

Coolidge Declares Messages to McLean Related Only Questions of District's Local Government

Name of President is Linked with Telegram Sent by Him to McLean. White Letter Was in Plain English. Last Fall are Read Into the Record of Oil Committee.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—Coolidge declined today to turn over to the oil committee the tax returns of individuals and corporations prominently mentioned in the oil investigation.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—Two telegrams sent by President Coolidge to Edward McLean in Florida were read Thursday into the record of the oil committee. Immediately afterward the President issued a statement saying that the matters referred to in the messages related to questions of local government in the district of Columbia.

The first Coolidge message sent on Jan. 12 said: "President is away. Advise Slamp with whom I shall confer." Slamp was then in Palm Beach. The committee members said they did not know who Slamp was. The President's second message was sent on Feb. 13 reading: "Thank you for your message. You have always been most considerate. Mrs. Coolidge joins me in sending kindest regards to Mrs. McLean."

Cancellation of the government oil leases to the Doherty and Sinclair interests will be sought in bills of equity to be filed by the government oil counsel next week. As the oil committee prepared Wednesday to establish the identity of the "principal" mentioned in one of the telegrams, Senator McLean, Alabama, told the senate he thought the reference was to President Coolidge.

"I think the 'principal' referred to here is the President," Senator McLean said, after reading the message sent to the Washington publisher at Palm Beach on last Jan. 29 by Ira E. Bennett, an editorial writer on the Washington Post. Senator McLean expressed the belief that the statement "was a message that there would be no resignations" was in keeping with a published statement about that time that President Coolidge had said he would not permit Secretary Doherty to resign at the time the senate was demanding his resignation.

"Connected Up" "I think these two things are connected up," Senator McLean said, "that they mean just what this telegram sets out; that the 'principal' had been seen; that reaction in a political way is expected; that there will be no rocking of the boat and no resignations."

"I should like to have the committee ask Mr. Bennett Thursday— I understand that he is going to appear before the committee tomorrow to explain this telegram in detail."

"The 'principal' is referred to in another of the McLean telegrams examined Wednesday by the oil committee behind closed doors after the public hearing previously announced had been abandoned. The text was withheld until Thursday, when some committee members said it might be of assistance in the effort to ascertain who the 'principal' is."

Having received information that Attorney General Daugherty was in Florida at the time the telegram was sent, senators said they would seek also to establish the nature of the message which the Bennett telegram informed McLean had been delivered to the "principal."

SMOOT WANTS $100,000,000 MORE REVENUE

Chairman of Senate Finance Committee Declares That Bill Passed by House Falls by $100,000,000 to Provide For Working Expenses of Government Alike Without Extra Considerations.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—The tax reduction bill passed by the house will have to be remodeled to provide for $100,000,000 more revenue, Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee announced Wednesday night on the eve of consideration of the measure by that committee.

Based on his calculations on estimates reported this week by the treasury department that the house bill would cut off $448,000,000 in revenue in the calendar year 1925, Mr. Smoot said this would fall by $100,000,000 to provide funds for the working expenses of the government, alone, exclusive of a soldier bonus bill or other pending extra appropriation measures.

Mr. Smoot decided that undoubtedly some of the tax rates would have to be changed to meet this expected deficit but expressed no opinion as to what taxes would be affected pending consideration of the bill by the senate committee. The principal tax reductions made by the house were in the personal income taxes, the miscellaneous or excise taxes and a special deduction of 25 per cent on earned incomes.

Smoot to Present Situation This situation will be presented to the committee Thursday by Senator Smoot, when it holds its first session for consideration of the bill. With tax legislation thus getting under way in the senate, Senators Watson of Indiana, a member of the finance committee, and Moses of New Hampshire, Republicans, called on President Coolidge Wednesday to inform him of the present outlook for the bill there.

They expressed the opinion that the White House that the bill would be amended in committee to carry the national deficit in income rates. The bill as reported out of the house ways and means committee, carried these rates but they were substituted first by the Democratic income tax plan and later by the Longworth compromise schedule which was adopted with the support of the Republicans as a unit.

The Longworth rates in the bill provide for a maximum surtax of 17 1/2 per cent on incomes above $200,000 while the Mellon rates carried a maximum surtax of 25 per cent above $100,000.

Both Mr. Watson and Mr. Moses expressed the opinion that, outside of committee, sentiment had not crystallized very distinctly on tax legislation in the senate. This belief was supported by statements: Continued on page 5.

