Convention Unit Ok'd

By BILL SMITH
Final plans regarding a convention and tourist bureau in the Seminole Chamber of Commerce were completed this morning at a meeting of the Chamber's promotions committee.

William Beck, promotions committee chairman, outlined recommendation that group will make at board of directors meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday. The committee will ask Chamber directors to appropriate $100,000 to fund a bureau to actively seek the placing of conventions here and to help in tourist services.

Board of directors agreed at a previous session to hire an assistant at $4,000 annual salary. Promotions committee report would mean the allocating of an additional $4,000 to the budget to fund the entire program.

In addition to certain Chamber duties, the assistant would handle necessary details in setting up, obtaining promotional materials, handling correspondence and general co-ordinating a convention and tourist program.

County OKs Ambulance Service

Some weeks ago AP wrote that the city of Ding Dong is in the process of purchasing a 2000-1000-1000 ambulance. The purchase was approved by the Board of Directors of the City of Ding Dong.

Big Chief Gene Estridge blames the lag this week in the purchase of the ambulance on the fact that the ambulance is being built by a local contractor. He said that the ambulance will be ready for use by the end of the month.

Federal Food Plan Snagged Here

By DONNA ESTES
Participation by Seminole County in either the federal food commodities program or the food stamp plan is no closer to being a reality today than it was a year ago.

Estimated cost of the distribution has been given by the county as $30,000 for the one year. Future plans in Volusia county for alternative setting up two additional distribution points, one each in Deland and New Smyrna, are to be determined by the county. Estimated cost per center to the county would be at least $30,000.

What's more, you can't even take a vacation for a week. Your protection automatically increases $1.00 a week each year. The first year you get $100.00 a week. You get $150.00 a week in the second year, $200.00 a week in the third year, $250.00 a week in the fourth year. By the eleventh year, your policy will be worth a full $1,000.00 in benefits. You can't even increase in cost to you! This generous cash reserve protection will be yours for as long as you keep the policy. You can't get that from any other insurance policy.

War Resumes After Cease-Fire

SAIGON (AP) — The vest-pocket cease-fire for the release of 14 North Vietnamese prisoners of war ended at noon today with no indication of any attempt to extend it.

One U.S. military source said the assumed fighter-bomber were resuming raids on North Vietnamese supply columns and bases in the 256-square-mile coastal area that was declared off limits at midnight Sunday.

The cease-fire negotiated in the Laotian capital of Vientiane, silenced enemy shore batteries and anti-aircraft gun batteries for an end to the U.S. jets continued their raids on the North Vietnamese panhandle outside the cease-fire area. Air Force B-52 bombers were striking as usual in their fourth week, continuing their attacks on military and industrial targets.

The Viet Cong's Liberation Press Agency said today that the United States has no right to demand reciprocity for a cease-fire in the North, and that the Paris peace talks will progress only after an unconditional bombing halt.

The halt in ground fighting, now in its fourth week, continues. Some see it as a possible de-escalation move by Hanoi, but the U.S. command feels differently.

The command announced today that allied troops seized more than 300 tons of enemy munitions and food during September. Most of these supplies were found in the 3rd Corps area that includes Saigon and the five northwestern provinces below the demilitarized zone.

No violations of the cease-fire were reported, a U.S. Air Force spokesman said Monday. He said the command was in effect. The Navy said the Skyhawk, the 40th American warplane reported lost in combat over North Vietnam, made a strafing run on a truck, "went into a dive, and a large fireball was observed."

"After a low level pass the aircraft was completely destroyed with a chute nearby," the Navy said. "There was no sign of the pilot."

The U.S. Command said Air Force, Navy and Marine pilots flew through northeast monsoon weather to log 114 missions against North Vietnam Monday. Assessment of the damage was limited by the overcast.

Air Force B-52 bombers flew seven missions, dropping 1,250 tons of explosives on enemy base camps near the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon and on an enemy supply depot in the jungled foothills 80 miles southwest of Da Nang.

Weather Postpones Honeymoon

ATHENS (AP) — Caroline and John Kennedy headed back to New York and school today, but bad weather still kept their mother's honeymoon yachting trip along the coast of Greece.

The children were expected to leave Athens today for London and possibly spend a day or two there with their mother's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill.

Where the new Mrs. and Mrs. Aristotle Onassis were headed was their secret. The storm that raged through their wedding Sunday on Scopos Island kept them through Monday and into Tuesday.

The wedding guests flew to Athens Monday. In addition to 18-year-old Caroline and 7-year-old John, the Radziwills also were accompanied by their young son and daughter.

The honeymoon-bound group also included the only adult members of the Kennedy family who attended the wedding, 100 of the late President's sisters and Mrs. Stephen Smith and Mrs. Peter Lawford.

Also among those departing was the U.S. Secret Service. The other three storm deaths were in Florida.

Heavy rain and winds up to 85 miles an hour played havoc with the boat. The vessel was tossed about and a diver was killed when the boat crashed into the cab of his truck. His 8-year-old son suffered only minor injuries.

In addition, an unidentified fisherman was feared drowned at Glace Bay after falling overboard in high seas. Kennedy and Onassis also were on the boat.

At the Vatican, an official comment was made on the wedding of the Roman Catholic Mrs. Onassis to a divorced member of the Greek Orthodox Church. The Rev. M. S. g. r. Fausto Vaccaro, the Vatican's press spokesman, declared: "Jacqueline Kennedy has reached the age of reason—that is, to be able to know what she is doing. She is now at the moment of her marriage with Onassis what the Catholic Church's law was on marriage with a divorced man."

