

DEFENSE WILL CONTEND THAT MISS LENA CLARKE NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

Does Not Remember Making Confession to Chief Vestel ON TRIAL NOV. 22

GREAT MASS OF EVIDENCE TO BE PRESENTED IN GREAT LEGAL BATTLE

A special dispatch to the Tampa Tribune says:

ORLANDO, Nov. 13.—"One thing is certain," said E. W. Davis this afternoon, "the main contention of the defense will be along the lines that Lena Clarke is not guilty."

The Tribune correspondent drew the conclusion that the defense would be insanity after his first interview with Lena Clarke following her arrest and imprisonment on a corner's warrant which charged her with having killed Fred A. Millmore here August 1, but there have been various movements on the part of the woman's counsel which would indicate that insanity may not be entered in their well-planned course.

The movement of a strange man who acted mysteriously about the San Juan Hotel, and inquired for the West Palm Beach postmistress soon after she registered, has never been solved, and it is known that other rumors of a more or less important bearing may turn out in proportions far more material than has yet been indicated.

The general impression has gone out that Lena Clarke confessed to the murder, but she says she doesn't remember making such a confession.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Harding issued a proclamation October 31st designating Thursday, November 24, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer and urging the people to give thanks "for all that has been rendered unto them" and to pray "for continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation."

"That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes. It is proper that the president should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for blessings bestowed, and of prayer for guidance in modes of life that may deserve continuance of divine favor.

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace, and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations, after a long period of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness therefor, we may well unite in the hope that providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aims that have guided us, the aspirations which have inspired us. We shall be prospered as we shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying to help others; asking, before all else, the privilege of service. As we render thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority, in the tasks they must discharge. That hands will be steadied, their purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers.

"Ours has been a favored nation by the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored, and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks, we will do well to pledge, in humility and all sincerity, our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence, as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question. Thus believing, we can do not less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our powers be raised, for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterwards; to all mankind in God's own justice.

"Now, therefore, I Warrant G. Harding, president of the United States, hereby designate Thursday, the 24th day of November, to be observed by the people as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer, urging that at their altars they will give thanks for all that has been rendered unto them, and will pray for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation.

"In fitness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the United States of America.

"Done at the capital of the United States, this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-one and of the independence of the United States, one hundred and forty-sixth.

"WARREN G. HARDING."

"CHARLES E. HUGHES, Secretary of State.

JAP'N WILL ACCEPT

FRANCE AND ITALY TO BE BROUGHT WITHIN SCOPE OF LIMITATION PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Great Britain's acceptance "in principle" of the American proposals for the limitation of naval armament is definitely forecast today in a statement issued on behalf of the British delegations. Japan's acceptance "in principle" at least has been forecast by Baron Kato and others of the Japanese delegation. Great Britain's principal consideration it is understood, in framing the reply which Arthur Balfour will make tomorrow, has been the question of what will be done to bring France and Italy within the scope of the limitation plan. It is understood that the American delegates impressed the advisability of first disposing of the question as it affects the three principals, United States, Great Britain, and Japan. The acceptance "in principle" is a diplomatic phrase and while it marks an important step does not necessarily assure the acceptance of the proposal in original form.

Washington's Wish Nearing Fulfillment

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Speaking today at the exercises attending the laying of the corner stone for the new Victory Memorial, President Harding dedicated the structure as "A gathering place for Americans, where American minds can meet in fruitful exchanges." The erection of the building, he said, would begin the fulfillment of one of the most striking provisions of the last will of George Washington, which set aside a bequest for founding "an institution to disseminate learning, culture and a proper understanding of the right principles of government."

CATTLE OWNERS CAN OBTAIN LOANS NOW

WAR FINANCE CORPORATION HAS MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR MANY COUNTIES

The cattle owners in Seminola county are in a favorable position to obtain loans from the War Finance Corporation, by reason of this county having adopted compulsory dipping of cattle by vote of the people.

