

It's Voter Brainwashing Time Again

WASHINGTON WINDOW
WASHINGTON (UPI)—It is time the voters begin to realize that the annual brainwashing on the matter of why government costs so much.

The brainwashing is a not only by hand and committee reports but by direct statement, the politicians seek to persuade the voters that increasing defense spending is what puts the treasury into the red each year, not the U. S. dollar with creeping inflation and increasing the American way of life.

But in the line in government costs is chiefly in non-defense spending. For example, in fiscal year 1964 military and related national defense items cost $43.8 billion. All other items of government amounted to $28.5 billion. Seven years later, in fiscal 1961, military and related national defense items cost $27.4 billion, up only $200 million.

All other items of government expense in fiscal 1961 cost $38.5 billion, an increase of $11.1 billion over fiscal 1954. That is an 89 per cent increase in non-defense costs in eight years.

That's where the money goes and that is where economies must be found if government is to live within its income, and deficit spending and put some starch into that beneficial item, the U. S. dollar.

The Kennedy administration revised its budget administration a few weeks ago. The president now estimates that June 30, at midnight, the end of the 1963 fiscal year, the treasury will be in the red by $4.9 billion. President Kennedy is well on the way toward matching Franklin D. Roosevelt's unhappy record of achieving a big treasury deficit during every year he occupied the White House.

Under President Kennedy, as under his immediate predecessors, non-national defense spending continues to increase faster than defense spending. In his revised budget figures last month, Kennedy estimated that defense, international and space activities in fiscal 1963 would exceed $2.5 billion more for their purposes than in the 1952 fiscal year. Non-defense spending will be up by almost $2.5 billion.

The greatest increase will be in the spending non-defense department of them all, Health, Education and Welfare. The check is $282 million. The check is the new figures, however, is the estimated fiscal year cost of interest on the public debt, $9.3 billion, up $200 million from last year.

The debt and its carrying charge increase annually because government must lower more debt each year to pay for interest or desirable things the voters want. The federal government to provide but for which the people are not willing to tax themselves.

These short-sighted voters are deluded by the belief that they are getting something for nothing. They have not learned that there is no such thing as free lunch, not even in the old-time nation.

This is a situation made to order for the politicians. When the voters—especially a pressure group of organized voters—want something from the federal government, the politicians are inclined to provide it.

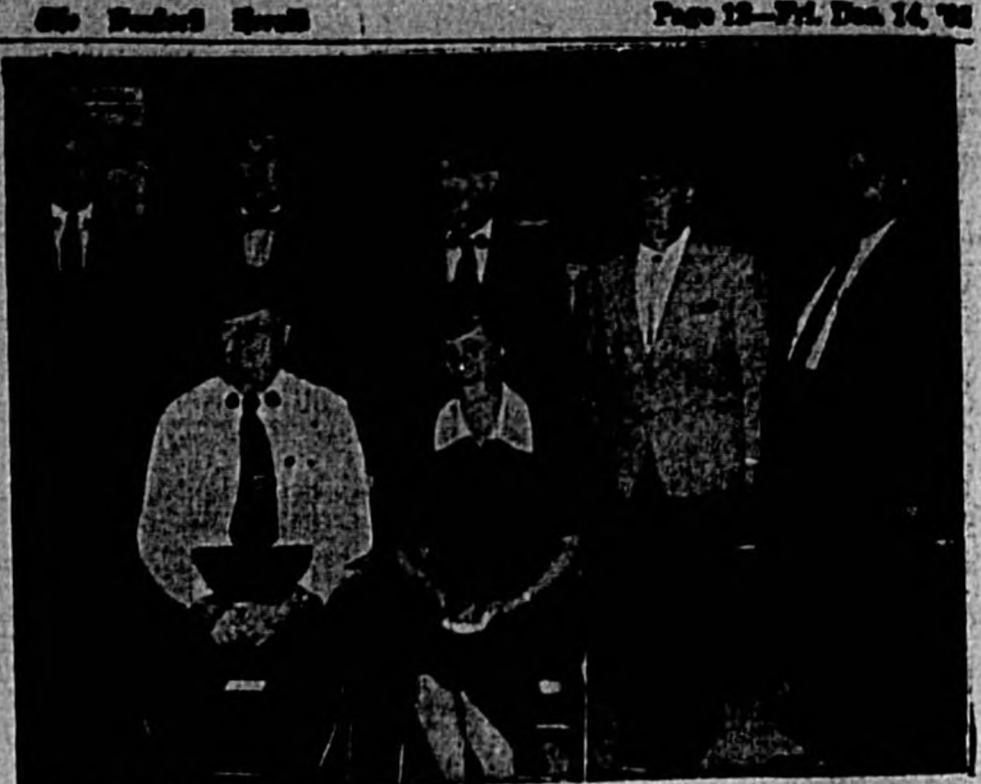

Dynatronics Gets More Contracts

Dynatronics, Inc. reports that new contracts totaling nearly $200,000 have been awarded the company recently.

One major contract from the Goddard Space Flight Center is for ground station data-handling equipment for the Relay Communication Satellite program.

A Navy contract for additional work on a current contract for space-tracking antennas to be used by the Pacific Missile Range has been received also. These antennas play a large part in the Tiro Weather Satellite project as well as in the seaplane programs.

Other contracts include those for camera timing equipment and other missile range electronic subsystems.

Dying 12-Year-Old Doesn't Know That He Is Fatally Stricken

DALTON, Ga. (UPI)—"Actually, he doesn't think he's dying. He just thinks his legs don't work right."

Mrs. Joyce Rogers, mother of four, described the undiagnosed illness that gradually is taking the life of her son, 12-year-old Terry Ray.

"It's affecting his sight. He can't see very well and his hearing is affected. He hasn't been able to walk for a long time."

Doctors say that sooner or later Terry Ray will die of what they describe as a "diffuse progressive degenerative disease of the nervous system."

Medical bills for Terry have mostly been taken care of through a medical care plan financed by the government. His father, Sgt. William Rogers, is stationed in Berlin.

"He doesn't speak much of Christmas," Mrs. Rogers said. "All that he's mentioned to me was that he wanted his watch fixed, a set of bathroom scales, and a pair of slacks."

An Atlanta specialist who has examined Terry said nothing has been found that could be treated. He said the prognosis was death.

Early last year, the boy started complaining that his legs hurt. He began to stumble when he walked. Gradually he became weaker and more feeble.

Despite visits to doctors in Dalton, Chattanooga and Atlanta, Terry's condition has failed to improve. Now he spends his days in his room in the family apartment here watching television for brief periods, listening to records and talking with his mother.

Mrs. Rogers said he is not aware how serious his condition is. He can't read newspapers and visitors don't talk about his sickness.

