ARIES (March 21-April 19) There will be some frustrations early in the day, but then things you were uncertain about will turn out to be fun. TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Patience is your greatest asset today. Look to emerge victorious in the long run, and you probably will. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You'll see viable alternatives today in areas where you were stymied. Put them to work promptly and you'll come out on top. CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your material prospects look very promising today, even though early indications are gloomy. It should be a profitable day if you keep your cool. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your first instinct today is to meet force with force. Fortunately, you'll be wise enough to substitute wit and humor. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) The harder you strive to have fun, the less it's likely you will. Relax, flow with events and have a very pleasant day. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Friends are willing to do things for you today you can't accomplish alone. Don't back the tide when help is yours for the asking. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your inner fortitude today won't be evident until the quantity is thrown down. Your reaction to a challenge will surprise even you. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You're fast learner today, so associate with those on a high intellectual level. You'll find something to adapt to your present needs. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you're sharp enough to spot them, there are several ways to add to your treasure chest today. Be matter-of-factly, but don't be selfish. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You're super good in one-to-one relationships today. You have a way of making beneficial things happen for associates. PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) This could be a very rewarding day for you. Don't let any trick shot or game would not make game opposite a bust, and the experts started playing that if the two leaders merely rebid his own suit after a bust two-no-trump response, the responder could pass. South's response to his partner's two-bid bid was based largely on hope that his partner would bid again.

Inhaling Dust Not Good For You

DEAR DR. LAMB — The other day two of us were using an electric sander to get the paint off the garage. The dust surely was flying. My hair was covered with paint dust. No doubt my face was too. I forgot to put on a mask so I must have inhaled a lot of dust.

Now I am wondering how much dust got into my lungs. If I did inhale a lot, how long will it be before it shows up? DEAR READER — I don't recommend inhaling dust of any type if you can avoid it. However, nature planned on protecting people from this problem. Your respiratory system beginning with your nose is lined with small hairs to help filter the air you breathe. Also, the air you breathe passes over moist surfaces that catch the dust. The sinuses and even the lungs are able to clean themselves within limits. The secretions in the air passages overwhelm the dust and you simply cough it out.

I would expect that with this one episode you will not have any residual dust in your lungs but if you or others must work in a real dusty situation you would be wise to wear a damp cloth over the face to help filter the air before you inhale it. If you don't have other protection, to give you more information on how your lungs work I am sending you The Health Letter number 2-4, Keeping Your Lungs Fit. Others who want this information can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Write to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am a 17 year old boy and would like to know if a person can drink too much water. It seems as though I am always pouring some water over some ice cubes or drinking lemonade if it's in the refrigerator. I've heard rumors a person could get drunk on water. If so, how much would it take? Not that I want to get drunk or anything.

DEAR READER — No, a person can't get drunk on water. It's what one mixes with the water that makes him drunk and that has to be an alcoholic beverage. It is almost impossible for a healthy person eating a normal diet to drink too much water. The kidneys will eliminate the excess. There are a few medical conditions that stimulate a person to drink lots of water and result in passing a lot of urine. A diabetic who is losing sugar in the urine will drink lots of water to dilute the sugar content. Eating ice in large amounts can sometimes be a symptom of pica — a disease related to iron deficiencies. This problem is readily treated by taking iron. You can get enough iron eventually by using a daily vitamin tablet that has added iron.

More likely you just have a water drinking habit. Most people would benefit if they drank a little more water than they often do. But if you are concerned, see your doctor and let him make some tests for possible causes. In the summer, drinking lots of water and not getting enough salt in your diet can cause salt depletion if you are losing salt from sweating a lot.

County To Seek Grant For 6 'Blighted Areas'

By ED PRICKETT Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Commission agreed Tuesday night to apply for $300,000 in federal funds to provide much-needed paving and drainage to six Seminole communities county planners have identified as "blighted areas."

Commissioners also set priorities for the six predominantly black areas.

Communities and priorities include: —Bookertown—$31,500 will be sought for drainage and paving. Bookertown is located near the west end of Lake Monroe. —Lockhart—$58,500 will be requested for this area located west of Sanford.

—Midway—Area residents asked for $73,800 for a new community services building. It's located east of Sanford. —Winwood—$93,600 is being applied for to pave roads and provide drainage for the area near Altamonte Springs. —Jamestown—$19,500 is being sought to pave and provide drainage to the area south of Oviedo. —Johnson Hill—$23,400 is requested for this community east of Oviedo.

Commissioner Bob French called the Johnson Hill area "very bad." French said conditions are so critical that residents are forced to carry their drinking water in from surrounding areas. The grant application will be sent to the department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Initially, a pre-application will be mailed by Feb. 18 to get federal reaction to Seminole's grant application.

"In other words," Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff remarked, "Everybody gets something."

County Planner Bill Kercher said Seminole will ask for $300,000 to apply to the assigned projects. But Kercher said the grants could be changed if federal officials don't respond favorably to the county's list of priorities.

County planners held meetings in each community to determine the needs and desires expressed by residents in each of the six areas. "Every community mentioned drainage and paving," Kercher told commissioners.

At Altamonte Springs Racquet Fee Maintained

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer

An effort Tuesday by Altamonte Springs City Commissioner Sandra Glenn to eliminate a new charge levied against city residents for use of the civic center tennis and racquet ball courts failed to gain support.

Mrs. Glenn said use of the facilities should be given to city taxpayers at no additional charge, adding that a 25 cent per family annual fee should be continued instead to identify residents from non-residents.

The new fee called for a $5 annual family payment or $3 individual charge for use of the courts.

"If the money was needed it would be a different thing," Mrs. Glenn said. She noted that the resulting revenue is not being placed in the city's recreation account but rather is being channeled into the city's general fund.

City Commissioner George Perkins, back at his place at the council table after a month's illness, contended, however, that an "83-year-old grandmother, who doesn't give a damn about tennis or racquet ball, shouldn't have to pay" for those who do in her property taxes.

Perkins noted that the fee costed is a user charge with costs borne entirely by the user. Mrs. Glenn's motion failed with Mayor Norman Floyd, Perkins and Commissioner

Glen Buschman voting in opposition. In other action, the city commission agreed to a proposed revision to the Crane's Root pumping station plans and authorized acceptance of bids for the work against the city challenging the constitutionality of the initiative and referendum section of the city charter as it relates to zoning of a 30-acre parcel near Spring Oaks Subdivision.

