WITH

"CRASHING THROUGH TO BERLIN"

The Whole Colossal Drama of the War.

See the War with your own eyes--All of it--From the First Blow struck, down to Our Boys' Defiance of Death on the bloody slopes of the Marne--War Activities on Land--At Sea--In the Air--Sensations Galore--Complete--Consecutive--Comprehensive--The First Pictorial History of the War.

Filmed from Authentic Sources During Four Years of War by a Thousand Cameras, Tells You More Than All the War Books Ever Written

All the books and daily papers you have seen about the war in the past four years cannot begin to tell you as much about the war as will these masterly seven reels filmed on the spot as each scene, incident or event took place.

Four years crowded with war activity all over the world has buried many big and important actions. But the camera recorded them. Here you have an indispensable record presented in order, the whole comprising the complete colossal drama of the war from the funeral of the Austrian Archduke Ferdinand down to our boys' active participation in battle.

You'll see the onset of war and rain in Belgium that gave the Hun his name; the brave defence of the Belgians; and scenes in the very section where our fighting men are now pressing back the invader.

You'll see the dogged trench in the fighting line--holding, holding, with a bull-dog grin the chivalrous and the sea-cure to France--you'll see our gallant French allies and the ruins of their chateaux, villages and cathedrals, fighting back inch by inch under the leadership of the brilliant Foch.

You'll see the doughboys, the product of American "plant" making good and evincing the admiration of the whole world, including the enemy. You'll see their frenzied welcome in Paris; you'll see them in the vil- lage making friends with the kiddies and the old people and their French comrades in arms.

You'll see soldiers of every nation at war, peculiar costumes, various manners, and fighting methods. You'll get information that no book can give you no personal experience can relate, because the thousand and one incidents which you will see with your own eyes could never be seen as they happened by any one man no matter what his opportunities.

You'll be thrilled and awed by every variety of war activity developed in this titanic struggle. Trench fighting, open fighting, artillery duels, breath-taking flights of the intrepid air-men, air-raids, gas attacks, the big guns in action, trench mortars, automatics and machine guns.

You'll learn of the Kaiser's plans for an air raid on New York City, how the Lusitania was sunk, how bar- rage is laid down, how German prisoners are taken and how they act when captured, how our men go over the top and all the accidents of life in the trenches.

You'll see the tanks in action, the engineers building pontoon bridges, how the boys are cared for in camp and when wounded. You'll see the war as it actually is with your own eyes, and more of it than any man has or ever will see.

You'll see our sailors, and the English sailors, co-operating in the chase of the sinking U-Boats. You'll be astounded at the variety of craft that are protecting our boys, our shores and ourselves.

You'll see the leaders in the world conflict--even the Kaiser and his crown prince son as they appear in real life behind the battle lines.

You'll get intimate views of Pershing, Foch, Sims, Haig and others who are guiding your destinies as well as those of the Allied Nations. You get a complete and rounded view of the whole great contest. It is a privilege that you cannot afford to pass. Take the children. It is an event that they will never forget. It is the most gigantic of all war spectacles filmed from authentic sources--every incident real-genuine-true.

AMUSEMENT

Crashing Through to Berlin

On June 28th, 1914, Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria and his consort were slain in Sarajevo, capital of Bosnia, in Serbia. Austria demands the right to make a judicial inquiry in Serbian territory. This demand is refused by Serbia, who is supported in her attitude by Russia. Austria declares war on Serbia, July 28th.

Russia then mobilizes her army to protect the rights of her ally, Serbia. Germany immediately declares war on Russia and demands from France a definition of her stand on neutrality. France's reply is an order, on August 3rd, mobilizing her army. Germany declares war on France.

Germany on August 4th invades Belgium. England enters the war on the side of France, Belgium, Serbia and Russia. After almost a year of fighting the Lusitania is sunk. President Wilson notifies Germany that such acts against ships carrying Americans on the high seas will not be tolerated. At about this time Italy joins the entente allies against Germany and Austria.

From that time on, outrage after outrage is committed by Germany until the United States finally is forced into a declaration of a state of war against Germany. The various developments from that time up to the American attack on the Per- tonia forces in France a few months ago are revealed in historical sequence in Lyric, Friday and Saturday.

"BLACK JACK" PERSHING

is "Shot" in France By Movie Camera Man At Lyric Friday and Saturday

General John J. Pershing, he was a captain in Cuba only a few years ago, and later commander of the American forces in Mexico, is known from the end of the battle line in France to the other as "Black Jack." He earned that sobriquet early in his military career by his absolute strategy that penetrated the mind the smiling face of a "Black Jack."

