SCC plans to build Altamonte campus

From Staff Reports

LAKE MARY — Seminole Community College has purchased 9 acres in Altamonte Springs to build a new full-service campus to serve the southwest region of the county. In addition, the school announced a private business group has raised $2.5 million to fund the construction of a new facility for the automotive tech-

The 9-acre site on State-Road 434 and Maitland Boulevard was purchased from RCJ Winter Park No. 2, Ltd. for $3.8 million. Development of the campus is scheduled to begin this year.

"SCC's current facilities under lease at Hunt Club have reached maximum capacity while the educational needs in this portion of Seminole County are exploding," SANFORD — Capt. Bob wants everyone to know he's back.

Bob Steele, along with his wife, Connie, has re-opened the Shipwreck Café after a nine-week hiatus. The downtown restrurant is once again serving Caribbean chicken po'boys and Tahitian tuna

"It was the scariest thing I've ever been through, and I've been through some crazy things," Bob said. "I didn't know if I was dying or passing out when things started to rade to block."

The operation was performed on Dec. 5 without complications. Without Bob to work in the kitchen, however, the couple decided to close the restaurant.

Burning down the house: Former City Manager
Tony VanDerworp is leaving town in a blaze of glory.

Four of the five members of the Sanford Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) hosted a dinner for VanDerworp and his wife, Ann, at Da downtown (just a short chip shot from The Clock).

What should have been a pleasant supper turned into a "Sanford Sucks" fest on VanDerworp's part.

Kenny Stingone's cuisine, or the fermented fruit of the vine, or even just pent up emotions; whatever the catalyst, Sanford's former city manager delivered a stinging critique of his former bosses. According to dinner guests in the restaurant at the time, VanDerworp opined that the city commissioners are just barely smarter than dirt, with the possible exception of District 1 Commissioner Art Woodruff. Woodruff.

VanDerworp also informed the CRA members that if they the CRA members that if they hired him as a consultant, he would make the Sanford CRA the most powerful board in the county. How? VanDerworp has a scheme to generate $10 million for the agency in a bond deal. Never mind that a recent with the CRA's current annual revenue and accumulated reserves, a bond deal would net about $2 million. Evidently the bond scheme would have pledged future CRA revenues, a nice little going-away present from VanDerworp to the aforementioned dimwitted city commissioners because any shortfalls in CRA bond payments would presumably have to be paid from the city's general reserve funds.

It doesn't look like the CRA will hire VanDerworp as a consultant. The CRA was scheduled to discuss "contract management" at it's Feb. 5 meeting. It was taken off the agenda by Chairman Larry Strickler.

From the e-mail bag: Dan:

To correct what you wrote in today's Clock, I did reference Tony's contract in pointing out that if the reference Tony's contract in pointing out that if the referendum passed, and then Tony left, he would get six month's severance. I never suggested we pay him for six months under the current circumstances. At the Jacks 13 realist, 23 hont deaths into the said I thought three months pay was a fair amount. That's about 11 days more than he requested.

At the January 27 meeting I made a motion to pay him through the end of April, pay all of his vacation time, and pay the sick leave according to the personnel policy.

By the way, in partial answer to one of your questions, the $11,500 does not pay him for all of his vacation days. According to my notes, he has about seven days of vacation time that will not be paid.

Art Woodruff

District 1 City Commissioner

Art, so noted, though I'm not sure where the extra seven days of vacation comes from. VanDerworp stated he had 236 hours of vacation (Human Resources Director Joe Denaro didn't know how much vacation VanDerworp had left), for which the commission agreed to pay $9,700, or about $41 an hour. The remainder was pay for a percentage of the sick time accumulated.

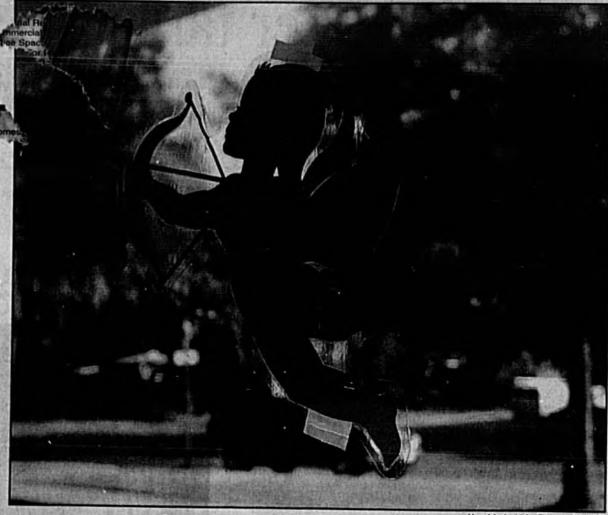

Blast from the past: Several weeks ago, I asked Around The Clock readers to guess when Sanford adopted a city manager form of government. The answers were all over the map, but none were cor-

Most thought Pete Knowles was the Sanford's first Most thought Pete Knowles was the Sanford's first city manager. He certainly served the longest, with a tenure spanning four decades, but he's not the first. Several asserted that the change was made after former mayor and bank president Forrest Lake swindled depositors out of their savings. That would make a good story, but that's wrong too.