Groundhog Shuns Spotlight; More Cold Weather Likely

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa. (AP) — Punxsutawney Phil, the weather-forecasting groundhog, was lifted from his burrow at sunrise today and his interpreters said he forecast six more weeks of winter.

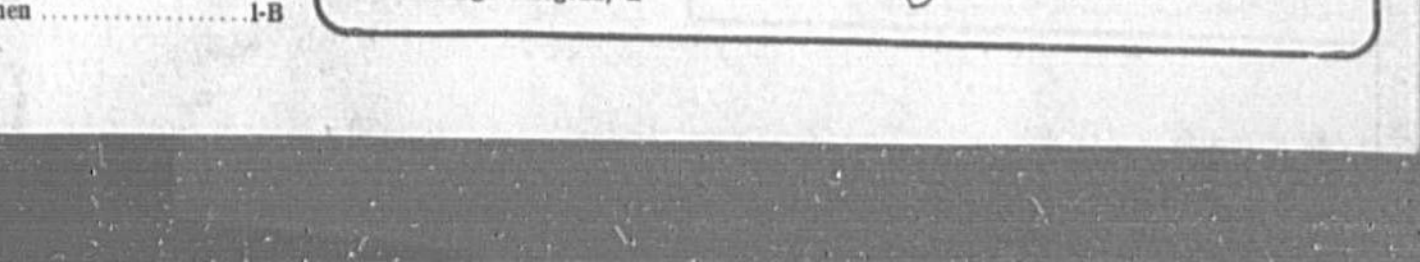

Phil was taken from his comfortable museum cage to windswept Gobbler's Knob an hour before the annual ceremony and tucked into his lighted and heated burrow.

Charles M. Erhard, president of the Groundhog Club, had a prepared forecast after talking to Phil in "groundhogese."

Other members of the club had prepared signs ready for television and newspaper cameras, which said "Blizzard," and "Six More Weeks of Winter."

According to legend, if Phil had not seen his shadow, spring would have been just around the corner. It was seven degrees with a wind chill factor of 23 degrees below zero on the knob when Phil made his prediction.

Another well-known prognosticator had predicted that Phil would forecast more winter weather.

NATION IN BRIEF

Gas Shortage Easing But Costs To Be High

NEW YORK (AP) — Conservation measures appear to be easing the drain on natural gas supplies, but the long-run costs will be high. A federal energy official said today that factory closings and layoffs that are saving gas this frigid winter could last until April. Federal Power Commission spokesman William Webb said that factories forced to close by the natural gas shortage may have serious difficulty finding enough fuel to reopen before April because FPC rules require that depleted gas storage fields be refilled before gas can be delivered to closed plants. And pipelines have already dipped so deeply into stored supplies that better weather and continued conservation by homeowners and small businesses are unlikely to help major industrial users.

Mondale Briefs Carter

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Walter F. Mondale, home from his round-the-world trip, is telling President Carter how foreign leaders are likely to react when they meet the peanut farmer who is "an entirely new international leader for them." As they rode Carter's helicopter after a brief arrival ceremony at nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Mondale told the President the foreign leaders "are all anxious to see him."

Grocery Price Word Is 'Up'

NEW YORK (AP) — The first month of the new year brought higher grocery prices and consumers were warned to expect more of the same in the future due to the cold wave. An Associated Press marketbasket survey showed prices increased during January for a wide variety of items, including pork chops, orange juice, coffee and eggs. The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and nonfood items, checked the price at one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973, and has rechecked them on or about the start of each succeeding month.

Billy Carter Signs Up

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — President Carter's brother Billy is now an official celebrity. "If Billy Carter's not a celebrity, then there's not a peanut in the state of Georgia," said Tandy Rice, president of Top Billing Inc., a Nashville firm that represents celebrities. Rice said Billy has signed an agreement with the firm that will represent him "in the area of personal appearances and with the media." The agreement was signed Monday in Plains, Ga., following a meeting between Rice, Carter and his wife, Cybil, and three attorneys.

Gas Relief To Be Slow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal officials already are working on the mechanisms for President Carter to allocate natural gas on an emergency basis, but the gas probably won't be available overnight. Even if Carter immediately ordered pipeline companies to begin sending fuel into the frigid East, it would take several days to pass through the interstate pipeline network to Ohio and other states.

Congress Gets Pay Hike Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is getting a chance to approve or turn down hefty pay raises for members of Congress and other government executives. One lawmaker says the raises would be "a terrific ripoff of the American taxpayers." It was Sen. James B. Allen, D-Ala., who used the term "ripoff" for the congressional raises of close to 30 per cent.

Longet Won't Appeal

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — Claudine Longet, unwilling to face the ordeal of a new trial, has decided to go to jail for 30 days rather than appeal her negligent homicide conviction in the death of her lover. Attorney Charles Weedman said late Tuesday night, "A decision has been reached not to appeal and not to seek a new trial." He gave no reason for the change in earlier announced plans for an appeal. But he said Miss Longet made "the ultimate decision" not to pursue a new round of legal battles. The 36-year-old former showgirl, appearing weary and dejected, declined an interview Tuesday, saying, "I want to put all of this behind me." She told reporters who covered her trial: "I hope I never have to see any of you again."

Orlando Accused Of Being Bandit

Kidnap, Robbery Trial Nearing Conclusion

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

The circuit court trial of an Orlando man accused of being the masked, shotgun-toting bandit who kidnaped and robbed a Sanford man and later fired a shotgun blast at a city policeman was expected to go to a six-member jury this afternoon.

The state's case against Robert Charles McGill, 31, of Orlando, appeared to hang upon his fingerprint, found on a fishing reel in his auto, which he had reported stolen in south Seminole after the Sanford incident. Kelsie Whisenhunt, a plastering sub-contractor and manufacturer of custom electric salt water fishing reels, testified that he couldn't identify the man wearing a black stocking mask who abducted him with a sawed-off shotgun from the Lake Monroe inn parking lot west of Sanford on the night of Nov. 24.

Robert Mann testified that he observed an unoccupied yellow Toyota sedan in the inn parking lot and noted its tag number.

Mann wasn't allowed to tell the jury how a masked man arrived in the pickup truck and kidnaped him while he was locking the compact car and took him to the same rail yard and robbed him.

