An End To Hitch-Hiking

In spite of the Civilian Conservation Camps which have given jobs to nearly 300,000 young men throughout the United States, in spite of the Public Works Administration which is spending something like three billion dollars on canals, highways, and postoffices, in order to furnish jobs to the unemployed, in spite of the Civil Works Administration which proposes to give some kind of a job to all the other unemployed, hitch-hiking and hobnobbing are still a problem for social workers.

Figures are not available to show whether this aimless wandering about the country has increased or decreased during the past year, but a casual observation along Florida's busy highways will convince anyone that it remains in greater or less degree an evil of the first order. One cannot drive a hundred miles in any direction without encountering dozens of young men thumbing their way up and down and in both directions across the state.

Recent announcements from Washington indicate a concerted drive is about to begin to put a stop to just this sort of sight-seeing. It is not presumed that all of these travelers are in fact looking for a job. Their chances of finding jobs are certainly superior in the towns they came from, where they must have friends and relatives than in some strange community where they are unknown and where local boys must be taken care of first.

Too many of them, we fear, are in reality merely looking for adventure, are filled with the spirit of wanderlust, much as the gypsies are or the hoboes of even the prosperity era, or are running away from the jobs which the government is almost too diligently trying to provide for them. That the government recognizes this situation is indicated by the proposal to create two hundred concentration camps at strategic points throughout the country where "thumbers" and "rod-riders" will be herded.

At the same time stringent regulations will be provided designed to put a stop to hopping freight trains and to drive the hitch-hikers from the highways. A concerted drive will be inaugurated by all governmental agencies to end the aimless wandering of unemployed transients who have been flitting from town to town and state to state as the non-paying patrons of the railroads and motoring public.

How large a part such a campaign properly conducted will play in putting an end to the crime wave, it is impossible to say, but it is safe to assume, at least, that it will help. There is no one quite so irresponsible as the average hitch-hiker, in the full vigor of youth, far from home and friends, and probably without a dime in the world. When he gets hungry, or wants money for any purpose whatever, and is unwilling to work for it, you can expect trouble.

"Qualitative Dollars"

While few of us have seen very many of any kind, we have been hearing a great deal lately about "dollars." To the original gold dollar, has been added, the commodity dollar, the bimetallic dollar, the symmetrical dollar, the price index dollar, fiat money dollar, the silver dollar, and the balance dollar. The newest comer to this imposing list is the "qualitative dollar," the product of Carl East, a well known lecturer and counselor on retail merchandising and advertising.

"It is based on the thesis," says Editor and Publisher, "that our present ills are due to the fact that only 16 cents of the present consumer's dollar represents economic goods. The remaining 84 cents is devoured by overhead, including excessive capital charges, the ever mounting tax toll, production charges, advertising and selling expenses and a host of invisible but costly minor snicks out of the edge of the dollar bill." Mr. East, in recent addresses, has cited figures intended to prove that the product-value in the price paid by the consumer has shrunk from 64 per cent in 1850 to 16 per cent in 1930.

"The progressive mark up in these figures, he declares, represent true inflation, which he holds reached its peak in 1920. Since then the inflationary process has been continued and expanded by mortgaging future earnings for current purchases, culminating in 1929 in what he calls 'final collapse of our false price system and industrial machinery.'

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

At a meeting of the board of directors of the People's Bank of Sanford held on Dec. 15, 1913, the names of D. R. Brisson and Dr. Samuel Puleston were proposed for membership in that body and were unanimously elected to the directorate of the bank.

After selecting Arcadia as the next place of meeting, passing a memorial favoring the division of the conference into a northern and southern division and announcing the appointments for next year, the annual conference of the Florida Methodist Church adjourned Wednesday shortly after noon.

RACE ENDS FATALLY

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Dec. 18.—(AP)—A merry foot race with his elder sister across a field ended in the death of Robert Henry Lyons, six years old, yesterday. With his sister, Isabel, the little boy ran out onto the frozen surface of a brook and crashed through the ice. Before the girl could rescue him, the boy was swept from sight.

RISEING TIDE OF BUSINESS IS REPORTED

(Continued from page one) is about to expand in response to new model assembly. Cram's auto motive reports estimates last week's production at 16,702 units, an increase of 3,827 over the previous week, although under 1932 level for the same period. Five companies had increases while four showed losses. December production, which may approximate 100,000 cars and trucks, will probably be about the same as November's.

