If this story about the team out front come July 4 winning the pennant is just the Chicago White Sox, it's just about here. Such a rapid demise, too. A week ago the Chixos were in close contention. Today even the Yankees have overtaken them and the American League entry from the Windy City stands third—just three games behind the Indians from Cleveland.

Over the weekend the Cleveland club played havoc with the Sox, sweeping a four-game series. It's been 30 years since Cleveland has been able to claim the American League championship and if the Indians have their way about it they probably be long before it they do it again. It is worthwhile to mention, though, that Cleveland stands 1½ wins before Casey Stengel unleashed the magic of pennant wins which have kept the flag in Yankee Stadium for the past five years.

Lou Boudreau guided the Indians to the 1946 World Series title. The Cleveland manager is the champion title in six years against Brooklyn. In fact, Lou had himself chosen the most valuable player in the league as a shortstop playing manager.

But this Chicago situation is disastrous for several reasons. First off, anybody who didn't pick the Yankees to repeat their pennant control another year was looked at in a funny light before the season opened. And if you went far enough out on a limb to expect Chicago to win the title, you were almost blinding yourself, maybe binding, like a strait-jacket. But this, hunt-and-peck typist put the finger on Chicago.

And though the season isn't nearly over, the seven-game lead is still there to make a bet, particularly when back in March you allotted a couple of backs to a gentleman who said they didn't have a chance—the Yankees would win again. So you say, "Okay, the team that is ahead the fourth of July, Chicago. Now, Yankees wins the smacks." And the joyful guy that he is, says "Okay, you're on."

Or it's off?

So, about this time a week ago—it's call it last Tuesday—you are on your last chance to see the Sox, one game and a half behind Cleveland, while New York trumps you the same distance. "Ho, ho," you say. "You've got it boxed. The Yanks can't possibly overtake your beloved White Sox by Sunday, and you start counting the days until you can beat them with the green you win from the gentleman. And you think no more about it until you hear the crash when the Sox run headlong into the war-painted Indians from Cleveland.

But it's a long time from July through September, and though the recent catastrophe hasn't helped their chances a bit, don't sell the Chicago boys short.

After all, 36 years is a long time.

Nation's Traffic Deaths Running Under Estimate; 18 Dead In State

Safety Council Admires Drivers For Good Sense

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's traffic deaths over the long Fourth of July weekend today appeared running around 100 below the estimates of safety experts.

The death toll in automobile accidents from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday was 333. This figure compared to the National Safety Council's estimate of 430 traffic fatalities for the 18-hour period.

Later reports may boost the death toll but the council's estimate admiration for the "good sense" demonstrated by the nation's tourists during the holiday weekend.

"Congratulation to the drivers on a good job," said Ned H. Dubroff, council president. Drownings and miscellaneous accidents boosted the country's violent death toll to nearly 600.

The Associated Press survey showed 184 persons drowned and 78 lost their lives in a variety of accidents.

Fireworks were blamed for the deaths of three youngsters compared to only one death from fire works during last year's two-day July 4 holiday and two in 1952.

Killed were Ward Hayward, 12, Harvey Hill, 11, David Johnson, 13, of Augusta, Maine, and Walter Keest, 15, Ebenburg, Pa.

The traffic deaths compared to the record July 4 three-day traffic toll of 365 in 1952 and to 262 in last year's two-day holiday.

A survey over a comparable nonholiday weekend, from 6 p.m. Friday, June 18, to midnight Monday, June 21, showed a total of 430 violent deaths, including 225 traffic, 135 drownings, and 70 from miscellaneous causes.

Building Permits Upped By Three

Three building permits were issued at the City Hall today bringing the total to approximately 160, according to Feb. 10.

Alexander P. Kudrylov, second secretary of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations, who was asked to leave on Feb. 3 and who departed Feb. 10.

Lev Col. Leonid E. Pavnev, assistant air attaché, Soviet Embassy, ordered on May 9 to leave this country. He left June 6.

Service Station Operator Arrested

County sheriff's deputies this morning arrested a Sanford man on charges of selling baled liquor without Federal, State or City license.

Willie Dubose, 33, William Clark Court was arrested at his place of business, a gas station on Cypress Ave. by Deputies O. G. Owen and M. R. McClelland.

According to the sheriff's report, the prisoner was also selling cigarettes with proper license. He was released under a bond of $150.

