NEW LAND MOVEMENT ON FOR EX-SERVICE MEN WILL COME TO SOUTH

Member Nat'l Committee Greatly Surprised In Values

WILL BE PASSED

WANTING MEN FOUR OP- TIONS AND THEY WILL SETTLE ON LANDS IN SOUTH.

New Orleans, La., April 8.—"I do not believe the average person has any idea of the real meaning of the movement for land settlement that has been started in the South through the leadership of the American Legion and others interested in the development of this country," said Kenneth A. McRae, of Omaha, member of the national legislative committee of the American Legion, who is in New Orleans on a vacation trip through the South for his strenuous activities in Washington in behalf of relief legislation for ex-service men.

Mr. McRae expressed confidence that Congress soon will enact the Hayden-Smoot bill which embodies recommendations of the American Legion for assisting ex-service men in obtaining homes. This measure, he explained, will give the ex-soldier or sailor four options:

"Under the land settlement plan, Option No. 1, for instance a former soldier, who has seen one year or 65 days of active service, will be entitled to a credit of $1.50 per day or $547.50. To this he may add as a year's working capital $1,200 borrowed from the government for stocking his farm with animals, and $1,500 for improvements, a total working capital of $3,247.50, of which he must pay five per cent a cash for the land and the remainder in forty years.

"Should he elect to accept Option No. 2, for the purchase of a home on a small tract near the city he will receive a credit of $2.00 per day or a total of $730 only, whereas, if he elects what is erroneously thought to be the popular demand, or a cash bonus under Option No. 4, he would receive $1.50 per day or a total of only $547.50.

"Thirdly, vocational training will be offered to all men who prefer it and a credit of $1.50 per day for every day served will be allowed for expenses during the period of training, the remainder will be paid in cash.

"In other words the government under the American Legion bonus bill offers the greatest inducements to the constructive phases of the returned soldier problem, that is farming. When the advantages are thoroughly understood by the boys they undoubtedly will grasp the farm opportunity offered in Option No. 1, in great numbers. As a matter of fact, more than 250,000 returned soldiers already have advised the U. S. Interior Department that they desire to secure farms with federal assistance.

"With such assistance from the government, after this act becomes a law the remarkable opportunities and advantages of the South as an agricultural section, undoubtedly will appeal with striking force to these new farmers and many of them should turn their eyes to this section for their future homes."

"This land," said Mr. McRae, "will be valued before purchase by the governor of the state in which the land is, an appraiser from the federal land bank, and a member of the board for administering land and homes, in order to insure that the land is worth the price asked for it."

"No imitations, except that appraisal, is placed on the ex-service man purchasing land. He may settle anywhere in the state he likes.

"There will be a board comprising five members, three ex-service men, the secretary of the interior, and a citizen, which will administer all land and home compensations.

Mr. McRae pointed out that in the Middle West land values had become so high that the people were going to seek other fields. It has been found by purchases of land at $500 an acre Iowa, for example, according to Mr. McRae, that it was impossible to make the land produce interest, on the investment. This situation he said, made the time ripe for the South to advertise itself.

"When the people up there find out that you have good land down here, as good as anywhere else in the country, and there is very little in the myth of fever, swamps and malaria and yellow fever, they are going to flock to the South."

"When the bill becomes a law, and no opposition has developed thus far," said Mr. McRae, "I believe it will be one of the greatest boosts the agricultural South has ever had. You are too modest in this country."

Debate On Peace Treaty

WILL TAKE SEVERAL DAYS TO REACH FINAL VOTE.

Washington, April 7.—Final determination was reached today by Republican leaders in the house to bring to a vote in that body late Friday the resolution to declare the state of war with Germany at an end. A special rule reported today by the Rules committee provides for six hours debate on Thursday and five hours on Friday, after which opponents of the resolution may offer only a motion to recommitt.

