Arlene Up To Hurricane Again

Storm 675 Miles East Of Daytona

MIAMI (UPI) — Arlene, 1963's first tropical storm, regained hurricane strength of 75 mile an hour winds today in the Atlantic southwest of Bermuda.

The weather bureau said it expected the off-again-on-again storm to pass slightly to the northwest of Bermuda Friday morning.

The storm's center was located at 11 a.m. EST (noon EDT) about 330 miles southwest of the British resort island, near latitude 28.9 north, longitude 69.3 west. This was about 675 miles east of Daytona Beach, Fla.

Arlene's forward movement had slowed to six m.p.h. this morning, but forecasters predicted it would pick up speed on its northeasterly course to about 12 m.p.h. later today. A slight increase in size and intensity also was expected.

Highest winds at midday were 75 m.p.h. near the center.

The capricious tropical storm packed 100 m.p.h. winds when first discovered last week. Last Sunday it threatened the Leeward Islands but never hit. It died down later to top winds of 35 m.p.h., built up again to 50 m.p.h. force then all but died out yesterday.

The open Atlantic for the second time last night and early today.

The weather bureau warned small craft around Bermuda to remain in safe harbor and all shipping interests to exercise caution.

Air Force hurricane hunter planes were keeping constant watch on the hurricane.

THESE PEAPICKIN' ROTARIANS know a good thing when they see it, and are offering the public a chance to get in on it. This ten acre Chase and Co. field of peas will be thrown open Saturday for a pick-your-own jambovie. Proceeds will go toward the furnishing of the new

Escalator Kills Father, Daughter

CAMDEN, N. J. (UPI) — A Camden State Park employee and his 10-year-old daughter were crushed to death in an escalator Wednesday as he showed the child around the race track in nearby Cherry Hill Township.

The victim, John P. Sweeney, 56, Maple Shade, and his daughter, Margaret, were killed in the malfunction of the clubhouse section after riding the escalator up from the ground floor.

Camden County Coroner Jules Shushausser said the girl fell head first into an opening at the top of the moving stairs where a floor plate had been removed by a workman to make adjustments. The workman was away at the time.

The child's body was crushed between the casing and the stairs.

Her father went into the opening feet first in an attempt to rescue her.

His body was pulled into the mechanism and he was crushed to death.

Randall Chase, head of Chase and Company, who is also a member of the Rotary Club, has thrown open this ten acre field of peas, just three blocks east of Mellonville Ave. on Celery Ave., so that you can pick all you want for $1.50 a bushel.

Rotarians will be at check-out stations from 7 to 10 p.m. and from 3 p.m. until dark, Saturday to take the money.

All proceeds of the pea-picking will go toward the furnishing of the new pediatric (children's) wing of Seminole Memorial Hospital.

The Rotary Club has undertaken the furnishing of the wing as its project for the year and the pea-picking is the first fund-raising venture.

"This is a project which will be of benefit to every one in the county as we work toward getting this children's ward open at the hospital," said Mayor Tom McDonald, who is chairman of the committee.

"I always knew Rotarians were full of peas!" he quipped.

Sanford, Jax In Little League Finals Tonight

Finals Tonight

Sanford All-Stars are one game away from the Little League state championship, having knocked down Cantonment of Pensacola 9-8 in a wild seven-inning game Wednesday evening at Panama City.

Sanford faces Jacksonville at 8 tonight for the state championship.

Sanford was leading 6-8 in the top of the sixth when Cantonment got two men on and then belted a home run to tie it up at 6-6. That was when Miller left the game.

Cantonment got one man on first on a wild throw in the seventh and then Cantonment's Robert Jackson slammed out a homer to make it 6-8.

At the bottom of the seventh, Sanford's Bill Schmidt reached first on an error. John Hunt singled to right. Loyd followed with a hit to drive in two runs and tie the score. Cecil Simpson, the catcher, wrapped up the game for Sanford with a hit to drive in the winning run and give Sanford the victory.

Former Florida Candidate Slain; Wife Is Held

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Heron Schoepf, Sr., a prominent Tampa who once ran for governor, was found fatally injured in his bedroom Wednesday and died 12 hours later at a hospital.

His wife, found at the top of the stairs with a bloody ax in her hand, was held for investigation of murder. She was hospitalized in good condition for treatment of a head injury.

Mrs. Schoepf told police she broke down the door of her 72-year-old husband's bedroom after he locked her out, but said his fatal injuries came from a fall when she pushed him.

Police, however, said the cuts on Schoepf's head were "apparently from a chopping action." Schoepf was an unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1940.

Mrs. Schoepf, 61, told police her husband argued with her because she was drinking, then struck her in the head with a baseball bat.

She said she left the house and went to see an aunt, but returned later.

Schoepf had locked the door, as she broke it down with a hammer, she told police. She said she then "talked ugly" to him and started "pushing him around," police said.

OAS Asks Haiti To Prove Charge

OAS Asks Haiti To Prove Charge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Organization of American States (OAS) has asked Haiti to prove its charge that the Dominican Republic aided the rebel attack against the Duvalier regime.

