Fighting drugs with money

An additional $3 million will help law enforcement thwart drug traffickers along the I-4 corridor

By Maria Orem HERALD STAFF WRITER

SEMINOLE COUNTY - An additional $3 million in federal funds has been pumped into the effort to halt drug trafficking in the 1-4 corridor.

The Central Florida High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) program is a collaborative effort between federal, state, and seven county law enforcement agencies, including the Seminole County Sheriff's Office, to tight drugs. In 1997, the region received $1 million.

Seminole County benefits directly from the added support, especially through the HIDTA heroin task force, said Steve Harriett, chief deputy of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office.

"There is an acute need for the heroin task lorce," Harriett said,

So far this year, there have been 11 heroin-related overdoses with seven resulting in death. Through the HHDTA task force: investigations resulted in the arrest of those who supplied the heroin that contributed to the deaths.

"We're already seeing some of the positive results," Harriett said. "The task force identified sources of heroin that led to arrests."

The heroin task force, consisting of agents for the federal, state and local levels, investigates drug trafficking cases in the Central Florida region. Agents from Harriett's office serve on this task force and the Fugitive Apprehension Strike Team (FASI).

Since almost all cases transcend county lines, Harriett said, the team effort is very effective.

FAST primarily tracks and takes into custody drug offenders wanted by law enforcement agents, which also includes Seminole County fugilities. Harriett said.

Local drug task forces, such as the City County Investigative Bureau also are eligible for the HIDTA funds, he said. "The funding will augment our drug enforcement efforts for more investigations and equipment," he said.

U.S. Representative John Mica IR Winter Parki and Senator Bob Graham have been the leading Congressional advocates of the Central Florida HIDTA. In March, Graham and Mica joined law enforcement officials from Central Florida to launch this new effort against drug trafficking.

The increased HIDTA funding will further boost the anti-drug efforts along Florida's so-called "1-4 corridor," an area that stretches from Daytona Beach on the Atlantic Coast to the Tampa/St. Petersburg area on the Gulf of Mexico and includes the Greater Orlando metropolitan area.

Congress originally authorized the creation of HIDTAs in 1988 to provide increased federal assistance to alleviate drug-related problems, particularly those with harmful impacts. Nearly 15 HIDTAs have been designated nationwide to enhance the effectiveness of anti-drug efforts by bringing federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies together as partners. Only those regions with the most critical drug trafficking problems are eligible.

SANFORD - Veterans in Seminole County will have more access to medical services when a new outpatient clinic opens in Sanford later this year.

U.S. Rep. John L. Mita on Thursday announced the project that will offer more convenient access to health care for Seminole County's 40,000 veterans. The closest outpatient clinics are located in Daytona Beach and Orlando. For more involved inpatient care, veterans must travel to the larger facilities in Tampa and Gainesville.

"Our veterans have earned the right to have quality health care provided in their own community," Mica said.

The clinic is projected to serve about 6,000 veterans a year and will be staffed by one doctor, one nurse, and three full-time staffers. The facility will offer primary care for patients. Operating budget for the first year, which includes startup costs, is about $463,000, according to Mica's office.

"The Sanford clinic, combined with the ability to contract with private hospitals for inpatient care, would provide a full range of medical care for our area veterans," Mica said.

Representatives from the Veterans Affairs Administration are expected to lease a space to house the facility within the next three months.

Ceremony honors prisoners of war

SANFORD - It's really big. Veterans, trying to bring attention to the plight of those who survived prisoner of war camps in World War II, Korea and Vietnam and those who are still missing in action, will raise a garrison-size flag in Sanford on Sunday. The 35-by-45-foot black

The 35-by-45-foot black and white POW-MIA flag was handmade for the Central Florida veterans and has become the centerpiece of an annual celebration hosted by the Sanford Disabled American Veterans post.

The Nam Knights, a veterans' motorcycle group based in Pine Hills, will travel to the post, which is located on U.S. Highway 17-92 across from Wal-Mart in Sanford, will escort the flag and raise it on a 150-foot crane parked in the empty lot north of the post home. "It's really impressive to

"It's reany impressive to see all those motorcycles coming in with that flag," Al Taylor, who is organizing the event, said.

