Vehicles Would Carry 12

Feasibility of having a local mini-bus service for the Sanford area is being studied by the Sanford Transit Company, Inc., and conferences with the City and County Commissioners on the matter will be set in the near future, C. A. Collier, owner of the company and agent for Tamm Trailways, said today.

Collier, whose company is the parent of Yellow Cab and Sanford Cab, has been conducting surveys for well over a year, researching population concentrations and laying out possible routes.

"One of the handicaps is that we cannot predict what will occur with removal of the base. Local bus service would have to become fairly productive in a few months for it to continue," Collier said.

"We want to confer with the City and County Commissioners before we go into much more planning to learn their feelings and it also will be necessary to discuss this with the Florida Public Service Commission which, of course, would regulate the rates."

Collier said he has visited other cities where mini-bus service is operated and found such services to be successful for the most part.

A mini-bus is a vehicle that carries approximately 12 persons rather than the 25 passengers on an average size bus.

"In surveys conducted in other cities, the average passenger bus is $25,000 compared to a mini-bus at $15,000 and further stated insurance rates on the smaller bus are about one-half as much. Under the mini-bus service a cab would be dispatched to pick up overflow passengers, if necessary."

Collier invited Sanford and Seminole residents interested in seeing Trailways furnish bus service from Sanford to Daytona Beach, St. Petersburg and Tampa to attend a public hearing before the Florida Public Service Commission May 9.

Trailways, for the convenience of those interested in attending the Orlando hearing, will provide transportation to the hearings and a lunch for their guests. A special bus will depart for Orlando at 11 a.m. on May 9 from Sanford. The hearings will be informal.

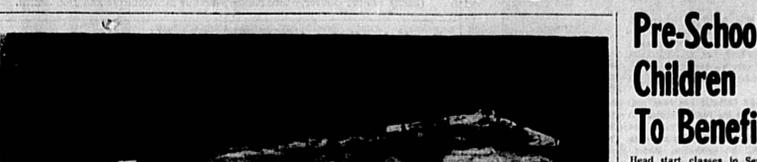

The board will also continue work on the Bookertown project. At this time sewing and adult literacy classes are being held there as well as a tutorial assistance program.

Ed Hunt, president of the Sanford Automobile Dealers Association, reports that visitors, who came from Orange, Lake, Brevard and Volusia Counties, as well as those from local areas, expressed many favorable comments for this year's show and the marina location. Even larger attendance is expected today and tonight for final showings, he added.

Five brand new prizes are awarded each evening with registration starting at about 8 p.m. and presentations made at 8:30 p.m. Winners Thursday night were W. R. Jones, 104 Valencia Drive, Sanford; Gerald Simon, 1484 E. Fourth Street, Sanford; J. P. Donnelly, 100 Mayfair Circle, Sanford; S. A. Auto, 301 N. Windsor Park Drive, Casselberry; and Ronald L. Bush, 2000 Old Orlando Drive, Sanford.

'Head Start' Classes Open June 1

FIRST PHASE OF new Sanford Junior High School, located on the south shores of Lake Jerry on property contiguous to Seminole High School, is 25 percent complete in the above aerial photo by Herald

Head start classes in Seminole County will begin June 1, it was announced at the meeting of the board of directors of Seminole Community Action last night.

Six weeks delay in the anticipated beginning of the program is due to time needed for order and delivery of supplies, surplus food commodities, final selection of an additional site in the Georgetown area and hiring of personnel. Financed through a federal grant of $133,000, the program is considered a full year one that will be an eight-month school year.

Robert Petree, president of SCA, said today 10 teachers, teachers' aides, six cooks and cooks helpers and 20 to 25 volunteer helpers will be needed to implement the program. In addition Petree stated the need for contributions of lumber and materials suitable for making crude wooden durable toys, preschool books, coloring books, crayons, other art supplies, and materials, paper and cutting materials. "We would like to have community participation in the program," he said.

Anyone interested in working on a volunteer basis or applying for the teacher or teacher aide positions should contact Her. James Jones, SCA director, at SCA headquarters at plans as possible.

Plans were made at the meeting to hire an assistant director in the next 10 days. Applicants for this position should contact the director and supply him with a resume.

Effort is being made by SCA to obtain an additional site for classrooms for the Head Start program in the present headquarters on Pine Street. The facility will have to be able to accommodate 20 to 40 students, and have kitchen and bathroom facilities.

The board will also continue work on the Bookertown project. At this time sewing and adult literacy classes are being held there as well as a tutorial assistance program.