Sanford adopted the city manager form of government in the autumn of 1919, and it became effective in January 1920.

The Herald's history writer, Grace Marie Stinecipher, has a nice article on Page 11 of today's paper. She uncovered most of the same information I did, though I'm not positive Sanford was the second city in Florida to adopt such a government. My research indicates St. Petersburg changed to a city manager about 1913, and there may have been others. Regardless, Sanford was among the first, and Grace's article makes for an interesting read.

History repeats itself:

Someone said it would before it did

Almost a year after the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, newspaper headlines announced that President Roosevelt had been prewarned of the attack complete with the date it should be expected. Those who opposed his leadership accused him of doing nothing which could have prevented the attack. As a result, America lost 2,300 servicemen and women. The accusations remain to this day.

The space shuttle Challenger exploded on take-off from the Kennedy Space Center in 1986. After the disaster, which killed seven astronauts, "experts" stepped forward and Pfeifauf announced that they had warned of problems with "O-Rings" long before the flight, in fact, a year in advance, and had their concerns been addressed, the accident would have never occurred. Next we have the attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon on Sept. 11, 2001. Again, after the attack, it was reported that "persons in the know" had warned the administration and military that such an attack should be expected. Again, they complain their warnings were not heeded, and America suffered another disaster, this time killing over 3,000 people.

The most recent is the explosion of the space ship Columbia, during entry into the earth's atmosphere last Saturday. "Experts" are now saying, first of all, that they warned the tiles could break off and cause over-heating. The first report says this was predicted back in 1994. Then, tests conducted at Huntsville, Alabama in 1999 warned NASA that insulation could rip off on take-off and possibly strike an integral part of the ship causing serious problems. The initial warnings brought about a complete reevaluation, and the Huntsville tests were taken seriously to the point where the heat tiles were checked over and over again before

We've had a number of launches since then, and nothing has gone wrong. Now that disaster has again struck killing seven more astronauts, they are claiming that they had predicted such a thing would happen.

There have also been people who warned that our space ships could be struck by an asteroid or space debris. This has not happened, but if and when it does, no doubt they will jump up and down saying "We told you about this years ago, and you did nothing."

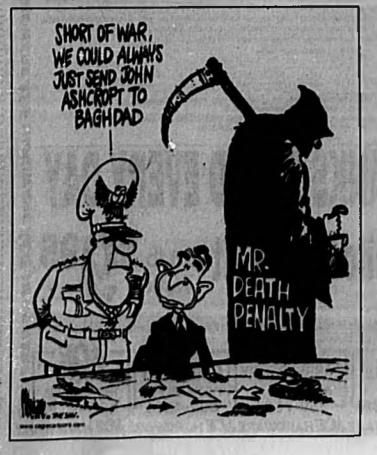

While it is a very weak comparison, I could look at the new set of tires on a new car and predict that someday in the future, one of them will blow out. If someone is killed because of a wreck, would this make my prediction come true?

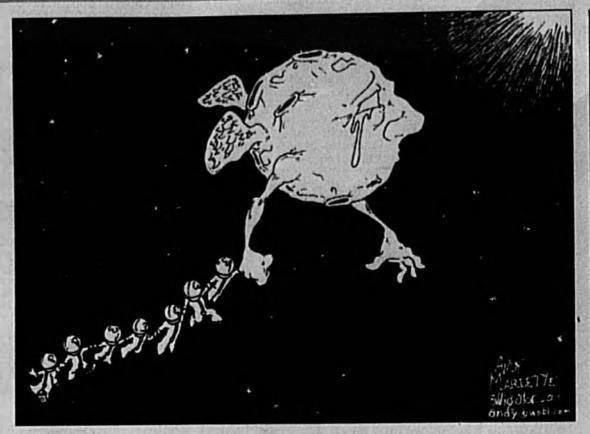

I discussed this with an associate and she eluded it was a form of "Monday morning quarterbacking." She said that no matter what the disaster, someone will always step forward and say they knew about it in advance, but no one listened.

Certainly, it is my sincere hope that the problem which caused the disaster on the space ship Columbia, be identified, and steps taken to insure (as much as possible) that it never happens again.

I firmly believe this will happen.

But these space ships are built by human beings, and no one is completely free of error. All we can do is try our best in everything we do and everything we create, to provide the best possible situations, and exercise the utmost safety precautions to prevent the loss of lives or injuries.

Your View

Simple test may help residents make up mind

To the editor:

Here's a simple test to help the people of Sanford decide how to vote this March:

1. When you see things in Sanford you don't like, do you a. Blame the mayor b. Blame the City Manager

2. When you complain do you

a. The mayor's office
b. The City Manager's office
If you answered "a" to either of these questions, you want a mayoral form of government.

Responsibility without authority is figurative.

Rob Crews Lake Mary

Frye believes strong mayor the best option

To the editor: On Jan. 2, the City of Sanford sent a letter to the citizens of Sanford informing them that on Dec. 23, the Sanford City Commission approved a measure, which will allow Sanford voters to decide whether to change their current form of government. Below is the language that will appear on the ballot: The City Charter provides for the non-elected City Manger to act as the professional Administrative head of City Government. The proposed amendment would move the powers and duties of the nonelected City Manger to the elected Mayor as a member of the City Commission. The City's adminis-trative functions would be vested in the elected Mayor. The City Manager would be eliminated.

