

Grace, Margaret—April Brides

NEW YORK (U. S.)—The beautiful blonde movie star will marry the prince, son of a thousand years of princes, in the Romanesque cathedral of Monaco.

Little girls will throw flowers, there will be dancing in the streets and fireworks. The day of the wedding will be a national holiday, delegations of dignitaries will arrive. There will be affairs with men in white tie and dress uniforms and full medals, their ladies in rich ball gowns, ablaze with gems.

That's the fairy tale romance, a real life re-enactment of every little girl's dream of happiness.

The pretty blonde girl from Independence, Mo., will marry the newspaperman from Zebulon, N. C., son of a druggist, in the small brick Trinity Church of Independence where her mother and father were married and where she sang in the choir. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents.

This is the American teen-ager's real life marriage. This is the story of a typical wedding, full of simplicity and warmth, even though the bride is a president's daughter.

Both of these weddings will take place next month and a nation, sentimental and incurably romantic, will linger and dream a bit over both of them.

On April 19, Grace Patricia Kelly, 20, daughter of a self-made millionaire Philadelphia contractor, ex-model, ex-New York actress and, she insists, ex-movie star, will marry his serene highness Prince Rainier III of Monaco, 22, who possesses also 23 other titles ranging from duke to seigneur.

A few days later Mary Margaret Truman, 22, daughter of the 33rd President of the United States, concert singer, television and radio performer, will marry Clifton Daniel, 43, New York newspaperman and former foreign correspondent.

The four principals—and the trappings of the two romances—couldn't offer a more vivid contrast. From their original meetings to wedding plans the two stories illustrate colorfully the number of miles between Independence, Mo., and Monte Carlo to the east and Hollywood to the west.

Starting at the beginning, compare these two courses of true love.

Grace Kelly, a prime box office property, was presented to his serene highness last May when, with a photographer, she was making publicity shots against the backdrop of the 14th Century palace of the Grimaldis. The next time she saw him was in December when he dropped in to call on the Philadelphia Kellys. Less than two weeks later they announced their engagement.

Margaret Truman met suave, graying Cliff Daniels in early November when they were dinner guests of mutual friends, the George Backers, in New York. They dated around New York regularly for a couple of months, Daniel proposed late in January, Daniel accepted, received the blessing of his prospective in-laws.

On March 2 he gave her a ring. No one suspected a thing. Then Daniel took his girl to Zebulon to meet his parents—and rumors started. They'd planned to make the announcement on March 13, but former President Harry S. Truman hastily called a press conference a day early and read the brief, formal traditional announcement.

There are other comparisons: Rainier, to seal his proposal in Philadelphia, presented his bride-to-be with a handsome circlet of intertwined diamonds and rubies, which, thoughtfully, he had packed along with him from Monaco. Later he replaced on the proper finger of the left hand a magnificent 12 carat solitaire—roughly the size and shape of a three cent stamp. Educated guesses place the ring's cost at around $20,000.

Clifton Daniel went ring shopping alone and presented his girl with a handsome round solitaire of something less than a carat. The pretty, delicate ring cost, a diamond expert said, around $1,000—an important investment for a salaried man.

The prince and princess will go for a cruise on their 125-foot yacht. Margaret and her bridegroom will have a honeymoon, but again in the American tradition, the destination is a secret.

Margaret and her husband will return to New York—and an apartment. He'll go back to work. She'll continue her career, if she wants to. He says he won't object.

Princess Grace of Monaco will become chatelaine of a 120-room palace and preside over a number of other establishments the prince maintains. She has agreed to give up her career, the prince says.

So far as Monaco are concerned, her most important career is motherhood. For, lacking an heir or heiress, Monaco ultimately will drop into French hands under a 1918 treaty, and 4,000 subjects of the prince and 14,000 residents of his picture postcard country will have to start paying taxes.

Cost Of Producing Beef Is Going Up

What can we do to make more money from our beef cattle? The trend in land prices, labor, cost of equipment and many other factors has pointed out one very important point which is that the cost of producing a pound of beef is going up.

If we try to produce beef without taking advantage of the new changes in programs for pasture management, feeding, breeding for market timing etc., we will not make as much from our cattle operations as we should.

Feeding cattle on a supplement basis has proved very profitable to the cattlemen when he plans his operation properly. When there is adequate forage, feeding will help balance the cows daily intake so that you can get a higher percent calf crop, better bull condition during breeding season, heavier calves, better condition on market animals and other benefits. In times of poor pasture conditions feeding will help keep your animals producing pounds of beef at the lowest cost per pound besides keeping them alive.

The amount of feed you use depends on your pasture and market requirements. Since feed is costly you should use a feed designed to do a particular job, the job you need done. Today modern scientific feed manufacturers are producing feeds to do a particular job. Possibly fattening steers on grass, steers in dry lot, creep feeding calves, maintaining cow condition, wintering cattle, maintaining good breeding condition in your bulls and others. Each of these jobs is different and needs a different type of feed to do that job. No one feed formula will do them all at the most profitable level. Feed only when you know exactly what you want to accomplish with feed and use a feed that is designed to do the job you want done.

At this season there are two jobs that most cattlemen want done. One is to get lots of calves for next year and to do this he must have his bulls in top breeding condition. A bull out of condition cannot do the job he needs to do. The other job is to get his calves that he might now have or is getting to top market weight and conditions as fast as possible. To do these jobs he can help himself by feeding his bulls a conditioning feed and creep feeding his calves.

The right creep feed can help do this. Upgrading your calves that may mean $8-10 per calf above creep feeding costs. The packer is looking for the calves that are a higher grade than you get from just letting them run with their mothers. You can easily get them in the best grade by starting your creep feeding early and getting the jump on the ones that are just letting theirs run with the cows. From creep feeding you gain calves. In cow condition you get 10 to 15 per cent more calves dropped the following season. The cows gain up to 44½ pounds more when the calves are dropped. Creep feeding supplements cows milk and grass. It gets them ready sooner. For every dollar spent in creep feeding you should get almost two dollars returned. Be sure and feed a creep feed that has been researched to give you the most profitable gains.

There are many ways to produce a cheaper pound of beef and we must try to use them all if we expect to make the most profits from our operations.

Collins Attacked By Fuller Warren On Turnpike Issue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Former Gov. Fuller Warren yesterday attacked Gov. Collins on the turnpike routing.

Warren criticized the proposed routing around Jacksonville and said the Collins administration was using "unseemly haste" in validating bonds for the toll road.

Collins replied that the turnpike routing was made to serve all of Florida and that many Jacksonville residents had endorsed it. He said there should be no delay in setting this needed project under way.

While Warren and Collins were exchanging verbal punches, Sumner Lowry and Farris Bryant hammered away at the segregation issue.

In a speech last night in Telogia in Liberty County, Lowry declared that "if the South makes it known that we are willing to go all out to defend segregation, the agitators will retreat."

"The only way we can maintain our separate schools and free institutions is to have a governor who is strong enough and determined enough to tell the federal government to stay out; to tell the world the United States Constitution empowers us to run our own schools and that we intend to continue doing so."

Bryant said at Miami he doesn't believe President Eisenhower will call a conference of Southern governors and attorneys to talk about segregation.

Since World War II, as much office space has been built in New York City as exists in all Chicago.

Scientist Finds Giant Ape Tooth

LONDON (U. S.)—The Chinese scientist who discovered the "Peking man" today reported finding the tooth of another giant ape who roamed China in prehistoric times.

Helping radio said Dr. Pei Wen Chung made the new discovery in a cave in Kwangsi province.

It was described as "fossil of a giant ape, four times the size of a man's tooth."

The skull and parts of the skeleton of "Peking man"—regarded by some anthropologists as the oldest link between man and monkey—was found in 1929 in Chowkowlun, not far from Peking.

Merle Warner Says Not Interested In Filling Vacant Commission Post

Negro Boy Drowns Searching For Golf Balls In Amory Lake

A 15-year-old Negro boy drowned today while searching for golf balls in Amory Lake at the No. 57 William Clark Court in the Mayfair Inn Golf Course.

Ernest Brown, son of Beatrice and Sheddrick Brown of No. 57 William Clark Court went down at 12:45 today and his body was recovered at approximately 1:15.

Capt. J. T. Blackburn, of the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, and his son, playing golf at the Mayfair Inn Golf Course this afternoon attempted to recover the body by diving but could not locate it.

All efforts to resuscitate the youngster failed as Sheriff Denver Cordell, Sanford Police Department Patrolman Ben Butler, FHP Patrolman Carl Williams and Chief J. B. Snipes of the Navy Shore Patrol gave artificial respiration in an effort to bring a spark of life into the young school boy.

Four of Brown's buddies were on the shore of the small lake watching him attempt to retrieve golf balls and thought he was playing until he came up three times and failed to come back to the surface again.

William McRay, Walden Perry, Isaac Cullen and Angus Morgan, all school boys, were watching Brown. Walden, when alarmed over the fact that Brown did not come up, ran to the home of Al Wallace where the Sheriff's office was notified.

Benefit Barbecue For Earl Cash Is Slated Saturday

A benefit barbecue is being held at the Elk's Club Saturday night from 6 to 9 p. m.