In "Crashing Through to Berlin," which opens at the Lyric Theatre on Friday and Saturday, the story of the American Expeditionary Force is told in a way that makes the audience feel that they are actually in the trenches with the boys. The film shows the American Expeditionary Force in action, from the time they landed in France to the time they captured the German lines.

That statement of Pershing--that glorious promise to American boys--has been the slogan of the new more than a million men fighting under Old Glory in France. American boys shrieked it when they crashed back the Hun from Chateau Thierry to the Vesle recently. It was the battle cry of the "Devil Dogs"--the Marines--in the charges that have made American pluck and endurance bywords among the fighting men of the world.

And in addition to all the planning, all the fighting, all the cheering, there was the frankness of a child in his comradeship with his men. There is one incident--but see it in "Crashing Through to Berlin," the gripping review of the world war, which comes to the Lyric Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

KAISER AT VERDUN

His Scowl and Temper Shown on Movie Screen

He was a reckless, happy-go-lucky devil of a camera man and away down under the ruddy skin that had been robbed of its former pailor by thrilling adventures on land and sea, there was a strain of blood that gave him the courage to face man or devil unflinchingly.

One day at Verdun--it's four years now--he met the All Highest Kaiser, the vulture of civilization. The slayer of Belgian babies had come to the front to see his troops in action. He was in an angry mood when the Universal photographer sent in his card, with a request to make a short film of "the greatest emperor." The cameraman's note appealed to the egotism of the Hohenzollern. He sent for the smiling "picture hound."

In "Crashing Through to Berlin," the absorbing review of the great war, the photographer's success is shown. William Von Hohenzollern, scowling as always these days, comes out of a communicating trench. There is a flash and the world gets a view of the egotistic vandal who has proclaimed himself the successor to Attila, the Hun.

When this film is shown at the Lyric Theatre on Friday thrilling scenes in the trenches will depict the seducer of Serbia in his true colors--the irascible martinet who has sought to reduce God-given human life to the same value as that of animals.

His officers seek to reason with him on the strategic importance of a certain troop movement, but he will brook no interference. The result of the great struggle around Verdun now is history, but the manner in which the savage attack came to naught, how the Teutonic legions were hurled back and how Paris was saved from the vandalism of fanatical murderers, has been given its first great authentic reproduction in "Crashing Through to Berlin."

FILLING QUESTIONNAIRES

Registrant Must Help Legal Advisory Board to Fill Them Out

In a few days the Local Board will begin mailing out the questionnaires of the older class of people. This will mean that a great amount of work is to be done free for those receiving the questionnaire. A legal advisory board with associate members has been appointed for Seminole county and this board has arranged to be at their respective offices at certain hours during the day to help with your questionnaire. Inasmuch as this work is done free of charge, the board requesting no pay whatever for the work, you are asked to have due regard for the rules promulgated by the Board. When you get your questionnaire, please make haste at once to fill it out and put down the name of your next of kin on a separate piece of paper and deliver it at your place of abode, your place of business, or at the office of the board.

The board is composed of the following members: J. P. Housholder, officer; A. K. Powers, officer; D. J. Davidson, officer; H. G. D. Housholder, officer; B. M. Housholder, officer.

Out of Sanford
A. J. Housholder, officer; C. F. West, officer; O. J. Housholder, officer; M. S. Housholder, officer; R. W. Lawton, officer; O. J. Housholder, officer; J. S. Searcy, Longwood.

Hours for filling out the questionnaires are 8:30 to 10:30 in the morning and 2:00 to 4:00 in the afternoon. No questionnaires will be filled at any other hours, nor will any be filled on Sunday. Registrants should not ask this of the Board.

Farmers' National Congress Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4--Florida is particularly honored in having the Farmers' National Congress for this year, as it will be the most important gathering for agriculturists since the organization was formed. The farming industry faces the brightest future in the history of the country, and every community in Florida should be represented at the meeting in Jacksonville December 3-6. The Florida State Fair will open at the same time, and the exhibits this year will surpass the most sanguine expectations.

Delightful entertainments have been arranged for all visitors, and this year special features are prepared for the women visitors. All progressive farmers should make it convenient to attend the congress, as its value to agriculture will be great to every section.

