Prof. Hanna, a history instructor, released this Capt. Nelson came from France, was an artillery officer, devoted to the rank of captain after two years of service, and that he "devoted his life to the cause of the army."

Mrs. Roland Ross, of Sanford, took several historical facts pertaining to Florida and showed how they furnish a romantic background for the State.

She told of 4-masted schooners riding anchor in Miami during the 1800s; the huge airplanes of Pan-American Airways ready to spring into the air and make two continents in an incredible short time; of the romantic atmosphere surrounding Tallahassee when Lafayette was given a land grant for his participation in the Revolutionary War.

Mrs. Dean said one of the high romantic points in Florida's past was the great struggle between Ribault of France and Menéndez of Spain for a foothold in the new world, particularly around St. Augustine.

She also introduced Mrs. J. N. Whitner, whose historical research provided the basis for much of the fascinating story of Melleoville and early Orange County.

Algernon Spear, a descendant of one of the pioneer families here, sketched briefly a history of some of the early settlers.

He said the first influx of the white race into this section probably was inspired in 1836 by Col. Fanning who commanded a detachment of troops on the site where Ft. Mellon was later erected.

Families poured into the vicinity for several years until the Civil War brought a temporary halt to immigration. Among those arriving here first were the families of City. Cowan, Brock, Munday,

500 Annual Dinner Changing Controversial Pioneers Lauded

After the Civil War another influx of families brought, among other families those of Humphrey, Caldwell and Whitner.

J. C. Chan, president of the Florida Historical Society, read a paper by his brother, H. C. Chan, relating some of the latter's personal contacts with Gen. Sanford.

The two met in 1878 and their relations were not severed until 1891 when Mr. Chan drove the general to a local wharf where he boarded a steamer for his old Connecticut hometown but died en route.

Mr. Chan told of Gen. Sanford's drift, of his involvement in the Singer Sewing Machine Company which later paid him as much as $50,000 per year. He also recalled the plans made by Gen. Sanford for this City, many of which he now recalled before his death.

Gen. Sanford, according to Mr. Chan, at one time attempted to buy 4,000,000 acres of land in Central Florida at 10 cents per acre but was defeated when a rival bid 25 cents per acre. Mr. Chan was the general's secretary.

T. E. Simpson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was the dinner's toastmaster. In brief remarks before introducing each of the speakers given to the pioneers such of the credit for the "re-naissance program" evidenced here.

Mayor Ed Higgins extended the official greetings of the City and in line with the ceremonial said he hoped "that some future generation will honor it with future ceremonial the names of some of those sitting here tonight."

Mrs. E. J. Robinson, chairman of Pioneers' Day activities, publicly thanked every person and individual who had part in making the ceremonial program a success.

Mrs. Sam Finkston, regent of the Galle Harrison Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, sponsors of the event, made a brief address in which she sketched the highlights of the City's history.

Film Fans Hate To Hate, Says Hollywood Villain

The set was brilliant with flowers and ornamental robes—the robes on the bride and bridegroom and the native priest, the flowers on the trees and shrubs, and garlands about the houses of color-bleached, black-haired hale girls.

The girls—and native men—were dressed in a circle, ready to be taken at the command of LeRoy Prinz, the dance director, and Frank Tuttle, the director. They were going into their dance and into other exotic matrimonial scenes of the island. Suddenly Prinz, seeing a woman in the circle, called out:

"Virginia! Virginia Hogan!"

"Coming" came from off-stage, followed by the slim form of a dark-skinned, black-haired girl who took her place in line.

Hogan in Hawaii? No, smiled Mrs. Louise Beamer, the technical advisor, tolerantly. That was make-up. Miss Hogan would be an Irish as her name.

In fact, continued Scotch-Irish-Hawaiian Mrs. Beamer, who has a school of the dance in Honolulu, and came over especially to "assist" on this film, there is just one native Hawaiian girl in the whole crowd: Mabel Keoloha, who lives here and dances in a night club. The others are all make-believe—for a sad but inevitable reason.

"Hawaiian girls won't do," said Mrs. Beamer, "because they begin to put on weight very early. Some of them are two-fingered eaters—a lady, you know, eats with one finger. The food is rich and fattening. Many of them don't care. We interviewed some 500 girls, but Mabel was the only full-blooded Hawaiian we could use."

Why then, I wanted to know, don't these some organization of native girls who would agree to keep in trim for picture careers? The answer was—movie cycles. There is no frequent demand for such types. When there is, all the studios want them at once. As now, when besides "Waikiki Wedding" there are the productions "Hurricane" and "Wings Over Honolulu" clamoring for both artists.

Another English picture—this one, "Fire Over England"—gives a time "Fire Over England"—gives a dollar a second.

Two Movements By Rebels Aid Fascist Cause

MADRID, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Fascism's offensive in Spain, aimed for more than three months, marched across two fronts today and seemingly took two long strides toward the domination of Spain.

Fascist leaders said it was the beginning of the end.

No matter how a security-restricted rebel army seized complete control of Malaga, second largest city of Spain, from the front outside of Madrid, since the announcement that the Madrid-Valencia road had been cut a few miles south of the City. That severed the main artery of supplies for Madrid and closed direct communication between this important capital and Valencia, western seat of the Socialist Government.