Funds derived from the barbecue will benefit Earl Cash, a French Ave. truck driver who was injured when diving into a lake.

Cash is in the Seminole Memorial Hospital paralyzed from his neck down, unable to move at all.

He is married and has one child. Tickets are on sale at downtown locations and at the Sanford Elk's Club.

Funds for Cash will be turned over to Willis Peacock, Cashier of the Florida State Bank, who will serve as executor of the fund which will be used to pay doctor bills, nurses bill, hospital expense and other bills for his care.

A full meal will be served Saturday night at the benefit barbecue which will include a half chicken, baked beans, slaw and coffee. Carl Williams will do the barbecuing.

One of the possibilities to fill the vacancy existing on the Board of Sanford City Commissioners said today, "I'm not interested."

Merle Warner, unsuccessful candidate in the race for a seat on the City Commission last November, said today, "I am only interested in a full term on the Board of Sanford City Commissioners."

It takes a full term, said Warner, to accomplish, to any degree, a program of progress, efficiency and sound City government. Without a full term as a city commissioner one's hands would be tied by the groundwork already laid by those with longer terms.

"I made a statement at the conclusion of last year's election that I would be a candidate for the Board of City Commissioners in the next election and in all probability that is what I intend to do, but not for an unexpired term," said Warner.

Warner did not reveal whether or not he had been approached concerning the vacancy that must be filled within 30 days after such vacancy exists.

The City Charter, in Section 13, establishes the regulation that "Absence from four consecutive regular meetings of the Commission shall operate to vacate the seat of the member, unless such absence shall be excused by the Commission by resolution setting forth the fact of such excuse duly entered upon the minutes."

It is expected that the resignation of Commissioner Jack Rattan will be accepted at tomorrow night's meeting of the Board of City Commissioners.

However, Commissioner John Knight commented at last Monday night's meeting that, "I don't see where we can agree on a Commissioner in 30 days."

The abbreviated session of the Board of City Commissioners last Monday night was attended by only three Commissioners: Earl Higginbotham, as Acting Mayor, John Kridler, and David Gatchel, Mayor F. D. Scott was out of town and could not attend.

Carl Williams Reports For FHP Duty Here Monday

Patrolman Carl Williams, of the Florida Highway Patrol, reported for duty Monday to bring the Seminole County contingent of FHP representatives up to normal strength.

With Florida Highway Patrol Trooper T. Mark Mack, Williams and he will patrol the Seminole County highways to keep violations here at a minimum.

However, yesterday, it was revealed that folks continue to kill each other in increasing numbers along Florida's highways while the Highway Patrol strains its efforts to keep them from it.

In the February report just issued by the Patrol, it shows 62 against 39 were killed last month by crashes investigated by state troopers a 59 per cent increase over the month a year ago.

Arrests rose 18 per cent and the number of written warnings increased 13 per cent but that didn't hold down the number of accidents, the report said. For instance there were 31 more wrecks or 4 per cent—last month than in February 1955 but a little bright did show from the gloomy traffic picture.

On an overall basis there were two per cent fewer folk injured in all 1,415 wrecks last month than in the 1,364 his same month a year earlier.

In other actions of the Department of Public Safety, Safety education men gave 110 per cent more talks on highway behavior; showed 22 per cent more safety films and gave six per cent more radio talks.

Troopers took 758,744 miles, worked 57,220 hours and assisted 4,266 persons.

Driver's license examined 33,402, of that number 16,178 passed and 11,425 failed or had incomplete papers.

The weight troop weighed 16,405 vehicles, found 275 over weight under Florida law and their owners were assessed $28,320.

Frederick Cleveringa Tells Origin Of Bible

The men of DeBary were honored at a dinner meeting of the Fellowship Hall, The Rev. A. G. McInnis introduced Frederick Cleveringa of DeBary as a guest speaker.

"I hope my topic of How the Bible has not led anyone to the conclusion that I am in discussion on the message of this great book," began Cleveringa, "for as a librarian I talk tonight in on the making of the Book itself. In 1811 I became interested in the development and mechanics of collecting and re-assembling fragments of early writings and in that pursuit found myself most interested in the foundations of the one great book of guidance."

"We must first go back in Abraham, the first Hebrew, who came to Canaan from Ur of the Chaldees in 1835 B. C. He brought with him many gods, for to our great surprise he was not a monotheist. His history leads to the Genesis story. Genesis is a compilation of many documents from Northern and Southern Palestine."

"The name of God was the initials JHWH, so sacred that no Hebrew ever pronounced it even in moments of worship and reverence. When, in later days of synagogue and temple services, the priest pronounced the benediction, the choir was taught to sing so loudly that no one could hear the ineffable name of God."

"In 700 B. C. the writings of Genesis were first recorded on sheepskin parchment of the best quality. However, the Canon of the Pentateuch, the Historical Books and the Writings of the Prophets were not actually recognized until about 90 A. D. The new testament had much more information about its history since it was such a later book, its oldest manuscripts being done in the fourth century."

"Chester Beatty, in 1903, found and then bought papyrus sheets in Egypt, these dating to the second century A. D. Then in 1947 five caves were discovered, four of them natural, one man made, all to conceal precious manuscripts in the days of the Roman invasion. These were called the Dead Sea Scrolls and were authenticated by radio-active tests as 150 to 250 B. C. origin. Many of these fragments are still being laboriously assembled and will be of enormous value to Bible scholars. The manuscript Isaiah scrolls, too, are quite complete now and guarded in the Greek Orthodox monastery of St. Mark's in Jerusalem. These are used in the now standard revised edition of the St. James version so well photographed and published in 1952."

"The Codex of the early Christians was so written on scrolls that they could be read from three columns and with these cut at their length, could be utilized on both sides, for then parchment superseded Papyrus. Cleveringa, a former college professor is well qualified to speak on the making of books, since he taught this subject at Michigan State Normal college, to teachers who wished, themselves, to become librarians. Two years ago he retired, coming to DeBary from Ypsilanti. His library of rare books, including many Bibles, has become a focal point of culture for those appreciating fine literature beautifully assembled."

Annual Good Friday Service March 29 At Local Church

The annual Good Friday Service, sponsored by the Seminole County Ministerial Association, will begin at 12 noon Friday, March 29 at the First Presbyterian Church.

The theme of this three hour service is Love Speaks. The seven last words from the cross as spoken by the Savior. Seven ministers will bring meditations as follows: "Love In Action," the Rev. D. S. Carnelley; "Love Unconditional," the Rev. Bob Spear; "Love's Responsibilities," the Rev. J. W. Parham; "Love's Extremity," the Rev. P. L. Stone; "Love's Priorities," Chaplain Lynn Arnold; "Love's Communion," the Rev. Fred B. Fisher; and "Love's Surrender," the Rev. Lewis C. Futch.

Appropriate congregational hymns, scripture readings, prayers, and special music, will accompany each meditation.

For the convenience of the public, this three hour service is divided into seven complete 35 minute periods in order for everyone to attend at least one portion. It is understood that many working people cannot attend all of the three hour service and therefore are to feel free to come and go as best suits their schedule.

"Even if for only ten minutes you could quietly come and go, you would do well to prepare your mind, soul, and heart for the glorious third day Resurrection. If there had been no Good Friday afternoon, there would be no Easter morning," it was said.

Tomorrow's Sanford Herald will carry a complete program of this annual observance.

Easter Seal Funds Are Growing Slowly

Funds for the annual Easter Seal campaign are growing slowly, revealed Mrs. Harold Appleby yesterday as she announced the total amount collected up until noon.

However, Mrs. Appleby expressed confidence that the public would respond to the appeal for funds to continue providing necessary equipment, supplies, teaching staff and other items for the Forest Park School for Special Education.

General White Pays Official Good-Will Visit To Officials

Pilot Club Hears Judge Housholder Speak On Juveniles

Seminole County Judge Ernest Housholder spoke to members of the Pilot Club at their dinner meeting held in the Yacht Club last evening on "Juvenile Legislation."

Judge Housholder cited the deplorable conditions which now exist wherein juveniles that have been apprehended for various causes, are placed in the county jail because there is no other place for them to go. "They are placed in the very atmosphere that we are trying to correct and avoid," he stated.

He urged every member of the Pilot Club to lend every assistance during the next session of the legislature to insure passage of appropriate bills for adequate detention homes for juveniles as well as homes for mentally deranged adults and feeble minded children who are also placed in the county jails because there is no other place for them to go while awaiting entry into institutions.

Judge Housholder particularly stressed the need for further appropriations for an expansion program of the institution at Chautauque, the School for Boys at Marianna, the Farm Colony at Gainesville and the Girls' Home in Ocala. These institutions, while offering every care that it is possible to give in such crowded conditions, are in dire need of expansion to care for the hundreds that are now at the waiting lists throughout the state, he emphasized.

Mrs. Al P. Hunt, program chairman, introduced the speaker. Mrs. Harvey Swanson presided over the meeting. Plans were completed for the club's annual Easter Egg sale which will be held Saturday, March 31 in front of Sears Store. Members will meet at the home of Mrs. B. E. the eggs.

