NEW YORK (UPI)—Eight birds and a bull were loose in Manhattan Monday night. The bull, a 1,500-pound Brahma escapee from the Madison Square Garden rodeo, was lassoed by a Texas cowboy after an eight-block gallop through squaling and scattering Times Square crowds. The birds flew the coop in the gilded environs of Tiffany's and haven't been heard from since. The bright, tiny African birds of paradise were being delivered for display with an exhibit of ceramic bird figurines when their cage popped open in front of the fashionable 8th Avenue jewelry store.

A ninth bird escaped inside the store, spurned a bird seed meal on an 8th plate from "some of our best china" but was finally netted with an ordinary handkerchief. The bull, known only as No. 12, wandered out a mistakenly opened door during the rodeo's last local appearance and started off down 8th Avenue with Dan Taylor, 35, of Dublin, Tex., in hot pursuit on a horse named Hines. No. 12 rounded the corner at 8th Street in full gallop against oncoming traffic but hit the one-way street pattern again in turn.

ing up 8th Avenue. Two daring taxi drivers pulled their cabs together to block the road but No. 12 slowed only momentarily, changed course and loped on into 6th Street—next stop Times Square. Taylor caught up with him first. In a performance worthy of the Ethel Barrymore Theater—before which it was played—he dropped his rope neatly over the bull's horns. Theater-going pedestrians clambered down off the boards of parked cars and rushed from doorways to applaud.

This Woman Needs New Parking Spot

PENSACOLA (UPI)—Mrs. Joyce Farrow is looking for a new parking space. She had bad luck with the last one she used. Last Thursday, Mrs. Farrow, of nearby Milton, parked her car at the corner of Tarragona and Zarragossa Sts. When she returned, her camera and some clothing were gone. She had forgotten to lock the vehicle. Monday, she parked at the same corner and locked the car—but this didn't stop a thief from stealing two tires—wheels and all.

Cons Make Money With Inventions

NEW YORK (UPI)—A "lifer" in the Illinois Penitentiary hopes to make $21,000 during 1958. Legitimately.

Clyde Wagner expects to accumulate that much from royalties on the sale of 100,000 "Kongo Safari's"—a toy elephant that he invented in his spare time.

Roy Weightman of the Ohio Penitentiary, is another inmate who has put his "time" to good use, inventing the "Spot-a-Satellite" game.

Others in the prison population make crossword puzzles. A few supply cartoonists with gag lines. Many write stories and articles.

Income from these projects ranges from $1 to $100 and higher, according to an analysis of "Penitentiary pay dirt" in the current issue of Ohio Penitentiary News.

The publication warned the inmates, however, it's a good idea to "send yourself a carbon copy of your creation by registered and sealed mail, and just keep the sealed envelope as proof of origin and date.

It may seem funny to say this, but be careful. There are an awful lot of crooks out there."

Bank Reveals Faith In Sanford's Future

The Florida State Bank in Sanford has invested more than $100,000 in property for construction of a new, modern banking facility.

Officials of the bank, the city and the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad are to be commended for the action which made this land available to the bank.

T. E. Tucker, president of the bank, said the decision to construct a new bank was based on two factors. The first was the bank's belief that better quarters are needed to serve a growing Florida economy. The second was to eliminate a bottleneck to the future growth of Sanford.

The second reason needs some elaboration, perhaps. The land which the bank purchased is bounded by First Street, Railroad Avenue and the Boulevard. At present, the land is not used. Located near the heart of the downtown area, this land should be utilized. Too, a beautiful building would do much for this part of the city, now inhabited by weeds and small trees.

Construction of the building, which will be among the most modern banking facilities in the nation, is scheduled to start in the near future. The new bank will have drive-in and walk-up windows, an adequate parking lot and all of the other conveniences which characterize such institutions in this day and time.

Not to be overlooked in the story of the new bank is the ACL. It was through the policy of the ACL's new president, W. T. Rice, that the property was put on the market for the Florida State Bank.

This all adds up to another fine example of how progress can be made by officials working together. It is another good example of the growth of Sanford. This city fast is assuming its role as one of the fastest-growing areas of Central Florida.

To the Florida State Bank, The Herald says: "Welcome, neighbor."

President's Birthday

President Dwight D. Eisenhower yesterday celebrated his 68th birthday. The President appeared hale and hearty at the breakfast prepared by admirers and political aides.