It also advanced the slow and difficult Fascist encirclement of Madrid.

Fascist leaders said the capture of Malaga would enable the southern army to join in an attack on Madrid and predicted the fall of this capital.

The Socialist Government denied Fascist claims of victory on the road to Valencia.

Hollywood an urge to invite back an actor it once had. His name is Lawrence Olivier, who with his wife Jill Esmond was here before.

Olivier does an emotional role in this political, romantic, sometime swashbuckling film about Queen Elizabeth and the Spanish Armada—and he does it with such telling effect upon ladies in the audience that a Hollywood bid is inevitable.

Shi insurance is the latest winner wrinkle. A British insurance firm will insure skin against break-up. Fire, theft and burglary for time "Fire Over England"—gives a dollar a second.

Sanford Firm Shows Error In Tax Suits

Stanley-Rogers Co. Declare Payment Of Obligations To Comptroller Lee

Ask Explanation At Tallahassee

Local Institution Backs Statement With Paid Checks

The Stanley-Rogers Hardware Company, one defendant in a local Circuit Court suit charging non-payment of the state sales tax, today asserted strongly that J. M. Lee, comptroller, was in error when he filed litigation against the firm.

P. C. Stanley, a member of the company, told the Herald in a letter dated Feb. 9, that "only yesterday we received a statement from our local bank and among our paid checks we find one to J. M. Lee covering our indebtedness for the month of December, and cashed by his office."

Mr. Stanley further asserted that "from the first day on which this law (requiring the payment of a gross sales tax) went into effect, we have conscientiously lived up to it in every particular. Each month we have remitted the amount due promptly and on time. Never once have we failed to do this."

The communication declared that "for the past several weeks we have had on display in our window a card, signed by Mr. Lee, vouching for the fact that this store pays its gross sales tax for the upkeep of our schools."

Mr. Stanley charged that he and his partner labored under a sense of unfairness and injustice as a result of the suit being filed against them.

"We do not know our rights in this matter, or whether we can look for any redress or not, yet we feel that Mr. Lee owes us an apology through our local paper," he said.

A communication went forward today to Lee asking for an explanation as to the act of Stanley-Rogers that could be considered grounds for the suit, it was reported.

Madrid Says New Danger Facing City

Fierce Fight Rages For Possession Of Important Highway Supplying Capital

By The Associated Press
General reports, limping over crippled communications lines from Madrid, described a new crisis today in the three months' Fascist siege of Spain's capital.

With telephone lines cut by a Fascist assault on the vital road from Madrid to Valencia, meagre reports from Madrid by cable included word that 14 Fascist planes flew over Madrid this morning but no mention was made of an attempted bombardment.

Fierce fighting raged southeast of the capital for possession of the Valencia Road which leads to the southeast coast of the temporary Government.

The Government insisted Fascists had not "physically cut" the road up to last night but Fascists declared they had held the road in their power.

Government declarations that it would be able to hold its capital despite continued air raids.

Chamber, City Move Together For Auto Camp

Committees Arrange Conclave To Talk Plans For Selection Of Location

Tree-Planting Honors Memory Of Mrs. Evans

Local Girl Scouts Participate In Lake Mary Event

Reminde County Girl Scouts yesterday afternoon planted a palm tree at the Little House, Lake Mary, as a tribute to the late Mrs. Frank Evans and her untiring interest in girl activities.

Mrs. Raymond Ball read a paper prepared by Mrs. Roland Ball which paid "tribute to this woman who made the world a more beautiful place to live in."

"It is particularly fitting that we plant a palm tree," Mrs. Ball read, "for one of Mrs. Evans' dreams was that a palm tree should grow in every garden in Lake Mary."

Mrs. Evans was honored for her tireless work with Girl Scouts for whom she was a Group Committee member who displayed keen interest in all the girls' problems.

"In this, our 'Little House' the use of which we owe to the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Evans, her spirit lingers, animating us as she did when she was among us, to measure up to the 'silver yardstick' of scouting ideals."

The ceremony was held on the first anniversary of Mrs. Evans' death.

Introductory remarks were contributed by Mrs. R. E. True who described Mrs. Evans as "a friend of the girls for whom we are planting this tree and to whom we are dedicating it."

Girl Scouts had charge of the actual tree planting. Laurette Minchew read the poem, "Trees," Grace Whidden, a Girl Scout, offered prayer, and the Scout Hymn was sung in closing the exercises.

During the ceremonies, Pack No. 1, under Mrs. H. M. Cochran, stood at attention.

Girl Scouts participating included Ruth Anderson, Frances Thompson, Betty Brown, Saurel Minchew, Charlotte Isbell, Natalie True, Madelyn Hand, Guila Pennell, Marion Reeves, Anita Whitaker, Doris Isbell and Grace Whidden.

All five confessed to entering the Senior High School, the Junior High School and the South Side Primary School. The law infractions were recorded Friday night and Sunday night.

Authorities indicated that a commitment to the State Industrial School was possible for the two boys who had been entangled with the law on other occasions.

Pitchford Confers With Highway Unit About Improvements

County Engineer Tony Pitchford was called to Jacksonville today to lay before officials of the State Road Department data regarding proposed improvements to roads 44 and 288.