Chapman Friday night to prepare the Pilot Club will conduct the "Easter Lily" sale on Saturday for the Easter Seal Drive of which Mrs. Harold Appleby is chairman for Seminole County.

Mrs. Swanson reminded members to prepare five copies of their yearly report and hand to her at the business meeting April 10.

General White's visit also included a stop at the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction where he met Rayburn T. Milwau and Principal Herman Morris.

The local Armory, which General White inspected, is being repainted and remodeled inside. New lighting fixtures are to be installed. The overall cost of the project is expected to be approximately $8,000.

A federal inspection will be made of the Sanford Armory April 9 by officials of the Third Army Headquarters, Fort McPherson, Ga., at which time the complete facilities will be inspected including administration, supplies, equipment and troops.

Women Are Urged To See Cancer Film Tomorrow At Ritz

A film "Self Breast Examination" on cancer will be shown to all interested women tomorrow morning at 10 a. m. at the Ritz Theatre with free baby sitting service offered by the Eastside Nursery on the corner of Fifth and Palmetto.

Inspects Local Armory

Brigadier General Robert G. White, accompanied by Captain Johnny Krotehek, Unit Advisor, 154th Armored Infantry Battalion, and Captain Joseph D. Bryant, Co. Commander, Company B, 154th Armored Infantry Battalion, paid an official good-will visit to officials of the City of Sanford, Seminole County, and Seminole County School system.

Arriving in Sanford at 9 o'clock this morning, General White first inspected the local Armory on East First St. which is undergoing repairs. He said, "The Armory is looking better than I have ever seen it."

His visit to officials of the City of Sanford took place at 10 o'clock this morning in the City Manager's office at the City Hall. Acting Mayor Earl Higginbotham, Commissioner David Gatchel, a former Commanding Officer of Co. 1, 124th Infantry Battalion, and City Manager Warren E. Knowles.

General White expressed appreciation for the cooperation of the City with the National Guard as he explained that "My primary purpose is to get acquainted and tell you how much we appreciate your cooperation and assistance."

The National Guard today, particularly in Florida, is getting a little bit more important," General White told the group today. "For the purpose of the National Guard is to serve the State."

"We are nothing to get the National Guard units well trained and capable of meeting any situation," he said.

Following his visit with the City Commissioners and City Manager, General White met James Singleton, Chief Deputy for Sheriff Denver Cordell who was unable to be in his office for this morning's good-will visit, and chairman of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners W. B. Miller.

General White's visit also included a stop at the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction where he met Rayburn T. Milwau and Principal Herman Morris.

The local Armory, which General White inspected, is being repainted and remodeled inside. New lighting fixtures are to be installed. The overall cost of the project is expected to be approximately $8,000.

A federal inspection will be made of the Sanford Armory April 9 by officials of the Third Army Headquarters, Fort McPherson, Ga., at which time the complete facilities will be inspected including administration, supplies, equipment and troops.

The morning, crazed animal Escorted on the highway giving Deputy Sheriff's a merry chase until he was lassoed, roped and felled along the shoulders of 17-92.

With the expertise of a rancher the Deputy Sheriff's circled the rope around what was thought to be a choice wild boar fit for any backyard barbecue.

However, any thoughts of a tasty morsel of barbecued ribs and ham were shortly dispelled when a nearby resident walked up and claimed the animal. It was an escapee from a roadside hog pen.

The grunting, snorting beast was hauled off to his permanent place of abode on a two wheeled cart, neatly tied up and properly restrained from his neighborhood highway escapade.

Florida May Wind Up With Record

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—On the basis of preliminary figures released yesterday, Florida appears likely to wind up with a record registration of about 1 1/2 million voters for the May primaries.

A tabulation by Secretary of State R. A. Gray showed that Florida had 1,190,268 registered voters as of Feb. 1.

Since registration books for the May 8 and May 29 primaries don't close until April 7, this total probably will be boosted by 250,000 to 300,000.

This was the first time Florida registration totals have been taken. It was one of the requirements of the 1956 election laws.

Local Democratic Executive Group Set For Rallies

The Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee is all set and plans have been completed for one of the most extensive series of rallies ever to be held in Seminole County's political history.

Aiming at having the public informed of each candidate platform before the May 8 Democratic Primary, practically every section of the county has been included in the itinerary of rallies which will give each candidate an opportunity to speak and to voice his platform and aspirations.

The lead off rally will be held in Sanford at the Seminole County Court House, April 3.

In order, rallies will be held at Lake Monroe, April 7; Lake Mary, April 10; Longwood, in the town park, April 12; Bear Lake, April 17; Altamonte Springs, April 18; Paola, April 20; Fern Park, at the Prairie Lake American Legion Hall, April 21; Oviedo, April 24; Geneva, April 27; and again in Sanford, May 4.

Officials and committee members of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee have urged every citizen to attend one or more of the rallies so that they can talk to and hear the various candidates for local offices in this year's political campaign.

Speaking will begin at each rally at 8 o'clock in the evening. There are 26 local candidates in the various races for county offices, four candidates for the House of Representatives, and two candidates for the Senate. Local candidates will be given preference and will speak first, James Lee, Chairman of the Seminole County Democratic executive Committee said at the last meeting of the group.

However, candidates are taking advantage of every opportunity to speak before local groups throughout the county with many of them conducting door-to-door campaigns to acquaint local citizens of their platforms and personal desires.

Following his visit with the City Commissioners and City Manager, General White met James Singleton, Chief Deputy for Sheriff Denver Cordell who was unable to be in his office for this morning's good-will visit, and chairman of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners W. B. Miller.

General White's visit also included a stop at the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction where he met Rayburn T. Milwau and Principal Herman Morris.

Hog Pen Escapee Creates Uproar

A wild boar was reported on the loose last Saturday night about 11 o'clock in the vicinity of Five Points when residents notified the Seminole County Sheriff's office that the rambling animal was ransacking garbage cans and demolishing the neighborhood.

The snorting, crazed animal Escorted on the highway giving Deputy Sheriff's a merry chase until he was lassoed, roped and felled along the shoulders of 17-92.

With the expertise of a rancher the Deputy Sheriff's circled the rope around what was thought to be a choice wild boar fit for any backyard barbecue.

However, any thoughts of a tasty morsel of barbecued ribs and ham were shortly dispelled when a nearby resident walked up and claimed the animal. It was an escapee from a roadside hog pen.

The grunting, snorting beast was hauled off to his permanent place of abode on a two wheeled cart, neatly tied up and properly restrained from his neighborhood highway escapade.

Florida May Wind Up With Record

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—On the basis of preliminary figures released yesterday, Florida appears likely to wind up with a record registration of about 1 1/2 million voters for the May primaries.

A tabulation by Secretary of State R. A. Gray showed that Florida had 1,190,268 registered voters as of Feb. 1.

Since registration books for the May 8 and May 29 primaries don't close until April 7, this total probably will be boosted by 250,000 to 300,000.

This was the first time Florida registration totals have been taken. It was one of the requirements of the 1956 election laws.

Stevenson Says He'll Work Harder

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower didn't really begin his all-out, anti-Stevenson campaign until election in 1952 until after Scripps-Howard newspapers complained he was running "like a dry creek."

Perhaps Adlai Stevenson will be affected the same way—if that's possible for him—by the clubbing he just took from Sen. Estes Kefauver in the presidential primary in Minnesota.

After reflecting on this sad news, Stevenson said he will now "work harder" for the Democratic nomination. This may have been an acknowledgment he thought he had the Minnesota vote in his pocket and was just brooding in his campaign there.

He's been no hall of fire so far. Perhaps it isn't in his nature to be. The slow-talking Kefauver has an edge on him in that department: he doesn't give off sparks either.

Up to now Stevenson has looked like a rerun of himself in 1952: dignified, scholarly and mild, even touch of the home town boy about him, even homespun.

Whether these personality differences had any significance in the Minnesota voting cannot be said now.

Nor can it be said the difference in their tactics was significant. Where there was almost an elegance about Stevenson, whisking around Minnesota in search of votes, the more casual Kefauver not only looped around shaking hands but looking for hands to shake.

It is just as possible Stevenson has worn out his welcome as a presidential candidate and voters are getting tired of his genteel approach to domestic and world issues.

Both men on Nov. 19 last year came out for "moderation" in this year's presidential campaign and they've stuck to that pretty much ever since, with Stevenson even more "moderate" than Kefauver.

On most subjects they talked like twins against the Eisenhower administration:

In farming Minnesota they hit the loss of farm income wherever they went, warned of dangers overseas, criticized lack of progress on federal aid to education, accused the administration of being for big business, attacked what they called "giveaway" of natural resources, worried that the Rural Electrification Administration was being undercut, and discussed the ability of a heart attack victim like Eisenhower to handle the presidency.

But Kefauver took harder aim at farmers and organized labor and outbid Stevenson for both. While Stevenson talked of amending the Taft-Hartley Labor Act, Kefauver advocated its outright repeal.

Prices of partly supported farm prices but Kefauver proposed 100 per cent support for family-sized farms and 90 per cent for the big ones.