Due to his diet, which prohibits the eating of sweets, the President's cake was made of flowers, arranged in the shape of a birthday cake. Wishes for good health poured in from all over the world.

As he celebrated his birthday, the President was preparing to take the political stump in support of Republican candidates for the House and Senate in the November election.

His recovery from the heart attacks has been remarkable. Whether Democrat or Republican, everyone wishes for Mr. Eisenhower many more years of good health. His battle to overcome heart disease is a good example for others who suffer this infirmity of age.

OLD BATTLE, NEW ROUND

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A scattering of Republicans, including National Committee Chairman Meade Ahearn, is attempting to make a solid political issue of the fact that Walter P. Reuther is labor's political miter big with much influence in the Democratic Party.

The Democratic response has been more to defend Reuther against some of the criticism of his alleged political beliefs than to deny that he is, indeed, powerful in the party councils. No such denial would suffice, anyway, since on the record is the political fact that it was Reuther in 1956 who had the power to break the back of opposition to the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson for president.

Reuther has become a key man in the Democratic Party by reason of his political know-how and his position in the labor movement. He is no more a key man, however, and no more politically powerful than was the late Sidney Hillman, who rose from labor leadership in the garment industry to a position of veto power in a Democratic national convention.

City Parks Need Plants And Shrubs

The Park and Recreation Departments of the City are continuing their program of development of neighborhood playground and parks throughout the City.

For family use as well as for the youngsters, the parks are to be planted with shrubs and flowering plants. Picnic facilities and playground equipment will be installed.

Many of the city's residents have surplus shrubs which could enhance the park areas. Any persons who would like to donate shrubs or flowering plants may call the Parks Department at FA 2-5131 and leave information concerning address and type of shrubs. A member of the department will be glad to accept them for replanting in the park system.

Lake Gem Park presently is undergoing development and some play equipment and shrubs are already in place.

Ervin Seeks Hearing On Prison Row

By BARBARA FAYE
United Press International
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin says the existing controversy over administration and treatment of prisoners at Raiford State Prison should be brought out in the open at a public hearing.

Such a hearing, Ervin contends, would point up both sides of the heated dispute by giving all concerned a chance to publicly state their positions.

The attorney general, who is also a member of a special cabinet committee responsible for the prison, called for the public hearing Monday.

His action came in the wake of multiple charges of "politics" in prison administration, poor supervision, and alleged mistreatment of convicts.

One matter the hearing would determine is whether Superintendent DeWitt Sinclair and his assistant L. J. Swann should be discharged, Ervin said.

Meanwhile, Sen. Harry Stratton of Callahan, chairman of the Legislature's committee on prisons, also has promised a hearing on the prison dispute, including an investigation of charges by Sen. Charley Johns of Starke that inmates are being mistreated.

Penal Director R. O. Culver told the Cabinet in a confidential report recently that he was "alarmed" at the "almost total indifference" of Sinclair and Swann toward operation of the prison.

But he said: "It is not up to me to recommend that Sinclair be fired since he apparently does not work for me, because there is politics mixed up in it."

State law provides that Culver can hire and fire personnel with approval of the governor.

Cabinet members, however, charged that the prison system is riddled with "politics," hinting this is one reason why Sinclair has not been dismissed.

The prison furor was touched off by joint charges that tear gas, leg irons and handcuffs were used to subdue inmates of the maximum security unit where only the most dangerous and desperate convicts are kept.

Culver admitted guards had been in resort to such measures at least twice since last May. But he said the maximum security building, completed only this year, "is good for nothing."

He said when another unit is built in the coming year, he will suggest the present one be used for minimum custody cases about to be released.

PARKER HAS PROBLEM - - By Alan Mauer

Brown Leading Pro Ground-Gainers

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)— Sophomore Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns, a thunderbolt running through, over and around the opposition, was a country-mile ahead today in the National Football League race for leading rusher.

The former Syracuse All-American, averaging a phenomenal 160 yards-plus per game and 6.4 per carry, had a net of 182 yards for the first three games of the young season a year ago at this time. Brown had a 156-yard total.

The battering Brown also led in scoring with eight touchdowns, all by rushing, and with his early start was heading for two NFL marks held by former Philadelphia Eagle Steve Van Buren.

