By Evelyn Lundy
The Lawton Memorial Scholarship Fund was explained in detail by Harden Webb for those attending the final meeting of the Oviedo PTO for the current term. This scholarship is being established by friends to honor or the late Dr. T. W. Lawton, noted educator of Seminole County. The loan will be available for worthy students who desire to further their education but are unable to do so due to financial difficulties. Interest rates on repayment will fluctuate according to the student's position. Contributions, for the present time, can be made through W. H. Martin of the First Baptist Church of Oviedo. Later, when the fund has been well established, contributions will be made directly to the Citizens Bank of Oviedo.

Serving on the board of directors for the scholarship fund are Webb, C. R. Clonts Sr., Clyde Holder, Ralph Neeley and Martin. New PTO officers for the coming school year were installed by Merritt Staley. They are Jack Bymes, president; Mrs. Clyde Holder, first vice president; Mrs. A. W. Christlieb, second vice president; Mrs. Milton Gore, third vice president; Mrs. John Evans, secretary and Ralph Neeley, treasurer. Following the business meeting and program, which featured a haton twirling number by Barbara Diggs, Lyman

High head majorette, a reception was held in the cafeteria honoring teachers and staff members of the school who each were presented with a gift plant in appreciation of their work during the past year. The serving table was beautifully decorated with a cut-work cloth and arrangements of roses. Punch was served from a large silver bowl. Victoria is the official name of the city commonly known as Hong Kong. By Sanford Herald Page 6-A—April 16, 1964

The polite term is "intestinal fortitude." But in the vernacular of the day, Jim Avery, Gen. J. C. Hutchison and John Fitzpatrick have "guts." All presently are county commissioners.

These three are candidates in the coming elections and, as such, want and need all the votes they can garner. However, they stood by their convictions of serving "all the county" and voted with Commissioner Lee Gary for an ad valorem tax to help finance the $1 million wing for Seminole Memorial Hospital.

These three voted for this county-wide improvement in face of organized opposition from hundreds of South Seminole residents and voters, who are protesting the tax. When the Commission vote was tallied last Tuesday, favoring the hospital levy, one woman in the audience was overheard to say: "Goodbye! It was nice knowing you."

Jim Avery voiced the opinion of four of the five Commissioners succinctly: "I don't use the county jail but I pay taxes to help support it."

While The Herald is endorsing no candidates in this primary, feeling all are worthy of consideration, a "vote of thanks" is due Avery, Hutchison and Fitzpatrick for their stand.

And, while on politics, the Salvation Army's Capt. Harry S. Foden inadvertently got into the act. The good Captain had been doing some painting and was in the proper working attire instead of his uniform. He hurried to a store for more supplies and, as he entered, he spoke a "hello" to a couple of men. Neither replied. . . but as the Captain continued he overheard the remark: "Politician!"

From the mailbag re our query about "bivector?" "Bi" meaning two parts; vector - math, a complex quantity possessing both magnitude and direction and represented by any of a system of equal and parallel line segments. Have Fun! Henrietta. Now we're finished.

Two more tagged fish, making 18 in all, in the Schlitz $600,000 fishing derby, have been taken from Lake Golden. Latest catches, both bass, were made by Bert H. Smith and Alvin D. Acord, both of SNAS. All fish in the derby caught in Seminole County and recorded have been taken from Lake Golden, although the Orlando agent said moneyed fish were distributed in all county streams, along with the rest of Florida.

When Irving Feinberg accepted the keys for the Del Mar building for the Chemical Corporation of America, the dignitaries puzzled over who had previously put up the "for sale" sign. Now that the building has long since been sold and the corporation will commence operations there in September, it has been noted the "for sale" sign still stands.

The politicians don't miss a trick. One state candidate is sending his own quartet in to entertain Saturday during "Cracker Days." Of course, they will occasionally intersect his campaign song.

An anonymous, mimeographed news sheet labeled by readers as "The Informer" is upsetting new residents in North Orlando. The first issue attacked the City Charter Board. One official, it is reported, has been making a house-to-house canvass in that city inquiring as to circulation and promising future deliveries. Other top officials say they know who are the two authors but can do nothing about the sheet. Receivers could do like The Herald staff does with anonymous letters: Toss them into File 13.

Prepare For Population Explosion, Seminole Warned

While Seminole County has developed within the last 10-15 years into a "bedroom county," in the opinion of Robert H. Doyle, Titusville, Sanford and Seminole County officials were advised Thursday noon to employ now a professional planner to prepare for a population explosion during the next 11 years.

Doyle, executive director of the seven-county East Central Florida Regional Planning Council, told a joint meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and the Sanford - Seminole Junior Chamber of Commerce that the present three-quarter million population in the seven counties will double by 1975.

Significant in the overall planning of new roads, schools, utilities and other necessities to meet the needs of expanding Cape Kennedy, Doyle reported that federal and state agencies are receptive to his group's suggestion to preserve a "greenway" for agriculture, water conservation and control, and for recreation.

This "greenway," also approved by the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District, would follow the St. Johns River valley through Lake Harney and extend through Samaula to the Atlantic Ocean at a point between New Smyrna and Daytona Beach.

"The impact of Cape Kennedy has hit all of us," Doyle stated. "It is necessary to plan roads, water supply, regional parks, needs for the new university near Oviedo, housing, etc."

He illustrated by pointing out that Brevard County had a population of only 20,000 some 14 years ago and now has 170,000.

Turning to Seminole County, he cited that while 20 years ago Seminole was agricultural, it is "now suburban and in another 20 years may well be urban."

He added that to obtain here but work and buy elsewhere.

He said the county's "problem is critical. Need for schools, water, sewerage, streets, etc., is growing. The county must seek a better balance—seek new industry and take on a commercial look."

He predicted a "colossal traffic jam on 17-92 between Sanford and Orlando when the two new shopping centers open at Winter Park."

Doyle said that while 20 years ago Seminole was agricultural, it is "now suburban and in another 20 years may well be urban."

He added that to obtain

16 be re-routed around the downtown section of Sanford. Also, it has been discussed extending Highway 46 with a new crossing at Mims, giving direct access to Cape Kennedy.

Highlighting his talk, Doyle said the planning council is advocating a parkway to extend from the Port Orange area southerly and to the west of Lake Harney, along the Econlockhatchee River, proceed in the vicinity of the new state university at Oviedo, thence east of Orlando and connect with Sunshine Parkway in the proximity of the Chain of Lakes.

"This scenic drive," he advocated, "would take care of the Sunday drivers."

He also predicted that with new construction at the space center on Cape Kennedy and opening it for visitors "it will attract 2.5 million tourists a year."

Doyle was introduced by Judge Vernon Mize, co-chairman of the steering sub-committee of the long range planning committee, Seminole Chamber of Commerce.

ROBERT H. DOYLE, East Central Florida planning expert, Thursday in a talk before the Seminole Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees, predicted a population explosion and advised city and county officials to employ a professional planner now. (Herald Photo)

BRUNSWICK, GA., PORT Authority facilities were inspected Thursday by three Seminole County officials in a day long tour of docks and terminals. The local delegation received a warm reception from Brunswick port officials and were photographed for Brunswick and other newspapers by the freelance photographer shown at right. ### Georgia Port Points The Way To Development Of Sanford

BRUNSWICK, Ga.—A delegation of Seminole County officials visited this city's barge port facility Thursday and left firmly convinced a similar operation would be beneficial to Sanford and Central Florida.

The three officials, plus a representative of the Sanford Herald, were guests of the Brunswick Port Authority and the Georgia State Port Authority.

They flew here in a Florida Power & Light Company plane. Making the daylong inspection tour were Sanford Mayor A. L. Wilson, Francis Roumillat, chairman of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce's Port Authority Committee, and County Commissioner John R. Alexander, and Harry Johnson, city editor of The Sanford Herald. Ken Stowell was the pilot.

Among things they learned in conversations with Cecil E. Gann, manager of Brunswick state docks and warehouses, and John Rawlerson, director of the Brunswick Port Authority, were:

Brunswick now realizes a $1,601,000 increase in its economy each year and the economic impact is increasing by almost 100 per cent, and has been since the authority was formed in 1957.

Northbound barges NEVER return empty. A barge brings consumer goods into the South, returns to northern points loaded "at all times" with raw materials and other products of southern origin.

So-called "competition" with railroads disappears as the barge terminal brings business to railroads, rather than taking it away from them.

Employment is up with stevedores netting about $3.50 an hour while working the docks. This money is dumped into businesses of this city.

Industry follows, without fail, when the port facilities are announced and even before actual work begins on

Times Endorses Odham; Herald Backs Holland

By United Press International
Orlando businessman Brailley Odham won the endorsement of the St. Petersburg Times today in his race against incumbent U. S. Sen. Spessard L. Holland, but the Miami Herald threw its backing to Holland.