McGill hasn't been charged with the second kidnap-robbery. Sanford police patrolman Mitch Tindel testified he pursued and stopped the yellow Toyota on Seventh St. near Pecan Ave. where a man fired a shotgun blast as the officer approached the auto and then fled into a wooded area.

Tindel said he can't positively identify the gunman but that he had a "recalling defendant" similar to that of the defendant.

A fingerprint expert testified that McGill's fingerprint was found on the fishing reel in the car.

Coast Guard Fires On Ship, Seizes It With Drug Cargo

MIAMI (AP) — A Coast Guard prize crew headed toward Miami today aboard an unidentified, marijuana-laden freighter seized in international waters after a cutter fired several shells across its bows, officials said.

The 185-foot ship, flying no flag and with its name painted over, was seized by the USCG Dauntless late Tuesday 35 miles southeast of Great Abaco Island in the northeastern Bahamas, Lt. Norris Turner said in Miami.

Turner said boarding crews reported that the ship's rear cargo hold was full of bales of marijuana but made no estimate of its weight.

Turner said the Dauntless fired several three-inch shells and 50-caliber machinegun bullets across the ship's bows before it heeded warnings to heave to and allow boards.

Beach House Dope Ring

FORT MYERS (AP) — Seven men have been charged in a $100-million cocaine and marijuana smuggling racket that used beach homes as distribution points, says State Attorney Joseph D'Alessandro.

He said Tuesday that his investigators and Lee County sheriff's deputies traced the smuggling network and found its storage facilities.

Contributed was usually brought ashore by boats that met freighters in the Gulf of Mexico off Florida, then distributed by airplanes, trucks and beach homes in an operation coordinated by radio, he said.

Pastor Takes Slaying Plea

CLEARWATER (AP) — Former Clearwater minister Mitchell G. Florence has pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in the deaths of his wife and 12-year-old son.

Florence, 45, had been indicted on two counts of first-degree murder in the Sept. 29 slayings of Nanette, 46, and Mark.

Police said they were stabbed repeatedly with a butcher knife.

By pleading guilty to the lesser charges, Florence could be sentenced to life in prison instead of the electric chair.

An attorney for the former pastor of Friendship United Methodist Church said Florence will be sentenced after an investigation which will include extensive psychiatric examinations.

Emotions-Glaucoma Tied

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Your blood pressure isn't the only thing that goes up when you're upset. The pressure of fluids in the eye are also affected by emotions, a Venezuelan physician says.

If the pressure within the eye goes up enough, there is danger of glaucoma damage and loss of vision, Dr. Edward Grom of Caracas told the International Glaucoma Congress here.

New Penney's Store Wet

MIAMI (AP) — Teetotaling J.C. Penney wouldn't even eat rum cake because he thought liquor was bad for the soul. But a store bearing his name opened today in Miami offering martinis to diners and selling wine by the case.

J.C. Penney's three-story Omni Center store, the largest retail store to open in downtown Miami in 20 years, is the only one serving cocktails in the 1,700-store chain.

County Awaits Lawyer's Decision

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

County Commission Chairman Dick Williams said Tuesday night the county should know by next Monday if county officials Tallahassee attorney Sidney H. McKenzie III will accept the position as lead attorney in Seminole's newly-created legal department.

Williams said McKenzie, a top aide to Florida Atty. Gen. Robert Sherwin, is considering a job in Washington D.C. in addition to the Seminole County offer before making a final decision.

Commissioners agreed last month to offer McKenzie the position and offered Gary Siegel the no. 2 spot on the new legal staff. Siegel accepted the position and already is at work at the courthouse.

McKenzie, 37, said there's "no haggling" over the job, or his requirements. But he said it's just a matter of making a decision "on what course my career will take."

Salary for the lead attorney was listed in the $30,000 range. During a negotiating session Monday with county officials, McKenzie asked for a $23,500-a-year beginning salary.

Williams said McKenzie's request is in line with what the commission plans to pay. If McKenzie turns Seminole down, Williams indicated the position will be offered to Tampa attorney Joe H. Mount.

The legal department was created in an effort to eliminate politics from the attorney's position. Traditionally, when Democrats occupied the majority position on the board, the attorney was also a Democrat. The same held true when Republicans controlled the vote on the board.

Siegel is acting attorney until the lead attorney is hired. Siegel accepted the position for $15,000 a year.

This Year's Goal Set At 700

Chamber To 'Blitz' For Members

By DARRYL RICE
Herald Staff Writer

The Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce is now involved in a drive to reach a membership goal of 700 members during 1977, which will climax with a one-day "blitz" Tuesday, Feb. 8.

At a strategy session Tuesday, John Mercer, chairman of the membership committee and president of Flagship U.S. Bank, gave instructions to his 12 captains, who will be responsible for signing up Sanford area businesses that have not yet joined the chamber.

Each captain heads a team of seven chamber members, who will be armed with a package containing an appointment card, a 300-30 rifle and a 22-caliber rifle.

Patrolman R.T. Nance said the missing firearms were listed as two 12-gauge shotguns, a 300-30 rifle and a 22-caliber rifle.

Police reported burglars pried out an air conditioning unit to enter the office at All Souls Catholic School, 810 Oak Ave., Sanford. Missing from the

"I was very impressed as all the teams were at the session and an optimistic that we will make our goal. The captains are very energetic."

Mercer said the chamber's membership fees help maintain its goals and support volunteer efforts.

The chamber has 14 standing committees which work on a grab-bag basis, banking, aviation, education, industrial actions, sports and other general topics. The sports committee may plan an international sailing regatta for spring, said Mercer.

The Chamber fee for an individual member is $25, and for businesses it ranges from $40 to $200, depending on the total of employees. A member is entitled to join one of the standing committees, so as to participate in the chamber's programs.

Mercer added, "Between now and Tuesday our teams will be soliciting for members, but next Tuesday is the blitz."

Mercer said William Reck, co-owner of WTRR radio, will have a live look-up Tuesday at the chamber to announce those who have signed up for membership.

The blitz will begin after the membership committee's kickoff breakfast at 8:30 a.m. at the chamber building. The blitz ends at 5 p.m.

Burglars Get Guns, Auto Tires

Sanford police today were investigating the reported theft of four guns valued at $1,000 in a burglary at the residence of Larry Eugene Maddox, Mariner's Village Apartments, U.S. 17-92.