HOUSE WRANGLES FOUR HOURS ON FORD'S SHOAL PLANT OFFER

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—The house talked itself out Wednesday on the Ford offer for the purchase of the Ford plant on Muscle Shoals, but adjourned determined to resume discussion of Henry Ford's offer Thursday.

For nearly four hours debate which began Tuesday on the McKensie bill providing for acceptance of the Ford bid went along at a steady clip, then suddenly terminated when no one appeared willing to continue the discussion. Only fifty members were on the floor when adjournment was taken.

General debate on the bill, limited to 30 hours, will be completed Thursday, clearing the way for the offering of amendments. Representative Hull, Republican, Iowa, leading the fight against the measure, said that at least a dozen amendments, which would materially alter the terms of the proposed contract would be offered.

Proposals of the McKensie bill agreed Wednesday to accept an amendment specifying that the heirs and assigns of Mr. Ford had been obligated for one hundred years to carry out provisions of the contract.

Among those who urged acceptance of Ford's offer Wednesday were Representative James R. Keene, Ohio; Chairman Shell of the rules committee and Representative Simmons, Republican, Nebraska.

The attack on the offer of the Detroit manufacturer was led by Representative Burton, Republican, Ohio; Chairman Shell of the rules committee and Representative Simmons, Republican, Nebraska.

Many Members of Campbell-Losing Convention to Attend St. Petersburg. Approximately 40 members of the Campbell-Losing Post American Legion attended the first meeting of the organization to be held in the new clubhouse on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The most important business taken up during the meeting was that of preparing for the state convention which meets in St. Petersburg Mar. 27-28.

Selected as the official delegates to the convention were Post Commander Percy A. Mero and John Hintermeister. It was further announced that fully 25 other members of the post are expected to attend the meeting that special rates will be given by the railroad and that reduced rates for hotel accommodations will also be given by the hotels at St. Petersburg.

Plans were discussed for an intensive membership campaign to be put on between now and the time that the convention meets. The secretary announced that already over 100 members have paid up their 1924 dues and the others are requested to do likewise as soon as possible. In the meantime service men who are not members of the post or who are members of some other post but now reside in Sanford, are urged to join and pay their dues.

Reports were also given regarding the construction of the clubhouse. Members present were pleased to note that the work is almost finished and announcement was made that it is expected to be completed within two months. The local post plans to hold open house at which time representative members of the several organizations in Sanford will be the guests of the legion at dinner.

JURY PROBE TO Daugherty Again in Lineage As Question of Successor Given Consideration at White House

President Coolidge Requests That References to Wrongdoing in Washington as Contained in Grand Jury Report in Chicago, Be Investigated Thoroughly Regardless of Whom Involved.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—The movement gained ground in the house today to establish the identity of the two representatives charged in the report of the Chicago grand jury with being guilty of bribery.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—Its sensibilities already overtaxed by the kaleidoscopic career of the oil scandal, the national capital is about to witness the arrival of a grand jury investigation into astonishing charges against several important public officials.

President Coolidge has ordered that all of the mysterious allusions contained in a recent Chicago grand jury report be sifted and the bribery cases be given the same attention. Plans to carry out investigations into effect already have begun, and the presentation of evidence on which criminal indictments will be sought will start within a few days.

The charges, turned up incidentally in the course of the Chicago veterans bureau inquiry, relate to a number of subjects unconnected with the bureau and involving at least two members of the house of representatives who are alleged to have improperly accepted money. High Official Accused.

At least one "high official" is accused of having used official information for the purpose of speculation; liquor permit withdrawals are said to have been issued illegally, pardons are said to have been improperly obtained, and government files are said to have been entrusted to persons not entitled to them.

All of these charges were mentioned by the Chicago grand jury in its report with the notation that it was without authority to act on them. No names were included in the report, however, nor has the identity of those involved been disclosed to any officials in Washington.

As a result, rumors that investigate some of the charges which were reported in the oil scandal are running like wild fire through congressional cloak rooms and over the broad sweep of the government departments.

Crim Withholds Names. John W. H. Crim, who as special assistant attorney general, placed the government's evidence before the veterans grand jury in Chicago, has declined to divulge the names of the accused men to senate and house members who have proposed an investigation, but their identity has been disclosed to Acting Attorney General Clegg on page 5.