"He wants me to sit and talk to him most of the time. He talks about anything that's on his mind. But mostly he likes to talk about old times—when he could play... baseball was his favorite sport."

RANDOM THOUGHTS...
Gene Tucker a sure bet to be named chairman of the McNulty Bank chain? ... Some wrenkster stole Gordon Fredrick's legislative license tag ... Was last seen on Joe Davis' car ... Courthouse and City Hall will be closed Monday Dec. 24 ... Jesse James on the Jail register.

Word is that the owner of the Palma Hotel has an offer ... And a very fair one ... Comes from a well established citizen ... Decision hinges, the report continues, on the recommendation of acceptance from Ambrose Olliff, nephew of the owner ... Since the money angle is right, apparently, civic leaders who are interested in the attractiveness of the main approach to our downtown business district are hopeful that Olliff will be equally concerned about the appearance of the main stem of his home town and will set the deal for an early closing.

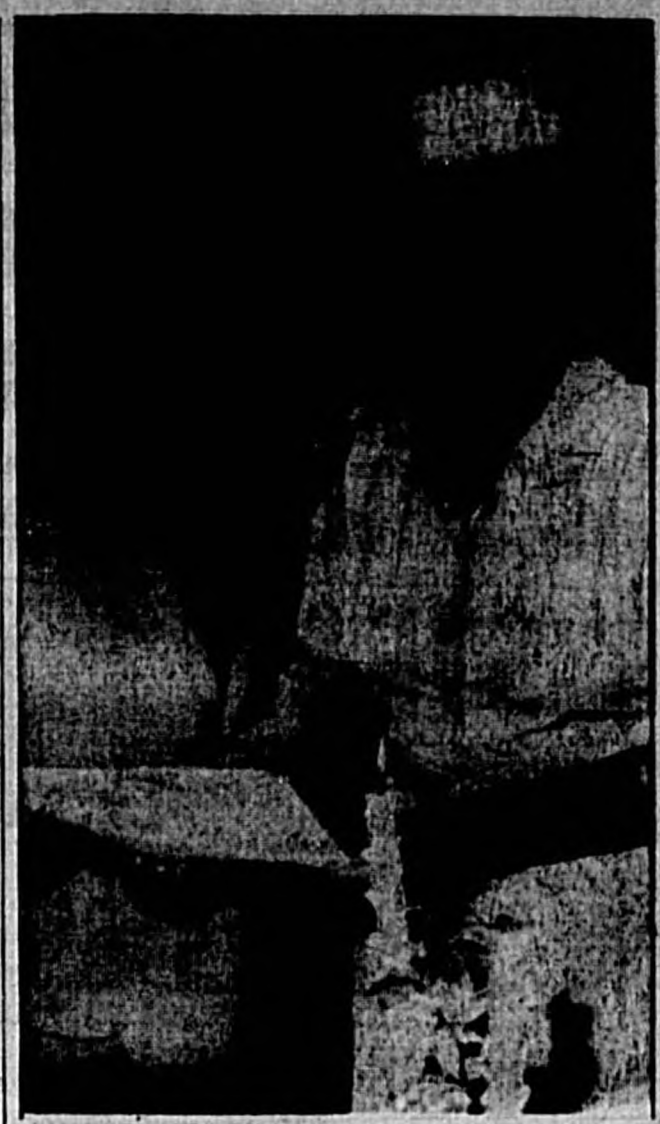

That reminds me ... The ex-Kilgore Seed Co. building at West First and Myrtle has been given quite a face-lifting. Now adds to the up-to-date structures on the north side of W. First Street ... It's occupied by Celery City Printing Co. and the Sanford Dental Laboratory.

At the postoffice dedication: "I regret that I have but one life to give for the Chamber of Commerce" ... All the loyal dignitaries on the speaker's rostrum shed their topcoats ... Didn't want the pictures to show anything but the glorious warmth of Sanford's radiant sunshine! ... And off the choppy expanse of Lake Monroe whistled the frigid winds that for the 48 hours immediately preceding the ceremony had caused anguish and anxious grove - owners' and produce growers heart - breaks ... REAL loyalty in our C of C men!

Maybe it was because we have just come out of the peak of this Cuban crisis, but our pulse was quickened and there was a lump in the collective throats when our Seminole High School band struck up the Star Spangled Banner and that snappy Marine color guard raised Old Glory to the top of the mast ... And isn't it strange how many folks just do not know — or do not care (which is worse) — how to salute the colors ... At ceremonies like this one — or at parades when the flag passes ... It seems a simple thing to do — and means so much because of all our heritage and blessings symbolized by our flag ... Your hand (or your hat, if you're wearing one) held over your heart ... Men in uniform, of course, KNOW what to do.

Our popular congressman, A. S. Herlong, Jr., both before and after the dedication rite, was busy shaking hands with scores of his staunch supporters, of which the number is legion ... His "stand up, speak up and shut up" speech was well received ... No matter how brief Syd's talk may be it always will have strong points that are food for thought ... Francis Roumillat, chairman of the postoffice site committee and incoming president of the C of C did a splendid job of emceeing the affair ... Mayor Jimmy Crapps paid tribute to the C of C site committee, in addition to Roumillat, Brack Perkins, George Touhy, Randall Chase, John Ivey, Tom McDonald for the realization of the dream of a modern postoffice ... The tender grass really took a beating from the crowd ... But the parking planting had been about stomped out by those who park at the curb to go in to the building ... Too bad the entrance is located so that crossing the planted area seems logical.

Most County Citrus Crop Can Be Saved

Most of Seminole County's multi-million dollar citrus crop is salvageable, depending on weather conditions, the county's department of agriculture committee reported to Agent Cecil Tucker at a special emergency meeting today.

Tucker said the USDA report reveals that although 100 percent of the fruit is reported "frozen" the majority can be salvaged if the weather continues to be cool throughout the rest of the week.

At the same time, Tucker reported the county has already designated a disaster area and emergency loan applications to county growers can be secured from the office of Curtis Green in the Sanford Atlantic Bank Building.

Ornamental shrub damage, according to the USDA report, amounts to 20 percent of the $2 million crop wiped out and 30 percent of the county's pasture land "killed."

Discussing the citrus damage, Tucker said that tree damage was "considerable, but surprisingly less than was first anticipated. There was also a heavy drop of foliage but the extent of the damage cannot be determined yet."

Vegetable damage, especially truck crops, appears to be considerable, Tucker said, but some recuperation is expected by cabbage and celery crops.

10-Day Embargo Placed On State Fruit Shipments
MIAMI (UPI) — A 10-day embargo was clamped on all shipments of fresh Florida citrus Sunday as warming weather caused the fruit to ferment on the trees, adding further damage to the state's $300-million citrus industry.

"It only it had warmed up slowly," commented one citrusman, "we could have salvaged it."