The Herald did not mention Odham and had no criticism of Holland, but the Times took Holland to task strongly for his racial stand and his refusal to make public his financial affairs.

The Times said Odham's voice would be "a new and refreshing one from the South."

The Herald called Holland, who is seeking a fourth term, an "unassuming statesman, whose brand of conservatism is positive and purposeful."

The Herald, in an editorial today, said the senior Florida senator is "most of all a knowledgeable legislator who does his homework."

The paper mentioned the committee positions and the rank of 12th in seniority which Holland holds.

The Times endorsed Odham's stand for a strong two-party system, a system of choosing a new vice president in mid-term in the event of the President's death, and majority passage of Senate bills.

The paper called Odham "a young Southerner who upholds a President Johnson's stand that 100 years has been long enough to debate the question of whether all citizens should have equal opportunities."

Dickinson Asks Crash Program For Cape Area

By United Press International
Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach took his campaign for governor to the nation's space capital today and proposed an immediate crash program to provide roads and bridges to handle bulging population and critical military needs in the Cape Kennedy area.

Dickinson told campaign supporters in Eau Gallie that a severe situation exists in Brevard "but as governor I will go all the way to the president of the United States to seek help in solving the problem."

Dickinson, termed the crown prince of the present Bryant administration by Sen. John Mathews of Jacksonville and other fellow candidates; stressed that he is not being "critical of those in state office now."

But he found fault with the development commission for not promoting the cape missile area which he called the Eiffel Towers of America.

"Florida needs a governor who sees the big picture," he also talked about salt water intrusion and the water problem and said he'd support the upper St. Johns flood control project.

In Daytona Beach, his home town, Rep. Fred Karl told a breakfast meeting he was calling on his fellow candidates to stop giving lip service to reappointment and present a specific plan for the people to see.

"The record shows the attitude of some of the candidates," Karl said. "And unless their thinking has changed, they offer outmoded, unfair plans that are no better now than before."

He said Dickinson once supported the small-county 45-senator plan, while Senator Mathews last pushed a 46-senator plan "backed by the small county pork chop bloc and soundly defeated at the polls."

Sen. Scott Kelly talked to supporters in Pulk, Pasco, Marion and Pinellas counties today, saying he is the symbol of opposition to the Civil Rights Bill and a "vote for me is a vote against the Civil Rights Bill."

5,000 Shriners Meet Here Next Weekend

An estimated 5,000 Shriners will converge on Sanford next weekend, April 24-25, for a ceremony in which 100 candidates will be initiated into Bahia Temple.

Hosts for the occasion will be Harold Kastner, illustrious potentate of Bahia Temple of Shriners, and Roy G. Williams, president of the Sanford Shrine Club.

Friday afternoon will be given over to a golf tournament at Mayfair Country Club.

An estimated 300 persons turned out Thursday evening to hear three-minute talks by nearly 50 Democratic candidates for party nomination in the May 5 primary.

The session, at the Jal Alai Fronton, was the first of a series of county-wide rallies sponsored by the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee.

Each candidate for county office was allowed three minutes to expound his or her qualifications.

Sen. Scott Kelly, one of six candidates for governor, arrived late in the meeting and talked briefly. A spokesman also talked briefly for Fred Karl, another gubernatorial candidate.

Next county rally will be April 23 at Oviedo High School gym and the last on April 30 at Sanford Civic Center.

The report was carried by the French news agency and the government-owned radio and television networks, although there was no official confirmation from De Gaulle's office.

De Gaulle was reported to have entered the Cochin Hospital in Paris Thursday night, only an hour after the broadcast of his pre-recorded radio and television speech to the nation.

Cracker Days Are Here

Rev. Grover Sewell The Model Prayer

Many questions are asked about prayer. I would not be surprised if more people ask questions concerning this means of grace than any other. This is not a modern happening. When we turn back the centuries to the time when Christ was on earth the same inquisitiveness existed. When the disciples asked our Lord to teach them to pray He spoke the words that we find in Matthew 6:9-13. We identify this model prayer as "The Lord's Prayer."

THE INTRODUCTION SAYS, "OUR FATHER, WHO ART IN HEAVEN." We find a very warm, close and intimate relationship with God in being permitted to address Him as "Father." We must stand in awe at the privilege of being able to approach God as His children.

Let us note also that He is our HEAVENLY Father. For those of us who have children, we know that the best is not too good for them, yet our judgment is not always right. For example, we all know people who would not think of denying their children and physical advantage, yet neglect their most important souls. The Heavenly Father knows without a doubt what we need.

There are six great petitions in this prayer of a few words. The first three relate to God and His honor while the last three are primarily concerned with man and his needs.

THE FIRST PETITION SAYS, "HALLOWED BE THY NAME." Praise is given to God in these words. How appropriate it is to begin our prayers with praise to the God of all that is.

THE SECOND PETITION ASKS, "THY KINGDOM COME."

In many of our churches we repeat this prayer time after time, but how many of us are sincere? We are praying to be ruled by Christ Himself. Certainly this places our allegiance to Him above our business, recreation, country and families. He makes it very clear that He is Lord of all or Lord not at all.

THE THIRD PETITION, "THY WILL BE DONE ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN."

It is simply not enough to become citizens of the Heavenly Kingdom, but GOOD citizens where the will of the Sovereign God is our will. THE FOURTH PETITION, "GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD." "Daily bread" does not indicate that we feel it necessary to have great wealth to be satisfied. We will not have to "keep up with the Joneses" to find happiness, but we do ask that God provide us with the necessities of life that we may live respectfully for Him.

PETITION NUMBER FIVE, "AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS."

How many of us mean that? What a DANGEROUS petition. Do we really want God to forgive us as WE forgive others? This involves multiple pardonings as well as true mendous pardonings for most of us. Evidently Peter was faced with the problem of forgiving a troublesome person. He asked if he had to forgive as much as seven times, to which our blessed Lord replied, "seventy times seven," meaning an unlimited number of times.

"THE SIXTH PETITION, 'AND LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION, BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL.'" This petition recognizes that the flesh is weak and that we want to keep, not only from evil, but even the temptation to evil.

Honesty forces us to admit that we must bend over backwards to avoid the besetting sins which capture and enslave us so easily. "THE CONCLUSION SAYS, 'FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM, AND THE POWER, AND THE GLORY, FOREVER. AMEN.'"

What a magnificent way to end this great prayer. It echoes that central theme of Scripture found in Revelation 19:6, "Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth." Yes, indeed, all is His forever, including the honor and glory. Let us analyze our own prayer life to see how well we measure up to the standard that our Lord has given us.

Scouts Set Bake Sales

Boy Scout Troop 507, which is sponsored by Grace Methodist Church, will hold bake sales this Saturday at Wind-Dale, French Avenue and 25th Street and at Food Fair, Park Avenue and 25th Street. Both sales will begin at 9:30 a.m.

Proceeds will be used for the purchase of much needed camping equipment so that the scouts can attend the May 1-3 Camporee at Camp LaNoche.

This past Monday a board of review was held to examine Bill Kennedy and Mathew Stewart for first class and Blair Kitzner for star scout. The boys were passed on successfully by committee members Buddy Williams and Don Jackson. A Court of Honor will be held for the boys in the near future.

Central Baptist To Buy Pews

Central Baptist Church of Sanford will hold a special meeting Sunday to emphasize the current drive among members to raise funds for pews needed in the church's new auditorium now under construction. Cost of the pews has been stated as $6,180.

A special offering for this purpose will be received Sunday. Following a dinner on the grounds, a report of the amount received in the offering will be made to those attending.

All members are urged to be present and visitors will be welcomed.

CWC To Attend Communion

Members of the Church of Nativity Catholic Women's Club will receive Communion in a group Sunday at the 8 a.m. Mass at the church.

Mrs. Gene Shannon, president elect of the club, has urged all the women to attend and reminds them to make their reservations with Mrs. Donald Corkill of North Orlando by Saturday for the installation banquet scheduled for Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Trade Winds Cafeteria in Casselberry.

Grace Methodist Loyalty Dinners Are Scheduled

The Grace Methodist Church Official Board is initiating a new method of Church finance by means of Loyalty Dinners on April 22, 23, finance Committee Chairman Jim Griffin said today.

Philip Monroe is heading up the Loyalty Dinner organization as General Chairman. The plan is to invite the congregation by means of co-captains, to a complimentary dinner in the church. Each co-captain is inviting some 10 families to be his special guests and to sit at his particular table.

Following the free dinner each evening, the budget for the 1964-65 fiscal year will be explained to give pertinent facts about various items. Speaker will be Rev. John Hires, pastor of Grace Church.