A special commission of the OAS decided after a lengthy private meeting Wednesday that it did not have enough information on the three-day-old invasion to reach a decision on what action should be taken.

A Haitian embassy source here reported that his government was airlifting troops to northern Haiti to attack the rebels.

On the other hand, Roger Liguat, a top exile leader, told a news conference that anti-Duvalier insurgents had won control of a large area and were being joined by peasants and army deserters.

The special OAS commission is planning to meet with Dominican representatives but the Dominican government has flatly denied any implication in the anti-Duvalier attack.

Haiti Invasion Claims At Odds

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (UPI) — The outcome of an invasion of Haiti by about 300 Haitian exiles remained in doubt today. The Haitian government said it had crushed the invasion but exile spokesmen said the rebel movement was growing.

The government of Haitian President Francois Duvalier issued a statement in Port au Prince Wednesday claiming it had smashed the invading force and driven the remnants into the sea and back across the Dominican border.

Exile spokesmen in Santo Domingo termed the government "completely false" and "pure propaganda."

DR. JOHN DARBY was elected president of the Kiwanis Club Wednesday; Gordon Meyer was elected first vice president and Bill Frausa as second vice president. O. M. Harrison and N. V. Farmer will retain the positions of treasurer and secretary. The new officials will not take office until 1964.

Phone Strike Talk Held

TAMPA (UPI) — Union and company officials were to meet with Mayor Julian C. Lane today to discuss the bitter 20-day-old General Telephone Co. strike.

Lane also asked the city attorney, police chief and representatives of the state Public Utilities Commission to attend the 11 a.m. meeting.

Acts of sabotage against General property is apparently on the decline in the face of stepped-up enforcement by city and county law officers.

Kennedy Baby's Ailment Told

BOSTON (UPI) — The son born Wednesday to President and Mrs. Kennedy was suffering from what doctors described as idiopathic respiratory disease syndrome.

In layman's language this means that the infant is having trouble breathing because of a film on the lungs. Officials said this ailment often occurs in premature babies delivered by Caesarean section.

Bombing Champions At NAS Announced

Sanford's Heavy Attack Squadron 9 and a pilot and bombardier-navigator from VAH-11's Detachment 8 gathered top honors in the Heavy Attack Wing I fiscal 1963 bombing results released for publication today.

In winning the coveted training championship, VAH-9

Bombardier standings were similarly dominated by VAH-9, except for first and third places:

Lt. Tom Markley of VAH-9 placed second and Lt. Cdr. Ernie D. Carson of VAH-11, Detachment 8, third. The next nine places, all won by VAH-9, went to: Lt. (jg) Pat Kear, A-1 George Bera, Lt. Cdr. Charlie Jasper, Lt. John McCracken Jr., AT1 Art Critzer, Lt. John Moynihan, AT1 Ernie Odel, Lt. Dick Wing and Lt. (jg) Andy Reno.

Final standings are derived from results of competitive exercises such as monthly bomber streams, total number of bombing runs and overall bombing accuracy.

The fiscal 1963 results showed all of Heavy Attack Wing I made twice as many bombing runs as fiscal 1962, leading to substantial increases in bombing accuracy. This was accomplished with no increase in cost or flight hours.

Winning "Pilot of the Year" laurels was Cdr. Robert deLorenzi, who was officer-in-charge of VAH-11, Detachment 8, until being relieved in June by Cdr. Frederick Carment.

A Detachment 8 bombardier navigator, First Class Jet Mechanic Clark D. Arrington, won "Champion Bombardier" honors.

Permanent trophies will be presented to the winners later in the year by Wing Commander Capt. James O. Mayo.

Another Detachment 8 pilot, Lt. Nick Nichols, was a close second in individual standings. The remainder of the laurels belonged to VAH-9, which won the next 10 positions.

Cdr. James L. Shipman, commanding officer of VAH-9, placed third; Lt. Ivan Lewis, flew more practice bombing runs than any other Wing squadron in history. The squadron is currently in the midst of a deployment aboard the USS Saratoga with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Men who gave their second pint were Parker Shelton, Lloyd Watrous, James Wright, Charles Robinson, John Robinson and Leroy Crawford.

Coming in for the first time to the Seminole County Blood Bank were Herbert Knight, Roy Karriker, Lewis Carter, William Daniels, Horace Durance, David Coardes, Adrian Grindley, Jr., Ned Julian, Jr., C. ## Milk Fair Trade Ruling Delayed

ORLANDO (UPI) — The Milk Commission postponed final action Tuesday on a proposed fair trade practices order to prevent distributors from selling milk products below cost.

Action on the order, which would put the commission in a position to set minimum costs for milk products, was delayed until the commission's next meeting here, tentatively set for Sept. 10.

The proposed order would require milk producers to file with the commission the cost of producing their different products.