Notice
The Wesley Brotherhood Class of the Methodist church desires to acknowledge the noble and generous response of the citizens of Sanford to our appeal, aiding the class in bringing comfort and cheer to our brother, R. B. Middleton, in his hour of sorrow and great trial.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

A BUNCH OF INTERESTING ITEMS FROM CORRESPONDENTS—EVENTS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY—EFFICIENT REPORTERS FOR THE HERALD

ELDER SPRINGS

Mrs. Leon Summerlin and son, L. A., are spending some weeks with her father, C. C. Humphrey.

R. B. Lynch lost his home by fire Thursday. It caught fire from the heater flue. Very little was saved. Mr. Lynch will build again on his garden land that he has been clearing this summer.

Friends of Minton Wynn will be glad to learn that he is recovering from the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Riley moved to Sanford Heights this week to M. T. Cassidy's residence and Mr. Cassidy and family moved to Mr. Riley's home. Mr. Riley is going to try his hand at trucking this winter.

R. T. Humphrey and family will move here soon from Jacksonville, where he has been employed in ship building for past years. A letter from Lafayette Humphrey says he likes France fine.

CHULUOTA

Again the Death Angel passed over our community and called to follow him one of our most esteemed citizens, J. A. Prevatt, who died Friday evening at 10:30 o'clock, Nov. 1st.

Mr. Prevatt was taken with Spanish influenza on Oct. 21th, which terminated in a complication of maladies and caused his death.

"Arch," as he was familiarly called was born near Geneva and was about 38 years of age. He has lived most of his life in and around Geneva and Chuluota. He was the eldest son of Mr. J. M. Prevatt (now deceased) and wife who lost a younger son, Fred, a few weeks ago, who died from the same disease. Mr. Prevatt was also a brother-in-law of L. L. Hodges who was buried one week ago. Mrs. Prevatt was married to Miss Josie Jacobs, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Jacobs of this place about fifteen years ago. To this union were born two children, an infant who lived only a few weeks and a little daughter, Vorkie, who is spared to be a comfort to her mother in this trying time. Arch was a staunch member of the Baptist church of this place.

He leaves besides his wife and daughter, his mother, Mrs. Jennie Prevatt of Geneva, two sisters, Mrs. Mathers of Jacksonville and Mrs. Rivers of Geneva, two brothers, Walker of Geneva and Will of Sanford, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

"I love to think our Father knows The sorrow caused us when He chose To call our loved one home on high. That He'll take us to Him by and bye."

Mrs. C. C. Humphrey

The many friends of Mrs. C. C. Humphrey were saddened to hear of her death on October 14th. Mrs. Humphrey was born in 1873 near Winter Garden and lived there until her marriage sixteen years ago. She first came to our neighborhood as school teacher and was one of the best we ever had. Gaining the love of parents and children the rest was easy work.

Mrs. Humphrey leaves a husband and two children, Ruby and Clyde to mourn their loss. She gave her heart to God when eleven years of age and united with the M. E. church at Winter Garden. We will miss her gentle influence, especially in the training of the children for special exercises in the church. Mrs. Humphrey was a loving mother and her memory will ever be sweet to those who knew her best.

Mother, gentle and true, Who could take thy place? God's angels will watch over you If you but trust His grace. A Friend

WELKIVA ITEMS

We thought we were going to see the sun and the moon last week, when the rain came down with it at once. They had a serious time, but finally it all seem to be in the past.

Mrs. W. D. Johnson and children, Mr. Sammie, visited her mother, Mrs. E. J. Johnson, in Lakeland.

W. C. Hodges and daughter, Mr. A. J. Hodges, were here from the city on business.

F. A. R. visited at Cassville, and returned on Monday.

Mrs. W. J. P. was a guest in Sanford Monday.

Miss Eva Boyd has been staying with Mrs. Newcomb of nights as she is all alone since Mr. Newcomb began working in Titusville.

EAST SANFORD

Miss Anna LN from East will be the week-end guest of Mrs. G. C. Chamberlain this week.

Mrs. Norman M. Swanson is expected from Hot Springs, Ark., where she has been for five months, taking the baths and recuperating from illness.

Mrs. G. C. McDougal of Celery Grove had as guests this day Mrs. Elizabeth Bond and Mr. and Mrs. Summerlin of DeLand.

Philip R. Andrews has returned to his winter home on Shell Mound in Celery Grove from several months spent in Kennebunk, Me.

Allen Robertson of Colleton Co., South Carolina is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Moses Jackson and uncles, the Messrs. Kinard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prevatt and son, Neal were in Chuluota on Saturday, called there by the death of Mr. Prevatt's brother, Archie.

Robert Okie Weeks has written his relatives of his safe arrival in France about October 1st.

