

Swollen Streams

(Continued From Page One) to pass Macon, Ga., at noon today. The river held its high of 28 feet since last night. Water reached the roofs of many Macon homes and at least 50 persons were evacuated.

The little town of Dames Ferry and Pope's Ferry on the Ocmulgee River continued to threaten the river front warehouse area in downtown Columbus, Ga. First damage estimates reached thousands of dollars for surrounding flooded farmlands.

Streets in lower sections of West Point, Ga., were under water and several families were forced to vacate their homes.

Four negroes were injured in a windstorm which hit Fort Davis, near Tuskegee, Ala. A brief snow storm struck parts of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas and then moved southward, with the snow changed to rain or sleet and strong winds diminishing.

Three died in Georgia and Alabama in a blizzard, and another person was missing. Two were killed on a slippery highway in Pennsylvania.

Many roads were inundated. Near Montgomery, Ala., 335 convicts were evacuated from a prison farm to the Kelly State Prison, nearby, when the Tallapoosa River rose.

Peachtree Creek overflowed at Atlanta, forcing residents of a fashionable northside residential section to flee. Highways in the vicinity of Rome, Ga., were in danger of flooding.

A number of Kansas and Oklahoma communities were without electric service yesterday as the result of a snow and wind storm in that area.

Up to three inches of snow fell in some parts of Western Pennsylvania. Snow fell on the outskirts of Washington, D. C., but melted as it turned to rain. Rain and snow hampered motorists in Eastern West Virginia.

Blizzards and thunderstorms hit the Cascade Mountains in Washington.

Broad Plan

The proposal to include the 1,400,000 or more members of the armed services was urged in Ewing's annual report to the President several months ago.

Service men were not originally covered because it was deemed that the armed forces' own retirement systems were adequate. Growth of the "civilian army" concept, in which great numbers of men shift between military and civilian employment, has changed the picture, Ewing said.

Periods of military service interrupt the accumulation of benefit.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THAT notorious criminal lawyer, Abe Hummel, once badgered a witness too hard. The witness was a young prize fighter, and Hummel was trying to force an admission that he had assaulted the defendant before said defendant carved him with a penknife. The fighter finally admitted he had given the defendant a "slight push."

"Slight push, you say," pounced Hummel. "Suppose you step down from the witness chair and show me and the gentlemen of the jury just what your idea of a slight push is." The fighter's face lit up. "You really mean that?" he asked incredulously. "Quick as a cat, he was out of the witness box, took a full windup, and landed a roundhouse uppercut smack on Hummel's chin. Hummel went flying across the courtroom like a sack of flour. The fighter dusted off his hands, and confided to the jury. "About one-tenth that hard is my idea of a slight push."

Dealer Testifies

He questioned Hudson and Oldsmobile dealers several weeks ago. Ourisman said he has been a Chevrolet dealer since 1921 and has sold about 50,000 cars. His two firms make him one of the largest Chevrolet dealers in the country, he added.

He said his salesmen do not give preference to prospective buyers who have used cars to trade in.

After hearing Ourisman outline his policy, the committee called Walton Woods, an investigator for it, to the witness chair.

Woods testified that he had studied Ourisman sales for the first 23 days of June this year. He said 82 deliveries had been made to individual buyers.

Woods said 24 of the 82 deliveries went to buyers who had used cars to trade in and the average waiting period for the 24 was about 14 months. The rest of the 82 cars went to buyers with trade ins, he added, and their average waiting period was 50 days.

Fred J. Walker, a telephone repair man, said he waited from July, 1947, until October of this year to obtain a new car from Ourisman. He had no trade in but said he knew of two cases in which buyers with trade ins had received "immediate delivery" from Ourisman.

Ourisman promised the committee he would have an analysis made of the sales covered by Woods' report.

Since May, 1946, Ourisman said, his companies have taken 10,467 orders, with deposits of approximately $100 made on each. He said new cars have been delivered to 6,627 persons, 2,130 orders have been cancelled and 1,710 remain unfilled.

Buyers now are being asked to wait about 18 months for new cars, Ourisman said, though many orders are being filled in less time. A "tagged" account containing the remaining deposits now amount to $151,000, Ourisman added. He said the companies do not use the money for general expenses and it does not bear interest.

Before the hearing, E. R. Ferguson, Jr., assistant counsel to the committee, described the aim of the present hearings as "to hit at the faultiness of putting yourself on a list."