Could Better Record

At Brown's present pace, he could better Van Buren's season record of yards gained (1,140) and the mighty Steve's league touchdown record of 18 in one season. Van Buren's all-time total yardage record fell this season to Joe (The Jet) Perry of San Francisco.

Trailing Brown were Tom Wilson of Los Angeles with 280 yards, followed by Bob Mitchell of Cleveland with 262, Jan Arnett of Los Angeles with 251, and Willie Gailmore of the Chicago Bears with 215.

Eddie Le Baron of Washington, the little guy with the big savvy, was in front of the passers after three games with an average gain of 9.8 yard for every pass thrown. The mighty mile completed 25 of 44 for a 426 yard total, two touchdowns, and a 56.8 percentage.

Mack Reynolds, freshman with the Chicago Cardinals, was second behind Le Baron with a 9.54 average, followed by Billy Wade of Los Angeles (8.53), Milt Plum of Cleveland (8.52) and Tobin Rote of Detroit (7.27).

Starr Passing Leader

The best individual passing game of the young year fell to Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers, who completed 26 for 320 yards and one touchdown against Baltimore last weekend.

Ray Berry of Baltimore, with 19 completions for 266 yards and three touchdowns, led the pass receivers, with R. C. Owens of San Francisco second with 16. Four players — John Crow of the Cardinals, Gailmore, Frank Gillford of New York and Lennie Moore of Baltimore — follow Brown in scoring with 30 points each. Moore had a four touchdown game against the Bears.

Billy Wells of the Philadelphia Eagles leads in punt returns with an 18.2-yard average, including a 65-yard romp against the Giants and freshman Ken Lyles of the Colts leads in kickoff returns with a 49-yard average.

Early punting honors go to Don Chandler of the Giants with a 46.2-yard average. Jack Butler of Pittsburgh and Andy Nelson of Baltimore were tied in pass interceptions with four each.

Woodruff Slates Heavy Practice

GAINESVILLE (UPI)— Coach Bob Woodruff scheduled a heavy practice session for his Gators today as Florida planned football and festivities for the homecoming game against Vanderbilt.

There was only a light workout Tuesday as Woodruff reported the team in the best physical condition of the young season.

An estimated 40,000 alumni will be on hand Saturday for the homecoming festivities and the 1958 Southeastern Conference game.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Joe Giardello and Spider Webb will meet in a nationally televised 10-round bout at the Cow Palace, Nov. 19, promoter Benny Ford announced today.

Texas' Darrell Royal 'Coach Of Week'

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)— During his nine-year coaching career, he's criss-crossed the country from border-to-border and coast-to-coast like a politician on a campaign tour.

He came to this football hotbed only two years ago to rebuild the university's sagging gridiron fortunes and in his first season produced a bowl team.

Saturday's was his biggest coaching triumph, yet by a sense it disturbed him because it came at the expense of his old coach.

He's affable, 34-year-old Darrell Royal, the United Press International Coach Of The Week because of his Texas Longhorns

Jordan Worried About Georgia Tech

United Press International

Auburn Coach Ralph Jordan is on record as being worried.

Not about Auburn's slide to No. 2 in the national ratings, but about Georgia Tech, this weekend's opponent for his Tigers.

"Coach Bobby Dodd's men have come further than any South-eastern Conference team since the season started," Jordan said Tuesday. "Our team will be faced with its first opponent with more depth also, and this could mean a big difference—the same difference—the same difference we used in advantage against Tennessee, Chattanooga and Kentucky."

In their Tuesday workout, the Tigers practiced defending against the quick kick. Jordan has ruled out the hard knocking this week.

Dodd, meanwhile, reported that while the Jacket kicking is fine, much work is needed in other departments. Quite a bit of that work was ordered Tuesday.

The Georgia Bulldogs ran through drills in sweatsuits and went to return to the pads today.

Kentucky's Wildcat is drawing a heavy work schedule Tuesday, the line working on offense and the backfield on passing and appro defense.

Alabama and Vanderbilt continued with dummy drills. It was the third day in a row that the battered Commodores have taken it easy.

Pass defense drew a lot of attention at the University of Tennessee, despite the fact that the Vols now lead the nation in that department. Coach Bowden Wyatt is expecting Alabama to take to the air.

Mississippi State worked on passing under the lights. The Maroons tangle with Arkansas Saturday.

