

Sanford Wins Peanut Bowl; Tribe, Lyman Play Tonight

Locals Calm Hurricanes By 12 To 0

The Sanford Junior High School Braves came up with a stout defense last night in the sixth annual Peanut Bowl and offensively ground out a hard fought 12 to 0 victory over the South Seminole Junior High School Hurricanes.

In a contest played at Sanford's Memorial Stadium the Braves, by virtue of the win, captured the Seminole County Junior high championship for the 1963 gridiron season.

The story of the affair is almost told by the statistics department. The Braves pounded out 10 first downs compared to one for the Hurricanes. In the yardage department, the Braves rolled up a net of 120 to 58 for the South Seminoles.

The Braves cracked into the scoring column just seconds before the end of the first half.

The Hurricanes' Bob Herington came up with one of the games of the evening when he took a bad pass from center on a kicking situation and got his punt off from a spot two yards behind his own goal line. After the ball had rolled dead on the Hurricanes' 50, Sanford pulled off their initial touchdown effort.

Following an incomplete Braves pass attempt, the Hurricanes were penalized to their own 20. With the Braves in possession, see Sanford quarterback Frank Whigham hurl a 10-yard pass to Ralph Stumpf who went out of bounds on the South Seminole 10. But the Braves were penalized back to the Hurricane 84 on a clipping penalty. But Whigham on an option play carried back to the South Seminole 14. Whigham immediately came up with a 14-yard dash around his left flank and went in for the TD.

In the early minutes of the fourth stanza fullback Ron Dudley, on a seven-yard haul, picked up a first down on the Hurricane 20. Dudley racked up three more yards, Whigham carried to the 15 from where Kelly Orden sped to paydirt for the Braves' second TD.

Whigham, the big ground man for the Braves, posted a total of 58 yards. Halfback Larry Lott of the Hurricanes took second place in the individual yardage department with 25.

The Braves attempted five passes and connected on two of them for 17 yards. The Hurricanes fired four aerials but none hit the target. However, the Braves did intercept one South Seminole toss. A crowd estimated at 1,400 braved a chill breeze to witness this year's Peanut Bowl presentation.

Steeler Win Could Tighten Up Situation

The Pittsburgh Steelers, the only old-line National Football League franchise never to win a division title, arrive at "last chance gulch" Sunday for a clash with the Cleveland Browns.

By winning, the Steelers (6-3-1) can not only put themselves back into a contending position, but also can throw the Eastern Division race into a four-team scramble to include the Browns (7-1), New York Giants (6-2) and the St. Louis Cardinals (5-3).

In the Western Conference, the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears (both 7-1) face soft touches and their first-place tie is not likely to be broken until they meet in Chicago a week later. Green Bay is at home against the Minnesota Vikings (3-5) and Chicago entertains the Los Angeles Rams (2-6).

The Giants play at home against the Philadelphia Eagles (2-5-1) and the Cardinals are host to the Washington Redskins (2-6).

In Sunday's two other games, the Dallas Cowboys (2-6) and San Francisco Forty-Niners (1-7) meet on the West Coast and the Baltimore Colts (3-5) are at home against the Detroit Lions (4-4).

Here is the "line" on the games: Cleveland 3½ over Pittsburgh; Green Bay 16 over Minnesota; Chicago 10 over Los Angeles; New York 14 over Philadelphia; St. Louis 10½ over Washington; Dallas 4 over San Francisco.

Chuvalo, Alongi Fight Tonight

Chuvalo, from Toronto and Detroit and the former Canadian heavyweight champ, was a slight 8-5 favorite before the fight but the odds were shifting closer to even for the 10 p.m. EST bout.

Cager Hurt

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons, having trouble finding a scoring punch, learned today that Dave Debuschere will be out of the lineup for at least three weeks.

Crooms Plays On Saturday

By Bob Thomas Herald Sports Writer

Crooms High Panthers will meet the Campbell Street High Centipedes of Daytona Beach Saturday evening at Municipal Stadium here.

Thus far the Panthers have won four and lost two. Their last outing was unimpressive as they failed to show any scoring punch and the defense failed to arise to the occasion as it has done in past games.

However, the boys of the Orange and Maroon are not discouraged. Dick Evans, Crooms' backfield coach, seems to feel that the open date hurt rather than helped.

Crooms has an explosive team and, in my opinion, could give any team a hard time on a given day.

Many are looking forward to the Jones High game but the Panthers will think about them after Saturday night's encounter.

Concerning the Jones High game, I have one comment: "The boys from Pantherland have their work cut out for them."

To the end of 1959, 1,817,000 wells had been drilled in the U. S.; 1,139,166 oil wells, 129,517 gas wells, 491,452 dry holes and 36,961 service wells.

Seminoles Out To Ax Wildcats

By Julian Stenstrom Herald Sports Editor

Seminole High's three individual tribes—the Black Rams, Headhunters and Phantoms—are primed to pull off a raiding party tonight at Sanford's Memorial Stadium and scalp, if possible, the highly touted, talented and undefeated Wildwood High School Wildcats.

"I wouldn't miss this one for the world," said Head Seminole Coach Jim Pigott this morning as he discussed tonight's affair.

Naturally, no coach is going to miss one of his own ball games unless he's chained to a hospital bed or something like that. But Pigott said he couldn't wait for the game's opening whistle as he emphasized the peak of "spiritual" preparedness the Tribe has reached for this evening's affair.

Lions Sharpen Defense For Air Academy

By Joe Warden Herald Sports Writer

The rough and ready Oviedo Lions, fresh from a 24-0 mauling of Melbourne Central Catholic, again meet at the Lions travel to Florida Air Academy, Saturday. Game time is scheduled at 2:00 p. m.