An appeal for sympathy—or at least an appeal for fair play—was implicit in some of Kefauver's campaign. He complained about the Minnesota political leaders' support of Stevenson.

The Minnesota Democratic-Farmer-Labor State Central Committee had endorsed Stevenson. Kefauver accused party leaders of trying to keep him out of the primary altogether.

'SHOCK TUBES' DEVELOPED
WASHINGTON (AP) — Exploding gases in a 100-foot metal tube have created speeds of more than 18,000 miles an hour and temperatures half again as hot as the sun's surface.

An Air Force announcement yesterday said the conditions prevail for only a few millionths of a second in laboratory experiments, but they permit a study of the "interaction of satellites with the earth's atmosphere."

The Air Force announced the development of the "shock tubes" at the Avco research laboratory at Everett, Mass.

The tube is like a cannon, 100 feet long and four inches in diameter.

CBS-TV Program Changes Are Seen For Next Season

NEW YORK (AP) — Some program changes affecting almost every night of the week are in the works for next season on CBS-TV.

Trade reports indicate that three or four programs of an hour or longer, but most are half-hour shows, on film, the creations of Hollywood.

The most ambitious undertaking will be Playhouse 90, a 90-minute weekly dramatic show to be produced by Martin Manulis. Variety the weekly trade journal of show business, says this is slated for 8:30 p.m. (Eastern Time) Thursday evenings and will include eight film entries to be made by Columbia Pictures. CBS has not commented on details.

One of the hour shows will be called The Big Record, with format, time and other details a big secret. Actually the idea for this program was given a show-casing several weeks ago when Showers of Stars presented "The Golden Record," a program in which stars who had sold more than a million records, recordings of specific songs did their stuff. The public liked it — and so, apparently, does CBS now.

The other weekly hour program, announced previously, will be a Herb Shriner variety show. This may move into a Friday night spot, with the hope of giving that currently rather dead evening a glow in the eye.

Here are some of the half-hour film programs reported in the works:

A series on air power, a weekly color cartoon series, a series about helicopter pilots, one on the use of medicine in solving crimes, Perry Mason series based on the Eric Stanley Gardner mystery stories, a cavalry series, one on activities of the Chicago Fire Department, at least three new situation comedies. All of these are on film and nearly all will originate in Hollywood.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

JOHN STRALEY has turned over to us the file on the unusual case of 12-year-old Pat Carmichael who ate up what he thought was a sack of hard candy, but what proved to be moth balls. There's been a happy ending. Not only has Pat recovered, but he secured a job with a large Boston storage plant breathing on fur coats.

By the year 2036, predicts Martin Levin, the subway fare will have risen to $2, but by that time, too, plans will have been perfected for the disposable soda. Business men will simply drive to their destinations—then throw their cars away.

THE BODY of Philip Brune, 14, is pulled from an icy pond in Queens Village, N. Y., by policemen who grappled for it for an hour. He had fallen through the ice while taking a shortcut with two schoolmates. They were on their way to earn money shoveling snow in the area. The rescued youths are Edward Burnham and Joseph Silverman, both 14. Silverman had thrown himself flat on the ice. Burnham clung to its edge. A hose line was tossed to them. It was their lifeline.

Leaders See New Boom A-Building

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock traders and many industrial leaders see a new boom a-building today on top of the old.

The question many ask: will it be a healthy growth after the brief rest of the last two or three months, or will it be as collapsible as bubblegum?

Signs of a new upsurge are many. You find them in the confident predictions of corporate executives now busily reporting to their stockholders. You find them in the big expansion plans they announce.

Stockholders reflect the new confidence by pushing the stock price averages into new high ground.

There are signs that the lag in auto sales and home building may be ending. The slowdown in these two fields was the major item that brought the over-all economy to its leveling-off period.

There are signs that the lag in auto sales and home building may be ending. The slowdown in these two fields was the major item that brought the over-all economy to its leveling-off period.

Home builders say that increased applications for mortgages foreshadow a construction reuplift, perhaps by next month. The recent shift from the low-priced "shelter" type of house to the larger, more expensive home. Even so, builders now talk of backlogs this year that total of 100,000 new homes—with the total among yepent climbing above last year's.

Consumer spending on durable goods—cars, home appliances and the like—has been off about 10 per cent in the first three months of this year, the economists estimate. Consumer spending on other things has run along at about the old rate, or a little higher.

Part of the letup in buying of big-ticket items is thought due to the record load of personal debt on which consumers are doggedly making their monthly payments. That discourages more buying.

Another factor is that consumers are in a good position now to wait for bargains. Business competition is so keen that retail prices rise as the exception so far, despite rising manufacturing costs.

But polls indicate that consumers expect to spend about as much this year as last.

Signs of the new upsurge are also to be found in the flood of new orders many manufacturers report of late, and in the evident desire of many firms to build up their inventories.

To finance all this, business is borrowing more heavily from the banks this year than last.

Some of these signs of the new boom have their worrisome side. Inventory building increases factory output. But some of these may be out of fear of major strikes this summer, or of creeping inflation in prices of industrial materials.

And if consumer buying doesn't increase as now expected, business firms could start living off their inventories—and then factory output would drop.

Inflation signs are all around, too. With employment at a peak, the cost of labor continues to rise. And with factories working full time, the cost of industrial materials is good. Some fear that prices might rise to the point of discouraging consumer buying.

COMMISSIONER IRKED
NEW YORK (AP) — The man in charge of keeping New York's streets clean is irked with suburbanites.

Sanitation Commissioner Andrew W. Mulrain said in a recent talk that commuters know they shouldn't toss paper on the city streets.

"What particularly irks me," he said, "is that they'll do it here, and then take their train up to Westchester, out on the island or over to the Oranges, and they'll never think of doing it there in their home towns. Some people think everything goes to New York."

New Drug Discoveries Used To Relieve Pain

By HERMAN H. BOWEN, M.D.

NEW drugs for treating rheumatic diseases, fungal infections and infections of the urinary tract are among medicine's latest developments in the battle against health hazards.

For example, codeine, one of the new drugs, is designed for use in mild to moderate conditions of rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis, gouty arthritis, bursitis, myositis, tenosynovitis, fibrositis and neuritis.

More Potent Form

It combines prednisolone, a more potent form of hydrocortisone, with acetylsalicylic acid (aspirin). The drug offers both anti-inflammatory and pain-relieving action.

Sigmaxin is another new drug for use against gout, bursitis, lumbago and muscular rheumatism. It combines the anti-inflammatory action of melicorten with pain-relieving salicylates and vitamin C.

It's been estimated that some 8,000,000 Americans have these aches and pains which generally aren't considered severe enough for treatment with steroids. Maybe these two new drugs will help them.

Internal Injections

Nystatin derived from the words New York State is an antifungal antibiotic for use in treating athlete's foot, ringworm and other fungal infections.

In the past, many such infections have been difficult if not impossible to halt when inside the body.

Doctors report nystatin is also being combined with other antibiotics to increase their safety and usefulness. The drug was discovered by two New York scientists.

Recent Study

Puradantin, tests show, is effective in treating urinary tract infections. A study made by four Boston doctors, with the aid of a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service, shows that "most cases of acute or uncomplicated infections respond favorably" to the drug.

In most instances, the report adds, chronic and complicated infections also show some clinical improvement.

But it is of the utmost importance to realize these drugs, if indicated, should only be used under the advice and guidance of the physician.

Board of Health Is Intensifying TB Case-Finding Plan

TALLAHASSEE—The State Board of Health, armed with an $84,000 grant of emergency funds is intensifying its tuberculosis case-finding program.

The step up in the case-hunting is designed to give an accurate picture of the incidence of the disease in Florida which will help in determining if the fight against tuberculosis is being won.

Part of the emergency funds will be used to renovate the health department's four existing mobile X-ray units and to purchase two new ones. The health department hopes to obtain 800,000 chest X-rays of Florida residents in the next year. About 1 million X-rays were taken the past year.

American Industry Pushing Ahead

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The growing industrial and military strength of Soviet Russia sends shivers down some American spines. But American industry hasn't been exactly standing still either.

And it's newly announced expansion program — while aimed primarily at production of still more civilian goods — isn't without its defense potentialities.

One of the great victories of the last war was won in the factories of the United States, as Francis Walton points out today in his book "Miracle of World War II," published by the Macmillan Co. The story of their conversion from peacetime to wartime output, despite many setbacks, should buck up many of today's faint hearts.

But many of the peaks of production so miraculously achieved some 16 or more years ago could be exceeded today if the new industrial capacity of the United States need once more be turned in that direction.

This new production potential — except for the output of the Korean War period — was accomplished by American industry working on its own, motivated as much, or more, by the civilian demands of a growing and prospering population as by the defense goals of the government.

Take steel, for example. The first year the United States was in the war, 1943, Walton says nearly 17 million tons of steel of different kinds was produced. By 1944

Home Demonstration Week; Mental Health Week; and Millinery Week.

Thirty-nine of them.

Now in May, there are 42 different celebrations and events planned for folks to take part in with only 15 events for June, 9 for July, 7 for August, 27 in September, 49 in October, 22 for November, and 16 during the month of December.

