Mouth Watering Beef Cooked Before Crowd

By Mrs. H. I. Johnson
A capacity crowd of men, women and future homemakers became hungrier by the minute Tuesday night as they watched Miss Mary Meyer, the Martha Logan of Swift and Company, prepare delectable dishes of ProTen Beef.

The successful cooking school held at the Civic Center was under the direction of the Seminole County Extension Service, in co-operation of the Public Super Markets, Swift and Company, Florida Power and Light Co. and The Sanford Herald.

Cecil Tucker, county extension agent, and Miss Myrtle Wilson county home demonstration agent, introduced the guests — Ralph Bloodworth, meat supervisor of Public Dick Prince, beef specialist for Swift and Co. of Tampa, Prince, with the help of his "pride and joy," Herman the cow, explained the different cuts of beef.

Miss Meyer was assisted by Miss Lucy Nowlin, home economist with the power company.

Miss Meyer began her demonstration by preparing a ProTen boneless brisket beef roast in a rotisserie. To garnish the roast she prepared orange baskets filled with curry horseradish filling. A few sprigs of parsley were placed between the baskets.

The second dish was a sweet sour pot roast. With this she used a garnish of lemon twists and parsley.

The fourth meat dish was a broiled sirloin steak. With this she made a sesame seed sauce and spread it over the steak. For the garnish she prepared pears she had colored with red food coloring, and placed them among sprigs of parsley.

The fifth dish consisted of steaks pan broiled. An attractive garnish was a confetti omelet she prepared with eggs, chopped parsley and tomatoes.

ProTen beef kabobs were prepared next. As the garnish for this she played on skewers chunks of tomatoes, green peppers and fresh mushrooms. To make this attractive she had toasted a large loaf of French bread. She then placed the skewers up in the loaf of bread.

A chuck pot roast was the next dish. With this she placed chunks of popovers against

Ruby Defense Rests Suddenly

DALLAS (UPI) — Jack Ruby's defense abruptly dropped off their case today without calling him to the stand and followed with a motion for acquittal.

Both sides prepared for rebuttal fireworks and the defense said it was saving Dr. Walter Bromberg, a prominent New York psychiatrist for "ambush" testimony in one final attempt to blow the state's murder case out of court.

The jury of eight men and four women had just filed into the box at 10:07 a.m. EST for the start of a session expected to produce character witnesses when defense attorney Melvin Belli rose and calmly addressed Judge Joe B. Brown:

"The defense rests, your honor." Belli had said he had as many as 20 more "cleannup" witnesses, including Ruby's rabbi and his maid.

Saw Severs Man's Leg

A forestry worker lost the lower part of his left leg Tuesday afternoon when it became entangled in a chain saw while working off Oak Hill Road in Volusia County.

In final condition at Seminole Memorial Hospital is William Beckham, 28, an employe of the Miami Corporation, owner of a huge plot of land east of Sanford.

Beckham was sawing timber with the chain saw when his leg became entangled. He was taken to the hospital in a Hilsom Ambulance.

Highway Patrolman Bill Stringfield was dispatched to the Osteen bridge to see that it remained in place as the ambulance sped to the hospital.

Traffic On 415 Is Detoured

Vehicle traffic was being detoured off SR 415 this morning after the draw bridge over the St. Johns River at Osteen jammed when opened for a passing boat.

Paul Johnson, bridge tender, said he opened the bridge at 9:30 and was unable to close it.

Johnson later reported the bridge was open to traffic at noon. He said someone had removed some rock ballast, throwing the span out of balance.

Posthumous Book Is Soul Searching Document

By Louis Casella

United Press International
C. S. Lewis was a shy man who hated publicity so much that he sometimes hid in the closet when reporters came to interview him.

It was thoroughly characteristic that he made his exit from his life on a day when the world press could give him little notice. He died last Nov. 22—the day President Kennedy was assassinated.

I've been waiting ever since for an appropriate occasion—a "peg"—as newspapermen say—to pay tribute to the witty Oxford don whose widely read books helped to make Christianity a live option for modern intellectuals.

The peg is now at hand in the form of Lewis' last book, published posthumously by Harcourt, Brace and World under the title "Letters To Malcolm: Chiefly on Prayer."

The format of the book—an imaginary correspondence—will remind many readers of "The Screwtape Letters," the delightful piece of satire which established Lewis' reputation as the 20th century's most articulate "apostle to skeptics."

But "Letters To Malcolm" is a very different kind of book. This is Lewis in the twilight of life, reflecting on the relationship between man and God as he has experienced it, in joy and in suffering.

Without this book, future biographers might well have wondered how Lewis' contagious faith stood up under the acid test to which it was subjected in the latter years of his life.

Years ago, in "The Problem of Pain," Lewis outlined lucid and well-reasoned theological answers to the perennial question of why a loving God permits his creatures to hurt and be hurt. He acknowledged that he was writing about pain as an abstract problem since he had not had much personal exposure to it.

In 1961, pain ceased to be an abstraction to Lewis. His adored wife died a lingering death of cancer. It was a shattering experience for him, and his reactions to it are movingly recorded in a little book called "A Grief Observed" (Seabury Press) which he published under the pseudonym, "N. W. Clerk."

"Letters To Malcolm" refers obliquely to "the terrible days" of his wife's illness, and the great anxiety which gripped his soul, and made it difficult to pray.

"Some people feel guilty about their anxieties and regard them as a defect of faith," Lewis writes. "I don't agree at all. Anxieties are afflictions, not sins. Like all afflictions they are, if we can so take them, our share in the Passion of Christ."

It is clear that Lewis did learn to take his afflictions in the spirit of Christ, and even to give thanks for them. In one of his final "Letters To Malcolm," he muses that "most of the real good that has been done to me in this life has involved suffering."

Casselberry To Get Cemetery

Casselberry's Town Council Monday night approved a plan to acquire from Casselberry Gardens a cemetery owned by the firm. The cemetery had previously been deeded to the Community Methodist Church. However, the council agreed to accept control of the cemetery contingent upon specific revisions being made in the proposed contract.

The Council agreed to look favorably on sub-leasing a 10-acre site to the South Seminole Little League Baseball Association. The little league group needs a centrally located south Seminole site for a park which will be lighted to permit at least two games each night.

The town has a three-year lease on the property from Hilbard Casselberry who has consented to extend it to five years.

The Council again discussed the possibility of paving Winter Park Drive from Seminole Boulevard south to SR 486 but decided to await action expected today by the Seminole County Commission.

The Council has offered to pay $20,700 toward the estimated $48,000 cost of paving the 2.1 miles. Winter Park Drive is located within the town limits but is used primarily by county residents enroute to and from the South Seminole Elementary and South Seminole Junior High schools. The Council consented to use its current road and bridge fund consisting of $5,700 plus another $15,000 it would borrow. If the Council borrowed the funds it would be the first time in the history of the town that it had gone into debt.

Frank Feeny Dies At 81

Frank Feeny, 81, of 120 N. Edgemoon Avenue, North Orlando, died Tuesday in Orlando.

Born Nov. 20, 1882, in Joliet, Ill., he moved to this area from Illinois and was a member of the Church of the Nativity of Lake Mary.

He is survived by two sons, William J. Feeney of Wilmington, Ill., and Robert F. Feeney of Titusville; four daughters, Mrs. Rosemary Grove of North Orlando, Mrs. John Elwood of Winter Haven, Mrs. Mary Lou vanAnden and Mrs. Jack Fey, both of Joliet.

Niblack Funeral Home of Casselberry will forward the body to Joliet where services and burial will be conducted.

Albie Osborne In 'Backpack'

SOUTHWESTERN TAIWAN (FITNC)—Marine First Sergeant Albie L. Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Osborne of 401 Orange Ave., Sanford, is participating with the First Marine Aircraft Wing in a coordinated U. S. Nationalist Chinese amphibious exercise called "Operation Backpack" being conducted off the coast of Taiwan.

Backpack is an exercise to test the amphibious capabilities and readiness of the forces of the Seventh Fleet and the Nationalist Chinese Navy. The exercise, with over 40,000 men and 140 units participating, will culminate in an amphibious assault on beaches of southern Taiwan, and will demonstrate the effectiveness of the United States Seventh Fleet to rapidly move a significant combat force to a troubled area in order to assist an ally.

Prior to the assault, aircraft of the Seventh Fleet will soften beach defenses. In addition, support ships will conduct anti-submarine warfare exercises and the area surrounding the beachhead will be cleared of any obstructions and mines.

"Backpack" is similar to those exercises conducted periodically by units of the Seventh Fleet with SEATO and other allied nations in the Far East to improve their proficiency in coordinated amphibious warfare operations and to maintain working relationships with allied nations.

Choraliers To Sing Thursday

The Candler Choralliers, singers from Emory University's Candler School of Theology, will sing at Sanford First Methodist Church, 7:30 p. m., Thursday.

Directed by George Dunbar, the singers are all ordained ministers and theology students. Several have majored in music as an undergraduate study and others have performed professionally.

The singers have been heard around the world, singing for the Methodist Series of the Protestant Hour. They have appeared on radio and television and have produced an LP record album "Songs of the Spirit." They are the worship choir for services at Emory University.

On tour the Choralliers present a balanced program of sacred and classical music and some spirituals that have proved popular with audiences across the region.

Three Village Candidates Issue Statements

Statements were issued to the Herald today by three of the nine candidates seeking election on March 17 to the five man North Orlando Charter Board.