Patrolman R.T. Nance said the missing firearms were listed as two 12-gauge shotguns, a 300-30 rifle and a 22-caliber rifle.

Police reported burglars pried out an air conditioning unit to enter the office at All Souls Catholic School, 810 Oak Ave., Sanford. Missing from the ransacked office desks and a safe was $92, according to a report by patrolman T.L. Brooks Jr.

Officers said today that two wheels and tires, valued at $118, were reported taken by thieves off a new car in a fenced compound at Jack Posser Ford, U.S. 17-92 and Lake Mary Blvd., Sanford.

Sheriff's deputies reported four wheels and tires, valued at $648, were removed from a new auto in a similar incident at Longwood Lincoln Mercury, U.S. 17-92 at Five Points south of Sanford.

Sanford police jailed Harold Bernard Swain, 18, of Seminole Gardens Apartments, Sanford, in lieu of $5,000 bond on a charge of carrying a concealed firearm.

Patrolmen Richard Dearing and William Haason reported Swain was observed walking on Sanford Avenue at Fourth Street with what appeared to be a rifle wrapped in a towel.

Police reports indicated the alleged weapon was an air rifle "with a dart setup with a .22-caliber bullet attached to it." — Bob Lloyd.

FREDDIE PRINZE

Cutup At 7...Suicide At 22 Prinze Just Wanted People To Laugh

The Freddie Prinze Story: Part I: The New York Years
EDITOR'S NOTE: Shutting out "Lookin' Good" was one of Freddie Prinze's favorite ways of getting laughs. It always worked. But apparently it didn't work for him personally. The 22-year-old star of TV's "Chico and the Man" — a man for whom everything seemed to be "lookin' good" — shot himself to death last week. The following is the first of two articles on Freddie Prinze's life and focuses on his youth in a poor New York neighborhood.

NEW YORK (AP) — As a little boy he liked to scare people by pretending he was Frankenstein's monster. As a little boy he threw wet tissues from the roof of his apartment building.

He was quite a cutup, that Freddie Prinze, that kid who came from nowhere to become the hip, wisecracking Chicagoan on television's "Chico and the Man."

But as a youngster, the late television star and humorist could also be gentle and quietly reflective, his childhood friends say. He had high and lonesome and liked to be the center of attention. But most of all, he wanted to make people laugh.

The suicide of the 22-year-old comic last week stunned those who knew him in the Washington Heights neighborhood where he grew up. He hated violence, they say. He had a lot of love, they say. How could he shoot himself?

"The only time I've ever seen him depressed was when his uncle died," said Luis Calderon, a 22-year-old store clerk who was Prinze's best friend for over 10 years. "His uncle used to take us to play basketball."

"Freddie was a pretty quiet guy. The only time he spoke was to make someone laugh."

Prinze lived with his mother and father, a tool and dyemaster and auto mechanic, in an eight-room apartment on West 157th Street. Although a predominantly Latin area, this lower-middle-class neighborhood is still multi-ethnic. It's a poor neighborhood, but fairly stable and not an outright ghetto.

Prinze, an only child, came from a mixed background. Karl Prinze, his father, is part gypsy and part Hungarian Jew. His last name was originally "Prinz" but he changed it to Maria. Freddie's mother, is Puerto Rican. Freddie would jokingly call himself a "Hungarian."

"His parents gave him everything he ever wanted," Calderon said. "They gave him a lot of love, especially his mother. She really loved him a lot."

Maria Prinze loved her son so much, adds Warren Lee, a close family friend, that she didn't want to work. She wanted to stay home to take care of Freddie.

Freddie went to neighborhood public grade schools and later entered a Catholic school nearby.

Like many old New York neighborhoods, the part of Washington Heights where the Prinzes lived has seen better days. "Trash, scattered by the wind and by people, litters the streets. A now treeless island with splintering benches in the middle of Broadway is all that's left of the pretty little park where Freddie sat with his mother as a child."

"That's where we first met," recalled Calderon. "I was attending with my grandmother and cousin. Freddie was there with his mother. He was making believe he was Frankenstein and started scaring my cousin."

"Even at seven," Calderon said, "Freddie was funny."

Freddie's building, where his parents lived until two years ago, is across the street from the Happy Hills Casino. Juan's brother, Jerome Ekow, chairman of the drama department at Performing Arts, also spoke of the comic's moodiness.

"Freddie would have lows. Freddie would have highs," Ekow said. "He was basically a high kid. He liked to be on. He liked to be the center of attention. Anyone who sells hard, comes down hard all the time."

"He was a very outgoing kid. He was a collector of girls. But in class he was dandy serious. He was fascinated me because he had the reputation

Tax Writers Urging Changes In Economic Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid calls for major changes in President Carter's $31.2 billion economic package, congressional tax writers are going to work on the administration's plan for 450 individual rebates and other tax changes to spur the economy.

Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal and Charles Schultz, chairman of Carter's Council of Economic Advisors, planned to defend the package as leadoff measures today before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Success came very quickly in the Washington Heights cutup. "He... hit upon the idea of making it a Puerto Rican repairman," Ekow said. "It changed his mind. The rebates are intended to spur consumer demand for new goods. But if citizens are forced to use the rebates to pay higher fuel or other bills, they would not spark the economy.

Republicans have argued for more permanent tax changes than the one-time rebates and for more attention to stimulating business.

While Democrats generally rallied to the rebate proposal, some have joined organized labor in criticizing the administration for concentrating on tax rebates instead of programs to create jobs.

Schultz told the House Appropriations Committee on Tuesday the administration might have to consider enlarging its economic stimulus package "if there is a significant dip in the economic outlook, taking into account the weather or anything else."

"If the cold weather turns off tomorrow, within the week, it wouldn't be necessary to revise the package," Schultz said. Forecasters, however, are talking of another month of abnormal cold, straining depleted supplies.

Ullman outlined a timetable for handling the legislation that could meet the administration's goal of mailing out rebate checks by late March or April — a goal some critics say is over optimistic.

Major Pete Flaherty of the House Public Works subcommittee, Flaherty said, "The cost of local emergency services for handling the legislation that could meet the administration's goal of mailing out rebate checks by late March or April — a goal some critics say is over optimistic.

Landrieu said the cold wave was having "a devastating effect on local budget problems."

