Dusty Boots Riding Association, Inc., has voted to support a "horse lovers fund" to be administered by a group of Jacksonville ecumenists.

The fund was recently initiated by Bonnie L. Smith, of Fort Lauderdale, Jacksonville, who recently had a number of horses slashed and all of his riding equipment stolen.

The fund was established to offer a $500 reward for evidence leading to the arrest and conviction of persons who might attack horses.

Enterprise Boy Receives State Farm Degree

By Mrs. Elsie Harris The State Farm Degree, highest honor given to high school seniors in Future Farmers of America, was awarded to Robert Wilkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Henderson of Enterprise, during ceremonies last Thursday at the State FFA Convention Auditorium in Daytona Beach.

Robert Wilkins of Lake Helen, also of the DeLand High School Chapter, and Howard were the only two boys from their group to receive this high honor which was given to 12 boys of the more than 8,000 FFA students in the state.

With the degrees the boys received a certificate of merit and a gold medal.

Wild Life Joins Marine Maneuvers In Ocala

During recent jungle training by the local Marines in the Ocala National Forest, some interest was generated into the exercises by native wild life.

Above are two of several snakes which joined the forces in opposition to the Marines. As Sgt. H. N. Benton (left above) and Sgt. A. Robinson moved into their ambush position, they found that the above six foot rattlesnake had decided to use these pellets for his ambush position. This diamond back was the possessor of 18 rattlers.

Remembering their recent training, the sergeants decided to supplement their combat rations by fishing for bream.

AMA Votes Today On Medicare Stand

NEW YORK (UPI) — The policy-making unit of the American Medical Association (AMA) voted today on how to advise the nation's doctors to behave toward Medicare if it becomes law, as expected if it should they support it. Or opponents — while largely opposed — or just to advise the latter pill, and hope for a postponer.

The AMA represents 206,000 physicians — about 75 of the country's total — who belong to 46 state and territorial associations.

Its policy — making 25-man House of Delegates was scheduled to be held in Washington and vote its report on resolutions concerning Medicare — and also of which adopted non-participation, a boycott, in any such law.

In Washington Tuesday the AMA notified Congress it spent more than $600,000 in the first three months of 1965 lobbying against Medicare.

The exact figure reported to the clerk of the House, in accordance with law, was $601,570.13, a figure topped only twice previously by the AMA's advertising campaign last fall in newspapers and on television and radio, on the merits of its own best-selling magazine, which it called advertisements in support of the administration's plan for hospital and nursing care of the aged.

While the reference to Medicare was a public affairs issue, the AMA's public affairs was holding a debate Tuesday before retiring to its headquarters, where it is to hold a 100-day session in the Americana Hotel.

Mental Health Research Drive Will Be Launched During Year

DAYTONA BEACH — A major drive to increase financing for mental health research and the facilities for the mentally ill, will be launched during 1966-67 by the Florida Association for Mental Health, President Loper B. Lowry reported.

The decision was reached at the annual board meeting of FAMH last weekend in Daytona Beach, where a review of progress in research and treatment of mental illness was reported.

The emphasis on greater financing will occur at two levels, Lowry, of Tampa, said. First, from citizens, to contribute more through their United Appeal or other fund raising agency to finance more research and education.

Secondly, local government and state officials to include mental health facilities in their county and city health departments, to better serve the mentally ill patient with the most modern approaches to this problem.

To insure the best of adequate financed mental health has ranked sixth, seventh and eighth behind other health issues. Lowry commented, "while mental health remains the number one state and national health problem."

FAMH is an organization throughout Florida of professional mental health workers and volunteers interested in modern approaches to the care of the mentally ill.

Shoppers Find Good Vegetable, Fruit Supply

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Western food shoppers will generally find good supplies of certain seasonal fruits and vegetables along with plenty of poultry and some meats.

Plentiful fruits and vegetables include cabbage, corn, cucumbers, green beans, lettuce, onions, radishes and tomatoes. Plentiful fresh fruit includes bananas, cantaloupes, melons, peaches, plums and watermelons. Watermelons are especially plentiful.

Certain cuts of beef will be to good supply such as ground beef, meats, and meat alternatives are again the top priority buy. Eggs are plentiful. Other good buys are frozen fish fillets, and fish portions.

LBJ Reinstates $37 Million Food Sales To Nasser

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson, in a decision step toward better relations with the United Arab Republic UAR, is reinstating $37 million in surplus food sales to the Nasser regime.