The Florida Air Falcons are touted as one of the leading teams in central Florida. The undefeated Falcons have won seven in a row and are favored in Saturday's tilt. They have lashed many tough teams, such as Satellite Beach, Ocoee, and LaSalle, and have gained much experience from these contests.

Florida Air is a wide open team, and consequently the Falcons play a wide open brand of ball. This offense is difficult to contain, and Florida Air's opposition have found it hard to develop a defense to cope with it.

Florida Air is a big, slow, power team, which uses its stamina to overpower its opposition. The Falcons exhibit a rock-like defense which has only given up four touchdowns this year. Line playing by Joe Kenn, John White and Jim Saviano help make the difference for the Florida Air eleven.

The Falcon's offense is directed by quarterback Ray Tavalara, who is well known as a dangerous passer and a crafty play caller. Tavalara is also assisted by Norman Kurtz and Ray Pollano, who are good ground gainers for the Falcon attack. End George Garrett has also proved to be a threat, in both offense and defense.

The Lions team men and students are expressing the opinion that Oviedo can upset Florida Air and gain a second victory in a row. Coach Jim Palmer explained, "We're working hard this week for this game; there is a possibility of an upset on backs Jimmie Courler, Mikler, Brooks and Gouge to tear apart the rough Falcon offense. Also QB Jimmy Courler can be expected to throw a lot, repeating his fine performance in last week's game. Tel Bellhorn, Rex Brooks, Billy Murphy and Jimmy Sauer, top defensive men for Oviedo last week, can be expected to be in top form against the Aviators.

As the Lions were lucky in the fact that none of the team was injured in last week's tilt, the Oviedo eleven should be in good condition for Saturday's tilt. Oviedo has been developing some new plays, and the Orange and Black has set up a new defense for Florida Air.

The Lions are also trying to conquer the last chapter fade-out. Oviedo is working on fundamentals and goal defense.

Oviedo's starting lineup will probably remain the same, with the exception of first string end Jimmy Fox, who has moved to Virginia.

Georgia Works On Defense Against Passes

By United Press International

The Georgia Bulldogs sharpened pass defense in a cracking practice session Thursday and laid plans for stopping southpaw tosser Tom Shannon in their Gator Bowl meeting Saturday with Florida.

"Boy, I hate to look at that left hander," Georgia Coach Johnny Griffith said, referring to the lanky Gator quarterback. "Shannon is the only left hander we will face this year, but we must adjust our defenses solely for this game."

The game could shape up as an aerial battle between Shannon, who has 65 completions so far this year, and Georgia's Larry Bakerstar, the Southeastern conference's leading ground gainer who has 79 completions.

Coach Bobby Dodd says he is having no trouble getting his Georgia Tech team "up" for the game Saturday with Florida State. The Yellow Jackets still remember the 14-14 tie they eked out with the underdog Seminoles last year. "I'm sure we will be up," Dodd said Thursday after sending the team through a two-hour workout. "What does worry me, though, is that even playing our best, can we whip them?"

Starchiefs In League Lead

The Bill Hemphill Motorettes had Position Day this past Tuesday. The Starchiefs with 27 wins and 9 losses are in first place. The Tempestas 25-11 are second place. The Riviera's 23-13 are in third and the Bonnevilles with 22 wins and 14 losses are in fourth place.

High games and high series had Evelyn Mills of the Tempestas rolling a 190 game. Linda Post of the Bonnevilles, had 188-507. Rita Stein rolled a 186-502 and Isabel Goshorn on the Invictas pulled in 184-467.

Knocking down on two hard splits, the wide 6-7 by Mabel Duggan of the Tempestas and the 2-5-7 by Evelyn Mills also on the Tempestas.

Rolling strikes, the "Turkey" made four bowlers happy, Mabel Duggan, Elisabeth Harich, Isabel Goshorn and Evelyn Mills.

Two Tied In Sinatra Open

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — Bob Rosburg, 37-year old veteran of the golfing wars, and Frank Beard, a yearling pro, ran one-two today in the second round of the $50,000 72-hole Frank Sinatra Open.

Rosburg, who hasn't won a tournament since 1961, grabbed a one-stroke lead in the first round Thursday when he shot a four-under par 67 on the Canyon Country Club course.

Fight Results

United Press International: LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sergio Gomez, 134½, Mexico City, outpointed Jimmy Fields, 134, Los Angeles (10); Lucio Gomez, 126, Mexico City; outpointed Jerry Bodish, 128, Chicago (5); Fernando Gomez, 134, Mexico City, outpointed Jose Hueso, 134½, Tijuana, Mexico (5).

Hungry Hounds Play Mt. Dora

The Lyman Greyhounds meet the Mt. Dora eleven tonight at 8 p. m. in the Mt. Dora Stadium.

The Greyhounds are hungry for victory after their last three losses in as many outings. The first of these losses came when the Hounds fell to the hands of the Titusville Terriers 28-6. The second was when the Hounds dropped the tilt to the Blue Waves of P. K. Yonge of Gainesville. Last week's outing with the Auburndale Bloodhounds was a heartbreaker to all of the Greyhound fans when the field goal attempt was ruled no good.

The Greyhounds who have been working all week for this game are expected to take it by at least three touchdowns. The backfield combination of Hundley and Lyle are expected to be the big runners of this week's game just as they were last week when they met the Auburndale eleven. The line who did a tremendous job of opening the line up for the Hounds backs making it possible to out do their opponents in every field except in points.

