Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The "Gillett" in Massachusetts safety in more than it means safety, also, in politics. Frederick Huntington Gillett, who is always in Massachusetts when the "Gillett" is mentioned, has 16 unbroken victories in the for Congress. "name" as well as "safe," inevitable that this long should make him one of the powers, not only in Massachusetts but in Congress. As a dignified, proper, competent officer, such as is expected from precise.

re-election to the Senate is enough to throw G. O. P. leaders into chills and a cold sweat every time they think of it. WILLIAM M. BUTLER, who was first slated to make the fight against Walsh, was chosen by President Coolidge to manage his election campaign. That puts him out of the senatorship race. He will have his hands full with the national campaign. Channing Cox, Republican governor of the Bay State, was then approached. Cox thought it over and decided he didn't care for the honor. Whereupon Frederick William Dallinger, a member of Congress from Cambridge, announced he would make the race.

DALLINGER'S announcement, however, didn't satisfy Coolidge and other party leaders. Frankly, they doubted his ability to put the skids under Walsh. For one thing, Dallinger is an ardent and active "dry." Next to Wayne Wheeler and Ushah of Georgia, he's the driest dry in Washington. And while it is desired that the Massachusetts candidate for the Senate be pledged to uphold the constitution, it is not considered necessary for him to single out specifically the eighteenth amendment as the part to be upheld most zealously. Which is what they fear Dallinger would do.

On the heels of Dallinger's announcement, Gillett was called to see Coolidge. On the heels of his White House call, he announced he would run for the Senate. Did Coolidge request it? Draw your own conclusion. Undoubtedly, Gillett's candidacy will have the full support of the old line leadership in the G. O. P. He is the one man with whom they will feel safe. But even with Gillett, they admit, it may be a close shave.

Names 1,800 on Streets Are Being Listed

DUBLIN, May 22.—The total saving on the Free State budget in comparison with last year amounts to about $70,000,000. Of this saving a cut in the army of about $30,000,000 is the largest part. It is pointed out in the old Unionist press that allowing for the difference in the value of money, the British government spent $12,500,000 a year on maintaining its public order in Ireland. Last year 1900, and this is taken as the measure of the abnormality in Irish conditions. The estimates of the finance minister for next year show an estimated deficit of some $43,000,000 which "will be found by borrowing or otherwise." A great part of the expenditure will go in payment for damage to property in the campaign by the irregulars against the Free State.

five High streets, five Park streets, five School streets and five Water streets. There are five separate Lincoln places. There are four Brook streets and three Brooks places. Four streets bear the name of Allen and four more are named Allston. Similar instances occur almost indefinitely. Chairman Noyes has admitted the magnitude of his task in finding 1,800 new names for thoroughfares. Besides soliciting suggestions from Bostonian, his board will study the street lists of other cities and towns in the United States, hoping here and there to find a name as yet unused in Boston.

Basing calculation on these figures, officials have estimated that there represents the number of streets which must be re-permuted 1,800 in all. UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Gainesville, May 22.—Virtually every phase of Florida farming and every angle of housekeeping will find a place on the extensive program now in the making for the third annual gathering "for all of Florida's farm people"—Farmers' Week—scheduled for the week of August 11-16 at the University of Florida.

Farm leaders of the state already are looking forward to this annual affair, those in charge of arrangements say, as "the culmination of things agriculturally for the year"

DR. JOHN J. TIGERT, U. S. Commissioner of Education, a member of the Advisory Council of the organization, says: "The drive for Better Homes in America, conceived as it is as an educational program without commercial consideration, should command the co-operation of the schools and all who are interested in education and progress by education. It is frequently observed that we are in a period of unrest and upheaval. Nothing can contribute so effectively to a hasty return to stability and domestic tranquility as more and better homes."

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, says: "We club women who are largely mothers, have in the children, the families, the future of the nation. We believe in and will work for better homes."

and as "the rallying time and place of all farm people and all farm organizations in the state for the year."

Leading off in importance last year were, roughly, general farming, live stock and dairying, citrus growing, trucking, poultry, home economics and general housekeeping, beekeeping and grape growing. The program for this year probably will be similar to that of last summer. Effort will be made to take care of possible demands for instruction in any particular farm problem, according to Prof. A. P. Spencer, vice director of the Agricultural Extension Division, College of Agriculture at the University.