Surgeon Has Neck Fracture From Murder Night Melee

CLEVELAND — The brother of Dr. Samuel R. Sheppard said today the osteopath suffered a broken neck and is not yet "ready for questioning" on the slaying of the latter's comely wife.

Dr. Stephen Sheppard, acting as his brother's physician, said X-rays had shown a slight fracture of the vertebrae at the base of his mother's neck and he would have to wear a brace for six to eight weeks.

The injured man told police he was hurt in a fight with the slayer of his wife, 21-year-old Marilyn Maxwell, whose pajama-clad body was found early Sunday in her bed in suburban Bay Village.

Her face was smashed by a blow from a heavy—but still un-named—weapon.

No Injuries Over Weekend In This Area

Not a single accident of any consequence occurred in Seminole County over the Fourth of July holiday weekend, according to police reports.

The area did not contribute a bit to the toll of deaths and injuries resulting from traffic accidents in Florida and over the rest of the nation.

Trooper R. D. Harrison of the Florida Highway Patrol pulled several drivers who had been drinking off the road before they did any harm, he said, while the County sheriff's office commented on the drop in holiday drunk driving. Capt. Charles Williams' remark that absence of accidents is a "fine record."

Florida counted 18 dead in the long Fourth of July weekend.

Automobile accidents killed 11 while 5 drowned and 2 died of heart attacks while fishing or swimming.

Claude Moore, 4, on a holiday fishing trip with his parents and grandmother, drowned Monday in the Miami River Canal 20 miles northeast of Miami.

Vermon Palmer, Jr., 2, was crushed beneath the wheels of a car while playing near his home in Montecello, near Gainesville. The car did not stop and Sheriff Frank Sexton said an abandoned automobile found later in East Gainesville was believed involved.

Edward Lee Gill, 38, hotel door man, and Kenneth L. Anthony, 32, were killed when their car ran off the roadway on MacArthur Causeway between Miami and Miami Beach.

There were Monday accidents adding to 18 fatalities recorded Saturday and Sunday in all sections of the state.

Automobile deaths included R. W. Wiles and his daughter, Jo, at Panama City; Pfc. Francis E. Bitner, 23, a Marine at Jacksonville; Tony Massari, at Tampa; Joyce Dunnigan, 17, near Crestview; Mrs. Rose Mae Mayo, 21, of Samoset; Mrs. Sarah Jane J. Hendley, 46, near Jacksonville; Cordes B. Brindell, 23, of Orlando; a Navy man killed near Kissimmee; and Martha Lee Floyd, 24, Tampa, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy King of Miami drowned near Marathon when they tried to rescue their daughter Pamela, 5, who was being swept out to sea in an inner tube. The child was saved.

Katherine Riddle, 2, died in Lake Clinton near Bartow, and Edward Brady, an airman in the Palm Beach Air Force Base, drowned at Negro beach near Jupiter.

Richard L. Criley of Chicago and Lute W. Wilson of Wellesley, Mass., refused to say whether they were Communists when they served in the information division, or before or afterward.

Wilson did say, however, that he had not engaged in espionage, that he refused to say whether he had engaged in subversive activity.

Criley became a captain, while Wilson was a lieutenant colonel.

J. Kenneth Kerby, Baltimore insurance man who served in the counter intelligence corps, testified at Fort Pickett, Va.

Ralph de Toledo, an associate editor of Newsweek magazine, sold a Russian propagandist was among the lecturers at an Information and Education division course at Fort Meade.

A metal awning will be installed at the 120th Street hardware store located on Sanford Ave., between Second and Third Sts.

The metal awning will replace one of wood presently being used, according to the records. Cost of the awning and its erection was estimated at $100 by the Evans Roofing Co., which holds the contract.

He Smith received a permit to rebuild and enlarge the porch of his home located at 801 Elm St. Construction estimates were placed at $100. He will do the work himself.

News Photographer In Crash Landing

TULSA, Okla. — The Tulsa World didn't get a picture of a Fourth of July traffic jam yesterday—it got a picture of a plane crash instead.

The World said it sent commercial photographer Howard Hopkins and his pilot to film a traffic jam. The plane ran out of gas and it crashed at the intersection of U.S. 66 and State High way 23.