In this current form of government the Mayor is an elected person who essentially is a City Commission member who presides over City Commission meetings. He has no administrative authority on the day-to-day operations of the city. In fact, the City of Sanford has a City Manager whose name most people do not know. Did you know, that the City Manager resigned and left without an administrative head in place? Presently we have an interim City Manager.

As a citizen of the United States and a resident of Sanford who votes in every election, I believe it would benefit Sanford to have a system in which the mayor is the Chief Administrative Officer. As a resident I look for a mayor to provide leadership, accountability and vision. In a system where the mayor is the Chief Administrative Officer he/she is accountable to me, the citizen. If I think the mayor has done a good job for the city, I would not hesitate to reelect him/her in the next election. We do not have that option with the present form of government because the City Manager is appointed by the City Coramission and is accountable. only to the Commission.

As Sanford's future grows, would you like a mayor who will address all concerns of the city, be instrumental in bringing jobs and new industries to the area, has a plan for addressing crime, economic development, the Riverwalk project and other regional issues

I want a definitive leader who can move city government and whose vision grows, along with the city's. Remember a mayor vision should be the vision of the people. On March 4, 2003, go and vote on your future governmental system and ask yourself, do I want leadership, accountability and vision or do I want what I have now?

Derek Frye

Raborn wants people to vote against changes

To the editor: Sanford's Mayor and a majority of the City Commissioners have proposed a change in the City Charter suggesting that the form of city government be changed from "City Manager" form to "Strong Mayor" form.

This commission majority led by the Mayor is to be commended for voting to submit this change to the voters for their consideration; a change in the City Charter requires voter approval.

However, the voters have not had much time to consider this proposal and many voters will not go to the polls on March 4 to make their preference known.

By changing Sanford's government from "City Manager" to "Strong Mayor," there are many situations which need to be considered. First and foremost a city manager is an educated and highly trained person who is experi-enced in guiding the day-to-day operations of a city. He or she is an employee of the city and hired by the commission to do this specific job and is free from the politics which could be involved in a "Strong Mayor" form of government. If the city manager is incompetent of failing to do the job properly as perceived by the commission, then he or she is dismissed.

In a "Strong Mayor" type of government, the voters would elect the mayor and the mayor would run the city. Never mind what if any qualifications or train-ing he or she may have. The newly elected mayor, full of good intentions, could cause much disharmony among city employfrom office by complicated legal

As proposed, and "Administrative Assistant" would be hired to aid the new mayor, a new level of expensive, unnecessary government. Also proposed would be a much higher pay scale for the mayor (He has suggested $75,000) and commissioner as well as the newly created position of Administrative assistant. All of which could cost us, the taxpayers, upwards of several hundred thousands of dollars each year. This money could be better spent repairing our deteriorating streets, replacing crumbling sewers and installing desperately needed downtown street lights.

Orlando, which has a Strong Mayor form of government, has recently learned of a multi-million dollar budget deficit which the mayor had known about for several months and failed to inform he Orlando City Council or the public. This is just one of the possible problems with a "Strong Mayor" form of government.

Be sure to vote on March 4 and vote against the charter changes. The city will continue to function more efficiently with the present "City Manager" form of govern-

Clouds set the stage for what became sad day

To the editors

Webster defines "OMEN" as an event or phenomenon believed to be a sign or warriing of a future occurrence.

On the morning of Columbia's tragic loss, a strange thing occurred that cast a cloud over all that awaited the anxiously anticipated homecoming, something that could have been an "omen".

We were gathered at the Kennedy Space Center Shuttle Landing Facility a few minutes before 9 a.m. EST, when a weather front consisting of low fast moving grey clouds sud-Northwest. Clear and sunny conditions prevailed prior to this appearance. The clouds rapidly enshrouded the Landing Facility, and hid the sun. As Columbia broke up in flight over Texas, these clouds were present. Strangely, only a few min-utes after the scheduled land-ing time passed, so did the clouds and again a bright sun and clear skies came to be. Omen or not, it set the stage for a very sad day in America and around the world.

In an effort to add to the Automotive Technology Center's growing reputation, the Central Florida Auto Dealers Association has raised more than $2 million to fund construction of a new facility.

"SCC recently received a $2.5 million check from the Central Florida Auto Dealers Association and their members," McGee said.

We are hoping for an additional $2.5 million match from the state." According to McGee, however, both the new campus and automotive center are in jeopardy of never seeing completion.

"Currently we have the funding to begin the construction on these projects, but without operations dollars how will we be able to run them," she explained. "This year SCC is serving 25 percent more students than we are funded for by the state, nearly 9,000 students.

According to the Governor's pro-posed budget, next year that will increase to 13,000."

McGee told the chamber of commerce audience that support from the business community is key to the college's future.

Fund Florida's future, keep the promise for tomorrow, help us continue building toward the future of Seminole County and our state," McGee said

"For a few weeks, we had the place for sale," Bob said. "I had no energy and there were days I couldn't even get out of bed."