The swiftly warming weather after last week's historic freeze caused the icy citrus to warm too quickly and much of it hung fermenting on the branches in 60 and 70-degree weather.

Officers estimate on-the-tree losses at $100 million. Damage to young trees will push the loss much higher.

The Citrus Commission, meeting in an unprecedented Sunday session, voted unanimously to enforce the 10-day embargo. It also agreed to place an additional two-week embargo on damaged citrus.

DEDICATION CEREMONIES at the new Sanford Postoffice on the corner of Palmetto Ave. and Seminole Blvd. were attended by many dignitaries. Among them were Mayor J. H. Grow, Sanford, Grow, Herlong Urges Sanford was challenged to go ahead and outgrow its brand new post office at the dedication of the building Friday.

Rep. Syd Herlong, special guest speaker said: "I hope that one day Sanford will become so large and prosperous that you'll have to build an even bigger postoffice."

Herlong noted that though the postoffice department is one of the largest business enterprises in the world, it has many aspects that other businesses of its size do not have.

The human element must be kept foremost. Mail must be delivered to every town, city, hamlet and village and to the remotest outposts, even though much of it is a losing proposition.

Herlong presented the flag to Postmaster Guy Allen, saying that it had flown over the Capitol in Washington. Allen in turn carried the flag to the Marine Color Guard, who performed the flag-raising ceremony while the Seminole High School Band played the National Anthem.

Distinguished guests were introduced by Francis Roumillat Jr. chairman of the dedication ceremonies and of the site committee, and Mayor James H. Crapps welcomed Herlong, Gladden and others to the city.

New Explorer Goes To Work In Orbit
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A new U. S. satellite flashed around the earth today with instructions to gather information on tiny bits of space debris that could prove dangerous to space travel.

The satellite, Explorer 16, began its second day with all equipment and experiments aboard apparently working satisfactorily.

If all remains well, the 220-pound satellite will spend the next year carrying out its assignment.

Explorer 16 was launched by a Scout rocket from the Wallops Island, Va., test site by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Sunday morning.

A spokesman said early calculations showed that the spacecraft was circling the earth once every 104 minutes, reaching a maximum distance of 733 statute miles and a minimum of 466 miles. Its indicated angle of inclination to the equator is 52 degrees.

Planning For Future Growth Is Emphasized

By Frances Wain
The new Interstate Hwy. 4 through Seminole County will be completed before Christmas, 1963, but without an access link on it in the Central part of the county.

Douglas Sturtevant, chairman of the long range planning committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, informed members of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce of this fact, in the monthly meeting.

Point in the central part of the county will have to drive north to West First St. in Sanford or south to Sandhills Springs, Rd. 44, 45, to get on the highway. This stretch is nine miles long and should have central access for the people of the whole county. The best available place for this is on Lake Mary Blvd. and would link with Hwy. 17-92, Sturtevant said.

"It is too late to do anything about this for the present, but we have to start now to get something done in the future. Will Seminole County grow? It is no longer a question. It has grown and will continue to grow rapidly from now on. Long range planning is needed desperately."

Cub Pack 543 Party Tuesday

Cub Pack 543, sponsored by Holy Name Soc. of All Souls Church will have their Christmas Party at 7 p. m. Thursday at the Social Hall of the Church at Eighth and Oak Ave.

Awards will be presented first at brief meeting, with the party to follow. "Since September, when the pack reactivated, these young cubs have been busy little beavers," said Mrs. D. Olmstead, den mother.

"A few Silver Arrows are beginning to show up on the monthly awards list, which show the effort being put forth by all the boys. Competitions run high within the Den as well as between them, as shown by the fact that no one Den has won the monthly award twice, and all Dens have had an excellent showing at all the pack meetings."

"The most recent project to capture the boys interest, has been the one promoting the American Flag into the homes of their family, friends and neighbors," said Mrs. Olmstead.

"Dick Mamele, den chief, leader of our Den 4 in Pinecrest, together with Cubs, Les Lampman, James Prokosch, Neal Olmstead, Tim Donahoe, Robert Dralm, Steven Boose, James Axton, Stephen Hitchcock and Tim Wolf had the honor of placing over 70 flags in the month long promotion. In helping to place these flags the boys have learned a little more about helping their community, Pack and themselves in the devotion and pride that goes with learning to fly their 'own' flag."

ly in the 1960s. Everybody in Washington believes it, and on the local level, I know it," declared Sturtevant.

"Cape Canaveral is just 85 miles from us. The biggest government project is going to take place right in this area. In addition to the federal expenditures, the State of Florida will spend $40 million, and that is just the beginning," he said.

"Changes will take place that will affect Lake Mary drastically. By planning ahead we can prevent many of the problems and increases in taxes that are coming with our great increase in population in this area," Sturtevant advised.

Time Growing Short For Sure Parcel Delivery By Christmas

Postmaster D. Guy Allen cautioned today that time is growing short for mailing Christmas parcels.

Studies show, he said, that late mailing of parcel post tends to increase the losses on the basis of the old truth that "haste makes waste."

He observed that the Post Office Department is unable to deliver or return about half a million parcels, each year including many lost at Christmas time, because of poor packaging or inadequate addressing.

He suggested the following steps that can be taken by mailers to protect themselves against loss of valuable Christmas gifts:

1. Check and revise mailing list.
2. Type or hand print gummed mailing labels. Fill them out now and save time later.
3. Use complete address. Don't abbreviate. Include delivery zone number.
4. Make a list of your mailing needs and start buying good quality mailing materials now - strong cord, heavy wrapping paper, and so forth.
5. Include a separate sheet of paper inside the parcel with the address of the intended recipient, as well as your own name and address.
6. Plan to use insurance on all parcels. (Neither insurance fees nor parcel post rates were changed by recently enacted rate legislation.)
7. At the same time, the Postmaster discussed what happens when parcels become lost, and some interesting stories that have grown up over the years concerning dead parcel post cases.
8. Lost parcels are auctioned, usually yielding roughly a quarter million dollars annually for the U. S. Treasury.
9. Postal employees cannot participate in the bidding. They do, however, act as auctioneers, and take pride in attempting to get as much of the true value of the article as possible. However, one postal auctioneer once became so absorbed in his work he sold his own coat for $1.98.
10. In another sale on record, an astute postal auctioneer noticed an unusual pair of soap and brooms in open. Inside was a diamond and emerald brooch which brought $875 for Uncle Sam.
11. Sometimes, though, auctioneers are unsuccessful in efforts to get a good price. At a San Francisco auction, the auctioneer let a man's wallet go for a small amount of money only to have a successful bidder lift two $50 bills from a secret compartment in the wallet.

tion, and that is just the beginning," he said.