The UAR is the final installment of a three-year surplus food agreement signed with Cairo in October, 1962. The sales were suspended last January following a series of anti-American actions by President Gamal Abdel Nasser's government. These included a mob attack on the U.S. Embassy in Cairo and burning of the U.R. information library in November, shooting down of a private American plane, a December speech by Nasser renouncing U.S. aid, and Nasser's aid to rebels in the Congo.

The three-year food agreement expires June 30. The State Department, in announcing Johnson's decision Tuesday to resume sales, said no decision had been made on a $53 million UAR supplemental food request. The State Department said there had been a "definite improvement" in relations with Cairo in the past six months.

Bridal Dinner Honors Miss Shepard

Mrs. Walter H. (Jack) Weible and Mrs. Martha Ashby were co-hostesses to a recent charming pre-nuptial dinner at the Orlando Air Force Base Officers Club complementing Miss Sherlene Shepard, bride-elect of Alphonse Girardin of Fort Myers.

Proceeding the dinner, cocktails were served the guests in the beautiful Jade Bar. Centering the dining table was an arrangement of white mums, roses and lily of the valley topped with a white orchid. Each end of the table was accented by three branched silver candelabra.

Doctor Prescribes Pretty Nurse As Good Medicine
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Dr. Robert J. Samp, a professor of surgery, has confessed what most men have thought all along—it's great to have a pretty nurse when you're hospitalized.
The nurse's beauty may even be the thing that saves your life, according to the doctor.
"A cute thing with a warm smile" often is the inspiration for a man to get well, Samp said. "Something gives the nurse that pulls him through."
But a woman disagreed, as usual.
Maxine Taylor, who had headed a nurses' registry here for 18 years, discounted the news that beauty has anything to do with getting well.
"He ought to have his head examined," said Miss Taylor. "Some of the very best nurses aren't beauties by any means, but their experience makes it possible for them to give their patients confidence."
"Good nursing has nothing to do with beauty," she said.

LARRY A. GOIN, Aviation Machinist Main First Class, recently received a letter of commendation from the Commanding Officer of Training Squadron Seven at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Meridian, Miss. Goin was assigned as Master Inspector of the Quality Control Division while attached to Training Squadron SEVEN and was awarded the commendation for his outstanding service and devotion to duty. He reported to Reconnaissance Attack Squadron Seven in April, 1965 and resides with his wife Patricia, and two children at 114 Garrison Drive, Sanford.

Five 'Dragons' Are Promoted
Five Reconnaissance Attack Squadron Three "Dragons" were recently advanced in rank and congratulated for their accomplishment by Cdr. J. W. Akins, executive officer of RVAHS-3. The promotion standards of the Navy permit the most highly qualified personnel to be advanced, therefore this line up of Navy talent includes head work and study. Personnel in the Navy are advanced only after successfully participating in Navy-wide competitive examinations. They are being advanced were Douglas G. Wierenga, RDI, Andrew Thomas Raliff, AGS, Parks M. Low, Jr., TNS, Rodney G. Graham, FNS, Richard J. LaPlante, AES.

A Job Well Done

The regular session of the 1965 Legislature was far from uneventful. For example, Seminole County drew a blank check in Governor Burns' $200 million road program enacted rather enthusiastically by the legislators. Also there seemed to be a lot of effort to proceed with development as far as lower education was concerned. "Hold that line" appeared to be the battle cry of the Legislature. No tax increase at any cost. However, there were many commendable things accomplished in Tallahassee. Locally, Seminole County fared quite well. We can give two men the credit for seeing to it that the bulk of legislation from county and municipal governments came through the mazes in fine shape. Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Rep. Joseph Davis Jr. served our interests exceptionally well. Putting our needs into legislation and eventually into laws wasn't exactly an easy task. It was a time-consuming process and our legislators worked hard at the job. We are extremely grateful to them. We believe that many of the bills