Iron pills helped Bob change his mind about selling the business. After a few days of taking the medication, his energy slowly increased. Bob and Connie decided to keep the Shipwreck Café and started planning for its re-opening.

"We decided we were just going to enjoy the business," Bob said. "We tried to think of what we would do if we didn't have it, and we couldn't come up with an answer."

So, the Shipwreck Café, located at 307 E. 1st St., put out the open sign Monday morning and once again began serving their famous chill and slaw dogs. With only a few menu changes, it didn't take long for old customers to return to the restaurant.

"When we were closed, we had people call and tell us they missed those chili dogs," Bob sald. "They kept on asking when we were going to open again. When we finally opened, everybody seemed thrilled to death."

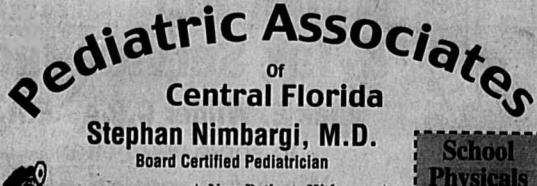

Bob and Connie said they don't mind having to start from scratch again. Their regular customers have come back, and they are already thinking about how to expand their menu.

We are glad to be back," Bob said. "I'm just thrilled to be doing something. And, it's something I love doing.

Seminole sheriff's office bowling team strikes out some old records during 2002

By Chris Bernhardt Herald Intern

No one would blame the Seminole County sheriff's office bowling team if they were sad to see 2002 come to an end.

Bowling in four different tournaments and in various combinations, the team brought home several medals as well as set some Impressive records.

"I guess the chemistry is just there," Richard Poretti, one of the founding team members, said. "When someone is down, someone else picks them up.

Last June the team of Poretti, Jay Norris, Lou Mattox and Sgt. Dwayne Johnson went to Tampa for the Florida Law Games. The four members of the Seminole County Sheriff's Department, all of whom average somewhere between 195 and 220, teamed up and competed in the "A" division of the tournament. They shot 4065 as a team over five games and took home the gold medals. Five years earlier at this same tournament the Seminole team, carrying a lower team average with Chuck Pillow in place of Johnson, competed in the "B" division yet still managed to shoot a then tournament record 4,200. Since then some "A" division teams have surpassed the total, though it still looks plenty impressive considering they came in low.

"Nobody has beat our record from the B division," Poretti said.
"I doubt it will ever be beat."

Also that year during the doubles competition, Poretti and Mattox became the first duo to break 2,300 when they shot 2,301. bers who average around 220, During that series Mattrix rolled a

"After 30 years of bowling, it was the first one that I had," Mattox said.

In August of last year corrections officers George Ayala and Anthony Paster joined Poretti and Norris in Ottawa, Canada for International Enforcement Games. That team scores established new tournashot 3,607 to garner a silver medal. Norris and Poretti got silver medals for their 1,943 effort in doubles and Norris got the gold medal with a 1,068 series in singles. Like the Florida Law Games and all other tournaments the covered five games. The original team, with Mattox and Johnson, reformed in October for the National Police and Fire Games in Clearwater. Again they achieved great success, winning the gold medal in the team event with a 4,102 series, over 300 pins more then the second place finisher and the highest

The landem of Norris and Johnson got a gold medal for doubles by shooting 2,116, the second highest doubles score in the event's history. Meanwhile Mattox and Poretti shot 1,956 to win the bronze. Norris also got a silver medal for all events, rolling 3,121 over the tournament's 15 games. That's the third highest all-event series ever in the tourna-

Finally, on a whim, Mattox, 53, and Norris, 60, decided to compete in November's Golden Age Games. Both former PBA memEndangered clouded leopard born at Central Florida Zoological Park

From Staff Reports

During Sunday, Feb. 2, a male clouded leopard was born at the Central Florida Zoo at 3:29 p.m.

Weighing 248 grams at birth, the size of a newborn house cat, this cub is expected to weigh 50 pounds by the time he is fullgrown. The 10-year-old mother has had 11 cubs at the zoo.

There is a science behind animal breeding. The Central Florida Zoo participates in the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Species Survival Plan (SSP) for endangered clouded leopards. Through these breeding programs, the zoo has helped diversify the clouded leopard gene pool in U.S. zoos with offspring representing 10 percent of the population.

There is a total captive popula-tion of 122 individuals in these facilities. Wild population figures are unknown due to the difficulty in studying this elusive, arboreal

The Central Florida Zoo is one of only two facilities in the SSP program successfully breading these medium-size cats. They are difficult to breed because of behavioral problems such as being nervous and high-strung as well as the males' lendency to injure or kill females and their offspring. The zoo's 10-year-old father is considered a founder animal. His genes represent a new blood line, which is important in the captive clouded leopard population.

Most cats are born at night, nevertheless, this daytime birth presented the opportunity for keeper staff to observe the entire birthing process and document this rare sight. It became much more significant as feline keepers witnessed a breech birth in which the feet travel first down the birth canal instead of the head.