Gene Griffen who has been doing a real fine job at quarterback so far this season is expected to use his strong passing arm more than usual now that both the starting ends are back in action.

Thursday was spent in a light practice with the prime motive being defense against the plays the Mt. Dora team will be using.

The probable starting lineup for the Greyhounds: Ends—Bill Burkhardt, Gene Winkelman; Tackles—Keith Salmie, Hilton Bennett; Guards—Dennis Fletzer, Dick Balmer; Center—Chuck Wagner; Halfbacks—Frank Hundley, Pete Carlson; Quarterbacks—Les Griffen; Fullback—Les Lyle.

Half time entertainment will be provided by the Lyman High School marching band and the Mt. Dora High School marching band.

Grudge Race To Headline Drag

SANFORD—A grudge race between two of this area's hottest stock cars and a special field of more than 40 sports cars will headline Saturday's action at the Osceola Airport drag strip.

The bi-weekly Seminole Timing Association program gets underway with time trials at 7:30 p. m. Eliminations follow at 9:30.

Officials report the racing field will be pushed beyond the 100 mark by some 40 entries from the Central Florida Sports Car Club.

But the main attraction will be a best-two-of-three runoff between Orlando's Bob Tucker, driving an aluminum body 1963 Chevrolet, and Red Snell of Cocoa in the Al Hodges Racing Team's 1963 aluminum Tempest station wagon. Each has been clocked in the 12-second range for the quarter mile. The winner of Saturday's grudge match will win $100.

In other competition, Sanford's Jim Kennedy and his 1963 Plymouth will defend their Top Stock Eliminator title against last meet's top challenger, Gene McMahan. McMahan, who drives a 425 hp 1963 Chevrolet, hails from Lake Joe.

Some of the other area contenders are: Bob Stoddard, Cocoa, 1963 Plymouth; Jim Bowen, Sanford, 1961 Pontiac; Red Edwards, Orlando 1963½ Falcon Sprint; Billy Fine, Cocoa, 1960 Chevy, and Pat Patterson, Cocoa, 1961 Chevrolet.

About Sports Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

When the Seminole High School football machine takes the field tonight against the Wildwood High School Wildcats this year's gala homecoming will reach its climax.

The spotlight will be on most of Seminole High's top-notch gridgers, on the sparkling SIS band, and on many of the school's fine students.

But perhaps the most overlooked crew at Sanford's Memorial Stadium probably will be the men who make up Seminole's outstanding coaching staff.

We're speaking of Head Coach Jim Pigott and his pair of varsity aides, Jim McCoy and Dick Williams. Dick handles the backfield while McCoy takes on the responsibility of keeping Pigott's line-men in shape, talented, and ready to perform at peak ability.

Today we want to put the spotlight on Pigott, McCoy and Williams. They've done a marvelous job thus far this season. The success the Seminoles have enjoyed is due to some fine football play but the top-notch football performances have been due to the type of coaching the youngsters have received.

Not only are these men good coaches, they're also very fine men. In fact, you've yet to meet three nicer fellows. They're gentlemen in every sense of the word.

Not long ago we ran into a duplicated sheet that caught our attention. It was a "Code of Ethics for Coaches" at Seminole. We'd like to call your attention to the items listed in this code.

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

"The coach is the individual most influential in the conduct of the athletic program. His influence on boys' lives is almost unlimited, and, knowing his responsibility to the coach should:

1. Make his work an integral part of the school system with its educational contribution. Athletic fields and gymnasiums are among the greatest laboratories in education.
2. Above all, be a teacher and a master of the principles of teaching and coaching.
3. Be loyal to all his superiors at all times.
4. Insist on high scholarship of athletes, and the rigid enforcement of all rules concerning training and eligibility.
5. Be certain that he has an up-to-date knowledge of what he proposes to teach in athletics.
6. Maintain a fair and unprejudiced relationship with his players and have their physical welfare uppermost in his consideration at all times.
7. Insist on and teach athletes to win by use of fair and legal tactics only.
8. Allow absolutely no smoking, alcoholic beverages, gambling, profanity, or obscene language at any place or any time.
9. Strive to be the type of coach that you as a parent would like to have coach your own son.
10. Attend the church of his choice regularly and strongly urge your players to do the same."

CHuovalo, Alongi Fight Tonight

Chuvalo, from Toronto and Detroit and the former Canadian heavyweight champ, was a slight 8-5 favorite before the fight but the odds were shifting closer to even for the 10 p.m. EST bout.

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons, having trouble finding a scoring punch, learned today that Dave Debuschere will be out of the lineup for at least three weeks.

Crooms Plays On Saturday

By Bob Thomas Herald Sports Writer

Crooms High Panthers will meet the Campbell Street High Centipedes of Daytona Beach Saturday evening at Municipal Stadium here.

Thus far the Panthers have won four and lost two. Their last outing was unimpressive as they failed to show any scoring punch and the defense failed to arise to the occasion as it has done in past games.

However, the boys of the Orange and Maroon are not discouraged. Dick Evans, Crooms' backfield coach, seems to feel that the open date hurt rather than helped.

Crooms has an explosive team and, in my opinion, could give any team a hard time on a given day.

Many are looking forward to the Jones High game but the Panthers will think about them after Saturday night's encounter.

Concerning the Jones High game, I have one comment: "The boys from Pantherland have their work cut out for them."

Smoking Moms Give Birth To Smaller Babies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—One of the nation's leading obstetricians says cigarette smoking by expectant mothers resulted in births of smaller infants.

Dr. Paul B. Underwood Jr., of Charleston, S. C., made the statement in one of several research reports presented at the annual meeting of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

Underwood, head of the South Carolina Medical College obstetrics and gynecology department, said a survey showed that the heavier the smoker, the smaller infants were at birth.

