 However, the door is still open for the United States government through its ambassadors at Tokyo and Shanghai to talk over the Chinese situation with Japan.
 More important than the Japanese victory to the United States and other powers represented here was a declaration by Japanese Ambassador Lt. Gen. Iwane Matsu that Japan now intends to enforce her will in the Anglo-American and other areas of the city as well as in the regions she has conquered.
 The general told newspapermen in effect that Japan now expects the powers to recognize her victory and to grant her full cooperation in the suppression of the anti-Japanese movement among the Chinese.
 His attitude raised a grave problem for Britain, France and the United States.
 Scores of known anti-Japanese leaders still are in refuge in the foreign areas and the powers faced the possibility that the Japanese may invade their territory to seize these Chinese.
 In addition there were the questions of what the powers could do in event the Japanese commander should carry out his veiled threats to censor mails and telegraphic communications, control the Chinese maritime customs—part of the receipts of which must pay interest on China's foreign loans—transport military supplies through the foreign areas of the city, and generally treat all Shanghai as an un-Japanese control.

Legion Drum And Bugle Corps Is Tavares Feature

 Also on the program was the dedication of the new hut for the Tavares Post of the American Legion by Major Paul Crank of Orlando, who declared the new structure should be dedicated to adequate national defense as a means to peace.
 The parade in which the Son's of the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps were to take part was cut short because of the rain. Mr. Moro stated, although a short performance was staged by the Corps at the Tavares School.
 The feature of the corps' activities were taps sounded at 11:00 o'clock. During this performance, four members of the Sanford group sounded taps from the stage of the Tavares School and an echo was given by four more members in the corridor.
 This ceremony was termed most impressive by Karl Lehmann, secretary of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce, who invited the boys to play several selections from the stage after which the group was highly commended by the Lake County chamber official.
 The fatal accident which marred yesterday's celebration occurred shortly before noon at the intersection adjoining the Union Congregational Church in Tavares.
 According to witnesses, a truck, loaded with negro orange pickers, was going west on the trunk high-

Morgan Leads Fed Eleven To 14-6 Victory

 In the game in play, Bolles pulled a trick play immediately following the kickoff that fooled Sanford's opportunity to shut out the Cadets as Knuckles received a pass from Colee on his 44 yard and raced to the Sanford eight yard line before being stopped. Colee again passed to Knuckles for five yards and Knuckles received a third and touchdown pass from Colee for six points but the attempt for the extra point was no good.
 Spoiling the game intensively last night was the steady stream of fumbles by every back that ran with the ball as the grass was wet and also the ball. The two teams did meet with their passing attacks considering the wet ball and the play of Morgan in Sanford's backfield and Green for the Cadets was the outstanding feature of the game.

Local Red Cross Starts Campaign For New Members

 During the past few days the Red Cross has been holding a drive for new members. The work is being divided into two classes—civilian and veteran relief. Under the head of civilian relief there are such cases as money given for nursing care; shoes and socks for a transient; groceries for an expectant mother and funds for a special diet for a mother and child. Labor and material were given for re-roofing a house and clothes for a family in Lake Mary whose house burned completely. In another case, a truss was given a man in order that he might work and earn a living for himself and his family. Transportation was supplied in several instances to needy families. Medical care for a patient with uremic poisoning, milk donated for a T. B. patient, part payment towards high temperature treatment for arthritis—these are all cases that are being handled by the Red Cross.
 The money you gave at Roll Call period last year. The expenditure for this civilian relief came to a total of $157.00.
 "As for veteran relief, such instances as transportation to the Veterans Hospitals at Lake City and Bay Pines; groceries bought for a family whose father was in the hospital; groceries given to a family who was unable to purchase them due to unemployment; and two months' rent paid for a family until they received their bonus money. These are all typical cases of financial assistance, and amounted to $54.00.
 "If you count in 300,000 and cents what the Red Cross has done for the unfortunate of Seminole County, the total will be very close to $200.00 for the period from Nov. 1, 1936, to Nov. 1, 1937. If, however, you count in terms of encouragement, hope and friendship what this money has accomplished, the amount would be many times two hundred dollars. What a privilege it is for each individual to have a part in not only helping people in distressing circumstances in other parts of our county, but to be able to extend a hand of fellowship and brotherly love to our immediate neighbors."

