Promoted As Thrillers, Dramas Called Mediocre
NEW YORK (UPI)—Two CBS-TV shows presented four dramas Wednesday night that, I suppose, were offered as thrillers. Both managed to avoid agitating my nerve ends to any discernible extent.
One was one of those Irish Republican Army things where everyone acts irrationally amidst deaf sounds and it was preferred by the "I. Steel Hour," a program that has racked up a record of amazingly consistent mediocrity recently.
Wednesday night's steel show employed Barry Sullivan, Philip Bourneau and Geraldine Brooks, all of them players of competence. But they were thrown into a situation where prospective murderers acted foolishly, their victim foolishly and the victim's wife foolishly. I was all... well, kind of foolish.
The other CBS-TV drama show, "Pursuit," shows every sign — I said at the beginning of the season — of becoming another "Cliffhanger" show. You remember "Cliffhanger" — it was a rather tedious hour of theatrics which folded last season.
Wednesday night's "Pursuit" — "Kiss Me Again, Stranger" — was cast in the typical "Cliffhanger" mold: A suspense show without suspense. An action story without action. A thriller that more closely resembled a thriller. Margaret O'Brien and Jeffrey Hunter starred with a couple of teky roles. Myron McCormick and Mort Sahl were wasted.
Short Shot: Helen Traubel

The Channel Swim: ABC-TV's "Sammy Kaye Show" is headed for the graveyard. CBS-TV's "Twentieth Century" is preparing a profile of Woodrow Wilson. Hermina Givoli, a semi-regular on the NBC-TV "Jack Paar Show," will have her memoirs, "The World Is Square," published on Dec. 10.
Martin Manulis, former boss of CBS-TV's "Playhouse 90," is supervising production of a 20th Century-Fox TV pilot film about a college freshman, "The Many Loves of Bobie Gillis." Max Schulman is writing the script. Edward Downes will take over the intermission quizmaster job on CBS Radio's Metropolitan Opera broadcasts when they uncrack on Nov. 28 with "Carmen" Downes' father, Olin, also held the quiz job several seasons back.
Ann Loring, who plays "Tammy" on CBS-TV's "Love of Life," has sold a play, "Autumn Decision," to a Broadway producer. Arthur Godfrey has booked in Ned Barber, Sam Levenson and Robert Briscoe, former lord mayor of Dublin, for chat sessions on his CBS-TV morning show.

Gov. Almond Says 'No Mixing Ever'

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—Gov. J. Lindsay Almond today labeled the Supreme Court "nine lawning puppets of political pressure groups" and reiterated his intention never willingly to permit integration of Virginia's public schools.

Almond said to concede Supreme Court decisions to be law would be to concede we are in utter chaos because no man can predict from one day to the next what new theories dissolving other rights will be expounded under the guise of a decision of the Supreme Court.

"I do not concede an opinion of the Supreme Court to be the law of the land," Almond said. "If I did, I would be just as guilty of displaying lack of respect for the Constitution as were those nine lawning puppets of political pressure groups who landed down the school decision in May of 1954."

Almond charged before the annual convention of the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation that the Supreme Court in ordering desegregation "has ignored the 9th, 10th and 11th Amendments" to the U.S. Constitution. "In addition to all precedents and the judicial restraint that should accompany its every decision."

"It was with the deepest respect," Almond said, "that I witnessed the inane NAACP, with the ready and prompt obedience of the federal courts, close schools in Warren County and in the cities of Charlottesville and Norfolk depriving thousands of pupils of the use of their classrooms."

"I place the blame for the present situation exactly where it belongs—with the NAACP and the federal judiciary. They can never escape that responsibility in the mind and conscience of a shocked and beleaguered people."

The first shell was thrown out all right. But the second discharged the blast hitting the child.

Seminole To Play Apopka On Dec. 5

The Seminole High School football team, newly-crowned champions of the Orange Belt Conference, will play Apopka High in the Celery Bowl here on Friday, Dec. 5.

A contract for the game, first post-season affair for Sanford, was signed today by principals of the two schools. Seminole High reigned as OBC champion today following its victory over Lakeview Friday night.

Its victory over Lakeview Friday night, 29-19, and its defeat of Apopka 13-7, by Winter Park Saturday night. It is the first OBC title for the Sanford school since the conference was organized four years ago.

Signing the contract today were A. J. Braeken, Seminole principal, and Roger A. Williams, Apopka principal, on hand for the occasion was Fred Ganas, Seminole athletic director.

The Celery Bowl game will be a rematch between the two schools, which battled to a scoreless tie in regular season's play. The game was played in a downpour of rain and neither team was able to demonstrate its proficiency with the muckin'.

Apopka closed out its season here Wednesday night against Deland. The final game will be homecoming. Going into the game, the Sanford team has six victories, two losses and one tie.

Alabama Pupil Law Upheld By Court
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court ruled today that the Alabama pupil placement law—as written—is constitutional.

Today's brief order affirmed a lower court ruling in this effect. An appeal had been filed by four Negro children.

A three-judge federal court held last May that the Alabama statute, on its face, provides the machinery for administering the schools "in a constitutional manner by the admission of qualified pupils upon a basis of individual merit without regard to their race or color."

The opinion said the record in the case did not show the exclusion of the four Negroes from schools of their choice to be based on anything but a proper test. But the opinion added if the law were not properly administered it might be declared unconstitutional in some future lawsuit.

Today's high court order made it plain that it was affirming "on the limited grounds on which the district court rested its decision."

The case started with an application by the children in August, 1957, for transfer to white schools in Birmingham near a few of their homes. They brought suit in federal court after the Birmingham Board of Education failed to act on their application within a time limit set by the school placement law.

Cleveland Shoots For Birdies, Birds
Mack Cleveland Jr. emerged victorious from the Mayfair Men's Sunday "Turkey Tournament" with three birds, two of which he donated to charity. The remaining gobbler weighed in at 27 pounds and came complete with feathers, crop and trot.

Cleveland was winner of the "closest to the pin on 16", a member of the winning team and runner-up for highest individual points. Major Roy Brown won a live turkey for most individual points.

U. S. political adviser Finley Burns set forth the U. S. stand in a note to Soviet headquarters here protesting Sunday's attempt by Red police to kidnap a television cameraman from Berlin's American sector.

Savings League Reports Favorable '59 Forecast

George Touhy, First Federal Savings and Loan executive vice-president, returned over the weekend from San Francisco where he attended the national convention of the U. S. Savings and Loan League.

