Mexican Military Aviators Will Form Convoy For Airmen Who Spanned Ocean

MEXICO CITY, June 27. (A.P.)—Military aviators were ordered today to fly to Minatitlan to form a convoy for the bodies of two Spanish transatlantic fliers who crashed recently enroute from Havana to Mexico City. Captain Buchanan and Lieutenant Collier were found dead in the plane's wreckage in a lagoon at Tabasco. It is believed the plane was wrecked by a violent storm.

The aviators, who recently flew across the Atlantic from Sevilla, Spain, to Camaguey, took off early last Tuesday from the Cuban capital for this city. They were last reported flying over Tabasco, Yucatan, mountains, swamps, jungles and plains in Southern Mexico had been searched by land, sea and air.

The wreckage and the bodies, the reports said, were found in the jungle several miles from a place known as Alacran, approximately 150 miles west of Carmen, Campeche, where the plane was reported about 10 A. M. last Tuesday.

The discovery was made Sunday by a man identified only as "Newer," presumably a field man for the British Eagle Oil Company which is doing exploratory work in that region.

A message to the company from its Houston office at the camp of Agua Dulce, Vera Cruz State, said the bodies were found Sunday with the news of the discovery. He had found the wreckage in the plane wreckage with the fliers dead in the cockpit.

Later dispatches said that military commanders at Minatitlan and Puerto Mexico, approximately 80 miles west of Alacran, had confirmed the reports and were enroute to the scene aboard launches.

Kiwians Attend Joint Meeting At SanLando Springs

Eight Sanford Kiwanians returned from San Lando Springs club house shortly after midnight last night to report that the joint meeting of Sanford, Orlando and Winter Park Kiwanis Clubs held in observance of International All-Kiwanis Night was a brilliant affair.

Arriving early, the Sanford party joined nearly 50 other Kiwanians in a program that continued until midnight. A buffet supper augmented with soft drinks was served throughout the evening.

The program included several songs by the Orlando delegation; presentation of two young women dancers accompanied by string orchestra, and finally a well-received musical program rendered by the Winter brothers of Lake Mary who were Sanford's local attraction.

At 11:00 o'clock, the delegation began the international observance of the program by singing patriotic and club songs. Listening to the reading of the President's address, and short talks by local officials.

President Howard Overlin headed off the Sanford delegation which included C. O. Bore, Bill DuBois, W. E. Bachary, B. D. Caswell, Ray W. Edgar, Strickland, and Johnson.

Commodities, Stocks Surge To New Highs

NEW YORK, June 27.—(A.P.)—Leading commodities and stocks surged to new highs for the big 1933 advance today although profit-taking tended to level off advances. The boom in grain at Chicago and other centers had an echo on the New York Stock Exchange where share quotations were strengthened in lively trading. Cotton swung erratically after yesterday's huge gains.

JUDGE PONDER DISMISSING SUIT AGAINST MELLON

Former Treasury Official Is Accused Of Defrauding U.S.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(A.P.)—A District of Columbia judge yesterday took under advisement the $220,000 suit against Andrew W. Mellon and other former treasury officials which charged they helped foreign steamship companies defraud the government of income taxes.

The suit was filed by David A. Olson, a former investigator for the Senate committee investigating banking and the stock market.

In addition to Mellon, he named Odgen L. Mills, also a former treasury secretary; Alexander W. Gregg, treasury solicitor during the Hoover administration; and David H. Blair, former internal revenue collector.

T. Harry Covington, defense attorney, claimed Olson's complaint was founded upon malice and was so fanciful it had no place in court.

He asserted the complaint was based on a statute passed during the Civil War which makes a federal offense of double the amount of damages to the government.

Olson claimed that not only did Mellon and other officials fail to collect $100,000,000 due from the unnamed foreign steamship companies but that they placed the government in a position where it was compelled to refund $10,000,000.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(A.P.)—Attorney General Cummings announced today that more than 1300 employees of the prohibition bureau will be dismissed or furloughed June 30 to save $4,000,000 in the coming fiscal year. Among the employees to be dropped, Cummings said, are administrators, attorneys, investigators, special agents, secretaries, stenographers, typists, and clerks.