Bonnie Breitbel, zoo curator and member of the clouded leopard SSP Management Group, said, "We have gained a new insight into the birthing process and can't wait to share this information with other zoos attempting to breed clouded leopards in order to increase our captive pop-

Native to India, China and other Southeast Asian Pacific countries, the clouded leopard lives in forests. Known to Malaysians as the "tree tiger," these felines are built for climbing with thick, long tails for balance and short legs for stability. The name "clouded" comes from the distinctive shape of their spots. Due to loss of habitat and hunting for their striking pelt, teeth, and bones for the traditional Asian medicinal trade, the clouded leopard is listed as an endangered

The Way We Were: Early Sanford government

With the Citizens of Sanford recently will be of interest.

A 1926 booklet published by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce gives a great deal of information about the city at that time. There is a Municipal Government section and I will quote the relevant part.

"The business of the city of Sanford is administered by a commission-manager form of government nates polities, and as a result taxpayers receive greater value for their tax dollar than in most communities where professional politicians are charged with the management of city affairs.

"The members of the city commission, as well as the members of the city planning and zoning commissions, serve without any recompense what-

I then turned to Peter Schaal's book "Sanford As I Knew It" and found that he claimed the most significant change in Sanford's government was to the commission-city manager form of government.

On October 7, 1919, voters went to the polls and replaced the City Council with a three man commission form of government. The vote was 125-70.

The three commissioners elected were C.E. Henry, H.R. Stevens and S.O. Chase Sr. When they met for the first time on January 6, 1920, they choose Mr. Stevens as mayor. A few days later they named G.A. Abbott as the first city manager.

During the fall of 1919, the old City Council had named Mr. Chase as chairman of a Charter Commission which recommended a new charter and the commission form of government on September 26. Attorney Schelle Maines prepared the charter.

The charter commission was composed F.W. Mahoney, C.E. Henry, C.H. Smith, D.C. Marlowe, Arthur Yowell and H.C. Dubose.

Sanford became Florida's second city with the commission form of government; St. Augustine being the first.

The Chamber of Commerce article on the municipal government continues as follows:

"The city planning and zon-ing commission of Sanford authorized at the June 1923 session of the Legislature, and with this legislation, Sanford secured the distinction of being the first city in the State to receive necessary legislative permission which assures the community of being developed along well defined lines.

"Sanford was also the first Florida city to receive legislative authority to appoint a civic beautification commission to supervise the systematic planting of shrubbery and other orna-mentals in the beautification of the streets, avenues and parks of Sanford. The cost of this work is defrayed by nominal tax.

"The city of Sanford owns and operates a dock, and boat basin, library, athletic field and cemetery. Both the waterworks and gas plants are also owned and operated by the city. "The city has during the last two years been working on a very pretentious paving project, which when completed, will cause all streets within the city limits and in the new developments to be asphalt paved. To date Sanford had 8.1 miles of brick pavement and 31.3 miles of asphalt pavement.

"There are now under con- on the bulkhead, new sidewalks soon to vote on a possible struction and completed during and the paving of Park Avenue change of government, the fol-the ensuing year 15 miles of lowing information found street paving. In addition to this work the city proposes to bulkhead for a distance of seven miles along the lakefront. Of this work one mile is already completed and six miles are friends to ride in the sidecar of under construction. There are at present 15 miles of sidewalk in drive along the newly constructbeing constructed. The total miles of water mains laid as of December 1, 1925 was 30.2 with an additional 10 miles under construction and proposed. As which of the same date, 10.3 of gas mains are already laid and an adopted additional 5 miles provided for.

"Sanford has sufficient police, fire and street cleaning departments, the two latter possessing modern motorized equipment."

Since the bulkhead was mentioned above and are in the ment process of shoring up the bulkhead in the River Walk project, I turned to Peter Schaal again for further information in this.

> In late May 1913, the Sanford City Council authorized the construction of the city's first bulkhead from Sanford Avenue to Myrtle Avenue. The Council members were T.J. Miller, E.L. Woodruff, C.C. Woodruff, S. Runge, B.W. Herndon and W.H. Underwood.

On August 22, the $50,000 bond issue was passed by a 32-14 vote of the city's free holders. This was to be used for a start from 10th Street to Hughey Avenue in Sanford Heights. (1 believe Hughey Avenue was later renamed 20th Street.) Mr. Schaal later related that Collie Biggers would invite his motorcycle and would then Sanford and 8.5 miles now ed bulkhead (before sand was filled in behind it) while his passengers screamed with fright. He would tool along about 50 miles an hour with the sidecar suspended 10 feet up over the

On May 12, 1914, the first dredging of the fill for the present lakefront area was begun.

The only other mention of the bulkhead in this book was the fact that on March 6, 1916 there was a fire which burned the big dredge "Clovis" on the water's edge. This delayed the lakefront filling for weeks. The next day, the body of one of the employees was found floating along side the charred remains of the dredge.

Initial M-FC win for SCC women

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

SANFORD — It was a long time in coming, but the Seminole Community College women's basketball team is finally in the win column in the Mid-Florida

The two-time defending M-FC champions have been struggling, but they came up big on the road last Saturday night, routing homestanding Santa Pe Community College, 78-58, in Gainesville.

The Raiders took a 34-22 halftime lead behind an 11point effort from freshman forward Rosanna Davis.

