WAR BETWEEN ITALY AND GREECE IN SIGHT

KU KLUX KLAN CONFLICTING WITH IDEAS OF FOREIGNERS HAVE BATTLE IN NEW JERSEY

150 KLANSMEN ARE BE- SIEGED BY ODD FEL- LOWS HALL

BY A BIG MOB

Who Are Not Afraid of Police or Firemen and Many Are Injured

(By The Associated Press) PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Aug. 31.—Battling between Klansmen and mobs were resumed in the streets this morning as members of the order tried to escape from the Odd Fellows hall where they had sought refuge from an attack on the Klan meeting last night, in which more than 1,000 persons are reported to have been injured. The mob last night stormed the meeting, broke police lines and firemen and beat the klansmen.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Aug. 31.—One hundred and fifty members of the Ku Klux Klan were besieged in Odd Fellows hall early yesterday morning, surrounded by a crowd of more than 5,000 persons who broke up a meeting of 500 klansmen, despite a desperate resistance of 75 patrolmen, 150 firemen, and a large force of state troopers.

Both were klansmen. One, wearing a white robe, was beaten unconscious when he attempted to leave the hall early today. He was beaten with clubs and his attackers were about to throw him into a sewer manhole when a patrolman pleaded with the mob and persuaded them to stop.

The other klansman was badly beaten when a mob overturned an automobile in which he was trying to escape. The full extent of their injuries was not known and it was said many others may have been badly hurt.

Thousands of automobiles choked the roads leading into Perth Amboy, citizens from all parts of the state were arriving and police feared another outbreak as a result of a Klan threat that they "would return 10,000 strong."

At 2 o'clock this morning the mob about the hall was even larger than when the battle started last night. A constant rumble of voices was heard in the streets and this occasionally grew into a roar when a klansman appeared at a door or window. The mob continued to throw sticks and stones.

Patrolmen fired shots into the air, threw gas bombs, and swung their night sticks, while the firemen turned streams of water on the fighting throng.

The leaders of the mob were knocked down by patrolmen when they first started to advance toward the hall, but after they had been carried away another attack was started. This time stones were thrown and all windows in Odd Fellows hall, as well as many others in nearby buildings, were broken.

Police Chief Tenneson then ordered his men to throw tear gas bombs, and 13 of these, the town's entire supply, were exploded. The crowd fell back, but advanced again, hurling more stones. It was then that a riot call was sounded and 150 firemen dashed to the scene.

PERTH AMBOY, Aug. 31.—A hundred men with clubs and stones attacked thirty klansmen who dashed from the hall this morning. The klansmen were severely beaten before they escaped pursuers. Several klansmen were treated at hospitals later and sent to their homes. Police said majority of klansmen who assembled for meeting were from New Jersey cities and towns. A group of 25 who refused to try driving cars home after being shattered by police several hours returned by train. The city returned to normal during the forenoon and no further trouble anticipated.

LINE TO EAST COAST SOUGHT BY SEABOARD

OKEECHOBEE, Aug. 21.—The Seaboard Air Line Railway company yesterday started survey of a right of way from Stuart to Okeechobee which will extend north-westward to the main line of that railroad immediately south of Bartow. The extension will connect with phosphate mines in the latter section for shipment to the east coast, thence north by boat.

Grading will start as soon as the survey is completed and work will be rushed to completion, it is said. Sites for a railroad station and freight house at Okeechobee already have been purchased. The improvement is said to involve an expenditure of $30,000,000.

The completion of the rail connection via Seaboard from the main line eastward via Okeechobee to Stuart on the Atlantic coast, will mark a new chapter in the development of south Florida, say the Tampa business men. The securing of rail service, and the completion of one or more cross state automobile roads in south Florida, are among the most sought after improvements of recent years.

In addition to facilities the development of the vast stretch of fertile territory which it will serve, the new Seaboard line will permit traffic to flow directly from east to west coast without the necessity for the unnecessary shipment to points further up the state for transfer. The institution of passenger service on the new line will add much to the convenience of travel for tourists as well as for home folks. By this route the visitor will be able to visit either the east or west coast, thence cross to the other side and return northward without "back-tracking" for the hundreds of miles now necessary.

Two Workmen Killed in Explosion of Still in Chemical Works

Blasts Rocked The Neighborhood and Caused Much Damage.

(By The Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—Two workmen were killed and others were injured when a large naphtha line still exploded in the dye and chemical works of the Barrett Company. The blasts rocked the neighborhood and the fire that followed the explosion destroyed the building which housed the still. The two were injured and may die.

Two Detectives Killed In Johnstown Riot in The Negro Quarters

Rioting Grew Out of a Quarrel Among Negroes

(By The Associated Press) JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 31.—Two detectives and a negro were shot to death and three policemen possibly fatally wounded early today while officers were answering a riot call to Rosedale, a negro quarter of the city. The rioting grew out of a quarrel among negroes. Fifteen negroes were arrested and quiet was restored. The white dead are James A. Jones and Joseph Abraham, detectives.

GREECE REFUSES TO PAY INDEMNITY OF FIFTY MILLION LIRE AND TO SALUTE THE ITALIAN FLAG

But Would Salute in Modified Form and Pay Indemnity to Relatives of the Slain Members of the Commission.

(By The Associated Press) ROME, Aug. 31.—The newspaper Messagero says it is reliably informed that Greece's refusal to pay an indemnity of 50,000,000 lire for the slaying of the Italian boundary commissioners and a request for a modification of the Italian demands regarding saluting the Italian flag is absolutely unsatisfactory. Greece's reply urges commutations to be continued and offers in a modified form to salute and pay an indemnity to relatives of the slain men and points out that the military are now running down the assassins. The Italian government warns the newspapers against publishing troop movements and threatening heavy penalties.

ATHENS, Aug. 31.—The Greek government has replied to the Italian ultimatum embodying demands for reparations for the massacre of the members of the Italian boundary mission at the Albanian frontier. Greece accepted four of Italy's demands, with modifications and rejections of three of them.

The commandant of the place where the murders were committed, it is specified, shall express the Greek government's sorrow to Signor Montagna, the Italian minister to Greece. A memorial service shall be held in the presence of the members of the Greek government. On the same day a detachment of the guard shall salute the Italian flag at the legation, and military forces at Trevesza shall render honors to the bodies of the victims while they are being transferred to an Italian warship.