If we were to take part in just a few of those special events slated for each month we would be kept pretty busy and on the go.

We don't want to see anybody miss anything, but for the life of us there just isn't time enough to celebrate all of them.

1956 Predictions
We've just looked over some of the predictions made for 1956 during the time that New Years Resolutions were the rage — that period between December 29 and January 3.

And from the looks of things round about us, most of those predictions are becoming realities.

One of the summary predictions read something like this. "All told, I look for 1956 to be the second best business year in history — just a shade off from 1955."

We take exception to the fact that there will be a "shade" off this year — for as 1956 becomes stronger and older the business picture, in spite of the political year and the adage formerly adhered to that such a year is bad for business, business is on the upswing with most businessmen looking at the future optimistically.

In Florida, and especially in Sanford and Seminole County, portrayed by sales tax increases and gasoline sales increases, business is on the "upper side" and gaining ground each day.

We're looking to one of the predictions with interest since, at the outset of 1956 the forecast said, "Cities will condemn old buildings and provide thousands of parking lots in 1956. As this is done, City property will again come back. Until then we see no price improvement during 1956 in City business property."

Big things are yet possible for Sanford and Seminole County as a serious look is being made into the possible revamping of shopping areas and business districts to meet the increasing need for attractiveness to lure the shopper into the staid old buildings that once served he same as the new shopping areas springing up all around us.

It has affected the amount of furniture in living rooms and the number of flowers in a vase — less furniture, fewer flowers. Some new apartments have what the Japanese call "shoji," sliding panels, instead of doors on clothes closets. A type of electric lamp shades that resembles a Japanese lantern in glass is appearing in shop windows. And so on.

This interest was well fore-shadowed by the success of the Japanese house, brought here by the Museum of Modern Art. In the four months of 1954 when it was open, the house attracted 121,731, last summer 101,837 people — at 60 cents a ticket, though.

around Stevenson oh'ing and ah'ing, and one lady said, "I just want to tell you that I think you're wonderful."

Stevenson, a man seldom at a loss for words, could only run his fingers around his collar, murmuring, "Well ah — well, I'm sure I — well, thank you very much."

POLICEMAN KILLED
WRITER HAVEN (AP)—A Winter Haven policeman was killed and another injured today when their patrol car overturned as they chased a speeding automobile.

Gordon Stois was killed instantly and the other officer, Wayne Rogers, was taken to an Orlando hospital.

The car being pursued by the officers also turned over but the driver, identified by police as Jerry Yon, 19, was not hurt. He was jailed here.

The United States has a million fewer farmers than 80 years ago.

Holy Week

APPEARANCE BEFORE PILATE—The chief priests and council having condemned Jesus to death for blasphemy, they took Him early in the morning before Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor of Judaea. To Pilate's question, "Art thou the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "Thou sayest it," but answered nothing to the accusations of the priests. Passover custom called for Pilate to release a prisoner to the people, so he offered to free either Barabbas, a murderer, or Jesus. The mob demanded freedom for Barabbas and crucifixion for Jesus. Although declaring, "I find no fault in this man," Pilate bowed to the mob's demands and delivered Jesus to his soldiers for crucifixion. They put on Him a purple robe and a crown of thorns, spat upon and struck Him, and "mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!"

Interesting Letter From New York

By REILMAN MORIN
For HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Letter from New York:

A lot of nice things have been said about Miss Truman's fiancé, Cliff Daniel, and I am going to add to them from a particular point of view. During the big war, he ran the day news desk in the Associated Press London office, and I was on his staff for a spell. He is a quiet type, with an easy way and an off-beat sense of humor. But when necessary, he could be a hard driver, and his famous urbanity disappeared.

Nevertheless, he was unfailingly popular with his staff, a fairly acid test of a newspaperman. Or of any man.

Japanese art has had an amazing impact on this town in the past two or three years. You see the "Japanese look" all over the place.

It has affected the amount of furniture in living rooms and the number of flowers in a vase — less furniture, fewer flowers. Some new apartments have what the Japanese call "shoji," sliding panels, instead of doors on clothes closets. A type of electric lamp shades that resembles a Japanese lantern in glass is appearing in shop windows. And so on.

This interest was well fore-shadowed by the success of the Japanese house, brought here by the Museum of Modern Art. In the four months of 1954 when it was open, the house attracted 121,731, last summer 101,837 people — at 60 cents a ticket, though.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CLAF

A LOT OF PEOPLE ask me, "where do you find the time and place to write out all the stories you use in 'Try and Stop Me'?" Well, I get stuck occasionally on committees, where the windiest old bore in the group invariably is chosen chairman and, while he is droning on (my only job is to say "aye" every once in a while), I write stories under the table.

Reminds me of the day Judge Jeremiah Mahoney caught me reading "The Grapes of Wrath" while serving as Juror No. 7 in the case of Mullins vs. The Third Avenue Railway System. His Honor spotted me just as the Joads were pulling into Needles, and gave me such a dressing down I still tremble at mention of Steinbeck's name.

Bobbie Formfit CREATION

accents the smooth look!

"TEEN-PROPORTIONED BOBBIES" Coke date... prom date... a stroll through the park. You're prettier than ever when your smooth look starts with Bobbies. For Bobbies have the teen touch you just can't get in bras and girdles designed for older figures. Bras may fit in the cup, but they're loose across the back... gap in an unflattering way under the arms. And "grown-up" girdles are loose at the waist and won't fit smoothly over the hip. Insist on your very own figure makers. Come in, let us fit you in Bobbies... Bras, Britches and Girdles, today.

Bobbie Bra No. 441, snowy-fresh cotton broadcloth. 30AA to 32E. $1.50

Footnotes to Fashion

You've got to be in slender shape this spring, if you plan to do justice to the elegant new fashions.

Like the fairy lad who grew slim by concentrating on long foods, eating... and celery will help. But the right foundation garment, say designers, is the best way to figure into the new spring clothes.

The new basics, look light, feel light, but act like benevolent dictators. And they have to, because designers agree this season on a narrow fashion rule.

The deeper, broader interesting hats make dramatic curtain raising for the slender clothes. Below this striking top-note, the suits have shorter jackets that practically point to slim hips. The boleros is definitely back - and we all know what that means in terms of well muscled midriffs.

Unusual detailing calls for a natural rounded bustling on the empire style dresses. Bateau necklines - with bold cuts of material dominate afternoon and evening dresses. Needless to say, knife pleated, or straight, the skirts are demanding on the figure.

Taking a close look at the fundamentals of all this narrow shaping, it's clear this is a lady look season. Understatement is the tone, and the basic must fit both the figure and the fashion it underlines.

Slim skirts should take girdles with new narrow, Narroline. The Narroline is a split hip section just an inch of gleaming satin that limits the stretch of the elastic, and the spread of the hips.

A dress with a smooth midriff calls for an all-in-one, or a basque to give a long unbroken line.

Bras that give a soft, natural line, but are not too accentuated are also the order of this lady look day. New cotton embroidered, dacron and nylon bras, make this spring's group of bras especially lovely to look at.

With bold necklines that are part of the discretion of this season's evening wear, look for a series of strapless garments that come with far-to-the-side straps, that are detachable.

These new bras also have a slight padding in the underbust to give additional support.

Color is the final flip. You'll be seeing pink, green and blue embroidery on bras and girdles. They're the lady-like frosting on this spring's figures of elegance and grace.

Mrs. R. F. Crenshaw presided over the session at which time was opened with the singing of "He Lives."

The devotional, "Easter Is the Answer," was then given by Mrs. E. Wilson who also closed with prayer.

Arden Whitacre, American Organist, To Play April 9

Arden Whitacre, the first American organist to play in Rome and to tour the Scandinavian countries will give a recital Monday night, April 9, in the Howard Jr. High School Auditorium, East Robinson and Sumner Streets, at Orlando.

Whitacre was professor of Organ at Rollins College for the year 1954-55, and is returning to this area for recital as a result of popular demand from his former students and church organists.

A special custom made Allen Organ is being installed in the Howard Junior High School Auditorium for the event. Mr. Whitacre is presently organist and choirmaster of the First Presbyterian Church of Canton, Ohio, one of the ten largest Presbyterian Churches in the country. He recently returned from California where he completed a concert tour of the western states.

When Mr. Whitacre played in Rome, one critic expressed his recital there as "a concert that will remain a milestone in the field of organ music to the Roman Concert goer." In Sweden, he was proclaimed as "a master of organ playing." Another reviewer stated, "Mr. Whitacre's playing was not in the least inferior to the best European masters."

His Orlando recital will be a treat for church organists and all others who love organ music and is the only major organ recital scheduled this year for the Central Florida area. The recital is sponsored by Strep Organ and Music 641 North Orange, Orlando and seats for the reserved section can be obtained by writing them. The recital is open to the public and there is no charge for admission.

Quick trick: melt a quarter-pound of processed yellow cheese in the top of a double boiler over hot (not boiling) water. Gradually stir in a couple of tablespoons of condensed (undiluted) canned tomato soup. Serve over hamburgers on toasted buns.

U. S. Women Have Uncanny Ability

American women have the uncanny ability to "wish" themselves into any mold they choose, observes Cecil Beaton, British photographer, author, artist, designer, lecturer and actor.