War Deterrents Stops Enemies, Kiwanians Told

The Strategic Air Command and the Navy's Polaris missile submarines are the backbone of the United States' war deterrent, believes Lt. Col. David D. Chacey, commander of the 306th Airborne Missile Maintenance Squadron at McCoy AFB.

Colonel Chacey, speaking to the Sanford Kiwanis Club, Wednesday said that enemies of this country may well be wary, knowing that many SAC planes are in the sky at all times and Polaris submarines cruise the oceans of the world, both ready to strike at a moment's notice.

McCoy Air Force Base now has one of the two missile squadrons in the United States," Chacey said, "the other being at Homestead Air Force Base." Colonel Chacey is the commander of the McCoy based squadron. "Daily practice at hitting our planned and programmed targets keep the 250,000 officers and men and the 2,000 planes of SAC constantly alert, with approximately one-eighth of the planes and crews in the air at all times," the commander said.

Refueling systems which can be used in any kind of weather anywhere in the world permit SAC planes to fly around the world and back and remain aloft 23 hours or more, he said. The huge tanker planes can refuel the SAC B-52 bombers with 120,000 gallons of fuel in 10 minutes, he added. Colonel Chacey praised the Minuteman missile, which is now being perfected saying that it requires only half the operations of the other missiles and has almost no maintenance and refueling problems.

"It can be loaded and fueled, made ready to go and then set aside for a year and it will still be ready for instant take-off," he said. The Minuteman missile is still undergoing tests, however, to improve its efficiency.

Present command and control systems provide an almost foolproof system of defense, the Colonel said.

With a network of worldwide communications, underground command post control forces, airborne communications alternate command, all eventualities are foreseen.

He described the KC-135 Airborne Command plane, which remains aloft at all times. In the event that attack should knock out the presidential command post, the underground command post at Omaha and the two back-up command posts (unidentified) the airborne command would be ready at a moment's notice to take over the command.

In the KC-135 command planes are all the maps, information, equipment and men necessary to maintain command of the situation. Off-duty crews live and sleep in their planes, and one plane remains in the air at all times, with relief planes airborne before the incoming plane lands.

Colonel Chacey referred frequently to the Red Phone, which is the direct communications system for air alerts, and commented the movie, "A Gathering of Eagles" as giving a "pretty good picture" of the work and responsibilities of the Strategic Air Command and the men who operate it.

Good Samaritan Killed By Truck

BUNNELL (UPI) — Ralph Van Dime, 67, of DeLand, was killed Tuesday when he stopped to help a motorist, and a truck smashed into the back of his car near here.

His wife, Eleanor, 61, suffered multiple burns in the wreck and was listed in fair condition. Van Dime burned to death.

The truck driver, Henry Junior Deen, 36, of Jacksonville, pulled the woman from the wreck, but the heat kept him from getting to Van Dime. He was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control.

Like that of other vertebrates, human blood has the same ratio of dissolved salts as ocean water, but in lower concentration.

Runoff Contest On TFX Studied

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Karl E. Mundt, (R-S.D.), said today that a plan for a runoff competition for the TFX-fighter plane contract was being given "some thought" by the Senate investigators.

Under the proposal, General Dynamics Corporation and the Boeing Corporation would build four prototype planes each. The best one would win the competition and the contract for its company.

However, Mundt said the idea was not "finalized," but was "among these possible recommendations" considered by a subcommittee investigating the controversy over the contract.

Mundt said he had received a lot of favorable mail on the idea.

He has so far rejected any proposal for a winner-take-all competition on the supersonic fighter.

The initial research contract was awarded to the General Dynamics Company

Job Training Fund Tripled

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The first important congressional civil rights triumph is over, but it may be weeks before the real winner is known.

On the record, the House rejected an anti-discrimination amendment to a vocational education bill Tuesday and then went on to pass overwhelmingly the measure which more than triples federal aid for job training in the schools.

The House passed the vocational educational education bill 377-21 after killing the civil rights amendment, 217-181. Only 24 Democrats, all Northern liberals, joined 157 Republicans in the losing cause. Six Republicans voted with 211 Democrats against the amendment.

Roy Nichols To Be Feted

Mrs. Mildred Babcock and several members of the Seminole Art Association will be hosts Sunday at the DeBary Mansion in DeBary to a reception for Roy Nichols, last of the group of artists who have been conducting a summer art institute and workshop there.

Joining Mrs. Babcock, a past president of the Art Association and a retired public school art teacher, will be Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mathieux, Mrs. George Dodson, Mrs. J. O. Gregory and Mrs. Mary Knox.

Art students have come from all over Florida to study at the summer school during the past nine weeks since the school began on June 16. The school has been sponsored by the Florida Federation of Art, Inc.

The reception for Nichols will be held from 2 to 4:30 p.m. and the general public and art students are invited to attend.

New York School Head Slaps Tight Ban On Religious Exercises

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI) — Dr. James E. Allen Jr., state education commissioner, today directed school districts to refrain from daily religious exercises, "even to what is sometimes referred to as 'voluntary' action by pupils."