The fourth, fifth and sixth demands are rejected on the grounds that they infringe the sovereignty and honor of Greece. The fourth demand provides for the severest inquiry by the Greek authorities at the scene of the massacre, at which the Italian military attaché will be present. The fifth demands capital punishment for all the guilty, while the sixth demand seeks an indemnity of fifty million Italian lire to be paid within five days from the presentation of the note.

The first demand covers apologies of the most sweeping and official nature, the second relates to funeral ceremonies; the third to honors to the Italian flag by Greek warships, and the seventh to military honors to the victims.

ROME, Aug. 31.—Naval Minister Admiral Di Revel returned hurriedly to Rome last night from Pola and conferred with Premier Mussolini.

A semi-official statement issued last night asserts that the government is resolved to obtain adequate reparations from Greece and that the Italian people may feel confident that everything it is possible to do will be done to uphold the national prestige.

ROME, Aug. 31.—The Italian government meeting in council found the Greek reply to its ultimatum to be unacceptable, according to news advices. Advices say certain decisions were reached by council meeting but nature not disclosed.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—English newspapers today exhibiting familiar signs and symptoms of rapidly rising European war fever due to Italian-Greek situation. Flaring headlines tell of Italian ultimatum and troop movements, and what's happening behind the curtain of diplomatic exchange unknown for familiar news censor is apparently already at his post. Few papers express sympathy for Italy, holding her demands designed to humiliate Greece rather than obtain justice.

GOOD ROADS BOOSTERS WILL GO TO GREEN COVE ON CLYDE LINE STEAMER

Mayor Proclains Thursday, Sept. 13th Good Roads Day

And Calls on All Citizens to Take Part In Rally

WHEREAS: State Road No. 3 known locally as "The St. Johns Scenic Highway" recognized as the most important arterial highway of Peninsular Florida, is rapidly nearing completion with the exception of a stretch in Clay County, and

WHEREAS: The citizenship of Green Cove Springs and Clay County desiring to secure the completion of this important highway in their county, have set Thursday, September 13th as "Good Roads Day" in that county, at which time they desire the assistance of Jacksonville, Palatka, Crescent City, DeLand, Sanford, Orlando, and other cities and villages along the route of this highway, in solving their problem and have issued invitations to participate, to the Civic and Commercial Bodies and the City Officials of these Cities, and

WHEREAS: The Civic and Commercial bodies and the City governments of these cities along the route of State Road No. 3 have accepted the invitation of the Clay County citizens to participate in this Good Roads Rally, realizing that millions of dollars expended in the good roads system of the Florida Peninsula are without value unless the road is completed through Clay county,

THEREFORE, I, Forrest Lake, by virtue of the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Sanford, do hereby declare, Thursday, September 13th, "Good Roads Day" and a holiday and do most earnestly urge Sanford citizens to attend the "Good Roads Rally" at Green Cove Springs on that date.

Executed under my hand and seal this 31st day of August A. D. 1923.

FORREST LAKE, Mayor.

President Coolidge Pressed the Key that Started the Horsemen

Westward on Revival of Old Pony Express Today

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Stepping from his office in the White House to the telegraph room of the executive offices President Coolidge at 11 o'clock pressed the key and the signal flashed to St. Joseph, Mo., starting off the first horseman westward toward San Francisco in revival of the old pony express.

SANFORD, ORLANDO AND OTHER CITIES WILL JOIN THE PARTY HERE

FORTY ARE NEEDED

In Order to Get Cheap Rate of Ten Dollars for the Round Trip

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting today the question of going to the good roads rally at Green Cove Springs on September 13th was brought up and it was definitely decided to go via the City of Jacksonville on the river instead of on the Atlantic Coast Line. If forty or more will decide to go via the Clyde Line the rate will be ten dollars for the round trip and the boat will leave Sanford Wednesday evening about five o'clock and arrive at Green Cove Springs the next morning and return leaving Green Cove Springs Thursday afternoon after the meeting and arrive at Sanford Friday morning giving those on the boat time to get to work early Friday morning and they will lose no time from their business. The train trip would take the entire day and they would not get back until late and would be unable to save much time by it. On the boat they will get their meals and have a berth and the river trip will be a most enjoyable one in every way. It will also give the Orlando and Sanford and DeLand contingents a chance to get together and talk over many things for the benefit of all these communities and give everyone that goes a fine outing. The Green Cove folks will give the visitors a big barbecue dinner and the entire trip will be inexpensive.

All those who wish to take the trip and the ladies are also invited to go if they can arrange it, should let Secretary Pearman know about it at once as you will be expected to pay for your ticket in case anything happens that you fail to go as so many tickets must be guaranteed to the Clyde Line to be able to charter the City of Jacksonville.

GEORGE ARLISS IN A NEW PHOTOPLAY AT THE MILANE THEATRE TONIGHT

"The Man Who Played God" is Adapted from a play by Jules Eckert Goodman founded on Gouverneur Morris's story of the same title as the picture. It was arranged for the screen by Forest Halsey. The work of direction is by Harmon Weight.

The story deals with a world-famous musician who suddenly becomes deaf. Embittered against the whole world he is a changed man within a few months, and is driving wife and friends from him by his despair and cynicism. To offset his deafness he has learned lip-reading and through this knowledge, and just as he has determined on suicide, he learns of another life tragedy greater even than his own. His mind taken from his own grievance against the world he begins the game of playing God. So engrossing does his work for the betterment of others become that in a short time he becomes his normal self. He believes his wife has come to love another and offers her freedom. Through a trivial accident he regains his hearing as suddenly as he lost it, and at the same time learns that he has misjudged his wife.

JULIUS MATTFIELD TO WED

The engagement has been announced of Julius Matfield, treasurer of the International Composers' Guild, assistant librarian of the music section of the New York Public Library and organist of the Fordham Lutheran church, to Margaret Krupp, soprano. Besides his work as librarian and organist, Mr. Matfield has done a considerable amount of composition and has published numerous articles on musical subjects in various periodicals. A ballet composed by him, entitled "The Virgins of the Sun," was played at the Greenwich Village Theatre for three months. The wedding will take place on September 4, and after a honeymoon of a month in the South, Mr. and Mrs. Matfield will make their home in New York.—Musical America.

Miss Krupp is the youngest sister of Ernest Krupp, of Sanford, who anticipates the pleasure of entertaining this interesting couple while here on their honeymoon.