China War

Earlier reports from the front indicated that the Communists have left secondary troops to engage Nationalists within the Suchow perimeter. The main Red strength of nearly 500,000 troops was reported heading south toward Pengpu, 100 miles northwest of Nanking.

The Communists already hold Suchow, 45 miles south of Suchow. An estimated 140,000 government troops—regarded as inferior to those at Suchow—oppose the Reds at Suchow.

Further southward, and mostly in the Pengpu area, are another 50,000 Nationalists.

If the estimates of the opposing sides are about correct, the urgency of withdrawing Suchow's defenders to help government forces to the south appears clear. The Reds seem to hold more than a 2 to 1 numerical advantage over the government on the road to Nanking.

The Red armies of Generals Chen Yi and Liu Po-Cheng have been edging steadily southward from the Suchow area.

Associated Press correspondent Roy Essoyan reported Sunday from Suchow that morale of Nationalist soldiers was higher than those of troops he had seen before. Not only did the wounded look better fed, he said, but they were happy over their speedy evacuation. Chinese commercial airliners flew more than 2,700 wounded to Nanking yesterday. Another morale booster: soldiers were being paid in silver for the first time since the Japanese war.

(General Tu Li-Ming, acting government commander in the Suchow area, told Essoyan a "decisive" battle for Central China was about to begin.

Perhaps timed to coincide with the appeal for American aid, the Chinese government for the first time has allowed foreign correspondents to witness battlefield action. On conducted tours, they were shown evidence intended to prove that the Nationalists are far from beaten.

Madame Chiang left Shanghai yesterday to carry China's message personally to Washington. U. S. army officers told American correspondents at Kiangwan airport "no pictures; nobody wear that airplane." A government spokesman said only that she would "talk with American authorities on the present Chinese situation."

(The Navy did not announce flight plans, but the transport carrying Madame Chiang and her small party arrived this morning at Guam. Presumably its next stop will be Honolulu.)

New York alone has as many telephones as all of either Latin America or Asia.

Berlin Plan

Bramuglia said he wanted to launch the new plan and have it considered by the Western Powers and Russia before the Argentine's presidency of the council expires at midnight Tuesday.

Argentine sources did not say how the West or Russia received the new idea. Andrei Vishinsky, deputy Russian foreign minister who talked with Bramuglia last night, asked a clarification of some translation difficulties during the morning.

Bramuglia received representatives of the U.S., Britain and France before noon and conveyed the plan to them.

American, British and French leaders have indicated they would lend all possible assistance to the struggle in studying the currency problem.

The Western Powers have agreed to accept the Soviet Mark as Berlin's sole currency, if it is under adequate Four-Power control. The two sides have been unable to agree thus far on what would constitute adequate control.

An agreement on currency might result in solving the problem of the Russian blockade of Berlin. Russia has said she is willing to lift the blockade if the Soviet mark becomes Berlin's currency at the same time. The Western Powers have refused to negotiate with the Russians on currency while the blockade is in effect, declaring the blockade represents Russian duress.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

There is no use uttering that prayer unless we do something about it ourselves. It will come a little at a time. Thy kingdom come.—Mat. 6:10

Did you know that 50,000 babies were born to unwed high school girls last year in the United States alone?

Congratulations to Frank Wright on his appointment as Assistant to the Governor of Florida. Wright was a Miami boy who made good at the University of Florida, made good to such an extent that he remained there 13 years as publicity director. He knows practically everyone in Florida who attended the University during those years, and many who didn't. The new Governor could hardly have found a better assistant.

Indications are there will be as many winter visitors in Florida as ever this year, but they will be counting their change. There will be more $10 and $20 bills in circulation, not so many $100s. And they will be looking for places where they can get a decent meal for a reasonable price, a roof over their heads without having to buy the building. Sanford will be full of visitors this winter. It's too bad we do not have more accommodations.

In its European rehabilitation efforts the United States is conducting the greatest humanitarian effort in its history. Yet Russia, Mrs. Ovetta Culp Hobby says, by means of propaganda has confused the people of Europe who many of them do not know which side they are on. Russia offers them nothing; the United States offers them everything. "This is the most preposterous choice ever offered," says Mrs. Hobby. "America need only tell the truth to win the verdict." But America so detests propaganda, even honest propaganda, that it is losing the battle.

Unification of the armed services in the United States has not been the howling success which some had predicted for it. It is not easy to eliminate from anything the highly important factor of human nature. "The predominant overtones of salt spray, wild blue yonder and rolling caissons are not yet submerged in the three services," says Secretary of Defense Forrestal.
 If Johnny and preacher differ in aiming the three services of the United States Army, how much more difficult it must be to unify a fighting force composed of different units from various nations!

