the poor pack and the poor quality of winter vegetables. This was the greatest menace to the citrus industry for many years and under the plan of the Citrus Exchange and other agencies it was finally brought to the attention of the growers that they had to pick and pack good fruit or they would lose out and no agency would ship their stuff. When this becomes the rule at Sanford the greatest menace to poor markets will have been eliminated.

ABOUT YOUR INVESTMENTS.

Everyone wants to make money. To make money, you must save money and then make that money work. That is the real problem, making your money work. Thousands of people every year are swindled out of their savings by mistaken efforts to make their money work, generally by promises of big returns. They are inveigled by golden pictures of immense dividends from distant copper mines, gushing oil wells, and so on. The newspapers the other day carried the story of a lumberjack who parted with his winter savings, a few hundred dollars, in payment for the large Canal. This case is hardly more extreme than many that come to my attention daily. The reason for this widespread fraud practiced on the public is the general ignorance of the fundamental principles of investment. What is a bond? A debenture? The difference between common and preferred stock? Worse than this most people either do not know where to go or else deliberately refuse to seek authentic information about their investments. When people want to know about a question of law, they consult a lawyer; a question of health, they consult a doctor; but when the matter of investment comes up ninety-nine out of every hundred consult no one; they go ahead and pay out their money and trust to luck. Then often, in mistaken kindness, they advise their friends to go and do likewise.

The answer to this problem is simple—GO TO YOUR BANKER. He is in a position to give sound advice. Bankers are not infallible any more than doctors or lawyers, but your chances of investing safely are immeasurably increased by getting such advice. If circumstances are such that you cannot go to a banker, write to the investment department of any one of a dozen or more reputa-

HERALD COLLECTIONS

The Herald carriers manage and control their routes, pay in advance for all papers drawn, and absolutely depend upon their collections for their running capital and profits. When subscribers neglect to pay them it is the CARRIER and not THE Herald that stands the "brunt." Subscribers who do not care to pay the carrier each week may pay the Herald two or more months in advance and they will pay the carrier each week from this fund. This system of delivery is known as the INDEPENDENT CARRIER PLAN and is used by most of the larger newspapers of the country and has proven beyond doubt to be the very best plan of delivery. When a boy manages his own route, buys and sells at a profit he is in business for himself in exactly the same sense as any merchant. He knows he must give service to be successful and build up his business. He knows that every new customer he secures means more profit. In short, he knows he must conduct his business in a capable and efficient manner to be successful. The Herald earnestly requests its subscribers not to discourage these boys in this, their first business venture, by refusing to pay promptly each week for their newspaper.

Tick Eradication Measure in Bill by Rivers of Columbia

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 16.—Representative Rivers of Columbia county has introduced the nearest thing to a tick eradication measure in that a bill by him in the house would provide for local option on the subject.

On and after January 1, 1924, under the terms of his measure the county commissioners of any county would be required to call an election on the question of cattle dipping upon petition of one-third of the qualified voters. Should the voters decide for cattle dipping it would be incumbent upon the commissioners to set up the necessary machinery, including vats and the like, the commissioner's to pay half the expense for their construction and maintenance and the state the other half. Cattle dipped four times would be so certified to the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, which in turn would certify them tick free. The county eradicating machinery would function in conjunction with the state sanitary laws.

Retail Lumber Business Shows More Expansion, Builders Are Starting

Retail lumber trade, which has been unusually good throughout the winter season, is showing further expansion under the influence of warmer weather and the eagerness of builders to get their jobs started, says the American Lumberman, Chicago. Many retailers continue to hold back in making commitments, either because of uncertainty as to how far the present building movement will run or because of the price question, and wholesale trade is dull in spots. Lumber distributors, however, look for a general entry into the market by the retailers during this month, and the mills are clearing their decks as best they can in preparation for a big increase in business shortly. The market meanwhile holds firm. Transit cars have been in heavy demand during the last few weeks and have been well cleaned up, with the result that prices on them have moved higher. The mills are still heavily overbooked. Though they have lately made some progress in reducing their old order files, they still have enough on their books to keep them running at normal from thirty to sixty days. Mill stocks have been only slightly, if at all, improved, and it is still difficult to place orders, especially if they are of a badly mixed character. Industrial trade holds up very satisfactorily, and is expanding in some channels. Railroads are on the market for vast quantities of repair and construction materials, and have placed further orders for rolling stock. The oil fields are scenes of activity, and their consumption of timbers and general construction items is large. Automobile, furniture, flooring and interior trim manufacturers remain heavily on the hardwood market, while miscellaneous consumers' requirements aggregate a sizable volume. Exports of both softwoods and hardwoods are increasing. The position of the lumber market is therefore very strong fundamentally, and no material weakening on any popular item can be expected at this time. Lumber production in the south has been adversely influenced by unfavorable weather, a shortage of big cuts and also of labor. Output of Douglas fir is well maintained on a high level, but continues to be exceeded by both shipments and orders.