SCC was even better in the second half as Davis added 11 more points to fidish with 22 and six different players scored as the visitors put up 44 points over the final 20 minutes.

In addition to Davis, Ditte Jakobsen (12), A'Kisheon McCollum and Yamii Cordero (11 each) and Natalie Emmanuelli (10) also cored in double figures.

scored in double figures.

Things did not go nearly as well in a pair of home games, however, as prior to going to Santa Fe the Raiders built a big early lead and were ahead 30-26 at halftime before falling completely apart in the second half as Florida Community College at lacksonville. College at Jacksonville going away, 72-62.

LaTasha Johnson topped SCC with 15 points, while Jakobsen added 13 and Emmanuelli 12.

The Raiders then hosted No. 5 nationally-ranked, and conference unbeaten, Daytona Beach Community College on Wednesday and the visitors started quickly, busting out to a 32-19 half-

That score is a little deceiving, however, as the Raiders actually got as close as 17-15 and were shooting free throws for the tie before the Falcons closed the half with a 15-4 run.

SCC began to eat into the lead in the second half and closed to within four points with a chance to get closer when missed free throws were followed by back-toback three-pointers that put the game out of reach and

DBCC survived, 66-56. Noelie Griffin, who spent two years on the sidelines at SCC, and former Leesburg High star Jasmine Patterson led the Falcons (25-1, 5-0) with 15 points each. See Women, Page 17

Raiders reign on Houston's heaves

Lyman grads big night ends SCC losing_streak

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

SANFORD - It was raining 'threes' at Seminole Community College Wednesday night and the Raiders' Josh Houston provided the biggest outburst.

The sophomore guard from Lyman High School scored 15 of SCC's first 19 points of the second half, all coming on five three-point shots, to help the Raiders hold off a serious challenge from Daytona Beach Conference game at the SCC Health and Physical Education Center.

The Raiders improved to 18-8 overall, but more importantly broke a three-game conference losing streak to get back to .500 (3-3) and keep their title hopes alive.

SCC will be at home again tonight (Saturday) to host St. John's River Community College and Seminole High School graduate Marcus Robinson in a men's only M-FC game starting at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.

Both team's started the game slowly, but three-pointers by Houston and J.D. Bracy allowed the Raiders to build an 8-0 lead before the Falcons finally got on the board at the 15:45 mark, over four minutes into

SCC eventually led 20-8 before DBCC finally got untracked and made a game of it just before halftime as Reinaldo Jean-Community College, 85-80, in a Mid-Florida five 'three's' to make it a two-point game, Charles and Wade Dunston combined for 42-40, at intermission.

The Raiders got 15 first half points from Bracy, but their three tallest players, Kitus Witherspoon, Daniel Jackson and Terrell Morris, all went to the bench with two fouls and combined for only six points.

Houston, the son of former SCC star Ken Alkins and younger brother of Detroit Piston standout Chucky Atkins, gave fans a glimpse of what was to come when he opened the second half with a three-pointer.

After a Daniel Jackson layup, however, the Falcons went on a 6-0 run to take their first lead of the game, 48-47.

Houston then took matters into his own hands as he buried three straight threepointers to put the Raiders back on top to stay and after a Witherspoon layup, his first score against DBCC in two games, the sharpshooter knocked in his fifth 'three' of the half.

He actually hit a sixth trey on the next See Men, Page 18

Winter Springs' star senior guard continued his amazing play over the past couple of weeks, hitting eight three-pointers and scoring 28 points as the Bears railled for a 75-72 upset of the Lions Wednesday night. Winter Springs (12-10) was down 15 points (41-26) at half-time and Oviedo (21-4), SANFORD - The Seminole Community College baseball is out to prove quickly that last season was no fluke.

The Raiders, coming off a season in which they went to the State Tournament for the first time in numerous years, are off to the their best start in years winning their first three games before falling to powerful St. Petersburg College, 6-3, in 12 innings on Wednesday.

Facility and family aid in recruiting for UCF

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO - UCF found out firsthand Wednesday that membership has its privileges. The end result was a strong recruiting class with 26 signees as UCF's association with the Mid-American Conference along with the new Wayne Densch Sports Center under construction combined to make UCF more attractive to recruits.

"We believe it's a very strong class," said UCF Recruiting Coordinator Scott Fountain. "I think we have some real impact receivers and I believe we've signed four or five of the best defensive backs we've signed here in a long time."

UCF signed 21 high school players and five junior college players. Some will red-shirt and some will be looked to for an immediate contribution.

"This class is a little bit different than last year's," UCF coach Mike Kruczek said. "It is made up of more skilled people. Last year was a lot of big people; a lot of interior peo-ple. This is a skilled class."

UCF had a lot of success locally with the signing of 10 players from the Central Florida area.

"We've always looked to do that," Kruczek said. "An objective of ours has been to sign as many of the of the best football players in Central Florida that we can. Those players have established their legacy here and would like to continue it at the next level at our place."

A big impact on recruiting was conference affiliation. Prior to 2002 UCF had competed as an independent since its inaugural season in 1979. The chance to compete for a conference championship and bowl appearances, along with the MAC's television package with ESPN also added to UCF's

"Now that we're in the MAC we can talk about bowls and talk about championships and that makes a difference," Fountain said. "That's something we've never been able to talk about before. It's really been a huge, difference for us."