To what depths of depravity this country is in danger of sinking may be gleaned from Drew Pearson who quotes President Truman as saying, "Jesse James was not a bad man at heart. He was a modern day Robin Hood. He stole from the rich and gave to the poor, which, in general, is not a bad policy." Just how rich does a man have to be before it is all right to steal from him? And if giving to the poor is justification for stealing, what about giving to the poor wife, or your own poor self? The Good Book made no such fine distinction. The Bible says, "Thou shalt not steal." It also says, "Thou shalt not covet."

As usual with the advent of the tourist season the periodic influx of city slickers, short-change artists and wise guys who annually bleed the small towns in their zeal for "something for nothing" is beginning to arrive. Most of these "artists" do not get very far in Sanford and generally confine their activities to passing a few worthless checks, but almost every winter Sanford gets taken to the cleaners at least one or two of these crooks. We don't believe Sanford is money enough this winter to be taken on getting cleaned.
 We hope our business people and our banks will have sufficient substantial and determined to turn the crooks out of town.

The Troublesome Ruhr

The developing political situation regarding control of the Ruhr Valley in Germany must be viewed with mixed emotions. Great Britain and the United States, in control of the valley which is in the British zone, moved to go ahead with their plan to turn the industries over to the Germans, with limitations, despite French dissent. The French avoided a quarrel by accepting a voice in supervision of the area. British and American leaders are anxious to move Germany toward economic revival and regard this step in the Ruhr as essential to that purpose. The French demur because to them the Ruhr Valley is the historic source of German physical strength.

The rehabilitation of the German industries is of compelling importance to Great Britain, which needs normal commerce with all of Europe and to this country, which needs to get rid of the financial burden of sustaining Germany. Control of the Ruhr is also a matter of prime interest to France, and is a delicate political issue there. A French government which failed to safeguard this point would fall at once.

We have already had the cooperation of Russia in Germany, partly because of the Anglo-American desire for economic recovery there. In the present Ruhr decisions we risked a break with the French; if we had lost the risk our whole position in Germany would have become much more trying. The issue is only temporarily resolved now, and will arise again whenever the matter of peace treaty for Germany is reopened by the Four Powers.

Schumacher put her out of her misery. He saw she recently had borne a litter, and figured she might have changed direction to draw puppies away from her poppers. So he beat the woods on the opposite side of his farm.

There, under a tree stump, he found the poppers—three males and three females—hungry but healthy. A lot of bones and feathers were scattered around.

An epitaph will be placed in a stone in the home of each family so they may worship the departed spirit. Each will carry with the man's given name. The family name will be dropped as needless. For Tom after death it will be "Paternal Hei Heik."

Nationalist 12th Army Group. The government four days ago ordered the Garrison to quit Su chow earlier, but the troops stuck to the fortified city 211 miles northwest of Nanking.

One report said Kuechen, a rail way town 150 miles northwest of Nanking, fell to Red troops as they widened a net around 140,000 trapped Nationalist troops.

The encircled forces were the government's 12th Army Group, under General Huang Wei. They were being bombarded by Communist radio appeals to surrender.

Meanwhile two ominous signs appeared in Nanking. (1) There was a total absence of war news in the afternoon papers. (2) The government's military spokesman remained away from his office in the past both of these have indicated reverses of considerable importance to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's armies.

Nervousness was reflected in both diplomatic and government circles in this capital. Various diplomatic missions joined the American embassy in requesting the embassy and consular staff dependents to safer areas. The U.S. embassy announced Navy planes Thursday would start flying 100

Hartley Asks Repeal Of Union Shop Law

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.), co-author of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law, said today he favors repeal of the present requirement for an employer's election to determine whether there should be a union shop.

Experience with this requirement, he explained, has demonstrated that it is "costly and unnecessary."

He said union shop agreements could be made a matter of bargaining directly between labor and management.

Hartley told reporters he also believes that the present requirement for labor union officials to file non-Communist affidavits should be extended to management. He said the present law is amended.

Business Should Not Fear Inflation Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sawyer said today there is no reason for any legitimate business to be fearful about the administration's plans for fighting inflation.

Sawyer talked with newsmen after a call on President Truman at the White House. He said they discussed the anti-inflation program the President will lay before Congress in January.

A reporter told the Secretary that business secured by the concern about the outcome of the election and that the stock market had been dropping, apparently as a result.