PRICE OF STEEL TO RAISE AUTO COSTS

DETROIT, April 16.—Due to the fact that automobile manufacturers have again commenced paying bonuses for steel and other automotive supplies, it is regarded as practically certain here that before the next three months pass nearly every manufacturer will be forced to increase the retail prices. At this time steel prices are about on the level of the wartime basis and are about 20 per cent higher than they were a year ago. Aluminum and copper have also taken a decided advance and purchasing agents assert that the aluminum problem is one of the worst they have to face. In addition to the higher prices for the basic metals of automobiles the tire manufacturers have raised their prices about 10 per cent, in the last few weeks, and the necessary men have jumped the prices 15 per cent on the makers. Some of the manufacturers have contracts with the various companies which will protect majority of these are said to expire them for several months, but the by the first of June, and with the coming of the 1924 models in August and September higher prices are sure to come. One manufacturer told the World representative that he regarded price increases "as inevitable when we are in the custom in the majority of factories to buy steel and major part materials in quantities several months ahead of the time the following year's models are to be announced. This means that purchasing agents are now contracting for the 1924 material and they assert that the average increases to them is about 10 per cent over last year's prices. It also means that the factories will be forced to these prices for the term of the contracts, usually a year, and the price of the cars will be somewhat higher as the makers cannot absorb all the increases by increasing production and thus making their sales greater but taking a smaller profit.

Kiwanians Courtesy Week Will Be Observed by Sanford Club

Local Kiwanians are planning to observe from April 15 to 21 as Courtesy Week in accordance with plans made by the Kiwanis Club International, President J. G. Sharon of the Sanford Kiwanis Club announced today. President Sharon said that the idea for the observance of Courtesy Week grew out of an experience of a group of Kiwanians at a hotel in a northern city, where they were breakfasting. The food was served with no little courtesy that the men in the party digressed from the subject under discussion and talked about the value of courtesy in business. After some discussion of the subject in the abstract, one of the men suddenly got the idea that it would be a good thing for the 1,000 Kiwanis clubs throughout the nation to emphasize the value of courtesy in the affairs of every day life. Plans for the observance of Courtesy Week were formulated by the men before they left the hotel and with some modifications were sent from International headquarters in Chicago to all constituent groups in the United States and Canada. Sunday, April 22, has been designated in Kiwanian circles as Courtesy Sunday. Clergymen throughout the United States and Canada who are Kiwanians will on that day, preach on some phase of the subject. "The Courtesy of Joseph" will be discussed in the Sunday schools by Kiwanians who are teachers of Sunday school classes using the International lesson. The general plan calls for the observance of Courtesy Week in the homes, stores, offices, public conveyances, and all other places where persons meet. The idea back of the movement is that such benefits will be noted that persons and communities will want to make the practice of courtesy a continuous performance. Special plans are being made to have the subject of courtesy presented at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club to be held at the Valdez Hotel on the 18th of April. The program for the meeting is: Address, "Professional Courtesy," by Mr. Lewis O. Bryan. Reading on Courtesy, by Fred R. Wilson. Address, "Courtesy," by Dr. J. W. Carpenter. The committee in charge would like to have members of the club relate incidents of courtesy that have particularly impressed them. Courtesy booklets have been received and will be distributed.