"I think our success over the last six or seven years at I-A has a lot to do with the opinion that some of these young guys have," Kruczek added. "The respect and reputation that has been built over the last seven years is probably the biggest reason why this class is going to be one of the more prolific classes that we have signed."

UCF WOMEN FALL SHORT IN

LOSS TO GEORGIA STATE Evita Rogers scored a game-high 18 points and grabbed eight rebounds as Georgia State University sneaked past UCF, 52-50, in Atlantic Sun women's basketball action on Thursday night at UCF Arena.

The lead exchanged hands seven times in the waning minutes of the game. With 3:42 remaining, Monica Thomas hit a threepointer to put Georgia State up 47-46. From there, two players names echoed through UCF Arena as Golden Knight senior Erin Paige and Rogers went back and forth scoring baskets.

With 6.7 second left and the score 51-50 in favor of GSU, freshman LaShay King sank a jumper, but the play was ruled an offensive foul. A subsequent foul by UCF sent Miller to the free throw line, where she sank one of two opportunities to seal the win.

In the first half, UCF (10-9, 6-2 A-Sun) went up 10-6 at the 15:48 mark before the Lady Panthers, scored 20 unanswered points - including 10 by guard Angelina Miller. GSU (10-9, 5-3 A-Sun) shutdown the Golden Knights' offense for Just over nine minutes. At 9:10, Paige hit a layup to put UCF back on the board at 26-12, but the Lady Panthers kept attacking and went up by 17 points on a layup by Yvette Tisdale with 2:24 remaining to play. UCF finished the half on a 5-2 run and Georgia State took a 34-20 lead to the locker room.

GSU boasted a decisive advantage from the field, outshooting UCF 51.7% to 32%, while the visitors also owned the advantage on the boards, 20-11.

The Golden Knights opened up the second half on a 5-0 run to cut the Georgia State lead to 34-25. The Lady Panthers didn't allow UCF back into the game easily as they stayed up by nine points until a put-back by Paige at 10:22 sparked another run and kept GSU off the scoreboard for over eight minutes. At 9:41, Lyman freshman Celeste Hudson hit a three-pointer to bring UCF within two (42-40). A jumper by senior Kristy Colligan at 7:15 knotted the score at 42 alf.

Paige was the only Golden Knight in double figures with 13, but Hudson and Colligan each had eight. Sophomore Takira Allen led all UCF players with eight rebounds.

The Golden Knights host Jacksonville State University Today (Saturday) at UCF Arena. Tipoff is set for 3 p.m. UCF MEN USE OFFENSIVE OUTBURST

TO PUT AWAY CAMPBELL BUIES CREEK, N.C. -- Ed Dotson came up two points shy of tying a career high with 20 points and was one of five UCF (16-7, 8-2) players to score in double figures as the Golden Knights soundly defeated

Campbell (4-16, 1-9) 98-69 at Carter Gym on Tuesday evening.

UCF had each player on its roster score at least four points en route to recording a season high 98 points. The Knights also canned a season high 14 three-point baskets and doled out a school record 32 assists, led by Ray Abellard's career high 10. The 14 trifectas is just one shy of a UCF single-game

The Knights shot 66 percent in the second half and used a 13-2 run following the intermission, which included a three-pointer from Abellard and six points from Dotson, to grab a 25-point lead. UCF posted its largest lead of the game, 83-51, after Will Bakanowsky drilled his third triple of the game with 5:03 left to play.

The start of the first half saw Campbell take an early 3-2 lead following a bucket by Tarick Johnson. The Knights then went on a 10-0 run highlighted by back-to-back triples from Abellard and Troy Lindbeck. The run was capped off with a short jumper from Roberto Morentin.

Dotson contributed to the UCF offense early scoring six of the Knights first 16 points, which included a dunk to push the lead to 16-8 in the early going.

Campbell kept within striking distance as Brooks Lee and Sanford's Robby Dupre each hit triples (Dupre's only score of the night) on consecutive possessions to cut the Camels deficit to 20-18. The UCF defense stifled the Campbell offense going on an 11-2 run, to grab a double-digit lead at 31-20. The Camels would only close the gap to as close as nine for the remainder of the game.

Dotson finished the first half with 14 floor. UCF extended its lead by outscoring the Camels 21-9 over the final 10 minutes of the first half to close out the first stanza with a 41-27 lead at the break.

UCF was led by Dotson's 20, while Morentin and Abellard each added 12. Bakanowsky and Marcus McGee rounded out the double-digit scorers with 11 and 10 points respectively.

The Knights will return to Orlando for a game today (Saturday) at UCF Arena against the newest member of the A-Sun Gardner-Webb. Tip off for the game is set for 7:30 p.m. and can be heard on AM 740 The Team. Marc Daniels, who will handle the play-by-play, will begin pre-game cover-

In game one, the Hatters jumped ahead of Webber 1-0 in the first inning with an RBI single by junior Lacey Prince (Naples) that sent home senior Emily Harris (Decatur, Ga.), who had reached on a double. Webber then took over in the bottom of the third when the clean-up batter got on from an error at first base that allowed two runs to cross the plate.