Mary R. Rowell (Mrs. Charles E.) said: "If elected I will study the charter to the very best of my ability. I supported the petition requesting the council to hold this special election. This petition held signatures of more than 40 percent of the registered voters. Any recommendations made by the residents will be considered very carefully if electors vote for me on March 17."

The Rowells are residents at 41 N. Devon Avenue and are active participants in many local activities and school organizations.

Charles A. Tresler, a resident of the village for the past three-and-one-half years, has been active in the North Orlando Civic Association and has attended many village council meetings.

His statement: "I have been retired more than five years from the building trades. I was associated with a Community Club in Fox Lake, Ill., for 18 years and was president for three years during which I helped get a state charter for the club.

"I feel that I am well qualified to be a member of the Charter Board. I have the time to represent the people if elected and my desire is for progress and growth of the community.

"If elected I will represent the majority to the best of my ability."

Robert W. Dean, of 10 N. Second Street, has lived in North Orlando for four-and-one-half years. A member of the original Volunteer Fire Department, he assisted in organizing the group and helped to draw up the by-laws. He also helped set up the by-laws and charter for the North Orlando Civic Association.

He said: "It has long been my desire to see all residents of the village work as one community. Through my efforts in working to bring this about I have become familiar with the village charter and with village problems.

"I am willing to work with the people to make our charter the best in the State of Florida... one that the whole town would be willing to work under. I assure that I will work with and represent the majority, not the minority."

Dean's wife, Doris, also is active in the community's social and civic life and was organizer of the North Orlando Garden Club.

Other candidates for the Charter Board are Mrs. Lucy Fairburn, Mrs. Florence E. Rhodes, Mrs. Gloria Ferrin, Mrs. Elta M. Harville, Robert Derum and Jay A. Wetzel.

Why They're Fire Plugs

LOVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Bill Shawhan now knows why a fire hydrant is called a fire plug.

Shawhan, city manager here, has been trying to find the origin of the term for a long time. Recently he received a three-foot section of wooden water pipe used at Pearl and Pike streets in Cincinnati in the early 1800's.

"The old piece of water main contains a fire plug — a wooden plug which firemen used to plug holes in the water lines following a fire," Shawhan said.

William Sahnd, 72, a retired Cincinnati water works employe, who gave the wooden water pipe to Shawhan, explained the fire plug this way:

"When water pipes were installed in the early 1800's no provisions were made for getting the water out in case of a fire. Firemen had to dig a hole in the dirt roads to the water mains, drill a hole in the pipe, then attach the hand pumps to the hole.

"After the fire was extinguished, the firemen would take a wooden plug — similar to a bung in a barrel — and hammer it into the hole."

Farm Brief

Livestock producers must be especially alert to parasite dangers in the water. Both internal and external parasites build up under the clouded feeding conditions that are common during the winter months.

Reception Held At Mansion

By Mrs. Adam Muller
A reception was held Sunday afternoon at the DeBary Mansion House to honor Evelyn Moccia and Olaf Walter of Jacksonville who are exhibiting during the month of March in the Main Galleries.

Serving as chairman was Mrs. Mildred Habcock of the Sanford-Seminole Art Association. Hostesses at the table were Mrs. D. Knox and Mrs. A. B. Stevens of Sanford.

The reception rooms were attractively decorated with arrangements of pink azalea blooms and sprays of wild plum blossoms and pink carnations.

A total of 53 paintings are being exhibited at the Mansion by artists from throughout the state.

Sanford Marine Is Graduated

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C. (UPI) — Marine Private First Class Patrick O. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Smith of Route 1, River-view Drive, Sanford, graduated Feb. 14 from Communication Center School at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

He studied teletype operation, typing, communication organization in the Marine Corps, naval communications systems, security in communications, and preventative maintenance of communication equipment. During the final two weeks of the school he spent time in the field employing practical information in a simulated communication exercise.

Sanford Soldier In Mock Battle

FORT HOOD, Tex. (UPI) — Army Sgt. Freddie Robinson, 22, whose wife, Joan, lives at 901 Pecan Ave., Sanford, and other members of the 2d Battalion of the 1st Armored Division's 40th Infantry recently participated in a live fire exercise near Fort Hood, Tex.

The mock battle exercise acquainted Sgt. Robinson with safe group movements and coordination under fire.

He is regularly stationed at Fort Hood as a team leader in the battalion's Company A. Robinson was a graduate from Crooms High School in 1959 and entered the Army in June of that year. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dempsey, live at 2027 Grapeville Ave., Sanford.

Merchant Asks City To Approve Display Space

The Sanford City Commission Monday night delayed a request from Harry Robson to eliminate two parking stalls in front of his business establishment on East First Street so he could install a ramp for boats.

Robson asked the commission's permission to cut the curbing, a move hotly debated by Commissioner Joe Baker.

It was finally determined that City Manager Pete Knowles would confer with Robson to find the most appropriate method of giving him the assistance he requested.

In other action, the Commission:

—Denied a request that two parking stalls either be made 16 or 15 minute parking or eliminated with no parking. The location is at the new Bell Telephone Company office on Commercial Avenue.

—Granted additional time to the owner of the Duhart Estate at 909 Sanford Avenue to repair the property. Attorney Douglas Stenstrom brief the Commission on his client's status and was given the time necessary to communicate with her as to her future plans. He is to report back to the Commission at a later date.

—Denied the request of the Male Chorus for free use of the Civic Center for a concert. The event was scheduled for May 11. It was pointed out the rate had been cut in half in recent Commission action and that the fee should be followed in all instances.

—Approved the request for night baseball for the Junior League at the Sanford Memorial Stadium. This involves a total of 45 games during the season.

—Approved the request for transfer of funds to cover the costs of materials due to the State baseball team's use of fields.

—Set a public hearing for zoning of the newly-annexed Pinecrest Shopping Center. The hearing will be held April 13. Commissioners also set a hearing at the same time for rezoning of the west side of Cedar Avenue from Fourth to Fifth Streets.

—Approved the Orlando Metropolitan Area planning agreement on condition that it involve no cost to the city.

—Okayed the purchase of the Langloft property on North Park Avenue at a cost of $18,000 gross.

—Approved the leasing of a lot on the southeast corner of Second Street and Sanford Avenue for use as a free parking lot.

—Heard City Attorney William C. Hutchison explain the use of stickers for free parking at meters by disabled persons. He said the right is given in state statutes and the city can do nothing but abide by it.

—Heard on first reading a change in an ordinance regulating the use of liquor at hotels with from 50 to 90 rooms. The change would allow the hotels to remain open till 2 a. m. nightly.

—Approved the bid of Teco Chemicals to supply the city with chlorine. Teco was low bidder of seven submitted.

—Delayed awarding of a contract for the demolition of the Woodruff Building—the site to be used as a parking lot—until another building is purchased. Knowles was asked to confer with Leroy Robb to see if his $5,000 offer to raise the Woodruff Building could be enlarged to include the other nearby building which is also being sought for parking facilities.

—Okayed demolition of the Palm Hotel on West First Street, the demolition to start at the previously set date of March 15.

FRONT AUTO PLATES calling attention to Altamonte Springs were handed to members of the Altamonte Town Council recently by Byron Kimball, representing the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. The plates are available at several Altamonte Springs locations. They will be given to motorists wanting them on a first come first served basis. Scouts Patrol For Festival

By Jane Casselberry
Five boys from Boy Scout Troop 341 of Casselberry were part of a provisional troop made up of scouts from six troops in the Wekiwa District which performed many services at the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival held last weekend.

The boys camped out in tents in the park located downtown which is the site of the annual festival. They provided protection for exhibits as well as running errands.

Scouts from Troop 311 who participated included John Worrell, Steve Nicarry, David Krohne, Bob Glaze and Rick Casselberry, junior assistant scoutmaster.

Al Flori, district scout executive, supervised this community service project and was assisted by local scout leaders.

All species of the hickory tree except three are native to eastern North America.

Dossey In Field Work

KARLSRUHE, Germany (UPI) — Army Specialist Five Earl F. Dossey Jr., whose parents live on Route 2, Sanford, and other members of the 16th Signal Battalion participated in field training Exercise MED DELTA which ended Feb. 12 in Karlsruhe, Germany.

Specialist Dossey, a manual central office repairman in the battalion's Company A near Butzbach, Germany, entered the Army in October 1961.

The 25-year-old soldier is a 1957 graduate of Seminole High School.

5 Scouts Given Recognition

Five members of Boy Scout Troop 545 were given recognition Monday night during a court of honor held at the First Presbyterian Church, the troop's sponsor.

Following a narrative account of the troop's most recent camping trip, Bruce Robinson was awarded his Star Scout badge by Scoutmaster Clifford McKibbin Jr. Other Star Scouts of the troop, Prey E. Helberger, Bruce McKibbin and Tom Hatliff, welcomed Robinson into the group.

David Williamson and Roy Dalton were awarded Second Class Scout badges by Assistant Scoutmaster John Capewell. Rev. Edgar Smith of the church presented Donald Kennedy with a merit badge for Care of Pets, Bill Kennedy a merit badge for Athletics and Robinson was given merit badges for Cooking, Public Speaking and First Aid.

The troop is planning a summer camp at the council's camp facility, LaNoche.

Angelus Singers To Give Concert

The Angelus Singers of Orlando, considered one of the finest musical groups in Central Florida, will appear in a concert program at the DeBary Community Center at 8 p. m. Tuesday, March 17.

The program will be free of admission charges, however, those wishing to do so may contribute to a free will donation. After expenses are met any balance will be applied to construction of an addition to the Center for use of the American Red Cross.