"Changes will take place that will affect Lake Mary drastically. By planning ahead we can prevent many of the problems and increases in taxes that are coming with our great increase in population in this area," Sturtevant advised.

Boy Shoots Dad While Hunting

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI)—A 15-year-old boy who accidentally killed his father on a hunting hunt was reported resting comfortably at a hospital here today.

Engine Wyatt, 15, went in to check after telling police "I saw something brown move. . . I thought it was a rabbit. . . I killed him. . . I killed him."

Floyd Wyatt, 59, was killed with a single shot from a 22-caliber rifle. Police said there would be no charges in the case.

Blood Donations Show Decrease

The number of blood donors at the Seminole County Blood Bank took a drop in November, with only 87 persons contributing.

Actor Loughton Dies Of Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Award-winning actor Charles Loughton is dead.

The retired, 62-year-old actor led his long battle with cancer Saturday night. Actress Elin Loughran, his wife since 1925, was at his bedside when Loughton died in his sleep.

The film and stage star's brother, Frank Loughton, said Sunday funeral arrangements were pending because Miss Loughran, who had kept up a cheerful front during the long illness, was taking the death quite hard.

Loughton had been fighting the losing battle with cancer for nearly a year. He entered Cedars of Lebanon Hospital July 20 but on Nov. 20 was granted his last wish—to die at home.

High School Glee Club's Christmas Concert To Be Held Wednesday

The Seminole High School Glee Club will present its annual Christmas Concert Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. in the school auditorium.

A specially-created cathedral setting will form the background for the renditions of Christmas songs to be sung by the Chorallers, Triple Trio, Double Quartet, Girls Glee Club, Mixed Ensemble and entire company, as well as several solos.

"Sweet Little Jesus Boy" will be sung by soprano Donna Beard, and Gene Bullard will sing "From Galilee a Mother Came", with Jean Masters presenting "Gesu Bambino".

"The Birthday of a King" will be sung by Charles Rabun and the Cantique De Noel by Howard Elliott. Nylene Albers will be heard in "Sleep, Holy Babe." Patty Glenn Johnson will sing "Christ of the Christmas Bells," as well as the solo portion of the "Ave Maria."

"The Echo Carol" and "Sing Alleluia" will be presented by the Chorallers and the Mixed Ensemble will render "The Little Drummer Boy," "A Christmas Folk Song" and "Come, Hasten, Ye Shepherds" as slated to be presented by the Triple Trio with the Double Quartet offering, "Songs of Christmas."

Carrying on the tradition of the religious setting of the concert, there will be an invocation, scripture and benediction, with a recessional sung to a candle-lit "Silent Night."

The Christmas Concert is under the direction of Miss Ollie Reese Whittle, and the accompanists are Janet Johnson, Pam Jones, Jean Masters and Faye Dunnaway.

Stage settings have been created by Larry Gistrap and Robert Ballard.

Members of the Mixed Ensemble include Patty Glenn Johnson, Babs Odham, Nylene Albers, Lynn McCord, Donna Beard, Sharon Giles, Louise Higginbotham, Linda Hunt, Barbara Ruby, Judy Sunten and Michelle Jones.

Also Dale Duncan, Paul Harris, Thomas Best, Henry Lavender, Oscar Perez, Buddy Lawson, Charles Rabun, Gene Bullard, Bill Brown, Theron Petty and Earl Black.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Hello. I think everybody was smart this past week. They decided to stay home because of the cold weather. And I don't blame them one bit. And winter is only starting too. Gee don't you dread thinking about what is still to come? Gee I wish it was spring. Well I can wish can't I? . . . Our sympathy goes out to the C. C. Gant family in the passing of Mrs. Gant. She has been a long time resident of W. First Street. . . . Just a reminder to all parents of children attending the Monroe school. Next Tuesday evening is P.T.O. night. Don't forget it and be sure and go. . . . And another thing keep on the watch for a reminder from Mr. Ruby on the fire department meeting. We just cannot let him down again. All of you know that we really need that fire department out here and with a little effort we can get it going real quick. Then there are the ladies out here too who are ready and willing to do their part for it too. So watch for that meeting date. . . . What a shame Saturday evening that it had to rain and ruin the mass band concert planned out at the stadium. We got to see a few bands perform and they were real good but the rain came up before time for our band and a few others. The band had worked so hard for this drill too. Talking of the high school band they will be off again Saturday to Titusville for the Christmas parade. Grace Edwards and I took them over there last year, but this year we will get to see Miss America. That's what some of the band members tell us. So Titusville here we come. . . . Mrs. A. J. Taylor has returned home after a short visit with her mother Mrs. Donie Warren. I would like to have seen Elsie as it has been years since I have seen her. . . . That was a wonderful Christmas exhibit that the County Home Demonstrators had last week out at the Center. It's real amazing what can be made out of just most anything. A small table Christmas tree made from tin cans. Jewelry made from roundorks and sequins. Cute Santa Claus's made during a craft day meeting. Plastic detergent bottles, palm fronds ended up making something beautiful. The council party held Friday evening was nice. The Cecil Tuckers and Mrs. Drake entertained us with wonderful music and Miss Lucy Nowlin showed slides on Christmas lighting. New officers for the coming year were installed also. . . . There are only four days of school next week. No more till Jan. 2nd. '63. This year you will not have as long a vacation time for Christmas, kiddies. But it will be long enough anyway. . . . Little Melvin and Elizabeth Warren have been sick kiddies this week. Also little Allen Baker. . . . What's the matter with the hunters? One of the guests at our camp, Junior Mann of Orlando, came in with a pointer last week-end and that is all I have heard from. How many more days are left? . . . Helen Barbour tells me she is going to have a family reunion

Christmas at their home. That will be very nice. She has plenty of house space. And isn't it a shame that it is wintertime, so they won't be able to go in swimming in their family pool? . . . Our thought this week was given to me by Elean Coleman. It goes like this: Last yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty diamonds. No reward offered, for they are gone forever.

Pilot Rescued After Ditching
MIAMI (UPI) — An Air Force pilot ditched his F102 jet in the Gulf of Mexico near Key Largo Sunday, but was rescued later by the tanker Trans Hatteras.

The skipper of the vessel, directed to the ditching scene by the Coast Guard, reported Capt. James R. Burch of 161 Pinecrest Dr., has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. During the training, he received tests and interviews which determine future training and assignments.

Coast Guard planes which spotted Burch after the mishap dropped him a life boat, then directed the Savannah-bound tanker to his aid.

The Quiet Triumph

The Peace Corps is a far cry from the Peace Corps that was created by presidential executive order May 1, 1961. The organization established by that order is a far cry from the Peace Corps that is being planned for the future. At the end of the first year there were only 128 volunteers in Latin America, 10 in Africa, and 15 in Asia. The second year will see 10,000 volunteers in 35 countries.