The directive reinforced Allen's already stated determination to abide by the U. S. Supreme Court decision on religious exercises in public schools.

At the same time, the commissioner urged the state's public schools to give renewed emphasis on teaching moral and spiritual values.

"Our young people need today as never before," Allen said, "to acquire the inner strength that comes from knowledge and understanding of these values."

The ruling came on an appeal by parents of students in the Levittown Union Free School District No. 5 on Long Island.

The local Board of Education on Sept. 4, 1962 adopted a resolution that each school day begin with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag followed by "reading or recitation of an appropriate excerpt from the Bible . . . singing of the fourth stanza of 'America' or . . . an excerpt from the Declaration of Independence or other historical document significant to our national and spiritual heritage."

Allen said it was apparent that the Levittown board "deliberately set out to evade the constitutional prohibition against daily religious exercises in public schools" by providing a list of alternative exercises.

He said it was only the daily morning devotional exercises that the Supreme Court decision and his own were concerned with.

Allen said he dismissed an appeal against use of the Pledge of Allegiance because the Supreme Court had not been called upon to decide its constitutionality. However, he said the New York Court of Appeals was presently considering the words "Under God" in the pledge were unconstitutional.

In June, 1962, the Supreme Court declared unconstitutional a prayer written by the state Board of Regents. Two months later Commissioner Allen ruled that a stanza of the "Star-Spangled Banner" designated a prayer by a local district—also was unconstitutional.

In a letter accompanying copies of the Levittown decision to school districts across the state, Allen said the ways and means that public schools can supply moral and spiritual teaching are many and varied.

"They are found in the study of history, literature and art," he said, "and in all subjects in which the great religions have played a strong part in the shaping of aspirations and growth."

16 - Picture The Shot

Using the driver, play the ball off the left heel.

Be sure the arms are in a comfortable and natural position.

The club actually must resemble and be considered as an extension of the arms.

Make certain the feet are properly placed, with equal weight distribution, and the toes pointed slightly outward to add balance.

Check the grip before assuming the stance.

Look down the fairway and make a mental picture of the shot. You have griped the club but have not soled it behind the ball.

After taking only a few practice swings, you will discover your strokes with this long club is more of a sweeping motion than was your hit-down-and-through arc with the iron. Due to the added loft of the medium iron, you actually were developing a down-and-through motion even though concentrating on merely hitting the ball solidly, with the clubhead doing the work.

Also due to the added length, the driver drags along the ground on your backswing a little longer than it did with shorter-shafted medium irons.

Swing the driver as fast as you can and still maintain timing and rhythm. Speed adds distance to your shot, but don't sacrifice harmony in your pattern just to develop a fast swing.

Pivot with a natural rhythm. Remember that this regulates the speed of the swing.

It is just as fatal to under swing as to over swing.

Not only will you keep the driver low to the ground longer than you did the medium iron, but you will also take it back farther due to the added length. The driver should be practically parallel to the ground at the top of your backswing, whereas your medium iron was in more of an upright position.

The downswing is executed in much the same manner as with the medium iron. Owing to the difference in the loft of the club, the driver will hit the ball more squarely and pick it off the turf cleaner. The iron shot becomes more of a matter of pinching the ball in between the lofted club and the turf.

Koufax Adds 2 More Strikeout Marks To List

By United Press International

Chalk up two more strikeout records for Los Angeles fireballer Sandy Koufax today.

Koufax struck out 11 batters in the Dodger's 3-1, 11-inning triumph over the Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

Koufax's 11-strikeouts lifted his season total to 210 in 213 innings and made him the first National League left-hander to record three consecutive 200-strikeout seasons. It also was a league record 48th time in which he has struck out 10 or more batters in a game.

Koufax turned over a tie game to relief ace Ron Perzanowski and the latter gained his 11th win of the season when the Dodgers came up with two runs in the 11th inning on Tommy Davis' homer, singles by Willie Davis and Al Ferrara and an error by Ellis Burton.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to increase their NL lead to six games when the Houston Colts topped the San Francisco Giants, 1-0, and the New York Mets surprised the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-3.

Eagles Put Florida End On Waver List

By United Press International

The Philadelphia Eagles placed Frank Budd on waivers today along with Bill Johnson, an end from Florida A&M. Budd was used sparingly as a flanker back by the Eagles in his first pro season last year.

The National Football League's exhibition season gets underway tonight when the Dallas Cowboys oppose the Los Angeles Rams in a charity game at Los Angeles.

The place-kicking department, perhaps the Green Bay Packers only weak spot, may be solved by Willie Wood, a defensive halfback. Wood was connecting from 45 yards out Wednesday.

Glynn Griffing, the New York Giants' rookie quarterback from Mississippi, was reported "making good progress" with the Giants.

Coach Bill McPeak of the Washington Redskins had reason to smile when Pat Richter, the rookie end from Wisconsin, averaged nearly 46 yards on 13 punts.