HE REGREW HAIR

An Ebb Registered Cosmetologist explains the exclusive Ebb Home Treatment Method.

M. J. Hornick will be in Sanford, Florida at the Valdes Hotel on Thursday, March 12, 1964. Hours: 1 to 8:30 p.m.

Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every hair-worried person (man or woman) should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION. If your scalp is still creating hair and you have dandruff, or excessive hair fall, excessive oiliness, dryness or itchy scalp, why not take 20 minutes of your time to see if you can be helped?

M. J. Hornick is a Staff Director of the Ebb Hair Specialists. He is qualified by experience and training to recommend the proper method to assure you of the fastest possible results in the shortest period of time at the least amount of cost to you.

The Ebb Method will not help those who are sick bald after years of gradual hair loss. We want to make it clear that Male Pattern Baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Ebb Method nor any other method is effective.

But if there are other reasons for your hair problems, it is possible that you can be helped. Results are guaranteed (in writing) from the beginning to the end on a pro-rated basis by the Ebb Hair Specialists.

You have no reason to be skeptical. We make regular, scheduled visits to Sanford, Florida. How could we do this unless we gave results?

Why burden yourself with unhealthy hair and scalp. It costs you nothing to learn how so many people have benefited from the Ebb Method. Know how, experience and training offers you opportunity, satisfaction and results.

T. A. Melton, Jr. (above), shows how he saved his hair and now has handsome, healthy hair. He did not have Male Pattern Baldness.

SEE M. J. Hornick at the Valdes Hotel in Sanford, Florida, Thursday, March 12, 1964, between 1 and 8:30 p.m. He will do the rest. Interviews are in private. You will not be obligated or embarrassed in any way. Remember, for hair problems, see:

Business Briefs

Food Fair Stores, Inc. reported record high sales for the 40-week period ending February 1, 1964 of $773,817,000 as compared with $759,967,000 in the comparable period last year. It was reported by Louis Stein, president.

Net income, after all charges and taxes, was $7,801,000, which after preferred dividend requirements, was equal to $1.09 a share on the average number of shares outstanding during the period. In the similar period last year, net income was $8,100,000, the equal of $1.13 per share on the same share basis.

In the third quarter ending February 1, sales amounted to $216,672,000 compared with $241,091,000 in the year ago period. Net income for the quarter increased to $2,516,900, equal to 33 cents per share. This compares with net income of $2,397,000, or 33 1/2 cents a share in the same quarter last year.

The figures for the periods reported do not include the results of Fox Markets, Inc. Mr. Stein noted. Food Fair acquired effective control of this Los Angeles-based chain of supermarkets last June.

W. A. ADAMS

Adams Transfer & Storage, 200 North Holly, announces that it has become the Sanford area agent for Bekins Van Lines Co., a subsidiary of one of the world's largest moving and storage firms.

"By affiliating with Bekins we are able to offer residents and business firms in this territory complete moving services to 50 states, as well as to 83 countries throughout the free world," W. A. Adams, owner and manager, stated.

"Although the Bekins firm is 72 years old, we found it has some of the most modern equipment, facilities and operating methods in the industry," Adams said.

"Bekins handles not only the moving and storage of household goods, but also office and industrial moving, electronics moving, display and exhibit moving, overseas moving, as well as other specialized services," he added.

Daniel P. Bryant, President of Bekins said, "We are confident that our association will not only be mutually beneficial, but will also provide Sanford firms and citizens with the kind of moving services that have made Bekins well known throughout the world."

Adams established his firm in 1932 and has three modern warehouses totaling 17,000 sq. ft.

Politically Speaking—

The candidates are off and running, locally and statewide. Lining up for the May 5 primary . . . and hoping they'll make that hurdle for the May 26 runoff primary, prior to the general election Nov. 3.

Too, many of the local officeholders are holding their breath that they will have no opposition and, like U. S. Rep. Syd Herlong, be automatically elected with the closing of the qualifying date at noon March 17.

Syd told The Herald Wednesday that he was so elated Tuesday noon when he learned he had no opposition, with the closing of the state's books, he took his entire Washington office staff to luncheon . . . and closed his office for the afternoon. But, he added, "I'm going to campaign just as though I have opposition."

United Press twice this last week carried the name of Dr. Robert Hoover, Republican running for state representative from Seminole County against incumbent Democrat Joe Davis. UP both times emphasized Dr. Hoover's address as Orlando, in Orange County. The good Doctor was unavailable for comment when he telephoned his Orlando office but his office reported "his address is Orlando—he lives on the Seminole-Orange County line."

All candidates for the office of governor have been invited to speak Saturday, March 14, at the third annual conference of Mayors, Councilmen, Commissioners and City Attorneys being held at the Robert Meyer Motor Inn, Orlando, March 13-14. City of Sanford will be represented.

United Press also has reported members of Congress are voting themselves a $10,000 pay hike, to $32,500. "R. E. Porter" served in 1939-40 as secretary to a Congressman and the job then paid only $10,000 annually. (And that secretary's job paid $3,000—now it's "administrative assistant" and pays $11,400.)

Long range forecast: Look for the Seminole County delegation to introduce a bill in the 1965 Legislature giving a pay hike to County Commissioners . . . from $200 in salary and $100 in expenses to $400 in salary and $100 in expenses.

Fred Dickinson has opened his local campaign headquarters for governor on North Park Avenue, across from the court house.

Miami utility consultant Phillip S. Brewer, in announcing his candidacy for the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, leveled a verbal blast at the present Commission, charging that "it is controlled virtually lock, stock and barrel by the large utility bosses operating in Florida. He charged, also, that "certain members" of the Florida State Legislature are "controlled" by Florida's giant utility monopolies.

Brewer, erstwhile star half back for Duke University's Blue Devils, insisted it's high time the Florida public seats a member on the Commission who has the rights of the utility user in mind. "The Board was set up," said he, "to protect the Florida public but it has come to the point where we need someone to protect us from the utility commission, itself."

A release from Mathews for Governor hq. quotes Sen. Jack Mathews: "As the 'pie in the sky' promises mount in the current campaign, I repeat my challenge of last October that all candidates meet in face-to-face debate in all sections of Florida. . . . There would then be no more whispered promises, no more double-talk, no more side-stepping of issues. . . . Abraham Lincoln and Stephen Douglas did not consider themselves 'to big' for such a public debate. Why should a candidate for governor be aloof?"

This will be the kickoff gathering of the 1964 Florida Citrus Exposition, with almost all of the gubernatorial candidates and many members of the Florida Press Association in attendance.

Traveling Salesman Gets Break

By Charles W. Schoeneman
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
(Ninth of 10 Articles)

The travel portion of the new travel and entertainment rules effective for 1963 contains stricter record-keeping requirements. In addition, there is a new restriction on deductions for certain business-pleasure trips. However, exceptions to the new restrictions are very broad.

The general rule effective for 1963 is that if you travel more than a week away from home and 25 per cent or more of the total time was spent on personal pleasure (or other nonbusiness activities), then, technically you are disallowed some part of your tax deduction for the trip.

This nondeductible portion is the expense of traveling (including meals and lodging while traveling) to and from the business destination which was not proportionally allocable to your business time on the trip. Travel time generally counts as business time on a trip, the primary purpose of which is business.

The board exceptions to the general rule are: The IRS has ruled that the strict general rule will not apply to situations where the person taking the trip did not have substantial control over arranging the trips. For example, the IRS says that ordinarily an employee who is reimbursed for his travel expenses is considered not to have this "substantial control."

If the person did not have as a major consideration in deciding to make the trip, the taking of a vacation or holiday, the strict rule will not apply.

Whether or not the new rules apply, you are reminded that if the primary purpose of any trip is shown by the IRS to be personal, then no deduction for any travel expense is allowable.

How must you keep records for business trips under the new law?

No deductions will be allowed for approximations or estimates. As of July 31, 1963, the following proof must be kept in your records—or if you are an employer, must be kept and given your employer.

The amount of each separate expenditure for traveling away from home, such as transportation and lodging, but your meals (breakfast, lunch and dinner may be grouped as one expenditure).

The dates of departure and return together with the number of days spent on business away from home.

Your itinerary, with name of city or town.

The business reason or purpose for your trip.

The last item may be in terms of the business benefit you derived or you expected to be derived from your trip. You must also get receipts for all lodging expenses while you are away from home, and for all other expenses of $25 or more. The only exception is for $25 or more transportation expenses where receipts are not readily available.

(NEXT: Some New Deductions under 1963 Rules.)

Leaders Attend Scout Camp

Seven Girl Scout leaders now hold qualified camper certificates after spending last weekend at Camp Tichau near Barboursville.

In the group are Mrs. Harold Dankieff, Mrs. Tom Albert, Mr. Raymond Downey, Mrs. Charles Tymplin, Mrs. Paul Maney, Mrs. Robert Andrews and Mrs. J. E. Woods.

During the two days at camp these leaders followed routine schedule for scout campers. They prepared all of their own meals, pitched and slept in tents, did compass work, hiked and followed trails through the camp.

Birthday Luncheon Celebrated At Community Methodist Church

By Mrs. Adam Muller
The Women's Society of Christian Service held their annual Birthday Luncheon recently at the DeBary Community Methodist Church. The hostess for this affair was the Martha Circle. Mrs. C.N. Ogg gave the table blessing. Mrs. William Fidler was the leader for the Martha Circle.