Completion today of the minority report, presenting views of Democratic members on the resolution, cleared the way for the long debate. Representative Flood of Virginia, ranking Democratic member of the committee, presenting the minority report, challenged the power of congress to bring the war legally to an end, and characterized section five of the resolution as an attempt to preserve something out of the wreck of American rights which have been so outrageously surrendered in former sections of the resolution.

"From whatever angle this resolution is viewed," he continued, "it presents itself as a proposition not only ineffective in achieving its proclaimed purpose, but as a sure method of confusing our foreign relations, injecting new and complicated questions into an already difficult situation and involving a surrender of American rights and an impairment of American prestige and honor."

Winter Park Passes Teacher Pay Tax

Winter Park, Fla., April 6.—The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held on Monday night and in many respects was of unusual importance. Among some of the most important actions were the adding of one mill to the taxes to provide a fund for the increase of the salaries of the teachers of the public school, the purchase of the three lots south of the town hall which are now being used as a play ground, and the appropriation of one thousand dollars from the general fund for improving the waterways of the town. This last act will mean much for the canals are becoming filled with sand and hyacinths are beginning to reappear in several of the lakes. Now is a good time to check this menace, for when once the hyacinths get a firm hold they are a terrible nuisance. The little money spent now will save a great deal later on.

RODMAN DEFENDS OUR NAVY

CENSURES SIMS FOR BEING INDISCREET IN CRITICISMS.

Washington, April 7.—Admiral Hugh Rodman, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, told the senate investigating committee today that Rear Admiral Sims' letter to Secretary Daniels criticizing the navy's part in the war was very indiscreet.

"Admiral Sims' indiscretions," he said, "lay particularly in his breach of confidence in making public an intimate and confidential conversation which should have been held secret."

The witness referred to Sims' testimony that Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations told him prior to his departure not to let the "British pull the wool over your eyes; we would as soon fight the British."

"Had Admiral Sims' letter been less indiscreet," Admiral Rodman said; "had he omitted references to conversations, which, as I have said, he should have held secret and confidential; had the statements been couched in polite and moderate terms such as are usual in such messages; had it been less antagonistic, it would no doubt, have followed the usual course of such communications, received due consideration by the proper authorities and doubtless some good would have come of it. His mention and the subsequent publication of a certain admonition he says he received prior to his departure for London, no doubt has had its effect upon the cordial relations which heretofore existed between us and one of our closest allies. In every expression of opinion which I have heard concerning it both in and out of the navy, it has received the deepest censure."

Declaring that he appeared entirely at his own request to "defend the good name of the navy," Admiral Rodman, who commanded the American battleship squadron, told the committee that the American navy did its full share most gallantly and effectively in fighting the Huns to a spectacular and victorious conclusion.

Admiral Sims' status abroad was largely one of liaison officer, the witness said.

Pensacola Airmen Make Balloon Flight Record

Wilmington, N. C. April 7.—After setting what is believed to be a world's record by flying 900 miles in fourteen hours, a naval balloon attached to the training station at Pensacola, Florida, made a forced landing in a field near Kerr, thirty miles from Wilmington, today.

The occupants of the balloon, Lieutenants Kenny, U. S. N., commanding and Lieutenant Kelly and Gunner Bundy, U. S. N., student at the Pensacola station, were badly shaken up. They were brought to Wilmington early in the afternoon two of them in need of medical attention.

The men left Pensacola at 6:35 Tuesday afternoon on an endurance flight and landed at Kerr at 9:30 this morning. The balloon used was of the old observation type.

The airmen will return to Pensacola by train tomorrow.

Says He Repudiated Wilson and Is No Real Candidate

HITS REPUBLICANS

SAYS HOUSE MEMBERS FOR TWELVE MONTHS HAVE INVESTIGATED OUR VICTORY.

Gainesville, Ga., April 8.—Opening his campaign for the democratic nomination in Georgia for president Attorney General Palmer addressed a large audience here Tuesday. At that outset Mr. Palmer said he had entered the Georgia primaries because certain enemies of the administration was attempting to secure a delegation from Georgia to the San Francisco convention that might be controlled by the critics of the administration.