The new budget calls for an increase of 9 per cent over last year due mainly to increased payment towards building debt, increase of the ministers salary and proposed additional office equipment. The annual budget totals $28,402 which calls for $350 per week. It is anticipated that the budget will be underwritten at the two dinners by individual subscriptions.

Pastor To Mark 6th Anniversary

Sixth anniversary of his ordination will be celebrated by Rev. G. W. Chappell at Snow Hill Missionary Baptist Church at Geneva Sunday.

The message will be delivered by Rev. H. J. Clarke, newly appointed pastor of Oak Hill Baptist Church, Geneva. The daylong program will open with Sunday School at 1:30 a.m. followed by morning worship at 11 a.m. N. Keyton and M. Jackson will lead the devotional service and Rev. E. G. Smith will deliver the sermon.

Worship services will open at 8 p.m. with the welcome by Harriet Bush, a talk by Ada Carroll and a solo by Ernestina Gelfin. Rev. Clarke will deliver the annual message.

St. Andrews Plans Dinner

Charter members of the Bear Lake St. Andrews Presbyterian Church will honor new members at a pot luck dinner to be held Sunday following the morning worship service.

Women of the church will supply coffee, bread and butter. Circle meetings of the group will be held next week with members of Circle One to meet at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Roger Ridgewell, 1184 S. But on the smallest section of qualifications is to Florida's chief executive for the next two years — and possibly the next six — John Mathews stands at the head of the list.

The Times "strongly endorses Mathews for these reasons:

- Mathews has the best record of accomplishments valuable to Florida.
- Mathews is the most knowledgeable candidate on Florida's problems and ways to solve them.
- Mathews has conducted the most forthright campaigns.
- Mathews is a political "doer," not a "promiser."
- Mathews' talents are no secret to Floridians. The son of a former chief justice of the Florida Supreme Court, Mathews grew up close to politics. He has served three legislatures as a representative from Duval County, one as senator. He has a truly remarkable record of sponsoring and guiding through the legislative mill major governmental reforms.

Fifth Circuit Split Favored

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Top federal judges have agreed to recommend a split in the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, which has been swamped with civil rights cases. It was reported today.

The proposed split would reduce the circuit to four deep-South states—Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi—by creating an 11th circuit composed of Louisiana, Texas and the Canal Zone.

A resolution calling for the rearrangement has been approved by the judicial conference, which is headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Pineapples are believed to have been first cultivated by Guarani Indians of Paraguay and southern Brazil.

and includes all circuit and district judges in the federal court system.

A bill to implement the proposal is being drafted by a conference committee for introduction in the Senate after its approval by the conference in a September meeting here.

Details of the plan came from Hubert H. Finzel, chief counsel of the Senate Subcommittee on Improvements in Judicial Machinery, who is helping to draft the bill.

Finzel said the conference resolution calls for the addition of six circuit judgeships. Under the proposal, there would be eight judgeships for the reduced 5th circuit and seven for the new circuit. The present 5th circuit has nine.

Johnson Takes Poke At Civil Disobedience

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson says that civil rights demonstrators do their cause "no good" when they resort to civil disobedience and threaten health or safety of the people.

The President told his news conference that it was very important that the Senate pass the civil rights bill "at the earliest possible date." But he echoed Senate backers of the bill who have warned that unruly and illegal demonstrations hurt its chances.

The Senate went into its 33rd day of debate today on the House-passed measure to ban racial discrimination in voting, education, employment, unions, public accommodations and use of federal funds.

Southern opponents of the bill still held the floor. A team composed of Sens. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., B. Everett Jordan, D-N. C., and John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., was to speak against the legislation.

Simmons Blanks Giants; Allows Only 3 Hits

United Press International
Crew-out Curt Simmons has spent the last two seasons keeping the St. Louis Cardinals air-borne in the first months of the National League pennant chase. Thursday Simmons served notice he's ready to get the Cardinals afloat again.

The 33-year-old former Philadelphia bonus baby, who has made more "comebacks" than he cares to remember, styled the explosive San Francisco Giants, 2-0, to begin his 17th year in the majors. In each of the last two seasons Curt has won his first five decisions for St. Louis.

Simmons yielded only three singles and didn't allow a base-runner past first base after the second inning. He retired the last 13 Giants in order.

Simmons considered the performance against the Giants, a team which scored 18 runs in its first two games, proof to Manager Johnny Keane that he is ready to carry the Cardinal gain if necessary.

Julian Javier singled home the first Cardinal run in the third after an error by losing pitcher Bob Hendley on a sacrifice bunt by Simmons. Later in the inning, Dick Groat scored Simmons with a sacrifice fly. Hendley, a former Milwaukee Brave, allowed only four hits in his eight-inning stint.

The Cincinnati Reds belted the Los Angeles Dodgers pitching staff for 18 hits and a 5-2 victory and the Milwaukee Braves shaded the Houston Colt. 6-5, in the only other National League game scheduled Thursday.

Longwood Beats Robb's 5 To 3

Longwood's entry in the Men's Six-Pitch Softball League captured a 5 to 3 win over Robb's Construction Company Thursday night to get into the loop's win column for the first time this season.

Otto Thomas picked up the win for Longwood, his first of the current season against a single loss.

Meanwhile, Chase jumped off to an early lead and held on for a 13 to 9 victory over Florida State Bank.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Baseball! From whence it came. It doesn't seem that long ago but the calendar says it is. Anyway, during the time we were with the U. S. Army and stationed in England for quite a few long months prior to the invasion of Normandy, our outfit was operating a huge ammunition depot about 20 miles from one of the British centers of learning, Oxford.

We were billeted in a typical British manor house at Adelstrop, a hop, skip and a jump from quaint little English towns such as Kingston Station, Stow-on-the-Wold, Blenheim Palace at Marlborough, and Chipping Norton.

One brutally cold day, with an afternoon yelp in our pocket, we visited a Chipping Norton tonorial parlor for a trim. Barbers in England are sometimes as talkative as those here in the U. S.

The discussion got around to the conduct of the war, the new German buzz bombs, and finally to sports. The barber almost rocked us out of the chair when he said he got a bit put out with American blokes who insisted that baseball was an American game and the idea that it originated in the States.

Senkarik In No-Hitter

Skipper Senkarik of Hunt Lincoln-Mercury turned in the first no-hit, no-run shutout pitching performance of the Little Major League season Thursday afternoon when he shutout the Chase & Company club by a score of 5 to 0.

Senkarik, in the Little National League affair, fanned 10 batters along the route, in posting his second mound victory of the season against no losses. The win lifted Hunt's to a one and a half game lead over First Federal and the Locomotive Engineers who are tied for second place in the loop's standings with two wins and a single loss each.

Senkarik also aided his own cause by clouting his fourth home run in four games this season. Dana Hogan also connected for a round tripper. Senkarik now has permitted only one hit in the 12 frames he's pitched thus far this season. Hunt also remains undefeated in League play.

Getting credit for the loss was Gordie Russell, his first of the season against no wins. Russell, however, pitched well in giving up only four hits.

Chase 000 000 -0 0 2

Sanford's Only Chance To See Pros Perform

By Julian Stenstrom
Sanford baseball fans will get their only local taste of professional baseball for the current season when the Williamsport Mets of the Class AA Eastern League and the Auburn Mets of the Class A New York-Pennsylvania League tangle Sunday afternoon in an exhibition game at Sanford's Memorial Stadium.

The contest, sponsored by the Sanford Shrine Club, will be played for the benefit of the organization's Crippled Children's Hospital at Greenville, S. C., according to Sanford Police Chief Roy Williams who is president of the Sanford Shrine Club.

The game is slated to get underway at 1 p. m. Ernie White, skipper of the Williamsport aggregation, and whose club breaks camp early tomorrow morning to open the season Tuesday night at Reading, Pa., will have a roster of 15 pitchers, three catchers, three outfielders and five infielders.

Sanford's Only Chance To See Pros Perform

Among these are six hurlers who have arrived from the Buffalo Club of the International League, three catchers all from Buffalo, one outfielder from the Bisons and an infielder, Wilbur Huckie, who was optioned to Williamsport from the Mets.

Meanwhile, Clyde McCullough will be able to call on any one of 14 hurlers, two receivers, six outfielders, and four infielders. The Auburn club will break camp later in the week in order to open the season Saturday at Hampton, N. Y.

The Auburn outfit will feature two young ball players upon whom the Mets have high hopes. They are Oscar Walker and Isaac Walker, two brothers from Lakeland, who last season played with the Stetson Palms of the club.

Chief Williams has announced that a brief ceremony will take place immediately prior to game time which will feature illustrious Potemkin Harold Kastner of the Bahia Temple and Sanford Mayor A. L. Wilson.