The Cleveland Browns, pointing toward Saturday night's game with the Detroit Lions, had a longer work-out than usual.

Raymond Berry, star split end, shined on offense for the Baltimore Colts but the Colt defense stole the show for the first time since the camp opened.

Paul Flatley, rookie flanker from Northwestern, will be the only first year man to start on the Minnesota Viking's offensive unit in Saturday's game with the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

Ambitious Ambidexter

CHICAGO (NEA) — The amazing thing about Terry Baker is that if some over-zealous ape inflicts muscular damage on his left, or passing arm, he might still be making a living with his right, or throwing arm.

That's not a contradiction. In football uniform, he's a southpaw and the future quarterback of the Los Angeles Rams. Put him in baseball duds on the pitcher's mound, and he's as orthodox in his motion as President Kennedy throwing out the first ball.

As the No. 1 draft signee of the National Football League (not to mention the fact he was also coveted by the American Football League), Baker's choice of career merits some attention.

He could have played pro basketball. When he got through striking out high school batters, he could have tucked a 10-grand bonus in his socks instead of pursuing higher education at Oregon State. Instead, he'll collect something like $100,000 over the next three years from the Los Angeles Rams.

And he might not do much to earn it, for traditionally a fledgling quarterback is nursed carefully in professional football.

Baseball got sidetracked because once Terry got immersed in the routine of varsity football, with its heavy time demands in the spring, he had no time to perfect his pitching talents.

"I'm not sure I was much good, either," he shrugs. "After my junior year, I knew it was going to be pro football and I concentrated on having a good senior season."

He concentrated so hard he straw thatched roof may last as long as 60 years.

TERRY BAKER

won the Heisman Award as the finest collegian in the country.

The fact that only one left-handed passer has ever really made it in pro ball—Frankie Albert, the original T-quarterback—doesn't discourage a kid with the built-in confidence and poise of Baker, though he acknowledges the skeptics with a wan smile.

Terry wasn't the only rookie sweating out late summer in shoulder pads who had to choose between baseball and football.

End Pat Richter of Wisconsin, the top signee of the Washington Redskins, made the greatest throw from the outfield ever seen by the savants at Northwestern last spring, and he added a plus—that is, a plus .300 batting average. The Minnesota Twins brought him up for a look-see but couldn't have been too ecstatic about his slugging possibilities because they offered him only $8,000, and you know he got at least three times that for signing with the Skins.

Denver of the AFL, which also had Richter on its bargaining list, presented an intriguing package deal—catch passes for the Broncos in the fall, hit homers for the Bears in the spring under the same ownership. "But," argued Richter, "you got no passer like Norm Snead to throw to me."

Besides, Richter was heard to lament, standing around in the outfield between pitches gets kind of boring and pales beside the excitement of getting knocked rear-over-testicle by a blindside tackle.

Of course, don't ignore the money aspect. Richter and Baker both figure to cash in a lot quicker from their football reputations.

International Stars Eye Yankee Victory

NEW YORK (UPI) — The International League may have found a way to beat the New York Yankees when the IL All-Stars play the world champions at Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 19.

The answer is simply to play five outfielders. Although the Stars are unlikely to resort to this strategy, five outfielders were named to the starting unit of the All-Stars squad announced Wednesday by IL President Tommy Richardson.

Sam Bowens of Rochester and Bob Burda of Columbus won the first two outfield berths with eight and six votes respectively, but three other ballhaws — Richie Allen of Arkansas, Lou Johnson of Syracuse, and Gene Stephens of Indianapolis — tied for the third spot with four votes a piece. Johnson is the only repeater from last year's team.

The voting was done by the league's 10 managers, none of whom are allowed to choose their own players. Under this system only one player was a unanimous selection (nine votes) — catcher Jim Coker of the Toronto Maple Leafs. Coker is the league's leading hitter.

Indianapolis, the top team in the Southern Division, placed three men on the 12 man squad. In addition to Stephens, other Indians named to the starting team were third baseman Don Buford and righthanded pitcher Fritz Ackley, whose 14 wins in 17 decisions brought him five votes.

Arkansas also placed southpaw hurler Billy Smith (11-9) on the squad. Smith Barley edged Willie Smith (9-2) of Syracuse for the spot, four votes to three.

The other three members are: First baseman Buddy Baker of Jacksonville, second baseman Pedro Gonzalez of Richmond, and shortstop Jerry Buchek of Atlanta. Buffalo was the only team without a representative.

Snider Gets Award

NEW YORK (UPI) — Outfielder Duke Snider will receive a Catholic Youth Organization award as the most popular New York Met player before tonight's game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Groat Prefers Series Play To Batting Honors

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dick Groat, the National League batting leader, says he'd gladly sacrifice the title to play in the World Series this year.

"Maybe that sounds corny, but I mean it with all my heart," said the St. Louis Cardinals' shortstop, who won his first NL title with a .325 mark in 1960 and appears on his way to a second one now with a .341 figure.