Congressional Candidates Orate

Douglas Stenstrom Wayne Poucher

By BILL SCOTT
Declaring America needs a national revival for respect for law and order, Doug Stenstrom, Democratic candidate for Congress from Fourth District, called for a "new Americanism" in his address to the U. S. result would be anarchy and chaos.

Stenstrom said it was absolutely necessary that Americans rise against crime and police in fighting crime and preventing riots. "For this reason I support wholeheartedly the safe streets act now before the U. S. Senate." He added he supported legislation to provide stiff fines and imprisonment for those traveling interstate to incite or participate in riots and for those who teach the use of, transport or manufacture of bombs and incendiary devices.

Saving the fiscal picture of the country for last, the former judge and state senator told the group, "we now face a possible deficit of $25 billion with growing inflation and a new crisis in the dollar abroad." He added, "we cannot spend ourselves into prosperity at home or abroad."

"This country has got to have a sound dollar and one that is respected throughout the world," Stenstrom was introduced by Clifford Johnson, past president of the underwriters. Waverly Doudy presided.

By DONNA TSTEN
Strong "rejection resolution" by the teachers, themselves, of the use of strikes, work stoppage, etc., in the future will come before the Florida Education Association convention in Miami next Friday and Saturday," Wayne Poucher, Republican candidate for U. S. representative, predicted at a party luncheon yesterday at the House of Steak.

Poucher said, "Whether this actually is accomplished, the Florida State Legislature should move, and should have moved in the past emergency session to reinforce laws which declare strikes in the public service sector illegal and punishable under our criminal or civil statutes."

Poucher, in answer to a question on education from the audience, said that "while this question is one of a local and state nature, and one which the federal government should constitutionally stay out of, I have some very strong feelings about the situation as a parent of two high school students."

LAST CHANCE—Annual Automobile Show of the Sanford Automobile Dealers Association's franchised new car dealers on Holiday Isle drew record crowds on Wednesday and Thursday... and car buffs and potential purchasers have only this afternoon and this evening for a final viewing at the show. AROUND THE CLOCK

Look for an announcement out of Washington, D. C., this afternoon on the organization of United Democrats-for-Humphrey. This was learned locally today (after "The Friendly Season" on the editorial page was "locked up.") Further, Humphrey workers will be gathering in Washington late next week (April 26-27) and, R. E. Porter learns, Hubert Humphrey will formally announce at a press conference at that time that he is a presidential candidate.

Hugh Price has taken on an added chore: He is now manager of the new Plaza Theater, in addition to managing the Movieland Drive-In Theater, and is looking forward with anticipation to the grand opening on April 26, with the feature movie, "Planet of the Apes," starring Charlton Heston, Robert Taylor, and Kiwanis Clubs are sponsoring the gala opening, for the benefit of the Sanford zoo building fund.

Bill Phillips, superintendent of schools, and Mason Wharton, School Board chairman, are speaking engagements here, around the county. Phillips and Wharton will discuss the referendum on next Thursday before the quarterly directors' dinner-meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at the TradeWinds cafeteria.

With all the "education" being spread by school officials, some electors are posing the word that "only Democrats" can vote on the $10.3 million school bond issue. For the information of all, any voter who is a freeloader may vote on the issue. Whether he be Democrat, Republican, Prohibitionist, independent or a Bull Moose.

Monday is the last day for reserving a special number for new automobile license tags.

R. E. Porter hears there are dickerings for a three-quarter-million foundry to be located within the environs of Sanford. The man with the details is out of the city.

Speaking "out of the city," a delegation of local VIPs, including the HemiFair at San Antonio with the view of enticing an attraction to the Sanford area, or finding an idea for such an attraction.

Two new metas sub divisions are mushrooming up on Longwood - Markham Road. Some developers have found that if they do not record plats of their property in blocks and lots, they do not have to follow the strict county regulations and build streets to specification and furnish sewers and water systems. The buyers are the ones that get the shock when they find the county will not maintain their roads if the plats are not recorded and accepted.

City Manager Warren (Pete) Knowles is attending a meeting of Central Florida City Managers Association at Maitland today.

Graduation Is First At SIC

Seminole Junior College will confer almost 100 diplomas at its first commencement ceremonies to be held at the Sanford Civic Center at 8 p. m. next Friday.

Dr. Earl S. Weldon, president of the college, has announced that President Harold B. Crosby, of the University of West Florida at Pensacola, will deliver the commencement address. President Crosby, a native of Jacksonville, has served as a professor of law, assistant dean of the college of law and dean of university relations and development at the University of Florida. He also was a major in the U. S. Air Force and a circuit judge of the Florida First Judicial Circuit.