Constabulary Bill Being Discussed at the Capitol

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 16.—Here is some more about that constabulary bill of Representative J. Ed Stokes. The number of state police would not exceed six and they would work directly under the governor. They would be empowered to arrest with or without warrant any party who has violated any law or is about to commit a felony. A sum of $15,000 annually would be provided for by the bill with which to maintain the force. Salaries of the troopers would be $180 per month and travelling expenses. The measure also provides that they would be entitled to any regularly authorized rewards but that the rewards in all instances would be paid from the $15,000 fund. A McMurray will build a five-story hotel on Second street, St. Petersburg.

LEGISLATURE GOES TO WORK ON THIRD WEEK OF SESSION. CALENDAR IN GOOD SHAPE

(Continued from page 1) that would place that body with the railroad commission. Local option tick eradication as proposed by Representative Parrish is due to emerge to the floor of the house, while there may be something regarding the primary laws. There will most certainly be something, unless the house turns back on its word, on county convict leasing. This matter, in its various ramifications brought on by the recent alleged disclosures of brutality, has been noisier if not really foremost before both bodies so far. There seems to be little doubt but that the leasing of county convicts to private firms or individuals will be abolished. Whether the reform will go as far as to discontinue corporal punishment is a matter of conjecture. A senate committee has reported unfavorably on a bill embodying that feature. Under the present calendar the whole question will come up as a matter of special business at 11 o'clock Wednesday. The budget will test its strength during the week. The joint appropriations committee plans to hold sessions with it beginning tomorrow afternoon and to stay with it until the job is completed. The schedule of work provides at first that the departmental heads or representatives will be heard. Before the committee submits its report, however, the bars will be thrown down and anyone heard that has anything to say. It could hardly be expected that the pack of recommended appropriations can go through without a scratch, and there has been an expression of the hold-over opposition to the plan of budget appropriation itself. Whether this opposition will develop to any proportions, however, cannot be based upon more than conjecture at this time. With the week-end recess Friday that much heralded movement to re-establish the state auditor's office had not been shaped into as small a thing as a bill. Important measures pending before either house, include a proposition by Senator James E. Calkins, for a referendum on a constitutional convention, a proposed constitutional amendment by Senator Stokes providing that no income tax or inheritance tax be levied in this state as an inducement to outside investors, and one around which much fight will develop, the proposition to establish a state constabulary. Measure are also pending looking to the establishment of a workingmen's compensation law and the creation of a state fire marshal, both sponsored by Treasurer Luning. The workingmen's compensation provisions would not be compulsory upon anybody, but would provide that any corporation not accepting it would not be allowed to plead negligence on the part of an employee in damage suits. There are lots of other things. Approximately 350 bills had been introduced in the house at the closing time Friday while the senate had more than 150 to contend with. The committee, however, are beginning to weed them out.

Industrial trade holds up very satisfactorily, and is expanding in some channels. Railroads are on the market for vast quantities of repair and construction materials, and have placed further orders for rolling stock. President Sharon said that the idea for the observance of Courtesy Week grew out of an experience of a group of Kiwanians at a hotel in a northern city, where they were breakfasting. The food was served with no little courtesy that the men in the party digressed from the subject under discussion and talked about the value of courtesy in business. After some discussion of the subject in the abstract, one of the men suddenly got the idea that it would be a good thing for the 1,000 Kiwanis clubs throughout the nation to emphasize the value of courtesy in the affairs of every day life. Plans for the observance of Courtesy Week were formulated by the men before they left the hotel and with some modifications were sent from International headquarters in Chicago to all constituent groups in the United States and Canada. Sunday, April 22, has been designated in Kiwanian circles as Courtesy Sunday. Clergymen throughout the United States and Canada who are Kiwanians will on that day, preach on some phase of the subject. "The Courtesy of Joseph" will be discussed in the Sunday schools by Kiwanians who are teachers of Sunday school classes using the International lesson. The general plan calls for the observance of Courtesy Week in the homes, stores, offices, public conveyances, and all other places where persons meet. The idea back of the movement is that such benefits will be noted that persons and communities will want to make the practice of courtesy a continuous performance. Special plans are being made to have the subject of courtesy presented at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club to be held at the Valdez Hotel on the 18th of April. The program for the meeting is: Address, "Professional Courtesy," by Mr. Lewis O. Bryan. Reading on Courtesy, by Fred R. Wilson. Address, "Courtesy," by Dr. J. W. Carpenter. The committee in charge would like to have members of the club relate incidents of courtesy that have particularly impressed them. Courtesy booklets have been received and will be distributed.