New Item on Disarmament Agenda

WASHINGTON (AP) — A big sampling of Republican leaders across the country generally saw New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller topping the 1964 GOP presidential ticket as a possible serious rival just haven't jelled.

With Republican professional shrews to gather in Washington to start making lead plans for 1964, this correspondent conducted a constant survey by telephone to gauge the early sentiment. Their responses cannot be attributed to them by name.

In assigning Rockefeller a commanding front position, these leaders who were queried tended, in one sense, simply to confirm a widely held notion in and out of politics. But they flushed out the impression with interesting detail.

For one thing, it is abundantly clear that Rockefeller not only leads in the more liberal Northeast but already has made a sizable dent in the conservative Central, Plains and Mountain states. The South and Southwest are, of course, the chief areas where the governor's name evokes expressions of dislike and hostility.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Norma wonders if M is worthy to read Santa Claus stories to her children. Some religiousists vote the idea of Santa as being a pagan incubation and an over-worked commercial figure. But God gave us a precedent for Santa Claus to employ the method before when you approach December's unique religious event.

CASE 6-418: Norma G., aged 36, has two little boys. "Dr. Crane," she began, "My sons are 5 and 6 years old, so I read many stories to them.

"And before Christmas, I usually include tales about Santa Claus. But I heard a minister say we should not inject pagan ideas into religion.

"He vetoed the use of Santa Claus stories, but my sons are very fond of them. So what should I do?"

GOD—OUR FIRST SANTA God was our first Santa Claus and his unique gift to mankind was Jesus.

So there is a very real precedent for the idea of a benevolent being who is kind and generous and forgiving of our human foibles.

Remind your youngsters that God was the FIRST SANTA and everybody else who tries to do good things for others, can thus be an Assistant Santa.

What makes Christmas so unique is the fact that never in any other religion or even in Greek mythology has any other deity ever been depicted as a loving father to us puny mortals.

On every continent and in every age since the beginning of mankind, each tribe soon developed its own gods. But these gods were feared and dreaded. To appease their chronic anger, human beings offered sacrifices, as of rice and wine, or doves and sheep, or even human babies.

Nobody even dreamed that God Almighty was a friendly, forgiving Father.

Abraham probably came the nearest to viewing Jehovah in such a modern light, for the Bible says Abraham talked with God as a friend.

But Abraham still made sacrifices to appease Jehovah. The Bible tells us that God tested Abraham's love by asking him to sacrifice his only son, Isaac, as proof of his devotion.

Abraham didn't flinch. He took Isaac and went up into the mountains. Then he prepared an altar of stones; laid wood thereon, and bound Isaac.

As he raised the knife to slay his son, God had an angel stop Abraham.

But this episode is the most unusual incident in all the history of ethics prior to the Bethlehem event.

For the Bethlehem story shows us that God decided to reciprocate Abraham's faith.

When mankind still couldn't absorb the idea that God was a kindly Father instead of a vicious tyrant like Nero or Herod, and when all the prophets from Samuel and Isaiah to Malachi still couldn't persuade the people to accept this concept of a loving Deity, God apparently decided on one last great gamble.

Since Abraham was willing to prove his faith in God by sacrificing his only son, then God would reciprocate and prove his faith in mankind by doing likewise.

That is the real meaning of Christmas, which is but the prelude to Calvary and the conclusion of this reciprocity.

Remember, all tribes on all continents had always tried to howl and bribe the favor of their cruel gods by sacrifices.

Bethlehem was the first and only instance where deity ever reversed the age-old process and sacrificed to mankind!

At Christmas, therefore, please remember that the Bethlehem Story is an evidence of God's reciprocity for Abraham's faith.

And remind your children that every Santa Claus should be simply a small duplication of God Himself, who served as mankind's FIRST SANTA.

The technical words such as battery, charge, condenser, conductor, electrician, plus (for positive) and minus (for negative), first were coined by Benjamin Franklin, statesman and kite-flying electrician.

Peter Edson Political Notebook

For another not a single politician tapped in this survey suggested Rockefeller had been hurt by the fact that his $18,000-vote margin in 1962 fell below both the forecast and his 1960 showing. The matter was never even mentioned.

Not surprisingly, other names offered as 1964 possibilities were Governor-elect George Romney of Michigan and William Scranton of Pennsylvania, and Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater. One leader tossed in Sen. Thurston Morton, recently re-elected in Kentucky.

The over-all view on Romney and Scranton was, however, that in national terms they are still pretty much unknown and totally unproven. Goldwater, the deep South's overwhelming favorite, is hardly mentioned in nearly all parts of the country, but often by men who say in the next breath that he could not be elected and may not be a serious candidate.

No respondent talked so far as he had yet made more than a mental commitment to Rockefeller, if that. Some said they were "open-minded" on the 1964 race, wanted to see more of him and others, but nevertheless felt he is today far and away the leader.

In this connection, it is not widely known that George Hinman, Rockefeller's chief forger in national pastures for the last two years, recently wrote GOP leaders in several major states declining any present Rockefeller interest to seek 1964 committee.

In substantially identical letters, Hinman said the governor not only is not now seeking support but for the time remains personally uncommitted to running — and thinks the party should keep itself free on the subject.

This can hardly brake for long the expected early move toward the 1964 nomination. These comments illustrate Rockefeller's still improving position out front:

From a Midwesterner: "He has served with ability, got his bills paid, showed fierce responsibility. I can't see anyone else right now."

A Plains state politician: "This stuff about Rockefeller not being popular out here... I wonder where they're getting it. Not from the people I talked to. Most think he's the logical and the probable one."

A Mountain State leader: "Goldwater is well-liked here, but I find an increasing acceptance of the idea Rockefeller is ahead and may well be the nominee. On one visit he did a terrific job converting a conservative legislator who had threatened to boycott his talk."

Southern leaders' disapproval of Rockefeller is perhaps best summed up by one spokesman who said: "He is poison in the South."

But, after Goldwater, the southerners say little about alternative choices. One mentioned Romney, another Morton. Usually they stop with Goldwater.

Party leaders in other regions are, however, just about as vague on second choice.

Romney gets somewhat more attention than Scranton, but most seem to agree with the New Englander who said: "He's going to have to go through the fire first."

Seminole Press Wears Oviedo Down, 67-43

Oviedo took a good lead before the Sanford Seminoles woke up Friday night, but the Lions couldn't stay with it and finally were beat down in the second half, 67-43.

With DeShazo and Tesinsky netting several quick baskets, Oviedo took an early lead in the contest and the score was only 12-12 at the end of the first quarter in the Seminoles' favor. The Lions played nip and tuck ball with the taller Sanford five during the second period too, with the halftime score standing at 27-25 for Sanford.