COMMITTEE NOW HAS FOUR BONUS BILLS BEFORE IT

Executive Sessions of House Ways and Means Committee for the Drafting of Bonus Bill Begun Today.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—Agreement to report the soldier bonus bill was voted 16 to 3 today by the house ways and means committee.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—Four varieties of soldier bonus bills were before the house ways and means committee at the conclusion of public hearings Wednesday and are expected to form the basis of committee action in framing a measure. Executive sessions of the committee at which the bill will be drafted will begin Thursday.

Chief Propositions The propositions which received much attention in the hearing were: Straight out cash payments in full of adjusted compensation. Restriction of a bonus entirely to paid-up insurance policies. A five-option measure providing for full cash payments of insurance policies.

The four-option McKensie bill, similar to that voted by President Harding, providing for cash payments to those not entitled to more than $50; adjusted service certificates, a form of deferred payment; vocational training, and farm or home aid.

Other propositions also were advanced, including one of Representative Hayden, Democrat, Arizona, to include in the McKensie measure a fifth option providing for land settlements. The first, however, gained most support.

Must Give More Study Members of the committee frankly stated Wednesday night that no definite plans had been agreed upon so far as party lines were concerned and many said they would have to give more study to the matter before reaching any conclusion.

The two-fold proposition to allow either full cash payment or the insurance policies was advanced Wednesday by the special committee of veterans named by the house Democratic conference to represent that body at the committee hearings. The plan was not binding on the Democrats as a whole, it was explained, and Representative Jeffers, Alabama, chairman of the committee, asked that it not be considered as a partisan view.

The proposition received the support of several other spokesmen.

LEGION MEN OF SANFORD GOING TO STATE MEET

Many Members of Campbell-Losing Convention to Attend St. Petersburg.

Approximately 40 members of the Campbell-Losing Post American Legion attended the first meeting of the organization to be held in the new clubhouse on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The local post plans to hold open house at which time representative members of the several organizations in Sanford will be the guests of the legion at dinner.

Appreciation of the splendid cooperation shown by various citizens in helping to keep the work going on the clubhouse, was expressed Thursday by Mr. Mero, who declared that when it was finished that the place would compare very favorably with any legion home in the state.

HARD BLOW GIVEN PHILIPPINE CRIES FOR SEPARATION

Coolidge Declares Plight Time Not Ripe for the Granting of Independence to Filipino People.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—The Philippine plea for immediate independence was dealt a stinging blow Wednesday by President Coolidge. The President, in a letter to Manuel Roxas, head of the Philippine independence mission, declared flatly the administration did not believe the time had come to grant independence to the Filipino people and asserted that grievances against Governor General Wood were unjustified and were, like the independence appeal, unsupported by a considerable portion of the islands' population.

Mr. Coolidge's views on the Philippine question were embodied in a 3,000-word letter covering almost every angle of the controversy ranging about that problem. It was written in reply to resolutions adopted by the Philippine legislature and presented to the White House several weeks ago by the independence mission. It will form, in the opinion of political observers here, the basis of the Philippine independence plank to be inserted in the Republican platform for the forthcoming presidential campaign.

Where Opposition Based Opposition to an immediate grant of complete autonomy to the Philippines was based by the President on the danger to the Filipino people of economic or political disorders, perhaps even amounting to disaster, in event of withdrawal of American support and protection; inability of the Filipino people at present to maintain the financial burden that would be imposed by political independence and lack of the political capacity necessary to the people of a minor responsibility assuming the full responsibility of maintaining itself in the family of nations.

"A fair appraisal of all these considerations, and of others which suggest themselves without requiring enumeration," the President wrote, "will, I am sure, justify the frank statement that the government of the United States would not feel that it had performed its full duty by the Filipino people, or discharged all of its obligations to civilization, if it should yield at this time to your aspirations for national independence."

The American people will not evade or repudiate the responsibility they have assumed in this matter. The American government is convinced that it has the overwhelming support of the American nation in its conviction that present independence would be a misfortune and might easily become a disaster to the Filipino people. Upon that conviction, the policy of this government is based.

Defends Wood Defending Governor General Wood as a hardworking, painstaking and conscientious administrator, and declaring his opinion of the facts showed that the Philippine legislature had usurped functions of the executive rather than the executive had taken over duties and rights of the legislature, as the independence mission has charged, Mr. Coolidge further declared.