"This has resulted in the entering of the name of a distinguished citizen of Georgia as a candidate. That does not materially alter the situation nor change my duty with respect to it.

"As I read the announcement of Sen. Smith, he is not a real candidate for president. His candidacy is intended only to embarrass the president and the party which he leads. If this were not true I should have hesitated to oppose him here for under other circumstances he would have had a large claim to the sympathy and support of his own state. If in making his announcement he declared himself to be in sympathy with the course of the party under the brilliant leadership of Woodrow Wilson and thus brought himself in line with what will be the undoubted declarations of the San Francisco convention, I should have gladly conceded his right to preferential votes of his own state. But I have too much confidence in the loyalty of the Georgia democrats to the great principles for which our party stands and which have been written indelibly upon the political history of our time to be deterred by the prospects of a contest even with so distinguished a son of Georgia as your rear senator, from giving your people an opportunity to show that loyalty in terms that would be understood throughout the country. I follow the leadership of Woodrow Wilson. Sen. Smith has repudiated it.

"The republican house of representatives for 12 months has contented itself with investigating our victory in the war," Mr. Palmer said. "The republican senate for 12 months has fought to deprive us of the fruits of our victory."

Asserting that he stood on a common ground with President Wilson as regards the treaty the attorney general said he was one of those who would have the treaty ratified with out destructive reservations.

SETTLEMENT LABOR UNREST PROBLEMATIC

SECRETARY OF LABOR BOARD GIVES REASONS FOR ASSERTION.

Washington April 8 (By Associated Press) The flat rejection of the plan of the Second Industrial Conference settling the labor unrest urged before the senate labor committee today by W. Jett Lauck, secretary of the old labor board. He said the labor demand for a greater share in the control of industry was causing unrest.

100 PER CENT AMERICANS

American Legion Asks Members To Register and Stand Fast.

The following from the Jacksonville Times Union will prove interesting to American Legion members of this county:

The local post American Legion will hold its regular monthly meeting in the chamber of commerce auditorium tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, when the carnival committee will make a report giving the amount of money secured for the Edward C. DeSaussure post.

"Don't forget the next meeting of the post, and don't forget to register and pay your poll tax," was the closing remark of the announcement of the meeting sent out by Post Adjutant Smith, Americanism of the 100 per cent variety, such as the American Legion stands for, it is pointed out, demands that every eligible voter shall exercise his rights at the next election. The post went on record at its last meeting to the effect that to be a full fledged member of the post each must register and pay his poll tax. A committee was appointed by Post Commander Covington to check the roster of members to see that this was done. A card asking the questions. Have you registered? Have you paid your poll tax? is included in the announcement to each member, and will be checked up to see that the members of the local post do live up to their obligations as citizens and Legionnaires.

A call has been issued to all members of the post who have not paid their dues to come to this meeting and pay up to Post Finance Officer Edward Goodman to mail their check to him in care of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., Graham building, or call upon him at that place and leave their dues. This is necessary the announcement states or the names of such unpaid members must be dropped within thirty days.

Tomorrow, Tuesday night, 8 p. m. is the time for the meeting.

LIGHT TOMATO SHIPMENTS DURING MONTH OF APRIL

Period of About Four Weeks Between The Old and New Crop as Result Of Frost

Miami, April 6.—Tomato shipments from this section will be light during the month of April as the result of the freeze of a month ago; the new crop not coming on until about May 1. The fruit shipped from damaged fields up until now has been largely vines. The fruit which will be ready in May is that which has come on sprouts on vines which were frozen down in March.

The Thomas J. Peters packing house closed down yesterday, and will remain closed during the entire month, excepting for a few days next week when it will turn out about 10 cars. This packing house has been running for several weeks at the rate of from 10 to 15 carloads a day. Mr. Peters' tomato patch is about 12,000 acres in extent, the largest in the world.