"I see no reason why business should be concerned," Sawyer said.

Asked if the United States would have to give up its sovereignty in joining World Government, Prof. Saute replied, "nations must relinquish sovereignty dealing with international relations but not relinquish sovereignty over domestic affairs."

Following the talk, Prof. Saute held an informal conference to answer questions on World Government. Among those who questioned him were Mrs. T. E. Tucker, secretary of the local UWP chapter, Jack Ratigan, Dr. H. W. Rucker, J. Bralley Odham, Douglas Stronstrom, Roderick Adams, T. E. Tucker, Frank Shames and Ralph A. Smith, Mrs. E. G. Elliott and Miss U. Sundquist. During the meeting Father William Nachtrub, Dr. Rucker and Miss Arlene Jackson also asked a number of questions regarding World government organization.

Jack Ratigan revealed that the local chapter is still in the process of organization and that officers will be elected in January.

Chuck Hunsinger Of Florida Is Placed On AP All-Southeastern

By STERLING HAPPEY

ATLANTA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Eight Southeastern Conference colleges placed men on the 1948 Associated Press All-Star first team a team averaging 199 pounds and captained by Georgia's Johnny Rauch.

Rauch—one of the nation's top passers and quarterbacks—led the poll. He received 99 votes from head coaches and AP sports writers to win highest honors from his nearest competitor, guard Billy Healy of Georgia Tech, who received 84 one-vote advantage over Vanderbilt's Ken Cooper. Crawford got 62 votes to 61 for Cooper.

Only four votes separate the three centers on the team even though the Bulldogs are the conference champions.

Teams placing two men each on the first string are Mississippi, Tulane and Georgia Tech. Five colleges with a player apiece are Vanderbilt, Florida, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Georgia.

Big Barney Poole of the Mississippi Rebels, a prime All-American candidate, and Tech's co-captain George Brodnax are the first team ends. L.R.U.'s Almer Wimberly missed the first string by a single vote when he polled 76 votes to 70 for Poole. Brodnax led the ends with 70 votes.

Another hot race developed for tackle positions with Paul Lea of Tulane and Norman Meseroll of Georgia lagged behind Meseroll in late ballots and dropped to the second team.

Lea led with 84 votes to 61 for Meseroll and 60 for Payne.

Mississippi's Jimmy Crawford managed the first team with a

Cocoa Tigers

The Cocoa Tigers, champions of the East Coast Conference, are scheduled to meet the Seminole High School Celery Feds here on Dec. 10.

The meeting of the two teams will be of interest to Sanfordites and Seminole County fans, because George McClelland, former Seminole High School and Sigmon University football star, is the coach of the team.

McClelland is probably one of the best backfield men ever to don the green and white of Stetson University, and has racked up notable records as a coach at Cocoa High School.

The Tigers are undefeated in nine games this season. The Cocoa schedule and scores of the games include: Sept. 23, Tigers 29, Fortmont 6; Tigers 31, Gresham 6; Cocoa 20, Kissimmee 12; Cocoa 28, Melbourne 9; Cocoa 18, St. Joe 11; Cocoa 31, Oklawaha 13; Tigers 18, Venet Beach 7; Cocoa 11, Stuart 12 and Cocoa 27, Titusville 9.

We understand that Coach McClelland has resigned his post at Cocoa, and will go to Chicago to enter a chiropractic school. It has been reported that he wishes to become a trainer for a Major League baseball club.

The Cocoa Tribune printed an editorial on Nov. 25 praising the work of Coach McClelland. Here is the editorial:

Everybody is proud of the record made by the Cocoa High School football team, the Tigers, and their coach, George McClelland, this year. They are not only proud but appreciative of the fine team that has represented Cocoa this year and in the past several years under Coach McClelland.

George McClelland and his Tigers have made their fine record this year by team work, the best you ever saw. The Tribune has been fair with his charges in every detail, looking out for their interests, while being firm. In return the boys in his charge have come forward with the best record of any Tiger eleven in the history of the local school. They show fine physical training, excellent sportsmanship on and off the field, and as a football team are hard to beat. Appointments will occur in this statement.

"We are proud of the record of the Tigers.

"As for George McClelland, the local school has been fortunate in having a man of his calibre at the head of the coaching staff. George has worked hard with his boys, bringing out the best in them. He is good for the boys, being eminently fair with them, but firm. He has the respect of the youngsters, and they have his. Such an arrangement is bound to pay off in any school where such a man as George McClelland is employed. The Tribune joins with hundreds of people here in congratulating the Tigers and Coach George McClelland for their wonderful record at Cocoa High."