"Looking at the whole situation fairly and impartially, one can not feel that if the Filipino people can not co-operate in the support and encouragement of as good an administration as has been afforded under Governor General Wood, their failure will be rather a testimony of unpreparedness for their full obligations of citizenship, than an evidence of patriotic eagerness to advance their country."

Swimming Pool To Be Constructed At University Florida

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Mar. 5.—A 75 by 150-foot swimming pool is the newest construction venture for the University of Florida and the athletic committee of the school is already engaged in obtaining estimates and figuring out a method to finance the proposition. The pool would fill a long-felt want, as the only present convenient watering place for the university of the state with a 1,300-mile water line is a small pond a mile distant.

The proposed structure, besides being large, will be built with modern equipment or it will not be built, according to the committee. When temporarily completed it will be covered with a surfacing of concrete, capable of holding an unmeasured covering at a later date. The water always will be fresh, and the tank will be usable the year-round, except during winter's coldest days.

The pool will be placed directly south of the gymnasium in short distance, where is found a slight depression that will facilitate excavations.

A plan is under way to have the students and other users take care of the financial end. By this plan the students for the next five years would pay a small sum, possibly about $2 a year. In summer the summer school students would pay a little toward the upkeep, while it would be thrown open to outsiders for a nominal admission charge.

Dr. Garland Will Close Engagement In Sanford Tonight

If the building of the foundation of a 40-story structure is important, the work of Dr. Garland in Sanford has been of superlative importance. His work has been of the character which abides with the years.

At a morning Bible study hour when he has assigned 15 or 20 scriptures, he will stand and repeat each assignment without making an error. And this he has done every morning since he began his work with the First Baptist Church. In his Bible readings he has made a profound impression.

The evening sermons have been filled with Bible truths. His teachings are of the kind which fit into everyday problems and needs. No man has ever preached a more practical Christianity in the First Baptist Church of this city than has Dr. Garland.

"A Live Christianity and How to Live It," will be the subject of the former traveling man's last sermon in Sanford.

Some Gleanings from Garland. Some of us think that we can slip something over on the godless fellows but we can't do anything of the kind. That line between right and wrong is drawn so clearly in the old book that the wayfarer man though blind can't fail to see it. The trouble today is not that the Christians are in the world but the trouble is in the world has gotten into many Christians.

Stick a pin in this point—a Christian has no personal right if the exercise of that right causes another to stumble. What you want to do is not to ask if this indulgence will hurt you but will it hurt the other fellow? Stop right still, Christians—measure your Christianity by Daniel's loyalty to God.

We shall be called before the court of heaven for the way we have administered our trusteeship.

Rate Reductions On Cement Are Obtained Declares F.E. Harrison

Of general interest to the people of this city and particularly to members of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce is the news received in a wire Wednesday morning from F. E. Harrison, Jr., stating that he in conjunction with representatives of several cement manufacturers had succeeded in reducing the proposed rates on his state on cement by two cents on each 100 pounds.

For some time Mr. Harrison has been in Atlanta attending the meeting as a special representative of the local organization and the news of his success indicates that his mission and efforts were not altogether in vain. The rate, however, that was accepted is still some higher than the rate now in force.

Those familiar with the obstacles which Mr. Harrison experienced in his first attempt to reduce the rates on cement by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce are commended for his efforts.

Hodges Says Fair Should Be Held In Month of November

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Mar. 5.—A Florida exposition similar to that just closed at Madison Square Garden, New York, should be sent to the North, East and West annually, according to the opinion of T. R. Hodges, state geologist and commissioner, who favors the month of November for the occasion, so as to precede the tourist season and avoid the severe cold weather.

Mr. Hodges is also in favor of renting a suitable place for the show where a nominal charge could be made for admission, which he says would "no doubt defray the total expense of the exposition."

plied that the suggestion made by Doheny "is to me most alluring." He added that he should "appreciate very much indeed the opportunity to be associated with you in some business enterprise," but that he could not accept his present official position engaged in any business "dependent in any appreciable degree on government favor."

World Avoid Suspicion. "This may be squasquishness on my part," the senator's letter added, "but I prefer to be thought sensitive than to be under suspicion of having utilized the position to which my people have elevated me for my own profit." This exchange of communications took place before Doheny started the committee with a statement that he had loaned Fallum $100,000 in 1921, while he was secretary of the interior.