Their names were withheld. The Cummings announcement said the "last session of Congress appropriated $8,300,000 for the purpose of carrying on prohibition enforcement but under the plan of reorganization contemplated for the prohibition bureau, director of the budget Lewis Douglas ordered that the saving of $4,000,000 be made."

The largest number of employees involved is 290 in New York. There are 21 to be dropped in Florida and 20 in Georgia.

SENATOR AND WITNESS ARE IN NEAR FIGHT

Flare-Up Occurs During Probe Into Delay Of Action Upon Harriman Bank Case

NEW YORK, June 27.—(A.P.)—Prosecution of Joseph W. Harriman on charges of irregular conduct of the Harriman National Bank & Trust Co., was delayed by an assistant United States attorney general, a Senate subcommittee was told yesterday, because it entailed the possibility of a "major banking crisis" in the country.

The hearing almost broke up in an exchange of insults, when Senator Neely, of West Virginia accused the witness, Nugent Dadds, of attempting to "white wash" the matter.

"He is who was in charge of the criminal division at the time," told the committee he alone was responsible for the delay and declared it was a "common thing."

"It was done frequently," he said, "not only at the request of individuals and clearing houses but of congressmen and senators. Some of the senators on the committee have made such requests."

Later Senator Neely asked Dadds if he did not think there had been an "unreasonable delay" in the Harriman case.

"Senator, I wouldn't want to say there has been," replied Dadds. "I don't know of a national bank in the country that hasn't had false entries in its statement to the public."

Senator Neely expressed surprise. Dadds remarked he had "let to learn" in the Senate.

"I hope," replied the Senator, "I haven't as much to learn about that as you have to learn about your business in this regard, such as letting thieves run wild in the country and ravage banks."

West Virginia And California Vote On Repeal Of Dry Law

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—(A.P.)—Proposed repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment will be before the voters of California today with prohibition leaders generally conceding defeat. Governor Rolph, who pictured the grape industry as a "shackler" by prohibition was among those calling on the people to place California in line with the 14 states which already have favored repeal.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 27.—(A.P.)—Dry for seven years before national prohibition, West Virginia voted today on repeal with little except conflicting assurance of wet and dry campaigners on which to base an estimate of state sentiment. Repeal forces claim 49 of the 55 counties are certain for ratification and the drys are "hopeful."

Former Commission Merchant Is Dead

Word was received in Sanford today of the death on June 16 at Charlottesville, Va., of R. K. Eldredge, former Sanford commission merchant who left this city in 1929.

He became ill last November and since that time had been in declining health. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Callie Eldredge, and his adopted daughter, Miss Muriel Eldredge.

Denials Attend Rumors That Aimee Hutton Will Ask For Divorce In Paris

LOS ANGELES, June 27.—(A.P.)—Rumors of a possible divorce between Aimee Simple McPherson-Hutton, Angelus Temple evangelist, and David Hutton, baritone singer, cropped out yesterday in Los Angeles yesterday to the accompaniment of denials.

Hutton's attorney, Fairfax G. Galt, admitted Hutton had discussed with him the chance that his wife might be in Paris for the purpose of obtaining a divorce.

Mrs. McPherson-Hutton, who is abroad several months ago for a rest, and lately has been staying in Paris, from where a bizarre series of reports concerning her have emanated, among them the main assertion that she had proposed to Hutton to divorce him.

This was denied and finally described by a physician who had performed a major operation upon her as a hoax cablegram sent by him at her instruction to ascertain how certain information being forwarded here by the evangelist was becoming public.

Her condition after the operation has been described as normal.

The lawyer said Hutton had written his wife to return home some time ago but instead she went from Italy to Paris and entered the hospital there. Galt notified the hospital there in Paris, from where a bizarre series of reports concerning her have emanated, among them the main assertion that she had proposed to Hutton to divorce him.

The principal slash comes in the office of City Attorney F. R. Wilson who had been paid $250 per month. Effective July 1, his salary will be $50 per month. It is understood that the reduction of $200 is brought about because at the present time, Mr. Wilson is not undertaking foreclosing suits involving property delinquent in taxes for the last several years.

Drastic reductions were ordered in the pay of city employees, as well as the police department, while workers in the City Clerk's office received important cuts.