COMPLIMENT TO MISS MURIEL

Complimenting Miss Beatrice Muriel, who is to be married September 15 to Edmund Snyder Wood, Mrs. Mary W. Howard entertained at auction bridge yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in her home, 1747 Myra street, Riverside.

A profusion of garden flowers were used in decorating, and marking the places were tallies done in summer girls.

Several interesting rubbers of auction were enjoyed, and at the conclusion the player holding top score was presented with a lovely silk vanity. Mrs. R. G. Muriel won second prize, a novelty vanity, while the honoree was presented with a dainty handmade handkerchief.

The tables were then laid with dainty covers, and an ice course, with individual cakes, was served. Mints and fruit punch were served during the game.

Mrs. Howard was assisted in serving by Mrs. Charles Segars.

The affair was informal, and was one of a series of parties being given in honor of Miss Muriel prior to her marriage.

Enjoying the affair were Miss Beatrice Muriel, Miss Hildegard Slaughter, Miss Sara Muriel, Miss Elsa Slaughter, Miss Eleanor Lytle, Miss Gertrude Muriel, Miss Gertrude Davies, Miss Rebecca Somers, Mrs. F. L. Blitch, Mrs. G. E. Muriel, Mrs. Ray Voght, Miss Estelle Vernaldi and others.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

SHOWER FOR MISS MILDRED LEE

Charming in every detail was the miscellaneous shower given last evening by Mrs. W. S. Thornton and her Sunday school class "The Dependables" at the home of Miss Marian Hand, honoring Miss Mildred Lee, one of the class members whose marriage to William B. Kirby takes place next Saturday at the Methodist church.

In the living room festoons of green and white were suspended from the four corners of the room to the chandelier.

Cut flowers, zinnias and roses in French baskets and crystal vases were used with pleasing effect.

While Miss Rosemond Radford sang "I Love You Truly," the honoree was escorted to her place of honor by Miss Marian Hand. Immediately following the shower was presented, Miss Julia Laing playing the Bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the dainty little Miss Ratliff entered drawing "Love's Express." Little Mary Wyatt Ratliff was dressed as a miniature bride in a beautiful hand embroidered frock with white satin ribbon and lace ruffles, her little veil was worn cap effect and held close to her head with strings of pearls. The express was unloaded and many and beautiful were the gifts of linen, China and cut glass and many little love gifts so dear to the heart of any girl. A splendid program was rendered during the evening. Miss Demarius Mussen and Miss Rosemond Radford gave several readings. Misses Julia Laing, Margaret Zachary and Julia Zachary gave piano selections. Leaflets with the name of the honoree printed down the left side, were passed to each guest who was asked to write a wish or give a bit of advice, each line beginning with the letter that spelled the name of the honoree; these were made into a booklet and presented to Miss Lee.

In a few well chosen words Miss Elizabeth Flowers, class president, presented the honoree a sterling silver olive spoon, a gift of love from the "Dependables."

Refreshments of pineapple ice, anacard food cake and mints were served, by the following young ladies: Marian Hand, Julia Laing, Elizabeth Mussen and Julia Zachary. Miss Lee was attired in a chic frock of black Spanish lace over Crepe Meteor.

The guests were: Miss Mildred Lee, Mrs. Fannie Lee, Mrs. Ratliff, Miss Annie Lee, Mrs. Bledsoe, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Chappel, Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. Babbitt, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Middleton, and Misses Ruth, Doris, Marian and Mildred Hand, Lillian Shinholser, Julia Laing, Margaret Zachary, Martha Brown, Helen Chorpeneing, Elizabeth Flowers, Demarius Mussen, Julia Zachary, Rosemond Radford, Gladys Adams, Martha Chappel, Allie Gillon, Grace Gillon and Clara Millen.

HILL HARDWARE CO. WINDOW FILLED WITH USEFUL GIFTS

A window of the Hill Hardware Co. is filled with useful and beautiful prizes to be given away at the big barbecue and baby parade at Lake Monroe next Monday—Labor Day. There are about fifty fine prizes from the dainty ones for the baby to the fine prizes for young and old. In fact there will be events in which the young and old will take part and everyone is entitled to a good time at the Big Barbecue at Lake Monroe.

There will be one continuous round of pleasure all day in one of the prettiest picnic grounds in the state. This will be the only big celebration of Labor Day in this part of the state and there will be thousands of people there from all over the state of Florida. Look at the Hill window and note the wonderful prizes.

GOOD ROADS COMMITTEE HAD EXCELLENT MEETING AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

ferred to a board made up of representatives from the various precincts for adoption or rejection, the final action being referred to the county commissioners.

Forest Lake urged that any contemplated program for road improvements be of sufficient magnitude to eliminate the necessity of frequent issue. He also favored the construction of first class roads of a medium width of sixteen feet. He agreed with Mr. DeCottes that any future bonds voted should be a thirty year maturity issue thereby placing a portion of the financial burden upon posterity.

Motion of Mr. Lake to appoint committees from the different sections to make known further recommendations at a meeting to be held September 19th was approved. President Higgins appointed the following: E. H. Kilbee, Geneva; F. S. Vernay, Lake Mary; W. B. Ballard, Altamonte and Forest City; B. G. Smith, Oviedo; J. W. Bell, Lake Monroe; B. F. Tiller, Paola; William M. Woodcock, Longwood; P. J. Feltner, Ocoola. The Good Roads committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, of which F. P. H. Akers, Jr., is chairman, will represent the Sanford district at further conferences.

A call has been issued to the various committees requesting them to be present at the next meeting of the county commissioners, Tuesday, September 4th at which time appointment of an equalizing board will be made in line with suggestions brought out at the meeting. This date is the legal time limit for such action and the Good Roads Committee of the Chamber is to be congratulated that the joint meeting was held in sufficient time to permit a favorable expression being secured from the county at large on this important matter.

LOCALS

The daily rains are keeping the weather cool.

People are coming back from their vacations greatly refreshed and all of them glad to get back to Sanford.

Kent Vulcanizing Works sell the famous Goodyear tires and have an advertisement in this issue.

Vacuum Cup Tires are the thing and F. P. Rines thinks so for he sells lots of them. See his advertisement in this issue.

IT DRIVES OUT WORMS

The surest sign of worms in children is paleness, lack of interest in play, fretfulness, variable appetite, picking at the nose and sudden starting in sleep. When these symptoms appear it is time to give White's Cream Vermifuge. A few doses drives out the worms and puts the little one on the road to health again. White's Cream Vermifuge has a record of fifty years of successful use. Price 35c. Sold by

WHERE FLORIDA LOSES.