Arkansas Coach To Head Southerners

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 30. (AP)—Coach John Barnhill of Arkansas will lead the Southerners in this year's Blue-Gray football game.

Barnhill was named for the post yesterday to take the place of Blair Cherry, Texas mentor, whose team has been chosen to meet the Georgia Bulldogs in the Orange Bowl on Jan. 1.

The Blue-Gray headquarters simultaneously announced that Ken Cooper, Vanderbilt guard, has been added to the Dixie team.

Matthews May Move Into SC Leadership

CLEMSON, S. C., Nov. 30. (AP)—Clemson's tallback Ray Matthews will be the leading scorer in the Southern Conference if he battles more than six points against the Citadel in Charleston Saturday.

Oma Blasts Gomez Out Of Fight Picture

TAMPA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Detroit heavyweight Lee Oma, 105, blasted Tampa's Tommy Gomez, 182, right out of the big-time fight picture with a first round knock out last night.

Oma showed when Gomez took the count on one knee after Oma floored him with a right to the nose. Several ringside observers thought Gomez appeared able to get up at any moment, although his nose was bleeding badly.

The fight lasted only two minutes and 35 seconds.

H. S. Arnold Named

The newly formed Seminole Association adopted exactly the same platform as the Orange county growers in respect to citrus prices after President Higgins had told of the success of the two growers meetings held in Orange county and of the enthusiasm stirred up. The resolution points out that of the Florida's 90,000,000 box crop, 89,000,000 boxes must yet be disposed of; that by establishment of four prices small growers may gain $100,000,000 and thereby vitally affect the economy of the state.

W. G. Killbe, county commissioner and grower, stated that since Governor Caldwell has refused to call a special session of the Legislature to aid the growers, the growers should persuade state senators and representatives to hold a special hearing. He also urged repeal of the state law that compels growers to put their products through a packing house for out-of-state sale and advocated a law that would enable growers to sell fruit direct to truckers, or where and when they please.

Lew Minders of Longwood stressed the importance of immediate action by growers. W. O. Reucher also called for quick action to keep growers from ruin. A. Clemens asked for removal of restrictions on sale of fruit to truckers. Lew Arnold declared: "The small growers are in this thing to the bitter end."

Everyone at the meeting was invited to join except packers and shippers, said Mr. Dawson. Growers declared that they "are not fighting anyone, but just trying to keep from starving."

Mr. Higgins, Orange County Association president, stressed to the growers the fact that there is no campaign for them to sign up or pay dues, but that each for himself will decide not to sell oranges at less than $1.25 box.

Berlin Government

The Communists named Friedrich Ebert, namesake son of the first Weimar Republic president, as "major" of all Berlin. Ebert promptly declared that the elections set for Sunday in the western sectors were null and void. The Communists have refused to take part in the regularly scheduled elections for all Berlin re-membering their defeat in 1946, and have ordered their followers to boycott the voting in the western sectors.

After the meeting proclaimed a new city government, the demonstration spilled out into the Soviet sector of the city. Some 100,000 persons from factories and stores which were shut down, marched along Unter Den Linden, where Hitler's troops once paraded.

The regularly elected anti-Communist city government, driven from city hall in the Soviet sector by Communist demonstrators, has been sitting in western Berlin. The Communists, joined by a few splinter elements from other parties, set up their government at a mass meeting in Admirals Palast Auditorium in the Soviet sector of the city.

The rally was called with the avowed aim of taking "decisive measures for the protection of a united Berlin", apparently a move to gain control of the whole city before the election in the western sectors, where about two-thirds of all Berliners live.

An outdoor demonstration of workers marching along Unter Den Linden in the Soviet sector was arranged to follow the rally. The Communist rally adopted a resolution proposed by the so-called "Democratic bloc of Berlin" denouncing the elected government and demanding it be replaced.

Then the Communists elected Friedrich Ebert, 64, as their own mayor. Ebert, son of Friedrich Ebert, Germany's first president under the Weimar Republic, now

3,000 Letters With TB Seals Are Mailed

More than 3,000 letters containing Christmas Seals have been mailed in order to receive contributions which will enable the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association carry on its work in combating tuberculosis. Mrs. C. R. Dawson, president, announced today.