He said outstanding authorities forecast favorable business conditions in the national economy for 1959.

An accepted figure for housing starts in that 12-month period is $1,200,000, Touhy said. He added that "factors contributing to the optimistic outlook are increasing savings by thrifty Americans to provide for future needs, rising family incomes, stepped up gross national product, improvements in housing materials, a move toward more efficient construction methods."

The closing talk of the general sessions was by the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the California diocese of the Episcopal church, whose theme was "Your Business as a Ministry."

Men of national prominence appearing on the general sessions program included Perry Frentzer, editor of House and Home Magazine; Henry J. Kaiser Jr., vice-president of Henry J. Kaiser Co.; Dr. Arthur M. Weimer, noted economist; William A. Lyon, president of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks; James Landrum, professor of architecture, University of Florida.

From the national government was Arthur J. Sparkman, (D-Ala.) chairman of the Housing subcommittee of the Senate Banking committee; Rep. Gordon L. McDonough (R-Cal.) second ranking Republican of the Housing subcommittee; Albert J. Robert, chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

C. R. Mitchell, Kansas City, was elected president of the U. S. League. To serve with him as vice president the savings and loan men named W. O. DuVal of Atlanta.

Thieves Shopping; Tastes Are Varied
Sanford thieves have a normal variety of tastes in merchandise. Clothing, shoes and liquor were stolen over the weekend. Gene Estridge reported this morning that his dry cleaning branch at 2467 Park Ave. had been entered.

The building also houses Carter's Shoe Store, which reported the loss of five pairs of reported shoes, two pairs of black boots (sizes 8 and 9 1/2) and a patched rain jacket. Estridge could not estimate the amount of clothing taken from his establishment.

Approximately $50 in cash and an unknown amount of stock were taken from the C & C Liquor Store, 312 Sanford Ave. The robbery was reported this morning by Mrs. Mary Coreolis. Police officers said that in both cases entrance had been gained through the rear of the buildings.

Honeymoon Couple Use Stolen Plane
MIAMI (UPI)—A 25-year-old man from Flint, Mich., was before a federal commissioner here today on charges that he and his bride flew south for their honeymoon in a stolen airplane.

Federal agents arrested David M. Richmond, a licensed pilot, when he was returned to Miami from Cuba. The federal warrant charged that he flew the plane from Teterboro, N. J., to Miami and then on to Cuba.

Cuban authorities had picked up Richmond under a federal warrant which accused him of returning had checked to rent a car and to rent the plane in New Jersey.

Local Boy Finds $1,375 Proves Area Folk Honest
Stanley Howell, who now has more money than he ever had before, could have had a lot more had he not been honest.

Stanley is only five years old but when he found a wallet containing $1,375 in bills and several dollars in change he took it home to his parents, who conducted a three-hour telephone search for the owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howell Jr., Stanley's parents, live in Lake Mary. Stanley found the wallet in a public phone booth yesterday about 1 p. m.

His mother called local authorities and the Graham in the telephone book—after finding the name on a card inside the wallet.

After three hours, she found a Graham who put her in touch with the owner, Mrs. David Wendell of Lansing, Mich.

Mrs. Wendell was here in search of real estate for retirement in the area. The money represented her husband's life's savings. Mrs. Wendell evidently had left the wallet in the phone booth while calling the bus station.

The happy woman presented Stanley with $10, a large sum for a five-year-old, and left Lake Mary with a warm regard for its honest folk. And when she and her husband return, odds are high that Stanley will have top priority on the Wendell cookie jar.

Weather
Partly cloudy and warm with widely scattered showers through Tuesday. High today 80 to 83, low tonight about 65. East to south-east winds 10 to 15 miles per hour.

Big Crimes Climb, FBI Report Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Major crimes in the United States increased 11 per cent in the first nine months of this year over the same period last year, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported today.

Robbery, burglary, forcible rape and larceny led the mounting crime wave.

The figures were given in the first of a series of FBI quarterly "crime index" reports aimed at showing the nationwide crime picture more frequently.

The report noted that the former classes of negligent manslaughter,

Negro Is Charged In Deaths Of Four

MULBERRY (UPI) — A Mulberry Negro was held in $20,000 bond on a manslaughter charge today in connection with a two-car collision that took the lives of four persons.

The front car left the road, overturned several times and burst into flames. All four persons were trapped inside the flaming wreckage and burned to death.

Killed were George Austin Cochran, 31, his wife, Murlene, 24, Roy Watson, 51, and his wife, Irene. All were from Mulberry.

The Cochrans were the parents of five children and the Watson couple had three children.

Hell said Watson was driving east on State Road 89 when his car was overtaken and struck by Fields' vehicle. Officers said Fields, who escaped injury, had been drinking and was traveling at a high rate of speed.

Jets utilize water-injection on take-offs—for added power. In a two-minute take-off, that means 6,000 gallons of water which has to be purer than the water you drink.

Squadron Is Busy With Air Strikes

"No time to get rusty" was allowed VAH-5 when the squadron, recently returned from nine months aboard the Saratoga, conducted 84 simulated aircraft strikes during a co-ordinated Atlantic Fleet exercise in the Caribbean.

For three days the crews, flying A-1H Skywarriors, operated from Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, in a mock war against the Atlantic Fleet. The fleet was defended against the attacks by air groups from the USS Intrepid and the USS Roosevelt.

The Sanford squadron was commanded by Commanding Officer Floyd Harris for accomplishing 180 per cent of the required missions scheduled. The additional strikes added to the effectiveness of the exercise, and provided valuable statistics for analysts studying fleet tactics and equipment.

Cdr. Harris recently relieved Cdr. William Hazzlett as commanding officer of VAH-5. The squadron returned to Sanford Friday afternoon.

True Thanksgiving

BY REV. H. M. SNOW
 Finest Assembly of God
 "LEST WE FORGET"

One of the most outstanding things that we of this great nation have to be thankful for is the fact that we live in the United States of America. A land, not with just a meager existence, but a land of an abundant supply of all good things.

But it is too easy for us to take too much for granted and we fail to stop and recognize the great Omnipotent hand of God back of all our good blessings that we enjoy daily. I am afraid some do not even take time to give thanks for the food that sustains their physical bodies. But ask yourself, "should I be so forgetful?"

In view of the fact that the Word of God tells us in James

1:17, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning," allow me to remind you friend, that our God is a good God.

It is the devil of whom Jesus said "the enemy is come but for to steal and to kill, and to destroy. I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10). Let us join the psalmist in saying "I will bless the Lord at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth." (Psalm 34:1).