WARNING GIVEN BANKS ACCOUNT BIG SWINDLER

Advise Against Defrauder Who Has Succeeded in Getting Several Checks Cash.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 22.—The Florida Bankers' Association, through W. O. Boezy, its secretary, has notified member banks throughout the state of a clever operator of a new scheme to swindle. The defrauder has operated in Tennessee with checks drawn on points in other states and with checks drawn on Tennessee banks, the letter of Secretary Boezy states, and continues: "He obtains specimen of the signature of senior officer of a bank by writing a letter to that officer which will require an answer. He later shows up at this bank and presents to the teller a check for cash. Upon being asked for identification, or endorsement the operator states that he knows a certain officer (the one whose signature he has already obtained) and then either pretends to or actually does talk to that officer all of which the teller sees. The operator does not of course say anything to the officer about the check. He later presents to the teller a duplicate of the first check which duplicate he has had all the while and on which he has forged endorsement of the officer. The teller cashes the check without further question and as a consequence is 'out' anywhere from $754 to $1000." These checks are made to appear as having been issued by a religious organization or publication, and have been made payable to C. A. Adams, Mr. Boezy advised the state bankers. One of them was made payable to C. A. Adams and in one instance to a religious charitable organization with a fictitious name as the endorser for the organization. The signature name has been printed with a rubber stamp and usually the signing officer's name has been J. B. Knight, it is stated. The operator gave out cards carrying the name of J. J. Roth, who claimed to be the representative of a publication of Nashville, Tenn. and Springfield, Ohio.

Two descriptions of the defrauder are given. First, age 28; weight 150 pounds, height 5 feet 8 inches; slender face and slender build; light rather pale complexion; hair dark; cut with short sideburns; wore derby hat and light brown overcoat. Second, 38 to 45 years old; 5 feet 7 to 8 inches; 150 pounds; black hair; dark eyes; Italian; wore scarf pin, only with small diamond setting; light suit; tan felt hat; light tan overcoat.

GOD'S WONDERFUL LOVE: WHAT DOES GOD REQUIRE? And now, Israel, what does the Lord thy God require of thee...

OR! SNATCHED AWAY IN BEAUTY'S BLOOM: Oh! snatch'd away in beauty's bloom, on the stage press no ponderous tomb...

And oft by yon blue gushing stream, shall sorrow lean her drooping head, and feed deep thought with many a dream...

Away! we know that tears are vain, that death nor heeds nor hears distress, will this unteach us to complain?

The Shrine Menic is over. Sanford does things right.

Two more conventions next week. You can't say something nice about him, don't talk.

Where does the Daytona Journal go this McAdoo-Ku Klux Klan stuff? South Carolina has added its twenty-three delegates to the McAdoo column.

And it was a good picnic. Everyone had a good time and all our visitors will go away talking about the pleasures and possibilities of Sanford.

Judge William Lindsay of Chicago says that the only way you can reach the souls of some children is through the seats of their trousers. What about those people who never grow up?

South Carolina's delegation was instructed Wednesday for McAdoo. They beat us to it, but only because they got together first.

Sanford received good publicity from the Shrine ceremonial conducted here. The visitors to this city went home with good opinions of this section of the state.

The late Hugo Stinnes had one hobby of which he was particularly proud. He was a profound book lover and spent much time among his books.

Sanford has had a tremendous number of people to take care of for the past few days. The streets have been as crowded as those of Jacksonville. Every available sleeping quarter and eating place has been filled.

Anthropologists excavating on the site of ancient Carthage have found a pair of spectacles of the third-century B. C. and in a Punic tomb a terra cotta figurine of an organ, pots of rouge and face powder, bronze razors and milk teeth.

American churches last year received five hundred and fifty million dollars from their congregations. This represents an average of about ten cents a week from each man, woman and child in the nation.

An Age For the Boy.

What about the boys of today? Are they becoming better or worse? Are they taking advantage of the opportunities they have or are they becoming a shiftless lot?

Problems confronting those responsible for the proper training of the boys of the nation grow greater with the changing of living conditions and with the advancement of the race.