There are 140 members of the Nam Knights who will bring the flag to Sanford. More than 1.000 veterans and their families will be on hand to show their support for those who were prisoners and those who have not tax bucks

OVIEDO - Council members in Oviedo can't agree on whether landscaping or firefighters would be the better way to spend tax dollars, so they will continue their discusston at a second public hearing on Sept. 21.

With Councilman John Ariale absent, the council decided to not take any action on altering the proposed budget and tentative millage rate until, possibly, the second public hearing on the matter.

The council agreed on a tentative millage rate for the city of 5.245, the third highest in the county, they said. Though they could lower the amount, they can not raise it for this year.

The owner of a $100,000 home in Oviedo, with a $25,000 homestead exemption, can plan to write a check for no more than $393.38 for city services this year.

That much is clear. Council members just need to come to an agreement on how all of the money will be spent.

While mayor Mimi Bruce suggested that more money needed to be spent on landscaping at City Hall and Councliman John Benson wanted to delay the hiring of three new firefighters, the few members of the public who expressed an opinion at the first public hearing on Thursday evening believe the city needs to concentrate on acquiring more public land for parks.

Regina Braswell, who along with other residents of MacKinley's Mill have done battle with Oviedo. Winter Springs and the county over the issue of the Battle Ridge annexation, suggested Winter Springs could be prevented from further annexation attempts by Oviedo purchasing additional lands east of the Battle Ridge subdivision.

"The city needs to purchase some open lands," she told the council. "You should consider raising the millage rates to do that."

Others suggested the burden of paying for growth should be

The goal of the reservation agent is to get "heads in beds" and you can use this to your advantage if you are assertive and inquisitive when cutting the deal. Try these tips, and you'll rest a little easier knowing you don't overpay for your room: Call a hotel consolidator.

You can save 20 to 70 percent off the cost of a room by working with a hotel consolidator. These companies work directly with hotels; they can offer deep discounts because they book rooms in bulk. The savings can be significant.

To get the absolute lowest price, get a rate quote from one or more of the consolidators.

Once you get the best deal from the consolidators, you might want to call the hotel directly and ask whether you can get an even lower rate. Before booking with a consolidator (or with the hotel for that malter). be sure to ask about the cancellation policy; some consoli-dators require 72 hours cancellation notice.

Hotel Reservations Network 800-964-6835. 18 US cities, Paris. London. and www.180096hotel.com

Room Exchange 800-846-7000, 22,000 hotels in 910 citles in the U.S., Europe, Asta, the Far East. and www.hotelrooms.com

Don't try to cut a deal with the 800-number operator. To track down the best rate from a chain hotel, collect quotes from both the 800 number reservation line and from the reservation agent at the hotel where you plan to stay. For the most part, the operator on the toll-free line doesn't have any authority to negotiate price with you, but the reservation agent at the hotel can cut you some slack.

Ask" "Is that the best you can do?" Never, never accept the first rate you're quoted. Follow up with questions about special discounts. Most hotels offer cheaper rates for members of the American Automobile Association, for sentor, citizens, for government employees, for members of frequent flyer programs. If you own stock in the hotel company (such as Marriott or Disncy), ask about a shareholder's discount. If you work for a large corporation, pull out a business card and ask about a corporate discount. Also, be sure to ask about promotional rates, weekend discounts, and off-season specials. By asking these simple questions, you can save from 10 to 50 percent off the "rack" rate, or the regular room rate.

Don't forget your confirmation number. Always get a confirmation number when you make a reservation. This mimber can be your key to getting a room at the rate you were quoted if there has been an error in the paperwork or if the hotel claims to be sold out.

Don't give your power away

Dear Mary,

This seems like a really stupid question, but my sister and I want a third party to settle this argument for us. My boyfriend is usually a really nice guy and everybody likes him. But every once in a while, he'll get mad, either at me or about something else, and he goes nuts. He's pretty jealous and most of the time when he's acting crazy, it's because he thinks I'm doing something to cheat on him. Once when he was at my house he saw a picture of me and another guy that was made at a summer camp the year before I met him. He ripped up the picture without even asking me who it was. Other times when he gets mad, he drives real fast and sometimes he'll do things to aggravate other drivers if he thinks they did something dumb.