Hopkins and the pilot both walked away from the crash unharmed. The big traffic jam the photographer had been looking for all day formed around the crashed plane.

But Hopkins found, to his horror, he had used his last film taking pictures of the crash.

Soviet Plans Tomb For Its Heroes

MOSCOW — The Soviet Union has summoned her architects to match their talents designing a great tomb for the embalmed bodies of Lenin, Stalin and other Communist heroes.

The winning design will be used to build the "pantheon" which the government announced it was planning to do after health checks.

The monument, to be built in the Lenin Hills outside Moscow, will house the remains of the Soviet leaders and other Communist heroes now buried in or beside the Kremlin wall. They include two Americans—author John Reed and radical labor union leader William D. Big Bill Haywood.

CIO ADVISES ACTION

WASHINGTON — Wage increases and income tax cuts, the CIO says are what's needed to give a lift "badly needed for a sagging economy."

CIO Commerce Department figures show the nation's wage and salary income dropped from $35 billion dollars in August to $30 billion dollars in April. The CIO publication Economic Outlook said yesterday the best way to halt this "recession" is to put more money in the hands of the consumer.

Deputy Sheriff Carl A. Rossbach said the injured doctor has been able to give only a hazy description of the events the night of the slaying.

Dr. Samuel R. Gerber, Cuyahoga county coroner, said a stain on the trousers worn by the slain woman's husband would be examined to determine if it came from blood.

A white T-shirt the doctor was wearing on the night of the killing is being held for examination.

The physician previously told investigators that he thought he heard his wife scream while he dozed on a downstairs couch.

He said he started up the stairs and was slugged on the neck in the beginning of a battle which carried him the yard and ended with his lying dazed on the beach.

His face was smashed by a blow from a heavy—but still un-named—weapon.

ROBBERY REPEATED

BALTIMORE — Pharmacist David Karlin reported to police just exactly the same thing happened to him last night as last Friday:

A gunman walked into his drugstore and robbed him of $15. More over, the bandit was the same man—a Negro about 24 years old, dressed in a blue sports shirt and brown pants.

According to the sheriff's report, the prisoner was also selling cigarettes with proper license. He was released under a bond of $150.

Guatemala Turns Back On Communist World

Leaders Say Will Join ODECA

GUATEMALA (UPI) — Guatemala's new government has turned its back on the Communist world in a bid to get turned its back on the Comonwealth of Nations with its Western Hemisphere neighbors.

Eugenio Montez and Carlos Castillo Armas, top colonels in the five-man junta, told a news conference yesterday their administration would refuse the political support of the United States.

Economic Highlights

"We must have a strong and favorable majority in Congress if we are to complete the job we began together in Abilene two years ago," wrote the President, in a letter to the national citizens for Eisenhower congressional committee. He also observed that "the challenge is tremendous."

That the Republican leadership is very deeply concerned with the coming elections goes without saying. Their control of Congress is tenuous to an extreme. And, while the President personally won with ease in 1952, that was not the case for the Republicans candidates as a group.

An exhaustive study has been made of the '48 and '52 elections by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan, and its findings are described in the June 4 issue of U. S. News & World Report. The big point it makes is that Mr. Eisenhower won because great numbers of registered Democrats voted for him. In other words, if the Democrats who voted for Mr. Truman four years before had stuck with the party, Mr. Stevenson would now be occupying the White House.

Party allegiance was a small factor in '52—only eight per cent of the voters queried gave it as a reason for their choice. The important elements were such matters as domestic issues, foreign policy, the candidate's personality, and the "time for a change" feeling.

With a few exceptions, the Eisenhower swing strongly affected all the affiliations of voters. Here are some of the examples cited by the survey (the difference between these percentages and 100 per cent is principally accounted for by non-voters): In 1948, young people voted 32 per cent Democratic and 19 per cent Republican; in '52 it went 31 per cent and 37 per cent respectively. In '48 older people voted 27 per cent Democratic and 31 per cent Republican; in '52 the division was 27 per cent and 48 per cent. Where union members voted 55 per cent

Fashion Indicates Handbag Habits No Longer Secret

Time was when the inside of a lady's handbag was no one's affair but her own—except when she couldn't find something in a hurry. Now, fashion's playing a trick on everyone. You can't leave a trip without a handbag, indicating that us, and our society are shown to you're conscious of the latest fashion, but it can also tell everyone you meet that you're careless in your handbag habits.