The church's canon law forbids such marriages for Roman Catholics unless there is a declaration of nullity from the church.

Health Week Is Observed

This week, Oct. 20-26, is being observed throughout the nation as "National Health Week."

Dr. Frank Loose, director of the Seminole County Health Department, has prepared the following news release in conjunction with the observation.

Abraham Lincoln described our government as being "of, by and for" the people. These same words can be applied to health. Health of the people is an important activity. Participation by the people, however, is the real key to a healthy activity.

Prevention is everybody's job. Public health personnel can do take steps to help prevent foodborne diseases, but in most cases, prevention must depend on individual action. For example, almost all food poisoning incidents could be avoided if everyone were to observe proper precautions in preparing, cooking, serving and preserving food.

In the area of public health, particularly the task is to help people with a misunderstanding of health as it is related to the environment, and to show people their responsibilities, while inspiring them to respond.

Public health encompasses many disciplines. Perhaps no other profession requires the participation of individuals with such diverse interests and backgrounds in order to achieve its ultimate goal, namely, the physical, mental and social well-being of all people.

The common denominator in public health practice, then, is organized cooperation among related professional workers and others seriously interested in protecting and promoting public health and security.

YOU are the most important link in the chain for good health. Why? Because you are responsible for protecting your health and the health of members of your family. How? By wisely using your community health resources, such as doctors, nurses, sanitarians, personnel and other public health workers.

The following are the many DIVIDENDS in protection and prevention of disease offered by your Health Department. Your investment in public health provides these services:

- TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC: Glassware Detection Center (1st Wednesday & 2nd Thursday, 2-4 P.M.) 322-1109; X-Rays for Tuberculosis and T. B. Consultations; Mental Health Services (Psychiatric Clinic); Health Cards (1st & 3rd Tuesday, 1-4 P.M., 2nd & 4th Wednesday, 1-4 P.M.); Mobile X-Ray Units; Home Nursing Visits 322-7511; Leaflets for Various Visits; Testing Drinking Water, Swimming Pools, Milk, Food, Etc.; Environmental Sanitation, and Nutrition Consultant.
- TO MEDICAL INDIGENTS: (Those unable to pay a private doctor) Immunizations for Smallpox, Polio, Diphtheria, Whooping Cough, Measles, Tetanus, Typhoid, also Tuberculin Test; Prenatal (Etc.) and Post-Partum Clinics; Well Baby Clinic; Family Spacing Clinic; Pap Smear (Cervical Cancer Test); Venereal Disease Clinic; Dental Clinic; Blood Tests; and Minor Clinic 322-8045.
- In keeping with what we feel to be an increasing trend, we at the Health Department are laying greater stress on our venereal disease program.

Jim Hobson
110 East 11th Street, Sanford
Musical entertainment should be considered at all times. They should stay with us as much as the budget will allow. Myself, I enjoy good country music. Light classical and dance music is very nice. By all means, the Florida Symphony should be kept on the program.

Mabel Hands Betts, Sanford
More of the all time classics. I don't care for the popular music at all. When I was a little girl, we were not allowed to even have it around. I love the classics.

Vernon Spears Jr.

I feel that dance bands that would appeal to all ages would be very good to have in this area. The teens, especially need a place to go and dance in a place where there's no alcoholic beverages are sold.

I think more gospel songs like the one that the fire department sponsor would be nice. I think that to have these would be enjoyed by a lot of people.

Grace Woody

I'd like to see some good western and country type music because people would enjoy it. Also, good gospel singing is always enjoyed by everyone.

Mary Jo Castle, Geneva
I believe the country style music is coming back and this type of music appeals to the people in Seminole County.

APATHY OF PUBLIC FIG
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Glady's death issue, but the apathy left in her wake "acres me," the country's top hurricane forecaster said today.

Dr. Robert H. Simpson, director of the National Hurricane Center, called a news conference to warn against the dangers of apathy toward the menace of hurricanes.

"Glady's a dead issue, but she should not be forgotten," Simpson said. "Some of the worst disasters from hurricanes resulted not so much from inadequate warnings as from the apathy of people who have experienced a near miss."

"I am not so concerned about the accuracy of our forecasts as I am about the kind of apathy in a storm-stricken area."

An eight-foot wall of water would have rolled into Tampa Bay last Friday afternoon if Glady had turned "a hair's breadth" closer to the Florida coast," he said. Many residents would have been trapped and lost of life might have been great.

"Simpson said many people thought we were halting 'wolf' when forecasters raised hurricane warnings in the Tampa Bay area last Wednesday as Glady was crossing Cuba.

Rotary Governor Visits Local Club

By BILL SCOTT
Community activity was urged by the Sanford Rotary Club by the International Rotary district governor, L. R. Anderson Jr., of Winter Haven, yesterday at the Civic Center.

Introduced by LeRoy Robb, program chairman, Anderson used as his theme, "What is Rotary?"

He pointed out that average person judges Rotary by contacts made with either one Rotarian or one Rotary Club. "People here know you by your projects," Anderson commented and complimented the local club on the Labor Day Regatta, local projects.

He reminded those present to live Rotary and give service to others.

"We live in a crazy, disturbed, grogging world," he added and "for every problem, there is an opportunity."

Anderson commented, "There are no hills or evils infesting this world today, that did not come from man's attitudes."

He urged Rotarians to participate in the forward looking program started by Rotary and advised, "we must adjust ourselves to the fact that we are all neighbors."

Turning emphasis on the international aspect of Rotary, Anderson informed there are 1,400 Rotary clubs in 145 countries of the world and requesting the group to continue working for international service.