All loans must be negotiated before July 1st, 1922, the initial loan being for one year, with privilege of renewal for two years which gives a total period of three years from date of loan, if desired and the maximum rate which can be charged the cattle owners is only seven and one-half per cent per year.

In order to facilitate the making of loans to cattlemen in Florida and Georgia, the two states comprising this regional district, there has been organized the South Florida Cattle Loan Company with a capital of $250,000 which has headquarters in Bartow.

Following are the terms under which loans may be made, as set forth in a letter from Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the War Finance Corporation, to the regional committee, the Florida members of which are: Thomas L. Wilson, Bartow; W. F. Coachman, Jacksonville; and Dexter M. Lowry, Tallahassee.

1.—All cattle on which loans are predicated shall be confined in ample pastures or ranges owned, leased or otherwise controlled by the borrower, in such a manner that the herd or herds may be conveniently inspected at any time by the representatives of the War Finance Corporation.

2.—That loans be made only on cattle in tick-free areas, or in counties which have voted in favor of tick eradication; this provision being necessary in order that the cattle on which loans are made may have access to the markets before maturity of the loans.

3.—I am glad to be able to inform you that the War Finance Corporation is ready to consider applications from such a live stock company, operating in accordance with these terms.

Members of the Florida committee are doing all they can to help the cattlemen by urging the landowners to make leases at very nominal rates to cattle owners whose stock now are on those ranges, so that the cattlemen may meet the requirements for securing loans to carry their stock until market conditions improve and thereby protect and encourage the cattle industry of the state.

THANKS TO ALL THE FRIENDS.

FLORIDA IS ALL RIGHT, SHOULD NOT WORRY ABOUT OTHER SECTIONS

McLaughlin Writes About the Great Resources of This Wonderful State

November 8, 1921

Mr. R. J. Holly, Editor Sanford Herald.

Dear Holly:

Yesterday I read on the front page of the Orlando Reporter-Star an interview with one of our neighbors just home from a western trip.

He seems to think the trouble with the country at the present time is high freight rates, and says that thousands of tons of hay and alfalfa are in Kansas and Missouri which cannot be moved because the freight will eat up the profit; that we might consume a great deal of it in Florida, but the producers are prohibited by high rates of freight, etc.

It has been my impression that the forage crop in Florida is not short enough to worry us by reason of the fact that Kansas and Missouri cannot supply us and that corn cannot move to Florida from Nebraska. There seems to be no conditions in Florida that will make it necessary for us to haul in an unusual amount of forage during the present year or next spring.

So far as the price of coal is concerned it is proper to express the opinion that it has no bearing on the present food and forage situation. The miners have not worked more than one-fourth of the time during the past two years and the operators of mines, on account of the conditions that have existed during the past two years, might possibly not be able to make any money at the present price of coal at the mines.

As to Florida being able to use some of this western forage. It might be well to direct attention to the crop report published at Gainesville, August 12th, showing the estimated production of corn in Florida for 1921 to be 11,862,000 bushels against 10,530,000 bushels for 1920, and a hay crop for 1921 of 145,000 tons against 152,000 tons for last year. The corn crop is estimated as an increase, while the hay crop shows only an estimated reduction of 7,000 tons.

The Nebraska corn situation was published in the Breeder's Gazette at Chicago, October 6th, showing that Nebraska and Iowa people contemplated burning corn for fuel. This would be a ridiculous thing for them to do, in face of the fact that Kentucky farmers have not sufficient corn to carry them through the year, or until the 1922 crop is harvested.

I am sending you this little note with a few authoritative figures to show you how very well off we are at home and how little we need to trouble about things in the far west. As to the cause of our national troubles, there is a wide divergence of opinion. We might trace them back to August, 1914, as a starter and then fairly wonder how we can get from hysteria to composure, may I say, over night.

Yours sincerely, C. O. McLAUGHLIN.