Thought For Today

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — By the end of summer, some 20,000 nonpartisan people are expected to be drawn from the ranks of the poor into community action programs for the war on poverty. Largely from these same ranks will come some 45,000 paid employees of the poverty project called Head Start, a summer-time crash effort aimed at helping 300,000 disadvantaged pre-school children to enter kindergarten in the first grade next fall on a relatively even footing with their luckier neighbors. These are not routine statistics. They are a measure of the potential for social revolution contained in the war on poverty. If that revolution comes off, and there seems no reason at this stage to doubt it will, it could ultimately dwarf all other effects of the poverty program. The transformation of tens of thousands of poor people in the program designed for their own uplift may mean the first breaking down of insurmountable walls which now keep them seriously alienated and isolated from the broad mainstream of American life. One poverty official says alienation is the principal characteristic of the urban poor and isolation a mark of the rural poor. A great goal of the anti-poverty effort, therefore, is to "reconnect" these millions with the society they live in but of which they are not genuinely a part. It should surprise no one that the mood of the alienated urban poor today is one of "deep distrust," as poverty officials are discovering. The mood is a reflection of the political and business leadership but the very social and welfare agencies whose existence is formally dedicated to the poor are regarded as nearly 100 per cent suspect. The inclusion of representatives of the poor on community action boards and on the boards of the various public agencies has been a step toward bridging this crucial gap. But in the swelling flow of "nonpartisan" into the program is the real cue to the prospect of social revolution. One official: "His money has been shown at the Capitol this week, to members of Congress, staff workers and newsmen. I don't see how they can be anything but impressed. Not once during the 20-minute sequence of astronaut Ed White's venture outside the capsule did they get a glimpse over the camera lens or forget to remove the lens cover. The picture was in focus, had a minimum amount of jerkiness and, more important, was free of extraneous subject matter. This may have been because their wives weren't there to give directions. Followed White. While White was floating

Come Early This Year

Dick West's The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The many other plaudits that the camera pointed in his direction. In other words, McDwitt was not making pictures of pretty good formations as he might have been doing had his wife been present. Or, as he surely would have been doing had his wife been present. I have several reels home that I took during a visit to Yellowstone National Park a few years ago. They consist entirely of pretty cloud formations that my wife pointed out while I was trying to get a picture. McDwitt and White also are to be congratulated for relating what must have been a strong temptation to ham it up a bit while making the movie. A small salute by White when he first stepped out into space. As the saying goes, when you've seen one earth, you've seen them all.

Natural Scenic Beauty

By Ken Vance
Kentucky Division of Highway Information
Motorists in Kentucky are getting a bonus of natural scenic beauty from the Kentucky Highway Department's mass planting of shrubs, trees, hedges and ground covers. We cannot stem the tide. And we do not wish to. The reaction in the establishment is something else. A considerable part of the heralded controversy over the highway program, mostly in some of the big cities, seems to reflect recognition by seasoned politicians of the immense potential it has for a sweeping, unpredictable change. There is more involved, some officials here believe, than the politicians' natural fear of anything along the highway. Many sense the danger to their status from an emerging new force which, if it isn't checked, could one day topple them from power. Also unmentioned, of course, are the established professionals — nurses, teachers, waiters and social workers. The nonprofessionals and their publicized unemployment in the rural areas in the months just ahead. You'll see a firm conviction among responsible officials guiding and watching these changes that the program will not only go forward, but finally will be accepted "as a fact of life" by all "concerned" by the Federal government and State funds.

Barbs

By Walter C. Parke
Ever notice how short the month get when you are paying on an installment purchase? ... Teenage glamor girls can grow up to become white-glamor girls. True, money can't buy happiness, but it sure can finance the search for it.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

If a man offers a girl a highball and a cigarette, what does this reveal? Marcia wants to know, so scribble this vital case. For millions of girls are ignorant about male psychology. That's why they contract venereal diseases and bear babies out of wedlock, for they lack the facts listed below. CASE W-421: Marcia D. aged 17, is the high school senior who wanted the straight facts about smoking a d. "Dr. Crane," she persisted, "you say that among the thousands of men who have applied to the Scientific Marriage Foundation, only one asked to meet a girl who smoked. ... Who was he and why did he make such a request? ... And if you are opposed to marrying girls who smoke, why do they offer a cigarette? ... That man who asked to meet a smoking woman, was a wife of a doctor who headed an Eastern corporation and was earning $50,000 per year. ... He expressly asked to be introduced to the widow of a similar corporation head in the same salary bracket. ... For I want her to be able to mix drinks, smoke and otherwise fraternize with sophisticated prospects for my business," he added. ... Apparently, his motive was to obtain an assistant sales manager instead of a devoted wife! ... As regards Marcia's query as to why men offer a girl a cigarette when they usually offer a smoking wife, you girls must realize that men have a double standard. ... It is almost as evident today as it was in the days of the young man who gave his girl a highball and coax her to have re-ills. And he gallantly gave her a cigarette and light it. ... But such a man is looking for an evening "affair," not a wife! ... Girls, beware! Modern men dress a vast distinction between a "Good Time Girl" who meets their family, and a girl they want to take home. Many a girl, starving for some masculine attention, will foolishly sell out, like the school lass, for a mess of pottage. ... So she enters into an affair, she hopes that somehow she will "hook" the man into a wedding contract. ... But she is playing a long-shot gamble which have risked over 300% in recent years.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for four months and pregnant for two. I am delighted and so is my husband. But here's the problem: From the moment I got my engagement ring I started to get it from all sides. My mother, my mother-in-law, my grandmother, his aunt, everyone said, "How don't you go and have a baby the first year you're married?"