He concluded his remarks by emphasizing the importance of building a better world through Rotary.

Robb, in making Anderson's introduction, stressed the importance of the Winter Haven man never missed a meeting in 22 years as a Rotarian.

S. Viet Peace Terms Aired

PARIS (AP) — Informed diplomats disclosed today South Vietnam's main terms for taking part in a broadened Paris peace parley. They appear to clash with conditions publicly set by North Vietnam.

The four chief Saigon requirements, as reported here, are featured by the willingness of the Communist-led North Vietnamese regime to negotiate directly with the North Vietnamese in Paris. They stipulated that the Communist-led National Liberation Front of South Vietnam must not be allowed independent status at the peace-making process at both Hanoi and the front demand. The term is the political arm of the Viet Cong.

The role of the front at a broadened peace conference which would follow any American halt in bombing is believed to have been one of the principal subjects of discussion between Ambassador Ellsworth Barker and Thieu in Saigon since he visited the city last week.

He is generally believed Barker has been seeking to modify some aspects of Thieu's policy.

The informants said the Thieu government intends very shortly to announce its terms for a peace parley—underlining the expectation of the South Vietnamese that a U.S. bomb-halt would be announced.

Here are Saigon's four conditions: 1. The terms of the election of a government with Hanoi's attitude also shown.

—The South Vietnamese government is prepared to deal and negotiate directly with the North Vietnamese government within an expanded Paris peace conference. Hanoi has never said it would meet with Thieu's regime.

—Saigon insists the projected peace conference must proceed rapidly and continuously from an American bomb halt to a cease fire without stalling or filibustering. Hanoi is insisting that the problem of peace in South Vietnam is a matter not for it but for the Americans and National Liberation Front.

—Saigon demands that Hanoi must not exploit peace negotiations.

Gladys Takes Fourth Life

HALIFAX, N.S. (AP) — Hurricane Gladys claimed at least one more life in Canada's Maritime Provinces, raising the known death toll to four since it hit the North American mainland at Miami last week. Today the storm headed over Newfoundland.

A Prince Edward Island man was killed when the storm's winds sent a tree crashing into the cab of his truck. His 8-year-old son suffered only minor injuries.

In addition, an unidentified fisherman was feared drowned at Glace Bay after falling overboard in heavy seas. Kennedy and Onassis also were on the boat.

At the Vatican, an official comment was made on the wedding of the Roman Catholic Mrs. Onassis to a divorced member of the Greek Orthodox Church. The Rev. M. S. g. r. Fausto Vaccaro, the Vatican's press spokesman, declared: "Jacqueline Kennedy has reached the age of reason—that is, to be able to know what she is doing. By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republican Richard M. Nixon was that he will abide by the Constitution and will refuse to make any deals with respect to the defeat of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey. And Humphrey says Nixon "has not had the foresight of a man of peace."

Nixon, called Humphrey a do-nothing candidate on law and order and said the United States cannot survive as a free nation with four more years of the kind of crime wave Nixon administration policies.

"The peace and security of the American people," he said in Cincinnati, "demand the defeat of Hubert Humphrey and the election of new leadership which will restore peace and order and bring peace to our crime-ridden cities all alone."

Humphrey charged Nixon with peace credentials while campaigning in New York and later gave what he called an indication of his own.

"I have not supported massive escalation," Humphrey said. "I have sought de-escalation and bombing pauses. This indicates the kind of man Hubert Humphrey is."

Humphrey welcomed Texas Gov. John Connally to his presidential campaign today and predicted he'll carry the state Nov. 5.

Connally sat out an earlier Humphrey tour through Texas but has since joined Sen. Ralph Yarborough, leader of the liberal Democratic party wing long at odds with Connally, in supporting Humphrey.

"When you've got John Connally and Ralph Yarborough on your side how can you lose," the candidate said in remarks after a fight for a Fort Worth airport rally.

Humphrey said Monday he would run an "upward curve" of public support and will come from behind to win the election.

Gov. Spiro T. Agnew, the GOP vice presidential candidate, said in Midland, Tex., he is concentrating his attack on Nixon rather than Wallace because he believes Wallace's election chances are slipping.

—Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, in Boston lambasted Nixon for not debating Humphrey. "If he isn't willing to meet Mr. Humphrey here," Muskie said, "he's going to meet Mr. Kosygin, Mr. Brezhnev, Mr. Ho Chi Minh."

Question: What type of entertainment would you like to see the Mutual Concert Association book?

Jim Hobson
110 East 11th Street, Sanford
Musical entertainment should be considered at all times. They should stay with us as much as the budget will allow. Myself, I enjoy good country music. Light classical and dance music is very nice. By all means, the Florida Symphony should be kept on the program.

Mabel Hands Betts, Sanford
More of the all time classics. I don't care for the popular music at all. When I was a little girl, we were not allowed to even have it around. I love the classics.

Vernon Spears Jr.
Village Road, Sanford
I feel that dance bands that would appeal to all ages would be very good to have in this area. The teens, especially need a place to go and dance in a place where there's no alcoholic beverages are sold.

Janita Price
Lake Monroe
I think more gospel songs like the one that the fire department sponsor would be nice. I think that to have these would be enjoyed by a lot of people.

Grace Woody
Park Avenue, Sanford
I'd like to see some good western and country type music because people would enjoy it. Also, good gospel singing is always enjoyed by everyone.

Mary Jo Castle, Geneva
I believe the country style music is coming back and this type of music appeals to the people in Seminole County.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Twenty-year-old John Connolly feels so strongly that Hubert H. Humphrey should be elected president that he is organizing a youth group to speak for him.