Dressler Offers Fans Her Birthday Picture

Co-starred for the first time on the screen, Marie Dressler and Lionel Barrymore bring comedy, heart interest and gripping drama to their fans in an intangible blend in "Christopher Bean," now playing at the Milane Theatre. This Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's much discussed filmation of the stage success, "The Late Christopher Bean."

The two beloved figures who received Academy awards together provide vivid personalities in a vigorous story which is replete with laughs as well as dramatic interest. As Abby, the faithful old servant who finds herself suddenly in possession of a priceless painting and consequently becomes the center of intrigue and plotting, Miss Dressler gives another of her forceful and intensely human portrayals. Barrymore as the kindly old Dr. Haggerty who becomes obsessed at the thought of riches almost in his grasp, gives an equally brilliant performance.

Miss Dressler and Barrymore are supported by a finished cast in which prominent roles are filled by Helen Mack as the jealous daughter, Beulah Bondi of the original stage cast, Russel Harlan, Jean Harlow, H. B. Warner, Helen Shipman, George Coulouris and Ellen Lowe.

As pandemonium grew, shooting broke out in several points of midtown Havana, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Before setting fire to the building looters threw all the furniture and equipment they could lay their hands on into the street, shouting curses against the newspaper.

There were once four large metropolitan dailies in Havana, of which El Pais was one.

El Mundo has shut down, not to reopen, by declaration of its publisher, Rafael R. Govin, "until a new government takes office."

Heraldo de Cuba was burned the day former President Machado fled from Cuba.

With the crippling of El Pais, only one large daily remains, El Diario, which is publishing under constant threats from the government on one hand and government opponents on the other. It has only a skeleton staff and the afternoon edition has been suspended.

Sholtz To Ask CWATo Pay Road Patrolmen

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 18.—(AP)—The Civil Works Administration probably will be called upon to pay the salaries of road patrolmen in some Florida counties as a result of Governor Sholtz's message to county commissioners for lightening up highway safety regulations.

Some counties, notably Madison, Marion and Palm Beach reported that they had no finances for the payment of road patrol salaries, and that their budget could not be changed.

The Governor then said "We probably will request the Civil Works Administration to provide salaries for patrolmen where the counties cannot pay them."

plant will be open as long as fruit is available. Former employees will be given preference over others seeking employment, he said. The plant will have a new manager this season, he added.

He also announced a change in the wage scale which is to be paid at the plant this year. All employees are to be on a piece work basis this year, he said, so that an average wage of 20 cents per hour can be earned by girl workers.

Last year the average wage of 12 cents an hour paid to girl workers was the highest wage paid by any canning plant in Florida. Some plants paid as low as eight cents an hour, Mr. Eckerson said.

Last season, 784 different individuals, 90 percent of them women, were employed at the plant during the canning season.

In conclusion Mr. Eckerson called attention to the hours when employees are expected to call at the office. Those who have received letters from the company are to confer with officials on Jan. 2 or 3 between 10:00 and 12:00 o'clock or between 2:00 and 4:00 o'clock.

Those who did not receive letters but were employed in the past are to call on Jan. 4 between 10:00 and 12:00 o'clock. All women who have not worked for the Eckerson Canners are to report on Jan. 4 between 2:00 and 4:00 o'clock while all men seeking employment are asked to report on Jan. 2 between 1:00 and 2:00 o'clock or between 3:00 and 5:00 o'clock. The plant will commence receiving fruit on Jan. 3.

In an effort to supply cash for normal business loans, the corporation has been conducting a drive to get banks and trust companies to sell the government preferred stock and capital notes. These securities can be redeemed at any time but while the corporation owns the stock or notes it has voting power dollar for dollar equal to the same amount of common capital stock of the bank, in quite a number of instances holding actual voting control.

the vault and stopped a clean off money.

Chief Williams said after his return from a fruitless chase into Lake County this afternoon that the robber locked himself in the vault and was released only after he had threatened to kill Mr. Lutten unless he secured a key, which would release him.

The robbers induced both the bankers and the two customers in to the vault, but they were unable to close the vault door because of the nature of its lock.

After the trio had sped southward in the direction of Sanford, Mr. Lutten notified local and De Land police, and they in turn sent descriptions to all nearby cities and towns.

Sheriff McClelland and Chief Williams responded to the call and they arrived in Lake Monroe shortly after the men crossed the railroad in that town and swerved to the right along the paved road leading through Hookertown to the Sanford-DeLand road at Wilson's Corner.

At Lake Monroe it was learned that the small black car had crossed Monroe Bridge, wide open, swaying from side to side and narrowly leaving away a guard rail.