Mrs. Charles Creasey, the president, read a poem, "Easter", following her welcome to the members and the guests. Two new members present were Mrs. George Ruppert and Mrs. Thomas Howard, introduced by Mrs. Harry Bell, chairman of membership.

Table decorations were arranged by Eleanor Wilson, consisting of pink gladioli and azaleas with fern.

Miss Adelaide Conte, at the piano, played "Etude in E Major" by Chopin, and "Singing Fountain" by Burmann. The WSCS members will sell Swedish mealballs and other foods to raise money in the coming months. You may place your order with Mrs. Creasey or any other member.

Chapter Donates Money To Fund

The Xi Beta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. Audrey Spear.

It was announced at this time that the sorority had received several letters from the International Endowment Fund and from the adopted girl at the Baptist Children's Home.

The girls voted to send money to each of the three funds connected with the International Endowment Fund. Also the letter from the adopted girl was read before the group thanking them for their contribution toward an Easter outfit for the child.

The nominating committee reported their nominees. They are: Janet Alexander, president; Betty Bristol, vice president; Candy McClanahan secretary; Willie M.C. Prokosh, treasurer; and coordinating committee chairman, Rheda McCall.

Rheda McCall gave a report on the committee and announced that the sorority would jointly sponsor a Mother's Day Tea with the other Beta Sigma Phi chapters. The social chairman from each will meet to select the place and date for the tea.

Audrey Spear presented the program on Southern South America.

Those attending were Mrs. W. Bristol, Mrs. Harold Chapman, Mrs. Gordon Frederick, Mrs. Vernon Hardin, Mrs. E.C. Harper Jr., Mrs. Glen McCall, Mrs. A.A. McClanahan, Mrs. John Prokosh, and Mrs. Thomas Richards.

Supper And Installations Held For Incoming Officers

By Mrs. Clarence Snyder
A covered dish supper and joint installation meeting was recently held by Post No. 537, Veterans of World War I and the Ladies Auxiliary at the Legion Hut on Highway 17-92. The ladies served a delicious supper and a social hour was enjoyed. Then the auxiliary held its installation ceremony.

monies with Mrs. Grace Lash, Winter Garden, district president, as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Lena Hammond, conductress, and Mrs. Mary Lawson, chaplain. The officers installed were: Mrs. Bea Newsome, president; Mrs. Edna Brinson, senior vice president; Mrs. Beula Thornton, junior vice president; Miss Susan Castrianni, treasurer; Mrs. Madelon Covens, chaplain; Mrs. Lena Hammond, conductress; Mrs. Emma Bashara, guard; Mrs. Winnie Siles, trustee; Mrs. Hazel Field, secretary; Mrs. Harry Ostern, patriotic instructor, and Mrs. Eva Williams, flag bearer.

Following the installation the past president's Jewel was presented to Mrs. Winnie Siles, the outgoing president.

The men then held their installation with William Covens as installing officer, Ed Luideck, conductor, and Ralph Hammond, chaplain. Installed were: George Bashara, commander; Joe Wells, senior vice president; B. F. Kutz, junior vice president; Harvey Swanson, chaplain; Theodore A. Siles, quarter master; B. E. Rogers, judge advocate; W. R. McGill, three year trustee, and Joel Field, Sgt. of Arms.

Twin Bed Sale Increasing This Year

By Patricia McCormack
NEW YORK (UPI) — A new report is bound to make sociologists strike their beads and declare togetherness is declining.

The same report is sure to make the sheet makers of America cheer.

The report: Sales of twin beds are increasing, continuing a trend. That increases the need for sheets, of course.

The report, coupled with a survey report of couples who have switched, indicated that the preference for twin beds is associated with a belief that in slumberland it's a matter of to each his own bed!

Statisticians are on their side. Americans are bigger and heavier these days. The standard bed of 54 inches wide and 75 inches long doesn't provide enough comfortable space for two.

A shortage of room on the mattress leads to hangover - and fallout. The legs and arms hang over. And eventually, given enough twisting and turning, fall out results.

The report on increases in sales of twin beds comes from a manufacturer of bedding. The manufacturer reported that the boost in twin bed ensembles appears to be a spiral without end.

What happens to the double mattress and box-springs once a couple changes to twin beds?

A survey by the firm shows that some Americans try to live up to the idea that a man-or woman-ought to be born in the bed that he-or she-expects to die in.

That aside, most Americans consider changing beds about six times in a lifetime. The times: Getting married, having children, moving to new headquarters, refurbishing or redecorating, sheer necessity, physical complaint.

Physical complaint covers such things as springs poking through a mattress.

The old mattresses, meanwhile, according to the firm, present a disposal problem. Strangely, 55 per cent of old mattresses are not thrown away. No, ma'am.

Almost a third of them are either passed along or handed down.

Who gets them? Research by marketing sleuths showed that most often a mattress that has seen better days winds up in the bedroom of a youngster under 18 years of age.

Eighty per cent of the hand-me-down mattress recipients were under 18.

The pass-alongs and hand-me-downs are not crib mattresses, youth beds or bunk bed mattresses. They're the regular, double-size mattresses, the survey showed.

The recipients get short-changed, of course, especially if they're bigger, taller, heavier youngsters than those of a generation ago.

The hand-me-downs might save the family a few dollars, but they do little to support the growing bodies needing proper support.

Lyman Golfers Lose 4 To 2 Lyman High's golf team dropped a 4 to 2 decision last Friday to Winter Park High's linksmen in a match played at Rolling Hills. Joe Pavlichak captured one of Lyman's two points by winning his match and Frank Ballentine copped the other point.

Giants' Younger Alou Comes Through

By Joe Gorman
UPI Sports Writer

It won't take San Francisco Giants fans long to forget Felipe Alou's younger brother Jesus has any say in the matter.

The Giants traded Felipe, the oldest of three brothers playing in the major leagues and their starting right fielder last season, to the Milwaukee Braves in December with the hope that Jesus (pronounced hay-soos) would uphold the family tradition.

And the youngest Alou has done nothing in the intervening period to dispel San Francisco's fervent hopes for a family succession to the right field throne. Instead, Jesus has flattered much of the form that carried him to numerous minor league awards despite his youthful 20 years.

Tuesday, Jesus cracked a triple and a single to lead a 12-hit Giant attack in a 5-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox — Frisco's fourth Cactus League win in as many games. Another rookie, Jim Ray Hart, collected two safes as Bob Shaw picked up his second triumph of the spring campaign.

Playboy Bo Bellamy was rocked for a three-run home run in the first inning by Cleveland Indians' reformed Wally Post as the Los Angeles Angels were beaten, 9-7. The erratic Bellamy pitched two innings in all, striking out the side in the second frame after walking the first two batters.

Bill Robinson, a 20-year-old Milwaukee farmhand, clouted a grand slam homer and two doubles as the Denver Bears outslugged the Braves, 10-7. Ossie Virgil, Phil Roof and Rico Carty all hit circuits for Milwaukee.

Around the camps: Don Drysdale, making his first appearance in a Los Angeles intra-squad game, pitched three scoreless innings, surrendering two hits and fanning a like number. . . . rookie first baseman John Herrstein unloaded a three-run homer off Chris Short to give his team a 4-1 victory in the Philadelphia Phillies' second intra-squad game of the year.

Reserve outfielder Ken Berry lashed an inside-the-park home run to highlight the Chicago White Sox training camp contest. . . . Ted Savage collected four hits for the Pittsburgh Pirates and Bob Saverstein unloaded a three-run homer off Chris Short to give his team a 4-1 victory in the Philadelphia Phillies' second intra-squad game of the year.

Big Walter Bond, a double and a single in three appearances with the Houston Colt- . . . Ernie Banks suffered a slight fracture of the ring finger on his right hand in the Chicago Cubs' workouts and will be out for three or four days. . . . Bob Skinner smacked a three-run homer and Don Pavlich hit two doubles in a Cincinnati scrimmage.

Ron Kline, the Washington Senators' last holdout, came to terms for what was reportedly the same salary as in 1963 — approximately $18,000. Kline successfully fought off a $3,000 cut after compiling a 2-8 record and a 2.79 earned run mark last season.

Catcher Choo Choo Coleman of the New York Mets is expected to be out of action for a month as the result of a broken left thumb suffered Monday, while Jim Hickman's twisted ankle should be fit in four days.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Spring football experiments involving Hal Seymour could pay the fall's biggest dividends for the Florida Gators, believes Coach Ray Graves. Seymour, best known during 1963 as a sophomore, averaged 40.7 yards per boot during 1963 as a sophomore, Seymour is now operating as a defensive secondary specialist but he'll still handle kicking chores.

Graves says that Hal's tremendous athletic ability is progressing rapidly and that he's got great reactions, speed and a knack for breaking on the ball.

Spring sports at Seminole High in Sanford are almost in full swing. At this time the school is going forward in baseball, track, swimming, bowling and golf. As someone remarked the other day: "There's a place for everyone."

Lake Monroes Set Fast Pace

Lake Monroe Inn, rolling in the city Bowling League, is setting a torrid pace.

Lake Monroe with the help of "Big John" Uhr's 200, 203 and 190 games for a 599 total, took another four points from Sanford Manufacturing. Lake Monroe has won their last 20 games. They are now in front of their closest competitors with a nine-game margin with eight weeks to go this season.

Sweeney's Bar & Grill took possession of second place this week with a clean four-point sweep from Jet Lanes. Pete Petersen was the big gun for Sweeney's with his games of 215, 202 and 180 for a 597 total.