Anyhow, my sister says this stuff could lead to him abusing me in the future. I say he's just a little immature and as he gets older. he'll grow out of it' What do you think? Can't Decide If He's Dangerous

Dear Can't,

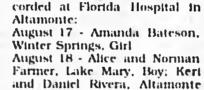

In a word, YESI If he hasn't learned to control his emotions by now, what makes you think he's going to start as he gets older? It usually goes the other direction. Your boyfriend certainly has the characteristics of an abuser. The he has the right to control you. He also shows really poor judgment in harassing drivers on the. road. What if he meases with someone as hotheaded as he is?

If you feel controlled or intimidated by fear of his "blowing up" you are already being emotionally abused. If you have changed your normal routines for fear of his getting made at you, you are being controlled by fum. This is always a first step to abuse, both physical and emotional.

Don't give your power away. This guy is dangerous and sounds like another "wolf in sheep's clothing". You run the risk of losing your selfrespect as well as being harmed by this guy. I really hope you will firmly but quickly end this relationship. You have a lot to lose by letting

Elderly know-it-all makes family's life miserable

DEAR ABBY: How can you get through to an 87-year-old father who thinks he knows everything? You can't imagine how difficult it is to live with someone who "knows everything" and is wrong 90 percent of the time.

Papa Luke" has lived with my husband and me for the last eight years. When I had the opportunity to purchase separate but equal living arrangements, 1 foolishly ignored my initial instincts.

He is a very controlling person. He has to be involved and have a say in everything that goes on in my house. People outside the family think Papa Luke is terrific, but they don't witness the intimidation, the controlling and the tantrums this family must deal with almost on a daily basis.

I find myself having to lie to him when I want to go shopping or visit my children, because if he hears the plans do not include him, he will fake illness so that I must alter my plans. Sitting down and talking won't solve the problem because he's stubborn and doesn't view himself as the family does.

When I find the nerve to put my foot down and refuse to cater to him, he calls me selfish and throws a fit. I can't plan anything social at the house because he takes over the planning and then the actual event. The grandchildren limit their visits because they don't want to put up with him and they don't see how I do

Thanks for letting me vent, Abby. Can you provide some words of wisdom to help my family survive this no-win situation?

DEAR PRISONER: Although the henhouse belongs to you, your father seems to be ruling the roost. It's up to you to change the balance of power. Since he's a bundle of energy, try to find him an outlet. Surely there are senior citizen groups in your area. Waste no time in finding one for Papa Luke. It might provide the respite you need.

In the meantime, perhaps it will preserve your sanity to repeat the following prayer:

him hang around.

We, as you might expect, do not agree.

The wellness people are of the opinion that missing out on the news will make you feel better at the end of the day. Of course, you'll also feel more ignorant.

An intelligent reader such as yourself who is obviously still reading the newspaper and not heeding the advice of the Wellness leaguers should be rewarded. How about a day off tomorrow? (We just won't tell those other people who have abandoned us today.)

Emergency

If you're looking for some-thing to celebrate today, just look at the date. 911.

Yes, someone has selected the 11th day of the ninth month (9/11) to honor those people who work the phones and emergency medical techniclans to save the lives of those in trouble.

They respond to our calls for help every day of the year, but we can cheer them on this special day.

Bald is beautiful

You won't run into any hairy situations if you go to the Bald is Beautiful convention in Morehead (there's a joke in there somewhere) City, North Carolina today.

Organizers have invited bald men (and women) who want to celebrate their beautiful heads to join them in a two-day celebration of skin.

There'll be no Rogaine for sale at this convention. These people are proud of their lack of locks. These people wouldn't want hair even if they could grow it. Only about 200 people are expected, but if you're happy and hairless, you might

Firefighter's death leads to suit

SANFORD - The death last year of a Sanford Fire Department applicant has led to a lawsuit filed Thursday by the man's widow. The wife of Terrence Flanders, 29, is suing the city of Sanford, Seminole Community College and Seminole County for negligence in the July 2, 1997 death that occurred during training at SCC. The suit also accuses Sanford of failing to give applicants a physical examination before putting them through the high-stress test.