Ulcers Really Are Seasonal

DEAR DR. LAMB — I have always heard ulcers come in the spring and fall but believe this to be an "old wives' tale" as they say. My husband, who has retired, has had one several times a year for the past few years. He had one last year and is now again suffering with one. I have had milk and cream which is what his doctor suggests. He has got and is taking one Benemid daily. I'm wondering whether there could be anything in that medication to affect the stomach and perhaps cause an ulcer to return so soon after being cured. He was treated last April and was completely cured. Would you advise a diet at all times after one is cured to prevent future attacks?

DEAR READER — Some "old wives' tales" turn out to be true and this is one of them. Peptic ulcers of the duodenum — the common type — are more likely to occur in the spring and late fall. No one knows why but it is thought to be the North American population.

Peptic ulcers were relatively uncommon before 1900. What few ulcers did occur were usually of the stomach and not the duodenum. All of this suggests that our current lifestyle has a lot to do with the incidence of ulcers. To give you more information on this and what your husband can do about it I am sending you The Health Letter number 1-5, Ulcers — Duodenum, Stomach. Others who want this information send 50 cents for it with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. Write to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 150, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

HOROSCOPE

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't demand unwavering loyalty from friends today because you won't get it. What you will get are severe disappointments if you try.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A serious domestic crisis can arise today if the powers that must be reckoned with adopt diametrically opposed views. Don't take any hard stands.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) Don't be pressured into signing or agreeing to anything against your better judgment. Tell the other party you'd like to sleep on it.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) An old obligation may demand attention today. Take care of it now. It won't go away.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) This is one of those days when your mate is going to be zipping when you're tagging. Someone's going to have to compromise. Let it be you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) The biggest source of frustration will lie within yourself today. At least you'll know who to blame.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Trying to impose your will upon your peer group today can have disastrous repercussions. Let others manage their own affairs.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) The path to your goals today is rocky. Don't make matters worse by jousting with windmills along the way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't permit yourself to be drawn into a political or philosophical debate. The discussion could become very heated. Hurt feelings would result.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Commercial situations could have some hidden pitfalls today. Treat very carefully so you won't be snared with a deficit.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Know how to differentiate between persistence and obstinacy today. If you butt your noggin against a wall you can only come up with a headache.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Pace yourself wisely today and use common sense regarding health matters. Don't overdo unless you want to over pay the piper.

YOUR BIRTHDAY Feb. 3, 1977 Something you've hoped for but thought was out of reach could be realized this coming year. Your dream can come true because of the ground you've laid.

She's running out of tomorrow. The future of our children depends on energy. And America is running out of some of its primary energy sources. We can no longer depend on natural gas and oil. In fact, some experts say we only have enough of these to last until the end of the century. There's not much time. We must actively develop new energy technologies and refine and improve existing ones. And we have to do it now. Today. That's why FPL has committed scores of planners and researchers and a multi-million dollar budget this year. It's that important to all of us. Nuclear energy. Solar energy. Liquefied coal. We're working on all of them and more, to find the most economical way to produce electricity. Because, unless we plan properly today, we simply won't have the electricity we need tomorrow. # Ross Posts Easy Win Over Medina

BY LEE GEIGER
Herald Correspondent
ORLANDO — Edgar "Mad Dog" Ross was at his methodical best last night, at the Orlando Sports Stadium, as he punished Arizona's Vicente Medina into a bloody mess, before the fight was halted after five one-sided rounds.

The win was the 40th in the Southern Junior middleweight champion's pro boxing career, and it was one of his easiest.

Taking control from the outset, with a more aggressive style, Ross opened a deep cut over Medina's right eye in the opening round.

Many of the 7,000 fans seated in the light-colored bleachers were given a good show by both boys giving it their all in every session.

With the bout up for grabs going into the final round, Barr was able to stun Turner with a vicious right hand into his head, he staggered back against the ropes, and Barr continued to follow up his advantage.

Raining punches on his helpless opponent, Barr ripped into Turner with a series of right hooks to the head and body, with both his hands and head.

By the time the fight was halted, by Dr. R. Wilson Geldner, Medina's cut was dripping blood, while his nose was also oozing clear.

The win propelled Ross into a possible fight with the North American junior middleweight title holder, Tony Gardner, in three weeks.

In the most action packed pro fight, Ernie Barr turned near defeat into victory when he stopped Orlando's Ed "Savage" Turner in the eighth and final round.

Ernie Barr, who had been known by the Bahamian, the light heavyweight bout was a closely contested match with both boys giving it their all in every session.

$80 Million Wins TV's 'Olympics'

MOSCOW (AP) — The National Broadcasting Co., culminating lengthy negotiations which went down to the final hours, has won the United States television rights for the 1980 Summer Olympics.

The network purchased the rights for an estimated $80 million — a figure which includes $55 million for the rights and the rest for technical facilities.

The contract was signed Tuesday and approved by the International Olympic Committee.

"We are delighted to have been successful in arranging to bring to American audiences the 1980 Olympics in Moscow and the American participation in this international event of the first magnitude," said NBC President Herb Schlosser.

Realizing Turner could get hurt, Malone halted the battle in Barr's favor with just nine seconds left in the fight.

In the crowd felt that Malone should have given Turner a "standing eight-count," but the referee later explained why he didn't.

Standing eight counts are the rule in amateur bouts.

Since this was a pro fight, I had only two choices. Stop the fight or take a chance of having Turner permanently injured. Of course, I chose the former."

Head referee, Jack Blake stated, "Malone did the proper thing, I agree 1000 per cent. If anyone thinks otherwise, they don't have Turner's best interest at heart."

In the other pro bout, Milton Owens had little trouble stopping last minute replacement Randy Armstrong in the third session.

The win was the 11th in Owens undefeated pro career, but it was far from his most impressive.

In amateur action: Carlos Santiago defeated Keith Goldstein, Ronnie Furlow had little trouble with Curtis Barber, Randy Groves stopped Mike Carson in the first round; Craig Montford got past Ben Hall; and in the best fight of the night — Chris Rizzo outlasted Fred Malnes.

Headlining Turner could get hurt, Malone halted the battle in Barr's favor with just nine seconds left in the fight.