Constabulary Bill Being Discussed at the Capitol

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 16.—Here is some more about that constabulary bill of Representative J. Ed Stokes. The number of state police would not exceed six and they would work directly under the governor. They would be empowered to arrest with or without warrant any party who has violated any law or is about to commit a felony. A sum of $15,000 annually would be provided for by the bill with which to maintain the force. Salaries of the troopers would be $180 per month and travelling expenses. The measure also provides that they would be entitled to any regularly authorized rewards but that the rewards in all instances would be paid from the $15,000 fund. A McMurray will build a five-story hotel on Second street, St. Petersburg.

"With approximately one-third of the arable and grazing territory developed at the present time, the trade and wealth of three southern states, Kentucky, Tennessee and Louisiana today exceed that of Holland, Belgium and Denmark," says the report.

"The riches that are yet untapped in these states, when brought into full productivity, will make this part of the country one of the opulent empires of the world."

"The south has awakened from its ancient languor," continues the report.

"It is easier to enter the arena of the busy world and strive for the rewards of commercial achievement. The industrial development of the Mississippi Valley has been backward. Less than 50 years ago the first lumberman penetrated the hardwood forests of the lower Mississippi. Drainage was one of the early problems. But it has been within the last decade that the development of the wonderful resources of this section began in earnest."

The report then goes on to point out the advantages of the section, where it says, the most fertile soil in the world is to be found, even more fertile than the valley of the Nile.

"With the climate ranging from mild temperate to subtropical, an abundance of rainfall and long growing seasons, the possibilities for agriculture and stock raising are unqualified," the report adds.

"Mississippi is one of the great cotton but it has few textile mills. Kentucky-ton-producing districts of the world, is notable for the quantity and quality of its wool production, but only a small part of this raw material is used within the state. There are vast deposits of fine clays suitable for the manufacture of white porcelain and many kinds of tiles and pottery to be found in different parts of this section, but most of this product is shipped north to be made up in the factories there. Vegetables and fruits are grown, and may be more extensively grown to better advantage in these states than elsewhere in the land, yet there are comparatively few large commercial and preserving plants in the south. Sugar cane is one of the native crops, but syrup factories are few."

OVIEDO

Mrs. M. M. King has been confined to her home for the past two weeks on account of flu but her friends are glad to know she is improving.

Oviedo is showing some signs of growth at this time, there being five homes in the course of construction. Mr. Arle's home on the Sanford road is almost completed, while on the same road Mr. Mariner is building a small house which he will use as a residence for the present and later he will build a nice home on his beautiful lot.

Mr. Booker, a new comer in our midst, is building a residence on the street next to Sweetwater Park and has bought several acres adjoining, which he intends to develop. Mr. Hollingsworth is building a two story house next to the O. P. Swope place and hopes to get into it by the middle of the summer.

J. T. Slavick is building on his lots between the Jones and Dixon places and will move there as soon as possible. In addition to these new buildings, there have been some minor improvements that have added greatly to the looks of the town as a new fence around the Woman's Club yard, the Baptist parsonage and the home of C. T. McCulley.

Wheeler entertained at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Smith in honor of Miss Mary Slavick, whose engagement to Carl Dowd has been announced. The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme used throughout being pink and green. It was indeed a shower of many beautiful as well as useful gifts for a young housewife. An appropriate program was arranged and a most delightful afternoon was spent.

MANYS NEWSPAPERS PRINT BIBLE VERSE

CINCINNATI, April 14.—More than 2,000 newspapers published in America are using passages from the bible in their editions, according to a report compiled by the Back to the Bible Society, which has headquarters here.

The number of newspapers served with these verses from the bible by the bureau has increased from 871 in 1922, to 2,088 in 1923. The report continues:

"The papers which the bureau is serving have a combined circulation of 14,283,254, and reliable authorities on newspapers state that if the matter is well displayed occupies a preferred position in the paper it will be read by at least two persons for each copy in circulation."