Mrs. J. F. McClelland and several other members of the family are living at the Hickson-McClelland place in Geneva until the oranges are picked.

One day recently W. W. Miller heard a commotion among the chickens and upon investigation found an eagle was eating a full grown Plymouth Rock rooster which it had killed. Before Mr. Miller could get his gun the eagle flew away but later in the day returned for more chicken. Mr. Miller brought him down while flying. The bird measured 7 feet from tip to tip of his wings and his feet were as large as a big man's hand.

Mrs. Ross Long saw a slight catch have of her chickens one day recently, and she went to Warren caught a wildcat in a trap set for coon—the four-legged variety, one night this week.

All of the influenza cases reported out here have recovered and most of those who were ill are out again—except a colored woman, Monroe Wilburn's wife, Jeanie, a well liked woman among white people, who died last Friday evening with pneumonia, leaving her husband and four little children.

LAKE MARY

Once again our little village has been visited by the Death Angel and it is with feelings of deepest regret that we record the death of Donald Lee Roy Dunn who was called to his earthly reward at the home of his parents Thursday morning, Oct. 31, 1918 at three o'clock. Great sadness and sorrow over the entire community was caused by the death of this young boy just entering manhood, having just passed his eighteenth birthday. In the midst of life there is death and in spite of all nature reached her limit and the end, though peacefully, couldn't but come as a shock to his dear ones.

Donald was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Dunn of this place. He had not been in the best of health for some time and when influenza laid a claim on him, followed by pneumonia the end came after only a few days' illness. Donald was a boy universally liked by all who knew him. Interment was made in Lake Mary cemetery Thursday afternoon. Rev. E. D. Brownlee officiating. The sympathy of the community is extended to the heart-broken parents in this their hour of trouble.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

T. O. Tyner and Norman Swanson spent the week end in Jacksonville, returning home Monday by auto and happening to a number of trials on the way back.

Mr. and Mrs. Krimling of Monroe were pleasant callers at the home of H. G. Lundquist Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lundquist and Carl Pierson.

Mrs. DeForest returned home Thursday of last week much improved in health. She called to see us and on Monday to see Mrs. Swanson.

Mr. Ballinger visited at a number of homes in Upsala Wednesday.

We are glad to learn that little Adrian, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lundquist is now on the mend from an attack of the influenza.

Emory Tyner has ordered the C. P. shops as a boiler maker.

Ray Lee and his brother, Jesse, attended the funeral of their father, the late J. W. Lee, on Sunday and Tuesday. They will be home with their team.

Alfred Erickson has purchased the house on the Seagraves place, ready to have John Boyd take it down for him to rebuild it on his new place.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson expect to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Van Ness.

Hilmer Lundquist and family were here on the evening of the 2nd, and on the 3rd of H. G. Lundquist being sick. Hilmer was off duty for the week, favoring a couple of bruised fingers.

Our section is still affected with sore eyes, but we are thankful the flu has touched us but lightly.

Ray Brooker was out from town, Tuesday, calling at the home of Mrs. DeForest and G. T. Ballinger.

Ray and Jesse Lee with their wives and babies spent Sunday in Orlando and Winter Park.

Paris, Oct. 27. Lt. Fred A. Parker of Bradentown, Fla., attached to one of the American Red Cross outpost stations close to the front has been killed by the bursting of a shell. He was helping to bury American soldiers when he met his death. Two weeks ago Lieut. Barber narrowly escaped injury when a shell struck the automobile in which he was riding with Captain Harris, also of the American Red Cross, killing the driver and severely wounding Captain Harris. Lieut. Barber survived his last practice to enter the Red Cross service, arriving here about four months ago.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Sanford. No Sanford resident who suffers backache or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice told testimony.

Mrs. E. Woodcock, 300 Elm Ave., Sanford, says: "Time has only increased my regard for Doan's Kidney Pills and I cheerfully give my endorsement. Some giving my last statement I have used Doan's and they proved most satisfactory in relieving me of a severe case of kidney trouble." (Statement given May 21, 1914.)

On March 19, 1915, Mrs. Woodcock said: "Doan's Kidney Pills made a complete cure in my case of kidney trouble some years ago and the cure has lasted. I gladly give this endorsement and wish to confirm my former statement." Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Woodcock had. The New Idea of Service
THERE'S a new idea of service in business now; at least there ought to be. To us war time service means this: To urge that men buy only the clothes they need; when they do buy to give them the quality that saves because it lasts long; to gladly refund your money if we fail to satisfy you.
One of the best ways we know of really serving is thru Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes they're made in the same spirit that we sell them: they'll serve you the way you want clothes to serve; satisfactorily and economically.