Crooms Wins 5th Straight

By Bob Thomas
Crooms High remained undefeated in capturing their fifth consecutive victory when the Panthers slipped the Carver Heights Trojans of Leesburg by a score of 6 to 5.

Wesley Boston posted his third consecutive mound victory of the current season when he whiffed nine Trojans. He was nipped for 10 hits but he kept them well scattered.

Andrew James, Billy Bush and Nathaniel White shared batting honors for the Panthers with each getting a pair of safeties.

Crooms took an early lead with two runs in the first inning, they added one in the second and closed out their scoring with three in the sixth.

The Trojans wouldn't give up as they got back in the game with a four-run outburst in the sixth and pushed over another in the seventh. During the final inning threat, Boston slammed the door in Leesburg's face.

Lake Mary In Second Place

Lake Mary moved into second place in the Junior Boys League Thursday by taking a 10 to 8 decision from the CPO while the Rotarians grabbed a 6 to 4 victory from the Civilians.

Ken Riser was credited with the Lake Mary win, his first of the season against one loss. Mike Stubbins got his first decision but it was a loss.

Meanwhile, steady pitching by Bobby Powell and timely hitting by Corky Stowell and Buddy Stump lead the Rotarians over the winless Civilians. Powell fanned 11 and walked only two in going the distance.

Civilian took an early lead by posting two runs in the first but fell behind as Rotary scored two in the first and the third. Civilian knotted the count in the sixth only to have Rotary come back with two in their half of the same frame for the victory.

The line scores:
CPO 301 103 6-8 7 4
Lake Mary 300 083 2-10 7 5
WP—Riser (1-1), LP—Stubbins (0-1)
Civitan 200 002 0-4 4 5
Rotary 202 002 2-6 5 4
WP—Powell (1-0), LP—John Wolfe (0-2)

Cutting Horse Contest Slated

About $1,500 in prize money will be offered to some of the best quarter horses in the Southeast, according to G. Spencer Harden, president of the Florida Cutting Horse Association.

Seminole County will be represented by four of the top cutting horses in the state. Billy Silver will be ridden by M. E. Schulsemyer of Geneva, Ernest Morris of the MQ Ranch, Osteen, will ride Miss Nan Play, Spencer Harden will be on Ray's Dixie, and George C. Harden Jr. will ride Misty Dude.

Red Hot Rookie Oliva Twins' Big Problem

United Press International
Rookie Tony Oliva is hitting .500 for the Minnesota Twins and is causing Manager Sam Mele nothing but problems.

Oliva is trying to crash an outfield which boasts such power hitters as Bob Allison, Jimmie Hall and Harmon Killebrew. No easy task for anyone, especially a 22-year-old rookie.

But the lefthanded Cuban slugger has drilled five hits in the Twins' first two victories, including a single, double and triple good for two runs batted in Thursday night as the Twins clipped the Washington Senators, 6-2, at Washington.

Mele now figures he must find a place for Oliva, but where he could move Allison to first base, but then he would have the best defensive first baseman in the league, Vic Power, on the bench.

Mele played Allison at first base in Minnesota's opener but shifted him back to centerfield Thursday night and benched Hall, who slugged 33 homers as a rookie last year. Oliva played right field both games.

Zollo Versalles' bases loaded triple broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning to give Minnesota the victory. Jim Kaat went the distance for the Twins, allowing only six hits and fanning seven. Starter Carl Bouldin was the loser. Don Lock and Ken Hunt homered for the losers.

Social Security Figures Given

About one of every 11 residents of Seminole County is now receiving a monthly social security check, according to figures released by Col. Byron R. Patton, Orlando social security district manager.

Colonel Patton's report listed the number of Seminole County beneficiaries as 5,282 at the end of 1963, an increase of 421 over the corresponding figure at the beginning of 1963. The dollar benefit amounts total more than $317,994 yearly.

Retired workers are the largest single group of social security beneficiaries in the County. There are 2,746 in this group and their old-age insurance benefits total $195,449 monthly.

Colonel Patton pointed out that the social security benefits are important to the community as well as to the people who receive them. "It is a fact," he said, "that almost every dollar of social security benefits coming into the County is spent each month in local businesses for food, clothing, shelter, and other essentials. In this way, the benefits have a stabilizing effect on the local economy."

Colonel Patton forecast that the number of social security beneficiaries will continue to increase in the future, but at a much slower rate than in the past 10 years. He said that, nationally, the social security benefit rolls increased from about five million people in 1954 to more than 19 million at the end of 1963. This rapid growth in the beneficiary population resulted from major amendments to the Social Security Act from 1950 through 1961. He cited several amendments which extended social security coverage to self-employed business and professional men, farmers and agricultural workers, and other groups. As a result, several million people whose work was brought under social security are now receiving benefits. Others qualified through amendments which reduced the amount of work needed to get benefits. One change—lowering the age at which older people can get benefits from 65 to 62—accounts for 1.8 million out of the 19 million people now entitled to benefits. The amendments also introduced a new protection under social security—disability benefits—and 1.5 million disabled workers and their dependents now receive benefits under the disability provisions of the law.

Fleeing Auto Kills Policeman

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI)—A car speeding away from police crashed into a second police cruiser killing one patrolman and injuring another, authorities said.

Officer James A. Krupp, 31-year-old eight year veteran on the force, was dead on arrival at Mound Park Hospital. His partner, patrolman Robert C. Megert, 30, was in fair condition with two broken legs, head and possible internal injuries.

The driver of the speeding car, Freddie McDougal, 21, of St. Petersburg, suffered a broken arm, cuts and bruises.

48 Cubans Flee; 28 Are Draftees

MIAMI (UPI) — Twenty-eight Cuban draft dodgers, one of whom paid 3,500 pesos to escape Fidel Castro's compulsory military service law, arrived here among a group of 48 refugees who fled the island in five boats.

The exiles went to four different islands in the British Bahamas before being rescued by the U. S. Coast Guard.

There were 30 men, eight women and 10 children — the youngest only 10 months old — among the refugees. Some were barefoot. Twenty-eight of the men were under 25 years of age and all had been called up by the draft.

The man who said he paid 3,500 pesos to some fishermen to smuggle him out of Cuba to Lobo Cay north of Camaguey province would not disclose his name.

Angel Robaina, in a group of 23 who reached Ragged Cay North of Oriente Province, said he escaped from an army camp for draftees by bribing a militiaman with 100 pesos. He said there were some 2,500 draftees at the camp.

WEEK END TOUR of HOMES in the Sanford - Seminole Area

Right now is the opportune time to acquire a home, judging from opinions expressed here Thursday by Robert H. Doyle, executive director of the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council.

Doyle, a top-notch planner by training and practical experience, predicts East Central Florida's present population of three-quarter million (in seven counties) will double within the next 11 years.

Impact of Cape Kennedy, bringing about this population explosion, soon will bring a direct connection along Highway 17-92—one long continuous business section—between Sanford and Orlando, Doyle said.

Preparing for this impact are Kingswood Builders, Shoemaker Construction, Mackle Bros. and Leroy Robb Construction Company.

Kingswood has a four-bedroom, two bath home on Highland Court in Greenbriar of Loch Arbor completed and ready for occupancy. There also is a Colonial of used brick near completion on Par Place. It has four bedrooms, two baths, a used brick terrace and a flagstone entry way.

Three more new residences have been commenced in the Ravenna Park third section. These are three-and-four-bedroom homes, with two baths. They still are in the stage whereby purchasers may choose their own colors for the tile, walls, etc.

Four homes are complete in the Ravenna Park third section. These are centrally heated, fully equipped and are "prepped" for air conditioning.

Shoemaker Construction, according to Herb Stenstrom Realty, has constructed and already sold two new homes in Ravenna Park and Idyllwild.

Shoemaker also has two completed homes for sale in Idyllwild and in a few days will commence construction of others.

Stenstrom Realty says that FHA, VA and conventional financing is available on these homes.

With the opening of the New York World's Fair next week, Mackle Bros., is featuring its "World's Fair" model home at Deltona, across Lake Monroe. The model at Deltona is a duplicate of Mackle's model home on display at the Fair.

Gaston Bridges, newly appointed Deltona manager, reported "response has been great to our supplement in the New York Times quoting Florida newspapers, including The Sanford Herald" about Deltona.

He also said 18 German cabinet makers, touring the United States, expressed surprise last week that Deltona could offer such attractive homes at such moderate prices. The same opinions was expressed by prospective home-owners flown in from Cincinnati and Washington, D. C.

Leroy Robb, of Robb Construction, has a new model home on display at 1202 Forest Drive, the entrance to Wynnewood just off Mellonville Avenue. It's a three-bedroom, two bath brick home and "quite nice."

The residence is a model and will be used for display purposes for several weeks. Robb has reported he will build this home on the buyer's lot for $8 or less per square foot, not including landscaping.