May we all be further reminded of our duty to God by this quotation from Deuteronomy 6:10: "And it shall be, when the Lord thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildest not, and houses full of all good things, which thou fillest not, and wells digged, which thou diggest not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantest not, when thou shalt have eaten and be full; then beware lest thou forget the Lord."

Ovieco Cagers Get Win, Play Tuesday

The Ovieco Lions opened their 1938-39 basketball season on a winning note Friday night, walling Pierson, 89-42.

Leading the way for the Lions was Mike Duda, who tossed in 27 points. Duda had 13 field goals.

Only one free throw to account for his total. While Duda was hitting from all parts of the court, he was getting able support from Johnny Testsky, Wallace Kelsey and Jimmy Brookshire. All were in the double figures.

Kelsey had one from the floor, one from the line for 10 points; Testsky hit eight times from the field for 16 and Brookshire scored an even dozen, all on field goals.

The Lions scored a 24-8 lead in the first period, led 44-24 at the half and 74-41 at the end of three.

In a preliminary contest, the Ovieco girls beat Pierson, 22-44. Leading Ovieco scorer was Mary Ann Clayton with 13 points, just one short of the Pierson total.

Others who saw action in the boys' game were Fred Alford (21), Joseph Duda (13), Willis (11), Higgs (1), Ben Wainwright and Ken Sparks.

Tomorrow night, Coach Paul Miller's squad goes after its second win. The Lions will be host of Seville.

Grace and Rainier Arrive For Visit

NEW YORK (UPI)—Former movie queen Grace Kelly, who abdicated her throne in Hollywood to become the real-life princess of Monaco, came home Sunday in a Thanksgiving spirit with the folks in Philadelphia.

The radiant princess, bundled against a chill wind in a full-length mink coat, was greeted at Idlewild International Airport by her father, John B. Kelly Sr., a millionaire contractor who's never been out of the fact he once worked as a bricklayer.

At his daughter's side was her royal husband, Prince Rainier, who seemed as sorry as she that their legal offspring, Princess Caroline, 22 months, and Prince Albert, 8 months, won't be with them for their month-long stay in the United States.

Invasion Hinted, Venezuela Ready

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI)—Unconfirmed reports reaching here today said deposed dictator Marcos Perez Jimenez and former son Luis Uruera Perez are organizing an invasion force in the Dominican Republic.

Railroaders To Get Higher Pay, Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. Owen Harris said today Congress next year will boost railroad retirement benefits about 10 percent and pay for it by levying higher payroll taxes on railroads and their employees.

The Arkansas Democrat is chairman of the House Commerce Committee, which handles legislation dealing with the railroad retirement program.

Harris said the legislation he envisioned could add as much as 160 million dollars a year or more to the tax bill of the railroads.

The railroad retirement fund is managed by the government and financed through equal contributions of railroads and their employees.

Despite protests that some railroads were already threatened with bankruptcy, the Senate in the closing days of the last Congress overwhelmingly approved a 10 per cent boost in retirement benefits and a sharp increase in maximum unemployment pay for railroad workers.

The legislation died when Harris and other House backers were unable to arrange House action on the bill before Congress adjourned.

"There's no doubt that the legislation will be enacted next year," Harris told a reporter.

An estimated 650,000 retired railroad workers, widows and other survivors would benefit from the increased annuities.

In an emergency, a jetliner can descend safely at a rate of 12,000 feet per minute—twice the maximum descent rate of a piston aircraft.

More Poultry Needed To Bolster Economy

Agriculture plays a vital role in the economy of Seminole County. It is a $12½ million annual business. All figures point to growth of the farm industry here.

Citrus and vegetable production, the two biggest phases of local farming, are growing. Increases also are noted in dairying, livestock and poultry, horticultural specialties and others. As pointed out by County Agent Cecil Tucker, farming is the backbone of Seminole County's economy.

About 80 per cent of the county's land is devoted to farming. Thousands of persons are employed in agricultural endeavors. Thousands of others depend upon the farmer as a customer.

The farm picture is rosy, the future golden. However, there is one "soft spot" in the industry. This lies in the production of chickens and eggs.

We believe that more emphasis should be put on broiler and egg production. This was advocated by the Department Commission and the First Resource Corp. Seminole County does not produce enough eggs to feed its own population. Chickens, too, are imported.

Based on financial facts gathered from areas which emphasize poultry and egg production, this phase of agriculture can be very profitable. It doesn't require a great deal of land. Nor is the original investment too high.

In this day of diversification, Seminole farmers well might consider the broiler business as a source of more income. The broiler industry is one which can be fitted into the present farm operation without too much trouble.

Development of a good broiler industry in the county would add another muscle to the strong farm economy. Too, it would provide farmers with a cash crop in spring and fall. Farmers who concentrate on citrus could use this "pocket money" while waiting for those checks which come, in the main, once a year.

Two Teenagers Learn

The murder convictions of Charles Starkweather and Caril Ann Fugate should serve as prime examples for youth. Caril Ann, an eighth grader, Friday was sentenced to life in prison. Starkweather was sentenced to die in the Nebraska electric chair in a trial last May. Starkweather killed 10 persons on a spree which covered two states. Caril Ann was convicted of aiding and abetting Starkweather, her boyfriend.

When the jury verdict was read, Caril broke into hysterical sobbing. Up to this point, she apparently did not believe that she would be convicted. Her own statement, "They couldn't give me the chair because they knew I wasn't guilty," bears out this belief.

As in the case of Starkweather, Caril Ann didn't appear too concerned until the jury reported. Attorneys for both cited the ages of Starkweather and Caril Ann in seeking leniency from jurors.

But these two teenagers learned something they should have known: teenagers who act like adults must be treated as such. Their ages did not deter them from a killing rampage which left 10 persons dead. Their ages did not prevent them from being convicted of the crimes they committed.

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A fair and reasonable question to the Eisenhower administration right now could be this:

If local law is deemed sufficient to cope with bomb outrages in labor disputes, why is it not also sufficient to cope with identical violence in civil rights disputes?

The question seems to arise reasonably. On Nov. 13, Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said the administration was considering broad new civil rights legislation aimed particularly at dynamiters of schools and churches. It was explained that specific proposals to be submitted to Congress had not been worked out, Rogers said, also, that the federal government did not desire to infringe on local responsibility or to reduce local officials of their duty to clear up the bomb cases.