After Senator Walsh had read the messages into the record, Chairman Lenroot stated that the committee had voted unanimously that the Doheny telegram to the senator wholly irrelevant to the inquiry and expressed regret that members of the committee had violated an agreement under which telegrams delivered by the telegraph company and not pertinent to the oil scandal should be regarded as confidential.

Says Daugherty Bit for Cabinet Men. A story to the effect that Attorney General Daugherty went to the race track with Henry P. Sinclair and bet money for cabinet members, was told to the senate today by Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama.

said Senator Heflin, "that the attorney general himself, with Mr. Sinclair, went to the race tracks and bet money for cabinet members on race horses and that the money Daugherty bet on last; that later he turned over some money to Sinclair to bet and that Sinclair came back with a bunch of money and turned it over to him and he divided it out and said: 'These are our winnings. And then you talk about remaining silent? I remember too, in that connection, that it was along at that time that Mr. Daugherty was buying stock in the Sinclair Oil Company. The whole thing smells to high heaven and yet the Washington Post carries the articles of Doheny or his lawyer abusing the public trust and investigate these scandals."

and take whatever action in the future he may deem necessary to preserve the confidence of the people in that body."

In announcing the decision of the senate veterans' committee not to go into the charges involving the two house members, Chairman Reed declared that information furnished him showed the matter was one for prompt prosecution, not investigation.

He made this statement after a conference with John W. H. Crim, government counsel in the veterans' bureau case, who is understood to have informed the committee chairman that the activities of the two house members had no relation whatever to affairs of the bureau.

Will Be Deliberate. Mr. Crim announced Tuesday night that the investigation into charges against the two house members would be "deliberate" and that every effort would be made to ascertain the exact situation.

A section of the Chicago grand jury's report relating to the alleged activities of the two congressmen was made public by Mr. Crim as follows:

"Incidental to the investigation of matters of which this grand jury has jurisdiction certain other facts not directly pertaining to the veterans' bureau were developed by counsel for the government which we regard of great importance. There is no jurisdiction of them in the northern district of Illinois but we are assured by Mr. Crim that he will lay them before the attorney general and President for consideration.

"We do not feel that it would subscribe the best interests of the government for this jury to make public at this time the details of these transactions."

WALL STREET

The explosion, one of the greatest disasters and most complete mysteries in the history of New York, occurred at noon when a group of workers were pouring out of offices for their lunch hour. A sheet of flame shot up from Wall and Broad Streets where a moment before a horse and wagon had been standing, in front of the sub-treasury and opposite the office of J. P. Morgan and Company.

ROYAL ICE CREAM

dust. The freezer has a capacity of 60 quarts and 15 gallons may be frozen every 15 minutes. The machine is so arranged that cream may be frozen continuously without stopping the motor. A double dasher in the freezer gives a fine whip to the finished product which is emptied into containers from the bottom while the "mix" may be poured in from the top at the same time and the process made a continuous one.

From the freezer the cream is fed in the containers which in turn are placed in a window leading to the storage plant. In the outer room of the storage room the temperature is around 85 degrees Fahrenheit. From this room it is placed in the freezing room which has a temperature of 10 degrees below zero. This room has a capacity of 800 gallons. The entire storage space is kept at the various temperatures by means of a Brunswick Ice Machine which draws the heat from the room.

Only all-steel containers are used by Mr. Royall and all equipment used in handling the cream is subjected to thorough cleaning with the aid of hot water. Cream can be placed in any amount from half gallons on up. A retail and wholesale business will be carried on by the firm.

Extension of Water Service Is Asked by City Planning Body

The City Planning Commission at its weekly meeting held Tuesday night passed a resolution urging that the city commission make arrangements with the Southern Utilities Company for the latter to extend the present water service into those portions of the city that are not already reached and to have same laid according to plans and specifications drawn by Consulting Engineer Craig.

If carried out by the commissioners, it was hoped that it would cause no loss to the company and would be installed in the manner prescribed by the proposed plans that the city could take it over later. The general purpose of the move is to bring immediate relief to those districts of town that are such in need of water supply at this time.

The commission worked on plans for the extension of First Street to Mellonville Avenue. It was announced Wednesday that every thing is about complete to submit the proposition to the city commission as most of the property owners have agreed to deed a right of way to the city for such purpose.

A plat of Greenwood, a subdivision owned by G. D. Brumley, was examined and approved by the body. It was ordered entered in the city plat book.