Here is the new schedule and the proposed saving:

Advised that Circuit Court Judge Willard H. Smith had reversed a decision rendered in Police Court by Judge S. A. H. Wilkinson, the Commissioners ordered a $50 fine and costs, assessed against a negro charged with a violation of the original lottery ticket ordinance, remitted.

Representing a group of Sanford Avenue merchants who understood that the City is withdrawing its portion of the salary paid Special Officer W. W. Owens, Forrest Glatch, merchant of that Avenue, appeared to ask special consideration for the merchants who, "in addition to paying taxes on property, also pay personal property taxes on their stocks and other valuables." His request was taken under advisement.

The Commissioners turned their attention to the matter of lighting the streets, alleys, and downtown sections of the City after Clerk Lamson had asked whether or not he is authorized to cut off two lights burning in property now excluded from the city.

Mayor Speer said "It strikes me that we ought to give some consideration at once to the matter of street and alleyway lighting. ## Changes Made In Police Department Personnel Because Of City Finances

Chief of Police Roy C. Williams, who last night attended the City Commission meeting where an announcement was made that effective July 1 the salaries of 300 City employees will be reduced in varied amount, today announced that under orders from the Commissioners, it has been necessary to make several changes in his department.

Effective July 1, the office of night desk sergeant will be abolished and the duties of this officer will be handled by firemen living in the police station. This is because Arthur Marshall, assistant chief, from service with the City for the present.

Under the new setup, Chief Williams and Officer George Gray will be on duty during the day, while Officers C. H. Shuster and H. W. Anderson will constitute the night force. Officer Gray will also be available for service on any night, as will Chief Williams.

SALARY CUTS ORDERED FOR CITY WORKERS

Reduced Pay Will Result In Saving Of $7764 In One Year; Budget Is Accepted

During a meeting which had as a feature statements by Commissioners S. O. Shubbler and W. A. Leffer that "I am for a general and drastic revision of the assessments levied against property in Sanford," members of the Commission last night officially ordered the salaries of all its employees to be reduced from $2,000 per month to a salary slash to totaling $7764 in one year.

Since they had met in informal session some days ago to discuss ways and means of operating the city with a constantly diminishing income, the Commissioners did not discuss the result of that meeting at much length. Instead they unanimously passed a motion, declaring salaries reduced as of July 1, and then proceeded to new business.

The principal slash comes in the office of City Attorney F. R. Wilson who had been paid $250 per month. Effective July 1, his salary will be $50 per month. It is understood that the reduction of $200 is brought about because at the present time, Mr. Wilson is not undertaking foreclosing suits involving property delinquent in taxes for the last several years.

CREAM INDUSTRY OFFERS PLAN FOR FIXING OF PRICES

Proposed Agreement In Line With Aims Of Farm Relief Act

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(A.P.)—Representatives of the butter industry yesterday submitted a proposed trade agreement to administrators of the farm act, calling for the establishment of a national committee of 10 members to fix minimum prices to be paid each week for creamery butter.

At the same time, representatives of the evaporated milk industry completed an agreement fixing prices to producers, wholesalers and retail distributors. It will be the subject of a public hearing Thursday.

Representatives of the cheese, ice cream and dry milk industries told administrators they were making "progress" on proposed agreements.

It was considered probable that by Oct. 1 the entire industry would be brought under application of the farm act.

N. L. Clark, of Swift and Company, Chicago, presented the butter agreement which would set up a code of sales practices in addition to creating a committee of 10 members to fix weekly minimum prices at the Chicago and New York markets and at one of the Pacific Coast, either San Francisco or Los Angeles.

The committee would be made up of five members to be appointed by the American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers and five by the National Co-operative Milk Producers' Federation.

Two sub-committees would be established, one on the procurement of butter fat from farmers and dealers, and the second on the marketing of butter.

Stewart Glatch, white youth charged with speeding, was fined $3.

Isaac Murray, charged with doing business without a license, was dismissed of the charge, but Steve Cherry, in court for a similar charge, was fined $2. J. D. Sims, also charged with operating a wood yard without a license will be tried next Monday.

Wesley Tucker, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed of the charge but he was fined $1 for contempt of court.

Lettie Mae Clair, charged with assault, was fined $5.

Carlton Delivers Speech At Kiwanis Club's Convention

LOS ANGELES, June 27.—(A.P.)—Hope of a new day in the promise of economic peace and prosperity from the accomplishments of the world economic conference was expressed before the annual convention of Kiwanis International today by Doyle E. Carlton, former governor of Florida.