Those qualifications to the Justice Department's plans for new legislation aimed particularly at dynamiters, some would say, clouded Rogers' intent and meaning. Something, however, evidently is on the fire. Moreover, Republican Sen. Fred H. Brown of Pennsylvania, with 11 others, has announced plans to propose federal penalties against church and school dynamiters and to put the FBI in charge.

Labor Violence
In Atlantic City last September, Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell took a more definite stand on the question of federal legislation to punish bombing and other violence at the community level arising from labor disputes. "It seems to me," Mitchell said, "that . . . we don't need federal laws to check mugging and soon squads and criminal tactics. What we do need is a recognition at the community level that these (local) laws should be enforced, and what we do need is support given to the law-enforcement people so that intimidated workers can testify without fear of reprisal, and that grand juries can indict arsonists and thugs at the local level. No one has to wait for Washington to pass a law to check these evils."

Tourist-class versions of the jetliners will have six-abreast seating—but with more shoulder and legroom than the two-abreast seating on the fanciest piston aircraft.

On another occasion, Mitchell said: "What I have stressed has been the fact that federal law has taken interest." If that be true, Mitchell's policy of "leave it to the locals" would appear to be founded on considerable misplaced confidence in local law enforcement. Local officials have been quick to act in school and church bombings, yet the Justice Department contemplates federal action of some kind. Maybe the difference depends on who bombs whom.

AFU President George Meany sees the problem about as does Mitchell. In a speech before an AFU affiliate, Meany gave Mitchell a fast okay on the idea that there is plenty of unenforced law on the local level to deal with school and church bombings. He pointed, however, that the local attorney does not support organized labor efforts to utilize those laws in cleaning labor's house.

"There doesn't seem to be a district (county) attorney in this country," Meany said, "who is interested in more than one single instance of violence or other violation of local laws do we find where any local district attorney can ever cope with such things as assault, destruction of property through arson and bombing, intimidation, blackmail and just ordinary hoodlumism and thuggery. There are local laws to deal with these types of crimes, and these laws must be enforced, in addition to the passage of a federal law."

Dr. Randall is interested generally in fish, of which he so far has taken samples of more than 60 varieties here, but Kumpf is a specialist. His pets are octopi. If one doesn't have at least a dozen legs and big, red eyes, he's bored.

Having helped Wirth with his submersible sidwalks, I went out with Vincent Mrazek, the island's chief ranger, looking for sand and gravel buccaners. I knew this was pirate country, all right, but

They're America's only park rangers, probably, who do most of their traveling by boat, across the island's 12,000 acres are some trails passable by jeep, but I don't recommend 'em. They're spine jitters.

Here at Lameshur Bay live Ranger Bob Adams and his wife who sail in once every two weeks for supplies at St. Thomas. In a separate house I found Dr. Jack Randall, the fish expert from the University of Miami Marine Laboratories, and his associate, Herbert Kumpf.

Fred Othman Says

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
LAMESHUR BAY, ST. JOHN, V. I.—Conrad Wirth, director of the National Park Service, put on his snorkel and dived into the turquoise water. My bride and I were close behind.

The lagoon was so full of fish—red, pink, yellow, purple, and striped—there hardly seemed room for mere people. Ideal, said Wirth. Here he hopes to install one of these days the world's first side-walks submerged under three and a half feet of water as crystal-clear as the kind you drink.

Wirth intends to install markers at appropriate spots and at these the seagazing pedestrians will be urged to don their own snorkels, stick their heads under, and observe the wonders at their feet. Even their toes will look ridiculous, like pearls.

The director came here from Washington on a kind of reconnaissance tour to inspect St. John's Island, of which Laurance Rockefeller bought a large part and presented to the government as America's newest national park. Fish are something new to him and his rangers, who heretofore have been interested mostly in moose, but they already have become fascinated by the tropical subsea life.

They're America's only park rangers, probably, who do most of their traveling by boat, across the island's 12,000 acres are some trails passable by jeep, but I don't recommend 'em. They're spine jitters.

Here at Lameshur Bay live Ranger Bob Adams and his wife who sail in once every two weeks for supplies at St. Thomas. In a separate house I found Dr. Jack Randall, the fish expert from the University of Miami Marine Laboratories, and his associate, Herbert Kumpf.

Dr. Randall is interested generally in fish, of which he so far has taken samples of more than 60 varieties here, but Kumpf is a specialist. His pets are octopi. If one doesn't have at least a dozen legs and big, red eyes, he's bored.

Having helped Wirth with his submersible sidwalks, I went out with Vincent Mrazek, the island's chief ranger, looking for sand and gravel buccaners. I knew this was pirate country, all right, but I didn't know they still were in business. Mrazek said the natives in the numerous other islands dotting this part of the Caribbean frequently bring a schooner to a beautiful coral beach, fill their boat with sand, and haul it away for building purposes. This repeated a few times can run a beach. He fights 'em off, not by broadsword, but by diplomacy. They're kindly, gentle people, he said, and they can't understand, if they need a load of sand, why they can't take it.

Vainly we sought pirates via jeep and I bet that's a use even Henry Kaiser, himself, never thought of for his versatile vehicle.

Down by Cinnamon Bay Mrazek said we'd better stop for our pain killer. Never argue with a park ranger, I always say? We pulled up beneath a large tree with big glossy leaves. This, said Mrazek, was the pain killer tree, used by the locals for whatever ails 'em. He plucked a leaf for each of us and these we put in the tops of our hats to ward off heribert, headaches and hangnails. After a few miles of going up and down over boulders, but never proceeding in a horizontal direction. I suggested that we had placed the pain killer at the wrong end. Mrazek said all he knew was that everybody on St. John wore his leaf on the top of his head.

This island is dotted with the ruins of nearly 50 Danish sugar mills which flourished in the 1700's, until the slaves revolted and slaughtered most of their masters. The descendants of the slaves now are numbered among the leading citizens, while the island wild life consists almost entirely of burros, pigs, and mongooses, all imported in the first place by the ancient sugar ho-

They brought in the mongoose to fight the rats that accompanied their ships. The rats disappeared, all right. So did the snakes. And so did most of the birds. The mongoose, which seems to be kind of a ferret, likes nothing better than eggs or breakfast.

The one bird that fools the mongoose is the pelican. He fills his bill so full of fish he can't swallow them and thereby demonstrates the truth of the poem about how the eyes of the pelican can hold more fish than his belly can.

Open House Fetes Local Woman On Eightieth Birthday Friday

Mrs. W. P. Fields was honored on her 80th birthday Friday night with an open house given for her by her daughter, Mrs. Mary F. Rawlins.