Of course there are thousands of acres of tomatoes in the southern part of the county along the bay shore that were not injured by the frost at all, and the movement will continue from these fields at the normal rate.

In the meantime it is expected that the price, which has held to only a medium level since the freeze, will improve during the period of lessened supply.

Catts Elected Wilson

Brooksville, April 6.—Sen. D. U. Fletcher, candidate for re-election, spoke to a large crowd here Wednesday night.

After Sen. Fletcher was introduced by Col. G. C. Martin he was greeted with loud applause, and during his speech he was often interrupted by applause, especially when he paid his respects to Mr. Catts.

He briefly reviewed his accomplishments during the 12 years of service told of his committee assignments during the democratic administration of congress and at present, and discussed at some length the farm loan act and the past and probable future accomplishments of the merchant marine. The senator has probably been more instrumental in obtaining legislation affecting these two branches of government service than any other member of congress.

He read an extract of a letter from Mr. Catts, written in 1917 in which Mr. Catts informed the senator that he (Catts) had been responsible for the election of Woodrow Wilson in 1916, in that he (Catts) had refused an offer of $50,000 to go over to the Hughes faction with his constituency. This piece of intelligence brought down the house. In fitting ways the senator discussed issues found in the Catts campaign literature. Approval of his hearers was registered by the applause that greeted him.

Women Can Register After Books Close

Whether women will vote in the coming primary and general elections depends upon one more State's ratification of the Anthony Federal suffrage amendment before the elections and not whether they will be eligible to vote before the registration period closes, according to the State election laws as interpreted by Supervisor of Registration B. L. Blackburn and others. An amendment to the law put into effect in 1915 known as the Byran bill, provides for voters who become eligible after the close of the registration period.

This amendment was drafted by John J. McWhorter, associate editor of the Tribune in 1915 and passed shortly after. It provides that "persons" becoming legally qualified after the registration period may become qualified electors by making an affidavit containing the date on which he will become of legal voting age or will have completed a legal voting residence with the supervisor of registration.

Mr. Blackburn contends that his law is applicable to women as well as men. He said yesterday the ratification of the suffrage amendment by one more State will in his opinion, qualify women who are of legal voting age to register after the manner prescribed by law. He says no poll tax will be required, which is the case where a man becomes of legal voting age immediately prior to election. Tampa Tribune.

Expert Savage Fishermen.
The Sandwich Islanders and the people of the Ladrone are exceptional as savage fishermen, having no fear of fairly deep water. The latter think nothing of going fishing in 13 fathoms in light canoes called proas, rigged with one sail, in the construction of which their ancestors most likely copied the Malay pirates.

Too Beautiful.

A man and his wife went to one of the most beautiful islands in the Caribbean sea seven years ago to spend the twilight of their lives in the serene beauty of the tropics. It was a place which the husband, a seafaring man, had chosen as the nearest approach to terrestrial paradise for those who have enough money to live without working hard.

The couple landed in New York the other day with their lures and penates and a parrot. The ideal season is just about to begin in the Caribbean, but it will start and continue without this particular pair of humans. "We want an old-fashioned New England winter," said the wife. The husband was more specific. "It was great for a while, but finally it got too doleful and beautiful. We are going back to Connecticut to see some rocks and barren fields."—New York Sun.

Siberian Y. W. C. A.

Over in Siberia a staff of Y. W. C. A. workers are slowly but surely making headway in organizing an association and in interesting girls in the various activities planned for their benefit. Overcoming the mountains of difficulties which arise from the abnormal educational and social situation in Vladivostok has been a problem to be approached slowly and with eyes open.

The workers report finding a few people interested in the things which have to do with girls and with whatever information they have gathered they are carefully developing their activities. There are sewing classes and one of the workers is conducting classes in spelling and letter writing.

Prize-Fighter Congressman.