Your handbag accessories, to be sure, should match the little black dress, purse, eyeglass, key and cigarette case, etc. There's no limit to the number of beautiful and interesting new colors available in complete sets of personal leather goods; you can find everything from button-up yellow to saffron tones.

We've seen accessories used to top off designs of the bags such as gold embossed stars on pale pink kidkin which pick up the glitter pressed into the clear plastic of a handbag. There are billfolds trimmed with tiny seashells, little rhinestones, even pearls. And for everyone, gold mesh, guinea-cock and embroidered fabrics certainly can cause comment.

Right now if you're showing off the world a fad, I do suggest billfold or crumpled package of cigarettes (with tobacco wisps lining the fold of the bags) and a jangle of keys. It's time to look at that new bag as others see it!

See to it that he gets up in the morning. No long meadow rates make up for lost sleep the night before.

Instinct on a nap during the day — some children get too tired to go to sleep. However, the man should be early in the afternoon so that there is time for vigorous exercise if possible in the evening.

Mrs. West reflected on her own life in fame and said she "breaks down everywhere because she didn't appreciate the female and male."

"You'll notice in my pictures I never went after a man than took a man from another woman," she said. "I always treated other women as I would treat the woman in the audience happily."

Housewrecking Is A Field For Women, At Least For One

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UPI)—Mrs. Bonnie Perpet, 5 feet 1, weight 120 pounds, is a house wrecker and bed.

Now comes the rub. You put him to bed. Make sure he has had his drink and gone to the bathroom. Ask if everything is arranged for the night. Then tell him once you have left the room, he can't have anything else until morning.

Tell him he is to stay in bed. Suppose he doesn't. All right, take your chair and sit it near the door of his room. The minute he shows himself at the door, pick him up quickly and put him back to bed.

Don't say one word. Don't yell, don't smile, don't talk. Be as stupid and uninteresting as you can possibly be. You'll be surprised at how best he reacts to you. Don't let him. Don't get angry, don't laugh — nothing, what he does. Put him back to bed 10 times if necessary.

If you can do it, I'll bet three nights will be enough.

Mae West Advises Marilyn To Keep Women Happy, Too

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Mae West has some advice for Marilyn Monroe you'd better win over the ladies' babe.

Mae West says a lot of women of sex is a logical party to band out advice. She made millions by mastering sly comments. She can still get a top salary, she says, as she still when she plays Las Vegas, Sahara July 26.

I won an audience in her sixth floor apartment near the heart of Hollywood. The living room was an unbelievably garish. It was all done in white with Louis XIV furniture trimmed in gold. On one wall was a nude painting of Miss West, for whom she says she has refuted a $100,000. The piano was her mother's, like most in her marble. But then the statue were tintypes of her parents.

By PETE OSBORNE

The author of the statement has probably long since been forgotten, but the "new" words ever worth repeating: "Gone are the days when you never win." And the Cardinals last night proved themselves to be winners; they never quit, though they lost.

When a team trails by five runs coming to bat for the last time, there is a tendency for the spectators, less than they have been to start yelling out and saving any trifling delay in getting home. Generally, the batboy starts putting the equipment away, those in the press box make ready to leave and an eagle of despair descends upon the players themselves. Not so with the Cards.

Now, though, they didn't win, but they never quit trying last night. Probably they should have won, for by rights they are a superior ball club. Nevertheless, the odds were overwhelming. Still, they never quit, and that's something very hard to match at a wild card game, even though improbable.

Along the same line it is well to mention the indomitable Buddy Lake. Lake last night pinch hit in the final frame because he has never quit trying; they're still afraid of the Florida State. Still, Lake had the nerve to go through to intentionally walk him rather than chance what he might do should he have the opportunity to hit.

Probably the author of the quoted expression had in mind when he made the statement that "you never quit, not even when there's hardly any chance of winning." Maybe that's what he meant. And remember the night the Cardinals came from behind and scored nine runs in the last inning to push the game to 11 frames? A decision could be affected."

It's a fact: your chances don't quit, nor do your quarters ever win.

Big Leaguers
Hit 35 Homers
On 4th Of July

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Big league ballplayers celebrated Independence Day with a home run barrage that rocked eight baseball stadiums from coast to coast and sent the hard-pressed, defenseless pitchers running to cover.