Freighter Is Sunk In Storm With 29 Men

Six Sailors Picked Up In Life Boat Off Cape Hatteras; One Is Missing

8 With Lifebelts Flounder In Sea

Fourteen More Drift In Open Boat As Coast Guard Hunts

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Six seamen in a small, storm tossed lifeboat were rescued off Cape Hatteras five hours after the Greek freighter Tzemny Chandris, loaded with scrap iron, sank suddenly before dawn in a rainy, driving southeast gale.

Of the remaining 22 members of the crew, eight were lifebelts were foundering in the high seas and 16 were somewhere on the stormy Diamond Shoals in another lifeboat, according to radio messages and Mashey dispatches received by the Coast Guard.

One crew member apparently was unaccounted for. There were no passengers. Six men, the first rescued, were picked up by the C. D. Mallory tanker Swiftsure, commanded by Captain A. C. Allen.

The Swiftsure and the Coast Guard cutter Sebago, which had been dispatched from Norfolk when the freighter's SOS was picked up, continued to search for survivors. The Tzemny Chandris was making her first trip across the Atlantic from Moravia, N. C. to Rotterdam, Holland.

Mrs. Caroline Helts Dies In Orlando

Mrs. Caroline Helts, formerly of Sanford, died in Orlando Thursday at 9:30 P.M. after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Helts, who was 82 years of age at the time of her death, was born in Bavaria, Nov. 20, 1855. Two years later she immigrated to America with her parents who settled in Ohio.

For 15 years, Mrs. Helts resided in Sanford and was affiliated with the First Baptist Church here.

She is survived by a brother, John Weber, of Pittsburg, Pa., and three sons: Dr. John J. Helts of Orlando, Dr. Albert W. Helts of Sanford and Ernest O. Helts also of Pittsburg.

Funeral services will be held in the Carey Hand Funeral Home in Orlando Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

Advertise Old Goods And Help Business

The exchange of commodities is what is commonly known as business. When this exchange is rapid, business is said to be good; when it is slow, business is bad. One of the greatest handicaps to an exchange of goods is the difficulty of disposing of used goods.

The automobile dealer can't sell many new cars unless he finds a buyer for the customer's old car; a man in a hurry for a new radio or a new refrigerator can hardly be satisfied unless some disposition can be made of the old ones; a woman who would like to buy a new gun hat would like to get rid of the old one, and so on.

The fact could be added to this, that it is not so easy for people to realize that through a more rapid exchange of used goods they will follow a quicker path to new products. Both the individual and the merchant stand to gain.

There are many ways to speed up the exchange of used goods and thereby making the country more prosperous. It is to advertise the old goods in a newspaper or in the classified advertisements of the Sanford Herald. A large use of this medium will result in more prosperity for all.

School Students Give Program On Education Week

An "Education Week" program was presented in the auditorium of the Seminole High School yesterday morning by the students of the institution who saw and participated in the longest chapel program in the history of the school.

Opening the program was a selection played by the Seminole High orchestra under the direction of professor T. M. Dollison. The Seminole High Bugle Corps gave the flag presentation and the scripture and prayer was led by Dr. E. D. Browne of the First Presbyterian Church.

Professor G. E. McKay, principal of the school, explained the aims and purposes of the program and invited the many visitors and parents present to remain and inspect the various departments throughout the remaining classes of the day. He also introduced Professor T. W. Lawton who gave an address on "The Cost of Education."

A selection was played by the orchestra and a number of songs were sung by the Girls Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. W. R. McCracken, and by the Boys Glee Club.

Miss Elizabeth Alken, Girls athletic instructor, gave a short address on the monthly school edition, "The Celery Feed" which is published by the Girls H.F.Y. Miss Lillian Adams, editor, also told of the aims and accomplishments of the newspaper and what is being planned for the coming semester.

In the Vocational Department, Alex. S. Johnson presented the Future Farmer String Band and also delivered a short address presenting the agriculture program for the remaining portion of the year.

In the Home Economics Department, Mrs. Mary Stone told of the work done in that department and one of the classes presented a fashion review and also a review contrasting the dress of the past years until the present time.

Mrs. May B. Maxwell, instructor in the Commercial Department of the school, the largest department in the institution, gave a short address concerning the progress of the Commercial Classes so far this year and about the various subjects that are being studied by the students. She also told the body of the requirements of a student to receive a special Commercial Department Diploma at graduation.