Other witnesses said that the car crossed the path of a freight train, missing it by inches, to skid sharply to the right and head toward the west.

Chief Williams said that he and Sheriff McClelland picked up the trail of the car at Wilson's Corner where the car skidded in the soft sand and plowed up some of the roadway in rounding the corner leading to the Wekiva Bridge.

The car was trailed across the bridge into Lake County, and while Chief Williams and Sheriff McClelland stopped to investigate the road leading into the "Big Scrub" only to be told by a local

UNIVERSITY NETS $13,162 PROFIT ON GRID SEASON

Georgia Tilt Produced Largest Gain While Auburn Stood Next

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Total receipts of $48,904.33 from the University of Florida in this state during the past season resulted in a net profit of $13,162.07 after expenses were deducted, figures released yesterday by Edgar Jones, athletic director.

Two of the games, Georgia in Jacksonville, and Auburn in Gainesville, accounted for a combined profit of $13,081.86, while three of the others, Stetson in Gainesville, North Carolina in Gainesville, and Sewanee in Jacksonville, little more than offset a loss of $620.60 for the Maryland game in Tampa.

The average profit of $2,193.69 for the six state games, was made up as follows:

Georgia in Jacksonville—Receipts $20,846.26; expenses $12,678.46; net profit $8,167.80.

Auburn in Gainesville—Receipts $10,302.76; expenses $5,288.70; net profit $4,914.06.

Sewanee in Jacksonville—Receipts $5,340.41; expenses $5,035.50; net loss $3,707.50.

North Carolina in Gainesville—Receipts $4,720.82; expenses $4,503.80; net profit $215.02.

Stetson in Gainesville—Receipts $1,328.00; expenses $5,035.50; net profit $215.02.

Maryland in Tampa—Receipts $6,492.28; expenses $7,022.88; net loss $420.60.

Records of the University for the last five years show that Jacksonville has produced the greatest consistent average profit with Gainesville next and Tampa third.

Games played in Jacksonville during that period show an average profit of $4,747.55; those in Gainesville an average profit of $3,574.99; and those in Tampa an average profit of $2,134.00.

Miami, which has had only one game, Oregon in 1929, showed a profit of $10,721.92.

Games played in Jacksonville were Georgia and Washington & Lee in 1929; Auburn, Clemon and Tennessee in 1930; Auburn and Kentucky in 1931; and Sewanee and Tennessee in 1932.

In Gainesville the Gators played Southern and Clemson in 1929; Southern, Furman and Alabama in 1930; North Carolina and Georgia in 1931; and Citadel, Georgia Tech and University of California at Los Angeles in 1932.

Tampa witnessed the Virginia Military Institute game in 1929; North Carolina State in 1930; South Carolina in 1931; and North Carolina State in 1932.

Only four games during the last five years have topped the Georgia game this year in net profits.

A profit of $20,299.19 was made on the Alabama game in Gainesville in 1930; the Georgia game in Jacksonville in 1929 netted $16,625.81; the Georgia game in Gainesville brought $13,359.53 to the right side of the ledger; and the Oregon game in Miami showed a clearance of $10,721.92.

CHICAGO BEARS HAND NEW YORK GIANTS DEFEAT

Windy City 11 Wins Pro Loop Title In Sensational Style

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—(AP)—In a sensational shower of forward passes, the Chicago Bears won the national professional football championship yesterday, beating the New York Giants, 23 to 21, in a battle witnessed by 30,000.

The bears, trailing 21 to 10, snatched victory out of the air, in the dramatic closing minutes, of the game. Billy Karr, right end, who learned his football at West Virginia, plucked a long lateral pass and eluding two Giants' tackles, chasing him in desperate pursuit, galloped 25 yards for the triumphant score.

The game was a thrilling contest of forward passing skill, desperate line plunging and gridiron strategy that kept the chilled spectators on their feet in constant excitement. The lead changed hands six times during the furious 60 minutes of play with first the Bears taking command and then the Giants snatching it away from them.

The game was a revelation to college coaches who advocate no changes in the rules. It was strictly an offensive battle with professional rule of allowing passes to be thrown anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, being responsible for nine-tenths of the thrills.

The Bears' attack was led by Bronko Nagurski, former University of Minnesota plunging fullback, who individually gained 65 yards in 14 attempts and started

Junior High Basketball League Is Organized

League Is Organized

The Sanford Junior High School basketball league season is now in full swing, with four strong teams in the field, according to Prof. B. C. Steele of the school faculty.