ARMAMENT CONFERENCE MEETS TODAY AT CAPITAL DISCUSS IMPORTANT SUBJECT

was issued, it was followed by a wave of public feeling that complete disarmament was the object of the United States. This, however, quickly was corrected, and it was Secretary of State Hughes who pointed out that the proper designation of the affair was "a conference on the limitation of armaments," with emphasis being placed on the word limitation. Almost immediately afterward there were evidences of a considerable pressure of public thought in direction of complete disarmament on the ground that if the United States were to point the way the remainder of the world would be forced by its public opinion to follow, and swords would be beaten into ploughshares.

The first few days of the sessions are bound to be taken up with official formalities and organization work, including the appointment of committees and the divisions of the conference into sections and sub-sections which will work on the various questions and report to the full conference for action. The late arrival of Lloyd George, the British premier, may cause some things to be delayed, although work of a preparatory nature upon them can proceed in his absence; and the short stay of Premier Briand of France may cause some little delay in the necessity of his colleagues consulting him by cable and wireless. The Christmas holidays, however, promise to see the conference in the midst of its work. How long it will continue in session cannot be forecast. The delegates may experience a Washington summer.

Navies of three great powers would destroy sixty-six capital ships immediately, under Hughes' proposal. Within three months after making the agreement, the navies would consist of designated and agreed upon ships, as follows: United States, eighteen; Great Britain, twenty-two; Japan, ten. Total tonnage of cruisers, flotilla leaders and destroyers, for each power, in tons, would be: United States, 450,000 tons; Great Britain, 450,000; Japan, 270,000. Submarines, United States, 90,000 tons; Great Britain, 90,000 tons; Japan, 54,000. Airplane carriers, United States, 80,000 tons; Great Britain, 80,000; Japan, 48,000.

BIG DAY CAME TO CLOSE IN BLAZE OF GLORY; CARNIVAL AND DANCE

Rollins College carried off the canoe race prize as our boys had not sufficient practice in the canoe paddling and Rollins boys are experts. It showed that our boys could do much better if they had canoes and used our lake as it should be used. The silver cup donated by Harry Heeren went to the lucky crew at Rollins and they will have a beautiful souvenir to remind them of Sanford and of Armistice Day.

In the football game Rollins College put it over our boys—but the reason was plain—our Legion boys had not practiced with the pig skin in many years and were rusty although the fat ones could play without creaking their hinges. We had the beef and the brown and a regular stone wall of defense. All our boys like Hodgson Ball and Tom Meriwether had to do was to sit on the Rollins boys and they just had to be good. However, sitting on them did not seem to be called "touchdowns" and when the final score was chalked up it looked like Rollins 30, American Legion 0. This may not be the exact figures but there was so much sand raised down there in the lake front that the figures were not plain. At any rate the Rollins College won.

Two-Mile Run. The athletic committee of the American Legion composed of Messrs, Meredith and Ward arranged for a two mile race. The following were selected by the committee to assist with the races: Dr. George Hyman, director; Prof. McKay, starter; Craig Harris, time keeper. The band was stationed near the

New Zealand Pageant Lesson.

The pageant has apparently taken its place in the educational methods of New Zealand, judging by the successful enactment of the battle of Oraku on the very ground where Rewi Maniapoto hurled his defiance at the Pakeha, or white men; Ka whawhai tonu maori! (We will fight on for ever and ever.)

Dressed to represent the Maori tribesmen, school children from Te Awamutu bravely defended the native Pa, until the white troops, also young New Zealanders, drove them away in rout. Before the charging troops could reach the spot where their fire had mowed down the "Maoris," the latter introduced an unrelieved effect by jumping to their feet and fleeing after their comrades.

Porcelain Coin a Luther Memorial.

Eisenach—the German town in whose castle Luther was kept in hiding after his return from the Diet of Worms in 1521 and where he finished his translation of the New Testament—has celebrated this year's 400th anniversary of those events by the issue of a 1-cmark piece in porcelain and special paper notes of half that value. There are several varieties of the notes. Some show the town of Eisenach in the middle ages, some the "Wartburg," the famous castle where Luther took refuge, and others "Junker Jörg" (the name under which the famous reformer passed during his seclusion) at work upon his translation of the Bible.—Manchester Guardian.

Asphalt Lake Renews Itself.