The report that Carpenter, the prize fighter, is ambitious to become a member of the French parliament, recalls the election of John Morrissey to congress on November 5, 1897, from the "Bloody Sixth" ward of New York city, says the Springfield Republican. Morrissey's famous fight, in which he defeated Heenan, took place October 29, 1858, in the no-man's land adjoining Boston Corners in Berkshire county, afterward conceded to New York by Massachusetts. The pugilist had a long record of indictments for assault and burglary and had served nine months in the penitentiary for nine breaches of the peace. He served his district in congress satisfactorily enough to be re-elected.

'Twentieth Century.

The first century comprised the years 1 to 100 inclusive; the second century, the years 101 to 200 inclusive, and so on to the twentieth century, which is the period beginning with 1901 and extending to the year 2001.

Water Power Wasted.

The Alto Parana river, which divides Paraguay from Argentina and Brazil, and its many tributaries, could make Paraguay an important industrial center. The power of these waters is practically unknown, but is estimated as having, in some places, a fall of 200 feet, and a force of 100,000-horse power. The Iguazu falls are regarded as even more powerful than Niagara.

It was just this issue that was tried in the case of the New York Socialist members of the general assembly.

Maurice Bloch, who presented a minority report in the unseating of these men, declared "Liberty involves the right to think wrong."

True, but as it is also true that many a man could be arrested for what he thinks, if he thought it out loud, so also is it true, as the Post tells Mr. Block, "upon analysis it will be found that liberty exercises no function in such a case as long as a man's ideas do not stray out side of man's own mental processes." "Fortunately," continues the Post no law, not the most absolute of despots, not the proudest of beauties, has the power to control our thought but the liberty that allows open expression of those thoughts is an entirely different matter. Some men may even be found who quarrel with the entire ten commandments. None of these abnormal persons can, obvious, be deprived of their liberty so far as mere thinking goes; but when they undertake to promulgate such wrong thoughts and to attempt to persuade others to share in them that liberty that was made for the general protection of mankind, rightly steps in to protect them and the rest of mankind from the consequences of thinking wrong and giving expression to their thoughts. "To preach certain doctrines is, therefore, properly and justly regarded as the province of a man who is either a criminal or a lunatic," concludes the Post. "And in one place protection is provided by his incarceration in jail, and in the other by his sequestration in an asylum for the insane."

TREAT IT WITH SILENT CONTENTMENT

We have received from Mr. A. A. Coult, temporary secretary of the Florida Development Board, copy of some correspondence between him and Burton W. Currie, editor of the Country Gentleman, in regard to the misrepresentations of that professed farming journal about Florida. We don't propose to waste space on the Country Gentleman and its lies and we think it would pay Mr. Coult and other Floridians to follow the same policy. As a "farm paper" the Country Gentleman is a false alarm. It has some good stories (not about farming) in it, and some boost stuff, but a farmer, particularly a Florida farmer who subscribed to it is wasting his money. A specimen of what Mr. Currie knows about Florida is in the following paragraph:

"I have paid many visits to Florida and have travelled through practically every region in the state which is farmed. Outside of the muck land and Everglades I have yet to find any considerable area of soil that can be farmed without heavy fertilization. You mention the many train-loads of food that have been shipped out of Florida but make no comment on the many train-loads of fertilizer that have been shipped in. If Florida soil contained anything like the amount of organic matter and fertility that some of its boosters allege, it would be as thickly settled with farmers as Illinois."

There are thousands of farmers in this state who know the foregoing paragraph is either a plain lie or the statement of an ignoramus. There are tens of thousands of acres of Florida land which are farmed with little or no commercial fertilizer. They have been improved from plain white sand to rich ground by rotation of crops and pasturing. There is no use in arguing with a man or paper that will print such stuff.

If a bunch of Florida men would get together and buy space for a descriptive write-up in the Country Gentleman, it would pile flattery on the state with a spade. But its space is not worth buying. We shall not refer to it again, and we advise other Floridians to follow the same policy.—Ocala Star.

