Library Notes

An urgent call came to the Sanford Library for books and magazines for convalescents and homesick soldiers and sailors. The A. L. A. are buying all non-fiction and technical books, but still looking to the friends of the boys for fiction.

Wounded men in hospitals and soldiers in cantonments awaiting demobilization need magazines more than ever. The only apparent reason why the supply has fallen off seems to be the general impression that all the men in uniform are to be sent back home. But we shall have to wait some time for many months to come and tens of thousands in the hospitals, and, as camp librarians point out, they have more time for reading, and reading is more necessary to their happiness and well being than it was while all were keyed up to the heights of enthusiasm.

"A book can have a thousand lives. With each new reader, one. A book should have a thousand lives before its course is run. And we few kinder things can do. Our gratitude to show. Than give the freedom of our shelves to those who need it so. Nor let them ask without avail. The one small comfort of a tale."

Evidently the boys and girls of the grammar school heard the call and did their part loyally.

Two large boxes of the very best periodicals in perfect condition, bright covers and clean pages, were sent a week ago to Newport News, the students doing the collecting and the Library the rest.

Other friends, Mrs. Lucas, Miss Marian Philips and others were generous with their books and a large box of books was also sent to the same camp.

We count it a privilege that we were given a chance to do this small thing for the boys who ventured all, and are very proud that the grammar school students never fail their principal, Mrs. Dickenson in the Library when asked for service. We thank them all.

Curry—Wilson

Bradentown, Feb. 19—Special—The wedding of Mr. R. Leslie Wilson of Tampa and Miss Susie Curry of this city took place tonight at the Methodist church, Rev. W. L. Mumpford of the church performing the ceremony. The church auditorium was filled with friends and well wishers of the young couple. The altar and the aisle down which the wedding party passed were draped with flowering vines, the color motif being green and white, which was carried out also by the girls of the bride and her attendants. For the church decorations bridal wreath vine with its clusters of white flowers shining out with great purity of color against the vivid green of the leaves was used in profusion, as also were white carnations and white roses, the fragrant odors from which filled the church.

Shortly before the beginning of the ceremony, which was set for 8:30 o'clock, Mrs. L. F. Vaught at the piano and Mr. F. A. Bean, violin played "Song of the Evening Stars." This was followed with a vocal solo, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," with piano, and violin accompaniment by Mrs. A. J. Cook. During the ceremony the musicians played softly Rubenstein's "Melody in F."

The wedding party entered to the sweet strains of the "Wedding March" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner). The recessional was Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride was attired in a beautiful white dress of heavy satin entrain, with princess lace and pearl trimmings. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms. White shoes completed the ensemble. Her attendants were Miss Annie Lee Knight, maid of honor, and Mrs. Lawrence Chaddock, matron of honor. Miss Knight wore a green satin dress with accessories to match, while Mrs. Chaddock was attired in a white satin dress with accessories in the same color. Mr. Whitney Curry, brother of the bride gave the bride away at the altar. The groom's attendants were Mr. Edisson Curry, a brother of the bride, as groomsmen and Mr. C. Van E. Hopper as best man, Little Carolyn Thomas was flower girl and was cunningly garbed. Master Sam Murphy acted as ringbearer. The ushers were Messrs A. B. Murphy, George Ruggin, H. D. Horney and O. L. Stuart.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the bride's home to the members of the wedding party, relatives and out of town guests. The latter were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hope and Mrs. F. E. Hope of Tarpon Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Curry and Mr. C. Van E. Hopper of Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left in an automobile tonight for a wedding trip of several days' duration. They did not disclose their itinerary. They will make their home in Tampa.

Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of Mrs. Susan Fletcher Curry of this city and is one of the most popular young women of Bradentown. Mr. Wilson is in charge of the United States employment bureau at Tampa. His old home is Dade City. Mr. Wilson formerly worked here with Mr. Rines at the ice plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be the guests of Mr. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Fred Rines for a few days during their honeymoon.

The Governor states that he has gathered many items of interest that will make good message timber for the coming legislature.

SHORT TERM BONDS
AT HIGH INTEREST FOR VICTORY LOAN

Fifth Issue of Liberty Bonds
Will Be Most Attractive
Investment of All, in the Opinion of Financial Experts

The fifth issue of Liberty bonds, or "Victory Bonds" as they will be called, will offer the investor the most attractive opportunity of any issue made by the government, according to a tentative agreement made by Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass with the ways and means committee of the National House of Representatives.

It is considered probable that the bonds will pay a higher rate of interest than any of the previous issues, but they will be issued for shorter terms, maturing in from one to five years.

The government does not wish to assume the obligation of a high interest rate for a long period of years, but is willing to pay an attractive rate during the present unsettled conditions. It is expected that events will so shape themselves in the next few years that a holder of these short term bonds, after drawing a good interest rate until they mature, will then be able to "cash them in" and invest the returns in business or in other forms of securities at an advantageous time. For this reason it is expected that the new bonds will find a ready market.

Secretary Glass announces that an intensive popular campaign for the Victory loan will start not later than April 21. It is not expected that any definite statement as to interest tax exemptions or other details will be made much in advance of that date, as conditions are constantly changing. But that the new bonds will be made an attractive investment is considered certain.