The newspapers now being furnished these verses without cost include 1946 in the United States and its territories; 87 in the Dominion of Canada; 3 in Newfoundland; two in the West Indies and one in Korea.

The report points out that the Church Year Book shows approximately 26,000,000 Protestants and 16,000,000 Roman Catholics in this country making a total of 44,000,000 church members, or 40 per cent of the total approximate population of 110,000,000. Thus, the report shows, 60 per cent are without any kind of church membership.

"On the other hand," the report continues, "nearly every American citizen reads some newspaper and the only immediate and available means of giving the Word of God to the masses is through the press."

Board of Engineers Not Convinced About Coast Waterway

War Department, the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, Room 2713 Munitions Building, Washington, D. C., April 12, 1923. To Whom It May Concern:

The Rivers and Harbor Act approved June 5, 1922, contained provisions for a preliminary examination of the "Intracoastal waterway from Jacksonville, Florida, to Miami, Florida." The required examination was made by the district engineer, and his report thereon is favorable to the extent of recommending a survey to determine the cost and advisability of the improvement.

In accordance with law, the report has been referred to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors for consideration and recommendation. From the information presented, the Board is not convinced of the advisability of the United States undertaking any improvement of this locality at the present time for the following reason:

The Board does not believe that the amount of commerce which might be expected to result from the proposed improvement would compensate for the necessary cost to the government.

All parties interested in the proposed, within a period of thirty days from the date of this notice, statements and arguments bearing upon the necessity for the improvement in the interests of commerce and navigation. Such statements should be addressed to "The Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, Room 2713 Munitions Building, Washington, D. C." Should a hearing be desired this can be arranged by correspondence with the Board.

Leesburg Going in Strong for "Home" Boys on Ball Team

LEESBURG, April 16.—Believing that Leesburg should have a ball club for the coming season and that the diamond at Cooke Park should be in use a number of base ball fans will meet Wednesday night to make arrangements for a team and perfect an organization. Every citizen who is at all interested in the game is urged to be present.

At a meeting of baseball players and fans held at Easthis Thursday night it was planned to organize a baseball circuit with Leesburg, Tavares, Eustis, Umatilla, Apopka and Winter Garden teams composing it and to play two games each week. There had been talk of an organization comprising all the cities of Lake, Orange and other counties but difficulties arose that compelled the project to be abandoned at least for the present.

Prominent Leesburg players stressed the point that the teams in the Orange-Lake league should be composed of home players only, no hired players to be tolerated. The two weekly games will be played with each team having only as members home boys. From remarks dropped by various citizens last summer this will be preferable to having the personnel of the club made up of out of town men.

Leesburg has had in the past and undoubtedly has now some fine baseball players and they can be organized here beyond the shadow of a doubt a good strong team that will make all competitors sit up and take notice. Leesburg people will support such an organization and patronize the games.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Jackie Coogan tonight.

And then again tomorrow night.

He plays in that famous picture—"Oliver Twist."

Very little can be said of this picture because there is so much to say—but let it go at this—it is one darned good picture.

For Jackie Coogan to essay the difficult portrayal of Oliver Twist and to achieve something truly remarkable is an unparalleled test of the little star's talent. And this picture will be shown tonight and tomorrow night.

M. S. Wiggins and W. A. Lefler draw the lucky tickets for tonight and they are good for their families, too.

Wednesday and Thursday—Constance Talmadge in "East is West" and Pola Negri in her first American picture, "Bella Donna" Friday and Saturday.

And we will be agreed with when we say that makes one good week's program.

Vincent Richards Beats Voshell and Then They Both Win

PINEHURST, N. C., April 16.—Vincent Richards, youthful tennis star, added two more titles to his string Saturday when he captured the North and South singles trophy from S. Howard Voshell, and then paired with that opponent, helped take the doubles match from Josiah Wheelwright and Raymond Bidwell, both of Boston.

Richards' victory in the singles match was not an easy one. After winning the first set 6-3, he dropped the second with the score reversed. The third he squeezed out at 6-4, after Voshell had made the score four-all by winning three straight games.

The men's doubles also was well fought. Richards and Voshell dropped the second set of their five set match with Wheelwright and Bidwell and then won the third after going to Deuce at 7-5. They finished the match with the fourth set at 6-3.