The house was filled with flowers and arrangements sent by friends to honor Mrs. Fields on this occasion. Approximately 75 local residents attended the party. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coakley, Holly Hill, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Fields; Gene Edwards, Genevieve Edwards, Raymond Ernst, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Edwards and daughter Dol, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edwards, all of Daytona.

Greeting guests at the door was

The dining room table was overlaid with a white Chinese cloth of pineau linen. The cloth was hand embroidered with lace inserts made into the material. It provided a handsome background for the white and green birthday cake bearing an appropriate inscription. Double candelabra holding white tapers flanked the centerpiece of white daisies.

Mrs. C. L. Park Sr., Mrs. George Touhy, and Mrs. Fred Dyson poured during the evening from a silver coffee service.

Mrs. Fields came to Sanford in 1897. She has lived at her present home at 200 W. 15th St. since 1910. She has three children and one grandchild.

Monotone Room Wise

By MARGUERITE DAVIS

CHICAGO (UPI)—A monotone room is as wise an investment as "a good black dress," says decorator Rose Marie Pruse.

She practices the theory in her own work room, and the effect is pleasing and practical.

Miss Pruse, of Peter Schneider's Sons & Co., chose champagne as her basic color. Pale beige tones are repeated in the painted walls, silk-covered sofas and chairs and in slightly deeper shades in the travertine and prelate marble-topped coffee table.

The floor is covered with champagne-colored rubber tile, and the color is repeated in parchment lamps. Lampshades and ceiling are white.

The work room has no windows, but Miss Pruse recommends champagne festoon, an improved rayon fiber resistant to weather, for draperies.

The delicate color is not impractical, she said. Silk and turtan can be treated with a stain repeller (Scotchgard) which has proved successful in keeping textured and satiny fabrics fresh.

Accessories provide the color, which Miss Pruse changes every six months. These days she is using purple.

Violets in white vases and clear glass jars brighten tables on one side of the room, and a three-foot high purple bottle provides a massive spot of color on the other side. Pillows, vases, pictures and containers range in tone from violet to reddish purple.

Miss Pruse, a light brunette with blue eyes, prefers the champagne shade, but said the same theory can be applied to any light color—blue, mauve, pink, apple or mint green.

Cunnings Entertain

Edna and Mrs. David Cunnings entertained for their friends with a cocktail party at their home Friday night.

The dining room table was overlaid with a white linen cloth. A centerpiece of a horn of plenty was flanked by red tapers in crystal candleholders. Other arrangements in the living room carried out an autumn theme. Baked ham, rolls, shrimp, and dips with potato chips were served.

Guests enjoyed dancing to records in the Florida room. About 60 attended.

Nibbling Foods Best For Bridge Parties

Evening bridge parties are among the more popular forms of entertainment during the indoor months ahead. Little preparation is needed other than fresh cards, score pads and pencils. A good supply of ashtrays and four or eight congenial friends who like to play the game.

Refreshments are needed, of course. But even these should be simpler than your usual kind. Plan snacks which can be assembled ahead of time. This way you won't be popping up and down from the bridge table.

Any during the game tidbits ought to be the non-messy kind. If you serve drinks, be sure to provide coasters to protect table tops.

Set out several small dishes of nuts and mints, rather than a couple of large bowls which may interfere with the "play." Richardson's joints are particularly suitable for they are not sticky and won't ruin the cards.

When the last trick has been played, you might serve an assortment of cheese, two or three kinds of thinly sliced bread or crackers, cookies and plenty of hot coffee or tea.

To Store Cheese

If you're passing a cheese tray frequently during the coming weeks, here are some tips from Meadow Gold on cheese care.

Let cheese stand at room temperature about 30 minutes before serving. This will bring out the cheese flavor.

When storing leftover cut cheese, cover the cut end tightly with aluminum foil or plastic wrap, or dip the cut surface of a large piece in melted paraffin to seal in the flavor. Place on bottom shelf of refrigerator.

Face Improvements Popular This Year

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—The ladies who have already improved their figures by adding a bit here and there are being offered such improvements above the neck.

The newest makeup calls for false eyelashes, false eyebrows, and false hairpieces, says Guy

Nicolet, a Frenchman who has made over feminine faces from Cairo to California.

To show what he means about the new look, Nicolet described how he would make up two models for a gathering which his boss, Elizabeth Arden, is staging for her sales representatives Friday night.

"We'll show a last year's girl and a this year's girl," said Nicolet. "Last year's will be decked out in the sackiest sack we could find—wearing no rouge, done up in pale makeup, with pointed eyebrows, and lipstick in two shades—a dark outside line and lighter inside.

"This year's will wear an empire gown, lots of eye makeup, a false hairpiece, false lashes, lots of rouge—the Empress Josephine sort of rouge, you know. We'll use a pale pink foundation and powder, and shape her eyebrows to a thin, high line like Harlow or Dietrich. Most women don't have much eyebrows anyway and have to fake them."

Nicolet does not recommend that women put on all this gunk for supermarket or office, save it for evening and grand occasions.

Predicts Hair Styles

"Fashions in clothes determine fashions in makeup," said Nicolet. "I won't know specifically what we'll feature for spring until I see the new collections in Paris. But I do think we will see hair styles a lot simpler and smoother, no longer bouffant. Lipstick will be light again, pink with a yellow cast instead of blue."

Nicolet said his work with American women has convinced him we all make one makeup error—"trying to look sun-tanned the year round." "All of you wear your foundation too dark," he said. "Looks terrible with winter clothes and furs."

For families who reject salads, tempt them with crunchy, fruited coleslaw.

Mix shredded cabbage—a bargain buy this winter—with well-drained pineapple pieces and moisten with mayonnaise. Add a liberal sprinkling of LaChoy water chestnuts to give the salad extra crunch, as well as extra nourishment. Water chestnuts are a good source of protein.

Seminoles Champions Of Orange Belt

By Jerry Covington
The Sanford Seminoles became Orange Belt Conference champs over the weekend for the first time since entering the conference four years ago.

The locals capped the Lakeview Red Devils here Friday to clinch a tie for honors and Winter Park came to their aid by defeating Apopka on Saturday to give the Seminoles their first conference championship. The crowd was thrilled here Friday by seeing a sure tie, but it wasn't until the last minute of the Apopka-Winter Park game that the local squad really broke into great bursts of emotion.