Mike Woodruff and Don McMurray showed a lot of ability in sneaking the ball away from the Lion dribblers and helped the Seminoles' fast break produce the big final margin.

Butch Riser scored 16 points before fouling out in the last quarter, Woodruff had 14 and David MacGillis came on with 10. Insertion of Barry Barks into the lineup gave a good boost to the Sanford punch, with the Jayvee graduates scoring 11 points and proving a scrappy defensive player and a handy rebounder.

Mickey Tesinsky led the Oviedo scorers with 10 points and the Lions showed a lot of fire until the second half when they started to lose the ball to Sanford's full court press. Oviedo's point makers appeared especially accurate at the foul line, only missing one free toss during the entire first half.

The Sanford Jayvees made it two in a row with an opening victory over the Oviedo junior varsity. The score of that one was 61-26.

Invictas Remain At Top Of Loop

The Invictas are still in first place on the Bill Hemp Hill Motorcres B o w l i n g League, the Pontiacs are second and the Starchiefs are in the third place slot.

Betty Richey bowled a 181 with a 448 series, and Elaine Kostival had high series for the day with a 468. Other high games were 170 by Shirley Maxwell and a 109 by Mabel Duggan.

Billie Chantot of the R-riaras converted the 3-5-10 split, the 3-10 was knocked down by Connie Branson, Elaine Kostival, Nola Ferguson, and Mary Elmore got 5-10 and the 5-7. Des Reo picked off the 6-6, Kat Noel the 8-10, and Mally Salter the 5-7-9 and the 2-7. Betty Richey got the only turkey for the day.

Zeuli Team Beats League Leaders

In last week's All Star League play the P. Zeuli and Sons team rose up from the depths to smite the mighty Larry's Mart outfit and take two out of three from the league leaders. This is the first time the top team has lost more than one game in a match this season.

In spite of the defeat in games, the Larry's Mart men did some outstanding bowling to roll a new team high with John Wright posting a 247, Gary Fox, a 243 and Al DePalma a 236, for a total fall of 726.

Meador's Marine gained a game on the second place Betty Ann's when they got two out of three from the second slot occupants, and they moved up to within one game of the Betty's.

Sanford Dry Cleaners took Faust Drugs into catap with three straight and Fralley Concrete did the same job on Handy Food Stores.

In addition to the big ones rolled by the Larry's Mart team, other over - 200 games were by Maxwell, 231/663, Walker, 230/662, T. Jones, 223/506, Callan, 222/589, Swann, 213 /540, Behrens, 212/524, Kipp, 212/561, Herbst, 202/548, Wallace, 201/-532, and John Zeuli, 200/567.

KEEPING AN EYE ON THE BALL are the Seminoles' Don McMurray (4), Oviedo's Jimmy Courier and DeShazo as they scrambled in the third quarter of Friday's game. Jimmy Jones, (45) Butch Riser (42) and Barry Barks (32) also joined the scrap for the ball before Sanford got it and scored a goal.

20 Kennels Arrive At Dog Track

Twenty kennels already have arrived for the 1968 racing season at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club and bertillions have been completed on more than 500 of the greyhounds.

Bertillions, a system of "fingerprinting" the greyhounds competing in parmutual racing, are being done by presiding Judge Bernard Collins and paddock Judge Phil Miller.

First view of the 1968 greyhound hopefuls will be Dec. 25 when 30 schooling races will be run, beginning at 7 p.m. The racing season begins Jan. 5, with eight nights of schooling events slated between Dec. 25 and opening night.

Racing Sec. Pitsy Williamson already is mulling over the Inaugural Handicap candidates. Almost sure to gain a berth is Fred Whitehead's Mac Tray, winner of eight of his last nine starts last season and recognized as one of the finest sprinters in the country.

Williamson also is thinking about Ed's Exodus of the J. M. Edwards Kennel. Ed's Exodus is an experienced stakes race competitor and has a national reputation equal to that of Mac Tray. A pair of pups who ran their maiden races at SOKO last season have gone to the big leagues since January and also may earn Inaugural berths. They are Mike Secretary and Jeff Mac, both owned by Paul Boone.

Snead Injured

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Quarterback Norm Snead of the Washington Redskins suffered a shoulder separation Sunday during the first period of the Redskins' game with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Snead was hit by Steeler linebacker John Reger after getting off a pass.

By JACK TRIM

Cold weather seems to agitate shad fever worse than anything.

A victim of the fever may be resting fairly comfortably momentarily, but if advised of approaching freezing weather, he will be seized immediately with the shakes and itch to get on the river.

This happened here during the past few days of icicles.

There was not a day of the cold period (still slightly with us, as a matter of fact) when the shad fishermen gave up completely.

One group of hardy visitors from Indiana were out during what probably will become well known as "the big freeze of '68" and they caught 10 shad, with two roe. The visitors came as guests of Ralph Cox of Orlando, who was pretty determined to show them that Florida weather can be temporarily had without knocking out all our fun.

There was a report Friday from the Fort Myers area of a fisherman's bonus for those who braved the sub-freezing temperature there. All the snook they could want were available for picking.

The popular game fish, apparently killed by the cold, floated by the hundreds in the mouths of the rivers near Fort Myers, conservation officers reported. The fish were not spoiled and made good eating, the report said.

It's not likely that anybody paid much attention to the item in here last week about the weed patch with the park sign on it by the Geneva Bridge, but a visitors to our area Sunday noticed the weeds and had something to say

Lyman Defeated By Lakeview

Lyman's Greyhounds tried hard, but couldn't muster enough points to overtake Lakeview's Devils Friday night at Winter Garden and lost their second outing of the season by a 48-41 decision.

In spite of Donnie Smith's 19 points which made him high point man for the evening, the Lyman team was outscored in every quarter but the second. The score at halftime was 23-22 in favor of Winter Garden quintet.

The home team put the game on ice with a big 16 point fourth quarter that Lyman couldn't match. La Rue Balmer was second high man for the Greyhounds with eight points and Lakeview's Martin was second high scorer for the night with 18 tallies.

Avery said he didn't know what could be done in this particular case, but he agreed that the importance of the shad season as a winter visitor attraction has been ignored by most of our officials and residents.

Giant Fans Pay Webster Tribute

NEW YORK (UPI) — Full-back Alex Webster was presented with a cruiser speedboat Sunday for being voted the New York Giants' Most Valuable Player of the year by a chain of 40 New York clothing stores. On Saturday Webster was presented with a Catholic Youth Organization award as the most popular Giant player.

"LET'S TALK DRY CLEANING"

By - WOODROW CASE

Holiday occasions, with extra eating and drinking, often mean spots and stains and soiling on your better dresses, evening gowns and cocktail dresses, as well as on Dad's best suit. On delicate, fragile fabrics such stains can often be a special problem.