In the Library reading of the school, Miss Tupper Talbot addressed the student body and presented an "Library Week" and presented an account of the

Bitter Drive By Loyalists Is Undertaken

Government Aviators Raid Insurgent Supply Bases, Kill 100 At Pamplona

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Spanish government forces opened an artillery drive today along the entire Aragon front while supporting war planes raided insurgent supply centers, all in an effort to delay the prospective insurgent push into Catalonia.

Cannons blasted at insurgent fortifications while aviators bombed Teruel, Calatayud, Mallos de Aragon and Pamplona, war bulletins reported. Insurgent headquarters said more than 100 persons were killed at Pamplona.

The massing of rebels at Zaragoza and rectification of their upper Aragon lines indicated Catalonia would be their next objective. The government capital has been moved to Barcelona, capital or autonomous Catalonia.

Rebel advances acknowledged government counter-attacks on the northern sector of the more than 100-mile eastern front but said the rebels still dominated the strategic Gallego valley.

Government sources said the Catalan militia had forced the rebels to retire from several front line positions in the Sabariego sector, just south of the French frontier. A rebel attempt to encircle the Catalan spearhead was said to have failed.

Superintendent Lawton Discusses Cost Of Educating American Youth

The cost of educating youth of America was revealed in a series of comparisons by superintendent Lawton in an address at the Chapel program celebrating National Education Week in the Seminole High School yesterday.

"It cost $21 per second, $350 per minute, $225,000 per hour, $7,900,000 per day and 2 1/2 billion dollars per year to educate the youth of America," Mr. Lawton stated, adding that if this amount were exchanged for silver dollars they would form a pile 4,750 miles high and if this amount could be obtained in dollar bills placed end to end, the bundles could be wrapped around the world nearly

"Puddle Jumper" Was Attraction Here Yesterday

Many Sanfordites See Tom Herridge With His Small Trailer

Tom Herridge and his tiny "puddle jumper", were the center of attraction during his brief visit to Sanford yesterday afternoon.

Herridge, born in Tarke, Mo., is a small college town in the "show me" state, and at the present his extensive tour of this continent is nearing completion.

He left the small Missouri town about six months ago with his tiny one cylinder Auto Gilds and the small trailer which, according to Ripley's "Believe It Or Not", is the smallest on the highways.

Since that time he has made an extensive trip through the Dominion of Canada visiting nearly all the Provinces and then journeyed down the Eastern Seaboard of the United States to Florida, completing a 12,000 itinerary of the North American Continent.

Herridge cooks, eats and sleeps in his tiny trailer, the dimensions of which are 2x2x1.2. It is equipped with a tiny power plant which, according to Mr. Herridge weighs only four ounces and furnishes adequate lighting for his stove a clothes press, and a tiny quarters. It also contains a radio receiving set.

Mr. Herridge was enroute to St. Petersburg and the Keys from Cuba and possibly South America to spend the winter season.

While in Sanford, Mr. Herridge visited the Sanford Municipal Zoo and commended it very highly.

"I have seen Zoo's much larger but no better than the Sanford Zoo," Mr. Herridge stated, and commended the compactness and the variety of exhibits.

He came to Sanford hoping to sample some of the celery grown here only to find that he was too early for the celery season.

The tractor which the itinerant uses to pull his trailer, weighs only 170 pounds and he gets 120 miles to the gallon of gasoline and 500 miles to the quart of oil, he said.

China Pleads For Real Help In Ending War

British Claim Oriental War Is Not Just Concern Of The Chinese And Japanese

China Asks For Economic Check

Italy Wants To Know What World Powers Are Going To Do

BRUSSELS, Nov. 13.—(AP)—China today asked the international conference, seeking to end Far Eastern war, for material aid against Japan while the latter nation continued to have nothing to do with the conference, Norman H. Davis, the United States spokesman at the conference, expressed the hope that Japan still would be brought in men said Japan's contention that the war was the concern of Japan and China alone was unacceptable.

No one, however, answered Italy's pointed question about what the conference would do next. Italy is Japan's friend at the meeting.

Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, China's representative, urged economic and financial pressure against Japan and aid to China. "Now that the door to conciliation and mediation has been slammed in your face," he said, "the conference is reported to be considering a declaration that Japan is to blame for continuing the undeclared war on China."

Meanwhile in China, the Japanese army pushed into the interior as Chinese troops dropped back to form a ring of defense around Nanking, the capital.