John, whose dad is a Democratic committeeman in the nearby town of Clay, has dug into his own pocket to pay $435 for 18 seconds time on station WHEB, Syracuse.

At 6:30 p.m., he'll stop before the cameras to say: "I am John Connolly. Hubert Humphrey led the civil rights bill in 1964. He is the author of the Peace Corps and Medicare. Please vote for Hubert Humphrey."

His mother, Mrs. John W. Connolly, said her son got the idea after watching a television commercial for a publican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon.

War Resumes After Cease-Fire

SAIGON (AP) — The vest-pocket cease-fire for the release of 14 North Vietnamese prisoners of war ended at noon today with no indication of any attempt to extend it.

One U.S. military source said the assumed fighter-bomber were resuming raids on North Vietnamese supply columns and bases in the 256-square-mile coastal area that was declared off limits at midnight Sunday.

The cease-fire negotiated in the Laotian capital of Vientiane, silenced enemy shore batteries and anti-aircraft gun batteries for an end to the U.S. jets continued their raids on the North Vietnamese panhandle outside the cease-fire area. Air Force B-52 bombers were striking as usual in their fourth week, continuing their attacks on military and industrial targets.

The Viet Cong's Liberation Press Agency said today that the United States has no right to demand reciprocity for a cease-fire in the North, and that the Paris peace talks will progress only after an unconditional bombing halt.

The halt in ground fighting, now in its fourth week, continues. Some see it as a possible de-escalation move by Hanoi, but the U.S. command feels differently.

The command announced today that allied troops seized more than 300 tons of enemy munitions and food during September. Most of these supplies were found in the 3rd Corps area that includes Saigon and the five northwestern provinces below the demilitarized zone.

No violations of the cease-fire were reported, a U.S. Air Force spokesman said Monday. He said the command was in effect. The Navy said the Skyhawk, the 40th American warplane reported lost in combat over North Vietnam, made a strafing run on a truck, "went into a dive, and a large fireball was observed."

"After a low level pass the aircraft was completely destroyed with a chute nearby," the Navy said. "There was no sign of the pilot."

The U.S. Command said Air Force, Navy and Marine pilots flew through northeast monsoon weather to log 114 missions against North Vietnam Monday. Assessment of the damage was limited by the overcast.

Air Force B-52 bombers flew seven missions, dropping 1,250 tons of explosives on enemy base camps near the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon and on an enemy supply depot in the jungled foothills 80 miles southwest of Da Nang.

Health Week Is Observed

This week, Oct. 20-26, is being observed throughout the nation as "National Health Week."

Dr. Frank Loose, director of the Seminole County Health Department, has prepared the following news release in conjunction with the observation.

Abraham Lincoln described our government as being "of, by and for" the people. These same words can be applied to health. Health of the people is an important activity. Participation by the people, however, is the real key to a healthy activity.

Prevention is everybody's job. Public health personnel can do take steps to help prevent foodborne diseases, but in most cases, prevention must depend on individual action. For example, almost all food poisoning incidents could be avoided if everyone were to observe proper precautions in preparing, cooking, serving and preserving food.

In the area of public health, particularly the task is to help people with a misunderstanding of health as it is related to the environment, and to show people their responsibilities, while inspiring them to respond.

Public health encompasses many disciplines. Perhaps no other profession requires the participation of individuals with such diverse interests and backgrounds in order to achieve its ultimate goal, namely, the physical, mental and social well-being of all people.

The common denominator in public health practice, then, is organized cooperation among related professional workers and others seriously interested in protecting and promoting public health and security.

YOU are the most important link in the chain for good health. Why? Because you are responsible for protecting your health and the health of members of your family. How? By wisely using your community health resources, such as doctors, nurses, sanitarians, personnel and other public health workers.

The following are the many DIVIDENDS in protection and prevention of disease offered by your Health Department. Your investment in public health provides these services:

- TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC: Glassware Detection Center (1st Wednesday & 2nd Thursday, 2-4 P.M.) 322-1109; X-Rays for Tuberculosis and T. B. Consultations; Mental Health Services (Psychiatric Clinic); Health Cards (1st & 3rd Tuesday, 1-4 P.M., 2nd & 4th Wednesday, 1-4 P.M.); Mobile X-Ray Units; Home Nursing Visits 322-7511; Leaflets for Various Visits; Testing Drinking Water, Swimming Pools, Milk, Food, Etc.; Environmental Sanitation, and Nutrition Consultant.
- TO MEDICAL INDIGENTS: (Those unable to pay a private doctor) Immunizations for Smallpox, Polio, Diphtheria, Whooping Cough, Measles, Tetanus, Typhoid, also Tuberculin Test; Prenatal (Etc.) and Post-Partum Clinics; Well Baby Clinic; Family Spacing Clinic; Pap Smear (Cervical Cancer Test); Venereal Disease Clinic; Dental Clinic; Blood Tests; and Minor Clinic 322-8045.

Two Weeks To Election Day-Decisive Period

Two weeks from today registered voters will cast ballots for the next President of the United States. These are the pay-off weeks. These are the days when the candidates must face-up to the main issues and let voters know what to expect if he wins the election.

from Martin Agronsky and other informed political reporters. Humphrey was still asking that Mr. Nixon debate with him on the issues of the campaign. But it was Mr. Nixon who broadened this to a general press conference program to field the inquiries which are part and parcel of the CBS, NBC and ABC TV networks.