DEAR ABBY: After reading the letter from the mother who was up in arms over the fact that her child's teacher kept the whole class after school because a "few" children misbehaved, I am up in arms, too. Did it ever occur to the mother that after a confining active day of teaching, we teachers look forward to a quiet, empty classroom where we are free to plan our next day's work?

DEAR ABBY: Can't "UP IN ARMS" see that the teacher was staying on her own time in order to teach discipline to that group of youngsters? She wasn't getting time and a half over the fact that she was in love? I asked my mother and she said there isn't any such thing, it's just something you imagine. But she is 27 years old and it's been so long since she was in love she probably forgot. I've asked several other people and nobody seems to have the answer. Have you? I'm in Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Beauty after Forty

When you are seriously ill, there is no problem in selecting your medication—the physician prescribes it for you. But, as you grow older, there are many ill that come to you which are not serious but which require aid.

Jim: "The follow-up Blackwood bid of five no-trump is a demand to partner to tell how many kings he holds. five club response he is sure that North holds all four-ces those cards. South also wants to know about the important king of hearts and is able to bid five no-trump. North responds six diamonds and South is able to bid a grand slam with complete confidence.

How to Beat the High Cost of Groceries?

Our chef knows the secret! Old-time cooks use a few simple tricks to discover (to your delight) that it's more economical to buy in bulk or in the cool, pleasant comfort of the Trade Winds. Delicious food. Courteous service. And no dishes to wash!

We The Women:

A lot of parents worrying about the pushing their high school-ages sons and daughters ought to sleep easier tonight. At least, I hope they will when they hear what a University of Chicago graduate has to say about success in high school and his relation to success in later life.

AROUND THE CLOCK

Sanford Jaycees are proud of a note they found posted on the front door of their Information Building the other day. It read:

"Thank you for the lovely way-side park. We have followed it from Ft. Myers and had been looking for a way-side table for 1 1/2 hours before coming to this one. We will always remember Sanford-Seminole."

The note was signed by two ladies from Fort Myers, Ruth Markle and Gertrude Thomlinson.

Reconnaissance Attack Squadron Nine, now on the USS Saratoga in the Mediterranean, recently played host to Dr. Eugene G. Fubini, assistant secretary of defense. The defense official was briefed on the reconnaissance capabilities of the Vigilante and toured the Integrated Operational Intelligence Center (IOIC).

Rep. A. Sydney Herlong Jr. says 63 per cent of the retired people who answered a questionnaire he sent say they oppose Medicare.

Sign on local sporting goods store: "Closed all day Wednesday. Field testing equipment." (Another way of saying, "gone fishing!")

John Kider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, is observing his 30th anniversary as a Sanford resident. He's been with the chamber now for almost 10 years.

Featured on the "To Tell The Truth" TV quiz program over WDBQ-TV Monday afternoon was the handsome wildlife artist Ray Harm, whose inspired paintings of birds, skinned visitors to the Conservation Show at the Sanford Civic Center last Fall.

Arthur Beckwith, Clerk of the Circuit Court, has been named second vice president of the State Association of Court Clerks of Florida. During the past year Beckwith served as secretary of the group. He has also been treasurer and sergeant at arms.

Dr. Patricia Drabik, Rollins speech professor, will be the principal speaker at the 12th annual meeting of the Florida Speech Association, to be held at the Trade Winds Cafeteria. Others will be Capt. Chandler Swanson and Loring Burwe.

He vigorously in Sanford. Serve with the car. He makes a delicious dish of confusion. This is what it took to make Ramon Jaime's drive from Miami to Georgia a trip he will never forget.

Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock, Ramon and six other men, in a fleet of seven new German compact cars, left N. Miami Beach for Port Savannah, Ga., where the cars were to be delivered.

It was a successful trip, with the cars strung out in a cavalcade along the highways to Georgia. Ramon was driving the last car in line.

He speaks no English, this friendly, outgoing Cuban refugee. He was not even sure where he was going. He only knew he was to go to the car along with the cavalcade to wherever it was going.

No one, least of all Ramon's employers, Miami Auto, Inc. of N. Miami Beach, Jacksonville, knew he was to turn onto U.S. Highway 17 for the trip to Savannah.

Then along came two unidentified men. They didn't know what the problem was, but they didn't know Ramon. Finally, one of the men noticed that the car Ramon was driving had only a temporary Florida tag. Perhaps he was trying to get a license plate. So, the two men took Ramon to the State Highway and Tax Collector C. Troy Ray's office.

Here, more confusion was added to the situation. Ray sponsored by the Sanford Recreation Department, attracted about 60 juvenile hoboes from the area. The first prize was cashed with an authentic "hobo stew" luncheon and awards given the winning pair. Two of the winners are Rocky Bowling and Brenda Burnham for their portrayal of "real hoboes."

New Runway Plans Under Way At NAS

It looks "pretty solid" that the $7,240,000 in improvement funds for Sanford Naval Air Station approved Tuesday by the Senate Armed Services committee, will be okayed by the House. The bill, sponsored by Rep. A. Sydney Herlong Jr., would authorize the construction of a new runway and taxiway at the base and the renovation of the existing runway. The project is being financed by the Navy's fiscal 1965-66 budget.

This was the word today from Capt. Chandler Swanson, base commander of the air station. "We are very optimistic," Swanson said, "with the appropriation so much closer to passage. Everything we had planned and hoped for was included in the funds. It will be a real great step forward."

When the funds are given final approval, the major project in the base improvements will be the construction of the new runway. "Plans for the new runway are being drawn now. We (the Navy) are doing everything possible in advance so we can push as fast as possible when the money comes down," Swanson said.

The new runway, which will alleviate most of the noise over Sanford from the flying of the base's fleet of F-4 Phantom II jets, will not be completed, however, until Jan. 1, 1967. That is the target date for the first plane to touch down.

In speaking of the runway, Swanson said "we want to emphasize the appreciation of the base and Capt. Richard Fowler (Reconnaissance Attack Wing One commanding officer) for the recognition and acceptance of the inconvenience by the people in Sanford."

"We know it's a horrible burden but we are gratified that we have received the minimum number of complaints."

Other items of construction included in the proposed funds include a new aircraft control tower, a new enlisted men's barracks to house 800 men, and a new 80-man Bachelor Officers Quarters. There is also planned a modernization of the 1942 electrical distribution system at the base.

Cuban Refugee Drives 100 Miles In Wrong Direction

'Wrong-Way Ramon' Ends Up In Sanford

Viet Premier Sets Program To 'Win War'

SAIGON (UPI) — Saigon's military government issued a diatribe series of war-time measures that included a diplomatic break with France, an official declaration of a state of war, and closing of all newspapers.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky said he would permit no opposition to his program that also provided a curfew for Saigon, outlined "very strict control" of economic, and threatened more "drastic but temporary measures."

He hinted at new socialist moves in a program of social revolution.

Ky warned that the moves were necessary because of the serious turn of the war in Viet Nam. He said general mobilization was a "majority of voters."

A similar election two years ago saw a proposed charter issue defeated by nine votes.

The charter bill shall be the present "town" and creates the "city" of Casseberry. It provides for and defines its government, jurisdiction, powers, duties, franchises, immunities and privileges; authorizes impositions and improves taxation methods; sets penalties for violation of city ordinances; sets powers to be exercised by the municipality, and provides for transition of office to the city created under the act.

In conjunction with An's proclamation, Mrs. Mary Hawthorne, town clerk, announced that registration books are open from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. daily in the municipal annex.

Casselberry Votes July 26 On Charter

Referendum election on adoption of a charter for the city of Casseberry has been set for Sunday, July 26, in a proclamation issued this week by Mayor Owen Anstey following a special act of the 1968 legislature providing the charter subject to adoption by a "majority of voters."

The charter bill shall be the present "town" and creates the "city" of Casseberry. It provides for and defines its government, jurisdiction, powers, duties, franchises, immunities and privileges; authorizes impositions and improves taxation methods; sets penalties for violation of city ordinances; sets powers to be exercised by the municipality, and provides for transition of office to the city created under the act.