Road number 288 begins at the Lake Howell Road-State Road No. 3 intersection and passes Altonville Springs and Forest City.

Proposals for both roadways include laying of a hard surface.

The Jacksonville conference was believed to be only a private affair, since the Associated Press reported no officially scheduled meetings of the State Road Department.

Uniform Charter Committee Plans Tampa Discussion

The first move in Florida to draft uniform municipal charters will be made Thursday in Tampa when representatives of that city, Jacksonville and Miami assemble to study tentative plans for placing all State municipalities under the same governing code.

Fred R. Wilson, Sanford attorney, is a member of the State Committee named by Sen. John R. Beacham to study the possibilities of drawing up a uniform charter for cities with a population of 7,500 to 20,000.

While the Tampa-Miami-Jacksonville Committee is the first of seven committees to call a session for chart discussion, the activity is expected to expedite action by the other six.

Sen. Beacham has requested that all Committees make some report within the next 30 days.

FIVE

Here we sit five, assembled in this room,
Not met before, yet settled through the gloom
Of a house at twilight into our own scene
That life is not so living, but immense
In its control of our disparate ways
Toward the one word that matters all our days—
Unspoken, unthought, unheard,
In the beginning was the Word
That makes of five of us, each mother's son,
Not five, four, three, nor two, but only One.

Inverse Economy

In connection with the "high cost of government," it is interesting to note that Gov. Cone's fondest hopes of reducing expenses have, from all outward appearances, already gone out of the window. It wasn't a week ago that Gov. Cone was telling the people of this State that he intended to see expenses cut no less than $9,000,000 so that old age pensions, unemployment insurance and other new expenditures might be taken care of by the State without increasing expenses over the 1935 level.

And yet the very first thing that the Budget Commission, now in session in Tallahassee, does, is to vote an increase in the salaries of present State officials, most of whom already receive in excess of five thousand a year and some of whom sit on the Budget Commission. Meeting in session yesterday this Commission hiked State salaries by $137,922, bringing the total pay increases for the current session to something in excess of half a million dollars.

Even Gov. Cone got a raise of $1,500 a year. Now receiving $7,500 a year, he will get, if the Legislature approves the Budget Commission's recommendations, $9,000 a year, but in justice to the Governor it must be added that he voted against his own pay increase. Other big State officials received similar increases. Cabinet members' salaries were raised from $5,000 to $7,500. And Supreme Court Justices' salaries were raised from $6,000 a year to $8,500 annually.

While the Budget Commission's recommendations are not necessarily final, and the State Legislature, when it meets in April, can refuse to make the increases, it is hardly likely that it will do so. The record shows that it is easier to get the Legislature to make appropriations than to cut expenses. Whether or not this particular legislative session will be different from those of the past, it is too early to say, but one must admit that the current session of the Budget Commission is not very encouraging as far as the proposed $9,000,000 cut in expenditures is concerned.

No More Ditches Needed

With the opening of the Fort Pierce to Fort Myers canal, there is no apparent reason for the digging of any more canals across this fair state. And as the Miami Herald says: "The most significant water event of this season will be the opening of the cross state canal from Stuart and Fort Pierce to Fort Myers."

"Hundreds of yachts, cruisers and even skiffs," the Miami paper says, "will take part in the celebration, commemorating the completion of flood control works on Lake Okechobee and the straightening and deepening of the Calousahatchee river from the lake to the Gulf of Mexico. The St. Lucie canal, one of the largest waterways in Florida, also has been improved."

"Here, really, is the answer to any need for a cross-state canal. It offers seven feet of navigable water in a protected channel which will permit small boat owners to go from Miami or Jacksonville by way of the St. Lucie canal though this new route to St. Petersburg and ultimately as far as Pensacola and Mobile.

"If there is a crying need for a deeper ship canal, dug to sea level, it is estimated one can be provided through Lake Okechobee for as little as $30,000,000, while the Jacksonville-Orlando-Yankeetown route now under discussion in Washington will call for upwards of $300,000,000 and entail great danger to the fresh water supply of Florida.

"Opening of the cross-state waterway this month should end the talk of the federal government pouring $300,000,000 into a dangerous experiment. If the gulf shipping trade ever should indicate a willingness to use a short cut across Florida, and it hasn't done so yet, the new canal route across Lake Okechobee is available for expansion."

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cameron and daughters Miss Annie and little Eleanor returned home Monday from an auto trip to Miami where they were the guests of Mrs. Cameron's sister.

Little Miss Ruth Moses, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moses led the baby parade held recently. The tiny lady was a charming production of a girl of the Colonial period, wearing a luscious and quaint dress of floral design over a hoop skirt and long pantalettes. To Master Preston Perkins, Jr. was awarded the carriage prize. The bright looking little fellow rode in a perfectly appointed carriage of yellow and white. A big bow of yellow surrounded the arch over the head which was prettily entwined with ferns. Butterflies in delicate shades of yellow and gold completed the charming effect. With go-cart handles arranged to represent a prancing pair of steeds and with broad white ribbons for reins, the pretty pink and white cart of Master William Gillen was awarded the prize for that class.