He said 4,440 women representing more than 16,000 pregnancies were interviewed between 1960 and 1962. Those questioned were divided into groups of smokers and non-smokers.

The women who smoked were then separated as to the quantity of cigarettes used—a half pack, one pack and more than a pack a day.

Underwood said the study showed that women who did not smoke gave birth to heavier infants than did mothers who smoked only a pack a day. He said even smaller infants were born to women who smoked more than a pack a day.

Quick-Thinking Trucker Saves Couples' Lives

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—A quick-thinking truck driver credited with saving the lives of a young Army private and his wife who lay injured Sunday in a wrecked car straddling some railroad tracks.

W. R. Fiddle, 45, of Henderson, Ky., was hauling his rig behind a car driven by Pvt. Richard T. Dillard, 20, and his wife, Carolyn, 19, who were on their way home in Memphis from Ft. Campbell, Ky.

The car blew a tire and crashed through a bridge, plunged down an embankment and landed in the path of a fast-moving Louisville & Nashville passenger train.

The Chinese invented the first true paper in 103 A.D.

"I was scared to death it wouldn't stop," said Eddie. He whipped out two flares from his truck and dashed down to the tracks where he waved the train down. It stopped and trainmen helped him pull the couple from the wrecked car.

Ordeal Is Over

Though the United States has recognized the new regime in long-troubled South Viet Nam, it can only hope for a more settled nation and a more effectively prosecuted war against the Communist Viet Cong.

Most promising at this stage seems to be the fact that the successful coup against the Diem regime was supported by virtually all of Viet Nam's major military leaders.

The expectation now is that military morale will soar, since the late President Diem sought in recent years to divide his military leadership to discourage just such an event as has occurred. The leaders are eager to pursue the war more avidly.

Furthermore, early reactions from the Vietnamese people, especially in the capital of Saigon, suggest strongly that the change is not merely welcome, but that it may yield benefits to the populace.

The much-harassed Buddhists, who comprise 70 per cent of the population, appear to believe that their long ordeal is over. Some who were jailed have now been released.

When Diem took over in 1955 as his country's first president, proclaiming a republic, hopes were high. His sturdy nationalism encouraged the West to believe he could keep the little nation safe from Communist assault, given aid from us.

But far too soon he resorted to repressive measures which discredited his regime before the people, handicapped the conduct of the war which developed with the Viet Cong, embarrassed us in our efforts to support a nation whose survival is independence is vital to the freedom of all Southeast Asia and thus to the world.

The symbol of Diem's increasing oppressions was his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, his chief adviser and head of the secret police, and Madame Nhu, whom the coup found still traveling in America.

Now Diem and Nhu are dead and the little country has a chance to make a new start. The United States, with 16,500 troops in Viet Nam and an aid program totaling nearly $500 million a year, has a tremendous stake in the future of the new regime.

If Viet Nam's independence is to be saved, obviously the new leadership must succeed with the people. Without that, no observer of the Asian scene would imagine that even a substantially improved war effort would in the end bring victory. For the Viet Cong fattens on the discontent of the Vietnamese.

Perhaps, nevertheless, optimism is the note to strike now. Change brings hope, and we have had great change in Viet Nam.

It's Bottled Health

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Spiritually speaking, the population is divided into two parts — those who regard alcohol as a curse and those who regard it as a blessing.

Among the latter group, apparently, is an organization called the Physicians' Wine Appreciation Society.

I have at hand a press release reporting that six members of the society recently made a tour of the vineyards of Portugal. This stimulating bit of news was accompanied by a compendium of testimonials to the medicinal powers of the grape and the grain.

I gather that practitioners of the healing arts from Hippocrates on down have been impressed by the therapeutic qualities of bottled spirits.

Some of them appear to regard a beaker of booze as the next best thing to a phial of penicillin.

"Moderate use of beverage alcohol improves the amplitude and force of the heart, the mass movement of the blood, the output of the heart and the efficiency of the circulation," one medicine commented.

Another noted that "when nitrates are not available, an ounce or two of whisky or wine may give quite rapid relief for angina pectoris."

A nip or two before a meal "stimulates gastric, pancreatic and intestinal juices," said a third.

Hooch also was credited with improving digestion, reducing tensions and promoting sleep. It likewise was represented as having beneficial effects in cases of arthritis, gout, diabetes, old age and the common cold.

A test carried out by a biologist was said to have indicated that moderate drinkers live longer than teetotalers.

Press releases are not always the last word in scientific accuracy, but this one certainly gave me a new perspective of fermented mash.

Being eager to observe its curative properties under clinical conditions, I repaired to the health bar at the National Press Club for laboratory study.

It was amusing to see so many health-seeking journalists lined up in the taproom to receive shots. Some were getting shots of bourbon; others shots of scotch.

I talked with one patient who was improving his circulation with a martini. His circulation was so good it even showed in his eyeballs.

I wouldn't be surprised if the bartenders got arrested for practicing medicine without a license.

Italian Economy Up

On the surface, Italians never had had it so good. Wages were up and sales of automobiles, refrigerators and television sets were booming.

Unemployment — not counting the unemployables — was down almost to zero.

And of the nations of Western Europe, only West Germany and France had more money in the bank.

But underneath there was trouble, some of it due to the very factors mentioned above and some of it political where Italy's large Communist party saw its greatest chance since 1948.

Events of the next few weeks would determine Italy's immediate future.