Two citizens were discussing nothing in particular and Florida in general. One remarked: "It's all bosh, this talk about Florida being $37,000,000 on the wrong side of the economic ledger."

Just then a five-ton truck backed up to the curb and began to discharge such stock as a suburban store usually carries. "If you keep check on that stuff," said the other citizen, "you will see why Florida is on the wrong side of the balance sheet and why it will remain there until we do something besides talk about it."

"What's that? A case of chocolate candy. Why shouldn't we be making our own candy from our home-grown sugar?" "I thought so—there goes a case of California peaches, another of pears, another of plums, and one of salmon. Think of it!"

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN'S WEEKLY BIBLE TALK Paul The Apostle

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

FOR WEEKLY—THEN DAILY Text of Today's Bible Talk by Mr. Bryan

PAUL THE APOSTLE Act 22:3, 6-10; Phil. 3:7-11

I am verily a man, which a Jew born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers; and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying, unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ.

And he found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his suffering, being made comfortable unto his death;

If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which I am also apprehended of Christ Jesus.

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

and was a leader among those who saw in the teachings of Christ a menace to Israel.

A Dramatic Conversion He was not like Demetrius, the silversmith; his religion to safeguard his business, but was conscientious in the persecution of Christians. He did not wait for the followers of Christ to disturb his own community; he secured letters and started on a considerable journey in search of those whom he conceived to be enemies of his religion.

He was on the way to Damascus, "breathing out threatenings and slaughter," when he was blinded by a light from heaven. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" He answered, "Who art thou, Lord?" And the Lord said, "I am Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest."

Those who were with him beheld the light, but heard not the voice that was heard by Saul.

Saul's question indicates that his conversion was instantaneous. He was an honest man, therefore, when convinced the same honesty which had made his zealous as a Jew made him eager to learn the truth. "What shall I do, Lord?" he inquired, and the Lord directed him to go to Damascus where he would receive instructions.

When he reached Damascus, one Ananias was awaiting him with directions which he had received from the Master. Paul lost no opportunity to relate his experience. He had received his commission and he used with convincing power the incidents connected with his conversion.

Two Kinds of Change The contrast between Paul and horried by the hissing of imaginary serpents—can warn the young against the dangers before them and assure drink victims of the penitence of God's power to save.

So the sinner who has been drawn farthest by the spiritual gravitation that lifts men towards the throne of God can proceed with greater earnestness both the depths of the sinner's need and the abundance of the hope extended to him.

A Bitter Experience Paul spent three years in meditation in Arabia between his conversion and the commencement of his work—evidence that he felt the importance of the mission to which he had been called. And then came an experience which must have tried his faith.

In spite of his sudden conversion on the way to Damascus, with the indelible impression that had been made upon his heart and thought and life, in spite of his three years of preparation for his ministry, he found some of the Christians suspected him. When he had won their confidence, the Jews, embittered by his desertion of them, drove him out of Jerusalem; so he retired to Tarsus to work among his own people, where he remained until Barnabas, who had endorsed Paul to his fellow Christians in Jerusalem, took him to Antioch to engage in missionary work there.

Here we have an earnest young man gradually developing into the world's greatest preacher, using his ability as a speaker and his skill as a writer and weaving into his sermons a personal experience, that was real, vital and thrilling. His power was spiritual; he was a man with a message; his soul was afire with the worship of God and with love of Christ. The world needs salvation and he knew One who could save.

Giving Himself In describing the generosity of the members of the Macedonian church, after telling how they gave more than they were able to give, he explained that they "first gave their own selves to the Lord." And so Paul gave his own self.

He was determined that "Christ and Him crucified." He was resolved that "neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature" should be able to separate him "from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

He proclaimed the supremacy of love; he declared the power of, and the necessity for faith. He portrayed and illustrated every Christian virtue and, having completed his work, left to the righteous that triumphant review of a noble life.

"A Good Fight" "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

"Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

It is impossible to do justice to such a hero as Paul. Because he believed in God the Father and Christ the Son, he became a fit instrument through which the Holy Spirit could speak to all generations.

Language cannot describe the blessings that he has conferred upon mankind; his influence increases with the years.

Two Aides Will Help New Soft Coal Leader In Progressive Program Outlined For Bituminous Industry

© HARRIS-ERWIN

Harry L. Gandy, executive secretary of the National Coal Association, and John B. Pratt, editor of "Coal Review," official organ of the association, are two of the men who will undertake during the coming year to effect thorough organization of the bituminous industry to better serve the public and the 9,000 independent operators they represent. They will work under the active direction of John C. Brydon, nationally known Pennsylvania coal operator, who was unanimously elected president of the National Coal Association during its recent annual convention at Atlantic City. The function of these men will include continuance of the hearty cooperation pledged by the industry to the United States Coal Commission. The full facts of the production methods, difficulties and costs of soft coal are being made available to the commission.

One of Mr. Brydon's plans, details of which are now being worked out by his aides, is the complete organization of the soft coal operators to act with and for the government in any coal crisis of peace or war. A "minute man" system, requiring only an enabling act of Congress to empower the President to declare an emergency and draft coal resources, was advanced by Mr. Brydon before the recent recommendations of the U. S. Coal Commission affecting the anthracite industry were announced. "A committee from this body," Mr. Brydon told the men who elected him their leader, "should consult with the War and Navy Departments concerning their possible emergency needs and also with the Interior and Commerce Departments. We should hold ourselves responsive to requests from any of the departments."

This plan should include the personnel, so that when an emergency does arise they may go individually and collectively to their pre-arranged posts and begin to function. This personnel may be changed from time to time as circumstances demand, but personnel can always be, and should always be, provided. This plan should be so comprehensive that it would not only apply to the central organization at Government headquarters but to the remotest coal-producing districts in the United States. Such a plan, when worked out to the last detail, with the informal approval of the Government and transportation, would need only an act of Congress to legalize it at the time the emergency arises. Once accepted by the Government, it would rival any previous unsolicited effort of an industry to serve the nation unselfishly and be a virtual guarantee of regular soft coal supply at fair prices to the public in crises.