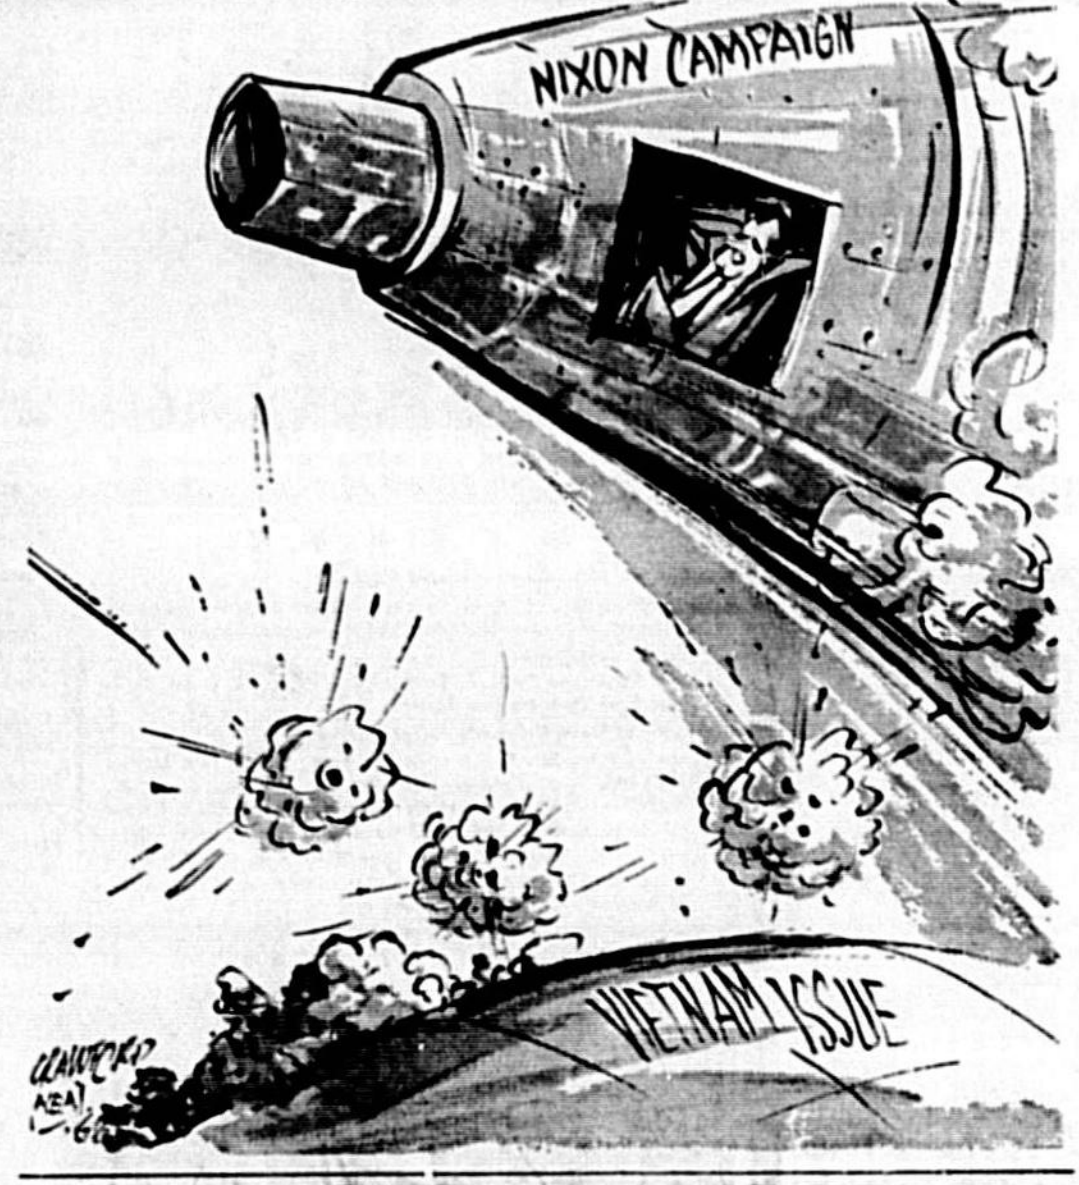

Another Democratic candidate-former Gov. LeRoy Collins-is now reaping the fruits of a persistent and quite logical campaign to focus attention on the deeds, not the words, of his rival for the seat in the United States senate, US Representative Edward J. Gurney (R) of Winter Park.

Not find it necessary to attend more than 26 of the 166 recorded meetings of the important House Education and Labor Committee of which he is a member. We cite this not in harsh criticism but as an indication of what we have been emphasizing as a need for voters to be sure of what the record can tell them about the politicians who are soliciting their support.

Jackie's New Yacht Drips Riches

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Next to Jacqueline Onassis' Mediterranean wedding trip aboard the "Christina," the most luxurious honeymoon spa might seem like a low-budget: stay at Niagara Falls.

The rakish craft drips of every kind of riches that one of the world's richest men could buy. The one-time floating playground of the international jet set can provide all creature comforts in a setting studded with lavish appointments and priceless art treasures.

In recent years, Onassis has pulled the "Christina" into south Florida ports several times. During his last trip, butler Charles Bosco was permitted to give reporters a tour of the yacht and Miami News a tour of the ship.

Here is what they described: Visitors board at the second level with its main salon, 22-seat dining area and kitchen.

In the main salon sits a jade Buddha, one of three that exist. Queen Elizabeth and the Aga Khan own the other two.