Politically, the question was whether Italy's largest political party, the Christian Democrats, could or would renew its partnership with the left-wing Socialists of Pietro Nenni to set up a governing center-left coalition. A previous attempt under former Premier Amintore Fanfani collapsed after last April 28 elections in which the Communists picked up a million votes.

Caught in the ensuing tug-of-war were the Nenni Socialists who in their party congress this week will be asked to decide whether to continue their ties with the Communist party or accept a sufficiently moderate stand as to permit renewal of their partnership with the Christian Democrats.

The Communist part in the campaign followed a familiar pattern of strikes and violence, including one particularly violent demonstration in Rome and resulting injury to 150 Roman police.

A pawn in the struggle is the Italian economy whose rise has been among the most spectacular of all the European Common Market countries.

Part of the price paid by the Christian Democrats in the last experiments with center-left government was agreement to Socialist demands for nationalization of the electric power industry.

The result was an investment panic which saw capital investment fall a quarter of a billion dollars below estimates and a flight of money to Switzerland.

At the same time, a tight labor market touched off a wage-price spiral which in turn started a consumer boom.

Consumer spending continues to be the largest single factor in the Italian economy but also continues to be a mixed blessing. This year for the first time since the 1950's Italy will show a deficit in its balance of payments as result of the heavy flow of imports.

The stopgap government of Premier Giovanni Leone is to stop down within the next few weeks to make way for what still is expected to be a coalition of Christian Democrats and Socialists.

Worry Clinic

"As the twig is bent, runs an old truism, 'so will the tree be inclined.'" See how perfectly Russell Hirschman proves that point. And by all means send for the "Behavior Test" below. Use it in high school discussions and for Sunday School, too.

CASE R-401: Russell Hirschman is one of the top officials of the Indiana Bell Telephone Company. He is also most active in church and civic affairs in his home city of Indianapolis.

But when he finished college and started to work for the telephone company, he was given the job of collecting the coins from pay telephones.

"Aren't you buying a new automobile?" his boss inquired after Russell had been on the job a few weeks.

Russell shook his head. "Then aren't you purchasing a diamond ring for a girl friend?"

Again Russell disclaimed any such buying spree.

"Why do you ask?" he finally inquired.

"Well," his boss replied, "the fellows who had your job ahead of you were all stealing money from their collections."

"One was buying a new automobile. Another was paying for an expensive diamond ring."

"They were all embezzling part of the collections from our pay telephone boxes."

"So we have checked you by sending detectives ahead to count the coins in the telephone boxes."

But you have never stolen a nickel or a dime.

"So we are making you manager of the telephone company in a neighboring city."

slaved by such bad habits as stealing or smoking or drinking or using dope or profligacy.

You parents should thus be sure you train your youngsters so they will be addicts of good habits instead of bad.

Remember, in adult life, we are all slaves to our past habits!

So the basic secret of success is to make sure at the outset that we select and practice good habits till we automatically do the right thing at all times.

Alas, millions of teen-agers nowadays haven't had Russell Hirschman's superb training in honesty.

One of the leading church colleges in Indiana recently found that over 50 per cent of the senior class admitted to cheating on exams.

And that figure runs up to 75 per cent for many other colleges!

Yet cheating on exams is actually stealing! It is a direct violation of one of the Ten Commandments.

And shoplifting is now widespread, with the bulk of it by teen-agers!

Alas, when caught, they show little chagrin at being thieves, but are simply irked because they were detected!

Bad children usually indicate bad parents!

And many parents are bad because of their sins of omission, for few parents deliberately tutor their children to steal.

So send for my "Behavior Test for Teen-Agers," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents. Use it to help "bend the twig" early!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NRA)—A new kind of advocate for passage of a strong civil rights bill by Congress has appeared on the capital scene.

He is Jerome Smith, a 34-year-old Negro from New Orleans, who is a field secretary and organizer for CORE — the Committee on Racial Equality—and the Advancement of Colored People.

He was one of the original freedom riders in the South. He has been arrested 12 or 13 times, he says, imprisoned three months in Mississippi and a month in Louisiana for breach of the peace.

Young Smith is appearing in Washington under the sponsorship of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

This is a federation of 65 church, labor union and Negro organizations which have pooled efforts to lobby for stronger legislation than the moderate Kennedy bill.

Smith's assignment is to call on congressmen to let them see what a young Negro leader looks like, how he talks, what he is thinking. But he says he has been having trouble seeing anyone. Congressmen are so busy.

He is a tall, slender, clean-cut young Negro. He wears blue denim, a blue cotton shirt open at the collar and tieless to show a clean white cotton undershirt.

"This is the uniform of the cotton fields," he says simply. "I'm part of the cheap labor of the South."

He has worked on the docks and helped his father, who is an auto body repairman in New Orleans.

They have trained him almost too well. His phrases are too glib from repetition. His vocabulary and English are good, but he uses too many big words. His sincerity and devotion, however, come through.

It is not pleasant to hear what he has to say, and it may be more shocking to read. But it is worth hearing and reading because it brings you right up against what the Negro masses in America are being told by their own people in this period of internal strife and confusion.

"I'm appalled by the controversy over the civil rights bill," he begins. "When government has a conflict with itself, it has forgotten about the country and the people. The Negro will lose faith in his government if this goes on."

"It's suicide to think that the President's bill will suffice for the Negro in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. What was good yesterday is not good enough for today. All America must go for broke to make sure we get a broad bill."

"I don't believe the president understands the passion of the people in the street. My freedom does not reside in President Kennedy but in myself. He's not after what I'm after. My concern is not whether the President gets re-elected."

"I put thumbs down on moderation. I can't think in terms of moderation while police beat us over the head and dogs rip up our flesh. But I'm plain enough to know that bitterness won't help. I must use my energies to bring about creative change.