"In spite of differences and obstacles we can see that in this civilization, it may mark the beginning of a greater era of progress than civilization has known."

"It recognizes the interdependence of nations as a partnership in distress or happiness of mankind. It seeks to adjust unnecessary and hurtful trade barriers, to establish currency stability, to find some common money standard, and which it doesn't appear we'll be able to pay for during (Continued On Page Two)

Doubt Expressed That Any Legal Actions To Be Attempted By Attorney General

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(A.P.)—Although Attorney General Cummings takes opportunity about twice a week to warn that he is going to prosecute gold hoarders, many persons here have become skeptical that he will take any such action.

His latest warning yesterday was a reiteration that the names of gold hoarders would be published through the newspapers in advance of criminal prosecution. He declined to say when there would be either public branding of gold hoarders or criminal prosecution of them.

"We are going to give everybody a chance to do his duty by returning the hoarded gold," Cummings said. "This pressure will be put upon them."

It is no secret in Washington that a number of Republicans hope he will put the pressure on to the limit. These Republicans are moved to this thought by what some would call cordly political motives.

Just a mild hint of what the Republicans intend to do about this—40 Cummings goes—through with his announced program is contained in the latest broadcast of Rep. Bertrand H. Snell, House Republican leader, who said that Congress "branded as a statutory criminal anyone who had accumulated savings out of his wages or income and held them in the form of what has been local tender money since this government was first established."

An opportunity to enjoy the unsurpassed beauty of the St. Johns River between Sanford and Palatka by moonlight today was announced as available to residents of this section who contemplate attending the Fourth of July celebration in Palatka next week.

Believing that a sufficient number of persons, having heard of the beauty and picturesque of the winding river which flows Northwest are anxious to enjoy such a trip, officials of the Central Florida Transportation Co., today announced that passenger accommodation on the old Clyde Line steamer "Osceola," may be secured for the round trip to Palatka.

There are 70 staterooms aboard, each accommodating two or three people. Thirty of these rooms are on the upper deck, and they will be reserved for men only. The remaining staterooms are on the main deck, and they are reserved for men, women and children. No meals will be served, although sandwiches, coffee and soft drinks will be served over an improvised bar.

The boat will leave Municipal Pier Monday night at 9:00 o'clock and it will arrive in Palatka Fourth of July morning at 9:00 o'clock. The boat will leave that night at 9:00 o'clock, and dock at Sanford Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

Already several reservations have been received at the Chamber of Commerce office, and it is expected that capacity will be reached before Saturday.

Drys Launch Attack Upon Wet Officials

ORLANDO, June 27.—(A.P.)—A convention of the prohibition forces of Florida today called on churches, dry organizations, and individuals not only to organize to defeat the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment but to drive out of public life every man who voted for or advocated beer legislation at the last Legislature. The resolutions, adopted declared that Governor Shultz and a majority of the Legislature "have nullified the Nineteenth Amendment to the state constitution by passage of a bill permitting sale of 3.2 beer."

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

THE BEST MEDICINE: A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit doeth the bones.—Proverbs 17:22.

The names of the two Spanish flies, who have been missing six days, have been found in Mexico in the State of Tabasco. The landing wasn't so hot.

Alma Temple Hutton must be planning to put on another revival. We notice that rumor has it that she has become a mother and that she is also considering a divorce. There is nothing like publicity.

Elimination of the Socialist party, oppression of the Catholic party, and a ban on Boy Scouts is the latest news from Hitler in Germany. The Nazi leader has recently adopted the Kaiser's old slogan "Me and Gott." For the sake of the Germans we hope he doesn't get the idea of making everyone wear one of those sawd-off mustaches.

Farmer Governor Smith of New York advocates a constitutional amendment providing for an "executive budget," that is, a budget prepared by the President instead of by Congress. Such a measure undoubtedly would eliminate many of the costly abuses which this country has experienced during the past few years, but it might, of course, precipitate many new abuses yet unseen.

Even the weather is working hand in glove with the administration's recovery efforts. Instead of paying farmers to reduce their acreage, a heat and drought wave has hit the wheat belt and in some instances has damaged the crop as much as 25 percent. We wouldn't be surprised to see an army of boll weevils get under way in the South and have the government from having to lease cotton lands in order to take them out of production.