Pirates Beat Casselberry

The Bear Lake Pirates of the South Seminole Little League posted a 7 to 0 decision Wednesday over the Casselberry club when Mike Conover hurled a one-hit shutout.

The Pirates grabbed the lead with a pair of runs in the first frame, added two more in the fourth inning and led down the affair with three tallies in the sixth.

PRE-READING tells you what to read and just as important, what not to read. Looking for a date in the Revolutionary War? Then skip Washington's family history. What authorities were cited? Skip the charts and that column of numbers. Add to skipping, our drills for greater eye perspective and you're a fast skipper.

Now we come to skimming. You certainly don't skip and skim through poetry, drama, classical novels or even Perry Mason, but you do use it in what we've been calling practical prose.

SKIMMING FOR FACTS. Here's where your phrase-reading and enlarged eye span really help. If the colum you're reading is a news column (about two inches wide), one fixation per line is plenty. Now zigzag your way down the column. Use a pencil in the early practice stages. Look to the left of the pencil on the first line, to the right of the pencil on the second line, back to the left on the third, and so on down. After awhile practice will make the pencil unnecessary.

Now try the wider columns of your text book. The technique is the same, but you'll need two fixations per line. Drawing the pencil down the middle, fixate to the left of the pencil on the first line, then to the right on the same line, and so on down the page. So that individual words will not distract you, read between the lines as we practiced in the preceding column. As you skim your way down the page, that name, that date, that number will leap out at you—IF you are very sure in your mind what you are skimming for.

A note of caution: In the early stages of skimming, you may start out looking for something, trying to skim as we've explained it. First thing you know, you're concerned with how you're skimming and you forgot what you were looking for. That's natural and practice overcomes it. At first, pick out narrow columns only and skim for as many proper names as possible. They be-

(UPI) — Social Outcast, who earned purses totaling $668,300 during the 1950's, was elected Wednesday to the Maryland Thoroughbred Hall of Fame which honors the best horses bred in that state. The horse, now 14, will be paraded at Laurel next Tuesday when owner Alfred G. Vanderbilt will accept a Maryland Racing Writers citation.

Miss Oyler, D. E. Soderblom Wed In Double Ring Rites

Miss Susan Lynn Oyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Oyler, of Sanford, became the bride of Donald Ray Soderblom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald E. Soderblom, of Tampa, Saturday, April 11 at 2 p.m. at The Church of the Nativity with the Rev. Fr. James S. Hanson performing the impressive double ring ceremony.

The altar was banked with white gladioli and chrysanthemums, with two baskets placed on each side, and the pew bows markers were of white satin.

Mrs. H. A. Shields, organist, furnished the nuptial musical selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a formal gown of pure silk organza and chantilly lace. The fitted chantilly bodice featured a sabrina neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The gown front was highlighted by a front lace panel and crushed cummerbund. The voluminous organza skirt cascaded to a chapel length. Her imported illusion pouff veil fell from a forward headpiece of matching lace and seed pearls with a center crystal drop, which was her only jewelry.

The bridal bouquet was fashioned into the form of a bridal ring, created of white satin and seed pearls with white roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Nat V. Chancey, Orlando, served as maid of honor, and was a beautifully gowned in a floor length creation of Dior blue peau de soie. The scoop neckline and petite short sleeves were accented by a set-in cummerbund of deeper blue, with a floating panel and with a tailored bow at the waist back. Her headpiece was a tailored bow band with short illusion veil, and she wore white gloves and matching blue shoes. Her bouquet was a double ring design with pastel butterflies and pastel Phalaenopsis orchids encircling the rings.

The bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Watson and Miss Linda Soderblom, Tampa, sister of the groom, and their gowns were identical to the matron of honor, with bouquets of a single wedding ring.

David Keel served as best man and ushers were Kenny Register, Tampa, and William E. Oyler, 3rd, brother of the bride. Junior ushers were Thomas and James Oyler, brothers of the bride. Flower girl was Sally Ann Oyler, sister of the bride, and ring bearer was Pat Oyler, brother of the bride.

The brides mother was attractively attired in a pale blue chantilly lace street length dress with a matching lace petal hat and blue accessories, and her corsage was a blue orchid sprayed with silver.

The groom's mother chose a gold brocade jacket ensemble with a flowered pill box hat and matching accessories in accord. A green orchid sprayed with gold was fashioned into her corsage.

An elaborate reception was held in the Mayfair Inn Ballroom, with arrangements of assorted white flowers surrounding the three tiered wedding cake and the bride's book.

Hostesses and assistants were Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. Steri Webber, Mrs. Harvey Broadway, Mrs. Louie Bridges, Mrs. Robert Watson, and Mrs. Jack Standifer of Sanford; Mrs. Paul Wernet, Sarasota; Mrs. Henry I. Wernet, Jacksonville; and Mrs. John Mason, Brooksville.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a pink silk linen dress with flowered pill box hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Soderblom will make their home at 224 Oval Plaza in Casselberry.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Ruth Oyler, Crystal River; Mrs. John Mason and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkland, all from Brooksville; Mrs. Billy Brewer and Mrs. Rosalind Burney, Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Reid Iverson and children, Winter Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Wernet, Jacksonville.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Wernet, Sarasota; Mr. and Mrs. Basil Boles and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sipella and daughter, all from Titusville; Mr. and Mrs. Lou Herman, Cocoa Beach; Mrs. Rosemary Jett, DeLand; Mr. and Mrs. William Shafer and Mr. and Mrs. William Spalding from Winter Park; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abramson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomason, Orlando.

Miss Skinner Feted At Shower

Miss Susan (Sunny) Skinner, bride elect of Walter E. Neal Jr., was guest of honor at a linen bridal shower last Friday night at the home of Mrs. Byron Fox, on Palmetto Avenue.

The party rooms were beautifully decorated in traditional wedding manner, with arrangements of assorted spring flowers throughout. Mrs. A. L. Skinner created a clever and artistic arrangement using magnolia blossoms and white carnations.

A dainty, white, frilly umbrella centered the mantel above the fireplace, and the gifts were banked from the floor upwards. Suspended from the ceiling in the archway was a wedding bell cleverly designed from wire, by Mrs. Fox, and centered with a miniature bride and groom. Love birds and drifting balloons were interspersed throughout the party area, producing a most festive effect.

The table was overlaid with a white linen imported cloth, cross stitched by hand in aqua, and centered with a silver punch bowl surrounded by silver and crystal service from which the white sheet cake was served. Coffee, assorted nuts and candies completed the refreshment course.

Miss Mary Ann Fox assisted her mother with the serving.

Miss Skinner was attractively attired in a stunning white sheath covered with an original red and white checked jacket and wearing a red and white carnation corsage.

The guest list included the Meses, Dan Fatchett, E. McCall, H. B. McCall, Roy Williams, R. F. Cooper, John Fox, J. H. Van Hoy, J. R. Stewart, Charles Niblack, D. P. Lanier, John Kader, M. R.

MRS. BYRON FOX, left, was hostess recently to a linen bridal shower for bride-elect, Susan (Sunny) Skinner, center. Sunny's mother, Mrs. A. L. Skinner is at right.

Entertainment for Everyone in the Sanford Area

The Sanford Herald Fri. April 17, '64—Page 9

Movieland Hit

First Sanford showing of "Love with the Proper Stranger" is scheduled for Sunday through Tuesday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

Strictly adult entertainment, "Love . . ." stars Natalie Wood and Steve McQueen. Co-featured will be "Take Her, She's Mine," in color, with James Stewart and Sandra Dee.

The Wednesday-Thursday fare will be "Peyton Place," starring Lann Turner, and "Seven Thieves," with Edward G. Robinson.

The triple feature on Friday and Saturday, April 24-25, will include two Jerry Lewis comedy hits, "Don't Give Up the Ship" and "Rock-A-Bye Baby," and Elvis Presley in "Fun in Acapulco."

The talents of Natalie Wood and Steve McQueen are united on the screen for the first time in the Paramount release of "Love with the Proper Stranger."

NATALIE WOOD AND STEVE McQUEEN appear on the screen for the first time together in the new Pakula-Mulligan production for Paramount, "Love With The Proper Stranger," which runs Sunday through Tuesday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

TABLE HOPPING

Here I am back in the sunny south, and believe me that sun feels good. I'd forgotten how long winter hangs on in the north country. Not a leaf on a tree anywhere. And now that I'm all rested up, I'm ready to do a little tablehopping and see all the old friends.

Hootenany time at the Paddock bar was a huge success for all reports . . . lots of music and beer. What more can anyone ask for an invigorating time. The Cumbys would be delighted to see everyone again, too. They're located across from the Longwood Plaza . . . just a short trip.