The day of doubleheaders resulted with 35 home run blasts, only five short of the major league record for most homers in one day. A total of 315 hits were peppered about the parks and 75 pitchers were used. That's an average of about 30 hits and more than 4% pitchers a game.

Celebration: Bill Glynn was the merriest celebrant. The normally light-hitting first baseman in an all-star platoon three hours earlier had 13 opening victories over Detroit and drove in eight runs. Ray Boone and Wayne Belardi homered for Detroit. Glynn's hat, along with the rest of the Indians, was silenced in the second game, which went to Detroit 4-0 in 11 innings.

Three others—the New York Yankees' Irvin Noren, Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews and the Chicago Cubs' Randy Jackson—walloped two homers in one game. Dusty Rhodes of the New York Giants and Leo Durocher homered for Detroit. Glynn's hat, along with the rest of the Indians, was silenced in the second game, which went to Detroit 4-0 in 11 innings.

Only nine of the 32 starting pitchers won the distance with four of them turning in shutouts. The flashiest performance was exhibited by George Zuverink of the Tigers. A member of the Indians in 1951, Zuverink blanked his former team with three hits and was rewarded with a victory when Tiger shutout Harry Koenig homered off rookie Don Mossi to break up the game.

The split, which snapped an eight-game winning streak for the Indians, cost them a full game to the Yankees and tripped their first-place American League lead to 14 games.

Ayulo Wins Darlington; One Killed

DARLINGTON, S.C. (UPI)—A 100-degree heat wave killed Manuel Ayulo, 16, Naples, Calif., race track veteran, to victory here yesterday in the third Darlington Raceway Big Car event that was marred by a fatal accident.

Ayulo was racing the field at 12:30 p.m. when Dale Scott, tandem, Calif., turned over against the infield fence and caused the caution flag to be run for 15 laps, dropping the final speed to 121 m.p.h.

Scott, taken to a Florence hospital, died. He suffered a broken neck and other injuries. His driver, Ernie McCullough, got over the outside rail earlier in the 200-mile grind, but was not hurt seriously. Ayulo got $3,750-plus of the $15,000-plus purse and jumped front fifth to fifth in AAA National Championship point standing at 560.

Joan Foster, Bride

By Alice Ross Colver

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

JOAN and Todd were in Washington again. It was the second week in June and Todd was already taking his training course. In a month or two he would begin on his regular work in the same office with Tom.

Behind the young Hunters lay bewitching days of activity and unforgettable good luck, for they were to take a break apart.

Pam and Tom had moved out into the country, to their small farm.

"When things happen to us they certainly happen fast!" Joan said.

Todd nodded across the table where they were eating breakfast at their large kitchen.

"Our luck has turned, I guess," he said, his gray eyes meeting hers with that warm and joyful look that she threw down at him. "I'm not going to let it get to my feet." Dolly! I've got to rush, or I'll miss my bus!" He stopped beside her long enough to drop a kiss on her hair. "Dolly, by, honey. Take care of both of you, won't you?"

"Don't worry!"

Contentment filled her. Their life—hers and Todd's together—was beginning to take shape and to hold a promise of yielding them the things they wanted.

The sun was still up, though, her mind going back over time.

Not quite a year since she had been married. Eleven months to be exact. Eleven months crowded with adjustments, anxieties, sickness, disappointments and changes.

Eleven months of groping, of wishful thinking, of fears, of uncertainties, yet of hopes, too. Always of hopes. But now, the fears, the painful thinking and uncertainties had faded and home was being fulfilled. Now, for the first time she felt as if she and Todd were really going to put down roots.

Looking back, the weeks seemed to have sped by.

Indeed, the year's experience was not just a brief clarified Todd's thinking for him. It had pointed him way clearly to the path he was on now, where, she was sure, he would talk without hesitating, giving, giving. She remembered what her mother had said on this subject.

Joan had asked her, after this summons came from Washington, whether she felt Todd was making a mistake to give up his idea of teaching when, for so long, he had wanted it.

"No," her mother had replied without a moment's hesitation. "It never could see Todd as a teacher unless that appears to be his best deal."

Her mother had added,

"People—except as he can link them up to the pictures and place that interest him. No, he wasn't meant to be a teacher. He doesn't love people enough."

"But—he's good with them!"