Games so far have resulted in an 8 to 2 victory by the Cavaliers over the Trojans; a 20 to 6 victory for the Gators over the Wolverines, and a 10 to 9 overtime victory for the Trojans over the Wolverines.

The schedule is to run for 12 weeks with a split season. The winners of the two halves will play a championship series at the end of the season, and a picked team will tackle the Freshman reserves in a four out of seven game series.

Roster of the four teams:

Trojans: Dean, captain, Guthrie, Morgan, Williams, H. Powell, Cooper, Tiny Tillis, Ward and Pearson.

Cavaliers: Howell, captain, Mandon, S. Powell, Terwilliger, Watts, Cates, Riser, Lundquist and Lane.

Gators: Humphrey, captain, Telford, R. Brown, Grimboll, Hurt, Johnson, W. Odham, Thompson, D. Stromstrom.

Wolverines: Big Tillis, captain.

The pass that was responsible for the winning touchdown, Nagurski was aided by Jack Manders, another former Gopher, who kicked three goals from placement, once for 40 yards, missed another attempt and kicked a goal after touchdown for a total of 10 points.

Harry Newman, Michigan's all-American quarterback in 1932, was the outstanding star in the Giants' attack. He tossed 17 passes, completing 12 for a total of 201 yards.

PWA WORKER IN ATLANTA IS DISMISSED

Engineer Who Claimed He Could Secure Big Allotment If Given Job, Fired By Ickes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (A.P.)—Secretary Ickes dismissed George B. Slack, public works engineer-examiner at Atlanta, yesterday with the statement, "It is intolerable that any employe of the public works administration should solicit fees on the false theory they can deliver PWA allotments."

A public works announcement said it had been established that Slack told Georgia officials he could procure $2,000,000 from public works for state bridge construction if paid a 5 percent commission for work he would do after resigning as PWA engineer.

Slack notified Ickes: "Following an investigation you are hereby reported with prejudice as an engineer-examiner and your appointment as state engineer inspector is cancelled forthwith."

Lehmann Deplores Inconsistency Of Local Film Critics

Deplores the inconsistency of people who spend their time in the theaters, and then motion picture critics, Mr. Lehmann, secretary of the local trade body offers the suggestion that such a deplorable situation, if it exists, can best be corrected by attendance at films that are known to be clean and wholesome.

Numerous complaints are said to have been filed here lately as to the poor quality of some of the recent films. Mr. Lehmann, directing his remarks at the complaining group says, "May I suggest that the best way to correct what is alleged to be a deplorable motion picture industry with its smutty and unwholesome films would be more attendance at performances which are known to be clean and wholesome, instructive and entertaining."

Mr. Lehmann, whose interest in the theater is one of his hobbies, is of the opinion that films such as "The Sign of the Cross" here last night, "The Sign of the Cross" and short subjects which accompanied it, should be commended rather than criticized. He said the general category of these films which should be commended.

MORGENTHAU IS SATISFIED OVER PLAN'S RESULTS

Gold Policy Produces Rise In Commodity Prices, He Reports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(A.P.)—In the face of a renewed attack upon the Roosevelt monetary program, Acting Secretary Morgenthau yesterday said government gold-buying had induced a five and one-half percent rise in commodity prices and added: "I'm satisfied."

His statement followed the first increase in the Reconstruction Corporation's quotation for newly mined domestic gold since Dec. 1. After a consultation between Morgenthau and Chairman Jones of the RFC, the figure was advanced from $34.01 to $34.06.

Meanwhile, Jones announced that purchases of domestic gold had totaled 469,491 ounces at a cost of $16,882,000. As usual both he and Morgenthau declined to disclose the extent of purchases abroad, although it was known that these, previously negligible, had been greatly increased in the last fortnight, possibly to the extent of $25,000,000.

Morgenthau announced that the department's purchases of government bonds last week totaled $16,800,000, of which $6,600,000 represented the investment of surplus funds of various government agencies and the remainder public debt retirement operations through the sinking fund. By comparison, purchases the previous week were $7,000,000 and the week before then $2,000,000.

10,000 Petunia Plants Donated To Trade Body

Ten thousand petunia plants have been donated to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce by H. A. Ward, president of the Lake Charn Fruit Co. at Oviedo, it was learned today.

They were immediately turned over to Mrs. W. E. Watson, president of the Sanford Garden Club, with the suggestion that they be set out wherever the Club sees the need for beautification of the city or county.