The Rebels of Mississippi worked on pass defense, they being matched this week with the nation's No. 2 aerial power, Hardin-Simmons.

The Florida Gators continued work on the strategy to be used Saturday in their tussle with visiting Vanderbilt.

Turley, Malzone Lead Voting For Writers' All-Star

NEW YORK (UPI)— Future Bob Turley of the world champion New York Yankees and third-baseman Frank Malzone of the Boston Red Sox top the United Press international's 1958 American League all-star team.

Turley, a 21-game winner, was the only unanimous choice of the 24 baseball writers, three from each city in the league, while Malzone, who hit .285 and played his position brilliantly, received all but one vote.

The 10-man team eight regulars and two pitchers, was comprised of two Yankees, two Red Sox, four Chicago White Sox and one player each from the Cleveland Indians and Kansas City Athletics. Four of the players are ex-Yankees or ex-Yankee farmhands.

The infield is composed of catcher Sherman Lollar of the White Sox, first baseman Vic Power of the Indians, the White Sox' double play combination of second baseman Nelson Fox and Luis Aparicio, and Boston's Malzone. The outfield is made up of Kansas City's Bob Cove, New York's Mickey Mantle and Boston's Jackie Jensen.

Billy Pierce, the White Sox' little but hard-throwing left-hander, was picked as the team's second pitcher in a close race with Cleveland's Cal McLish and Washington's Dick Hyde.

The team's strength may be judged by the fact that neither American League batting champion Ted Williams nor earned-run-leader Whitley Ford made it. Williams won his sixth batting title with a .328 average but was ineffective until late in the season. Ford had a 2.01 e.r.a. but his month was only 147 and he was bothered by arm trouble during the last two weeks of the season.

Florida's Homecoming Tempo Increases

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — The tempo of activity speeded up today as the University of Florida's 12,000 students made final plans for their homecoming celebration Friday and Saturday.

The big weekend begins with the largest parade in homecoming history, and the state's largest gathering of football fans, politicians and alumni will be underway.

Fraternity and sorority groups have begun construction on house decorations and floats for the festivities.

The Gator Growl, reputed to be the nation's largest student prep rally, is scheduled Friday night and a standing-room-only crowd of 45,000 are expected to be on hand.

Most of the state's political leaders will meet at the Florida Blue Key Banquet Friday evening when W. Thomas Rice, president of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, will address the crowd in Florida's gymnasium. Circuit Judge John McCarty of Fort Pierce will be toastmaster.

Gov. LeRoy Collins will attend and address a legal breakfast Saturday morning. Along with the governor will be former governors, U.S. senators, congressmen, state legislators, college presidents and many other prominent Florida citizens.

The alumni legislators' barbecue Saturday, performances of acrobats, alumni reunions, numerous high school marching bands and the student body of the university will combine to welcome the returning graduates.

The highlight will be the Florida-Vanderbilt football game Saturday afternoon.

McQuatters was third in individual livestock judging at the show.

Six From Seminole At Research Meet

Six Seminole County men last week attended a two-day vegetable research work conference at the University of Florida, touring all extension service facilities in Gainesville. The tour included a look at the small atomic plant for experiments in radium. The plant was established at the University through cooperation of the Atomic Energy Commission. Agost Cecil Tucker said radium tests are made on plants and animals. The results carefully logged for future use. Attending the meeting from Seminole County, in addition to Tucker, were Harold Kastner, M. I. Cullum, Dr. R. W. Hupfret, Dr. John Wilson, all of Sanford, and Leon Miller, Ovidio. Tucker said the research conference was attended by representatives from all state experiment stations, farmers and industrial leaders. Highlight of the conference was a discussion of present research in vegetable production and suggestions of what type research is needed. While there, Tucker also attended a meeting of the Extension Service Vegetable Advisory Committee, of which he is a member.

Dade County Is Working On School 'Mixing' Plans

Odham Is Seeking More Cooperation On Milk Transfers

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Florida Milk Commission has tentatively scheduled a public hearing on producer prices in December. The commission, for the second time, failed Wednesday to reach an agreement on a mandatory order forcing transfer of milk from one plant to another in times of surplus.

Chairman J. Bradley Odham of Sanford, said a letter would be sent to members of the industry, however, urging more active cooperation in moving surplus milk to areas where needed.