Secretary Makes Statement

An official statement, issued by Secretary Glass follows:
"The Victory Liberty Loan campaign will begin not later than April 21. The requirements of the treasury are imperative and cannot be financed without such a campaign. The form and terms of the securities to be issued remain to be determined. Whether they be bonds or notes, it is absolutely essential that the widest possible measure of distribution be realized. This will necessitate a campaign of the same character as that conducted in the past through the existing Liberty Loan organizations. They have pledged again their united support in order that the Victory Liberty Loan bonds or notes may be distributed as widely as possible among the American people."

This furnishes the first official notice of the date of the campaign, and disposes of the rumor that securities would be disposed of among the banks instead of being offered the general public.

Workers Are Busy
Reports received from chairmen and other members of the Liberty Loan organizations all over the country and especially in the Sixth Federal Reserve District, gives assurance that the faithful workers in former campaigns do not intend to quit until the job is finished. Organization is being perfected well in advance, and plans laid for a brief and effective campaign.

Four types of bonds are now being considered by the Treasury Department, to suit varying tastes in investments. Their principal features are:

One class of bonds at a low rate of interest, possibly four per cent, and exempt from all federal taxation; one at a comparatively high rate; possibly five per cent, and subject to all federal taxes; a third bearing a moderate rate of interest, perhaps 4 1/2 per cent, and exempt from normal income tax; and a fourth class, exempt from taxation up to a certain amount.

"Finish The Job" Motto Of Victory Loan Campaign

Everybody hates a quitter! Uncle Sam is going to finish everything he has started. He finished one job in France when he helped to drive the Huns back across the Rhine. Uncle Sam and the Allies are finishing another now, at the peace table in Europe, where they propose to stop wars forever.

We are going to finish another at home, by paying the big bills this war cost us.

The Victory Loan will attend to that. The job is not finished until the bills are paid.

We went into this war on a big scale, which was the only way to win. We couldn't provide men and munitions and ships and food in a hand-to-mouth way. The big scale on which Uncle Sam went to war was one thing that made the Kaiser quit so quickly. He saw we were in the war to win.

There is to be just one more Liberty loan—the Victory loan, and that will wind up the job.

It will take around five billion dollars to pay the war bill. Uncle Sam proposes to borrow the money from his nephews, on short term bonds at a good interest rate.

DOMESTIC SERVICE COURSES PLANNED

Trained Home-Maker Is to Have an Eight Hour Day and Standard Minimum Wage.

Courses for training home assistants, who will go into the home by the day, hour or week and work on a schedule of hours and fixed wages, have been inaugurated by the Young Women's Christian Association as a means for meeting the problem of domestic service.

The object of this course, now being tried out in New York City, is to place domestic service on the same dignified basis as clerical work, trained nursing or other professions open to women.

The home assistant will work eight hours a day for a salary of $15 a week. She will not live in the home of her employer or take her meals there. She will have an hour for luncheon, when she can go to a restaurant or eat a lunch which she has brought with her just as she would were she employed in a factory. The employer will not address the home worker by her first name. She will be Miss Smith or Mrs. Brown, as the case may be.

Applicants for the course are carefully selected, and registrants are appearing in large numbers. With the same independence as to recreation hours, places of eating and living as the factory girl, house-work has a greater appeal, as being a less monotonous and more interesting work to the average woman.

The course is a thorough one in plain cooking, waiting on table and door, chamber work, plain sewing, care of children, making of menus and the washing and ironing of light things. Heavy work is to be done by outside workers. On graduation the student receives a certificate which proves her qualification as a dependable home worker capable of attending to all ordinary duties in a home.

The Young Women's Christian Association has been interested in the problem of domestic service both from the standpoint of the employee and from that of the employer for some years. The first commission on Household Employment made its report at the fifth national convention of the Young Women's Christian Association held in Los Angeles, Cal., in May, 1915.

The difficulties of attracting capable women in this field of work were laid to the long hours, lack of independence in arranging recreation hours, lack of opportunities for growth and progress and lack of social standing.

Girls have acquired a distaste for the conditions which govern household work since the freedom they have experienced in working in munition factories. By standardizing domestic service it is believed by the Young Women's Christian Association, that a higher type of worker may be attracted to the necessary work in homes.

The American Y. W. C. A. has opened a Hostess House in Germany, which will serve as a residence house and social center for American women war workers who have advanced to do cadet, Red Cross and Signal Corps work with the Army of Occupation.

Y. W. C. A. OPENS WORK IN ITALY

Tea and Club Rooms Opened for American Women.

Miss Charlotte Niven, Director of Italian Work, Prepares for Influx of American Woman Students.