The dainty flower like beauty of Martha Coleman, the tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Bishop was offset by the pretty pink and white appointments of her carriage. This received a blue ribbon.

Dorothy Alice Friend, in a lovely go-cart of white was a much admired little lady in the parade who received a blue ribbon while another blue ribbon award was made to little Miss Lucy Lewis, whose pretty blue eyes vied with the forget-me-nots that adorned her go-cart.

Mrs. A. P. Connelly and Mrs. Frank Miller entertained on Monday noon at the home of the former with a bridge party in honor of Mrs. J. Warren Brown of Memphis, Tenn. who is the popular guest of Mrs. H. W. Herndon. A charming simplicity prevailed in the decorations and the entire affair was one of the delightful events of the season. For high score Mrs. Polston was given a raku knife and for the booby prize a mascot cat was won by Mrs. George Speer. The guest prize was a Florida scene in water color.

Assisting the hostesses with refreshments and in looking after the pleasures of their guests were the Misses Ruth Mettinger, Charlotte Hand, Rose Wentelman and the Misses Schultz.

Fords Are Selling Good This Winter

The automobile industry definitely has disposed of the old bogaboo—"you can't sell used cars in winter," according to M. R. Strickland, Jr., manager of Sanford branch of the Ford Motor Company.

The fact is, Mr. Strickland declared, that the public is buying more and more used cars every winter, with the seasonal effect upon used car sales becoming less and less a problem each year.

"The public is buying used cars in winter months and in increasing numbers each year," he asserted. "Statistics compiled by the Ford Motor Company show that used car sales in the winter months have been advancing steadily each year for the last few years."

Frost Warning System Here Is Aim Of Wilcox

Discontinued From Page One) By returning to the subject of frost warning, the representative pointed out that a large portion of the fruit and vegetable areas are without frost warning service which subjects growers to the probability of enormous losses each year.

"This section of Florida is entitled to the service afforded by the Weather Bureau in other sections of the State as well as in other vegetable and fruit producing sections of the country," Wilcox asserted. "To deny this region that service is to discriminate against it."

Recalling the tremendous damages his district has suffered from tropical hurricanes, Wilcox said that funds now available are insufficient to maintain the Mary; and R. F. Cooper of Oviedo.

500 Annual Dinner Changing Controversial Pioneers Lauded

Prof. Hanna, a history instructor, released this Capt. Nelson came from France and was an artillery officer, devoted to the rank of captain after two years of service, and that he "devoted his life to the cause of the army."

Mrs. Roland Ross, of Sanford, took several historical facts pertaining to Florida and showed how they furnish a romantic background for the State.

She told of 4-masted schooners riding anchor in Miami during the 1800s; the huge airplanes of Pan-American Airways ready to spring into the air and make two continents in an incredible short time; of the romantic atmosphere surrounding Tallahassee when Lafayette was given a grand grant for his participation in the Revolutionary War.

Mrs. Dean said one of the high romantic points in Florida's past was the great struggle between Ribault of France and Menéndez of Spain for a foothold in the New World, particularly around St. Augustine.

She also introduced Mrs. J. N. Whitner, whose historical research provided the basis for much of the fascinating story of Melleville and early Orange County.

Algernon Spear, a descendant of one of the pioneer families here, sketched briefly a history of some of the early settlers.

He said the first influx of the white race into this section probably was inspired in 1836 by Col. Fanning who commanded a detachment of troops on the site where Ft. Mellon was later erected.

Families poured into the vicinity for several years until the Civil War brought a temporary halt to immigration. Among those arriving here first were the families of the City. Cowan, Brock, Munday, 1908.

500 Annual Dinner Changing Controversial Pioneers Lauded

After the Civil War another influx of settlers brought, among other families those of Humphrey, Caldwell and Whitner.

J. C. Chan, president of the Florida Historical Society, read a paper by his brother, H. G. Chan, relating some of the latter's personal contacts with Gen. Sanford.

The two met in 1878 and their relations were not severed until 1891 when Mr. Chan drove the general to a local wharf where he boarded a steamer for his old Connecticut hometown but died en route.

Mr. Chan told of Gen. Sanford's drift, of his involvement in the Singer Sewing Machine Company which later paid him as much as $50,000 per year. He also recalled the plans made by Gen. Sanford for this City, many of which he now recalled before his death.

Gen. Sanford, according to Mr. Chan, at one time attempted to buy 4,000,000 acres of land in Central Florida at 10 cents per acre but was defeated when a rival bid 25 cents per acre. Mr. Chan was the general's secretary.

T. E. Simpson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was the dinner's toastmaster. In brief remarks before introducing each of the speakers given to the pioneers such of the credit for the "re-naissance program" evidenced here.

Mayor Ed Higgins extended the official greetings of the City and in line with the ceremonial said he hoped "that some future generation will honor it with future ceremonial the names of some of those sitting here tonight."

Mrs. E. J. Lohman, chairman of Pioneer's Day activities, publicly thanked every person and individual who had part in making the ceremonial program a success.

Mrs. Sam Finkston, regent of the Galle Harrison Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, sponsors of the event, made a brief address in which she sketched the highlights of the City's history.

Film Fans Hate To Hate, Says Hollywood Villain

By SHEEN COORS
HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 9.—(AP)—It was the act of "Waikiki Wedding" and the electric eye-like camera was in progress, without however the presence of the star, King County.