The average boy today doesn't have the "chores" to do. Instead of wood fires to keep warm, those parts of the country requiring heat, use the furnace.

In public school education the boy of this generation possesses a distinct advantage in the length of the school year, in the studies he pursues and in the high class school teachers under whom he studies.

The cry has gone up that the youth of today is lacking in kindness in manner and in respect for his superiors, having little regard for law and order, as compared with the boy of earlier periods.

We are living in an entirely different age. Conditions have changed greatly in the last fifty years. Perhaps those people who think the younger life is going to the "bow-wows" do not understand nor do they take much interest in the problems that are continually confronting the younger life.

Pictures By Telephone.

The average person sees a picture in a newspaper, looks at it, and then dismisses the matter from his mind without thinking very much about the efforts that were put forth first to secure the picture and then to get it to the newspaper in the shortest time.

News dispatches Tuesday told of the publication by a New York paper of pictures which were sent to New York by telephone from Cleveland.

Announcement was made that the method was "a simple, rapid and accurate picture transmission system" and it was the intention of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to install the necessary machines on various long distance lines.

For the information of those interested in this new process it might be instructive to know that in sending, the original picture is placed around a cylinder containing a photo-electric cell.

By the aid of a new device known as a light valve, a beam of light, corresponding in intensity to the original beam is received by the photo-electric cell, and thrown on the receiving film.

It is said that under the proper atmospheric conditions photographs may be transmitted by radio by the same method.

TO ADVERTISE FLORIDA FT. PIERCE NEWS-TRIBUNE

Florida today is beginning to feel the effect of the limited amount of advertising which has been done. Many counties have from year to year issued booklets and there have been displays of the products at the various fairs of the state.

to the fact that the originator of this exhibition, Mr. Ringling, proposed it at a late date, it was impossible to make the showing wished for, or to so advertise it that the greatest good could be done.

MY FAVORITE STORIES

By IRVIN S. COBB

In a town near Boston nearly all the residents were persons of means. There was a smart country club. Here on Saturday nights whole families gathered, the boys and the younger married couples to dance and the older statesmen to play a quaint old Persian game called draw-poker.

principal figure in this episode started off about in the alash. He was not happy; he had been the main loser. Long before he reached his house he was soaked up to the knees.

As Brisbane Sees It

Poolah Stock Brokers. Mars Will Teach Us. 500 Million for Strikes. Copyright, 1924.

THE STOCK MARKET had a fainting fit Tuesday because the bonus bill went through, railroad and other shares fell, and speculators had the blues.

DO INTELLECTUAL gamblers that sell railroad stock believe that handling one hundred and fifty millions to the soldiers in the coming year will diminish railroad travel and ticket buying?

SENDING PHOTOGRAPHS by wire is at last perfectly successful. This means more to education of this earth than we can realize now.

What can be done here on wires can be done there on the ether that separates this earth from other planets in our family. We shall get from those planets radio portraits showing faces of their strange inhabitants.

IF THAT SOUNDS preposterous, remember what you would have said 20 years ago if you had been told that a preacher in Chicago some day would be heard in Los Angeles and Newfoundland in the same second.

MC ADOO, IT IS SAID, has already more than 400 Democratic delegates. This indicates that he alone at this moment has any chance to get a two-thirds vote.

THE AVERAGE Democrat will be interested in the Cox-Al Smith plan because it will alienate from the Democratic Party the great railroad and other labor support which belongs to McAdoo.

REPUBLICANS, Democrats and Independents may be interested in the statement, made on good authority, that the vote for McAdoo is now one else could bring into the campaign. No man ever ran for President with the labor following that McAdoo possesses.

THE NATIONAL Association of Manufacturers was told Tuesday that labor unions had recently lost 20 per cent of their membership. Only 20 per cent of workers that might be in unions belong to them now.

IT'S ALSO SAID that strikes cost the country more than five hundred million dollars a year. That's serious and probably accurate. Let the prosperous class that weep about the cost of the bonus give the strike problem that costs three times as much as the bonus.

IN SPITE of bonuses and strikes here is money left. The great telegraph and telephone monopoly will issue 1,500,000 new shares of stock and the people will scramble to buy the $150,000,000 at the rate of one hundred dollars a share.