TULSA PREPARES FOR COUNTY FAIR

DELAND, Aug. 28.—After some delay an abstract to the tract of land east of the railroad station has been secured and Volusia county has a clear track ahead for the successful launching and conduct of its big fair. S. M. Hiatt, expert on fairs, will be here the latter part of the week from Gainesville to make an address at the farmers' institute to be held at Samsula, and while here will outline a model fair building with Secretary Earl Brown. In addition to drawing of the proposed grounds with the proposed arrangements of the exhibit buildings, fairway, side track, race track and grandstand will be ready for submission to a gathering of representatives from all sections of the county.

It is expected this will be similar to the former meeting when the county fair association was launched and will be a dinner to be followed by a business meeting. Officials elected at the first meeting will commence to function.

The date for this meeting has not as yet been set but it is expected that it will take place before Sept. 1.

Florida State Fair At Jacksonville Will Have Fine Premiums

Several Thousands of Dollars Offered For County Exhibits.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 28.—The premium list at Florida's state fair here in November will aggregate awards amounting to $22,500, according to information contained listings shown in booklets just off the press. This represents the most liberal offering of prizes yet made at these fairs.

Several thousand dollars are offered in prizes for county exhibits of agriculture and horticulture, while other thousands are offered in livestock division. Four thousand dollars is offered in beef cattle division, $2,000 for dairy types, and 3,800 for swine; $1,310 for sheep, horses, mules and jacks.

The poultry and rabbit show prizes will total $1,800.

One of the outstanding features of the fair this year will be the boys' and girls' club work department, which will offer prizes of $4,500. Six different state organizations will compete for these prizes, the Corn Club, Sweet Potato Club, Peanut Club, Bee Club, Cotton Club, and Pig Club.

The girls and boys poultry clubs of his state also will compete for honors, under the supervision of Miss Minnie M. Floyd, home demonstration poultry specialist for the state.

Schools operating under terms of the Smith-Hughes act will receive the same prizes for agricultural exhibits as last year, and the woman's department prizes will total $1,000. Departments of education, women's work, fine arts, and other phases of work, will be taken care of with liberal premiums.

An attractive list of prizes also is offered in the negro exhibit department.

SENTENCE FOUR IN CONNECTION WITH OKLAHOMA RIOTING

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 28.—The road to the state penitentiary opened Monday to another Tulsa county flogger and admitted member of the Ku Klux Klan when William Arthur Finley, constable at Broken Arrow, was sentenced to two years imprisonment for participation in the whipping of Leslie Goolsby and Mrs. Myrtle Spain, now Mrs. Goolsby, the night of July 29, 1922.

Finley confessed having turned over Goolsby and Mrs. Spain to a band of whippers and pleaded guilty to a charge of riot. He received the minimum penalty.

Four other men are charged with implication in the offense, two of whom had been arrested Monday night.

T. M. Mathews, retired merchant of Broken Arrow, and W. M. Bills, Broken Arrow transfer man, were arrested. They pleaded "not guilty" and were released on $1,500 bond each.

Finley is the first public official to be caught in the investigation being conducted by Adjutant General B. H. Markham into mob activities in Tulsa county.

Four men now have been sentenced as the result of the inquiry, Grover and Ben Sikes and Earl Sack of Broken Arrow having pleaded guilty last week to taking part in a flogging administered by men robed as Klansmen to Ben Wagner, aged farmer of Broken Arrow.

Goolsby and Mrs. Spain then the wife of "Dare Devil Slim" Spain, a parachute jumper, were placed in the hands of the whipping band after their arrest on a statutory charge. Spain fell to his death at Seneca, Mo., a few days after the flogging and Goolsby and Mrs. Spain then were married.

Governor Walton granted Finley a respite of fifteen days, explaining that the military desired to use him further in the investigation.

The Ku Klux Klan is having hard sledding in the north. And out of all of it will come something else not on the surface now.

Today's dispatches look like war between Greece and Italy. It would depopulate New York and some of the other big cities.

Union men seem inclined to accept the offer of Governor Pinchot. The men themselves usually listen to reason but settling by arbitration does not suit the union leaders.

Now that all exchanges of courtesies between Mexico and America have been made it looks like recognition will follow and all will be peace "beyond the Rio Grande". This is fine. We want to go down there next summer when the National Editorial Association meets in Oklahoma.

Los Angeles traffic orders bar the new "drive and hug" idea of motorists. It is difficult to drive and hug at the same time which is one fault with the new fangled automobiles. The old horse and buggy had some advantages over the new style of vehicles.

As the frost gets closer to the pumpkin and the leaves begin to turn our thoughts turn to old Miami valley in Ohio which is one of the finest countries in the world in the early fall. But on account of the fact that trains do not carry passengers for nothing we will not see the Indian Summer haze on the Ohio river this year.

ATTENTION, EDITORS.

The Associated Dailies of Florida meet in Sanford next Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Valdez Palm Room at two o'clock and a big attendance is anticipated. You can all give a few hours of your time to this meeting and you will learn something, see something and meet all your old friends and many new ones at this business meeting. Dinner at seven will be served and you can get back on the job the same night. Every daily paper in Florida should have a representative at this meeting. Next Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Valdez, Sanford.

BENJAMIN IS COMING.

We received a letter from our old friend, Benjamin, of the Ocala Star yesterday in which he stated that he was coming to the meeting of the Associated Dailies. He has never attended a meeting of the dailies but he is coming to Sanford and we consider it a distinct honor to entertain Bro. Benjamin of the Ocala Star. And he also writes that he has not been in Sanford since 1890. Can you beat that? Thirty years ago Benjamin was in Sanford and he has not been here since. Well, he will see some changes, we say that and he shall be taken over city in the finest buzz wagon we can get and we will personally point out the tall buildings to him. All of which makes us think that quite a gathering of distinguished newspaper folks will be here next Thursday and we should have a good meeting and plenty of real business.

SCHOOLS SHOULD TEACH TRADES.

With bricklayers and carpenters and all the other trades making wages that are about five times as large as those paid in the ordinary "white collar" division of business it seems that our schools and colleges had better quit teaching Latin and other "dead ones" and get down to teaching real trades. The University of Florida could put in schools for trades as well as a school of pharmacy.

acy. The colleges all over the land and the high schools could be teaching trades and fit the boys and girls for something real instead of giving them "dead languages" that are deadlier than ever after the pupil leaves school. We want printers in the printing offices but no boys want to learn the printing trade any more. We understand that right now in Sanford there are few bricklayers and they are scarce in all other towns and cities in the country and they are receiving twelve dollars a day. We would like to rise and remark that few professional men, clerks, bookkeepers and others are receiving this much today. We had better get down to real cases in our education. The "white collar" man is passing away. American youth should get back to real work and make some real money and in doing this help us to build up this great country of ours. There are too many "tea hounds" and not enough apprentices for the trades.