Close matches were the order of the day. Miss Helen Gilleaudeau won the women's singles by defeating Mrs. Edward Raymond of New York 6-2, 2-6, 7-5. Miss Gilleaudeau paired with Miss Marion Chapman, of Nyack, also helped win the women's doubles from Mrs. Theodore Sobst, of Brooklyn and Miss Ceresa Baker, of East Orange.

The score was 6-8, 6-3, 6-2. Miss Gilleaudeau and Bidwell won the mixed doubles from Miss Baker and Richards, 6-2, 6-2.

Altoona Will Play at Lake Monroe Thursday

The Seminole Athletic Club will officially open their season this coming Thursday when Altoona's strong nine will be there to start the ball rolling. This promises to be a good game as both teams are pretty evenly matched and the Lake Monroe lads invite Sanford to see how they do it.

The Athletics have just about completed their schedule for the next several months and they have some pretty hard games ahead of them, but their confidence in their ability is still as high as ever and they expect to be able to give the fans their money's worth at all the games. This first game will be played on the Lake Monroe lot and they will use their best that day as they are especially anxious to win their opener.

You Sanford fans keep this date in mind and run out to see the event as it will be worth your time and consideration.

Second Week of Bowling Schedule Starts Tonight

During this past week, aside from the game between the Merchants and Men's Club, four things of a very much abbreviated nature, none of the other teams having over two men to participate. If things are the same this week it will no doubt spell the end of the league as with such small teams there cannot be enough money collected to pay the pin setters and for the lights. The following sched-

REAL SERVICE STATION HAVE RIGHT PARTS FOR CARS SOLD

The recent results of a long series of tests in automobile manufacturers laboratories indicate the danger to owners in using anything but genuine parts in such service replacements as may be necessary.

For example, in Dodge Brothers laboratory at Detroit a test was recently applied to rear axle shafts. The genuine Dodge Brothers axle shaft withstood six complete turns in the test for torsion strength, while the best of several counterfeit shafts withstood only 1 3/4 turns. Interesting steering knuckle bolts—the genuine bolts bent double without breaking when put under given pressure. When the same pressure was applied to counterfeit bolts, they snapped without exception showing brittleness and defective core.

In the opinion of Rolla Reel, local Dodge Brothers dealer, such tests show very plainly why it is the best policy for motorists to depend upon service stations approved by the factory building their car, for any service parts that may be required for such replacement work as may be necessary. It is only here that parts can be guaranteed as being genuine parts.

Automobile manufacturers build their parts for service work as well as they know how because it is absolutely necessary in order to maintain the car owners' good will.

All car owners should realize the extreme importance to them of always getting genuine parts. If repairs or replacement of parts become necessary it is worth having done in the most capable manner by an established place of business which has the stamp of approval of the manufacturer back of the car.

...MAGIC NAMES...

The influence of advertising is apparent in every turn of my daily life. I find I cannot disregard it. It is always with me, guiding me in my pleasures and in my duties, telling me what I should eat, wear, and use and what I should buy for my family.

I find that there is on the tip of my tongue a multitude of names the mention of which will bring from some shelf nearly everything that I can use in my daily life and in the daily life of my family.

In every instance that name means a very definite promise and assurance of something substantial and which will make me feel completely satisfied about having exchanged my money for it.

Let me say a few things which these names—these old friends of the newspaper and magazine pages—mean to me.

They mean good taste. For certainly I desire to do the thing that I believe discriminating people have judged best.

They mean convenience. It is not necessary to describe the thing I want. Even the most intimate articles may be purchased without embarrassment since the advertisers have given us handy names.

They mean assurance in shopping. There is no indecision. Even before I enter the shop I know what I want to buy.