When it's right, you know it. "I felt it was in his son as it left my hand," said Earl Monroe, propping in his right eye the 12-foot jumper from the left baseline with three seconds left in overtime which gave the New York Knicks a 108-107 National Basketball Association victory over the Golden State Warriors Tuesday night.

"I've been shooting pretty well lately," said Monroe, who hit six of seven shots.

Golden State's Rick Barry had been feeling more confident after having bounced off the rim as the buzzer sounded — and Barry slammed his right fist into the hardwood floor in disgust.

Seminole, Trinity Grab Cage Triumphs

Brantley's Frey (12) has problem getting shot off against Seminole's Cotton

Seminole and Trinity Prep were Tuesday night's winners in Seminoke County high school basketball. Seminole defeated Kelly Brantley 63-53 and Trinity Prep topped arch-rival Lake Highlands 57-43.

Heuben Cotton, David Higgins Co. were their best players. Trinity Prep, now 6-0, out together in the second half with Doug Lanier clearing the boards for 11 of his 15 rebounds. Lanier wound up with 12 points.

Trinity plays again Friday night at home in the Winter Park Baptist gym.

ST. PETERSBURG—Seminole Community College's basketball team continued its winning ways Tuesday night as the winners was Bob Zippo with 29 points.

SCC now 7-0, travels to Flagler College Friday for the toughest match on the Raiders' schedule this season.

Wow! 128 M.P.H. Is Daytona Mark

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) — "You have seen my time and let me say I have even after accelerating pedal left," Belgian driver Jacky Ickx said after setting an unofficial record at Daytona International Speedway.

Ickx, returning to a race car for the first time since breaking both ankles in the U.S. Grand Prix at Watkins Glen last October, was clocked in 1:17.4 as he toured the 3.64-mile road-and-track course here Tuesday in a turbo Porsche 955.

His average speed of 128.71 miles per hour in an unofficial practice run compares to the official track record for grand touring cars of 1:50.00 and 127.07 m.p.h. set by John Greenwood in a Corvette in November, 1975.

Ickx led some 20 drivers in testing the track before the Ferrari driver by actor-racecar driver Paul Newman, who was clocked at better than 100 m.p.h. in the straightaway mainland Unfederated in 15th-ranked Providence beat St. Bonaventure 82-75, and Clemson squeaked past North Carolina State 69-59 after losing star center Wayne "Tree" Rollins because of a leg injury.

Elsewhere, Notre Dame topped Dayton 74-64, West Virginia upset Virginia Tech 86-78, Houston defeated Texas Tech 84-67 in a tight-marcelled out and had weather in the Buffalo area forced cancellation of Buffalo State-Niagara and California-Butte.

NEW YORK (AP) — Smokin' Joe Frazier, who is being known for now instead of smokes, has a favorite lyric which is entitled "I'm Dog Heaven."

There's a line in it which says, "Who ever heard of a little black dog who refused to play with a little white dog?"

Four members of University of Hawaii's basketball team, runner for Class AA football honors last season, are on the Class AA all-state prep team chosen by the Florida Sports Writers' Association.

Know Your Ballet Guild Dancers

Tammy Kaleel, daughter of Mrs. Frances Kaleel of Deltona, is the youngest company dancer with Ballet Guild of Sanford-Seminole. She will be 12 on Feb. 23.

She Thumbs Nose At Mom's Nose Job

DEAR ABBY: Last summer for my 16th birthday, my mother gave me a nose job. My nose is a lot smaller now but it's slightly lopsided. I mean one of my nostrils is higher than the other.

After I had my nose done, my mother had hers done by another doctor. Hers came out really perfect, and now she wants HER doctor to do my nose over.

I don't want to go through that whole thing again with the black and blue eyes and the swollen face, but my mother insists on it. Don't you think I should have something to say about it? After all, it's my nose.

My mother says that as a dancer I have to do whatever she says.

Please help me.

HAD ENOUGH DEAR HAD: If you're satisfied with your nose, hold your ground. Your mother can't force you into elective surgery. And knowing how you feel, no respectable plastic surgeon would take your case.

DEAR ABBY: My husband never fails to show me every item you put in your column about fat women.

Isn't it funny that a man never sees himself as he looks now? My husband had all his teeth pulled and won't wear his dentures. He's only 52, but he looks like 72. He goes around shaving, and I have to fight with him to get him to change his clothes.

Now for me: I was 27, slim and trim when he married me. Four years later, after I had my third baby, I was 50 pounds overweight.

My husband never wanted to go any place. He just wanted to stay home, drink beer and watch TV. I'm so fat now it's an effort for me to walk around, so of course my house is dirty. I'm

Cook Of The Week

Cooking Is A (Hill) Family Affair

By ELDA NICHOLS
 Herald Correspondent

Mary Hill learned Southern cooking from her husband, Joe.

Mary Hill, Longwood, had to change her cooking habits when she married her husband, Joe, from North Carolina. Laughing, she said, "I had never cooked grits and greens and other Southern dishes, but with Joe's help, I soon learned!"

In the midst of building a large addition to their home, Mary confessed that cooking is a family affair. "We both cook, and both work on the house. Joe is going to enlarge the kitchen and I'll really enjoy cooking then. You know, I have pots and pans I'm dying to use, but just don't have the space for them now."

Mary is firm when she does her weekly grocery shopping, and never goes without a list. "I stick to it, too! If I find I've forgotten it, I go back home and get it!" she said. Meals are planned a week in advance, and Mary considers herself lucky, saying, "We're not a picky family. They eat anything I put on the table."

With a full-time job as sales-decorator at Storch's, in Maitland, Mary likes to use a slow cooking pot, as well as a

QUICK FRUIT SALAD
 1 pkg. orange Jell-O
 dash salt
 1 cup boiling water
 2 ice cubes
 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
 1/2 cup diced unpeeled apple
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 Dissolve gelatin and salt in boiling water. Add ice cubes and lemon juice. Stir about 5 minutes to melt ice, or until gelatin is thickened. Remove any unmelded ice. Stir in remaining ingredients. Chill at least 1 hour. Spoon into lettuce-lined bowls and serve with mayonnaise, if desired. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

HAMBURGER PIE
 1 lb. ground steak
 1 medium onion
 salt and pepper
 2 Tbsp. flour
 2 eggs
 1 cup sour cream
 Sauté meat and onion in butter until meat has lost its color. Add seasonings and flour. Pour into 9 inch pie crust. Beat eggs; add to sour cream; pour over meat. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake 45 min. in 375 degree oven.