"It seems to me that today all American women have high cheekbones, long, graceful legs, delicate wrists and thin hands," says Beaton, who has studied beauty of many nationalities in his capacity as official photographer to Britain's royal family.

"A generation ago nobody had high cheekbones. Now everybody has them. I don't really understand how women manage to change their actual bone structure, but apparently they do. I think it all started with somebody like Marlene Dietrich."

Beaton, in New York in connection with the opening of the Broadway hit, "My Fair Lady", for which he designed the costumes, is tall, suave, faultlessly tailored and silver-haired, with a shrewd twinkle in his blue eye. Discussing the difference between American and British beauty, he says: "British women are much more bound by tradition than Americans. They are more swayed by parental and family influences. And they look awful in the beach. Somehow they are not made for exposure."

"American women are much more fashionable than the British, except for the most glittering occasions. For a grand ball, an English woman can get her old lame dress out of the attic, put on her jewels and look magnificent, whereas the American woman is likely to look more as if she had stepped out of a Fifth Avenue shop window, wearing all the best merchandise. I think this is because American women really don't believe in the grand effect. They are better at simplicity and the casual air."

FORCES EXCHANGE FIRE
JERUSALEM (U)—Egyptian and Israeli forces exchanged fire yesterday near the El Aulia demilitarized zone, a frontier trouble spot south of Egyptian-held Gaza. Each side blamed the other. No casualties were reported.

In Gaza, an Egyptian military spokesman said three Israeli armored cars attacked an Egyptian post.

An Israeli military spokesman in Jerusalem said Egyptian tanks touched off the skirmish by firing from Sinai desert positions on an Israeli patrol more than a half mile inside Israel's border.

Democrats Faced With Confusion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The jolly Republicans can sit back at this moment in the presidential campaign, smile happily at the Democrats, and say: "We have President Eisenhower. What have you got?"

What the Democrats have is confusion. Ahead is more of the same.

They don't know who their candidate will be; except for the farm problem, the campaign issues are pretty thin and they don't know, because of the Southern Democrats' a sorry mood, whether they can keep their party intact.

Until Sen Estes Kefauver of Tennessee beat him this week in the Minnesota presidential primary, Adlai Stevenson had the inside track for the party's nomination at next August's convention. Maybe he can make a comeback in other primaries.

But even W Kefauver sweeps them all, proving himself in miracle vote getter, the convention may turn him down. He's never been a favorite of the big city bosses or the Southern Democrats.

The Democrats can't even feel sure they'll come out of the convention with a whole party. A Southern revolt would just about wreck any chance the party has in 1960.

A revolt may come unless the Southerners can dictate the platform plank on civil rights and even the tone of the party's candidate through an everpresent threat to turn against him after the convention.

Yet a Democratic candidate who remained tongue-tied on civil rights through fear of losing the Southern vote would, to the rest of the country, be a recognizably weak candidate.

As a sign of trouble ahead—South Carolina Democrats called on all Southern Democrats this week to take a strong stand on states' rights at the convention. They urged all Southern states' Democratic parties to arrange to meet after the convention if they're not satisfied with what happens there. This is a neat nudge to all Democrats outside the South.

The Democrats can't forget that Virginia, Texas, Florida and Tennessee, went for Eisenhower in 1952 and may do so again this year no matter what happens at the convention.

But the Democrats have other troubles: except for falling farm income, the other issues in the campaign as they outline them don't have much emotional heat.

The Republicans will make the most of the country's prosperity and peace. The Democrats may warn of the danger of war but as long as this country isn't involved in one by election day, the warnings may sound hollow.

Even organized labor—at a time when employment is at a peak—sounds quieter than in 1948 and 1952 when the unions made the Taft-Hartley Act, passed by a Republican Congress in 1947, a big issue.

Kefauver advocates outright repeal of that act. The man who gets the nomination may do the same. But the Democrats have had control of Congress five of the nine years since then and haven't repealed it.

With Eisenhower running again, the Republicans appear to have a clear edge on the Democrats.

But even with him heading the ticket they can't be completely sure of winning. In the Minnesota primary Democratic votes far outnumbered the Republicans'. What does that mean? The Republicans can't say they have the answer.

It may indicate such widespread discontent among farmers with Eisenhower's policies affecting them that the Republicans will lose the farm states. If that happens, and the Democrats manage to stay together, their chances go up.

REV. RIGNEY BACK IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO (AP)—The Rev. Harold W. Rigney was back in his native Chicago today after an absence of nine years, including more than four years in a Chinese Communist prison.

The 58-year-old Roman Catholic missionary was greeted by his 77-year-old mother Mrs. Alice Rigney and a crowd of about 150 persons upon his arrival at Midway Airport yesterday from New York.

"My son, my dear son," Mrs. Rigney sobbed as she embraced the stocky, graying priest. "This is the answer to my prayers."

Father Rigney, released by the Chinese Communists six months ago, was a rector of a university in Peiping when he was seized in 1951 on espionage charges.

He plans a series of lectures to college, church, civic and business groups in the Chicago area after Easter Week.

The U. S. Census Bureau estimates that the nation's population will increase by 83,300,000 in the next 20 years.

MARTINIS for the first time the baby girl she is going to adopt, Mrs. Dolores Gels, 23, of Riverdale, N. J., is overcome with emotion as she holds the child at Idlewild Airport, New York. The year-old youngster was flown to the U.S. from Mannheim, Germany. (Associated Press)

MIKE THE CHIMP ambles across a rooftop in lower Manhattan while on a ten-hour mischief spree before a score of New York police, zoo officials and ASPCA agents captured him in a ladies' rest room. At left, Mike is cornered by a net-bearing pursuer, but moments later he knocked the man off the ladder and continued swinging from TV aerials, wrecking apartments and even disrupting a bar. The slippery simian escaped from Frank Quinti, who had bought him to use in a night club act. Finally caged (right), Mike appears bored and probably wonders, "can't a guy have a little fun."

Newspaperman's Tour Report

This is the ninth in a series of articles written by Mrs. Carmage Walls representing The Sanford Herald on a 90-day tour of foreign countries.

I had been told that Beirut, the capital city of small Lebanon, was the loveliest city on the Mediterranean. Certainly it is one of the most beautiful from the air. The snow topped mountains run right up from the sea and as we drove along the shore road to our hotel, the big breaking waves made a glorious sight. Beirut is one of the biggest resort areas in this part of the world since it has both mountains and water sports to offer.

This country is in the Arab League but not predominately Moslem — in fact its population is about evenly divided between Moslem and Christianity. Long standing tradition demands that the President of Lebanon be a member of the Maronite Church, a branch of the Catholic Church, and the Vice President be orthodox Moslem, the Speaker of the House a disident Moslem, etc. It sounds peculiar but apparently the people like the system since, although it is not a legal requirement, they never deviate.

Changing the subject a bit, but you might be interested in the schedule we kept from Thursday morning on — interview with Premier Nassar in Cairo and then directly to airport, flew to Beirut and went straight to American Embassy because we were late for our briefing session — still late, so we went from there to a very fancy reception in our honor given by the Lebanese Minister of Information. You should have seen us — the hostess and other local women were beautifully dressed in brocade and silks, mink, etc. — there we stood in walking shoes and cotton dresses. But everyone is wonderful to us in these situations and the women in our party are sort of enjoying it now since we're all always in the same fix.

Anyhow, back to Lebanon. Here, as everywhere else we have been, there is great surface cordiality but underneath it all there is blame put on the United States for practically all the ills suffered by these countries. These ex-colonies and ex-mandates of France and England dislike those two, and us also. Partly because we are usually British and French allies and here in Arab countries, because of the Israeli problem.

In Greece, it was anger not stepping in with Greece against Britain over Cyprus. In Cairo, Beirut (and now Damascus) it is the Israel question. We Americans are taking practically full responsibility in the Arab minds in this matter. Anti-American feeling runs high — and, from what I can observe, is running higher each day. The disturbing factor, of course, is the ever present Communist threat. These people here in the Middle East are every rank in saying "we have no quarrel with anyone except Israel and anyone who supports Zionism". In their thinking the latter phrase includes most definitely the U. S. A. Naturally, the Communists are making hay with this attitude and are apparently making progress with every disturbing factor.

As an aside before telling you more on this, an interesting thing happened in Beirut. From what we have learned, Lebanon's government changes about every six months. The present one had been in six months lacking four days and was deposed the day before we arrived. We then found ourselves in the position yesterday morning of interviewing President Camille Chamoun (who was not deposed) and the Prime Minister and two other cabinet ministers, the latter three all on their way out. It was much like interviewing a Democrat between the time of election defeat and the inauguration of his Republican successor or vice versa. However, we did get some information and heard the Lebanese case regarding Israel.

Eight per cent of Lebanon's population of 1,180,000 consist of the Palestinian refugees, Lebanon, as a member of the nine country Arab League, upholds no settlement of the question except the dissolution of Israel and the repatriation of the Arab refugees to their homes. This has been the only topic of discussion in Egypt, Lebanon and now Syria. The Syrians (and here I bring in our Damascus visit which started with a five hour motor trip from Beirut yesterday afternoon) are the most violent-speaking and passionate of all in their bitterness over Israel.