The set was brilliant with flowers and ornamental robes—the robes on the bride and bridegroom and the native priest, the flowers on the trees and shrubs, and garlands about the human bodies of color-attired, black-haired hale girls.

The girls—and native men—were formed in a circle, ready to be taken at the command of LeRoy Prinz, the scene director, and Frank Tuttle, the director. They were going into their dance and into other quaint matrimonial scenes of the island. Suddenly Prinz, seeing a woman in the circle, called out:

"Virginia! Virginia Hogan!"

"Coming" came from off-stage, followed by the slim form of a dark-skinned, black-haired girl who took her place in line.

Hogan in Hawaii? No, smiled Mrs. Louise Beamer, the technical advisor, tolerantly. That was make-up. Miss Hogan would be an Irish as her name.

In fact, continued Scotch-Irish-Hawaiian Mrs. Beamer, who has a school of the dance in Honolulu, and came over especially to "assist" on this film, there is just one native Hawaiian girl in the whole crowd: Mabel Keoloha, who lives here and dances in a night club. The others are all make-believe—for a sad but inevitable reason.

"Hawaiian girls won't do," said Mrs. Beamer, "because they begin to put on weight very early. Some of them are two-fingered eaters—a lady, you know, eats with one finger. The food is rich and fattening. Many of them don't care. We interviewed some 500 girls, but Mabel was the only full-blooded one we could use."

Why then, I wanted to know, don't these some organization of native girls who would agree to keep in trim for picture careers? The answer was—movie cycles. There is no frequent demand for such types. When there is, all the studios want them at once. As now, when besides "Waikiki Wedding" there are the productions "Hurricane" and "Wings Over Honolulu" clamoring for both artists.

Another English picture—this one, "Fire Over England"—gives a time "Fire Over England"—gives a dollar a second.

Two Movements By Rebels Aid Fascist Cause

MADRID, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Fascism's offensive in Spain, aimed for more than three months, marched across two fronts today and seemingly took two long strides toward the domination of Spain.

Fascist leaders said it was the beginning of the end.

No matter how a security-restricted rebel army could complete control of Malaga, second largest city of Spain, from the front outside of Malaga, since the announcement that the Madrid-Valencia road had been cut a few miles south of the City. That severed the main artery of supplies for Madrid and closed direct communication between this important capital and Valencia, western seat of the Socialist Government.

It also advanced the slow and difficult Fascist encirclement of Madrid.

Fascist leaders said the capture of Malaga would enable the southern army to join in an attack on Madrid and predicted the fall of this capital.

The Socialist Government denied Fascist claims of victory on the road to Valencia.

Hollywood an urge to invite back an actor it once had. His name is Lawrence Olivier, who with his wife Jill Esmond was here before.

Olivier does an emotional role in this political, romantic, sometime swashbuckling film about Queen Elizabeth and the Spanish Armada—and he does it with such telling effect upon ladies in the audience that a Hollywood bid is inevitable.

Shi insurance is the latest winner wrinkle. A British insurance firm will insure skin against break-up. Fire, theft and burglary for time "Fire Over England"—gives a dollar a second.

Sanford Firm Shows Error In Tax Suits

Stanley-Rogers Co. Declare Payment Of Obligations To Comptroller Lee

Ask Explanation At Tallahassee

Local Institution Backs Statement With Paid Checks

The Stanley-Rogers Hardware Company, one defendant in a local Circuit Court suit charging non-payment of the state sales tax, today asserted strongly that J. M. Lee, comptroller, was in error when he filed litigation against the firm.

P. C. Stanley, a member of the company, told the Herald in a letter dated Feb. 9, that "only yesterday we received a statement from our local bank and among our paid checks we find one to J. M. Lee covering our indebtedness for the month of December, and cashed by his office."

Mr. Stanley further asserted that "from the first day on which this law (requiring the payment of a gross sales tax) went into effect, we have conscientiously lived up to it in every particular. Each month we have remitted the amount due promptly and on time. Never once have we failed to do this."

The communication declared that "for the past several weeks we have had on display in our window a card, signed by Mr. Lee, vouching for the fact that this store pays its gross sales tax for the upkeep of our schools."

Mr. Stanley charged that he and his partner labored under a sense of unfairness and injustice as a result of the suit being filed against them.

"We do not know our rights in this matter, or whether we can look for any redress or not, yet we feel that Mr. Lee owes us an apology through our own paper," he said.

A communication went forward today to Lee asking for an explanation as to the act of Stanley-Rogers that could be considered grounds for the suit, it was reported.

Attorney General Cary D. Landis yesterday began litigation against 11 other local firms or individuals against whom were placed charges of "failure and refusal" to pay the sales tax authorized by a 1935 legislative act.

This figure, the report said, is $70.88 larger than the average for the State which Wilson said was $290.01.

Wilson reported that the increase in retail sales here for the past two years amounted to $1,294,000. A statement accompanying the statistics said that "all figures are computed from sources of authenticity and their correctness is guaranteed."

Madrid Says New Danger Facing City

Fierce Fight Rages For Possession Of Important Highway Supplying Capital

By The Associated Press
General reports, implying over-crippled communications lines from Madrid, described a new crisis today in the three months' Fascist siege of Spain's capital.