"Winning the batting championship is quite an honor," Groat agreed. "It isn't everything though. One thing every ball player looks forward to is playing in a World Series. That's the epitome of baseball."

In an era of long ball hitters, the skinny 23-year-old Groat is quite content to let others shoot for the fences while he grinds out his usual singles and doubles.

Groat has only 36 homers to show for 10 major league seasons but it doesn't bother him. He hit his sixth of the year Wednesday during a 7-3 loss to the Mets and it was something of a cheapie, the ball hitting the left field facade at the Polo Grounds not much more than 200 feet from home plate.

"It will take a real hot August and September by a team to catch the Dodgers and I think our club has the hitting to do it," Groat said. "Remember every club in our league has had a bad losing streak except Los Angeles. The Dodgers could have theirs during the next few weeks. They did last year."

Groat, who played in his first and only World Series with the Pirates in 1960, concedes it will be hard for the Dodgers to go into prolonged losing streak with such pitchers as Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale, Johnny Podres and Don Ferraro.

"Right there are four of the best pitchers around," he said. "I'd have to say Drysdale is the toughest pitcher I ever faced since coming to the big leagues."

Riders Sign Taylor

OTTAWA (UPI) — Halfback Joe Taylor, cut by the New York Giants Tuesday, has joined the Ottawa Rough Riders. Ottawa coach Frank Clair said Wednesday the former North Carolina A&T star will be given a crack at one of the club's offensive half-back positions.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Major and minor league officials were scheduled to meet today in what baseball Commissioner Ford Frick described as "routine meeting devoted to discussion of almost everything that affects us."

"I intend to tackle a wide variety of subjects," he said, "including the possibility of the majors and minors getting together in a combined or adjacent headquarters."

Homemakers Corner

By Mrs. E. L. Johnson

Good afternoon. It can be PEAR TIME all the time. Even tho the pear crops come but once a year, and a bumper crop not that often. Now is the time to provide your family with luscious pear pies, cobbiers, salads, fruit cups, preserves, pickles, relishes and the many other tasty products the pear is suited to - long after the last fruit has disappeared from the trees. Here are several ways to do it.

Canned Pears
 1. Wash, pare and cut into halves, core and then slice if desired.
 2. Drop as cored into a large container of clear water to which 2 tbsps. of vinegar or 1 tsp. salt has been added to prevent darkening of fruit.
 3. When fruit is ready to pre-cook, drain and drop into a thin or medium syrup and cook 5 to 8 minutes.
 4. Pack the fruit in hot sterile jars, firmly and attractively.
 5. Add strained syrup (hot) as jar is packed.
 6. Process in water bath, pints 8 to 10 minutes and quarts 10 to 20 minutes.
 7. A thin syrup is made by adding 1/2 cup sugar to 2 cups water, and a medium syrup by adding 1 cup sugar to 2 cups water. In making syrup, a mild honey may be substituted for 1/4 the sugar and will give the product a very interesting flavor.

Pear Mince Meat
 2 dozen large hard pears
 6 cups sugar
 3 lemons
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1 teas. salt
 1 teas. cinnamon
 1 teas. cloves
 1 teas. grated nutmeg
 1. Grind pears with coarse blade of food chopper.
 2. Grind lemon rind after squeezing juice out.
 3. Combine all ingredients including lemon juice and cook until mixture is thick and tender.
 4. Pour hot into sterile jars and seal. Process 10 minutes in boiling water bath.

Pear Preserves
 1. Wash pare and core pears. They may be preserved whole, in halves or in quarters.
 2. For medium sized pears make a syrup of 2 cups sugar, 2 cups of water and 1 lemon sliced very thin.
 3. Boil the sugar and water for 5 minutes.
 4. Add the pears and the lemon and cool until the pears are clear and transparent and the syrup is of a thick consistency.
 5. A few cloves or stick of cinnamon may be added for flavor, when the syrup is made.
 6. Pack pears into sterile jars and seal. Process for 8 minutes in a boiling water bath. Pears are better suited to canning than to freezing, because unlike all other fruits they must be pre-cooked and then completely

Peach Custard Cake
 1 1/2 cups flour
 1/2 teas. salt
 1/2 cup soft butter
 Mix these ingredients with two knives till well blended. With back of spoon, press mixture firmly on bottom and half way up sides of a buttered 8 inch square pan. 1 large can sliced peaches 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 teas. cinnamon
 Drain peaches, saving one-half cup of the syrup. Arrange slices on crust on pan. Mix sugar and cinnamon together and sprinkle over peaches. Bake in 375 degree oven for 20 minutes.
 1/2 cup peach syrup

Peach Preserves
 5 lbs. peaches, peeled and sliced 1/2 inch thick
 7 cups sugar
 6 cups water
 5 peach kernels
 Method:
 1. Dissolve sugar in water in a 4-gallon kettle and place on range to boil.
 2. Peel peaches, slice 3/8 inch thick in uniform pieces.
 3. Add sliced peaches and kernels to the boiling syrup. Cook rapidly in the uncovered bottle until peaches are clear when lifted from the syrup. Stirring during the latter part of cooking is necessary to prevent scorching.