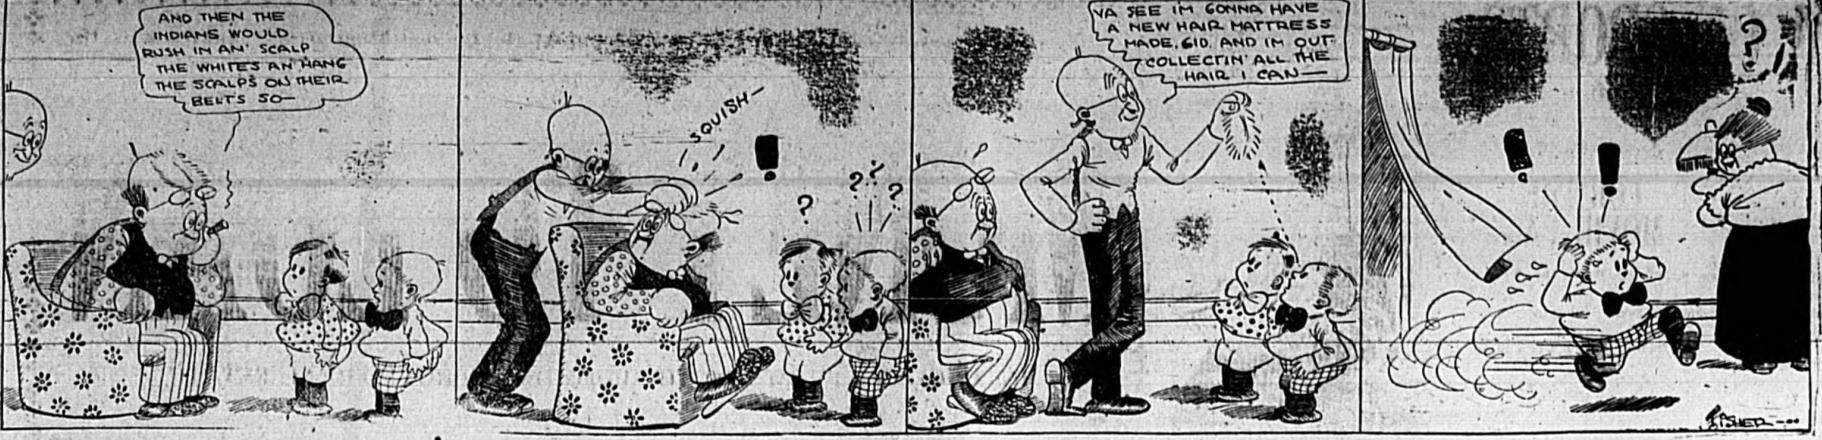

And certainly they mean satisfaction. For the advertiser whose product is not good cannot continue to advertise. The fact that I have seen a name repeated over and over again assures me that it stands for a product of quality. In speaking that name to the clerk I know I am asking for the best.

I am a more judicious shopper because I buy advertised goods. I patronize the shop that sells them.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

In the case at bar the evidence relied on to show an election on a child's part if held not sufficient, since it was wholly in parol.

The court has affirmed the judgment of the circuit court for Dade county in the case of Della E. Benoit, et al., plaintiff in error, vs. Miami Beach Electric Company, defendant in error. The opinion is by Judge Whitfield. Attorneys, Hudson and Cason, of Miami, for plaintiff in error, Frank Smathers and Willard Knight, all of Miami, for defendant in error. In an action to recover damages for the wrongful death of an unmarried adult, brought under sections 4860-4961, Revised General Statutes, 1920, by the mother as administratrix of the estate of the deceased, it appears from the plaintiff's evidence that the son was unmarried and had regularly and materially contributed to the support of the mother and that she was at least partially dependent on her son for support, though her husband was living. On this showing the court directed a verdict for the defendant and the plaintiff duly took writ or error. The supreme court reviews the statute and decisions applicable and holds that on the testimony by the mother and father of the deceased the holding of the trial court was proper, that the plaintiff as administratrix could not maintain the action under the statute since she was dependent in substantial part at least on the decedent for support which put her in a preceding class under the statute, and as one of that class could maintain the action, the mother, as administratrix had no right of action under the statute.

The court concludes by remarking: "There is no contention that the judgment should have been a dismissal instead of for the defendant and this question will not be discussed."

The court concludes by remarking: "There is no contention that the judgment should have been a dismissal instead of for the defendant and this question will not be discussed."