ORLANDO PREFERS POLITICS TO BUSINESS.

The result of the election in Orlando on Tuesday when the voters by an overwhelming majority rejected the charter prepared by a commission-manager form of government instead of the present straight commission form, is not to be accepted on its face as a rejection of the city manager idea. Press dispatches sent out following the announcement of the count of the ballots Tuesday night revealed the darkey in the melon patch. The opposition frankly admitted the vote was a vindication of two members of the present commission, Messrs. Sutherland and Manuel, who have been mixed up in some political squabble that is nobody's business outside of Orlando. But the friends of these individuals evidently made the issue a personal one so it is gratifying to know that the most modern system of civic government that has yet been devised was not repudiated by the citizens of Orlando.

It would not be gallant or just right for Bartow or Lakeland to show any evidence of rejoicing because of Tuesday's result even though that result still leaves these two Polk county cities away ahead of Orlando in the machinery of civic management and operation. In all probability when Orlando tires of petty politics, it will again make a better effort to get rid of the old order. In the meantime those students of civic affairs could do no better than secure a copy of the Bartow charter or the Lakeland charter or the St. Augustine charter which might enable the charter-builders to avoid some of the objectionable features that existed in the now repudiated document.—Lakeland Star-Telegram.

SANFORD, "THE CITY SUBSTANTIAL" IS COMING.

Drove over to Sanford Sunday and spent the day with the children—the Jerungs, having just moved into their new home on Sanford Heights, a cozy place of the bungalow type, in one of the most promising residential sections of the city.

Someone has given Sanford a slogan: "The City Substantial and in driving about one cannot help but be impressed with the manner in which they seem to be living up to that slogan. Miles of paved streets and extensions going on in almost every direction, bringing into the city confines homes that heretofore have been reached by only a trail; adequate sewerage being laid in the alleys and water mains extended, many substantial homes and well kept lawns; new and beautiful bungalows of modern architecture; a new Woman's Club just completed and a new library is ready for the roofing; and in the business section the new Milane theater has been opened and it is said to be modern and up-to-the-minute; the Woolworth 5 and 10 cent store is in a new home erected especially for them; two new garages are under construction; the First National Bank is just putting the finishing touches on a six story structure of splendid architectural beauty and the last word in up to date banking facilities; and across the street the Puleston-Brumley four story building is already in use. Sanford is a prosperous, live, growing city—and we dare say, gives promise of becoming one of Florida's busy interior centers, because she enjoys water transportation via Jacksonville through the Clyde Line boats, which arrive daily, and by reason of lower freight rates that city is becoming headquarters for many wholesale establishments. The St. Johns river is also being dredged so that more of the private boats of winter visitors can navigate her water. In short, Sanford is a whole show in itself, but we missed seeing one of the main actors, Bob Holly, who edits the Daily Herald. He is man that put the "I" in celery, and the "L" in substantial, and by persistent and straightforward publicity through the Herald, Sanford now occupies a conspicuous place on the Florida map.—Clermont Press.

GOOD WATER FRONT IS ALWAYS OF VALUE.

Every locality in Florida that possesses water front should see to it that it is retained. There is plenty of property in every state in the union, and even in Florida, lying far from any body of water, all of which will advance in value; but nothing will make so rapid a rise as that where there is a possibility of locating some industry beside the spot where the water transportation may be utilized. The supply is limited; though it may take a considerable sum to put it in shape there will always be a return for the money invested.

Citations may be made to nearly all ocean fronts and river fronts to be found in the United States where some clever schemers have wheeled the municipality out of splendid sites along on the water, used those sites a few years, have even had the city take action to close a few streets in order that better use might be made of the property, and then, when the city saw its error in the first disposal the owner would "kindly and patriotically" turn back his holdings at a profit of several thousand per cent. Instances may be cited in this state where a water front was disposed of for three thousand dollars, and the municipality was greatly pleased at the transaction; eleven years later the city paid fifty-nine thousand to get it back.

Palatka has a tract of water front. It is not now attractive; to the contrary, it is repulsive. At the present time its value is almost negligible. Some thousand dollars in constructing a permanent sea wall or bulkhead, and some thousands of dollars spent in throwing the river silt back of the retaining wall would make deep water to a splendid dock, and the value would be wonderfully increased. Then, too, it would encourage industries, as well as permitting the construction of docks and wharves.

For constant traffic. It should never be sold—but retained for the city for the years to come.

As a general thing people do not appreciate the worth of such an asset. True, it would cost something to make the tract available and encouraging for business purposes; but that sum would be returned many times over, either directly or indirectly. Meantime when completed, with deep water alongside, it might be used as a playground for the children, and small boats might be moored there so long as the entire snubbing-place was not needed.

Had this proposition been completed there would have been located in Palatka last week an industry of high merit. Sites were to be found there, once the thing is complete, that no city could get elsewhere in all Florida. As it is, this city lost a payroll that would have been of wonderful aid in carrying out the desires of the whole people.—Palatka News.

The farmers of St. Croix county

Wisconsin, are thinkers, as indeed most farmers are. The peculiarities of their occupation afford them many opportunities for thought which they usually improve. Even while holding the plow in the furrow their minds may be considering the problems which face them, and after the day's work is done there are some hours that can be given to cogitation over their condition and devising schemes for its betterment. The farmers of the above county got together the other day and put the result of their cogitations into concrete form, that all the world might know. Here is the result as embodied in resolutions passed by the meeting:

"Resolved, that, Whereas, the farmers of this nation are confronted by an economic condition that results in the production of farmers' products at a loss; that of every dollar spent for the farmers' products 37 cents is his share, and that the farmers can no longer continue to operate under these conditions, and whereas, the legislation enacted for the benefit of the farmers has been a failure and has made things worse:

"Therefore, be it resolved by the farmers of St. Croix county, assembled this 28th day of July, 1923, that we ask the farmers of the United States of America that on the 1st day of September, 1923, we refuse to market one pound of farm products till we get a profitable price on the farm."