Flanders, a part-time firefighter in Eatonville, was seeking a fulltime firefighting position with the Sanford department. He collapsed while crawling through a dark, two-foot square maze wearing full firefighting gear, including oxygen tanks. The suit alleges that the maze was too hot, with temperatures above 100 degrees, and that the defendants failed to provide adequate rescue personnel and life support. Flanders, who weighed 270 pounds, received mouth-to-mouth resuscitation from a fire department lieutenant who was with him in the maze before he was pulled outside.

SEMINOLE COUNTY - On Sept. 7, 1988, Sheelah Ryan of Winter Springs claimed the largest single prize in the history of the Florida Lottery -- a $55.16 million LOTTO jackpot. This week, 10 years, later, that record still stands in Florida.

In fact, at the time, Ryan held the record for the largest LOTTO jackpot in North America. It was broken five years later by a single-winner in Wisconsin.

Although Ryan died in September 1994, she remains the biggest single LOTTO winner in the Sunshine State. The Sheelah Ryan Foundation Inc. she formed continues her good "Sheelah Ryan was one of the most giving people 1 have ever met. Florida was lucky to have her as the winner of the record jackpot because she kept her word and did 'a lot of good with this money." said Lottery Sec-retary Marcia Mann.

The Foundation awards grants and scholarships to organizations from a portion of her annual $2.75 million LOTTO winnings. Ten more payments remain.

The Foundation is headquartered in Winter Springs and funds only non-profit organizations based in Seminole County. The president of the organization: Pam Ohab of Winter Springs, serves as a volunteer. One of Ryan's nephews, Dennis Ryan of Ormond Beach, serves as a board member. "Our emphasis on awarding grants and scholarships has been to non-profits in Seminole County that will help single mothers with young children improve their lives and help themselves," said Ohab. This was the primary concern of Ms. Ryan's Foundation be-continuing her vision today." Some organizations that have benefited from the foundation include: Beta House, Safe House of Seminole County, the Parent Resource Center, New Directions for Women, the Salvation Army of Seminole County, the Day Care Center at Seminole County Community College, the Guardian Ad Litem program and each of the six high schools in Seminole County. College scholarships are also awarded.

"By awarding funds to theseorganizations, we are carrying on Sheelah's dream of helping mothers escape from poverty... and change their lives for the better." Ms. Ohab said. "After" awarding a grant or scholarship to a group, we always follow up with a site visit to make sure these funds are beting used properly."

Hormonal changes are probably normal

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm almost 16 and began having periods at 13. My cycle is still very irregular. Are both my ovaries functioning property or is my body still adjusting to becoming a woman? Could you please help me understand what is happening to my DEAR READER: When girls begin menstruating, they often experience variations in flow and marked irregularity. After menarche (first menses), many young women may not bleed again for a year or more. Your ovaries probably are functioning normaliy and your body undoubtedly is simply adjusting to the strange and profound effects of increasing hormone levels.

However, since you are concerned and have taken the time to write me, you should double-check with a gynecologist. Occasionally, young women may experience correctable hormone imbalances and a specialist will be able to reassure you that everything is OK or may suggest temporary treatment if necessary.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Why would I have different blood pressures in my arms? The right arm is 50 to 100 points higher than my left arm.

DEAR READER: The blood pressure is normally the same throughout the body. Because the circulation is a free-flowing hydraulic system, the pressure within it does not vary from arm to arm, arm to leg or leg to leg.

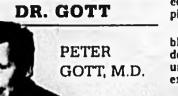

Small differences between blood pressure recordings in the extremities are usually due to fluctuating pressure or to technical differences in how the blood pressure is recorded. For example, a person with a thin arm will seem to have lower blood pressure than a thick-armed individual. This is because the large arm requires a pressure cuff that is wider than normal in order to record an accurate figure.

In your case, the difference between the arms is significant and suggests a medical condition called subclavian stenosis. Occasionally, patients will show a higher right-arm pressure because of a narrowing of a portion of the subclavian artery that feeds the left arm. This narrowing causes an elevated blood pressure in the right arm but not in the left. It is a dangerous condition and can lead to stroke unless the constriction is surgically corrected. Most doctors are alert to the possibility of stenosis; this is why we take blood pressure recordings in each arm during the initial examination of hypertensive patients.

Subclavian stenosis is unusual. 1 have seen only one case in 30 years of practice. However, once it is discovered, treatment is direct and permanent. The diagnosis is established with an aortogram, a type of X-ray study during which material is injected into the aorta and films taken. The pinched area shows up readily.