The court has affirmed the judgment of the circuit court for Liberty county in the case of S. I. Revell, plaintiff in error, vs. the State of Florida, defendant in error. The opinion is by Judge West. Attorneys, Kehoe and Adams, of Pensacola, for plaintiff in error; Rogers Buford, attorney general and J. G. Gaines, assistant for the state. Revell formerly clerk of the circuit court for Liberty county, was convicted of embezzlement.

The court has reversed the judgment of the circuit court for Duval county in the case of W. C. Spooner, as superintendent of the Duval County prison camp, plaintiff in error, vs. Ralph Curtiss, defendant in error. The opinion is by Judge Whitfield. Attorneys, M. M. Scarborough, assistant county solicitor of Duval county and Rivers Buford, attorney general, and J. B. Gaines, assistant for plaintiff in error. No appearance for defendant in error. Ralph Curtiss was convicted in the criminal court of record for Duval county on an information charging the unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors. On habeas corpus proceedings before the circuit judge he was discharged from custody. Writ of error was allowed and taken by the officer under the statute. The supreme court holds that the information in the case does not wholly fail to state an offense under the statute and the petitioner in the circuit court should have been remanded.

MORE ABOUT VACUUM TUBE AS A DETECTOR

How a "Three-Electrode" Is Connected in a Simple Radio Receiving Circuit.

Obviously working the tube at a point on the upper bend of knee of the characteristic curve would produce the same symmetrical changes in the plate circuit by symmetrical changes in the grid potential as it will if the tube is worked at the lower end of

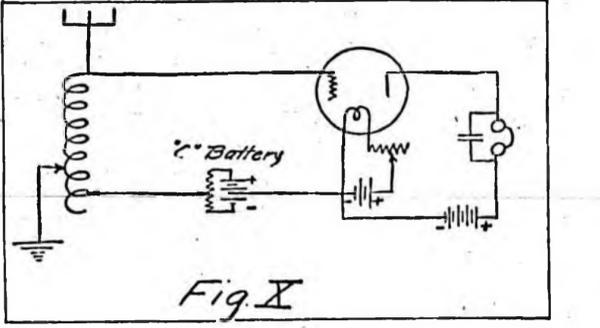

Fig. X shows how a three-electrode vacuum tube is connected in a simple radio receiving circuit. The "B" battery furnishing the necessary plate potential is connected with its positive side through the phones to the plate. The filament is heated to the required temperature by the battery "A." The incoming radio frequency alternating current is applied to the grid and the negative side of the filament through the "C" battery. By connecting the negative side of the filament to the midpoint of the "C" battery a positive potential can be applied to the grid by moving the slider on the "C" battery potentiometer up, or the grid can be made negative with respect to the filament by moving the slider on the "C" battery potentiometer down.

In practice a "B" battery is not used to force a three-electrode vacuum tube to function as a detector.

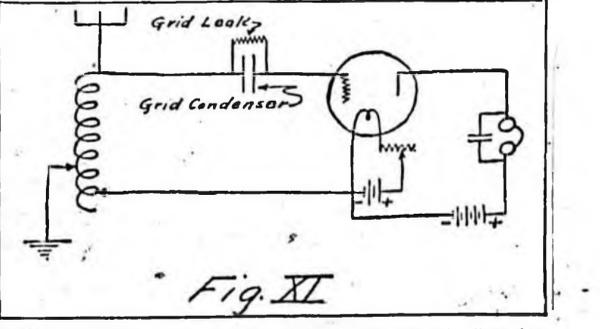

Fig. XI shows, how a so-called grid condenser and a grid leak resistance are used in combination with a three element vacuum tube so that it will function as a detector in a radio receiving circuit.

The grid condenser is connected in series with the grid of the tube and shunted by the grid leak resistance.

current would flow in the plate circuit and rapidly exhaust the "B" battery.

Should the tube, by means of the potential applied to the grid, be made to operate at a point on the characteristic curve midway between the upper and lower bends—that is, on the straight part of the curve, symmetrical variations in the grid potential would cause symmetrical change in the

The grid condenser will allow alternating current to flow to the grid but will not allow any charge that might collect on the grid to flow through it to the filament. The only way a charge that might collect on the grid could flow to the filament would be through the high resistance of about 500,000 to 2,000,000 ohms and would allow the charge on the grid to leak off slowly.