Paul Sloposky was high for Jet Lanes with his 204, 209 and 160 for a 573 total. This dropped Jet Lanes to third place.

American Legion Post 53 remained in fourth place with a three-point win from the last place, Wisdom Sod Service. George Swann was high for the Legionaires with his 223/503, while Joe Gault was high for Wisdom's with a 496 total. Michael's Elk Gas team remained in fifth-place with a four-point sweep from the pryor's State Farm Insurance. Andrew Patrick was the big gun for Michael's with his 214/589, while Phil Roche was high for Pryor's with a 564 series.

In the other league match, the Knights of Columbus made it a clean sweep from Harry's Bar & Package. Carl Von Herbulla was high for the Knights with his 228/563, while Jesse (games) Cook was high for Harry's with a 205/546.

As all local bowlers know the loop lost one of its most liked, and most loved bowlers a couple of weeks ago. All were saddened with the loss of Paul Pesold. He was a life long City League bowler and a promoter of bowling among youngsters. Last Wednesday the members of the City League voted to give each year to the Bowler of the Year in the Junior bowling League a Paul Pesold Memorial trophy.

Stewart L. Udall, U. S. Secretary of the Interior, has been named to receive the National Wildlife Federation's "Conservationist-of-the-Year" award. Udall will receive in the form of a bronze plaque today in Las Vegas. He was cited for his outstanding contributions in furthering the cause of wildlife conservation and wide use of all natural resources.

The first annual Florida Invitational and Intercollegiate Golf Championship tournament will be held at the Cape Coral Country Club, April 2-4. Sponsored by the City of Cape Coral, the three-day event will be a 72-hole medal play tourney with seven Florida colleges and three out-of-state schools participating.

Competing for honors will be the University of Houston, Wake Forest, Columbia, Florida, Florida State, Miami, Florida Presbyterian, Stetson, Rollins and Florida Southern.

Local bowlers should be interested in noting that the 1964 Women's International Bowling Congress championship tournament, opening April 9, in Minneapolis, has already set three records; the largest team entry, the largest prize fund and the most 900-average teams.

There are 5,071 teams entered, the prize fund amounts to $248,924 and there are 70 900-average teams posed for the tournament.

Had a nice visit with Ray Kennedy, a scout for the New York Mets who has been the organization's representative here in making arrangements for the several Met farm clubs to undergo spring workouts in Sanford. Ray has been in the game for many years and is loaded with baseball lore. He's enthusiastic about the Met club training here and says the facilities at Sanford's Memorial Stadium are set for the arrival of initial contingents week after next.

Junior guard Brooks Henderson, noted for his defensive heroics, was also Florida's top offensive basketball player during the season just ending. Henderson led the Gators in scoring with 581 points and an average of 17.8 per tilt. He also took free-throw accuracy honors by dumping in 87 out of 103 tries—a percentage of .845. Henderson's charity loss record was the highest in Gator history.

Shoemaker In Clean Sweep

Mildred Nicholas, Shoemaker Construction captain, rolled high games of 188 in the Stenstrom-vs-Shoemaker match to help Shoemaker take a clean sweep from Stenstrom in this week's Hi-Nooners Bowling League. Cook's Corner won three close points from Art Brown Pest Control and the Acep Deuce Wives won three points from Hunt Realty.

Beverly Kreck, new member of the Grapeville Nursery team, led her squad with a 163 to help them win four points from Joe's Laundry. M & R Bar took three points from Southern Air and the C. P. O. Wives won three from the Delbart Deba.

In the split circle is Betty Johnston, converting the 5-6-10; Betty and Virginia Skelly also got the 4-5-7. Kathy Gray topped the 5-7-7 Grace Keck, Kitty Purdy, Mary Tomaleski, and Letha Ward the 5-10 and Charlotte Bassett, Dot Button, Judy Clarke, and Mary Tomaleski converted the 3-10.

An unusually high number of turkeys were rolled this week. Charlotte Bassett, Dot Button, Kathy Gray, Doris Hock, Connie Ringo, and Meda Wittshire linked in those three in a row. Charlotte Bassett, subbing for the CPO Wives, rolled 212-521 for high game and series.

It is interesting to note that in the first half of the City Women's Bowling Tournament the following Hi-Nooners made the board: team event—Art Brown Pest Control and C. P. O. Wives; Letha Ward and Doris Hock are leading the doubles competition; Jane Spolaki and Nan Quinn are third and Nan Quinn and Shirley Simas are sixth.

In the Singles-Judy Clarke is holding third position with Shirley Simas fourth and Dot Button fifth.

Dot Button rolled a terrific 222 in her last game in the singles event and that's going to be difficult to top.

Turkeys Trot Ahead Of Pack

The Turkey Trotters continue to "wing" along in first place in the Pinecrest Inn League after winning another three-point decision this week at the expense of the Salad Masters. Sydney Haas was the hot shot for the Turkey Trotters with 169/486 and Dot Kirkley hit 104/440 to pace the Salad Masters.

The Hot Plates lost ground on the Trotters despite some fine bowling by Mary Faust who rolled 177/519 as they were able to salvage a single with from the Hib and Tuckers. Barbara Rohrer shot 172/439 to lead the Hib and Tuckers. The third place Cold Cutters held their position with a three-game and Gladys Edwards rolled 170/463. The Platters and Meat Balls drew even in their match at two wins and two losses each. The Toothpicks swept all four wins from the Tomatoes in the final match.

Barbara Fox won high game honors with a fine 193 as quite a few good games were bowled by the girls. Joan Adams hit 170, Barbara Rohrer 172, Dot Johnson 174, Peggy Dooley 177, Gladys Edwards 179 and Mary Faust who added two identical 171's to her high series.

Beverly Adams rolled the only turkey. Split pick-ups were notched by Peggy Pfister with 2-7, Dot Johnson and Madge Cummings the 5-7, the 5-7-9 by Elaine Miller and the 5-8-10 by Sue Pruitt. Peggy Pfister, rolling for the Meatballs had a turkey.

Griffith Meets Duran Tonight

ROME (UPI) — Welterweight champion Emile Griffith continues his world tour tonight with a 10-round non-title bout against Argentina's Carlo Duran.

Griffith's last start was in Sydney, Australia. He knocked out Ralph Dupas of New Orleans in the third round, Feb. 10.

A capacity crowd of 15,000 was expected at the Palace of Sport.

Yank's Bouton Ready To Sign

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Jim Bouton, although admitting he's "not very happy" at the way things turned out, was ready to sign his contract with the New York Yankees today for an 80 per cent pay hike.

The young righthander, who was holding out for $20,000, accepted the club's final offer of $18,000 Tuesday from his home in Ridgewood, N. J., and left Tuesday night for Fort Lauderdale.

"I really have no recourse in the matter. . . I'll probably sign tomorrow," Bouton said before taking off for the Yankees' spring training headquarters.

General Manager Ralph Houk had warned Bouton that if he failed to come to terms by midnight tonight he would be fined $100 for every day he refused to sign.

Coaching Clinic Slated Tonight

A coaching clinic, conducted by the City Recreation Department Director, Jim Jernigan, will be held tonight at 7:30 at the department's offices in Sanford's Civic Center.

Coaches are expected to review plans for the Junior Boys League in addition to going over rules and regulations for the forthcoming season.

The following teams are entered in the loop: Kiwanis, Civitan, Rotary, CPO, Shrine, Elks, Oviedo and Lake Mary. Coming into the circuit or the first time and making it an eight-club league will be the entry from Lake Mary.

Tryouts will be held at Fort Mellon Park on March 17-18, for boys playing Junior baseball. This league is for youngsters who would play Babe Ruth baseball as it is called elsewhere. Details on the junior workouts will be announced Friday.

Stigma Team Is Favored

Stigma and Muguerza are favored in the post five position for the All Star headliner in today's Matinee program at the Orlando Seminole Jai Alai Fronton.

Stigma will be trying for a repeat of his sparkling Tuesday night performance in which he paired with Echaniz to sweep the feature eighth game doubles match with five straight points.

The winners, in post three, took over in the opening round and never let up. Jacin and Zarra, in post one, were second with one point on the board.

The remaining four teams played out of a scoreless deadlock for third place with Ermo and Pradera coming out on top.

Tribe Golfers Beat Wildcats

Seminole High's golf team handed the Winter Park High linksman their first defeat of the current season 4 to 2.

Seminole picked up points on Ray Bradford's defeat of the Wildcats' Jim Raprager, and Jeff Williams' win over Can Cornell, 2 and 1.

Seminole also grabbed a pair of points by taking one beat ball, 1-up, and another 2-up.

Rick Pazzini of Winter Park defeated Roth Vihlen, 2 and 1, and Jerry Guppy downed Tommy Todd, also 2 and 1.

Coach Fred Ganas of Seminole reported that Larry Sheewood of the Tribe is currently out of action with the measles. "Now that all of our golfers have had the measles," said Ganas, "perhaps we can get down to business."

Ganas said he was pleased with Tuesday's golf victory since, "It's our opinion that Winter Park is the team to beat for the Metro title."

Stewards Await Doping Report

HALLANDALE (UPI) — Gulfstream Race Track stewards awaited a report from a State Racing Commission attorney today before determining their action in a horse drug case involving trainer Horatio Luro.

The attorney, Leonard McMillan after studying the case, said he would make a recommendation to the commission to challenge Luro's defense attorney to Florida's "trainer responsibility" racing regulation.

The stewards put off a decision in the case Tuesday after a hearing, pending Melton's report.