The Trinidad asphalt "lake" is so hard and solid that it bears the weight of a narrow-gauge railway. The asphalt is dug out in large blocks with a nutcracker. The holes thus made gradually fill up and in a week all traces of digging have disappeared.

The modern man thinks he is roughing it if he walks in the park wearing a soft shirt with the collar open.

GARETH HUGHES FINDS ACTING BEFORE THE MOVIE CAMERA MORE EXACTING

Acting before the camera is a far more exacting occupation than performing on the speaking stage, according to Gareth Hughes, the youthful Metro star whose latest photoplay for the Arthur Sawyer-Herbert, Lubin pictures, "Garments of Truth," will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight.

In spite of his youth—Mr. Hughes is in his early twenties—he is a veteran of the speaking stage and before turning his talents to the screen he spent ten years before the footlights appearing in all kinds of productions, including many seasons devoted exclusively to Shakespearean productions. He started his stage activity when only fourteen years old with a small road company in England and during the time the young Welshman acted abroad he played practically all the male parts (and a few female ones, too) in presenting the plays of the Board of Avon.

But unlike many actors who have devoted years of their lives to the "speaking," Gareth Hughes has the highest regard for the cinema portrayals.

"I am not one of those who believe that one condescends by appearing on the screen," declares Mr. Hughes. "On the contrary, I find it just as exacting, and, in some respects, even more severe in its demands than the speaking stage. One has to depend almost wholly upon oneself when acting for the pictures. There is no audience out front to urge you to greater or artistic efforts by their applause or apathy, and that is something that the graduate from the speaking stage sorely misses when turning to screen work. There is no ever-present standard by which the actor before the camera can judge whether his work is good, bad, or indifferent. He has to wait until the public sees the picture, usually weeks or months later, before he can know just how he is taken."

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

TAKE SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF BLADDER IRRITATION OR BACKACHE

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headaches or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

STATES GET WAR MATERIALS FOR ROAD BUILDING.

Approximately $160,000,000 worth of surplus war materials, turned over by the war department to the department of agriculture, will be distributed through the bureau of public roads to the various states for road-building purposes.

Under the Wadsworth-Kahn bill this surplus war material is sent to the states with the sole provision that be used for road building purposes. A vast accumulation of machinery, equipment, supplies, and motor vehicles that was to have been used in France has thus been diverted to a useful peace-time purpose.

Florida will receive $1,483,900. Included in the supplies distributed among the states are 27,108 motor vehicles, mostly trucks; 172 locomotives of various sizes; 25,000 gross tons of rails; more than 4,500,000 pounds of powder, and nearly 10,000 tons of TNT.

452 CASES OF LIQUOR NABBED.

NEW SMYRNA, Nov. 12.—A "bad order" car in a freight train gave up a secret which was destined for Columbus, Ohio, yesterday morning about six o'clock when federal agents examining the damaged car stumbled upon 400 cases of "grapefruit" shipped from Miami. Upon close inspection, it was found that out of the 400 cases of "fruit" 452 were of the variety which is not allowed in this country since the 18th amendment has been passed.

Reposing in the jail here is now 452 cases of "very old" whiskey, the haul of the officers of the law.

As far as is known no arrests have been made but it is reported that the net is being gathered in around an alleged whiskey ring that has up to the present been enjoying a bountiful business in illicit traffic.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND ATTRACTIVENESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