The Onassis stateroom is dominated by a low-slung king-sized bed with green icons on each side and a gilt-framed mirror on the wall above. The bathroom is all marble with gold faucets.

Next door, in the rumpus room, there is a Steinway piano, another fireplace, another El Greco, more books, opera scores and a portrait of Onassis' mother who died when he was a child.

As in the main salon, the playroom decor blends European and Oriental antiques. In both areas, the furniture is arranged for easy conversation. Marble coffee tables, inlaid in Floren-in his and hers sinks. The tub is also marble with bright blue, fish-patterned mosaic interior.

The study has a high beam ceiling and a wood burning fireplace. The knick-knacks in the room include an El Greco and a solid gold sextant, a gift from Arabia's King Saud.

In the library, the only hint that the room is anything but unbounded elegance are the leather and wood straps that keep books firmly on the shelves lining three walls.

In the bar, guests can sit on whale skin bar stools and watch a parade of magnetic miniature ships, from Phoenician to Mississippi steamboats, ellipse around the circular bar under glass.

There are whale teeth handles for tippers to grip during rough weather.

Next door, in the rumpus room, there is a Steinway piano, another fireplace, another El Greco, more books, opera scores and a portrait of Onassis' mother who died when he was a child.

New Auto Insurance Cuts Premiums 50%

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new kind of auto insurance which backers say could cut premium costs nearly in half and would pay medical expenses without regard to who caused an accident, was proposed today by a segment of the insurance industry.

The plan, which would not deal with the cost of automobile repairs, was advanced by the American Insurance Association, composed of 160 companies that write about 40 per cent of the nation's automobile insurance.

The plan faces stiff opposition from other segments of the industry. It could not be put into effect without changes in state laws, or federal legislation.

T. Lawrence Jones, president of the American Insurance Association, said the proposed plan was designed to meet growing criticism of the industry, which has led Congress to call for the Department of Transportation.

In a statement prepared for a news conference, Jones said the board of directors of the Winter Park Telephone Company voted that the quarterly dividend on the outstanding common stock be increased from 14 cents to 16 cents per share per quarter.

A GOP Rally A Republican Rally will be held from 1 until 5 p.m. Thursday at Campbell Park in Deltona. Free hot dogs and cold drinks will be served.

State Farm President Edward R. Rust, in a statement timed for the AIA's announcement said such costs account for 40 per cent of liability payments under the present system. Such a major step as eliminating them should not be taken without further study, he said.

Rust said his company is sending questionnaires to each of its 11 million policy holders to determine their views on "pain and suffering" and other questions raised by the new proposal.

Rust also questioned the wisdom of eliminating fault as a factor in paying accident costs. "What happens when you tell 100 million drivers they are not financially responsible for the way they drive?" he asked.

Second Graders in Mrs. Carolyn Bistline's room at Altamonte School arranged informative bulletin board on fire prevention.

By BOB GREEN

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The U.S. basketball team, a pick-up squad assembled by many of the nation's top collegiate stars, face perhaps its toughest Olympic test tonight against Brazil.

The Americans haven't lost a game since the sport was introduced into the Games in 1932, but Coach Henry Iba is worried severely so about his semi-final match.

"If we handle the ball the way we did against Puerto Rico, we will lose," said a strong fact team.

Gators Face Trouble in Undoing Mistakes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The trouble with the Florida Gators last Saturday was that most of the time they were hanging on to the ball and when they did hang on they were penalized.

That's the way Coach Ray Graves viewed his team's 22-7 loss to North Carolina, pointing to eight of 11 fumbles lost and penalties.

"Eleven fumbles and penalties cost us any chance of victory," Graves said Monday. "We now have four straight conference games and our immediate goal is to fight back and play well against Vanderbilt."

Collector Finds Buttons A Profitable Business

By NADEANE WALKER
LONDON (AP) — Thanks to a collector of buttons, the Queen has never lacked for fasteners, even in the era of what she plainly regards as plastic buttons.

A former general antique dealer, Mrs. Frith decided 12 years ago to specialize in antique buttons. For the past seven years her tiny shop just off the famous Grosvenor street in London has been the mecca of international button-huffers.

There you can find Georgian, Regency, Victorian, Edwardian, and modern buttons, each factually described and priced. Mrs. Frith says the best she has managed to find is a pair of 18th century buttons, made of picture book glass, jeweled buttons, buttons of gold, silver, horn, pearl or Wedgwood. Commemorative buttons are as much as 25 pounds ($50) for a single specimen.

Military buttons, stretching back through several wars, are perhaps the fastest-moving line, for 70 per cent of Mrs. Frith's customers are men. Many buy pairs to turn into cuff links or search out sets for blazers.

"It was only when the Crusades encountered the button-wearing Persians in the 11th century that we rediscovered them," she says. "But by the 14th century there were strong guilds of button-makers working in France and England."

How buttons came to be a lost art Mrs. Frith is not sure, but a woman's body, circa B.C., found in the peat bogs of Scotland was clothed in a shift fastened by a plastic button.

Since the 14th century, when rediscovers buttons were worn everywhere, even on boats, the popularity of buttons has waxed and waned with changing fashions.

"It's still hard to get a good price for an antique button," Mrs. Frith says. "The best I've managed to find is 25 pounds ($50) for a pair of 18th century buttons, made of picture book glass, jeweled buttons, buttons of gold, silver, horn, pearl or Wedgwood. Commemorative buttons are as much as 25 pounds ($50) for a single specimen."

Only America has button clubs, collectors and exhibitions, as far as the Button Queen knows.

