The old age pension provision of the Social Security

The old age pension provision of the Social Security Act applies to every employer regardless of whether he hires one man, fifty, or a hundred thousand, except farmers, railroads, banks, governmental units, and the employers of household servants. Every other employer, including merchants, filling stations, professional men, factories, laundries, dyers and cleaners, wholesalers, grocers and butchers, and practically every other line of business, is required to file a return and pay the tax, even though they hire only one man, and even though they are losing money on their business. money on their business.

BATURDAY, FER. 27, 1937

The tax is levied on the payroll. For the purposes of the old age pension, and throughout this year the rate is two percent payable monthly. The employer is supposed to collect half of this from his employee and is suppose thee; and I will praise thy words, the amount now due represents two percent of the January payroll half of which is contributed by the employee and half by the amount now find its contributed by the employee and the state of the payroll.

NONE of the old forts of Florida po es a more colorful or interesting history than FORT SAN CARLOS at Pensacola, than FORT SAN CARLOS at Penascola, erected in 1696. In 1719, during the war between Spain and France, Fort San Carlos was captured by the French under Blenville, recaptured by the Spaniards, and again taken by the French during a period of about 8 months. Subsequently the old fort was burned by the French, rejuilt by the Spaniards, blown up by the English during the War of 1812, and abandoned to the Americans, again rebuilt by the Spaniards and recaptured by the dauntless Andrew Jackson in 1819.

THE favorite method of flaking for the BARRACUDA in Florida waters is to troll with cut bait or spoon and the tearing, smashing strike of this flak is always something to be remembered. The Barracuda is found around sunken wrecky, shallow reefs and cuts along the southern coast of Florida awaiting its prey. It reaches a length of over air feet and it more dangerous than the shark. # Of 'Maid Of Salem' Showing Two Days

The wierdest cutbreak of popular hysteria in colonial times, the famous witchcraft scare of 1692, which rocked the American colonies and was responsible for the execution of over a score of women before it passed on is the back-ground for Frank Lloyd's latest projuction, "Maid of Salem," a romince with Claudette Celbert and Fred MacMurray, which shows Vednesday and Thursday at the Ritz Theater.

Mi.s Colbert plays the role of a Purian maiden who is accused of eing a witch because she is seen with a tall, dark stranger, and because she was observed dancing by herself. Upon this testimony, provided by hysterical women and children with over-wrought imaginations, she is convicted and sentenced to die. The fact that the tall, dark sranger is handsome Fred MacMurray, who plays the rolp of a fugilive Virginia cavalier, hiding near Salem, means nothing. Unable to produce him in the flesn, the cour: rules that the stranger is the devil himself.

Ehe is saved in a breath-taking climax when MacMurray appears. Ilis appearance also serves to awaken the fear-stricken populace to the folly of the witch-hunts and the scare dies as suddenly and as mysteriously as it began.

Supporting the popular romantie couple is an elaborate cast which includes Harvey Stephens, Louise Dresser, Bennie Bartlett, Gale Sondergard E. E. Clive, Bonks Granville, Virginia Veidler, Rosks Butler, Beulah Bondi, Edwards Ellie, Donald Meek and a score of others

Mariam Hopkins Stars lo "Me Are Not God

The romantic complications that ensue when a dramatic cricic's impulsive secretary alters one of her boss's reviews an sends an actor she has never een soaring to overnight fame are described in amusing fashion in "Men Are Not Gods," Mirlam Hopkins' latest starring vehiels which comes to the Ritz Theater next Friday.

The newest offering of Alexander Korda's imposing new Den-ham studios, "Men Are Not Gods" marks the first English production Miss Hopkins has made.

Gertrude Lawrence, Sebastis: Shaw, Rex Harrison and A. F. Matthews are prominent in the supporting cast of the film which Walter Reisch directed from his own original story.

A bright, modern comedy with a powerful dramatic elimax, Men Are Not Gods" tells the story of preity Ann Williams, secretary to Mr. Skeates, London's leading dramatic critic. When Ann lets herself be persunded by an actor's wife to turn a vitriolic review of the actor "Othello" into a "rave," she automatically lets herself out of her job and into one of the most dramatic triangles the screen has ever shown.