HERE'S GRIEF for vegetarians. The juice of raw meat helps consumptives to conquer the disease, gaining weight, by rebuilding muscular tissues, worn down by tuberculosis.

FRIENDS OF consumptives should not attach too much importance to this announcement. It says they should realize that the only way to do the fighting consumption. Vegetarians, idealistic and spiritual, should realize that the human body, especially when weakened by disease, will not take kindly to a diet of raw meat.

STRAW HAT SEASON

The Outdoor Recreation Conference

After the close of the war between the states, many whose memory harks back to that period will remember that newspaper writers were prone to muse upon the effect that the years passed in the open air would have upon the character and tastes of the veterans of that conflict.

Then the automobile was invented and improved, and city people began to "discover" the country. The farmers, at first bitterly, came to appreciate its distant-annihilating possibilities.

A "FRAME-UP" REBUKED

Senator Borah's committee exonerated Senator Wheeler of Montana, of any misuse of office to obtain oil permits from the government. The committee's decision was forecast. In the light of the evidence or lack thereof, the committee could not do otherwise.

THE RESULT OF TEXAS

The McAdoo victory in Texas was in many ways more significant than was the Georgia primary. Early in the campaign Underwood's managers chose Georgia and Texas as the two states in which they would make their battle to justify their claim that the South was behind Underwood.

Dan Dobb Says

Buttons are hard enough to get off by laundries. Trying to get even with a man look odd. Every man has a letter tends writing when he has it.

First List of Entries Milane Theatre Ticket Selling Prize Contest

The first list of nominations in the Milane Theatre $2145 Prize Ticket Book Selling Contest are printed below. Many popular candidates have been nominated by their friends.
There will be 12 prizes awarded on June 28th to the twelve candidates having the highest number of votes and only the first 12 highest in the list will be shown on the screen at the Milane Theatre during the campaign.
The candidate receiving the highest number of votes will be given the choice of a $925 Essex Six Touring or a $950 Overland Sedan or $800 in cash. The second highest will receive a vacation trip to Chicago or New York or $250 in cash. The third highest will be a trip to Asheville, N. C. or $100 in cash. The next three prizes are $75, $50 and $25 Bank Accounts. The next six prizes will be $25 in admission tickets.
The contestants will obtain the votes by selling Milane Theatre 20 per cent discount scrip ticket books. The purchaser of the ticket books will save 20 per cent and the books are not only transferable, but good until used. The whole family can use the same book.
All ticket books sold before the close of the first period of the campaign ending June 7th will earn just four times as many votes as will be allowed the last week of the contest, therefore, it will pay those who want to win the best prizes to start their campaign at once. Shrine Dance Proves Enjoyable To Guests

The numerous visitors in Sanford for the Shrine celebration was the occasion of much gay entertaining during the day Thursday and the dance that followed for some time talked of, became an assured fact, and was the most brilliant social affair ever attempted by the Shrine committee, C. M. Hand, chairman; E. F. Honabolder, R. A. Newman, J. M. McKeke and L. H. Gibbs.
The beautifully decorated and brilliantly lighted drill hall of the Shrine, with its rows of electric fans was the proper setting for the event of last evening. Dancing and merry making started at 9 o'clock sharp to the strains of a fine orchestra and continued until the midnight hours.
Attendance was limited to Shriner only and their wives and lady friends, even so the floor was crowded and a large number of distinguished visitors were present from Tampa, Jacksonville, Miami, Orlando, St. Petersburg, DeLand, Daytona, Leesburg and other points.
In Sanford Thursday from Okeechobee was A. Freedman.
In Sanford for the Shrine celebration were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kirk, of Leesburg.
The guest of Mrs. J. B. Ray on Thursday was Mrs. Ed. Smith of Ocala.
The guests of the Seminole for the day Thursday from Rockledge were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beardsley.
The guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McRory for the day Thursday was W. R. Shaw, of Leesburg.
The guest of her sister Mrs. Geo. McRory on Thursday for the Shrine celebration was Miss Julia McKenzie.
In Sanford for the Shrine celebration Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Porter Wakefield and Mr. and Mrs. Prattishall, of Geneva.
Mrs. Kilbee and Mrs. Raulerson were in Sanford Thursday shopping and enjoying the Shrine celebration. Mrs. Kilbee and Mrs. Raulerson are from Geneva.