Food and drink stains of many kinds belong to the "stainin'" family. Such stains are often colorless and don't show up until after they've "aged" a bit. Then they begin to turn a brownish color. They'll also become visible when exposed to air or especially to heat.

We have special techniques for dealing with many such stains, which won't come out in regular cleaning. One technique is called "spot digesting." It uses the same principle our bodies use to digest food. A special "live" enzyme is used to "digest" the stain prior to cleaning, without harming the fabric or its color. This has to be done at carefully controlled temperatures.

Such techniques are just one evidence of how much today's reliable dry cleaner has become a specialist. You can rely on our special knowledge, equipment and skills to give the glamour treatment to your garments... and do it safely! Remember... if your clothes aren't becoming to you, they should be coming to us!

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: For the past 24 years of our marriage we have spent Thanksgiving and Christmas with my husband's mother, who lives 40 miles away. She is now 80, and for the last 24 years we have felt it might be her last because she has not been feeling well. I used to make a big Thanksgiving dinner for the entire family. We had all my husband's brothers and sisters and their children, and it was fun. But for five years now, after all the plans were made, I'd get a call the day before that Mother didn't feel up to the confusion, and we ended up taking her to the hotel for dinner — minus the children. The children are growing up and I want the whole family together at my home at holiday time. What can I do? The holidays have been ruined for so many years. I am sick of hearing "it may be Mother's last."

HELP
DEAR HELP: Franklin Roosevelt changed the date of Thanksgiving and so can you. Next year have your big Thanksgiving dinner at home, with all the children, the day before Thanksgiving — or the day after. Take Mother out on Thanksgiving Day to keep her (and your husband) happy. And celebrate Christmas Eve with your family at home — and Christmas Day with Mother.

DEAR ABBY: Our son recently came home from Korea. His first week he just sat around the house enjoying the luxury of being home. He also taught our parakeet to swear. It is very embarrassing to us, but our son seems to think it is a big joke. What should we do?

SGT.'S MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Get another parakeet and teach it to pray for the one who swears.
DEAR ABBY: Our son married a girl who handles all the money and makes all the decisions. He has had a piano since the age of five and he loves to play. When he was married we gave him his piano. It was a fine piano and he got great enjoyment from it. Well, they moved into a new home and his wife sold the piano to strangers for $200. She claims she didn't have room for it. (She had room for a seven-foot bar in her den, though.) Now they are making their basement into a recreation room and she suddenly decided they needed a piano. She has been hinting right and left that we should buy them one. Would you if you were us?

THE OLD FOLKS

DEAR OLD FOLKS: Why punish your son? He has enough problems. If anyone needs the relaxation and tranquility playing the piano provides, your son does. If you intend to give him a gift, buy him a piano — with no strings!

DEAR ABBY: For you and that bewildered Mr. Tucker, who wanted to find out where the expression "all tuckered out" came from: It dates back to the old English dialect. It originated from "tucked up" — which means cramped for space. It finally came to mean "all worn out" or "all tuckered out." I don't know why you got so tuckered out trying to get this information. I got it from the English Department at the University of Minnesota in less than an hour.
"FRESH AS A DAISY" (MINNEAPOLIS)

DEAR READERS: If you have sent for the pecan pie recipe I offered and have not as yet received it, please be patient. I have had over 100,000 requests.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

A lady from Peoria writes "My partner won East's queen of hearts with the ace and tried the diamond finesse. It lost and a heart came back whereupon my partner wound up making two hearts and four tricks in each minor suit for a total of 10. My partner blamed me for not raising her to three no-trump, but I felt that I had shown my full values and that her two no-trump might have been made with a lot less than the 14 points she held. I will appreciate your comments."
My comments are that North's bidding was entirely correct. She had opened with a minimum hand and when her partner gave her a chance to pass she should take advantage of the opportunity. Blame for missing the easy game falls right on South's shoulders. Her first bid was fine. It always pays to explore major suit possibilities. Her second bid was inadequate. There is a principle of bidding that many players overlook. This is that when you know where you are going, go there directly. South had 14 points and a no-trump type hand opposite an opening bid. Her spade response had obtained the information that her partner held a minimum or near minimum, but South surely wanted to be in three no-trump and should have bid it.

Judge Assists In Spanking
HOUSTON (UPI) — Judge Abe Levy, lecturing a 16-year-old boy in Corporation Court for failure to pay a traffic ticket, said Thursday that what the boy needs was a good spanking.
The boy's 42-year-old mother agreed. "But he is too big, and I can't catch him to give him one," she said.
The judge ordered a policeman to lend the woman a belt. The boy was ordered to lean over a table. The mother then spanked her son in open court.

the groom. (This could result in a lot of about-to-be-married young men getting cold feet before they ever get to the altar.)
What does the groom receive at these showers? Well, nothing to make him feel like the gay, young bachelor he still is, but everything to remind him of the duties and responsibilities he is about to assume.
Tools of all kinds seem to be favorite shower gifts for the groom-to-be. That is sure to remind him that in his future life he is going to be expected to be a handy man.
In case he doesn't know how to use the tools, he is bound to get more than one how-to book. They'll explain how to do everything from fixing a leaky faucet to fixing a rotary phone. Not very inspiring reading for a romantic young blade who has probably never thought of marriage in terms of home repairs.
And, of course, the groom-to-be is sure to get a set of barbecue tools, a chef's cap, and a book of recipes for the outdoor grill. While these may all prove practical, it may come as a shock to a young man to realize that in marrying he is not only acquiring a cook, he is promising to learn to be one.

Women know from the time that they are little girls that marriage means dishwashing and bedmaking and cooking and ironing.
But men need to be introduced to domesticity in gradual and painless doses. A prenuptial shower at which he is loaded down with all the equipment for being a handy man and outdoor cook is enough to scare away a young man before he ever gets the ring on the girl's finger.

Sanford Mayor J. E. (Jimmy) Crappa and Police Chief Roy Williams today ordered free parking in the downtown area for Christmas shoppers. The order went into effect this morning and will continue through next Monday.

Mayor Crappa, in issuing the order, said "the city wants to do everything it can to work with the merchants in making it easier for our residents to shop at home."

Special courtesy tags will be placed on cars that over-parked in the downtown area. The tickets will read: "You have parked here beyond the metered time. We know you did not intend to violate our city ordinance. Your cooperation is solicited in making space for other Christmas shoppers."

Chief Williams asked downtown business employees to please use the city parking lot and not park their vehicles along First St.

Downtown Sanford merchants continued their shop-at-home campaign this week with late shopping hours for area residents.

Stores are staying open until 9 p. m. from now until Christmas for shoppers' convenience.

Cuban Prisoner Deal On Again

MIAMI (UPI) — New York attorney James B. Donovan and a negotiating group left for Havana aboard a special plane today apparently to arrange the ransom of 1,113 Cuban invaders before Christmas.