"I urge every individual receiving these letters to post their return mail as quickly as possible so that the Christmas Seal Sale may reach its goal and accomplish its purpose," she said. The program of this Association is made possible only by the purchase of Christmas Seals, and therefore I urge you as citizens to help us carry on the important work that is being done right here in Seminole County."

The TB office has planned to stagger the Christmas Seal Sale mailing for the next 10 days. Mailing houses that wish to use seals may obtain them by calling 794 and the seals will be delivered. New people whose names might not appear on the mailing list are asked to telephone the office and seals will be mailed.

Texas Stockman

Police Capt. Frank Reynolds said that Jenkins' action was the most heinous he ever had seen. He said that the steer running amok among the huge crowd might have trampled many. Jenkins was aboard his horse awaiting his turn for an exhibition of how a cowboy and a quarter horse "puts out" a steer, when Jack Hart of Marshall, Tex., made a pass at the steer. The steer, which had been in the pen for some time, charged and cleared it at a bound, into the space between the wall and the stands where spectators crowd to watch the exhibition.

Jenkins sized up the situation immediately. He moved his horse to the wall, and he leaped from the saddle over the wall and onto the steer. He thrust his fingers into the animal's eyes, hump around its neck and brought it to its knees. "Then I crashed it into the fence a couple of times to stop it," Jenkins said, "and guided it through a near-by gate into the show ring."

President Truman set the $16,000,000,000 ceiling on defense spending after the Armed Forces asked for $23,000,000,000 in the 1950 fiscal year beginning July 1. There has been no official announcement of how the $14,000,000,000 will be divided among the services after $600,000,000 is set aside for stockpiling critical materials. However, there has been speculation that the Army probably would get about $5,000,000,000.

is president of the Communist-controlled state parliament of Brandenburg. He is a member of the Christian Democratic Union and one of the nominally non-Communist elements working with the Communist controlled "Democratic bloc."

The presence of Ebert and a few other non-Communists was characterized by Berlin's anti-Communist and western military government authorities as "window-dressing for a Communist front organization which has no popular backing."

The rally then named a magistrate (executive government) for the city. In this, also, places were given to nominal representatives of the non-Communist Christian Democratic Union, the Social Democrats and the Rightist Liberal Democrats.

his office for a few days. The tests lasted many days longer than expected, then, but Marshall aides said they were of a strictly routine nature and that his basic health was good.

Today, McDermott was asked whether his chief is again in Walter Reed. He replied that Marshall had been living there with some exceptions since he returned from Paris Nov. McDermott said, Marshall "is undergoing in the next few days some further tests and examinations and hence he will not be at the office."

McDermott recalled that Marshall attended a football game in Roanoke, Va., last Thursday and spent last weekend at his Leesburg, Va., home. Otherwise he has been at work every day but beginning today will spend all his time at the hospital for the "next few days."

Asked whether there was any relationship between this development and Marshall's possible resignation, McDermott replied, "I stick to what I said." Asked whether Marshall's condition was serious or routine, he said "So far as I know he's in for a physical check-up."

Across the country, generally, fair and colder weather prevailed today. The mercury dipped to near the zero mark in some parts of the country's coldest belt, which extended from the Rockies over the north central region. Low marks included 3 above at Butte, Mont., and Eagle, Colo. The coldest weather extended into North Texas. There was some light snow in Northern Minnesota and blizzard weather was reported along the Washington Coast.

Snow fell in some eastern areas yesterday, including New York, Pennsylvania and Maryland. The fall measured four inches in Western Maryland but crews of workmen kept highways open.

Mme. Chiang Requests U.S. Aid For China

Chinese First Lady Arrives In Washington Aboard Truman's 'Sacred Cow'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. (AP)—Madame Chiang Kai-shek, first lady of China, arrived today to seek new American backing for China's hard-pressed Nationalist government.

The Chinese first lady was met at the airport by Mrs. George T. Marshall, wife of the Secretary of State.

Ambassador Wellington Koo and other embassy officials also greeted her.

Madame Chiang arrived at 10:00 A. M. from San Francisco aboard President Truman's former personal plane, The Sacred Cow.

Top American administration officials were missing. The State Department sent Walter Butterworth, chief of its office for Far Eastern Affairs.

Madame Chiang left immediately with Mrs. Marshall for the Marshall home at nearby Leesburg, Va., without a word to reporters on her unofficial mission or any other subject.

She will be Mrs. Marshall's guest there for the time being. There was no immediate announcement of her plans.

As she stepped from the plane, Madame Chiang was greeted first by H. Kump, former Chinese premier minister who is her brother-in-law.