It was the consensus of opinion that the Clyde Line officials should be requested to construct a concrete pier on its property and make other permanent improvements such as would be in conformity with other lakefront development. A rough sketch for a proposed pier was submitted at the meeting and it was announced that the matter will be taken up soon with the boat officers.

LEAVES

Peace to these little broken leaves,
That strew our common ground;
That chase their tails, like silly dogs,
As they go round and round—
For though in winter boughs are bare,
Let us not once forget
Their summer glory, when these leaves
Caught the great Sun in their strong net;
And made him, in the lower air,
Tremble no bigger than a star!

WOMAN'S CLUB OF SANFORD

Madame Chairman, Club Members, Friends: The season of 1923 is nearing its close. It has been a busy one for the past two years of our administration with discouragements, disappointments, heartaches and sorrows, and although your president is fully conscious of much that she has been unable to accomplish, yet she presents this report with a feeling of pride and pleasure in the one big achievement of the club, the building of our handsome club house.

The dreams and visions of each of our presidents has been in the completion of this building, an ideal club house which would cost more than lumber and nails, more than architect's plans and drawings. It marks an epoch in the life history of the club women of Sanford and in the civic history of our town.

With our beautiful club building has come greater responsibility. Many problems to be solved, many the added expenses it has become necessary to raise the dues.

Your executive committee has held long and strenuous sessions. The club expenses had to be planned for, new furnishings bought, the furnishings from the old club house were found inadequate to meet our present needs.

All officers, chairman of departments and all committees have performed their duties faithfully and well. Much in every line of our club life has been accomplished and that one big thing for which we should not forget the stranger in our midst. While a great deal of time has been given to our financial and working problems the social side of our club has had its full share of our time and attention. Friendly contact with others means a greater enjoyment of life, a better appreciation of our women and a bigger mental and spiritual growth.

The question of club attendance has yet to be solved. The departments feel the need of this. No chairman, no officer can give of her best in the face of lax interest. Sometimes we may think it is not necessary to attend all meetings but if you know what an inspiration it is to a presiding officer to have a full attendance you would be willing to make sacrifices to attend. Will you not firmly resolve that in the future you will attend all business meetings when possible to do so and the meetings of the department to which you belong. We want you there. We need you. We want you to know what we are doing and to feel your full share of the responsibility of carrying on our organization.

You have shown you are interested by your hearty co-operation. Won't you go a little further and be loyal in attendance. "It takes a mighty heap of living to make a house a home," says Edgar Guest, and it takes more than a new home and a big membership to make a woman's club just what it should be.

The year 1924 looms big with possibilities. Let us assume our part of the responsibility our organization carries, always remembering that the cause is greater than the individual and that the harmonious action of the individual collective is the strength of the organization; that no matter how small the cog may be it can retard the action of the whole machine if it fails to do its part.

For the past two years your president has been present at every monthly business meeting, at every board meeting with two exceptions. Attended and enjoyed every and all department meetings when possible to do so. She has attended many, many committee meetings, spent some part of almost every day in club work of some sort, letter writing, phone communications and planning.

Attended two state conventions first at Green Cove Springs 1922 and again at West Palm Beach 1923. Three state board meetings. The biennial council in Atlanta, Ga., last May, all at her own expense. Although she has often been deprived of the pleasure of meeting with friends there are compensations and what she has done for the club is little as to what the club has done for her.

Your president wishes to express her appreciation to those who have been so faithful and always ready to do what was asked of them. Without you she could have done nothing and the success of the club is due to you and your help and loyalty.

CHILD WELFARE WORK

BY MRS. E. CURLETT

The board on the county nurse's committee met Saturday, Feb. 23 and voted the sum of $150 to put the health crusade in the schools. The committee thinks that this is a most important piece of work, since the health crusade teaches the children the value of the proper health habits. This work is under the supervision of Miss Reba Harris of the Florida Public Health Association. If this is placed in all the county schools now, the children will have time before school is out to qualify for the health plan and become a "Knight Crusader." The vesting of the applicant with the title of Sir Knight is very picturesque and appeals to the children's love for the medieval chivalry. The rules of the game are:

- Eight hours sleep every night.
- Drink one glass of milk with every meal.
- Brush the teeth after every meal.
- Not drinking tea or coffee.
- One bowel action every day.
- Sleep with the windows open at night.
- Was hands before eating.
- A bath at least twice per week.