By Judy Turner

You can find the "Virginians" at the Cypress Room tonight and tomorrow night if you are interested in dancing to some good music. The Cypress Room was formerly the Dog Track Inn and is located on 17-92 at the corner of the Dog Track road. They're open til 2 a. m. with cocktail hours between 3:30 and 7:30.

In the mood for real elegance . . . that means just one place . . . Freddie's. The soft carpeting and subdued light make their fine foods even more pleasurable . . . For added sophistication try a bottle of good red wine with your steak.

Before I left for parts unknown Joy Manross at the Capri treated me to a most delicious meal. One of the interesting features of their menu is a complete description of just what is meant by the terms "rare," "medium," "well done," and all the grades in between. So you just can't go wrong ordering a steak if you know what color you like it . . . a real benefit if you aren't sure just how to order your steak.

Going on vacation, to the hospital, or expecting guests . . . any reason is a good reason to call Kohlaant's Dinner Delivery for fine meals six nights a week. Think of the time it would save if you didn't have to worry about getting meals while that friend from out of town is visiting you . . . or to be able to get packed and ready for the trip without stopping to cook. Just call Ernest Shank at 322-2256 for information.

And for entertaining at home, you'll surely want to make a stop at the Rex liquor store in the Pinecrest shopping center. Their prices are some of the best around. . . if guests drop in and catch you "dry" you can get free delivery by calling 322-0906.

Another good voice to hear was Ed's at Jim Spencer's restaurant . . . talked to Darlene too, who also sounded in the friendly voice of Lou at the Caribe lounge reports that business is just getting busier and busier every day . . . and that is always good news. One of the best times there is the lunch hour where you can relax and enjoy a refreshing break in the working day . . . Stop in for lunch or dinner or make the Caribe the last stop at night . . . It's open til 2 a. m. now for your pleasure.

Three Controls For Victims Of Crab Grass

Many jokes have been made over the years about people who have crab grass. Yet, if you have a lawn and are proud of the way it looks, you have every right to hate the sight of it.

This weedy grass spoils the uniformity of a lawn. Clumps of it can physically weaken lawns by robbing them of space, moisture and nutrients.

There are three basic ways of controlling crab grass. They are digging or pulling out each plant, proper lawn care and a preventive program using chemical controls.

There are three types of crab grass — smooth, hairy and silver. All three look similar and are annuals. They develop from seeds to mature plants that flower and seed usually by the late part of August.

In the spring, however, seedling crab grass sprouts from the soil as a small pale green plant with two leaves. The leaves are oval, broad at the base and taper to a point at the tip. As they develop, they become coarse and spread out.

Your approach to a lawn care program can do much to discourage crab grass from setting in.

When seeding or reseed, use a good quality seed mixture. Fall-seeded lawns get a head start on beating crab grass into submission. It might be a good thing to remember next time you plan to seed.

Proper watering will also help check crab grass. Since permanent grass roots deep, less frequent waterings but with large amounts of water is best. Frequent small waterings aid crab grass as it roots shallow.

And, of course, proper mowing will help in the fight, too. Raise your mower to a two-inch cutting height during May and June mowing. Where permanent grass is dense, the additional shade of larger grass slows growth of crab grass seedlings.

On the other hand, while the lawn care program approach helps maintain a good lawn, the preventive chemical approach works against crab grass, before it starts.

The chemical — called a pre-emergence herbicide — has been found to give protection against crab grass growth with as little as a single application. It will also not accumulate in the soil, thus no harmful residual build-up results.

Dacthal, the active herbicide in dozens of the nation's successful crab grass killers, for example, attacks the crab grass seed before it has a chance to germinate. It has been found that it kills nearly all crab grass in one season.

After it is applied, less frequent watering with large amounts of water will help discourage further growth.

If your lawn is heavily infested with crab grass, however, you had better plan on reseeding this fall if you use a herbicide on an infested lawn. Seed this spot carefully and treat with a pre-emergence herbicide again next spring.

All the earth's seas communicate with one another and their waters are continually mingled, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Osteen PTA Elects New Officers

By Mrs. Clarence Snyder
The Osteen Parent Teachers Association met Tuesday evening at the school, with Ernest Skinner, president, presiding. The meeting was opened with devotions by the first grade pupils. Bible verses were repeated and several songs were sung.

A representative of the Daytona Beach Red Cross Association showed several slides hoping to interest Osteen in joining the program. The room count was won by the first grade, Miss Omi Rhea Sumner's room.

Mrs. Harold Fall, chairman of the nominating committee presented the following slate of officers for the coming year. They were elected unanimously. For president, Ernest Skinner; Mrs. L. W. Jones, first vice president; Mrs. John Tatum Jr., second vice president; Mrs. James Nettles, secretary; Mrs. John Jurs, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Fall, historian and Mrs. Nolan Osteen, parliamentarian.

It was decided to have the annual Ham Supper May 16 at the school. Mrs. W. D. Whidden is general chairman.

In the hopes of having a larger attendance at the PTA meetings it was decided to have fewer meetings. Therefore, next year, the PTA will meet in September, November, January, March and May, unless otherwise announced.

It was voted to donate one-half of the proceeds of the ham supper to the school lunch program and also to change the date of the May meeting to the fourth Tuesday instead of the second. This will be after the supper and business may be closed for the year.

Following the meeting the fifth and sixth grades presented a patriotic program. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. B. Whidden and Mrs. J. C. Carpenter.

April 20-25 Is Insurance Week

Life Insurance Week in Florida became official recently when Gov. Farris Bryant set aside the week of April 20-25 for the event, so stating in a signed proclamation. Life Insurance Week will be observed by the 37 local associations of the F.S.L.U. and will be brought to the attention of the public through the organization's many members.

Locally, the Seminole Association of Life Underwriters with 62 members is servicing the people of this area. The purpose of the Week is to acquaint Floridians with the many benefits and applications of life insurance, and to further stress the importance of the life agent as a significant contributor in upgrading by American family's economy.

A proclamation issued by Gov. Bryant follows:

Whereas, life insurance represents the base of financial security planning for more families than any other form of thrift of savings, and whereas, life insurance and its allied coverages are constantly changing in order to meet the ever-changing social and economic structure, as well as changes in the family's own situation, and

Whereas, life insurance continues to contribute to the growth of our country and our state through the investment of policyholder dollars in all segments of the economy, while awaiting call for benefit payment, and

Whereas, more knowledge of life insurance is increasingly important in properly planning family financial security, and

Whereas, all persons, both as policyholders and as beneficiaries, desire to learn more about life insurance, that is, what it does, how it operates, and

Whereas, the Florida Association of Life Underwriters is cooperating in a program to inform the public of the many and broad aspects of life insurance;

Now, Therefore, I, Farris Bryant, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby proclaim April 20-

25, 1964, as Life Insurance Education Week in Florida, and urge all citizens to avail themselves of this opportunity to learn more about their life insurance and what it can do for them, especially making this the occasion to see that it is so arranged as to be of utmost value to the beneficiaries. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 18th day of February, A.D. 1964.

Scarf Makes Neat Headband

By Polly Cramer
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR POLLY—To make a pretty and snug headband, take a small silk or chiffon neckerchief—size scarf and fold into a rectangle. Tie the ends to a rubber band. It will fit the head snugly and really stay in place. They are easy to put on. You can have several by using old scarves that are no longer used for their original purpose.

When the weather is wet and sloppy, put a small cotton loop rug over the carpet or floor mats in your car. The rug catches snow, rain water and dirt. Take them out occasionally, wash and dry and then put back again. Saves wear and tear and frequent cleaning of the permanent floor covering. Use old rugs that might otherwise be discarded.—D.M.

DEAR POLLY—A package of children's modeling clay is an important item in my emergency drawer. I use it often and for many things. It will temporarily stop a leak until help comes or you can fix it. A generous lump thrust on a pencil or toothpick will hold the note that you leave for your family when away. The same will hold place cards or favors at a child's party. If modeled in bird, animal or other chosen forms, the favors can be most at-

DEAR POLLY—Recently I bought some soiled white candles at an end-of-the-year sale, knowing I could clean them. A tissue or cotton ball saturated with rubbing alcohol compound does this beautifully. Nail polish remover will also clean them but I like the gloss left after using the rubbing alcohol.—Mrs. H.C.A.

GIRLS—This is a good trick to know as spring house cleaning time rolls around, for candles get dingy and dirty just standing around in their holders. I, too, like the alcohol treatment better.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY—When I fried bacon and then eggs in the electric frying pan, the bacon left a residue causing the eggs to stick. Now I line the pan with foil for the bacon frying, slide it out, letting the fat slip into the skillet ready for the eggs. Both fry beautifully and no more sticking.—MRS. W.R.M.