QUICK FRUIT SALAD
 1/2 cup Kikkoman soy sauce
 3 pounds broiler-fryer chicken, cut up
 1/2 cup egg's corn
 1/2 cup flour
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1 egg
 1 Tbsp. oil
 1 Tbsp. cornstarch
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. celery seed
 1/2 tsp. dry mustard
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
 7 medium potatoes, or 6 cups, peeled, diced and chilled
 3 hard boiled eggs
 1/2 cup medium saucepan
 combine milk, sugar, vinegar, egg, oil, cornstarch, salt, celery seed and dry mustard. Cook and stir over low heat till thickened. Remove from heat. Blend in onion and mayonnaise, cool, combine potatoes and eggs, carefully fold in dressing, chill, just before serving, sprinkle with paprika.

ZESTY CORN CRISPED CHICKEN
 1 egg
 1/2 cup margarine, melted
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup flour
 1 egg
 1 Tbsp. cinnamon
 1/2 tsp. baking soda
 1/2 tsp. baking powder
 1/2 tsp. salt
 2 large apples, peeled and chopped
 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
 In large bowl, stir until smooth, all ingredients except apples and walnuts. Stir in apples and walnuts and turn into greased 8x2 in. pan and bake in 350 degree oven, for 35-40 min. Cool in pan on rack out in 18 bars.

Arabs Buy Jewels: Price Is No Object

Arabian wives are allowed to buy $10,000 trinkets: the men purchase the $3 million ensembles like this one (top left) in diamonds and emeralds. Another favorite of Arabian buyers is the ensemble made up of three bracelets, pendant and 15-carat diamond (top right)

PARIS—Over the last four years, emissaries of Saudi Arabia, sheiks or potentates have been investing their employers' colossal fortunes in various enterprises.

But perhaps the most spectacular purchases by the rulers of Saudi Arabia take place in the luxurious salons of the world-renowned jewelers of the Place Vendôme and the rue de la Paix.

Alan Boucheron, 32, third generation member of a firm who happens to be one of the first to count emirs and, in the old days descendants of the pharaohs among its clients, says: "It is no exaggeration to say that the sky is the limit and price is no object when a piece of jewelry appeals to the buyer — and the bigger the better."

"But," he pointed out, "these princess have an innate knowledge and love of precious stones, so that they never can be put off with a piece which might have even an infinitesimal flaw, not one which is not a last-minute creation, incidentally, a solitaire diamond of less than 10 carats does not interest them."

"Our clients come to us or we do to them," continued

while they also have a passion for cloaks of every description, often in gold and jewel-studded. The same indifference to price is manifested when the princesses come to Paris — four or five times a year — to buy clothes. They may buy practically the whole of a collection and think nothing of ordering 15 to 20 numbers of the same model in different colors and fabrics. They are inclined to be conservative in their taste although they are well aware of the latest style trends. Not for them, however, the mini-skirts or docile down to the navel.

For really great occasions a Saudi Arabian princess will unhesitatingly set her mind on a dress with a price tag close to half a million dollars which she may only wear once.

The men are extremely jewelry-conscious, too. Among the Boucheron collection is a batch of recent models in watches — square and round, surrounded by three rows of diamonds on platinum or gold bracelets. The price tag for these starts at $20,000. Then there are gold chains with very unassuming pendants, cut into rings. A few months ago one of the princess ordered a gold bracelet studded with 3,000 diamonds (1,200 carats in all) for her favorite sister, who mounted when hunting falcon. Some of the wealthier Arabians own as many as 100 watches, sapphires.

Many of the princesses and concubines own fabulous jewels. Sets of necklace, earrings, bracelets, rings combining precious stones

Bird Artist Scheduled For Sanford

The Association will hold its Annual Members Exhibit at the Sanford Civic Center on March 6.

Mrs. Betty Palmer, coordinator of science and environmental studies with the Seminole County school system was guest speaker at a meeting of the Seminole Chapter of the Florida Audubon Society, Thursday at the Florida Power and Light building, Sanford.

She displayed charts illustrating how awareness of and interest in the environment is established in school children. Slides were shown depicting students planting seedlings and trees, and carrying out nature themes in art and other classroom activities.

A letter from the Central Florida Zoo was read at the meeting, acknowledging receipt of the chapter's recent $100 gift to the zoo.

LADY OF THE WEEK
 MRS. GORDON (JEAN) MEYER

She is as pretty as a picture and Jean does have a new hairdo — "The Nova" which is especially becoming and lovely on her — this easy to care for style is so right for this woman on the go who must look her best at all times — a perfect touch of acid wave adds fullness and body to this layered short short style.

Panther, Bobcat Stars Of Museum Show

Over 300 young people attended the first annual Florida Animal Day held at the John Young Museum and Planetarium on Jan. 25 and 26.

JYMP Educational Director Mark Sinclair reports that the program was so successful that a portion of it will be repeated.

According to Sinclair, Bob Steele, owner of Animal Day's star performer, a full-grown Florida panther, will be returning to the Museum on Feb. 19 and 20. Steele will exhibit the panther and a Florida bobcat from 1-2 p.m. each day and will answer questions about the animals in an informal "rap" session.

The program is free to JYMP members, with non-members paying the regular admission fee of $1.00 for adults and 75¢ for those under 18 years of age. Anyone wishing to know more about the program should call the Museum at 896-7151.

Birthday celebrations don't have to wait all day to happen

Green Beans Always Versatile Vegetable

Green beans have been a desirable vegetable for very many years. Traced to pre-late days in South America, they were transported to Europe by Spanish explorers. Green or "snap" beans soon flourished across Europe. From Europe, settlers introduced the beans to the United States.

Today, green beans are served once a week or more by almost three-fourths of all homemakers in the U.S. Popular with both sexes and all age groups, green beans as a versatile favorite ranks second only to canned corn in all canned vegetables sold.

Birthday Coffeecake Starts Morning

Next time there's a birthday at your house, start the celebration early with a festive breakfast. A morning meal of special treats sets the tone of the day and gets the occasion off on a happy note.

Besides being good-tasting and attractive, the breakfast fare also should be packed with nutrition to see the birthday person through his or her very own day.