 4. Remove from heat and pour into a shallow dish or enamel pan. Skim off foam. (back of spoon works good).
 5. Cover container with a clean, thin cloth and allow to set overnight.
 6. Pack in hot pre-beated jars, remove air bubbles, wipe mouth of jar with a clean damp cloth and adjust lid.
 7. Process in a boiling water bath canner at simmering temperature for 15 minutes.

Lets be sure and try this one real soon. It's Oven-Fried Hawaiian Chicken
 According to Mrs. Catherine C. Laughton, a native of Oregon this recipe is the outgrowth of two things. A preference for the oven-fried method of cooking chicken and a fondness for the flavoring of Teriyaki. If not authentic from the famous Islands, the recipe certainly is Hawaiian-inspired and popular with the Oregon "natives."
 1. Fry chicken (2 1/2-3 1/2 lbs.) cut in pieces
 1/4 cup soy sauce
 1/2 tsp. grated onion
 1/2 teas. ground ginger
 1/4 cup cornstarch
 1/4 cup (1/4 stick) margarine
 2 1/2 cups pineapple chunks (1 lb. 4 oz. can)
 2 tbsps. lemon juice

Place chicken pieces in large bowl. Combine soy sauce, onion, and ginger; pour over chicken. Let stand at least 30 minutes, turning chicken to coat all sides. Drain chicken and coat with cornstarch, reserve sauce. Place margarine in a large shallow baking pan. Set oven at 425 degrees and set in margarine until melted. Place chicken in pan, skin side down making sure pieces do not overlap. Bake 30 minutes, or until bottom is well-browned. Turn chicken over. Combine pineapple, pineapple liquid, lemon juice and reserved sauce, pour over chicken. Bake 15-20 minutes or until tender. Makes 4 servings.

Here is a mouth watering cake recipe from the Home demonstration office.

Auxiliary Enjoys Cook-Out

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Campbell Loring Post 63, American Legion, were treated to a most enjoyable evening when they attended a cook-out at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hunter.

Highlight of the dinner was Mrs. Hunter's specialty of the evening, "Tunaburgers." All who sampled them immediately wanted the recipe to add to their cook books.

Other items on the menu included hamburgers, salads, baked beans, vegetables, tea and for dessert, pineapple upside-down cake.

Following the dinner a variety of games was enjoyed by the group. The ladies rummaged through their purses in a scavenger hunt. Mrs. John P. Benton was the winner of this event and was awarded a lovely pair of earrings.

Mrs. John F. Benton won a sparkling nylon wind bonnet as her prize for an "on the head" sketch of some Florida real estate. Other prizes were won by Mrs. Nancy Nordstrom, a new member from Casselberry and by Mrs. Joel Field.

All members agreed that it was such a successful evening it must be repeated. In fact the only business voted on at the meeting was a unanimous "yes" in favor of holding another "dinner" preceding the September meeting.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been working for Mr. and Mrs. Smith for two weeks. I take care of their two children. I am almost 17. My problem is Mr. Smith. He is always trying to get me alone to kiss me. He told me he has no romantic interest me, he just wants to kiss me. This man is old enough to be my father. His wife knows nothing of this and I am sure it would hurt her to find out. I can't tell my parents because they would make me quit, and I need the money for school in the fall. I am really afraid and don't know what to do. NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: Quit your job and go home. Tell your parents the reason for quitting, and let THEM tell Mrs. Smith. She may be "hurt" to learn that her husband is either sick or lecherous, but covering it up could be a disaster for the next young girl she hires to care for her children.

DEAR ABBY: A few weeks ago I invited some friends over for a Sunday supper. They accepted a week prior to the day. So on Sunday morning I proceeded to prepare for the dinner. At exactly the moment they were to arrive we received a telephone call from them saying "company had dropped in" and they were unable to come. Having thawed out nine T-bone steaks, made two apple pies, besides French fries and onion rings and salads, I was a bit miffed to say the least. Do you think they had a legitimate reason for disappointing us that way? Or were they wrong? CURIOUS

DEAR ABBY: In romance stories I notice that when a man proposes to his lady he takes the engagement ring along with him. After the girl says yes he slips the ring on her finger and they are engaged. What I can't figure out is how the man finds out the lady's finger size without her getting wise to what he's up to. ZM

DEAR NO: In "romance" stories the girl always says yes, the ring always fits and they live happily ever after. In modern times, the man asks the girl for her hand first. If she wants to give it to him, she starts with her finger, which the jeweler measures for the ring size, and they select the ring together.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "D": Since you can read your husband "like a book", why don't you skip what you don't like in him, as you do in a book? Your life's story will then have a happier ending.

Tell your troubles to Abby. For a personal, unpublished reply, please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Getting married? For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding", send 50 cents to Abby.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

When you should open the bidding, but elect to pass the chances are that you will never be able to make up for the error. Even if a second chance is offered, the time you passes an opening hand is not likely to make the right decision later on. East only had 11 points in high cards, but he had a nice six card spade suit and a fine two ailer. An opening bid was clearly called for, but he passed.