Major developments in the four-month-old Chinese-Japanese war during the past 24 hours included:

1. Japan for a second time rejected the moves of the Nine Powers Conference in Brussels to mediate the conflict but indicated she might consent, later, to the good offices of the United States in arranging a direct Chinese-Japanese settlement in which no outside power would be represented.

2. If R. Hines of the United Press, after a six weeks tour of Japan, Manchukuo and North China, reported that a section of the Japanese Army favors an immediate war with Soviet Russia to remove "the communist menace in the Far East" but that the Tokyo government and a majority of the Japanese people feel the conflict can be delayed.

It was Hines' opinion that a new Russo-Japanese war during the next five years is not likely.

3. British and American authorities in the International Settlement of Shanghai were displaying a more conciliatory attitude toward the Japanese following a blunt warning by the Japanese Army commander here that he would feel free to act in the foreign-controlled areas of Shanghai as he might see fit in line with military necessity. The British ambassador in Tokyo hastily disclaimed assertions in London that British soldiers here might fire on the Japanese if they invaded the British defense area of the Settlement.

4. Authorities in the Settlement said the British Consulate (Continued on page two)

Sanford Theater News for the Coming Week

Irene Dunne Assumes New Role In Ritz Film Sunday

Irene Dunne, who unceremoniously cut loose from a career of safety roles to indulge cinematic wild whimsies and hysterical masochisms in "Theodora Goes Wild," will again be seen in an all-around role in Columbia's "The Awful Truth," which runs Sunday and Monday at the Ritz Theater. Cary Grant this time serves as Irene Dunne's screen cohort with such favorites in support as Ralph Bellamy, Cecil Cunningham, Alexander D'Arcy, Robert Allen, Joyce Hampton and Esther Dale.

Leo McCarey, best remembered for his "Ruggles of Red Gap," directed "The Awful Truth," which Verna Felton, author of "Mad Girl," adapted to the screen from the original stage play by Arthur Richman.

Prior to her memorable performance in "Theodora Goes Wild," which won for her an ad man's whimsical application as "the screen's Theodora sweetheart," Miss Dunne was the screen's pre-eminent dramatic star, an honor deservedly won for her portrayals in "Cimarron," "The Silver Cord," "Magnificent Obsession" and "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." During the transition from drama to comedy parts she expressed her versatility in such singing roles as "Roberta" and "Sweet Adeline."

In "The Awful Truth," Miss Dunne is seen as the prim, staid wife of Cary Grant, a boomer of sorts who simply can't get used to marriage ties. He takes an innocent vacation in the guise of a business trip and returns to find his wife has been out all night with a romantic foreign vocal teacher. The car, she explains, breaks down and they were forced to spend a night at an inn. Accidental and coincidental circumstances fill the air before Mr. and Mrs. decide to separate. In court the only bone of contention proves to be Mr. Smith, the prolific wire-hair terrier. Asta, of "The Thin Man" series, Irene wins custody of the pup but the court allows Cary to visit the dog once a month.

Affairs take their merry course

James Ellison, dashing young outdoor star, who plays the romantic male lead in the Rex Beach film, "The Barrier," which comes next Tuesday to the Ritz Theater. Leo Carrillo and Jean Parker are featured with him.

Rex Beach Is Pleas'd With "Barrier" Cast

It's seldom in this life that a creator sees his idea come to life exactly as he has visualized it, but Rex Beach, popular outdoor story author, is an outstanding exception to this rule. Some months ago, when Harry Sherman, film producer, started work on the film, "The Barrier," which opens next Tuesday at the Ritz Theater, he wired Beach to get his reaction to casting Leo

Football Stars Will Be Seen In Picture

These days, if you want to see football stars on the screen it seems that you've got to see a Paramount picture.

For Paramount has covered not only the great majority of nationally-known ex-stars of the gridiron, but also the entire first team of the University of California.

The California team is working in football sequences of "Hold 'Em Navy," which opens next Wednesday and Thursday at the Ritz Theater, with Lew Ayres, Mary Carlisle and John Howard featured in the leading roles, while Nick Lukats, John Mack Brown and John Wayne, all former heroes of the game, are playing in "Boys to the West," now in production.

Lukats was to have played a role in "Hold 'Em Navy," but the day before shooting started came down with an attack of laryngitis, and another player got the call.

Carrillo in the leading role of Polono Dorst, the lovable North Woods trapper.