The entire squad, plus about 300

Sanford fans, traveled to Orlando for the Saturday contest. When the last seconds ticked away on the scoreboard, it read 13-7. The large band staged a wild celebration. It was one of the most thrilling conference endings ever witnessed in prep football. Apopka came within one yard of winning the contest in the last minute on a pass play but the Winter Park squad preserved the championship for the Seminoles by holding until the clock ran out.

The Seminoles made their most impressive offensive showing here

Friday night as they rolled over Lakeview, 22-19. The big guns for the Seminoles all evening were halfbacks Vernon Kirk and Ray Lundquist. Kirk picked up two of the tallies, one a 33-yard jaunt, and Lundquist went for the other three. Both made their finest showings in rushing yardage, Kirk picking up 124 on 10 carries and Lundquist 95 on eight carries.

Linebacker and center Duke Schirrad had the best game of his career against the Devils. He was in on practically every tackle. He has played well all season, but it wasn't until this contest that he really showed all of his talent.

Dave Stanley continued to show the form that has put him among the top prospects in the state for major college scholarships. The big guard crashed through the opponent's wall as if it weren't there and threw the fast Lakeview backs for several big losses.

He continues to be the best lineman in Central Florida and is a sure bet to repeat the All-OBCC honors that he carried home as a junior last year.

The contest opened with Seminole kicking to Lakeview, which was forced to punt and the Seminoles were on the march. With six minutes left in the first period, Kirk found a big hole and ripped off tackle for 53 yards and paydirt. Don Carter's point attempt failed but the Seminoles had a 6-0 lead.

Just before the end of the first period, the Seminoles were on the march again. Quarterback Cecil Dandridge took 17 the air and hit Kirk on a play that was good for 22 yards, then threw to Alan Swaim, who bulled his way for nine more yards. Two plays later Dandridge sneaked for the first down as the quarter ended with the Seminoles knocking on the door. Fullback Harold Stone carried through the middle for a first down at the Lakeview 16.

On the next play Lundquist took the pitch from Dandridge and traveled the distance for the second score. This time big Carter put the foot to the ball and it was 13-0.

Trailing by two tallies, the Devils finally found the range. The Seminole line seemed to let down momentarily and Jim Harper broke through for 29 yards to the Seminole five. On the next play, Morris Hazen went for the score. The kick was no good, but the margin of the Seminoles had been reduced to seven.

The Seminoles took the kickoff, and pulled a tricky play to get a yard and a first down on fumbled back in punt formation and the snap went to Stone, who carried six yards to give the Seminoles new life. Three plays later, Kirk ripped off tackle for 24 to the Lakeview 20. On the next play Lundquist took the pitch and danced down the sidelines for the tally. Carter's attempt failed and the Seminoles had a 19-6 edge.

Lakeview was not to be denied, however. Crabtree scored from the five to climax a drive. The kick was blocked by Stone, and that was the end of the half.

Seminole received the kick in the third period. Halfback John Lovelace took a handoff from Dandridge and made a 33-yard return to midfield. Dandridge threw to Jones for five and six. Kirk and Stone picked up another first down and Dandridge hit Swaim for 14 yards to the 21. Here, Lakeview took over.

Late in the period the Seminoles found new life and began to drive. The key play here was a 35-yard pass from Kirk to Jones to Lakeview's 20. Lundquist bolted down the sideline for a 20-yard TD. Carter was rushed and his kick was partially blocked. Dandridge put the Seminoles in scoring position again with a 63-yard punt return to the Lakeview 17. On the play, Stanley led the way with some of the best blocking seen all year. On the next play Stone was thrown for a four-yard loss, his first of the season. Dandridge fumbled on the 15, but on the next play Stone pounced on a fumble on the seven. Kirk ripped through for his second tally of the evening. Carter passed to Swaim for the point.

Lakeview took the kick and began its last drive, climaxed by Crabtree's five yards through the middle for the final TD. He also ran the point and that was the end of the scoring.

Traditional Games Face Southeastern Saturday

By DAVID M. MOFFIT
ATLANTA (UPI)—Traditional finals dot the Southeastern Conference landscape this coming Saturday, but the action will be mainly anti-climatic with top-ranked Louisiana State having already completed its perfect season.

Louisiana State closed out Saturday with a 62-0 rout of Tulane and wrapped up the Southeastern Conference championship plus the long-expected Sugar Bowl bid.

Third-ranked Auburn, which hasn't been defeated in its last 23 games, served up second place in the conference. Auburn, which beat Wake Forest 21-7, closes its season against Alabama, 14-0 winner over Memphis State. A surprise Alabama victory would end the 100-year record of Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant but have little effect on the standings.

Vanderbilt and Mississippi, currently third and fourth in the SEC, are favored to close out their seasons with victories. Vanderbilt, idle last week, will be host to Tennessee, 6-2 loser to Kentucky. Mississippi and Mississippi State, both rested, will meet at Oxford, Miss.

Georgia Tech is rated the best chance to break a three-way tie for fifth with Alabama and Tennessee. But Tech's task-taking on Georgia at Athens, Ga.—looks large after Georgia's 76-0 rout of The Citadel.

In addition to the four intra-conference games above, Florida, 21-7 victory over Florida State, will play independent Miami at Jacksonville.

A crowd of 88,000—largest to ever attend a football game in the South—witnessed the Louisiana State-Tulane mismatch at New Orleans. It didn't appear a mismatch at halftime as Tulane, a two-touchdown underdog, trailed only 6-0. But the massacre began after intermission. Halfback Johnny Robinson had four touchdowns and Billy Cannon three plus four conversion points.

The victory, the most lopsided over another Southeastern Conference team in 18 years, gave Louisiana State the only major college perfect season in the nation.

Auburn's power in the second half was the key to victory over Wake Forest. Halfback Tommy Cronin, thought out for the season with a shoulder separation, scored the clinching touchdown on a 22-yard run. Auburn has now won 23 of its last 23 games with only a 7-7 tie with Georgia Tech this fall marring an otherwise perfect mark extending back to mid-1956.

Colts and Browns Headed For Titles

United Press International
The Baltimore Colts are galloping toward their first pro football division title in 10 seasons and the Cleveland Browns are edging toward their 12th in 13.

Led by John Unitas and Lenny Moore, the Colts scored 21 points in six minutes of the final period Sunday to crush the Los Angeles Rams, 34-7. Baltimore held its two game lead in the Western Division with three to play.

Cleveland clung to its one-game margin over the New York Giants in the Eastern Division by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles, 28-14. New York bounced the Washington Redskins, 30-6.