"THE GOOD OLD DAYS"

Eggs are one dollar a dozen. It was different in the good old days, wasn't it? You could buy a couple of laying hens for your dollar then. For ten dollars you could buy half a cow and the butcher would throw in his tools and his apron.

"Good old days?" Yes—they were not. Those were the days when a dollar was worth a lot and a man was worth very little.

If your appendix went on a strike the doctor called it inflammation of the bowels and they buried you. If your lungs were weak they started to pick out a location in a marble orchard for you.

And if you were unfortunate enough to be host to a few billion typhoid germs they called the doctor, but he wouldn't give you any water, and you were walled to the realm of bliss with your tongue hanging out. Women wore long skirts that dragged along the walks and collected germs, and made the wearer resemble an upright piano. And if she wore a shorter skirt, which came within a few inches of the ground, and showed her ankles, and hinted that she was equipped with legs like other humans, she was frowned upon.

If you craved amusement you got it at the "Young Men's Wednesday Night Club" when some old skintit would talk you dizzy for two hours on "How to Become a Successful Man."

You get one dollar and ten cents a day and were expected to bring up a family of ten children on it.

These were the "good old days" we hear so much about. You wouldn't think of having them back, and you know it. It costs more to live now but it's worth it. So quit your grumbling.—Dallas News.

TWO "WINGS" IN GEORGIA
 National Convention Must Decide Claims of Yvo G. O. P. Conventions.
 Atlanta, Ga., April 7.—The republicans state convention here today was expected to develop a number of contests, including those for delegates gates at large to the republican national convention, for election of a state committee, a state chairman and national committeeman from Georgia. The conventions was not expected to get down to business until late in the day.

The "regular" republican organization, which was the one called to meet yesterday, has two wings, one led by Roscoe Pickett, which supports Maj. Gen. Wood for the presidential nomination and the other by Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro, who worked for an uninstructed delegation from Georgia. Wood delegates have been elected in all 12 congressional districts, but in many of them uninstructed delegates also were elected. Action of the national convention will be necessary to decide the conflicting claims.

A strictly white delegation, selected by former progressives, has been at work in Georgia also, led by Harry Stillwell Edwards, of Macon.

It is not known whether Dr. Neal will make any changes to the Willola which is an eighteen room hotel enjoying a very flattering season. The property fronts 100 feet on the avenue with a depth of 200 feet.—Reporter Star.

Something Like a Memory.

Billie was heard to say to his pal Jack: "I can remember everything I did since I was three weeks old." After some hesitation Jack replied: "Oh, that's nothing, I can remember from the time the doctor said to me: 'Stand up, Sonny, and have your eyes put in.'"

Weather And Crop Conditions In Florida For The Week Ending April 6 1920.

Temperature. The temperature averaged 2 degrees to 5 degrees above normal in the peninsula and 3 degrees normal in the extreme northwest. The week closed with change to much cooler weather. Minimum temperatures on the 6th ranged from the 40's in central, to freezing in interior of extreme northern division, with light to heavy frosts in northern counties. The sunshine was deficient in the north and west and normal elsewhere.

Precipitation. Rain fell generally through the section from the 2d to 5th—excessive at many stations in northern and western divisions; moderate to heavy in central; and good showers in southern divisions. Some of the heaviest amounts reported were: Madison, 5.7; Gainesville, 4.6; Bonifay, 4.0; Monticello, 3.3, and Orlando, 2.7, inches.

Condition of Crops. The week was generally favorable for farm work, although in portions of extreme north work was delayed on account of heavy rains. Work and spring crop continue somewhat backward as compared with an average season. The planting of cotton, corn, cane and peanuts progressed during the week. Early corn made excellent progress and is being cultivated in the central division. Irish potatoes made excellent progress and are in good condition. Oats and rye made satisfactory progress. Citrus bloom is heavy and the fruit is "setting" satisfactorily; young trees are making excellent growth. General rain during the week will be very beneficial to all crops, especially truck in the southern division which was beginning to suffer.