With telephone lines cut by a Fascist assault on the vital road from Madrid to Valencia, meagre reports from Madrid by cable included word that 14 Fascist planes flew over Madrid this morning but no mention was made of an attempted bombardment.

Fierce fighting raged southeast of the capital for possession of the Valencia Road which leads to the southeast coast of the temporary Government.

The Government insisted Fascists had not "physically cut" the road up to last night but Fascists declared they had held the road in their power.

Chamber, City Move Together For Auto Camp

Committees Arrange Conclave To Talk Plans For Selection Of Location

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, today had the assurance of City authorities that the latter would co-operate to the utmost of its ability toward the location of a tourist trailer camp here.

Headed by Walker Coleman, a committee composed of L. Hawkins Connelly, E. H. Laney, and D. L. Thrasher conferred last night with the City Commission and came away with satisfactory assurances.

Mr. Coleman's committee and one to be named by Mayor Edward Higgins will meet in the near future to discuss location, plans for financing, facilities to be offered, type, size and other matters concerning the proposed camp.

The Chamber Board of Directors last night accepted an invitation from Longwood that the March meeting of directors be held there. W. J. Wells, Jr., director from Longwood, said the conclave would be held in the town hall and that free refreshments will be served.

A report was given on arrangements for the Seminole County Exhibit, to be maintained by the Chamber of Commerce at the Central Florida Exposition in Orlando this month, and all members were urged to visit the display.

The exhibit is to be in charge of County Agent C. R. Dawson and County Home Demonstration Agent Josephine Boydston. Alex R. Johnson and the Seminole Chapter of Future Farmers of America will supply a meat display which is to be a major unit.

The Sanford Garden Club is to furnish a display of flowers, tubs and ornamental plants.

Attending last night's monthly directors' meeting were the following:

Airliner Plunges Into Bay At San Francisco; Eleven Passengers Believed Dead

City Authorizes Williams To Seek Air Mail Service

Committee Member, McRory Pian Washington Journey

Volie Williams, member of the City Aviation Committee, was authorized last night by the City Commission to personally contact the Postoffice Department at Washington in an effort to place Sanford on a regular scheduled airmail route.

Mr. Williams, who will be accompanied by George McRory, will leave here Monday for the capital.

Several former endeavors to obtain airmail service have met with failure, but since that time a new picture has been projected on the scene—the announcement by the Jacksonville-Tampa airmail contractor that he is willing to halt his ships here.

The Commission made another move forward toward a successful completion of its proposed bond refunding by authorizing Fred Bender to contact all bondholders outside the Protective Committee in an effort to get them to "swing along" with the refinancing.

Approximately 87 percent of outstanding certificates are represented by the Commission. An ordinance for the refund already has been passed by City officials.

Commissioners held their final session as a tax adjustment board, an organization empowered by the Legislature of 1935 to adjust taxes delinquent in and prior to 1933. About 80 adjustments were asked last night.

A delegation composed of Henry Watson, Jimmie Wright and T. C. Holt urged the City to use its influence in rushing completion of the clubhouse at Municipal Athletic Field, pointing out that baseball season is only a few weeks in the future.

Local Canning Plant Reports Labor Shortage

Shortage of local labor today asked the Eckerson Canning Company to advertise for 100 additional women to be put to work at once in the Sanford plant of the firm.

C. H. Eckerson, president, said his factory was considerably behind in production because an adequate supply of workers could not be found in this section.

Factory officials said they plan to rush activities—if labor can be found—in an effort to catch up with their production schedule.

Tree-Planting Honors Memory Of Mrs. Evans

Local Girl Scouts Participate In Lake Mary Event

Seminole County Girl Scouts yesterday afternoon planted a palm tree at the Little House, Lake Mary, as a tribute to the late Mrs. Frank Evans and her untiring interest in girl activities.

Mrs. Raymond Ball read a paper prepared by Mrs. Roland (Lynn) which paid tribute to this woman who made the world a more beautiful place to live in.

"It is particularly fitting that we plant a palm tree," Mrs. Ball read, "for one of Mrs. Evans' dreams was that a palm tree should grow in every garden in Lake Mary."

Mrs. Evans was honored for her tireless work with Girl Scouts for whom she was a Group Committee member who displayed keen interest in all the girls' problems.

"In this, our 'Little House' the use of which we owe to the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Evans, her spirit lingers, animating us as she did when she was among us, to measure up to the 'silver yardstick' of scouting ideals."

The ceremony was held on the first anniversary of Mrs. Evans' death.

Introductory remarks were contributed by Mrs. R. E. True who described Mrs. Evans as "a friend of the girls for whom we are planting this tree and to whom we are dedicating it."

Medical Society Asks Allocation For County Work

Permanent Hospital Committee Named To Serve Sanford

A recommendation that the next Seminole County budget carry sufficient allocations to employ a full-time physician to care for welfare cases was made by the Seminole County Medical Society last night.

The medical group previously had recommended that the full-time doctor be employed, but conditions beyond the immediate control of either County Commissioners or the Society blocked the realization of the proposals.

