Double key cylinder locks — locks that must have a key to open the door in both the interior and the exterior doors - are a no-no in commercial enterprises in the unincorporated areas and in some cities of Seminole County. But, Joe McCluan of the Seminole County Fire Departmen would like to see the prohibition adopted countywide. McCluan with assistance from Don Fritz of the Altamonto Fire Department, which also has the same regulation demonstrated how easily a burglar can dismantle a double key cylinder lock from inside a building. The demonstration took place at the Council of Local Governments in Seminole County meeting in Lake Mary.

Using a screw driver, noting a fingernail clipper would work fust as well, to dismantle the lock, McCluan said the effort took about 15 seconds. provides little protection to a place of business, he added such locks can be dangerous when used on the doors of a home. He told of a recent incident in the county where a woman had bee successful in putting out a fire in her home, but perished of asphyxiation. Her body was found at the kitchen door which she could not open because she did not have the key with her. The regulations do not forbid the use of double key cylinder locks in private homes, he said. But locks permissible in places of business must be of the thumb-bolt variety, he said,

The simple fact is that, in the circumstances, we are far more dependent upon Iran than Iran is dependent upon us. We need the 900,000 barrels of Iranian oil they are shipping us every day. The cut-off of Iranian oil exports during their revolution last winter was a major factor causing the gasoline shortage in the United States last

It is sad that our failure to cope with our appetite for foreign oil has made us dependent upon such unstable, unpredictable regimes as that of

Only conservation by all concerned citizens and a steady push for alternative sources of energy, including offshore drilling and nuclear power, will rescue us from this dependency.

The students who have seized the embassy demanded that we return the former Shah of Iran to Tehran for prosection as a criminal. That we cannot do.

We knew, or should have known, that when we permitted the shah to come to New York City from his exile in Mexico we would excite criticism from his exile in Mexico we would excite criticism from the revolutionaries in Iran. But the shah is ill. He needs treatment from our medical people. He was our good friend for many years.

We could not refuse his request and we certainly cannot require him to leave prematurely because his presence has caused demonstrations in New York and anti-American violence in Iran. We must obtain the release of the Americans held hostage in Tehran. Short of military action, there may be pressures that we can apply to the ayatollah's government, although we don't know what they might be. We must be patient, realizing gave, that the lives of the hostages are at stake and that

Wisely, the House rejected a proposal that the energy board be allowed to waive substantive provisions of state and local law in making a decision. An appointed federal board should not have the power to overrule legislative decisions made in the states. However, it would not be out of line for the board to seek the waiver of a federal law with the approval of Congress, which is responsible for federal legislation in the first

"Those kids desperately need a struction, but was told the school was in The lowest of three bids received for both sides were ankle deep in water and Leibensperger to formally take the request to the County Commission.

In voting against the move, Mayor June formans said she was in favor of building the sidewalks, but not of suing the county on the grounds of double taxation to get them built. "That's going to run on forever," she said.

"I think the mayor should go up and have a meeting with the county commissioner should go up and have a meeting with the county commissioners, but if she goes up there with a negative attitude, we won't get anything, so we'll send Mr. Leibensperger — somebody who thinks he's right," said to run on forever," she said.

"I think the mayor should go up and have a meeting with the county commissioner of Lyman and Milwee middle schools, which the school board is expected to build, was $14,145 from Robert Wilson. It was pointed out this we'll send Mr. Leibensperger — somebody who thinks he's right," said to run on forever," she said.

"I think the mayor should go up and have a meeting with the county commissioner of Lyman and Milwee middle schools, which the school board is expected to build, was $14,145 from Robert Wilson. It was pointed out this was up 50 percent over the previous estimate.

A delegation from the Longwood was up 50 percent over the previous school board agenda to discuss the problem and seek a solution. The new school is scheduled to open in January.

Commissioners Back Cablevision

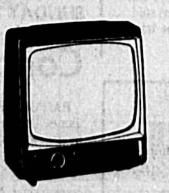

Seminole County Commissioners Tuesday rejected a Sabal Point developers' request that they stop Orange-Seminole Cablevision from installing cable in that subdivision.

Storer is franchised only in Altamonte Springs. Orange-Seminole, franchised in the unincorporated area, began installing

After protests from the homeowners association, Orange-Seminole agreed to Storer has applied for a non-exclusive franchise in Seminole County, but the commission has not held a public meeting on the request.

Deno Dikeou, attorney for the home owners, said he did not have any legal grounds for asking the commission to stop construction, but he said he was concerned there would not be enough room for Storer to install its cables after Orange-Seminole had installed theirs.