Her mother had surprised answer.

"Our luck has turned, I guess," he said, his gray eyes meeting hers with that warm and joyful look that she threw down at him.

Then he threw down his hands and began to laugh. "I'm not going to let it get to my feet." Dolly! I've got to rush, or I'll miss my bus!" He stopped beside her long enough to drop a kiss on her hair. "Dolly, by, honey. Take care of both of you, won't you?"

Notice To Owners Of Dogs

As required by law, all dogs in the City of Sanford, Florida must be vaccinated against rabies, and the vaccination tag continually worn by dogs on collar or harness for the following year.

In order to accommodate dog owners, Dr. Raymond Bassa, Veterinarian, will be at the rear of the City Hall July 7 to vaccinate dogs from 2 to 4 P.M.

After July 15 all dogs found without a tag certifying they have been vaccinated for rabies for year of 1964 will be subject to being picked up by the Police and killed.

City license tags for the year 1964 are now available and owners must obtain tags prior to July 15 from the City Tax Collector, City Hall. Cost of License Tag 25¢. Rabies vaccination $2.00.

City Manager.

Oppenheimer Talks

PRINCETON, N. J., July 3 (UPI)—In one sense, Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, returning from the Ivory Tower, where he was staying those 12 years ago to direct the making of history's first atomic bomb.

Stripped of access to his country's secrets, the famed physicist makes it clear he will now devote himself again to the relatively cloistered life of abstract science.

But in another sense, the government between him and classified data impeded his work. He said he thought it would be impeded "very little" but added "You never know; you can't judge the importance of facts you don't know."

Although he appeared under great strain, several times in the interview he cracked his sense of humor. He said he has slept "pretty well" and has lost only a "little weight."

At one point, he pulled out a copy of his latest book, "Science and the Common Understanding," and observed, with a smile, that it came out the same day the terrorist attack on the U.S. Embassy in London.

He ever since has been writing newspaper articles.

Oppenheimer grins and says the question reminded him of a young physicist friend who when asked about his secret classification because of "fundamental defects of character" was interviewed in his office where he was writing his latest book.

Oppenheimer's friend, who had held the information until validly obtained, was shocked to learn that the man was the most satisfactory and non-controversial of any so far.

The discovery was made by Dr. Robert Oppenheimer's agent, Dr. Charles C. Abbot, faculty dean at Southern Methodist University.

The age was determined by comparing fluorine content of the skull.

There have been several other reports of human remains found in the new world starting back to the end of the glacial period but archaeologists who worked on this one consider the evidence here to be the most satisfactory and non-controversial.

The find coincides with discovery that there was a previously unrecognized period of extreme desert conditions in what is now the American Southwest that far overshadowed dryness of the region in modern times. That drought, in fact, may have lasted for thousands of years.

Oppenheimer's agent said the skull was found in the last few months having his character subjected to a wholesale intensive analysis by the government and every one of millions of people who could afford the price of a newspaper?

The find coincides with discovery that there was a previously unrecognized period of extreme desert conditions in what is now the American Southwest that far overshadowed dryness of the region in modern times. That drought, in fact, may have lasted for thousands of years.

Oppenheimer's agent said the skull was found in the last few months having his character subjected to a wholesale intensive analysis by the government and every one of millions of people who could afford the price of a newspaper?

Oppenheimer grins and says the question reminded him of a young physicist friend who when asked about his secret classification because of "fundamental defects of character" was interviewed in his office where he was writing his latest book.

Oppenheimer's friend, who had held the information until validly obtained, was shocked to learn that the man was the most satisfactory and non-controversial of any so far.

The discovery was made by Dr. Robert Oppenheimer's agent, Dr. Charles C. Abbot, faculty dean at Southern Methodist University.

The age was determined by comparing fluorine content of the skull.

There have been several other reports of human remains found in the new world starting back to the end of the glacial period but archaeologists who worked on this one consider the evidence here to be the most satisfactory and non-controversial.

Strolling In Sanford

Trooper R. D. Harrison today received a post card from Al Cook, prominent local Elk, mailed July 2 from Long Beach, Calif. He said, "The resort wasn't bad. Left Lakewood, N. M., east in a.m. and was in the mountains at 8,000 feet. A p.m. Forty-six miles below sea level in Imperial Valley, and in less than one hour, 3,850 feet above sea level. Have never slept under blankets ever since."