Another proposal, which drew less opposition, was a voluntary order to extend additional controls to the Tampa Bay and Central Florida milk marketing areas. The order would allow a producer to cut his production during a contract signing period, where there is usually a surplus, but retain the amount of milk he would normally sell to the distributor.

The proposal was scheduled for further study. The commission also kept for later review, and perhaps retractive adoption, orders which could penalize producers for turning out surplus milk and enable the commission to shift producers from one plant to another.

Governor Favors Integration Test

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. LeRoy Collins today gave his blessing to a Dade County School Board study to determine if an all-white school can be integrated.

Collins was asked at his news conference whether he favored the school board's plan for a feasibility study on admission of Negro children to Orchard Villa, an elementary school located in an area where several Negro families live.

Four Negro children applied last month and were denied admission, but the board Wednesday voted to postpone a final decision on an appeal in order to make the study.

Hopes 'Brighter,' School Head Says

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—Private School Supt. W. C. Hruschka said today that "hopes are somewhat brighter" for starting completely private and segregated high school classes in Little Rock but he still can't predict when they actually will begin.

The State Board of Education, meanwhile, provided for allocation of about $170 toward the cost of schooling for each of the city's more than 3,000 displaced high school students.

The board authorized withholding of $30,000 from state funds originally designated for the closed Little Rock schools, but did not decide whether payment should be made to individual students or to the Little Rock Private School Corp. The latter course would be in defiance of federal court orders.

Hruschka said a prediction that private schools will be opened in the near future "is just wishful thinking."

Chamber Captains Hear Drive Plans

Captains of the Chamber of Commerce membership campaign met Wednesday afternoon at the local office to hear the outline of Chairman Clifford McKibbin's plans to achieve the goal of $10,000 from dues.

Since the original billing, which was in the hands of business houses on Oct. 1, $4,500 has been sent in by loyal firms that are interested in promoting business in Seminole County, McKibbin said. Fols represents more than 100 organizations.

Surprise Proposal By School Board May Set Pattern

MIAMI (UPI)—School officials began work today on an unusual plan which may result in a "pilot school" in Miami to test integration on an experimental basis.

If such a project proves practicable, it could mean the first desegregation of any public school below college level in Florida.

It might also serve as a pattern for other Southern states in determining whether an area is ready for integration.

The proposal came unexpectedly Wednesday at a meeting of the Dade School Board.

On a motion by C. T. McCrimmon, the board voted to postpone a final decision on an appeal by four Negro children seeking admission to Orchard Villa, an all-white elementary school located in an area where several Negro families live. The children were denied admittance by the board last month.

NAACP Attorney G. E. Graves said at that time the parents would carry their case through all steps prescribed by the Florida pupil assignment law. Then, if they were forced into court, he said it would be a "direct attack" on the controversial state law.

McCrimmon moved that action be delayed until "additional data" was compiled on the "sociological and psychological effect" on Negro and white students if Negroes were admitted to Orchard Villa.

Board member Jesse Yarbrough then suggested the additional information should include a report on the feasibility of establishing a "pilot" school at Orchard Villa to measure reaction and effects of integration.

Ex-Army Officer Will Face Judge On Abandonment

DELAND (UPI)—A retired Army officer wanted in four states goes before a county judge Friday on charges of deserting his wife and child and fleeing to avoid prosecution.

Former Lt. Col. Layne Mitchell Smith was arrested Tuesday at Cape Canaveral where he works and released on $4,000 bond on two counts stemming from the case. He will receive a hearing before Judge Thomas Tappay.

Tanks Were Empty

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI)—More than 16,000 motorists were stranded on the New York State Thruway between New York and Buffalo last year because they had run out of gas.

Chamber Captains Hear Drive Plans

The minimum subscription fixed by the directors is $25. It was pointed out that this sum is "far less than most trade bodies ask for membership." McKibbin said "It is a terrifically low price to pay for the huge effort that is made to bring business right to the door of each business."

The captains were told that the operators of new businesses in the county are welcome, not only at the monthly meetings of the Chamber, but may attend any of the quarterly directors' meetings.

"The more active the membership, the better we like it," John Kridler said. Discussion of the rapid increase in the business activity in the county brought out that there are a great many new firms that have been established so recently that until now there has been no occasion for them to join the Chamber. "Because part of their success depends on the help of the Chamber, they should be eager to become members," McKibbin said.