"I am nonviolent. But that doesn't represent the attitude of the masses of people in the country."

"Nonviolence is not a constant thing. This is not consistent with human nature. They will finally react out of sheer frustration. The mood of the world is bringing about change."

"Every Negro in America is active. This is nothing new. It has been going on since the first Negroes came to America in chains."

Force of air rushing over wings and fuselage of fastest supersonic aircraft is 10 to 12 times greater than that of any recorded hurricane.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our mother, remarried two years ago. My brother, my sister and I are all in the teenage group and we get quite a few telephone calls. Well, here is the problem. Our last name is Henderson, but our mother changed her name to Lupowitz when she married again. Our stepfather is a very nice man, but he wants us to answer the telephone, "Lupowitz's residence." When we do, the other person says, "Sorry, I've got the wrong number," and hangs up. Don't you think we should be able to answer the telephone, "Henderson's residence"?

MISSING CALLS
DEAR ABBY: Ask your stepfather if you can't just say "Hello" and not make a Federal case out of it.

DEAR ABBY: Is there such a thing as a person being able to drive another person out of her mind? If there is, I think that is what is happening to me. I have an aunt who takes pleasure in saying things that hurt me. Like when I had my second child — it was another girl. She married into my hospital room and said, "Oh, I wish you had had a boy for your husband. He looks sooo disappointed." On another occasion, when she saw my daughter all dressed up in her Sunday best, she remarked, "Such a pretty dress. Pity the child is so fat she doesn't look good in anything!" That woman has hurt me deeper than anyone I've ever known, and I've never done a thing to deserve it. My husband says, "Pay no attention to her — she's ignorant!" How can you get along with a person like that? She lives near me and visits often.

SICK AT HEART
DEAR ABBY: If your aunt were only ignorant, you could forgive her. She's vicious. Why try to get a long without her. You'll live longer.

DEAR ABBY: My husband asked me what I wanted for my twelfth wedding anniversary and I said, "A divorce." I know it is out of the question because of my religion, but I really would almost rather be alone with the kids than living like this. I am 39 and we have six kids, which I have had to raise practically by myself. I am tired of covering up for my husband when he is late from work, or on a weekend binge. I have nobody to blame but myself because I ran off and married this guy against my parents' wishes. I was 17 and he was 19. Please keep telling young people not to rush into marriage. Forever is a long time.

Take a look at the South hand only. You open one heart and your partner responds one no-trump. What is your rebid? Two hearts is nice and conservative, four hearts might prove to be a winner. How about two spades? If your partner is likely to respond one no-trump with four spades in his hand, that would be a pretty good choice. This particular North never made such a response, so South abandoned any idea of a spade rebid and finally settled on three hearts. He intended to pass if North went on to three no-trump, but North had already bid too much and passed. West's diamond king held the first trick. South ruffed the diamond continuation. By this time you have probably looked at all the hands and have seen that South will make his contract if he attacks either hearts or spades. South couldn't see all the cards. He had to choose the suit to play and he led the king of spades. South counted nine tricks provided he could make four hearts, one spade and four clubs. He had to knock out the ace of spades sometime or other. He also had to draw trumps, but if he played a spade there was a good chance that the defense would play trumps for him. That is exactly what they did. East took his ace of spades and led a trump to his partner's ace. West returned a trump and South ran off his contract.

"LET'S TALK DRY CLEANING"
By - WOODROW CASE
Winter time is party time, especially during the holidays. As any woman knows, parties are more fun if you're dressed for them. Parties and women's party clothes and formal are on the really elegant side this year. Devastatingly bouffant dresses in a splendor of color lead the fashion parade, many accented with sparkling jewels and ornaments.
To dry clean such clothing successfully, not only must the fabric from which the garment is made be considered, but also each material (including trimming) which goes to make up the entire article.
As a rule, ornaments, jewels and metal and stone-studded buttons must be removed before dry cleaning. Sequins and other bead trimmings are usually too numerous to be taken off and require very special cleaning care. Trimmings that are a different color than that of the main garment have to be tested to make sure that the colors won't "bleed."
You can trust the cleaning of your precious formal to us with complete confidence that we will give them attentive care and return them to you impeccably clean and new-looking. Remember, with fine clothes especially, the sweetness of low price never makes up for the bitterness of low quality! We pickup and deliver, at 7:30-9:30 p.m. NBC, Monday Night at the Movies. "Face of the Bride." This is a good chance to compare the Elizabeth Taylor of today and of her pre-"Cleopatra" days. She was 13 years younger when she starred in this comedy about the trial and tribulations of a father whose daughter is about to take the big step. Spencer Tracy gives a good portrayal of the suffering father and Joan Bennett is a very pretty and talented mother.

8:30-9 p.m. CBS, The Lucy Show. The plot here doesn't get as many laughs as usual till the surprise ending when the laugh is really on a very embarrassed Lucy (Lucille Ball). Lucy has what she thinks is good reason to believe banker Mooney is an embezzler and gets Viv (Vivian Vance) to help her dig for the loot in Mooney's backyard.
9:30 p.m. CBS, The Danny Thomas Show. In his frequent appearances as Uncle Tonnoco, Hans Conried usually steals all the laughs with his sputtering bombast, but this time he's fairly matched by equally hippy Florence Hale, who plays his fiancée Matilda. Tonnoco introduces Matilda as his bride-to-be, but it doesn't take long for Danny and Kathy (Danny Thomas and Marjorie Lord) to realize it would be a bad match for Tonnoco.