Welfare Department Met Wednesday

The welfare department of the Woman's Club held a very pleasant as well as interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the club rooms. Reports for the year's work were made. Financial itemized report read and approved.
The department have finished and equipped a bed and a bath room complete at the Fernald-Laughton Hospital, with everything a nurse or doctor could suggest. It is the only thoroughly equipped suite of its kind in Sanford.
Through the efforts of the welfare department the domestic science dining room has been completed as to furnishings, two stoves have been added, recently and a dining room table and chairs, making this an accredited domestic science department in the Sanford High School. It is now possible for a student to take the complete two years' course.
Plans for the new year were presented by the welfare chairman, Mrs. J. M. Sharon, and listened to with a great deal of interest.
Beautifications of highways and planting of gardens are the principal things stressed at present. It was talked of having as a feature for the welfare department another year, the noon day lunch.
These plans are of course to be perfected and others made in addition before the new year in club work presents itself. The summer months are rest months and the welfare department will reopen in the fall with an enthusiastic attendance.
Leaving Friday for their summer home in Sisteraville, West Virginia, motoring through the country, and visiting points of interest en route, are Mrs. S. G. Messer and son, Herbert.
President of the First National Bank, G. G. Ware, of Leesburg, was in Sanford Thursday for the Shrine celebration, and made the statement that he thought Sanford a wonderful city.
Harvey Payne, of Jacksonville, prominent business man, motored from Miami, where he had been visiting and attending to business, to Sanford Wednesday in order to be here for the Shrine celebration. Mr. Payne left Friday morning for Daytona and Palatka before returning to his home in Jacksonville.
A very merry time was had when Mrs. L. M. Telford entertained with a picnic and swimming party Wednesday afternoon at Crystal Lake, in honor of Miss Maud Carraway, one of the popular young lady graduates of the Sanford High School and also noted for her skill at basketball.
Miss Carraway is to leave soon for an extended visit in Live Oak, with her sister, Mrs. E. D. Tyler.
Among those enjoying the afternoon and wonderful picnic supper, with Mrs. Telford as hostess, were Mrs. J. E. Courier and son John, Mrs. A. P. Bandy and children, Mrs. E. D. Tyler and son E. D., Miss Alice Zeigler and Ellen Telford.
SURPRISE PARTY
On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Ladies' Union, of the Congregational Church, and other friends of Mrs. J. J. Bolly, gave her a delightful surprise at her lovely country home on the West Side.
Mrs. Bolly and her two daughters are leaving soon for Europe where they will spend the summer. She was presented with a beautiful game and a bottle of the choicest perfume as a remembrance on the occasion.
The lady deserved lovely home made cake and cream.

Invents Food and Music Cure for Seasickness

Henri Villar, commissaire of the S.S. Paris of the French line, has invented an anti-seasick menu and is trying it out this season on passengers who travel on his giant liner.
"It is based on the theory that green vegetables will keep the body healthy if served without the addition of sauces and gas-producing fillings," explains Monsieur Villar.
"A few light meats as chicken and lamb chops may be taken, but no milk, soup, eggs, fat or butter."
Several years ago he recommended food committees to start the day for any one with indigestion, but now he adds easily, it is different.
Incidentally, Monsieur Villar suggests that it is better to take your meals in the dining salon than in the cabin, since in the salon you have a great aid to proper digestion in music.
"I am very careful about the musical programs," he declares. "On calm days we can stand a little touch of jazz, but when the sea is rough I always see that our programs are of the ballad and semi-classic variety."
"Unconsciously, we react to musical tempo. One type reacts favorably by John McCormack. When I have played 'Cotton' somewhere in the World (Dan) the Captain would say, 'Yes, that's a good one, it's just what we need.'"

Works Out Menu to Melody That Keeps Passengers Comfortable In Rough Weather

Henri Villar, commissaire of the S.S. Paris of the French line, has invented an anti-seasick menu and is trying it out this season on passengers who travel on his giant liner.
"It is based on the theory that green vegetables will keep the body healthy if served without the addition of sauces and gas-producing fillings," explains Monsieur Villar.