Then they annexed a schedule of the prices that should be demanded by the participants in the strike, for that is what it amounted to, such as 11 cents for hogs, 12 cents for fat steers and heifers, 10 cents for fat cows, 12 cents for lambs, $1.50 for wheat, 25 cents for best tobacco, etc.

Fine, very fine, for the farmers. They have long held the short end of the whistle tree and when obliged to pull the greater part of the load. Now they propose to take matters in their own hands. Instead of taking what may be offered them for their products, and paying what they will set a living price on what they have to sell and the buyer may take it or leave it as he pleases. It is a new declaration of independence, lift the farmer out of the mire in which he is struggling. But there is one aspect of the situation which the farmers of St. Croix county may not have fully considered. Any stand of that kind must be unanimous with all the farmers of the country. Have the Wisconsin farmers secured that unanimity? If they have, and all farmers agreed to it, they can, undoubtedly carry their point and bring the nation to their terms, for it will not go hungry. If they have failed to secure this nation-wide co-operation in their plan it will be a dismal failure. The farmers are proverbially the hardest class of citizens to line up for a common cause. There is little hope of their joining in such a quixotic plan. If the St. Croix farmers go it alone they will only excite laughter and ridicule, and are doomed to failure. If every pound of food and every bushel of grain grown in St. Croix county were towed into Lake Michigan and sunk beneath its waves it would have no appreciable effect on the market.

Such movements depend for their success on mass co-operation and that can never be secured. This plan for the farmers' relief, however, is no more visionary than others which have been put out. It will amount to nothing, for it violates the first principles of political economy.—Tampa Times.

FROM OTHER SANCTUMS

FAILURES OF PARENTS. "Lack of a sense of responsibility, unwillingness to work hard, lack of thoroughness, false notions about salary and promotions, and lack of principle" characterize ninety per cent of the young men and women for this reason this large percentage who apply for positions today and fail to hold their first jobs." This is a charge made by A. D. White, statistician for Swift and Company in a report to the Chicago Association of Commerce.

If this charge is true, a serious condition exists, and the blame for it should be placed. Parents are failing in their obligations to their children and to society, and the public schools are also failing. According to Froebel, "The child's first school is the home." He learns more during the first six years of his life than during any succeeding six and parents should never lose sight of this idea.

From the time a child is able to understand anything, he should be made to feel his responsibility in the home and to society. Tasks should be assigned him and he should be held to a strict accounting. The idea that there is anything disgraceful about work should never be allowed to take root in the mind of a child. President and Mrs. Coolidge are setting an example worthy of emulation for fathers and mothers.

As soon as a boy or girl begins earning, he should be made to contribute to the support of the family. It is hard work for a parent or a teacher to compel a child to continue at a task until it is well done. It is much easier to allow him to hurry through than to stand over him and see that he does his work thoroughly. For this reason, children find that they can "get by" at home and at school and when they go into business they try the same tactics.

The last charge that Mr. White makes is the most serious of all. He charges the boys and girls with lack of principle. He finds them stealing time at the lunch hour, taking the time which rightfully belongs to the employer for social telephone conversations, and slipping away from work a few minutes before the clock strikes in the evening. This is stealing just as surely as stealing money from the cash-drawer.

These charges should cause the parents and the teachers to do some earnest thinking. Steps should be taken now in every home and in every school room to correct conditions which allow boys and girls to go out into the world of business with such perverted ideas an ideals.—Times-Union.

The Milane Theatre Shows Kiwanis Movie to a Large Audience

Interesting Program Will Be Shown Tonight With Local Picture.

Sanford people were given some idea of the rapid growth of this city when they witnessed the first showing of the Kiwanis picture taken a few weeks ago. The First National Bank building was shown with the structural steel in position only—no brick work done, and now the building is being rapidly filled with tenants and the elegant banking room is nearly ready for occupancy. The Paleston-Brumley building is also completed and entirely filled with tenants—in the picture the workmen are busily engaged on the brick work. Things do move in Sanford—just how fast one does not realize until they see this picture and consider how recently it was made—last February. Sanford High School, South Side School, Kiwanis Club, Country Club, Iceing plant, Celery Fields, Landing of the Osceola, First National Bank building, Paleston-Brumley building, Valdez Hotel, Milane Theater, and views of First Street, all are shown, bright, clear and life-like. In fact, everyone who saw the picture last night agree that it is positively the best out-door picture ever shown here. You have an opportunity again tonight to see the Kiwanis movie—don't miss it.

George Arliss in "The Man Who Played God," the Country Store, with a wide selection of prizes, and a good comedy will also be shown, making up a most interesting program.

The Kiwanis Club receives the entire benefit of your patronage and will use the money derived from the exhibition of this picture in the furtherance of its aims for the good of the community and every reader of the Herald should take advantage of this opportunity.

Having disposed of my grocery stock on West First street, notice is hereby given that all creditors are requested to present their claims within the next ten days. 126-101p. C. C. GARDNER.

CELERY SEED

Tonight is the date—Football meeting in Coach Wilkinson's office.

Many people ask me why I continue to talk about football so early. I'll tell you why: Because we want Sanford to have the best football team in the state of Florida! And the more we talk the more enthused candidates will be over the team and the harder they will work.

And again, talking about football early gets us more backing—the people of Sanford gave us good backing last year—but we want still better this year. We have the field, we have the best coach in Florida and last but not least we have some of the best material in the state. Now what we want is the best backing in the state and Sanford people never failed their school boys and that is why we are sure of their help this year.

The Orlando Bulldogs after getting two big end scores out of three from the Palatka Pals, blanked the Waycross A. C. L. yesterday in one of the first games of a series. Seems as if the Orlandoans are the undisputed champions of baseball in Florida.

Babe Ruth increased his hitting average yesterday when he collected three safeties out of three times at the bat. The best Harry Heilmann could do was to collect two out of four which increased him a little but not enough to tie up Mr. Ruth.

McAuliffe, Detroit heavy weight from Detroit would be a whole lot safer if he was back in Detroit today instead of being in Jack Dempsey's training camp. Jack mugged Mack up terribly bad yesterday inside of three minutes. What would have happened if Mac had been in there for the world's championship. We say there would have been murder!

A Bulldog joins the Spartans. Well, that's what happened, when Green, heavy hitting outfielder on the Orlando, team this year did when he was signed up with the Spartanburg team Wednesday. He made his first appearance Thursday afternoon against the Charlotte Club.

NEGRO MAKES DARING ESCAPE

Shoots Deputy and Leaps From Royal Palm Near Boyce Sunday.