A NEED OF THE SOUTH
 Forests of the South, from which in passing the leadership in the naval stores industry and whose mammoth production of yellow pine and other splendid timbers is lessening yearly, need action on the part of the federal government to bring back their old-time supremacy and build them up as reservoirs of timber for American homes and industry. So says the forest service, United States department of agriculture, in a report recommending the general enlargement of the new Southern forest experiment station. This station is one of an ultimate series of ten to cover the needs of the entire country.
 Why the Southern pine belt needs such a station is set forth in detail, as follows:
 The original Southern pine forests occupied 125,000,000 to 130,000,000 acres.
 The present area of virgin timber is only 23,500,000 acres.
 The present area of waste forest is 30,000,000 acres.
 Four-fifths of the original 650,000,000,000 feet have been cut since 1870, chiefly since 1890.
 The normal pine cut has been 15,000,000,000 out of a total of 40,000,000,000 for the United States, but the crest of production has already been passed.
 Other sections of the United States are even more interested than the South in continued production, since two-thirds or more of the total cut for the past twenty years has been the main source of supply to the great Eastern and Middlewestern markets.
 By 1931 increased local demands promised to take all of the decreased cut, leaving the rest of the country dependent upon the Pacific coast.
 The Florida citrus industry, which consumes 13,000,000 boxes annually and is planning to treble its output in ten years, is apprehensive as to the future and is considering California as a source of wood supplies.
 The naval stores industry of the United States, whose production is still 80 per cent of that of the entire world, in spite of a decrease of 50 per cent or more during the past twenty years, will within ten years supply no more than American requirements.
 World leadership in naval stores production is passing to the artificial established maritime forests of France.
 Less investigative work has been done in the South than in any other important timber region. That done is in most Eastern regions, has been general in character, and the time has come when little more can be accomplished except by the extensive investigations possible at a forest experiment station.
 An adequately manned and equipped forest experiment station is needed in the Southern pine belt to show how to bring back into production 10,000,000 acres of waste forest land and how to increase production on 10,000,000 acres additional which for the most part is at present growing much less than it should. A station is needed to develop methods of cutting which will keep 25,500,000 acres of virgin pine standing fully productive. —Miami Herald.

Thanksgiving is next on the program—after "Go to Sunday School Sunday," November 20th. Both will be observed in Sanford.

Christmas advertising is beginning to appear. The wise merchant is always just a little bit ahead of the other fellow—and he gets the business.

Business in Sanford has been better than at present, but we haven't heard any complaints from those who go after business. It is a whole lot better to get out and hustle for business than to sit still and wait for it to come to you.

CLEAN UP WEEK.

Mayor Stevens has designated a Clean-Up Week in Sanford by his official proclamation and the Woman's Club will sell bouganvillias and hibiscus in order that everyone will have plenty of plants to set out in the yards and parkways and make Sanford beautiful. It is unnecessary or it should be unnecessary to have any special Clean Up Week as every week should be Clean Up Week but every fall we have this big clean up campaign and it is to be hoped that every public spirited citizen will heed the official request and get busy on the yards and lawns and especially on the alley for it is the alleys that proclaim the man. So many of us work hard to keep the front looking neat and allow the back yard to go to waste. Just a little work now and then will keep our yards and lawns looking good all the time and it is clean and neat appearance of the yards that will attract the winter visitors to this city. They are coming in now and they are looking over the various cities they visit and the city that attracts them most will get them for residents. Aside from what our visitors might think we have our own people to contend with and Sanford people as a whole want to see a Clean Sanford.

Let every organization in the city together with the Chamber of Commerce and the Woman's Club get behind this movement and help the ladies clean up the town.
 Make Sanford a Spoleas Town for all time.

"HUSH-HUSH BOYS."

The St. Petersburg Times says: "Two newspapermen once came to St. Petersburg from an Ohio city and they brought with them a term which they and others of their profession had invented for a crowd of folks in semi-public favor in their home city. To these folks the newspapermen had applied the name: 'Hush-Hush Boys.' These men were the kind who desired that nothing should be printed in the newspapers except that which tickled their own small souls. These 'Hush-Hush Boys,' the newspapermen said, would go to all extremes to prevent publication of anything of real news value, if it did not favor their own particular likes and dislikes, and were best planned when the journals in this Ohio city were filled with platitudes and fulsome praise of the pot projects of the men to whom the title was given. And sometimes it appears that this Ohio city has no monopoly upon the men of this type."