The Chicago Bears remained two games behind Baltimore by rallying to down the Detroit Lions, 20-7.

Pittsburgh remained a game behind New York and two behind Cleveland by defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 27-20, on Bobby Layne's 78-yard pass-run touch down loss to Jack Orr in the last six minutes.

Y. A. Title threw two scoring passes to Billy Wilson and one to R. C. Owens to spark the San Francisco Forty-Niners to a 23-12 victory over the Green Bay Packers.

Big Bowl Lineups

NEW YORK (UPI)—Here are the probable lineups for the major bowl games.

ROSE BOWL: X-Iowa vs. X-California.

ORANGE: X-Syracuse vs. X-Oklahoma.

SUGAR BOWL: X-Louisiana State vs. Clemson.

COTTON BOWL: X-Texas Christian vs. Air Force Academy.

GATOR BOWL: Texas vs. Mississippi.

X denotes team already has clinched invitation.

Army Names Coach

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Hal Fisher, former University of Nevada court star, has been named coach of the All-Army basketball team. The squad will play interservice and AAU teams with an eye toward a possible berth in the 1960 Olympics.

Celery City Wins, Tightens Race In City Bowling Loop

Celery City Bowling continued its rise in the Sanford City Bowling League by taking three games from second place New York Life Insurance.

While it did not change the position, it tightened the league below first place. However, Burnett Peters took three games from Mather of Sanford to move five games in front of the pack. Bukur Muehl took three games from Gene's Seminoles Dry Cleaners to stay in third place only one game ahead of Pristner and one behind the Insurans.

Dick Richards led Burnett's in the league as he bowled the season's high series with a 221-523. Mather was led by Ed Callan's 546. In the match of the week, Bob Stale led Celery City with a 183, while Jim Maloney tried to turn the tide for the Insurance men with his 501. Bukur's was led by captain George Swann's 523, while captain Bill Kasee's 425 was high for the Cleaning men.

"Spill-drinkers" for the evening included Carl Von Herbold with a 97, George Kenis and Frank Huhn with 5-7's, and Kasee, who picked up a 5-8-10.

There will be no bowling Wednesday due to Thanksgiving.

Averages following the week's bowling are:

Richards—186, Maloney—183, DePalma and Fox—184, Von Herbold and Wheeler at 182, Pezold and Best at 181, and Kasee, Stetler, and Steele at 150. Also, Swann and Cook at 158, Bukur and Callan at 157, Kenis and Forguason at 156, Gilstrap and Kester—153, Ring—153, Pezold and Pivec at 153, Huhn—152, Herbst, Kirchhoff, and Holler at 151, and Rugenstein and Brown at 150. ### Roumillat's Takes Lead In Sandspur; Perfection Second Roumillat & Anderson Drugs last week took over first place in the Sandspur Bowling League by winning three points from Perfection Dairies. This gives Roumillat's a total of 29 wins and 19 losses. The Dairy has a score of 213 won, 213 lost. Wilson-Maler was in fourth spot with 21.27. Wade's Market would have been top team on any alley as they piled up their highest series to date. They won 3 1/2 games from Robson Sporting Goods. This win put them in fifth place with 20.94. Robson's now occupies sixth slot with a score of 18.42. High scratch game, 184, and high handicap series, 474, was rolled by Margie Woods, Wilson-Maler's anchor man. High handicap game ended in three-way tie, with Lucille Harris, (Perfection), Margaret Knight, (Robson's), and Irene Laney, (Wade's), all rolling 193. High handicap series was bowled by Pat Teslo, who had a 317. Marilyn Bailey and Olga Martin made the 7.9 split pickup, and Doris Schneller topped the 2.10 split. Turkeys were rolled by Donna French and Margie Woods. Wade's Market rolled the highest game to be rolled in date in this league, racking up a big 133 scratch game. It also had high series scratch, 1,939, and Handicap 2,407, for the evening. With three more nights to bowl, Perfection meets Wilson-Maler on lanes one and two; Wade's play Roumillat's on three and four; Robson's meet A. B. C. on five and six Tuesday evening.

Greyhounds Close Season With Win

LONGWOOD—Hard running Keith Tennant crashed over for two touchdowns here Friday night to lead the Lyman High Greyhounds to a 14-13 victory over Florida Military School, Deland, in the final game of the year for the Longwood squad. Tennant also plunged over for one extra point. Bob Everidge ran the other across. The Greyhounds sent a homecoming crowd away happy as they picked up their third victory of the season. Coach Bill Proctor's charges closed the season with three wins, three ties and four losses. Lyman held a 14-0 lead at intermission, but the DeLand School came roaring back to dominate play in the final two periods. The Greyhound offense, which clicked so well in the first half, was stymied in the last. Tennant got things rolling with his two touchdowns, one a 13-yard burst, the other a one-yard plunge. The husky fullback was the leading ground-gainer of the night, picking up a total of 82 yards. He was followed closely by Everidge, who had 72. Florida Military School, Billy Bennett and Richard Stephens scored TDs. Jim Prucker ran one of the points after, but the other attempt failed. It was the final prep football game for eight Greyhound players bidding goodbye to the gridiron. The players were Stan Stroupe, Leo Norris, Bill Hull, Jim Lycans, Richard Holder, John Krohne and Harold McGuire.

Kennel Club Ready For Winter Racing

LONGWOOD—Opening of the winter greyhound racing season is rapidly approaching at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. The 92-day meet gets under way on Dec. 13. General Manager Jerry Collins already is predicting that all previous attendance records will fall. Eight nights of qualifying races are scheduled ahead of the regular season. The pre-season "schooling" events start on Dec. 3. Hundreds of top-notch racing greyhounds have already arrived at boarding kennels in the Longwood area following successful summer and fall campaigns at tracks throughout the U. S. A total of 25 powerful kennels will be on hand at the Sanford-Orlando track to bid for prize money which should run more than $200,000 this season. Returning are virtually all of the top kennels from last year, including W. F. Swafford, Bob Bennett, Jack Harold and Blackwell, who held four of the leading five spots in the kennel standings. Among the highly-regarded newcomers are Keith Dillos and Paul Boone, two of the sport's most prominent owners for many years. Each is bringing his entire kennel to the Sanford-Orlando track. Other kennels to watch are Orville Moses, Paul Sutherland, Mrs. M. V. Kirkland, Jr., G. A. Alderson, Huron Kennel, Lawrie Kennel, P. C. Collier, Ben Jacques, Darby Henry, Cecil Austin, Joe Gibbons, J. M. Gallagher, James Farley, Mike Castellani, Charlie Reinhardt, Williams and Fagg, Hobby Hour, E. B. Thompson and Larry Hughes.