When asked about Communism as a threat, they look at the questioner rather blankly and reply, "Israel is our only threat." And then rather openly let us know that if the West does not come up to their standards of justice, they shall be anti-Western — or pro-Communist. In the words of one analyst with whom we talked, "My enemy's enemy is my friend." If we are the Arab's enemy, and Russia is our enemy, it naturally follows that Russia is the Arab's friend — regardless of the religious backgrounds, etc. Frankly, the situation looks critical. I do not mean to imply that I advocate the United States doing this or that and certainly I do not intend to represent myself as knowing all there is about the problem. I merely tell you what my impressions of these government leaders are.

We go to Jordan tomorrow and then to Jerusalem where the other side or the Israeli side will be presented. I shall report my impressions from there as I have here.

This is no joking matter, but have you noticed that our group has been in so many places at the time "things popped"? — the Sultan's return in Morocco, the riots in Tunis the day we left, the Cyprus demonstrations in Athens the day we arrived, the pact signed by Egypt, Syria and Saudi Arabia while we were in Cairo, the overthrow of the Lebanese government the day before we arrived. Well, we've really hit the jackpot here in Damascus. An earthquake last night, no less, while we had dinner. No great damage but we had two tremors and I don't mind saying that it was an eerie feeling. The chandeliers moved rather rapidly as did everything else, including my hair. Of course, we learned this morning that Beirut had 17 (and later the number rose) dead and many wounded.

So once again, we have sneaked out ahead of trouble. We have told Marcel (Durlaux, the tour director) that he has arranged enough, thank you, and we don't need any more excitement for our money's worth, but heaven only knows what will happen next.

Incidentally, we have seen very little of old Damascus, but I did sneak away from interviews this afternoon and went down in the Souk (or bazaar). It was very colorful and old-world in atmosphere — quite a contrast to a large portion of Damascus which has all been built in the last nine years. Everywhere there are the mosques — over 250 here in the oldest continually inhabited city in the world. I wish we could stay longer to absorb some of the Biblical history all around us, but this schedule of ours is geared in a fast pace, I'm afraid.

I'll write again from Jordan, where we hope to visit one of the refugee camps.

REV. JAMES S. ROBINSON, of the New York Presbyterian Church of the Master, welcomes visiting members of the congregation of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church as Negroes and whites exchanged congregations to promote interracial understanding. The interchange was arranged by the National Urban League, a social service organization. An overflow crowd packed the Negro church.

Herlong Reports

THE SOUTHERN MANIFESTO
Yes, I not only signed it, but I sat in with the group who conceived the idea and put it across. Some people have said that we shouldn't criticize the Supreme Court. This court is made up of nine men — nine human beings — who, like all men, are not above making mistakes. Certainly they are not above being criticized for their mistakes. They, like I, have sworn to uphold the Constitution. Many of us feel that instead of upholding the Constitution, the Supreme Court has chosen to rewrite it. That is a right that belongs only to the people. When courts usurp rights that belong to the people, we think it should be called to the attention of the people in as strong terms as possible.

SPREADING DECLINE
We had what seemed to be a very favorable hearing before the Agriculture Subcommittee of the Appropriations Committee this week. We asked for federal funds to match the state funds to continue our fight to control and eradicate Spreading Decline. As this request is in excess of budget estimates, the Chairman is going to have to recall Department of Agriculture witnesses to justify the increase. The greatest fear we have now is that those officials will not back up to the point of asking the Committee to exceed the budget requests. If they don't, our chances are slim. Right now we are working on the Department of Agriculture.

WAR CLAIMS SETTLEMENT
Many American citizens suffered property losses during World War II and have proper claims for reimbursement. These claims must be filed before September 30, 1956; or they will be barred. Such claims must be filed with the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the United States. Their address is Tariff Commission Building, 7th and E Streets, N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

Attendants Are Wearing Yellow In Grace's Wedding

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The eight bridesmaids at the wedding of movie star Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier of Monaco will wear identical gowns of sunlight yellow silk organdy over tulle. The gowns have full and fluid skirts and bell-shaped collars caught to a tiny cuff below, designers at Nolan-Marcus, Dallas specialty store, announced. Tiny covered buttons extend from simple, small collar to a high obi sash that ties in the back with three separate bows. Flowing streamers extend from the bows.

The hats of misty hairbraids in petal-like layers repeat the pale yellow of the dresses. A small butterfly bow hovers at the back. The four flower girls will wear white Swiss organdy embroidered with yellow and white daisies and worn over soft yellow organdy petticoats.

The birth rate in Italy dropped from 30.8 per 1,000 people in 1932 to 23.5 in 1949 in spite of baby bonuses offered by the Mussolini regime.

The population of the United States is increasing rapidly enough to produce another city the size of Madison, Wis. every 10 days.

Good Friday Theme Revealed As 'Love Speaks From Cross'

Good Friday services of the Seminole County Ministerial Association will be held tomorrow at the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford beginning at 12 noon. The theme of the service will be "Love Speaks From the Cross," with Dr. W. P. Brooks Jr., the Rev. Milton H. Wyatt, the Rev. Lucian W. Scott, and the Rev. W. G. McInnis presiding.

The three-hour service embraces the seven last words from the Cross as spoken by the Savior. Seven ministers of Seminole County churches will bring the meditation. The service has been divided into seven complete 25-minute periods in order that everyone may be able to attend at least one portion.

At 12 noon the theme of the 25-minute portion of the service will be a quartet with Fay Lee. "Father forgive them for they know not what they do," taken from Luke 23:34. Meditation will be spoken by the Rev. David S. Carnell. The guest soloist will be Mrs. James Bozard.

At 12:35 p. m. the theme of the second 25-minute portion will be "Love Unconditional," with the text from Luke 23:34. "Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in Paradise." Speaking the meditation will be the Rev. R. H. Spear. Guest soloists will be Fay Lee, David S. Carnell, Tommy Stringer, and Joe Coggeshall singing.

The third 25-minute portion of the service begins at 12:50 with the theme "Love's Responsibilities." The text is taken from John 13:34-35. "Behold thy mother," taken from John 19:27. The meditation will be by the Rev. J. W. Parham, guest soloist will be Dick Aiken.

Themes of the fourth portion of the service, which begins at 1:15 p. m. will be "Love's Extremes," with the text from Mark 13:34 and Matthew 27:46. "My God, My God, Why hast Thou forsaken me," taken from Luke 23:46. The meditation will be by the Rev. Fred J. Fisher. Guest soloists are Miss Caroline McInnis, Mrs. Roy Mann, Robert Crumley, and Clifford McKibben Jr.

Fifth of the portions of the three-hour service begins at 1:40 p. m. with the theme "Love's Priorities." The text is taken from John 19:28. "After this, Jesus," said, I die." Chaplain Lynn Arnold will speak the meditation and the guest soloist will be Charles Morrison.

Sixth of the series services begins at 2:05 p. m. The theme of this portion will be "Love's Consumption" and the text taken from John 19:30. "Jesus," said, "It is finished." The Rev. Fred J. Fisher will speak the meditation. Mrs. Ruby Sloan and George Touhy will be guest soloists.

The seventh and last of the 25-minute portions of the service will begin at 2:35 p. m. with the theme "Love's Surrender." The text "And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit," and having said thus, he gave up the ghost," is taken from Luke 23:46. The Rev. Lewis C. Welch will speak the meditation. Guest soloist will be Miss Gene Nunnelly.

Appropriate hymns, prayer, scripture reading and organ interludes will make each 25-minute portion a complete service in itself for the benefit of business people, housewives, and worshippers who cannot attend more than one portion of the three-hour Good Friday joint service.

2-Hour Conference Between Ike, Dulles Closes Yesterday

WASHINGTON (AP)—A two-hour conference between President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles followed closely yesterday Eisenhower's return from his "Little Summit" meeting. Dulles said they talked over "an accumulation of business," but he declined to give any details. He said no urgency was involved. The two met at the White House 1 1/2 hours after Eisenhower returned from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. There he had met with President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines of Mexico and Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent of Canada.

The proposed route for 17-92 extending from French Ave. at Lake Monroe, across the lake and into Volusia County through Enterprise and DeBary and to join the present route two miles south of Orange City, was shown to the Chamber of Commerce members attending the Coffee Club this morning. John Krider, Sanford City Commissioner, who made the proposal to the Long Range Highway Planning Committee headed by J. Brailey Odham, to the group that "We have had favorable action from the Orange City Chamber of Commerce and the Mayor of Orange City." They tell me," said Krider, "that they will do anything they can to make the new route a reality.

We hope that within 60 days the State Road Department will authorize a center line to be located for the proposed route." Krider told the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce members. "There is considerable pressure from the west side of Seminole County to stop the highway at Five Points," Krider said. "We've brought the highway to Sanford and now we must get it out again," Krider said.

Violent Wind, Snow Storms Continuing In Midwest Areas

Violent wind and snow storms which struck crippling blows yesterday in northern sections of the Midwest, continued their assault today. Many communities in four states—the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin—were virtually paralyzed by the vigorous early spring storms.