GIRLS—Bacon is delicious when cooked on top of the foil, crisp without being so brittle that it is easily broken but it does take a bit longer than when cooked directly in the pan. I started the cooking with a cold pan, cold foil and bacon. Eggs do not stick so I, for one, have permanently adopted the method.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY—Two invaluable articles for "batching" college men are a telephone book and a flannel "cap" for a broom. The telephone book will supply most of the addresses of friends and the flannel cap on the end of the broom takes the place of a dust mop. This saves the expense of buying a mop. The cap works best if an elastic band is sewed around the top to secure it to the broom. When the cap gets dirty, just throw it in the washing machine. Thanks for the interesting tips.—D.D.B.

DEAR ABBY: The woman who was "DISGUSTED" because her son and his wife named their little boy "HARRY" after having named their first two boys "TOM" and "DICK" apparently has never heard of the famous BYRD brothers of Virginia. TOM was a very successful fruit farmer and businessman who looked after his family's interests. "DICK" was none other than the famous explorer, ADMIRAL BYRD of South Pole fame. And "HARRY" has been a United States Senator for many years.

comment about her son naming his three boys TOM DICK and HARRY, I think all three names are sensible. What would she think of a trio of little girls in Independence, Mo., who were named WELCOME, JOY and PLENTY? (Their father named the last one.)
LOVING GRANDMOTHER

DEAR ABBY: Speaking of inflicting peculiar names on helpless infants, my cousin in Birmingham named her daughters, DAISY, PETUNIA, GLADIOLA and ZINNIA. The next time she expected a baby, she was all set to add another flower to her garden of girls, but the baby was a boy. It went ahead and named him IRIS. How do you like that?
WILLIE MAE IN MONTGOMERY

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with naming three sons TOM, DICK and HARRY? I named our first son Dick. The second boy I named after his father, whose name was Harry. Then everyone kept asking me, "Where's Tom?" So, when we had our third son, "That settles it. There's Tom!" I can't see where there was anything "disgraceful" about it.

DEAR ABBY: Twenty-four years ago I married a man named Harry. He had two brothers whose names were Tom and Dick. Tell "Disgusted" not to worry. If her son's boys turn out to be half as wonderful as these three boys, she will be lucky.

You're both right and wrong, it seems to me. You're right in thinking that you should have some say-so in any issue that involves your children. But you're dead-wrong in siding with the children against their father in their presence.

Much Useless Homework?

By Susan Light
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR MRS. LIGHT: I agree with "Wondering" in regard to homework. My son is in the 7th grade and has absolutely no time for relaxation.

He leaves for school at 8 a. m., and works on homework until 9 or 10 p. m. (time out for dinner, only). Result: He is not doing all of his homework at times, even considering these hours. He has led to me about homework for the first time so he could have a minute to relax.

I think class discussion on many of the subjects, with a quiz to follow, would be more helpful to each student. Most of these so-called projects are a waste of time and money. This extra-credit bit makes me feel sorry for the child with limited imagination and funds.

I will be for higher pay for teachers when the teachers start teaching—and I get a free evening once in awhile. I want you to know my child is no exception. This is a general problem. Ask any parent.—ANOTHER WONDERER

ANSWER: As I've said before, I, too, believe that many children have too much useless homework. If enough parents continue to protest, there may be a trend in the opposite direction. Children SHOULD have time for "childhood dreams and games." But come now, what is this about parents doing more teaching than teachers? Actually, most teachers today are conscientious, hard-working, dedicated people who are doing their level best to give our children a superior education. With papers to grade, lessons to prepare, activities to sponsor, and meetings, workshops and college courses to attend, they seldom have a free evening either.

I feel the average parent is doing more teaching than the teachers, and this includes

Don't Leave Child Alone

By Mariel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE—My sister and her husband separated recently. The court only makes him give support money to their 3-year-old boy so she has had to go back to work. I take care of the boy but he makes such terrible scenes when she has to say goodbye to him that I don't know how much longer I can put up with the situation. He screams, grabs at her clothes and tries to run after her down the street.

I suggest that your sister ask her local welfare department to make available to her solutions to her economic problem that will not require her absence from her little son. I hope that other mothers of young children in her circumstances will seek similar guidance of their local welfare departments.

ANSWER—He is afraid that she is not coming back to him. And why shouldn't he be? Didn't his father walk out of a door one day and fall to return? When his mother walks out, he figures she may decide to make her departure permanent, too. He feels, "I let my Daddy out of my sight—and that was the end of him. If I let this remaining parent out of my sight, it may be the end of her. And I shall be left alone little and helpless as I am, with nobody familiar and reliable to take care of me."

Sharp Shopping Footing Child's Shoe Bills

By Alleen
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Do you get the feeling that only your child has a foot that can be recognized by the American shoe manufacturers? And wonder why you pay from $9 to $12 for the roughneck's shoes when experts say a good, sturdy leather shoe should cost only $6-$8.50, and in exceptional cases $9-$9.50?

The shoe manufacturers, an executive said, want to hold a minimum $20 price to keep the aura of cheapness away.

Advances in plastics in shoes soon will make it possible for you to buy two pairs for the same price you pay for one pair for your children.

The truth is that you will be luckier with your children's shoe bills than your own. This spring adult shoes featuring the new plastic, Corfam, offer more wearability, scuff-resistance, need no shining and make good bridge table talk. But, they bring no real price break now.

A firm widely known as designers of professional uniforms (White Swan) admits that the maid's uniform has taken on its first new look in over 40 years.

Brazilian Growing Pains

Like the United States of America a century ago, the United States of Brazil is riven by an "irrepressible conflict" drawn along regional, economic and ideological lines.

Unlike America, however, where the single issue of slavery overshadowed all else and was too much for the processes of a developing democracy to solve peacefully, the crisis in Brazil is a complex of factors.

The industrious Brazilians, living in a huge land (fourth largest in the world) rich in untapped natural resources and still possessing unsettled frontiers, have been unable to solve the basic problems of economic and social justice which would free their energies to realize the full potentials of their nation.

Racing inflation, aggravated by fiscal irresponsibility on the part of successive governments, has nullified the great strides made in expanding the economy. This has demoralized farmers and laborers, leaving them ripe for the false promises of communism.

At the same time, intense opposition to communism exists within the Catholic Church and the officer corps of the armed forces as well as among the rich.

Caught between the unceasing pulls from right and left, pro-democratic moderates and the growing middle class have been frustrated in efforts to establish both economic and political stability. Correctly fearing that Brazilian democracy, imperfect as it is, would cease to be if the Communists took over, they are inevitably drawn to the right.

President Joao (Jango) Goulart's uncompromising pushing of radical, if overdue, reforms provided the powder.

His courting of the Communists, even to the point of facilitating their seizing control of the government, supplied the fuse.

His "coddling" of leftist sailors and marines who mutinied in Rio and the spark which set off the rebellion by half of the country's 22 states.

It is doubtful whether constitutional government will survive the explosion in Brazil. It is all too certain, however, that the nation's fundamental problems will remain unsolved.

Thought For Today

A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a war club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow. — Proverbs 25:18.

We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which on this earth and at this time each of us does his duty to his fellowman.—Theodore Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON — (NEA)

—When I remember Gen. Douglas MacArthur personally, I remember him not as a general but as the "governor" of Japan during the U.S. occupation after World War II. I knew the Japanese well for six pre-war years as foreign correspondent in Tokyo. I knew them again for two years under the MacArthur occupation. MacArthur's personal influence as a man on the Japanese was profound. The Japanese understood MacArthur. He was like one of their shotguns, who kept himself behind a curtain and ruled through third men. MacArthur's genius was in ruling through Japanese forms. He did not make the mistake of removing Emperor Hirohito. He ruled through the emperor. But he made vast changes in the monarchy.

The emperor renounced his claim to divinity. Nobles lost their titles. The legislature and popular voting dominated the government, but it still operated under many of the forms of the old imperial way. Also, in the odd imperial way, MacArthur was the advisor behind the throne. In a sense, MacArthur was more Japanese to the Japanese than they themselves.

Now, it is true that MacArthur made mistakes. The new constitution was so written that the Japanese could not understand it.

I remember being at a private gathering at the home of Japan's leading constitutional lawyer, Dr. Masamichi Hoyama, when he attempted to explain the MacArthur constitution to a group of his friends, all university graduates. The meanings were so difficult to explain in Japanese that he was forced to do a goodly share of his explaining in English.

The after-war purges dragged out so long they lost their meaning in many cases. There were excesses in applying western concepts to Japan too quickly. MacArthur created an economic mishmash in his attempts to break up the Zaibatsu (the big family monopolies) with amateur trust bustlers.