Negotiations are under way to secure the co-operation of the City with the County in seeing the Society's suggestion reach completion.

It was understood that Dr. W. Theo. Langley will continue to serve in the capacity of County physician until budgetary arrangements are made for a full-time doctor.

The medical association's previous recommendation set forth that a physician with his own private practice could not adequately attend to both his own patients and those on the County welfare list.

Other action by the Society included the appointment of Dr. A. W. Knox, C. L. Park and D. G. Scott to the permanent Hospital Committee.

Dr. T. J. Denton was named to represent the Society at the next session of the Florida Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The entire membership of the Society attended the session in Fernside Lighthouse Memorial Hospital. Membership is as follows: Dr. H. D. Smith, president; Dr. J. N. Tolar, vice-president; Dr. Scott, secretary; Dr. Denton, Knox, Langley, T. P. McDaniel, C. M. Mitchell, Park, S. Puleston, and G. S. Schuman, all of Sanford, and Dr. J. W. Martin of Oviedo.

Future Farmers Of Oviedo To Assist In Orlando Exhibit

The Oviedo Chapter, Future Farmers of America, will participate in the Central Florida Exposition at Orlando Feb. 15-20 by exhibiting a Fisher Body model made by Martin Borgardt of Chuluota, Prof. R. E. Cooper, Chapter advisor, said today.

In a recent session, the Oviedo Future Farmers voted to extend every co-operation to the Seminole County Chapter of Future Farmers who will exhibit extensively in the Orlando exhibit.

Mr. Cooper said his charges are "anxious to help the Seminole Chapter and County Farm Agent Dawson to make Seminole County's part of the fair a success."

Local members of the youthful farmers' organization will enter a meat exhibit. The County will show a vegetable and celery display. A flower exhibition is planned by the Sanford Garden Club.

Derrick, Sea Divers Exerting Efforts To Lift Ship From Depths Of Pacific

Air Death Total Expanded To 46

Prominent Persons Reported Aboard Ill-Fated Ship

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10 (AP)—Its 11 occupants given up for dead, a wrecked United Airlines plane was found under water in South San Francisco Bay today where it plunged last night after passing up a landing field. Several prominent westerners, including one millionaire, were aboard.

Derrick and sea divers tried today to lift the plane and its cargo of bodies from the water but expected operation to take most of the day. The plane weighed 12 tons.

The tragedy increased to 43 the number who died in western transport crashes since Dec. 15.

Witnesses said the plane came into the landing field, after the radio operator at the field had given the pilot instructions for a landing, but instead of settling to the ground the ship turned and headed out over the bay. About one mile offshore it plunged into the water "with a big wham," witnesses said.

Those aboard "plane" listed as Rodgers Meyer, Ridgewood, New Jersey; M. Lodge, Los Angeles; Mark Fontana, 57-year-old millionaire manufacturer and yachtman of San Francisco; J. F. Gilmore, Los Angeles; H. Margerum, San Bruno, Calif.; H. H. Friedlander, Berkeley, Calif.; his daughter, Gertrude, socially prominent bride-to-be; Pilot Tommy Thompson, veteran flyer; co-pilot Joe Derringer; and Stewardess Ruth Kimmel.

Uniform Charter Committee Plans Tampa Discussion

The first move in Florida to draft uniform municipal charters will be made Thursday in Tampa when representatives of that city, Jacksonville and Miami assemble to study tentative plans for placing all State municipalities under the same governing code.

Fred R. Wilson, Sanford attorney, is a member of the State Committee named by Sen. John R. Beacham to study the possibilities of drawing up a uniform charter for cities with a population of 7,500 to 20,000.

While the Tampa-Miami-Jacksonville Committee is the first of seven committees to call a session for chart discussion, the activity is expected to expedite action by the other six.

Sen. Beacham has requested that all Committees make some report within the next 30 days.

Shipping Changes Subject Of Conclave

Proposed changes in container specifications of loading rules for fresh fruits, vegetables and melons were being discussed in Orlando today at the fifth docked hearing of Association of American Railroads.

All Seminole County shippers and container manufacturers displayed an interest in the session. Railroad interests here, too, were watching developments.

Eckerson And St. Johns Battle Tonight

Canners Must Win To Cop League First Half Title

Clubs Play Off Battle Which Ended After Fistic Engagement

The long awaited battle to decide the first half champion of the City Basketball League will take place this evening at 8:30 o'clock when the Eckerson's Cannermen and the St. Johns River Lions tangle.

Should the Eckersons come through with the bacon in tonight's fracas, the first-half title will be theirs as the win will be their fifth in as many league starts. The St. Johns, with four wins and one loss, need to come up on the top side tonight to establish a two-way tie for the initial-half crown, necessitating a play-off later in the season.

The two clubs clashed two weeks ago in a contest which was abruptly concluded after two minutes of play in the final quarter when two players, neither of whom were in the game at the time, attempted to settle a difference of opinion by the gentle art of fisticuffs. The melee that resulted as others tried to separate the pair, brought about the unexpected finish of the battle, with the instigator later being definitely removed from activity in the league.