When it comes to standing by the President we know of several Democratic congressmen who did not stand by the President and if there had been any Republican votes in their home state they would have fallen by the wayside also.

The war may be over as some predict but some how or other we cannot grasp the picture of Germany making peace that will stick and right now while there is peace talk everywhere we do not believe that Germany will ever be tied down to a peace which that country is thoroughly whipped.

That school of arms that was to come to this section of Florida has gone to Columbus, Georgia and without any fuss and feathers, either. We must have a swift bunch in Washington.

It is just about time that the citizens of Sanford woke up to the fact that a live Board of Trade should be kept alive now if ever. We have lost several good opportunities to put something over in the past few months because we lacked the capital to do it and other places have gained thereby.

When peace is declared it will take about twelve months or more for our boys to come home. And when they do come there will be a great difference in things in general. Our boys will begin to ask questions that will make some people squirm and try to duck as they have squirmed and tried to duck during the war.

You thought you were giving something when you loaned your money to the government in the Liberty Loan. You were not. You were simply making an investment. But next week you will give your money to the United War Work Fund and while it is giving it will also be one of the best investments you ever made.

ELECTION RESULTS
Florida will be a dry state after January 1. Every county in the state voted "yes" on the prohibition amendment, and honors are plainly distributed.

Hillsborough county made an especially glorious record carrying all four propositions by good majorities, and giving compulsory dipping and compulsory education especially large majorities of 1685 for dipping and 1726 for compulsory education in a total vote of less than 2,200.

Of the 25 counties voting on tick eradication, present returns show that every one favored it. The tick has few friends among the cattlemen and farmers of Florida. His doom is sealed and on or two years more at the most will see Florida entering upon her pre-ordained destiny as one of the great stock states of the union.

Another Liberty Loan Coming
Secretary of the Treasury, McAdoo has announced that, no matter what the results of the pending overture for peace may be, there will be another Liberty Loan. To use his expression, "We are going to have finance peace for awhile just as we have had to finance war."

There are over 2,000,000 United States soldiers abroad. If we transport these men back to the United States at the rate of 300,000 a month, it will be over half a year before they are all returned.

port these men back to the United States at the rate of 300,000 a month, it will be over half a year before they are all returned. Our army, therefore, must be maintained, victualled and clothed for many months after peace is an actuality.

Not for a moment, however, is the Treasury acting on any assumption that peace is to come soon. Until peace is actually assured the attitude of the Treasury and the attitude of the whole United States government is for the most vigorous prosecution of the war.

The more Liberty Loan is certain. The Fourth Loan was popularly called the "Fighting Loan," the next loan may be a fighting loan, too, or it may be a peace loan. Whatever the conditions, the loan must be prepared for and its success rendered certain and absolute.

might shine today. We have slept in barracks and big tents and pup tents and barns since we left the U. S. A. The buildings are all built of stone over here and the barns and houses and other sheds are all built in one.

The roosters crow reveille every morning for us. We have made good friends with the cows and pigs and they keep our beds warm while we are out.

I am sending you my Christmas card. I will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon. I remain as ever

Your loving boy,

Ralph. Tell all the folks hello. How are Maude and babies? Tell Maude to write. I am in hopes I will be home by spring.

Great Hiburn Wounded
Lieutenant O. P. Hiburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hiburn of Sanford, was wounded in the leg while on duty at Camp Wheeler.

Mr. Hiburn was wounded in the leg while on duty at Camp Wheeler. Mr. Hiburn was wounded in the leg while on duty at Camp Wheeler.

Harry Lewis is home from the hospital in Orlando where he has been suffering from blood poisoning in his leg. He was wounded in the leg while on duty at Camp Wheeler.

From all appearances this man was wounded some time ago but through some reason the war department has never reported the case to the family. Rev. Hiburn has wired the war department for more information if such is obtainable.

Lieutenant Hiburn was a well known attorney of Tampa before entering the service of Uncle Sam. He was with the boys on the Mexican border and went with his company to France at the first call.

Morton E. Plant Dead

The following item in the state papers will interest the Sanford friends of the deceased:

Morton E. Plant, retired financier and yachtsman, died of pneumonia at his home here tonight, after a brief illness.

He was at one time head of the Plant system of railroads and steamships now a part of the Atlantic Coast Line.

In 1909 he made a trip around the world on the yacht Island, which he had built especially for the trip. Mr. Plant was born August 18, 1852, in New Haven, Conn.