Deputy Sheriff W. C. Williamson of Sanford, Seminole county, Florida, is confined to the sheriff's room in the county jail with a bullet hole through his left leg just above the knee, and thereby hangs the story of a thrilling episode which occurred late Sunday afternoon on the Royal Palm passenger train as it was passing through Boyce.

Hamson had in charge Jesse McBride, colored, alias L. C. Lewis, who was arrested in Gary Ind., last week as a fugitive from justice, being wanted in Sanford on the charge of burglary committed nearly a year ago. On receiving information that McBride had been arrested Deputy Sheriff Williamson went to Gary and took charge of the negro Friday and rushed him by automobile to Hammond, Ind., where he boarded a train for the return trip to Florida. He handcuffed the negro because, he said, he knew he was a desperate character and wanted to take no chances. However, late Sunday afternoon, soon after passing through Chattahoochee, the officer removed the handcuffs from the negro's left arm because it had swollen and was giving him some pain.

When the train was passing through Boyce the negro jerked the officer's pistol from his holster, which he wore over his shoulder, and jumped from the seat and ordered him to "put 'em up," meaning to throw up his hands.

The officer also arose from his seat and asked the negro what was the matter, if he had gone crazy. The negro kept the officer covered with the pistol aiming it directly at his body as he backed toward the door. The officer made a leap for the negro, knocking the pistol down just as he pulled the trigger, and the bullet struck him in the thigh just above the left knee. The officer, by a well-directed blow, knocked the negro out on the platform in a crowd of negroes, who occupied the platform. The negro arose quickly and smashed the glass out of the vestibule door with the pistol and leaped headfirst to the ground while the train was running at least thirty miles an hour. The officer made a grab at the negro as he jumped through the door, and in doing so his hand came in contact with the broken glass and he received an ugly cut on one of his fingers. The officer pulled the bellcord and the train came to a stop and the conductor ran up. As soon as he learned what happened he and the officer jumped off the train and followed the negro several hundred yards down the track back into Boyce, where he was lost trace of.

Deputy Williamson then, called the sheriff's office and Sheriff Humphreys and Deputies Day, Henderson, Hall and Blackwell rushed to the charge of Deputy Burnette, followed the negro's trail down the railroad track to the village of Boyce, where it was lost. The negro carried off the officer's gun and his handcuffs, which were locked to his right wrist.

Dr. J. J. Gee attended the wounded officer. The bullet passed through the leg, but the physician said it did not touch the bone and he did not think any ligaments were cut.

The wound will keep the deputy in bed for some time, however. The deputy sheriffs scoured the entire section around Boyce, but were unable to find any trace of the negro, but they are confident he will be captured, as by having the handcuffs locked on his right arm he can hardly get these removed without some one disclosing the fact to the officers.

Deputy Sheriff Williamson admits that the shooting was purely the result of his negligence, and his belief in the statement of the negro that if his left wrist was relieved he would not attempt to get away.—Chattanooga Times.

"I had a long spell of Typhoid Fever which played havoc with my kidneys and I suffered a good deal with my back, lower abdomen and bladder. I went on in this condition until I used Foley Kidney Pills. I have never been bothered with my kidneys since," writes Mrs. W. T. Gary, White Plains, Va. For quick relief from backache, dull headache, rheumatic pains and kidney and bladder trouble use Foley Kidney Pills. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

GEORGE FAWCETT IN STRONG ROLE

An important member of the cast of the new Paramount picture, "The Woman With Four Faces," which comes to the Princess Theatre Friday and Saturday (today and tomorrow) is George Fawcett, veteran actor and screen favorite, in the role of Judge Westcott. The cast includes Betty Compson as Elizabeth West, a girl crook; Richard Dix, featured as the district attorney; Richard Tompler, Jim Hartigan as portrayed by Theodore Von Eltz, a convict; Joseph Kilgour plays Judson Osgood, smug and sanctimonious arch rascal; Guy Oliver is Warden Cassidy, and others. This is regarded as one of the most powerful casts ever assembled in any picture.

WATCH DIGESTION IN SUMMER

Too much ice cream, pie, salads, pickles and cold drinks during the hot weather causes indigestion. Coated or furred tongue, bad breath, and sour or feverish stomach are symptoms of this malady that can be corrected with Foley Cathartic Tablets. "I had stomach trouble and tried Foley Cathartic Tablets. They gave quick relief and now I can eat anything," writes J. Osborn, Lucasville, Ohio. A wholesome physic that sweetens the stomach, tones the liver and cleanses the bowels. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

THE PERILS OF CONSTIPATION

The Disease That Wrecks the Whole Body. Quickest Way to Get Well is Through New Treatment Containing Seven-teen Ingredients That Renew Every Part of the Body.

Constipation affects directly every organ in the body, due to the fact that the liver does not carry the bile out of the system, thus putting an extra burden on the kidneys that overtaxes and weakens them, filling the blood with all manner of disease germs that are carried through the veins into every nook and corner of the body. This is why any remedy that merely temporarily relieves constipation is insufficient and you become addicted to the constant use of strong purgatives.

Rob's Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotabs"

The latest triumph of modern science is a "non-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines, thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headache and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often objectionable on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the "robust" and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—lights all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.) 8-29-wed-Fri-&wkly.

1924 MODEL

THE STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX FIVE-PASSENGER TOURING CAR $995

130,000 Owners Know the Value of this Studebaker

Every unit in the new 1924 Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car has proved its dependability in public use.

There are refinements and improvements, of course, but the underlying principles of design and construction which have made enthusiasts of 130,000 purchasers of this model in three years' time, are not radically changed.

In our opinion, the 1924 Light-Six stands out as the greatest value and closest approach to mechanical perfection in moderate priced cars yet produced.

It is practically free from vibration. Studebaker accomplishes this largely by machining the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces. This requires 61 precision operations. It is an exclusive Studebaker practice on cars at this price—and is found only on a few other cars—and they're priced above $2500.

Absence of vibration prolongs car life.

New all-steel body of striking beauty. One-piece, rain-proof windshield with attractive cowl lights set in base. Quick-action cowl ventilator. Door curtains bound on three sides by steel rods, open with doors. Removable upholstery in tonneau. Door pocket flaps with weights hold them in shape. Upholstered in genuine leather. Large rectangular window in rear curtain. Theft-proof transmission lock. Standard non-skid cord tires, front and rear.