The contest tonight, while it is expected to be hard fought, as the two clubs are bitter rivals, is not anticipated to conclude in a similar manner to that of the preceding one in which the St. Johns were apparently well on their way to a victory, having led practically through the entire playing time and leading 17 to 12 at the time the game was called. The Rivermen, after being held to a 2-2 tie in the first half time and in the third period, had taken a 7-6 lead by half time and in the third period, had extended their margin to 16-12. In the two minutes played in the fourth quarter, the Rivermen accounted for the only tally, a field goal which gave them a five-point edge shortly before the excitement curtailed further play.

Gravett and Young are expected to start at the forward posts for the Cannermen with Eckerson at center and Vargas and Fowler in the guard positions while the St. Johns will likely send in Whitten and Kelly on the offensive, Altman as center and Hughes and Kinlaw or Cordell at guards.

The first game of the evening will be the postponed National Guards-B squad contest, slated to get underway at 7:30 o'clock. The Guardsmen, with but one win, that by the forfeit route, in four starts, will give the scholastics a tough fight as they attempt to chalk up their second win. The little Feds have two wins and two losses to their credit for the first half of the season.

Sanford High Defeats Deland Bulldogs Again

Locals Win By 41-21 Score In Contest Here Last Night

Art Williams Is High Scorer In Contest, Tallies 13 Points

Getting off to a slow start which gave the opposition the advantage during the better portion of the first two periods, the Seminole High School basketball team managed to get up steam to come through with a 41-21 decision over the Deland cagers whom the Feds had defeated by a 42-27 count on the Deland floor a few weeks ago.

The visitors broke into the scoring column first to grab a 4-0 lead before the locals tallied once. The lead jumped back and forth for the next few minutes until the locals took matters into their own hands midway in the second quarter, grabbing the lead at 12 to 10 and keeping it for the rest of the battle which was hard fought all the way.

Sample tallied first with an underbasket shot and McMillin followed it up with a successful conversion. Shelburn's foul shot sent the count to 4-0 after which Williams tallied from the right side of the court to give Sanford its initial two points. Zachry's underbasket shot tied the count and two out of three foul shots made by the same worthy gave the locals a 6-4 edge. After Purdon and Morgan entered the contest, playing for the first time in a week due to their suspension along with Phillips, McMillin tapped in a rebound to tie the knot at 6-6. After Del Furguson had missed a double foul attempt the period ended with the count still knotted.

Phillips replaced Del Furguson at guard for the locals at the start of the second period which was opened by Denning's one-handed shot from the right side of the floor. Zachry made an underbasket shot to tie the count again but Sample came through with a similar tally to send Deland ahead, 10-8. Purdon tapped in a rebound to knot the count and Williams, tallying from inside the foul circle, sent the Celery Feds into the lead. Zachry widened the gap with an underbasket tally followed by Williams. Phillips made a shot from beneath the hoop and Deland called for time.

When play was resumed, McMillin missed an attempt from the foul line and Williams made two underbasket shots in succession to give the McCluskey-tutored bats a 21-10 lead as the half passed into history.

Purdon opened the scoring in the third period with a pretty one-handed shot from the right corner which even brought a smile to his face. Kicklighter came through with a long shot from mid-court and Phillips made a twi-pley from the foul line. Williams followed it up with an underbasket shot for time again. Resuming play, Morgan made a one-handed shot from the foul line and Kicklighter followed up with a charity shot. Morgan's long shot from the left side of the floor sent the count to 21-13 before the third period ended.

In the fourth quarter, Denning dribbled in for a two-pointer, Page made a one-handed shot from the right side, Kicklighter made one from outside the foul circle and Denning missed a foul shot. B. Furguson and Sample also missed similar attempts following which Del Furguson tapped in a rebound. Sample made a long shot from the right side of the court followed by Buck Furguson's underbasket tally. Stupler also made one from underneath the hoop and Williams tapped in a rebound. Denning's tally from beneath the basket after a fast dribble ended the scoring for the contest.

The play of the locals was fairly good, flashing more or less near perfection from time to time although weak points were prominent. The Bulldogs, although outplayed, were by no means out-fought in last night's encounter.

Art Williams set the scoring pace by tallying six times from the field and once from the foul line for a total of 13 points while Billy Zachry followed with three field goals and two fouls for a total of eight points. Sample and Denning, each with six points, led the attack of the Bulldogs.

The locals will see action again on the Seminole High School court this day night when the Landon Lions, who forced the Feds to the limit to win a 36-21 decision in an extra-period fray at Jacksonville almost two weeks ago, appear here.

Rain May Provide Super-Fast Track

Records Expected To Be Broken Tonight At Longwood Track

Today's rain gave prospects for a super-fast track and broken records tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club near Longwood. Two feature races are on the card, the eighth and ninth events.

The eighth is a fast quarter-mile with the best field of sprinters available entered. The quarter-mile record is the only one that hasn't been broken this year. Sparrow Buster's 27 1-5 seconds made in 1936, is still good. When American Dictator, Ruff Starer, Island Sing, General Sahara, Molly Malone, Ramona G, and Teddy Wins get through tonight, a new record will in all probability be flashed on the result board.

In the ninth race over the futuristic route, Danger Starer looks like a good thing. Fast closing Ann Faith and Will Panny are picked to provide most of the opposition, although Blondie Owen, Don J and Mac Duff are more than capable.