Mrs. A. H. Cook, 613 E. Third St., was a recent visitor to Sanford Hill, the home of the late Theodore Roosevelt, which was dedicated as a national shrine by President Eisenhower on June 14, 1953. The 23-room house is situated on 83 acres of land and was built by Roosevelt in 1884. It was the "Summer White House" while he was president (1901-1908).

Remember the day this column carried an appeal to anyone knowing the whereabouts of Dick Crosby, who had a letter from overseas addressed in care of Postmaster Joel S. Field? Well, Field's son, Crosby's father-in-law, was waiting for him when he arrived at work at 9 o'clock the following morning. Seems that seven people phoned to call attention to the letter to the young man's relative. The letter was forwarded to Crosby in New Mexico.

Several American Legion auxiliary members are expected to attend the Legion school of instruction at the San Juan Hotel in Orlando. Scheduled to open at 10 a.m. July 11, according to Margaret Scarfield, 6th district president, who is in charge of the class.

McCarthy Would Offer Evidence Of Reds In CIA

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says he will turn over to an arm of the Hoover Commission evidence he contends will show Communists have wormed their way into the Central Intelligence Agency.

His news yesterday from an 18-day vacation, McCarthy told newsmen, "I would be glad to supply this information about the supersecret espionage agency to the Hoover Commission 'task force' headed by retired Gen. Marshall Clark."

He insisted this was not an announcement that his Senate Investigations subcommittee was dropping its plan to conduct a probe of the agency for a probe of CIA "we are not going to forget about it situation," he said.

However, he said that "We never conduct a parallel investigation" in a field being investigated by persons he trusts. He said he has confidence in Clark, former Far East commander who is now president of the Indiana State faculty college at Charlottesville, Va.

McCarthy, during the hearing, in his dispute with Army officials, said red infiltration of the CIA was one of the worst situations confronting the United States. CIA Director Allen W. Dulles, called that false and October 1 asked McCarthy last October if any information he had about his agency, but never received a reply.

McCarthy's subcommittee started last year to inquire into some CIA operations, but Dulles blocked the investigation by refusing to allow employees testifying on grounds that some might be implicated.

McCarthy met yesterday with two members of his subcommittee, Senator Mundt (R-S.D.), and Dirksen (R-Ill.), and told newsmen later he had no immediate plans to call a meeting to consider what to do about two staff aides, center Defense secret documents.

University Of Miami Starts New Fight Against Red Tide

MIAMI (UPI)—The University of Miami Marine Laboratory today began a new fight on the red tide along Florida's West Coast.

Robert Ingles and Don de Sylva, research assistants, began their tribulations in red cards of plastic bags to be set adrift in plastic envelopes.

With the aid of these cards, they are to study ocean currents that carry the jury organisms that have killed thousands of fish.

The cards will be distributed to boaters from Fort Myers to Sarasota to be dropped at designated points on July 13.

Each card is numbered and a record will be kept of the latitude and longitude where they are placed adrift.

Boat operators will be asked to retrieve them on July 18, make latitude and longitude records and send them to the laboratory. Postage is prepaid.

De Sylva said some undoubtedly will drift ashore and asked persons finding them to fill out the questionnaires as to location, date and time found and mail them to the laboratory.

Pyle passed the request on to the Arizona Game and Fish Department, where a spokesman said shipping a Buffalo to Germany would be "too expensive."

PHOENIX (UPI)—A U.S. Army battalion in Germany wants a Buffalo for mascot. It probably won't get one, though.

In a letter to Col. Howard Pyle, soldiers with the 50th Navy Tank Battalion asked for one for Arizona's remaining platoon to go with the outfit's buffalo crest.

"It would really help morale," one soldier said.

Pyle passed the request on to the Arizona Game and Fish Department, where a spokesman said shipping a Buffalo to Germany would be "too expensive."

Revenue figures for the Sanford post office, released for the past three years, show an increase of $5,610,000 over the same period of 1953, according to Sanford Postmaster Joel S. Field.

Field quoted the total income for April, May and June to be $32,929.22, while during the same months in 1953, $27,000.

Sanford, in the local post office, this is only a natural increase due to the growth of Sanford, coupled with the added revenue of an election period," he stated.

The total for the first half of 1954 is about the same for last year, Field said.