The gift was announced at the close of the Women's Civic Committee meeting in the City Hall yesterday, a meeting during which the women discussed means for aiding in the financing of local public schools.

Captains were elected for two women's teams in the trade body membership drive of next month, and suggestions were made for the naming of the new state highway bridge across the St. Johns River at Lake Monroe. Mrs. W. L. Moran presided.

Farmers Again Invited To Wednesday Meeting

A second invitation was extended today to all celery growers and shippers in this city and county urging that they attend a meeting to be held in the City Hall tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock where they might discuss plans for Florida Celery Week, designated by Governor Shotts for Feb. 19-24.

It is proposed that this county shall take the lead in observing this week, both locally and in a manner that will impress the entire state and all of its visitors. The Central Florida Exposition will be under way in Orlando during Florida Celery Week and it is likely that an unusual display of celery will be set up as a feature of the general exhibit from this county.

$1000 REWARD UP FOR ARREST OF LYNCHERS

Governor Of Tennessee Moves To Prosecute Mob That Hanged Man Freed By Jury

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(A.P.)—Describing the lynching of Cord Cheek Friday night as a "disgrace," Governor McAlister yesterday posted a $1000 reward for apprehension of the negro's slayers as the county grand jury laid aside all other matters to push "a thorough and complete investigation."

While the 19-year-old negro's body was found hanging from a cedar tree near Columbia in Maury county, it developed he was kidnapped from the home of relatives here and therefore Davidson county authorities assumed jurisdiction.

Criminal Judge Hart in a special lynching charge instructed the grand jury to "immediately take such steps as may be necessary to bring the guilty parties to justice."

At Columbia Chief Deputy Sheriff Pinkston said an investigation had been started but little progress made.

Governor McAlister's decision to post the reward was made after a committee showed him a resolution adopted by the Nashville Pastors' association asking him to "sound a note for law supremacy throughout our state and to summon afresh all officials to do their full duty without fear or favor that everyone may enjoy his right of trial by a court of justice."

Rev. Marler Named To Head Group Of Sanford Ministers

Rev. Frank M. Marler of the First Christian Church was elected yesterday as 1934 president of the Sanford Protestant Ministerial Association, a succeeding Rev. J. B. Root of the First Congregational Church. At the same time, Rev. Martin J. Bram of Holy Cross Church was elected as secretary-treasurer.

Selection of officers came during a meeting in which the Association empowered Rev. F. D. Brownlee to use all available Association funds for the purpose of providing special help for several families outside the scope of Federal aid.

Rev. Wm. F. Brooks, Jr., was delegated to compile a report of all of the charity work which has been carried out by all Protestant and Catholic churches in the city.

Appointment of a chaplain for the County Home and Convict Camp was discussed with the result that Rev. Bram and Rev. Root were requested to study the situation and report at the next meeting.

Included among those attending the meeting were Rev. W. A. Cooper, new pastor of the First Methodist Church and Captain Irene Mitchell of the Salvation Army.

Public Can Help Safety Move In This County

An opportunity to lend a hand in guaranteeing the safety of the bus riding school children of this county will be given every man or woman resident of Sanford who attends a safety rally which is to be held at the City Hall tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The meeting is called by Sheriff J. F. McClelland at the request of Asher Frank of Tampa, state director of safety, and the Safety Committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is now in action urging heads of various groups to attend.

Superintendent of Schools T. W. Lawton has instructed every bus driver in the county to be present, while there is every indication that a large number of railroad officials and employees will be present.

While Mr. Asher is scheduled as the principal speaker, suggestions and recommendations will be accepted from any person who wishes to speak on the subject of "Safety and How It May Be Improved in Seminole County."

Mother's Wedding Ring Will Slip Over Hand Of Baby Girl Who Survives Early Birth

FINDLAY, Ohio, Dec. 19.—(A.P.)—A baby girl so tiny that at birth the doctor thought her dead, lies contentedly in a little basket beside a coal stove in her parents' home here.

Her mother's wedding ring slips easily over her hand to form a bracelet.

The girl was born Saturday night to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carmen. Premature by four months and weighing only 20 ounces, she gave no apparent signs of life, the father said, and the doctor wrapped her in a newspaper and placed her on the kitchen table.

It was two hours later that Carmen, hearing a noise in the kitchen investigated.

"I thought the noise was the cat and I went to put the animal out," Carmen said. "It was the baby crying."

"Why," chimed in the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles Finard, "the baby already is spoiled. She stops crying when I pick her up."