But by and large MacArthur's actions—even those in which his programs founder—were moves leading toward more individual liberty and respect for the average Japanese. MacArthur's programs broke the back of the latent communism, which was very strong in Japan at the end of the war. The Communists were prepared and organized. They had a brilliant theoretician and tactician in Nosaka (Okano).

But MacArthur was giving the Japanese in fact the things Communist propagandists promise as bait but don't deliver.

One example: He instituted one of the most effective land reform programs ever carried out in any country. Naturally, many of MacArthur's changes failed. Nevertheless, the result was a stable, essentially democratic political system friendly to the United States, and a successful, prosperous, rapidly expanding economic system.

The first appendicitis operation was performed 81 years ago and there have been a lot of openings for doctors ever since.

The idea of fingerprints often settles the question of which one of your youngsters used the guest towel in the bathroom.

When winter's back finally is broken we hope all the doctors are out on call.

If so many women weren't so glad to carry it, gossip wouldn't travel so far.

A doctor, to be a good one, has to know about as much about human nature as he does about medicine.

Little girls love to dress up in mother's clothes and they may wear the same ones when they grow up.

You likely guessed wrong if you thought your guest room was for relatives to stay in a short time.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE S-441: Tina G., aged 36, is in a highly nervous state.

"Dr. Crane," she tearfully exclaimed, "we've been married for 15 years.

"But our marriage is threatened. For my husband was on a sales trip to a certain city in the West where a number of respectable suburban couples are engaging in 'wife swapping,' as he called it.

"A few married couples will thus go to a vacation spot for the weekend. Then they exchange wives and revel in their adultery.

"In fact, some of the wives even told my husband that it saved their marriages from becoming stogy.

"They said their husbands were far more stimulating and attentive after such a weekend where they had indulged in 'wife swapping.'

"Now my husband is nagging at me to see if we can't persuade some of our friends to schedule a similar weekend party.

"But it nauseates me even to think of such swinish behavior. How can intelligent human beings ever degenerate to such a low level?"

The remarkable Roman Republic was launched by virtuous pioneers who stressed hard work, honesty and moral integrity.

Then Roman morals deteriorated under Nero until abortions and "wife swapping" were common occurrences.

Laziness and the selling of votes for wheat were also rife. And even at the sumptuous feasts, the fat Roman degenerates would gorge to the full, then stick their fingers down their throats till they vomited their meal, after which they'd gargle a sip of wine to wash out their mouths.

Then they'd pounce on a second meal. For they were so sensuous they tried all varieties of food and sexual menus.

Soon the rugged barbarian tribes undermined the Roman pristine stamina till Rome fell. But it was moral decay from within that sapped the virile Roman Republic of its former tremendous strength.

America needs to watch the handwriting on the wall! Such lewd behavior as evidenced by the "wife swapping" craze reduces love and idealism to hog lot levels.

Men who suggest such sexual deviations (and men usually start them) are partially platonic, plus basically effeminate, too. For such men are masochists. They can't become sexually passionate until they are whipped or imposed upon psychologically.

And the mental recognition that another man has taken their wife for the week-end, thus acts as a psychological tonic to their waning sexual vigor.

Psychiatrists are familiar with the male who enjoys abuse and cannot function sexually unless he is imposed upon.

Long before the recent wave of "wife swapping," prominent men have demanded that their wives submit to other males, much to the dismay and horror of the virtuous wives.

But such males visualize the rape of their wives by the other men and thus grow more erotic by such indirect forms of what we call mental masturbation.

Washington, D. C., leads the nation's large population centers in proportion of families headed by college graduates, says the Census Bureau.

Editor, Herald:

Having first read the congratulatory letter from Mr. Morgan of DeBary, about the assistance he received while having tire trouble in Sanford, brings to mind an experience I had one week before Christmas.

Having gone on an early morning errand, I ran out of gas. I had with me my young son, and as the highway was in an unpopulated area, I thought it best to wait for a state trooper, sheriff, or someone else to stop.

I waited for a half an hour while four of Sheriff Hobby's cars passed and I tried in vain to wave them down.

Thanks to a very nice used car dealer who went out of his way to help, I was on my way again.

Where were the police then? I drive a 1932 Ford with out-of state tags. I have been stopped by the police before, just to ask about car. Can't they recognize a woman in distress?

I'm still burning!

Buick has a great transmission.

An automobile transmission, we grant you, isn't the most soul-stirring subject on earth. Nothing to look at either. But if you'd like for your next new car to give you a better break on performance and gasoline mileage, something happened last week to be your guide.

The Los Angeles to New York Mobil Economy Run proved one thing for sure. There's quite a difference in the transmissions of new cars.

Three out of four for Buick

The long-time champion in the transmission league—Buick—walked off with the 1964 economy pennant. No other single make of car won as many events as Buick. Four entries, three winners.

The winning Special carried the new Super Turbine 300 automatic transmission; the LeSabre was equipped with the Super Turbine 400 (both optional at extra cost). They're the latest in a long line of Buick transmissions well known for their smoothness and absence of "shift feed". The Super Turbine is a refined and improved torque converter type to help you safely pass cars and trucks as well as gas stations. You'll hear a lot about it in the next couple of years as this modern kind of transmission is adopted by more and more car builders.

What about engines?

Of course, an efficient transmission gets more efficient when teamed up with a fast, agile engine. The winning Buick power plants were our new V-6 and V-8. The 300 cubic inch V-8 in the winning Buick Special (the lowest priced of all Buicks) and the Buick LeSabre (the lowest priced big Buick) is like a well-conditioned fighter. All muscle, no fat. Weighs in at far less than other V-8's of similar punch. It took every other V-8 in the Economy Run.

Your type of driving—regular gas

The Run was through cities and towns, across super highways, in traffic, out of traffic. This was not race track driving or proving ground driving. This was your kind of driving—even though you can't expect to get as good mileage as these expert drivers in their finely tuned production cars. The distance was 5,243 miles, about what most families log in four months. All three Buicks used regular gas. So the Economy Run is not just a cross country tour for the Mobil people and a few car buffs. It's a reliable test of a car's power team and what it's able to squeeze out of its fuel.

We don't expect everybody to rush out this week-end to buy a new Buick just because we won a few economy trophies. There are so many other good reasons for leaning to Buick that economy usually gets second billing. There's styling, naturally. An unusually great ride. Extraordinary engineering and workmanship. And very young performance. Small wonder Buick sales are running at 11.5% over last year.

But it's nice to get economy as a plus in a Buick. Beyond the dollars saved on gasoline, there's a certain pride in knowing you have a car that's built to get the most out of every tank of gasoline.

Wouldn't You Really Rather Have a Buick?

Soprano Doubts Europeans Are Better Singers

NEW YORK (NEA) — What this country needs is self-confidence, at least in the area of classical music.

Regina Resnik, a Metropolitan mezzo-soprano of great talent and charm, says that the problem with Americans is that they "suffer from a great inferiority complex."

"The U.S.-born and U.S.-trained singer," she says, "is as a rule better-trained and physically and vocally superior to the average European artist."

"Most European stars," she says, "walk out of the opera house with their collars up and their eyes straight ahead, and they don't look at anybody or talk to anybody."

"It happens," she says, "most often in countries where the climate is healthy—the U. S., Italy, Scandinavia—and less often in countries where the climate is dour. England and France have rarely produced great singers. In Belgium, they just cough."

Dance? Try these recent LPs—Decca has a slew of good albums for dancing, featuring Wayne King, Guy Lombardo, Sammy Kaye, Jan Garber and, if you like the Latin beat, Warren Covington.

1964 MOBIL ECONOMY RUN
 In this coast-to-coast test of performance and economy, Buick swept three out of the four classes in which it was entered. All Buicks were equipped with Super Turbine automatic transmissions (General Motors' newest torque converter automatic, pioneered by Buick). A Buick Special with V-6 engine and Super Turbine 300 automatic transmission topped the honors in Class "C". A V-8 Buick Special with Turbine 300 automatic transmission led the field in Class "D" and the big Buick LeSabre with Wildcat V-8 power and Super Turbine 400 transmission won the laurels in Class "G". And remember, these records were established on money-saving regular gas. Long famous for performance, ride and luxury, Buick now takes its place among the economy leaders. Why not stop in today and drive Buicks just like the ones that scored these great records in the Mobil Economy Run. Then ask us about the price. Buick economy just begins with gas mileage... check all the extra value features.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Men go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Every gardener knows human ingenuity cannot be substituted for the miracle of growth. God's secret is God's! But he knows, too, that wild growth means wilderness. Only cultivation makes a garden. So he works with God. And the result is beauty, fruitfulness, abundance. What the man with the green thumb practices in his back yard, the Church inspires across the whole expanse of human effort... the cultivation of souls... the realization of our spiritual potential. Working with God! What do YOU think life is meant to be? Wilderness? Or the Garden of God? Join us at Church next Sunday!