It seems to be the policy of the Roosevelt Administration to use currency stabilization as a club to get concessions from Europe. It may be war debt payments, special tariff and trade concessions, or disarmament, but evidently it is something. Just at present while the dollar is going down, currency fluctuations are more disastrous to England and France than they are to the United States. Evidently Roosevelt feels we can afford to wait until Europe is ready to give in. But he is playing a dangerous game.

Everyone who has admired Germany's venerable Von Hindenburg in years gone by is wondering how in the world he, as president of the so-called republic, puts up with Herr Hitler and his antics. A correspondent of Collier's writing from Berlin, tells a story which we do not like to believe answers the question. He says that not long ago one of the President's secretaries, in a rush at the lunch hour ate a sandwich in Von Hindenburg's office and left the paper on his desk. Another secretary hastily grabbed up the paper and threw it in the trash basket, shouting, "Don't leave that there! The President might sign it!"

Well, we've seen the depression blamed on everything else, but it remained for Mussolini, foremost exponent of the doctrine of large families, to blame it on the slender style, or boyish figure of women. This, he says, has not only made women less healthy, but has seriously curtailed the sales of grocery stores, and hence the agricultural revenue of the world. Furthermore, it has required less cloth to dress the slender figures, thus seriously menacing the textile manufacturers, the cotton planters and silk producers. So there will be no more "depression women" in Italy, Mussolini rules. "Not fat, big chest says," "but healthfully business."

A Significant Figure

The name of Captain William Thomas Turner, who died recently at his home in Liverpool, England, is scarcely known to the public but its significance as regards this country's course of action leading up to its declaration of war against Germany is none the less important.

It was Captain Turner, veteran skipper of the Cunard liner Lusitania, who decided, against the warnings of the British Admiralty, to take a chance with the German submarines and thereby wrote the first chapter of the drama which changed American public opinion and led to our joining with the Allied cause.

The sinking of the Lusitania, one of the worst of all maritime disasters, claimed 1,198 lives. Her destruction brought an avalanche of criticism of her captain, especially by the surviving passengers who accused him of heedlessness, overconfidence and of actual neglect of duty. It was charged that he deliberately disobeyed the orders from the Admiralty, which, if obeyed, would have avoided the catastrophe.

Subsequent inquiries, however, placed little stigma on the Captain and he served faithfully and well as commander of ships throughout the remainder of the war. The fact that he was on the bridge of the ship when it sank from under him helped no little in raising the captain's stock. Through a strange twist of fate Captain Turner was later in command of the transport Ivernia when it was torpedoed in the Mediterranean with the loss of 120 officers and soldiers and thirty-three of her crew.

Chance plays a large part in the destinies of nations. One wonders what might have been our part in the World War if Captain Turner had followed the fatalistic philosophy, "Destiny is the better part of valor," and not attempted to run the gauntlet of the submarine zone. Even so it was not altogether without luck that the Germans were able to find their mark, and it makes one shudder to think with how thin a thread our destiny is knit.

Sanford's Opportunity

Participation in the allotment of $1,250,000 or 25 percent of the funds apportioned to Florida under Section 204, Title II of the Industrial Recovery Act will be possible for Sanford if sufficient and convincing arguments are set forth at a meeting tomorrow of the State Road Department in Tampa where consideration will be made for disposition of the money.

Provisions of the bill declare that "the amount apportioned to any state... may be used to pay all or any part of the cost of highway construction, elimination of hazards to highway traffic, the construction of routes to avoid congested areas, etc." within the limits of incorporated cities.

It is understood that a delegation from here will attend the meeting tomorrow in Tampa and file application for funds for the completion of the Lake Shore Boulevard and maintenance of road 202 and 44 running through this county. It is hoped they will also seek funds for the repavement of Park Avenue as a connecting link in Federal Highway Number Three. It cannot be denied that Park Avenue as it is today furnishes a very real hazard to highway traffic. Not only is it extremely rough but its narrowness often results in a menacing congestion, especially on Sundays when many cars are parked along its sides.