Italy is now included in the war work of the American Y. W. C. A. Miss Mabel Warner of Salina, Kan., and Chicago left Paris a few days ago for Rome, where she will be in charge of a Hostess House for American girls enrolled there by the American Red Cross, the Embassy and the new Tuberculosis Commission. Miss Warner has been director of the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House at Brest, France. Miss Warner will open a tea room and club rooms where the American women can gather for social times. Rome is harboring a refuge population of about 40,000 and accommodations are difficult to find. The work in Rome was started as a direct result of the appeal of Miss Charlotte Niven, one of the National Y. W. C. A. secretaries in Italy, who is spending a few months in France as advisor in the French work. Miss Niven's dreams of Y. W. C. A. work in Italy include the maintenance of a residence for non-Italian women, who, she feels, will come to Italy in great numbers after the war to study music and art. "I believe at this time such a project is particularly important because women from other countries should be encouraged to come to Italy to replace the great numbers of Italian women who flooded Italy in the past, many of them paid agents of their government," Miss Niven said in discussing her plans. Miss Niven has asked the American Y. W. C. A. to aid the Italian Association in establishing a center, perhaps at Genoa, with two American secretaries, with physical and recreational training, to act as a training school for Italian women. In connection with it her plan would include a Hostess House for girls passing through the city or employed there. Such a center would become eventually the center for all Y. W. C. A. work in Italy, both Italian and foreign.

In her formal appeal for help for the Unione Christiana Delle Giovani (the Italian name for Young Women's Christian Association) Miss Niven has emphasized two facts, the poverty of the Italian Association on the one hand and the need and opportunity on the other for an American program in Italy at the present time.

Miss Niven's favorite way of illustrating the friendliness of the Italian woman to America is by telling the story of the Italian mother who said she had taken down the picture of the Madonna which had hung for many years over her bed and was putting in its place one of President Wilson.

"In our work in the Unione we have lacked trained leadership as well as the material resources to give such training. We have had no means to buy modern equipment. Consequently we have not the visible results of American and British work. "I believe as our work may be, it is not useless. Many girls in all parts of Italy have told us how much the Unione meant in their lives. Italian girls are touchingly grateful for the smallest efforts. They respond eagerly to friendliness. "There is no other agency doing in Italy what the Association is trying to do."

Miss Niven has spent the past seven years in work with the Italian women, starting as director of a hostel, or boarding home, for Italian women students at Florence. She is an American from New York, where she was one time head of the Christadora Settlement House.

GIFTS FROM "Y" HELPED DOUGHBOY

Corporal Irving Abrahams of New York has just returned from France. Just because the Y. M. C. A. men overseas had gone out of their way to treat him well, he took the trouble to make his way to the Headquarters Building of the National War Work Council, Y. M. C. A., New York City, and found some one on the 9th floor at Headquarters to tell how much he appreciated the service of the Red Triangle.

This is just a part of what he said: "I returned from France on the 27th of January. I have been wounded three times. Am feeling fine, but the first time when we landed over in France in April, 1917, we took the position up on Chateau Thierry and the Y. M. C. A. was right with us and brought up on the firing line chocolate, cigarettes, and also pears, biscuit and done the best and all he could just to please the boys.

And in August when we drove the Germans back he came up under heavy shell fire and brought us the same chocolate, cigarettes, and if the boys didn't have any money he would give it to us just the same.

And up on the Argonne Forest he went under heavy shell fire and brought up all the candy and chocolate, and also spoke to the boys to send our money to our mothers and which we did, and also he told us to send our money home and he will do all he can for us, and also the boys of the Third Division is very well pleased of the Y. M. C. A. and also thank them ever so much; and also, when we got relieved from the Argonne woods the Y. M. C. A. entertained us, gave us a grand time, and we thank the Y. M. C. A. with our full heart and we shall never forget them.

"So I don't see why the fellows are coming back from France and kicking the Y. M. C. A., and I can speak to anybody and ask them why they are knocking the Y. M. C. A."

Red Triangle Man Tells Of Serving At Chateau Thierry

The Y. M. C. A. has been criticized because it was said that it had no one at the fighting in the region of Chateau Thierry. The Y. M. C. A. Ernest C. Bardwell, a New York man, came back from France, broken in health because of his strenuous work in that region.

Mr. Bardwell was one of a party of Y. M. C. A. men who entered Chateau Thierry village with supplies at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 22 and worked all day and far into the night serving the boys who were being sent back the German counter-attacks. The last German onslaught, he said, came taken out of Chateau Thierry at 8.30 o'clock on the same morning.

THE Y. M. C. A. IN FAR EAST

The work of the Y. M. C. A. in Macedonia is rapidly extending over the newly opened areas, and in the present state of flux heavy responsibilities devolve upon C. W. Bates, the secretary in charge at Salonica. Centres have been opened in Serbia at Vranja, S. B. Monastir and other towns, and in the capital city, Belgrade, the Y. M. C. A. is now established in a good building. Percival Whitley, son of the deputy speaker of the English House of Commons, is developing the Association's work in Northern Bulgaria, while on Turkish soil Mr. How and Bradley has planted the Red Triangle in Constantinople itself.

Wild Canaries Not Yellow. Canaries on their native islands are found in great flocks—striped green birds, by no means resembling in color our cage canaries. The yellow canary is a result of selective breeding, and the same may be said of course, of other cage varieties, such as the hump-backed Belgian canary and the "Herald" canary of curious descent.