The depth

I suggest that you discuss your blood-pressure readings with your doctor. If he or she verifies your figures, you will need to have further examination.

You can write to Dr. Gott at P.O. Box 2017, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10156

Game of the Week Tonight: Lake Howell at Oviedo, 7:30 p.m.

OVIEDO Last week, both teams stumbled out of the gate. Oviedo lost its opener, 17-7 to University, turning the ball over six times.

Lake Howell also fell, 22-12 to Winter Park. Both teams are coming off seasons which ended on different ends of the county spectrum. Oviedo made it to the second round of the state playoffs and knocked off the Silver Hawks in an overtime thriller last season.

For Lake Howell, last week's loss represented a reminder of a disappointing 3-7 season that kept the Hawks out of the playoffs.

This is possibly the county's biggest rivalry and the old cliché about "throwing out the record books" applies.

Oviedo quarterback Kenny Starling will match up against Lake Howell's Jesse Hannon who started last season. The Hawks are struggling with a season-ending injury to linebacker Andy Hardy, but still have an experienced backfield and the county's best kicker, David Lantigua.

Tonight: Lyman at Lake Mary, 7:30 p.m.

LAKE MARY _ The Rams finally got their first win in almost two years last week with a 17-14 defeat of Edgewater. The Rams offense wasn't much to cheer about until last year's starting quarterback, Cory Cooper, came off the bench in the fourth quarter and started handing the ball to workhorse Lawrence Ru-

LAKE MARY _ It's a true sign of a good team when it can play a bad match and still make it look like an easy win.

That's how it went for the Lake Mary girls' volleyball team Thursday night when it scratched its way to a 16-14, 15-10 win over a scrappy Seminole team in Seminole Athletic Conference action at Lake Mary High School. The Rams (8-1) were sloppy, but had some excuses. First, the Rams were coming off

LAKE MARY _ Nick Stuart can be as good as he wants to be.

That's the way Lake Mary cross country coach Mike UIDSON ACCS II. "Nick is the best in Central Florida," Gibson said. "It all depends on how hard he works," Stuart is the leader of the Lake Mary cross country team which is battling to replace Lyman as the county's best team. As far as individuals, Stuart stands alone. Last year. Stuart finished 10th in the state, despite suffering a serious shin splint injury. He recuperated, had a strong outdoor season, then went out and won the Lake Mary Summertime Meet which featured some of the best runners in the area. He followed that up with a win at the Lake Brantley Invitational to solidify his place among Central Florida's clite. Not bad for a guy who's only been running cross country for four years.

Especially Stuart's. He ran a personal best 16:24.6 during the summertime meet and needs to keep up the pace if Lake Mary wants any chance of besting Lyman, the second-ranked team in the state.

"Nick can beat any of Lyman's runners," Olbson said. "Binge can beat a lot of them. There's no reason why we can't go to states. I can't see us not near the dolph.

Rudolph struggled through the first three quarters, but, after a lightening storm suspended action for 45 minutes, he ran with a vengeance and carried all eight times during Lake Mary's winning touchdown drive.

Lyman, which struggled in crunch time last season, let another one slip away last week in a 24-19 loss to Seminole. The Greyhounds trailed 24-0, but scored 19 unanswered points and had a chance to win until a last-second pass was picked off in the end zone.

Last year, the Rams fell to Lyman on a last-second fumble. They are still struggling offensively and this is the best Lyman team in several years.

Tonight: Seminole at Pine Ridge, 7:30 p.m.

DELTONA Last year, this was expected to be a very emotional game for Seminole and Pine Ridge.

Since Seminole coach Jim Worthington came to the county from Pine Ridge, there was speculation that there would be a war going on both on and off the field.

That never happened as Seminole beat its coach's former team, quite easily.

Besides the emotional turbulence that was supposed to surround last year's match-up, the 'Noles have something real to worry about this year.

Their performance in the season opener.

Seminole did win last week, with a 24-19 score over Lyman High School. But the Noles allowed the Greyhounds to come back from a 24-0 deficit and didn't score a point after the first 10 or so minutes of the third quarter.

Granted, Lyman is not the team it was last year. This team is actually good and sick of being pushed around. That could make for a winning season.