"Lots of people collect just one type, say buttons depicting dogs, or horses, or butterflies. The usual way of displaying them is grouping a number in a picture frame behind glass and hanging them on the wall."

"Actually, I like to see buttons used, moved from one garment to a new one, instead of just collected. My favorite costume is a black dress with blue and red buttons that I bought around them, rather than bringing in a piece of material and making for buttons to match."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My son (11) will be "George" in 1969 and has been in psychiatric treatment for some time. He is able to talk and there is nothing wrong with him physically, but he's lazy.

George is single and has never been married. He complains of not having any friends. His mother and I can't do a thing with him. We offer any suggestions, but he says up.

George is very good-looking, has a fine personality, can dance, play the piano and he has had 2 years of college.

Now, here's where you come in. Can you help me find a dominatrix who could re-motivate my son and get him functioning again? Thanks for any help you can give me.

DISTRESSED FATHER

DEAR FATHER: I don't know the nature of your problem, but it's a pretty good guess that he lacks confidence in himself as a result of having a father who would not provide all the answers, serve as a "buffer," and practically live his son's life for him.

I have been dating this wonderful girl for about a year now. I love her very much, and she claims to love me, but I have a feeling she's just using me. Last week her roommate told me that my girl was pregnant, so I went to her immediately, told her I knew, and wanted to marry her. She turned me down! She said that her having a baby was a poor reason for getting married — that she doesn't want to have a child.

Jacoby On Bridge

The Card School in New York has been teaching bridge for a long time. The expert players who head the staff have devised a questionnaire to determine whether or not to determine a pupil's level in an elementary, intermediate or advanced class.

Today's hand covers the one question on play. The show their pupil the North and South hands and ask, "What opens the six hearts against your three no-trump contract. What card do you play from dummy?"

The answer to the question is that you play the ace of hearts. There is an old rule of second hand low but this is the time to break that rule because if you play the eight from dummy you are getting no value out of the king.

The way we have set up the hand is that you have a hand all South has to do in order to insure his contract is to lead the Jack of diamonds from dummy and let it ride. If the finesse works, South will make at least 10 tricks. If it loses, but South is still sure to win.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY—I have a very good pointer for those who work in the office. It's a dog named BARBARA.

DEAR BARBARA—A tree or some needed shrubbery also makes a lovely memorial gift. I always will remember the thoughtfulness of a friend who had a magnolia tree planted near my home. Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—Is there some secret to washing and drying cotton knit shirts? Those I buy seem to lose their shape and color.

DEAR POLLY—As one of your readers recently wrote, I, too, buy laundry detergent in the large economy size and find it inconvenient to handle. To make this easier, I have a one-pound coffee can which I fill from the large box. Did you know that one of the sections (they're off in four) loads exactly one cup of soap powder? This really is convenient because you do not have to measure again.

There is no age limit to having one's hair colored, just for fun and/or, fashion or because of graying, color your hair if it appeals to you. Don't forget to have a complete skin make-up to "go with" the new hair coloring.

The younger girls probably wear the mini-skirt, but for you I suggest just at the knee, or one inch below.

With gray hair, I like the black, better still, wear my hair in a bun or a ponytail. Excessive do not help me, have faithfully been doing that for a whole year. Diet does not help either. I am making a straight dress of

Inflation, Jobs Go Hand-In-Hand

AT Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Is the loss of one or two million jobs an acceptable price to pay for getting this inflated economy back in balance?
Some economists, most of them perhaps with a business bent, feel that the price for leaving inflation from expiring into a recession.
There is an unfortunate relationship between jobs and inflation. When unemployment drops below 4 per cent, inflation generally pushes up wages. Marginal help means up costs. Soon prices rise the also.
The unemployment rate now is well under 4 per cent. At about 3.5 per cent, in fact, one of the lowest in many years. And, coinciding with this, inflation is running at a rate of 4.3 per cent a year.
Some businessmen, as indicated by statements made at a meeting of the Business Council, feel the over-heated economy must be slowed substantially, even if it means the loss of hundreds of thousands of jobs.
Meeting during the weekend at Hot Springs, Va., these corporation heads warned that the economy must be restrained for the next year or so. The tax surcharge must be extended; government spending must be cut, they said.
The result of such a policy would be to brake the economy to restrain growth to a degree that could be maintained without such a slowdown would be layoffs. This places the Johnson administration and the Federal Reserve, which give the orders to the economy, in the midst of a whirlpool of dilemma.
If economic practices do not change, a slowdown, what does morality dictate? And politicians? And who is to decide when the slowdown has gone far enough, when sufficient jobs have been lost? And in this way to baned racial tensions?
Based on the present civilian labor force, which is about 76.7 million workers, increases in the unemployment rate would have these consequences:
At 4 per cent, 3,146,000 without jobs, or an increase of 341,000.
At 5 per cent, 3,855,000 jobsless, or well over a million more unemployed than at the present time.
A five per cent rate is a very real possibility. In 1964, for example, the rate for the entire year was 5.2 per cent. And in November 1965, with the economy booming, the rate reached 5.9 per cent.
A five per cent of the present work force was without jobs, the total would be well over 4.6 million workers, or about 1.8 million more men and women out of work than at present.
By any reckoning that's a mighty big price to pay for anything. The only thing that could justify it is danger of an even larger loss to the nation by permitting inflation to run wild, probably provoking such a reaction that recession would result.