Stetson regained the lead in the top of the fifth with a Melissa Wiggins (Temple Terrace, Fla.) two-run homer. In the bottom of the sixth inning, Webber used a two-RBI single to top the Hatters, 4-3.

Stetson picked up the win in the second game when Wiggins blasted a two-out, three-run home run to centerfield to put the Hatters ahead, 3-0, in the top of the seventh inning, while Webber was unable to get on the board. Former Seminole Community College star Blake Hoorelbeke was the winning pitcher, throwing four shutout innings in relief.

On Tuesday, Plarris started the first game with a lead-off home run to put the Hatters on top in the first inning. Senior Holly Burris (Germantown, Tenn.) then opened the top of the fourth with a solo home run to put Stetson ahead, 2-0. Angie Equillor, a freshman from Miami, had an RBI-single to right field three batters later that sent home Junior Alison Parker, from Oviedo, from third. The Hatters then took a 4-0 lead with a Lady Wildcat error that allowed freshman Carrie Cruit (Orlando) to cross the plate from third base. Stetson added its final run in the top of the seventh when Harris came home off a Prince triple to center field.

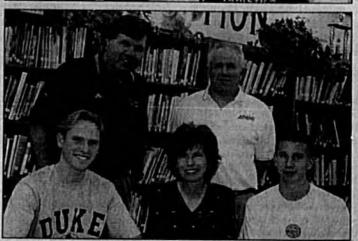

In the second game, Crult and Equilior had RBI singles in the second inning to put the Hatters up 2-0. Stetson scored again in the following inning when Prince blasted a two-run homer to left field after freshman Laura Whalen (West Palm Beach) walked. Bethune-Cookman answered in the bottom of the inning, notching two runs off a stolen base and a throwing error by the Hatter pitcher. Stetson put its last two runs of the contest on the board in the top of the sixth, when Equilior had an RBI single and Harris posted an RBI double. In the bottom of the seventh, the Lady Wildcats managed just one more run from a ground out RBI to shortstop.

Hoorelbeke earned the win on the mound in the first game to improve to 2-0 on the season, tossing a one-hitter for the shutout and striking out five Bethune-Cookman bat-

Juan Kusnir, who scored one of the other goals, had three assists for Trinity Prep.

The second game was a nailbiter the whole way with No. 2 seed and host Lake Highland Prep holding off No. 3 Orangewood Christian, 1-0, on a second half goal from Chris Komanski.

That put the Saints and Highlanders in Friday's 7 p.m.

The girls' results from Lake Highland on Tuesday were just the opposite as the host Highlanders blanked Trinity Prep and top-seeded Orangewood clobbered First Academy.

The Saints held Lake Highland scoreless in the first half, but it was all the hosts in the final 45-minutes as the Highlanders won, 4-0. The Rams (11-5-2) had three different girls score two goals each and Orangewood took a 6-0 lead into halftime as it routed First Academy, 8-0. The Rams (11-5-2) and

Houston out of the game. The game then settled into a scoring battle between Witherspoon and DBCC's Bradley Mosley and Alvin Gunter and while the Falcons never led again, they did get as close as one point, 71-70, before Bracy hit a crucial three-pointer to raise the cushion back to four points. SCC actually pushed the lead back to 10 with two minutes to play, but missed several free throws, including four straight in the final 20 seconds, to allow DBCC a chance to get close.

Bracy finished with 23 points, while Houston added 18, Daniel Jackson and Lynn Bright 10 each, Jamaal George nine and Witherspoon eight. Mosley and Jean-Charles netted 16 points each for the Falcons.

Bad starts in the two previous games had cost the Raiders important conference games.

SCC trailed Florida Community College at Jacksonville, 53-31, at halftime before getting as close as seven points late in the game before falling, 90-72. Witherspoon led the way with 18 points and 13 rebounds, while Daniel Jackson scored 13 and added 15 rebounds and Rushawn Johnson scored 10 points.

The Raiders then traveled to Gainesville to take on nationally-ranked and conference leading Santa Fe Community College and again struggled in the first half, trailing 40-25. Bracy, who scored 19 points, keyed a big rally in the second half, but it came up short as the Saints prevailed, 70-64.

TOURNAMENT TIME FOR GIRLS HOOPS

After a super regular season the girls basketball teams will get together this week to decide who is for real and who are the pretenders.

The Class 6A-District 2 Tournament opens with one game on Wednesday at Ovledo High School.

The opening game has DeLand, the fifth seed, meeting fourth-seeded Lake Brantley at 7 p.m. The Patriots are a team that could surprise as they are having an outstanding season and have been playing better as the season has progressed.

The semifinals come up on Friday and the first game features a very interesting matchup as No. 2 seeded Lake Mary plays No. 3 Seminole at 6 p.m. The Rams, despite being ranked No. 1 in the state in Class 6A, are the second seed because they were upset by the Fighting Seminoles the last time the two rivals met.

The late game has the No. 1 seeded Lions, ranked No. 4 in the state this week, taking on the Lake Brantley-DeLand winner at 7:30 p.m.

Friday's winners will return for the Championship Game on Saturday at 7:30 p.m.