The dust storms which smothered crops in the Great Plains abated. Strong winds which struck from northern Texas and eastern New Mexico to the Canadian border diminished from eastern Colorado and Kansas southwest. However, there was considerable dust in the air in western Texas and parts of Oklahoma and Kansas.

Stormy weather also hit eastern and southern sections of the country in the form of rain or hail and strong winds. Blizzardlike conditions were reported early today in the Dakotas with blowing snow. Winds ranged from 25 to 30 m.p.h. and gusts to 40 m.p.h. Temperatures dropped to far below freezing.

Other northern midwest states were dealt similar crippling blows. Schools in many rural areas and cities were closed. Highway travel was slowed with many roads blocked by fallen trees and utility poles. Air travel was curtailed. Snowfalls measured up to a foot in some places.

Mrs. Appleby, Son Lewis Tells Kiwanians To Attend Luncheon Of Agriculture Dept. For '56 Seal Star

Clara Jo Proudfoot, the 4 1/2 year old Miami Miss, chosen as the 1956 National Easter Seal girl, who recently charmed President Eisenhower at the White House, will be a guest of Central Florida Society for Crippled Children at a special Good Friday luncheon to be held tomorrow at noon at the Langford Hotel in Winter Park.

The Dutch treat luncheon is being held in Clara Jo's honor. With the young lady will be Bonnie Kerrigan, executive director of the Crippled Children's Society in Miami, and Clara Jo's mother.

Mrs. Harold Appleby, chairman of the Easter Seal campaign in Seminole County, and vice-president of the Central Florida Society for Crippled Children, along with her son John, will attend the luncheon for the Easter Seal girl for 1956.

Iceland Asks U. S. Forces To Quit Post

REKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—Iceland's Parliament has called on U. S. forces to quit this North Atlantic defense post. The move would leave the strategic island—an NATO member almost midway between Moscow and New York—with no military force.

The Communist-supported resolution was a loud 31-18 vote against conservative opposition. It asked that all NATO forces be pulled out "in view of the altered situation" since 1951. At that time the United States and Iceland agreed on the stationing of U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force units here under NATO command.

The Defense Department in Washington said the United States has on the island a "small Army force of battalion size," an Air Force fighter interceptor squadron plus "supporting units" and the joint Iceland defense force. It refused on security grounds to specify the number of men involved. The resolution said the defense treaty should be revised so that Icelanders—who have no army or navy at present—would take over their own defenses.

Seminole County Registrations Now Over 10 Thousand

'Rosy' Ryan Guest At C Of C Coffee Club This Morning

W. D. "Rosy" Ryan, General Manager of the Minneapolis Millers baseball organization, was guest of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club this morning.

Speaking to one of the largest groups to attend the Coffee Club gathering, besides Ryan were Chamber of Commerce President George Touhy and City Commissioner John Krider.

Touhy, speaking on the progress of Sanford business men and women that "being conscious of the progress, we must gear ourselves up to the problems. The roads run this way as well as that.

Let's try to get this community and county right up to the top in the competition for shoppers and business," he said.

Ryan told the Chamber of Commerce that 31 newspaper men and TV newsmen were in Sanford yesterday for the American Association Spring meeting. He explained that the pennant winning team of the association is lost for the Spring meeting and "I hope we can do it again next year."

Ryan told the Chamber of Commerce members that "We have hopes that the entire Giant Farm system can come back here in the future." Our farm system training camp here, several years ago, was known to be the best in the United States," Ryan said. "We like it here," he said and we have hopes that we can return here under favorable conditions."

The Minneapolis Millers will play two exhibition games in Sanford this weekend, Saturday afternoon the Millers meet the Indianapolis team and on Sunday they meet the Chattanooga Lookouts. Both games are slated to be played at 7:30 in the afternoon.

April 7 Closing Date

Reminole County registrations have exceeded ten thousand, said Mrs. Camilla Bruce, Seminole County Supervisor of Registrations.

Mrs. Bruce said that 184 new registrations were made last night in Oviedo during the two hour period that the registration books were at the Oviedo City Hall.

This additional number of new registrations brings our total voters list to over ten thousand she said.

Mrs. Bruce emphasized that April 7 is the closing date for registration for those who are qualified to vote in the May 8 Democratic Primary. The books are open at the office of the Supervisor of Registrations in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

"It looks as though we're going to have the biggest vote in Seminole County's history," said Mrs. Bruce, "because of the interest shown in registration up to the present date."

She said, "People are coming in to check their registration and to see if they're registered to vote."

The books will be taken tomorrow night to Fern Park. Mrs. Bruce said today, and they will be located at the Prairie Lake American Legion Hut, next Wednesday night the registration books will be located at the Geneva Community House.

All locations, Mrs. Bruce said, where the books are taken to the various communities, will be open from 8 to 10 p. m. Also, she reminded, the local Supervisor of Registrations office will be open next Tuesday night from 7 to 9 p. m.

County Schools Close Tomorrow; Re-Open Tuesday

All of the Seminole County Schools will close this afternoon at the completion of the school day to return on Tuesday morning at the usual hour, Superintendent of Public Instruction Rayburn T. Milwee stated this morning.

The schools will be closed for Spring holidays, he said. Seminole County schools will be closed tomorrow and Monday and will reopen again on Tuesday morning, Milwee said.

CONSCIENCE

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A burglar broke into a lumber company, apparently began to dismantle the safe, changed his mind, put it back together and left without taking a thing.

Accidents Involve Following Too Close By Two Vehicles

Two accidents were reported by Florida Highway Patrolman Carl Williams this morning.

Both accidents involved "following too close" he said. The first accident was at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon just south of Sanford at Flowing Well driven by Clarence Mickens, 45, when a 1949 black tractor trailer, of Jacksonville, and belonging to the Winn-Dixie Stores of Jacksonville pulled off to the side of the road and was struck by a 1945 White Semi tractor and trailer driven by Albert B. Cloutz, 27, of Columbia, S. C.

The White truck struck the rear of the Mack with damage from the smashup amounting to about $500 to the rear of the Mack truck and about $1,000 to the White. The entire front was torn from the White truck in the accident.

Cloutz was charged with "failure to have his vehicle under control." At 7:30 last night, immediately north of Sanford about an eighth of a mile north of the city limits, an automobile and a GMC Van were involved in a collision.

According to Patrolman Carl Williams, a 1950 Pontiac Coupe, driven by Roosevelt Williams of 1202 W. 18th St., Sanford, slowed down to make a right turn at the north city limits, was being following too close and the truck driven by Leo Smith, 303, of Orlando, owned by Robinson Music Co., tried to dodge him striking the Pontiac on the right rear fender.

Damage was estimated at $125 to the Pontiac and $15 to the truck. Charges are being filed against Leo Smith, said Patrolman Williams.

Grace Given Bridal Shower By Friends

NEW YORK (AP)—Grace Kelly, preparing for the pomp and ceremony of her marriage next month to Prince Rainier III of Monaco, was given an old-fashioned bridal shower yesterday by her girl friends.

The film star showed up at an upper East Side apartment with her mother, sister, sister-in-law and several other folks from Philadelphia.

Shower presents included quite a bit of lingerie, a beach hat, a fancy belt and a cake with tiny umbrellas.

The party was given by Mrs. John Richardson and Mrs. Malcolm Reynolds. They will be attendants at Miss Kelly's wedding April 18.

Traffic Deaths Keep Going Up

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic deaths are going up and up.

The National Safety Council today focused attention on the long upward climb with this statement: "February was the 12th month in a row to show more deaths than the same month of the preceding year."

"Deaths are now going up faster than the increase in travel, so the only conclusion is that people are driving more carelessly."

The council said motor vehicle fatalities in February equalled the all-time high for a February. It reported 2,630 Americans were killed, the same number as in February in 1941 and 1952.

The toll in February of this year was 16 per cent higher than in February 1953. Some of the increase was attributed to the extra day in this leap year February.

But, the council said, it was the largest monthly percentage increase since June 1951.

Explosion Blasts Plant Into Rubble

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A devastating explosion blasted a four-story gray iron into flaming rubble last night and cut a 10-block swath of damage through Philadelphia's busy 30th and Market Street section.

At least three persons were missing and believed dead. Four others were on the critical list. Some were treated for injuries, some of them late evening shoppers heading home at the time of the blast—8:10 p.m.

Not until the cold morning air cleared away the pall of black smoke was the extent of the destruction fully revealed. As far as the eye could see there were broken windows, smashed automobiles, scattered debris.

The scene of the explosion was two blocks west of the Schuylkill River that separates the downtown portion of the city from West Philadelphia.

Across the street from the blasted building—the milling plant of the Tidewater Mill and Elevator Co.—the new Philadelphia Bulletin four-story building took the full fury of the blast.

Windows were reduced to glass powder, ceilings fell, partitions were hammered out of shape and office furniture was overturned. The force of the blast tore down communications lines on Market Street, knocked electric signs off buildings and showered the area with fragments of metal and wood.

The explosion was felt 25 miles away. The City Hall switchboard reported an estimated 25,000 telephone calls were received in a four-hour period.