Then she was welcomed by Mrs. Marshall. They exchanged greetings and almost immediately drove away, accompanied by Stanley Woodward, chief of protocol for the White House and State Department.

K. W. Yu, secretary to Chiang Kai-shek who accompanied Madame Chiang from Shanghai, said she would spend all of today at the Marshall home. Ambassador Koo said he would confer with Madame Chiang there later today.

At the White House, presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that Mr. Truman was represented at the airport by his Air Force aide Col. Robert Landry.

In reply to a question, Ross said he did not know with whom in the government Madame Chiang might confer.

Also in reply to a question, Ross said she would spend all of today at the Marshall home.

Teenage 'Ring' Is Revealed In Newark

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 1. (AP)—Seven teenage boys were in custody today in connection with what police said was a drug-paying theft club which netted $8,000 in two years.

Detective Lt. Frederick McGrath and Detective Robert Griffith said yesterday about half the loot was found in the clubroom in the cellar of the 16-year-old leader's house. All the youths are from good families and ranged from 12 to 18 years in age.

The club divided up the take and the boys explained to their parents they got the money by working in bowling alleys as pin boys, the detectives said.

Police said the club was discovered when a janitor reported five boys acting suspiciously near Newark Academy last Friday. Police picked up three of the youths, and questioning led to four others.

McGrath and Griffith reported the youngsters also stole seven guns, discarded one and distributed the rest among friends.

NAM Director Raps Flaws In U.S. Economy

By H. C. JOHNSON
NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Earl Bunting, managing director of the National Association of Manufacturers, said today that inflation, security and inadequate thrift are three flaws in the American economy that the people must correct.

Bunting keynoteed the opening session of the NAM's 53rd annual Congress of American Industry at the Waldorf Astoria.

The Congress has adopted national unity as the slogan of its three-day meeting. NAM's has national session since the Democratic victory in the national elections. Businessmen, industrialists, labor leaders and government officials will strike the keynote of cooperation at the meeting, which ends Friday night with an address by Secretary of Commerce Sawyer.

Sawyer said in Washington yesterday, following a conference with President Truman, there is no reason for business to fear the administration's plans for fighting inflation. He stated that his speech here would give some idea of the anti-inflation program the President outlined on Dec. 1.

More than 20 percent of drivers and 29 percent of pedestrians involved in fatal auto accidents last year had been drinking intoxicating liquors, he declared.

He told of his work in safety education among motorists and the youth of Kentucky under the administration of Governor "Happy" Chandler, who had appointed him to the post. He cited the effective traffic work of 5,000 uniformed schoolboy patrols, and of the great reduction in accidents in that state as the result of the safety campaign.

Every time the pendulum of the clock swings at times, a person is injured in an automobile accident in the United States, he asserted, and that the percentage of accidents, one out of every three born today, are either killed or injured in automobile accidents before reaching the age of 21. Plans for the United States in one year to teach apart and the line would reach from New York to San Francisco, he said, and every 100 feet of this distance would mark a person killed.

He looked out at the "demon" practice of overtaking, passing or cutting in on the highway.

Auto Death Toll Hits 25,720 In '48

CHICAGO, Dec. 1. (AP)—The nation's automobile accident record kidded off a smooth course in October and headed into the final lap of 1948 with a death toll of 25,720.

The traffic fatalities up to Nov. 9, with an increase of eight per cent in October, compare with 26,060 for the first 10 months of 1947.

The October toll of 3,290 — a record month for this year — virtually wiped out safety gains reported for the first three quarters of 1948. There were 3,050 traffic deaths in October, 1947.

"The nation is relaxing at the steering wheel," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council. "If November and December show a percentage increase as large as October, we are not going to save a single life this year."

Air Force May Have To Wait 2 Years For B-49 Flying Wing Units

By ELTON C. LAY
Associated Press Military Affairs Reporter
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. (AP)—While the Air Force has big plans for its bombing units, it may be more than two years before it can form any combat units of its largest and longest-range jet, the B-49 Flying Wing. Thirty of the big jets are on order, but even estimated today it will be 1951 before enough are on hand for use by squadrons and groups.

The B-49 weighs 213,000 pounds and is designed to carry "over 15 tons" of bombs. Yet it is rated only as a medium bomber because of its 1,600-mile radius.

When converted, they will be designated RB-49s and used for long range, high speed reconnaissance. Experts explain that even though the general structure and layout is the same as the B-45, the performance of the B-49 will be somewhat different.