there is always a class that wants to go just a little bit farther than the other fellow and he will keep on doing it until he is stopped some way. They became so bold with their tin can signs in Lake county that the commissioners had to stop their being put up altogether. Then there is the class, that some way has a mania for tearing down expensive signs, no matter how well they are put up or how much money is put into them and in this respect the merchant is entitled to some protection and the malicious tearing down of signs that are put up carefully and with discretion, is the work only of those who do not care for law and order in any direction and when caught should be punished.
 We mention this sign matter at this time because there are some who believe that there is a general effort to cut out all roadway signs regardless of their attractiveness or stability, but that is not the case and it is only the sign that detracts and that fellows insist upon nailing upon the front door of your house if permitted and they are not caught, that the public fails to approve. A road or driveway free of all these medicine signs and the like would actually be attractive but you can find all the corners, all the trees and every pole most in Polk county well covered and tacked with improper signs and we think it is generally looking, to say the least.—Lakeland Star.

REBUKING THE PLEDGE BREAKERS.
 Speaking editorially of the unprecedented victory of Hyman, democrat, over Curran, republican, for mayor of New York city, the New York World, which strongly opposed Hyman, says:
 "New York city seldom votes for anybody. It votes against somebody. This year * * * with nearly 400,000 unemployed, I voted against the Republicans because they promised prosperity a year ago and have left the country in an almost complete state of economic depression."
 Relief for the farmer; relief for the laborer; relief for the burden-bent tax payer; relief for depressed business; relief for incapacitated war veterans; all these were solemnly promised and pledged before the election. The country groaned under the reflex of war, and it looked to the Republicans, as the Israelites looked to Moses, for relief. The country gave the Republicans all they asked—the presidency and congress, by a strong majority. It gave these by a vote of such amazing proportion that the political wisecracks and forecasters were astounded. Yet, a year has passed and the Republican party has fulfilled not one of those pledges.
 It is growing more and more apparent that it was a Pyrric victory the Republicans won at the polls last November. Over confidence, conceit, and an air of "Me undt Gott," seem to have been the sequence of that victory. Bull Run was a defeat in disguise for the Confederates, because it was so overwhelming a military victory it broke the morale of the victors. Drunken with success at the polls of 1920, the Republican party has spent a year in dividing the spoils of office, in giving the "interests" what they demanded, and in playing at tariff reduction and relief.
 The Republican party wakes up now to find that the greatest voting district in the country, Greater New York city, has repudiated it so overwhelmingly that consternation and shame must cover the party face. From a Republican plurality of 784,

The world has got to the point where it feels bored unless the daily headlines mention at least one new crisis.

Didler see McCuller's turkey in this issue? Mac says he will have everything for that Thanksgiving dinner and is telling you about it in plenty of time for you to make all preparations for big eats on that day. Keep a look-out for his ads during the next two weeks and you will know what is fashionable to eat on this occasion.

Seminole County Will Do Its Part in This Great Work

ATLANTA, Nov. 14.—Southern Division Headquarters of the American Red Cross sees a veritable triumph of the Red Cross cause in Dixie as a result of reports from every section of the division on the results of early Roll Call activity.

The South, these reports indicate, is keenly alive to the importance of the peace time program of the organization and the response to the appeal of the Greatest Mother is believed ample assurance that the work now being attempted will be carried on throughout the coming year and possibly extended so that every community in the division will feel and know its benefits.

This has been made possible solely through the whole hearted cooperation of people in every walk of life throughout the section. Big business has recognized the benefits that accrue to it from participation in Red Cross activity and the response has been generous, and organized labor has been no less quick to grasp the opportunity to aid a cause that is one of the prime factors in our national life in adding strength and force to the masses.

In fact, practically every labor leader in South has not only enrolled himself as a Red Cross member, but has given his enthusiastic endorsement of the Red Cross program.

The doctrine of Red Cross service has been preached from hundreds of evangelical pulpits in the South and at the same time it has been made the subject of endorsement from prelate and priest, in church and in synagogue.

In fact the cooperation has been as widespread as the cause to which it is given. As a result Division Headquarters officials predict that despite the uncertainties of the times, the South will smash all its records for response to the annual appeal of this great national organization.

As the days pass, it becomes increasingly evident that somebody rescued prices as they were going down for the last time.