One of the most attractive features in this allocation of funds is that no loan is involved. Strange as it may seem the money will be a direct gift, and it behooves Sanford to exert every influence possible to take advantage of this measure, not because it is a chance to get something for nothing but because it is an opportunity to get much-needed road rebuilding work which will benefit the entire motoring public of the state.

Address Delivered By Gore In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, June 27.—(AP)—Closest co-operation and understanding between Puerto Rico and Florida in an effort to expand commerce and offset the "satellite factory" disposition of our mutual problems" was urged in an address here yesterday by Robert H. Gore, newly appointed governor to Puerto Rico.

Pointing out that the island is halfway between the North and South American continents, Gore declared it is "in years ahead of us to be our post of contact with Latin Americans of South and Central America." He continued "Florida is very wise to recognize that in obtaining the trade of Puerto Rico she is establishing herself as an entry point to the vast commerce that must develop between North and South America."

C. F. Proctor Takes Over Agency For Chevrolet Motors

Effective this morning, C. F. Proctor, well-known Sanford business man and proprietor of the Triason Dance Club, became the new owner of the local Chevrolet automobile agency, and Magnolia Avenue show-rooms in the future will be known as the Proctor Chevrolet Co.

Decision to enter an entirely new field was reached by Mr. Proctor some days ago, and last night he and J. H. Maxwell, former head of the concern completed final arrangements.

Mr. Proctor, a Sanford born man, who has been in the mercantile business for the past 11 years, declared that his first move was to order a large and complete stock of Chevrolet parts. He also said that a brand new line of automobile accessories will be installed, and that the entire building will be renovated at once.

No change will be made in the personnel at present, he said. A. F. Kimbrell remains as service manager, and P. M. Brannon is parts manager. H. V. Drua is bookkeeper, while Ernest Holt, J. L. Perkins, T. C. Holt, and J. C. Trawick are salesmen.

Several late model Chevrolets will be brought to Sanford within the next few days. Mr. Proctor stated, and every effort will be made to give Chevrolet users here and in Seminole County, prompt and efficient service.

Mr. Maxwell has not announced plans for his immediate future. He came to Sanford some months ago from Havana, Fla. to take over the White-Highlyman Co. franchise.

Commissioner T. L. Dumas suggested that some of the lights be cut out, or that probably the entire city be plunged into darkness as now is the case in Palatka.

Commissioner H. J. Lehman said that "it wouldn't be fair to cut out some lights here and there, unless you cut them all out, for there's no use in contracting for something we can't pay for and haven't been able to pay for since December."

Mayor Speer suggested that "about 100 lights be eliminated" since "I have made several trips around the city at night to see whether or not we can't dispense with some of the lights, and I am now of the opinion that there are at least 100 which could be put out."

Commissioner W. A. Lefler ended the discussion with "I believe Speer is right, so I move that he be authorized to act as he sees fit in reducing the power bill to where it will be more in line with our capacity to pay."

The motion carried unanimously. Another argument, not quite as long nor as spirited, arose when Clerk Lamson asked what disposition should be made of about 20 water customers who now reside in property outside the City limits.

Commissioner Lehman was for cutting off the water at the City limits but Mayor Speer and Commissioner Dumas were of the opinion that since the pipes are down and there is a slight source of revenue coming in, no action should be taken at present. This suggestion was okayed.

that according to law the Commission must meet as a tax equalizing board on the first Monday in July. Commissioners Lefler and Lehman both emphatically declared that "I am for a general and drastic revision of the assessments on properties in this city." The remaining Commissioners nodded approval.

With the meeting about to adjourn, Commissioner Lehman moved that the final day for payment of 1932 taxes be extended from July 1 to Aug. 1, but his motion was lost despite the fact that he argued consistently that it is not fair to accept money for taxes in Sanford in view of the several laws recently passed "which offer no incentive to pay taxes," and therefore "There is no reason to allow taxpayers to become delinquent this year."

The final act of the meeting came when Clerk Lamson read a letter from Clerk Sargent Arthur Marshall, who, understanding that he will be relieved from duty on July 1, made application for a job as clerk at the waterworks plant. He offered to accept a nominal salary, and to apply half of the salary on about $300 worth of taxes which he owes the City. No action was taken on his application.

The Commission adjourned their meeting until 3:00 o'clock this afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock they were scheduled to meet with representatives of the Bondholders' Protective Committee, but this meeting was called off.