Teenagers Take Pills

City authorities are reportedly at a loss to determine why five Sanford teenagers took over-doses of sleeping pills.
The group is reported to be in "good" condition at Seminoles Memorial Hospital after drinking undetermined number of the pills.
Four others were found in a storm scattered around the same vicinity.
In an unrelated report of a sleeping pill incident at Osteen, a 16-year-old girl was hospitalized in "satisfactory" condition Friday after she reportedly took an overdose of pills.
Ter. Bill Barron made "a funny" from the pulpit as he welcomed members of the Pine Club to Sunday services. He pointed out that the hands of some members also were present, and referred to them as "co-pilots."

Grand Jury To Report

Several indictments are expected to be announced later this week by the Seminole County grand jury.
The indictments cannot be made public until State Attorney Dominic Salfi has the opportunity to sign the true bills and have them returned from Miami, where Salfi is conducting an investigation into bribery charges against a Duval County State Attorney Richard Gerstein.
After the action by Salfi, several persons are expected to be arrested on gambling charges based on information gathered in the jury probe.
The indictments were delivered Tuesday to Salfi and are expected to be returned today or Thursday.
Gordon Meyer, grand jury foreman, told The Herald that some indictments had been returned but declined to reveal the number.
In the meantime, the jurors are continuing an investigation into the unauthorized detention in county jail of John Burgess, an 18-year-old Sanford youth, who was held 14 days after he was ordered released by Peace Justice Al Davis.
Burgess was charged with larceny of an auto but was ordered released after the complainant, Lenore Curry, failed to appear in court to testify. Sheriff Peter Millot and others associated in the incident are expected to be called later.
Meyer said today, "It is not our intention to criticize a person but a procedure that is wrong."
Some jury action on an alleged market beating of an Altamonte Springs youth may be forthcoming.
Past action by Sheriff Millot and certain members of the County Commission have sought a probe into the incident that reportedly occurred when Michael Simmons was beaten by two men who thought he was involved with two Altamonte Springs prostitutes.

LAKEVIEW School OK
In a letter to Seminole County School Supt. William J. Phillips, the architect with the State Education Department has revealed that the new Lakeview Junior High School just completed at Sanford passed inspection and received plaudits from the state inspector on the impressive workmanship in the building.
According to Robert W. Davis, education building inspector, the school is "very acceptable and well planned." The architect is most pleased, Davis commented.
He continued, "It is felt that the new structure was scheduled to open Monday, but had to be postponed because of problems of traveling on the unfinished road made muddy by the rains accompanying Hurricane Gladys."
The school's opening was put off until a later date; presumably until the road has been completed or made passable.
Road work is being done by Orange Paving Company of Orlando.
The architectural firm revealing state education practices is the John A. Burton IV firm of Sanford.

City, Holt Air Base Pact Stalemated

Seminole County *** on the St. Johns River *** "The Nile of America"

The Sanford Herald

Phone 322-2611 or 425-5938 Zip Code 32771
WEATHER: Tuesday 84-63; chance of showers.
VOL. 61, NO. 50 — AP Leased Wire — Established 1908 — WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1968 — SANFORD, FLORIDA — Price 10 Cents

FIVE PERSONS were injured yesterday afternoon in a collision between a pickup truck driven by John Evans, of St. Cloud, and a car driven by Norman H. Cox, Edgewater, at SR 436 and Lake Howell Road. Trooper L. P. Tompkins said all five were in "fair" condition at Florida Sanitarium and Hospital. Both vehicles were demolished.

Negotiations between City of Sanford and Holt Corporation relative to a one-year lease on 14 buildings at the defunct Sanford Naval Air Station have reached a "critical" stage.
In the lapse of a week since Holt Corporation President Robert E. Holt and City Commission verbally agreed to bring the Air Station (AAS) to Florida, at least three sessions have been held between the principals on certain allegations which, according to the local officials, have not been met by Holt.
Main drawback to an agreement is the insistence of the city that Holt show other his contracts with several firms he says he has, or at least display to Commission satisfaction correspondence or information that will insure employment to local residents, when and if the corporation moves onto the former military site.
Holt told The Herald he had taken City Attorney William Hutchison into his confidence and revealed to him the information the Commission requested but Hutchison disagreed.
The city attorney told The Herald the corporation president had not furnished the information that city had requested and next move was up to the Virginian.

Confabs Closed To Press

Negotiations between City of Sanford and Holt Corporation relative to a one-year lease on 14 buildings at the defunct Sanford Naval Air Station have reached a "critical" stage.
In the lapse of a week since Holt Corporation President Robert E. Holt and City Commission verbally agreed to bring the Air Station (AAS) to Florida, at least three sessions have been held between the principals on certain allegations which, according to the local officials, have not been met by Holt.
Main drawback to an agreement is the insistence of the city that Holt show other his contracts with several firms he says he has, or at least display to Commission satisfaction correspondence or information that will insure employment to local residents, when and if the corporation moves onto the former military site.
Holt told The Herald he had taken City Attorney William Hutchison into his confidence and revealed to him the information the Commission requested but Hutchison disagreed.

Council Shuns Sheriff Duties

By DONNA ESTES
Board of County Commissioners has not indicated it will take over the sheriff's department's responsibility of law enforcement, County Chairman John Alexander declared yesterday.
"We agreed to provide school crossing guards and not traffic control, which is clearly the responsibility of the sheriff's department," Alexander said.
The chairman made the remarks to clear the air concerning statements issued by Sheriff Peter Millot concerning problems being encountered at Lynn High School with traffic.
Alexander pointed out that no school crossing guard was recommended at Lynn by either school officials or the sheriff's office.
"There is a traffic control problem there and no apparent problem involving a student crossing at the spot," Alexander maintained. "What is needed is law enforcement or traffic control."