Mt. Dora Beats Lyman 13 To 6

By Dick Grant
(Herald Sports Writer)

The Lyman Greyhounds lost to the Mount Dora Hurricanes Friday 13 to 6.

The Hurricanes received the opening kickoff and returned the ball 20 yards to the 30 yard line. The 'Hounds defense held and forced the Hurricanes to punt. The Hurricanes, with the ball on the Dora 17, started down field. On the first play Les Lyle made a 60 yard dash. Pete Carson gained 20. Carlson drove over from the three for a TD. Quarterback Gene Griffin kicked the extra point.

Following the kickoff Mount Dora again lost the ball on downs after a 23 yard drive. The Greyhounds racked up a quick 31 yards only to fumble on a reverse and Tanner of the Hurricanes pounced on the ball. Mt. Dora completed a pass, Tanner from Carver, for six yards. On the next play a penalty against Lyman gave the Hurricanes a first down. The 'Hounds then knocked down three passes. The fourth was overthrown and Lyman had a first and ten on the Lyman 41. On the first scrimmage play Carlson was thrown for a one-yard loss but came right back and scampered 49 yards to put the ball on the Mount Dora 10.

Phil Perrault pushed for another two yards to put the ball on the 8. Griffin attempted a pass but he was thrown for a 10 loss. Mount Dora took over on their 18.

The 'Cats, on ground plays, drove to the Lyman 45. Then the Hurricanes took once more to the air with a 45 yard touchdown pass from Carver to Shively. The extra tackle was kicked by Grantham.

Florida Air's Passes Down Oviedo 40-13

By Joe Warden
(Herald Sports Writer)

The Oviedo Lions, Rated a four-to-one underdog, Saturday were overpowered by the undefeated Florida Air Academy "Fighting Falcons," 40-13. The Falcons were great on the ground and in the air, with quarterback Ray Talavero hitting on 18 out of 16 passes for 144 yards. The passing attack of the Lions failed to materialize due to the constant red-dogging of the Falcons. Oviedo also was hindered in the rushing department, as the Florida Air line proved to be too big and fast.

Oviedo won the toss and chose to receive the ball, but the Lion's hopes for an early touchdown were destroyed by a Falcon recovery of an Orange and Black fumble. Florida Air took advantage of their good luck and marched 85 yards for the tally, with Norman Kurts sweeping left and for the score. Ron Chabrier caught a Talavero aerial for the conversion.

Oviedo bounced back in the second stanza to trim the margin to 7-6 on a running altercal play that covered 55 yards. The Lions began their drive by moving the ball from their own 35 to their 15 yard line. Halfback Billy Mielker took the handoff from Courier and bulled his way 23 yards before running into resistance. Caught in a tight position, he lateraled to end Ted Bellhorn, who went the remaining 32 yards for the marker. Colbert's try for the PAT was blocked.

The Falcons also retaliated during the second stanza, with quarterback Talavero tossing a 25 yarder to end Ray Politano, who went into the end zone for the score. The Falcons' tally came as the result of a 57 yard drive, that featured the passing of Talavero for 31 yards. Politano also snagged an aerial for the conversion.

Oviedo had a good chance of scoring again in the second, as the Lions mustered up a 10 yard drive behind the passing of Courier to Brooks and Gouge.

The big play of the drive came on a 30 yard pass to Gouge from Courier, with Brooks repeating the performance on the next play by going 15 yards on a pass play. Yet the Lions were unable to capitalize on their good fortune, as the Falcons held them for the full count.

Florida Air exhibited precision blocking on the kickoff beginning the second half, as Ray Politano took the ball on his own 15 yard line and galloped 85 yards for the touchdown. Seven plays later the Falcons blocked an Oviedo punt and recovered the ball on the Oviedo 11. Cheshire ran for 3, and Norman Kurts followed on a 10 yard jaunt, sweeping right and for the tally.

The fourth period witnessed two touchdowns by the Falcons and one by the Lions. The first Falcon tally came on an 18 yard pass to Politano from Talavero. This play eliminated a 56 yard drive by the Falcons. The Falcons then followed up less than a minute later by driving 87 yards under the passing and running direction of Talavero, who ran for 20 and passed for 23 yards. Cheshire made the TD by bucking across from one yard out.

Oviedo's last score came in the closing minute of the ball game, as Courier lateraled to Brooks, who completely stunned the crowd by tossing the ball downfield to Mielker, who was in the clear.

WILDWOOD QUARTERBACK GERALD BRAMLETT, one of the finest signal callers to oppose Seminole High this season is thrown for a second period loss of some 11 yards after being trapped deep in his own territory by Sanford ends Mike Fordham (No. 85) and Larry Watson (No. 84). This is the kind of defensive work that halted the high scoring Wildcats in Seminole's 34 to 14 win. (Herald Photo)

SEMINOLE HALFBACK BUDDY LAWSON scoots around his left flank and breaks into the clear on a 45-yard touchdown gallop for his third score of the night as the Tribe blasted previously undefeated Wildwood by a score of 84 to 14. Halfback Billy Smith (No. 45) and fullback Joey West (No. 30) missed in their effort to halt the fleet Sanford ball carrier.

Crooms Beats Centipedes By 41 To 6

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
(Herald Sports Writer)

The Crooms High Panthers rolled over the Campbell Street Centipedes of Daytona Beach Saturday by a score of 41-6. The Panther defense played a major role in the victory. The tackling was vicious and the line play was savage as the pigskin was jarred loose from the Centipede backs. The defense was led by George Bush, aided by Henry Byrd, Edward Boston, Terry Williams, John Knight and James Browdy.