Beach wired back: "I've been hoping Leo would play that role ever since I wrote the story. He is ideal. I visualized when I created a character, Congratulations! It should be his greatest part."

That made the choice unanimous. In preparing for the role, Carrillo carefully studied all the literature he could find written in the French-Canadian patois of the district, and hired a French-Canadian lumberjack to teach him the difficult dialect.

Featured with Carrillo in "The Barrier" are Jean Parker, James Ellison, Otto Kruger, Robert Barrat, Andy Clyde and Sara Haden. The picture was directed by Leo Solander.

The Pan American Union formerly was known as the International Bureau of the American Republics.

Transparent photographic film first was used in 1888.

SCRAMBLED ROM-ANTICS

The romance and marital mishaps of "Mr. and Mrs." Irene Dunne and Cary Grant provide the laughs and drama in Columbia's new comedy, "The Awful Truth," which opens Sunday at the Ritz Theater. Leo McCarey directed the film.

PROGRAMME FOR WEEK OF NOV. 14 AT THE RITZ

Sunday, Monday—It's a spreeful... of gleeful hysterics. The maddest merriest whirl since "Theodora Goes Wild." Irene Dunne, Cary Grant—"THE AWFUL TRUTH."

Tuesday—The Big Day—100 Added Attractions and Jean Parker and Leo Carrillo—"THE BARRIER."

Wednesday, Thursday—Mr. Paul Muni this year's Academy Award Winner in one of the few great pictures of all time. "THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA." Also "The Middlemarch" to glory in football and romance in "HOLD 'EM NAVY."

Friday—Lynne Overman, John Barrymore in "NIGHT CLUB SCANDAL." Also return showing "CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS."

Saturday—Play SCREENO. Zane Grey's "FORLORN RIVER." And Fay Wray and Richard Arlen in "MURDER IN GREENWICH VILLAGE."

AT THE PRINCESS

Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 20th and 21st—Peter B. Kyne's "WESTBOUND MAIL." Also "TROUBLE AT MIDNIGHT."

Arlen And Fay Wray Many Stars Feature Return Film Showing

The screen's most consistent lovers are re-united in Columbia's "Murder in Greenwich Village," showing Saturday at the Ritz Theater.

Richard Arlen and Fay Wray, who have the featured leads in the picture, fell into a romantic embrace for the first time when they were mere youngsters while cameras ground for the silent picture "Four Feathers."

Since that time Arlen and Miss Wray have been romantically paired in such famous pictures as "The Sea God," "Thunderbolt," "North of 38" and "The Lawyer's Secret."

Consequently, when the script for "Murder in Greenwich Village" called for the whispering of sweet nothings into each others' ears, Arlen and Miss Wray needed no rehearsal.

The two players had been rehearsing for years.

Supporting Arlen and Miss Wray in the film are Raymond Walburn and Wyn Cahoon. Albert Rogell directed.

Famous Scandal Depicted In Film With Paul Muni

Warner Brothers Picture Based On Life Of Noted Frenchman

One of the most notorious scandals in modern history supplies the motivation for the second great Warner Bros. picture within a year based upon the life of a famous Frenchman.

The picture is "The Life of Emile Zola," which will be at the Ritz Wednesday and Thursday and the grandstand is that surrounding the conviction and imprisonment of Captain Alfred Dreyfus on Devil's Island, on a trumped up charge that he had sold important army secrets to Germany.

Not only the great success of "The Story of Louis Pasteur," with Paul Muni in the title role, but also the powerful drama of Zola's picturesque career as a moulder of public opinion in France, influenced the studio in making this picture. Muni, who won the Academy Award for his Pasteur effort, also has the title role in "Zola."

Zola was France's first great naturalistic novelist.

His most sensational work was "L'Accuse" in which he viciously attacked everyone who had any part in the condemnation and imprisonment of Dreyfus.

He had become convinced of the officer's innocence, and with characteristic vigor attacked the powerful military hierarchy with all the strength at his command. "L'Accuse" was deliberately written to provoke a libel suit.

Joseph Schildkraut, boyhood friend of Muni in Vienna, has the role of Dreyfus.

There are many noted players in the cast, in addition to Muni and Schildkraut.

Eddie Cantor plans to make only one picture a year.