Donovan and three members of the Cuban Families Committee departed at 9 a. m. aboard a Pan American World Airways plane, which had been standing by awaiting approval of their flight plans by Premier Fidel Castro's government.

With Donovan were Alvaro Sanchez, president of the Families Committee Mrs. Beria Barreto, Cuban go-between in the negotiations who came to the United States about three weeks ago; and Virginia Betancourt.

The three Cuban members of the delegation all have relatives among the prisoners captured during the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion in April, 1961.

The group had waited all night for Cuban government approval of their trip, and the departure this morning indicated it was forthcoming only shortly before they took off.

Before they left, arrangements were reported under way to mass supplies in the Miami area for ransom of the prisoners.

Details of the ransom deal never have been made public. At one point, Castro demanded $2 million for the release of the prisoners, but he is believed to have agreed to accept supplies of less value.

No firm information could be obtained either here or in Havana as to the travel plans of Donovan or others in his party.

A Cuban spokesman said Donovan received a telephone call Sunday night instructing him to leave for Cuba immediately.

"We are very hopeful this whole situation can be cleared up in the next few days," the spokesman said. "We're back in a cliff-hanging situation."

Warmer Weather Deteriorates Fruit

Citrus fruit here is beginning to deteriorate because of the warm weather, Assistant County Agent Ernie Lundberg reported today.

Lundberg warned it is better to continue to be mild and fair it will mean more and heavier droppage of fruit and an increased breakdown of the county's hardy vegetables including celery and cabbage.

"The cooler the weather the more we can salvage," Lundberg said.

Earlier County Agent Cecil Tucker reported that most of the citrus crop could be salvaged if the temperature would stay below 45.

The low reading predicted in the Sanford area today was 48 and more warm and mild weather is forecast tonight and Wednesday.

Man Slays Four With Crowbar

LAKEWOOD, N. J. (UPI) — A chicken farmer told police Monday night he killed his parents and brother and sister with a crowbar.

"God had told me to do it because my family is bad," police quoted Gabriel Trifari, 30.

Trifari was arrested after he led police to his isolated farm home in nearby Howell township.

In the neat, comfortably furnished white-frame farmhouse police found the battered bodies of his mother, Marie, 60, and his sister, Olga, 36. In a workshop, where the family repaired pocketbooks for department stores across the nation, they found the body of his father, Maxim, 65.

Sanford-Coast Canal Could Be Priority Choice

Frank H. Brownnett, Jacksonville, president of the Florida Waterways Assn., declared at a meeting of the organization in Winter Park Monday that the Sanford-Canaveral Canal will probably be constructed before the Cross State Canal.

Brownnett made his prediction in discussing the immediate need for the construction of a canal-way across Florida if Cape Canaveral is to keep its primacy as a missile test and launch center.

With the advent of super rockets, said Brownnett, is becoming increasingly difficult to transport them around the end of the peninsula, and the importance of a cross state canal is becoming more and more obvious.

But if any canal is to be built, there must be a state-wide effort, and Brownnett said he felt the construction of the Sanford-Canaveral project would come first because it would be the most economical to construct.

Addressing the group, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce manager John Krider, pointed out that the longer the delay in constructing the cross-Florida canals, less and less becomes the prospects of "any of us here seeing them completed in our lifetime."

Krider pointed out that Florida receives an average grant for public works of only $12 million to $14 million per year, and "here we are hoping to get a $700 million appropriation out of a limited amount of funds that everyone of the other 48 states hopes to dip into also."

Senator Randolph Hodges, Cedar Keys, director of the State Board of Conservation, said the conservation board has made several trips to Washington to ask for funds to begin construction on the cross state canal and there is reason to believe that the next session of Congress will set aside over $6 million in the new national budget for construction funds for the project.

Hodges pointed out that the business climate and present state of our missile preparedness program make mandatory the construction of the Sanford-Canaveral canal and the cross state waterway. But, he said, it will call for a unified effort at the state level to achieve the objective.

Krider also pointed to the need for a total state effort in carrying out the waterways program for Florida, and said the answer to funds might lie in a state financed program to get the ball rolling before it is too late.

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce manager previously has spoken in favor of an additional one percent sales tax which would bring in roughly $70 million a year and would be enough to get the two projects afloat and provide some chance of completion even if federal money failed to come through.

Red Chinese Greatest Threat, Kennedy Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy said Monday night that Red China, not Russia, is the decade's greatest threat to world peace.

The president said "We would be far worse off—the world would be—if the Chinese dominated the Communist movement."

Kennedy made the statement in an unusual radio and television interview covering his first two years as president, which he said had given him "great satisfaction."

The interview ranged over a wide number of subjects, both domestic and international, but Kennedy's emphasis showed his concern with world affairs.

Kennedy said "I don't think there is a need" for a meeting between him and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev now, and "I think he probably feels the same way."

Because of Cuba, "it is going to be some time before it is possible for us to come to any real understandings with Mr. Khrushchev."

Without minimizing the danger of Russia's goal of world communism, Kennedy said "we are better off with the Khrushchev view than we are with the Chinese Communist view, quite obviously."

"But Mr. Khrushchev does not wish us well, unfortunately," he added.

Rather than trying to widen the rift between Moscow and Peking, the president said, attention should be given to bolstering the cause of freedom by helping suffering areas of the world.

"I think that anybody who looks at the fatality lists on atomic weapons and realizes that the Communists have a completely twisted view of the United States, and that we don't comprehend them, that is what makes life in the sixties hazardous," he said.

Kennedy said that while the showdown over Cuba taught the Communists something, great dangers still exist.

"One mistake can make this whole thing blow up," he said.

Embargo In Effect

LAKELAND (UPI) — An embargo on the shipment of fresh citrus out of Florida was in full effect today, five days ahead of when most citrusmen had planned a week ago. The embargo went into effect at 6 p. m. Monday by order of the Florida Citrus Commission to prevent freeze-damaged fruit from getting into the hands of consumers and causing possible long damage to the industry.

Effort Continues On Airport Site

The airport committee of the Chamber of Commerce hopes to come up with a possible site for an airport to serve the city of Sanford soon, chairman Merle Warner said today.

The committee has been waiting to see what the County Commission is going to do with Ocoee airport before coming to any conclusions on the selection of a site, said Warner.

Representatives of the Seminole chamber met this afternoon with Orlando Mayor Robert Carr to discuss the designation of the commercial jet plane facilities at McCoy Air Force Base as the Central Florida jet port.

It was pointed out by John Krider, chamber manager, that the idea is to get the Orlando installation named and get the support of the Central Florida counties for it rather than have the proposed jet port in the Eau Gallie-Melbourne area established as being the Central Florida jet port.