Dan Chappell, representing Luro, contended before the stewards that a 1917 state Supreme Court decision held the trainer responsibility rule unconstitutional on grounds it deprives trainers of due process.

The regulation puts the responsibility on trainers for anything which happens to their horses, regardless of their actual guilt or the action of any third party.

Luro was suspended temporarily and ordered before the commission because he procaine was found in one of his horses, Gay Lothario, following a victory in an opening day race at Gulfstream.

Horse Show Postponed

The Dusty Boots Horse Show, originally scheduled for Sunday, has been postponed until the following Sunday, Tony Austin, show director, announced today.

"All interested riders are invited to attend and take part in the regularly scheduled contests and events," Austin said. "At that time the trophies won the January and February contests for high point winners will be awarded."

"One of the events scheduled for the March 22 show will be a new contest for this area—a reining contest, which is based on the control of the horse entirely by neck-reining," Austin said.

Miami Hurricanes Open With St Joseph In NIT

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National Invitation Basketball Tournament has a quite a classy field this season and that pertains to individual performers as well as the teams.

The 27th annual tournament opens at Madison Square Garden Thursday night and, right from the start appreciative New York fans will be seeing some of the best talent in the country.

The opening twinbill finds St. Joseph's Pa. facing Miami Fla. and New York University playing Syracuse, a coming Eastern power.

The big name in the opener is Rick Barry, the 6-foot-7 Miami star from Roosevelt Park, N. J., who led the Hurricanes 20-6 to the nation's top per game scoring average 96.2.

St. Joseph's has the type of team which thrives on pressure basketball and they're led by one of the East's top guards—Steve Courtin.

Courtin averaged 19.9 points per game for the Hawks 17-9 this season, but his greatest asset is his defensive ability.

The second game will be of special interest to New York fans. It's also another chance for NYU 15-8, which has to rate as one of the biggest disappointments this year.

Barry Kramer and Happy Hairston are two of the top individuals on any team anywhere but the Violets have not been able to get their offense co-ordinated. Lou Rossini, the NYU coach feels the tournament challenge could snap NYU from its slump.

Syracuse, which finished 2-22, just two years ago wound up with a 17-7 record this season. Chuck Richards, a 6-foot-8 transfer from Army, and Dave Bing a 6-foot-3 sophomore, were the main reasons. They both averaged better than 20 points per game.

The tournament will continue Saturday with afternoon and evening doubleheaders.

In the afternoon, Army 16-6 faces St. Bonaventure 16-4 and Pittsburgh 17-7 meets Missouri Valley Conference runner-up Drake 20-6.

The other seeded teams, Duquesne and New Mexico, make their initial appearances next Tuesday night against the Saturday afternoon winners. Duquesne plays the St. Bonaventure Army winner and New Mexico faces the Drake - Pitt winner.

PVT. MIDDLETON

Pfc. Charles Middleton has received a letter of commendation and appreciation from his Commander, Middleton is member of the 1st Battalion (Mech), 58th Infantry, Fort Benning, Ga. He was graduated from Croombs High School in 1962. The following is a statement from his commanding officer: I have noted with pleasure the attached correspondence attesting to your outstanding performance while on Post Guard 6 December 1963. Being selected as supernumerary (recited all general orders and passed inspection with flying colors) is credit to yourself, your unit, and the 58th Infantry. I wish to add my appreciation for a job well done. John L. Davis III, Lt. Colonel, Infantry Commanding. Congratulations to Charles. I am sure his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fielder are indeed proud of his accomplishments.

Hopper Elementary School's Parent-Teachers Association received a merit award recently. The award was for excellence in program planning. They are now in the process of planning for their Spring Carnival which will be April 8. P.T.A. president Joseph Caldwell said, "We are happy to see the work being done toward paving the street in front of the school."

Raymond Smith Gospel Singers of Florida A and M University, Tallahassee, will appear at the Triumph Church Sunday, March 22, at 8 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to come out and hear these artists.

Choir Number 1 of New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church celebrated its 25th Anniversary, Sunday, March 8. Forty-two guest choirs performed magnificently. The church was filled to its capacity, and there were persons standing on the outside. It would be unfair to single out any choir and mention its performance because each one gave soul-stirring feasts.

The guest choirs were: St. Johns, Miami Church of God, Daytona; Bethelham Baptist Church, Winter Garden; St. Luke, Daytona; Harmony Baptist, Groveland; New Hope, Daytona; St. James, Miami; Mt. Moriah, New Mt. Zion, New Salem, St. James, Second Shiloh, Allen Chapel, New Bethel, Providence, Zion Hope, St. Luke, St. Matthews, New Mt. Calvary, St. John, New Zion, New Salem, Morning Glory, St. Paul, Clearwater Baptist, First Shiloh, Progress all of Sanford. Some of the choirs were not listed on the program. Mrs. Bernice Harris and Mrs. Ruthie Nathan were mistresses of ceremonies.

Rev. P. M. Mitchell wishes to thank everyone who helped make the program a success. Also the president of choir number 1, Felton Brooks, who was gleaming with joy.

Friday, March 13, is Conference Day at all schools in the county. Teachers will be available from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. Parents are asked to visit the schools. There will be no school for students.

The following article along with other information from the Herald's office, was written by Mrs. Katherine Brown Holly, who was a class mate of Mrs. Alberta Thomas Kline.

Mrs. Alberta Thomas Kline passed away Saturday, February 20 at Montefiore Hospital in New York City. Better known to her school mates as (Bert), Mrs. Kline was born in Orlando and brought to Sanford in early life by her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas.

It was here that she spent her public school days attending Hooper Academy under the administration of the late Prof. J. N. Croombs. Mrs. W. R. Croombs, and other instructors. After graduation, she attended Florida A and M College to take a teacher training course. Later she accepted a position as instructor in the Orange County Public System and finally at Winter Haven.

Desiring advancement in her chosen vocation, she moved to New York City and registered in the training school of Christian workers of the mission society.

Mrs. Kline began her career with the Society of Missionaries Branch at Abyssinian Baptist Church. Associated with nineteen other churches in that area, she became full director in 1946. Under her direction since 1946, the youth center has an enrollment of more than 7,000 girls, boys and adults. In addition to the youth center, a Minisink Camp on the Hudson River near Catskill Mountains for the youth and community service was established.

Her awards for outstanding service include the 1956 Citation from the National Association of Business and Professional Women, and the Sojourner's Truth Award given by that organization.

Mrs. Kline was affiliated with the following organizations: Women's City Club, Business Women Club, American Camping Association, Council of Churches, and the National group of the Religious Education Association.

A surprise birthday party was given for Mrs. Alberta Robinson Friday night, March 6 at the home of Mrs. Willie Ree Pendleton, 702 Sanford Avenue. The pink and blue table cloth made the atmosphere conducive to the occasion. Guests were: Mrs. Nettie Hagen and her son C. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Edge, Mrs. M. Mayo, Mrs. S. Williams, Mrs. Bennett and her mother-in-law, and her sister, Mrs. Willie Forgan, Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Green and H. Horton.

P.T.A. meeting will be at Goldsboro Elementary School Monday, March 16; Tuesday night, March 17, Croombs High School's P.T.A. will meet. All parents are urged to attend these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Joseph of Rochester, N. Y. are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Joseph; sister, Mrs. Kathryn J. Thornton and her daughter Karen; and brother, Bennie Joseph.

Once I heard a gentleman say, "We worry about things that do not matter." To me, there is logic in that statement. There are many things we should worry about such as: (1) The many unfortunate children. (2) More and better leisure time activities for our children. (3) Raising the educational level of our community and the like. Instead, we worry about how Mr. and Mrs. "X" are living; the new car or what have you. Mr. and Mrs. "Y" just bought, and just plain gossip too much. Pascal was quite accurate when he uttered the following words: Gossip has been well defined as putting two and two together, and making five. I hold it to be a fact, that if all persons knew what each said of the other, there would not be four friends in the world.— Do you agree?

Champ McKinley Back To Books

SALISBURY, Mo. (UPI)—Chuck McKinley returned to his studies at Trinity (Tex.) College today with his second National Indoor tennis title in three years.

"I'm very tired, but happy," McKinley said after defeating fellow Davis Cupper Dennis Ralston of Berkeley, Calif., in 2½ hour marathon match 15-12, 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, Sunday.

Demo Rights Leaders Organize Forces

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Democratic leaders today completed their team of floor captains to lead the fight for various sections of the House-passed civil rights bill. Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., floor manager for the bill, announced selection of Sens. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., Edward V. Long, D-Mo., John O. Pastore, D-R.I., and Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., to be floor captains.

Their assignments were: Morse, desegregation of public facilities; Douglas, education; Long, Civil Rights Commission; Pastore, non-discrimination in use of federal funds; and Dodd, registration and voting statistics, community relations service and miscellaneous.

They will join three other Democrats previously chosen as floor captains. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., will handle voting rights; Sen. Warren Maguason, D-Wash., public accommodations, and Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., equal employment opportunity.

Humphrey made the announcement as the Senate began its third day of debate on a motion to call up the civil rights bill, most sweeping anti-discrimination legislation since reconstruction days.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., said a vote on the motion to bring up the measure "could come the middle of next week."

Dirksen said it was "too early" to consider cloture — gag rule against debate—and this point might not be reached for three more weeks. Dirksen also said he would support a motion to send the bill to the Judiciary Committee for a period of study.

The anti-civil rights team of Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., was scheduled to provide the oratory today against the bill. So far, southerners have had plenty of help in filling the air with talk.