Meet On Celery Marketing Pact To Be On Monday

Growers To Meet In Court House To Select Committee

Nominations for the grower members of the Celery Control Committee of the celery marketing agreement which goes into effect tomorrow, will be selected in the Sanford district at a meeting in the Court House Monday night, and for the Oviedo district, Tuesday night in the Oviedo High School, according to word received from County Agent C. R. Dawson, who is attending the meeting for County Agents in Gainesville at the present time.

The first session is slated for Nov. 15 at Sanford. Others will be held in Oviedo next Tuesday, Bradenton Wednesday and Sarasota Thursday.

D. E. Timmons of the extension service and H. B. Davis of the agricultural adjustment administration will come here to conduct the meetings, assisted by county agents.

The Celery Control Committee, Mr. Dawson pointed out, will be composed of eight grower members and eight shipper members and it will be their duty to keep in close contact with the operation of the celery industry and to advise Washington officials and also to administer orders approved by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A.

Wallace. Periods of proration and other control methods are approved by the Secretary of Agriculture through their proposals and then only when deemed to be the best interests of both consumers and growers.

Nominations for grower members will be received from the floor at the meeting and only the names of actual producers will be considered. Mr. Dawson pointed out, adding that these nominations will be sent to the Agriculture Secretary for appointments.

The shipper members of the Committee will be chosen by the shippers at other meetings.

Since action taken at these meetings will affect the entire celery industry in this state, Mr. Dawson urged that all growers in this vicinity be present to select the proper representatives from the two districts in this county.

The Marketing Agreement was signed by the Secretary Wallace after more than 66 2-3 per cent of the growers voted favorably in a grower referendum and over 81 per cent of the shippers signed the agreement.

Those connected with the industry hope the agreement will tend to stabilize prices during the peak of the season by regulating shipments in Interstate Commerce through declaring proration periods.

John Donge, although Dean of St. Paul's, wrote some of the most sensitive love poems in the English language.

Peace Parley Hits At Japan In New Action

Declaration At Brussels Summit a Rizes Oriental War And Lays Blame On Japs

Italian Delegate Alone Votes "No"

"Hindenburg Line" In China Endangered By Drive On Soochow

BRUSSELS, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A declaration summarizing the Far Eastern conflict and criticizing Japan was adopted today by the Brussels conference with Italy voting "no" and the three Scandinavian countries abstaining.

The Italian delegate Count Luigi Aldrovandi-Marescotti said he must vote against the summary because Italy believed it presages a course which can lead only to complications.

The conference voted against sending a copy of declaration to the Japanese government, then adjourned until Nov. 22. The declaration was prepared by the United States, British and French delegates.

Meanwhile Shanghai reported that Japanese forces were endangering China's whole "Hindenburg line" defenses today in a drive on Soochow. The offensive westward from Shanghai, Japanese officers said, was the opening of the campaign against Nanking, China's capital 125 to 140 miles west of the city.

Advice from Nanking said Soochow was decimated by more than 700 Japanese bombs dropped on it within the past 80 hours.

The central government was known to be resolved to defend Nanking. Knowledge of that determination and of Soochow's fate hastened a heavy civilian exodus from Nanking by the river canal and road. Government officials remained, however.

In North China swift Japanese columns were reported within 15 miles of the Tsinan capital of the wealthy Shantung province.

Removal Of Tax Injustice Is Demanded

Roosevelt Asks For Changes "To Encourage Productive Enterprise" In U. S.

Special Congress Session Convenes

Early Action On Labor, Farm, And Similar Items Asked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—(AP)—President Roosevelt recommended the removal of tax injustices "to encourage productive enterprise" today in submitting a four-point legislative program to Congress.

In his message opening this special session which was read to the Senate and House by clerks, the President asked "early action" on legislation on farm crop control, labor, wages and hours, reorganization of the executive branch of government and planning of natural resources.

"But of at least equal importance to members were these remarks on taxes, 'unjust provisions should be removed provided such removal does not create new injustices. Nor can we at this time accept a revision of our tax laws which involves a reduction in the aggregate revenues or an increase in the aggregate tax burdens of those least able to bear them.'

"We should give special consideration to lightening the inevitable burdens on the enterprise of the small business men of the nation," the President stated. "In this way we may also find assistance in our search for a more effective method of checking the growing concentration of economic control and resultant monopolistic practices which persist today in spite of anti-trust statutes. A further search for additional methods to meet this threat to free competitive enterprise is called for at this time."