Fifteen drops of a prepared milk every 30 minutes is the baby's diet. At first she was fed with a medicine dropper, but now with a nursing bottle and calls her "my doll baby." That's the child's only name so far.

With blond hair and dark blue eyes, the animated doll is 11 inches long from head to toe. Her head is eight inches in circumference—no bigger than a tennis ball—and 3 1/2 inches long. Her fingers are only a half inch long and almost as thin as match sticks. She could stand some fat here and there.

Each parent is 19 years old. Neither is unusually small. The mother's great grandfather, John Harshlett, weighed only two pounds at birth.

AUTO CODE IS EXTENDED INTO FALL OF 1934

Roosevelt Acts After Report By Johnson Shows Employment, Payroll Increases

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt yesterday extended the effective date of the automobile manufacturers' code through Sept. 4, 1934, upon the report of Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, that employment had increased 20 percent and payrolls gained 16 percent since the agreement has been in force.

The extension was requested by the national automobile chamber of commerce. The request was forwarded by Johnson to the White House with a report that since Sept. 5, when the code went into effect, millions of dollars have been added in wages and thousands of idle workers returned to their jobs.

Johnson's report to the president said the actual increase in payrolls was from $12,700,000 in July, to approximately $14,700,000 in September for the members of the chamber, representing 78 percent of the production capacity, and approximately 95 percent of the units of the industry.

Employment, he said, increased from 125,600 in July to 150,700 in September, a gain of 25,100 workers.

The administrator added that the increase in employment (obviously) was not the result of increased production (as much as man-hours were decreased from approximately 21,300,000 in July to approximately 19,000,000 in September, a decrease of approximately 1,700,000 or 8 percent.)

HAVANA, Dec. 19.—(A.P.)—Jefferson Caffery, personal representative of President Roosevelt, took up where United States Ambassador Sumner Welles left off nearly a week ago and last night busied himself studying the Cuban situation at close range.

But seven bombs were exploded in Havana during the night and today, one injuring four persons as soldiers and sailors patrolled the streets in efforts to throttle a new wave of violence and bloodshed.

Motives of the bombings are not known but are believed connected with the recent labor flare-ups precipitated by a decree requiring that 50 percent of all employees be natives.

Annual Marcus Fagg Day was observed by Sanford Rotarians as they gathered at the Valdes Hotel for luncheon today, and the annual collection for the Children's Home Society at Jacksonville proved highly satisfactory.

NRA REVISES DRY CLEANERS' PRICE SCALES

Schedule Not Expected To Please Cash And Carry Men But Will Be Okeyed By Others

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(A.P.)—New price schedules for dry cleaning throughout the United States were withheld again last night at NRA but probably will be made public in time to become effective Dec. 22.

Although a basis for revision downward in many parts of the country had been decided upon, price schedules were not finished yesterday evening. Just how much reduction in the prices was being made officials would not say.

It was indicated that in some cities the original price structure would be left intact and all signs pointed against a differential for cash and carry cleaners, who in large numbers violated the first list and who complained that having to charge the same as cleaners with delivery service would put them out of business.

Officials of the National Association of Cleaners and Dyers said they believe the vast majority of the cleaners would be well pleased by the new scales but that they did not expect the cash and carry men to be satisfied.

No prosecutions have yet been started against the 100 price violators who were given a chance to comply at a public hearing last week, but officials indicated action might be taken soon after publication of the new scales.

Legionnaires Lend Support To Their National Program

Solid support for the Four Point program which has been adopted by the National American Legion was voiced at a well-attended meeting at Campbell-Loring Post in the Legion Hut last night, where Heyward Walker, new Post commander, presided.

This program primarily calls for immediate aid for veterans injured in the line of duty, and members of the local Post decided to endorse the program to the fullest. At the same time, the suggestion was made that now is the time for every Legionnaire or ex-service man to lend his support to his local Post, and thereby join with thousands of others who are banding to secure aid for their fallen comrades.

Commander Walker appointed Wm. H. Shepherd as chairman of a committee which is to contact with other civic organizations for the purpose of making plans for a proposed recreation center which might be created with CWA funds.

Other members of the committee are Rev. J. B. Root, V. A. Speer, C. S. Lee of Oviedo, H. B. Pope, and Mrs. F. E. Roumillat.

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas Eve "Stag" party which will be held in the Legion Hut next Saturday night from 8:00 o'clock on.

Former commander Shepherd was given a vote of thanks for his recent activities in recruiting 60 members in the annual membership drive which will continue under his supervision.