A graduate with high honors of the University of Florida, President Crosby is a member of the education and occupational committees of the Florida Council of 100, a member of the American Bar Association and a consultant to the Florida Constitutional Advisory Commission.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I haven't been able to sleep very well lately. You see, I cheated a little on my income tax. (Deductions) Any suggestions? SOL: Send the IRS a check for $1. And if you still can't sleep, send the balance. DEAR ABBY: I just finished crying my eyes out over something that is not my fault. A very nice boy from school started dating me and I was on cloud nine. He was never popular, and he was like an answer to my prayers. Well, he just called me up and told me he couldn't date me anymore because his parents have forbidden him to. The reason was they heard that my older sister had a baby out of wedlock. (She did, but Abby, I have never done one thing out of the way, so why should I have to suffer for something my sister did?) I have even had girl friends tell me they could not go around with me any more because of my sister's reputation. I am not like my sister, and don't see why people should hold this against me. How can I prove that I am a "nice" girl when I have this against me? DEAR SOL: Don't try to "prove" anything. People who are not willing to judge you on your own record are not worth having as friends. DEAR ABBY: Some new neighbors moved into our area and we share a 2-party line. Abby, this woman speaks as good English as I, because I have heard her, but when she talks on the phone she always speaks a foreign language. I consider this an insult to me. What do you think of a neighbor like this? BURNED UP: She's smart. She speaks a foreign language because she suspects that someone may be listening. And she is obviously right. DEAR ABBY: I would like to say something to "A Father," who thinks children ought to be fed first so he and his wife can have a nice quiet dinner after he has put in a hard day's work. Who, may I ask, is going to prepare 2 meals—one for the children and another one, later, for the Lord and Master? The cook? Sorry, we don't have one. And who is going to look after the children while their parents are eating? Their mother? Sorry, she's not one of those either. Besides, if the kids are by themselves, Mother will probably have to get up and referee. Separate meals may work in somebody else's house, but not in ours. We all eat together. It's not always quiet and peaceful, but somehow we'll manage to live thru it. OHIO MOTHER: Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to: Abby, c/o The Hearst Corp., Box 90069, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. DEAR ABBY: I would like to say something to "A

Jacoby On Bridge

The previous four columns have been written by James Jacoby to describe his new team. Today Jim goes one step further by asking his teammate Bobby Wolff to write about his favorite hand of all time. Bobby writes: "I usually get into the bidding with two aces and five spades, but the unfavorable vulnerability and maybe a sudden burst of caution caused me to pass over South's heart opening. After North's three heart and South's four heart calls I expected to lead against a routine game contract, when much to my surprise North cue bid both diamonds and clubs and there-by carried South to a heart slam. "It isn't often that I find myself on lead against a slam with two aces. It is even less frequent for me to decide to

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY: Today facial tissues are so attractively boxed it seems a shame to throw away the empty container. One, taped with transparent tape to the end of my sewing machine cabinet, is ideal for holding small sewing scraps and bits of thread. Another is used in the laundry area to hold clothing labels with washing instructions. Still another in perfect for holding soiled hose until I am ready to wash them. Another idea for keeping the sewing area tidy is to place the divided section of an egg carton next to your machine. DEAR POLLY: I think I can help Mary Mae display her pennants without damaging papered walls. Our family has been collecting pennants for souvenirs while on trips all over the United States and Canada. We slide ours on a thin wire that is hung on the wall between two nails or tape-backed picture hangers. DEAR POLLY—My daughter used a stapler and fine staples to display felt pennants on the papered wall in her room. This worked very well as the tiny holes made by the staples did not show unless one looked very closely. LUCILLE DEAR POLLY—Like Mary Mae, my children have a collection of felt pennants which we wanted to display without

Beauty after Forty

"Please discuss hair. I have a fairly nice figure, good skin but my hair is just getting so thin it looks awful. It does not seem to fall out but is getting thinner and thinner. I am a mature woman but very active. I do my own hair and always dry it with a linen towel. I do not use sprays or color-primers. My hair is gray, has been for many years." ELLA I suggest you visit your doctor for a check-up. This is good advice! As to the problem of thinning hair, sometimes hair does thin as we grow older, although this is not always the case. Try massaging your scalp with cosmetic oil. Be sure that you have a real hairbrush. They are expensive but so well worth the price. To give a little body to your hair, a gentle permanent given by a professional hairdresser will