City Bans Park Parking; Equipment Is Purchased

City Commissioners last night talked "sign language," packed away a parking lot, and bought some equipment for the city. Authority was delegated to the Sanford Police Department on an ordinance removing small signs from parkways. Commissioners ruled that the signs may remain as long as they are not a hazard to traffic or pedestrians. The sign problem arose from an ordinance which was called "discriminatory" by service station owners. All signs must be okayed by permit.

Elephant Crushes Man To Death; Act Called Deliberate

GROVES, Tex. (UPI)—A murderous female elephant that knocked down a circus man and deliberately crushed him to death was manacled in heavy chains today while authorities pondered her fate.

In the most recent of several attacks on humans, Dorothy, a regular performer with the Hagen Brothers Circus, reached out with her trunk Monday and knocked down Donald Lloyd, 28, as he and another circus worker walked by.

Although the elephant was chained by one leg at the time, the big animal managed to bend Lloyd with her head and then deliberately stood on her head on top of the prostrate man. Lloyd's head and chest were crushed by the weight of the animal and he died within an hour.

Deputy Sheriff Martin Carey said circus employees told him Dorothy was not provoked into the attack and that the elephant had attacked other persons on several occasions.

He said the animal had an act in which she stood on her head beside a circus performer. Shortly after the attack on Lloyd of 1340 Dayton St., South Bend, Ind., Dorothy was taken behind the circus and heavy chains were manacled to three of her legs.

There she remains, staked to the ground. Carey said an order from County Judge James Kirkland would be necessary before any action could be taken.

U. S. Drivers Ordered To Avoid East Germans

Attempts To Block Soviet Threat On Control Transfer

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI)—The U. S. Army moved quickly today to forestall threatened Communist East German attempts to regulate Allied traffic to Berlin. It ordered American drivers to turn back rather than submit to such control.

The order was issued to make it impossible for the East Germans to trick an unsuspecting American into allowing an East German rather than a Soviet officer, to handle his travel orders or other documents.

Spokesmen for the Berlin command said the order was an old one, but that it was being re-published now. This move was taken after a command conference here and in view of announced Soviet plans to transfer control of Allied traffic to and from isolated Berlin to the East German regime.

The United States, Britain and France also recognize East Germany as a sovereign state, and refuse to admit that the East Germans have any right to interfere with official Allied traffic to free Berlin.

The Army order was believed to have been passed on as part of the standing orders to American military police units at the edge of West Berlin and just inside East Germany.

Under this arrangement, Americans traveling with orders issued by the U. S. Army are armed by American military police units that they must have their papers stamped by a Soviet officer. They are told that under no circumstances should they have any dealings with East German police.

Reports from Washington quoted official sources as saying that if the Soviet Union attempts to replace its border checkpoint officers with East Germans, the United States, Britain and France may take over full control of the road, rail and air corridors.

Lake Mary Fire Engine Assured Of New Building

The firehouse at Lake Mary will go up. At a victory meeting yesterday afternoon, Mrs. W. E. Gray, chairman of the fund drive, announced that contributions toward the building totaled $1,197.32.

Richard Ivers, chairman of the building committee, said at the meeting that the building will be erected with these contributions. Additional funds will be required to finish the interior and furnish the kitchen and lavatories.

Business establishments in Sanford and Lake Mary have donated materials toward the building. Labor has been furnished by volunteers. Already the foundation, floor, rough plumbing and 25 percent of the block walls have been built. The building committee hopes to enclose the firehouse by the end of the year.

"The collectors found that everyone was familiar with the purpose of the drive as they made their rounds," he said.

Alaska Is Voting; Election Weather? Freeze, Blizzards

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—Alaskans begin balloting today to turn into reality a long-time dream of electing officials to represent them in the Congress of the United States.

Polls in the history-making election open at 8 a. m. (local time) in each of the giant territory's four major time zones. They close at 8 p. m.

About 25,000 to 30,000 persons who qualify under Alaska's liberal voting laws are expected to vote. There is no registration and persons 19 years or older with a year in the territory are eligible to vote.

Forecasters predicted "mild" weather for this time of the year ranging from around freezing here to zero in Fairbanks and blizzards farther north.

Alaskans will choose two new Senators and a representative to be added to the U. S. House and Senate. President Eisenhower proclaims the northern territory the 49th state in the union early next year.

Voters also will select a governor for the first time and name 20 Senators and 40 representatives to the first Alaska state Legislature.

The Alaska elections cannot appreciably alter the recent lineup in Congress. The Nov. 4 elections left the U. S. Senate 49 Democrats and 31 Republicans. The House will have 281 Democrats, 132 Republicans and one independent. The new lineup of governors is 34 Democrats and 11 Republicans.

Wife Can't Testify Against Husband

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court has struck a blow for family peace in an extraordinary ruling paying tribute to the "instincts of centuries."

The ruling involved a girl from Dogpatch (Ark.) and a profession also dating back a number of centuries.

It came about because one James Clifton Hawkins was convicted in Tulsa, Okla., on charges of transporting 17-year-old Lola Faye Moody from Dogpatch, Ark., to Tulsa in 1953 for immoral purposes. Lola Faye had been working in a tavern near a dance hall owned by Hawkins.

Testimony in the case showed Hawkins' wife, from whom he was separated but not divorced, instructed Lola Faye in how to get dates.

Turns State's Evidence. Unfortunately for the erstwhile husband, the wife turned state's evidence and testified against him. Among other things, she confessed she herself was a prostitute both before and after their marriage.

Hawkins was convicted of violating the Mann Act which forbids transportation of women across state lines for immoral purposes. But the Supreme Court nullified his conviction Monday on grounds a wife cannot testify against her husband. He now goes free.

The court's opinion, written by Justice Hugo L. Black, noted that the rule against testimony by a spouse in a criminal case sprang from common law based on "the persistent instincts of several centuries."

Foster Family Peace. Black said this rule might be modified some day if reason and experience dictate but "it will not disturb it now."

He pointed out that a husband or wife now may testify for each other, already a modification of the old rule. Then he added: "The basic reason the law has refused to pit wife against husband or husband against wife in a trial where life or liberty is at stake was a belief that such a policy is necessary to foster family peace, not only for the benefit of husband, wife and children, but for the benefit of the public as well."

Such a belief has never been unreasonable and is not now."