Retired Teachers To Hear Talk

L. C. Harrell, Jacksonville, president of the Retired Teachers Section of the Florida Education Association, will address a meeting of the Orange County Retired Teachers organization on next Tuesday, at 2 p. m. in the Community Room on the fifth floor of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association Building, Church Street and Magnolia Avenue, Orlando.

L. A. Kirt, president of the organization, has invited all retired teachers in the Central Florida area to attend. One purpose of the meeting is to obtain information regarding the actuarial soundness of the teacher retirement pension fund. Retired teachers in Seminole County have been invited.

Bear Lake Has Good Program In Scouting

By Maryam Miles
The Scouting program for girls is well represented in the Bear Lake area by a number of Brownie and Girl Scout Troops.

Brownie Troop 363 meets at 2:30 p. m. each Wednesday at the home of the leader, Mrs. Elene Cox who is assisted by Mrs. Alene Smith as co-leader.

Girls in this group are working on "dig bags" to take on cookouts and are planning to make Easter greeting cards for their parents.

Brownies in Troop 906 are making "sit-upons" and a shell garden. Mrs. Kay Vieta is leader of this group and meetings are held each Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the Bear Lake Elementary School.

Girl Scout Troop 604, made up of eighth graders, is led by Mrs. Sarah Hall and Mrs. Betty Brannon. These girls will make a weekend camping trip to Alexander Springs in the Ocala National Forest this week.

Troop 603 for sixth grade girls has Mrs. Lorraine Egner as leader and Mrs. Barbara Hoover as co-leader. Members are learning the seven basic camping skills—to build a fire, to tie two basic knots, to take care of knives, to administer basic first aid treatment, to cook on an open fire, to read a compass and map and to roll their bed rolls.

Key Club Wins Top Award

Key Club International, high school boys' service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International, has won a top award in the annual Freedoms Foundation Americanism competition, according to Dr. John F. Darby, president of the Sanford Kiwanis Club. The local Kiwanis Club sponsors the Key Club at Seminole High School.

The award which was presented to Kenneth Cohen, on February 22, at Valley Forge, came for Key Club's 1963 theme, "Fulfill Freedom's Challenge." Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, president of the Freedoms Foundation, made the presentation.

Kiwanis International, too, was honored. The organization received a Distinguished Service Award for its 1963-64 theme, "Responsibility—The Key to Freedom." Kiwanis has won a top award each year since Freedoms Foundation began.

Circle K International, a college men's service organization, also sponsored by Kiwanis, received a George Washington Honor Medal.

Library To Close Friday Nights

The Sanford Public Library will curtail Friday night hours during the summer months, city commissioners were told Monday night.

Due to the lack of personnel, created by vacations, the library will not be open during that time.

VAH-11 Returns From Caribbean

Heavy Attack Squadron Eleven today is home at the Sanford Naval Air Station after two months of operations in the Caribbean aboard the attack carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt. The squadron's twin-jet A-3B Skywarrior attack bombers returned to NAS Sanford Saturday. VAH-11 support personnel arrived Sunday via bus after the Roosevelt docked in Mayport.

While deployed aboard the Roosevelt, VAH-11 served with the U. S. Second Fleet force in readiness in the important Caribbean area. Operating out of the U. S. Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, the Roosevelt was on station during the recent "Glimo" water crisis.

The cruises also served as a warm-up for VAH-11's seven-month deployment to the Mediterranean scheduled later this spring. The squadron's Skywarriors fulfilled a heavy training schedule while providing an all-weather air strike capability for the ship's air group.

During an intensive flight schedule, Commander John F. Barlow, VAH-11 Commanding Officer, made his 100th carrier landing in an A-3B, earning for him the coveted title of "Centurian." The squadron also enabled Capt. J. A. Pridmore, Commander of the Fleet Training Group at Guantanamo, to receive an orientation flight in the A-3B, as he launched on a training mission with Cmdr. Barlow.

Oviedo Adopts 'Health' Bill

An ordinance designed to improve health provisions in Oviedo was approved by City Council Monday evening.

The new law provides that all new homes and all remodeled structures shall have adequate water supply and sewage disposal for human occupancy. The act provides for a fine of $200 or a jail sentence of 90 days, or both, for non-compliance.

City Council also returned for revision to a zoning committee proposed regulations for zoning, discussed zoning, building and electrical codes, named March 15-21 as "DeMolay Week" in Oviedo, approved a resolution commending Dr. Edward W. Stoner for action in obtaining improved telephone service for the city, named Councilman Robert Ward and T. L. Lingo as a building committee and recognized Oviedo High School students who will occupy city governmental seats at the April 6 Council meeting.

Exiles Pledge Battle In Cuba By May 20

MIAMI (UPI) — There will be a battle on Cuban soil by next May 20 to overthrow Fidel Castro, the Cuban Exile Revolutionary Junta said Monday.

The junta, led by former Cuban public works minister Manolo Ray, gave no further plans of the group's promise to fight.

Five other exile groups have announced they would take part.

Little Vicki Loses Fight For Sight

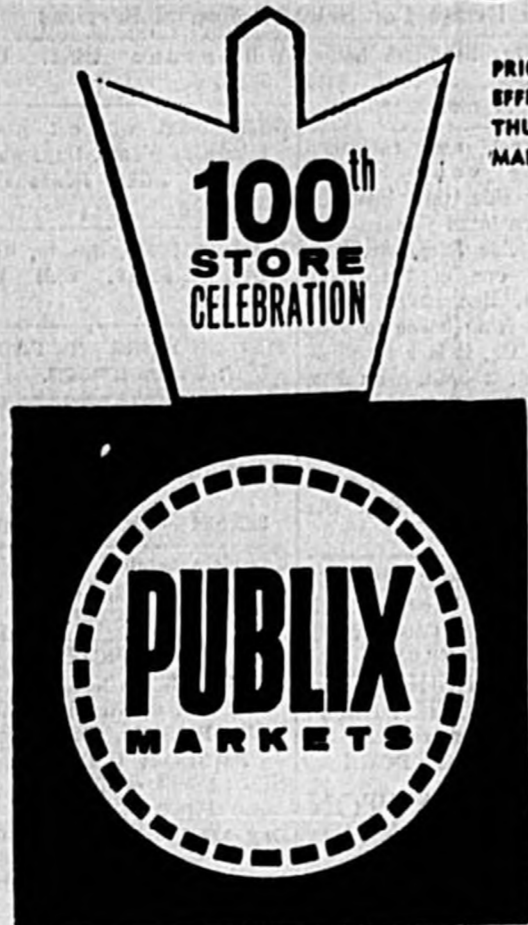

DURHAM, N. C. (UPI) — Blonde Little Vickie Wray, 3, lost her fight against total blindness Monday in a 90-minute operation she probably didn't comprehend.

Doctors at Duke Hospital removed Vicki's left eye to prevent the spread of cancer which had claimed her right eye last July.

There was no alternative, doctors said. Vickie had to forfeit her eyesight to save her life.

The child's mother, Mrs. Robert Wray, said she tried to explain to Vickie before the operation that she would not be able to see again. "I don't know if she understood," the mother said. "She just said, 'Fix my eye.'"

Hoffa Gets 8 Years Behind Bars

Dickinson In Hand-Shaking Street Rally

By Fred Van Pelt
Fred (Bud) Dickinson, the former state senator from West Palm Beach, moved into Seminole County Wednesday evening in his campaign against five other Democrats for the party nomination for governor.

Starting off with an old style political campaign, walking up and down Sanford's downtown streets, shaking hands, and otherwise greeting possible voters in his behalf, Dickinson wound up with a street corner rally at First and Magnolia.

Dickinson, in his street corner speech, highlighted with an amplifier system from a special campaign bus, promised Seminole County more roads, a citrus improvement program, an especial effort to bring state aid to the new state university in Orange County at the Seminole County line.

Later in the evening, at the Capri Restaurant, Dickinson spoke to a group expanded from an expected 30 local leaders to 50. These were local men who are to support the former Senator in his campaign for governor.

Dickinson "lost" his hearers in talking of the homestead exemption act. Several who were in the audience Wednesday night said today they did not understand just what Dickinson was trying to say—whether the present exemption of $5,000 on homestead properties should be reduced or enlarged. He did point out that one county would be used as an example in his planned program of revising homestead exemption.

He "spoke kindly" of his Democratic opponents except that he renewed his feud with Mayor Haydon Burns, of Jacksonville. The two have been accepted by political news reporters throughout the state of Florida as the leading contenders for the Democratic nomination for governor, which is tantamount to election in the November general election.

Senator Dickinson "hopped on" Burns for his stand that the U. S. Supreme Court should decide the congressional reapportionment program for Florida. Dickinson contended that it should be "strictly a home (state) business."

"The citrus industry is the giant of Florida agriculture and as governor I would give this great element of our economy my undivided and constant attention," Dickinson said.

A proven spokesman in the citrus behalf as the founder of the Florida Council of 100, Dickinson said, "I want to also make it very clear here and now that as governor I would seek to keep the Florida Citrus Commission from becoming a political football... this will not, cannot, and must not happen."

One of his first tasks as governor would be to collect the finest minds in both the industry and science to further the cause of... one of Florida's three giants of economy.

"I would also strive to place the best men on the Florida Citrus Commission that could be obtained, expecting them to do their duty for and with the industry and not allow political bickering and small thinking to become involved in their functions," Dickinson said.

Mrs. Dickinson was entertained by wives of local supporters at a reception at the home of his local campaign leader, Ernest Southward, on Elliott Avenue.