Seminole, however, isn't the same team it was last year, either.

The strength of this team is the running game. If Pine Ridge can do what Lyman did, and shut down Deon Howard, Clarence Latimer can get through the line. Scoring won't be a problem.

The problem is the endurance, or lack there of, of the defense.

By the end of last week's game, they were tired. They were allowing holes to open that Mack trucks could fit through and had difficulty protecting the outside.

· It's doubtful that after a week of practice with Worthington that those problems still exist.

If they do, however, Pine Ridge may be able to stay in the game and possibly sneak up on

Please see Pever, Page 5

"I just started during my freshman year," Stuart said. "My coach asked me to come out because he saw me running during the summer and I really got into it."

It paid off. Stuart has been a key member of the Runnin' Rams since joining the team and, this year, he has a team that may be able to challenge Lyman for county supremacy.

David Binge and Brent Keith give the team some depth and the team believes in itself.

"It all depends on us," Keith said. It's all on our shoulders."

top, barring injury."

That's what happened to Stuart last year. Binge was also injured, but Stuart was able to recover in time for outdoor season. He ran the mile and the two mile and, after rehabilitation, led the outdoor team with best times of 4:27 in the mile and 10-flat in the twomile.

In the states, Stuart finished 10th in the mile, but, after a year of recuperating from his shin splints, he and Gibson expect bigger things. Lake Mary's never had a state champion in boys track and field, so Stuart is looking to be the first.

"Nick's a very hard worker," Gibson said. "He racks up the miles all summer and makes it a year-round sport. He knows he has to put in his miles and we depend on it."

Stuart will get a major test next weekend at the Lake Mary Classic. Lyman and some of the best teams in the state will attend the 22-team event.

Stuart has the heart and will to win, but he's taking it race by race.

"I don't have any real goals," Stuart said. "We just work from week to week."

He'll be running somewhere next year after he graduates from Lake Mary. Stuart is a 3.3 grade point average student who is looking at all of the big Florida schools as well as UCLA.

For now, though, Stuart is just concerned with a championship for himself and his teammates.

LAKE MARY _ A stellar offensive line made the difference for Lake Brantley on Thursday night at Don T. Reynolds Stadium.

Lake Brantley defeated host Lake Mary in junior varsity football action, 24-13.

With the Patriots leading 6-0 in the second quarter, Lake Mary running back Corey Jackson scored from eight yards out. They were unable to take the lead, however, as the extra point went wide.

On Lake Brantley's next possession, quarterback Taylor Ramsaur threw a perfect spiral down field to wide receiver John Shaw. Shaw caught the long pass and sprinted the rest of the way to the end zone for a 59 yard touchdown reception.

The Patriois also missed their extra point, and the score stood at 12-6 Lake Brantley. A Lake Brantley tacider (No. 32) brings down Lake Mary running back Corey Jackson during the Patriots' to avoid the tyranny of work.

Game two was a bit easier. The Rams charged out to a 3-0 lead and were up 13-3 before Seminole got on a run to make it close before Harbour's slam off a Jackie Van Looven set gave Lake Mary the match.

The scale consists of our words: Be a person; then a partner; next, a parent; and finally, a producer.

First, be a real person, a fulfilled human being who has become a new creature in Jesus Christ and who is developing toward spiritual maturity.

Then, be a partner. When you marry someone, you become one flesh. If work interferes and disrupts that relationship, then work is as much an enemy as heroin.

Next, be a parent. Your children are uniquely yours -God's gift to you. Don't permit addiction to work to cause you to lose them or scar their lives. Then, the final priority is produce at your profession or work. By all means, be the best worker possible. But you'll bring you best to your work when you are the master of your job, not letting the job be the master of you. (II Thes. 3:10; Luke 10:7)

In this matter the Word of God counsels a healthy, balanced outlook: honest work to the glory of God, not work as the ruthless dictator of your destiny. (Col. 3:17)

Such an ideal can be reality only if Jesus Christ is at the Right now, where you are, you r can admit your sin and need a and you can trust Him as your d Savior and Lord.

His call this past Labor Day is unchanged: "Come to me and I will give you rest - all of you who work so hard beneath a heavy yoke." (Matthew 11:28, Living Bible paraphrase)