County Morning Birthday Coffeecake rises to the occasion. It's appealing and nutritious, made with all-natural ingredients including Kellogg's Country Morning cereal. Following the easy muffin method, the cake is quickly prepared in only 10 minutes and baked for about an hour. Bake it the night before, drizzle with the Vanilla Glaze and serve the next morning. The sweet spice flavor and chewy texture make this wonderful cake a tasty and healthful way to start the day.

BANANA CREAM PIE
1 cup unsifted flour
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup (1 stick) 100 pct. corn oil margarine
3 tablespoons ice water
2-3/4 cup sugar
1-3/4 cup cornstarch
2 cups skim milk
1/2 cup cholesterol-free egg substitute
1 tablespoon 100 pct. corn oil margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup dried bananas
1 cup apricot preserves
1 banana, sliced
1 teaspoon salt in a bowl. Cut in 1/2 cup margarine with pastry blender or two knives until mixture resembles coarse meal. Stir in ice water; mix well.
On floured board, roll out dough to fit a 9-inch pie plate and remaining 1/4 teaspoon salt in a heavy saucepan. Gradually blend in skim milk and egg substitute. Add 1 tablespoon margarine. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thick and mixture begins to boil. Remove from heat; beat until smooth. Stir in vanilla extract and dried bananas. Pour into prepared pie shell. Chill at least one hour.
Just before serving, heat and strain apricot preserves. Arrange sliced bananas on pie, then top with strained preserves. Makes 8 servings.

Cheshire Suit Could Set Trend: Williams

Firemen Aid Mom In 'Surprise Arrival'

By JEAN PATTESON Herald Staff Writer

At 9:18 this morning Firemen Carl Helms and Pete Tucker got the call. A baby was being born: location, 127 Academy Ave., Sanford.

"It was great," he added. "I didn't know how I'd feel if I was ever called to deliver a baby, but when you realize you've helped bring a human being into the world...well, it's great."

Fireman Helms said he felt a whole lot better once it was all over. "Although when we got

A lawsuit over courthouse office space, filed Wednesday against the Seminole County Commission by State Atty. Douglas Cheshire, could have statewide implications, county officials said today.

"From the magnitude of the documents, he's been working on it for weeks," Commission Chairman Dick Williams predicted.

"It wasn't a surprise," Williams said. "The issue is how much space and where."

The lawsuit, filed Wednesday for Cheshire by Asst. State Atty. Jerrald Bros, seeks both temporary and permanent injunctions against county commissioners restraining them "from interfering with the state attorney's rights in and to courthouse space."

Williams said Cheshire "obviously" had prepared the suit before the state attorney appeared before the county commission on Tuesday.

The chairman said the suit could determine state attorney's rights across Florida, in addition to Seminole.

Cheshire is seeking twice the office space in the courthouse his prosecutors occupy. The commission agrees the space should be provided, but disagree on whether the space must be "let" the courthouse.

No hearing date has been set for the civil action which has been assigned to Circuit Judge Dominick Sells.

Cheshire is also seeking a court order immediately declaring his right to have courthouse space for "a proper and efficient facility" with a minimum of 4,279 square feet of floor space—in accordance with standards set by the state

Regional Sewer Panel Shopping For County Land

By MARK WEINBERG Herald Staff Writer

The Regional Interim Sewer Plant Committee has taken the first step toward acquiring land for a regional sewage treatment system.

The group, composed of representatives of Lake Mary, Sanford and Seminole County governments, voted Wednesday to determine the availability of land on a purchase or lease basis for a spray irrigation system.

The committee also continued its consideration of the powers and responsibilities of an elected governing board which will design and operate a regional system.

When the interim committee completes its plan for the permanent body, it will draft proposed legislation for Seminole's state legislators. A permanent group must be created by state law.

Paul Porter of Clark, Dietz and Associates, the consulting engineering firm working with the committee, suggested the committee "talk to some real estate people... and see what the prices are and the availability of the land."

The committee voted to inform local realtors and landowners of the committee's interest in land for spray irrigation through newspaper advertising and notices to all realtors within the regional planning district.

Landowners and realtors were invited to contact Porter at his Sanford office by calling 322-6841.

In a spray irrigation system, waste water is piped to a treatment facility where about 95 per cent of the pollutants are removed. The remaining water (called "effluent") is thinly sprayed over land planted with a crop such as hay, which is harvested and sold.

The land under spray irrigation according to consulting engineer Dr. Jess C. Dietz, "retains a productive use... It is always convertible to any normal use after spraying. Schools, housing or anything else could be built on the land."

At least 2,000 acres would be needed for the spray irrigation system.

Committee member W.E. Knowles, Sanford's city manager, criticized other members for spending too much time on details of the methods to be used by Porter to determine the availability of land.

"If we're going to sit up here day after day and get involved in details, we're wasting time," he said.

The permanent board will have the responsibility of constructing, owning, operating, controlling and maintaining a regional treatment facility, the committee decided Wednesday. This will include development of the treatment plant and major transmission lines to the plant.

When the committee has finished designating the governing board's powers and responsibilities, a team of lawyers representing the county, Sanford and Lake Mary will put the proposal into detailed legal language.

The interim committee voted Wednesday that the governing board would be empowered to:

- Employ staff, including an executive director.
- Enter land, water or premises served by the system for inspection purposes.
- Set and collect fees, rates and charges, including special one-time charges if needed. There must be a minimum of three months between the governing board's adoption of a rate change and the change's effective date, the committee decided.

BRUSHING UP WITH THE 'TOOTH FAIRY'

"You can't fool Mother Nature," as we all know — and it's not too cool either to fool around with the "Tooth Fairy," as pupils from Mrs. Mary Jane Barbour's kindergarten class at Pinecrest Elementary School, Sanford, learned Wednesday. Preparing for National Children's Dental Health Week beginning Monday, the "Tooth Fairy" (Mrs. Gail Stewart) warned a rapt, captive audience on how to and not to brush teeth — demonstrating the former. Her audience (from left, standing) Joyce Dykes and Lee Bullock; (seated) Michael Perry and Danielle Strickland. Next week's event will be highlighted with selection of winners in the smile and poster contests Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Altamonte Mall. Seminole winners then will compete for the Central Florida title at Howard High School, Orlando, Feb. 12 at 11 a.m. The Tooth Fairy Wednesday also visited Idylwild Elementary School.