WEST PALM BEACH'S former Sen. Fred (Bud) Dickinson, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, expounded his cause as to why he should be Florida's next governor in an old fashioned street rally Wednesday afternoon at First and Magnolia. He is pictured here with Gen. J. C. Hutchison (left), his Seminole County campaign manager, and Randall Chase (right), his local county campaign treasurer. (Herald Photo)

South Seminole Registrations Set

Registration of potential voters in South Seminole County by deputized committeemen and committeewomen, assisted by the Seminole County Democratic Women's Club, has been scheduled for the next 10 days, according to Mrs. Zetta Morrison, county Democratic executive committee chairman.

The schedule: Forest City - Christian's Motors, March 17-18, 7 to 9 p.m.; Forest City Sporting Center, every day (except Sunday) through March 21, noon to 7 p.m.; Fern Park - Publix, Seminole Plaza, March 13 and 20, 5 to 7 p.m.; March 14 and 21, 4 to 9 p.m.; March 17-18, 5 to 7 p.m.; and March 19, 2 to 8 p.m.; Mrs. Lillian Severs, 409 Lillian Drive, at Fern Park post office, March 13, 9 to 4 p.m.; March 14, Cornett's drug store; March 20, South Seminole Bank, during banking hours, or call any day for an appointment and she will call at the residence.

Altamonte Springs - William P. Medcalf, 103 Hattaway Drive, March 16-20, 7 to 9 p.m.; Railway Express Agency, March 13 and 20, 2 to 6 p.m.; March 14 and 21, noon to 5 p.m.

Tanglewood - 1831 Ivy Lane, March 15, 16, 18 and 22, 8 to 10 p.m.

After March 23, registrations may be made at the office of Mrs. Camilla Bruce, supervisor of registration, courthouse, through April 4.

The British Embassy suffered similar damage as throngs of young demonstrators attacked the buildings.

No injuries were reported in the disturbances.

Two armed bandits barged into the auditing department of the Doral Beach Hotel Wednesday night, tied up two employees and escaped with an estimated $5,000.

One year and one day ago, the same thing happened, police said. The loot was $15,000 in the first robbery.

Judge Rebukes Teamster Boss At Sentencing

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — (UPI) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa today was sentenced to 8 years in federal prison for trying to bribe a jury that heard conspiracy charges against him.

He also was fined $10,000. Federal District Judge Frank Wilson handed down the sentence in the small oak-paneled courtroom where the 51-year-old labor leader and three others were found guilty last week following a marathon seven-week trial.

Hoffa stood before Wilson with his hands resting on the speaker's lectern in front of the bench.

Wilson delivered a sharp rebuke to Hoffa seconds after the Teamsters' boss had told the judge: "I stand here today and state I am innocent."

"You stand here convicted... of tampering with the very soul of this nation... the very foundation... the very basis of civilization of itself," Wilson said.

"Everything we call civilization depends on the proper administration of justice," Hoffa had said "that when the evidence is sifted calmly and coolly" it will show that he is innocent.

Hoffa was convicted of two counts of a federal indictment of attempting to bribe a federal jury at Nashville in 1962 which was hearing a conspiracy case against him. He faced a maximum of 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine.

Wilson sentenced Hoffa to last year on each count—sentences to run consecutively—and fined $5,000 on each count.

Each of Hoffa's three co-defendants were sentenced to three years in prison.

They were former Nashville local president Ewing King, Detroit Teamsters official Larry Campbell, and Nashville Negro handyman Thomas Ewing Parks.

47,000 Made Homeless By Raging Floodwaters

United Press International — The worst floods since World War II spread devastation from Pennsylvania to Illinois today and the list of homeless topped the 47,000 mark.

CANDI CONDER, "Miss Seminole County" currently, is the star of a motion picture, "Color Me Red," just completed at Sarasota and to be released in July by Box Office Spectaculars, Chicago. Featured with Miss Conder, daughter of Cdr. and Mrs. Thomas Conder, SNAS, is Jerome Eden. Candi was featured in another movie, "Two Thousand Maniacs," with Eden, filmed last October at St. Cloud, and to be released in June. (Herald Photo)

Authorities feared that before the day's end the number of homeless might exceed 60,000. Kentucky reported that more than 12,000 persons have fled from homes in the Louisville suburbs. Red Cross estimates of the homeless in Pennsylvania ranged as high as 20,000, half of them along the west branch of the Susquehanna River. Indiana listed 4,200 refugees from the floods and feared the total would top 6,000.

Ohio and West Virginia had nearly 10,000 persons forced from homes by the swollen Ohio River and its tributaries. Missouri's Black River was receding but the 460 flood refugees still hadn't returned to their homes. There were at least 130 homeless in Illinois.

The week-long weather rampage was blamed for at least 23 deaths. The latest were a Kansas father and son whose light plane crashed during a snow storm at Kankakee, Ill.

The water rolled 10 feet deep through downtown streets in New Martinsville, W. Va., and the town of 4,000 was isolated. Nurses were being shuttled to hospitals by boat.

Pennsylvania's Gov. William Scranton declared a state of "extreme emergency" at Lock Haven and Renovo, Pa.

Louisville, Ky., residents watched the Ohio River edge toward the third highest flood crest of the century. The crest is due Friday. Gov. Edward T. Breathitt asked President Johnson to declare 30 Kentucky counties disaster areas.

Shepherdsville, Ky., reported 7 feet of water from the flooding Salt River in the city's business district.

Near freezing temperatures added to the misery of the refugees and light snow dusted the northernmost parts of the flood area, Zanesville, Ohio, had 3 inches of snow, most of it in a single hour.

Two men were rescued late this morning after their boat capsized while they were fishing in choppy Lake Monroe.

Saved were Jack Hopkins, 42, of 136 Tangerine Street, Matland, and Glenn Collins, 29, of 1090 Louise Drive, Winter Park.

The men told city police they were fishing about 400 yards from the south shore of the lake when the winds kicked up, flipped their boat and tossed them in the water.

They started to swim for shore, the fishermen said, and were about 100 yards out when their cries were heard by two other fishermen working their trollies.

The rescuers were identified as Charles Oglesby, 17, and his brother, Wallace, 14, both of Edward Higgins Terrace.

The brothers maneuvered their boat to the struggling men, hauled them into the boat and took them ashore.

Hopkins and Collins said they lost considerable fishing equipment, but salvaged their boat which was towed behind the rescue craft.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner said Wednesday production of registered citrus nursery trees in Florida hit a record 2,306,213 in 1963.

NAS 'Blasts' 3 Towns In 'Nuclear Attack'

The Navy today announced that Heavy Attack Squadron Nine won a mock nuclear bombing exercise conducted at the Sanford Naval Air Station yesterday as a warm-up for the Tenth Annual Bombing Derby, March 16-21.

Results were withheld yesterday following the Bomber Stream, as the exercise was called, pending arbitration on several close finishes.

The exercise involved simulated atomic "strikes" on three Florida training targets, including the city of Jacksonville, by Sanford's A-5 Vigilantes and A-3B Skywarriors, the twin-jet attack aircraft flown by Heavy Attack Wing One's six squadrons.

VAH-9's victory was paced by an A-3B piloted by Commanding Officer James L. Shipman. The bomb drops were performed by Lt. Bill Malczewski, bombardier-navigator, and assisted by third crewman James D. Miller, a first class jet mechanic.

It was the squadron's fourth victory in the five periodic competitions in which it has participated since June 1962.

Following Heavy Nine in squadron standings were VAH-11's Detachment Eight, VAH-11, VAH-3, VAH-5 and VAH-1.

Wednesday's Bomber Stream was similar to one which will be conducted Thursday, March 19, the fourth day of next week's Bombing Derby.

All told 18 aircraft flew in the competitions, in which flight crews dropped small dummy practice bombs on training targets at Marquette Keys and Lake Etowah, then made an electronically scored bombing run on Jacksonville.

In the meantime, a heavy flight schedule is on tap for the Sanford airmen today as they enter the final training period for the big six-day weapons meet staged each year by the Navy's heavy attack forces based in Sanford.

A weapons loading competition beginning at 7 a.m. Monday will be the Derby's first event. Bombing exercises get underway at 10 a.m. and continue through the week.

Climaxing the week of activity on Saturday, March 21, is an air show and open house, where thousands of visitors from all over the nation will see demonstrations of reconnaissance techniques, bombing, in-flight re-fueling and carrier airmanship.

As an added attraction, famous test pilot Bob Hoover will stage a demonstration of split-precision aerobatics in a World War II F-51 Mustang fighter.

No More Room
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — There isn't any more room in next fall's freshman class for women at Florida State University, assistant registrar Willis Caldwell said today.

Caldwell said the quota of 1,425 women has been filled. The quota for men, 1,475, has not been filled, he said. The fall term begins Sept. 2.

Contractor In Dist. Justice Of Peace Race

Bill York, Rolling Hills building contractor for the last 12 years, has qualified as a Democratic candidate for justice of the peace, District 6.

A resident of Florida for 18 years, York served 4 1/2 years as Altamonte Springs town councilman and member of its fire department. He also is a member of Moose lodge.

Married to the former Marie Bailey, a native of Seminole County, they have four daughters.

York said that "I am interested in the safety and welfare of the people of South Seminole County. It is my intent, if elected, to mete justice fairly and impartially, and will fully co-operate with all law enforcement officers."

The Herald inadvertently reported Wednesday that York is a candidate for constable, District 6.