The Air Force currently has only one "heavy" bomber, the standard engine B-36, which has a designed radius of "over 3,000 miles." Its intended range (the total distance flown) is 10,000 miles.

In fact, one B-36 has flown about 5,000 miles and some Air Force officials now talk of ranges up to 12,000 miles with 10 tons of bombs. The Air Force ordered 24 of the huge bombers from Consolidated Vultee, of which about a score have been delivered.

Two groups of B-36s have been formed. They are based at Carswell Base, Fort Worth, Tex. The (Continued on Page Two)

Warren Names Schott To Head Beverage Group

DAYTONA BEACH, Dec. 1. (AP)—Governor-elect Fuller Warren today named Lewis Schott, 27, Daytona Beach attorney and municipal judge, to be director of the State Beverage Department during the forthcoming administration.

Schott, a native of New Jersey, attended the Citadel in Charleston, S. C., and was subsequently graduated in law from the University of Florida. He is a veteran of World War II.

Following his graduation he was associated with Alfred A. Green of Daytona Beach for a year, and later formed a law partnership with James T. Nelson. He was appointed municipal judge in 1947.

Schott married Marcia Whitney of Jacksonville, also a graduate of the University of Florida law school. They have one son, David Whitney, age 16 months.

In announcing the appointment, Warren said:

"The beverage department collects beverage and cigarette taxes and enforces the beverage laws. Last year, it collected $21,400,000.88 in beverage taxes, and $12,326,789.00 in cigarette taxes. This was the state's second largest source of revenue, exceeded only by the gasoline tax which yielded $42,823,870.25.

"Certain beverage laws are designed to protect public morals, particularly the morals of minors. It is important, therefore, that these laws be strictly enforced. This is (Continued on Page Two)

Female Institution To Get Classy Name

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 1. (AP)—Florida's new female correctional institution near Ocala may get the less penal sounding name of "Forest Hill."

Another suggestion made at a meeting of the institution's advisory committee was "Sugar Hammock" because that is the local name for the spot it is being built.

However, the committee declined to recommend to the state cabinet that the contractor be allowed to erect a highway sign at the building site with the name "Forest Hill" in big print.

Michigan Plant Is Raided By "Union Goons"

300 Invaders Break Into Shakespeare Company & Smash Equipment & Cars
KALAMAZOO, Mich., Dec. 1. (AP)—In a commandeered raid, about 300 invaders broke into two truckload factories of the Shakespeare Company here today, wrecked equipment and parked cars, injured several workmen and threatened lives.

Police Chief H. Hoyt termed the raiders "union goons."

Some 40 non-striking workers refused to leave the plants after the raid, protesting against a milling picket line outside the gates.

Governor Kuyper and his state police commissioner, Donald S. Leonard, immediately flew to the scene for a conference with Kalamazoo officials.

"We don't want any recurrence of this situation and we want to take steps to see that none occurs," Leonard said.

Chief Hoyt said the height of the raid could be the National Guard and he withdrew the appeal for help, when the invaders departed from the scene as quickly as they could.

Police officers were taken to hospital with injuries, but police said none was serious.

Police sergeant J. O. Lott said that the strike at the Shakespeare plant, although the picketing is important, is not the cause of the trouble.

Rockefeller Center Erects Huge Tree

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Rockefeller Center proudly put up its 90-foot Christmas tree today but disclaimed any idea of competing with California. The tree went up in sunny, brisk weather. The temperature was in the 60s. Hundreds of sidewalk superintendents were on hand. Ice skaters spun around the rink just below the giant tree, tallest ever erected here.

Electric lights and ornaments as big as basketballs were placed on the upper part of the tree before it was raised with a crane. Two weeks ago little Redding, Calif., laughed at pretensions of New York and Los Angeles in the Christmas tree championship. It said its 1948 tree would soar 98 feet, topping Los Angeles' entry by three feet.

Police Chief H. Hoyt termed the raiders "union goons."

Citrus Shipping Regulations To Be Debated Tuesday

LAKELAND, Dec. 1. (AP)—The Federal Citrus Marketing Agreement Committee will meet Tuesday to consider citrus shipping regulations previously set up for the three weeks that began Monday.

Frank Seymour, secretary of the committee, said the special meeting was called in response to demands from several sections of the state which want to ship citrus fruit.

The regulations set up allow movement only of 100 crates of oranges, grapefruit and lemons.

The coming weeks normally are among the best of the year for demand and price because buyers are stocking up for the Christmas holidays.