South Seminole Bank Plans $250,000 Expansion Program

South Seminole Bank Inc. today announced it will soon expand its facilities at a cost of about $250,000.

In a joint statement by E. G. Burns, president and A. G. Bush, chairman of the board, plans were revealed for the enlargement of the bank to more than triple its present size.

The bank located on U. S. 17-92 one block south of SR 434, celebrated its fourth anniversary Friday.

"When South Seminole Bank opened in 1961, it was felt that the need for a major expansion program of this magnitude would not come before the end of the decade," Bush said.

"The very gratifying acceptance of the bank by residents and businessmen of the Maitland-Seminole County area during the bank's first four years has necessitated the acceleration of our expansion plans."

Beginning with a staff of 15, South Seminole Bank now has 30 officers and employees. Total resources of the bank now total over $6.5 million and more than 6,000 customers make use of its deposit and loan facilities.

The expansion program includes a second floor which will have a community room for use by civic groups and other meetings. The ground floor will be enlarged and other facilities will be expanded.

New paved customer parking facilities also will be provided.

Plans will be taken on the new structure within the next few weeks and groundbreaking is scheduled for about Aug. 1.

Briefing Planned On Water Problems

The effect of Orange County's drainage problems will be the subject of a briefing session in county commission chambers, at 2 p.m. June 29, Commission Chairman John Alexander announced today.

"We have arranged an advisory session of our regular meeting Tuesday in order that Orange County officials and engineers may present a copy of the map available to the public."

Chairman John Alexander suggested interested citizens should attend the briefing session in the Seminole County commission room so they can be informed on the proposed program.

On the automobile Ramon was driving indicated imported Motors, Inc. as registrant of the vehicle. A telephone call to Miami soon squared away the story.

But, now, a call had to be placed to Jacksonville, for it seems, Ramon's traveling companions had misled him. The Jacksonville police were on the way to the motel of driver. Their search was called off.

In the meantime, the rest of the fleet had continued its trip, arriving in Savannah about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Having been found, Ramon was instructed to wait in Sanford until someone could arrive from Miami to assist him. He has been found for the night in Seminole County jail.

As a guest, only. Today, Ramon feels happy. However, he is most apologetic about getting lost. He's very sorry it happened. One thing he does say is that everyone "was very nice to me."

His adventure is over, now. But it will probably be a long time before Ramon Jaime, the Cuban refugee who called over open waters in freedom in the United States — plays follow the leader again.

Rural Bloc Calls Off Filibuster

TALLAHASSEE — Gov. Haydon Burns issued a press release today calling the Legislature into a second special session at noon Friday for reappointment. Just a session later, the House cut off a small county filibuster — and resumed to passage a 35-Senator, 100-representative plan.

Governor Burns issued the call after talking in legislative leaders and determining there was no chance for both Burns to pass an acceptable bill by midnight re-appointment session.

With the session expiring at midnight, rural House members lined up solidly to talk as long as possible, knowing that even an hour's delay can prevent final action.

To start off the talkathon, Rep. Arch Thomas of Bradford proposed an amendment to the 35-senator, 100-representative bill that would up the house to 124 members but with fractional voting so that the vote of big county members would count more than that of a rural legislator.

While the House was jockeying with this bill, the Senate proposed a similar bill that had to be interrupted shortly after it started for a special ceremony to honor Mrs. Marjorie McWhorter Ford, the coral hermit, an honorary citizen of Florida.

Before the Senate convened, big county forces, which earlier this week seemed to possess a 50-senator bill, expected to be interrupted by the U. S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" order, huddled behind closed doors to plot strategy for the final hour.

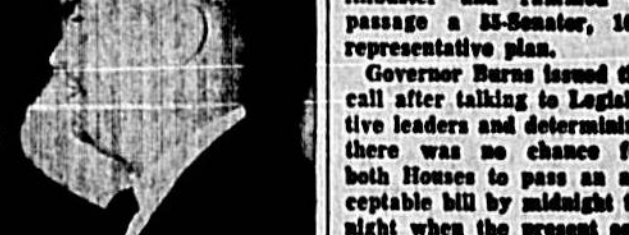

They'd like to find some way to get the required 30 votes to get the 50-100 plan for Senate floor action without committee assignment if it should clear the House. But at this point, leaders could count only 27 or 28 votes.