West's double of the opening club bid was shaded, but West had played with East before and knew that East was an underbidder. East did pull himself together and go to four spades after North pre-empted with four clubs. Of course, an aggressive player might have bid five clubs right over four and tried for a slam, but as we have already noted, East was far from aggressive.

After South went to five clubs West could find no excuse for anything but a pass. Of course East should have tried a five heart bid. But East had made one bid with his hand and, feeling that he had done his full duty he passed.

This put it up to West to lead and West planked down the ace of spades. South ruffed in dummy, drew trumps, discarded one heart on the king of spades and claimed his contract. A really good result because East could make six spades.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

A businessman asks that I advise wives to stop calling their husbands during office hours unless they have an important reason for doing so. "My wife," he writes, "telephones me at work several times a day, often simply to chat. "And if she happens to be downtown shopping she'll call me up to ask whether or not she ought to buy something she is going to buy, no matter what I say. "I can't ask her not to call me at the office. She'd resent that. But it isn't good business, and I don't see why wives don't understand that."

I'd be willing to bet it has been a long time since your wife worked in an office. Otherwise, she would realize that personal telephone calls during working hours are a nuisance. No man likes to have his associates think his wife can't let him alone during working hours.

Since she probably just doesn't realize that her telephone calls often do interrupt your work, why don't you try explaining it to her—even at the risk of hurt feelings? You might even promise that you'll call her once a day—when convenient—so that she will have a chance to tell you anything she wants to remind you of, or discuss with you.

If you're hesitant about following this advice, remember: it is usually kinder to be frank about an annoying situation than to put up with it resentfully.

WEATHER: Scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers through Saturday; high today in 90s; low tonight in 70s.
VOL. 53 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 FRI., AUGUST 9, 1963 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 774

Budget Needs Of Chamber Given Board

Seminole County economy took an upswing during the first quarter of 1963 when 600 new jobs were created in industry, bringing the total civilian labor employment to 13,500, it was reported by F. E. Roumillat Jr., president of the Chamber of Commerce, when he presented the Chamber's budget request to the County Commission Thursday.

Roumillat expanded his statement by adding the Florida Development Commission summary covering the last five years reveals 2,300 new industrial jobs in the county, with an estimated $9 million annual payroll.

"These are facts," Roumillat stated, "which unquestionably bear out the importance of the Chamber's program to work for diversification in the economy of our area."

The Chamber president also pointed out "two specific and very significant developments which were effected by this Chamber in the past year: The creation of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal District and the designation of the Sanford Naval Air Station as a permanent facility by the Navy Department. These two accomplishments, spearheaded by your Chamber of Commerce, resulted from years of co-ordinated effort by citizens of Seminole County."

Altamonte To Close Water Bond Contract

Closing transactions of Altamonte's $350,000 revenue bond sale to finance the town's new water system will take place Aug. 10 when Mayor Lawrence Swofford, Town Clerk James Palmer and the town attorney, S. J. Davis Jr., travel to Atlanta to deliver, in person, the signed bonds to the Government Housing Home and Finance Agency. Swofford spent most of the day Thursday signing the 350 bonds which are each of $1,000 denomination.

Addition of the new water system financing will see the town's annual budget hit an all time high of slightly more than $100,000, Swofford said today. However, no millage rate increase will be necessary since the system will pay its own way and the general operating budget will remain approximately the same as in the past year. Interest on the bonds will be paid from the cigarette sales tax fund.

President Carries Sad News To Wife

OTIS AFB, Mass. (UPI) — President Kennedy, red-eyed with grief over the loss of his two day old son, joined his wife Jacqueline here today to comfort her in their time of tragedy.

The President flew here by helicopter a few hours after Patrick Bouvier Kennedy died in a Boston hospital of a respiratory ailment. The President's face was swollen as he left the helicopter and literally leaped up the hospital steps. With him was his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

An hour and a half after the President arrived, press secretary Pierre Salinger said the chief executive had been alone with his wife for most of that time. Other family members had been with her at intervals. There was no indication whether Kennedy had called his wife to tell her of their sorrow before his arrival.

It was learned that Kennedy's brother Sen. Edward M. Kennedy was flying here to be with the first family. There was no way of knowing how Mrs. Kennedy, who had been making fine recovery from the Caesarean surgery, was taking the tragic blow.

The 34-year-old Mrs. Kennedy was making good progress in her recuperation from the Caesarean surgery. White House press secretary Pierre Salinger, in making the somber announcement of the child's death, said: "The struggle of the baby to keep breathing was too much for his heart."

Salinger said the child simply could not stand the strain put on his 17-inch-long body by the inability to breathe properly. A pressure chamber was the final effort by pediatricians to ease this burden and for a short time it seemed to be working. Arrangements are being made for the baby's funeral to be held Saturday, the White House said.