Longwood

The Maine people observed what is called "Maine Night" Feb. 29, at the public library. There were 40 Maine people and enough from other states to swell the total to about 115. Twenty of these were from Franklin county, Maine. At 8:30 o'clock the meeting was called to order with E. E. Hardy as toastmaster.

- The program:
1. Mr. Hardy reading "State of Maine, My State of Maine."
  2. Singing, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ranger.
  3. Remarks, Mrs. G. W. Smith.
  4. Reading, Mrs. G. W. Smith.
  5. Remarks, Mr. J. P. Stevens.
  6. Singing and encore, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Thompson.
  7. Remarks, Mr. V. H. Ranger.
  8. Reading, Miss Florence Clark.
  9. Remarks, Mr. H. Elwell.
  10. Singing by Maine people.
  11. Reading by Mrs. Abbie Morrison.
  12. Piano duet, Mrs. McWorkman and Miss Clark.
  13. General remarks by many present among which was Mrs. E. V. Reynolds.
  14. Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

All enjoyed a social that as they separated for their several homes, declaring it one of the best times of their lives. The writer omits the titles of the parts rendered but assure the readers it all worked in toward the old State of Maine.

SCOTCH

A Scot named MacIntosh, who was very proud of his Highland clan, became engaged in a dispute with a taxi driver, says Judge, who made him very angry, and he said laughingly, "Do you know who I am? I am a MacIntosh." The driver snorted, "I don't care if you're an umbrella. I'll have my rights."

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

The Geneva school gave a box supper at the town hall on Friday night, Feb. 29. A large crowd attended from Sanford, Ocala, Geneva and other places. Beautiful boxes were in line for sale of all colors sizes and shapes. One huge bouquet of bright colors. Mrs. Curlett auctioned the first box, with the understanding that Mrs. John Leonard would sell the others. Mrs. Leonard found this to be quite an undertaking, and after selling quite a number, turned the job over to her husband, who finished with credit to himself and the young ladies who had supplied the boxes.

Representing Sanford were Mr. Jenkins and family, Mr. Brady, Mr. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. John Leonard, and others. Those from whom we received regrets and a substantial check or cash were: Supt. T. W. Lawton, Schelle Mines and Mr. Sharon, all of Sanford, and Mrs. Parker and Paine Daniel of Geneva. In all $107 net, was made for the piano fund and we want to thank all those who so kindly and liberally helped to make this affair a success.

MRS. M. E. DOOLEY.

Your Civic Duty

Now the registration books are open to give the people who are eligible to vote a chance to qualify themselves. Each woman in the Seminole County Federation should feel it her duty to qualify and vote in the coming June primary election.

Are you the woman who is rowing ahead Or the one that is rocking the Boat? Don't tell the world that democracy is dead—Get out your ballot and vote.

It is a well established fact that this country is governed by the minority because the average citizen is contented to sit at home and not exercise the privilege and the duty of the ballot. With privilege comes an additional responsibility and whether we like it or not the ballot is a very serious and should be a carefully exercised privilege. Many centuries ago Plato said, "The price people pay for not being interested in politics is to be governed by people worse than themselves. Let every Seminole county woman qualify and vote on June 3 to place the best men possible and available in office."

"Let us set for ourselves a standard so high that it will be a glory to live up to it, and then let us live up to it and add a new laurel

Greater Glory Dims the Less

HERE is no suburban property in the State of Florida, or for that matter in the entire South, which compares today with Coral Gables in consummate beauty and accomplished development.

There is no suburb where one-fourth as much money has been invested in improvements of the most permanent character and highest quality, as you will find at Coral Gables.

Coral Gables dominates the real estate investment field by reason of all of these things and because of the universal recognition which it has won by its great accomplishments.

And yet despite all this the new Country Club section has been opened to the public with a building program which represents the crowning effort of all of the high-grade development work. Here will stand the 350 room and bath hotel costing $1,250,000; the $250,000 country club overlooking the 18-hole golf course; the $150,000 Congregational Church; and the College for Young Women to be erected by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Construction work on the new Country Club section has already been begun, and the opportunity that awaits wise investors now will never again be duplicated in the entire State.

Come see for yourself the gigantic program that is under way at Coral Gables today. Come out as guest aboard a de luxe pullman bus. Make your reservation at the local office and avoid disappointment.