Late in the first period, the Panthers capitalized on a Centipede miscue and recovered on the seven yard line. Hildrad Green made four yards as the first period ended. At the beginning of the second quarter, Green gained two; Prichard was stopped for no gain. On the next play Green crashed in for the score. Periman Brinson ran for the conversion.

Al Fleming of the Centipedes gave the crowd a thrill as he took the kickoff on the 10-yard line and ran up the middle for 80 yards and a score. The try for point after was no good.

Late in the second quarter a Panther defensive play jarred the ball loose from Campbell Street's quarterback. David Peterson, the swivel-hipped halfback, slashed to the six-yard stripe. On the next play it was Peterson again as he slammed into the end zone for the touchdown. Brinson swept right end for the PAT.

Early in the third quarter, the boys of the orange and maroon mounted a drive. Peterson rambled for 15 yards, and Andrew James passed to Brinson for 13 yards. Campbell Street was penalized 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct on the play moving the ball deep into the Centipedes' territory. On the next play, the shifty Peterson boomed in for the TD. Green drove in for the conversion.

A blocked punt that ended up on the Centipede 15-yard line, gave Crooms another break. Peterson drilled for seven yards to the seven-yard line, and Green went in for the score. Green ran for the extra point.

The Centipedes failed to cover an on-side kick, and a Panther pounced on the ball. After three plays, the Panthers pulled a switch. Gunn who is a quarterback, passed to first string quarterback Andrew James for the score. The try for the extra point was no good.

Thomas Wilson of the Panthers intercepted a pass deep in Campbell's territory. James passed to Peterson, he shifted into high gear and sped to pay dirt to close out the scoring.

Lawson Shines With Four TDs

By John Stenstrom
(Herald Sports Editor)

Although it wasn't scheduled it turned out to be "Buddy Lawson" night last Friday at Memorial Stadium when the Sanford youngster ratched up four touchdowns in a five-TD effort as the Seminoles wrote a book on how to tame a Wildcat.

The end result was a tremendous 84 to 14 victory over Wildwood in a ball game that was a touch-and-go affair for the first three periods.

It was Wildwood's first defeat in six games and Sanford's sixth win in seven trips into the arena.

A record crowd of 4,800 jammed every available seat in the park for the successful climax to the school's 1963 homecoming festivities.

It was a whale of a ball game from the opening kickoff. In fact, the manner in which the Wildcats started things off startled the Seminoles as well as the capacity audience.

Halfback Ray Smith of the 'Cats returned Lloyd Freeman's opening kickoff from the 14 to the 22-yard line. Halfback Randy Smith, on a long pitchout from quarterback Gerald Bramlett, high-tailed it 63 yards before being hauled down on the Seminole 15. Randy Jones, on the next play, scampered 13 yards on another long pitchout to set up Smith's brief two-yard trip into paydirt. Jones ran in for the extra point and the wildcats led 7 to 0.

The Seminoles took an on-side kick on their own 50 and worked the pigskin to the Wildwood 19 before giving it up on downs.

Here the Seminole defense began to shine. After the 'Cats moved the ball from the 18 to their own 39, Bramlett was tossed for a 15-yard loss, Jones dropped three yards.

It looks like Jolly Roger Staubach is going to call the good ship Navy straight into Dallas for a New Year's engagement against the land forces of Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

What would be one of the most attractive bowl pairings in the college football ranks came closer to reality Saturday when Staubach passed the fourth-ranked Middle to a 42-7 trouncing of Maryland and top-ranked Texas kept its perfect record intact by beating Baylor, 7-0.

Navy can insure a bid by disposing of Duke next Saturday and arch-rival Army Nov. 30 while the Longhorns would be in by winning one of their final two games against Texas Christian on Saturday or Texas A&M Thanksgiving Day.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Sidelights on the Seminole-Wildwood presentation:

It was Buddy Lawson's night to shine. Mother said there'd be nights like that. Trouble is, they don't come in bunches like bananas.

Prior to Friday night's contest Wildwood had given up only 32 points to their opposition. The Seminoles sort of played havoc with that mark.

We didn't know the clock was supposed to run on point-after-touchdown attempts. But it did during the PAT try following Wildwood's first score.

Wildwood was nicked for a 15-yard, unsportsmanlike conduct penalty in the final period. Blame not the Wildcats. Wildwood's coach, Byrd Whigham allegedly told the head linesman what he thought of the officiating.

Unofficially, the 4,800 patrons was a record crowd to see the Seminoles in a home contest. If this keeps up Seminole County is going to have to build a football stadium. As far as we're concerned the county could sure use one.

From where we sit — almost over the south goal posts on top of the baseball grandstand — we've noticed many a ball carrier mistake the left field foul line for the football field sideline. To whom it may concern: the gridiron needs remarking.

Packers, Bears THE Game

By United Press International

The National Football League stages the game-of-the-year next Sunday in Chicago and a few million fans are wondering just what the Green Bay Packers' super-team will do against the Bears' amazing defense.

Defense? That's the fad among the best NFL clubs as the season goes into its 10th week with two-team ties for first place in both divisions.

The rough-tough Pittsburgh Steelers put forth their best defense to upset Jimmy Brown and the Cleveland Browns, 9-7, Sunday and throw the Eastern Division into a four-team rat-race. The New York Giants (7-2) pulled even with the Browns for the lead by drubbing the Philadelphia Eagles, 42-31.

The Bears had little except defense as they held the Los Angeles Rams to a net total of 88 yards rushing and passing and won, 6-0, on Roger LeClerc's two field goals.

The Packers' defense kept the Minnesota Vikings in line until the champs pulled away in the second half on John
